London Camp Is as Dry as the Desert of Sahara These Days.

AUTHORITIES ARE FIRM

Special Order Received Which Leaves
No Room for Evasion of the Law
—Some Military Notes.

A special order was received at camp yesterday from Ottawa, prohibiting absolutely the sale of "Local" and "Lager" within the precincts. The officers state that no attempt has been made to sell the beverages so far, and explain that the order is simply a further addition to their already strict instructions regarding the sale of any kind of liquor in the camp.

A Small Camp.

The camp this year is the smallest ever held in this city, and the roll shows there are only 1,612 men under canvas on Carling's Heights. Formerly there were never less than from 2,000 to 3,000 in camp.

Things, however, are going along in splendid shape, and the men are working hard at their training exercises. They take particular interest in the shooting, and every day as many as can be accommodated on the range at the heights, and on the ranges at the Caves, are given instruction and allowed to practice. Some good scores are being made.

Sarnia Captain Ill.

Captain D. B. Bentley, of Sarnia, who was in command of No. 14 Field Ambulance Corps, was taken very seriously ill yesterday, and had to be removed to his home.

Captain Bentley a few weeks ago underwent an operation for appendicitis, and it was thought was well enough to come to camp with his men.

Lieut. Col. Hayes, who is commander of the regiment, was too ill to come, and Captain Bentley took his place. Yesterday, however, he sustained an internal rupture. It is not thought that the case will result seriously, but for the time Captain Bentley has been ordered to rest absolutely.

Lieut. Col. Hayes who has somewhat recovered, will take command of the unit.

Military News.

Capt. H. N. Abell, First Hussars, has been appointed regimental musketry instructor.

Leave of absence has been granted to Pte. McKinnon, of "E" company, Twenty-Ninth Regiment.

Sergeant A. Southwood, having returned for duty as instructor to the First Hussars, is taken on the strength of camp.

Pte. Hebb, R.C.R., is added to the subordinate staff as groom to A.M.C. Lieut. Law, R.C.R., of Wolsley Barracks, is making the annual inspection of the cadet corps of the district.

Staff-Serg. J. Lawrence, P.A.M.C., has been added to the list of instructors.

Corps of Guides.

The itineraries of the Corps of Guides which left yesterday, is as follows:

June 10—London camp to Wyton. Wyton to Cherry Grove. Camp. June 11—Cherry Grove to St. Marys. St. Marys to Stratford. Camp. June 12—Stratford to Tavistock. To Hickson to Woodstock. Camp. June 13—Woodstock to Ingersoll. Camp. June 14—Ingersoll to Dorchester. Camp. Return June 17.

Large crowd continue to visit the camp every afternoon and evening, and take the keenest interest in the various sights.

KINGSTON TO HAVE MONUMENT TO MOWAT

Kingston, June 11.—A monument to the late Sir John A. Macdonald is proposed to adorn the city park near the corner of King and Barrie streets. W. F. Nickle, M.P.P., has offered $100, and other citizens will give good amounts. The Sir George A. Kirkpatrick and Sir John A. Macdonald memorials were helped without reference to politics, and the same thing will be done toward the Mowat statue.

FIGHT IN BRITISH HOUSE

Government's Normal Majority Reduced by 75 Votes.

London, June 11.—A great fight on the second reading of the finance bill, which is incorporated in the budget proposals, ended in the defeat of an opposition motion to reject the bill by a vote of 366 to 205. The Government's normal majority in a full House is about 220. Tonight's reduction was owing to the Irish members voting with the Opposition. Hundreds of amendments and details of the bill await discussion in committee.

Ordination on Sunday.

There will be an ordination service held by the Bishop of Huron in the cathedral next Sunday when six graduates of Huron College, Messrs. L. Charles, W. B. Hawkins, S. S. Hardy, W. H. Moore, H. P. Hutton and John Moore will be admitted to the order of deacons, and Rev. H. Miller will be admitted to the order of priest. The candidates are at present writing on their examinations before the bishop's examining chaplains, Revs. G. S. Sage and Canon Hague. The candidates will be presented by the Ven. Archdeacon Young, and the sermon to the ordination class will be preached by the Rev. W. T. Hill, of the Church of St. John the Evangelist.

YORK LOAN DIVIDEND

Toronto, June 11.—According to Home Smith, official liquidator of the defunct York Loan and Savings Company, a dividend of at least 20 per cent will be paid to the shareholders before the end of the year. The winding-up process has been pushed with vigor, and the land out by High Park is being rapidly disposed of. The realization has not been made public, as yet.

LONDON'S MAYOR APPARENTLY LOST

Mr. Stevely Is Missing, as Is Also Commissioner
Darch.

MUCH SECRECY OBSERVED

As to the Whereabouts of the Civic Address—All Sorts of Rumors
Afloat in City.

Where is Mayor Stevely? London's first magistrate is missing. He has gone—none knows where, and inquiries have failed to locate his august personage. Apparently he went like the Arab—he folded his tent and silently stole away.

His destination is somewhat obscure but it is quite probable that some weighty matters of state have taken him far afield.

One rumor was to the effect that he was in Chicago—not to see the Cubs play ball, but to meet the Grand Trunk officials who spent some days there, with whom he was to discuss track elevation and its kindred problems.

It is understood that the company are willing to start negotiations with the city, provided the aldermen are prepared to go through with the question to the hilt.

Another Guess.

Another rumor was to the effect that his worship and Commissioner Darch were at the waterworks convention in Milwaukee, and that they would visit several cities on their return, where artesian well systems are in operation.

Nothing definite could be learned, however, and either or any of the theories advanced may be accepted by the public.

In any event both Mr. Darch and his worship are out of the city, and Ald. Ferguson was acting mayor to-day.

They will be home in time for the council meeting on Monday evening.

POPULAR LONDON

BOY FORGING AHEAD

Mr. Fred Hueston Is Winning
Fame on the Vaudeville Stage.

Mr. Fred R. Hueston, the London boy who appeared last season at Bennett's Vaudeville in a crayon sketch and caricature act, is rapidly ascending the rungs in the ladder of fame, judging from the nice things said of him in the press criticisms of his act.

Mr. Hueston, or Houston, as he is known on the stage, is actor-manager of Redpath's Napanees, a miniature musical comedy of ten people, produced by Mr. Jack Hueston, the theatrical magnate, of Chicago. The Hamilton, Ohio, Journal, says: "In spite of the fact that it is out of the theatrical season, so to speak, in spite of the opposing elements, the Redpath Napanees at the Grand this week are proving the greatest drawing card of the season, and the impetus probably be smashed. No act that has ever played the theatre, with perhaps a single exception, has been such an attraction."

"Fritz Houston, as Willie Green, is as near perfect in that role as it is possible for a man to get. Houston is a real comedian. Every move he makes is sure of a big laugh, and the impetus in his speech seems natural. The song numbers in the act are all distinctive hits. The dances are somewhat eccentric, and the elongated pedestals of Willie Green in the Napanees song and dance provoke unbounded merriment. Jules Held, the German clown, is featured with Mr. Hueston, and they form a team which is hard to equal. The entire company is composed of the best that can be secured, but to enumerate would require too much space."

Mr. Hueston is a son of Mr. Robert Hueston, the Iveyman, and will spend a couple of weeks' vacation at home at the close of the season on June 28.

MOCHA SHRINERS VERY POPULAR

Newspapers Said Many Kind
Things of the People From Western Ontario.

LEFT LOUISVILLE TODAY

Spending the Afternoon in Cincinnati —Thence Homeward Bound and
Will Arrive on Sunday.

The Mocha Temple Shriners had a splendid time in Louisville, and reports from that favored city state that they are all well and happy. They left Louisville this morning, and will arrive in Cincinnati this afternoon, spending a day in that city.

The Louisville newspapers have devoted much space to the London visitors. In the Evening Post of Tuesday, appears a cut of Ill. Potentate A. L. Davis, and also a cut of the Highland Pipe Band of this city.

Londoners "Caught On."

The latter has made a great impression among the Southerners, and is reckoned one of the finest pipe bands that has ever visited that city. Winnipeg has a pipe band, and Lexington, Ky., has the famous Forty-Eighth Kilites' Band of Toronto. There are one or two more, but the Londoners have made the hit of the convention. Among the notices in the Louisville Evening Post are the following:

A Watch Fob.

"The Nobles from London, Ontario, composing Mocha Temple, have a watch fob which is just the trick, and last night, killing at least one person and injuring scores of others. It is reported that a passenger train on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient was blown from the rails near Knox City, Mo., and all wires are down. The man killed is an express messenger named Woodruff. It is claimed that all the rest of the passengers on the train were more or less injured."

The Pipe Band.

"Variety has been added to the musical melange by the presence here, for an escort for Mocha Temple, London, Ontario, of a Highland bagpipe band. Without reflection on the many other bands of the city."

Local Italian Gentlemen Explain
Why They Visited Alleged
Postal Order Frauds.

In regard to the statement that several local Italian have interested themselves in the case of the two men arrested on the charge of passing forged postal money orders in London and elsewhere, several Italian gentlemen have pointed out to The Advertiser that Italians who have visited the men have merely acted as interpreters. If they are guilty, they have no desire to assist them.

It does appear, however, they say, as though the old man, if he is guilty, was imposed upon by his son, and that he was merely made a tool of.

ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP

THE DEPOSED SULTAN

Reactionaries Try to Carry Off
Abdul Hamid From His Prison.

London, June 11.—A local news agency publishes a dispatch from Constantinople today, saying that an unsuccessful attempt is said to have been made by the reactionaries to kidnap Abdul Hamid, the deposed Sultan of Turkey, from the house where he is residing in Saloniki.

Several officers, the dispatch continues, are said to have been killed in the struggle.

LOCAL GROCER CLAIMED

THE HORSE BLANKET

Had Been Stolen From His
Barn by a Couple of Tough Characters.

The horse blanket which was found in the possession of Fred Hollis and Andrew Dunbar, alias Daniel Duncan, who were arrested on Wednesday morning early in an empty house on Pall Mall street near Adelaide, has been claimed by E. E. English, who keeps a grocery store in that vicinity.

Mr. English thinks the blanket was stolen by the men some time during the night previous to their arrest. Both men claim to come from Toronto, and the police believe they are professional burglars. They had in their possession a flashlight when arrested. As yet it has not been discovered from whom they stole the article.

Funeral of Mrs. Clarke.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Clarke was held this afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. T. Bolton, 38 Kensington avenue, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Vining, of the Talbot Street Baptist Church.

Late Mrs. Jones.

The funeral of Mrs. Jones was held for boys on Wednesday, July 2, and for girls on Friday, July 2.

The expenses of the baths is $12 weekly, and it is confidently hoped that further funds will be forthcoming for the furtherance of this work during the season.

GRUESOME MURDER IN NEW YORK CITY

Dismembered Body of a Jewish Painter Found in Care of a Small Boy.

New York, June 11.—The dismembered body of a murdered man, which, wrapped in oilcloth, was left by a stranger in the care of a boy in Catherine street, last night, was identified today as that of Samuel Bersin, 22 years old, a painter, of East Ninety-eighth street.

The man's head, which was missing last night, was found lying on a pile of refuse under the Brooklyn bridge, some distance from the point where the body was left. Identification was accomplished by laundry marks on the clothing, and was confirmed by the dead man's sister and brother.

Robbery is believed by the police to have been the motive for the crime, as Bersin had been wearing two handsome diamond rings, and these, with whatever money he carried, were missing when his body was found.

BLOWN FROM RAILS

BY BIG CLOUDBURST

Storm in Texas Cause of Fatal
Wreck of a Railway
Train.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 11.—According to advices received here early today by the dispatchers of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, cloudbursts occurred in sections west of Fort Worth, blowing down the rails near Knox City, Mo., and all wires are down. The man killed is an express messenger named Woodruff. It is claimed that all the rest of the passengers on the train were more or less injured.

WHEELMEN FINED

FOR RIDING ON PATH

Bicyclists Must Not Use the Walks in Victoria Park

Two citizens appeared before Magistrate Love this morning charged with riding their bicycles on the footpaths in Victoria Park. This is the first time that wheelmen have been fined on such a charge, and the policemen promptly arrested the men as soon as they saw them riding on the paths. One was fined $1 and the other was fined $2.

The court considers it is as dangerous for wheelmen to take to the paths in Victoria Park as it is for them to wheel on the sidewalks and the fine is the same.

LOCAL C. P. R. MEN

HAVE NO TROUBLES

Trip of Conductors to Montreal
Is a Mere Annual Event.

A dispatch to The Advertiser from Winnipeg states that eight C. P. R. conductors representing the unions of this body from the Atlantic to the Pacific, who have been in session in Winnipeg for the last two weeks, left yesterday for Montreal, where they will take their troubles before Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. The committee came to Winnipeg on the first instance because of the fact that the trouble was principally on the western lines. The visit to the president would indicate that there is a serious matter at hand.

Local officials state that as far as they are informed there is no trouble of any kind among the conductors run by the organization. Every year, however, there is a meeting between the officials and the conductors, at which all grievances are taken up and adjusted, and they think it likely that the meeting is for this purpose.

PLAYGROUNDS ASSN.

LACKING IN FUNDS

2,000 Membership Tickets Will Be Sold in Order to Raise Necessary Cash.

A meeting of the Playgrounds Association was held in the city hall last night to discuss the financial condition of the organization. The treasurer reported that outside the special fund for the swimming pool, kindly contributed by Mr. Geo. S. Gibbons, the funds of the society are practically exhausted. The treasurer appealed to the public for their assistance was discussed, and it was resolved to take such action in this direction as should appear necessary.

The association has reported that he had prepared some 2,000 membership tickets, which will be offered to those desirous of joining the association at the sum of 25 cents. By this means the association hope not only to secure funds but to increase the sympathy with the movement.

The control of the grounds on Sunday was on the agenda of the association at present. It is the desire of the association that they may be able to prevent the use of the grounds on any Sunday, and it is hoped that enough funds will be forthcoming to assist in that object.

The swimming baths will be opened for boys on Wednesday, July 2, and for girls on Friday, July 2.

The expenses of the baths is $12 weekly, and it is confidently hoped that further funds will be forthcoming for the furtherance of this work during the season.

CITY WILL PAY FOR UNION DEPOT

Ald. Ferguson Says There Is Absolutely No Doubt of This.

