SOLDIERS MARCHING INTO CAMP PRESENT INSPIRING EXAMPLE OF ALBERTA'S MILITARY EFFICIENCY

Thirteenth District Now Housed in White City at Reservoir Park; Colonel Cruikshank and Captain Bell Put In Busy Day in Final Arrangements of Encampment Details

Fifteen hundred men were under canvas at the Thirteenth District Military encampment at Reservoir Park last night. More will arrive today, but the regular routine of camp work, enforced yesterday, will go into actual operation this morning.

Every man of the advance detachments on the ground yesterday was as busy as the proverbial beaver. The 25th Artillery from Lethbridge engaged in regular drills, and used their field pieces in their work.

POST OFFICE AT CAMP HANDLES MAIL IN REGULAR STYLE

Detachment of Canadian Postal Corps Establishes Headquarters For Direct Delivery

An illustration of the careful attention to detail shown at the encampment is the arrangement for the handling of the mail to and from the big field of tents. A complete post office, with every equipment necessary to take care of the mail which the 2,000 men will be sending and receiving, has been installed and gotten into working order with all the "care" which marks military precision.

INCREASE IN TAXATION

In another part of The Albertan a report of the official statement of the imports and exports shows an enormous increase in the taxation of Canadian people.

In customs taxation alone there has been an abnormal increase. The population has been increased at the rate of about 3 1-2 per cent. a year. Here then is the average customs taxation per head for the last few years.

Table with 4 columns: Year, Population, Customs Taxation, Average Taxation. Data for years 1901-1913.

What shows how greatly our taxation is increasing, and the need for a radical change in our tariff.

DECEIVING THE WEST

The second clause, and to the West, one of the most important in the list of promises made by Premier Borden when in opposition, provided for the handing over to the Western Canadian provinces full control of the natural resources.

Upon this point, Mr. Borden was very definite. He criticized the Laurier administration for not including the full control of the resources in the granting of autonomy. He told us that the government had indicated that we were inferior to the residents of other provinces. He declared in this city that twenty-four hours would not pass after he secured office before he would start action to give us our natural resources.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier had come to the conclusion that the time had arrived when the western provinces should have full control of their resources and had made arrangements for the transfer.

But Mr. Borden has been in office for more than eighteen months and has done nothing to fulfill that promise. In fact, he has deprived the province of Manitoba of control of certain lands which that province previously held. He has made no move, taken no action, done absolutely nothing towards carrying into effect that sacred promise.

And what is worse, some supporters in Alberta insist that he should not carry out this promise while we continue to elect Liberals to office in these provinces, that the control of the lands should be held up as a sort of bribe for Saskatchewan and Alberta, with the promise that control will be given when we vote right. To the credit of the people of these two provinces they have resisted the bait. They will do without the control of the resources, however fruitful they may be, rather than give up their self-respect and their right to elect whomsoever they please in provincial politics.

And Mr. Borden has listened to the small politicians and has, withheld the resources and has violated the promise he made. In this he has shown that he is no big statesman with a statesman's regard for his word, but the petty politician whose interest is not the people but the party.

HOW SINGLE TAX WOULD HELP

Mr. Owens, a large holder of unimproved real estate, in a letter to The Albertan yesterday, repeated the usual argument against the single tax upon land, in a letter dealing with the present city tax rate. He divided his letter into two parts, one dealing with the present condition of the city and the other referring to the condition of the different towns throughout the province. We would advise Mr. Owens to deal with one thing at a time. The single tax has worked well throughout the province, though maybe two or three municipalities, because of unusual circumstances, are suffering somewhat for the time being. That is no argument against the single tax system.

But let us consider the one concrete, nearly example which Mr. Owens offers. A friend of his, name not given, has been farming for the last 15 years, but now finds that he is inside of the city limits with an assessment on his 50 acre farm of $3,500 an acre. He declares that the land is not worth more than $2,500 an acre. He has tried to sell it for that price and has not been able to do so. The fact that the property is over-assessed, as Mr. Owens and his friend insist, is not the fault of any particular system of taxation. This man had his chance to appeal against the assessment, and evidently did not do so. The valuation would be the same with or without the single tax, with full valuation on buildings, or partial valuation on buildings, or total exemption from taxation upon buildings.

