Government Sending Casket Home on Special Ship Not to Touch at Dublin.

FEAR POLITICAL DEMONSTRATION THERE

Widow of Lord Mayor Collapses Because of Strain She Has Endured.

London, Oct. 28.—The government has refused to permit the body of the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork to be landed in Dublin, and has provided a special steamer to convey the remains to Cork.

The reason assigned by the government for not permitting the body to be landed anywhere except in the Lord Mayor's native city, was the "risk of political demonstrations which might result in the loss of innocent lives."

Mrs. MacSwiney Collapses.

London, Oct. 28.—A bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League today says: "The strain and anxiety of her husband's martyrdom has told very considerably on the lady, especially during the last few days. ## LEPROSY VICTIM TO BE REJECTED BY THE STATES

Patient Chose to Go Home to Azores Islands Rather Than Enter Leprosy Colony.

Boston, Oct. 28.—A man afflicted with leprosy was taken tonight in an ambulance furnished by the Red Cross to New York, where he will be transported on a ship sailing tomorrow night for his native home in the Azores Islands. The immigration officials endeavored to persuade him to accept transportation for the leper, who has been in an isolation ward at City Hospital, and finally accepted to the Red Cross.

Furnigate the Ambulance. Upon delivering the patient at New York, the ambulance will be driven into a gas chamber and disinfected, making it perfectly safe, officials say, for further use.

The leprosy victim, who had lived in the United States for about four years, agreed to return to his homeland instead of going to the leprosy island, the leper colony in Bazzard's Bay. The expense of his deportation will be borne by the Government, and the State will furnish transportation for his wife and child to accompany him.

PILOT ADMITS ERROR LED TO STRANDING

Captain Maurice Lepretre, in command of the ship, testified that the weather was foggy when the pilot came aboard at Quebec and that the ship struck after the pilot had changed her course.

Pilot J. Bengers supported this evidence and admitted that he had taken too small an angle to the north and had recognized his mistake just before the accident.

BIG DECLINE IN NORMAL SCHOOL ENROLLMENT NOW

Poor Salaries Paid Teachers One Reason for the Decline in Attendance.

TEACHERS MEET IN ANNUAL INSTITUTE

Two Hundred Pedagogues from Westmorland and Albert Counties at Moncton.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, N. B., Oct. 28.—The Westmorland and Albert counties annual Teachers' Institute met this afternoon in the assembly hall of Aberdeen School, with the president, Principal Arthur S. Robinson, Moncton, in the chair. About 200 teachers registered for the two counties.

Mr. Robinson gave the opening address and was followed by Mr. F. B. Stevens, who read a paper on "The Relation of the School to Present-day Problems." Another paper on "Home Decoration" was read by Miss Bess Parker.

Welcomed to City. In the evening the institute was formally welcomed to the city by Mayor Chapman, and an address of welcome on the part of the Moncton School Board was given by the acting chairman, H. S. Bell.

Dr. W. S. Carter, Superintendent of Education for the province, delivered an address dealing with the educational outlook in New Brunswick. He deplored the falling off in the number attending Normal School, pointing out that the number of graduates this year was more than two-thirds less than the previous year.

Standards in Danger. He feared that the educational standard of this and the other provinces was in grave danger unless some remedy for the prevailing state of affairs was speedily found. Dr. Carter maintained that the salaries paid teachers were far too low, and also strongly advocated that the pension granted be doubled. The organization of school trustees was also urged.

During the evening the Normal School entrance medal for Westmorland county was presented to the winner, Harriet Bannan, of Moncton.

MINING CLAIMS ALMOST SOLD FOR VERY SMALL TAXES

Owners Claim They Did Not Get Notice of Small Assessments Due.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—A wild scramble for mining claims in Northern Ontario took place at noon today, consequent upon a announcement by the Ontario Government that eleven mining claims upon which the taxes had not been paid were to be thrown open for re-staking at that hour.

Kirkland Lake Camp was all excitement as the noon hour approached, according to a telegram received by H. E. Wills, a prominent Toronto broker. However, the government at the last minute withdrew the properties in question from re-staking and saved them for the owners.

Much Work Done. The owners of the mining claims in question had informed the minister of mines that their properties were actual mines and heavy expenditures had been made on them in development work. The taxes, five cents per acre per annum, had not been paid through neglect or through the Government notices not having reached the proper persons, they said. The owners of the three Tuck Hughes claims, in the Kirkland Lake district, stated that they had spent over a million dollars in development. The tax arrears amounted to about $50.

KIEL CANAL TO BE FREE TO NATIONS

Germans Tell Allies They Intend to Abide Strictly by Peace Treaty Terms.

Sudden Change in Policy of Germany

Reversal of Policy Follows Sharp Message Demanding Release of Detained Vessels

Paris, Oct. 28.—Germany, according to despatches submitted to the Council of Ambassadors, will strictly observe the Allies' interpretation of the clause in the peace treaty providing that the Kiel Canal shall be free to international traffic. This is a reversal of the German Government's previous attitude under which vessels carrying arms to Poland were stopped.

Early this month the Council of Ambassadors sent a note to Germany demanding the immediate release of three ships loaded with munitions for Poland which were being held in the Kiel Canal by the German authorities. The note pointed out that Germany's attitude constituted a direct violation of the Treaty of Versailles, inasmuch as that treaty specified that the Kiel Canal is a free waterway for all nations of the world. Germany had taken the position that she was neutral in the Russo-Polish war and that therefore she could not permit the passage of the ships.

As a direct result of this, the establishment of the St. James Wine Company, carried on by L. A. Wilson, one of the most prominent liquor men in the province for many years and against whom there has not been a breath of suspicion of breaking the law, was closed today. Mr. Wilson stated that rather than carry on business under what he termed a "breath of suspicion of espionage," he preferred to give it up altogether.

BRITAIN SENDS SIXTEEN TREATIES TO NATIONS' LEAGUE

Subjects Range from Oil Agreements to Surrender of Prisoners by Russia.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Great Britain has submitted to the League of Nations for registration and publication sixteen international agreements entered into by her since the covenant of the League came into force last January 10, according to the advice received here today from headquarters of the League Council.

"These agreements," said the advice, "include engagements of the empire as a whole, and specific engagements of India, East Africa, and Canada. They cover such widely different subjects as the Anglo-French oil agreement signed at San Remo, an agreement on commercial relations with Estonia, an agreement with Soviet Russia for the exchange of prisoners and various accessions and denunciations regarding treaties which existed before January 10th."

"The registration of these agreements is in compliance with article eighteen of the covenant which provides that 'no treaty or international engagements shall be binding until registered.'"

Headed The Bankers

SIR FREDK WILLIAMS-TAYLOR

BOND "EMBARGO" FAVORED BY THE MONTREAL FIRMS

Sir Henry Drayton Explains Situation Satisfactorily to Leading Financiers.

PLANS TO MOVE THE WHEAT CROP

Opinion Prevails That There Will be No Re-establishment of Wheat Board.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Several hundred members of the banking, stock brokerage, bond house and other interests connected with the financial community here gathered today after close of business on the floor of the Montreal stock exchange, under the chairmanship of Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, general manager of the bank of Montreal, to hear Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, express his views on the necessity of continuing the so-called "embargo" on the importation and sale in Canada of overseas-held Canadian securities.

Approve Minister's Action. The meeting culminated in the adoption of a resolution, moved by C. Ernest Gault, approving of the action of the Minister in his decision to continue the restrictions for the present, and pledging him the hearty support of all branches of business through which the importation and sale of the securities would, in the ordinary way of trade, be effected. The resolution was carried by a show of hands, there being only some half a dozen dissenters.

Sir Henry, in reviewing the financial position of the Dominion, pointed out that a favorable trade balance of 151 millions in the first half of 1919 had been turned into an unfavorable trade balance of the same amount in the first half of 1920. With the existing difficulties in the way of marketing the crops, and the fact that they involve an influx of new money to the extent of over four hundred millions, the position would change almost overnight, said Sir Henry.

One Against Plan. I. W. Killam, president of the Royal Securities Corporation, expressed disagreement with the Minister's views. He said he was opposed to the principle of control in such matters, and gave it as his opinion that the exportation of Canadian products would be materially assisted by the acceptance of British-held securities in part payment for goods shipped to Britain. He further stated that he would be glad to see the premium on the United States dollar go much higher in order that the imports from that country might be discouraged.

