Employers Declare They Will Brook No Outside Interference of Any Nature.

OPERATORS' EDICT.

"We will brook no outside interference of whatever naturepolitical, humanitarian, or any other origin."-President Fowler, N. Y., O., and W. R. Company.

New York, Sept. 10.-President Fowler, of the New York, Ontario and Western Railway Company, said this evening: "The strike will end when the men come back of their own accord, and on the terms they worked on before the strike. We will brook no outside interference of whatever nature, political, humanitarian, or any other origin. When the men go back it will be at the wages and on the conditions obtained last spring. After they have returned we will take up any grievances with our own men. We have posted notices to that effect in our collieries, and that has been our attitude right along. President Oliphant, of the Delaware and Hudson, declared also that there would be no interference on the part of Mr. Morgan. Mr. Oliphant said no outside interference would be heeded, and that the strike would be continued until the miners grow tired of it and return to work. NO ARBITRATION.

Mr. John Markle, the head of the firm of O. B. Markle & Co., the largest of the individual coal operators in the anthracite coal field, today made a statement respecting the proposed arbitration between the employes and the employers. "There will be no arbitration," said Mr. Markle, "and no settlement of the coal strike in any way. "We have not forgotten our experiences on a former occa fon," said Mr. Markle. "There had been in istence from 1885 an agreement with the men in our employ providing for the settlement by arbitration, in an amicable way, of all differences that arose. This was the result of a local strike lasting three months in 1885. In 1887, notwithstanding the existence of this contract for arbitration, the men deliberately broke their agreement and went on strike, which lasted six months; yet we re-established the arbitration agreement after it was over and went on. In 1897, there was a widespread strike in the Lehigh region, but our men stood by their agree-ment and never lost a day's work.

"In 1890 Mr. John Mitchell appeared, and began a campaign on our property. Our employes presented a list of griev ances and I replied to them, and suggested that if our answers were not satisfactory they could demand arbiration under the existing agreement. Mr. Mitchell distinctly opposed any arbitration, asserting that we were insincere. "Father Phillips, a well-known priest of Hazelton, of his own volition, urged the men to abide by their compact, and suggested Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia, as the third arbitrator. Mr. Mitchell opposed all of this, claiming that it was a bluff, A meeting of our employes was held, to which Mitchell came, unsolicited, and made a speech. He asked me pubicly if I would abide by the arbitraors' verdict, and when I said I would, he turned to the audience and pleaded with them nevertheless to go upon a strike. Father Phillips and I followed him, urging the men to stand by their agreement for arbitration, and the men refused to follow Mitchell's lead. Then came a round of threats, intimidation and violence. Almost rioting parties of several hundred men appeared upon our property, led by Mitchell's lieutenants, in the vain efforts to compel our men to break their agreement. They inaugurated a reign of terror which finally resulted in the employes breaking their compact and throwing the projected arbitration to the winds Then Marcus A. Hanna came into the dispute and secured some concessions. The strike ended, and it was heralded as a triumph for Mitchell. Work was resumed under these conditions, Oct. 29, 1900. The result has been establishment of every kind of trades union in the coal district. From that time on there have been innumerable strikes. Mitchell has become a demigod and alone is obeyed, so that all ordinary and usual means of discipline are usually disregarded. With this history before us I am sure no reasonable man will ask us to engage in any arbitration with Mr. Mitchell or his immediate followers."

GOV. STONE'S POSITION. Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 10.-Governor Stone today refused to discuss yesterday's conference with the coal operators in New York. He said he would do all in his power to effect a settlement between the operators and miners, and that in order to reach J. P. Morgan it was necessary to get in touch with P. A. B. Widener. The governor said there was no truth in the report that he had an engagement to meet John Mitchell, and would not say what were the prospects of settling the strike.

