ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2, 8.20 a. m.--A delayed despatch to the official messenger from Liao Yang under date of August 31 gives some details of the three days' fighting from August 21.

GRAPHIC BATTLE DESCRIPTION. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2, 8.20 a. m.--No absolute confirmation has been received of the war office reports that Liao Yang has been occupied by the Japanese, but it is possible that General Kuropatkin decided to withdraw from his positions south of Liao Yang to the north bank of the Tatsoi River Tuesday night and the orders were actually given as stated in these despatches yesterday.

AN AWFUL SPECTACLE. "The sight was a beautiful terrifying one. Although we were masked and hands protected, the side of our hill was rent and torn by bursting shells. Dirt and dust and rocks filled the air, and smoke hung like a golden halo overhead. We watched the shells fall upon the ruins of a thousand year old watch tower, where they completed the ravages of centuries.

BATTLE BY NIGHT. "The fire of the Russians was not stopped by darkness. The scene became infinitely more beautiful as the hills were lighted by the glare from flame-spitting batteries which had been scarcely visible in the daylight.

RUSSIAN STEAMER SUNK. TOKIO, Sept. 2, 10 a. m.--Admiral Hovey commanding the third Japanese squadron, reports that last Wednesday morning a number of vessels weighed from Port Arthur and engaged in clearing away mines. The Japanese watched their operation from seaward. At 2.15 p. m. a steamer struck a mine and was blown up.

FALLING BACK ON MUKDEN. PARIS, Sept. 2--The foreign office has no confirmation of the report of the Japanese occupation of Liao Yang, but its advice leads the officials to say it is probable that General Kuropatkin decided to carry out his original plan to retreat on Mukden. This plan, it is added, was temporarily abandoned, as Kuropatkin believed that the defence of Liao Yang would permit him to hold back the Japanese.

ACCORDING TO PROGRAMME. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2, 1.15 p. m.--No absolute confirmation has been received of the war office reports that Liao Yang has been occupied by the Japanese, but it is possible that General Kuropatkin decided to withdraw from his positions south of Liao Yang to the north bank of the Tatsoi River Tuesday night and the orders were actually given as stated in these despatches yesterday.

ST. JOHN STAR. ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 2, 1904.

The average daily circulation of the Star for August was 6,081.

STILL GROWING. The feeling of the Star management with reference to circulation for August is best represented by the expression "tickled." We hardly expected to make another gain during August.

After a slack week the first of the month, when a dearth of interesting news was complicated by a succession of picnics which depleted our staff of newshybs, we hardly dared hope for it. But after that first week, which was away below July's average, we pulled up rapidly, with the result that we are able to announce that the average circulation of the Star for August was 6,081, a substantial gain over our July and over every other previous month in the history of the paper.

The increase in the daily sale since the first of the year is 1,642, and since last August, 2,023.

A comparison of the circulation during the various Augusts of the Star's existence, shows the steadiness of its increase in popularity:

Table with 2 columns: Date and Circulation. Shows data from August 1, 1901 to August 31, 1904.

The daily circulation during the past month was as follows:

son of the immense area of Central South Africa. Like his brother-in-law, Lord Minto, he is an ardent but conservative imperialist, but there is no danger that he will impose his views upon the people of Canada.

FAREWELL TO VACATION. A canoe moored in the marsh-land, where the grass grows thick and tall; A paddle in the hollow, where the sunset shadows fall;

A skin across the water in the gleaming of the day; The white-throat sparrow's warbling of his sweetest minstrel lay.

And while I rest me, drifting with my dreams and with the tide, I hear the crickets chirping from the gloom on either side.

To me his sweetest music of September and his lore; And those answers from the shore; So I drift and dream and dream, and am joyous while I may,

Then sadly bid farewell to this my last vacation day! —St. Nicholas.

TWO GIRLS SUICIDE. One in Halifax, the Other in Montreal.

Family disagreement, a step-father flouting in the case, is given as the cause of the latest Halifax suicide, Mary Gertrude Garigan, a fine looking girl of eighteen years, complained of toothache yesterday and with this excuse purchased some carbolic acid, with which she took her life. An inquiry resulted in the verdict of "death from shock following carbolic acid poisoning, suicidal."

Detective Cole of the Montreal police, has been suspended as a result of an inquiry into the death of Mamie Lalonde, a Miss Lalonde had been accused of stealing and had confessed, but her employer said he would not prosecute. Cole then took Miss Lalonde to a hotel and procured writing material for her. She complained of toothache and Cole assisted her to get some laudanum, with which she suicided. Coroner McMahon severely censured Cole's actions.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Dominion Atlantic railway's steamer Prince Rupert arrived from Digby at 8.15 last evening with some four hundred and eighty passengers, the largest number this season. There were two, mainly portly portly farm laborers, about fifteen for the Toronto exhibition and a large number for the United States. The C. P. R. and Boston trains were held to make the connection.

Joseph Berry, the man arrested on suspicion of stealing $30 from a fellow workman in Fairville, was brought before Magistrate Mason on Wednesday. Berry explained that he had been drunk and did not remember what had happened. He was sent up for trial.

SILVER SLIPPER A BIG SUCCESS. A Large Audience Enthusiastically Applauded at the Opera House Last Night.