The question of the marketing of the grain crop was touched upon by C. J. McCaig, of McCaig Bros. & Co., members of the stock exchange, and from Sir Henry's reply the meeting gained the impression that the Government was not considering the re-establishment of the Canadian wheat board.

Brothers and Sisters of MacSwiney Refuse to Accept Govt. Plans for Removal.

Then When Ejected Family Refused to Travel on Boat Going to Cork.

Holyhead, Wales, Oct. 28.—Sisters and brothers of the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork, who were forcibly expelled, with other mourners, from their railway carriage by police here late last night, as a result of a fight over the coffin of the dead hunger-striker. Members of the family objected to the coffin being placed on board a special boat, which would go direct from this port to Cork, and a violent scene ensued. The fight lasted five minutes. The coffin was placed on board the boat at last, and the steamer left for Cork at 1.07 o'clock this morning.

Refused the Boat. London, Oct. 28.—Relatives of the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney were officially notified on board their train before it reached Holyhead that the body of the dead Lord Mayor would not be taken to Dublin, but that a special steamer to Cork had been placed at their disposal. They refused to accept the arrangement, and did not accompany the body when it left Holyhead, says a despatch received here. Instead, they are declared to have crossed to Dublin on an ordinary boat.

BILLION DOLLAR LOAN IS SOUGHT IN UNITED STATES

German Tells Farmers and Labor He Has Been Commissioned to Secure Cash.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Labor leaders participated today with the representatives of farmers from all over the United States in a further conference to devise ways and means of obtaining credits for the orderly marketing of farm products. Failure to negotiate such credits, speakers declared, might result in the inauguration of a general crop heading movement until market prices would provide cost of production and a reasonable profit.

Want Huge Loan. A loan of a billion dollars by the United States to Germany was one plan laid before the policy committee. William W. Braner, of New York, who asserted that he represented the German government, asked the committee to endorse legislation by Congress authorizing such a loan to Germany. Mr. Braner said Germany was ready to purchase two hundred million dollars worth of agricultural products, immediately, on such an extension of credit. Mr. Braner said he held a contract with the German government authorizing him to secure the billion dollar loan and would have sole charge of spending it.

MRS. MATTHEWS REPEATS STORY OF HER CAREER

Charges Once More That Albert Robinson Slew Her Illegitimate Child Last May.

ABANDONED HUSBAND ABOUT YEAR AGO

Admits Robinson Was Good to Her and That She Deceived Him Many Times.

Special to The Standard. St. Andrews, N. B., Oct. 28.—The trial of Albert Robinson, charged with murdering the infant child of Mrs. Louise Matthews, is being continued here; it will probably last all week. The intense interest in the case by the inhabitants of the county is exhibited by the crowded court room, many faces being seen from distant parts of the county.

John T. Powers, detective of St. John, who worked the case up for the Crown, was on the stand today for several hours and gave important evidence as to many conversations he had with accused and Mrs. Matthews before the disappearance of the baby. He also said that he had seen the body of the child, which he identified as being the same shown him in court.

He also interviewed John Fitzmaurice, the acknowledged father of child, who denied any knowledge regarding the disappearance of the child, and the witness said his belief was that Fitzmaurice knew nothing of the disappearance of the child.

Mr. Matthews Called. Mrs. Matthews, mother of the child, was next called by the Crown and gave the same evidence when questioned by Attorney-General Byrne as given on her own trial. She was cross-examined by K. B. Hanson, representing Robinson, who brought out many facts regarding her past history. She told of being married when 15 or 16 years of age, and having six children, and staying with him in a camp for two weeks in January. She admitted that Cornish turned her out of his place at Upper Mills in November, 1919, on account of her condition. Then she asked Robinson to take her in. He was good to her and she treated her well, but did not want Fitzmaurice around. She described Robinson on several occasions by telling him Fitzmaurice was not coming to see her when he was coming every day. She admitted being called upon by Canadian immigration authorities, who advised her to go to Woodland and make up again with her husband.

MINERS BACK AT WORK BY END OF WEEK

Workers Get Two Shilling Increase and Future Wages Settled by Wage Board.

QUESTION GOES TO MINE BALLOT

New Agreement So Made That Toilers Will be Anxious to Increase Output.

London, Oct. 28.—The prospect tonight is that the coal strike will terminate by the end of next week through the miners' acceptance of the agreement arranged with the government under which the miners will get two shillings advance unconditionally until the end of the year, and in the future their wages will be settled by the creation of a national wages board.

In the event of any delay in starting the wages board, wages within the interval be settled on the basis of increase or decrease, according to surplus profits or otherwise from coal exports. Situation is Complex. This depends upon such complex calculations as to render it hardly possible for any miner to understand, therefore, in the ballot to be taken next Tuesday, and made returnable Wednesday, the miners must necessarily be guided by the recommendation of their leaders. The leaders favor a settlement on these terms. The agreement is skillfully arranged so that all concerned, including the coal miners, will be interested in increasing the output as in case of a decrease output the owners will be penalized by a reduction in their ten per cent. share of the surplus profits.

LIVELY DEBATE IN CONVENTION ON MARRIAGE TROUBLE

Charge That Catholic Church is a Political and Dangerous Force in Canada.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 28.—The marriage question brought out heated debate at this morning's session of the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec. Rev. E. Bosworth, of the Grand Ligne Mission in Quebec read his report. He protested against the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in Quebec. Priests there, he said supported the belief that sanction should be given to the annulment of marriages which had not been solemnized by ordained ministers, meaning the marriages permitted by the government in isolated sections of the country. Such should be just as sacred as those with the most elaborate ceremonies. Priests sanctioned the corruption of Protestants by Catholic girls, the purchase of Protestant farms by giving bonuses to French-Canadian purchasers, and reference was made to some of the "holly" holidays of the Quebec church.

Champions the Catholics. Rev. D. W. Terry, of Quebec, denounced the statements made. He championed the members of Catholic Churches in Quebec province, declaring that they led a moral lives as many Protestants, some even better. He was greeted by exclamations of "No, No," and "question."

Secretary Bosworth charged that the Roman Catholic hierarchy was not a purely religious organization but a political and a dangerous force in Canada. It had attempted to organize in Canada and permit the church to supersede the state in control of education. With regard to Rev. Mr. Terry's defence, he stated that Mr. Terry had been speaking of individuals, he was speaking of the hierarchy.

IRISH SOLDIERS IN UNIFORM AT LONDON FUNERAL

Four Soldiers on Silent Guard Beside Casket of Late Lord Mayor. Lord Mayor. PROCESSION ONE MILE IN LENGTH. Sinn Fein Colors in Abundance as Mile-Long Procession Moved Away.

London, Oct. 28.—The pontifical requiem mass for the late Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney in St. George's Cathedral today was attended by the lord mayor of Dublin, the deputy lord mayor of Cork and deputations representing the British parliamentary labor or party and various Irish political and civic organizations attended.

The casket was surmounted by wreaths and the hat which the lord mayor formerly wore as commandant of the Cork brigade of the volunteer army. The brassplate of the coffin bore an inscription in Gaelic, reading: "Murdered by the forger in British prison, London, Oct. 25, the fourth year of the republic. Aged forty years. God have mercy on his soul."

The channel rails and a large part of the adjacent floor were strewed with elaborate floral tributes, one of them inscribed: "A Soldier Comes Nearer Than a King to the Father of Christ."

The Right Rev. Peter E. Amigo, as bishop of the diocese of Southwark, in which the cathedral is situated, occupied the throne, presiding over the obsequies. The mass was celebrated by the Right Rev. Wm. T. Cotter, bishop auxiliary of the diocese of Portsmouth, assisted by the Most Rev. Kenelm, Archbishop of Simla.

Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne sat at the side of Bishop Amigo. There was rapt silence during the elevation of the host, and the services proceeded to the benediction. Then preceded by acolytes, bearing the cross and candles, the archbishop, bishops and their attendants, solemnly proceeded to the casket and gave absolution.

Spoke to Relatives. The services concluded, Bishop Amigo and Archbishop Mannix turned to the late lord mayor's sisters and brothers, who in turn knelt before the churchmen and received the words of consolation.