A SHARE OF ONE-THIRD

Matter May Be Broached to the G.
T. R. When Track Elevation Is Again to the Fore.

There is a possibility that the matter of a union station will be taken up by the city council, and considered at the same time as the track elevation problem, is being discussed with the Grand Trunk.

There is also a disposition among the city fathers to count the cost before running into the scheme rashly, as it is quite within the range of probabilities that the city will be assessed a part of the cost of a new union depot.

It has been the custom of the railway commission to tax the city one-third the cost of improvements such as it is, and there will not likely be any deviation from that rule in the case of the City of London.

Pay One-Third.

"There is no doubt we will have to pay one-third the cost of the improvements," said Ald. Ferguson today. "That covers track elevation, and if it costs a million dollars we will have to pay our third just the same."

"As a result, we will have it impressed upon us that we made the mistake of our lives when we did not accept the offer of Mr. McGulgan three years ago."

A Union Depot.

"A union depot would be of great advantage to the city, and could be easily arranged for. I do not think it has been the practice of the railway commission to charge municipalities with this, but in this case we might have to pay for the advantage because the C. P. R. at present in a position to oppose it, if it so desired."

"It would not do any particular harm to broach the subject when track-elevation is considered, and perhaps something may come of it."

"However, we will have to pay the cost, and we might as well realize this fact."

YOUNG MAN WAS FINED FOR ASSAULT

Several Citizens Appear in Court on Charge of Encumbering
the Street.

Percy Sullivan, aged 17, appeared before Magistrate Love this morning on a charge of assaulting Edwin Mead, another youth and was found guilty and fined $2, and ordered to pay $4 costs. Sullivan and Mead got into an altercation a few nights ago, and Sullivan kicked Mead when he was down.

Encumbering the Streets. George Hicks, Lawrence Ross, Sam Riddick and W. J. Antislip appeared on a charge of encumbering the street by leaving earth in the road.

"You should put lights about any piles of earth you leave on the street," said the court. "In case of any accidents you would be liable for damages."

Not a Small Matter. "I think the police might see a lot of other things that they don't seem to see, and not go bothering about a little matter like that," said Mr. Hicks.

"It isn't a little matter, and the police are only doing their duty," said the court. "Do you think you would make a better policeman than we have?"

The court allowed all the men to go with a warning. Three first-time drunks were allowed to go.

HOTEL CONDITIONS ARE SLOWLY IMPROVING

July Promises to Give the Local Hostelries Another Severe Test.

There is more room at the hotels today than there was earlier in the week.

The travellers are returning to their own cities, and consequently there is more space for other visitors.

"At the asylums we were relieved by Dr. Robinson, and were conducted through the entire institution, and saw evidence everywhere of thoughtful care for the general health and comfort of the inmates. We noticed particularly the modern and sanitary system of bathing. There are at present 1,084 patients and 160 employees."

The Insane Asylum. "We visited Victoria Hospital, and were kindly received by Superintendent Heard and his assistants. We found cleanliness and excellent order throughout the whole institution. We desire to make particular mention of the Meredith memorial portion of the hospital. Its generous provision for the worthy poor, the expense of the commendation of the public. There are at present 110 patients, 13 of which are in the contagious department."

Liquor to Blame. "We have also noticed that the majority of the cases of this session have been caused by liquor, and we believe the Government should take some steps to reform the unfortunate who have become completely mastered by the evil of drink or drugs, and suggest that a building be devoted to that purpose under the asylum management, so that a man who has been arrested more than once for drunkenness could be sent to such a hospital rather than to jail, and everything possible done to cure him of his unnatural craving."

"We congratulate your honor on your recovery from a severe illness, and trust you may be granted many years of health and strength to fulfill the amount of their deposit."

Nearly all of the violators of the law were wealthy manufacturers, but their combined assets, as counted out before the eyes of the Blenheim authorities, aggregated but a trifle above the amount of their deposit.

MARITIME FORESTS SWEEP BY FLAMES

Great Tracts of Fine Timber Destroyed in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Halifax, June 11.—The great forest fires that have been raging in Nova Scotia for some days, have reached Guysboro County, and immense damage is being done to large areas of timber.

In New Brunswick fires are still sweeping valuable timber areas in New Brunswick. The central timber belt is the scene of the most serious damage. Several farm houses have been burned. On some parts of the C. P. R. line trains are travelling over blazing ties. A number of sporting camps on the Miramichi River have been burned.

REFORM DRUNKARDS

AT INSANE ASYLUM

Grand Jury Brought in Interesting Presentment to Judge
Elliott Today.

COST OF INDIAN CASES

It is Suggested That These Be Charged to the Indian Department and Not to the County of Middlesex.

The grand jury of the county court and general sessions of the peace this morning brought in their presentment. The matters of unusual interest therein are the recommendation that the expenses of Indian prosecutions be born by the Indian fund instead of the county of Middlesex, as only a small proportion of these Indians are bona fide citizens of the county.

The grand jury also recommended that cases of habitual drunkenness, which are so often the source of crime, should be cared for in some building under the control of the London Insane Asylum management.

The full text of the presentment is as follows:

"To His Honor Judge Elliott, presiding at the June sessions of the county of Middlesex, 1908:

"May it please your honor, the grand jury of our sovereign King Edward VII., at the court of general sessions of the peace held in London, commenced June 8, A.D., 1909, humbly beg leave to make presentment as follows:

"Your jury desire to testify to you their appreciation of the able manner in which you explained to us the cases laid before us for our consideration, and which so aided us in dealing with the evidence before the court, one-half were in accordance with your expressed desire we visited the jail, we were courteous received by Governor Carter and the attendants."

Inspection Satisfactory. "We made an inspection of the wards and compartments and found them all in a clean and sanitary condition; the number of prisoners were 30 males and 6 females. It is highly satisfactory to us, as we are sure it must be to you, that so few criminal cases are presented to this court, which shows the high moral standard of the county. In accordance with your expressed desire we visited the jail, we were courteous received by Governor Carter and the attendants."

"We would also recommend the re-shingling of the

PIPE LINE SEWER COST WOULD BE EXCESSIVE

Estimated at 75 Cents a Foot, While Average Cost Elsewhere Would Be 15 Cents a Foot.

There was little business transacted at the meeting of the board of works last evening.

Messrs. Hunt, Rowe and McCallum, of the Pipe Line road, appeared before the committee and asked that the petition for a tile sewer on that road be not acted upon at this time.

Mr. Rowe pointed out that there would be much difficulty in laying the sewer as there was a great deal of quicksand, and boulders to be met with there. Some of the people who signed the petition were not aware of the cost of such a sewer.

The Cost.
"It will cost fully 75 cents a foot to lay that sewer, and the average cost of other sewers is only about 15 cents," said City Engineer Graydon. "It might cost a great deal more. I am confident that the majority of those who signed the petition were not aware of the condition of things there. A number of them cannot pay for it after it is laid."

On motion of Ald. Rose, the matter was laid over for two weeks.

Petitions.
Petitions for cement walks on Duchess avenue, from Ridout to Worthy road, on St. Andrew's street, from Oxford to Empress avenue, on Guelph street, Forward avenue to Douglas, and on Woodman avenue, Queen's avenue to Dundas street, were found to be sufficiently signed, and will take the usual course.

It was also decided to recommend the initiation of a sewer on Pullarton street, from Ridout to Talbot streets.

Will Collect the Money.
The committee decided to collect $400 due the council from London Township for work done on the Scanlon drain. The bill will be sent in at once, and if it is not paid forthwith, the matter will be placed in the hands of the city solicitor. The city cleaned out the drain a year or two ago at the suggestion of the township council, but they have not yet paid the bill.

No Action as Yet.
Owing to the absence of Mayor Stevely, who was to interview the city solicitor to find out whether the council had the power to change the bylaw for an asphalt block pavement on Carling street to sheet asphalt, there was nothing done regarding this matter.

City Engineer Graydon will look after the petition for a cement walk on Nelson street, and will report at the next meeting.

Deputy were Ald. Gerry, breaking stone, he lasted only two days at the job. He was examined by the prison physician, who found he was suffering from diabetes, as well as from the wound in his foot which the brick caused shortly before his conviction.

FOOD IS SCARCE AND VERY COSTLY

Officers at Local Camps Have a Grievance to Air.

A great many complaints are being received from the forces which are in training at Elora, Guelph and Woodstock, that it is impossible for them to secure the food for themselves and their horses which they are required to get on the allowance that is being made.

The men in these camps do not secure their supplies as is done in London camp by Government tender. An allowance of 25 cents a day is made for each man and 35 cents a day for each horse, and the officers call for tenders and do the best they can with the money allowed them. Repeated complaints have been made at headquarters here that it is impossible owing to the prices that prevail to secure either the food or the forage necessary for the amount granted. A number of the officers, it is stated, have threatened to resign their commissions and not take their men into camp any more unless something is done. These camps are controlled from local headquarters, and the matter is being taken up with the authorities at Ottawa. The residents in the district from whom the complaints are being received are the Thirtieth Regiment, which is in camp at Elora, the artillery camped at Guelph, and the Twenty-fourth Cavalry Regiment under canvas at Woodstock.

LONDON STUDENTS WIN HONORS

Toronto University List Contains Names of Several London People.

In the University of Toronto prize list that has just been published, there are a number of names mentioned. George M. Smith, a former Londoner, whose parents a short time ago moved to Calgary, is the winner of the gold medal in political science of the fourth year. Mr. Smith has also the honor of being chosen the Rhodes scholarship man for Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Miss C. E. German, of Victoria College, wins the Prince of Wales silver medal for standing second in general proficiency.

R. B. McElheran, the son of Secretary McElheran of the board of education, has been given his master of arts degree.

Walter N. Sage, the son of Rev. George N. Sage, pastor of St. George's Church, carried off the Moses scholarship in third degree classics.

Murray L. Waters is the winner of the George Brown scholarship for moderns in the second year, and also the Italian prize in the second year.

J. G. Althouse is the successful candidate for the Dickson scholarship in modern languages, and also the Burnside scholarship in English and history.

P. L. Tanton, another London boy, takes a scholarship in geology and mineralogy of the second year.

ROY IN INFIRMARY.

Montreal, June 11.—Phillip H. Roy, one-time speaker of the Quebec Legislature, and now a convicted bank wrecker, serving a five-year sentence in St. Vincent de Paul, is an inmate of the penitentiary infirmary.

After his arrival he was set to work at the job. He was examined by the prison physician, who found he was suffering from diabetes, as well as from the wound in his foot which the brick caused shortly before his conviction.

A SENSATION AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Rev. Dr. Pringle Roundly Denounces Political Conditions.

CHARGES CORRUPTION

Congratulated Government For Improved Moral Conditions of the Yukon.

Hamilton, June 11.—For over an hour yesterday morning the Presbyterian Assembly listened to a scorching address in connection with the moral and social reform report, by Rev. Dr. Pringle, of Yukon fame. His scathing denunciation of vice and corruption, which, he declared, stalked abroad through the land, was enthusiastically applauded by the house.

Dr. Pringle's chance came when the report of the board on social and moral reform was up for consideration, and J. C. James, of Charlottetown, moved the adoption of this recommendation: "The assembly has heard with horror and shame of the extent of the traffic in girls for immoral purposes, commends the diligence of the board in seeking to bring to account the heartless traffickers, and to warn or rescue their victims, and earnestly protests against the disposition shown by some magistrates, commissioners, and police to license, 'segregate,' or tolerate a vice sinful in the sight of God, loathsome in itself, and criminal, and expresses the conviction that 'discrimination' alike in social life and in the administration of justice against the weaker and usually less guilty sex is unjust and indefensible."

The resolution further called on all concerned to see that men offenders are punished as uniformly and severely as women.

The Minister of Justice was commended for amending the criminal code, prohibiting opium joints, and strengthening laws against traffic in immoral literature and increasing the penalty of crime of procuring for immoral purposes.

Race Track Gambling.
The resolution further read: "That the assembly expresses strong disapproval and indignation on learning that the Government has refused to accede to the request to amend the gambling act to make race track gambling impossible through repeatedly and respectfully requested."

The resolution thrust the responsibility on the Government and called for a public awakening to suppress this vice.

The recommendations were all endorsed, also a rider suggested by Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Montreal, that the brutality of men involved in the white slave traffic be condemned in the strongest terms.

Dr. Pringle Begins.
The following amendment was then introduced by Dr. Pringle, and later adopted by the house: "That this assembly deplores and condemns the evils which are found in social life today, which are rapidly lowering the moral sense of our people, and urges upon the ministers and people the duty of earnestly, of courageously combating these evils by voice and wherever they manifest themselves."

In presenting his amendment, Rev. John Pringle said he expected some reference made in the report to the corruption which existed in the political life of the land, and which he declared existed, unless men were liars and the editors of papers wrote on politics what they actually knew to be untrue. He said he was for a year the storm centre of the Presbyterian Church in the Yukon. Telling of experiences in the far north he upbraided the assembly of last year in not giving him the support he thought he was entitled to receive. Describing his difficulties with the Dawson City council, he said that when some of the councilors would have removed from the records of council a resolution charging him with immorality, a good Presbyterian refused to permit the resolution to be introduced, and the resolution against him still remains on the council records. He expressed pleasure in the improvement of conditions in the far north. It was not so long since in Dawson City that there was one prostitute to every thirty persons.

He took as his text the report of the royal commission on civil service, and Judge Cassels' commendation of the public conscience needed awakening.

"The public conscience needs to be aroused," he said. "Now, I ask who is going to arouse it? The politicians? Not much. They won't take their pulpits or the platform. Whose duty is it? Who are ordained to do it, if not the ministers of the Church, to denounce things that are a shame in our life as a nation?"

Dr. Pringle said he attacked no minister.

"I don't know what the commission found," he said, "but they reported that $134,000 had vanished, no one knows where. They said it was either dishonesty or culpable negligence of trust funds. Either of those things in ordinary life would send men to somewhere near the penitentiary."

"They say it is not true. If it is true, the men concerned should go where people usually go who mishandle public funds. If not true, it is still worse when a judge, a prominent banker, and lawyer will come to a finding not based on the evidence. Take whichever you like, I say it reveals a dreadful condition of public life."

