Report.

A late popular Missionary writer of an Independent Church in England has said, "The results of Missionary success have been learnt by us so gradually, with so much preparation and forewarning, that we can form very little conception of their present aggregate. We have sometimes thought, that it would be no improper method to raise our wonder and gratitude, to suppose that the Reports of our Societies were suddenly laid before Romaine and Venn, Haliburton and Gillies, Whitfield and Wesley, Doddridge and Watts. They desired to see these things. Who can imagine their raptures when they had read those chronicles, which we are wont to neglect as dull and unattractive!"

The Committee of the MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA unanimously subscribe to the opinion, and thankfully accept the fact, that the combined results of Christian Missions in the nineteenth century are unprecedentedly great and encouraging, and that the publications of the numerous Protestant Associations which report them are not out of place when put by the side of the Acts of the Apostles, and the uninspired records of the earliest and best triumphs of the Church of Christ; and it is with this conviction the Committee, with humble and devout gratitude to God, present the Thirty-Third Annual Report of the Society's proceedings. Sixty-seven years ago, in the memorable year of Mr. Wesley's death, Methodist Missions were commenced in Canada, but only thirty-three years have passed since the Society was organized; a fact providentially analogous to another. The Wesleyans of Great Britain had more than a hundred Missionaries in different parts of the world before their Missionary Society was established.

Missions.

The Committee's paramount aim is, at God's command, to perpetuate and diffuse the vivid light and vital energy of Christianity, by carrying out with fidelity the original purpose of Methodism, believing that the call made on

Wesley is not now silent and without authority ; and they especially rejoice, that during the past year's extensive operations an untiring zeal on the part of the Society's Agents, has resulted by the Holy Spirit's power, not only in the conservation of its orthodoxy and piety, but in the rapid growth of spiritual principles, affections and acts, and an accession of members to the Church, larger, perhaps, than was ever derived from the Methodist Missions in Canada.

The close connexion of this Society, as an Auxiliary, with the WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF GREAT BRITAIN, makes it the Committee's agreeable duty to place on these pages a synopsis—however brief—of that Society's proceedings. Its position has been reached by a series of remarkable and well-ordered providences since the period when the Fellow of Lincoln College, Oxford, the Rev. J. Wesley, A. M., sent forth his first Missionary, or, rather, since the period when he, the first Methodist Missionary, commenced the Itinerancy, and since then every interposition of Providence has been an approval of past proceedings, and an incentive to a steady and enlarged procedure in the career of scriptural efforts for the salvation of mankind, and at length the work which he and his willing coadjutors and descendants accomplished, created the necessity for a Society, which now occupies no secondary place among the Associations of the voluntary Protestant Missionary Churches of the age.

The Parent Society has not sought respectability and fame in the superstitions and debased realms of ancient and historic nationalities, nor in the thrilling, degenerate land of the Seven Churches, but has hastened to, and intrepidly occupied, what have been named the "out-posts" of the world. It has left, very much, civilized countries, so called, and classical and storied scenes, for others, and settled for many years its sympathies on the most degraded and cannibal and abject of the race; thus carrying out that God-like maxim of Methodism—go to those who need you most ; and the greater blessing has followed the greater sacrifices, and human impossibilities.

Its Stations exceed in number, and are more widely planted than those of any other Protestant Society, its ordained Missionaries more numerous, and its expenditure less considering its magnitude. Its responsibilities are proportionate to its magnitude, and every Station has its claim for sustenance and extension. During the past year there have been most affecting and urgent claims made by India, not only for a replenishing of old Missions, but for the occupancy of destitute posts. The dominions of the Sultan have their claims. China needs more Missionaries. Australia appeals for more. Feejee cannot do without more. The West Indies pray for more. The exigencies of Western Africa have loud demands. The present South African Mission must have more men. And British discoveries on both coasts and in the centre of Africa, and past Missionary success, are productive of Missionary wants from the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope to the newly-found territories, from the Atlantic by the Niger and other rivers eastward, and from the Indian Ocean by the Zambesi westward; so that ere long, in that strange central country of the Makololo, where Zekeletu is chieftain, Missionaries from the south, the east, and the west may greet each other as the pioneer messengers of Christ, and render Him all the praise. The Committee of the Parent Society have to do justly, as well as to love mercy, not only in India, but wherever their Missions extend; and their purpose to send sixteen new Missionaries to India, ten for Missions to be established, is a noble and judicious effort amidst the equal and undeniable claims of other unevangelized lands.

The Committee in Canada have year after year sympathized with the British Committee in the bereavements which they have sustained by the death of gifted and heroic Labourers in different parts of the field of apostolic toil and danger; and they have been deeply affected with the departure of eminent and able officers and counsellors of the Society, especially with the irreplaceable loss of the revered Dr. BUNTING, whose Christian reputation, often unjustly assailed, might well be luminous and distinguished, when, while yet a child, the benediction of our Founder was given him; whose excellencies, capabilities, and faithful, protracted services as a Wesleyan, and a Friend of Missions and Benevolent Societies, were never surpassed; whose intellectual, devotional, ministerial, and official resources were ample, and most sagaciously and munificently expended for the welfare of souls; and whose highest honours for more than half an age were obtained from acts for the glory of God, "designed fully to develop the catholicity, benevolence, polity, talents, orthodoxy, spirituality, and faith and power of Wesleyan Methodism for the salvation of the whole world.

The Committee have not space to exhibit all the Stations of the Parent Society, nor can they, however instructive and encouraging it would be, specify every instance of revival and of increase the Society was favoured with the last year, but the following Summary will exhibit the state—the prosperous state of the Missions in the four quarters of the globe, and shew with what judgment and efficiency they have been located and conducted, and call forth those thanks which are more than due to the lover and Redeemer of the universal human family. The Society had 493 Central Stations, 3,093 Preaching Places, 693 Missionaries, 985 other Paid Agents, 11,703 unpaid Agents, 121,479 Church Members, 8,234 on Trial for Membership, 113,601 Scholars, and 8 Printing Establishments. There were thirty-three Missionaries, and Wives of Missionaries sent forth last year. This summary compared with the former year's, shews a striking net Increase of 35 Missions, 279 Places of Worship, 60 Missionaries, 99 other Paid Agents, 1,870 unpaid Agents, 7,051 Church Members, 3,897 on Trial, and 21,082 Scholars in the Mission Day Schools. The Income of the Society the previous year was the largest it had ever received; this year it is still larger and reaches the sum of £123,062 18s. 11d. The Receipts from Foreign Auxiliaries was £32,012 1s. 9d. sterling. The Juvenile Offerings amounted to more than £7,300. Such an advance in a year of extraordinary commercial embarrassment, financial panic and loss, and excitement, caused by the sad affairs of India, is indicative of integrity in the Missionary heart of the Wesleyans and the friends of the Wesleyans. The President of the Conference, at the May Anniversary of the Society in Exeter Hall, pertinently observed, "With such contributions, and such prayers, and such men as God is about to furnish to the Church, I trust we shall enter on very large fields of Christian and Missionary enterprise, and that in conjunction with other Churches God will grant us larger success than we have ever before known."

THE AUXILIARY WESLEYAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF CANADA is indebted for its early establishment to a mighty religious influence, and Divine direction, and for its preservation and progression to graciously granted supernatural impulses, while the good-will, fervent supplications, and accumulating generosity of an ardent people have long conspired to promote the object contemplated by the Society,—the regeneration of men whom Christ has bought with his own blood, and the elevation of Canada.

The last year has been somewhat different in its large receipts to many past years; and without surprise, when the disastrous evils of an American financial convulsion, and of unwarranted Canadian speculations, have, in some degree, extended to every merchant, banker, trader, manufacturer, and farmer in the Province. This year is an unlooked for, and irregular exception, which does not enfeeble the principles of the Society's supporters, and the Committee expect the future, not only without misgivings, but with hope and confidence.

The Wesleyan Church last year, besides as usual raising an immense amount for supporting numerous Circuits, and for Connexional funds, and building Churches and Parsonages, aided by the Missionary balance in hand, expended about £5,000 on the Indian Missions, and between £7,000 and £8,000 on her Home Missions; a fact, the Committee believe, not equalled in financial extent and importance by any other Colonial Branch of Wesleyanism.

Each department of the work having to be reported fully in its proper place, it will suffice to say here, that there has during the year been advance in the Indian Missions of Canada, in parts of Hudson's Bay, in the Industrial Institutions, in the Canadian Domestic Missions, especially, and in the French Missions of Lower Canada. Indeed, religiously, it has been the Society's most prosperous year, and bespeaks beforehand the necessity for unflagging devotedness, and abounding liberality this year, and shews that the more signal the past success, the more imperative is coming duty.

The following statistics of the Society in Canada, will, though greatly condensed, exhibit the state and progress of the Missions the past year. The Society had under its management 25 Indian Missions in Canada and the Hudson's Bay Territory, 120 Domestic Missions among the New Settlers, 5 French Missions among the Romanists of Canada East, 25 Missionaries to Indians, besides supplies from Domestic Missions, 163 Missionaries to Whites and French, including about 25 under Chairmen, 20 Day Schools, 2 Industrial Institutions, 20 Teachers, 12 Interpreters, and 1 Printing Establishment. There have been conducted many Sabbath Schools, and many Bible Classes for Youth, and there has been much valuable, gratuitous labour performed on the Missions by many leaders, stewards, local preachers, exhorters and Sabbath School teachers; and their labour has not been in vain in the Lord. There were 1787 Indian Members of the Church last year, being an increase of 329. There were 17,725 White and French Members—increase 2,985. In addition to the contingent expenses of management, travelling, printing, supplies for schools, mission buildings and furniture, and special allowances for affliction, the Society maintained wholly or in part 150 Missions last year, and supported 220 Agents.

Such a number of Missions and Agents is exceedingly gratifying, and would of itself be sufficient for a respectable Mission Conference; and it shows the position and efficiency which God has given to the Missionary Department of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada,—a Department which for several years has been enthusiastically sustained in its large, increasing, and unavoidable expenditure, by the munificent contributions of the members and friends of united Canada Methodism. The Youth and Children of the families and Sabbath Schools of the Connexion have in some places thronged the Lord's treasury with their multifarious offerings, and while He has smiled upon, and welcomed them, many a parent, minister, and teacher must have thanked God for the effect he had vouchsafed to affectionate instructions given. The most cheering of the statistics is the very large increase of Members, and it will not escape notice, that of the seven thousand accessions last year to the Wesleyan Church, nearly one half were on the Missions; and of these hundreds were Indians. The fact has brought to mind the early day of Indian evangelization, when the word did "swiftly run," and the praises of the Methodists were never silent. The Gospel gladdens by its fertility. Faithful Wesleyan husbandmen still reap with joy their anticipated harvests; and, not seldom, sheaves are eternally garnered. Recently conversions have taken place among the Natives under Native ministrations, on the bleak north shore of Lake Superior, and at the Mission Rooms in Toronto, suspended strings of charms, beads and crosses are the valued trophies of the power of Protestant truth over papal and pagan falsehoods.

To Him whose Name is great in Israel, be the most devout thanksgivings presented for the amplitude and utility He has given to these and other Christian Missions; for the protection and aid of his own adorable Providence and Spirit He has vouchsafed to His Servants at whatever post labouring; for the peace, spirituality, accessions and hopes at the various Stations; and for the grace which has prompted the doings of the tens of thousands who patronize this Society! And to the numerous Ministers, Officers, Collectors, and Subscribers, adult and juvenile, of all the Branch Societies, and Friends of all Churches, who have contributed to the funds, the Committee beg heartily to acknowledge the great obligations of the Society.

The Committee have bestowed unremitting care on the appropriations, that there might be strict economy in the expenditure, and yet justice done to the different Missions. And it is with concern they wish every statement, name, and figure in the Report may be found correct; but it is to be feared that the very late transmission of certain local reports, and occasional illegibility in the hurried hand-writing of some of the Secretaries, have led to mistakes which the Committee would with pleasure have wholly escaped.

An attempt, it will be seen, is made to compress the Report, without diminishing the amount and interest of the prized intelligence conveyed, that the expense of publication may not be greater than necessary. In 1833, the General Annual Report occupied twenty pages, and the printing of it cost £13 10s. 0d. Since then the twenty have become more than two hundred dense pages, and the thirteen pounds ten, for twelve hundred copies, nearly three hundred pounds for five thousand copies.

These contrasts in mere expenses imply what the Missionaries and Supporters of this cause, have done, and God done by them, in twenty-five years; and there is high encouragement in 1858 to ask, where will the faith and philanthropy of the friends of this Society lead them the next fourth of a century in extending Christ's Kingdom? The Committee would hearken and obey, while He is saying to His people, as of old, "Ye are my witnesses saith the Lord, that I AM GOD."

INDIAN MISSIONS.