The acolytes, Bishop Amigo, Archbishop Mannix, the Archbishop of Simla and Bishop Cotter, followed by the clerical members of the cathedral chapter, slowly filed out to the cathedral choir's recessional.

Cork volunteers who formerly served in Mayor MacSwiney's command stood at intervals alongside the central passage of the church during the services.

The ushers and many of those in the audience wore buttonhole rosettes of Sinn Fein colors edged in black. The congregation filed past the coffin at the conclusion of the services, hundreds kissing the glass through which the pallid face of the lord mayor was visible.

Crowds in Street. From early morning crowds had stood in the streets adjacent to the cathedral awaiting admission to the office, and eventually the crush became so great that squads of constables were required to clear the way for holders of cards of admission. One Sinn Fein flag, its staff tied with black crepe was held by a party of men dressed in civilian garb near the door of the cathedral throughout the ceremony.

J. H. Thomas, Arthur Henderson, John B. C. Gray and Wm. C. Adamson, representing the labor party at the services. They were seated in the front row.

The Mayor of Fulham and several other English mayors also were present, as were twenty-one members of the Corporation of Cork, several members of the Dublin corporation, Count Plunkett, T. P. O'Connor, Jeremiah MacVegh, Jos. Devlin, P. J. Maloney, J. J. O'Kelly, representing the Gaelic League of Ireland, and P. J. J. Kelly, president of the Irish Self-Determination League of Great Britain.

The funeral procession, which was about a mile in length, started at 2:30 o'clock from the cathedral, marching to Euston station.

A priest at the head of the procession recited prayers. Great crowds lined the streets throughout the course of the march, preserving a respectful attitude.

The Sinn Fein colors were plentifully in evidence, but no banners were displayed. The whole procession was assembled and carried through without any trouble developing.

DRIFTING LIFE BELT MAY MEAN SEA TRAGEDY

"Lake Yamasee" is Name Painted on Ship Buoy Found at Pembroke, N. S. Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 28.—A life belt marked "S.S. Lake Yamasee," and a sailor's hardwood box, together with a sailor's jumper, has just been found on the shore at Pembroke about seven miles from this town. The life belt showed signs of having been in the water for some time, as it was badly broken and the cork was lost from several of the sections. Just how it may indicate is a mystery, as no report of the "Lake Yamasee" can be learned here. She was a United States shipping board steamer, built in 1918 on the Great Lakes.

Belonged to Lawrence. The sailor's box apparently belonged to Frank Furnari, of Lawrence, Mass., as it contained a number of letters from his mother, who signed her name as Salvatore Furnari, 72-74 Common street, Lawrence, Mass. They were addressed to him on the U. S. S. Florida, at New York. There was also some correspondence from several friends, and all dated during the latter part of last winter, or in the early spring. On the inside of the jumper was found the name of R. R. Ellen.

VITAL PRINCIPLES IN COMMERCE BOARD TO BE RETAINED

But There is Little Prospect of Any New Members Being Appointed.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—Reconstruction of the Board of Commerce along the lines prevailing heretofore, is wholly improbable. At the same time it is not at all likely that the legislation will be allowed to lapse.

The Privy Council will adjudicate upon the constitutionality of the board's powers, but what have been particularly attacked are the profit-regulating features of the act. Even if upheld on the appeal, it is highly improbable that this authority will longer be exercised on the ground that conditions are getting back to normal and laws of competition and supply and demand should govern.

Restraint of Trade. A part of the act, however, which it is believed cannot be allowed to lapse is that in regard to combines or restraint of trade. Either combines or price-fixing agreements are believed to flourish now to an extent greater than ever. Any suspension of restrictive legislation might be construed as an invitation to the parties to "go to it" as a time when the popular tendency is to suppress such illegal organizations.

The opinion is expressed here therefore that, while the Board of Commerce has ceased to function and is likely to remain in that state and profit-regulation will be abandoned, the authority over illegal combinations will be exercised and extensive investigation made into their operations.

METZ CATHEDRAL TO BANISH DANIEL

Prophet's Face Resembles World's Arch Criminal, it is Claimed Far Too Much.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The biblical Daniel may have been a first rate lion tamer, but the people of Metz are threatening to remove his effigy from the doorway of the Cathedral, where a cynical Germanophile architect endowed his conception of the prophet with the facial characteristics of the Kaiser.

During the German occupation of Metz, the resemblance of Daniel and the Kaiser was frequently mentioned but never in public, but as soon as the Allies restored the city to its rightful parent, the incongruity of having the world's arch criminal at the doorway of a Cathedral was criticized. The pseudo Daniel will probably find its way to the city's rubbish heap.

QUITS AFTER 44 YEARS. Fredericton, Oct. 28.—At the meeting of Board of School Trustees, held yesterday, the formal resignation of Charles A. Sampson, who for 44 years has been the efficient and faithful secretary of the board, was tendered and accepted.

FARMERS WILL LOSE HEAVILY ON THE POTATO

Crop Little More Than Half Its Usual Amount and Prices Are Down. AMERICANS LIKELY TO IMPOSE DUTY

Republicans Pledged to Put on Customs Duty Against Canadian Crop.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 28.—New Brunswick's potato crop this year will average about fifty barrels to the acre, according to figures given by Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture. The crop is harvested, he said, and is not more than 50 or 60 per cent. of the most of the usual yield in the potato growing counties. An average yield has been regarded as about 100 barrels to the acre in this province, but there are few if any cases where it has been approached this year.

Many Crops Failure. "There are many potato growers in Carleton and Victoria counties whose crops will not pay their fertilizer bills this year," said Hon. Mr. Tweeddale today. "They bought very expensive fertilizer, applied it too lavishly and now, even with a small yield to the acre because of unfavorable weather conditions, they are not receiving for their potatoes what it is figured it costs to raise them. A barrel, then, went potato crazy, and the losses the farmers in New Brunswick's potato growing counties will have to stand as the result of this year's operations will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars."

Predicts a Duty. Mr. Tweeddale predicted there will be a duty placed upon potatoes by the United States in the event of the Republicans winning out in the elections in the United States. "That is what the Aroostook farmers have been clamoring for," said Mr. Tweeddale, "and if Harding is elected they will soon have a duty placed on Canadian potatoes entering the United States. With a large crop in the United States the opportunity is favorable. The American farmers are demanding a measure of protection and they want to keep their money in their own country."

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion. Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Directly Zam-Buk is applied to a Wound or Burn, Pain is Soothed, Inflammation Disappears, and Healing Starts. Zam-Buk is so penetrative and so powerfully antiseptic and germicidal that nothing else has ever been known like it. This result is attained by the unique character of Zam-Buk's rare herbal ingredients and the scientific way in which they are refined and blended together. Zam-Buk first ensures that the flesh is medicinally cleansed before healing begins. For instance the cut, scald, burn or wound that is dressed immediately with Zam-Buk never festers.

GEN. BOOTH AT CANADIAN CLUB

Millions in Civilized Lands Little Better Than Barbarians He Declares.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, gave a review of the work of his organization throughout the world at a lunch tendered him today by the Canadian Club of Montreal. In describing the sufferings of mankind all over the world, he stated that in the many dominions of the British Empire there were millions of people who were not far removed from barbarism and who could never come within reach of education, science and the miracles of surgery and all the other blessings of civilization, which render life easier. General Booth pointed out that it was the object of the Salvation Army to help these unfortunate as well as to relieve the sufferings of the poor at home.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM DEALT WITH BY FRENCH

Cabinet Has Matter Under Consideration—Many Thousands Idle.

MUNICIPAL BUREAUS TO AID THE NEEDY

Officials Believe That Suspension in Certain Lines is of Temporary Nature.

By WYTHE WILLIAMS. (Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) Paris, Oct. 27.—The French cabinet has just ended a long session in which it is understood from an official source that the gravest problem discussed was that of industrial unemployment. While there is a tendency to minimize the danger of idleness, it was learned today that France is commencing the winter with 125,000 persons without work. They are distributed mostly in the clothing, metal, furniture, stone, cement and automobile industries, 40 per cent being from the clothing manufacturers and 30 per cent from the automobile factories.