"Here is what we want in all our legislatures—men who are men, who are men and not partisans, who are men first and party men after. I could have made more money in three months in the last election than I can make in five years in Sydney. I could

KING'S DAUGHTERS

ELECTED OFFICERS

Mrs. F. Lawson Was Chosen President for the Year—The Other Officers.

The Society of the King's Daughters held their annual meeting last evening in the Y. W. C. A. offices, with the president Miss M. Moran, in the chair.

Mrs. (Rev.) Harrison opened the meeting with a Bible reading, which was followed by the reports of the different committees.

The treasurer's report showed that there was a balance in the bank of $11 for the monument and put-in fund.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was then conducted, and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. F. Lawson; vice-president, Mrs. (Rev.) Sage; second vice-president, Mrs. (Rev.) Howard; recording secretary, Miss M. Moran; corresponding secretary, Miss McBride; and treasurer, Miss Stiles.

Mrs. Lawson and Miss Stiles were elected delegates to the King's Daughters' convention held in Gananoque in October.

Addresses by Mrs. Boomer and Miss Tilley, and a solo by Miss Cullis were greatly appreciated by all those who were present at the meeting.

GOULD MEN MAY STRIKE

Southwestern Section of Big System Threatened With Walkout.

Texarkana, Ark., June 11.—A call for a general strike on the Gould system of railways in the southwest is believed to be an improbable outcome of the meetings of the general committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers in session here discussing controversies with the Texas and Pacific Railway.

Timothy Shea, vice-president of the organization, who is presiding over the session, efforts to adjust the several disagreements, involving a demand that a discharged employee be reinstated and the right of this organization to represent its members in disputes be recognized. "Ives but small prospects for an amicable settlement. While declining to be quoted as to the probability of a general strike, Shea concludes with the declaration that "under the laws of our organization we have the right to involve the entire system of railroads in that jurisdiction."

A co-operative purchasing agency is being organized in the United States for supplying American and English missionaries with certain necessary supplies.

MAY TAX CORPORATIONS

FOR SPACE OF YEARS

Aldrich's Plan to Increase the Revenue for Uncle Sam's Government.

Washington, June 10.—The fact that advocates of the income tax amendment have turned their backs upon suggestions that a tax be placed upon dividends of corporations has not resulted in the abandonment of such a plan. The supporters of an income tax have gained a following that makes them a formidable force, and therefore no possible basis of a substitute compromise is being overlooked.

Senators Aldrich, Crane and other representative leaders from Eastern States who are uncompromising in their opposition to the income tax, would favor a tax upon dividends of corporations if such a measure could be limited to a two years period.

Many senators are convinced that pending bill will not produce sufficient revenue to meet immediate requirements of the Government, and wipe out the treasury deficit, and vice versa have put their shoulders to the income tax movement because they think revenues are needed, and it is said that they would get behind a corporation tax just as willingly.

Canvasses of the Senate thus far do not disclose a majority for the corporation tax amendment. The income tax amendment would be very close. Senator Aldrich has taken steps to learn just what could be expected from a tax of the dividends of corporations, and expects that figures will be available within a short time. It is his intention if he offers a corporation tax amendment, to provide for a rate that will produce about $60,000,000 annually, or $120,000,000 for the two years it is proposed such a measure would operate.

It is generally believed that two per cent would accomplish this result, but this rate thus far is speculative. It has been settled that the income tax amendment will go over until after work on schedules in the tariff bill has been completed.

SPECIAL FAST TRIP WITH LADY ABERDEEN

Boston, June 11.—One of the fastest recorded railroad trips in New England was made Wednesday night, when a special train on the Boston and Maine Railroad, carrying Lady Aberdeen and party, took 63 minutes to reach Manchester, N. H., 77 miles.

The first 26 miles of the trip was made in exactly 26 minutes, and the mile-a-minute speed for the rest of the journey was maintained. Lady Aberdeen and her party missed the regular train to Montreal, and a special train of a combination stockbroker and a trunk private car Violet was chartered at the regular rate of $3 a mile for the special, which thus cost $222 for the trip to Montreal, 74 miles away.

Here the regular train was caught. Lady Aberdeen will arrive in Toronto Tuesday.

ROYALISTS STILL LOYAL

French Marchioness Cheered on Way to Prison.

Paris, June 11.—The royalist tradition dies hard in France. The marchioness de Vasselot, who, during her absence from Paris, was sentenced to five days' imprisonment for the part she took in a royalist demonstration which led to a serious brawl, returned to undergo her punishment on the arm of her husband, who she at the Palais de Justice, in the yard of which she was received by fifty young royalists with their arms full of flowers. They saluted the marchioness and presented their flowers with all the courtesy ceremony of the time of Louis.

After the legal formalities the marchioness and her husband proceeded to the St. Lazare Prison, where there was again a crowd of flower-laden royalist supporters, who strewed her path to the prison door with the blooms. She entered the portals amid a round of enthusiastic cheers.

A request was forwarded to New York City for wrecking tugs, and within a few hours two of them were reported at the scene, and passed lines to the stranded steamer. They were unable to remove her, and the Lopez then hoisted signals, asking that small boats be sent from shore to take off the passengers, who were frightened.

LONDON, FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1909.

BERESFORD, THE COLONIES AND THE NAVY.

In the opinion of Lord Charles Beresford, the first question in the problem of imperial defense is how can the mother country and the colonies best help each other? For that reason he considers the idea of a conference, such as that which is soon to assemble in London to discuss this great question, an excellent one.

In the course of a speech at the recent Australasian banquet in London Lord Charles said that before spending large sums of money it was always well to consider what the result would be. The proposal from some of the dominions was that $2,000,000 should be presented to the mother country for the purpose of laying down battleships for service in the home waters. His opinion is that all these great dominions can best help the mother country by making proposals for their own defense. Instead of putting money into torpedo boats or submarines, or sending a large amount of it to England to build a battleship for duty in English waters, the dominions should invest their funds in their home defense and have cruisers which can go out to protect their trade routes and keep their lines of commerce clear and well protected. That, he declared, would be a better investment of money and far cheaper than spending it in the problematical effort of putting a battleship in home waters to defend the shores of Britain.

Lord Charles is a firm believer in the value of cruisers. "What we want," he said, "and what the dominions want, is a bona fide sea-going fleet which can go to fight, not a fleet of weapons which are kept in harbor, and which may never have to be used at all, as I am perfectly certain that the dominions will be attacked in their trade routes, and not in their harbors and towing." These vessels, he believes, should be under the administration and control of the dominions themselves. There should be an interchange between the cruisers of the dominions and home fleets, which would cement the union of the men. Further, they should have the same system of training, discipline, etc. By doing this the mother country and the dominions would have one great fleet to defend each other, and let the world see that if any part of the empire was attacked the whole empire would send one great fleet to meet the enemy. Such an organization as that for war, said Lord Charles, would insure peace.

Lord Charles evidently takes little stock in what he terms "The Dreadnought theory," in which Britain has led the way. "There was a time," he said, "when we told another nation that that ship would sink the whole of her fleet. The result was that that nation set to work and made a definite problem." In Lord Charles' opinion it will be impossible for the mother country alone in the near future to keep up the two-power standard, but if the whole of the five daughter nations join with her in maintaining an imperial navy, there will be no difficulty in keeping up that standard.

JAMES J. HILL'S WARNING.

Mr. James J. Hill's recent declaration that the United States is near to consuming the country's whole supply of wheat, has aroused considerable interest over there. No one is more familiar with the wheat country of the Northwest than the big railway magnate, and as he is anything but an alarmist, what he says carries considerable weight. In all probability, he says, 60 per cent wheat is a thing of the past, and for the future supply wheat growers must adopt new methods. Instead of robbing the wheat fields of fertility, rotation with clover must be resorted to in order to restore fertility. Mr. Hill does not mean there is danger of a wheat famine in the near future. He is simply looking ten years ahead and would have the farmers plan to prevent it at that time.

Mr. Hill is not the first to sound a note of warning of this kind. The prediction has frequently been made that the time is not far off when the United States will be compelled to import wheat. When the time comes, Canada will no doubt be found able not only to supply any deficiency of our nearest neighbor, but to make good the needs of other countries as well.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

The bill recently introduced by Mr. Winston Churchill in the British House of Commons providing for the establishment of labor exchanges is to be followed next session by a measure applying compulsory insurance to the following trades: House-building and works of construction, engineering and machine and tool making, ship and boat building, vehicles, sawyers and general laborers working at these trades. This group of industries, comprising two and a quarter millions of adult males, covers, Mr. Churchill says, very nearly half the whole field of unemployment, and perhaps the worst half. The cost will be nearly sixpence per man, to be made up by contributions from the workmen, the employers and the state.

Insurance against unemployment is already practiced by several English trade unions, but it is a heavy burden on the funds of those trades that need it most and it barely touches the poorer workpeople. The reasons of public policy for assisting and stimulating this form of thrift are readily apparent. The really difficult question is the best form of insurance, and in making known the views of the Government some months before the bill will be brought in, Mr. Churchill wishes, doubtless intentionally, free discussion. It is clear that any scheme of the kind, to be successful, must secure the hearty co-operation of the working classes; while, if employers are to be laid under contribution, it must also in the main command their willing assent.

Two plans have been before the public. One is known as the Ghent system, adopted in many cities of Belgium, and in some of Germany and France, which puts the entire responsibility of management upon the trade union, the assistance of the state consisting wholly in a grant to the benefit funds of any society which caters for this particular need, replacing a fixed proportion of the expenditure which it can show to have incurred in benefit to unemployed members.

This plan has the advantage of simplicity, besides leaving it to the union to keep malingers off the funds, which the union has a direct financial interest in doing. But it has the disadvantage that it is not universal and cannot call on the employer for a contribution. It is these considerations which incline the Government to the alternative plan as briefly outlined by Mr. Churchill, although it is not definitely committed to it. This makes the insurance compulsory, its machinery resembling that of the German insurance funds. English labor leaders accept Mr. Churchill's proposal as implying a great step onward in social progress. They believe the insurance scheme, with the proposed labor exchange, the undertaking of great national works of public utility to be increased in bad times and slackened off when times improve, and the planning of public work, on a ten years' cycle, to dovetail into the ups and downs of trade—all of which the Asquith Government proposes—will go far towards solving the problem of unemployment.

ATTACKING THE G. T. P.

[Hamilton Times.]
The course of the Mail and Empire in faking stories intended to discredit the National Transcontinental Railway and cast doubt upon the ability of the Grand Trunk Pacific to carry out its contract with the Government is not to be explained upon any theory which accuses malice. Again and again the organ has published stories intended to make it appear that the G. T. P. would default, and that the National Transcontinental scheme would inevitably come to disaster. One would think that with a full knowledge of the facts and with the road well on its way to completion, coming to maturity, to say nothing of loyalty to Canada, and regard for a great enterprise like the Grand Trunk Pacific, would have led the Mail and Empire to drop such cut-throat tactics. But it does not.

A REAL NEED.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
What the Colonial Secretary evidently needs more than a new cable line is to secure the services of some newspaper capable of making a good cable summary of a political speech!

SMALL CHANGE.

[Buffalo News.]
The Dominion authorities object to American small change, but American, except on the border, object to Canadian small change. It is not commendable in either case, but we have no complaint to make of the Canadian conduct in view of our own. In Buffalo anything goes, but it is irritating to go to New York with good Canadian silver in hand and find it coldly turned down.

FORBEARANCE.

[Washington Post.]
It is charged that half a dozen men regulate the meat supply of the country. Wonderful forbearance must be necessary to prevent two of the capitalists from getting together to freeze out the other four.

A BALANCING FEAT.

[Montreal Star.]
The season of the canoe accident has made its sorrowful entrance. Why will not people realize that riding a canoe is something like riding a bicycle—a balancing feat—not to be undertaken by novices and always to be regarded as liable to a "slide slip" or an upset in a "rut"? Canoeists should be good swimmers and good canoeists; and even then they should run no risks. Those unacquainted with the tricky ways of the canoe should do their practicing in knee-deep water.

ROYAL FORTUNES.

[London Truth.]
A writer in a weekly journal states that the Queen of the Netherlands is the richest sovereign in Europe, and it is all nonsense. Queen Wilhelmina is not nearly so rich as the Emperor of Russia or the Emperor of Austria, and it is doubtful whether she has as large a fortune as the King and Queen of Denmark (who was one of the great heiresses of the House of Orange), or the King of the Belgians, or even the King of the Hellenes, who has made enormous sums by successful speculations. It is also quite untrue that Queen Wilhelmina has inherited large fortunes from numerous relatives. She inherited the fortune of her father, King William, but not a farthing from her mother, who was a daughter of the King of the Netherlands. Her aunt, the Grand Duchess Sophia of Saxe-Weimar, left over one hundred millions of marks, but all this fortune passed to her grandson and her two daughters. The Queen of the Netherlands is very rich, in spite of her father's reckless extravagance, for he had one of the greatest fortunes in Europe to make ducks and drakes of.

BRIGANDS A FAST PASSING TYPE

The Picturesque Outlaws of Sicily
Soon Hero of the Past

Palermo, June 11.—Every criminal in Sicily who evades capture by the police is called a brigand, but to brigandage is supposed to have been stamped out by the Italian Government the term brigand has been supplanted by a new word, "latitante," or "hider." As a matter of fact, however, brigandage still exists in Sicily, weakened and diminished, but not overcome, and so long as the Mafia rules in the cities and towns brigandage will continue to flourish over the country. It could not be otherwise, as the Mafia and brigandage are closely connected by a bond of common interest. In years gone by the Sicilian brigands held up the carriages of the rich, took prisoners and held them for ransom, protected the weak and oppressed the rich and powerful nobles. Today the classical type of brigand has disappeared and the present outlaws are no longer highwaymen, but common criminals, who live in hiding and successfully evade capture by making themselves useful to certain great land owners, who in return protect them from the police. Now and again there is an isolated attempt at a return to the old traditions of brigandage and a man of an adventurous life, disappointed in love and unjustly persecuted by the police, will resort to the hills, waylay his enemies one by one and shoot them in cold blood and baffle the attempts of the police, aided by troops, to capture him.

