SHOOTING, LOOTING AND OPEN GAMING ON BOSTON STREETS FOLLOW POLICEMEN'S STRIKE

Four Regiments of the State Guard and a Machine Gun Battalion Called to Take Charge—Scolly Square Was in Complete Control of Mob Until Driven at Point of Bayonet by Mounted Cavalry—Volunteer Police Beaten up and Forced to Quit—Men Caught Looting Shot in Their Tracks—Boarding up Stores.

Special to The Standard.
Boston, Mass., Sept. 10.—Four regiments of the State Guard and a machine gun battalion were called out today and tonight the city is comparatively quiet after a night and day of looting and shooting and open gaming on the streets. For a long time today Scollay Square, in the heart of the city, was in complete control of the mob and they held their position until driven at the point of the bayonet by mounted cavalry. The troops were thrown into the sections where the greatest trouble was experienced last night. An entire regiment was sent to south Boston, where the lawlessness of last night was the worst of any place in the city.

Volunteers Roughly Handled.
This evening a man was shot in Howard street, just off Scollay Square, and he was rushed to the hospital in a dying condition. The men who volunteered for police duty were roughly handled and in many cases were practically forced to quit their positions. Arthur H. Morse, a lawyer, and a volunteer policeman, was struck in the face with a lump of coal in Scollay Square and sent to the hospital. A man caught looting a store on Huntington Avenue earlier in the day was shot and is dying at the City Hospital. The Metropolitan Park Police, a state police force that guards parks and state boulevards, were brought to this city today and, when ordered to take the place of the city policemen, struck and marched, amid cheers, to the headquarters of the strikers.

The only fear tonight is that the strike will become more general. It is understood that an effort is being made to call out the employees of the Edison Electric Company and if they go out the city will be in darkness. Action by the street car men and telephone employees is being held up to the present. No overtures have been made for a settlement and the situation so far as they are concerned is unchanged.

Stores Boarded Up.
Tonight practically every store in the city is being boarded up and all goods have been removed from the show windows as a result of last night's looting. It is estimated that goods worth at least $300,000 were destroyed and a vast property damage caused. Not until late in the morning did the rioting cease. Fire Commissioner Murphy had a conference today with a delegation of the Firemen's Union, the city firemen. They are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and may be called out. While martial law has not been declared it is believed that unless the situation continues to improve, such action will be taken. Mayor Peters has issued an appeal to the citizens to assist in restoring order. The strike of the police of this city has caused an upheaval that was not expected and business generally is feeling the effects of it.

Firemen Threaten to Strike.
Boston, Sept. 10.—A strike of the city firemen is threatened. President Daniel Loomis of the Firemen's Union said today that the firemen believed the police union should exist, and "what labor demands of us we will deliver."

Gambler's Gathers.
Boston, Sept. 10.—Gangs of gamblers, who have infested Boston since last night, were broken up at the point of the bayonet by a company of State Guardsmen tonight. There were fifteen dice games in progress with about two thousand participants and spectators when the troops arrived. Later a troop of State Guard cavalry, dashing at full speed in company with drawn sabers, cleared Scollay and Adams squares of thousands who had jammed those places since early today. Both squares had been the scenes of intermittent rioting.

Metropolitans Join Strikers.
Boston, Sept. 10.—An unidentified man was killed, a woman was shot and severely wounded, and a police officer was beaten by a mob and taken to a hospital in a serious condition in rioting in the vicinity of Scollay Square tonight.

Fifty-three members of the Metropolitan Police Force, who have been on emergency duty during the strike and who were ordered to patrol Scollay Square tonight, refused and were immediately suspended. They marched in a body to headquarters of the Policemen's Union at Fay Hall and took out applications for membership.

The Trades Union Congress Rejects Gov't Proposal

Glasgow, Sept. 10.—The resolution adopted, today, by the Trades Union Congress rejects the proposed scheme of the government as "contrary to the best interests of the nation."

Miners Declare They Are Fighting for All Organized Labor, and Will Fight Until Demands Are Fully Met.

Mr. Smillie, in advocating the passage of the resolution, declared that labor fight for the nationalization of all industries would not cease with the gaining of its demand for state ownership of the coal mines. The desired end would be achieved through "the common sense realization of the justice of our claims," Mr. Smillie continued. He said he knew the hardships that strikes caused, but there were times when it was criminal for labor leaders not to call strikes to enforce justice. The miners, he declared, were really fighting for all organized labor. The highest output was impossible, he insisted, under the present working conditions and the lack of modern machinery and equipment.

James Henry Thomas, General Secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, in seconding Mr. Smillie's motion, said the question had come to the point of a definite decision. He exhorted the delegates to be sure they saw clearly where they were going.

DEATH FOLLOWS FOOD RIOTS IN GLOGAU, SILESIA

Berlin, Sept. 10.—(By The A. P.)—Ten persons were killed and eleven wounded during food riots in Glogau, Silesia, Tuesday. Troops used machine guns and hand grenades against the rioters. The trouble started when threatening crowds gathered before the shops and protested against the dearth of food. The situation became critical and troops were called out. The crowd attacked the soldiers and one soldier was shot. Thereupon the order to fire was given and the streets were cleared by the use of machine guns, and hand grenades. The town is now quiet.

PRINCE IS CERTAINLY MAKING A HIT IN CANADA

GARDEN PARTY AT RIDEAU HALL, OTTAWA.

During the trip of the Prince of Wales in Canada one of the most interesting events was a garden party given in his honor by the Duke of Devonshire at the famous Rideau Hall, in Ottawa. Lady Rachel Cavendish and Lady Dorothy Cavendish, daughters of the Duke of Devonshire, were the most attractive young ladies at the festivities. There are whisperings that one of the young ladies is likely to be England's next Queen.

United Mine Workers in Convention Declare for Such a Political Organization—Oppose the "One Big Union" Plan.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—Resolutions favoring a national labor party, nationalization of coal mines at the earliest possible moment, and an alliance for co-operation in political and economic effort with the railway, branches, freight handlers and other transportation workers' unions have been accepted in principle by the committee on resolutions of the U. M. W. of America, and will be brought before the convention here at an early session. The proposed alliance with the railroad and the transportation workers is modeled upon the lines of the British "Triple Alliance" of miners, railroad men and transportation workers, which have been such a powerful force in industrial and political life in Great Britain.