AT WORK.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 10.-Work was resumed today at Brisbane, one of the largest collieries belonging to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Company. No information was given out at the colliery as to the extent of operations begun there, but it is said that a sufficient number of men TENT WANTED FOR FAIR WEEK—

ENGINEERS STRIKE. Portland, Ore., Sept. 10 .- The marine engineers of Portland, about 150 in number, have voted to go on strike. They claim that their employers have not lived up to the terms of the agreement by which a strike of two months ago was settled. The engineers say that the companies agreed to take back all of the old men, but have not done so. It is believed that the strike will the up nearly every boat on the Wil-

It is noted that the eruption of Mont Pelee on Aug. 30 only killed or wounded those who were outdoors or whose doors or windows were open. The people in houses, the doors and windows o which were shut, felt intense heat and had symptoms of suffocation. SOUFRIERE QUIET. The Soufriere volcane is quiet, but nobody ventures near Wal-libou, Richmond, or the obliterated estates, which are partially obscured by a vast cloud of steam, extending from the summit of the Soufriere to the sea. In the absence of scientific opinion it is uncertain whether lava has been ejected. The matter ejected during the afternoon of Sept. 3 was of sulphur color. Descending the mountain it ran out to the sea, a distance of about fifteen miles. course of the stream is now a deep ravine. A big upheaval at the base, in the same direction, was witnessed from Paris papers mentioned a rumor that Patrie publishes an interview with an official of the bank who said: "The robbery amounted to $44,000 in gold. It was not the work of burglars. The gold was taken in the day time, evidently by a person or persons having access to the cash vault, but suspicion yet rests on nobody." KILLED 166 WHALES. A great whale hunt took place at Hillswich, in the Shetland Islands last Saturday. When on that day a school of herring whales was reported approaching the coast the entire fishing population put to sea aboard of everything that would float. They drove the whales ashore and slaughtered 166 of them. The longest whale measured 35 feet. THIRTY MEN KILLED. A dispatch to the London Daily Express from Madrid says 30 workmen have been killed in the Province of Lerida by the caving-in of a road

United States Attorney-General Knox informed a press correspondent in Paris that the only thing which can not be given out regarding the proposed Panama Canal purchase is that he has under consideration many questions of law and fact bearing or supposed to bear upon the title to the property which the company has offered to sell, and which the President of the United States is authorized to eration and good sense. purchase if he finds the title satisfac-"I do not anticipate that many tory. days will now be required to finish the work necessary for the preparation of my report and opinion to the President, which will not be undertaken until I return to Washington."

PILGRIMS ROBBED. In a dispatch from Vienna the cor respondent of the London Daily Ex-press describes a fiendish crime committed at Maria Rabna, in Hurgary. Two hundred pilgrims were journeying to the shrine of the Virgin. They were unable to find other lodgings, and spent the night in a barn. A body of Wallachian gypsies appeared on the scene and robbed the sleeping pilgrims. They then set fire to the barn, and an indescribable panic ensued. Eight of the

Regarding a motion approving Sprigg's action in opposing suspension, the Progressives offered to abstain from speaking if Sprigg would move the previous question. This he de-clined to do, and it is gravely feared the debate fixed for Thursday will be largely personal. The Bond caucus resolved to support Sprigg, but on the tacit condition that he shall not introduce measures disapproved by the

SUMMER-COMPLAINT GERM

Students Detect Organism That Causes Dysentery.

Doctors Consider the Discovery Most Important One.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 1.-Charles W. Duval, of Annapolis, a student of the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, and Victor H. Bassett, of Aledo, Ill., a student of the Johns Hopkins Medical School, have recently conducted an investigation at the Thomas Wilson Sanitarium at Mount Wilson, Baltimore County, that med-Ical men contend will result in a great benefit to humanity.

Messrs. Duval and Bassett succeeded in finding the germ that produces in-fantile diarrhea and other "summer complaints." The organism found is the same that causes acute dysentery in adults, and it is thought a practical method can hereafter be employed for preventing these diseases.

The investigation was in line with the work attempted by students of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, which was established two years ago by John D. Rockefeller, the multi-millionaire, who selected as president of the board of directors Dr. Wm. H. Welch, the noted Johns Hopkins pathologist.

Nearly 50 cases were investigated by the two young students and the result was entirely satisfactory. The Wilson Sanltarium was considered an excellent place for such a test, as nearly 400 children suffering from intestinal trouble are treated there each summer. Dr. Welch said today that he considered the discovery a most important one and thought practical results would

A THRILLING SEA STORY

Capture of Pirates Who Held Two Handsome Girls as Prisoners.