Such cases are rare. Still within the last five years there were two famous Sicilian brigands whose names became household words throughout the island. Their careers in outlawry were short. One of them, Turiddu Failla Mulone, has disappeared and is supposed to be safe in America; the other, Giuseppe Salamone, has fallen into the hands of the police and is awaiting trial.

The brigands captured by the police are comparatively few, and in the rare cases where a capture is effected it is generally the result of chance. That was the case with Salamone. One day the brigand happened to be wandering alone about the country when he chanced to meet two carabinieri who he thought had recognized him. As a matter of fact they had not, but he had just gone on his way they would never have captured him. Besides, luck was against him, as he had almost succeeded in outdistancing his pursuers, when he stumbled and fell. When the two carabinieri caught him he said: "I am Salamone, and I won't offer my resistance, because I realize that I am no longer a brigand. A brigand never falls when running from the police unless he is shot dead." So ended Salamone's career.

STRATHROY.

Strathroy, June 10.—The many friends of Mr. L. H. Smith will be glad to learn that he is quite ill at his residence on Albert street.

Mr. J. W. Cameron left on Wednesday for Winnipeg on a business trip. Prof. Jordan, of Queen's University, Kingston, will preach in St. Andrew's Church here next Sunday.

The barn belonging to Mrs. J. H. English, east of Carleton place, was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. Mr. E. Zavitz had several cutters and a pair of sleighs stored therein, which were also destroyed. Cause of fire unknown.

Caroline Spindler, wife of John Smith, aged 23 years, died at her home, Concord street, on Monday after a brief illness. Deceased was much respected by all who knew her. Besides her husband she leaves two young children; also five brothers and a sister. Mr. B. Spindler, of London, is a brother. The others live in Portland, Oregon; one in Lucknow, Ont., and two in Duluth. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Strathroy Cemetery, Rev. M. L. Pearson officiating.

The Orangemen from this neighborhood will go to Glenora to celebrate the 12th of July.

The committee in charge of the Dominion Day celebration waited on the town council Monday evening, and asked for a grant for decorations. The town fathers, who will have a prominent place in the procession, voted $50 to the committee.

Information Wanted.

COUNTY COUNCIL
BEHIND ENGINEER

Mr. Talbot Backed Up in His
Resentment of Judge Macbeth's Remarks.

THE COURT HOUSE AGAIN

Some County Councillors Believe the Judges Are Trying to Force Along a New Structure at Cost of Half a Million.

The recommendations of the jail committee, which suggested that the county engineer's report be adopted, with the exception of clauses 1 and 2, aroused considerable warm discussion at the meeting of the county council, yesterday afternoon, and once more introduced the courthouse question, which was brought forcibly to the public attention by Judge Macbeth's reply to the grand jury at the spring assizes.

A goodly number of the county councillors were averse to the suggestion that these clauses, which outlined Engineer Talbot's standpoint, should be omitted. They considered that to take such action would be a reflection on their confidence in Mr. Talbot. Finally, an almost unanimous vote declared the hearty approval of the county councillors in Engineer Talbot's action, by which he had inserted the clauses in the report of the engineer, which was adopted by the county council.

The clauses, which suggested to omit which aroused all the discussion, are as follows: "Since the January session prisoners have not been available to perform the manual labor required to clean the courthouse and county buildings, bylaw 539 places the buildings and their surroundings under my supervision."

"Bylaw 607, section 77, reads as follows: 'In the performance of his duties the janitor shall have the assistance of such jail labor as may be available, and shall have authority to hire such other assistance as he may require, in being notified in writing by the jailer that sufficient jail labor was not available.' Section 76 of the same bylaw reads as follows: 'In the performance of his duties and any matters which may require his attention, the janitor shall be under the direction of the warden.'"

"Thus the janitor is under the supervision of the warden, the building under my supervision. When the spring sessions of the courts were to meet, I found the building in need of cleaning, and no prisoners to do it; neither had the janitor a written notice that prison labor was not available; consequently he could not hire men under the bylaw. Neither had the janitor time to do the cleaning. Consequently I consulted the warden, and he agreed that as the prison labor was not available, men should be hired to keep the building clean until the matter could be referred to the grand jury to the county council. Since April men have been hired at different times, and the buildings are regularly cleaned."

Dr. Hutchinson's Report.
"Clause 2.—The most of the county councillors will remember the report of the city medical health officer on the courthouse, which was published in the daily papers, and which, through the city medium, I endeavored to show, contained some inaccuracies. Then followed the spring assize court. With the grand jury made their presentation, at which Judge Macbeth was reported by the press to have stated in his address to the jury, I was an 'official official,' and which statement I presented to the grand jury. In this connection, I beg leave to make the statement that the remarks of both these gentlemen, as reported, concerning me, were unfair and unjustifiable, and in justice to myself and to preserve my reputation, I feel it my duty to report the matter to you, that you may, if you feel disposed to believe their insinuations, investigate my actions when I was called upon by the grand jury; and if you find I have acted so as to bring discredit upon your honorable body, whose servant I am, I will without hesitation accept of me the censure I deserve. As for the judge and the sheriff, I have reason to believe they have, since making the offensive remarks, had a defence place before them to show their statements were unfounded, but I presume their positions are so exalted that they are exempt from taking back statements ordinary men would feel in duty bound to do."

A Thunderbolt.
This report dropped as a kind of thunderbolt into the placid midst of the county council on the occasion of their first meeting, and it was evident that there was still life enough in it to make things interesting. "I wish to state," said Councillor Harris, "that the aspersions cast on Engineer Talbot by calling him an 'official official' were quite unjustifiable. I was one of the grand jurors at that assize, and it was at my request that the county engineer was brought. He did not press his services upon us. He was called, not because he was the county engineer, but because he knew the building, and I think the censure he received was unjust."

"By leaving out these two clauses, as the jail committee suggests," said Councillor Ulens, "we are practically censuring the engineer. I do not think we can blame him, for using strong words in defending his position. It is apparent that the judges are trying to force the county of Middlesex to build a new courthouse. I don't wish to criticize, but they are human, and are apt to be prejudiced by the opinions they have expressed. I think under the circumstances it would be unjust to put out these clauses. Engineer Talbot was guarding our interests, and to omit these clauses would be equivalent to censuring him, which I do not think we are prepared to do."

A Little Too Strong.
"We thought that clause 2 was a little bit too strong," said Councillor Hawkshaw, the chairman of the jail committee. "The matter in question was a dispute between the judge and sheriff and the grand jury and Engineer Talbot. Continued on Page Twelve."

A Prince of Sinners

By Phillips Oppenheim.
Author of "A Lost Leader," "The Malefactor," "A Maker of History," etc.

"I have never heard you so eloquent in my life, Sydney," she exclaimed. "Do go on. It is most entertaining. When you have quite finished I can see that Mr. Brooks is getting ready to pulverize you."

Brooks shook his head. "Lady Sybil tells me that Mr. Molyneux is not to be taken seriously," he answered.

Molyneux brought up his cup for some more tea.

"Don't you listen to Lady Sybil, Brooks," he retorted. "She is annoyed with me because I have been spoken of as a future prime minister, and the rather fancies her cousin for the post. Two knobs, please, and plenty of cream. As a matter of fact I am in serious and downright earnest. I say that Henslow won his seat by kidding the working classes. He promised them a sort of political Arabian Nights. He'll go up to Westminster, and I'm open to bet what you like that he makes not one serious practical effort to push forward one of the startling measures he talked about so glibly. I will trouble you for the toast, Brooks. Thanks!"

PATTERN DEPARTMENT, LONDON ADVERTISER.

"He is always cynical like this," Sybil murmured, "when his party loses a seat. Don't take any notice of him, Mr. Brooks. I have great faith in Mr. Henslow, and I believe that he will do his best."

Molyneux smiled.

"Henslow is a politician," he remarked, "a professional politician. What you Radicals want is Englishmen who are interested in politics. Henslow knows how to get votes. He's got his seat, and he'll keep it till the next election."

Brooks shook his head.

"Henslow has rather a platform manner," he said, "but he is sound enough. I believe that we are on the eve of important changes in our social legislation, and I believe that Henslow will have much to say about them. At any rate, he is not a rank hypocrite. We have shown him things in Medchester which he can scarcely forget in a hurry. He will go to Westminster with the memory of these things before him, with such a cry in his ears as no man can stifle. He might forget if he would—but he never will. We have shown him things which men may not forget."

Lord Arranmore, who had now joined the party, leaned forward with his arm resting lightly upon Lady Caroom's shoulder. An uneasy light flashed in his eyes.

"There are men," he said, "whom you can never reach, genial men with a ready smile and a prompt check back, whose selfishness is an armor more potent than the armor of my forefather there, Sir Ronald Kingston of Arranmore. And after all, why not? The thoroughly selfish man is the only person logically who has the slightest chance of happiness."

"It is true," Molyneux murmured. "Delightfully true."

Lord Arranmore is always either cynical or paradoxical," Sybil Caroom declared. He really says the most unpleasant things with the greatest appearance of truth of any man I know."

"This company," Lord Arranmore remarked lightly, "is hostile to me. Let us go and play pool."

Lady Caroom rose up promptly. Molyneux groaned audibly.

"You shall play me at billiards instead," she declared. "I used to give you a good game lately. Ring for Annette, will you, Sybil? She has my cue."

Sybil Caroom made room for Brooks by her side.

"Do sit down and tell me more about the election," she said. "Sydney is sure to go to sleep. He always does after shooting."

"You shall ask me questions," he suggested. "I scarcely know what part of it would interest you."

They talked together lightly at first, then more seriously. From the other end of the hall came the occasional click of billiard balls. Lady Caroom and her host were playing a leisurely game interspersed with conversation.

"Who is this young Mr. Brooks?" she asked, pausing to chalk her cue.

"A solicitor from Medchester," he answered. "He was parliamentary agent for Henslow, and I am going to give him a management of my estates."

"He is quite a boy," she remarked. "Twenty-six or seven," he answered. "How well you play those cannons."

"I ought to. I had lessons for years. Is he a native of Medchester?"

Lord Arranmore was blandly puzzled. She finished her stroke and turned towards him.

"Mr. Brooks, you know. We were talking of him."

"Of course, we were," he answered. "I do not think so. He is an orphan. I met his father in Canada."

"He reminds me of some one," she remarked, in a puzzled tone. "Just now as I was coming downstairs it was almost startling. He is a good-looking boy."

"Be careful, not to foul," he admonished her. "You should have the spider-rest."

Lady Caroom made a delicate canon from an awkward place, and concluded her break in silence. Then she leaned with her back against the table, chalking her cue. Her figure was still the figure of a girl, and she was a remarkably pretty woman. She laid her slim white fingers upon his coat-sleeve.

"I wonder," she said, softly, "whether you will ever tell me."

"If you look at me like that," he answered, smiling, "I shall tell you a great many things."

Her eyes fell. It was too absurd at her age, but her cheeks were burning.

"You don't improve a bit," she declared.

"I was the exercise," he insisted. "You have been standing about all day. I heard you ask for a place without any walking, and where as few people as possible could see you miss your birds."

"Your ears are a great deal too sharp," he said. "It was the wind, then."

"Never mind what it was," she answered, laughing. "You can go to sleep again if you like."

Molyneux put up his eyeglass and looked from one to the other. He saw that Sybil's interest in her companion's conversation was not assumed, and for the first time he appreciated Brooks' good looks. He shook off his sleepiness at once and stood by Sybil's side.

"Have you been trying to convert Lady Sybil?" he asked.

"It is unnecessary," she answered, quickly. "Mr. Brooks and I are on the same side."

He laughed softly and strolled away. Lord Arranmore was standing thoughtfully before the marking board. He laid his hand upon his arm.

"I say, Arranmore," he asked, "who the devil is Brooks?"

PATIENT SUES SURGEON

Woman Wants $30,000 Because Gauze Sponge Was Sewed Up Inside of Her.

Pittsburg, June 10. — Mrs. John Davis, of Connellsville, today began suit for $30,000 against Dr. J. P. Kerr, of this city.

Mrs. Davis alleged that she became ill in June, 1908, and her family physician recommended that she undergo an operation at the hands of Dr. Kerr, which she did the following July 24. She remained in Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, until the following Oct. 13, constantly attended by Dr. Kerr.

After her discharge from the hospital she suffered pains, and last May 16 she called another physician, who opened her old wound and took from it a piece of gauze sponge measuring about eleven by four and a half inches, which had been sewed up in her abdomen.

Mrs. Davis alleges that this sponge had been carelessly left there by Dr. Kerr and that it caused her to become a physical wreck.

ARREST ALLEGED ASSASSINS

Bloodhounds Trail Men From Scene of Ed. Callahan Shooting to Another County.

Lexington, Ky., June 11. — Sheriff Breck Crawford, of Breathitt County, accompanied by Capt. V. G. Milliken and his two famous bloodhounds from Lexington and a posse of twelve deputies, late this afternoon arrested Ellisha Smith and Levi Johnson in Perry County border and charged them with the attempted assassination of Former Sheriff Ed. Callahan.

The men were trailed to the house in which they were arrested by the bloodhounds. The dogs hit the trail in the rear of the coal bank, whence the shots were fired and started in the direction of Perry County. A short distance from the Callahan home it was found that the men had mounted their horses and ridden away, and at this point the dogs took up the trail of the horses and continued on into Perry County.

The officers learned from people living along the road that Smith and Johnson had passed and as they knew nothing of the shooting at the time they readily furnished the information.

Since the shooting of Callahan word has been received by the family that it was the purpose of the anti-Callahan faction to exterminate the entire family. The Callahan home is heavily guarded day and night. Circuit Judge Adams will press his request to Governor Wilson to send a company of state militia to Jackson to preserve order during the present term of court.

The men arrested today are known to be staunch enemies of the Deaton faction, while Smith is a close relative of John Smith, who confessed to

A WOMAN'S BACK WAS NOT MADE TO AGHE.

Thousands of Women Suffer Untold Misery Every Day With Aching Backs That Really Have No Business To Ache.

Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life. It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order. Backache is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Mrs. O. Warren, Radisson, Sask., writes: "I was troubled with very severe pains in my back for years. I tried everything I could think of but they did me no good. A friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking two boxes, I have not been troubled since."

participating in the assassination of Jim Cockrill and Dr. Cox at the instance of Judge Hargis and Ed. Callahan.