DOM. COURT OF COMMERCE IN REAL ACTION
Ottawa, Sept. 10.—The Dominion Court of Commerce got into real action today when Alfred B. Kavanagh, with power of attorney to conduct the grocery business of Kavanagh Brothers, Queen street, was summoned and appeared before it for violating the Combines and Fair Prices Act. The complaint, made by the Dominion Police, was that on Saturday last, Kavanagh had made excessive charges for sugar. He was making three cents a pound profit. Commissioner O'Connor presided at the hearing and will give decision shortly. He informed Kavanagh his profits could not exceed one cent and told him he must obey the law.

POSITION OF LIBERALS ON THE PEACE TREATY AND LEAGUE OF NATIONS BECOMES BLURRED

Senators and Members of Liberal Faith Caucused on Momentous Question But Their Conclusions Kept Secret—Opposition Speakers in Commons Continue to Declare in Favor of Reservations—Lemieux Lead the Oratorical Hosts Fighting Against the Treaty Yesterday—Many Fussed up Over Article Ten and Don't Know Where They Are At.

Special to The Standard.
Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 10.—The position of the Liberal opposition in regard to the peace treaty and the League of Nations has become somewhat blurred. Today the party caucused at considerable length, there being a full attendance of senators and members, but thus far not a word of information has filtered through the rigid non-committal attitude of the chief whip in regard to its conclusions. In the Commons, however, opposition speakers continue to declare in favor of reservations, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who spoke at great length today, being particularly insistent upon this point.

Capt. Harrison Returns Home On Adriatic
White Star Liner, With 3,000 Returning Soldiers and Dependents, Docked at Halifax Yesterday.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 10.—The White Star liner Adriatic, with some three thousand returning soldiers and their dependents, arrived this afternoon and docked shortly after 4 o'clock. She will sail tomorrow morning at 5:30. The work of disembarkation began at once, but this is not a matter of such speed as is used to be, for conditions are different. In the days when troop trains got away at half-hour intervals, one ticket often was all that a whole train required, and all the men got to one point. But now it is such scattering details that almost every soldier on board is for a different place and each man and woman has to be separately ticketed after they land at the pier.

The Strike Leaders Are Released
Eight Held at Winnipeg on Charges of Seditious Conspiracy Admitted to Bail in Sum of $4,000.

Winnipeg, Sept. 10.—After twenty-six days' incarceration the eight strike leaders, who have been held in the provincial jail pending their trial on charges of seditious conspiracy, were at 5:20 p. m. today, in judges' chambers, granted bail. Chief Justice Macdonald and Mr. Justice Metcalfe, who, together with Mr. Justice Macdonald and Mr. Justice Metcalfe, heard the arguments of counsel, read the decision of the court. Bail was granted in the sum of $4,000 each and two sureties of $2,000 each.

FORGER FURNISHES SECURITIES AND IS ALLOWED FREEDOM
Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Sept. 10.—Ira Moorehouse, who pleaded guilty last week to having forged an endorsement on a promissory note for $100, and which note had been discounted by the Bank of Montreal, was brought before Judge Wilson this morning for sentence. H. G. Fenety appeared on behalf of the Crown, J. J. F. Winslow for the Bank, and R. W. McLellan for the prisoner. Judge Wilson, after lecturing the prisoner, said that as the circumstances under which the forgery had been made were of such a nature that he had decided that, under the section of the Criminal Code, which permitted the Court, with the consent of the Crown, to allow the prisoner to be released on recognizance, he would do so in this case. The clerk then read the recognizance in open court, the terms of which were that the prisoner bind himself for $200, with two sureties of $100 each, the condition being that the prisoner should appear if called upon for sentence within the next three years. Dr. O. E. Moorehouse and Alex. Brewer consented to act as sureties.

Sessions of Professional Meeting Proved Highly Interesting—Subjects of Interest to the General Public Discussed—Members of Society Will be Here Two More Days.

The fifth general professional meeting of the Engineering Institute of Canada opened most auspiciously yesterday and gives promise of being one of the best, both in point of attendance and excellence of the papers presented, of any yet held.

The first paper was one written by E. T. P. Showen and read by Alexander Gray on the usefulness of the writer in marine engineering.

A paper prepared by G. H. Prince on forestry in New Brunswick, was read by H. C. Kinsburgh.

The chair at the afternoon session was occupied by Lieut. Col. Leonard, who after calling the meeting to order read a letter from the Under Secretary, throwing that institution open to the members of the Institute for the duration of the meeting.

At one o'clock the members of the Institute were the guests of the St. John branch at lunch at the Manor House, where they were addressed by His Honor Lieutenant Governor Pugsley and others.

Lieut. Governor Pugsley said it gave him the greatest pleasure to be present and to meet the members of the Institute.

ACCEPT TREATY AND LEAGUE TO RESTORE WORLD'S EQUILIBRIUM. IS PLEA OF THOMAS W. LAMONT

Praises President Wilson for His Courageous Fight for America's Idealism and Says Mission Was Not "Hooked" at Paris—Sees Bolshevism Unless Peace Comes Quickly.

New York, Sept. 8.—Supporting the contention of President Wilson that delay in ratifying the peace treaty is breeding economic disorder, Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan and Co., who was financial advisor to the American peace delegation, yesterday pleaded for immediate adoption of the document and the League of Nations covenant.

Mr. Lamont laid stress on the fact that he is a Republican, but nevertheless disapproves of the activities of the Republican Senators against the league and treaty. He defends Mr. Wilson against accusations of refusing to confer with the other American delegates. He disclaims anything more objectionable in the document than the Shantung clause, and for remedy of that he says the country must rely on the good faith of Japan or else wait for the League of Nations to settle the matter. Mr. Lamont's statement, in part, said:

"Since my return from Paris, where I spent five months in work with the American Commission to Negotiate Peace, I have, until now, in response to frequent inquiries, declined to comment upon the existing situation with respect to the treaty, and to the industrial problems that are hanging upon the ratification of it. I am a member of the Republican party, and have had confidence that the Republican Senate majority, whose patriotism cannot be questioned, would, after the careful investigation and consideration which it was its duty to give, vote an early ratification of the treaty. But in common, I believe, with the country at large, have become greatly disturbed at the continued uncertainty and delay—a delay which, in my judgment, is already responsible for having retarded social and industrial conditions in both Europe and America distinctly worse.

