He is a regular attendant at church and takes a live interest in politics and other matters. That he may long continue to enjoy this active life is the wish of his many old friends.

LAST week's Literary Digest was an interesting number inasmuch as the printing was concerned. The typesetters being on strike the publishers produced the issue by simply having the literary matter reproduced on ordinary typewriters. These typewritten pages were then converted into photogravures, by the same process that photographs are regularly reproduced in the newspapers and magazines. The result is not so satisfactory to the reader as is the printed page, but it must be admitted that it is an excellent substitute.

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Jean Watson to Mr. Ernest Newell, of Strathroy, was overlooked last issue. The ceremony was performed in the Congregational church on Oct. 18th, by Rev. T. D. Rayner. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. James Hoff, and was married in a travelling costume of navy blue serge and black velvet hat and carried a bouquet of white asters and smilax. Little Elizabeth Watson, niece of the bride, made a charming flower girl. She carried the ring in a basket of pink and white asters, and was dressed in white. The ceremony over, the party went to the home of the bride's uncle, where the wedding luncheon was served. The young couple spent a short honeymoon at Niagara Falls and are now building a home nest in Strathroy.

A LARGE GASOLINE TANK is being placed under ground in front of the old Rogers' Hotel which is being converted into a garage by the Williams Bros. THE Wyoming pickling factory has closed for the season after manufacturing 500 barrels of dill pickles from 140 tons of cucumbers. THE second of the four Chautauqua entertainments was given in the Lyceum on Tuesday evening to a fair-sized audience when the charming Morrison Girls edified their hearers with "Stories and Songs of To-day and Yesterday." The entertainment was one of an ever-changing succession of melody—a rich soprano solo, a vocal duet, a pleasing pianologue or a charming contumed reading. The four young ladies are of pleasing personality and the program they furnished met with the complete satisfaction of the audience.

BROOKE

Service will be held in St. James' church, Brooke, on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. There will be afternoon and evening services at Christ Church, Sutorville, on Sunday next.

Prior to their moving to their new home at Alvinston, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burford of Brooke, were pleasantly surprised when seventy of their friends and neighbors gathered at their home to bid them farewell from the community and to spend a pleasant time with them. The evening was spent in music and songs, during which Mr. and Mrs. Burford were brought forward and presented with a beautiful library table, while their daughter, Augusta, was presented with a ring and a box of chocolates.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson, Tenth con., on Oct. 20th, when about one hundred and thirty of their friends and neighbors gathered to bid farewell prior to their departure to their new home in Alvinston. A good program was provided consisting of music, songs, readings and speeches. An address was read by Miss Anna Vannatter and presentation made by Miss Reuberta Griffith. Lunch was served, after which everyone joined in singing, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The people then returned to their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Johnston many years of happiness.

A most enjoyable time was spent Thursday afternoon, Oct. 16th, at the home of Mrs. Duncan Campbell, when the Brooke and Watford branches of the Women's Institute, met to welcome the District officers, Mesdames Lawrie and Wells of Theford, and Miss Dier of Brooke. Mrs. Shugg, president of the Brooke branch, presided. An excellent program had been provided. The solo "God Send You Back to Me," sang by Mrs. Bennett of Watford, and the quartet "Beautiful Ohio" by Mrs. Shugg and Miss Clark, were much appreciated as also were the inspiring address by Mrs. Lawrie and Mrs. Wells, and the readings by Miss Humphries and Miss Dier. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which the hostess served a very dainty lunch. The next meeting will be held Nov. 13th, at the home of Miss M. Fisher.

The bride wore a suit of Burgundy with large picture hat. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride, where a reception was given them. They will reside on 9 sideroad.

