ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 4.—Bandits armed with sawed-off shotguns, held up a mail truck under police escort in the business district this morning, and escaped with a $160,000 payroll after killing John Enne, a postal employee, and wounding two other men.

John Quinn, also a post office employee, was wounded, and motorcycle patrolman Christmas, who was escorting the truck, was knocked from his machine when one of the bandits' cars collided with him. He was shot as he lay on the ground.

The bandits got away. It is believed there were 10 or more in the party. Four were counted in a green touring car. There were at least six others in a sedan, according to bystanders.

MAIL SACKS TAKEN.

The mail was being transported in a truck, with heavy wire screen sides. The screen was cut and the mail sacks were taken.

Hundreds of persons were within sight, but the bandits got away without interference because there were not enough fully realized what was taking place.

The bandits fled towards Newark. Police, picking up the trail from reports of persons along the route, picked up an empty mail sack and also found a machine gun.

LEAGUE BUDGET TO COME BEFORE MEET

Question of British Empire's Share of Expenses to be Discussed

Canadian Press

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Daily Telegraph says that the attention of the Dominion delegates to the Imperial conference, which opens here next Tuesday, is occupied with the League of Nations budget of which the British Empire accounts for a contribution of 258 units out of a total of 1,000 units. The empire's relative position in the new constitution where it occupies a single seat, seems even more remarkable than the League states, when one considers that it is in the same position as Salvador.

South American states have three seats, with 21 units, whereas Canada and Australia contribute 56, 36 and 27 units respectively.

FREE TRADERS AGAINST ANY DUTY EXTENSION

Ask For Abolition of Those Already Existing

PREFERENCE IDEA

Producers' Association Asking for Fullest Possible Import Levies

By HERBERT BAILEY British United Press

LONDON, Oct. 14.—A tariff battle, though of limited dimensions, is brewing as the Imperial Conference approaches. The free traders, who see in the conference an attempt to extend Imperial preference, are making speeches against any extension of tariffs. They want abolition of those already existing. The Chamber of Shipping has now entered the field, addressing a memorandum to the president of the Board of Trade in view of the near approach of the Imperial Conference, declaring that artificial frontiers, tariffs, prohibitions, vexatious customs regulations and discriminations are not economic in practice, holding up trade, and that they must be radically simplified.

They complain too that Dominion discrimination against British shipping owing to wage rates where there is no such discrimination against foreigners exists and that this obviously is directed against the labor regulations of Australia.

MORE PREFERENCE ASKED

At the same time, those organizations which are devoted to Imperial preference are calling for wider preferences. The British Empire producers' organization has drawn up a memorandum for the conference asking for the fullest possible import duty and preference on products of Empire in all markets.

The attitude of the government is that the Empire marketing board, with an asset to the business of begging and that his good leg was a debit. Malcolm Morris, 31, died a turnipet around his good thigh and put the rest of the leg on the railroad track. A train came along and eliminated the debit. Malcolm died, but before he died he said: "Well, maybe where I'm going legs or no legs won't make any difference. Anyhow I can't be any hungrier."

NEWMARKET, Eng., Oct. 14.—A girl jockey, Iris Ricaby, won the town plate today on Major F. B. Stapleton-Bretherton's bay filly, Stephanie. MISS JANE VAUGHAN'S MOUNT WAS UNPLACED. The race, established in 1665, by King Charles II., was over four miles. The stakes were only about £30, but the winning jockey and owner received cups presented by the townspeople.

PARRBORO, N. S., Oct. 1.—While the thirsty stood by with watery eyes local customs officers yesterday poured 1,900 gallons of smuggled liquor, valued at $12,000, down a sewer. BAN ON "PHANTOM" FILM IS RENEWED

Use of Troops to Escort Picture to London, Caused Protest

Canadian Press

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Renewed efforts designed to lift the ban on the United States film "Phantom of the Opera," the arrival of which, a year ago, roused a storm of protest in the press, because British troops were used to escort it from Southampton to London, have failed.

The British Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association yesterday voted finally not to show the picture. Representatives of Carl Laemmle, the producer, gave assurance that all parts of a film showing the British sort of troops had been turned over to the censor but the latter still stands by its decision made last year, that the use of the troops was brought about by a "clever, humiliating, advertising hoax."

EXCHANGE DISPUTE RESULTS IN DUEL

Frenchman and Britisher Have Pistol Bout and Are Unreconciled

Canadian Press

NICE, France, Oct. 14.—A dispute over foreign exchange provided the grounds for a sword duel between Count Paul De Villers, a Frenchman, and a former British army surgeon, Dr. Scallid Lewis. The Count was wounded in the ear during the third bout. The seconds stopped the combat, but the duellists refused to shake hands, and left the field unreconciled.

The two men were arguing about the dollar and pound rate of exchange. During the argument they said things to each other, which both thought could only be wiped out in blood.

OFFENSIVE PLANNED

In addition the captains will have in emergency of 207 department divers, given command over a shotgun and motor equipment force of 1,692 men—the army with which they are to carry the city's offensive against gangsters into the strongholds of the law-breakers.

Orders were issued to arrest all known gangsters on sight, and to kill any known gangster caught with a gun in his hand or in the act of committing a crime. Each captain was given a list of the leaders of the 14 major gangs of Chicago. On this list were the names of the gang chiefs and their lieutenants or associates.

Chief Collins also appealed to judges to close down on reports of habes corpus law-breakers.

"Within the last year," he said, in a letter to the Chief Justice of the Superior, Criminal and Circuit Courts, 482 writs have been served on me for the release of men arrested as suspects in many cases within an hour after their arrest.

"I am not in any sense criticizing the court, but in view of the present situation, we need more time to investigate the habits and modes of living of many men placed under arrest."