Boston, Sept. 11 .- A copy of Lloyd's weekly Index of Aug. 28, received here from London, contains a story that puzzles local shipping authorities The Index says:

"Capt. Luigi Montani, of the steamship Sardegna, which has just arwith a large number of immigrants on board, recounts an extraordinary story of adventure.

"Shortly after entering the gulf stream, near the Mexican Gulf, a suspicious-looking brigantine hove in sight, from which piercing cries were heard proceeding. Capt. Montant immediately gave orders for pursuit, and mediately gave orders for pursuit, and under a threat of sinking the vessel brought her to a halt. He then armed his crew, boarded the strange craft and began to search the vessel. "It proved to be a pirate ship.

Twenty-five pirates, who sought to Law of Worthy Work the Law of Sucsling away in small boats, were surrounded by an overwhelming force and captured. They were all Caribbean negroes or Creoles.

The brigantine had been seized by these pirates, who wounded the original crew and cap-tain, whose guests the girls were, and threw them overboard. The pirates thereupon steered the vessel, which had a large cargo of goats, towards Antilles.'

Capt. Montani ends by saying that he transferred the pirates to the Sardegna, kept them in irons and made for Boston, where he delivered them over to the American authorities. No such prisoners have been turned over to the United States authorities here.

ENGINEER'S PREMONITION

Chicago, Sept. 11 .- As one of the fast trains on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad was running through Evanston shortly before daylight, the engineer, William Campton, was seized with a feeling that the track ahead of him was not clear. Signal and switch lights were set for a clear track and the brilliant electric headlight showed no obstacle in front of the engine. The feeling would not leave nin, and although he could see no reason for the action he shut off the steam and set the air brakes. The train came to a stop just north of Central street. Conductor M. Brown came running forward and made inquiries of Engineer

"There is something wrong, but I do not know what it is," said the engineer. "Let's investigate a little." The trainmen took lanterns and went ahead. Under the front end of the pilot they found a young man ly-ing between the rails. If the engine had gone ten feet farther he would have been crushed. He was uncon-scious and help was summoned from the police station. He was taken to Dr. Hemenway's office, and after a short time regained consciousness. He gave his name as John Goudle, 2615

Discussed by Synod-Proposed Change in Rule of Church Voted Down.

Montreal, Sept. 10. - The General Synod of the Church of England in Canada, after a protracted debate, reached a decision tonight on the question of the remarriage of divorced persons. The debate was on the folowing motion, submitted by Dr. C. H. Davidson, of Montreal:

'No clergyman within the jurisdiction of the Church of England in Canada shall solemnize a marriage beween persons either of whom shall have been divorced from one who is living at the time of such solemniza-

The motion gave rise to considerable opposition. The point debated was whether or not the innocent party in a divorce granted on the grounds of adultery should be permitted to marry. The matter has been frequently discussed in Provincial Synod, and was also taken up at the last General Synod. As on previous occasions opinion on the matter appeared to be divided and arguments presented were very similar. In regard to the Scriptural teachings in the matter it was claimed by those who opposed allowing remarriage to any divorced persons divorce on the ground of adultery, the word translated "adultery" really meant pre-nuptial unchastity, and that such a separating ground was ct really divorce at all, but simply a nullification of the marriage contract.

After a long debate a division was taken by orders on Dr. Davidson's motion and resulted as follows: Yeas,

Efforts are being made to adjust matters, and to induce Mr. Lyttleton to withdraw his resignation. The arbitration tribunal began its sittings on Sept. 4. GAY OLD BOY AT 72

Officiates at His Own Wedding-Stepdaughters as Witnesses.