There passed peacefully away on October 17th, on the homestead on 21st sideroad, Caroline Schroeder, dearly beloved wife of George Sitter. A week previous to her death, Mrs. Sitter, accompanied by her husband and daughter, Mrs. Millman, had returned from visiting their daughter on the Carberry Plains, Manitoba. She had enjoyed good health until the morning of Oct. 4th, when she suffered a paralytic stroke, from which she never recovered. Mrs. Sitter was of French descent, having been born in Zeelinger, Alsace Lorraine, in the year 1857. On Jan. 19th, 1869, she was married to George Sitter, and moved to this home in Warwick where she died. Besides her husband she leaves four sons and seven daughters to mourn her loss, Solomon, of Sarnia; Nicholas, of Warwick; Jacob, of Theford; Emmanuel, on the homestead; Mrs. Vern Allen, Stratford; Mrs. S. A. Wambaugh, Warwick; Mrs. K. Millman, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. H. Bullard, of Hart, Michigan; Mrs. J. Turner, Creelford, Man.; Mrs. H. Wilmer Steele, of Port Colborne, interment being in the Mennonite cemetery, Warwick. Her four sons, Solomon, Nicholas, Jacob and Emmanuel, and two grandsons, Manley and Lloyd Sitter, of Sarnia, acted as pallbearers. She was of a kind and loving disposition and by this, won many friends, who, with the family will sorely miss her helping hand.

The Late Miss Mary A. Waugh

The citizens of Watford were shocked to learn on Monday morning of this week, Oct. 27th, of the very sudden death of Miss Mary A. Waugh, teacher on the public school staff here. Miss Waugh had been enjoying her usual health and had carried on her duties in the school, in the church and in the home till the very last. On Sunday morning she was in her accustomed place in the Methodist church and again in the afternoon at the Sunday School where she taught the Utopia Bible class of which she was the efficient and much beloved teacher. In the evening she remained quietly at home. She had her two sisters prepared early for bed. She had scarcely laid down when suddenly and without the least warning she was stricken by the bursting of a blood vessel in the head. Medical aid was immediately summoned but to no avail. She very soon lapsed into unconsciousness and passed away about 3 a. m., less than six hours after she had retired, apparently in perfect health. Miss Waugh was a daughter of the late Henry and Christina Waugh, very highly esteemed citizens who spent most of their married life in Warwick township, she is survived by five sisters, Mrs. J. Temple, of Watford; Mrs. D. Falloon, of Warwick; Mrs. Marshall Pegg of Tupperville, and Misses Lena and Tena at home, also two brothers, Dr. Fred and John, both of Imperial, Sask. Dec. 21st, 1865. She qualified as a teacher and followed that profession for nearly 34 years during which time she taught at Utotexer, Matlock, Wanstead, Brooke, Warwick village, and for the past ten years in Watford public school. In every section she was held in the highest esteem not only as a teacher of marked ability and success, but as a woman of wonderful strength of character. While Miss Waugh was still a very young girl she was converted to God and became a member of the Methodist church. She was a most beautiful christian and a consistent member of the church of her choice where she gave constant and noble service and very generous support. She was interested in every department of the church's work, and especially identified with the Sunday School as teacher and the Epworth League, of which she had frequently been president. At the time of her death she held the office of Sec.-Treas., of the Strathroy District Epworth League. She was the friend of all, the counsellor of many, the cherished companion of young and middle-aged alike, the inspiration especially of Ler Utopia Bible class of young ladies, the comfort and mainstay of the home. "She ceased at once to labor and to live." Surely "In the midst of life we are in death." It may be truly said that "She rests from her labors and her works do follow her." The funeral service will be held on Friday afternoon from her late home on John street. Service at 1.30 o'clock. Interment in the family plot at the Methodist cemetery, Warwick Village. Services will be in charge of her pastor, Rev. A. C. Tiffin. Anthony Gilroy, one of Alvinston's oldest and most respected citizens, died on Thursday last after an illness of several months. He was 89 years old and is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

Canadian Boys for service on the sea.

Canada's future is bound up in its export trade and depends much upon Merchant Marine. It is vitally necessary that the Dominion should provide qualified sailors. The Navy League of Canada is giving the younger generation of Canadians the opportunity for free training in seamanship, and business men are agreed that the value of this work cannot be over estimated.

