WIE'S KOMMT, SO IST ES GUT.

FROM THE GERMAN.

Whatever comes is for the best, These words give courage to the breast, The winds may blow, the tempests lower, We will defy their utmost power, And cry, amid their wild affright, "Whatever happens will be right."

Whatever comes is for the best, This thought gives calm mid life's unrest Though far away the shore may lie, And waves rise round us mountain high, Our destiny is in His hand, Who rules the sky, the sea, the land.

Whatever comes is well. What power They keep the heart forever warm, They charm away the power to harm; Despair can never be our gu When we can say, "All's for the best."

Whatever comes is for the best, Thank him for this sweet ark of rest-Whatever comes, is for the best

To the Electors of Charlotte County.

To the Electors of Charlotte County.

GENTLEMEN.—At the urgent request of a great many of the voters and working men hom every part of the County, I am once more induced to offer my services to represent your interests in the Local Legislature. Two members will be wanted to fill the seats vacated by Mesars Stevens and Chandler, who have played their game on the political cheas board, and won.

Now gentnemen, I wish it distinctly understood that I am now, as I have ever been, the Candidate of the working men. Independent and free from all party trammels or ties? Gare act and think for myself, tooth in politics and other matters concerning the interests of the working class; and this I shall always do.in spite of the few men in St. Stephen who presume to rule the whole County. I am not the nomir ee of a few designing man who wish to push into the field a Candidate that, if elected will be sure to serve them.—No, Gentleman, I am the Candidate of the independent working men who have dared to shake off the shackles that have hitherto bound them, part who dare show the world that they, are not cowards, and will not be political slaves. I will, as I have always done, stand by them in all matters of progess and reform, until, like our brethren in Fangland, we gain our objects, POLITICAL F.QUALITY. Too long have one class of men ruled and governed us. Too long have they set themselves above us, treating us with scorn, except at election times, when they want our votes; then their hypocrisy knows no bounds, but, thank God, we can see through them, and understand their motives.

Then, working men of Charlotte, rally in your streath). Let us stand shoulder to shoulder in any streath. Let us stand shoulder to shoulder in the restance of the same and six fermions and their motives.

then their hypocrisy knows no bounds, but, thank God, we can see through them, and understand their motives.

Then, working men of Charlotte, rally in your strength! Let us stand shoulder to shouller in this contest, and there will be such a shaking of dry bones amongst those would-be rulera, that they will almost try for the mountains to fail up my intem. Let us teach those few men that the Bank Parlor is not all powerful, aithough backed up by greenbacks. Let us tell those men at the polistinat we have men amongst uswho are their equals, if not their superiors, both in ability and brains, though the greenbacks may be wanting, but this want may be supplied by fearless independence on Election days.

With reference to the Intercolonial Railway—the Frontier route will have my warmest support. At the hustings I will explain fully my views on this important matter.

Now, my friends, I would much rather that you would choose from amongst yourselves some intelligent honest working man, whom you can trust, to represent you, and I will give him my supports for at this season of the year I will not be able to visit you at your different localities. Like yourselves on the season of the year I will not be able to visit you at your different localities. Like yourselves when I hope to have the pleasure of addressing you, and if elected, will serve you fearlessly, honestly and faithfully to the best of my ability.