SQUAD NAMED TO CLEAR CHICAGO OF GANG RULE

Chief of Police Appoints Seven "Hard Boiled" Captains

TO HAVE 450 MEN

Orders Issued to Shoot on Sight Thugs With Guns in Hand

Canadian Press

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 14.—A squad of seven "hard boiled" captains has been selected by Chief of Police Morgan Collins to begin a sweeping round-up to free the city from gang rule. The order came simultaneously with information obtained by police that Earle "Hymie" Weiss, slain gang leader, was double-crossed by his own lieutenant, Patrick Murray, who himself was killed by those who were alleged to have paid him to "spot" Weiss.

This informant, whose name was not revealed, not only declared that Murray lured Weiss into the machine gun trap on North State street, but an automobile load of gangsters, affiliated with those who were alleged to have paid him to "spot" Weiss.

"DOUBLE-CROSS" EVIDENCE

This was the second tip that Weiss, who had accumulated more than a million dollars in alcohol dealings, had been double-crossed by his own men. A witness had testified at a coroner's inquest that he had seen Ben Jacobs and Sam Peller, both of whom were wounded at the same time Weiss and Murray were slain, fire point blank at Weiss after the machine gun had opened fire from a window. This version found no corroboration in other testimony, however.

The order of Chief Collins, issued after a conference with Mayor Dewey, virtually reorganized the detective zone squad system. It placed at direct command of the seven captains, who compose the new gangsters bureau, 30 high speed cars, manned by 80 squads, or a total of 450 men, with 15 lieutenants.

Winnipeg Man Held In Buffalo For Passing Worthless Check To Pay His Wedding Expenses

Canadian Press

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 14.—Mitchell Derck, 21 years old, of Winnipeg, Man., bridegroom of a day, is being held by police here on a charge of passing worthless checks to raise money with which to marry. His bride was Miss Novaro James, of Huntington, W. Va., who reiterates her love for the prisoner, and says she is confident he did not do wrong intentionally. Police say the prisoner has sworn to a statement in which he sets forth he found a cheque book on the floor of a restaurant, and that he drew checks from it in order to get funds for the wedding. Derck came to Buffalo several months ago. He had known the Huntington girl only a short time.

NEW HOTEL FOR QUEBEC PLANNED

New York Syndicate Offers $50,000 For Montcalm Market Location

Canadian Press

QUEBEC, Que., Oct. 14.—By the spring of 1928 Quebec will have a new 12-story, 400-room hotel, to cost over $2,000,000, on St. John street, where the Montcalm Market now stands, if a plan which was laid before the public works committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon goes through. Through their Montreal representative, New York interests offered the city $50,000 for the market, $5,000 to be paid immediately for a six months' option. Many of the aldermen seemed to be in favor of the project, but no definite decision was taken. The matter was finally referred to the finance committee.

TO DECIDE AT SPECIAL MEET THIS EVENING

Critic's Son May Be Called to Tell of "Parties"

ELDER PROTESTS

A. N. Nairn, in Letter to Press, Claims Words Not Quoted Accurately

Canadian Press

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—The Ottawa Collegiate Institute Board will hold a special meeting this evening to decide what course to follow in connection with the references made by Rev. Dr. Wyllie before the Presbyterian Synod of Montreal at Ottawa as to student dances. The principal of the Collegiate may also summon Dr. Wyllie's son, Gordon, a collegiate student, who in an interview yesterday spoke of older boys of the school drinking from pocket flasks in the basement. Gordon Wyllie may also be asked what he knows about the reports of so-called "petting parties," to which he referred in the interview.

A letter appears in a local paper this morning signed by A. N. Nairn, elder of Knox-Crescent Presbyterian church, Montreal, protesting that his remarks at the meeting here Tuesday, preceding the opening of the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa in reference to the conditions in the high schools of Montreal, were not accurately quoted. The letter follows:

SAYS MISQUOTED.

"Referring to your report of my remarks at our conference on church members (which was for invited members only), I am wrongly quoted. My children did not have a 'petting party' as quoted. As a parent I acquired a knowledge during their school college term (covering 20 years) that even in the best of school surroundings there were things to cause me to support the suggestion of Dr. Wyllie for a boys' resident school, controlled by the church.

"I have no reflections on the present staff or 'terrible experience' to give, and I would like to make myself clear on this point."

MEDICAL MEN OPPOSE DEATH FOR SUFFERERS

British Surgeons Not Willing to Take Responsibility on Shoulders

LONDON, Oct. 14.—British medical men, again thrusting out the problem whether they ought to kill hopeless sufferers from painful diseases, show that while many believe such killing justified, few would be willing to take the responsibility of issuing or executing a death warrant on a patient.

TWO ADVOCATES "People stricken with agonizing illnesses, certain to prove fatal, certainly should have the right to be put painlessly to death by their medical advisers. I strongly advocate legal euthanasia—death administered by a patient's own request—after all circumstances have been carefully considered."

WHEAT AND THE PORTS. About a year ago the Toronto Star printed a very illuminating series of articles on Canada's wheat and its transportation.

He paid most attention to that province and its people, and his criticism of the latter was certainly not flattering. He will doubtless hear from them.

THE TROJANS. In the match against Bermuda the Trojans' rugby football team showed that they possess all the makings of a good team, but just miss being that.

There are other considerations. The more grain traffic a port enjoys, the more money will be paid out for labor, for refueling, repairing, and in other ways.

There is still another important consideration. The export of that 142,000,000 bushels of Canadian grain to American ports was not only a loss to Canadian carriers and a loss of the expenditure in Canadian ports; but the Americans, as the Star points out, were able to use the traffic which we had created to help in reducing the cost of carriage of their own products and manufacturers to foreign markets.