The Wesleyan Missions among the Aboriginal Tribes—many of them long established—have never ceased to call forth the best sympathies and zeal of the Christian public of Canada; and though peculiar obstacles have prevented any one of them from becoming a self-supporting Mission, in several ways the Indians have in some degree aided the Society's funds; and the great deficiency has been supplied by the voluntary liberality of others. The large and continued outlay has been productive of many of the advantages of religion, education and civilization; and there is no part of the Society's domain of usefulness, the Committee survey with a greater assurance of its past utility and present necessity. It is a work of mercy, and the Methodist Church in prosecuting it has been "twice blessed" It is a work of justice too, and it has been felt that a people too often "scattered and peeled," deserved the compensations which the Gospel grants. Jealousy of the Society's operations, and bigoted attempts to limit them, have not been wanting during this, or any former year; but the preservation and extension of numbers and influence on the Indian Missions have made this apparent, that those efforts are the unbrotherly doings of a futile Puseyism.

There could not, without reprehension be, and there has not been, any relaxation of endeavour this year for these Missions. The more perfect the moral and social condition of the Natives, the more awakening are their dangers, and the more necessary Pastoral counsel and watchfulness. This is well understood, and very deeply felt; and however humiliating the opinion may be, the closer the contiguity of these settlements to Indian settlements, the more obligatory is resistance to imposition and ungodliness. The history of Missions and of discovery supplies many saddening evidences of the fact, that afar in the desert a comparatively artless and unsuspecting demeanour and hospitality are found, while an approach to the confines of civilization opens scenes of selfishness and vice. This is a repulsive topic, and yet it is not to be kept from sight; and the reasons for so anomalous a fact must be considered for practical purposes, when now, perhaps, two hundred thousand Indians in British North America, are little better than pagans. It is not in the nature of the Gospel to deteriorate and decimate, but to improve humanity of every condition and country, and prolong and bless the lives of the men of the desert: and the fault—the sin is in civilized men, when their presence is deliterious. It is not Christianity that is to blame,—it is not Christian men who degrade and destroy the untutored or tutored Tribes of any wilderness, but the policy of some ethnologists, and the viciousness of mere professors of Christianity. The predicted, cruel, final extinction of the Indian races, is not the decree of Providence, but the abhorrent device of bad men for purposes of cupidity and dominion.

At an eventful period, when an immensely larger Indian field of usefulness in the expanded North West, than Canada could ever present, invites the Society, the subject of Indian Evangelization assumes undecaying importance, and the Committee will not traitorously reverse the settled order of God's instrumentality, nor submit to the dictum of a vaunted philosophy which would make science supreme. They deprecate it, and cannot consent to the Gospel having even a co-ordinate, much less a subordinate place in modern means for the world's enlightenment. Christianity first, civilization next, and civilization as the effect of Christianity, is the unchangeable policy of this Society, whether in the wilderness of Canada, or on the waters, or prairies, or mountains, or gold fields of the Hudson's Bay Territory. When in this age costly schemes are patronized, which, to speak cautiously, give the precedence to Christianity with great reluctance, if at all, it is most satisfactory to quote from the attractive Mis-ionary work on Africa, by the veteran Moffatt, of the noble London Society, the following matured opinion:

"Much has been said about civilizing savages, before attempting to evangelize them. This is a theory which has obtained an extensive prevalence among the wise men of the world; but we have never yet seen a practical demonstration of its truth. It is very easy in a country of high refinement to speculate on what might be done among rude and savage men, but the Christian Missionary, the only experimentalist, has invariably found that to make the fruit good, the tree must first be made good, and that nothing less than the power of Divine grace can reform the hearts of savages, after which the mind is susceptible of those instructions, which teach them to adorn the Gospel they profess, in their attire as well as in their spirit and actions. . . . The Gospel alone can lead the savage to appreciate the arts of civilized life, as well as the blessings of redemption."

The following reports from Indian Missions, and others in past years, very cogently convince the Committee that the Society's practice is scriptural and efficient; and when so many distant and expectant pagan tribes now want its services, unflinching adherence to this tried practice, and implicit dependence upon God, are present and perpetual duties. Many a scene of Christian order and of beauty has been beheld in association with the patient labours of this Society's Missionaries among Indians; and to sustain their spiritual hopes, the Lord of the whole earth is still saying to them in their toils—"I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together: that they may see and know, and consider; and understand together, that the hand of the Lord hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it."

From NEW CREDIT several letters during the year, and not an annual report, have brought intelligence only in part encouraging. The location is physically unfavourable, immoral white men have furnished temptations, and the school was somewhat discouraging; still, the very useful efforts of the Rev. David Wright, for the Indian classes and school and neighbourhood have greatly benefitted a people, for whom, at the old Credit, some of the best zeal of the Wesleyan Church was expended, and among 118 Members there is much true piety and social proficiency.

The oldest Mission of the Society, GRAND RIVER, is regularly reported by the Rev. Thomas Fawcett as being prosperous. The Church premises have been improved, a small church erected by the Indians has been opened in the interior of the Reserve, the Sabbath School is doing good, and he says:

"Several precious souls have been truly converted; some who were regarded as hopeless cases, having been for a long time real drunkards, a terror to their families, and a nuisance to society. Four of whom have become leaders of praying bands. Praise the Lord! his Gospel is still "the power of God unto salvation." Our congregations, are very good, and generally we have experienced times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. The classes are regularly met, and prove to be means of grace of very great spiritual good to our people.

"Amongst those departed this life, are Abraham Carpenter, for some years an Assistant Missionary. In his affliction he expressed full confidence that his peace was made with God, and that he was not afraid to die. And John Green, who for more than three years was confined to his bed, but a happy soul—a bright Christian, his end gloriously triumphant—he could, and did in death exclaim, "Victory! Victory! through the Blood of the Lamb!"

MOUNT ELGIN AND MUNCEY, consisting of Indians of several nations, maintains its efficiency, though an instability which appears there, as on all the Missions, is complained of, yet not with surprise. The surprise would be, if a race, for immemorial ages subject to the vagrancy of wilderness-life, were, in less than forty years, as settled and tractable as a civilized people. The Rev. James Musgrove, Chairman of the Chatham District, writes with great respect of his colleagues on the Mission, the Rev. M. Whiting, Brothers Sickles and Halfmoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Falkner, the School Teachers, and adds:

"On this Mission we report a small increase in Church membership over the past year. About forty were admitted on trial, several were dropped for neglect of duty, a few were expelled, and seven have passed away from the Church on earth to the Church in Heaven. Among those who died were three of our Chippewa Chiefs. The death of Chief Mondway was happy and triumphant.

"We have had our full number of children (40) in attendance at the Industrial Institution through the year. They have been clothed, fed, and educated. Most of them are young men and women; and, as heretofore, have been kept at work on the farm and in the house. Several of the boys and girls have made considerable proficiency in their studies, and are regularly meeting in class. The Bible class and Sabbath School have both been attended too, as usual; and 6,636 verses have been recited through the year."

The respected Missionary at ST. CLAIR writes of trials, and of progress, a progress which the Committee are aware may be attributed to his labours at St. Clair and among the Indians of Sauble River, who have this year appropriated £300 to their School, the Missionary Society, the Mount Elgin Institute, and their Camp Meeting. The Rev. S. Waldron states that,

"During the past year this Mission in its several departments has been decidedly improved. The attendance upon the ordinances of religion has not been interrupted as formerly by their roving habits. Special attention has been given to revival meetings; the young people together with backsliders have been gathered into the Fold of Christ, and are now meeting in class under experienced Leaders, and are doing well.

"The state of our Mission School is highly gratifying and prosperous. Several of the children give evidence of a change of heart, and meet in class."

The native converts and hearers at WALPOLE ISLAND have for the most part been steadfast, and there are other indications among them of fruit of Missionary labour, and when the Mission buildings, sanctioned by a grant from the Committee, shall have been completed, much good may be expected there.

The native labourer at the PIC River, Brother Blaker, has not spent his strength in vain.

"The attendance of our people upon the means of grace has so far been very encouraging. Our prayer and class meetings are always well attended. I am happy to know that in some degree we have not altogether laboured in vain. Here are some souls who once were ignorant, dark, and blind, but now have felt the convicting power of the gospel, and are rejoicing in God their Saviour. The deep toned feeling evinced in the relation of their Christian experience, with which they dwell on the precious name of Jesus, which kindles in the Indian heart, enables him with hope and confidence to look to Ishpeming, Heaven, as his future home, while tears of joy course freely down the faces of these sons and daughters of Suprior. Often on these delightful occasions do they sing the sweet melodies of Zion. These are the bright spots. The number in Society is thirty-three, five of those joined this winter and this spring. There are others who wish to unite with us, in our Church, but have not yet experienced the change of heart; yet they are trying. God have mercy! Christ is willing. A few have made gardens, and others intend to do the same. Three or four intend to build houses.— There are numbers who wish to be baptized, and a great many children. One Catholic woman got converted and joined our Church."

Brother Ashquabe, of MICHIPICOTON is cheered in his efforts for the souls of his own people.

"We have had pretty good congregations at preaching and prayer meetings. Some souls got converted, and became new to our great God in Heaven. The Priest is at Michipicoton; this is how the third time he has visited at this place, but the great work of the true Spirit amongst the poor Indians is so deep that he can not do anything with them. Twenty-two have been changing of their old religion, and become new to God, and give up all their prayer beads, and their crosses, and every thing else, and join the Methodist Church. Six houses to be built this summer. Some have planted potatoes this Spring. Some had none to sow. Nine families came here from the Pic, which I was acquainted with. They came here on purpose to hear the word of God."

Letters respecting GARDEN RIVER, received during the year from the Rev. Thomas Hurlburt, then Chairman of the Lake Superior District, shew that this Mission is yet beset by the unfriendly and Puseyitical zeal of others, and that the Indians are much exposed to the machinations of intemperate persons. It is, however, the scene of virtue and religious consistency on the part of many Indians, and the Station continues to exert a salutary influence on the Lake Superior Missions.

NEWASH is no longer a Mission—no longer, like the Credit and Grape Island, the place where resound the sacred songs of converted Indians. The Chairman of the Owen's Sound District, the Rev. C. Vandusen, thus affectingly writes:

"They have to leave this Mission by the first of June, and have made no preparations for a Spring crop at Cape Crocker, where they are expected to settle. Several families have wandered to other parts, some to Colpoys Bay, and but a few to the Cape. Many of them have been absent from this place nearly all the past winter; but most of those who remained at the Mission to enjoy the means of grace continue faithful. A few back-sliders have been reclaimed, and some Roman Catholics, belonging to the Band, have been hopefully converted to God, and have united with us in society. During the latter part of the winter both the Day School and the Sabbath School have frequently been discontinued, for several days, on account of the absence of whole families of Indians from this place."

The Indians at COLPOY'S BAY are not without present favourable tokens, how long to enjoy them in security is a problem. Mr. Vandusen says:

"The means of grace have been kept up among themselves regularly every Sabbath, and they have been visited by the Missionary or Teacher from Newash.—Last Sabbath we attended a Quarterly Meeting at this place. At the close of the exercises of the day, a pagan, recently converted to God, presented himself and family, consisting of five children, for baptism. His wife having been previously baptized and some of his children grown up to mature age, they all united in society. The small number of members at this Mission is also being increased by several families coming in from Newash to plant corn, and remain during the year, which may render it necessary for a Missionary or School Teacher to be sent among them."

Of SAUGEEN, the Rev. J. K. Williston thus writes encouragingly, and with thanks to the Father of mercies:—

"In addition to the blessings granted to several members of our own family, we have seen some fruit among the people of our charge of the good seed sown on the Mission. Some have began anew to give their hearts to God,—a few have been converted. I think our Indians are in an improving state; but little irregularity among them. Our prospects are brightening, and a pleasing advance is distinctly perceptible. Our increase for the year is nine, and others who have not yet joined with us as members, are under serious impressions. Our congregation on the Sabbath is increasing."

water those at SNAKE ISLAND are a part, and to a remaining religious experience among them the Rev. W. Herkimer bears this testimony :

"Our Sabbath and week day meetings have been well attended, when the brethren were at home. There are some faithful souls on this Mission, who, I believe, are striving to serve God and get to Heaven; but the soul-destroying sin of drunkenness is too prevalent among our young men. We still hope they will all be brought to see their folly, turn to God, and be saved in Heaven. We have forty-two children on our school book, but the attendance is not so good as we could wish."

RAMA, well situated on the beautiful Lake Couchiching, opposite Orillia, contains the largest portion of the Indians once living at Orillia and Coldwater, and with the exception of no notice of the Day School, the following concise report from the Rev. G. McDougal is complete and very satisfactory.

"This band numbers in all two hundred and eight; of these one hundred and sixty are strictly temperate, thirty-seven occasionally drink, twelve are drunkards. Seventy-one are Church members, thirty-nine regularly attend Sabbath School, twelve are Roman Catholics, and two families profess to be Episcopalians. One of these is respectable, the other is notoriously wicked. A striking mark of improvement is, we have not to complain of the roving habits of this people.— With few exceptions they have made it a point of duty to be in the House of God on the Lord's day. Our new and beautiful Church is an object of deep interest to the Rama band, and what was last year a cause of deep anxiety, has not only been completed, but with the exception of $20, paid for. A large part of the annuity for this year has been spent in purchasing farming implements. If spared to another year, we hope to report large improvements in this department. In the past year the Angel of mercy has truly camped round about this village. But one adult has died, and general good health now prevails."

