Believed That Belgium is The Scene of the First Great Terrible Conflict of the War --- Britain Today Controls the Seas --- Summary of Today's War News.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The war between the nations of Europe today became further regularized with the formal declaration of war on Austria-Hungary by Great Britain.

land operations little change has occurred since yesterday. It must be remembered in regard to all news published of military operations, that these despatches emanate almost exclusively from the side of the allied French and Belgian armies.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 13, via London 4.30 a.m.—Though there is a general idea that a big battle has begun, the only official news that came to hand late last night gave no indication where fighting was occurring.

Yesterday for the first time German prisoners were seen here. They were young officers with spiked helmets covered with brown Holland cloth to render them less conspicuous.

PACIFIC SEABOARD MAY HAVE FIGHT AT ANY TIME NOW

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—According to the Captain of the German Cruiser Leipzig, now off this port, eight war vessels flying the flags of belligerent nations are daily expecting conflict with one or more of its adversaries.

ARRIVE AT VANCOUVER VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 13.—The Canadian Cruiser Rainbow reached Victoria at 6 a.m. today conveying the British man-of-war Shearwater.

GERMAN ARE CHESTY SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—The German cruiser Leipzig, now off this port is stripped for action, all deck woodwork having been jettisoned.

"We had many fine boats," said Lieut. Standke to a newspaperman who visited the vessel.

"It would not take us long," he said, "I believe we could dispose of them at the rate of one a day."

Baron Von Schaak and the newspapermen were received aboard the Leipzig by Captain Huan and arrangements were made for landing two sick sailors.

Captain Huan announced his intention of entering this port soon for coal and said his duties might keep him in this vicinity for some time.

After a consultation between Baron Von Schaak and the Officers of the cruisers, heavy returns to land was made.

STREWN WITH DEAD SEVERAL DEEP---ONE DAY'S BIG BATTLE

BRUSSELS, via London, Aug. 13.—The fighting yesterday between the Belgian and German armies in the vicinity of Diest lasted the entire day and constituted the first considerable battle of the war.

The battle centred around Haelen, in the Belgian province of Limbourg, extending to Diest in the north of the province of Brabant, after passing round Zeelhem.

Upwards of 200 dead German soldiers were counted in a space of 50 yards square.

A church, a brewery and some houses in Haelen were set afire, and two bridges over the Demer were destroyed by Belgian engineers.

The city was aroused as it has never been in many a day, probably never.

Upwards of 200 dead German soldiers were counted in a space of 50 yards square.

of every ten families in the city. The city was aroused as it has never been in many a day, probably never.

Never before has there ever been such crowded thoroughfares and never such general jollification among all classes.

It seemed as if nature recognized that this was the one day of the week that belonged to the people.

When one calls out the fraternalities of a city, he calls out the heart and soul of that city. Men of every degree and position, are linked together in a brotherly relationship that nothing but death can sever, and this relationship involves the families of the fraternal men.

Young Tommy's day is high up in the Forters and young Paul's older brother is a past president of the C. M. B. A. Does anyone think you can keep those boys away from a fraternal parade. Not much.

The Story of WAITSTILL BAXTER
BY KATE DOUGLAS WIGGIN

Copyright, 1913, by Kate Douglas Wiggin

PROLOGUE.
Strength and interest of quiet lives in the New England of three-quarters of a century ago provide the framework of "The Story of Waitstill Baxter." That is the skeleton. The flesh and blood of human beings, living and loving and moving in a world of their own that is a miniature picture of the greater world outside, are also there. The story is a cross section of life as seen and described by a woman who has been well called "America's greatest living woman novelist."

—Amid the hills of New England are many men and women like Waitstill and Patience Baxter and their father, Ivory Boynton and his afflicted mother and fanny Cephas Cole, who woos hopefully, but with small chance of success. They find their way into books but seldom, for it takes a master hand to describe faithfully the doings of real people. And that is the reason why "The Story of Waitstill Baxter" has won highest praise from critics who know a good book when they see one.

CHAPTER I.
The Sisters.
FAR, far up in the bosom of New Hampshire's granite hills the Saco has its birth. As the mountain rill gathers strength through Bartlett's vales its tuneful way, or hies in Conway's fragrant brakes retreating from the glare of day. Now it leaves the mountains and flows through "green Fryeburg's woods and farms." In the course of its frequent turns and twists and bends it meets with many another stream and sends it, fuller and stronger, along its rejoicing way. When it has journeyed more than 100 miles and is nearing the ocean it greets the Great Ossipee river and accepts its crystal tribute. Then in its turn the Little Ossipee joins its force and the river, now a splendid stream, flows onward to Boony Falls, to Modoc station and to Salmon falls, where it dashes over the dam like a young Niagara and hurries in a foamy torrent through the ragged defile cut between lofty banks of solid rock.

Widening out placidly for a moment's rest in the sunny reaches near Pleasant point it gathers itself for a new plunge at Union falls, after which it speedily merges itself in the bay and is fresh water no more.

At one of the falls on the Saco the two little hamlets of Edgewood and Riverboro nestle together at the bridge and make one village. The stream is a wonder of beauty just here, a mirror of placid loveliness above the dam, a tawny, roiling wonder at the fall and a mad, white flecked torrent as it dashes on its way to the ocean.

The river has seen strange sights in its time, though the history of these two tiny villages is quite unknown to the great world outside. They have been born, waxed strong and fallen almost to decay while Saco water has tumbled over the rocks and spent itself in its impetuous journey to the sea.

It remembers the yellow moccasined Sokokis as they issued from the Indian Cellar and carried their birchen canoes along the wooded shore. It was in those years that the silver skinned salmon leaped in its crystal depths, the otter and the beaver crept with sleek wet skins upon its shore and the brown deer came down to quench his thirst at its brink, while at twilight the stealthy forms of bear and panther and wolf were mirrored in its glassy surface.

Time sped. Men chained the river's turbulent forces and ordered it to grind at the mill. Then houses and barns appeared along its banks, bridges were built, orchards planted, forests changed into farms, white painted meeting houses gleamed through the trees, and distant bells rang from their steeples on quiet Sunday mornings.

All at once myriads of great hewn logs veiled its downward course, slender logs linked together in long rafts and huge logs drifting down singly or in pairs. Men appeared, running blither and thither like ants and going through mysterious operations the reason for which the river could never guess. But the mill wheels turned.

The C. P. R. directors declared the company's dividends unaffected by the strange and uncertain doctrine" Waitstill, the child who never spoke in her father's presence, was a young woman now, the mistress of the house, the stepmother was dead and the baby a girl of seventeen.

The brick cottage on the hilltop had grown only a little shabbier. Deacon Foxwell Baxter still slammed his door behind him every morning at 7 o'clock and, without any such cheerful conventions as goodbys to his girls, walked down to the bridge to open his store.