MARRIAGE-SHY. (Westminster Gazette.) Many men have owed their success to marriages which to the outside may seem to have been the result of a stroke of good luck.

They were married in the days of the economic independence of women an important barrier to early marriage is removed, since it is often possible for the wife to earn a living as well as the husband. But for all that the present generation is more disposed to marry than were its predecessors.

Refering to the scrum: They pack far too high and too loose, consequently the ball is seldom headed cleanly and when carried is liable to get out of control. The front rank of the scrum has not learnt the knack of that momentary hold of the opposing scrum which allows the balance to break right or left according to the orders of the halves. They lack the "one long man" specializing at the throw-in from touch, but, on the other hand, several forwards appear to attempt too often one of his rarely exercised functions, the diverted pass, with resulting inaccuracy.

The halves do not take command nearly enough or instruct their scrum in every movement desired. Their passing was not long or accurate enough; though possibly they were hampered in not getting the ball clean from the heels of the scrum. It is that third half standing right off with the three quarters an advantage? The three quarters really showed up well though there was a tendency to cross the field and was a steady punting. Every three quarter should be able to kick with either foot. Passing lacked snap and accuracy and the art of picking up requires a good deal of practice.

There is very superficial criticism. There was plenty of excellent play, especially in the forward rushes and there is every indication that the Trojans have the material for a really high class team. The main fault lies in the actual scrimmaging and work out of touch. If this can be remedied—as it easily could in a very short time—the other faults would largely adjust themselves. If the Trojans' scrum can be taught to wheel, hold and break at the word of command from the halves, to lead smartly when ordered and if one tall man could be instructed in that special work at the throw-in the Saint John team might easily become one to be reckoned with in first-class football. Here's hoping.

THE FEATHER BOB. Bobbed hair for women is here to stay, says an Associated Press dispatch. In a few years a woman with long hair will be a curiosity and a relic of the past.

"Long hair is like the corset—it is a thing of the past," Miss Esther Johnson, first vice-president of the association, is quoted as saying. "Short hair is more sanitary and requires greater beauty because it is always better groomed."

A new type of hair dressing known as the "feather bob," is to the mode for this winter, Miss Johnson said. "The hair is combed straight back from the forehead and is cut so the crown of the head is the most noticeable part of the coiffure. Whether a woman wears her hair in a short or long bob.

"The very short bob is a passing fad, and during the winter I believe women will wear their hair longer."

"This new type of hair bob is particularly becoming to the plump matron. In fact, the woman with a double chin need not hesitate to wear it, for it brings out the youthful lines and lengthens the contour of the face."

Queer Quirks of Nature

THEY ALWAYS DID OF OLD AGE

By ARTHUR N. PACK

AGES ago, when the rough plain of western Alberta was a huge swampy delta on the border of a shallow inland sea, filled with weedy marshes and sluggish, muddy rivers, there roamed these thousands of strange reptiles.

Some were huge—30 or more feet in length, others were small and delicate, and all furnished food for the stronger ones. The carnivorous reptiles hunted relentlessly and the lives of the weaker ones were spent in dodging imminent death.

But there was one big reptile who went his way undisturbed by fear of death or the desire to kill. This was the "Dreadnaught Dinosaur," or "Palaeococcus," as he is called by scientists, and greatly resembled a big armoured plating war chariot.

He was shaped somewhat like an immense horned toad, broad and flat, with a long tail, short, heavy legs, and a small thick head. His covering was a thick, leathery skin, set with thousands of bony armour plates. Beginning at the neck and continuing along each side to the end of his tail, was a row of heavy, sharp spines, some more than a foot in length. His head was protected by plates and even his eyes and nostrils were heavily sheathed.

Even the Tyrant Dinosaur, the largest flesh-eater that has ever lived, was powerless to harm the Dreadnaught, for when he drew his legs under him, and squatted flat on the ground, he was invulnerable. All of his exposed surfaces were heavily protected by bone and spines, and he was too heavy to lift, and too broad and flat to be overturned.

So this big useless-looking fellow seems to have been one of the few animals of his time who lived in lazy peace. When hungry he chewed up leaves—and when any possible danger was near he merely sat down.

plains to his cronies, "My dear, I think it's just too terrible. You KNOW I never take a good picture." "Cheer up," says the cronies, "it might be worse. These pix will be informal, not Bertillon."

POEMS I

TO A POET A THOUSAND YEARS HENCE, by James E. Flicker.

THIS young English poet died in 1915; yet during his brief life he wrote many lovely lyrics, not the least beautiful of which is this imaginative piece. It will be preserved in all the anthologies, unless I am greatly mistaken.

I who am dead a thousand years, And wrote this sweet archaic song, Send you my words for messengers. The way I shall not pass along.

I care not if you bridge the seas, Or ride secure the cruel sky, Or hold consummate palaces Of metal or of masonry.

But have you wine and music still, And statues and a bright-eyed love, And foolish thoughts of good and ill, And prayers to them that sit above?

How shall we conquer? Like a wind That falls at eve our fancies blow, And old Musesides the blind, Said it three thousand years ago.

O friend, unseen, unborn, unknown, Student of our sweet English tongue, Read not my words at night, alone; I was a poet, I was young.

Since I can never see your face, And never shake you by the hand, I send my soul through time and space To greet you. You will understand. (Copyright, 1926.)

DINNER STORIES

"WE ARE slowly starving to death," said the famous explorer at the boarding house table, "but my festivity is sure to contain items of anything but a peaceable nature."

"I never saw anything pass off so prettily and calm as Bud and Harriet's wedding in all my days," said one of the invited guests a week after the wedding. "Why, there wasn't a single casualty excepting Bill Thomas' black eye, and we got Henry Morton off him without half trying, you know we did. There didn't seem to be any what you might call family feeling at that wedding, anyhow?"