Govan Smith, brother of Ellisha Smith, was placed under arrest tonight by Sheriff Crawford and his posse. The officers are now searching for John Smith and Asbury Spicer.

The latter two confessed to the assassinations of Dr. Cox and Jim Cockrill during the trials of Hargis and Callahan and said they were paid for their work by the county judge and the sheriff of the county.

MAY GRAFT LIMBS ON MAN

But Only From Living or Recently Dead Bodies.

Paris, June 10.—Professor Pozzi, the eminent French gynecologist, described today to the Academy of Medicine Dr. Carrel's experiments at the Rockefeller Institute in transplanting organs and grafting limbs.

He told of his success in grafting to a fox terrier the hind leg amputated from another fox terrier and also of the grafting of dogs' paws.

He quoted Dr. Carrel as being unhesitatingly of the opinion that a man could be grafted with a limb amputated from another man or from a corpse of a person just killed by violence.

Dr. Carrel, however, was unwilling to draw hasty conclusions regarding the transfer of the organs of dumb animals to man. He had refused the requests of two patients to replace an arm and a kidney respectively.

TORONTO BOY DROWNED.

Toronto, June 11.—Thomas, the 6-year-old son of William Patterson, 18 Portland street, was drowned in the bay yesterday, the body being recovered shortly after the accident. The little fellow was throwing stones from the wharf, when he slipped and fell into the water, sinking at once.

TO SURVEY FORESTS.

Toronto, June 10.—Professor Fernow, dean of the faculty of forestry of the University of Toronto, who has been selected to make a survey and report upon the forest resources of Nova Scotia, has chosen as his assistants Dr. Howe and J. White, lecturers in the faculty of forestry at the university, and H. B. Ayers, a Canadian, now a forestry specialist in the University of Minnesota. The party leave for Nova Scotia on the 25th inst., to enter upon its first season's work.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleriver, Que.—"Without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I would not be alive. For five months I had painful and irregular periods and inflammation of the uterus. I suffered like a martyr and thought often of death. I consulted two doctors who could do nothing for me. I went to a hospital, and the best doctors said I must submit to an operation, because I had a tumor. I went back home much discouraged. One of my cousins advised me to take your Compound, as it had cured her. I did so and so on and so on. I feel no pain and am cured. Your remedy is deserving of praise."—MRS. EMMA CHATEL, Valleyfield, Belleriver, Quebec.

Another Operation Avoided.
Adrian, Ga.—"I suffered untold misery from female troubles, and my doctor said an operation was my only chance, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me without an operation."—LENA V. HENRY, R.F.D. 3.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases.

New York, June 10.—George Mullin, the undefeated Tiger twirler, annexed another victory to his already long string today, when he humbled Stallings' Highlanders in the final game of the series by a score of 2 to 1. Today's game makes it eleven successive victories and no defeats, for Mullin, a record unequalled by no other pitcher in either of the major leagues this season.

Drove in Winning Run.
When Mullin is credited with the latest victory over the cheery Yankee youngsters, it does not mean only that George, by his pitching prevented the home team from chalking up scores in the run column. He allowed the Highlanders but seven hits, which were widely removed from each other. In other words, Mullin permitted no more than one single in any single round. But the big fellow did more than this. With the score a tie at 1 to 1, he actually drove in the tally with a corking double, which decided the contest which gave the Tigers the big end of the present series and permitted the pitcher himself to retain the title of the unbeaten American League flinger.

Pretty Contest.
The game, as the score indicates, was the most closely contested of the three played here. The Highlanders, occupying the position in the percentage column next to the league leaders, have been playing a snappy game of late. The Yankee admirers had hoped to see a big reduction made in the Tiger average during their stay in this city. Today's game was a pretty one. Both teams played errorless ball, and more than one sensational piece of fielding was furnished the rather small crowd of fans who gathered to see the contest, a threatening rainstorm dampening the ardor of the other less enthusiastic bugs.

McConnell Took Flight.
McConnell, the Yankee giant, began the last struggle of the quartet scheduled here for his team-mates. The tall one occupied a place on the mound for one brief inning. It was into one tally, and then McConnell was seemed to be afraid of the Champions and was stricken with nervousness. The result was a wild pitch, a balk, two passes for the Tigers in the very first inning. Two singles aided the Champions in turning the combination a very eventful round for him. He requested to watch the game from the bench.

Spoils Manning's Record.
Manning, who trounced the Tigers so decisively in the first game of the series, then went in the box. Barring his first round, in which he pitched the youngster pitched splendid ball. Although a trifle wild he kept his hits well scattered, and after the second inning the Detroit club failed to round up another score off him.

But another one wasn't needed. The one tally proved quite enough to land the victory for the Tigers, and to spoil the hitherto unsullied record of Manning, the Yankee prospect, who has been pitching sensational ball for the Highlanders to date.

MANY CANADIAN ENTRIES
FOR BIG DETROIT MEET

Ethel Mac, Well Known Mare, Entered in M. and M. $10,000 Stake—Other Fast Ones.

Detroit, June 11.—Canada is playing a more important part than usual in the harness racing sport this year. It has a high class meeting at Fort Erie in August and a big week at Windsor July 29 to 31. The Windsor meeting is the curtain-raiser for the grand circuit. Horses trained in the east will make their first appearance at the Border City, and will meet the pick of the Michigan and Canadian circuits, also many from the south.

The M. and M. Stake.
From Windsor the trotters and pacers cross to Detroit for the opening of the grand circuit, the annual blue ribbon meeting taking place July 26 to 30. The famous Merchants' and Manufacturers' $10,000 stake and the great Chamber of Commerce stake of $5,000, will be renewed with large and exceptional fields. In the first-named the Canadian mare, Ethel Mac, that raced on the half-mile tracks of Ontario last year, is highly regarded.

The Chamber of Commerce.
Axtara, owned at Tillsonburg, is one of the best in the Chamber of Commerce. The free-for-all pacing stake has among its entries the well-known Canadian flyers, Darkey Hal and Major Brino. There will be a liberal sprinkling of speed from various provinces in the other events, contributing their share toward making the contests notable.

While spring training has been somewhat backward owing to the great amount of rain, horses all over the country are well advanced that they have been showing surprising speed, so record-breaking doubtless will again be the order on the fast Detroit oval.

A CHALLENGE.
The St. John's Athletic Club baseball team wish a game of ball with any outside club for July 1. For further information write Ed. Walker, manager, 854 William street, London.

ST. GEORGES ARE TIED WITH LORNES IN SERIES

Leaders of Eastern and Western League Teams Will Play Off Next Week.

St. Georges took the second game of the Public School League championship series on the Queen's Park diamond yesterday afternoon, winning from the Lornes by a score of 3 to 2.

The teams are now tied, having won one each, and the deciding contest will be held on an independent diamond next week. James Bell acted as umpire in a satisfactory manner.

A large crowd of spectators were on the job.

The Pirates have won ten straight games in a row, and at the speed they are travelling now they should add a few more before the slump. It looks like the Smoky City and Detroit clubs will hit up a faster pace than they are going right now.

Tremargo, a London horse, won a nice race in Montreal yesterday, and showed that he has class. He has earned his keep this year all right.

J. Kling has not turned his good right arm over to the Cubs as yet, even if there are 588 good American dollars stuffed into a strong box waiting for his appearing. However, the lure of gold should get him right smart.

Many of the bookies have deserted Montreal, and will not finish out the Blue Bonnets meeting. It is understood that they could not get all the money in Peasouville, and they became peevish.

G. Mullin, of the Tigers, is sure some pitcher this year, and yesterday celebrated his eleventh victory for the season. The team is going at its speed right now.

Toronto newspapermen claim that Joe Kelley has a rare lot of boneheads on his list—in fact, they intimate that they have about all in captivity. They are not losing with any grace in the Queen City, as usual.

Wild Bill Donovan oozed out of the ball park at New York the other day at the request of the umpire. This is one of Bill's specialties in the east.

The good ones of Queen's Park are working out around 2:30, and some a little better, and as a result are right on edge. They have not been asked to step to their limit, but are taking good, sensible work. Oakland Audubon is developing into a fine pace.

The City League is drawing well, but it should draw larger gates. The ball is good, and the boys deserve better patronage.

League Leaders Did Not Have Any Fun With Kissinger—Beecher Replaced Holmes.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 10.—The Bronchos were sent away with the whitewash sticking all over their uniforms. Big Rube Kissinger rubbed it in hard today, and the Rochesterers had little fun at his expense. Holmes was replaced by Beecher because the former could not stop the hits with men on bases. Score:

Put a little "Sunshine" in your home
An old-fashioned, ill-working furnace is a non-producer. It consumes the coal, but through leaks and cracks wastes the heat. It is not economy to have such a furnace in your own home, or in your tenant's home. If you are thinking of building you should be interested in Sunshine Furnace. It adds 100 per cent. to home comforts. As soon as you let the contract for your house decide on your furnace. The "Sunshine" man will be pleased to tell you just how the rooms ought to be laid out with an eye to securing greatest heat from the smallest consumption of coal. If you want to experiment with the question don't specify "Sunshine." If you want to settle the question specify "Sunshine."

For the Timmen.

The timmen got away with the fastest game of the season in the Commercial League at Tecumseh Park last evening, defeating the Smallman & Ingram nine, and incidentally scoring a shutout.

Both pitchers handled themselves well and received glib support, although Kelley had the long end of the strike-out record. Neither team scored until the sixth inning, when with two down and Benenatti on the third sack, Bull dropped a fly ball from Pirie's stick. That ended the score.

CANADIANS AT THE OLYMPIC

Lieutenant Wood Leonard Writes
Interesting Letter From England.

HORSES IN GOOD SHAPE

Jumping for the Adam Beck Cup
Took Place Yesterday—
Some Results.

An interesting letter on the Olympic Horse Show has been received from Lieut. Wood Leonard, one of the Canadian team riding in England at this show.

It was written just prior to the commencement of the exhibition, and gives some interesting details.

The Canadians were privileged to spend part of a day in Havre, France, where they saw large numbers of French soldiers.

"They may be able to fight well," was Lieut. Wood Leonard's comment, "but they certainly do not make a smart appearance."

The First Day.
On arriving in London, they unshipped, and had their horses quartered near the Olympic. The first day of their arrival they attended the military and naval performances, and saw the Queen and several of the princes.

The Canadian team reported at the war office on June 2, and an officer was detailed to look after their comfort.

The riding school of the Light Guards was turned over to them for riding practice, and they were allowed to spend one hour a day at that sort of work.

Horses in Good Shape.
The horses arrived in good shape, but were somewhat soft, and shortly after that the Canadians came to the conclusion that they would scarcely win the King's Cup owing to the fact that their horses were soft, and the competition of the very keenest.

"We will do our best, but we do not expect to win," he comments. "The horses have had not sufficient time to get their land legs after the voyage. The other teams are in Brussels attending a similar competition, and they will be in great form when the competition is announced."

Pick Italians to Win.
"The consensus of opinion is that the Italian team, all of whom are splendid riders, will win the King Edward Cup."

"We were the first foreign team to arrive, because, as I said, the others are at Brussels attending the show there. Our horses were quartered at the Olympic on June 2. We are not allowed to practice there, however, but must ride two miles to the Light Guards' school for practice."

The French Team.
A later letter states that the French team, which eventually proved to be the winners of the cup, were quartered at the war office with them.

He speaks of the Argentine team, which had also arrived at this time, as dashing riders, and a team that he expected to do well in the competition. The Canadians have a lot of work to do. They must attend morning, afternoon and evening, and with the exacting work on their horses it is no wonder that, with only a little more than a week on land, they did not expect to win the cup.

The Canadian officers are being royally entertained, by the British officers, but have declined to accept all the invitations until after the competitions are over.

Thursday at the Show.
London, June 10.—The programme today at the International Horse Show at Olympia held many interesting events, including the important jumping competition for the Canadian cup, presented by Adam Beck.

C. W. Watson, of Baltimore, started the day well by taking first honors, and the Berkeley challenge cup in class 49, four-in-hands, exceeding 15 hands, 11 teams entered, with fur spanking bays. Judge William H. Moore, of New York, received fifth prize in this event.

Watson was again first in class 55, judging of 22 single harness horses, over 14 and not exceeding 15 hands shown to a two-wheel carriage, with Ringing Bells, who easily overshadowed his competitors. Judge Moore was given three awards in this class. His horse was placed in reserve, and Lonsdale was commended.

DROPS DEAD AT JUDGE'S STAND
Frank Gill, After Finishing Second in Third Gravesend Race, Collapses.

Gravesend, N.Y., June 10.—Frank Gill, a chestnut horse, fell dead, probably from the bursting of a blood vessel, after finishing second in the third race at Gravesend today. He was a heavily played favorite at 1 to 2. He lay in second place all the way of the mile and a furlong journey.

When Seville, his rider, pulled up on the lower turn, he felt the horse giving way under him, and jumped off just as Frank Gill dropped dead. Frank Gill was in the stud at a Kentucky farm for a season and was off form for a season, and was brought east this year to race, but has shown nothing like the form he displayed as a 3-year-old when he defeated Peter Pan. He was 5 years old, by Collar-Ravello II.

COUNTY COUNCIL WANT PRISONERS TO WORK

Objection Is Made to the Payment of an Account for $20 for Jail Labor.

The county council was not in session yesterday, and as there were no matters to be considered, the council adjourned. The jail committee had a meeting, at which several matters of importance were brought up. There has been considerable dissatisfaction expressed by the councilors that with the forces of the jail at their disposal they should have been compelled to pass a bill for upwards of $20 for extra labor.

Sheriff Cameron was requested to meet with them to give some explanation of the causes that made this necessary.

The sheriff explained that the statute provided that only inmates convicted of misdemeanors could be used for these purposes, and as there were at all times a large number of inmates of the jail who were on remand, or charged with insanity, this materially decreased the number of workmen at his disposal.

Another Turnkey Wanted.

There was some discussion and argument as to where the power of the council ended with regard to the jail, and the sheriff referred them to the statute. He also pointed out that he had only one turnkey whom he could use on outside work, the others being needed for the other work of the jail, and he informed the councilors that if this extra work was to be done it would be necessary that the council supply him with another turnkey or else have the janitor sworn in to those duties, so that he would be under the sheriff's authority to attend to this work. The committee's opinions on these matters will be presented at the afternoon session of the council.