The day, properly speaking, had opened when Waitstill and Patience had left their beds at dawn, built the fire, fed the hens and turkeys and prepared the breakfast, while the deacon was graining the horse and milking the cows. Such minor "chores" as carrying water from the well, splitting kindling, chopping pine or bringing wood into the kitchen were left to Waitstill, who had a strong back or if she had not had never been unwise enough to mention the fact in her father's presence. The almanac day, however, which opened with sunrise, had nothing to do with the real human day, which always began when Mr. Baxter slammed the door behind him and reached his high noon of delight when he disappeared from view.

"He's opening the store shutters," chanted Patience from the heights of a kitchen chair by the window. "Now he's taken his cane and beaten off the Boynton puppy that was sitting on the grass as usual. I don't mean Ivory's dog" (here the girl gave a quick glance at her sister, "but Rodman's little yellow cur. Rodman must have come down to the bridge on some errand for Ivory. Isn't it odd when that dog has all the other store steps to sit upon he should choose a father's when every one else takes his own?")

"Father has no real cause that I ever heard of. But some dogs never know when they've done enough beating nor some people either," said Waitstill, speaking from the pantry.

"Don't be gloomy when it's my birthday, sis. Now he's opened the door and kicked the cat. All is ready for business at the Baxter store."

"I wish you weren't quite so free with your tongue, Patsy."

"Somebody must talk," retorted the girl, jumping down from the chair and shaking back her mop of red gold curls. "I'll put this hateful, childish, round comb in and out just once more, then it will disappear forever. This afternoon up goes my hair!"

"You know it will be of no use unless you braid it very plainly and neatly. Father will take notice and make you smooth it down."

"Father hasn't looked me square in the face for years, besides my hair won't braid and nothing can make it quite plain and neat, thank goodness! Let us be thankful for small mercies, as Jed Morrill said when the lightning struck his mother-in-law and skipped his wife."

"Patsy, I will not permit you to repeat those tavern stories, they are not seemly on the lips of a girl!" And Waitstill came out of the pantry with a shadow of disapproval in her eyes and in her voice.

Pick Pockets Are At Work

In spite of the statements of the police that there are no pickpockets worthy of mention on the Brantford streets, there are several cases of such thefts being committed and good hauls made.
Mr. W. A. Burrows of William St. was in the crowd near the Market on Tuesday night, and he was carrying a wallet in his left pocket containing $75 besides some very valuable papers. He was surprised on putting his hand to his pocket to find that the wallet had gone. He searched round but there was no trace of the missing article.
Thomas Goodson, of Echo Place, was in the crush, watching the diving girl, when he missed a small roll of $15. He has not yet located it.

matters as the whereabouts of army headquarters.
King Albert passed through Lowain yesterday afternoon in a Lavel stained automobile. He was dressed in a general's uniform, and almost escaped recognition, as he was without escort.
Harrowing stories continue to be told of alleged German brutalities. They are accused of burning and pillaging villages and of shooting villagers without provocation. It is alleged that wherever German cavalry enters a town they make first for the municipal treasury and then for the banks, taking whatever cash they can find.
No German infantry is known to be on the left bank of the Meuse except the above mentioned battalions. The Germans are entrenching at Visé. The forts are holding out.
The Germans are constructing batteries north of Liège preparatory to a siege. Heavy guns have been heard. The Germans are constructing a railway between Visé and Homburg parallel with the frontier of Dutch Limburg. They are also entrenching themselves in Liège.
Huy, Marche and Houffalize are points held by German cavalry. Columns of German cavalry are moving eastward toward the valley of the Ourthe, the French retreat from Muelhausen was well carried out. The proportion of opposing forces was four Germans to each Frenchman. The German field artillery proved far inferior to that of the French.
ADMIRALTY STATEMENT.
LONDON, Aug. 12, 4:10 a.m.—The Admiralty and War Office information bureau issues the following:
An engagement is in progress northwest of Hasselt in the province of Limburg between a Belgian cavalry division supported by a brigade of infantry, and the German second cavalry division, 2,500 strong, supported by a battalion of infantry and twelve pieces of artillery.
"The German fourth cavalry division is reported moving toward Jodoigne, in the Brabant province of Belgium."
HOSPITALS INADEQUATE.
LONDON, Aug. 13, 7:30 a.m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Basel, Switzerland says:
"Following a terrible battle at Muelhausen the hospital facilities provide absolutely inadequate care for the almost incredible number of wounded. Not only are all the hospitals filled, but schools, churches and hotels are occupied to their capacity. Even then it has been found necessary to charter special trains to convey the wounded to Muelheim and St. Ludwig and other towns.
The latest estimates place the German losses at from eight to ten thousand.

OUR WEEKLY NEWS

Within the last three or four days several men have come to us for garden properties. Their statements are as follows: We have been working in the shops for the last ten years or so, and have come to the conclusion that it will be better for us to own and work a good garden property near the city, so that if times should be worse, and on account of war or from any other cause, that Brantford's export trade would suffer, then our living would be secured by having a good garden and growing our vegetables and fruits and having some to sell as well. We will be happier and more healthy. Now we want gardens for these men, near the city, not more than three or four miles out. Bring in descriptions to this agency if you have such properties to sell.
Again, for investments. Our office was crowded on Saturday from morning until night, by parties looking for good houses and farm properties to buy for investments, saying "We want our money invested in real estate, the basis of all security." We have some good properties that will pay a good rate of interest on the price asked, but we want more, as we have a considerable number of investing customers, and we wish to give them a good list to choose from.
To our patrons, and the public generally, we say, whether you want to buy or sell, come direct to us, and we will give you our best service.
We offer just now two houses for sale at $1100 each, renting for $11 monthly each house. This price is for cash only. Apply at once to our agency. We also have a very fine, centrally located residential property on the corner of two fine streets, 92 feet frontage on one street and 97 feet on the other. Price only $7500. This is a fine investment. Particulars given at our agency on personal application.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE

Was Stopped by the Police on the Market Square Yesterday.

The holiday spirit prevails and it even reached within the sanctity of the police court this morning when two men, James and George Simpson, were dismissed upon a charge of running a roulette wheel, which is held to be gambling.
They said they were broke and had bought the wheel for a trifle and did not know it was contrary to law to run such a device. The wheel is one with numbers to 120 around its circumference and a piece of leather is stationed at a point and the wheel spun. The number over which the leather rests is the winner. The backers place their money upon a square which gives them a choice of 16 numbers and when they received beads, which they could exchange. The defendants said there was no chance about it as some one was found to win, with money upon one eighth of the squares. This was so, and the magistrate decided to give the defendants a chance, but confiscated the wheel. With a longing look at the supposed wheel of fortune they departed.