"World Crying for Peace."

"The whole world is crying for peace for a chance to renew its normal life and work; and America, by her inaction, refuses to grant her consent to the settlements necessary. Since it became evident to the world of commerce that the action of the United States Senate might nullify the treaty, here has been an alarming fall in the rates of foreign exchange. For this no remedy can be had, as long as the delay continues at Washington; no plan for the extension of foreign credits, so necessary to maintain America's export trade, can be evolved. It is hard to conceive the attitude of mind that insists upon such calamitous fumbling, with the most critical situation that the world has ever seen. The only explanation is, that there is still an incredible misunderstanding, both of the treaty provisions themselves, and of the manner in which the affairs of the world await America's assent to peace.

"One point should be cleared up now and that is the misapprehension existing in many quarters as to President Wilson's attitude at Paris. I hear it repeated that he was unwilling to take counsel with his delegation. That is untrue. He constantly and earnestly sought the advice of his associates. I heard it said that in fighting for the League of Nations he yielded up vital points in the main treaty. In the Shantung settlement perhaps Japan's attitude as to the league was a consideration. Aside from that, I know of no clause in the treaty that was imperiled or modified at all by Mr. Wilson's solicitation for the league.

"President Wilson, being a human being, undoubtedly has certain defects; but, as a member of the opposite political faith from his, and as taking a continuous, albeit, unimportant part in the work at Paris, I am in all fairness bound to say, that throughout the complexities and anxieties over there President Wilson acted with moderation, common sense and great patience; he played a noble and, what is more, he showed extraordinary courage in fighting for the idealism that we call American. His course there was such that should commend the admiration of his fellow citizens regardless of party.

"As to the treaty itself, the situation then, is this:—America played an enormously important part in the war. Without her cooperation it could not have been won. In the same way, in making peace her allies and associates in the war looked to her for leadership. It was the effort of the American Mission at Paris to give to the settlement of peace the same unselfish, just and generous effort that America had shown in the war. Working steadily upon these principles for months at Paris, the American Commission was active in negotiating a treaty which commended the approval of our own and of the delegation of twenty-two other powers.

"It is equally plain that some Senators are contemplating its rejection by the much more objectionable method of making certain alterations in it, none of them of great importance, but with a net result of compelling us to go back to Germany and ask her to have the grace to execute a new treaty with us. This we cannot do without denouncing our own Allies to reopen negotiations with Germany and to assemble their own Parliaments (which in the case of England, of Belgium and of some other states have already approved the treaty) to argue for perhaps further long months over the proposed American alterations.

"Close examination of the points which are styled as dangerous by those Senators who desire to amend the treaty fails to disclose any peril whatsoever. President Wilson, in his meeting with the Foreign Relations Committee on August 18, went with great care into these points. Why reopen the whole peace negotiations? Why let Europe go from bad to worse while we are discussing a condition that does not exist and that was never even contemplated at Paris? Minor is achieved by concessions restraining to a greater or less degree the liberty of action of individual states for the benefit of the community of nations and in obedience to the demands of an international public opinion.

"The American delegation in the main, then, carried through its ideas, and was enabled to do so because there was openly accorded to it a position of arbiters of justice. Repeated instances arose where the other commissions requested the American delegation to prepare a solution which in effect the others would endorse in ad-

Compromises Unnecessary.

"Admittedly, the treaty is not a perfect document. By no theory is it ever possible, among a score of divergent interests in a chaos of States confused politically and half paralyzed economically, with the whole social structure tottering, with a half score of nationalities bleeding, and drenched and dazed by the sufferings and horrors of war—in no way, I say, can perfection in the drafting of a human document be attained under such conditions. Compromises ought to, and must be made. They were made by all parties to the treaty—less, as a matter of fact, by the American delegation than by the others, although given material interests of our country were far less involved than those of the other Powers; and though, on the theory of maintaining an unselfish attitude, we could have been excused for conceding at least as much as any of our Allies.

As Senator Knox well put it, years ago in a speech favoring international co-operation:—

"Every material and moral advance in the solidarity of nations is for universal, as distinguished from local or domestic purposes,

WORLD TREAT WITH GERMANY.

"The peace settlement then, upon which all Europe has been hanging for months, for which all industry (employer and employe alike), all restoration and return to a life of order, have been waiting, is brought to Washington for ratification or rejection. It is plain that despite the attitude of certain Senators, the majority of the Senate is disinclined openly to reject the treaty.

"I, myself, believe that in this we must rely on two things. First, upon Japan's good faith, and second, if that should fail, which I can hardly believe, then upon the effective workings of the League of Nations. But as to Shantung, just how our Senate can be amended to the treaty force England and France to go back on their agreement with Japan, and just how we can say to Germany, who has accepted the loss of her position in China, that we want her to withdraw that acceptance and consider some new plan, it is impossible to conceive. Meanwhile, certain of our Senators continue grossly to question the good faith of Japan, to insult her, and to render infinitely more difficult the settlement of other momentous questions that have to do with the whole future of the Far East.

"Encouraging Another War."

"Finally, the treaty that was evolved imposes justly severe terms upon Germany. Those terms should be put into effect at once. If they are not, Germany will be able to evade her obligations, and the American people will in every way suffer serious loss. Senator Knox declares that those terms are so hard on Germany that the whole treaty should be rejected. Does he favor treating Germany in a way to encourage her to start another war? Do he and those of his colleagues who are trying to defeat this treaty forget that it was Germany who plunged the whole world into darkness and war, in a struggle that brought death to at least ten million beings, incapacity to twenty-million more; the breakdown of law and order; the wasting of over two hundred billion dollars of treasure, and calamities from which the world can hardly recover within a hundred years? The aim of the nations assembled at Paris was to draft a treaty that was just, but so framed as to prevent Germany or any other nation from repeating such crimes as these.

"To this end the treaty sets up the initial machinery for a League of Free Nations! The United States Senate cannot pull apart that machinery without making the whole treaty void. Any such action as that will spell renewed Bolshevist effort throughout Europe, spreading, as there is already evidence to America; will mean continued chaos among those newer nationalities that America has helped establish; worse than all else, will bring starvation to the coming winter over there, not to thousands, but to millions of human beings.

"No one will object to clarifying interpretations, even though they are unnecessary. But if the United States insists today upon adding the treaty back with changes and reservations, from your Ford truck.

