ALL BRITISH FAST SERVICE.

New Four-Day Steam Ship Service Between Canada and Britain.

MAY BE REALIZED.

Canada's Share Would Be $1,250,000, Which the Premier Has Pledged.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The Dominion government is prepared to pay half the total subsidy required for the Atlantic end of the projected all-British fast steamship service. The company behind the enterprise want an annual subsidy of $2,500,000 for the proposed new four-day service between Canada and Britain. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has engaged that his government shall pay $1,250,000 of this, leaving the British, Australian and New Zealand governments to look after the balance.

That arrangements will finally be effected among the interested parties to the agreement looking to the realization of the enterprise is confidently expected by the premier. Delays in working out the details of the scheme are of course necessary but the assurance, given by members of the imperial government when the matter was discussed at the colonial conference indicative of the desire of the Campbell-Bannerman government to have established a direct fast transportation line connecting Great Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, still hold good and after Lord Strathcona's return to England it is expected that some definite announcement will be made by the imperial authorities looking to the consummation of the scheme.

Coroner Benson has decided to hold an inquest into the death of Theodore Galley, drowned off the steamer Alexandria, twelve days ago, and has empaneled the following jury: John Ashford, foreman; Howard Jeffries, Blackstock Matheson, John Kingston, Howard Whitney, Jos. Ingram, Chas. Seagrave. The body was viewed and the holding of the inquest set for 10 a. m. to-day.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.

Don't forget the Firemen's excursion on the Dorothy N. next Wednesday evening, Aug. 21st. Don't forget that the Newcastle Band will be along, and that there will be a special barge alongside for dancing. Our firemen will be a credit to the town in their new uniforms, which the proceeds of this excursion will help to purchase.

COMES AGAIN TO NEWCASTLE.

Master Harrison Gough of Newcastle Superior School has won the Lieutenant-Governor's medal for the highest aggregate marks on the High School entrance examinations held for Grade Eight in June last. This is the fourth year in succession that the medal has come to Newcastle school, the previous winners being Miss Gertrude Clarke, Miss Eileen Weldon and Miss Rennie McQuarrie. This speaks well for our pupils and their teachers.

BOARD OF TRADE ELECTS OFFICERS.

Committee Appointed to Interview Citizens in Reference to Up River Service.

DELEGATES APPOINTED.

Board Will be Represented at Meeting at St. John.—Other Business Transacted.

The special meeting of the Board of Trade called for Thursday evening was fairly well attended, President Hennessy in the chair.

The President explained the object of the meeting and stated that active measures would be taken to put the Board on a permanent working basis.

Mr. D. Morrison asked what has become of the promoters of the foundry.

Mr. E. A. McCurdy stated that Mr. Brady the chief promoter had gone with the Silvers of Halifax so the matter had fallen through.

Mr. Morrison also asked what was being done in reference to the "Missing Link" and the steam service up the Northwest, and hoped the Board would take up these matters.

The secretary on behalf of Messrs. Russell stated that in conversation with them they had expressed a desire to sell out to a company, and suggested that a company be formed.

Mr. T. A. Clarke thought that a thorough re-organization of membership, and new officers should be put through before any new business was taken in hand.

Mr. J. D. Creaghan was also of the same opinion.

Mr. J. Morrissey thought that the people of Newcastle were not awake to their own interests and the up river service would not have been neglected. He suggested that a company be formed to procure a boat and put it in commission.

Mr. Morrissey moved, seconded by Mr. Doyle, that a general meeting of the Board of Trade be held Monday evening, Aug. 14th for election of officers and general business. Carried.

The following delegates were elected to attend the meeting of the Maritime Board at St. John:—Messrs. J. Morrissey, T. A. Clarke, P. Hennessy, Alternates, O. G. Anderson, H. Williston and W. H. Belyea.

Mr. J. Morrissey moved, seconded by H. Williston that a committee of two be appointed to interview the merchants and see what encouragement they would offer to form a company to provide an up river service. Messrs. E. A. McCurdy and J. Morrissey are appointed such committee.

Three new members were elected.

Mr. J. D. Creaghan moved that at the next meeting all members sign the roll.

The meeting then adjourned.

MONDAY EVENING.

The Board of Trade met in the Town Hall Monday evening President Hennessy in the chair.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—

President—J. Morrissey, M. P. P.