ARE YOU TAGGED

Local Ladies Having Success in Raising Funds for Hospital Ship.
To-day is "Tag Day" for the hospital ship that is being furnished by the Daughters of the Empire for the aid of the British wounded in the sea battles that seem destined to take place in the North Sea.
The local chapter of the I.O.D.E., assisted by every woman's society in the city, have taken charge of the contribution fund in Brantford, and to-day charming young ladies are standing on street corners and patrolling the streets, tagging the first unsuspecting male that comes along. The little red tag costs only ten cents, which is a mighty small contribution towards such an important project. Judging from the appearance of the pedestrians on the street, the sale of the tags has been very successful, for almost every other one that was met on the street wore one.
The tagging will last all day, and it will not be known until the boxes are opened to-night just how much has been raised, but judging from the sale of tags, Brantford has done its duty towards the hospital ship fund.

THE SITUATION

It seems to be altogether likely that Germany will strike an early blow at France. If she can do that with any degree of success, the way will be made more clear for her to tackle Russia.

Ye Mariners of England That guard our native seas! Whose flag has braved a thousand years

The battle and the breeze! Your glorious standard launch again To match another foe; And sweep through the deep, While the stormy winds do blow!

The spirits of your fathers Shall start from every wave— For the deck it was their field of fame And Ocean was their grave;

Where Blake and mighty Nelson fell Your manly hearts shall glow, As we sweep through the deep, While the stormy winds do blow!

While the battle rages loud and long And the stormy winds do blow, Britannia needs no bulwarks, No towers along the steep;

Her march is o'er the mountain waves Her home is on the deep, With thunders from her native oak She quells the floods below, As they roar on the shore, When the stormy winds do blow.

The meteor flag of England Shall yet terrific burn; Till danger's troubled night depart And the star of peace return.

Then, when, ye ocean warriors! Our song and feast shall flow To the fame of your name, When the storm has ceased to blow, When the fiery fight is heard no more And the storm has ceased to blow.

BORDEN CAN BE TRUSTED

After protesting vehemently that it was unfair to taunt Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Grit majority in the Senate for alleging that no emergency existed, or would exist, the Toronto Globe has the consummate gall to devote a leading editorial to to-day's issue to the allegation that Canada is lacking in leadership with regard to the present crisis.

As a matter of fact the Government at Ottawa has acted in a most prompt manner, and the sneers at Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, because of what was termed his "military craze" have entirely died away.

From the very first Premier Borden has demonstrated a keen perception of the threatening storm. Speaking in the House of Commons in 1910, he said:

"The speediest organization would not make our Canadian naval service effective in less than ten years. Probably fifteen or twenty years would be required; and the crisis, if a crisis is to be apprehended, WILL COME WITHIN FIVE AND PROBABLY WITHIN THREE YEARS."

He was jeered at for that by the very paper which now alleges that actions are not up to date as far as the Dominion is concerned.

There is no politics in this thing. Liberals and Conservatives are together, shoulder to shoulder, just as much as the Carsonites and the Redmondites in Old Ireland.

Under such circumstances, it ill behoves the leading Grit organ to chide a Ministry which, upon the solemn word of the First Minister recognized the threatened danger and took steps accordingly, only to have the proffered aid spurned by the upper house at the behest of Sir Wilfrid.

The man who had enough presence to size up pending conditions and to offer practical aid, can surely be trusted to act in accordance with the national desire at this juncture—in fact has already taken the preliminary steps in that regard. Whatever may be expedient, we are all at one in the determination that Johnny Canuck must do his share both in men and money. The Globe is in arrantly poor business when it seeks to chide the Ministry.

JOHNNY CANUCK ON HAND.

The following editorial is from the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Times:—"Souvenir post cards received in Pittsburgh from friends visiting the exposition at Toronto, Canada, bear the cancellation stamp across the face, 'Peace Year.'"

The same cheerful legend, now suddenly invested with ironic significance, has been printed upon all outgoing mail matter from the Ontario metropolis. The reference, of course, is to the celebration of the hundred years of peace between the United States and Great Britain, an era of cordial relations which have every likelihood of being extended indefinitely, but in view of the happenings on the continent of Europe which make 1914 far from a year of peace and in which the Dominion of Canada itself has been called upon to take part, it would not be strange should the postal authorities conclude to discontinue the imprint on cards and envelopes.

At any rate loyal Canadians promise to be too busy for the next few weeks to bother about frills and details in any department of activity. Now that the mother country has been drawn into the European embroilment, Canada is ready with her contingent of first class fighting men, vying with the other British possessions in all parts of the world. There will be no "year of peace" for our cousins across the border. When emergency arises when calamity threatens "at home" they spring to their guns and every man Jack of them is prepared to battle for the empire. It is not necessary to take sides in the European dispute to admire this trait in the Canadian character, which has often been displayed before, but never on such a scale as at present. In the Boer War soldiers from Canada gave a fine account of themselves, but it was a kind of fighting to which they were in a measure accustomed, virtual guerrilla warfare. Canadian militiamen will now clash with trained armies, but it is conceded that in discipline and general efficiency they should be equal to the European reservists who have been called upon in large numbers to join in the conflict.

HANDS ALL ROUND.

The following editorial from the Toronto Star is worth re-printing:—"To-day, if ever in the history of the British Empire, it is 'Hands All Round.'"

Shoulder to shoulder, rigid round the earth, the subjects of the King, in all his world-wide dominions, have rallied to the aid of the Motherland in her hour of stress and strain. Throughout the British Empire we know to-day, no narrow bounds of race, or creed, or clime, or politics. We are Britishers all, whether in London or at the Antipodes, whether in Liverpool or in Toronto. We are Britishers all. Great Britain's present time of trial is our time of testing, too. We are Britishers all. Great Britain's cause is ours.

Well for her, and well for us, that the justice of that cause can be clearly proven—proven up to the hilt. Well for all who glory in the British name that the ways of peace were fully trod and the resources of diplomacy exhausted, ere ever she had recourse to the sword's dread arbitrament. Here, at least, the conscience of Great Britain, and the conscience of the British Empire, can be amply clear. To have been the assailed and not the assailer, the aggrieved and not the aggressor—that it is which gives Great Britain's position in this titanic struggle at once its purity and its pride: it is that fact which enables her sons and daughters throughout the world to look the whole world in the face.

Whatever the outcome of this Armageddon—and we Canadians know ourselves and know the oak from which we were hewn, too well even to doubt of it—it has been made plain before the eyes of the world, and posterity being our judges, that the reproach of bloodguiltiness lies not at the door of men of British blood. War can never be taught else but a deplorable and detestable calamity. And, always an evil, it is rarely indeed, that it is even a necessary one. Nevertheless, there may be times, rare enough in humanity's history, it is true when honor, when justice, when good faith when the welfare of mankind all alike require of a people that they should not shrink from the responsibility of engaging in it.