Y. M. C. A. Deputation.

A deputation was also heard from the Y. M. C. A., asking the council to reconsider its decision to deny the association the right to use the grounds to the south of the county buildings for tennis courts. Mr. John Macpherson, the president of the Y. M. C. A., presented the position of the young men. They had not been informed, he said, as to the reasons for the withdrawal of the privilege. He did not think that the boys had done any harm, and he strongly championed the needs of such grounds to permit the young men of the city to engage in outdoor sports.

Chairman Explains.

Chairman Hawkshaw said that the reason the privilege had been withdrawn was that the grass had been seriously damaged, and a number of holes found in the ground. Councillor Knapton thought that the grass would grow again, even if it did happen to be destroyed, and he thought the privilege ought to be granted.

The councilors thought that if the grass was destroyed, and then the difficulty might be obviated, and Mr. Macpherson promised to see that if the grounds were granted that every precaution would be taken to see that they were properly protected.

Several of the councilors, when spoken to regarding their probable action, said that the grounds would certainly be granted to the Y. M. C. A. again this year.

Pastor Scores the Ladies for Wearing the Peachbaskets at Conference.

Guelph, June 10.—"Man meets a woman on street and takes off his hat to her no matter how cold it is; in street car he vacates his seat for her sometimes without even thanks. Men take women to skating or opera, then to supper. Bills may run high, but they do the handsome thing by ladies. She lets him and sometimes boasts of all that is spent on her. Then women are asked to do a simple thing like removing their hats in church for the benefit of men, they get mad." Thus spoke Rev. W. H. Crews, of Norfolk Street Methodist Church to the Men's Mission Society of the Hamilton Conference. He compared the life of women in China to that of Canadian women, expressing grave fear that Canadian womanhood was being spoiled by courtesies. But few hats were removed in response to the appeal, though the women were manifestly uncomfortable.

AFTER THE DRUGGISTS.

Montreal, June 11.—As the result of an action taken by the Pharmaceutical Association against Handfield, the druggist, a thousand actions are entered.

Handfield was charged with selling cocaine, and his brother's lawyers entered eight actions against 150 druggists for selling cocaine illegally.

These failed on a technicality. They are bound to get their revenge, and have entered a test case to be followed by 150 others for selling liquor illegally.

The practice is general by all the druggists, and the only defence can be that the offence is technical. The penalty is $50 or $100, of which the informer gets a quarter.

WESTERN CROPS IN FINE SHAPE

Good Fall of Rain and Warm Weather Has Prevailed.

Winnipeg, June 11.—The weekly crop report of the Canadian Pacific Railway is to hand and is as favorable as ever. The wheat has been sown, and there remains only a small acreage of coarse grain to be seeded. The condition of the crop is splendid. A considerable amount of rain has fallen during the past week. The weather remained warm with the exception of a few points, where there was rather a cool wave prevailing. Prospects were never better for a good crop up to the present time.

Rosser's reports wheat four inches high, and barley just through the ground. At Burnside wheat is ten to twelve inches high and oats three to five inches. Various other points report wheat showing from three to seven inches.

SUFFRAGISTS ROBBED

All But "Votes For Women" Banners Carted Away From Rooms.

New York, June 11.—Complaint was made at police headquarters last night by the executive committee of the National Progressive Women's Suffrage Union that the union's quarters at 122 East Twenty-third street had been robbed yesterday afternoon, and that everything of value had been moved out. The loss is given at some $500.

The union has a big room on the second floor of the building. The room was locked yesterday afternoon, during the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Olive Pierce. Last night there was to be a meeting of the executive committee, and when the members of the committee showed up the room they found the door wide open. The lock had been pried off and put aside on a mantle.

The only things left in the room were the heavy furniture. The stolen stuff includes several rugs, one of them a $300 Daghistan, several paintings presented to the union by artists, several banners, a bearing the legend, "Votes For Women," untouched. The suffragettes have an idea that a wagon must have been used to cart away the stuff.

This is the second time the union's quarters have been entered. On the earlier occasion only about $75 worth of stuff was taken.

MORE TARGET PRACTICE

The Troops at Niagara Camp To Have Better Facilities.

Toronto, June 11.—Standing orders by Brigadier-General W. H. Cotton for the Niagara camp were completed for issue yesterday. Increased provision for instruction and practice in musketry has been made this year. At the last camp soldiers were permitted to fire only fourteen shots each, at two ranges, 100 and 200 yards, and in the case of many units only seven shots, each at 100 yards. This year, according to the syllabus, they will be allowed independent firing at four ranges, and snap-shooting at moving targets at two ranges, seven rounds by each man at each range.

This increased provision will be facilitated by the small number of troops in camp and by the additional ranges which have been erected on the property lately acquired by the government on the lake shore. The syllabus also provides for a larger amount of time to be devoted to skirmishing, attack practice, advance and rear-guard and outpost work than in former years. As usual, a tactical scheme for all forces will be held on the last day before marching out of camp.

It is specifically stated in the orders that all canteens will be strictly regulated, and that no beer or spirituous in any form will be permitted in any of the mess, canteen or other regimental institution. The hours at which canteens are permitted to be open are restricted to 7 to 7:30 a.m., 12 to 1:30 p.m., and 5 to 9:30 p.m.

An advance guard composed of the local detachments of the Royal Canadian Dragoons and the Royal Canadian Regiment, went across yesterday to Niagara-on-the-Lake to prepare for the camp.

ADAPTABLE GLADYS

The Former Miss Vanderbilt Now a Real Hungarian.

Budapest, Hungary, June 11.—With an adaptability which rises almost to genius and which is inspired by her love for Count Szechenyi, her husband, Gladys Vanderbilt, the daughter of John D. Rockefeller, has transformed herself into a Hungarian woman in the few brief months since their marriage in January, 1908.

The countess, who recently returned from a visit to America, has studied Magyar most assiduously; already she has mastered this very difficult of modern languages. The fluency with which she speaks it amazes all who hear her. Of course her accent is not perfect, but it is improving fast.

Being a fine musician, she has taken naturally to Hungarian music, and to the count's intense delight, she has learned to dance the Czardas, the national dance of his fatherland. To see her in the Czardas, her little fists on her hips, clicking together the high heels of her boots, while her skirts are flying, one would suppose that in her veins flows Hungarian blood as old as the Szechenyis.

The household in the count's country residence at Oermeeze is managed in the Hungarian way. All the servants are Hungarian except the butler and the groom.

So is the household in the fine home on Anassay street, the most fashionable avenue in Budapest, which the Szechenyis lately bought from Count Zenschy.

In a word, the countess feels so much at home in Hungary that she and her husband have abandoned their plan to buy a place in Vienna and live there the greater part of the year.

THIS BRITISHER NOT IN FEAR OF WAR

Captain Pelly, in America for Holiday, Laughs at Rumors of a War.

New York, June 11.—Capt. Henry Bertram Pelly of the royal navy, was at the Plaza yesterday, waiting for the Kronprinz Wilhelm, on which he starts back to England this morning, and catching his breath after an endeavor to take a look at this country in three weeks.

"This is my first visit to this country, and I'm not over here on any official inspection," said the captain. "It's been merely a holiday. My wife and I thought we would come over and have a look around. We've been to Washington and Mount Vernon and to West Point and Annapolis, where I was really struck with the fine appearance of our sailors."

"You know it's quite out of the question to compare the naval schools of this country and at home, because they are so completely different. Over there we take them when they are just little boys, 12 or 13 or so, and first they have a short time in one school and then in another, and after that they go to sea for a certain period before they are turned out as sub-lieutenants. But your men here are considerably older as a class and I was greatly impressed by their splendid bearing and physique."

"I do wish I were just coming instead of leaving," went on Captain Pelly. "I've seen service in most parts of the world, but never in American waters. Let me see—Bermuda is the closest I've been. I believe. For the last two years I've been in command of the King Edward VII. Lord Bedford's flagship, and of course we've been near home all the time."

Captain Pelly is only a little more than 40 now, and the King Edward VII. is the second ship he has commanded since he was raised to the rank of captain in 1906. The other was the Venerable. He is a tall, smooth-shaven man. The best part of his personality is his laugh. This was especially active when he spoke of the English apprehensions of Germany.

"It's ridiculous, the stir they are kicking up over nothing at home," he declared. "Why, it's such a simple matter when you stop to think of it. Here are the Germans building ships as fast as they can, and why shouldn't they? It's their affair if they want to get more powerful. But we must keep on building them, too, to keep ahead, mustn't we?"

"I read the other day of reports of a German coming down and frightening the life out of a lot of people. Of course, that's the worst sort of rot, but then we have a certain class of scaremongers over there—I suppose you have them here too—who love to stir up the people now and then. Why shouldn't Germany get more ships, for if she should want to go to war with us or with you, where would she be without them?"

"But a scare isn't a bad thing once in a while. It keeps the Government up to the mark, and it naturally results in a naval appropriation in the end, though it seems it hasn't accomplished anything like that yet. But you can take my word for it there really isn't any scare in England. Why should there be?"

The report recommends that the infringement committee be empowered to take whatever action in connection with these cases as may be most expedient, and freight was killed. Three Ottawa passers.

NORDICA'S ODD IDEA

Famous Diva Says Was Never Meant to Sing in Public.

London, June 11.—After Mme. Nordica's phenomenally successful concert at Queen's Hall, Henry Russell, director of the Boston Opera Company, too her back to her apartment at Earle's Hotel, in Grosvenor Square.

Mr. Russell says:

"When we got in Mme. Nordica sat down looking as fresh as ever. 'I feel,' said she, 'exactly how I stand.' 'Admirable, quite admirable,' I answered. 'Yes, but you know I can sing better than that.'"

"I never heard," I replied. "Of course," said Mme. Nordica. "What I like to do is to sing to myself in my room. Next best to that I enjoy rehearsals when there is no one present but—and then the great prima donna rose dramatically to her feet and waved her finger almost in my face. 'I tell you, I was never meant to sing in public,' she said. 'Just think of that, Mme. Nordica does not believe she should sing in public.'"

Mrs. Klaw had a few words to say about the London dramatic critics. He was discussing the production of "Bunick's" which she had taken place Tuesday evening, when Miss Ward, by a powerful portrayal of the title role, caused an impression which was little short of a sensation and was greeted with cheers and bravos. There was not a single sign of disapproval in any part of the theatre, and people familiar with London theatrics know that audiences here have the fashion of booing and hissing when they don't like a play, no matter how popular an actor or actress may be. Yet the critics praised Miss Ward to the skies, but she did not like it. She denied her play, the scene as she did Miss Stahl's, and just as they did "Love Watches" and half a dozen other American plays which could be mentioned.

"It is a curious fact," said Mr. Klaw, "that the critics nearly all seem to be just as hard on everything American in our plays, and any display of emotion is promptly labelled 'melodrama.' The trouble with our plays over here seems to be that they are very human and the average Englishman is taught almost from his childhood to repress all sense of emotion and to smile at sentiment."

"It is considered in bad form to show feeling, and they are not in sympathy with it when it is displayed on the stage. They like our players, but condemn our plays. Perhaps that is because the critics do not act and do write plays."

Boils and Pimples

Are caused entirely by the blood being in an impure condition, and the quickest and simplest way to get rid of them is to take a few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters.

This purely vegetable remedy has cured thousands of cases of these painful and unsightly troubles during the past thirty years.

Mr. S. J. Weir, River view, Ont., writes: "Last summer I had nineteen boils on my neck and back. I was off work for over two weeks. I took everything I could think of but to no effect. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and before I had used half the bottle the boils were gone. I took the rest of it, however, and I have not had a boil since."

Mr. W. J. Cran, don, St. Mary's, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with pimples on my face for a couple of years and tried a good deal of patent medicine, but they were not of much use. Finally I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters and am now entirely cured."

WILL INVITE CHILDREN
TO THE BIG PICNICEast End Businessmen Remember They Were Once
"Kids" Themselves.

A meeting of the East End businessmen was held last evening to discuss the second annual picnic, which will be held July 14 in Queen's Park. The children of Lonsdale, Chesley, Rectory street, Quebec street and Aberdeen schools will be invited to attend, and a special programme of sports will be arranged for their benefit, as the members of the association feel that the board of education made an error in cutting out the school picnic.

It was proposed to put on motorcycle and bicycle races, but at a special meeting of the executive, held this morning, it was decided not to act on the recommendations, as it would be practically impossible to keep the children off the track while the events were being run.

Membership tickets will be distributed, and committees will also be appointed to take up a collection for the prizes.

The procession, which was to have been held from the city to Queen's Park on the afternoon of the picnic, has also been cut off. The members of the association are looking forward to a great day and a fine programme of sports is being arranged for the occasion.

NORTH END HORSE
IN LIVELY RUNAWAYRan Almost Across the City Until It Reached Home.

A horse owned by Mr. Arthur McClurg, 531 Helmuth avenue, furnished some real excitement yesterday afternoon.

While Mr. McClurg was in a house near the corner of Hamilton road and William street, he left the horse tied in the yard. Something went wrong with the harness, and frightened the horse.

The animal broke the tie-line and rushed out of the yard, running up the Hamilton road to Maitland street, when he turned north.

It continued its journey home with the buggy swaying from side to side, until it reached Mr. McClurg's residence. Several attempts were made to stop it, but the horse disdained all interference until it reached his own backyard.

The damage done was slight, although it was thought that there would be little left of the buggy by the time the horse was captured.

About 200 of the brethren were present (187 by actual count). The large number of visitors was principally composed of brethren in the volunteers, who are encamped on the heights.

Arrangements were made for the part this lodge will take in the monster demonstration on July 12 next, and a committee appointed to procure the music for that occasion.

Two candidates were initiated and three applications were received.

Donation for Charity.

A donation of $10 was made towards the funds of St. Mary's Church.

The lodge closed in the Orange degree and was raised to the royal arch degree and seven members were exalted to that sublime degree.

After the light refreshments were partaken of the lodge was addressed by both the Orange ministers present and several of the members, and the lodge closed by singing the National Anthem.

WINANS WINS MANY

In Class 38, Judging of ten pairs of harness horses, over 15 and not exceeding 15.2 hands, they took not less than five honors. Walter Winans' Cokers-Rosador and Prosperine were first; Judge William H. Moore, Pandora and Cyrus, were fourth; C. W. Watson's Lord Baltimore and My Maryland were fifth; Judge Moore's Thaddeus and Thaddeus were placed in reserve, and his Chiquita and Lady Seaton were commended.