Users of Ford trucks are naturally interested in getting the last possible ounce of wear and use out of their Ford trucks.

How to do so is explained with commendable thoroughness in a little booklet entitled "Getting the most from your Ford truck," just published by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Canada, Limited.

The dangers of overloading, careless driving, overspeeding and irregular inspection are explained very fully in this booklet, showing how they materially cut short the life of a truck and its tires.

Numbers of these booklets are being placed in the hands of dealers everywhere for distribution to Ford truck users.

If impossible to obtain a copy from your dealer, a post card addressed to the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, of Toronto, Canada, will bring one direct to you.

Making a purely vegetable Medicine

1875—1919

In 1875, Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., gathered and dried the roots and herbs which she used in the now famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, from the fields and forests,—then steeped them on her kitchen stove and filled a few bottles at a time, to alleviate the suffering of her women friends, neighbors and acquaintances, and the success of this medicine was unparalleled.

After 44 Years

These illustrations show the present method by which vast quantities of this well-known remedy are produced and from exactly the same kind of roots and herbs used by Mrs. Pinkham in the beginning.

1. The various herbs used are of the finest quality, and gathered at the time their medicinal strength is the highest.
2. After the herbs are properly ground and mixed, the medicinal properties are extracted by soaking in large stone jars, covered.
3. Then the extract is drained through percolators, acting somewhat like a coffee percolator.
4. To insure a thoroughly pure medicine, it is carefully pasteurized by heat in special apparatus, and bottled hot.

Throughout the entire process, from the crude herb to the finished medicine in bottle, cleanliness and exactness are the watch-words.

The Reliability of Testimonials Guaranteed

The testimonials published by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company come to them unsolicited. Never knowingly have they published an untruthful letter, never is a letter published without the written consent of the writer. The reason that thousands of women from all parts of the country write such grateful letters is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives, once burdened with pain and illness. It is easy to realize how these poor, suffering women feel when restored to health; and their keen desire to help other women who are suffering as they did.

ST. JOHN, N. B. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1915.

ASSESSMENT.

The esteemed Globe is seeking solace in its misrepresentation of St. John's assessment system and attempts to derive comfort from what it erroneously believes is the conversion of the Standard. Yet in its interpretation of the attitude of this paper the Globe is just as distinctly in error as in its distorted presentation of this year's assessment. The Standard has not been converted to a mistaken idea.

The Globe has definitely stated time and again that owners of real estate in St. John are suffering because of largely increased real estate valuations made under the present Assessment Act.

Along with this feature must be reckoned the condition that certain classes of persons, owners of real estate, have in previous years been exempt to a certain figure, but that under the present Act this exemption has been reduced.

Had we continued under the old law of assessment with respect to personal property this addition to the income assessment would have carried us along very nicely, but because of widespread complaint and the recognized unfairness in taxing incomes from investments, the new Act under which we are now working provides that personal property shall be assessed at one-half its value.

The Standard admits that in the old assessment law there were many weaknesses, but under the new Act, under the greatly increased civic expenditure is taken into consideration, we seem merely to have shifted the burden from the shoulders of those least able to pay to those in a scarcely better position, for by means of a higher rate on a very slightly increased valuation we are compelling real estate and incomes to contribute more heavily than before while personal property in turn enjoys exemption.

COL. CANTLEY'S LETTER.

The Standard publishes today a letter from Lieut-Colonel Thomas Cantley replying to criticism which this paper offered touching the handling of troops by the Canadian National Railway at Halifax. Colonel Cantley conveys his attention to a review of the and the Municipal Council which was prepared to swallow without a shudder the fifty-thousand additional unexpectedly demanded, balks at the further increase of ten thousand and shoves the whole proposition.

The Nurses' Home is just as necessary today as it was in June or in January or at any time in the past five years. It has to be provided some day, yet despite the fact that a further delay of three months may mean an additional twenty thousand dollars we are content, according to the Municipal Council, to wait until that prospective increase becomes an actuality.

Why Aid Bulgaria? Buffalo Courier: Just what has Bulgaria ever done for the Allies or for the world that entitles her to the consideration of having a port on the Aegean Sea? It has a long Black Sea coast and the Dardanelles will be open. That's enough.

Not Too Trusting. Buffalo Commercial: We trust the Government will bring down prices of food and shoes and other articles that we must have in order to live, but we are not going to begin buying port-houses and broilers on the strength of our hopes.

Useful and Very Interesting. Toronto Commercial Board of Commerce: The Government should assign to one of its experts the task of preparing a report on the Canadian fortunes running into millions that have been made in the past twenty-five years, and how they were made in each case, and to what extent mismanagement has been responsible for the enrichment of a few at the expense of the many. It would be a highly useful report.

I rather think your information is at fault as to some of the statements made. I fancy that the boat referred to by you as the "Colin" was really the "Baltic" which docked at Halifax at 1:20 p.m. August 21st last.

LETTER FROM COL. T. CANTLEY. To the Editor St. John Standard: Sir,—In your issue of August 26th last there is a leading article entitled "Where Halifax Falls." This I have read with some considerable surprise.

What is Castoria

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula now used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Live Canadian Political Views

What the Other Papers Are Saying in Regard to the Political News of Canada.

Canada Carries Too Much Government Machinery.
Toronto Telegram—Canada is suffering from too much government. Dr. Michael Clark, in a recent speech in Parliament, said that working for the government would soon be the country's greatest industry.

To a Dominion Cabinet running to something around the twenty mark is added a commission or board to attend to everything that requires any-thing like real work. Then another nine provinces has a complete set of government machinery of its own, run-ning down to a dignified Lieutenant-gov-ernor down to the last thing in funk-ey-ism.

Canada has to retrench as well as produce to meet her war obligations, and a splendid start at retrenchment might be made by cutting down the machinery of government. There are at least a score of commissions and boards that could be abolished with-out interfering with either the needs of the country or the essentials of human happiness.

Also a start might be made at re-duc-ing the number of provincial gov-ernments. Prince Edward Island, which has the population of a Toronto ward, might be tacked on to Nova Scotia on one star, and New Brun-swick might be attached on the other.

The three Maritime provinces could thus concentrate on their three main policies, which could be gathered together and controlled by the Dominion treasury and unloading decrepit rail-ways on the Federal government.