There is advance among the BEAUSOLIEL ISLAND Indians, and of the last Quarterly Meeting held by the Rev. E. Sallows he writes :

"Being destitute of a place large enough to hold the congregation, the Indians erected a large tent of poles, covered it with sails and quilts, put logs for seats, made a platform and communion rail. The Potawatamies being aware of our approaching meeting, kept up dancing and drinking for several days previous, and used their influence to get as many to join them as possible. Notwithstanding we had a large attendance. Several of the Tawaws were present. A gracious influence accompanied the word; ten children were baptized, and two couple married. A son of the Tawaw Chief and his daughter joined our Church, and many others are upon the eve of following his example. They were present at our Lovefeast and Sacrament, which was a soul-refreshing season. It will be a day long to be remembered, give us a good influence, and prove a hard blow to Paganism."

Not only has FRENCH RIVER had attention, as usual, from the Missionary at Beausoliel Island, but this year a Teacher has been sent, and the result has justified the expense.

"Our school teacher has kept up religious services among the Indians and has encouragement to believe his labours are not in vain in the Lord. There are a few members of the Church who are meeting in class and prayer meetings. There are about fourteen children attending the day school, and some adults who are anxious to learn to read and write. At Shawwenegog we have nine members of the Church who have moved to that place. There are several Pagans who are prepared for christian baptism and are anxious to join our Church. If a School Teacher could be sent there he might have a large School and be useful. The Indians will help to build a school house, &c."

SCHOOGOG, where there are 14 members of the Wesleyan Church, is supplied with the word and ordinances from Cartwright, as are small classes of Natives at Wardsville and Amherstburgh from other Domestic Missions.

The ALNWICK Mission, the people of which received so much of the valuable attention of the late William Cass from the time of their joyous conversion on the Bay of Quinte, deserves the support of the public for its religious, social, and educational utility, though remaining Indian prejudices, and the white man's snares retard the work superintended by the Rev. Sylvester Hurlburt, and yet aided by the Rev. John Sunday, one of the earliest converts of this esteemed tribe; and prayer will still be made that those who received their chief christian training on Grape Island, may, as in past times, supply evangelists for distant pagan tribes.

An admirable report of RICE LAKE, was received at the proper time from the Rev. Wellington Jeffers, and only a necessary brevity prevents its full insertion. The Day and Sabbath Schools have been encouraging, Missionary subscriptions have been increased considerably, and a successful Temperance Society has been formed. He gratefully writes:

"I have to thank our Heavenly Father, that though suffering from ill-health during the greater part of the year, the religious state of this community has not declined, but that some progress has been made, and that I have been enabled, in a great measure, to perform the duties of a Missionary for the latter part of the year. When I came to this Mission, I found thirty-two names on the class books, as members of society, so that we have had a net increase of twenty-seven. The classes are well attended, and we have our Church filled every Sabbath with attentive hearers.

"The Christian Church owes duties to the Aboriginal tribes which it must perform, or the blessing of God will never rest upon the land. They may be a people scattered and peeled; but they have received their chief injuries from the whites, they have souls which must live forever; and that gospel which has been mighty to regenerate the races of our earth, I trust, will not fail here."

HUDSON'S BAY MISSIONS.

The occupied Wesleyan Missions of the Hudson's Bay Territory, while they are liberally countenanced by the Honourable Company, and many instances of hospitality on the part of gentlemen at the different posts, are gratefully acknowledged by the Society, continue to maintain their efficiency and usefulness in charge of the four devoted Missionaries, the Revs. Messrs. Robert Brooking, Chairman of the Bay District, Thomas Woolsey, Charles Stringfellow, and Henry B. Steinhaur, and the subjoined statements relating to their respective Stations, will, doubtless, gratify their zealous Canadian supporters.

From copious Letters very recently received from them, large extracts will be made for the Canada Notices, they being too long for the Annual Report. The Committee has no pleasure in saying that the Missionaries have experienced a good deal of affliction and trial, and that, though she is now much restored, the health of Mrs. Brooking, an assiduous friend of the Indians, was painful and precarious. Last year it was a matter of sincere regret, and of unavoidable cost to the Society, the return of the Rev. Thomas Hurlburt, in consequence of the decline in Mrs. Hurlburt's health; and since then the return of Miss Adams, the valued Teacher at Rossville. Shortly after the Conference of 1857, too, Mrs. Salt's health failing, the Rev. Allen Salt had to take work in Canada. These were unexpected and expensive changes, but it is hoped they will be beneficially overruled by Providence.

Several strong reasons exist for a vigorous and unpostponed extension of Wesleyan Missions in the Bay District. One is, the ignorant and deplorable moral and temporal condition of large bodies of Native wanderers, speaking different languages, and roaming from Labrador to Fraser's River. Another is, the long and now almost hopeless expectation of a number of bands of the services of Wesleyan Missionaries. Another, the resolute and wary zeal of Papal-emissaries to Romanize and proselyte the Tribes, and thereby block up the way of future Protestant effort: and nothing is a more subtle obstruction to the religion of Christ than the religion of Rome. Another reason is, the presence and increase in the Territory of free-traders in alcoholic liquids, who break through the commendable reserve of the Honourable Company with Indians in a trade so demoralizing and destructive of life. Then, the almost certain influx and settlement of thousands of adventurers from many countries with their vices and recklessness, making it of present importance that Christian and Protestant Missionaries should go in numbers to forestall evil, and frustrate disastrous purposes. The present popular and beneficial position of the Wesleyans in the Territory is a pledge of perseverance, and, while as ever they are the friends of all, their energetic purpose will be to denounce and abolish Popery, Puseyism, and Paganism.

NORWAY HOUSE.—Mr. Brooking transmits from Rosville, and in good form, precisely the particulars of his Mission the Committee wish from every Bay Mission yearly, and in time for the Annual Report, the printing of which, after this year, will be commenced at the end of June.

“By the blessing of God, besides the quickening of some who had grown lukewarm, we have admitted during the year twenty persons of different ages, most of whom are walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comforts of the Holy Ghost. We have also received eight from other places, so that the numerical state of the Church stands at 158.

“I am thankful to state that during the year the congregations have been very good, and when the people are at home, their attendance on the means of grace has been exemplary; and with few exceptions, the classes have been met with regularity.

“During the past winter we had considerable difficulties with some of our young people, arising from the presence of the Free Traders from Red River: I trust, however, for a better state of things. I must, nevertheless, repeat what I have said to you before, that indiscriminate free trade will be the ruin of the Indians of these parts; so that the philanthropic people of Canada will do well to consider the best means of protecting the poor Indians from that class of people which must necessarily be employed in these regions, before society is let loose upon them.

“With regard to the inhabitants of this Mission, we have lost by death since Mr. Hurlburt left, three infants by whooping cough, one little boy, and one adult by drowning, another by sudden death, and another by scrofula, making a loss of seven by death. Two have removed to other places; but on the other hand, we have received from other places fifteen, and we have had twenty births, so that there has been a net increase of the population of Twenty-six during the past year.

“Five additional houses of a superior description are now being erected, and three others which were commenced last fall are being finished; several other Indians are collecting materials in order to build as soon as possible, so that our village is beginning to assume quite an imposing appearance. I do all in my power to assist them in building, by making sashes and preparing the boards for the doors, which takes up no small amount of my time; but I am willing to do all in my power to encourage them in building, for while two, and sometimes three large families crowd into one small house, habits of decency and delicacy of feeling cannot be cultivated amongst them. They are also clearing a larger surface of land this year, yet not so much as they would have done but for the scarcity of seed potatoes; both the Mission crop, and also that at the Hon. Company's Post, having partially failed.

"The School has also been continued through the year with the exception of two or three unavoidable vacations; and the Teachers have commendably exerted themselves in imparting a knowledge of those branches of education which are usually taught in schools of a similar kind elsewhere. I am sorry to say, however, that the success has not corresponded with the amount of the efforts made. I do not think this is from a want of capacity, on the part of the children, but because it is next to impossible, by any amount of efforts put forth by the teachers, to make them pay that attention which is necessary, arising from the loose way in which children are brought up by their parents.

"The number of children in the school at present is fifty-three girls, and forty-five boys, making a total of ninety-eight, with an average attendance at this time of about eighty-five.

"In consequence of the rapid increase of the population, more room is absolutely necessary in our Church, as we have not at present room enough to accommodate our village Indians; and when strangers are present, as there are more or less through the summer months, numbers cannot gain admittance, as was the case last Sabbath. In order to meet this want in the most economical way, we must erect a gallery for the school children so as to leave the centre of the Church which they now occupy for the congregation. The Indians are collecting materials for this purpose, and I hope to get it done without much expense to the Committee."

OXFORD HOUSE.—Mr. Stringfellow has the advantage of following a faithful servant of the Society, yet does not, as is learnt from his correspondence with the General Superintendent of Missions, escape the disappointments and discouragements inseparable from an Indian Mission in an unpolished country. This consideration, however, will sustain him and Mrs. Stringfellow, they who faithfully discharge, as they are doing, the most trying duties, confer the amplest advantages on men, and secure the highest rewards. The following portion of Mr. Stringfellow's last extracts from his Journal will be approved.

"March 7, 1858.—At the Fort to-day, whilst preaching, the people seemed to pay more than ordinary attention. I observed that one Indian was not present whom I before noticed paid considerable attention invariably; on enquiry, I found, as I suspected, he was sick. I visited him and spoke of eternal things, and prayed at the close of the visit. He was far gone in consumption—was an old servant of the Hon. Hudson's Bay Company. He shortly after died. He was a man of few words and calm manners. We hope all is well, but were not permitted to hear the assurance.

"11.—Visited a sick boy, nigh death. By his side sat his weeping, widowed mother. I found him fast dying. His complaint was originally whooping-cough.

"13.—Made a coffin and interred the child I saw on the evening of the 11th.

"14.—Received letters from Canada and England. As welcome as "cold waters, to a hot and thirsty soul!" These were our first letters out of Canada and England.

"28.—Sabbath. Found from some of the Indian's prayers, that they need a clearer, plainer, fuller exhibition of the gospel's saving light.

"April 2.—Dogs scarcely able to walk, from the little food they get, owing to the scarcity of fish. And yet we have to compel them to draw fire wood.

"5.—Indians very destitute of food, &c. I saw one poor woman taking away for herself and child fish offal—the portion of dogs.

"6.—More starvation among the Indians. Poor Indians of the North West!

"16.—Visited a sick Indian in his home. Spoke to him pointedly. Found the Indians cooking and eating a fish, called Ma-ri. It is a kind of fish they despise, and my own starved dogs leave lying about untouched. Hunger must be a sharp thorn!

"22.—To-day we were able to welcome the introduction into the world of our first child. Mrs. S. is not doing well after her confinement.

"24.—Much grieved by the conduct of unfaithful Indian servants.

"May 30.—Sabbath. This morning Mr. Brooking arrived from Norway House. During the day he preached two faithful sermons and baptized our boy.

"June 9.—First boats of the season passed on their way to York Fort.

"19.—A large boat was seen sailing into the Bay; we found it contained about sixty Indians, who had returned from their winter quarters, and had come to the Mission, many of them for the first time. They never before were within the walls of God's house, or listened to the words of eternal life. Thirteen adults in the evening came to request baptism. I questioned all and soon was satisfied of their suitability to receive the ordinance, from their direct and unhesitating answers to the scriptural questions put to them. One of these, the "Guide" of the Oxford Brigade, was persuaded to become a Christian by the holy living and dying of one of our recent leaders, who died since my coming; and, in answer to the question, "Do you believe in Jesus Christ, as the Saviour and only hope of man?" he replied with deep earnestness and feeling: Ah, ah, metoone ne tepwatan. "Yes, really I believe." Such a testimony, coming from the heart of, perhaps, the most influential Indian of his tribe, is really cheering, and tells of the silent but steady progress of the "Kingdom of righteousness." Renewed tickets of membership to more than sixty persons after the prayer meeting, which meeting has now continued for one week, on every evening.

"20.—Sabbath. To-day I held a lovefeast, preached twice—(in the morning on the sin of drunkenness, and in the afternoon on the duty of keeping the Sabbath)—baptized twelve adults and four children, and administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, to about seventy communicants. Our Church was well filled with devout hearers. I heard of the death of Robert Temapin, a young man who has been most of the winter at the Mission, very sick, and still growing worse and worse. His disease was consumption. He died at the Fort. I could not be present at his death-bed, but I feel assured that he has found it "better to depart and be with Christ." His piety was most decided, his love to prayer and praise remarkable, his fluency and power in public prayer was often a blessing to those present. We felt greatly endeared to him, and although his removal is a further loss, yet it is his great gain,—from his deep and constant sickness and poverty, to the health, joy and eternal bloom of the heavenly Paradise."

LAC-LA-PLUIE.—The departure of Mr. Salt from this Station, because of his wife's ill health, was regretted by the Committee, and, as subsequent circumstances shew, at a time when achievements awaited him after severe conflict with the heathen. The truth he disseminated with prayer, and his Christian consistency, made a silent impression even on his most superstitious opponents; and ere this, if the Society had found it practicable, a successor would have been sent. The Chairman of the District says, "With regard to Lac-La-Pluie, I hope that a brother will be appointed without delay. I am told by the gentleman who was in charge of that post last year, that the Indians are desirous of settling down now, and they have been asking him if another Missionary is coming there. He also says, that Mr. Salt's name is held almost sacred among them."