This is a very good example of the honesty and fairness of the single tax. Mr. Owens' friend doubtless paid not more than $500 for his entire fifty acre farm, fifteen years ago. As a farm it is little, if at all, more valuable than it was when he bought it. He has done but little, if anything, to make it at all more valuable. But that farm, according to the owner, is worth $125,000, and the city assessor says it is worth $175,000. The owner has got at least $124,000 which he did not earn in any sense of the word. That increased value has come because the people of Calgary have been spending money in building up a great and modern city. Single taxers declare that that man should pay some part of that unearned increment to maintain the city which made him wealthy. According to Mr. Owens, if his theory is reduced to its logical conclusion, this gentleman should pay taxes upon farm lands worth about $1,000 in all. Let us see how it works out. If we had full valuation upon buildings and personally and land, with the licenses complete, we would have a rate of 16.1 mills. The difference in the taxation upon Mr. Owens' friend would be about $900, which is not so very much for a man who has made about $175,000 through the enterprise of Calgary people and through no effort on his part. He certainly has no cause to grumble, and Mr. Owens has no excuse to grumble for him. The difference in the taxation which this gentleman will have to pay now and under full single tax is about $400.

On the other hand, take the laboring man who is building up the city and making valuable the property of the friend of Mr. Owens. He has a lot valued at $500 and a house valued at $2,000. Under the full valuation he would pay $40.25. Under the present method he pays $14. Under full single tax he would pay $10.75.

We believe in reducing the taxes on a thousand of the latter, and taxing the friend of Mr. Owens upon the value which he did nothing to create.

Mr. Owens and his friend seem to have an idea that they can beat out the city by allowing the tax-gatherer to seize the property. If the property is worth even $2,000 an acre, it will, probably bring $60 an acre for the taxation charges.

Mr. Owens' friend knows what to do. He is going to sell his property. If we had had single tax years ago he, and landlords in a similar position would have disposed of their holdings long before this time, and we would not have had a city which stretches out for miles and miles, and mostly composed of vacant lots. We would have had a compact city and the cost of administration would have been half as much as it is now, and the tax rate would have been less than 16.1-2 mills, which would be the full tax rate under full valuation at the present time.

The tax rate is high now, not because we are approaching the single tax, but because we have not had single tax all along.

Years of Suffering

A Desperate Case of Catarrh in the Head.
My father had catarrh in the head for a long time. It was such a desperate case that he didn't know what to do, but one of his friends recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. He got a bottle immediately, and as soon as he commenced taking it he felt relief and after the use of two other bottles he was completely cured. He was so well pleased he has ever since recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Della Alina Scott, Lewis, R. G.
Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists everywhere.

The assessment upon personality is always very much of a farce. According to the commissioners the assessment upon stock, machinery and such like is not valued and the total is less than five millions. The full value would be something like ten times that amount. For all that the tax yields it would be something like ten times that give no temptation to any merchant to undervalue the value of his own goods.

The single taxers did not advance any in Calgary this year, but despite bitter opposition from the absentee land owners, they held their own, and best of all they got the people talking about and thinking about single tax. That was a victory.

Every person to the even way of thinking, but we would feel much more secure with an army of self-reliant, resourceful, able-bodied men like those who are in camp now defending us, than under the protection of a continental army of trained soldiers ten times as large.

And beginning tomorrow the C.P.R. will go right into the main part of Edmonton which is very fine. The traveler who once upon a time travelled over the hills to Edmonton in the inside of a rattle-trap bus will rejoice that that sort of thing is merely a memory now. Of course the street car journey has been some improvement.

Let us sincerely hope that England will be able to keep going during the summer even if the ardent old fire-eater Col. Denison, of Toronto, feels that he cannot go across and bolster up the nation during holidays. Col. Denison is humiliated because the senate insisted that the people should vote first before handing over $35,000,000 to the dealers in armaments.

The Calgary health department is one which has been doing an enormous amount of very valuable work without saying very much about it. The department is a live one and is getting results.

There are thirteens by the score who seem to have no other visible means of support and spend most of the time in your office giving opinions as blue as the preparations for Monday morning's wash. The proper way to handle those persons is to call in the assistance of the "what the city" boy, and instruct him to deal with them accordingly. With rigorous weather like this and a crop that promises to beat all existing records, the man who talks bludily should be chased out of the community.

The Edmonton Journal in speaking of the suggested assistance to Calgary University for a grant for a school of department of technology and sectional jealousy and that sort of thing says:

"There is not now and never was any good reason for these sectional difficulties. A little bit deeper spirit on each side would have avoided them. Certainly with the great future that is now ahead of the province, there is no excuse for further complications from this cause."