A. G. Vanderbilt took third prize in the competition for the three special cups presented by the directors of the horse show, and open to members of the Coaching Club. His was the only American entry.

STOCKS.

By private wire to H. C. Becker, London, from Harris, Winthrop & Co.

New York, June 11.—The market has shown a strong tone throughout, with some realizing on the early advance. The profit-taking that has occurred, however, had relatively little influence upon the standard shares, which have retained most of their strength. There was continued good buying in the Harman and Hill shares, with some heavy purchases of Steele, Atchison and Reading. The market throughout shows a firm tendency, and it still looks like higher prices before the day is over. The bank statement tomorrow ought to show wonderful gain in cash holdings, because of heavy shifting of currency from interior points.

THE DORKING HANDICAP.

Galwick, England, June 11.—The Dorking water handicap of 100 sovereigns for 3-year-olds and upwards, distance 6 furlongs, was run here today and won by Mariut. Muffin Boy was second, and J. R. Keen's Wamba II. third. Fourteen horses ran.

REGIMENT ENTERTAINED
COUNTY COUNCILLORSOfficers of 26th Prov'd Themselves To Be Ideal Hosts
at the Camp.

The members of the county council were royally entertained by the Twenty-sixth Regiment at the camp last night. Besides the county councillors there were present Mr. J. B. McKillop, Sheriff Cameron, Mr. S. F. Glass, Col. McEwen and Mr. W. McIntosh.

The guests of the regiment were first taken on a tour of inspection over the camp, and were immensely pleased with all they saw, and were quite enthusiastic over the military life when they finally gathered in the officers' mess for the banquet.

The toast to the King and the county councillors and officers, was proposed by Col. Robinson in a very happy speech, and the councillors were given an opportunity to rid themselves of some of their superfluous enthusiasm on military affairs by replying to this toast.

Then there was the toast to "Other Guests," coupled with the names of Col. McEwen, W. McIntosh and S. F. Glass, all of whom outdid themselves in the brightness and happy nature of their replies.

Music was supplied during the evening by the regimental orchestra, while Capt. Hunt, of Parkhill, delighted everyone with his solo.

The county councillors left the camp more firmly convinced than ever that the Twenty-sixth was not only the best, but practically the only regiment in this part of the country.

Local Items

Landmark Gone.

One of the landmarks of the city was removed a couple of days ago when the old frame house adjoining the cold storage building on Bathurst street was torn down. The house is said to have been one of the first built in London.

Hier Discharged.

William Hier, of Montreal, who was found in a serious condition on the Grand Trunk tracks near the East London station early yesterday morning, had recovered sufficiently this morning to be discharged from Victoria Hospital, and proceeded on his way to Starn.

Where Are the Seats?

A good many people are wondering why the benches have not been placed in front of the court house as customary. The season is far enough advanced now to warrant such matters being attended to, and there is a good deal of dissatisfaction among those who frequent the west end that this has not been done long before this.

To Entertain Officers.

A meeting of the manufacturers and entertainment committee will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon to consider the suggestion of Ald. Stevenson that a tour of the city be made by the officers of the Twenty-sixth Regiment who are present in camp in the city. The details will then be worked out, and it is practically certain that some form of entertainment will be provided for the visitors.

Councillor Knapton Injured.

While Councillor Knapton was driving to the reception of the county councillors by the Twenty-sixth Regiment he met with a disagreeable accident that spoiled the day for him. Some boys were throwing stones, and one of these struck the councillor from Parkville street, and inflicted a nasty cut. Mr. Knapton had to return and have the wound attended to before he could go to the banquet.

London Students.

Among the names of the successful candidates in the University of Toronto examinations of the second year there appear the names of Mr. M. L. Waters, who has taken first-class honors standing in the two departments of mathematics and physics. Both the gentlemen named are London boys and are at high standing reflects great credit on their city.

and No Claimants as Yet.

There are three bicycles at the police station at the present time awaiting owners. No less than four wheels that had been found on the streets were brought to the station last night. Later two of them were claimed, the owners coming to the station to report that their machines had been stolen. Two of the others were not claimed, and another one was brought in several days ago is also awaiting a claimant. It is a Crescent and almost new. Neither of the other wheels have names, but one evidently belongs to a gentleman with remarkably long legs as in addition to having a long frame the seat post is placed high as it can go. The police believe the bicycles are taken by small boys who ride them about until they are tired and then leave them any place on the street.

GREAT GATHERING OF THE BAKERSThursday Last Was Red Letter Day
for Family at St. Thomas.

Thursday last was red letter day for the Baker family and their connections at Pinafore Park, St. Thomas. They gathered by traction and train, buggy and boat, to the annual picnic, until the park was alive with Bakers, old and young, all extremely happy, as one would judge by the laughter of the children and the happy vein of humor that seemed to be paramount among all present. An unique feature was the speeches, Mr. J. C. Love, of London, made an excellent chairman; Revs. Brown and Sutcliffe addressed happily; Will G. Blewett, who holds a prominent position in the Indian department of the west, gave a very interesting talk; Mr. John Blewett spoke feelingly of the pleasure of the annual gathering; Harvey Kilbourne, Edwin

SMOKE NUISANCE
WILL BE DISCUSSED

No. 1 Committee, of the City Council, Will Deal With the Problem.

The smoke nuisance will be the main topic of discussion at the meeting of No. 1 committee this afternoon.

Ald. Ferguson has been making investigations along this line, and will make a report as to his observations. It is more than likely that a bylaw will be prepared regarding this question.

While in Detroit recently he had a long conversation with Mr. John Harveys, a former Londoner, who is at the present time smoke inspector for that city.

Valuable Information.

A lot of valuable information was secured, and Mr. Harveys declared his willingness to come to London and make a detailed explanation of the system in vogue in Detroit.

LITTLE GRAIN AT BUFFALO

Shippers There Suffering From Lack of Export Wheat, as at Montreal.

Buffalo, June 10.—Reports from Montreal that many steamships sailing from Montreal are carrying water ballast instead of the usual grain cargoes are not taken by the Buffalo grain men to mean that the great bulk of the grain business over the Montreal route has been diverted to Buffalo, as stated in the press dispatches sent out from the Canadian city. As a matter of fact, the grain shipments will show a falling off of 2,500,000 bushels.

The grain brought to Buffalo between the opening of navigation and this date last year amounted to 16,500,000 bushels. Reports today show that the grain receipts at Buffalo so far this season total only 13,000,000 bushels. Grain is moving very slowly, and Montreal is feeling the effect of the sluggish movement it is also true that Buffalo elevators are not full.

"It is probably true that the boats from Montreal are carrying water ballast."

BIG VAUDEVILLE IS AT BENNETT'S

Splendid Bill Is Being Presented by the Management of the Popular Theatre.

AUDIENCE WAS CHARMED

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" and Other Big Acts Made the Offering Solid With Local Theatregoers.

There have been some real vaudeville bills at Bennett's Theatre since it opened, and when it is stated that the offering being presented at this popular house today and on Saturday is worthy of being ranked among the best, the simple truth is being told, and that only.

A packed theatre last evening was one evidence of the popularity of this form of entertainment, and a highly-pleased audience was a tribute to the real merit of the bill.

If the enthusiasm with which the performers were greeted last evening is any criterion, this city wants vaudeville and wants it badly. It is to be hoped that it will be given the theatre-going public next fall.

A Great Bill.

As for the show itself it is a well-balanced bill, and enjoyable every minute of the time. One difficulty in determining the headlines is the individual excellence of each act.

However, for real enjoyment, the premier position must be given to Clarence Wilbur and his excellent company, who present an exasperatingly funny "sketch" "The New Scholar." It is a regular howl from start to finish, and it keeps everybody on tenterhooks for fear of losing some of the laughs.

Wilbur, in a regular Patsy character, is immense. Fun oozes out of him just like love sonnets exude from a summer girl. He is great. But he is not the whole show.

The Six O'Connor Sisters, who are in the act, and who by the way, come from Mimico, although Toronto claims them, are worthy of the highest encomiums. They are pretty and sing well. Their sextette "Annie Laurie" is real music, and one of the best features of the whole performance. This act alone is worth the price of admission.

A Very Clever Little Lady.

Miss Maurice Wood scored heavily last evening in her imitations. She is a clever little miss, is Maurice, though her front name does sound different, and was a pronounced favorite. Her imitations of Anna Held, Harry Lauder, Eva Tanguay and others are splendid.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

A tablet edition of Uncle Tom's Cabin proved interesting, and enjoyable.

All the features are retained, including Eva's ascent into heaven and Marks, the lawyer. The company is a good one, and they act with intelligence and success. Not the least pleasing part was the singing of the colored folks, who are above the average.

McRae's Good One.

Frank McRae, whose shooting specialty was stopped by the police yesterday, appeared to be the best of the best that has been seen in these parts for many years, even including Col. Borden, who it will be remembered was a very clever little miss. McRae performs all sorts of feats, and does them with dexterity and ease. It is a brilliant performance.

Among acrobats, none have been more thoroughly satisfactory in their work than the Potter-Hartwell troupe. They perform all sorts of hair-raising stunts, with little effort seemingly.

Others All Right.

Carney and Wagner dance faster and with more grace than the majority of these acts, and are very popular.

Tom Dempsey has some good Irish stories which he tells well, and a dash of sentimental "poetry" that satisfies the audience.

This bill intact goes to Shea's in Toronto next week, and that is some tribute to the bill, and that is some demand for seats. It is very large and there is no doubt that Bennett's Theatre will be packed all this week. It is a guaranteed first-class show.

BUFFALO BILL IS COMING TO LONDON

The Great Wild West Show Visits
This City on Dominion Day.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West, combined with Pawnee Bill's F. East, will celebrate Dominion Day in London by giving two performances on the Dundas street show grounds, with the original and only Buffalo Bill in the saddle at both shows. The first advertising car reached town last night, and lithographers and bill-posters are spending the day in displaying the posters of the show in the city and vicinity.

Canadian tour of the big exhibition begins June 21 with a two days' engagement in Montreal. Subsequently Ottawa, Brockville, Kingston, Belleville, Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford and London will be played in the order given. From this city the show goes to St. Thomas and Chatham, completing its two weeks in the Dominion.

PREDICTS NEW RELIGIONS

Professor Says Present Protestant Denominations Will Pass Away.

New York, June 11.—That two new world religions will take the place of the present Christian denominations was predicted yesterday by Prof. George Burman Foster, of the University of Chicago, whose resignation from the Baptist ministry was demanded by Rev. Johnstone Myers, and other members of the Chicago Baptist ministers' conference. Prof. Foster declared that the present question of religious freedom points to a union of all the Protestant churches, with the Catholics against the free-thinkers.

LADY ABERDEEN AT QUEBEC.

Quebec, June 11.—Lady Aberdeen visited this morning the principal points of interest in the city, after which she lunched at the Chateau Frontenac with the delegates of the International Council of Women, who arrived this morning by the Laurentic. She was met at the Incheon by many distinguished Quebecers. Lady Aberdeen will leave by the I. C. R. at 5:30 for Montreal, with the members of the International Council of Women.

CRAP SHOOTERS WERE FINED BY MAGISTRATE

Sam Harris Made Money on Deal and Got Out Of All Trouble.

A funny situation developed at the police court this morning as a result of the single-handed raid conducted on Sunday afternoon by Sgt. Birrell on a house at the south end of Maitland street, and Reginald Kennedy, Archie Miller, Alfred Smith, James Ennis, James Hill and James Coursey were fined $2 each and $1 costs for disorderly by "crap shooting" on Sunday.

In order to convict the men Sgt. Birrell had to use Sam Harris as a witness. When the raid was made Harris tried to make every possible means to force his way past the sergeant, and get out the door. The officer had to throw him twice before he consented to be quiet. In the meantime the other men had disappeared out the windows, dropping sixteen feet to the ground. Harris, by turning King's evidence, not only saved himself from being fined for gambling, but escaped being charged with attacking an officer, and in addition collected witness fees, the money of which was taken from the fines imposed on the others. His brother Robert was also brought in as a witness, and he also collected fees. It was a great day for the house of Harris in a financial way, and the case created much amusement.

FEAST TO COMMEMORATE MYSTERY OF EUCHARIST

Corpus Christi Will Be Observed in Roman Catholic Church on Sunday.

The Catholic Record says: The festival of Corpus Christi is undoubtedly the most sublime and glorious of the whole ecclesiastical year. This feast was instituted to commemorate the great mystery of the Holy Eucharist, and to emphasize the infinite love which the Son of God has for his church.

To express better the dignity of the festival and the great gift of our Lord to us in the Blessed Eucharist, the celebration of Corpus Christi is transferred to Sunday. Through a special day be set aside for thanksgiving for the feast of Corpus Christi, we may truly say that it is ever celebrated in all our churches. "All festivals," says St. Chrysostom, "are festivals in honor of his divine sacrifice; if we commemorate the feast of a martyr or any other saint, it is to celebrate the feast on a Friday, or Saturday, or on a Sunday, the same sacrifice is offered. Although great festivals are designated by the richness of the vestments used on those occasions, and by the unusual concourse of people, the divine sacrifice which is offered up, nevertheless, gives them their holy solemnity and dignity."

Undoubtedly this was the reason why the church in the earliest times did not institute particular feast in honor of this sublime mystery. It should properly be celebrated on Holy Thursday, the day of its institution, but the grief of the church, coming with her bridegroom, whose sorrow begins on that day, prevents the joyful and solemn celebration which its dignity demands. For more than one thousand years no special feast existed in commemoration of the institution of the most Holy Sacrament. Our Lord, some seven hundred years ago, by a wonderful revelation, caused the institution of the festival of Corpus Christi to increase the veneration of the most Holy Sacrament and to comfort Christians in their belief and love towards the Holy Eucharist.

As the Lord often chooses the weak and the humble to accomplish his great designs, he selected a pious virgin, Blessed Juliana Falconieri, a nun in the convent of St. Cornelius, to be the medium of the institution of the festival of Corpus Christi.