With a start made at his of eco-nomics might follow that would cut the cost of Canadian govern-ment to something in keeping with her wealth and population.

Silly Charges.

Ottawa Journal—The Minister of Militia has informed the House of Commons that Mr. J. M. McMillan, an orator who told a farmers' meeting in Western Ontario that the soldiers' pay sheets of the Canadian army were being used to pay the soldiers' bills, is a person who should be brought into court. This should have been done with T. Preston when he proclaimed his infamous slander about Canadian sol-diers in France being penalized be-cause they would not vote unionist.

But there should be no govern-ment without action, and so it is to be hoped that Mr. McMillan's case will not be dropped, now that the Minister of Militia has stated that he will be called to account.

A Slight on Charlotte-town.

Charlottetown Guardian—The new Bell government is just as outlined in the Guardian some time ago. The most noticeable omission is the absence of a representative from the city, the capital of the province. Neither Mr. Duffy nor Mr. Higgs has been invited to sit at the council table which is a distinct slight to the commercial interests. We are assured that Mr. Duffy has been slated for the speakership, but while Mr. Higgs retains a distinct repre-sentative to the city, the speaker is not a member of the government, and, by virtue of his office, pre-cludes Mr. Duffy from being a repre-sentative in the government. The city has a right to a direct rep-resentative in the government and it is astonishing that any premier should sacrifice its interests to the exigency of party.

Wandering Willie King.

Toronto Telegram—Peculiar thing about Toronto Star heroes is the number of constituencies they have to try out before substantial recognition of their statesmanship is secured.

Hon. Wesley Rowell tramped through something like seventeen On-tario ridings before he found a seat. And even then it was necessary to move camp along on his way to the Senate before he secured the cheers and votes of the electorate.

Now it is Hon. Mackenzie King who is scanning the landscape in a red-emptive endeavor to discern a vacant chair. From Quebec East his eyes have wan-dered to Glenora, to North Water-loo, to Prince Edward Island.

Peterboro Review—Particulars of the goods to which the preferential proposals outlined in the British busi-ness—the first step on the Glasgow slope of Protection—now applies, to

Nova Scotia Man Gains 25 Pounds

"I Simply Feel Like a New Man," He Says After Taking Tanlac.

"I have often seen the time I would have gladly given everything I pos-sess for the relief a few bottles of this Tanlac has given me," said Robert McAlooney, a well known contrac-tor, living at 31 York street, Halifax, in a statement while at Kinley's re-cen-ly. Mr. McAlooney is also well known in Maisonsneuve, Montreal, where he resided for many years be-fore coming to Halifax.

"Four bottles of Tanlac has not only relieved me entirely of a case of stom-ach trouble that had made me miser-able for me for more than five years," he continued, "but I have actually gained twenty-five pounds in weight, besides. I am now feeling better now than I have in twenty years. Why, I was telling one of my friends the other day that I am feeling like a six-teen-year-old again. The way I have been built up and strengthened has really astonished me."

"I had been suffering, as I said, from stomach trouble and a run-down condition for more than five years and until Tanlac came along was never able to find anything to help me. My stomach just seemed to be shut up all the time. Nothing tasted right or agreed with me and I simply had to force down what little I did eat. My stomach would get so sour as to be unmanageable, and I blurt out with gas and feel miserable for hours. There were sharp, cramping pains all through my stomach and the gas would press on my heart so at times could hardly breathe.

"After going to bed at night this gas would bother me so I couldn't rest. Many a night I have gotten out of bed, and walked the floor never getting a wink of sleep. I have had to lay off from work for weeks at a time just suffering agony with my stomach, and had lost all of thirty pounds in weight. I would wake up in the mornings feeling so tired and so nervous that it was an effort for me to get out of bed. I was habitually constipated and had a dull, aching headache nearly all the time. I had suffered so much and so long that I had almost reached the point where I didn't much care whether I lived or not."

"But I feel altogether different since Tanlac has straightened me out and built me up so wonderfully. Before I had finished my first bottle there was a decided improvement in my condi-tion. I am eating three good, square meals a day and my stomach never gives me the least trouble. I don't believe I have ever enjoyed my meals more and I can eat just anything set before me. I have been relieved of constipation and headache and that tired, worn-out feeling has left me, too. I can sleep like a log every night and get up in the mornings ready for a heavy breakfast and a good day's work. I tell you I simply feel like a new man and I am glad to give this statement to be used in let-ting others know what it is that re-stores my health."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative—Advt.

Locating A Home Some Proposition At Present Time

Few Experiences of Man Who Tried to Find Rooms for Wife and Self.

When a hurried, worried person is encountered in the street these days it is a pretty safe bet that the hous-ing question, which is a very perina-gent problem in St. John these days, is the chief cause of his trouble.

A business man who resides out of town during the summer months and takes a few rooms in the city for the winter, is credited with the statement that the accommodations available in the city this autumn are in no way up to the standard of last year.

wife and myself, and so I thought we could easily get a place at a fair rental, but I have found since starting the search that I was mistaken," said this home-hunter yesterday.

"I believe, without exaggerating, that I must have walked about twelve miles a day looking for rooms, and I know I feel pretty tired when I turn up to the temporary quarters with the 'No Luck' sign written all over my face. I haven't found a place that looks like home or welcome to me yet, and if I don't pretty soon, I'll assert my inalienable rights and build a shack in Rockwood Park."

"One place we went to see was a real work of art, as far as sign painting went. There were signs up all around the bathroom—'Only one bath per person a week allowed'—'Wash out the tub when through'—'Turn out the light when not in use'—'We do not encourage telephone calls'—and quite a bit more of the same. The only accommodations we could get at this place was a single room, with heat and one light, and any attempt at cooking even the lightest meal was by the landlady.

"Then we saw another place. Two rooms, barely furnished, with the rooms connected, which was good, for they needed all the comfort they could give one another. There was no light, no phone, no heat, no bedding—nothing but two half-bare rooms and the motto 'God Bless Our Home'—and the landlady wanted $22 a month. We did not give it to her."

"One advertisement we read sound-ed pretty good to us, so I went along to see the place. It was a pretty good place, too, and the price seemed right, but when I happened to mention that I was married I might as well have tried to pass as a reformed tax col-lector. There was nothing doing—'This is for single men only'—and I ask you, as man to man, what is the use of constantly handing it to the poor, weary benedict?"