New York, Sept. 11. — Friends of Major Bundy, of No. 100 Academy street, Jersey City, and Mrs. Mary Becker, of No. 144 Pavonia avenue, were surprised to learn yesterday that the couple had been married last Saturday evening. The marriage became known when Major Bundy filed a certificate with Clerk Rooney, of the board of health, in Jersey City. The certificate was signed by the major, who had officiated at his own wedding and performed the ceremony. Major and performed the ceremony. Major Bundy is 72 years old and his bride is

22 years his junior. The major was calling on Mrs. Becker on Saturday evening. He suddenly proposed that they be married there and then. He said it would not be necessary to secure the services of a minister, as he was a justice of the peace, and could perform the ceremony himself just as well as not. After a good deal of coaxing Mrs. Becker consented, and her two married daughters, Mrs. Mary Spengler called upon to act as witnesses. Then the major went through marriage ceremony in due form. He asked himself, "Do you take this woman to be your wedded wife?" and himself all replied, "I do." He asked himself all the other questions and received satisfactory replies. Major and Mrs. Bundy are now happily installed in the major's house.

DISPUTE OVER TWO SHIRTS

Leads to a Suit for $25,000-Laundryman Alleges Persecution.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The tale of two shirts was told when a suit for $25,000 damages was filed by A. G. Van Cott against William W. Wallace, Justice Timothy O'Connell, of Evanston, and Constable George Talafons. Van Cott alleges that he is being persecuted. Some time ago, it was related, Wallace intrusted two shirts to Van Cott, who is proprietor of a west side laundry. Then a difference arose. Van Cott insisted that the shirts had been re-turned to Wallace, and Wallace was equally positive that they hadn't.

Finally, Van Cott says, he was ar-rested and taken before Justice O'Connell, in Evanston, only to find that the charge against him had been dismissed. All this was on Saturday, Van Cott's busy day. On the two succeeding Saturdays, Van Cott says, he had the same experience, and to make matters worse he has been summoned to appear before Justice O'Connell again. The laundryman asserts that his ousiness has been injured, hence the suit for damages.

TOBACCO TRUST INQUIRY

By the Royal Commission in Session at Windsor.

Consignees Promised to Handle None But Trust Goods.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 10.-The inquiry of the royal commission into the tobacco trade of Kent and Essex Counties was closed here today. Lewis Wigle, ex-M.P., of South Essex, was examined regarding the culture of tobacco. The information brought to light was that the Empire Tobacco Company, one of Canadian dealers, was owned up to 1900 by a Mr. Archibald. In 1900 the Empire Tobacco Company was absorbed by the American, although it was conducted under its former name.

It was testified that in 1901 the Amercan Tobacco Company caused advertisements and editorials to be placed in papers throughout the tobacco raising districts, advising growers not to raise too great a supply that year, as the demand would not be great. These growers supplied Canadian firms as well as the American company. They received from 6 to 61/2 cents per pound for their product. In 1901, however, the American Tobacco Company jumped in and offered 8 cents a pound, hoping in this way to buy up the supply they had limited by newspaper notices and thus shut out Canadian dealers. In this they were disappointed, as the Canadian dealers also gave 8 cents a

A member of the commission said this morning that the results of the investigation thus far substantiate charges made by the Canadian dealers. It has been proved that the American Tobacco Company requires its consignees to sign a contract promising to handle no other goods than This, of course, greatly injures the business of Canadian firms. The evil will probably be remedied by

O.E. Fleming, of Windsor, a member of the investigating board, said he had received word from Toronto that one of the largest wholesale houses in that city, which has hitherto handled only the American Tobacco Company's goods, has cast aside its contract and instructed its travelers to take orders for any brand in the market. This action is a result of the present investigation, and is sall to be the beginning of a general stampede from the ranks of the American Tobacco Company's consignees.

At this afternoon's session, Mayor Smyth, of Windsor, who is a wholesale grocer, presented figures showing the practical results of the trust's operations in the wholesale trade. The commission leaves Windsor tomorrow. On Friday it sits in London, and later in Hamilton and Toronto.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseses put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. Mr. Whitney Again.