DREW, AVIATOR, WAS IN FILM OF MANY FATALITIES

St. Louis Aviator, the Tenth of Those in One Picture Film To Meet Violent Death.

St. Louis, June 17.—Andrew Drew, St. Louis aviator killed at Lima, O., was the tenth person whose picture appeared in the famous "death" reel in the picture film "The Tenth of Those in One Picture Film To Meet Violent Death." The motion picture film is the property of Albert Bond Lambert and was taken at Kinloch Field, St. Louis county, in October, 1910, on the occasion of ex-President Roosevelt's visit shortly after his return from Africa. The men photographed and the subsequent fate of most of them were as follows: Theodore Roosevelt, shot by a crank in Milwaukee in 1912 campaign; recovered. Arch Hoxsey, dare devil aviator, who acted as Roosevelt's pilot, killed in California in 1911. Ralph Johnston, aviator, killed in Denver.

P. O. Parmelee, aviator killed in North Yakima, Wash.

A. C. Welch, aviator, killed at College Park, Md.

Howard Gill, aviator, killed in Chicago.

Lieut. Hans Gericke, balloonist, killed in Germany.

Jacques Faure, balloonist, killed in Toronto from exposure in an air voyage.

Theodore Schreck, balloonist, killed in Switzerland.

"Tony" Von Phul, balloonist, shot and killed in Denver.

Andrew Drew, aviator, killed in Lima, O.

Alfred Lobianc, aviator, disabled for life by fall in New York.

Walter De Mumm, millionaire, shot by woman in Paris; recovered.

Walter Brooks, aviator, has quit flying.

J. C. Turpin, aviator, has quit flying.

Albert Bond Lambert, millionaire St. Louis aviator still flies occasionally; has never been in serious accident.

Lambert was appalled when informed of Drew's death.

"It shows," he said, "that it is not always the novice who goes to his death in aviation. Drew was one of the most experienced of our St. Louis fliers and a careful man."

I have begun to look on that "death reel" with horror, though I prize it highly and will keep it in my possession. Only a few days ago I had it out and was looking over it and counting the faces of the men whose lives had paid forfeit to the science of aviation."

Albert Von Hoffmann said the death of Drew was a loss to aviation in St. Louis, as Drew had done a great deal toward making aviation popular as a sport.

Editorial Notes

The increase in trade in the annual report just published shows remarkable progress in Canada. The most unfortunate part of it all is that instead of our taxation being lowered it is steadily and rapidly being increased. Now is the time to start in reducing the duties.

The provincial legislature will be stronger by the presence of Hon. A. G. Mackay. He is one of the ablest men in Canada and should not be long on the outside of the Alberta cabinet.

The Calgary school board has more to show for its expenditures during the last few years than any other city or organization. It has spent much money, but built all the enormous schools, has expended wonderfully, and yet the percentage of the city expenditure has actually decreased. That is something of a record.

R. W. Thomson writing in The Boston Transcript says the Canadians are beginning to feel more friendly towards their American neighbors, and cites the case of The Ottawa Citizen which resents the palpable attempt of an old country publication to prejudice Canada and Britain against the United States and for Japan. Canadians have been very friendly with the United States, even though some professional politicians attempted to make capital by arousing bitterness a couple of years ago. Canada sympathizes with the United States in its oriental problem as it has something very much of the same thing on its hands.

And the tax rate of 18.7 is not a large one at all, at all. In 1908 our tax rate was 22 mills and in 1909 it was 21 1/2 mills and in 1907 and 1908 it was 18 mills. And during these years we paid full value on land and full value on buildings, machinery and stock.

The commissioner or the alderman who solves the market problem and lets a garden truck concern going into this city will be the big man in the city council. There is nothing quite so important before the representatives of the city.

Industrial Canada, an organ of the manufacturers insists that the department of labor should give more attention to the manufacturers' end of the affair than to the employees, because the employing pay $41.18, and the total annual wages are $197,228,701. As that is an average of $418.83 per employee, per year, which is below a living wage, it would be better, we believe, for the labor department to keep on with the employees and make it a little stronger. Talk about your Ban Johnsons and other czars in baseball! Frank Gray has them all beaten. When William Hartley did not give the rides, Mr. Gray firmly whipped off his head and threw it into the ball park, which seems like a paying affair for the league. They do such strange things in baseball.