Vice-President—E. A. McCurdy.

2 Vice-President—J. D. Creaghan.

Secretary—H. B. Anslow.

Treasurer—Thos. A. Clarke.

COUNCIL.

H. Williston, O. G. Anderson S. W. Miller, D. Morrison, C. E. Fish, W. H. Belyea, M. Russell, D. Doyle.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR NEWCASTLE.

Miramichi Lumber Company After R. Cory Clarke's Spool Factory.

FOR SHINGLE MILL.

Would Manufacture the Cut of the Company's Cedar Lands.

The Miramichi Lumber Company, which has large areas of cedar lands in the Miramichi valley, but no mill to manufacture that kind of lumber is understood to be negotiating for the purchase of the Clarke spool mill at the deep water terminus in Newcastle. It is their purpose to convert the factory into a shingle mill. When once the transfer is effected, a new industry will be added to our town, which will be run the whole year, day and night, giving permanent employment to a goodly number of men. Such an industry would be a great addition to our community; and we trust that nothing will prevent it being realized.

CARVELL OR PUGSLEY THEIR CHOICE.

Liberal Members of New Brunswick Interview the Premier re Vacant Portfolio.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—The Liberal members and Senators from New Brunswick: Messrs. Turgeon, LeBlanc, Michaud, Loggie, Carvell and Senator Thompson, all saw Sir Wilfrid Laurier at various times today, and left for the east again this evening. The filling of the cabinet vacancy opened by the resignation of Hon. H. R. Emmerson was the chief topic which was discussed. The members gave Sir Wilfrid their advice as to the way in which the selection should be made; and left with the assurance that their representations would be carefully considered and that the man would be chosen who was regarded as best for the country and the province. The names of ex-Premier Pugsley and Mr. Carvell, were those mentioned in connection with the portfolio. It was agreed by all of the members that both have strong claims to the place and that either would make a capable minister.

One of the gentlemen before departing said: "I am satisfied that Sir Wilfrid has not yet made up his mind as to whom he will select as his mind as to whom he will select as his confidant from New Brunswick, but I am certain that it will either be Mr. Carvell or Hon. Mr. Pugsley."

Joseph Tardy of Bridgetown, charged with assault upon Mary Young of South Esk, aged twelve, was tried on Saturday, found guilty before Justice John Clarke, and fined $20 or costs or two months in jail. He went to jail.

A shooting accident occurred on Sunday afternoon at Lake Antigonish, four miles from Jacquet River, when Gilbert, son of Anthony B. Demsey, of Jacquet River, lost his life by the accidental discharge of his gun. Deceased was thirty years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

IN OLDEN DAYS.

Nero had just written an important message to the Roman senate. "Slave," he thundered, where is that messenger boy I ordered two hours ago?"

"He is on his way," replied the trembling slave, "but he has stopped behind the forum a few minutes to read the wonderful adventures of Marcus, the Lion Chewer. Should I dispatch him again?"

The great emperor smiled cruelly. "Yes, but this time see that you dispatch him with a club." For even in those days the messenger boys would hold up a nation's business rather lose a chapter in his novel.

VIOLATED THE GAME LAWS.

Millionaire Robinson and His Assistant Farrington, Fined $309 Last Week.

Before Police Magistrate Connors at Chatham on Tuesday heavy fines were imposed on Arthur Robinson and Justin Farrington, the two Americans charged by Chief Game Warden John Robinson with killing moose out of season. The fines, with costs, totalled $309.

Mr. Robinson was fined $100 for killing a cow moose and $0 for killing a deer. Farrington was fined $50 for helping to skin the animals and carry them to camp. The slaughter took place at South Esk, in this county. They not only killed game out of season, but shot a cow moose, which is never allowed by law. Both men are reputed to be millionaires.

Game Warden Robinson said since that the cases were not finished yet. This leads color to the report of wholesale slaughter, but further than this the Chief Warden would not say.

CHRISTOPHER CRAIG DIES SUDDENLY.

Aged and Respected Citizen Called Away at Less Than a Day's Notice.

A very large number of people will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Christopher Craig, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Newcastle.

Mr. Craig was in his usual health on Tuesday, and worked all day at his occupation of surveyor for Messrs. D. & J. Ritchie. Shortly before six o'clock he felt weak, but continued his work until the whistle blew.