EDMONTON-HOUSE AND ROCKY MOUNTAIN.—Though the letters from this remote Station do not yet contain many Society statistics, and none lately have been received from his colleague, Mr. Steinhaur, Mr. Woolsey's are full of facts and interest, and present a wide and stirring field where an apostle might find sufficient latitude for his zeal. The conveniences and proprieties of civilized life are wanting, and the tasteful parsonage, and commodious church have not yet beautified and blessed their scene of labour, but they are busy with the important and arduous preliminaries, and those objects shall yet appear on the Saskatchewan Plains, and evangelized villages shall stud them, and where now is wilderness, there will be songs unto God, and the hallowed doings in the desert of Christian Missionaries, be hailed by travellers of many nations, as they pass by the projected British high-way from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean. Mr. Woolsey says in his journal—

"A more thorough acquaintance with our work more than confirms the fact that there are many amongst the Aborigines who most urgently endorse the language of the New Zealand Chief, "Make haste! make haste! for my sun is fast going down!" and, therefore, whatever can be done must be done quickly, though we are surrounded by many, who, having been deluded by the Man of Sin, would fain drive us out of their coasts, but 'the Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

"Jan. 6, 1858.—A gentleman, in charge of a remote post, who has been accustomed to allow his children to go to the priest, plainly told one of those dignitaries to-day, that so long as there is the least opportunity for them being otherwise taught, such shall be done. This resolve was at once charged home upon me, but he was plainly told that Protestant ministers did not fetter the views and opinions of their people.

12.—"Twenty scholars under instruction, most of whom are the children of Romanists. No ragged school can be more trying than mine. Inkstands are upset, slates broken, books torn, and cursing and swearing most alarmingly indulged in. They often rush from their seats to fight or wrestle with each other, and when, interfered with, threaten to revenge themselves on me. There is a striking difference between the children of Protestants and Romanists.

"31.—Sabbath. My singers being off to the plains, Dr. Hector (of the British scientific party) kindly acted as p ecentor. The regular attendance of J. Swanson, Esq., and his worthy family, together with the above named gentleman, act as a powerful incentive to duty, but the fear of man sometimes embarrasses.

"Feb. 3.—I proffered to officiate at the funeral of a child who died yesterday, but was not allowed, although their own priest was not near them.

"8.—Received a letter from my colleague, who, though greatly indisposed, has recently visited two camps of Crees. He observes: "I have read and expounded part of the gospel of St. Mark and catechized the children. The old Chief, Mas-ka-pe-toon, gave me a hearty welcome." An adult desired baptism. He, however, explained the rite, and deferred the ordinance until another time.

"12.—To our great surprise the Express has arrived, being twenty-one days earlier than last year. But little correspondence. The atrocities in India and the Hudson's Bay Territory question seem to be the all-absorbing topics of the different journals.

" We weep for those that weep below,
And, burdened for the afflicted, sigh."

"It is prophesied that the time is approaching when we may hear the rattle and the snoring of the iron-horse, bearing aloft the red-cross banner, as he wends his way, and ejects his hot breath in scaling the Rocky Mountains of North America."

"16.—I have just heard that a school is being conducted at the Romish Mission, St. Ann's Lake. As we are effecting all we can in that respect probably they have taken the alarm. There are four priests and two assistants in this section and only two Protestant Missionaries. Where are our brethren who can say, " Here am I send me?"

"March 21.—Sabbath. My colleague, who arrived late last evening, favoured us with a Cree service. There were several Romanists present, some of whom were very attentive. Others, through fear of assembling publicly with us, met in an adjoining room, and in the kitchen beneath, where they doubtless heard every word uttered. English duties were also attended to. Several visited us subsequently. May this day's duties tell upon eternity.

"24.—Brother Steinhaur left, having conducted two other services, besides conversing extensively with the natives.

"27.—My time has been much taken up with different tribes of Indians. I have been visited by eight Chiefs, viz: two Blackfeet, two Sarcees, and four Crees. The baptism of Mas-ka-pe-toon's mother has proved a very interesting service. Occasion was taken to set before others the nature of the ordinance, and also to urge upon all adults, who might desire baptism, the entire abandonment of all their Pagan practices, and a serious attention to all the instructions they might hereafter receive, upon their reception of the truths propounded by us. For some days past, in the absence of my interpreter for even a limited space, I have often been requested to read the Cree to the people, and am happy to find that I am tolerably well understood.

"28.—Sabbath. Our Cree morning service proved exceedingly interesting. An aged woman wept greatly: text, Numb. xxi., 8 and 9. Four services have been conducted. 'The seed shall multiply and grow.'

dians, a Cree and an Assineboine, both of whom have doubtless entered into rest, although their bodies were deposited in very rudely constructed graves, and stones placed over them to hinder the wolves from devouring them. They spent their last moments in urging upon others the blessings of salvation, and then, after frequently commending their spirits to God, passed away to the regions of eternal day. I administered the Lord's Supper to the former last November; and was pleased to learn that when the time came for him attending upon the Supper of the Lamb, that he was quite ready, and died in the very act of uttering the Lord's prayer. It may be truly said of him,—

"In his last hours he lifts his hands and cried,
'Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,' and died."

These are trophies of the blood-stained cross—not the devotees of a brass-mounted crucifix. Two of the children belonging to the last named, bear the baptismal names of John Wesley and George Whitfield. May the Father of the fatherless be their protector and friend !"

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

These are emphatically the Home Missions of Canadian Wesleyan Methodism, originated in the pious benevolence by which it is distinguished, and strengthened, and pushed out to the farthest limits by an admirable pertinacity of purpose from year to year. There have never been lacking the specious schemes of others to decoy the Society from its purpose, but it has scrupulously followed the matchless method of Wesley, for enlarging and consolidating the work of God in the land; and hitherto it has, as its funds sufficed, met the requirements of the population, and obtained the respect and the thanks of tens of thousands, who owe their chief religious privileges, and temporal advantages to its agency. It is, next to the Circuit system, the most expensive department of the Church's enterprize, the most rapid in its extension, and, in the aggregate, the most spiritually and socially productive.

The Committee have seen by thousands anxious emigrants and new settlers passing the but-recently settled frontiers of men, and have hastened after them, so that, very likely, their first visitor in solitude has been the Methodist Missionary, who, not having waited till he was sent for, is the more welcome: and he must be a Missionary who is to appreciate fully the honours and joys, the gratitude and tears of such a back-woods occasion, when a Christian spectator would say, Here are the pure poetry and power of an apostolic Itinerancy.

Three reasons, at least, have induced such devotedness. First, the presence of busy human beings in the Country was not the presence of so many animal bodies, but of souls—redeemed, never-dying souls, all needing the truths and grace of the Gospel; and the command had been given from on high to preach the Gospel to “every creature.”

A second reason was, the progress of settlement is never stopped. The axe was heard in some lonely recess of the forest where man had not been wont to labour, and the sound was an invitation. All of domestic unity, comfort, and sufficiency waits upon that simple but invaluable instrument of progress; and day after day it is swung with effect by other and still other hands; and the wilderness becomes “a fruitful field.” The settler’s axe is the pioneer of the preacher, and the Gospel prepares men for further and indefinite progress with that useful appliance of civilization. The process is ceaseless, and, for generations, will demand Methodist Missions in Canada.

There is a third reason—the advantageous reaction which attends Missionary efforts. The Society rejoices to know that its Missions are well nigh co-extensive with the settlements, and that mutual benefits accrue. Its Missionaries have gone with the “glorious Gospel,” and the people have received it, and then sent back to the Society their acknowledgements, their prayers, and their contributions; and in this way the households of Christian shanties are known in heaven as little Missionary bands for blessing mankind.

The concise reports following will convey intelligence confirmative of these statements, and the friends of the Society will be gratified to see that the Domestic Missions have been maintained and increased with energy by a body of Labourers, who, in the midst of privations and opposition, have not fainted but triumphed.

The Domestic Missions of the Society are found in every part of the Canadas. On the Toronto District of the Canada Wesleyan Conference there are three such Missions. ORANGEVILLE, where the Rev. W. Sutton has met with great kindness, and had an increase of 40 Members. STOUFFVILLE, to supply the wants of the settlements, has employed a second labourer, and the Rev. A. Andrews reports 69 members added, two Churches completed and opened, another nearly finished, and a fourth preparing. Of PRINCE ALBERT, the Rev. J.W. Savage sends very cheering accounts of Special Meetings, Conversions, New Classes, Sabbath School, and new places for Worship.

On the Hamilton District is NANTICOKE, this year, as stated by the Rev. T. Williams, taking in new ground, and a goodly number of souls added to the Church. DUNNVILLE has more members, and improved congregations and classes, and the people are spoken well of by the Rev. P. Ker. Tried as CAYUGA has been; the Rev. J. Shaw writes encouragingly. SUSPENSION BRIDGE is unreported.* WELLAND extends into six townships, and the Rev. James Armstrong states that special efforts have been attended with good and that all the funds but one are in advance of former years. The Rev. J. Harris, though the year has not been spiritually prosperous, gives information of a new neat Church, costing £300, and increase of some of the funds, and of the transformation of the CAINSVILLE Mission into a Circuit.

On the Brantford District, DELHI has had 60 conversions under the ministry of the Rev. C. W. M. Gilbert, the people value the means, and, with few exceptions, attendance at class is punctual, while the effect is, instances of sanctification as well as of conversion.

On the London District, SRATHROY, where the Rev. R. L. Tucker notes the effect of the general financial pressure, as many of the Missionaries do in their reports, but speaks well of his Mission, where Methodism is not unopposed, and of some increase of spirituality and members to the Church. To the flourishing condition of WARWICK, the Rev. T. S. Howard thus bears testimony:—

“The Conference in her wisdom, was pleased to send two preachers to this field of labour last year for the first time, which proved a great blessing to the Mission. The past has been a year of great prosperity. God has been pleased to bless the preaching of his word to the saving of scores of souls. We now return on trial for membership 164, received as probationers during the last Quarter.

“Surely this is a field of much labour but of great promise; the people are greatly attached to Wesleyan Methodism, and it seems to be their motto always to enable the Recording Steward to report no deficiency, [though there is not a market town on the Mission], all the expenses of the Mission have been honorably met, and the connexional funds well sustained.”

WEST MCGILLIVARY—No report. The Rev. J. Foreman observes of THAMESFORD, “I have added one regular week-night appointment, and other occasional ones. We have an increase of 24 members for the year. Our congregations in most of the appointments are growing, and the prospect is bright for the future.”

Chatham District.—The Rev. William Savage, after noticing a very creditable sum, raised amidst general difficulties, for liquidating in part the heavy debt on the new Wesleyan Church at MOUNT BRIDGES, proceeds to say—

“We have opened a Brick Church in the village of Melbourne, which bids fair to prove a great blessing to a large section of country. Our success, considering there are seven Methodist Ministers belonging to succeeding bodies labouring on this Mission, is surprising, and shows clearly how beautifully adapted Wesleyan Methodism is, to the requirements of the age, and how desirous the people are to appreciate our beloved institutions. Our nett increase this year, is 136 ; all praise to the great head of the Church, who alone has accomplished this mighty work, and visited us with showers of blessings.”

WARDSVILLE is thus spoken of by the Rev. E. Peake :

“On this Mission we have had indications of good all the year. We have had extra religious services the most of the time, and the Lord has favoured us by sanctifying a few, and converting many.

“Several Indian men and women have joined on trial, and are seemingly desirous of serving God. We have no increase of members at that appointment, [owing in a great measure to most of the people residing on the other side of the river, away from our church ;] but seemingly an increased love of Methodism, prompting them to ask most imploringly ‘may we not have a Missionary of our own to live with us?’”

WALLACEBURGH has lengthened its cords, and the Missionary, Brother Ward, states, that where he found 75 members, and 17 on trial, there are now 95 members, and 55 on trial, mostly “witnessing a good confession of God’s pardoning mercy.” The year commenced with one preacher at FLORENCE, and closed with two, called for by a pleasing addition of members, classes, and appointments, and the Rev. W. Hawke says :—

“In carefully reviewing the labours of the past year, we feel grateful to God, not only for preserving and sustaining grace, but also for the great success which has attended our labours. God has been pleased to visit us with some refreshing seasons, and the Methodism of our people in general I regard as being genuine and healthy. I have been engaged in holding protracted services for almost five months in succession, during which time I have received 225 on trial into our Church. Many of the most intelligent and respectable people in this section of country have been brought to God during the past winter, and are now Christians in spirit and practice, and Methodists in doctrine. Under those circumstances we are disposed to thank God and take courage.”

The Rev. W. Dignam, after attending about forty Missionary Services, is anxious that his own Mission, MORPETH, should flourish. From SANDWICH AND WINDSOR, where Romanism and Puseyism are rife, the Rev. S. Tucker sends good news: “Our congregations have more than doubled.

We have now 34 members, and 10 on trial. We are now looking, living and labouring for better days." From PORT SARNIA the Rev. F. Berry reports an increase of 113 members, much harmony and co-operation among the official and other members, advance in finances, and improvement of church and parsonage property, efficiently aided by a Ladies' Society.