Of such rare times the present, so far as it is possible to judge, is emphatically one. For years, successive British governments and the British people have been the target for the studied arrogance and insolence of Germany. For years they have endured at her hands a policy of pin-pricks in small things, and a policy of brag and bluster in big things, with serenity which, though largely born of justifiable self-confidence, yet looked to the outside world to be perilously akin to pusillanimity. But with the outrageous breach of treaty rights involved in the German violation of Belgian territory—the neutrality and independence of which had been guaranteed by a treaty to which Great Britain, Belgium, France, Austria, Russia and Prussia were all signatories—the die was cast. In this country the unanimity of sentiment on the whole matter is as impressive as it is inspiring. Conservative or liberal, young or old, rich or poor, Canadian-born or newly-arrived from across the seas, we are all at one. We are at one in the ties of sentiment and affection which bind us to Great Britain—those ties seemingly so insubstantial, which yet "grapple her to our soul with hoops of steel." We are at one in our view of the inherent justice of her present belief that broadly speaking, that cause is the cause of freedom against ubiquitous militarism, of progress against reaction, of the dawn of the ampler day for the common people against the black night of autocracy and feudalism.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Col. Sam Hughes to the line, let the chips fall where they may.

At that, the biggest freak on the market square is the city hall building.

Germany has been sowing floating mines and is due to reap the whirlwind.

It begins to look as if the proper place for the Brantford baseball team is in one of the major leagues.

Airships have made it impossible for any of those sudden and unexpected moves which Napoleon used to employ to such effect.

A New York society woman gave a ball at Bar Harbor, and the guests were attired as lobsters and eels. As to that, probably a number of them didn't need any fixing.

A cablegram announces that Italy is determined at all costs to defend her neutrality, and is prepared to do so by force of arms if necessary. May be, but the chances are that she will finally throw in her lot with the side which looks to be victorious.

George Bernard Shaw the celebrated British author and playwright, sees in the outcome of the near danger of Russian aggression. As to that it will be time enough to deal with the situation should such arise. The main outcome will probably be to check senseless naval construction.

Here is the record up to date:

July 28—Austria declared war on Serbia.

Aug. 1—Germany declared war on Russia.

Aug. 3—Germany declared war on Belgium.

Aug. 4—Germany declared war on France.

Aug. 4—Germany and England declared war on each other.

Aug. 6—Austria declared war on Russia.

City News Items.

Mr. Henry Moore, an old Brantfordite, who at one time owned a grocery on Colborne street, and now of California, is a visitor in the city for the celebration.

City Pay Sheets.—The city pay sheets for the last two weeks ending August 8th, total as follows: Cemeteries $46; Sewers, $1476.26, Streets $2,857 and for street watering $6.75.

No Lights Broken.—There were no lights broken in the city and surroundings during the past week. This shows great improvement upon the weeks previous when various numbers of lights were entirely dispatched.

Has Enlisted.—Ashton Cockshutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cockshutt, has enlisted at Calgary. He is a lieutenant in the 103 Rifles of that city. It is not known as yet whether he has been accepted or not.

The Office Was Open.—The City Engineer indignantly denies that his office was closed yesterday, according to a report in a local paper. Mr. Jones states that his office was open during the regular office hours as usual.

He Spoke English.—"Can you speak English?" asked Magistrate Livingston of a witness this morning. "I am an Englishman," was the reply, and it subsequently turned out that he had served his country in the Boer war and had also seen service in India.

Prices Continue to Rise.—According to statements sent out by all the big wholesale houses, the price of imported goods will be considerably advanced in price within the next few weeks due to the inability to get supplies. All the local grocers have received notices to this effect from their wholesale houses. According to these notices, many lines of imported goods will cost 25 per cent higher. Advances have already been made on sugar, oatmeal, starch, canned fish, canned vegetables, canned fruits, rice, beans and syrup. The reports of course place the fault on the war now in progress in Europe. Sugar alone has advanced 50c per hundred weight in the last two days and now retails at 18 lbs for one dollar where formerly 20 lbs were sold for one dollar. This increase in the price of sugar is accounted for in the beet fields of Germany, now being closed to the American factories for sugar refining. In spite of the optimistic views of some persons, the situation is viewed as serious by local grocers.

Charles Noble said he had four years experience in the Northwest and the three defendants had come to him for advice. They told him they were going out hunting and he told them to get guns and ammunition.

Mr. Hawthorne said the defendants visited his shop and asked for some bicycle repair prices, and from that got to rifles. They eventually purchased rifles and ammunition, saying they intended to go to the Northwest.

The magistrate said that he had heard enough evidence. The men were going to the Northwest and they would be discharged. Their guns and other goods will be returned to them with the exception of the revolvers.

Mr. Hawthorne however had violated the law in supplying men with

Lusitania's Turbines Tamped With Before Leaving New York

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 13.—The Cunard liner Lusitania arrived here yesterday from New York. It was an exciting but slow journey, the slowest in fact that the Lusitania ever made. It is reported that the turbines were tamped with in New York. One day out of port, something went wrong with one turbine, and the vessel was not able to make more than 20 knots.

Eight hours later she sighted a cruiser, which refused to answer signals. It is believed she was a German. The Lusitania immediately changed her course crowded on steam guns without filling in the necessary particulars and he was fined the minimum of $25.00.

RESUME RAILWAY TRAFFIC PARIS, Aug. 13, 9.05 a.m.—Ordinary traffic on the greater part of the French railways, with the exception of the eastern lines will be resumed on a semi-official statement that the French artillery has proven far superior to that of the Germans. The latter's heavy shells show little effectiveness, it is said.

WOMAN'S BEST MEDICINE

Mrs. Kelly Advises all Women to Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913. "I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-Tives' because they did me an awful lot of good and I cannot speak too highly about them. About four years ago, I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found only pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I trust that some other women may start taking 'Fruit-a-Tives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

Mrs. W. N. KELLY "Fruit-a-Tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-Tives Limited, Ottawa.

Kelly Advises all Women Take "Fruit-a-Tives"

WILKES, ONT., AUG. 26th, 1913. I highly recommend "Fruit-a-Tives" because they did me an awful good and I cannot speak too highly of them. About four years ago I commenced taking "Fruit-a-Tives" and I feel a world of good. We are a good many dollar's worth, as money well spent because I feel that you claim for them. It is so pleasant, compared to other laxatives, that I found only as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be very suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and that some other women are taking "Fruit-a-Tives" after my letter, and if they do, I am sure the results will be the same as my own case.

failure, have been put to shame for not having more confidence and loyalty in their city and in its people.

Morning Preparations.

Shortly after eight o'clock, in the morning, the crowds began to collect on the down town streets, awaiting the appearance of the regimental bands. Promptly at nine o'clock the bands appeared in front of the Old Home Week quarters in the Temple Building. First the Dragons' band with Lieutenant (Dr.) Pierce in charge, their instruments flashing in the morning sun and a few minutes later, the Dufferin Rifles band, under Bandmaster Frank Johnson. At the same time, every incoming radial car from Paris, Galt and Hamilton, brought in a crowd of visitors and at 9:30 the bands left for the depots to welcome the incoming fraternal men. At the depots the Reception Committee gave the glad hand to the visiting brethren and the welcome was indeed genuine. Those serving on the Reception Committee were: W. T. Downes, (Chairman) J. H. Miller, F. Neal, J. M. Creighton, D. Lyle, W. B. Schuler, T. M. Raines, F. Waller, J. Patte, W. M. Hall, B. H. Benning, J. Kenny and G. G. Lambden.