Upon going home he spoke of not feeling well, and laid down. Shortly after the family saw that it was more than a slight weak turn, and at once sent for Dr. Desmond and Father Maguire. The doctor did all that could possibly be done, but Mr. Craig continued to sink, until the end came at six o'clock Wednesday morning. He remained conscious until almost the last, and died fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic church.

Mr. Craig was in his 78th year and was born at Douglastown. He spent all his life here, and no man was better known or more highly esteemed. He was married 52 years ago to Miss Mary Newman, of Chatham Head, and his death is the first break in their family. He is survived by his widow, one daughter Miss May, living at home, and seven sons—James Jeremiah and Michael, of Newcastle, Stephen, of Moncton, the well-known locomotive engineer, and William, Christopher and Ambrose, in the United States. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Thomas Kingston, of Chatham.

Mr. Craig was in the employ of Messrs. Ritchie during summers for about thirty years, and worked in the winter as a Crown land surveyor. He was one of the good old stock of Miramichi pioneers, a good citizen and devout Christian. He had acted for many years as treasurer of St. Mary's parish, and his counsel and assistance were highly valued by Father Dixon and the members of the congregation.

The Advocate joins with their many friends in extending sympathy to the family.

The funeral will take place this morning at nine o'clock from his late residence, Green street, to St. Mary's church, where requiem high mass will be celebrated.

ODD FELLOWS

MEET NEXT WEEK.

Fifty-Second Annual Session At St. Stephen, August 13-15.

The fifty-second annual session of the Grand Lodge Independent Order of Oddfellows will open in St. Stephen on the fourteenth of this month. Delegates from all the lodges of the Maritime Provinces will be in attendance as well as delegates from the various Rebekah Lodges of the Provinces. It is expected that over 400 delegates will take part. The Grand Encampment will open on Tuesday August thirteenth. The Rebekah Assembly will also be held on this date. The Grand Lodge will open on Wednesday and will conclude on Thursday the fifteenth. Among the business before the Grand Lodge will be the proposition for a new constitution. This matter was laid over from last year and was left in the hands of a committee composed of Robert Hawkins, Pictou; J. L. Steward, Chatham and C. B. Allan S. John.

Our English Journalistic friends are finding that Canada is a somewhat extensive part of the British Empire after all. When it is borne in mind that Great Britain can accommodate some 40,000,000 people, it is difficult to name the figure of population this portion of the Empire may yet reach.

The body of Theophilus Galley, who was drowned last week off the steamer Alexandra, was found yesterday morning on the shore of Sheldrake Island. This is about five miles below where he fell overboard.

Searchers have been at work ever since the accident, Mayor Miller having sent a number of men down at his own expense when volunteers were unable to continue the search.

An inquest will be held by Coroner Benson at Chatham, and the remains will be brought to his home here for interment after they have been viewed by the Coroner's jury.

I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my Pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you free, a trial package of them—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets. Miss Passay—Of all the impudent men he's the worst. He actually kissed me last night.
Miss Pepprey—That wasn't impudence, that was unselfish loving kindness.

"Too heel" giggled Miss Passay "it may seem silly of me to mention it, but Mr. Gushley tells me that I inspire all the love sonnets he writes."

"You don't say?" remarked Miss Knox. "Now that you mention it, I've noticed all the ideas in his sonnets were old and not by any means pretty."

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL BABY.

Madeline E. Smith Takes the Prize Among Babies of Lawrence Mass.

(Lawrence, Mass., Daily Eagle.) The much advertised baby show, which it is expected will be an annual affair was held yesterday afternoon at Glen Forest, and proved to be one of the most successful forms of entertainments ever attempted at this popular pleasure resort.

All roads seemed to lead to Glen Forest, and Superintendent Bruce, found it necessary to press a large number of extra cars into service, to convey the large crowds to the park.

The car service was excellent and every courtesy was shown to the patrons.

The Forest presented a fairland spectacle, and by the time for the show to start, there were fully 5000 people on the grounds.

The little ones were decked in their best, and it was a beautiful sight to gaze on that vast assemblage of little tots and a sight that has seldom been in this vicinity.

Much praise and credit is due to L. M. Rich, manager of the show, for the excellent manner in which the crowds were handled, and the show carried out. Mr. Rich was ably assisted by his secretary, Mrs. J. A. Jewell of this city, who received the entries on the grounds. In all there were more than 300 babies entered, of many nationalities and colors. The carriages and go-carts were conveyed to the grounds on flat cars and after the show were brought back in the same manner.