"According to suggestions offered in my last year's report, a division was made of what then was the Sarnia Mission into separate fields of labour; and although some inconvenience has been experienced, the result has fully proved the propriety of the course pursued, as spiritual and financial prosperity has been realized surpassing anything before enjoyed in any part of this country. A blessed revival of religion has been in progress a good part of the year, in which the Church is quickened, Methodism as a true development of Christianity defined, and many very interesting families added to the number of our Israel."

The Rev. J. Hodgson thus writes of the new Mission at MOORETOWN:

"By the blessing of God we are brought through another year of great toil, much anxiety, and some success. Of the trials peculiar to the commencement of operations in a new place, your Missionaries have had a large share to endure. On coming here last June, we found 35 members, now we number 65, and 35 on trial, making in all 100. We have no church on the mission, but intend to commence the building of one immediately. Financially, much has not been done, but, considering the circumstances of the people, they have done better than we expected. For a long time the rankest Puseyism and Antinomianism have spread their withering influence over the place; and now their abettors show signs of dissatisfaction with us for attempting to promote the spiritual interests of the people."

Guelf District—ELORA sends an excellent report, in which the Rev. C. Silvester has these acceptable statements:

"In closing our third year's labours on this Mission we feel devoutly thankful to the Great Head of the Church, for the success which has attended the various means of grace. The congregations have been larger at every appointment, and the cases of decided conversion to God have been more numerous than during either of the previous years of our charge. We have reason to believe that our people generally are "walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost;" but we have had to mourn over the backslidings of some, and of a failure to meet in class of others. Hence, after having borne with them for a time, we have been obliged to cut several off."

The information from the Rev. L. O. Rice, of BERLIN, is, that "the past year has been crowned with a good degree of spiritual prosperity—our membership having been largely increased—To God be all the praise. Our congregations generally have greatly enlarged, and become increasingly interesting and attentive." The Rev. E. Lohead considers ERIN an interesting field of labour; and while he regrets the interruption consequent on protracted personal affliction, is able to state, that though he began the year with 58 in the Societies, he concludes with 95, very much the fruit of special services, and the finishing of a respectable church in Erin Village. Good news comes from the Rev. Thomas Robson of WELLESLEY:

"The past year has been one of great spiritual prosperity, the congregations generally have been large and attentive. Many have received the word with all readiness of mind. The people of God with one accord met, laboured, prayed, and believed, for a revival of religion, and for the conversion of souls. Protracted services have been held at four appointments, which have been greatly blessed of God, The Spirit seemed to rest upon all who attended the meetings, therefore many youths have believed, also, women and men, not a few. About eighty persons on the Mission have experienced the pardon of their sins; the older members also have been filled with exceeding joy, while some have entered into the rest of perfect love.

"A new church was opened at Millbank early this spring, and another is in progress of erection at West's Corners; at both of which villages our congregations and societies are increasing in interest and importance, and the work generally presents an encouraging aspect, and would be greatly promoted by the addition of a second Missionary."

From ELMA, WALLACE, and HOWICK, respectively, has been sent the best news by the Rev. Messrs. Hunt, Cross, and Hough, and it would be gratifying to insert at length their well written reports of God's mercy and power in these new localities, in the conversion of many souls, erection of churches, opening of Sabbath Schools, increase of appointments, and accession of members. The Committee unite with them in raising an Ebenezer to God.

The extension of Missions, Circuits, and Districts in the West of Canada, under the supervision of indefatigable Chairmen, has been rapid, surprising, and beneficial, and developed the adaptability of the Wesleyan Itinerancy.

Goderich District.—GODERICH, by the Rev. J. S. Evans, supplies gracious indications.

"We close the third year of our labour on this Mission, with lively gratitude to God for a gracious revival, in which about thirty became decided to lead a new life—for the many edifying seasons of Christian fellowship and social worship—for the evident growth of mutual sympathy and love, and for the very delightful peace that reigned with almost undisturbed serenity. We do not report a large numerical increase, owing to a number of removals, and deaths, &c., &c., amounting in all to nearly thirty. Our membership includes some who work with zeal in the vineyard of the Lord, and whose example is being imitated by some pious youths, who, we fondly think, have before them a career of distinguished usefulness. And we have witnessed what we consider a satisfactory indication that the surrounding community regard our cause with increasing respect, confidence, and sympathy. Were our members able to erect a suitable church in town there would remain no reason whatever to doubt that our beloved Methodism would soon become highly efficient. Oh that some of God's rich stewards would aid them by gifts or loans!"

A report of STRATFORD from the Rev. T. Cosford, is proof that the office he holds of Chairman of the Goderich District, is not without perplexity and fatigue, and that duties which devolved on others, were improperly laid on him. He says:

"The heavy amount of manual labour I have been under the necessity of performing, in order to have anything like a comfortable residence, extending from June to the first of January, has greatly militated against the prosperity of the cause; while the many calls from my district, and consequently, the time I have necessarily been absent from my own circuit, has prevented me from devoting that attention to its interests which was desirable. I earnestly pray that the Church may rise in this field of labour. Nothing but a wise, united and vigorous effort on the part of both the ministers and membership will secure prosperity."

At ST. MARY'S, though the worldliness of some gives the Missionary pain, the Rev. A. Campbell states that a goodly number have been converted, and believers quickened; that a new Church is now in course of erection, and two others have their material in preparation, and that the labours of two men are essential for the Mission's certain prosperity. The Rev. A. Smith reports favourably and gratefully of MITCHELL. The Rev. E. L. Koyle is much encouraged at DEVONSHIRE, and speaks well of the spirituality and Methodism of his charge. The Missionary at BAYFIELD rejoices in the passing away of clouds, and the arrival of a day of spiritual cheerfulness. The Rev. A. Edwards of KINCARDINE affords evidence that his declarations are not vain: "God helps us. We are trying to help ourselves." BRUCE, where the Rev. S. C. Seeley has laboured, exhibits tokens for good. WAWANOSH, in the care of the Rev. W. Williams, is thus properly reported:—

"We found at the beginning of the year twelve Sabbath appointments, including three detached from Morris, fourteen classes, one Sabbath School, and one hundred and eighty-three members. During the year we have held, with the assistance of a laborious colleague and faithful Local Preacher, seventeen weeks of special services, in addition to regular appointments. We have received on trial, 52; by letter, 3; dropped, 18; two have removed, and one has gone to his heavenly rest. There are some 64 on trial, 171 members, 217 in all, leaving an increase of 34; also fourteen Sabbath appointments, 17 classes, and 3 Sabbath Schools, and two interesting Bible Classes.

"Considering the difficulties of the year, and of the field, we are encouraged with the increase of numbers, and with the fact that many have been awakened to the importance of entire holiness, which at the District Camp-meeting was the prominent theme. Some have entered into the rest of perfect love, and others, who were unacquainted with justifying grace, have found peace with God. To God be all the praise."

The Rev. T. Hadwin, of TEESWATER, and the Rev. J. Crane, of MORRIS, send intelligence which is always acceptable, especially from new Missions where there is much labour and few conveniences, when the appointments are extended, and redeemed men are regenerated.

The Lake Superior District, being chiefly Indian, contains only one Domestic Mission, BRUCE MINES, from which some favourable religious details have been received this year, and the Mission is very important to the miners in that region, and likely to be benefited by the ministry of the Rev. D. Jennings.

The Owen's Sound District consists much of Missions in uncultivated, yet rapidly improving townships, where there has to be endured by the agents not a little labour and privation. OWEN'S SOUND may shortly be expected to become a Circuit. It is stated by the Rev. J. L. Kerr,

"This Mission embraces the townships of Sydenham, Holland, Derby and Sullivan, with Owen Sound as its centre. Our congregations during the year were generally large and attentive. During the winter we have held three protracted meetings, attended with satisfactory results. We have succeeded in the completion of a neat frame Church—(Sion) 26 by 34—situated six miles from town. It was dedicated to the service of the Almighty by suitable services, conducted by Rev'ds C. Vandusen, Chairman, and George, McNamara. A trifling debt remains on the building. Our Church in this town is now being much enlarged, and will, we hope, be completed in August next. We have recently formed two new classes in destitute places, which we pray may prosper."

From St. VINCENT the Rev. G. McNamara communicates facts—an increase in the classes, tolerable success in Sabbath Schools, the death of several old members, and much fatigue in travelling, sometimes preaching four times, and riding thirty miles on a Sabbath; but he and his colleague thank God, and take courage, notwithstanding. SOUTHAMPTON has suffered from the business embarrassments of the country, and the Rev. S. Brownell writes of the year with some gloominess, yet predicts for the Mission a place among Circuits, for he has not laboured in vain for souls. ARRAN. Here the Rev. W. R. Dyre has an addition of 22 members, though he has been obliged to remove 15 names from the class books, an act as important as admitting them when necessary. "We have taken up 6 new appointments, and formed 3 new classes. The Mission now embraces parts of the townships of Arran, Elderslie, Derby, Sullivan, Keppel, and Amable. We anticipate incessant toil here, but rely on the support from on high." DURHAM has drawbacks, yet the Rev. P. Rose thanks God for the appearance of a "little cloud." MOUNT FOREST, as reported by the Rev. T. Culbert, though not without some sterility bears good fruit. PAISLEY. The Rev. J. A. Ivison writes, report prosperity in every department. The amount collected for our connexional funds, especially the Missionary Fund, is far in advance of last year. A comfortable Church has been erected at the northern extremity of the Mission. Two lots have been secured in the town plot of Paisley, for Church purposes, and during the last quarter, thirty-three persons have been admitted on trial."

HANOVER. Members too scattered to be formed into classes. Souls have been saved at special meetings, and the Rev. G. Jacques records the gift of a town lot by Mr. H. P. Adams, on which a plank parsonage has been erected. BELMORE is not without reasons for thankfulness and hope in charge of the Rev. W. Shannon. At ARTEMESIA there have been trials, and labours so abundant as to require another labourer. Attendance at worship is very encouraging, and the Rev. J. Hill states that 60 persons have professed religion and become Wesleyans, and some been sanctified.

As being connected with this District, it may be stated, that the Rev. John Hutchinson, prevented by peculiar domestic matters from proceeding to his allotted Circuit for a time, became a willing and useful pedestrian for Christ to the out-skirts of several Missions, and the following is his very acceptable report :

"Your Missionary's field of labour embraces appointments in Arran, Saugeen and Bruce, which could not be taken up by the Missionaries in the neighboring Missions. There are seven preaching places, six of them supplied with preaching once a month, and one place twice a month, making eight Sabbath appointments in the four weeks. A small society has been organized at one appointment; a site for a Church acquired, on which a Church (D V.) will be erected the ensuing summer, and for which two hundred dollars have been subscribed. The number of hearers at all the appointments reaches nearly four hundred. In occupying this field of labour, your Missionary travelled on foot over eleven hundred miles by the very worst description of roads, and he has worn more than four pairs' of boots and shoes and one suit of clothes in accomplishing his travel this year."

Barrie District.—There has been neglect in sending no reports of six Missions, BARRIE, INNISFIL, COOKSTOWN, KLINEBURGH, FLOS AND ORILLIA, and COLLINGWOOD HARBOUR, of which, though the appropriations were good, and the Missions are among the largest, the subscribers to the Society must unjustly be required to be in ignorance; for nothing is fairer, than that they who find the funds should know annually how they are expended. HOLLAND LANDING is thus reported of by the Rev. G. T. Richardson:

"During the past year we have not laboured in vain; the great head of the Church has granted us success; several have been the subjects of saving grace, and others have devoted themselves afresh to God. After deducting for removals, the nett increase is fifteen. Our beloved Methodism is taking a deeper hold upon the minds of the people, as is evinced by a large attendance upon our ministry, and a growing liberality. The extreme modesty of several friends both in the Church and out of it prevents me from giving the names of parties who have presented us with valuable donations; our prayer is, that they all may be one even as Christ and his Church are one."

NOTTAWASAGA is a rugged part of the work, yet the Rev. T. Hanna finds that the desert can somewhat rejoice, and his statements will please many—with, perhaps, one exception, that which reports, "a reserve of thirty-four for doubtful cases." His caution shews a commendable wish to preserve the consistency of the Church; but it is certain that the ecclesiastical records of the Wesleyan body of Canada, have no column for such cases, if they are still deemed Methodists. A Methodist is either in full membership or on trial, and in one or other relation must be recognized in the Class-book, and returned to the Conference; and to recognize him in neither, and yet put him in a list of reserve unknown in the Wesleyan Discipline, is to deprive him of his rights:—

"Another year has come to a close; which has been one of toil and trial, in which we have been obliged to use the pruning knife of a wholesome discipline more frequently than agreeable. Yet with gratitude to Almighty God for the prosperity with which he has crowned their toil, your Missionaries can, after deducting fifteen, the most of whom have been expelled or dropped, and three taken to another world, return an increase of twenty-four, besides a reserve of thirty-four, for doubtful cases. There is one church in Osprey in course of erection, and two in contemplation. In Nottawasaga they also think about building. May they continue to prosper is the prayer of your Missionaries; and to God be all the glory."

Cobourg District.—Though deploring some things, the Rev. W. Richardson, of CARTWRIGHT, rejoices in the justification and sanctification of men and women, and, as a result, an accession of members, and scores of additional hearers, where once scarcely any listened to the word, making bright among some dark spots. PERCY progresses in the pastoral hands of the Rev. Edward Ward.