Mr. Whitney has given the public and himself a rest during the summer, and now returns to his regular business of vituperation and vaticination. In an address at Toronto yesterday he predicted that he would be premier wthin six months. This cheery optimism shows that his holiday has agreed with him. North Renfrew, it appears, is the silver lining on the cloud of Opposition prospects. We are told there is a chance that the Government nominee, Mr. Mackie, will withdraw. Mr. Whitney admits that he would have regarded Mr. Mackie, a month ago, as "a strong and dangerous candidate," but if he (Mackie) does consent to run now, he will not be nearly so formidable. The explanation of this rapid slump in Mr. Mackie's popularity is not given, but it may be because Mr. Whitney has taken the field again. Mr. Whitney has also the hope that a disgruntled Liberal will come forward in the same riding to split the party vote. But failing North Renfrew, he has it figured to a certainty that the Governmen must lose in the bye-elections. At the very outside, he says, only one Opposition member can be unseated, while every protest against a Liberal will succeed. Against optimism of this kind, what can prevail? The same thing was said before the bye-elections of 1898, and the sequel should be a warning, but, of course, it is a leader's function to inspire confidence in his following, whether he has it himself or not. On the present occasion it is especially necessary, in order to induce another flow of cash for the election courts, many of the moneyed men of the party being reluctant to shell out against after the experience of 1898. Having ascribed the Government's bye-election victories in the past to the nefarious work of the machine, Mr. Whitney found it expedient, in the role of prophet, to discount its present power for evil. He declared he did not believe the ballot would be stolen in the ensuing bye-elections, and framed for their protection. not more than the ordinary corruption would be practiced. It must have cost a great effort to give the Liberal party this certificate of characer, but observe how quickly it will be withdrawn when the wicked Grits win the fight.

The Doukhobors are coming in for their periodical shower of abuse from the Opposition press. They have been represented as given over to a religious mania, to the neglect of their farm work. O. P. KRUGER'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY COUNCILORS IN A COMBINE Bought for High Price by a Munich Publisher-Boer Tactics Used by Germans.

London, Sept. 11.-In his presidential address to the British Association at Belfast, yesterday, Prof. Dewar dealt with the question which is occupying the question of higher education in its bearing upon trade. He said Britain's backwardness was an extraordinary and disastrous phenomenon; this country was two generations behind Germany. He appealed to the King to assume a dictatorship on behalf of sci-

BOER TACTICS ADOPTED. The second day of the German military maneuvers terminated suddenly at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, after scarcely two hours' fighting, in consequence of the failure of the Guards division, which came under a cross-fire from the fifth army corps, with the result that two battalions were put out of action immediately opposite the position occupied by the Emperor. The beaten third corps drew off in a westerly direction.

The Daily Mail's special correspondent says Boer tactics were freely em-ployed, though not entirely. The trops were instructed to use theier own initiative, direction by officers being not always possible on account of the great extension of the firing line. Several old tactical methods were also put into operation, including the forward rush and shock attack with drums beating. The artillery also followed a new tactical method, being no longer concentrated and massed at a single point, but placed at intervals in single batteries.

KRUGER'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY. Mr. Kruger's autobiography, which will be published simultaneously in many countries on Nov. 15, will be a volume containing 100,000 words. The Munich publisher, Lehmann, has paid a high price for the book, and its serial rights, in all languages. Mr. Kruger's friends assert that whatever is made out of it will not be kept by him, but will be handed over to the suffering burghers. Mr. Kruger's departure from the Transvaal and incidents of his life in Holland. The early chapters describe his youth, education, hunting adventures, shooting his first lion, and experiences in chasing rhinoceroses and tigers. The succeeding chapters contain an account of the chiefs. One of his most exciting adventures was when he was alone in a journey to the Orange Free State to act as mediator in making peace with Mos- moon. A chapter on civil war brings

Political chapters contain incidental bor in the mines, the dynamite monpoly and railway interests, and the history of the Jameson raid is accompanied by a reflection on what Mr.Kruger describes as the irritating policy a week ago. of Mr. Chamberlain in the negotiations. Mr. Kruger's astuteness in diplomacy is revealed in this portion of a deeply interesting book. He also attaches great importance to a series of telegrams between Miss Flora Shaw and Mr. Cecil Rhodes, in which Mr. 'hamberlain's name is freely used. Mr Kruger, while politically dead, still speaks in this memoir with old-time vigor and subtlety.