M. Jourdain, minister of labor, explained that this was due to a slackening up of manufacturing and to certain restrictions on trade, but said that the crisis was foreseen and that preparations were made to find work for the unemployed in agriculture and in other industries. A number of factories have closed down altogether and many are on part time, but so far comparatively few of the idle have had recourse to the municipal bureaus which have been organized to give aid.

Shoe Factories First. The French shoe factories were the first to begin laying off hands. The prices of shoes and clothing are still rising and the curtailed production of these necessities is likely to send prices almost beyond the reach of the average wage earner. One of the first steps taken is to discourage the invasion of France by foreign labor, mainly from Hungary and other states in middle Europe.

The automobile industry is the greatest sufferer due to the presence of so many foreign-built cars obtained from old war stocks and the situation in this industry is not good. It is recalled that France at the beginning of the war had an employed army of 500,000 and during the height of mobilization in the last year of the war there were only 110,000 idle. Officials are of the opinion that there is now only a temporary suspension in certain industries and efforts will be made to have the idle factories reopen on part time.

HALF BUILT SHIPS TO BE COMPLETED AT HALIFAX YARDS

Government Will Get Them Out of Sorel Before the Ice Comes.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—The latest ship building news to develop here is to the effect that the two government ships, Canadian Forester and the Canadian Fisher, building at Three Rivers, will be taken out before the ice sets in and fitted out at Halifax. They will only be in state of partial completion when they reach Halifax. Each vessel has passenger accommodation and is designed for the passenger and freight service between Canada and the West Indies.

The C. G. M. M. stated today that they have diverted one of their largest and newest freighters to this route, namely the Canadian Conqueror. This vessel is of over eight thousand tons, and was constructed at Canadian-Vickers. She made her maiden voyage to Liverpool recently.

Trade to India. Whether the increasing government trade to India will develop a passenger traffic in time is now being discussed in shipping circles here. There have been several local inquiries for cabin space for India via the Atlantic. In this respect the Canadian Conqueror has only cabin space for four people. She is completely installed with a refrigeration system and is thus well adapted to the Indian trade. The Canadian Pioneer which opened the Indian route for the C. G. M. M. is at present in the Indian ocean.

Lecture Proved Most Interesting

Miss Christine Matthews Delivered Lecture on the "Men of the Stone Age."

Neolithic, Glacial Period, Palaeolithic, Chellean, Pithecanthropus, such words as those became as familiar as "cat" or "rose" when listening to a lecture delivered yesterday afternoon by Miss Christine Matthews, who, speaking at the Natural History Society on the "Men of the Stone Age," made her talk exceedingly interesting and most instructive to the non-scientific listener.

It was the first of the series of lectures arranged by the Ladies' Association of the N. B. S. and the new president, Mrs. William H. Shaw, presided. Miss Matthews, who is assistant to the well known anthropologist, Mr. of the Stone Age began by giving a short outline of the age of the earth, stating that Neolithic meant New Stone Age and Palaeolithic the Old Stone Age.

Old Stone Age. The old stone age is chiefly known from extensive European discoveries. The lecturer described the men of that age, and told of the varied and abundant animal life of the period. Most obtained their food by hunting and fishing, lived in open camps, rock shelters or near the entrances of caves, possibly in tents of skins stretched over frames of wood. They fashioned flint and bone instruments for hunting and fishing.

Ornaments, food, weapons and other implements were buried with the dead. Skulls kept open to bowls indicate the possibility of gruesome forms of magic and revenge as obtained among savage people at the present time. Miss Matthews told of the finding of various skulls, showing the development of man at Solutre, familiar to the unlearned in the study of man from Kipling's poem, where it rhymes with auto, there was found the skeleton of 100,000 horses. Evidently the animals were used for food.

prediction of the fine address which had been so greatly enjoyed by all. Other lectures in the Thursday afternoon course are to be "Men of Poland," Mrs. F. B. Ellis; "Men of Belgium," Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson; "Men of England," Mrs. G. A. Kubring; "Men and a Book," Mrs. John Sealy; "Plantation Days," Mrs. G. F. Matheis.

NEWSPRINT FROM FINLAND FOR U. S.

Paper Makers of That Country to Invade United States Market.

New York, Oct. 27.—Relief in the newspaper situation in the United States was promised by Hjalmar Gronvik, managing director of the Finnish Paper Mill Union, and Walter Grassbeck, managing director of the Finnish Cellulose Association, on their arrival here from Finland aboard the steamship Stockholm.

The paper mills of Finland, they said, turn out about 210,000 tons of paper each year, of which 45 per cent is newsprint, and it was their intention to open up a larger market in the United States. Eventually Finland's entire paper output would be placed on the United States market ready to meet all competition in price, they asserted.

TEN THOUSAND VOLUNTEER TO AID IF WANTED

Have Offered Services to Government in Event of a Tie-up.

MANY SERVICE MEN AMONG THOSE LISTED

Whole Families, in Some Instances, Are Available if Strike Comes.

By MARY HENKE. (Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) London, Oct. 27.—Thousands of men and women from all ranks of society have responded to the call of the government for volunteers in the distribution of food and other necessities in the event of a serious transport tie-up. The National Farmers' Union, composed of 20,000 farmers in all parts of Great Britain has offered the individual services of all its members to the ministry of agriculture. The aid of the farmers will be utilized in the transportation of fresh vegetables and milk to the crowded cities.

Three thousand women, all of whom have been in France, have been looked up by the officials of the Women's Legion and asked if they are ready for immediate service in case of a transport strike. The membership of the legion includes all classes of women from titled ladies to cooks. The members compose a reserve force for service in case of a national crisis, and almost all of them are qualified motor drivers. In case of mobilization the women would probably first be assigned to clerical work and if emergency arose would be utilized in motor-driving or in motorcycle units.

The women's legion reserve is the only one of its kind in Great Britain. Many of the former service women who have enlisted for strike service won honors for their activity at the front during the war outside the organizations which have volunteered as units.

Government officials estimate that a total of 10,000 volunteers are now enlisted for immediate service. A number are former officers and service men, but the majority who have enrolled for labor duty are men who have been out of work for months and if emergency arose would be utilized in motor-driving or in motorcycle units.

Few men from labor unions are offering to aid in what their leaders are denouncing as strike-breaking on the part of the government. The standing orders committee of the London Labor Conference, which includes several labor organizations in its membership, has declared that it is prepared to cooperate with the food ministry in the distribution of foodstuffs to strikers and non-strikers. Members of a fashionable men's club, including a number of well-known actors, have offered their services as a body for food distribution. Whole families have appeared at the offices of the enrollment agents to offer to aid the government in any way necessary. Many titled persons have sent messages to government offices offering the use of their motorcars, and women who have been enrolled as voluntary nurses by London hospitals have been notified that they may be summoned for duty at any time.

Fear Dock Workers' Strike. In its plans for food distribution the government is improving much over what it learned during the railroad strike last year. Officials acknowledge, however, that they are facing a much more serious situation now. Because of the threatened transport strike it will be necessary not only to provide motor transport for food, but to make a provision for unloading the supplies that come in at the London docks. A

IRISH IMMIGRATION CHARGES DENIED

American Consul Says He Visits Irishmen for United States Almost Daily. (Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) London, Oct. 28.—The United States restricting immigration from Ireland? Assertions implying that Irish immigrants are no longer welcomed in the United States, made by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland in the House of Commons yesterday, have received vigorous denials in American official quarters. Sir Hamar's remarks not only seem to have greatly excited American officials, who considered them impudent, in view of the issues of the election, but in some quarters there was the suggestion of a possibility that the British Government may have gathered such an idea for proposal to the American Government.

More Information Regarding Prices

David Magee and S. L. Emerson Give Reasons Why Prices Will Not Decline.

"The tendency of some people in certain quarters towards the idea that there will be a sudden decline in prices is certainly a mistaken one, and the possibility of such a slump for some considerable time very far from the question," stated David Magee, of David Magee Sons, Ltd., furriers, when questioned in the matter yesterday.