"In my state," says a Kentuckian, "is a town so full of family feuds and quarrels that the account of any festivity is sure to contain items of anything but a peaceable nature."

"A recent wedding presented such unusual features that it was spoken of with wonder by all the inhabitants. 'I never saw anything pass off so prettily and calm as Bud and Harriet's wedding in all my days,' said one of the invited guests a week after the wedding. 'Why, there wasn't a single casualty excepting Bill Thomas' black eye, and we got Henry Morton off him without half trying, you know we did. There didn't seem to be any what you might call family feeling at that wedding, anyhow?'"

"Do you do your own stretching?" asked the puzzled mistress. "Stretching?" repeated the girl. "Do you put all the grub on the table and stretch for it, or do I have to shuffle it around?"

of self-denial for the common good, there is much of the opposite nature in their lives. To make popular idols of such creatures of clay is, as has just been said, a reproach to our sense of values. It is not a good thing to see tens of thousands struggle for a final glimpse of a successful automaton, and to have his name given unusual prominence, while really heroic men and women are permitted to pass away almost unnoticed and unused. It merely shows how unmeaning and unappreciating is the thing to call popular judgement. The situation is not bettered when one realizes that the next most profitable vocation is that of a prize-fighter.

Why Mother Should Not Try to Pick Out Daughter's Husband—Remedy for a Husband Who Criticizes His Food—The Problem of the Young Boy Who Refuses to Go to School.

DEAR MISS DIX—Don't you think that I have a right to some say-so in picking out my daughter's husband? Do you think that a girl of 20 is as fitted to judge a man as her mother is? Surely a girl of that age doesn't know as much about life as her mother.

DOROTHY DIX

But if there is nothing the matter with the young man except that the mother doesn't like the cut of his hair or the way he wears his hat, she has no right to interfere. No, she has a right to try to make her daughter give up the man she loves because he does not measure up to her worldly ambitions.

Probably every mother in the world feels that she could pick out a better husband for her daughter than the daughter can for herself. But this is not true, for happiness depends upon a woman getting the man she wants, and that is purely a matter of taste.

Mother can't even imagine what daughter sees in some ordinary-looking youth to make her fancy him above all the balance of the world. Maybe daughter cannot even see herself here. She only knows that there is something about him that sets her pulses thrilling and the joy bells ringing in her heart.

Mother feels that her long experience of life and her disillusion with matrimony would enable her to save her daughter from blundering into some of the mistakes she made. Therefore, mother would pick out for her daughter some staid, middle-aged, well-to-do man or some youth who has been left a fortune.

But daughter's heart is a better guide than mother's wisdom, for it is a notorious fact that the women who marry for money nearly always find that they lose the money, and have nothing to show for it but a pile of unpaid bills.

It is hard for mothers to realize that it must be "hands off" their children's marriages, but it must be so. When we pick up our husbands and wives we have a right to our individual choice and to make our own mistakes.

DEAR MISS DIX—I liked that article you wrote about the tactful wife, but how can you deal tactfully with a man who, if he doesn't like any dish on the table, pushes it to one side and makes faces at it? Yet he is always talking about how easy he is to please about what he eats. Easy I dread every mealtime, and am on pins and needles for fear of what he is going to do and say about the food. And the worst of it is that the children are beginning to imitate him and excuse themselves by saying: "That's the way papa does."

ANSWER—Well, Mrs. A. K., I think the best way to deal with that sort of a man is to ridicule him. Put him in a position where he will look silly.

I once knew a man who had as bad table manners as your husband and who when a dish was placed before him would say: "Do you call this bread or a slice of tombstone?" "Is this soup or dish water?"

His wife had some neatly lettered placards made which read: "This is Soup," "Potatoes," "Pie," which she attached to the various dishes, and one day when her husband sat down to dinner he found his food neatly labeled for him. Well, it cured him. Never again did he make offensive inquiries.

As for your children, tell them that, unfortunately, their father did not have the advantage of being taught table etiquette in his youth, and so he has the manners of a boor, but that they are lucky enough to be brought up under different conditions and that you intend to see that they do not go forth in the world with manners that will make them the laughing stock of every one with whom they come in contact.

Personally, I think that any woman is fully justified in throwing the coffee pot at the head of the man who criticizes the coffee.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have a son 15 years of age. He is a good boy—very quiet with a pleasant disposition. He is a junior in high school and is given every opportunity to continue his education. He helps with his lessons, but will not study and will not get up in the morning to get to school on time. Recently he cut school for two weeks, and when he was discovered said that school did not interest him and he wanted to go to work.

This has nearly broken my heart, as I am very anxious for him to receive an education. I have done everything possible to force him to attend school, but to no avail. Can you suggest anything?

ANSWER—There are some fine schools in which work and study are combined and in which the boys put into actual practice one day combined and in which the boys put into actual practice one day combined and in which the boys put into actual practice one day combined.

The danger in forcing a boy to go to school against his will is that he will acquire idle habits and fall into bad associates. The hoodlum gangs are made up of young boys who are playing truant from school. So, if your son won't study, the thing to do is to put him to work.

Perhaps when he realizes that the discipline of an office or a factory is more severe than the schoolroom and that a job gives him less time to play than going to school did he will be glad enough to go back to his studies. Or he may come to realize the advantage of an education when he ascends how much bigger pay envelope is dragged down by brains than by manual labor.

But don't be unduly discouraged about your boy. Because a boy has not what we call "book sense" and no taste for abstract knowledge is no indication that he lacks intelligence or will be a failure in life. Many men who achieve fame and fortune are not what we call highbrows, but are plentifully endowed with good, hard sense.

