NOTICES OF THE WISDOM OF THE KING

"Every portion of the work indicates ex-tensive scholarship and mature thought."— Belfast Northern Whig. April 8th, 1871. "The force, raciness and robust manliness of Mr. Bennett's style and mode of treatment will arrest attention and excite interest in quarters where preaching or writing of the average quality would fall flat and dead."—Home and Foreign Record. March, 1871. Foreign Record. March, 1871.

"So plain yet so suggestive, so practical yet so profound are these Lectures that while you read them you feel their deep rruth and reality; that you are in contact with realities both visible and invisible; that you are is close contact with the beating heart of nature and humanity, and that all their life and hope fixed free from God alone."—Fredericton Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

"The writer is evidently well acquainted with the literature of his subject, and that acquaint nee reveals itself almost unconsciously in every page. There is no ostentation of reading or learning, but there is everywhere the gleaming forth of light which cannot be hid. The style is simple, intelligible, graceful. It shows at once that Mr. Bennet is a man of literary culture, who can express his thoughts with scholarly chasteness and good taste. We could not open a page without meeting some thought vigorously expressed. The work is eminently fresh and readable,"—Pres. Witness, Hatifax.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes strong common sense, a firm grasp of thought, a logical acumen and a clear insight into human character. Even when dealing with trite ideas he imparts to them a novelty and interest by which they are lifted into an importance they searcely deserve. The style throughout is fueld, pure, compact, forcible,—and it is his own—the garb of his own thinking. We have met in our perusal of the book with numerous paragraphs of finished and brilliant rhetorio—fine specimens of pulpit oratory. He is never tame nor tiresome. We have not found one sin shod sentence in the volume."—Christian Visitor, (Baptist) March 6th, 1871.

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a finished style and issuing such a volume as 'the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congregation.' If all his pulpit perfermances are equal to these, his people have reason to rejoice in the Providence which guided his steps to them.'—
Evangelical Witness, May 1st. 1871. Providence which guiness, May 1st. 1871.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, solid book Mr. Bennet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Ethics, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestations; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shews his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucid, that any reader may understand every sentence in the volume.

It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom "—The Presbyterian (Philadel phia), May 20, 1871.

Jewish Wisdom Philo Jewish Wisdom John Jewish Way 20, 1871.

'The lessons to be learned are drawn with a master's hand, and are expressed with a combined force and beauty that we have rarely seen surpassed in the production of any author. The ordinary reader will find noth ng that is above his comprehension, and yet it would be difficult to find a common place thought or form of expression. A combination of these requisites we deem the highest merit a writer can possess.

"We will be much disappointed if the book do not command a wide circulation. Wherever a sound literature is felt to be a deside atum. The Wisdom Of The King has but to be known to be prized as a work that the world will not willingly let die."—Saint John Telegroph and Journal.

"THE WISDOM OF THE KING is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very words, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not know where it is to end. The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentence cut sharply, but with a poetic fullness of original illustration that redeems them from all hardness."—Haltifax Monthly Record, (Church of Scotland).

"Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, ye concise in its exposition, that it is sometimed difficult to determine which is the best and most interesting.—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John. A few copies of the above work may be

One-halt of the County fund is to be apportioned and paid semi annually.

No public moneys will be received by Districts which fail to establish Schools under the Act. It will be observed that the amount of Provincial and County moneys to be expended in any District in aid of Schools will depend almost exclusively upon local exertion, or the direct efforts made by the reople of the several Districts in maintaining their own Schools. The sum to be received by the Teacher from the Province is definite, but the exact amount that will be received by the Trustees from the County Fund on account of the average attendance of pupils, cannot be known at the time of the School meeting. The meeting should, therefore, be careful in voting its estimates to authorize a sum amply sufficient to enable the Trustees to meet the liabilities of the School year. Any balance remaining in the hands of the Trustees, is, of course, to be carried to the credit of the next School year, while any deficit arising from an authorized expenditure may be carried forward and provided for in the estimates of the following year.

The first disbursement of the County Fund will be apportioned on the School attendance made between January 15th and April 30th, inclusive.