Maintain Present Level

"We have every reason to think that prices will maintain their present level, because if you go to the market to purchase, the prices are firm. There is practically no decline whatever in any lines we carry. The condition last spring was that stocks of skins offered were less than the average and there has been no chance to augment these stocks. The high cost of labor and lack of raw material are two things which will prevent any receding of prices. In our business you sometimes hear of a slight decline in raw material, due to speculation, but that cannot effect to any appreciable extent the price of goods, owing to the cost of labor. In fact, certain factories are not buying stock or manufacturing because material and labor are so high. An entirely wrong impression has been created and ever since last summer merchants have been endeavoring to meet the enormously high price of merchandise, although it is costing slightly more than last year. By individual store methods, as our article in our line costs more than it did last spring, and yet in many cases the prices have not been increased. Our business, however, has been very good, notwithstanding that weather conditions have tended to hamper it and we look forward to an exceptionally busy Christmas season."

From Hardware Standpoint

S. L. Emerson, of Emerson and Fisher, Ltd., when asked regarding the business outlook from the hardware standpoint, said: "We would hardly hazard a guess as to what the future has in store, but we can hardly see any chance of a perceptible reduction. It is well to remember that it took five years or more for prices to reach the present level, and as hardware lines generally can be looked upon as actual necessities rather than luxuries, there is little chance of any sudden drop, and probably it will take just as long for them to reach their normal level. Sheet steel and cast iron are the best of practically all the goods we handle, and the chief cost of these lines is the labor and manufacturing. Rather than a reduction in these two items, there has been a decided advance. Labor rates have also advanced during the last few months, and as far as we can see there is very little chance of labor being satisfied with a lower rate than the present one. Supply and demand govern prices just as much today as ever. The supply of steel and iron is just about what it was to eighteen months ago, and the demand must be equally heavy if the way our shipments have been coming forward by any criterion. Block sheets, galvanizing iron and tin plate ordered in November and December last year are still being waited for, and apparently the manufacturers have not been able to fill orders that should have been shipped months ago."

Lack of Material

Only this week we had occasion to wire a concern about a certain line that had previously ordered, and the reply came back to the effect that it could not be filled owing to lack of material, and there was no prospect of shipment until January or February next. Under such conditions, it is reasonable to expect any reduction in the price of such commodities? To continue in business we must have goods. To get them in the hardware line takes months, and it is necessary therefore to place our orders well in advance. This we have been doing and have placed many orders for spring goods at prices higher rather than below those of last year. Unquestionably, prices cannot stay where they are for all time, but until such time, however, as there is a sign of overproduction in the steel business, or at least a catching up with the demand, there is little chance of a drop. One of our foremost business experts stated a short time ago that, owing to the high cost of material, high wages and increased freight rates, prices would be high for a generation; and a man in such a position should be in close touch with market conditions."

FOUND DEAD ON KING SQUARE

Body of Charles Stewart Found in Vestibule of King Square Residence.

About nine o'clock yesterday morning the lifeless remains of Charles Stewart, a colored man, was found in the vestibule of a residence on King square. Coroner Porter was notified and gave permission to have the body removed to Fitzpatrick's undertaking rooms, Waterloo street and in charge of the deceased brother-in-law, William McAleer.

For some years past Stewart has been subject to epileptic fits and has frequently fallen in the street. He was seen walking through the King square near midnight Wednesday and it is thought that he entered the vestibule of the King square residence to rest and died while in a fit.

Shipping Men Enter Protest

Request That New Bridge be Raised Five Feet—Other Business Common Council

The height of the new railway bridge across the Falls, the proposed lease to Mr. Crosby of land on Water street, street repairs and issue of additional capital by the New Brunswick Power Co. were among the matters taken up by the city council yesterday morning in committee.

A delegation composed of R. C. Elkin, J. Willard Smith, F. C. Beatey and R. A. Jamieson, representing the shipping interests, appeared and asked the council to take up with the C. P. R. the raising of the new bridge about five feet. They were asked to protest in writing when the council should approach the proper authorities in the matter.

Motion Voted Down.

Commissioner Bullock's motion to lease to the Canadian Molasses Co. now under lease to James H. McParland for term of five years and six months at $20 per year was voted down, the Mayor and Commissioners Thornton and Jones voting against it. The appointment of Frank R. Blair as additional district commissioner at a salary of $1,200 per year was approved.

In connection with the proposed issue of $120,000 of additional securities by the New Brunswick Power Co. L. R. Ross wrote that this money was needed to pay for improvements and additions made since March 1, 1917. The matter of street work was brought up on an inquiry from Commissioner Bullock about Somerset street. Commissioner Prink said there were streets in the city just as bad or in worse condition and when the money was available the needed work would be done.

RUSH TO UNLOAD GIVES WALL STREET 600,000 SHARE DAY

Only Hopeful Feature of Day, Settlement of British Strike, Ignored by Dealers.

New York, Oct. 28.—Settling for both accounts which short offerings probably predominated, effected severe depreciation of quoted values on the stock exchange today, the reversal encompassing every important division of the list. The reaction was accompanied by the largest transactions since the early days of the month aggregating about $80,000,000 shares. Some of the more popular issues rallied substantially on profit-taking in the latter dealings but the tone at the close was irregular to heavy. There were no developments to account for the slump other than those which have done service since the period of deflation began, namely the money stringency and additional signs of backwardness in commerce and industry. For investment purposes, however, funds remain plentiful as was evidenced by the over-subscription to new capital undertakings.

Money is Unchanged. Money rates were unchanged, the bulk of the day's call loans being made on the per cent basis, rising to ten per cent. in the final hour when a sum approximating $20,000,000 was in demand. Most of the day's funds came from out of town sources, the same interests also making moderate time loans. The one hopeful incident of the day—a virtual settlement of the British coal strike—was utterly ignored, not only by the stock market, but by foreign exchanges as well. The London rate fell almost two cents, under yesterday's last quotation and new low points of discount were recorded in remittances to continental Europe, including so-called neutral countries. Oils, steels, equipments, shippers, motors and numerous allied specialties, more or less as named, bore the brunt of the break, but rails were relatively steady, a brisk advance in Southern Pacific being the final feature. All domestic and foreign issues in the bond market, including the Liberty group were irregular, a few inclining to heaviness. Total sales, par value, aggregated $147,500,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

TALK OF STRIKE SENDS IRON COMMON DOWN TO 49 NOW

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Common stock of Dominion Steel Corporation, which touched a new low at 49 this afternoon and closed at 49 1/2, excited the comment here today. Reasons for the heavy fall in the stock are generally as connected with the threat of a strike, which will tie up the plant, and the Nova Scotia Municipalities to come out. The general weakness of all stocks connected with the British Empire Steel Corporation merger is another reason. It is pointed out that the decline is not peculiar to the iron stock, but is shared alike and with even greater force by all stocks that were at one time—and even recently—prime favorites. Thus the paper group fell to pieces these days for no other reason than general money tightness and the listlessness of the buying public. Short selling is unlikely to be a large factor in the decline of iron on the market, though it may be a factor in small degree.

FOR WOMEN ASSEMENTS

Catechism For Canada's Citizens

Interest is Challenged by a Question—Daily Problems for Standard Readers.

Answers to Thursday's Questions.

1. "To go into executive session" is a motion that is made when the members wish all except members to withdraw. When this motion is carried, members who understand the significance of the motion withdraw at once without any further intimation of the wishes of the meeting.

2. A member of a society who knows the etiquette expected of him does not talk while another is talking, does not intrude his private affairs or the business of any other society in which he is interested on the attention of the meeting, does not interrupt a member who is speaking except to raise a point of order, or to raise a question of privilege, does not pass between the presiding officer and any member who has the floor, and never indulges in personal remarks or say or do anything which will excite bad feeling.

3. The voting by "silent assent" is the method generally used in approving the minutes. For instance, after the minutes are read the presiding officer says "Are there any corrections?" After waiting a minute he asks, "If not, they stand approved as read. They are approved." The statement "they are approved" is the declaration of the result of the vote which has been taken by silent assent.

4. In both Dominion and provincial bills becomes law by the same steps—first reading, second reading, committee, and third reading—the only difference being that in the Dominion House it must go through these stages in the Senate as well as in the House of Commons before going to the Governor-General, while in the provincial House it goes directly from the Legislative Assembly to the Lieutenant-Governor for his assent.

5. After the second reading of a bill, the bill is sent to a committee for full consideration and discussion of all its clauses. This committee may be a committee of the whole special committee. If the bill fails to pass the committee to which it is sent it is said to have been "killed in committee."