So my advice to you is to try to find out what your boy wants to do and then put him in some sort of a trade school where he can develop whatever talent he has. He will probably be willing enough to study along the lines in which he is really interested.

Alliance President Forecasts Inquiry Into Alleged Protection of Beer Maker

SACKVILLE, N.B., Oct. 13.—The N. B. and P. E. Island W. C. T. U. opened today's session with a good attendance. Mrs. T. H. McKinney led the devotional service. Mrs. George Wilson reported on finance committee which was allowed to stand as written. Miss Ally Patterson's report on L. T. L. work stated an advance had been made and that three new legions had been organized at Campbellton, Sunnyside and Salisbury.

GOVT CONTROL DISCUSSED.

Mrs. Coleman led an interesting discussion on government control in which several members took part. It was pointed out that illegal sales in Quebec in 1925 were 105 and in 1925, 1926, while money spent on liquor in five years was nearly $3,000,000, and about $2,000,000 in British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba.

Mrs. C. Edgar Cook gave a paper on government control as it affects Quebec, Manitoba and British Columbia. Rev. Dr. Thomas, editor of the United Churchman, gave an inspirational address on "Prayer" and closed the session with the benediction.

CONVENTION ENTERTAINED.

In the afternoon from 1:30 to 4 o'clock was given over to recreation and officers and delegates were treated to a drive to Fort Beauséjour, of historic interest and to other points of interest in Sackville and vicinity, and on return visited the Art Gallery at Mt. Allison University. Mrs. J. Sheldon, president of Sackville W. C. T. U., and Miss Foxwell, president of the Board of Trade, were responsible for the delightful outing.

On return to the church business was resumed and all were interested in the address given by Rev. A. Sutherland, president of the N. B. Temperance Alliance, who stated in part that the distribution and sale of over-strength beer constituted one of the greatest menaces to the moral welfare of the province. Many people seek for a beverage which is pure, healthful, and that it is the common belief that beer is being produced in the province. The Alliance, he stated, intends to fight out if it is protected and if the people move the actual facts.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the auditorium of the church. Dr. R. B. Liddy, of the University, was the chairman. Addresses were given by Rev. Dr. H. E. Thomas and Rev. A. Sutherland and the president, Mrs. Bruce. Musical and reading selections were given by Mt. Allison students. The choir led in the singing, Miss Kelly presiding at the organ. Mrs. E. Edgar Cook is the organist for the convention.

Miss Edie Pauline Bonnell, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bonnall, 40 Main street, and Dr. Ira H. Sutherland, of Annapolis Royal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sutherland, of Pictou, N. S., were married at 10 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. J. S. Bonnall officiating. The house was attractively decorated. In the living room, autumn leaves and dahlias were in profusion and the ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreen, in the dining room the color scheme was pink and white and the bride's table was centred with a beautiful wedding cake.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore periwinkle blue georgette and cut velvet, silver shoes and stockings and carried a shower bouquet of Columbia and sweetest roses. She was unattended. Mrs. H. T. Bonnall, aunt of the bride, supplied the music, and the bridal party entered the drawing room as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left by auto for Annapolis Royal, where they will reside. The bride's traveling costume is a fallie dress, with dove grey velour coat, fur trimmed and hat to match. They have received a large array of beautiful and useful gifts. Judges and Visitors Praise Showing at Annual Fair... EVESTS OF OLDEN DAYS RECALLED... Squire Johnstone in Reminiscent Mood—Prize Winners of Yesterday

In ideal weather, visited by crowds from the country districts, and a fleet of city automobiles, the annual Loch Lomond Fair was held in the public hall, near the Ben Lomond Hotel, yesterday, and was perhaps the best exhibition of produce, livestock, poultry, household work, etc., displayed at a similar competition in years.

The judges were a unit in praising the fair. John Frost, of Norton, examined the cattle, sheep and swine, also horses. O. C. Hicks, of the Provincial Government Department of Agriculture, judged the produce.

William Walsh, of this city, one of the experienced green grocers and merchants of the Haymarket Square section, gave valuable assistance to Prof. Hicks, of the government farm, in the produce judging.

Squire Johnstone was displaying an old time invitation to a Loch Lomond Fair, issued in 1865—indeed, an elaborate piece of the printer's art, and worded in the chaste language of that day.

CALDER URGES AID TO CURE N.S. DIFFICULTIES

Suggests Report of Duncan Commission May Shed Light on Problem

MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—A brief summary of the Maritime situation was given here today by R. L. Calder, K. C., Montreal, senior counsel of the customs inquiry commission, at the weekly luncheon of the Electrical Club.

Explaining that he was there principally because of his knowledge of the country, having been bred and brought up in the province of Nova Scotia, Mr. Calder contended that if Confederation was to hang together and not break apart, "We must know why certain sections of the country were lagging behind."

Dwelling at length on the progress of the various industries Mr. Calder expressed his opinion that the steel industry "has just simply laid down and died."

"This is also true of the weaving industry, also fishing," he continued.

NOVA SCOTIA IN DESPAIR

"These things are deeply felt by the people in Nova Scotia," the speaker declared, "and they are in deep despair."

"It is saddening and almost sickening to find that the average person in Nova Scotia is simply throwing up his hands and quitting absolutely."

The present status of Nova Scotia, Mr. Calder said, is due to the fact that Nova Scotia "got off on the wrong foot with Confederation."

The decay of shipping and repeal of reciprocity was also blamed by Mr. Calder for the "downfall."

Mr. Calder suggested that the Duncan report might shed new light on the solution of the problem, but as yet he had "not read it."

"The principal difficulty confronting us is the fact that we have got to persuade Nova Scotia that Confederation did no harm."