The decorated baby carriages and go-cart parade, started at 3.30 p. m. from the main entrance and proceeded to the bowling alleys, where it disbanded, and the fond mothers carried their loved ones to the theatre where they were seated to await the judging. Three disinterested women were selected as judges, Mrs. H. E. Cummings, Lawrence, Mass., Mrs. M. Gripp, Forest St., Methuen, Mass., Mrs. E. Longworth, Camden St., Methuen.

After a most thorough search for the most beautiful child in Lawrence, the judges selected Madeline E. Smith, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robin A. Smith of 267 Merrimack St., as the queen baby of Lawrence. The prize was a sewing machine. Mrs. Smith had her choice between a Singer, and Wheeler & Wilson, and chose the former.

DOCTORS USING PATENT MEDICINES

The Honest Physician is Anxious to Cure and Uses the Best Available Remedies.

The proposed legislation through the Dominion Parliament for the regulation of the manufacture and sale of patent or proprietary medicines is of the utmost importance, and it is receiving a great deal of attention, not only by the proprietary medicine manufacturers, but also by the leading doctors and druggists. Every manufacturer of reliable and high class remedies welcomes the bill as a step in the right direction. The discussion has brought out the fact that the best physicians in Canada and on the continent approve of and prescribe Paychine in cases of the most difficult character. In a recent instance of very serious throat and lung trouble the patient had been using Paychine. Two leading United States specialists were consulted, in addition to two eminent Canadian physicians. Upon learning what the patient was using, a sample of Paychine was taken and analyzed, with the result that the physicians advised its continuance. They prescribed no other medicine but Paychine, with the result that the patient has fully recovered and is a splendid walking and talking advertisement for the wonderful curative power of a remedy that will "stand up" before the keenest professional criticism and analysis. As a builder up of the system and restorer of all weak conditions, Paychine has no equal, and the best and most earnest physicians recognize this fact.

"At the age of 25 my lungs were in a terrible state. I had a gripe the year before; it settled on my lungs and I kept steadily growing worse till I got down so low I was in bed six weeks. I had a consultation of doctors, and they said they could do nothing more for me. Then I started to use Paychine. I took the medicine for more than a year. It certainly did wonders for me. I am now as strong as I was before."—Joseph, Ont.
MRS. E. HOPE.

Paychine, pronounced Si-ken, is the greatest of tonics, building up the system, increasing the appetite, purifying the blood, aids digestion, and acts directly upon the throat and lungs, giving tone and vigor to the entire system. PANDORA RANGE
HOLDS FIRE ALL NIGHT

The good housewife always feels like bestowing upon the Pandora a cheerful "good morning."

Why? Because the Pandora always has a nice bed of hot coals as a reward for checking off the dampers closely before retiring to rest.

In five minutes after turning on the drafts she will have a good, strong fire.

Should she sleep two or three hours longer than usual there will still be a fire ready for her.

The fire-box, flues and dampers are so scientifically arranged that the Pandora can be regulated to hold a fire from 24 to 36 hours.

Pandora owners never have their sleep disturbed with dreams of making a new fire in the morning.

If your local dealer does not handle this most perfect of all ranges, write direct to us for Free Booklet.

MUCH SYMPATHY FOR RICH CRIMINALS.

The Standard Oil Company of Indiana, merely a branch of the parent corporation, has been fined $29,240,000. But the fine is not yet collected. United States Attorney-General Bonaparte admits that when he and President Roosevelt talked over the amount of the imposed by the court, they both "sympathized very much with the company." The American authorities have a very convenient habit of sympathizing with great corporations in distress. The Chicago meat packers, convicted at the bar of public opinion and by Roosevelt's own committee of investigation which Upton Sinclair's novel forced him to appoint, have not as yet been indicted for either murder or manslaughter, and are not likely to be. Senator Borah of Idaho, against whom there is a charge of conspiracy to steal public lands, is enjoying his liberty as usual and evidently enjoying life to the full. Great is the child-like simplicity of the American voters.

MISS LENA

DUTHIE COMING.