6. The province has the power to amend its own constitution except as regards the office of Lieutenant-Governor.

7. Great Britain gave Canada her Constitution, and when changes are found necessary, application must be made to the British Parliament.

8. Questions.

1. What do you understand by the "British Preferential Tariff?"

2. Does a Tariff serve any other purpose besides that of raising a revenue?

3. What is practically the only important matter in which Great Britain still claims her right over Canadian legislation?

4. Are there any political parties in Canada besides the two historical ones?

5. What is meant by the "Honorary Officers" of a society?

6. What is the usual procedure for the business meeting of a society?

7. What rights have the officers of a society over members during a meeting?

8. Study Problem: Should there be an educational test for immigrants?

9. With Our Southern Cousins.

One of the evil effects of the war which is not generally recognized is that Federal Ministers were granted by Parliament a practically free hand during that abnormal period, and that having exercised it freely by spending millions in various ways without informing Parliament until the Commonwealth was committed beyond recall, they are loath to return to the ordinary sound Parliamentary government now that the war is over.

Women Agreed On Ten Points

From Twenty-Eight Countries They Gathered and Settled on Reforms.

LYDIA KINGSMILL COMMANDER. (Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.)

London, Oct. 28.—When the representative women of twenty-eight countries agree to work for any given measure its success is assured. When they agree on ten points, we have provision of the social changes that the coming years will surely bring. Therefore, when we review the resolutions of the recent congress of the International Council of Women, at Christchurch, we feel confident that a resolution will be found for some of the most pressing social problems of today.

The great subjects considered during the two weeks conference, may be divided under the following heads:

The League of Nations.
A resolution fully endorsed the League and its purposes, emphasized the importance of including within it "as rapidly as possible... all fully self-governing states," and it urged the necessity of women being members of the Assembly and Commissions of the League.

Aiding Devastated Europe.
The women of all countries were urged upon to do everything in their power to save the children of the famine-stricken districts of Europe and to assist in the reconstruction of the devastated areas.

Emigration.
In view of the tremendous rush of people from the ruined countries to those which had escaped destruction, and the hardships often suffered because of lack of proper examination at the ports of embarkation, a resolution was passed urging the National Councils of the various countries to secure their Governments to establish a system of medical examination identical with the requirements of the port of debarkation.

Health Departments.
A call was made for a Bureau of Public Health, within the League of Nations, provided that in venereal diseases the equal standard between men and women be observed. It was also urged that there be closer co-operation between the various departments within countries affecting public health and between the Health Departments of various countries.

Nationality of Married Women.
The hard cases produced by the war, women finding themselves alien enemies within their native lands, were discussed and the various National Councils were urged to further legislation authorizing women marrying alien and domestic, if they so desire and permitting those who have lost their native citizenship to resume it.

Economic Position of the Wife.
Laws that make the wife dependent for her support on the good will of her husband were condemned. It was recommended that she should be legally entitled to a certain fixed proportion of her husband's income.

Endowment of Motherhood.
The Council pronounced in favor of the principle of the endowment of mothers in poor circumstances, to relieve the strain of anxiety to the mother and to ensure the health of the young generation. This was considered particularly because of the war wastage of life and the need of replenishing the population of Europe.

Three great principles were unanimously accepted:

(a) That the father should be sought for and identified with the child.

(b) That the child should bear its father's name or should at least have traces of doing so.

(c) That the child should have the right to be maintained by its father. There was a difference of opinion in

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:— Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

How long, oh thou Foolish One, wilt thou hearken unto the Bro-mides and their platitudes concerning the duties of a wife? For, have I not instructed thee that poisons are born out of a Husband is MADE? Yes, and made by the hand of woman.

Lo, Man is but the clay which a woman moldeth to her own ideal, and on which a wife putteth the "finishing touches." And a wise woman can make of her husband whatsoever she desireth; but a foolish one SPOILETH him first, and thereafter seeketh to "remodel" him.

Behold then! If thou MUST ruin a perfectly good husband, there be seven ways in which to spoil him, beyond all repair.

Lo, if thou wouldst transform an idealist into a lump of protoplasm, and a sentimentalist into a stone, I charge thee hang upon his neck, and cover him with kisses and caresses and "Do you love me's," and tears and jealousies, until he cryeth, in his heart, "I am SICK of love!" Yes, STUFF him with devotion!

If thou wouldst turn a courier and a gentleman into a boor, I charge thee always accord him the MOST comfortable chair within the house, and the tenderest portion of the steak, and the first reading of the newspaper. Yes, wait upon him, and pick up his coat and overcoat; droppeth; permit him to sit when thou standest, to interrupt when thou speakest, to walk two feet ahead of thee, and to kiss thee with his hat on.

If thou wouldst charge an Adonis into an elephant, and a Job into a dyspeptic, I charge thee feed him! Yes, cook thy fingers to crisp for the delight of his palate, enter to his appetite, and fill him with rare and tempting viands, until his soul is steeped in the flesh-pots of domesticity, and his vanity is deadened.

If thou wouldst transform a modest man into a peacock, I charge thee cover him with flattery and sing his praises, morning, noon and night, until he beginneth to think in his heart that Solomon and Apollo and Napoleon, in all their glory were but "also-rans" beside him.

If thou wouldst turn a brave man into a coward and an honest man into an hypocrite, I charge thee, trust him not; but suspect him, accuse him, and question him, without ceasing. For, if fibbing is the price of PEACE, he will soon learn the gentle art of lying, and the TRUTH will not be in him.

If thou wouldst transform an optimist into a cynic, I charge thee bully him and nag him; fill his mornings with brainstorms, and his evenings with cross-examinations and re-examinations, until he yearneth for another planet, that he may enjoy the quiet of the trenches.

If thou wouldst transform a toiler into a sloth, a Busy Bee into a drone, and a "Regular Man" into a parlor decoration, I charge thee lift all thy burdens from his shoulders and make his way through life a path of velvet. Yes, get thyself "dependent." Thus shalt thou cease to be his Rib and become his Backbone.

Verily, verily, ninety-and-nine per cent of an hundred are good, "matters" wherefrom a wise wife may fashion a perfect husband.

But she that maketh life too bitter or too sweet, too easy or too hard for him, ruineth her material.

Thus, are ninety-and-nine husbands out of an hundred SPOILED in the "making!"
Selah!

Mrs. Meighen Is Liked By Everyone

Wife of Premier of the Dominion is Devoted to Her Home and Family.

"Have you ever watched a beautiful rose unfold to the sunshine on a lovely morning in June, when the whole world seemed filled with joy? As each petal turned its face outward and one was able to look into its very heart, we wondered at it and loved our garden rose.

"I vividly recall my first impressions when meeting Mrs. Meighen some years ago, when she came to Ottawa almost a bride, wife of the then rising young barrister from Portage la Prairie, and my thoughts turn to our rose—the beautiful rose.

"One remembers so well those wide-open eyes, that exquisite color which could come and go with every thought, that girlish laugh, winning ways and, best of all, boyish spirit which looked upon the world as a friend.

Everybody loved her then and as the years have passed and jaw honours well merited, have come to her husband, a test for the wife of any public man—still one hears "Well everyone likes Mrs. Meighen."

"It was not her beauty alone which won our friends everywhere, but a disposition which could not hurt with an unkind thought or word, and that early outlook upon life has remained with her and she still believes there is some good in all.

"Every one who meets her goes away with the feeling they have a share of her good will; whether rich or poor, old or young, all are just interested human beings and she is glad to see and know them. And yet Mrs. Meighen is not what the world knows as a public woman for her little family of three lovely children, has kept her much at home, and "mother" is always there when needed; no public duty is so important to her as her husband and children, and to have seen her surrounded by them in the simplicity of their home life of contented domestic happiness was a privilege and delight.

"The premier and his wife believe in allowing their children, freedom to do as they please, and in their own way are the experimenters in indulging in from repairing defective wiring to raising chickens in the attic—ready for the coming of winter weather for the little family of three lovely children, has kept her much at home, and "mother" is always there when needed; no public duty is so important to her as her husband and children, and to have seen her surrounded by them in the simplicity of their home life of contented domestic happiness was a privilege and delight.