JOB IS TO FIND SOLUTION

Mr. Calder continued, "Canada has performed every one of its written obligations to Nova Scotia, but your job and my job is to find a solution for the present situation."

The promotion of trade in the various Nova Scotian industries with those in other provinces will do much toward this end, the speaker explained.

Admitting that there were a vast number of defects that had to be corrected by the people themselves in Nova Scotia, Mr. Calder urged that

TACKLING THE BULL

Tough babies, these football players of the National Farm School at Doylestown, Pa., instead of tackling dummy they use a bull.

Influence be brought to bear on their return to the development of lands and "begin all over on the farm."

SCHOOLS BLAMED

Touching lightly on the present day school methods, Mr. Calder said there were too many schools tending to direct the students toward white collars and glass top desks. This statement was made by him in connection with his previous remark urging a back to the farm movement in Nova Scotia.

Immigration came in for its share of the blame for the predicament in Nova Scotia, and "we have helped by our silly methods of colonization," he added.

Concluding, Mr. Calder said the colonization method was like taking a quarter out of one pocket and putting it into another.

Balloon Tires Unfit For Use In Desert

PEKING, Oct. 14.—Standard cord tires, instead of the special balloon tires tried out last year, will convey the motor transport section of the Central Asiatic Expedition over desert sands and mountain rocks this summer.

"The balloon tires sounded better than they worked," explained Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of the expedition, to the United Press. "Theoretically they ought to have been great stuff for the difficult country which we travel."

"But balloon tires turned out to be 'gas hogs'. They increased the friction of the tire surface so greatly that it trimmed several miles to the gallon off our mileage—a very important factor when all gasoline had to be carried hundreds of miles into the desert on camels."

PRICE-FIXING SUIT DEFERRED FOR TWO WEEKS

Proprietary Articles Trade Association Given Until Nov. 1 to State Case

OTTAWA, Oct. 13—Any action which the government may take in connection with price-fixing on proprietary medicines has been deferred for at least a couple of weeks.

Hon. Peter Heenan, minister of labor, has agreed to defer until the end of the month action concerning the alleged "combine" of druggists in Canada, in order to give the Proprietary Articles Trade Association opportunity to submit a statement on the report of the registrar of the combines investigation act.

On making his announcement Mr. Heenan points out that the investigation which preceded the registrar's report was an impartial one and took into account all sides of the question. During the inquiry the association had represented its point of view to the registrar and kept him fully informed of its operations. The information furnished by the association was fully considered before the conclusions were reached and the report published.

TO GIVE OPPORTUNITY. "At the same time," said Mr. Heenan, "I am anxious that if the druggists have anything further to say they should have the opportunity to say it as it does not mean any unnecessary delay. Accordingly I have given them until November 1, to submit the statement they have in mind. Every consideration will of course be given to any representations that may have to be made."

Bell Tower Moved Over 150 Years Ago

CRESCENTINO, Italy, Oct. 14—Big structures such as bell towers were moved about in this city without the aid of modern machinery over 150 years ago. The city is now celebrating the sesquicentennial of Crescentino Serra, an illiterate workman, who moved the huge cathedral bell-tower 19 feet in 1776.

Serra, knowing nothing about mathematics or engineering, performed the feat in less than two hours. So sure was he as to the success of his undertaking that he placed his son on the steeple ringing the bells as it was being moved, while the crowd of excited and cheering onlookers feared that the structure would fall any moment.

TRADE BOARD AT BATHURST NAMES ENVOYS

Delegates Selected for Saint John Meet; Duncan Report Asked

BATHURST, Oct. 13—At a special meeting of the Bathurst Board of Trade here yesterday, delegates were named to attend the meeting of the Canadian Board of Trade to be held in Saint John on Oct. 19, 20 and 21. The following were selected: Angus McLean, president; George Gilbert, J. L. Ryan, J. H. Dunlop, Sydney Desbrières, C. P. Ralston and C. M. Meseroux. As the board will be entitled to only one vote at the meeting, Angus McLean was named the official delegate. Mr. McLean is also president of the Maritime Board. The withholding of the report of the Duncan Commission was discussed and the following resolution adopted:

TEXT OF RESOLUTION "Whereas, the report of the Duncan Commission dealing with Maritime Province problems was presented to the Dominion Government on Sept. 25; and

"Whereas, Hon. P. J. Veniot, member-elect for the county of Gloucester, N. B., and Postmaster-General in the federal cabinet, is reported as having said at a banquet tendered him in Saint John on Sept. 30 by the Young Men's Liberal Association that the report was before the government and would be dealt with without delay, and that he had the promise of the Premier of Canada that he would leave no stone unturned in an effort to remedy existing conditions in the Maritime; and

"Whereas, the advice received from the Under-Secretary of State is that by direction of the Prime Minister the report in question will not be published until it is laid before parliament; and

"Whereas, several members of the Bathurst Board of Trade gave evidence before the Duncan Commission and made suggestions which, if carried out, would greatly improve conditions in Bathurst and surrounding districts and help to remove existing dissatisfaction; therefore

"Be it resolved, that the Bathurst Board of Trade in special meeting assembled strongly urges that the contents of the report of the Duncan Commission be made known to the public immediately, and considers that the further withholding of the contents of such report from the public might be construed as distinct evidence of lack of sympathy on the part of the Dominion Government with the problems of the Maritime Provinces, notwithstanding assurances which have been given to the contrary by various members from time to time; and

"Be it further resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Prime Minister, the acting Prime Minister, the Secretary of State and the Postmaster-General of Canada."

Yoshito Reported Ill; Court Doctors Deny

The Emperor has been nearly helpless from a combination of bodily and mental diseases for several years.