The success of the Boy's Naval Brigades hangs on the generosity of public support. It is important to every Canadian that this movement should not be handicapped by lack of funds. Public spirited citizens are called upon for a generous response to the Navy League appeal through the Nelson Day Campaign. The local campaign will open in a few days and the local Navy League canvassers will call on you. In addition to the demands of the Naval Brigades the Navy League has to finance its Sailors homes and Institutes in Canadian ports. All the money raised through the Nelson Day Campaign will be spent in Canada.

HALF the troubles and miseries in this life would be smoothed away if we would put ourselves in other people's places and try to see things from their point of view. It is the great blank wall of self that hinders us.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

At the regular meeting of the Watford Board of Education held on Monday, October 27th, it was moved by E. D. Swift, seconded by Dr. Siddall, and unanimously carried, that this Board regrets exceedingly the death of Miss Mary Waugh, which removes from our Public School staff an excellent teacher and a devoted Christian lady. Our sympathies are extended to her sorrowing relatives.—D. WATT, Secretary.

Reorganization of 27th Regiment

Reorganizations of the 27th Lambton Regiment has started, with the dropping out of two captains and seven lieutenants. Saturday's Canada Gazette promulgates the retirement of Capt. N. D. Rougie and J. D. Waddell, with effect from September 5 last. These officers were appointed provisionally on a former reorganization of the unit, January 15, 1914 but did not qualify for their rank.

This leaves but three captains on the active list, while the establishment calls for eight, and no doubt Lieut.-Col. W. MacVicar has already taken steps to fill these vacancies from the junior ranks.

The lieutenants who go on the retired list are L. B. Morrison, E. D. Fletcher and A. C. Ellis. Mr. Fletcher was appointed before the war, and the other two in 1916, but apparently did not qualify. Four lieutenants resign their commissions in the militia: A. D. Williams, W. G. Connolly, G. G. Garvey and G. W. Towse. These are qualified and some of them have had overseas service.

Most Reasonable in Price

We have been successful in getting our big stock in early—and we feel confident that we can give you the best quality and latest styles at the lowest and most reasonable price. The manufacturers' prices are still running riot, constantly climbing higher and higher, with no prospect of even remaining steady. Shoe models such as the one illustrated, that we are selling at $10, are quoted today by the manufacturer at $13.00. For some time we have been advising our customers to purchase their shoes early. A great many have taken advantage of this and now see where they have saved as much as four and five dollars on each pair.

Come in this week and we'll show you the difference in price in our store and the city stores. There's a difference !

Payments

All cheques, drafts, etc., covering instalments are to be made payable to the Credit of the Minister of Finance. Official Canvassers will forward subscriptions or any branch in Canada of any Chartered Bank will accept subscriptions and issue receipts.

Subscriptions may be paid in full at time of application at 100 without interest, or on any instalment due date thereafter, together with accrued interest to time of making payment in full. Under this provision, payment of subscriptions may be made as follows:

If paid in full on or before November 15th, 1919, par without interest or 100%.

Payment of Interest

A full half-year's interest at the rate of 5 1/2% per annum will be paid May 1st, 1920.

NOTHING TO EQUAL BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Alfred Naud, Natagan River, Que., writes:—"I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Naud says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough lavative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colic, colds, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Watford Young Man Given Handshake by Prince

The London Free Press of Friday last has the following:—

Among those who had the honor of a handshake with the Prince of Wales, there is none prouder than the youngest member of the guard of honor, Robert W. Tiffin, son of Rev. A. C. Tiffin, of Watford, 16 years of age, was the guard's youngest, but that fact did not secure him the royal handclasp.

The Prince passed young Tiffin on his inspection and merely noticed in passing that he wore the general service medal ribbon. He passed, but glanced back and saw a blue ribbon on his right breast, the place designed for civilian decorations by army regulations. The Prince then turned and asked "What ribbon is that?" Tiffin replied proudly: "The Humane Society's life saving medal ribbon." "Have you it with you?" asked H. R. H., and Tiffin pulled his bronze medal out and showed it to the future king. The Prince then smiled and gave Tiffin a hearty handshake.