"There is a supposition that upon the Eve of All-Saints' Day the dead are allowed to visit their friends upon earth, to break bread with them and to remain with them until midnight strikes.

Will you not come, dear heart? To-night alone.

Of all the weary year, God's tender hand has opened wide the door.

And those between our mortal hope and fear.

See, I have swept the hearth and plied the fire.

Your chair once more in its accustomed place.

Will you not leave your heaven and turn your face.

For this one night, where I, who love you yet.

Wait you with wild desire?

Forgo one hour your heaven's warmth and light; there.

They cannot need you there.

As I, who only long once more to place My hand in yours, to see once more your face.

And feel your fingers lying on my hair.

Give me at least tonight! —Every Women's World.

HALLOWEEN TEA WAS SUCCESSFUL

Enjoyable Affair in Carmarthen Street Given by Sunshine Circle.

A most successful Halloween tea was held in the basement of Carmarthen Methodist church last evening, tea being served from five o'clock till seven.

The room had been most beautifully decorated in keeping with the spirit of Halloween by the young ladies of the Sunshine Circle, under whose auspices the tea was held.

Two long tables were tastefully arranged the full length of the room, while the purers had a table in the centre from the corners of which streamers stretched to the ceiling. Some 150 persons sat down to tea, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The following were the waitresses: Mrs. Weatherhead and Miss Ella Morrison; conveners, Miss Brown, Miss Earle, Miss Brindle, Miss Roberts, Miss Snellgrove, Miss White, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Brown, Miss Pierce, Mrs. McKim, Miss Miley, Mrs. Styles and Mrs. Bursay poured, and Mrs. Johnston and Miss Marshall were the conveners of the decoration committee.

"A Night Out" Now Musical Comedy

Was Among First Bedroom Farces—Other New Productions of London.

BY HUGH DRYDEN
Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service.
London, Oct. 27.—It is nearly thirty years since London audiences at the Mansfield Theatre roared with laughter at a farce adapted from the French (they were the fashion then) called "A Night Out." It was one of the earliest bedroom plays, though in those days we had not advanced (so far as staging an actual sleeping-chamber interior, with people getting in and out of bed (cor- poral) beds, there were several bedroom doors in view of the audience, and pretty ladies in "nighties" flitted about distractingly. Now the same hoary theme, with the same bed, has been turned into musical comedy, and is being presented at the Winter Garden Theatre. The adapters have certainly made a good job of it. It is a radiant and rollicking show, with plenty of beautiful dances, and an supreme comedian, Leslie Henson, who, as a diminutive, bespectacled sculptor, is brilliantly funny. The music is by Sir John G. Poynter, and the other clever people who contribute to the general joy.

Swear Word Censored

The most important of new productions is "The Right to Strike," the story of which is laid in Lancashire during a railroad strike. Another curious thing connected with this piece is that the word "bloody," used in an epithet, has been censored out of it by the Lord Chamberlain's Department, which looks after the British play-goers' morals. The obvious word was, of course, used nightly by Mrs. Patrick Campbell and Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," and the Lord Chamberlain held his peace. Why should he discriminate, people are asking against the word in the mouths of humble working-folk, after passing it over when used in a West-End drawing room?

A new play by W. Somerset Maugham, whose "The Unknown" has caused such controversy among the clergy and the laity, is promised for early production, though its theatre or date is yet unannounced. It is a comedy in three acts entitled "The Circle."

INDIAN SUMMER NAMED FROM OLD CUSTOM

The name, "Indian Summer," is of American origin. It is usually the pleasant weather occurring about the middle of November. It is said to be called "Indian summer" from the custom of the Indians to avail themselves of this delightful period for harvesting their corn. The tradition is according to Bartlett, that they were accustomed to say that they always had a second summer of nine days before winter set in. It is a bland and genial time in which the birds, insects and plants feel a new creation and sport a short lived summer as they shrink their feet in the ripper of the winter blast. The sky is generally filled with a haze or orange and gold intercepting the direct rays of the sun. This time is synonymous with the "Summer of St. Martin" of Europe, which derives its name from the festival of St. Martin, held on November 11.

What are Peps

Peps provide a new treatment for coughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from Pine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth these medicinal ingredients turn into healing vapors, which are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes. The Peps treatment is direct. Swallowing cough mixtures into the stomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is indirect. Peps are revolutionizing the treatment of colds and their price is within the reach of all. All dealers, etc. boxes. Send 1c. stamp for FREE TRIAL PACKAGE.

REASONS WHY LABOR LIKES THE LEAGUE

Samuel Gompers Sets Forth Attitude of Federation Toward Pact.

CALLS IT "LABOR BILL OF RIGHTS"

Sees in it the Only Hope of Peaceful Settlement of International Difficulties.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger, Washington, Oct. 28.—Labor's reasons for supporting the League of Nations were advanced in a statement issued today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. The statement was in response to a telegram from William A. McNamara, Carpenters' Union of Tulsa, Okla., asking for a definition of the position taken by the A. F. of L. Labor first of all is for the League, Mr. Gompers said, because of the labor section in the covenant of the League which the Federation president chose to call "labor's bill of rights."

"Labor holds," said Mr. Gompers, "amplifying this statement.

"According to the official pronouncement, that the League of Nations means a reduction of military and naval strength and a consequent reduction of effort and expenditure for those things. It means a reduction of the manufacture of munitions and means a great international effort forward those measures that make for the improvement of the standards and the health of the people in all signatory nations.

"It is pointed out by President Gompers that there are now forty-one nations that adhere to the League of Nations, the only nations of any consequence withholding their support being Russia, the United States, and Mexico. Mexico, Mr. Gompers added, has reversed the attitude held by Carranza regime and today expresses an ardent desire for membership as soon as that is possible.

"The League of Nations has been attacked from two directions. It has been opposed by the extreme reactionaries and by the extreme radicals. Somewhere there is instability and perhaps it is at both extremes.

is Only Hope of Peace.

"The League of Nations offers the only hope of the present for the peaceful settlement of international difficulties and it offers the best hope for the expression and fulfillment of liberal ideals throughout the world.

"It is but natural that reactionaries should oppose the covenant, for the covenant provides the best check reaction and the best avenue for the expansion of the ideals that have been forwarded and upward to better things.

"Extreme radicals oppose the covenant on the ground that the League means a stifling everywhere against change. That is a ridiculous statement. The League does provide the best possible check against turbulence and unhealthy outbreaks of destructive character, but it facilitates and encourages evolutionary development and progress.

"Every man, woman and child who has a sufficient sense of justice, the League of Nations as a great agency of liberation and progress, is a gateway to a better, higher and more just civilization."

Oil Burning Passenger Ships of Canada Steamship Lines to Go on Route.

Nagle & Wigmore, local agents for the Canadian Steamship Line, announce the company will probably operate an increased service to Havre and Bordeaux, France and Portsmouth, England, this season, if there is sufficient traffic to warrant it. The company expects to maintain a schedule of four sailings a month beginning in December. The winter schedule has not been made out as yet, conditions having arisen that make it quite impossible for the company to finally settle upon its plans for the winter season.

The company is considering placing in the service the two oil burning passenger ships "Kamorm" and "Mamora," giving a fortnightly passenger service from St. John to Havre, France, and Portsmouth, England.

Grain Outlook. The company is anticipating a considerable movement in grain. However there is a feeling there will not be such a grain rush to Europe as last year from the fact that England and Italy, heavy purchasers last season, are not rushing in orders to any extent as yet, not being in the market at the present high figure. There is a general feeling that the price of grain must take a considerable drop and buyers will not purchase until that drop comes.

Extra Freighters. The company will place many extra freighters in their service, in addition to the regular traffic and passenger ships, when grain shipments are in demand by the overseas governments. The uncertainty in the grain market is causing more or less delay in the issuance of the company's schedule of sailings and they are unable to settle upon anything definite at the time. Mr. Nagle, of Nagle & Wigmore, hopes to have some definite word by the middle of next week regarding the sailings for the winter, and also some idea as to what may be expected in the matter of grain shipments.

Wage Increases Not Regarded Possible

If St. John Port Workers Are Insistent Shipping May Be Diverted to Other Ports.

Authorized agents of steamship companies operating out of St. John during the winter season have received a notice from the Longshoremen, coal handlers and ship liners, setting forth their demands for increased wages the coming season and requesting a conference with their representatives on the wage question.