Miss Lena Duthie, the celebrated Scottish vocalist, will give a recital in the Newcastle Opera House on August 28th, under the auspices of the Fire Department. She is a talented soprano, who sings the world-famous songs of Scotland and Ireland, while dressed in the national costumes of the Gaelic peoples.
 Miss Duthie is ably assisted by Mr. W. H. Ross, piper, and Miss Margaret Daniel, pianist. Following are some press comments that speak volumes:
 "Lena Duthie's recital of Scotch and Irish Song and Story, given in costume, at the Waldorf-Astoria, on Monday evening, was a charming and novel affair. Miss Duthie was suffering from a severe cold, but in spite of the fact gave a charming entertainment. Her voice is a soprano of sweet and sympathetic quality, both in speaking and singing, and the evening was one to be remembered for its interesting attractions."
 "Outside of Bonnie Scotland, it is not often that you hear a Scotch song sung native and to the manner born. Miss Lena Duthie, who has only been a short time in this country, gave a concert in the Waldorf-Astoria, on Monday evening. I had the pleasure of hearing this lady sing, and enjoyed her vocalization extremely. She has a well-trained voice, and she excels in selections of the Italian and French schools. Her ballad singing is notable, and as I said at the outset, I do not know Miss Duthie's equal in the songs of Scotland.—Topics of the day, New York Realty Journal.

With Edged Tools.

By Henry Seton Merriman.

man was abroad. He was creeping up the right bank of a stream, his only chance lying in the noise of the waters which might serve to deaden the sound of broken twig or rustling leaf.
This sportsman was Jack Meredith, and it was evident that he was bringing to bear upon the matter in hand that intelligence and keenness of perception which had made him a person of some prominence in other scenes where nature has a less assured place.
Since sunset he had been crawling, scrambling, stumbling up the bank of this stream in relentless pursuit of some large animal which persistently kept hidden in the tangle across the bed of the river. The strange part of it was that when he stopped to plop through the branches the animal stopped, too, and he found no way of discovering its whereabouts.

Two rifles hung out through the forest

Jack Meredith was able to decide approximately the whereabouts of his prey by the momentary shaking of a twig. He raised his rifle and covered that twig steadily; his forefinger played tentatively on the trigger, but on second thought he refrained. He was keenly conscious of the fact that the beast was doing its work with skill superior to his own. In comparison to his, its movements were almost noiseless.

It was terrifically hot and all the while night was stalking westward on the summits of the trees with stealthy tread.
At last he came to an open space made by a slip of the land into the bed of the river. When Jack Meredith came to this he stepped out of the thicket and stood in the open awaiting the approach of his stealthy prey. The sound of its footfall was just perceptible, slowly diminishing the distance that divided them. Then the trees were parted and a tall, fair man stepped forward on to the opposite bank.

Finished—if we hate each other ever afterward, that skin ought to remind us that we are much of a muckness."
By 9 o'clock they reached the camp at Masla. Victor Durnovo was still at work superintending the discharge of the baggage and stores from the large trading canoes. They heard the shouting and chattering before coming in sight of the camp, and one voice raised angrily above the others.
"Is that Durnovo's voice?" asked Meredith.

"Yes," answered his companion cur-tly.
It was a new voice, which Meredith had not heard before. When they stepped to announce their arrival it was suddenly hushed, and presently Durnovo came forward to greet them.
Meredith hardly knew him, he was so much stronger and healthier in appearance. Durnovo shook hands heartily.

"No need to introduce you two," he said, looking from one to the other.
"No; after one mistake we discovered each other's identity in the forest," answered Meredith.

Durnovo smiled, but there was something behind the smile. He did not seem to approve of their meeting without his intervention.
The three men walked up toward the house together. It was a fair shed house, with a heavy thatched roof that overhung the walls like the crown of a mushroom. The walls were only mud, and the thatching was nothing else than banana leaves, but there was evidence of European taste in the garden surrounding the structure and in the glazed windows and wooden door.

As they approached the open doorway three little children, clad in very little more than their native modesty, ran gleefully out and proceeded to engage seats on Jack Meredith's boots, looking upon him as a mere public conveyance. They took hardly any notice of him, but chattered and quarreled among themselves, sometimes in baby English, sometimes in dialect unknown to Oscar and Meredith.

"These," said the latter, when they were seated and clinging with their little dusky arms round his legs, "are the very runnest little kids I ever came across."
Durnovo gave an impatient laugh and went on toward the house. But Guy Oscar stopped and walked more slowly beside Meredith as he labored along heavy footed.