CHARGE AGAINST VICARY'S DAIRY IS DISMISSED The charge against Vicary brothers, dairymen, of selling impure milk as food especially prepared for babies, was dismissed by Magistrate Sanders yesterday. The action was brought by the medical health officer, to whom a bottle of this milk containing a large quantity of foreign matter had been brought by a customer two hours after its delivery. Mr. Vicary declared that every case was taken in handling this milk from a cow maintained solely for the purpose of supplying food for infants, and invited inspection of any bottle of milk from the warehouse. His Worship decided that the case was an exception, owing to an accident of some sort, which should not cast a reflection on the general quality of Sprucevale milk, and dismissed the case.

WHAT THE PUBLIC WANTS

(By Constance Errol.) The great mind of Arnold Bennett trembled and almost fell before the gigantic task of treating this tremendous question, and a merely feminine perspective cannot be expected to deal with it adequately. It is indeed a difficult matter to handle, and the contents of the women's page on a daily newspaper, "The subject cannot be discussed without going to the heart of the matter, and a proper assessment of the situation is essential. Some people are of the opinion that the women's page should be a touch of poetry, some wish no pink teas, but plenty of women's meetings, while their sisters cry out for a full description of table decorations and a proper assessment of the situation. Some would have absolutely no questions of the heart answered, while many troubled women write telling the society editor what to help the "Loveknott" column is to them. Receipts for favorite dishes are the receipt of some and the delight of others, and fashion cuts are at once

HIGH LEVEL BRIDGE IDEA GIVES THOS. MAWSON A CHILL

(Continued from Page One) would you suggest? Mr. Mawson was asked. "I have several alternative sites," replied Mr. Mawson. "It could quite easily be transferred to First street east." The objection to First street west lies in the condition created at the corner of Seventh avenue where the Hudson Bay store and the Southern Syndicate buildings, on the north corner, one of which will be occupied by The Herald, and the other by the Calgary Furniture company, have been built close to the street line, with no provision for widening of the street. The street has already been widened beyond the subway but, at this point, the thoroughfare is not wide enough to carry the traffic and it will be almost impossible to think of building converging street car lines here. If a bridge were built from First street west, and the flow of traffic carried along this thoroughfare from Eighth avenue, the congestion at this point would be appalling. Mr. Mawson has suggested that the street might be widened by unsiting the glass fronts of the buildings and running the sidewalks under the first storeys of the buildings inside the pillars, but this is not likely to be received favorably by the owners. Other Bridges The Louise bridge will form part of the western radial road and the Langston bridge a part of the proposed eastern radial road. Other low-level bridges at Fourth street west to accommodate the Sunnyside district and perhaps eventually at Fifteenth street east and beyond Hillhurst are included in the suggestions. THE HEART DEPARTMENT

By Laura Jean Libbey. ADVISE FOR TROUBLED Dear Miss Libbey: I suppose this is going to be a rather funny letter, but I wish you would answer it. I am 20 years of age and very much in love with a girl about my own age. I do not wish to propose until I see better how we get along together. On account of not going with girls very much I do not know just what I should do. I take her out places, of course, and call on her and she is usually very nice to me, but I notice sometimes she is not pleased with something, whatever it may be, and I have heard that she has said I am slow. Now what you would advise me is right when leaving after calling on her to put my arm around her waist, don't mean to kiss her, but she always stands back in the room as if she were waiting for something. I wish you would let me know just what is right to do because she is a very fine and religious girl and I would be very glad to show my appreciation of her company in any way that would be proper or please her. Thanking you in advance for an answer, I am, yours truly, TROUBLED. I am very glad to hear of just such a fine considerate fellow as your letter tells me you are. I think maybe the girl wishes to know if your liking for her is merely mental or if there is something in the nature of a lifelong affection growing up between you. Also it is possible that she does not know how much she likes you until you have done more than sit on the other side of the room from her. Friendship is a roll thing, and persons who like to meet each other and talk together may be repulsive to each other physically. I would advise you, if you really care for the girl and are not playing with her, to kiss her on saying "Goodnight," and await results. You are very young for anything definite in the way of matrimony, but an understanding and engagement has made many a girl happy and kept many a man straight. Wishes to Quit Him "Dear Miss Libbey: I am 18. I have been going with a young man for about a year. I would like to quit his company, but do not care anything about a girl, although he does care for me. He is very kind, but I do not want to tell him in such a way as not to make him feel so badly. Do you think it wrong to wear a boy's ring for friendship? Grace." Simply refuse the fellow's invitations and arrange to have other engagements when he asks to call on you. Do not accept any further favors from the fellow and he probably will come to see that he is not wanted. Of course, I do not approve of girls wearing boys' rings that way, they are always the occasion of more ill feeling when misunderstandings arise. Is There Any Harm? "Dear Miss Libbey: Is there any harm in a couple kissing if they are engaged, also if they are not? Should a girl allow a boy to hold her hand when out walking? When a boy tells a girl he loves her better than anyone else and asks for a kiss and says if she thinks enough of him she will kiss him, if she