Increase Demanded. The Longshoremen ask for 30 cents an hour, an increase of 20 cents over last season's schedule, and $1.00 for grain and sugar. In addition to a reduction in the number of deals and bags in a sling, also increase in gangs to fifteen men. The coal handlers are requesting 90 cents an hour straight time and the ship liners 70 cents an hour.

If the men are to insist upon the advances set forth in their communication to shipping agents, then St. John may reasonably look for a tie up in Winter Park during this year. There is a feeling among the companies operating from this port that they cannot meet the new demands, and will not agree to the new wage scale proposed. If the different unions are insistent and threaten to strike if not granted their request then strike it will be. Shipping will be diverted to Halifax and Portland and the city will be the big loser.

Situation Today. The St. John representative of one of the largest steamship companies informed the Standard yesterday of the shipping situation as it now looks up, setting forth particulars showing the impossibility of meeting the increases being asked by the unions. He says there was a meeting of the opening of the shipping season, so much uncertainty attached to the traffic of the year as there is now. To begin with, he says, freight rates are lower than last year and expenses are higher than ever before. Freight rates have undergone a slashing of approximately fifty per cent during the year and cargoes are scarcer than before. Should there be plenty of freight for each steamer the boat would not be able to take full cargo on account of the coal situation. It must be borne in mind, says our informant, that ships leaving here for England must take bunker coal sufficient for the round trip. That means from 1500 to 2,000 tons of freight has to be left in bunker for the round trip. Coal for bunker purposes has advanced four dollars on the ton since last year and has added another heavy item of expense.

The coal strike in England has put many big industries out of business and as a result they are not importing as formerly. Should the coal strike be settled today it is doubtful, in the opinion of shipping men, whether there would be sufficient to meet requirements of the big industries now idle, before three months. Ships are leaving Montreal today with only half cargoes, therefore only half revenue to be received but the expenses are still at top notch. The exchange situation is also affecting traffic causing a curtailment in shipments abroad and hindering hands for steamship interests to overcome. Everything is working against traffic today and there is nothing to encourage the belief that shipping interests are to enjoy a profitable season.

Help To Locate Historical Sites

Matters for Boy Scout Activities Dealt With at Provincial Council Meeting.

The regular meeting of the New Brunswick Provincial Council Boy Scouts Association, was held at the provincial headquarters in the Globe building last evening. The attendance was a particularly large one, including the following from outside points: John A. Stiles, Ottawa, Asst. Chief Commissioner of Canada; G. Ross Marshall, President of the Nova Scotia Provincial Council; John D. Tothill, Commissioner from Fredericton; P. F. Watson, District Commissioner for Devon; P. Hargreaves, Assistant Commissioner for Sussex and C. T. Wetmore, Scout Master from Rothesay.

Next Year's Work. Several matters of great importance were brought before the meeting for consideration, the chief of which was the question of the extent to which the work should be developed during the next year and a committee will take all necessary action and report at the annual meeting in January. It was also decided that the Boy Scouts of the Province should co-operate in the location and preservation of historical sites as the Dominion Government is anxious to locate and preserve historical sites throughout Canada. The Boy Scouts in the respective provinces will be notified through their scoutmasters to this effect, and all possible assistance will be rendered to the government in this respect.

Considerable discussion with reference to the budget for the next year took place and the matter was left for a definite report at the annual meeting in January. It was also decided that the Boy Scouts should offer their services throughout the province to the Department of Health to do anything they could in the way of the public health service. A. C. Skelton, Provincial Commissioner for New Brunswick presided.

Men's Night At St. Luke's Church

Over Hundred Enjoyed Banquet Provided by Ladies and Hear Address.

It was men's night at the Missionary Institute at St. Luke's church last night. About one hundred and twenty-five men sat down to a splendid banquet provided by the ladies of the church. Long before the programme of the evening was begun, the room was crowded beyond capacity. After a pleasing musical programme, Mr. W. A. Stepler introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. W. B. Williston, of the China Inland Mission. His subject was "Personal Dealing with God." Mr. Williston explained that the China Inland Mission is a "faith" mission depending for its support entirely on voluntary contributions. He showed that in China faith is applied to the every day life of the missionary, in his administration as well as in the winning of souls. In illustration of this fact the speaker told the following story: Shortly before he left China for his furlough, the first furlough in eleven years, the order to leave the district came rather earlier than he had expected. In order to arrange for the work to be carried on in his absence there was the difficulty of a lack of funds to provide for the expenses of the work. Fifteen hundred dollars was required, and there was nothing on hand. Trusting to God, Mr. Williston left his field and started on the twelve day journey to the city of Shanghai. He found that the Superintendent of the China Inland Mission at that point had a fund of five hundred dollars which was not going to be used for a little while, but which would be required for other purposes later on and could be placed at Mr. Williston's disposal. He was present and he accepted the money being sure that God would provide the sum in some way, and sailed for Vancouver. Arriving at that city, where his presence was not expected by any one, he was led to go into the Central Post Office and ask for a letter. Strange to say, there was a letter there waiting for him, and it contained a note to the effect that some of his friends in the United States had cabled to Shanghai the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. God had answered the prayers of the workers in China and the needed money was provided. The speaker went on to prove that Christianity is not a creed, but a life. The large proportion of men in China bring up and educate their families on a capital of $500.00 or less. For this reason Mr. Williston lives as simply as possible using his surplus money, if there is any, in helping to educate boys, just as he himself was helped in his student days. After many interesting illustrations of his work, the speaker made a stirring appeal for men to decide for the Master's work. Some can go to the foreign field, some can do Sunday school work, but all can do something to help lead men and boys to Christ. Mr. Williston will continue his message to men on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

The last week day of the Missionary Institute at St. Luke's today. Mr. Williston will speak at three o'clock, at 4 o'clock and at 8 o'clock.

SUPERFLUITY SALE. A superfluity sale is being held by the Women's League of St. David's church at 250 Union street. The ladies are meeting with splendid success. The goods contributed selling rapidly and keeping those who are in charge very busy. Mrs. W. B. Bingham and Mrs. William Simonds are co-conveners. CONCERT IN AID OF BUILDING FUND

Under Auspices of Victoria Street Church Choir.

There was a large attendance at a concert held under the auspices of the Victoria street Baptist choir last evening. The programme was composed of readings by Vera Roberts and Miss Ethel McGinley, a song by ten little girls entitled "Nid, Nid, Noddings" a dialogue by four boys, entitled "Going East," and a sketch called "The New School Marm." Encores were frequently asked for and the entire programme was greatly enjoyed by the audience. Rev. George D. Hudson, pastor of the church, acted as chairman.

BLOCKED THE CHINESE. Shortly after ten o'clock last night there was a commotion on Prince William St. when two Chinese were seen to rush out of the King Cafe after a few young men who made a rather hasty exit from the place. After a short chase one young man was captured by the white coated almond eyed waiters. A policeman was called and the young man stated that while he had been in the cafe he had nothing to eat, did not owe any money, did not know who the other fellows were who left the place without paying for their lunch. After considerable discussion the affair was settled and the young man was allowed to depart homeward. The affair caused quite a group of people to assemble.

TOMORROW CLOSING MAGEE'S FUR SALE. The response to this week's sale of high grade furs and fur coats has been most gratifying to us, and we are sure so also to our patrons. Experience has shown us that many put off until the very last minute the purchases that must be made, and in some cases after a special sale closes you won't want this to be the case with this sale, so we serve this quiet little warning that our sale will close tomorrow night as per schedule. That means you will have today and all day tomorrow to secure your furs at far below present prices. D. Magee's Sons, Ltd., 43 King street.

River Steamer Was Stranded

Strmr. D. J. Purdy Grounded at Middle Island—Successfully Floated Again.

The steamer D. J. Purdy had a log caught in her paddle Wednesday afternoon and drifted aground at Middle Island, about 17 miles south of Fredericton. The steamer was en route from St. John to the capital when the tugs went to the rescue and the passengers were transferred. The steamer was pulled off the bar yesterday afternoon about ten o'clock, and reached Fredericton about six-thirty o'clock. The party was undamaged, the only injury being to the paddle. Repairs to the log stuck in it, and repairs to that were effected while she was stranded.