"We thought we were getting a place well out of the heart of the city, but rather well furnished and with house-keeping privileges. There were two rooms and the use of the common bathroom, but when the landlady sug-gested $32.50 a month, I had an idea she was talking to the wrong party."

"There are other places, dozens of them, but I believe I have seen them all. There must be some place in this town where the moderately salaried man can get accommodations for the winter months without divorcing his wife or mortgaging his life insurance, but I have travelled over nearly all the city streets during the past two weeks and in nearly every case the 'welcome' door-mat is turned upside down or the people want to make enough out of one lodger to pay for the rent of their whole house."

The Wedding of Miss Bjurstedt

Tennis Champion Married in America Has Her Own Ideas on Marriage.

New York, Sept. 10.—Miss Molla Bjurstedt, formerly champion among America's women tennis players, and internationally known for her exploits on the court, was married last Wednesday in the Marriage Chapel of the Municipal Building to Franklin I. Marjory, a broker of No. 115 Broadway.

The witnesses were Mrs. George Wightman, who held the tennis title in 1912 and who won it again this year, and Julian D. Myrick.

Miss Bjurstedt was a trained nurse in Norway and was studying to become a physician when her exploits on the tennis court induced her to come to America and interrupt her husband and bride.

"Love is life to women," she said. "But there are several kinds of love, and each has its proper time and place. When I am forty I hope to have other interests in life than playing tennis and flirting."

"Does the one inevitably lead to the other?" she was asked. "In this country everything leads to sentiment," she replied. "It may be because there are so many men in England and in Norway there are more girls than men. In consequence, girls learn from babyhood to depend on themselves for their amusements."

"If men and marriage come their way, well and good. If not they find interest in athletic and work. They cheerfully make other women's children objects for their own maternal love. They substitute friendship for love and keep their bodies young and their minds healthy by exercise in the open, especially by walking tours."

"The trouble with women tennis players," she added, "is that it keeps them dangerously young. Consequently they seek the companionship of the young, which to my mind is a dangerous mistake. There is nothing more pathetic than to see a woman close to the half-century mark in a sentimental attachment with a man in his twenties or thirties."

Chase-Folkins

A wedding of much interest took place yesterday afternoon at three o'clock in the Portland Methodist church.

A dainty wedding luncheon followed, after which the bride and groom left for the Maritime Hotel for an extended tour including Montreal, Niagara and Buffalo, N. Y.

Beautiful and useful presents were received including a silver service by Rev. W. H. Johnston, pastor of the Hamilton Baptist church, and was solemnized on the lawn in front of the home. What was probably the most fashionable nuptial event of the season took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist church when the pastor, Rev. H. A. Goodwin, united in marriage Miss Dorothy Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tennant of this city, and Joseph Key of Toronto. Donald W. Polkins, brother of the bride, and George A. Stevenson acted as ushers. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and a large number of relatives and guests were present. A dainty wedding luncheon followed, after which the bride and groom left on the Montreal train for an extended tour including Montreal, Niagara and Buffalo, N. Y. Many beautiful and useful presents were received including a mahogany electric reading lamp presented by the lady employees of Macaulay Bros. and Company, Limited, where the bride was employed. The groom was employed in Emerson and Fisher's and the staff of that firm presented a handsome leather upholstered Morris chair, while Mr. Emerson gave a substantial check.

W. Cosman, of Midland, became the bride of Reginald Herbert Maguire, of Elmville, Charlotte Co. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants. As Lohengrin's chorus was being rendered by Miss Helen Carvell, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, who was dressed in a blue and white traveling suit of blue cloth and blue velvet hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Ella Fairweather, of Bloomfield, cousin of the bride, who looked charming in green silk costume and black velvet hat and carried pink asters. The bride's brother, Lawrence Cosman, attended the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Vanwart. After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home for the guests, and very dainty refreshments were served. Many beautiful gifts consisting of cash, cut glass, silver and linen testified to the popularity of the bride and groom. The groom presented the bridesmaid and organist with bar pins set with brilliants.

As good as McClary's

That is the measure of a stove or furnace in Canada. That is the best that is ever said of the unknown article. It is as good as McClary's. Then, what a safer course could you follow than to buy the thing you know—McClary's. The McClary's reputation for quality was not earned in a day. The McClary's institution, the largest of its kind in the British Empire, has been over seventy years in the making. HEROIC MAN WHO DIED WITH WIFE, SCENE OF TRAGEDY AND THREE ORPHANS

TRAGIC CROSSING WHERE W.F. TANNER DIED WITH WIFE, WHOSE FOOT WAS CAUGHT BETWEEN RAIL AND PLANK, AND THEIR THREE ORPHANS

The tragedy of a railroad crossing near Chicago, wherein was proved the love of William F. Tanner for his wife, has caused a warm heart throbs among millions of newspaper readers. Mr. Tanner, a young railroad cashier, of Hubbard's Wood, Ill., preferred death with his wife to life, and perished with her when her foot was imprisoned between a steel rail and a board at a crossing of the Chicago North-western Railroad, a few miles from Chicago, the other night. Mr. and Mrs. Tanner tried to cross the railroad track when a fast express train was about five hundred feet away. Her foot became wedged in the crossing and her husband and a crossing flagman tried to release her foot, but without result.

Paris, Aug. 29.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—France's declining birthrate has lately been a source of much concern but a distinct improvement has been noticed during the present month of maternity hospitals. Evidence of a great decline in births in 1918 was shown in official figures for the district of the Seine, which includes the city of Paris, which showed that there are only 43,480 births registered in that district in 1918 as compared to the 73,539 in 1911.

COMMON COUNCIL. The weekly meeting of the Common Council will be held this morning at 11.30 o'clock.

TRANSFER OFFICE. The proposition to open a baggage transfer office in the Union Depot has been revived, and if satisfactory arrangements can be made this will be a fact in the near future.

SENTENCED. Private Pelletier was found absent without leave and sentenced to six months' imprisonment by the court martial that investigated his case last week. The finding of the court was promulgated yesterday morning.

GIVEN IN CHARGE. Lindsay Sabean of Erin street was arrested last night on complaint of his wife. At a late hour he returned to his home much the worse for liquor, and started a row with his wife and threatened her life.