Pte. Tiffin declared last night that the Prince was "a good sport" and that he talked just like any other Canadian.

Reports from the Moravian town reserve state that there was not a vote in the "yes" column on any ballot on the referendum question on Monday, which goes to show that the Indians are not behind the white folks in striving to gain measures which are for the benefit of the country at large.

Mrs. Catherine Switzer, one of the oldest residents of Ekrid township, celebrated her 85th birthday last Saturday at the home of her son, Wm. Switzer, when eighteen of her children and grandchildren gathered to extend their congratulations and partake of festivities fitting for the occasion.

Interest on the Victory Bonds 1919 will be paid without charge at any Canadian Bank on May 1 and November 1, each year.

Harry Harvey, treasurer of Moss twp. who lives on the Longwoods road, was held up by two men who drove up to his store in an automobile and spent about half an hour in the store eating lunch. Several people of the neighborhood were in the store at the time talking over election matters. These took their departure one by one, and when the last of them had gone, one of the two strangers suddenly closed the front door of the store while the other covered the proprietor with a revolver and demanded his money. Although the revolver was placed within two inches of his nose, Mr. Harvey was not to be cowed but grappled with the man and was getting rather the best of him when the man at the door, with revolver in hand, started over to assist his companion. Being unarmed, Mr. Harvey thought it the better part of valor to retreat and ran to the back door and called for help. Left to themselves the hold-up endeavorers to open and rob the till, but hearing footsteps approaching they fled before they could accomplish their object, and jumping into their car drove hastily away.

Hick-Clark

An event of more than ordinary interest transpired in our midst on Wednesday, Oct. 29, when Miss Sadie M. Clark became the bride of Mr. Charles Frank Hick, of Brooke township. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, St. Clair street, by Rev. A. C. Tiffin, pastor of the Methodist church, of which the bride was an honored member. The bride was given away by her brother, while the wedding march was played by Mrs. Stewart. They were unattended, and only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The gifts were choice and suggestive of the high esteem in which the bride is held by a large circle of friends. The wedding dinner was ample and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hick left on the afternoon train for Toronto, on their return they settle down to the realities of wedded life on the groom's farm on the 10th line of Brooke. Their many friends join in congratulations and best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

FULCHER—In loving memory of my dear husband, Bert E. Fulcher, who died one year ago the 1st of November.

A year has gone, but none can tell
The loss of one we loved so well;
The trial is hard, we'll not complain,
But trust in heaven to meet again;
Not now, but in the coming years;
It may be in the better land
We'll read the meaning of our tears,
And then up there we'll understand,

FOUND GUILTY OF NEGLIGENCE

THREE YEARS' PUNISHMENT FOR MAN WHO ALLOWED A SERIOUS SITUATION TO DEVELOP.

Failure to take proper precautions has been responsible for many deaths, and is the cause of much suffering and hardship to-day.

Take the case of Wm. Dunn, 313 Gerrard St. East, Toronto, Ont. Mr. Dunn was a chronic rheumatic sufferer for ten years. Three years of that ten he spent in bed suffering indescribable torture. Picture the joy of this man on finding that Templeton's Rheumatic Capsules were restoring him to normal health again. Here are a few extracts from his letter to us: "During the past ten years I have been laid up with Rheumatism. One attack confined me to my bed for a year, and a second attack left me helpless for over two years. After I had tried almost everything, a friend got me a box of T.R.C.'s, and a few doses convinced me that I had at last found the proper remedy for my trouble. T.R.C.'s improved my condition rapidly, and I feel that had it not been for T.R.C.'s I should have been laid up for years. T.R.C.'s are certainly wonder workers. Try them."