"At the close of another conferential year, raising our Ebenezer with gratitude to God, we cry, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us!" This has been a year of toil, but we have been enabled to rejoice over the rewards of that toil in receiving additions of souls converted to our Church.

"We have felt severely on this Mission the monetary depression, and struggles with financial embarrassments; our willing people have not been able to support all our connexional funds equal to last year; but many of them have sacrificed their luxuries rather than allow the cause to go unsupported.

"Since we came here, two years ago, we have taken up thirteen new appointments; thus enlarging our borders, it has been deemed advisable this year to divide. Percy has now become a Circuit; Seymour will remain a Mission. This change will materially help both ministers and people, and further their interests generally.

"We are enabled to report for the past year, after making up deficiencies, through numerous removals, an increase of 77 full members, and 52 remain on trial. The whole of the membership is 458, most of whom are growing in grace, and many are exhibiting a firmness of Christian character beyond our most sanguine expectations. To God be all the glory!"

Peterborough District—LINDSAY is unreported. Of NORWOOD, the Rev. J. Goodfellow briefly writes,

"We have been favoured with a gracious revival on this Mission during the past year. Our special services, four of which we held during the winter, were attended with a good degree of success. One of these meetings was mainly useful in the recovery of some who had fallen from their steadfastness; the other three were instrumental in the conversion of a goodly number of sinners to God.

"We have had our joys and sorrows, our conflicts and victories. To God be all honour and praise for saving and sanctifying grace."

BRIDGENORTH is favourably reported of by the Rev. S. Lyon, and he is to be commended for returning none but "disciplinary members."

"Although there are many things over which it would become us to mourn—unfaithfulness and lukewarmness yet considering the disadvantages which severely press upon this people, they have evinced their love to Methodism—to Christ. The number of members is small, a decrease from last year, feeling it my duty to report none but disciplinary members, as it would be injurious to the cause, to swell the number with inconsistent persons. The red brethren at Mud Lake have done exceedingly well through the past year; some have died in the faith and entered the Paradise of God. The people have been praiseworthy in building two commodious churches during the past year, the size being twenty-six by thirty-six."

BROCK. The Rev. S. Fear has sent no statistics, but the welcome number of fifty souls brought from darkness to light, and his impression, that there should be two men on the Mission. BOBCAYGEON, as the Rev. James Ash affirms, is an important field of labour to the Wesleyan Church, and his excellent report shews what can be accomplished amidst numerous difficulties in a new country.

"At the commencement of the year 34 members were transferred from Lindsay to this Mission. During the year 5 classes have been formed where Methodist class-meetings never previously existed. 80 have been received on trial for membership, and 20 into full membership. Deducting removals and withdrawals, we return 60 on trial, and 41 in full connexion; total 101, being an increase of 67. The Mission embraces the townships of Verulam, Fenelon, and Somerville. We have 10 regular appointments, at the most of which the congregations are good. We believe, notwithstanding the opposition manifested to Methodism in some parts, and by a certain class of people, that if this Mission be faithfully attended to in the future, the Church of our choice will exercise a powerful sway."

Belleville District. SHANNONVILLE has done well numerically under the Rev. L. Houghton, but has improperly departed from the Society's Connexional and just financial system. HUNGERFORD and ADDINGTON ROAD, according to the Rev. Michael Baxter, has been fertile in blessings, and must be heard for what God has done.

"In submitting to the generous people the present report we are reminded of the close of the last year's, where we enunciated a prophetic wish, that much good would result from this year's operations. In the fall of last year one of the most remarkable revivals took place at our old church, which, for suddenness, depth, and glorious effects, was "rarely excelled"—according to the testimony of our worthy Chairman, whose practice has been extensive in the Church's revival work. Seventy-five were received into Society, and we feel confident that the defections are so few that they do not amount to what is common on such great occasions. The exemplariness of these members, the unctious of our ordinances, and the swelling numbers that make our congregation a crowd, are the subjects of admiration of adjacent friends.

"A revival took place also, equally signal, and remarkable in many of its features, and nearly numerically in accessions, as great as the preceding, at Collins', on the Madoc Road. The change here has been so great, and evident, and the growth in grace so quick and palpable that some have no language to express their emotions at the prospect of this wonderful work. They, however, who cannot define and describe, can greatly praise.

"On the Addington Road, one of the localities where the Government has given free grants of land, the Almighty has also blessed his own work. A protracted meeting was held during the winter, when a class was formed of twenty-six members. A second class was formed with fewer members, but with a good Local Preacher at its head. This part is recommended by the District Meeting to be set off for a separate Mission another year. The appointments already can be raised to about eight, with a population daily increasing. The membership to commence with will be about 60.

"Our two new churches, one at Thomasburgh and one at Tweed, were solemnly dedicated for divine worship during the current year. The occasions were remarkable for large attendance, liberal contributions, and high religious delight. Two tea-meetings were as productive to liquidate building debts, as they were seasons of social harmony, and means of religious emotions. The debts remaining are insignificant. The church at Tweed must soon be free. We deem it to due to record the efficiency, promptitude, in all duties, of my colleague, Brother Sutherland. His punctuality in attending his appointments, due application to study, and extensive usefulness have both endeared him to the people, and afford promise of future good and profit to the Church.

"Land has been measured and Trustees appointed for a lot for a burying ground on the Madoc Road. Space is ample for a Church, which at some time may be reared.

"We have now on this field, still white and promising, four Churches and a snng Parsonage, seventy members on trial, three hundred and thirty full members—being an increase in the year of one hundred and seventy, after a number of removals. Total, four hundred.

"The attendance, the seriousness, the religious inquiries, the moral habits at most of our appointments are such still as to encourage us to believe that God Almighty blessing his faithful servants, another year may result in revivals, and conversions not less signal and numerous. A few weeks since three of our Sabbath School children were remarkably converted to God. We are confident that the details of the three would form a most delightful narrative."

Though STIRLING is not reported, MADOC sends good news, by the Rev. Thomas McMullen, from the back settlements.

"At the commencement of the year, things spiritual looked very discouraging. After much prayer, pastoral visitation, and extra services, symptoms of animation appeared; God in very deed visited his people. Between fifty and sixty during the year have professed to experience a change of heart; fifty-six have united with our Church. This is a large field of Missionary toil, and includes Madoc, Elziver, Tudor, and the Hastings Road, fifty miles back. We have 138 members divided into 11 classes; 4 Sabbath Schools, 90 scholars, 60 vols. in the library, 20 teachers. We have two churches in course of erection, one in the village of Hastings, 30 feet by 50 feet, 20 feet post, with steeple in proportion to the height of the building. Our respected Chairman of the District was with us at our last Quarterly Meeting, and we had a time of refreshing coming down from the presence of the Lord. We very much need the assistance of an additional labourer on this field of Missionary enterprise.

Kingston District. ELGIN—From this Mission there is no Report. At LOUGHBOROUGH, as the Rev. W. Burns bears witness, the people are warm hearted and intelligent, souls have been added to the Church; the finances have advanced from £25 to £70, and "there has been a marked improvement here during the year, in all the essentials of Methodism." Of the Missionary portion of BATH and AMHERST ISLE, the Rev. D. C. Clappison testifies that "the God of all grace continues his favour to the faithful few on this Island Mission. Financially, the Island is in advance of some of our more wealthy parts of the Province. All the institutions of our Church are nobly supported." From the Rev. G. Carr, of GANANOQUE, and the Rev. D. A. Johnston, of STORRINGTON, comes intelligence of conversions and new classes, and earnest prayer for more. Of CENTREVILLE and TAMWORTH, the Rev. J. S. Youmans interestingly says:

"The past year has been one of decided progress on this Mission. The contemplated change spoken of by my worthy predecessor was effected; and an additional preacher has enabled us to preach oftener at the more important places, and to take up several new appointments; which, by the blessing of God, has resulted in much good; enabling us to return 126 on trial, which, after deducting 2 deaths, 13 removals, and 28 who have been dropped from the reported membership of last year, gives the gratifying increase of 91.

"The church at Tamworth, which was standing in frame when we came, has been finished, and, with the assistance expected from the Chapel Relief Fund we hope to pay off the entire debt next year. A lot in Centreville, has just been purchased, upon which a neat and commodious parsonage, will be erected during the coming year. We have on this Mission a warm-hearted and affectionate people; and piety is evidently on the increase in nearly all our societies. There are a number who profess, and doubtless enjoy, the blessing of "perfect love;" and many others, among whom are a number of our young converts, are groaning after it. God grant to sanctify our people wholly! With as efficient a colleague as my much esteemed Brother Short; with whom I have labored so pleasantly and successful during the past year; I see no good reason why we should not look for greater things at the hand of our good Lord."

Brockville District. In LANARK and SHERBROOKE, writes the Rev. J. C. Osborne, "the country is generally poor, the land rocky, and the roads bad. In about ten places no other Minister goes to preach the Gospel than the Methodist Missionary. During the past year, we have taken up two new appointments, and formed two new classes with 40 members. In all we have received on trial 57." CORNWALL has failed to send a report. A few years ago WINCHESTER was considered a Mission calling for much endurance; this year the Rev. E. Hurlburt is cheered by success,—a good revival—connexional funds in advance of preceding years, and a much larger amount has been raised for the support of the Missionary—the field is sufficiently large for two men: the wilderness blossoms.

Ottawa District. Notwithstanding, as the Rev. W. T. Hewitt writes, a Methodist church has not yet been built at LOCHABER, ground is now offered at two of the appointments for churches, and though some "immersionists have tried to sink the Wesleyan ship," he baptized 32 children since the Conference; "a few fine fellows have come on board this year, nine souls were added, and a few young men bid fair for usefulness."

The OSGOOD Missionary, the Rev. W. McGill, has been greatly afflicted, but when at all able he has sometimes travelled nearly thirty miles on a Sabbath, and held three services; and he is expecting the showers of grace. GATINEAU forwards no report. CLARENDON and PORTAGE DU FORT, is spoken of with much kind feeling by the Rev. R. Robinson, for the character of its converts, liberality, hospitality, and attachment to the doctrines, discipline, and means of Methodism: its prospects "were seldom brighter." The Rev. J. Roy thus writes concerning ONSLOW: "In closing the second year of my residence here, it is cheering to state, that financial, numerical, and spiritual prosperity have attended us." The Rev. W. Morton writes favourably of distant WESTMEATH in spiritual things. The depression of the lumber trade prevents for a time the usual hearty liberality of his worthy "bush" people and their Missionary children, who sent large offerings the previous year.

"This Mission has been favoured with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit during the year. We have received about fifty on trial since last Conference. Some have experienced the blessing of holiness. To God be the praise! We are building an excellent parsonage at Westmeath, which will be completed by the first of November."

The Rev. W. Scales shall speak for BELL'S CORNERS; there is life where once there was languor:

been repaired, and incense and a pure offering ascend to the God of the families of the whole earth, and the piety of the Church is more spiritual and elevated. The Mission has been enlarged so much that a second minister is absolutely necessary to supply it with the word of life. The long-neglected townships of Tarbolton and Fitzroy have been taken in, and promise a glorious harvest of precious souls. We have preached fourteen sermons in the above townships, and thirteen persons have offered themselves as candidates for membership. Glory to God in the highest.

"The people of Long Island have long felt the want of a church. During the year a good site has been procured, and the foundation stone was laid on the 4th of May by the Rev. J. Brock, Chairman of the District, whose visit to the place will long be remembered. We trust that before the snows of winter fall, the zealous and happy people of Long Island will worship the Lord in their new church, which will be an ornament to the place, and, we believe, a blessing to the people."

The tone of the Rev. J. Morris as to GRENVILLE, its people, congregations, church-building, and support of the ministry, is encouraging. The Westmeath Missionary has visited during the year POINT ALEXANDER, where the people need a resident Missionary, and "seem anxious for the bread of life."

On the Montreal District, seven superintendents have acted Methodistically in sending reports; from ST. JOHN'S, CHAMBLY, and HEMINGFORD Missions there are none. RAWDON is an example of the Protestant Missions of Wesleyanism in Lower Canada, and shews, that though the expense incurred is disproportionate to the number of adherents to that system, it is not to be begrudged. The Rev. W. Creighton writes,

"We have had indications through the year that our labour has not been wholly in vain: these, with the many acts of kindness received and words of encouragement spoken, have strengthened our hands and encouraged our hearts. Romanism stretches around this little Protestant colony on every side, league upon league. Some of our devoted friends are bearing their testimony against it with some encouragement. Considering the importance of this outpost of our militant Church, and its peculiar circumstances, it will be necessary for the Missionary Committee to appropriate on such a scale as to hold up the hands of the Missionary. They may be repaid before long."