DID NOT ARRIVE. The eleven local war veterans, who were expected to arrive on the 9.30 last night, did not make their appearance, and it was later stated by Chas. Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission, that the men would doubtless arrive at noon today.

COUNTY COURT. In the County Court, yesterday, before His Honor Judge Armstrong, the case of Girouard vs. Carleton was continued. The evidence in the case was all submitted and the court addressed the jury at the time of adjournment. This morning at 10 o'clock His Honor will address the jury.

POLICE COURT. Frank C. Brown, arrested by inspectors Kerr and Merryfield on a charge of having liquor in his possession, was allowed his freedom on a bail of $200. A drunk was remanded. Court was held in the morning at 6.30 by the aid of artificial light, as Judge Ritchie has an appointment in Fredericton.

REVERE HOUSE DOWN. The old Revere House in Bowdoin Square, Boston, is being torn down. According to a Boston paper it had not yet been decided just what will be erected on the site, but there is talk of erecting a garage. The old building was well known to visitors from the provinces and its passing will remove one of the old landmarks of the Hub.

CARPENTERS' UNION. The meeting of Local 919, Carpenters and Joiners, held last night in Oddfellows Hall, was largely attended and several new members were initiated. The meeting was marked by presentations to two of the members for valuable services rendered. Bro. Redmore was presented with a handsome silver ring, engraved with the symbol of the trade, and Bro. Williams with a fine pipe and tobacco pouch.

ON THEIR WAY. Frederick Robeson, a native of Quebec, and his two sons were brought before the chief of police last night for examination, by Sergeant Power and Detective Sanders. The men, who are of a foreign cast of countenance, are making a cycling tour of the lower provinces, and their appearance, mode of travel and manner of approach naturally gave birth to some suspicions. On examination, however, the men furnished excellent references, and will doubtless start today on another leg of their journey.

THE CANADIAN BOY. The August number of the Canadian Boy has just been received at this office. The present edition has a fine series of stories and articles by noted scout writers. The editor announces that the Canadian Boy has been purchased by the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts' Association and is now published as the organ for the Boy Scouts in Canada. The Canadian Boy is full of matter that will be of the greatest interest to all boys.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Kathleen McGloin, and the groom was supported by Detective Kenneth Donohoe. The church was beautifully decorated and the wedding march was played by Miss Hughes. There were many guests at the ceremony, among them being Judge Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Biddiscombe and Miss Biddiscombe, West St. John.

Service was held in the afternoon in St. Martins, and interment made in the family lot there.

The body of Mrs. Mary Campbell, accompanied by her daughters, Mrs. Frank Spearin and Mrs. Edwin Ackerd, of Boston, was brought here on the Boston train yesterday. The funeral took place in the afternoon to the Church of the Assumption, where service was conducted by Rev. A. J. O'Neill. Interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery.

PLUCKY ACT OF RETURNED MAN SAVED YOUNG BOY FROM DEATH IN THE HARBOR YESTERDAY

Douglas Thompson Dove Into Water at Sugar Refinery Wharf and Saved Six Year Old Albert McCave from Drowning—Youngster Had Gone Under Twice When Rescued.

Albert McCave, the six year old son of Burton and Mrs. McCave, 122 Britain street, was saved by his parents yesterday afternoon only through the presence of mind and personal bravery of Douglas Thompson, a great war veteran, who is now an officer of the Customs House. Yesterday afternoon, when his mother's attention was momentarily withdrawn from him, young McCave and two companions ran away to that forbidden ground, the Sugar Refinery wharf. After playing there some time the interest of the children centered on a good piece of board and while McCave and a younger lad both struggled for its possession, the former was shoved over the edge of the dock and into the water. Frightened, the other lad, who fought for the board, ran away, but the third boy roared lustily for help and it was his cries that brought Douglas Thompson to the scene. He was engaged in checking over sugar lists at the time, did sous clothing, but instantly taking in the situation at a glance, plunged in to the water and seized the drowning boy by the hair just as he was disappearing below the surface for the third time. Getting a firmer grip around the body of the child, he soon succeeded in making shore and at once applied first aid. In the meantime the father of the lad had been summoned, but when he arrived the little fellow was conscious and soon able to walk. The first news the mother received of the accident was later when the father and son walked home. Missing the boy, she thought he was playing in a neighbor's yard and her joy in getting home safe again was clouded with a feeling of apprehension of what might have happened. Those who arrived too late to be of great assistance are unanimous in their praise of the prompt and brave action of Mr. Thompson, who proved that he can be a hero in civies as he was in khaki. It is expected that a recommendation for proper recognition of the deed will be taken up before the proper authorities.

Retail Prices in Country Market Were Not So High

Vegetables Cost Less Now Than Last Season and Supplies Are Stronger.

A partial if not a complete plan to lead the H. C. I., has been discovered—oil, vegetables. They are about the only articles of food, which are this year lower in price than has been the case for some seasons. Almost everything that grows in the ground in the way of green goods, which, strange to say, includes ripe tomatoes and squashes, is this year to be had in great quantities, and according to the nature of supply and demand this has a lowering tendency on the cost to the consumer.

In the city market yesterday the following retail prices were quoted: Potatoes, $2 to $2.25 a barrel or 40 cents a peck; turnips, 5 to 6 cents each; squash, 4 to 5 cents a pound; corn, golden bantam, 35 cents a dozen, sweet yellow 25 cents a dozen; celery, 10 to 12 cents a head; string beans, 50 cents a peck; lettuce, 5 cents a head; carrots, 5 and 6 cents a bunch; cabbages, 5 cents a bunch; cauliflower, 4 to 5 cents a pound; onions, 10 cents a pound; little white onions, 25 cents a pound; large cabbages, 3 cents each; gerkins, 1-2 cents each; 15 to 18 cents a dozen, $1.25 a hundred; parsnips, 10 cents a bunch; peppers, green, 30 cents a peck, red, 35 to 40 cents a peck; ripe tomatoes, 10 cents a pound, 5 cents a pound by the basket; green tomatoes, 40 cents a peck; cauliflower, 15 to 25 cents each; rhubarb, 8 cents a pound. In the way of fruit, apples were selling at from 40 to 50 cents a peck. Blueberries were 10 cents a box. Blackberries brought 25 cents a box, and high bush cranberries were 25 cents a peck. By the barrel, apples were $4 to $6 last year, while yesterday they were quoted at $2 to $4. If pickling materials were being looked for, the mixed spices sold for 46 cents per pound, and vinegar was 15 cents a quart bottle. Some of the differences in the prices quoted can be explained by the size or quality of the goods. While some of the amounts asked for vegetables are just about the same as last year, it will be found that many articles have decreased a few cents in price, and even a cent saved on food helps to make up for the other saving expenses, such as rent, fuel and taxes.