A MILD PILL FOR DELICATE WOMEN.
—The most delicate woman can undergo a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills without fear of unpleasant consequences. Their action, while wholly effective, is mild and agreeable. No violent pains or purgings follow their use, as thousands of women who have used them can testify. They are, therefore, strongly recommended to women, who are more prone to disorders of the digestive organs than men.

BLACK AND WHITE

Vogue Launched by French Makers Still in Favor.

Afternoon Dress of White Crepe de Chine Heavily Embroidered in Front With Black Wool.

The imported gowns from that dear Paris are not pretty as to line and design—not even the most enthusiastic admirer of French creations can enthuse over the very short skirts and sleeves and the rather bunched look most of them seem to have—but they are decidedly interesting and, more than that, even they are different from anything we see hereabouts.

Now, for instance, says a fashion writer, comes a white silk jersey evening gown, and from Doucet. It is a charming thing with long lines so very graceful that it is distinctly novel.

While it is true most of the imported models seem to be rather bunched, it is also to be noted that they all more or less are of the one-piece or chemise type of dress. This particular evening gown is an excellent example, as it has nothing to break the long lines except a wide sash going twice around the waist and looping just at the hip on one side. The ends are finished with a heavy silken fringe and about halfway up the skirt are looped strands of white beads punctuated with large flat jet sequins. The yoke of the bodice is ornamented with the same sort of beads and jet so placed that they fall over the shoulders and thus form the sleeves, as there are no others. It is difficult to describe a frock of this sort for the reason that it is far lovelier to see than it is to read about.

All last year the French makers were busy launching a vogue of black and white, and the combination is still highly favored, as I find it exploited pleasingly in a Lanvin afternoon dress of white crepe de chine heavily embroidered in the front with black wool. This dress has the queer skirt distinguishing a number of French gowns by being so much longer in front than in the back and also by having most of the fullness gathered in the front. A black sash goes around the waist and falls quite to the hem in the back.

Indeed, the sash is an important thing on every gown, as it appears in many unusual and interesting arrangements, sometimes placed high up under the arms and crossed in the front and again in the back, where it loops between the shoulderblades and then falls the length of the entire frock. In this instance the sash is not more than four inches wide and appears on a Lige satin frock made with the simplicity of a little girl's school dress, falling long and straight from the shoulders, with only the little crossed sashes at the bust and in the back to hold in the fullness. The sleeves are very short, just the length we would call awkward, as they stop far short of the elbow.

GINGHAM AND MUSLIN LINING

Materials for Inner Finish of Coats and Capes Afford New and Improved Idea.

We hear of satin capes shown at the Paris openings that were lined with a soft pile fabric like duvetyne. These must add materially to the warmth of the garment, notes a fashion writer.

And have you heard of gingham linings? This is a new idea, but after all, why would not gingham make as good a lining for a summer cape or

Who would ever have dared to use unbleached muslin for the lining of coats and capes? No one in the world but one of the smartest of Paris dress-makers. Apparently this is merely a bit of daring, and not done in an effort toward economy, for the unbleached fabric is used to line the most gorgeous and luxurious of garments.

A Coated Tongue? What it Means
A bad breath, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, languor and debility, are usually signs that the liver is out of order.
PROF. HEMMETER says: "The liver is an organ secondary in importance only to the heart."
We can manufacture poisons within our own bodies which are as deadly as a snake's venom.
The liver acts as a guard over our well-being, sifting out the cinders and ashes from the general circulation.
A blockade in the intestines piles a heavy burden upon the liver. If the intestines are choked or clogged up, the circulation of the blood becomes poisoned and the system becomes loaded with toxic waste, and we suffer from headache, yellow-coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, nausea, or gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow skin or eyes. At such times one should take castor oil or a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe and jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly fifty years ago, and sold for 25 cents by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

TROTZKY IS DEFIANT
Great Battle Now in Progress for Petrograd.