Fragrance

WHEN you open a tin of Red Rose Coffee, you will surely be pleased with its unusual fragrance, and you will note particularly the small, even grains, free of the yellow flake or chaff which you have always been accustomed to see in the ground coffee you have used. This is the result of our new crushing process. The small grains settle quickly, so the coffee is never muddy, but always bright and clear. You will be convinced before you taste it, that it is a coffee of unusual quality.

and we had many a jolly time together. He sent me a beautiful piece of jewelry after he returned home a few months ago. I wrote to him and thanked him for the present, but since then I have never heard from him or seen him. Now what am I to do? Should I write to him or wait until I hear from him?" He probably has become more interested in some other girl. You made a mistake in accepting jewelry from a man who was not engaged. The thing for you to do is to return the present and make up your mind not to accept from men any more gifts of expensive jewelry.

SIR TOM TELLS WHY HE WANTS THE CUP

Racing Only Hobby of Famous Irish Sportsman

(By W. B. Thompson.)
London, June 17.—Why do I want the America cup? Because it is the greatest prize in the world connected with the sea. I want the cup because I want to do something for my country. I want to bring the prize which has been away so long, back to Britain.
Sir Thomas Lipton spoke enthusiastically to a representative of The Metropolitan Press.
"Of course, I am delighted that the challenge has been accepted," he continued. "It is the consummation of seven years' efforts on my part to get my challenge taken up. I feel the luck will go to my side this time, because this is the thirteenth race for the America cup. Moreover, my boat will be Shamrock IV, and I have a great belief in the luck of the four-leaf shamrock. A curious thing happened a short time ago in connection with my fondness for the Irish emblem. I first adopted the name for my boat because my parents were Irish and I love Ireland."

Seventeen years of work.
"It is more than 20 years since I first thought of winning the America Cup in the days of the Thistle, and for 17 years I have been preparing. I have had three tries, and I am glad to have another. It has been suggested that I might yet withdraw my challenge and submit another, naming a cutter built to the limit of 22, but I have no such intention.
I requested permission to change the size of the challenge from 75 ft. to 90 ft. on the water-line simply in order to give the Americans a choice of weapons—any size boat they like. Nothing will stop the race, and I am concerned, not even if the New York Yacht club should not allow the challenge to be towed across under certain conditions of weather, as I have requested, instead of crossing under her own sail. I should prefer the former, because there is always the possibility of getting into dead calms and being delayed so long that there would not be time to prepare for the race. Such preparations include the dismantling of the boat, taking out the special ocean rig, which will have been used to take the boat across the Atlantic and substituting the racing rig. Otherwise there are no changes, but still there is the danger that delays may be caused. There are headwinds to be thought of also. The reticence of the New York Yacht club in discussing the race, which has been remarked, is explained, in my opinion, by the fact that some details still remain to be settled, such as the time of starting, odds and ends of measurement, and so on.

Present Rules an Improvement.
"The race will be conducted under the present American rules, which are much better than the rules under which I have previously raced. They allow for a more seaworthy type of boat. The difference between racing in America and in England, Scotland or Ireland, there has been that freak boats—boats not built by any racing rules—have been allowed to race in America, although not in Europe. Next year's racing with a good seaworthy boat will be quite different. I would as soon race in America as anywhere. Everything is done for a yachtsman in order to make him feel at home. He is treated with every consideration and the people are exceedingly kind.
Speaking from the experience of several races in America I have found the Americans fair sportsmen. Indeed, I never met better, and if ever a mistake was made it was always in my favor. The weather conditions are a little different in America. The wind is much lighter; it has not so much weight as at home, so that one can carry more sail comfortably. Of course, the wind I want for this occasion is one that will put the Shamrock on a broad reach and leave the other fellow becalmed."