The Rev. A. Armstrong has great pleasure in reporting the spiritual state of WESLEYVILLE, and rejoices in increase, the effect of two protracted meetings. In writing of RUSSELLTOWN, the Rev. J. Webster is correct when he observes, that it is his duty to report his Mission for the Annual Report; and whether there be little or much to say—it is a duty. He praises God for 56 persons received on trial, and a nett increase of 30; for the state of his Sabbath School and Bible Classes; increase in funds; and is gratified with the near approach of the time when the parsonage, and a church at Curran's will be completed. The Rev. R. Brown's facts from HUNTINGTON are pleasant :

"On the Mission we found a kind and praying people, who seemed to take delight in holding up the hands of their feeble minister in his arduous labours and efforts to free the Church from embarrassments, and win perishing souls to Christ. Thank God we have not toiled altogether in vain. About $500 have been raised on the Mission to pay off an old debt, and make some needful improvements on the church ; also a parsonage house, barn and garden, situated about ten rods from the Church, have been bought at a cost of $600, (a good bargain). The whole property belonging to the Society on the Mission is valued at $3,130, including church and sheds, parsonage, furniture, &c., &c.; only $600 debt, on the whole. But the best of all is, "God has been with us." Over ninety members have been added to the Church during the two years, yet in consequence of many removals, deaths, and other losses, our net increase is small. We return to Conference about 200 members and probationers. May God increase the number a thousand fold, and make the next minister much more successful."

Of ORMSTOWN, the Rev. W. Hansford has an explicit testimony to bear, because of the brotherly love, zeal, and liberality of his people, and would, having taken a number on trial, have reported an increase of members, but for a common evil east, removal to the west. This cause operates on the ST. ANDREW'S MISSION, and heavy debts on two churches are somewhat dispiriting. The Rev. E. H. Dewart must be heard :

"There is still the same painful cause of complaint as formerly, with respect to the removal of members of our Church and congregation ; though having suffered severely from the cause previously, since I have been here four leaders removed, and members in the same ratio. From this and other causes, in some places where we have still a few members, there is no leader to meet the classes regularly, and this operates very injuriously.

"At the commencement of this year, a camp-meeting held near St. Andrews, was a time of quickening and refreshing from the presence of the Lord. In this meeting we were greatly indebted to the brethren and friends from Montreal and other places, for their faithful and efficient aid. At the East Settlement land has been procured for a new church, and timber taken out to build it. I feel especially thankful to God that there is a goodly number walking in the fear of the Lord and the comfort of the Holy Ghost, who, when we came here, were strangers to peace through the blood of atonement."

CAVIGNALL is spoken of by the Rev. D. Hardie as an isolated position on the St. Lawrence, but he has had 32 probationers, and reports an augmentation of 21 members.

Quebec District. Here, too, the Committee must complain of no reports from the Quebec FRENCH MISSION, THREE RIVERS, or DANVILLE. The Rev. J. Armstrong just says of LEEDS, "In closing our fifth year in this extensive and promising field of labour, we are thankful in be able to say that it has been one of cheering and marked prosperity." This report acks Society-figures. At SHERBROOKE, the Rev. W. D. Brown has, in the midst of labours abundant, been prosperous. The Rev. T. W. Constable having made his report on a separate sheet, it is at once available, to exhibit the remarkable success at MELBOURNE.

"In reviewing the labour of three years on this Mission—years of excessive toil and exposure—there is abundant cause of thanksgiving to the Head of the Church. Your Missionaries have been preserved in health, they have worked harmoniously together, and success has crowned their labours. Three years ago, one man occupied the field now worked by four, and after making a separate field of the Danville part of this mission, we shall have left nearly twice as many members and probationers as were found on the whole field three years ago. Upwards of two hundred pounds has been raised for the repair of existing churches, and the erection of a new one; and another commodious church is in course of erection; and at the same time nearly all the funds of the Church have been steadily increasing."

Another excellent report comes from the Rev. R. Wilson, of EATON, and it and others from the east very clearly manifest the useful and powerful influence of Protestant Wesleyan Methodism in a section of the province mostly Romanist.

"In reviewing the labours of the past year, your Missionary is grateful to Almighty God for the amount of success with which He has crowned the work here. About 40 souls have professed faith in Christ, and a few have attained "the more excellent way" of living wholly to the Saviour. The general state of the Mission is increasingly spiritual. We are numerically stronger too. We have had difficulties to contend against, which are, perhaps, peculiar to this country, viz: the hesitancy manifested when the converts are asked to unite with our Church. I have preached to crowded congregations in which the "power of God was present to heal." I have assisted both with prayer and counsel, penitent seekers of salvation, and after witnessing their exultations in the light of God's countenance, I have had the mortification to hear some of them say they would prefer waiting awhile to learn what was best for them do. This has proved a cause of backsliding. The old members of our communion, and as far as I had opportunity to judge this is true of the members I had taken into the church during the past two years, are very warmly attached to Methodism. They love and fully believe its doctrines, and are determined to promulgate and extend them. They are attached to its institutions—its itinerancy—its love-feasts and class-meetings, and they respect its discipline. I should say that we have raised more means on the Mission the past year than ever before. Glory to God alone!"

Stanstead District. COMPTON and COATICOKE, no report. HATLEY is vigorous, and the Rev. J. Walton's statements are,

"The work of God on the Hatley Mission is in some respects very encouraging. During the year our congregations have been exceedingly good. We have had some indications of spiritual improvement; a few have been added to the Church, and I trust to the book of life. Financially, our friends have done remarkably well. Great credit is due to our people at Hatley for the very comfortable and respectable manner in which they have furnished the parsonage. At Barnstone a new church is in course of erection, which will cost when completed somewhere in the neighbourhood of two thousand dollars; upwards of twelve hundred is now collected. By the blessing of God I trust the foundation is being laid of a large and flourishing society."

The people of EAST BOLTON, the Rev. S. E. Philips remarks, "have manifested profound piety and unshaken Christian stability in the hour of trial, and in the cause with which they have so recently identified themselves." "There have been added to our Church through the year thirty-five persons." SHEFFORD transmits a satisfactory report from the pen of the Rev. W. H. Bakewell:

"The tide of emigration to the Western States of America during the past year has drained this Mission of many of its oldest and most reliable members; amongst these we have to number two valuable leaders and several heads of families, with entire households. Yet it has pleased the Lord to widen and deepen the interest taken in the welfare of Zion. So that others have come forward as re-enforcements, and the prospect of future prosperity gladdens our hearts.

"In spite of monetary depression, we have been able to retain our position financially, and have to report an increase in all our collections and subscriptions. The instalment of a debt left upon the Knowlton stone church has been removed, and additional furniture procured to supply all the rooms of the new and commodious brick parsonage, with everything necessary to meet the requirements of a family.

"Our Sabbath School at Knowlton is in a most flourishing state. The introduction of the S. S. Advocate has formed quite an epoch in its pleasing history, and greatly gratifies our juvenile friends. The Bible Class is increasing in interest, and numbers amongst its members many of the most promising young persons in the neighbourhood.

"Great efforts have been made in a certain quarter to induce our people to believe that the Methodist ministry savours of ecclesiastical empiricism, but all to no avail. The "truth in Christ" has convinced them that only the Most High gives efficiency, and that the agency which his Spirit vouchsafes is of such a nature as to employ the simple Gospel for the salvation of themselves and their families."

The Rev. J. Thorneloe does well to send word that at GRANBY there are indications of the Divine presence; "increasing congregations," and the word "still comes with power." Of DUNHAM, as of too many other places, nothing can be said, no report having come to hand. The tidings from the Rev. J. Davies, of FARNHAM, are, souls saved at Protracted Meetings; finances much advanced. Bible Classes have been held, and members dying have been triumphant. At SUTTON, in care of the Rev. Hiram Fowler, the general interests of the Mission have "much improved"; the means have been "well attended," and Missionary subscriptions "gone beyond expectations." Some mishap must have prevented the arrival of a report from the esteemed and exact Minister at CLARENCEVILLE, for the Committee is without information; but from ST. ARMAND, the Rev. Francis Hunt conveys intelligence which is an animating close to the general report of proceedings on the Domestic Missions.

"It is with feelings of devout gratitude to Almighty God that we attempt to report the state of this Mission. In addition to the regular appointments, we have held a few special services, which have been greatly blessed and owned of God, in the conversion of sinners and reclaiming of backsliders. After deducting for removals, deaths, expulsions, &c., we return 82 members, and 50 on trial for membership—increase, 45. We do not, however, regard our numerical prosperity as the only beneficial result of these extra means of grace; there are other results which may not appear so conspicuous in our statistical or tabular returns, which will doubtless have a tendency to give permanence to the work of God in this section of country. We might, for instance, mention the case of the Pike River appointment. During the time of the protracted service here we were crowded almost to suffocation. It was painful to know that several came to the meeting but could get no admittance for want of room. This state of things induced our friends to repeat a cry which they had often made before, "The place is too strait for us." An effort was immediately made to raise funds for the building of a church, and, notwithstanding the tightness of the times, we had in a few weeks upwards of 1,300 dollars promised for this desirable object. Brother Edward Blakely has generously given half an acre of land convenient to the village for a site, which is now secured by a deed. The contract is let for the building of a brick church 31 by 40, with a belfry and spire, at an expense of $1,400, to be finished by the first of December."

FRENCH MISSIONS.

This, the most recently-formed department of the Society's operations, is of deep and deepening interest, and is rendered necessary, not by the inefficiency of other Protestant Societies, but by their inadequacy to remove in fitting time all the evils with which they have to contend. They have rendered good help to the cause of truth and holiness in their fearless contentions with error and sin, and the Committee unite with the adherents of that cause in acknowledging the value of agencies which Providence has favoured.

The obstinacy and prevalence, and fatal effects of the Papacy in Lower Canada, are reasons for fresh effort, and the call for Wesleyan co-operation could not be better stated than it is in a beautiful, congratulatory address presented by the respected official members of the Montreal Centre Circuit to the Conference, when lately for the first time assembled in that city, in which there is this lamentable fact stated, that the Conference meets in that section of the Province, "in the midst of a people, the great majority of whom do not receive the Bible as their own rule of faith and practice."

And this is their touching appeal: "Suffer us, honoured Fathers and Brethren, to commend this subject to your earnest and prayerful consideration, with the hope that such wise and vigorous action may result as will comport with the urgency and vastness of the work."

The Society has already five salaried Labourers in this department, who have a practical acquaintance with Popery, and are recommended by their mental qualifications, and thoroughly evangelical views and feelings. Their duty is, in a courteous manner, to disseminate scriptural knowledge widely; to visit on a large scale, and by friendly and reiterated communications, enervate and remove strong prejudices; and to expound the Bible and conduct public worship wherever congregations of French Romanists can be gathered. Ere long it is expected that fonts of type at the Conference Book and Printing Establishment will have to be devoted to this most important and patriotic department. There is an indignant enmity from Romish emissaries, and recently the new Wesleyan French Church at Roxton was burned by an incendiary, but Christ must reign. The subjoined letters will commend the work, and it will be seen that the conversion of deluded men to a state of true belief and spiritual enjoyment, is not a mere speculation, but a pleasing reality.

The late Conference, encouraged by the zeal and liberality of intelligent well-wishers, especially in Lower Canada, appointed a respectable and effective Missionary Auxiliary Committee of Correspondence, to act under the direction of the General Superintendent of Missions, composed of the Chairmen of the Montreal, Quebec, and Stanstead Districts, the Rev. M. McDonald, Mr. William Lunn, Mr. J. A. Mathewson, the Hon. James Ferrier, and Mr. John Hilton, and there is no doubt that their correspondence, designed by the Conference to consist of information and suggestion, will greatly contribute to aid the General Missionary Committee in Toronto—with whom is the final decision and control in all matters—while anxiously accomplishing, as their funds allow, the Christian and Protestant object contemplated by the Wesleyan Church.

The following concise report from the Rev. T. Charboneh, while it gives particulars of Roxton, is sufficiently cursory to be an exhibition of the state and necessities of the French Canadians of Lower Canada, and of the providential fact, that the way of the Gospel among them is gradually and surely opening:

"In our last Financial District meeting, it was resolved that the greatest portion of my time should be employed in visiting the Eastern Townships, in order to ascertain what openings presented themselves for the future extension of our work among the French Canadians. This I have done to the extent of my ability, and as far as the state of the roads have permitted me. Our first station is Roxton, which includes Milton. Our membership is 22 persons; our congregation numbers between fifty and a hundred; the number of Protestant Canadians is 28 families.

Our congregation has increased this year. We have no peculiar revival to report, but the people, while they increase in their spiritual knowledge, increase too in the use of Methodistical ways and worship usages.

Acton. There are three Protestant French families we have visited; they are Protestants, but not what I call Christians; yet I hope that, increasing in knowledge, they will feel at a no distant period the saving power of grace.

Bolton and Stukely. I have made seven visits in that portion of the land. Brother Parant has one of his brother-in-law's living there, and a protestant. There is another family that I have visited during the winter, and I am happy to say I feel conscientious in saying that one has received the testimony of God that he is a child of God.

Hogog-Outlet. There are two French protestant families there. I am not conscious that they are christians yet, but they have left the Roman Catholic Church.

Stanstead. I have made five visits in Stanstead during the year, we have had a large attendance in our church, some 100 or 153 hearers, but we cannot report any conversions. We have visited Hatley, Compton, and Sherbrooke.

I feel the necessity of reporting any impression on our French work. If we could, it would be necessary to have labourers settled in the above places; the work at the present time is essentially a work of visiting the people at home; it will not do that a man should satisfy himself with preaching, he must visit the people at home, speak to them, meet the objection that the priest throws into their minds against the Bible; it must be explained to them till they understand it, and see the errors of their Church: till then, there is no hope for success. It is a work of faith and of labour and patience, and in which your preachers engaged, need the prayers of their brethren."