As each delegate arrived he was conducted up to the Fraternal Committees desk in the headquarters room where he was registered by Secretary A. B. Lee, and just here let it be said, that Mr. Lee officiated in his accustomed faithful and energetic manner. No man was better fitted for the position than he, being as he is, Financial Sec. of Court Brantford, I. O. F., a former vice-president of Salisbury Lodge, S. O. E., Secretary of L. O. L. 742 and a member of the W. O. W. and the A. O. F.

The spirit of fraternity was in the air all morning. At each lodge headquarters the visiting brethren were received and again welcomed and made at home. Among the first of outside lodges to make their appearance was the company No. 2 of Camp

Pike Grove, W. O. W. of London, who made a splendid appearance in their neat blue uniforms, carrying silver axes, the emblem of their order. Conducted down Market street by the Brant Dragons band, they were greeted with acclamations of applause all along the line. A little later the sound of the pipers was heard, when the pipers arrived from Galt and made their way along the street to the Sons of Scotland headquarters in the Temple Building.

Here they were eight royally welcomed by Chief J. B. Wilson and the Veteran Scotsman Angus McCauley, than whom no other man worked harder to make the day a success. The Galt pipers were soon joined by the local lodge pipers under Pipe-Maj. Galbraith and while men of other nationalities may have their opinion of the pipers, they surely stirred the heart of every Scotsman. One was reminded of the deeds of heroism that have been enacted to the strains of the pipes. Where is the German troop that can stand against the rush of the Kilites?

At 11:20 the De Chombery Commandery of Royal Scarlet Knights from Hamilton, a chapter degree in the Orange Order, arrived. In their black uniforms with silver trimmings, wearing scarlet plumes in their helmets, they made a stirring appearance. Every car brought in a new quota of visitors and by 12 o'clock noon the streets were crowded, and all was in readiness for the parade. For weeks past the parade committee had been working on the arrangement for this, the greatest society parade ever held in Brantford. Those who served on the parade committee of Fraternal day were: G. B. Wright (chairman), J. B. Wilson, T. Y. Thomson, T. Cronk, R. W. Edwards, F. C. Brown, P. E. Hicks, D. Smith, G. W. Dorland, H. Davies, F. C. Brown, F. Bond, J. Walley and H. Crumplin.

Assembling of Societies
At 12 o'clock, as per schedule, each society formed up at its station from which to march to join the main parade. The A. O. F. on Queen street facing Darling, the S. O. E. on Wellington, facing King, the L. O. L. and L. T. B. on King street, facing Wellington, the K.O.T.M. on Bridge street facing Darling, the C.O.O.F. on William street, facing West, the S. O. S. on Brant Avenue west of West St. facing West street, the C.M.B.A. and Catholic Order of Foresters on Bridge street facing Dalhousie and the W. O. W. on King street facing Dalhousie. Each society was in charge of its own marshal, who in turn took his orders from the chief marshal, C. B. Wright.

While waiting for the parade to form up the W. O. W. company from London, and the Royal Scarlet Commandery from Hamilton gave exhibitions of their drills that were watched by a large number of interested spectators. The crowds began to line up on the sidewalks for the parade. Excitement ran high. Each marshal carefully inspected his division to see that everything was in readiness. The parade was scheduled to move at one o'clock, but waiting for the arrival of fraternal men from outside points delayed the parade until nearly two o'clock.

The Parade Starts

Finally a stroke of the fire bell started the sections towards Dalhousie street, where all joined. The route of the parade was along Dalhousie to Market street, Market to Chatham, Chatham to George, George to Colborne, and Colborne across Lorne bridge to Agricultural park.

For over an hour before the parade passed the walks along the route of march were crowded with people. Never before in the history of Brantford has such a crowd of spectators watched a passing parade. Colborne street especially was lined on both sides with a multitude of both young and old, the full width of the sidewalks. Every upstairs store window had three or four interested spectators gazing down. Pennant sellers yelled their wares up and down the street. Jubilee Terrace was crowded to its utmost capacity, and those who secured a place there certainly had a fine vantage point for viewing the parade. It seemed as if every man, woman and child who could walk had come down town to see the parade. It was rather a long wait, but the time was well spent by the meeting of old boys and girls.

The sun was hot, the pavement gave out a heat that seemed to burn right through one's shoe leather. Policemen walked up and down, keeping the crowd back. The nervous young man eyed the rough looking customer next to him, taking him for a pick-pocket. He felt in the pocket of his hard earned cash and then discovered that his rough looking friend had indulged in too many "welcome home" glasses and was plainly drunk. At last the strains of the "Double Eagle" march played by the Dufferin Rifles band, was heard as the parade turned from George street onto Colborne street, and the parade was coming.

The Parade

First came the auto with Mayor Spence, J. F. Van-Lane, chairman of the fraternal committee, to whose unceasing energy a great deal of the success of the parade is due, and C. B. Wright, chief marshal.

The 28th band led the way with Chief Johnson, senior and junior, from Tuscarora, in front, reminding one in their full Indian garb of the days when Brant county was really the place of wigwams.

The Boy Scouts with Scout Commissioner Macfarlane mounted, followed. The lads looked smart and clean cut in their uniforms. And then a sad touch, as four little motherless children in the Children's Aid Society, dressed in their best, accompanied the parade. A steamer on the side of the rig bearing the words "Homes wanted for children," told the story only too well.

A cheer went up along the line as the Ancient Order of Foresters appeared. In their green uniforms of the ancient woodsmen they made a splendid appearance. The A. O. F. marshal was W. Beach, and it was indeed a creditable organization to marshal.

The local courts, Endeavor and Success were augmented by visiting brethren from Hamilton, Paris and London. Acclamations of applause were heard on all sides as the Sons of England appeared, headed by their marshal, Sergeant Major Roberts, mounted. The juniors and the Paris lodge preceded the float and the local lodges, Wolfe and Salisbury. The S. O. E. float was indeed a fine one. Britannia seated high on her throne with old John Bull below, the whole float gaily decorated with flags and banners. Henry Fielden, marshal, headed the Royal Orange contingents, while immediately in front of the Royal Scarlet Knights, walked the lodge goat, on which the unwary candidates are said to ride when they are initiated. After the Scarlet Knights came the local Brant Temperance L. O. L., 742 followed, immediately by the Middleport Indian band, a most creditable musical organization. Ohsweken L. O. L. 307 followed the Middleport band. F. Mason, marshal, in silvered armour uniform, flashing in the sunlight, heralded the approach of the Knights of the Macabees. The Knights had a splendid turnout, and the local lodge was greatly increased in members by Knights from outside points. They also had a very fine float, gaily decorated, on which sat several officers of the lodge in the uniform of their office. The local lodge of Canadian Oddfellows, marshalled by F. Neal, were next in order, and presented a neat and orderly front.