Explores Great Interest in Race.
"I have no doubt the Americans will take an even greater interest in the race for the America cup than they did before. Then they had a little hope. Why does Lipton always drink out of a saucer? "Because he cannot lift a cup." As a matter of fact, I suppose I have one of the finest collections of cups in existence. The Americans themselves gave me a gold loving cup in 1898 worth $15,000. No money could replace it, however, on account of the value I attach to it. The United States sailors of the flagship Olympia also presented me with a cup in 1894, and I won the Kings Cup on the Thames in 1898. Last year I won six races out of eight in the international races in Germany. Out of 30 races last year I had 23 first prizes, and I sailed in every race myself. Sailing my only hobby. When I was 12 or 14 years old I used to hire a boat for 3d. an hour at Rotherly Bay, when I could not get a boat to steer for nothing for other people. My racing costs me a little more now.
"I shall certainly sail over in Shamrock IV, whether she goes under her own sail or is towed by the Erin. And if I win the cup, anyone who likes may defend it for Britain; all I want to do is to bring it back."

Canadians at Henley.
Henley-on-Thames, Eng. June 17.—The Canadians, who have had practically a monopoly of the regatta course since their arrival here, were joined last evening by the Leanders and other Varsity crews. Coached by Mr. Wright and Mr. Harcourt in Powell's electric launch, the eight, in a half course, trial, leading off 28 strokes and afterwards dropping to 35, reached the half-way mark in three minutes and thirty-eight seconds. This morning the eight, rowing well together, had a stiff paddle from Humberlock lock at a stroke every 17 minutes. The eight boat is named Undie Boy, and the four rowers are Butler, sculling at Marlow regatta on Saturday.

TWELVE THOUSAND A MINUTE FOR SPORT

Scouting services	25,000
Entertainment fund	75,000
Interest on Money	55,000
Total	$1,400,000

Twelve thousand dollars a minute spent to win what? A silver cup standing some thirty inches high and worth perhaps $1,000,000 has been lavished by a comparatively small body of Americans and Englishmen. Criminal extravagance? Let us see. It is not the cup itself but what it stands for that calls for this tremendous expenditure.
Englishmen of wealth gladly put up more than half a million to finance this second but vain attempt to win back the cup taken from them in 1899 by four American players: F. W. Whitely, Larry Waterbury and his younger brother, Monty; and Dewey and Arthur. That contest cost $60,000 the contest of 1911, when the Englishmen came to this country and failed, cost something over $150,000, this contest which was just finished, cost $1,000,000. (Verily the cost of living is going up.) While the officers of the United Polo Association declare that this tremendous cost they cannot do without it, it has cost several perfectly logical causes, the greatest of which are the following:
While there are one or two ponies in use today that were used in the last tournament, the rest of the hundred have been purchased during the last 12 months, and purchased only with this tournament in mind. Therefore, the price of these diminutive horses has soared at once by dealers and owners, and boasted very high. Ponies that could have been bought for $500 three years ago have cost this year $5,000 and $6,000.
Last week, eight of the greatest polo players in the world, with a string of ponies back of them numbering 135, and valued at $250,000, competed for the silver cup and the championship title. Now that the dust has settled, the ground there is very little to show for the money spent. A few battered balls, some broken bones and mallets and winded horses. Some of the most costly horses, and those left in good condition will depreciate in value the instant the tournament is over. They will have fulfilled their purpose, and ponies which cost $5,000 and $6,000 may be bought for less than that many hundreds.

But the ponies are, after all, but one item of expense incurred by the men behind the players. These ponies do not have the brains of the masons of old, they do not trot up to the polo grounds and beg to be bought. They have to be hunted down, and during the past two years more have sought their graves in the world for them, India, France, Egypt, Ireland and even the Argentine Republic have been combed to find mounts that will fight to the last ditch. Speed is, of course, the greatest requisite.
It is estimated by officers of the Polo Association in this country that the horse hunting of the last two years has cost into $75,000 for both teams.
The men behind the last tournament realized long ago that no one man nor club could stand the expense of this contest. Mr. Whitely offered to be responsible for $500,000 for the Americans, and the duke of Westminster stepped into the breach for the English. The duke, however, only put up $200,000 of his own money; another $300,000 was raised through popular subscriptions opened by the newspapers and through the individual efforts of the polo players of Great Britain, a total of $900,000. It is even whispered among those who ought to know, that the Duke of Devonshire spent over $200,000 and the individual efforts of the polo players up to nearly $300,000 a total of $700,000 of American money.
And now that it is all over and the Americans again have proved their superiority, the game English sportsmen announce that they will again challenge for the trophy. Probably very few of the ponies which were used in this last competition will be seen in action when the next challenging team comes across the water. England was defeated but not humbled by any means, and the next time that even greater honors will be made next year to land for England the trifling piece of silverware which means so much.