She left home Sunday night, came to this city, and thence went to Canada. Yesterday her father received a message from Chatham from his daughter, as follows: "Sorry, but it cannot be helped. We are married now."

A Terrible Charge.

Chicago, Sept. 11.-Cremation of living babies in her kitchen range is a charge made by Charles Early against Mrs. Pauline Taeschler, who conducts a private hospital in South May street. Early made this and other serious charges before the state board health. The woman has been arrested. Mrs. Taeschler attributes the charges sible to attend to my household duties to motives of revenge inspired by her refusal to allow Early to visit a woman patient in the hospital.

Conspiracy to Loot Franchise-Hunt ers - Bound to Secrecy by Death Penalty.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 10.-Amazing revelations of how nineteen members of the upper branch of the municipal assembly, bound together by a death all intelligent minds in Britain today, penalty oath, robbed and looted all who sought franchise favors from St. Louis, were made to the grand jury today by J. K. Murrell, who returned from Mexico, prepared to tell all he knows of the terrible story of corruption. Murrell's revelations are the climax of months of investigations of corruption in the municipal assembly, Murrell served as a member of the House of Delegates in 1899 and 1900, during which years the oathbound nineteen were implicated in two transactions. One was the Suburban Railway "grab," and the other was the socalled "lighting bill."

Although both measures were passed in 1900 it was not until early this year that any of the corrupt transactions came to public knowledge. The first revelation came in the discovery of $75,-000 in a safe deposit box of the Lincoln Trust Company, placed there by a representative of the St. Louis and Suburban Railway Company to secure a blanket franchise to operate its cars over the streets of the city. The ordinance had passed both branches of the municipal assembly, but was nullified by the courts through the efforts of citizens.

The Suburban representatives and the gang then disagreed as to the payment of the money. The street railway men objected to paying anything since they had received no benefit from the legislation, but the delegates de clared that as they had fulfilled their part of the contract they were entitled to their reward. The resulting squabble led to investigation by the grand jury and wholesale indictments. The grand jury found that the Suburban Company had contributed $135,-000 as a corruption fund to influence legislation in favor of the ordinance. Murrell swore today that the nine-teen members of the gang were bound by the following deadly oath: "I do descri solemnly swear before the Almighty sions. God, that in associating myself and in becoming a member of this combine, I been arranged. DOCTOR KILLED A BULL

Veterinary Surgeon Does the Torcador Act Effectively With a Club.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 11.-Dr. Robert Bryan, the veterinary surgeon here who attended Hanover in his last moments and who is well-known throughout the country through his extensive practice with thoroughbred horses, had a terrible encounter with an infuriated bull at the farm of Levi Prewitt, on the Clark county line. He had gone there in answer to a professional call, and had to pass through a large field where cattle were graz-

Dr. Bryan carried a heavy stick. He had not gone far when the bull attacked him. The animal made a dash at him, and by side stepping, the veterinary saved himself. Whirling around, the bull made another pass, and this time Dr. Bryan struck him on the head. At the third attempt the doctor missed, and the bull barely missed him, but at the fourth effort he struck the bull with full force and Dr. Chase's Ointment killed him on the spot.

Comfort Scap at the Fair.

One of the handsomest exhibits at the Western Fair will be that of the Comfort Soap Company, which will be in a very conspicuous and central position in the main building. At present the exhibit consists only of huge piles of packing cases filled with gifts for fair visitors. Among other attractions of the Comfort Soap exhibit will be a large bar of Comfort Soap, which will be utilized as the basis of a guessing competition. Twenty prizes will be given to those who come nearest to Rossini guessing the exact weight of the bar. Among these prizes are six watches, two gold, two silver and two gunmetal. Mr. H. S. Moore, who is in charge of the exhibit, will also redeem all Comfort Soap wrappers, so that those holding them may receive their equivalent at the fair. Altogether the Comfort Soap exhibit will be worthy of special attention from every visitor.

Evidence Which Showed Effect of Empire Company's Methods.