And then the Galt pipers band appeared. They were greeted with cheering all along the route of the parade. A pretty float with the local pipers in it playing their pipes preceded the S.O.S. lodge. The Sons of Scotland were immediately followed by the Catholic Fraternal societies, C. M. B. A. and Catholic Order of Foresters headed by an extremely pretty float, a large white cross with several little girls, all dressed in white clinging to the cross. The float was the signal for loud applause all along the line. The Woodmen of the World were the last fraternity, the local lodge being headed by the drill company from London. The band of the Brant Dragons followed ahead of the last float that of the Y. M. C. A. The latter was indeed a unique float. Being quite large it was partitioned off into sections, representing the different apartments at the Y. M. C. A. building in this city.

Awarding the Prizes.

Arriving at the grounds the floats and the lodges were reviewed by the judges. The judges Lt.-Col. Ashton, Lt. Col. Muir, and Captain William Miller awarded the prize for the best appearing body to the Sons of Scotland and the announcement was received with great applause. The $50 prize for the largest and best dressed visiting band went to the Indian band of the 37th regiment.

The $50 cash prize for the best float presented by the High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters, through Mr. A. P. VanSameren, was awarded by the judges, Mayor Spence, Messrs. Fred Frank and A. K. Bunnell to the Sons of England, and the second prize $25 to the Catholic Fraternal societies.

When it came to judging the marshals the judges had quite a task as they certainly had a splendid group to choose from. The marshals judges were Chief Lewis, C. H. Hartman and Aid. Quinlan, and they awarded the first prize to Mr. F. Mason of the K.O.T.M.; the second to Mr. William Beach of the Ancient Order of Foresters; and the third to Mr. John Phillips, marshal of the Catholic.

The $100 prize for the largest turnout could not be awarded yesterday as there was some dispute as to the exact meaning of the term "largest turnout," and a special meeting of the committee will be held this week to decide upon the awarding of the prize.

At the Grounds.

Perhaps it would have been in the best interests of the Old Home Week if the programme of sports at the ball park had been conducted in a more methodical and precise manner than was the case yesterday. At the beginning there was lacking, as it were the master hand of control all the time which elapsed between the events was a little monotonous. In spite of this the afternoon of sports was a success and it was so because the people turned out in large numbers to see the fun; and they got lots of it. When it did start with comic performances and a ball game there was great hilarity and it was evident that the watchers were out for a good time.

Arriving with the monster parade, the gaily colored crowd soon filled the best seats and gathered around the enclosure. First they were treated to a look at all the members of the various lodges, and while some of the officers were in their state uniforms and presented brilliant contrasts to the ordinary clothes of men, many were attired in common civilian attire and did not arouse any enthusiasm. They however showed the strength of the lodges. The floats attracted much interest as they passed for inspection. The Sons of England were applauded for the "Rule Britannia," while the Y. M. C. A., the Catholic Fraternal societies and K.O.T.M. were well commented upon by the onlookers.

In the meantime several of the results and awards of the gigantic parade were announced by Aid. Walter Bragg from a raised platform, close to the centre stand. With a big megaphone Walter sounded fine and did his work well. The boys race was the first staged and it resulted in a fairly easy thing for J. Stewart, who paced the way and won by three yards in the 50 yard run. His time was 8 2-5 seconds. Peter Rowe and L. Goodson came in second and third.

A fine feature of the afternoon was the performance of several acrobatic novelties and national dances by six little girls trained in London by Miss Henderson. The little dancers were Jean Walker, Gladys Coomber of London and Mildred Tomley, Eileen Bridle and Josephine O'Sullivan, and they with their lightsome feet delighted the large crowd. Indeed they were accorded several encores.

Miss Rose revealed herself to be a clever tightrope walker while Moosie Walsh as her partner for fun proved the limit and gave everyone a period of merriment.

The stunts of Walsh and King in a chasing scene of folding doors and trick catches, were amusing in no small degree and got a full measure of applause.

The different lodges too gave excellent displays of their fancy drill work, the Royal Knights being especially noticeable.

The five mile race resulted in a victory for Jamieson an Indian of the L.O.L., Ohsweken. His time for the distance, said to be five miles was 31.18. Peters, another Indian came in second in the time of 34.30, and John Lightfoot of London was third in the time of 36.22.

A most funny race was the Tango consisted of dressing from boxes at the end of 50 yards, and returning properly attired. Alf. Dowling came in first, J. F. Edwards second and Lorne Stenmore, 3rd.

The Drill Corps competition was won by the Royal Scarlet Chapter, De Schomberg Company, No. 1 of Hamilton who came through with 67 points against 58 by the Pine Grove Camp, No. 2, of the Woodmen of the World, London. Both fraternities were splendidly prepared.

The Indians proved the strongest Tag-of-war men and they succeeded in finally ousting Hamilton in the contests yesterday by pulling their opponents over the centre, with a good strong heavy heave.

Scots and Sons of England resulted in wins for the Scots who were routed by the Hamilton boys. Ohsweken, L. O. L. No. 307, under Captain C. Martin, were the winners with the Catholic Order of Foresters captained by Tom Convery, as runners up.

The expectation was better than the realization of the Greasy Pig Contest, which Joe Isenbaugh secured pretty fast and before the pig had run more than fifty yards.

Pete Cancellia was buried beneath a pile of players who did not agree with one of his verdicts in the comic ball game. LaCoix did well as a pitcher, while Kube as the cop, was conspicuous by his absence.

The oldest member proved to be John Oliver, whose record was 52 years a member of the L. O. L., Paris. The oldest lady was Mr. J. Kenny of the L. T. B. No. 15 of Brantford. She has over twenty years to her credit.

Mrs. H. Hampden experienced hard luck when she was disqualified as the lady coming the longest distance. She hailed from Prince Rupert, B. C., and she had to give way to the claims of Mrs. McInnis of Brantford, who came from Madona, Manitoba.

Mrs. Spence, the Mayor's wife graciously presented the prizes at the conclusion of the programme and she was thanked by the committee for her kindness.

A great amount of praise is due to the Sports Committee for the earnest endeavor to provide a bright and sparkling programme behind the dyke. They are as follows: F. Waller, chairman, R. W. Brooks, J. Bond, B. H. Benning, J. W. White, F. J. Waterson, G. H. Hand, S. G. Macklin, H. Green, J. W. Wakley, W. J. Sweetman, J. Kerr, J. Gillen, L. White, Misener, A. McKinnon T. M. Raines, J. Kenny, F. Neal, F. Askew C. S. Brown J. Thomson.