JOHNNIE DUNDEE EARNS DECISION OVER WHITE

Chicago Lad Made a Game Showing; Dundee Strong at the Finish

Los Angeles, June 17.—After 20 rounds of fast fighting without a tame round, Johnny Dundee of New York was awarded a well-earned decision over Jack White of Chicago, at the Vernon arena tonight.
White's showing was a distinct surprise, although two to one money went to the New Yorker on the long end, and he begged before the initial gong. The Chicago featherweight more than held his own in the first half of the fight and at 10 rounds it would have been a good draw. After that, however, he weakened although in flashes he punished Dundee with body punches.
The Italian's dazzling speed, however, was too much for the Chicago lad. Jumping about his antagonist, darting in and out, he dazed White with straight lefts to the face, alternating with an occasional right aim to the jaw. The end of the fight found Dundee just as fast and strong as ever, while White was willing fast.

Not In The Box Score

Isn't it funny what a difference just a few days make! A week ago the Red Sox were considered as hopeless underdogs that could be kicked round by most any old team in Frank Gray's circuit. Now with the rejuvenated and remodelled lineup they are leading over any team in the league a run for their money and are to cause considerable trouble before the season is finished.

Walter Johnson Frink went on a strike last night and threatened to do a awful thing, he connected with the local ball club. He was out warming up before the game when Jack Roche said something to him which the egotistical twirler did not think was quite correct so he acted the part of a kid who had been disappointed and grumbled, whined, and pouted awhile and then went home and put on his street clothes. Frink is a good enough twirler when he attends to business but his actions last night were so babyish that even his best friends were disgusted. It's time that ball players in this league learn that they are not running things and it would not be amiss if President Savage made an example of Frink for his actions of last night. Greater players than Frink have been canned for less than his foolishness.

President Gray has certainly shown that he means business. His action in suspending Bill Hurley and declaring the Saskatoon franchise forfeited is one of the most drastic ever taken in organized ball. It was pretty ticklish business, too, for the Western Canada league is in no good shape to stand the financial reverses which may result from this action. However, in all probability the action was very largely a bluff and after Saskatoon realizes that the league rules must be lived up to, the trouble will all be patched up.

But now that Mr. Gray has gone as far as he should go one step further and investigate the Edmonton club. Incidentally it might be a good thing to suspend Manager Whisman for similar reasons that Hurley was suspended and also declare that the baseball franchise owned by Frank Gray be declared the property of the league. Although Edmonton has not been a very dangerous pennant contender yet it has one of the most ex-

Well Driver Cured of Rheumatism By Human Bake Oven

F. M. Westerman, Employee of Sullivan Machinery Company, Suffering With Rheumatism, Relates How He Was Cured of the Agony of Rheumatism.

Contracted the Disease While Engaged at His Occupation, Which Brought Him to the Point of Being Unable to Turn Over in Bed Because of Agony

The following statement was made by Mr. Westerman and signed for the purpose of being on record:

"I first contracted rheumatism through working in the water and steam engine at the Human Bake Oven. It made itself felt early in January, and was so severe that I was unable to get up from my bed. I was suffering excruciating agony, and was making inquiries with the view of taking treatment at the Human Bake Oven. I realized that it would be to my benefit to take the cure at the Human Bake Oven, and I was no time in arranging to take a course of treatment at the Calgary Sanatorium."

Imperial bank was steady, with a touch of a new low for the year and the rest was duplicated by Standard bank, which declined to 215-1-2. High priced stocks are feeling the pinch of tight money.

Roger Pocock, the famous novelist, and Randal Cecil, who represents a number of English newspapers, are in the city for a trip across the Rockies to the coast on horseback across some of the most unexplored and more dangerous adventures in a number of periods. Mr. Pocock being the representative of a number of American magazines.

Pocock is not unknown in the west and was formerly a member of the Royal North West Mounted Police. He has many friends in the west who knew him when he was in 1887. SOUTHERN ALBERTA'S BANNER WOOL CLIP OFF TO MARKET

Wool From 25,000 Sheep Is Put On Board Cars; Clip Light, But of Good Quality

Lethbridge, June 17.—The first shipment of this year's wool clip will be made today from Barnwell, a point a few miles this side of Taber. The shipper will be R. C. Harvey, president of the Southern Alberta Wool-growers' association.