"They are the jolliest little souls imaginable," continued Jack Meredith.
"There," he said to them when they had reached the doorstep, "run away to your mother—very true, but us, no more tonight! I'm awfully tired and understand, awfully!"
"Awfully, awfully," repeated the little things, standing before him in infantile nude rotundity, looking up with bright eyes.

"Awfully, that is it. Good night,
Epanimondas; good night, Xantippe!
Give ye good hap, most stout Nestor-rius!"
He stooped and gravely shook hands with each one in turn, and, after forcing a like ceremonial upon Guy Oscar, they reluctantly withdrew.

"They have not joined us, I suppose?" said Oscar as he followed his companion into the house.
"Not yet. They live in this place, Nestorrius, I understand, takes care of his mother, who in her turn takes care of this house. He is one and a half."
Guy Oscar seemed to have inherited the mind inquisitive from his learned father. He asked another question later on.

"Who is that woman?" he said during dinner, with a little nod toward the doorway through which the object of his curiosity had passed with some plates.

Headaches Mean Your Blood Is Poisoned

If your bowels, kidneys or skin are not ridding the system of waste-matter, the blood is laden with impurities, which inflame the nerves. It is these irritated nerves that make the head ache.

Powders and pills won't cure, they merely drug the nerves into unconsciousness and relieve for a short time.

"Fruit-a-lives" cure Headaches, Neuralgia, and Nerve Pains because they purify the blood. They act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Bowels, Kidneys and Skin—and restore them to healthy action, thus ridding the system of all poisons.

"Fruit-a-lives" are fruit juices—chemically changed, by the process of combining them, into a far more effective medicinal compound than the natural juices. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. At all dealers' or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

PLAIN TALK FROM THE DOCTOR

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder troubles, stated that to the following prescription is due a great deal of his success:

One ounce fluid extract dandelion;

One ounce compound salutarin;

Four ounces compound syrup sarsaparilla.

Mix and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime, drinking plenty of water.

This mixture will, he says, positively cure any disease arising from weak, clogged or inactive kidneys, and will assist these organs to cleanse the blood of the poisonous waste matter and acids, which if allowed to remain, cause lumbago, lame back, rheumatism and sciatica, and at the same time will restore the kidneys to healthy normal action.

The ingredients, which are purely vegetable and entirely harmless, can be procured from any good druggist and mixed at home at very little cost. This advice will undoubtedly be much appreciated by many readers.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

(By MICHAEL WHELAN.)

"You can fool some of the people all the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time."

"That Government of the people, for the people, by the people, may not perish from the earth."

—Lincoln.

This article will be brief, and it will be to the point.

Governments are responsible to the people, but the people are responsible for the Government. Why do governments become corrupt and when? Because and when the people are corrupt, is the general answer; but this is not strictly true.

There are no purer people, politically speaking, on the earth than the Canadian people, yet they have had many corrupt governments.

Why is this? Well, there are many reasons. There is no lack of public spirit, of high and pure public spirit, in Canada, but there is a sad want of proper organization of the forces that make for right in the Canadian Electorate.

The people are practically led like lambs to the slaughter by their political leaders. The people want honest, intelligent men and they try to get them. They accept these who profess and at the moment probably mean, to be honest. But they send them to the Federal and Provincial Parliament bound by no particular Policy, except of course, loyalty to the party, and lo! they are swallowed in the great vortex of Party Politics.

Parties are good. They are necessary for proper organization. But Policy is more than party, and should be clearly, completely and definitely defined. It should be discussed by the people in their public halls, the right sustained, the wrong denounced, and insisted upon.

"Glistening Generalities" are too vague, and Golden Glammers are too rapid. Let us have real, earnest, practical, pure, honest politics. What right-inded man wants a "pull" at his neighbor's property? Then what right-thinking man should want a "pull" at the public property?

Yet, what do we find? A Federal Government who took deliberately $500,000.00 of the Federal Funds to increase the salaries of officials already well paid, and in no need of an increase.

A Provincial Government who took $9,000.00 of the public money for a similar purpose. A small thing to kick about, you say. Perhaps so. But look at the principle. What could prevent, constitutionally, '88th Governments from taking say, five million and ninety thousand respectively, had they chosen? O, you say, we would turn them out. Yes, lock the door when the steed is stolen.