Though the foregoing report is general, a well-written statement from Mr. Amable Parant, of FARNHAM, exemplifies the utility of pious and scriptural endeavour chiefly in one locality, and is proof that such endeavour among ignorant and debased devotees of Rome is not only feasible, but promptly successful.

"I am very happy to inform you that God has owned and blessed my labours during the past year in the conversion of several of my country-men. It rejoices my heart to know that not only is the power of the man of sin shaken, but that several have given their hearts to God, and give evidence that God for Christ's sake hath pardoned their sins. My health has been good, so that I have been able to travel extensively. A gracious opening presented itself about 22 miles from my residence, where I have preached once in two weeks during the past year. I am now about to form a class there, consisting of ten members, all heads of families, who have obtained the pardon of their sins, not from man, but from God. A number of others in the same locality have renounced Romanism, and attend our means of grace, so that when I preach there now, the school-house is filled with people. Much of my time has been occupied in visiting families, scattered through the townships of Stanbridge, Dunham, Sutton, Bolton, St. Armand, and St. Cozair, distributing Tracts and many Testaments, and all the Bibles I had in my possession. I might furnish many other facts which I have no doubt would be interesting, but to enter into details would lengthen out my report beyond the bounds assigned to me in your publication. Suffice it to say that I am unable to express the gratitude I feel to God for having directed the attention of the Methodist Church to the enlightening and salvation of my dear (though benighted and priest-ridden) countrymen.

The concluding pages, occupied with reports from Lower Canada, will have convinced the Christian reader, that the Wesleyan Missions there, as in Upper Canada, are, regardless of obstacles, more and more developing spiritual, financial and connexional capabilities; and the Committee with confidence anew commend the French and every other department of the Society's extended operations, to the judgment and best feelings of its valued friends in the two Canadas, and the Hudson's Bay Territory.

MISSION TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Having completed the review of the past year's Missions, the late publication of the Report, owing to the delay of returns from many Branch Societies, affords the Committee a gratifying opportunity of saying, that in April last the General Superintendent of Missions in Canada, addressed a Letter to the General Secretaries of the Parent Wesleyan Missionary Society in London, stating the importance of other Missions in the great North West, which should make the Mission Stations of the Society continuous, from the most distant posts now occupied by the Canada Auxiliary, to Vancouver's on the Pacific; and more recently the President of the Conference and the General Superintendent have brought the spiritual necessities of British Columbia before the General Secretaries, without making any formal application for aid. This was sufficient, and the Parent Committee was called, and with a promptitude and generosity which Canada has often experienced, £500 sterling was forwarded by the Rev. Dr. Hoole, for the immediate establishment of a Mission in British Columbia.

Since then the Conference Committee, and the Missionary Committee have been convened, and after mature deliberation, and devout reliance upon God, they unanimously determined to occupy that new Colony by the Missionary Agents of the Canada Conference. The Meeting which reached this decision was one of the most hallowed and exciting ever held in Canada, and the presence of God, the Letters received from England, Vancouver's, and Circuits and Missions in Canada, all concurred to force the delightful conviction, that the Divine hand, which from the origination of Methodism has ever been visible, was still held out to lead the Wesleyan Church and Missionary Society of Canada farther and still farther in the path of evangelical effort, self-sacrifice, and triumph.

Without any solicitation from the Missionary Department, but, it is believed, under a Divine impulse, more than twelve esteemed and able Chairmen of Districts, and Ministers on Circuits and Missions, were earnest candidates for Missionary hardships and honours in British Columbia, four of whom, after much solicitude and prayer, were selected, and in December, 1858, sent forth in the name of the God of universal redemption—the Rev. Ephraim Evans, D.D., Chairman of the District of British Columbia; Rev. Edward White, Rev. Ebenezer Robson, and the Rev. Arthur Browning, at whose departure a public Wesleyan Valedictory Service in Richmond Street Church, and a City Methodist Farewell Breakfast in St. Lawrence Hall, were held in Toronto, attended by many ministers and adherents of other Churches, and distinguished by Christian love and high anticipations: and now, the affectionate regards of the members and friends of the Wesleyan Connexion in Canada follow them, and there is faith for them as honoured pioneers and labourers for Christ, in a land where the British sceptre is welcomed for its benignity and power, and seems destined to create blessings for China and its archipelago in the west, and the Hudson's Bay Territory and Atlantic Colonies in the east.

Here are unexpected and onerous responsibilities for the Wesleyan Missionary Society of Canada and its cordial friends; and they have been humbly and thankfully accepted by the directors of that Society, it being, to their apprehension, the will of God. With augmented and unsought responsibility, come augmented necessities and duties, and the numerous supporters of the Society will allow the Committee to say with explicitness, that not only is it of importance the Income should be brought up to its former most creditable amount, but considerably increased, and increased steadily year after year; and with the unknown requirements of the Pacific region before them, for Missionaries and funds, every friend of the cause of Christ, adult and youthful, should awake at once to more energetic activities, and to the full obligations and benefits of a thorough generosity.

Providence smiles upon and guides—not in this case men who have gone forth on the forlorn-hope, but a band of chosen, ordained Evangelists, who depend on Inspired assurances and grace; and when the present generation of Wesleyan Missionary contributors shall have gone to their reward, many, like the weeping widows at the death of Tabitha, shewing the garments she had made, shall tell with tears of gratitude of the disinterested and opportune efforts of Canadian Christians for souls in British Columbia.

CONCLUSION.

The fifty-eighth year of the nineteenth century, is not the period when proof should be offered in Canada that Protestant Christian Missions are according to the design of God. The day of such controversy is past; the day of action is present. Modern Missionary success is, in part, the answer to the prayers of past centuries, and is a corroboration of prophecy, and the refulgent crown of the holiest and highest aspirations of Christian Churches; and the Committee renew their appeal for support with unshaken confidence in the motives and providential vocation of the Society, and in the well-principled and ardent attachment of its multitudinous friends.

They would commence the discharge of another year's duties in humble submission to the supreme requirements of Him who is "the Head over all things to the Church," and deem no arrangement fitting, no agency spiritual, that does not promote His glory. In the selection of posts of labour, and the sending forth of agents they implore the direction and grace of the Lord of the harvest. It is a constant cause of anxiety judiciously to apply the funds entrusted to them. Where so many persons are employed in collecting, many journeys performed by ministers, and preparations for an increasing number of anniversaries made, in the most rugged as in the most cultivated parts of the wide Wesleyan Connexion, expenses, however small in themselves, will be large in their aggregate; and the Committee are most wishful that on no district, circuit, or mission they should be more than necessary. They are especially desirous that the idea and plan of one great Wesleyan Missionary Society for Canada, as at present, and from the beginning, should continue to command the conscientious and manly respect of the ministers, officers, and subscribers of the entire Wesleyan Methodist Church; and that in all places local Missionary subscriptions for professedly local Wesleyan purposes, should ever be deprecated, as unjust to the Parent Society of Canada, and subversive of its unity, its authority, and its usefulness. The palladium of the Wesleyan polity is its Connexionalism.

The very late issue of the Annual Report for several years, in consequence of the long-postponed transmission of lists and monies from some Branch Societies, and of reports from many Missions, has caused much reasonable dissatisfaction among the intelligent subscribers, lessened the effect of the Missionary Anniversaries, and damaged the Society's Income. At the large meeting of the Committee held in November, therefore, it was unanimously resolved, that all returns of Lists and Monies from the Branch Societies, and Reports from Missions, shall be made at the Conference, and that the General Treasurer's account for the year shall be closed at the end of June, and the printing of the Annual General Report be then commenced. This arrangement will be carried out next June, with exactness, and it is hoped that all Branch Officers, Collectors, and Contributors, and Ministers having charge of Missions, will thus earnestly co-operate to secure an early publication of the Report, for the gratification of the friends, and to the advantage of the funds, of the Society.

In renewing their appeal the Committee would be permitted to remind their supporters of the greatly reduced Income of the Society this year, attributable, it is believed by many, to the startling obstructions cast in the way of Christian benevolence by general commercial depression, and disappointed speculations. Such a deficit is the more to be deplored after years of unprecedented progress and exultation, and of honours which were due to the least opulent subscriber; and if in any year of the Society's existence, a noble exhibition of determination, and of self-sacrifice for the Saviour has been needed, that year is the year of 1858-59; and if the deserved eulogies of the past are not to be recalled or regretted now, the admirable spirit of the Society's worthy friends, must, in reliance upon God, be immediately replenished. Though that deficiency has brought its inconveniences, disappointments, delays and losses in obtaining funds, and an unusual vigilance and care have been indispensable in the General Treasurer's attention to business, by the aid of last year's balance, no agent has had his stipend curtailed, nor has the number of Missions been reduced. The work has stood its ground, and even new Missions been established. But then, the Society cannot maintain its position by its own means unless the income of 1859 be at least equal to the income of 1857; and loss and much inconvenience will result if there be not a good balance in hand, for months of expenditure when there are no remittances from Branch Societies; for outlays never stop.

With a people for patrons who delight to be generous—with so cheering an array of well-conducted and willing Branch Societies, the Committee would fling from them the idea of retrogression, though agriculture, commerce, and finance, have just now their disasters.

The Society has reached its commanding position by the counsels, prayers, liberality, and enthusiasm of its friends. Their zeal and munificence have made an Annual expenditure of more than £12,000 a fact, and a necessity. The Society, with its magnitude and its responsibilities, is theirs. They cannot neglect it. They cannot retreat!

Claims—approved claims—come this year from 150 Missions, and 220 Labourers confide in the veracity and ability of the Society. CANADA'S popularity and prosperity have long been, now are, and must be much dependent on the Wesleyan Domestic Missions. The old Indian Missions of Canada, have ceased to charm by their novelty, and now charm by their maturity and utility. The Industrial and other Native Seminaries, deserve public admiration and support. Hudson's Bay, with its prospect of British settlement, has already its isolated and expensive Missions doing much good, but patriotism requires that they be considered a mere nucleus, where tribe beyond tribe of Pagans in various tongues bid the Wesleyan Missionary, without tarrying, come with a Protestant Bible. The wanderers on the shores of Lakes Huron and Superior, ought now to have several additional Missionaries sent them. The useful French Missions in Lower Canada, have as yet discovered immensely more papal darkness than they have scattered, and their number must be multiplied. These, beyond contradiction, are reasons for a deeper concern in Canada's christian heart, and for nobler gifts. Apathy and covetousness are out of place! There was enough to do, and much more than was done; but the sound of spiritual want now comes to the Wesleyans of Canada from the Pacific coast, and the gold-diggings of Frazer River, and the ancient peopled-forests of that region, have souls by thousands to be saved. Parsonages, churches, and school-houses must be built, and large expenses incurred in planning for necessary Central Stations in British Columbia. The prized grant from England has just about sufficed to take the four Missionaries and two Families to their very remote, rather, foreign work, and now their support, and all the outlay of establishing several distinct Stations will fall, and at first not lightly, upon the funds of the Canada Society, for which must be raised without delay a large sum additional to last year's receipts. The moment of more generous Christian effort is come, unless men are to die and perish! Regenerated souls, and, not the gold of Sheba, but of the British Pacific, shall be given to the Society for a reward. The present of this vast portion of the American continent is big with incalculable social and moral necessities; what will be the exigences of future British North America!

Our whole Christianity must be placed at Christ's disposal, and the nobility of the Missionary character be conspicuously developed, and benevolence become systematic and ample, and every Branch Society be afresh energized, and the advocacy of the platform made irresistible, and the young of Households, Sabbath-Schools, and Colleges allured into joyous co-operation, and the Missionary Box, of which the Society will soon obtain a large number from the Centenary Hall, must be made weighty with the offerings of the multitude, and whatever self-denial or ingenuity, or combination can do, must be accomplished for Missions. There is a recompense for such services to persons, and families, and schools, and churches, and nations.

Before all, and during all, and after all other efforts, the Christian Subscriber must go to God. O, how much has He heretofore done for the Society in instituting an instrumentality, and furnishing an agency, and in opening doors, and hearts, and purses, and most of all, in opening the treasury of the Spirit for the salvation of men! Still, admonition is in place. The eloquent and now sainted Richard Winter Hamilton, has left these fervid words for Christendom: "And has not the Church almost to learn what is the power of Prayer? What conception have we of believing prayer, before which mountains depart? The Church has not yet proved, to its fullness, the grace and omnipotence of the Holy Ghost. We speak, perhaps not with exact propriety of "the residue of the Spirit." But allow the quotation to pass,—How much is yet known of His might? What is yet unexerted? What is the hiding of His power? What is the residue? What cannot he do?"

There is a resuscitation of the mind of the world, and an awakening of the lands of barbarism, of fetishism, of cannibalism, of islamism, of papalism, of hindooism, and of polytheism. The nervous Cable's reach from hemisphere to hemisphere, is likely to teach all nations the uses of brotherhood and benevolence. Shall the Christian world be inert? The dangers of unsaved men are imminent! The promptings and incentives to activity are from Revelation: "After this I will return and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up. That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things."

And now, "unto HIM be glory in the Church, by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen!"