That St. John appreciates good music has been evinced more than once recently and the audience at the Opera House last evening, conclusively showed that efforts to bring high class opera to the city will be amply supported. The Silver Slipper is a good opera, would at once be the verdict of anybody who saw it last evening. The singing and acting are placed in hands which could and do do every justice to a good thing and as far as dress and stage setting, two very important points in comic opera, can go the management has done everything in its power to make a gorgeous spectacle. The Silver Slipper has neither more or less plot than the average of modern comic operas, but the stock of story is hardly noticed in the whirl of fun, music and dancing.

After the overture has been excellently rendered the curtain went up to disclose a beautiful scene, in the garden of Prof. Sir Victor Shallamar.

Victor, the first male part, is played by W. H. White, an astronomical enthusiast and after the opening chorus, he scores with 105 in the first stage of the play. "Tonight's the Night," Harry B. Burcher soon followed with a military song, he belittled his part as an officer in the household brigade. Perhaps the song most appropriate in this act was "Laughing by Harry Burcher, supported by the chorus, who sang in the arms of their lovers."

The leading role is that of Henry Bismark Hench, showman, cardsharp, etc. It was played by Fritz Edwards, and the manager of the show, who was there was sure to be a roar of laughter.

The first scene of the second act has a number of pretty scenes and plenty of funny dialogue, but the champagne dance was perhaps the greatest success of the evening. It was performed by six young ladies, in beautiful champagne colored dresses supported by a number of waiters in white aprons.

The dance was an artistic triumph. The lilt and graceful movements of the beautiful actress, who produced an effect which can only be described as a wonderful harmony of movement and color. The large audience encircled the dancers time and again and when at last the play was proceeded with they were not satisfied. The ballroom scene was the most beautiful of three beautiful scenes and the effect produced by the dancers was described as almost dazzling in its bold blending of the colors. George Tenney sang "The Girl and the Boy," a very pretty song, "Four and Twenty Little Men," Miss Marian Lawrence was responsible for much of the fun of the evening, while Miss Ruth Francis and Miss Golden ally supported their partner. To see Miss Lora Lieb, the girl from Venus was to understand the faithlessness of men to their earthly loves.

MONUMENT FOR SIR LEONARD. On July 21, 1886, at a meeting of the Loyalist Society a movement was started to collect funds to erect a suitable memorial within the city to the memory of Sir Leonard Tilley. Cricket. St. John Defeated. The Everett cricketers from Massachusetts, won the final match of their tour yesterday. St. John lost the toss and took the field. At first the attack was very successful and with the exception of Thorpe, who made 45 runs, the visitors found the bowling of Coq and Mussenden too good, as it was their inning closed for 31 runs.

When St. John went in, only two of the players seemed to find the bowling to their liking. F. R. Fairweather contributed thirteen and Coq was not out with twenty. Murray and Newman, the visiting bowlers kept the rest of the team from scoring too freely and the inning closed for 62 runs, giving the Everett team a margin of 19 runs, which as the second inning was not finished, won the game for the visitors.

In the second inning the Everetts made 78 runs, closing their inning when five wickets were down.

When stumps were drawn the home team's second venture had yielded 14 runs for five wickets. Coq bowled well for his team taking five wickets at a cost of 34 runs apiece.

A USEFUL HINT.

Then he said, encouragingly: "Down there on the left, my friend, is a farmer who wants men to help him thrash wheat." "Thanks, sir," said the tramp, turning to the right. "Thankie. I might have gone down that way accidental like."

LITTLEJOHN AGAIN.

Long Drawn Out Prize Fighting Case Will Probably Be Ended This Afternoon

In the county court yesterday afternoon the appeal in the case of Dan Littlejohn who was found guilty of prize fighting, was taken up. The evidence of J. H. Quinn, John T. Power and Rayman Baxter was taken, Police Officer Finlay was not well and as his evidence was necessary, the case stood over till this morning.

The case was continued this morning when the first witness, Deputy Chief Jenkins, said that an admission fee was charged to enter the Queen's Ring on the night of the fight and described the preliminaries to the contest. He told of the opening bouts. He described the preliminary to the contest between McLeod and Littlejohn. He then described the blow which knocked Littlejohn out.

To Mr. Ritchie—He said the second bout was a lively go. Taylor was laughing and talking. There was no blood. He did not think they were hitting as hard as they could.

Mr. Ritchie asked several questions with that the deputy chief, which were objected to.

The judge, who showed considerable knowledge of the tricks of the game, asked, if witnesses had stated, the contestants sprang at each other fiercely, why he had not stopped the fight before.

Officer Finlay, recalled in answer to Mr. Ritchie said that when the referee called this Littlejohn appeared to be taking advantage of the count. Detective Killen was then called by the recorder. His evidence agreed with that of the deputy chief.

Officer Caples testified along the same lines as did Sgt. Campbell.

The chief of police, who said he knew a little about boxing showed the judge a pair of boxing gloves which were the same as those used at the contest in question.

To Mr. Ritchie—He said he had used such gloves. He said he had knocked his brother down with such gloves, but not when they were new. The chief gave some interesting facts about his boxing days.

Mr. Ritchie argued that no case had been made out by the prosecution, but the case was adjourned until 1:30 this afternoon, when the case will go on.

If the case is finished this afternoon Littlejohn, if he gets off, will leave for Sydney, where on Monday he is expected to fight Foley.

The boys worked for the concern and were familiar with the fastenings of the elevator door, which was found open and near which they were standing when they were arrested. They also claimed that they found the elevator door open and were trying to enter it.