Mr. Harvey and Neil Stalker another well known woolgrower were in the city yesterday. Mr. Harvey says this year's clip he believes is the best he has ever had in this country both in quality and weight. He has been shearing in Chin, Coulee, south of Barnwell. Shearing with him are Messrs. Blacklock, Robinson and one or two others, the number of sheep sheared between them being from twenty-three to twenty-five thousand. Their outfit will move over to Kipp's Coulee on Tuesday next to shear for J. T. Henninger, Ray Knight and others who have about 22,000 head.

Neil Stalker, with his brother Robt. Stalker, Bob Neil and McKenzie are shearing about 15,000 head at King's lake and will be all through by Wednesday next. Mr. Stalker says his clip this year is of a particularly good quality although he is not sure that it will not run so heavy as last year. It will go better than eight pounds, however.

THE THEATRES

EDWARDS TOPS ORPHEUM BILL WITH "KABARET"

Clever Youngsters Who Have Been Discovered by the Versatile Producer

Tomorrow's bill at the Orpheum should prove attractive to all as it is announced that the headline is to be Gun Edwards' "Kid Kabaret" for it is very little more than a month ago that the "Song Review" by this versatile producer was at the Orpheum and was one of the most decided hits of the season. Even greater praise has been bestowed upon the "Kid Kabaret" which was presented by a number of versatile and clever youngsters, most of whom have been "discovered" by Mr. Edwards himself. The two featured members of the troupe of 20 who are seen in a number of dances as well as instrumental selections and song hits.

Will Rogers has been known on the stage as the Oklahoma cow-boy and his skillful handling of a lariat would win him plaudits at any time, but in addition to this skill, he is a comedian of rare merit having been chosen by Miss Blanche King for the part of the chief comedian in "The Wild West Show".

Few more amusing sketches have ever been written than "A Strong Cup of Tea," which was written by Miss Jane Connelly and in which she is accusing the laughs along with Edwin Campbell. There are said to be many interesting situations as well as humorous ones.

The Rose Valerio Sextette is made up of four handsome girls and two agile young men, the whole combination having been called "The Speed Kings" which has been their work on the tight wire has been earning them favorable notice all along the line.

"Mansions of Letters" is the caption that has been tacked onto Miss Helen Trix, a rarely beautiful American girl who has been delighting the continental music hall with an act that the names so well describes.

Brent Hayes is one of the best banjo artists in the world and before the public and it is a good bet that his great work will return him a certain winner in Calgary.

Then there will be "A Dash of Spanish" in which La Valerio displays her wonderful dancing and Melvin Stokes a wonderful tenor voice, the whole making up a song and dance feature of unusual excellence.

As usual there will be an installment of the talking-moving pictures, by which will be depicted from time many of the most interesting scenes of the stage life. The orchestral program will round out a bill of merit.

ALLEGED SWINDLERS WANT CONVICTION TO BE QUASHED

Men Seeking For Running a Get-Rich-Quick Game and Cheating Their Patrons

Application was made in chambers yesterday before Mr. Justice Walsh for writs of certiorari and habeas corpus to quash the conviction of Magistrate Sanders made on June 8 by which Max Weiss and James Williams were found guilty of cheating at playing a game with discs. They were sentenced to a year with hard labor at Lethbridge jail. The appeal was made by A. A. McGillivray and the summons was allowed and is returnable on Monday, June 23.

The reasons for appeal are that the conviction was had, the sentence uncertain and certain other irregularities are stated to have been committed in the case. It will be remembered that these men were caught running an alleged game on Crescent Heights when they sold cigars on exchange of discs marked specially for the purpose.

PROVINCIAL LODGE S FORMING FOR SONS OF ENGLAND

First Grand Lodge Will Be Formed in Calgary For Alberta on Monday, June 30

The first provincial lodge of the Sons of England will be formed in Calgary on June 30, a week from Monday. This will be a great occasion for the order in other parts of Canada. The members in Calgary are of course highly elated over the fact that there will be a number of prominent speakers including Mayor Sinnott, R. B. Bennett, M.P. President of the Sons of England, J. S. Dennis of the C.P.R. and Archdeacon Hogbin.