Old fogeyism. It is quite time the people of this country awoke to their duty in this matter. "Hereditary bondsmen, know you not, who would be free themselves must strike the blow?"

There are men, many good honest, pure and patriotic, men of both parties, in all the parliaments in Canada, but there are also many scoundrels. And while a heeler or grafter is allowed to lay his hand on the shoulder of an elector and lead him to the polls already bribed, and partly forced and cajoled, "a man convinced against his will, but of his own opinion still"; while a heeler or grafter is enabled by moneyed or other undue influence, to lobby in the Houses of Parliament, and lay his hand on the shoulders of the people's representatives, there will not be, there cannot be, pure government in Canada, nor any other country on God's green footstool or under the blue canopy of Heaven.

Nero was in a towering rage the morning after the Roman banquet.

What's this thundered the emperor. He dares to say that I squander the people's money on peacock tongues and get intoxicated on orange wine every day in the year. Ye gods, but he shall pay for this! Bring the man with the muck rake forward.

And after it was all over only the sullen lions could be heard fighting over their feast.

FLIES AS DISEASE BEARERS.

The Common House Variety Are a Menace to Health.

The United States Department of Agriculture has started a crusade against the common house fly and is carrying on extensive experimenting as to the best way of banishing it from the abodes of man.

The fly has been found to be not only a nuisance but a menace to man's health. Its hairy body carries both disease and death. Many epidemics which sweep over communities in the hot season have been traced to the fly. Having its origin in filth, it brings with it the bacteria which breeds in filth. And as it moves about, now crawling over the food on the table, flying from the lips of the sick to the lips of the healthy—it is said to be more dangerous to modern society than were the beasts to primitive man.

The high mortality among the children in the congested districts of a city where families are closely crowded together, where refuse accumulates fast, where food is often kept in living room, is due to a large degree, so scientists now say, to the fly. Infant diseases chiefly prevail in the hot season, when the flies abound. Dr. J. T. C. Nash, in The Journal of the Royal Sanitary Institute, giving his experience as an English health officer, says that the fly is responsible for the death of many children because of polluting the milk which they drink.

It is a matter that has been entirely overlooked, said Dr. C. O. Probst, recently, but we now know that the common house fly is an agent of importance in carrying the germs of typhoid fever. It was formerly believed that the germs were only carried in water milk or other liquid food. Flies breed and feed in places where the germs are to be found and then flying into our houses, no doubt often carry the germs and deposit them on our food.

"Well," said the good-natured boarder, there's one thing about our boarding house. You can eat all you like there.

"Of course, same as ours," replied the grouchy one; "you can eat all you like, but there's never anything you could possible like."

"Very probably I'm a stupid chump," said the reader, "but I must confess I don't like Henry James' novels."

"Oh your not necessarily a chump," replied the critic. "The people who don't like his novels are divided into two classes—those who don't understand him, and those who do."

These are only a few examples; there are thousands of others. While success cannot rightfully be judged by money standards, the fact remains that in the eyes of the world the extent of a man's success is the extent of his capital.

The world has no use for a poor man or a laborer. The person who has reached middle age, wholly dependent upon his individual efforts for his livelihood, is accounted a failure. He no longer commands the respect of the multitude but receives instead their scorn or pity.

Have you ever thought of these things? What are you doing to make yourself independent? Your hand or brain devoted to another man's cause can never make you wealthy.

Nor can your dollars. The man who only saves is at best a plagger. He should invest his dollars. Look about you. There are successful men on every side.

Have you ever wondered how they made money while others have not? Excluding those rich by inheritance, and those rich by fraud, there remains countless thousands of men and women who, starting practically without a dollar, have built up for themselves wealth or a handsome competence and are no longer dependent on their hands for support.

These people have made money first by working for and earning dollars, and then by putting their dollars to work.

You are cheating yourself and your family when you do not save from your earnings and put your earnings to work.

Suppose you put your savings in a bank. The bank pays 3 per cent. How can it? Because it invests your money so that it will bring much more than 3 per cent—enough more so that most bankers become very wealthy on the difference between your interest and theirs.

And what if they invest unwisely and lose all as they sometimes do? Why, it's your money and your loss—not theirs.

You have not the control of your own capital—do not even know what they are doing with your money.

You are making your dollars work for others. Why don't you make them work for you.