Cattle Evict Tenants When Landlord Fails

DESBREZEN, Hungary, Oct. 14—With the help of several steers Geza Waldman, a local butcher, was able to put one over on the Debreczen housing authorities.

In Hungary the laws protecting tenants against eviction which were adopted immediately following the war are still in force. Under these laws no landlord may evict a tenant without procuring for him another apartment just as good.

Several weeks ago Waldman bought a house in which several families were living. Wanting to use the house for a butcher shop and meat storage plant, he gave notice to all occupants. Instead of moving out the tenants went to court. The court ruled that they could not be evicted.

Waldman then bought twenty head of cattle and stabled them in the courtyard of the house. The bellowing of the animals by night as well as by day created such a bedlam that the tenants began to look for other quarters.

LIBRARY BODY ELECTS OFFICERS AT TRURO MEET

W. S. Fisher, Saint John; Judge Hewson, Moncton, Vice-Presidents

TRURO, Oct. 13—The Maritime Library Association has just met here for the election of officers and other business. The report of the president as to the progress of the agitation for district libraries during the past two years was read and adopted. An amendment to the Education Act of Nova Scotia was passed by the Legislature in 1923, authorizing the establishment of free public libraries in school districts, and the association now feels that the measure will become in due course effective.

In New Brunswick, the scheme has not received any support, either from the members of the assembly or of the government, but as the press and leading educationists were cordially supporting it, the association felt it was a duty to continue to agitate for it, particularly as that province was contributing less to educational books than any other province in Canada. A late Dominion educational report gave the expenditures for one year as follows: Ontario, $872,000; Manitoba, $87,000; British Columbia, $86,000; Saskatchewan, $72,000; Nova Scotia, $16,982; New Brunswick, $8,618.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

The election of officers resulted as follows: President—Dr. W. C. Milner, (re-elected); Vice-presidents—Nova Scotia—Dr.

A. H. Mackay, Mrs. Stanfield, New Brunswick—W. S. Fisher, Judge R. W. Hewson, Prince Edward Island—Miss Holman, of the Summerdale Public Library, Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. Mary K. Ingraham, University Library at Acadia.

It was arranged that a large general meeting of those interested would be called at Wolfville later this month.

SEEK EXTENSION OF PROVINCIAL HYDRO SYSTEM

Residents of Bay of Fundy Shore Want Current From Musquash

THE latest projected extension of the Musquash system is down the shore of the Bay of Fundy to Saint John and Charlotte county points, including Black's Harbor, Beaver Harbor, Lepreau and other points. It is understood a petition for the extension of the line will be submitted to the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission in the near future.

The building of this line, it is said, would serve a number of industries at present operating in this area as well as encouraging others to locate there. It is understood that about 200 contracts would be required before the work would be undertaken and those who are behind the movement feel satisfied these can be secured.

MONCTON SURVEY

Hon. A. E. Reilly, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission was in the city yesterday afternoon attending to some matters in connection with the operation of the commission. He said that arrangements were under way to have the survey of the electric development started next week. Good progress was being made with the construction of the concrete dam at Musquash, he said.

Trojans Trounced By Visitors In Hard Fought Football Game

Lost opportunities, a lighter scrim and failure to hold the ball when they got it cost the Trojans the game with the visiting Bermuda fifteen at the Allison grounds yesterday afternoon.

Play started promptly at 4:15 with Dr. D. C. Malcolm in charge of the game. Trojans rushed the ball to Bermuda territory and seemed to get away with it.

STUBBORN DEFENCE The Trojans again rushed the Bermudians to their own five-yard line but again it was a stubborn defence that baffled them.

EDMUNDSTON TRAINMAN IS KILLED ON N.T.R.

George Bellefleur Falls Under Cars of Fast Freight and Body Severed

PLASTER ROCK, Oct. 13—A shocking accident occurred this morning at Langley, a point on the C.N.R. six miles east of Plaster Rock, resulting in the death of George Bellefleur, of Edmundston, one of the brakemen on the fast freight operating regularly between Edmundston and Napadogan.

The fast freight had passed Plaster Rock about 7:30 a.m. and was approaching the switch at Langley so it could take the siding as usual to permit the passing of the Edmundston and Moncton express which would be soon discovered a short distance up of the track below.

There was no eye witness to the accident, but from facts obtained, it is presumed that as Bellefleur made his way over the tops of the cars, in passing from one car to the other he lost his foothold due to frost, and fell between the cars to the track below, where his life was immediately crushed out by the oncoming cars he had just passed over.

None of the train crew were aware of the accident until after the train had stopped to take the siding when they became suspicious that something had happened Bellefleur on account of his failure to carry out his duties at the switch. On investigation his body had been completely severed at the rear of the train where it had fallen across one of the rails. It had been completely severed by two parts by the wheels of the 39 cars which passed over him, he having fallen between the 11th and 12th cars from the front of the train.

ISLAND FALLS ROAD LATEST NAME OFFERED

Commissioner Frink Withdraws Suggestion for Avoca Avenue

MILL STREET GATE SITE DISCUSSED

Commissioners Recommend Fixed Valuation for North End Industry

Commissioner Frink this morning proposed the name of Island Falls Road for the street to be taken over from Murray & Gregory, but this failed to meet with the approval of the other members of the council and the matter will be further considered on Monday.

FURTHER VOTE ASKED.

Commissioner Frink, acting commissioner of harbors, reported that the drop at the steamer Empress berth, New Pier wharf, would cost more than was estimated, and moved that the estimate be increased from $8,000 to $8,200, to be paid from harbor revenues this year if possible. If not possible this year, to be a charge on harbor revenue for next year.

Commissioner Wigmore, in seconding the motion, said it seemed to him there should not have been this discrepancy in the estimate of a $200 job, but as the work was under way there was nothing to do but pay. The motion carried.