It is related that one day in a vision Blessed Juliana saw the full moon in the sky, with a dark spot upon its disk. Almightily God finally revealed to her that the moon signified the church, and the dark spot the most Holy Eucharist. He revealed to her that he wished to have instituted a festival whose object would be to celebrate an extraordinary manner the most Holy Eucharist, and to atone, especially by public and solemn adoration, for the many injuries offered by heretics and others to the most sublime mystery of the Holy Eucharist.

We need not dwell upon the long struggle and persistent endeavor of the nun to fulfill the divine mission. Pope Urban IV, by a brief issued in the year 1264 extended the celebration of this feast upon the diocese of Liege to the universal church.

The festival of Corpus Christi ranks as a feast of the first class and has an octave, in country places and in communities entirely Catholic, solemn processions of the Blessed Sacrament are held with the utmost pomp on the feast of Corpus Christi, and the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the monstrance and is carried about in triumph.

The church desires by these processions to celebrate the glory of the heavenly bridegroom and she seeks to give an opportunity to the faithful publicly to venerate and worship their God concealed in the most Holy Eucharist, inviting as it were all created beings to sing a hymn of joy and praise in honor of their Creator and Lord. During the procession benediction of the Blessed Sacrament is given on four different altars erected for this purpose at four different places outside of the church in order to obtain God's blessing for the country and for the people. At each station, the beginning of one of the four gospels is used to typify the preaching of the gospel, and the good things of the redemption of Christ to all men upon earth, and to testify to our belief in the doctrines of Christ, especially in the city of the most Blessed Sacrament of the altar.

DR. MORIN DEAD.

Quebec, June 11.—Dr. Edward Morin, of this city, died last evening after illness which lasted several months. Dr. Morin was well and favorably known. He carried on a very extensive wholesale drug business.

PERKS AT QUEBEC.

Quebec, June 11.—Sir Robert Perkins, M.P., of London, England, at present on a visit to Canada in connection with the Georgian Bay Canal scheme, arrived in the city this afternoon from the Maritime Provinces, where he has been spending the last fortnight. Tonight Sir Robert is to address a meeting of Methodist church congregations in connection with a world-wide Methodist brotherhood.

JUNE WEDDINGS

RANDALL-MACKELLAR.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Randolph Mackellar, Glencoe, on June 8, when her only daughter, Miss Margaret May, was married to Mr. Robert Ritson Mackellar, of Red Deer, Alta. The bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Harry Wallace Bodman, of Woodstock, preceded by four ribbon-bearers, Miss Mackellar (Buffalo), Miss Randall (Guelph), Miss Macpherson (London), and Miss Finlay (St. Thomas). The bride wore a beautiful gown of cream crepe de chine trimmed with lace and embroidery, and the wedding veil, with orange blossoms, carrying a large bouquet of roses and wistaria. The bridesmaid was Miss Lila Rogers, Mr. Lee Randall, of Victoria, B. C., attended the groom. Rev. Edwin Lee, rector of St. John's Church, officiated.

TEEPLE-BARNES.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnes, White Oak, on June 2, when their youngest daughter, Jennie L. Barnes, became the bride of Harry T. Teeples, Rev. Geo. Jewett performed the ceremony in the presence of a number of friends and relatives from London, Ingle, Embro and other places. The bride wore a beautiful gown supported by her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Carrie Manning. After congratulations, the guests partook of a sumptuous wedding supper, after which the young couple left for their new home at "Elm Lane Farm," Glendale. The costly array of presents testified to the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

MOCHA SHRINERS POPULAR

musical organizations here, it probably is safe to say that the bagpipe musicians attract more attention than any of the others. In Canada there are thousands of sons of bonny Scotland, and the bringing along of an aggregation of the players of their national instrument is a compliment to them, and especially pleasing to those of them who are members of the Shriners.

"Mocha Temple, of London, Ontario, is here. Has anybody heard what happened to Java?"

The Decorations.

Prominent among the decorations is the following description of "a good Shriners" copied from the "Mocha Temple Bulletin, of Grand Rapids, the Temple that accompanied Mocha Temple to Louisville from Detroit:

"A Shriners is a fellow who has the mind of a poet, the philosophy of Marcus Aurelius, the patience of Job, the urbanity of a Chesterfield; who does not believe in the capriciousness of advice to Allah, or of running the universe; whose mirth bubbles up like the fountains of Elin; whose way is not the only way; who recognizes the humanity in man, is tolerant of his foibles, forgives his sins, and whose life is not great in little things; who is not grouchy, sardonic, saturnine, dyspeptic, and whose conceit does not produce anasarca or other attributes; who is not like Noah when he cursed Ham, and who would be like an abstemious Nazirite, all shaven and shorn, with his offering of sodden shoulders of rams and chunks of unseasoned cakes, for what he can get."

"Let him forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more."

Another Eulogy.

The Louisville Courier-Journal has the following to say of the arrival of the Mocha Temple Shriners:

"After the arrival of the Imperials from London, Ontario, the Canadian special was about the only train to get into the Tenth street station any-where near on time. It was booked for 11:35 o'clock, and the train pulled under the shed—while it was still miles out, a queer, squeaky, squawky noise permeated the whole country around. When the train stopped at the station seven kilted and bare-legged, plaided and whistling Highlanders, the 'Kilties' of the eighty-five Canadian nobles. They had a base-drummer, 'Skinny Bill' Davidson, who they said, averred and asseverated, was the champion base-drummer of the universe."

The Mocha Temple left London at an exceptionally fast run. The train stopped at Cincinnati for lunch, and the train arrived here it was met by a delegation from the Louisville Mocha Temple. The members of the invitation to a banquet at the Hotel Scotch pipers to visit the club and the quarters and the visitors accepted with pleasure. The Mocha Patrol marched to quarters set apart for them at 821 South Third avenue.

FIRST CONCERT OF THE SEASON

Will Be Given in Victoria Park on Monday Night.

The first band concert of the season will be given on Monday evening next in Victoria Park.

The Seventh Regiment will give this concert, and a very choice programme is being prepared by Bandmaster Slater.

We thought it better to give the concert on Monday evening so that the concert on Tuesday night, which the bandmen and soldiers on Carling's Heights might have the privilege of hearing London's regimental band," said Ald. Ferguson.

COREY IN ACCIDENT

Present of United States Steel Corporation Injured While Motoring.

Paris, June 11.—The morning newspapers say that Wm. E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, who was high in an automobile accident near Fallaux, yesterday, sustained injuries on the head and legs, but that his wounds are not serious.

It seems that the Corey automobile, in which Mr. and Mrs. Corey and M. Godilleau, manager of Mr. Corey's French estate, were driving, was being conducted by a new chauffeur. The machine made a sharp turn, skidded, and was overturned. M. Godilleau, who was driving, was not hurt, but he was caught underneath the car. His skull was fractured and his chest crushed. He was conveyed to the Chateau Villages, where the Coreys are living. Mrs. Corey also sustained injuries, but her condition is not grave.

The tender for coal were outlined and the committee recommended that the tender of Wm. Heaman & Son: At anthracite, $6 49; soft coal, $6, and egg coal at $6 70, be accepted. These recommendations were adopted.

Feddling Licensees.

The following petition was presented by a number of merchants of four of the townships of Middlesex, asking for business protection: "Whereas, as the undersigned ratepayers and merchants of the townships of Ekfrid, Metcalf, Mosa and Caradoc, have found the business of peddling merchandise throughout the country very injurious to the trade in our towns and villages, we do hereby appeal to your honorable body praying that you increase the peddling license fee from what it is, viz., $25 for a two-horse wagon, and $15 for a one-horse wagon, to $250 for a two-horse wagon, and $200 for a one-horse wagon, used by merchants in disposing of and delivering dry-goods, groceries and such goods as usually are kept in general stores throughout the country."

The petition was signed by three merchants of Appleton, ten from Glencoe, four from Newbury, one from North York, four from Kew, seven from Melbourne, six from Mount Brydges, three from Delaware, two from Muncie, two from Christina, five from Middlesex, one from Longwood. The petition was referred to the petitioning committee.

Caring For Consumptives.

The Ontario Municipal Association for the Betterment of Consumptives, presented a petition to the council, requesting that they send the warden and one other representative to represent the county of Middlesex in the delegation to wait upon the Government in September, to present the needs of providing ways and means of caring for indigent consumptive patients. This committee was referred to the finance committee.

George Jackson, who has for ten years been an inmate of the Strathroy House of Refuge, petitioned the council for the payment of work done during that time. The request was filed.

Finance Committee.

The first report of the finance committee was presented as follows: That a refund of $10 be paid to the treasurer of Metcalf Township, being an error in the computation of the county rate for the said township for 1908.

The county refuse responsibility for the maintenance of Noah Adams at the Mimico Industrial School, as he is a member of the Indian bands of Lambton, and should be charged to that county.

That the usual grants of $100 each be granted to the East and West Middlesex Teachers' Institute.

A committee aggregating $902 41 were recommended to be paid.

Smallpox Expenses.

The committee recommended the payment of one-third of the smallpox expenses incurred by Strathroy, amounting to $82, be paid. That one-third of the smallpox account of Mosa Township, which amounts to $175 37, be paid.

That a payment of $49 60 be made to Lobb Township, being one-third of the legitimate expenses of Mosa Township, which amounts to $148 80.

That a grant of $50 be made to Albert Hughes.

That the vault of the registry office at Glencoe be repaired, not to cost more than $600.

That no action be taken in the matter of the petition of the ratepayers of Komoka, asking for assistance in the building of a public hall.

That the salary of the jail physician be restored to $250.

We further recommend that a bylaw be introduced for borrowing $72,000 to meet the current expenses of the year.

W. D. Moss, W. Ulen and W. Rodie were appointed a committee to outline restrictions to apply at future sessions to the payment of accounts from local municipalities with reference to quartered outbreaks and report at the December sessions. This was carried.

PRESENTED A BILL FOR KINRADE INQUEST

And Some of the Items Startle
the Hamilton Finance Committee.

Hamilton, June 11.—The accounts for the Kinrade murder inquest were presented by Coroner Anderson to the finance committee yesterday afternoon and gave some of the aldermen a shock. The account for jurors' fees was $120 and that allowed the jurors only the regular fee of 50 cents a day.

Coroner Anderson said Mr. Blackstock had suggested to him that in view of the protracted sessions held the jurors should receive double fees and it had also been intimated that the Government would be willing to pay half of the extra amount. It was decided not to take any action until it was learned definitely what the Government would do. Chairman Peregrine said the jurors had the moral support of the aldermen even if they did not get their financial support. The coroner's bill was for $40, that the county will have to pay, but the coroner asked the aldermen for their moral support in his endeavor to have the amount increased to $80. He felt that he had earned double the regular fees. There was no dispute about an account for $1 for serving the famous coroner's warrant on Florence Kinrade and it will be paid.

Three of the doctors who were in attendance at the inquest want $20 each for their services, which is at the rate of $5 a session. City Treasurer Leckie stated that all they were entitled to was $5 each, and intimated that when the accounts were presented to him he would refuse to pay them any more. W. McHaffie sent in a bill for $250 for taking the evidence at the inquest. A sub-committee will deal with his account.

A company capitalized at $500,000 has been organized at Atlanta, Ga., for the purpose of manufacturing paper from cotton stalks, a heretofore useless by-product. It is claimed that paper can be made from cotton stalks at a cost of about $15 a ton.

WALKING ROUND WORLD.

Whidson, June 11.—T. A. Greenlee, who says he is walking around the world on a $75,000 bet, passed through Windsor on his way to Buffalo, only waiting long enough to get Mayor Wigle's signature to his papers. Greenlee says he is one of four men who left New South Wales four years ago, the conditions being that the contestants should make the trip around the world on one cent, without begging, borrowing or stealing. The others are supposed to have died on the road.

er Talbot, and we didn't see that it had anything particularly to do with the county council. That is why we omitted it."

Engineer Talbot was called upon to state his position.

"I stand here," he said, "condemned by the county judge as being a very undesirable person, and that condemnation was given from the bench, and to a grand jury. I don't know what else I can do, but appeal to the only body that can justify me."

"I have used strong language, but not too strong, I think."
"Sheriff Cameron was standing by when the messenger came to grant jurisdiction was asked to bring me, and must have heard; yet he went with the judge and agreed with him that I was an officious official and mentioned that I had thrust my services upon them."

A Right to Speak.

There was some discussion as to whether the sheriff should be asked to attend to present his side of the question.

"I would only be too pleased if you would do so," said Engineer Talbot.
Finally it was decided that the county engineer has a right to speak.
"All that I have to ask," continued
Mr. Talbot, "is that if you consider I have discredited you, you will censure me as I would censure him. I have not met with your disapproval, that you will justify me. I ask nothing of Sheriff Cameron or Judge Macbeth. I do not wish to ask an apology from them. All that I ask is that you express your opinion in one way or another."

Prison Labor.

"Concerning the prison labor Sheriff
Cameron stated distinctly this morning that your bylaw regarding that was ultra vires. Yet that bylaw was made with the approval of your solicitor, who was aware of the act governing prison labor. The labor of that contention of the sheriff is a matter which I think your solicitor must determine."

"We did not think that the matter should have been brought to our attention at all," said Councillor A. K.
Hodgins, in returning to the reason as to why the committee had suggested the omission of the two clauses. "If we adopted the whole report we will be be adopting the opinions expressed in these two clauses, and I am not sure that we are prepared to do that."

Hearty Approval.

Councillor Ronald, however, held an entirely different opinion.

"I think we should express our hearty approval of the county engineer in his defence of the courthouse, and move that we do so."

"They are trying to force us with a scheme to build a half a million dollar courthouse," said Councillor English.
"The judge, I believe, threatened to indict us if we do not do something of the sort. This controversy has been read throughout the city and county, and nine out of ten side with our county engineer in his opinion. And if you omit these clauses you will make these people believe that we think the engineer is wrong. He did what was his duty in upholding our rights. I think that these clauses ought to be restored.
If this isn't done your action will be misunderstood in the county."

"The sheriff says that our bylaw giving us the right to use prison labor is illegal," said Councillor McGugan. "Our solicitor holds that it is quite legal. I think that some understanding should be reached on this matter."

"I think," said Councillor Kraft,
"that we should uphold our officials when they do right, and I think our county engineer has done so, and I have much pleasure in seconding him."