The judges had a ticklish job which they well accomplished. They were as follows: Chief Sleming, Chief Lewis J. B. Cornelius and G. H. Roper.

That the Courier Lost "Ad" column shows results, was clearly demonstrated when Billy Devine of St. Thomas, well known in Brantford as a bicycle rider and fast racer, and who is with the Washburn Shows, lost a $300.00 diamond ring Saturday night, while helping to get his show in shape. It was advertised in the Courier once. Mr. Sharp of this city, who found the ring returned it to Mr. Devine, who gave him a suitable reward.

BIG NICK WINS AGAIN

He Held the Hamilton Team to Three Hits Here this Morning

The Red Sox triumphed over the Hamilton Athletics this morning at Agricultural Park by the score of 7-1. Big Nick pitched the team to victory and drove in three runs himself. Clements did the twirling for the visitors and the Red Sox got to him for seven hits, while the Athletics only got three off Nichol. Gabby Ivers never got a hit during the entire game.

In the first inning Nasher walked and scored on Dudley's double, and in the second Fried doubled and scored on Nichol's single.

In the fifth, Lamond was safe on Fryer's wild throw to first. He scored later on a squeeze play with Long.

In the seventh Barrett walked, Fried was safe on Clements' error, sacrificed along by Lamond and scored on Nichol's single. Incidentally, big Nick drove in three runs during the game. Hamilton's only run was got in the fourth when Cunningham scored on a sacrifice fly by Fisher.

Rain stopped the game for about 15 minutes in the seventh innings. Attendance was small. Lacroix and Dolin umpired in the absence of the official umpires.

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 13.—The Saints finally managed to beat London here when Reilly whitewashed them and Kustus played the role of swat king driving in the only run of the game in the seventh when Kading, who singled, went to second on a hunt. The game was easily one of the best contested ever since baseball was staged in this city, as it certainly was a pitcher's combat, both the victorious hurler and Hammond commanded perfect control and kept the batsmen guessing with men on bases, with the exception of one Jules Kustus, who seemed to find the visiting moundman like eating custard pie.

Sport Comment

That the 2,451 paid admissions at the big game here on Tuesday netted a revenue which was less than the actual expenses will probably be news to most fans, but it is news founded on fact, nevertheless.

There were about 1,000 people less at the grounds on Tuesday than on Opening Day this year. The position of Brantford in the race was not the cause of many being unable to watch the Athletics, nor was it the increased price of admission, although the latter cut some figure, no doubt. This is one time when juristiles are not clicking as of yore. It is war time. Yesterday there were scarcely over 400 people paid admission for the fraternal day sports.

That Pitcher Del Chase was given a good look over by Ira Thomas and made in fact a good impression on all the Philadelphia players was conceded by Mr. Shibe, one of the owners of the club who came here on Tuesday. Olding, Barry and Collins frankly conceded they could not hit Chase, but suggested it was because of the dark background of trees along the dyke. This suggestion was not eaten up readily and it remained for Harry Davis to remark "that there was too much Chase" thus giving the "Brantford" pitcher a due credit. Incidentally all the Philadelphia wonders why Brantford should occupy last place after the game they put up Tuesday.

The Hamilton club plays here tomorrow and Saturday afternoon, and the race for last place is now a stern reality.

Watch Ottawa beat London out of pennant.

Football

England Won.

The mixed team won the decision over the All English combination at yesterday morning's game of football in the Agricultural Park. The score was tied at two all, but the English lost on a decision of corners. Six had been given against, while they had forced four. A large crowd of followers gathered and witnessed a memorable contest which was very clean through. Mayor Spence was on the job and this time appeared as a footballer, for with a mighty swing he kicked off the ball and started the game, which he heartily enjoyed. After the game, Mr. J. W. Seago presented the prizes, which were watch fobs for the winners and cuff links for the losers. All were well satisfied with the mornings pastime.

Old Boys Will Parade

The Old Boys now in the city should remember that the schedule announcement of the Scotch night program in the Armouries to-night, has been called off and instead a big Old Boys Parade is planned.

It is the wish of the Old Home executive to have every old boy now in the city, join in the parade, which will form up opposite the headquarters on Dalhousie street, at eight o'clock. Both bands will be in attendance and a great time is expected. The parade is absolutely open to every Old Boy in the city, whether on foot or in auto.

These Old Boys Parades have always been a feature of other reunions and it is expected that it will take equally as well here.

Britain To Mine The North Sea

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The following note from the British Government at London was communicated to Secretary Bryan yesterday by Counselor Barclay of the British embassy at Washington:

"The Germans are scattering contact mines indiscriminately about the North Sea, on the open sea, without regard to the consequences to merchantmen. Two days ago four large merchant ships were observed to pass within a mile of the mine field which sank H.M.S. Amphion.

"The water of the North Sea must therefore be regarded as perilous in the last degree to merchant shipping of all nations. In view of the methods adopted by Germany, the British Admiralty must hold themselves fully at liberty to adopt similar measures in self-defence which must inevitably increase dangers to navigation in the North Sea. But before doing so they think it right to issue this warning in order that merchant ships under neutral flags, trading with northern seaports should be turned back before entering the area of such exceptional danger."

WAS A HUMMER ON THE STREETS AND MARKET LAST NIGHT

Everything of interest or pleasure in the city shows last night was thronged almost past endurance. It seemed as if the excitement and fun was at its zenith and would wear itself out, but the two previous nights had also proved bumper. The fun was perhaps more spontaneous than on Tuesday and Monday, and at all events it was more hilarious. The order prohibiting confetti was for some time observed, but the boys got going and confetti was as much in demand as it ever had been. Fusillades of the gay little pellets were hurled to and fro and to the evident relief of both givers and receivers. Ticklers had been banned, but trust to ingenious youth to find some way out of the problem, the paper substitutes were used, and although not so delicate as the real article, they served the purpose. Young men, however, were wont to discriminate, and the elder people were not troubled, as has been the case at other fairs. Every little show was patronized, and patronized well, for every one seemed to be in a glorious old mood of abandon. It was truly a fraternal spirit, and all entered into it, with little thought of self or individual. They had gathered for mutual fun and united fun they got. The market was one tremendous turmoil, and it was a good humored one. The police were here and there evident, and cut out real rough neck work when it was inclined to bubble, but they did not have any serious cases to deal with. In fact they admitted that they had got off lightly when the number with which they were dealing was considered.

Very noticeable were the little favours of the visiting Parisians, and they must have come down in full war paint. They painted the town red, without any doubt, and they did not leave the job half done.

But the market was only one centre wherein this almost strange state of affairs existed. Colborne street was an avenue of fun and mirth, and while it was a little less jumbled than the market place, it was nevertheless full of the youth and spirit of the day.