So far Judge McTavish has only heard evidence at Windsor, and of this, but little bearing upon the trade quesbut little bearing upon the trade question. A great deal of evidence was taken to show the position of the tobacco growing industry in Canada. The situation, from the standpoint of the Empire Tobacco Company, may be sail one or two lines of goods, and to best understood from the evidence given at Windsor by Mr. Lewis Wigle, to push them, rather than to deal in their buyer, and three tobacco growers large number, and keep old, unsaleable of the Leamington district. From this start, the tobacco output jumped in 1897 to 700,000 pounds of white burley tobacco, and the Empire Tobacco Company, being able to use all of it, bought it all at high prices. The farming interest in Essex thought that they had struck a bonanza, and the vestigating into the existence of a tobacco trust in Canada will sit in this turers could use. of 8 cents, with which all the farmers are content, as they might well be. The consumption of natural Canadian leaf from the Essex district alone is now about 2,000,000 pounds. The distribution of fresh imported seed by the Empire Tobacco Company has enabled them to get better results, and the district generally is better equipped to handle the crop. It was also in evidence the Empire Tobacco Company paid the best prices.

Besides this evidence, Mr. Pinchin,

They had spent three weeks in this charming spot, when one day a gentleman of perhaps thirty-five years, with his little daughter of ten summers, and his little daughter of ten summers, and her maid, came to take up his tempor-ary abode there.

Mr. Adrian Noble was a man to com-mand admiration and respect wherever he Possessing a tall and commanding figure, with a massive, well-formed head set proudly upon a pair of square, broad shoulders, and a face which, despite a veil of sadness telling of some heavy grief, was full of power and intelligence, and a manner which possessed an indescribable charm, it is not strange that he was received with courtesy, if not with absolute pleasure, into that delightful household by the lake.

His daughter was a little fairy, with a complexion like a blush-rose, amber hair and the bluest of blue eyes; but though a dainty and exquisite little piece of humanity, she was a veritable witch, and constantly deep in every conceivable form of mischief, "from early morn till

Whatever interested him seemed to interest her also, and she entered into all his pursuits with such heartiness and intelligence that nothing seemed complete to him without her.

"Indeed, sir, it is a pleasure to have her for a companion. I have often felt lonely for the want of one before you came," Rich responded, in his hearty, manly way.

And so it became the rule for her to go with him, and her father felt safer to have it so than to have her running at large by herself.

Rich managed her capitally. He was always quiet in his manner toward her, and years courteous, treating her more and very courteous, treating her more like a young lady than a child, and she was very quick to recognize this fact, and it frequently acted as a check upon her wild ways.

As an instance of this, they were out ne day hunting for mosses in the woods, then Rich suddenly missed his little one day hunting for mosses in the woods, when Rich suddenly missed his little friend.

He called to her again and again, but without obtaining any answer, and he was becoming anxious lest she had strayed away and would be lost, when suddenly from the top of a tall, slender birch tree close at hand, there came rippling down to him the notes of a bobolink, followed by the merriest little laugh in the world, and the gleeful clapping of a pair of small hands.

gramme at the Western Fair next week will without doubt be the best satisfactory in the history of the exhibition. Circumstances, both local and otherwise, point to this in an unquestionable manner. There are evidently more trotters and pacers in this city ready to race than there have been in years. Horsemen seem to to have become enthused over the idea of having a chance to show off their steppers' good qualities. Beside the same old reliables like George McCormick, Robert Hueston, Wm. Collins and Dr.Routledge, many new race-horse admirers have come to the front, and are buying good horses and working them to get them in shape for the exhibition. An Advertiser writer visited the track yesterday and besides seeing several little informal races and some good work-outs, compiled a few facts, dealing with horses and horsemen who may figure in the Western Fair meeting. None of those interested would say they were going to start, but with one's eyes closed it could be seen that all looked forward to the coming meet-

He stands about 15 hands or a little over, is of the blocky type, and has as smooth action as could be desired. He got second money in the race on Labor Day, with very little

Then it was that some small boys began throwing cinders and small stones at the visitors, which did have its effect when Duquette, just in the act of delivering the ball, received an onion on the back of the head.