TRAIN SHED SITE.

Commissioner Frink presented a notice from the C. N. that the track changes due to the erection of the new train shed would require the moving of the crossing gates in Mill street. It was proposed, the letter said, to install electrically operated gates, and the case for these would have to be placed on the sidewalk, narrowing it about two feet at these points, and asked permission to make the installation.

The road engineer, G. N. Hatfield, reported that the gates would be located between the two hydrants and would not interfere with them. In his opinion the placing of the base for the gates on the sidewalk was not detrimental to traffic, but if it was thought wise the sidewalk could be widened about the hydrants.

The commissioner said he would present a resolution in connection with the proposal and bring it in at the Monday meeting. Commissioner Wigmore suggested that the sidewalk be widened in front of the depot as well. Commissioner Wigmore was given authority to purchase a section of track at a cost of $825 to replace one destroyed by fire some weeks ago, to be paid for from water maintenance.

FIXED VALUATION.

Mayor White recommended that McCormack & Zatzman be given a fixed valuation of $4,000 for a term of five years on their property, Strait Shore, which it was proposed to use in preparing bids for export, with the privilege of renewing for a further term of five years at the expiration of that period. Carried. His Worship said he understood they would employ 25 to 30 hands in the factory.

FOR STREET NAME.

Commissioner Frink moved that the name of the street to be taken over from Murray & Gregory be known as the Island Falls Road. The commissioner said he had first suggested Avoca Avenue, but this had been regarded as too romantic and after consultation with some of the "aborigines" who wanted something that was "up and going" had decided to recommend Island Falls Road.

Mayor White said this did not strike him as a good name, the falls never having been known as Island Falls. Further consideration was deferred until the next meeting.

On motion of Commissioner Frink the harbor department was authorized to purchase 7,000 feet of timber for repairs to the Pettigill and New Pier wharves.

Commissioner Frink reported that he had looked into the complaint of George Ballantyne that the falling wall at 298 Duke street was falling in on his property and damaging and found the complaint was justified. He recommended that repairs be made by the public works department if the council would provide the money. The commissioner said he had recommended this wall two years ago, but the council had refused to grant the money. This was only one of many and he felt the city was liable in case of damage to life or property. The only way they could be looked after was by a bond issue. The report was adopted.

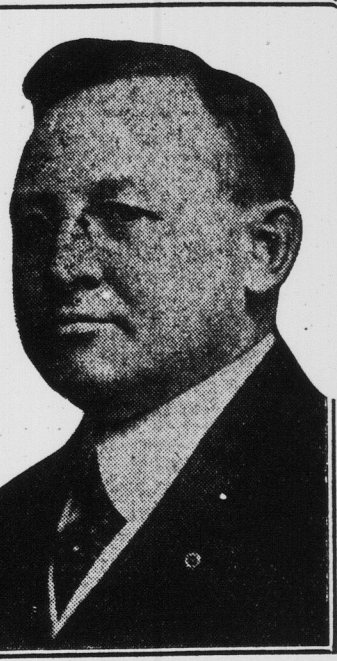

On motion of Commissioner Harding he was authorized to purchase a charger for the electric fire alarm batteries at a cost of $220.50, to be paid for from appropriation, and to call for tenders for 475 yards of blue serge for uniforms.

Mayor White reported that he had written to the chairman of the Board of School Trustees, asking if the remarks credited to A. G. Leavitt at a meeting of the vocational committee, criticizing the council, had been an expression of his own opinion, or if he was speaking for the board. To this a reply had been received from Dr. L. M. Curran, chairman, saying that so far as he was aware no member of vocational committee or school board had made any remarks along that line.

PLANNING NOW FOR RECALL OF MAYOR WHITE

Petition Out Soon Is Report—Question of Number of Elections

Recall of Mayor White is in the air, it was declared today. It was said this morning that a petition to this end would soon be ready for circulation. The definite grounds on which the action was being based were not stated. In connection with the recall of the four commissioners there is different opinion as to whether it will be necessary to have more than one election. Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, City Solicitor, yesterday gave his opinion that each of the four would have to be proceeded against individually.

Daniel Mullin, K. C., who drew up the petition for those behind the recall, said his memory was for a recall of Lellan and Ellwood were recalled on a single petition and that a precedent had there been established. Beyond saying this, he preferred to await the City Solicitor's report to the Common Council on the matter, and the council's action on it.

SAY NOT CANDIDATES

Several names have been heard in connection with the matter of opponents under the recall proceedings. One of these, George McArthur, said today that he had no intention to offer for the position of commissioner or for any other office. He was in favor of return to the aldermanic system of civic government and if the people wanted him at City Hall under that system he would be prepared to serve as an alderman without pay.

George Carvill, another mentioned, said: "I am interested in this matter of the recall solely as a taxpayer, anxious to see conditions improved in civic affairs, and have had no idea nor have I now any idea of being a candidate for commissioner. In the event of vacancies being created by the recall, personally I have not been approached. I wish to form a ticket, and I have no knowledge of any ticket being formed."

Made Quick Work of Restoring Service

A record in restoring city water service was made this morning by the water and sewerage department. Commissioner Wigmore said when in 15 minutes from the time a lack of water for Mt. Pleasant residents was reported at the office the full service had been restored to the householders there. As soon as the lack of water was reported the commissioner and a crew of men started for the Marsh Bridge to locate the trouble. They found it on Rothery avenue, just beyond the One Mile House and from the water flowing into the Marsh Creek, it was thought at least one whole joint had been blown out.

The water was shut off both sides of the leak and service to other parts of the city restored to normal. A crew of men is now engaged in digging down to make the necessary repairs.