Twenty-Two Cases Of Typhoid Fever In The Hospital

Private Patient Had to be Removed in Order to Make Room for Fever Cases.

The big question facing the staff at the General Public Hospital just now is where they are going to put all the typhoid fever patients seeking admission to the institution. Yesterday no less than six were admitted, making with the sixteen already there twenty-two patients suffering from this disease. As the capacity of the public typhoid ward on the top floor is only twenty-one, this meant that some other place had to be found for the extra one and the superintendent had to remove a private patient from one of the rooms to make a place for this case. On this floor there are seven private rooms and the superintendent is making preparations to commandeer every one of them if necessary and place two beds in each room, thus providing for thirteen more patients. Of the twenty-two typhoid patients now in the institution, twenty-one are from the city and one from Norton.

MEETING. All the ladies who assisted the City Cornet Band at the previous fairs, and all those who wish to assist them at their Around the World Fair to be held in St. Andrew's Rink, opening Sept. 28th, will please meet in the City Cornet Band room, King street, East, Thursday evening, the 11th, at 8 o'clock, daylight.

Suggestion For Farmers' Day In Country Market

One Dealer Thinks More Encouragement Should be Given to Farmers to Use Market Facilities.

"It strikes me that our market is not used by the farmers as it should be," said a dealer in the country market, to a Standard reporter. "There are not more than 30 or 40 real farmers who attend the markets and bring their produce here for sale. There are plenty of traders and hucksters but the bona fide farmers do not come as you would expect. "How would it work out," the stall-keeper went on to say, "if special days, say twice a week, should be set apart for the farmers? On those days the merchants could make a special appeal to the out of town people and thus both classes would benefit. Farmers' day in the market would result in more vegetables being bought direct from the farmer and farmers' day in town would mean special sales in the dry goods and other shops. This money would be circulated right here in this city instead of going through the mail order system to Upper Canadian towns as it does at present to a large extent. "Strangers passing through St. John admire the market, some praising it as the finest in Eastern Canada. The building belongs to St. John and the surrounding country and we should all unite to make it the best market from the point of view of the amount of business transacted there. "Out west they offer the farmer a bonus to bring his goods to the city market. Perhaps even this inducement would not result in the larger amount of money spent in the city. Something ought to be done to make the market what it was originally meant to be, otherwise the farmer would not bring his produce and sell it to the best advantage."

Passports May Soon Be Issued For The Battlefields

Shipping Concerns Preparing for Big Passenger Business Across the Atlantic—New Steamers.

Shipping men received word yesterday that passports would shortly be issued to tourists wishing to visit the battlefields in France, Belgium or elsewhere. Owing to the fact that there are many thousands on the other side of the Atlantic waiting for a passage to Canada or the States, tourists are advised that they should make arrangements for their return passage, otherwise they may be unable to get home again for some time. The C. P. O. S. is making arrangements for a big passenger traffic across the ocean, and the great liner, the Empress of France may make her first visit to St. John, if not to Quebec. The Empress of Britain and the big Allan boats, which have been on Admiralty service are now being refitted for passenger work, and the Canadian Pacific will soon have four-teen liners on the Atlantic service, capable of carrying 30,000 people. The whole C. P. O. S. fleet now aggregates 160,000 tons.

Human Remains Were Discovered Fairville Has a Mystery Which So Far Has Baffled Solution—Bones Dug up in Main Street.

They call it "The Mystery of 73 Main Street," and there is a daily pilgrimage of two or three hundred curious ones to the Fairville thoroughfare each day to gaze wonderingly upon the ground that for probably twenty years or more concealed the bones, skull, part of the scalp and other remains of what was once a young person, sex undetermined. The discovery was made by G. A. Whitaker, who recently bought the property and was engaged in excavating beneath the house to make some necessary repairs when his pick dug up part of a human skull, and later, some human bones. Corporal Kenney and Chief of Police Smith have both viewed the place, and the human remains, and both are of the opinion that the bones are of a young person, sex undetermined, and might reasonably be thought to be those of a Chinese person. A former owner of the building was a Celestial, and an opium smoker. It is attested by the collection of opium pipes, rags and bottles in a secret compartment dug beneath the ground floor. The rumor of murder has no evident foundation, as no one has been known to have mysteriously disappeared from that locality, and the Mongolians, as a rule prefer burial in their home and no one who has viewed the remains, and who have seen the place from which they were removed, are of the opinion that the bones could very easily have been dumped into the place with loads of ashes which have been placed there frequently.

Discount Period Ended Yesterday Taxes Must be Paid in Full Now—Some Citizens Saved Money by Protesting.

The chance to secure a discount on city taxes has passed and for those who have not already paid, executions will be issued. The constables will soon be getting busy with those who have not come across. It is understood that about the usual number took advantage of the discount offered. The city chamberlain announced last night that he could give out no definite figures in respect to the amount collected. The few days of the discount period were strenuous ones for both the chamberlain's staff and the assessors. Many citizens made protest against the amounts they were charged and in some cases reduction was made. In one instance four city school teachers, who received similar salaries and owned no property were asked to pay quite different amounts. One of these was assessed for something around $20. She made protest and had about six dollars knocked off the amount. Another teacher made $1.50 by her protest. One teacher, with a tax bill for $30 went to the assessors and was told that the amount should have been about $10, but she showed that she should be taxed for $14, and this was the amount fixed. Although the teachers protested in cases against the amount charged they did not have the privilege of paying for like all those employed by the city, the amount of taxes was deducted from their pay and a receipt for the amount substituted. Miss Lydia Morie and Robert Godfrey, of Detroit, who have been guests for some weeks of Mrs. Wheaton at Robesay, left yesterday for Montreal. Both Mr. Godfrey and Miss Morie were former residents of Clifton, Kings County. Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of St. Mary's Church, is at present in Toronto attending meetings of the Social Service Council, the Missionary Society of the Church in Canada, and the Board of Religious Education.