Dalhousie street presented a more lively appearance than it has done for many a day, and the boxing exhibit caused roars of fun. The champions of the Graeco Roman art have found Brantford a warm centre and their path has not been smooth. Jack Sloan has got the pull on them both and he showed it to them in good style. Last night the burly challenge throwers were again up against it in the local boys, greatly to the delight of the many wrestling fans.

The high dive by the lady was watched by thousands in her two daily shoots from dizzy heights. All agreed it was a nerve thing to do, and none doubted the merit of the performance. It was too risky for them.

Victoria park re-echoed the song of the day. Within it and under the pretty glow of hundreds of electric lights, many weary, worn and tired merry-makers took a rest before departing from the scenes of the day's gaiety. Still it resounded with peals of laughter as the peculiar actions of those on the jumble wheel were seen opposite the new bank.

To-night the fun may be just as effervescent, but it is doubtful whether it will reach the high state of intoxication which it did last night, for Old Brantford was painted as not even its oldest grey beards can recall in their days of sport.

YANKEES DEFEAT GUELPH LEAFS

Dorbeck and Hoover Pitch to Batters Wit h Hitting Ability—Score is 8 to 4.

GUELPH, Aug. 13.—In an exhibition game here yesterday between the Erie team of the Canadian league and the Guelph W. O. B. L. team, the former won by the score of 8 to 4 in easy fashion. The Erie team represented Guelph last year and some of the old favorites were given a hearty reception. Lefty Dorbeck twirled a good game for the Yankees and was never in serious trouble, while young Hoover also pitched well for the Leafs. The score:

Erie 000102302-8 12 4

PETERBORO, Aug. 13.—Ottawa could not solve Cresswell's stalling and the native son hurled his team to a 9 to 2 win. While Cresswell was hurling masterly ball, especially in the pinch, his team mates were giving a perfect exhibition in the field and also acquitted themselves like big leaguers at the bat. Shag sent Dolan to the mound in the seventh and Cosy had a big smile. The score:

Peterboro 02103201x-9 13 0
Ottawa 010001000-2 7 3

Local News

THE FROGS

TORONTO, Aug. 13.-A few showers are occurring this morning in the Lake Superior district, but otherwise fair weather prevails throughout Canada.
Forecasters.
Moderate southerly and outwester- ly winds, fair and a little higher temperature to-day. Some local showers at night. Friday-Fair.
Attracting Attention.
One of the windows of Grafton and Co., is attracting unusual attention. It is filled with Indian relics, old coins, etc., etc., the property of W. E. Walsh.
Saw Two Aeroplanes.
A Woodstock despatch says: Two aeroplanes flying rapidly in the di- rection of London were seen at Swen- burgh shortly before dark to-night by County Constable Hobson. They came from the direction of Brantford.

Watch Wound Up.

The Mayor wound up the gold Re- gina watch last night at 10 o'clock and sealed the case in which it was put. There are a large number of guesses as to the length of time it would go the varying from 23 to 43 hours.

Leaves for Niobe.

Mr. Samuel Bray leaves to-night to join the ship Niobe at Halifax. Mr. Bray previously served twelve years in the British Navy and has only been in Brantford for a few months. He resides at 11 Park Ave. East, is mar- ried and has one child.

Armenians Volunteer.

Some 25 Armenians under the Ar- menian missionary Mr. Amir Kirkha- nian offered their services to Lt. Col. Howard and being unable to state just at present as to whether their aid would be utilized they were asked to wait until official sanction had been given to the raising of a for- eign contingent in Ontario.

A Fine Exhibit.

Numbered among the attractive ex- hibits at the "Made in Brantford" exhibition is the display of the Ideal Brick and Tile Company, a compar- atively new firm whose future seem to be assured. A fire place constructed of the company's prod- uct together with pretty home-like sur- roundings make a splendid exhibit.

Four Shows Closed.

Complaints having come to Mayor Spence that some of the shows on the market square were not just exactly on the square, so to speak, his wor- ship, in company with Ald. Ryerson, made an inspection of the midway last evening, and a result four shows were closed up. The shows were closed not for immoral reasons, but because the subject of a demand for explanation on the part of France and her allies.

Received Notice.

Major H. F. Leonard received the following telegram from the Adjut- ant-General last night: "In view of non-completion of Medical examina- tion in many places volunteering need not be closed until orders for mobi- lization at Valcartier are issued. Com- manding officers will assemble all vol- unteers for overseas headquarters in- structional purposes. Many Applicants For The County Shrievalty Position Rendered Vacant by the Death of the Late Sheriff Ross Regarded as a Very Good One.

There are a number of applicants for the position rendered vacant by the lamented death of the late Sheriff Ross. The appointment is in the hands of the two defeated candidates in North and South Brant, who still hold the patronage with regard to County offices. If they cannot agree upon one man then the govern- ment decides. Under the Ontario system neither Messrs. Ham nor Davidson, M.P.P.s. have any say in the matter. The position used to be very in- merative but fees have been re- duced more and more until the en- dowments are much restricted. Sheriff Smith when he held the post with this son as deputy, used to make some thousands of dollars a year. Under a late Ontario Act the min- imum is placed at $1,500 per annum, and that amount is subject to the re- commendation of the inspector. The office last year yielded about $2,000 and for a long time previously much less.

Volunteers On Parade

Men to the Number of 150 Were Drilling Last Night at the Dufferin Armories.

One hundred and fifty of the mem- bers of the 28th regiment, Dufferin Rifles of Canada, who have volun- teered their services for the First Contingent will go to assist the Mother Country in the present European war, were on parade last night at the Armories under com- mand of Sergt-Major Ostaby. The men made a splendid appearance and were put through the regular drills in good style by the sergeant-major. As most of the men have either seen active service or barrack drill before their work on the drills was indeed creditable. After the parade the men were ad- dressed by W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., and Robert Henry, ex-M.P. Both gentlemen made very fine speeches to the men stirring and patriotic as they were, and were heartily received by the soldiers.

A Great Attendance At The Armories

Success of Made in Brantford Exhibition Has Been Most Pronounced-Large Crowds Always Are There.

As the week goes by interest seems to increase in the exhibition at the Armories. Yesterday marked a record attendance for the drill hall was al- ways filled, with a large and contin- uous number of sightseers. The members of the various lodges who were visiting the city from outside sources were abundantly seen and their plentiful company of Parisians were often in evidence. All who make the circuit of the drill hall are manifestly surprised at the variety and many sid- e businesses conducted in Brantford. Few people had seen basketweaver employed before and as the men skill- fully wound the willows into chairs, expressions of wonder broke forth. But this was not the only attraction. NEW YORK, Aug. 13.-In the re- frigerators of the American Liner New York, when she sails for London to-morrow will be 36,000 dozen of eggs, the first American eggs for En- glish markets since the beginning of the European war. These eggs sell here at twenty-five cents a dozen. They were ordered by cable from London, and there were calls for more, but the steamer could not accommodate them. With the supply of eggs from Russia shut off, England had no place to turn to secure stock except in Amer- ica.