The banker invests your money; pockets their earnings, and gives you 3 per cent.

Why don't you do your own investing and make the profit for yourself?

You may think you have opportunity.

But you have. Opportunities are at every hand. No man or woman exists that has not had some opportunity for financial advancement.

The trouble is: most opportunities wear rubber shoes, and the public sleepily refuses to hear them.

One of the world's most successful financiers, when asked how he made money so fast, replied: "I have an agent at the elbow of every opportunity and never let one pass without paying me tribute."

Don't you realize that every great fortune had its humble beginning. That just a few dollars have grown to millions? Look at Andrew Carnegie. He saved up $500.00 and made his first investment in Adams Express Company stock. It paid him big interest almost from the start.

You know what it and he are worth to-day.

There are hundreds of similar examples.

"No one ever succeeds except by doing things."—John D. Rockefeller.

To become wealthy—successful—you must save and invest your savings.

Where were you in the year 1896, and what were you doing? Could'nt you have saved $100.00 without inconveniencing yourself?

Suppose you did save $100.00 and invested it in CROW'S STOCK. This stock was sold in 1896 to small investors at 10 cents a share—six years thereafter it was worth $100.00 a share, and to-day is selling for $285.00 a share, or your $100.00 invested would pay you a dividend of over $10,000.00 a year and be worth $285,000.00.

Opportunity is always knocking at the door.

Jay Gould once said to a friend, "When you invest in the stock of a company, don't look for the 'best,' for you will never find it. Look for a good one; then invest and do so quickly. Don't wait to see if it pans out all right, for that is where you lose your opportunity. When you have waited to see if it pans out, you've had to pay a premium on the stock, and you will have lost the biggest advance in value. You must make money on your judgement and foresight, and not on demonstrated facts."

Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, has over 400 millionaires who have made their fortunes out of coal and oil. Coal is the basis of all industrial and commercial wealth.

Coal mining in British Columbia has always been a success. It is like diamond mining in South Africa—a bonanza of the first magnitude.

Dunsmuir made millions and millions in coal mining in British Columbia, and died the richest man in Canada.

The BRITISH COLUMBIA AMALGAMATED COAL COMPANY of Portland, Oregon, controls 17,500 acres of coal land near Vancouver, B. C., estimated by coal experts to be underlaid with 1,400,000,000 tons of the best quality of steam, domestic, and cooking coal in America.

Our mine is better than the Crow's Nest, the quality of our coal is pronounced by coal experts to be as good, if not better, we are 500 miles nearer tide water, and 300 miles nearer the big smelters in the boundary district, where coke is used.

We are offering a limited amount of the treasury stock for sale at 25c a share, par value $1.00 full paid and non-assessable.

The officers of this company are men of high standing. Bank or commercial reference will be taken. Call or write for prosperous or information.

A WORD OF THANKS.
To the Editor of the Advocate,
Dear Sir:

Will you please allow me space in your journal to thank my friends and neighbors for their loving sympathy to myself and family during the days of our great trial, when the Lord in His great love and mercy was pleased to call from earth to Heaven the soul of "dear little Allie." How by his kindly smiles and loving ways he had twined himself around our hearts is best evidenced by the way in which he had accomplished the same in connection with all with whom he had come into contact. From Thursday night until Sunday afternoon a stream of loving, Christian sympathy continued to flow, having as its importation "tears and beautiful flowers," shall I not say "beautiful tears and beautiful flowers?" Truly "A little child shall lead them"—has led them, and hard as the blow is to me, and to all in the home, we would not now have it otherwise. We bow beneath the stroke and say, and learn it while we say it. "It is the Lord, let Him do as seemeth Him good," and naught but good can come of it for.—"When death strikes down the innocent and young, for every fragile form from which he lets the fainting spirit free a hundred virtues rise, in shapes of mercy, charity, and love, to walk the world, and bless it. Of every tear that sorrowing mortals shed on such green graves, some good is born, some gentler nature comes. In the Destroyer's steps there springs up bright creations that defy his power, and his dark path becomes a way of light to heaven." Will each and every one, who, in kindly word or deed, helped to lighten our sorrowful burden, these dark days, please accept this feeble expression of our sincere and heartfelt gratitude?
On behalf of self and family
REV. F. T. SNELL,
Baptist Parsonage, Newcastle.