Bolshevik War Minister Declares
That the "Pack of Bourgeois Curs Who Are Worrying the Body of Soviet Russia" Will Not Capture City, But the Reds Are Losing Ground.
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Petrograd is so closely invested by the anti-Bolshevik forces, according to the latest official advice, that military experts express the belief that little short of a miracle can save the hard-pressed Bolshevik. Indeed, one newspaper despatch reported Gen. Yudenitch's cavalry in the capital, but there is no confirmation of this.
Neither had Petrograd confirmation been received of the reported surrender of Kronstadt, although the War Office states that the Estonians on Friday, operating in conjunction with Yudenitch, got within four miles of the Krasnaya Gorka, facing Kronstadt. The Kronstadt would be in a dangerous position, as with the capture of Petrograd, it would be cut off.
Coinciding with these reports comes a vitriolic announcement by Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik War Minister, referring to the anti-Bolshevik forces as "a pack of bourgeois curs worrying the body of Soviet Russia," and declaring that Petrograd will not fall.
In the meantime, in the south, Gen. Denikine has been pursuing his successes. But he is meeting with strenuous resistance in the Orel region, where the fiercest fighting is going on.
Gen. Yudenitch's troops have occupied the station at Ligovo, about eight miles from Petrograd, according to a Helsingfors despatch to Reuters. They have also reached the railway junction at Putlov, a suburb of the capital.
A Helsingfors, Finland, despatch dated Sunday, reported that the red flag again was flying over Kronstadt and that the batteries of Krasnaya Gorka had been active Friday, the night long.
The following description of the situation in the Baltic is attributed to Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik Minister of War, by a wireless message from Moscow:
"A pack of Bourgeois curs is worrying the body of Soviet Russia on all sides. Polish knights are gnashing their teeth. The German general, von der Goltz, under instructions by the Stock Exchange and the off-scourings of all lands, is seizing the Baltic country with the help of monarchistic bands in order to attack Moscow from there."
"In the northwest, the blood-drunk trio, Yudenitch, Balakovich and Radziako, are advancing on Petrograd. The Estonian peace negotiations served as a means to lull the Red Petrograd troops, and as a night.
"The army defending the approaches to Petrograd failed to withstand the first blow and danger has again come to Petrograd. The British and French radio stations announce with joy the fact of our failure on the road to Petrograd. The Stock Exchange and the press of the whole world are sharing the joy and predicting the speedy fall of Petrograd. But they are wrong this time. Petrograd will not fall. It will stand. We shall not surrender Petrograd."
"For the defence of the first town of the proletarian revolution, sufficient strength will be found in the peasant and the workers of the land. Yudenitch's successes are those of a cavalry raid. Troops are being sent to the assistance of Petrograd, and the Polish workers, who rose first of all. We must break the skulls of Yudenitch's bands and the Anglo-French Imperialists."
An account of the rapid success gained by the army of Gen. Denikine over the Bolsheviks in Central Russia was given in an official communique issued from the War Office. A Bolshevik offensive campaign on an extensive scale against Tsaritsyn, on the Lower Volga, was opened, it states, on October 11. Operations were conducted on both banks of the Volga, and also to the westward of the Volga as far as the Don River.
During two days, it is stated, the Bolsheviks gained considerable ground. Then volunteers under Generals Warang and Ulagay delivered a sharp counter-attack, recovering all the ground which had been lost and inflicting severe losses upon the Bolsheviks. Further to the west the Cossack forces crossed the Don on a wide front and cleared the triangle of ground between Novo-Gri-gorievskaya, 55 miles northwest of Tsaritsyn, and Ost Medveditsa, 100 miles northwest of Tsaritsyn, taking 1,200 prisoners, with many guns.
Still further westward, the Cossacks occupied the line of the Kopper River, one of the northern tributaries of the Don, from its junction with the Don to Tishanskaya, taking the towns of Kalitchev and Pavlovsk, which lie westward of the Kopper between that river and Voronezh. Prisoners to the number of 2,150, including a complete field battalion, were taken, and another Red regiment was destroyed. Large numbers of prisoners were also taken at Orel and Otenigof, although the exact number has not yet been published.
