BRIDGE BENEFIT FUNDS FOR SOLDIERS

I. O. D. E. Will Purchase Material for Soldiers' Comforts. Plans for the best means of using the amount (some $260) raised by the local chapters, Daughters of the Empire, at the bridge benefit, held on Thursday afternoon, were discussed at a largely-attended meeting of the order in Crompton hall yesterday afternoon.

It was decided that the proceeds should go towards purchasing of wool and material to make garments for the soldiers in camp in London, and that the Municipal Chapter retain the funds, to be used as the purchasing committee deemed best.

The secretary of the Municipal Chapter, Mrs. R. M. Graham, reported several applications for wool, etc., from women in and out of the city, who were not members of the order. These ladies will be communicated with, and their help gladly accepted.

An invitation was read from the newly-formed local branch of the Canadian War Soldiers' Association, asking the order to unite with them in working for the soldiers. It was pointed out that the constitution of the I. O. D. E. did not permit such affiliation. The order will, however, keep in touch with the work of the C. W. C. A. in order to prevent overlapping.

Prize Rifle. The prize rifle to be presented to the cadets for best shooting by the Daughters of the Empire will be awarded during the visit of the Minister of Militia next week. The event will take place in the armories on Wednesday afternoon, followed by a tea for Major-Gen. Hughes and staff, and members of the order. Mrs. Ernest Smith was appointed convener of a general committee.

Mits for Soldiers. A committee was appointed to wait on Major-Gen. Hughes next week with a protest against the quality of the mitts supplied to the men in camp. A motion to the effect that heavy leather mitts, which could be worn during rifle practice, be purchased for the London men, and that the Ladies of the Empire be urged to provide the same for the men from their respective districts, was carried unanimously.

At the close of the meeting tea was served by the Ladies of the Empire Chapter. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Whitman, in the absence from town of Mrs. W. E. Hodgins, regent of the Municipal Chapter.

Belgian Relief Mrs. A. T. Edwards, the treasurer of the Women's Canadian Club, has received the following donations:

Means a Loaf of Bread. Every loaf of a can of Sweetheart Baking Powder sent to Mrs. R. M. Graham, Kensington street, city, means a loaf of bread towards the starving children of Belgium.

THREE TEAMS TIED AT TOP OF CITY CARPETBALL LEAGUE

Social Union, Molders and Foresters Have Not Yet Lost a Game.

The week's games see very little change in the standing of the teams in the City Carpetball League. The Molders' Union, but lost on having to forfeit two points for being one man short on the team, the score being 36-24. The Woodmen certainly did some great bowling against the Beavers on Thursday, being 13 points behind in the first half. Then Capt. Bottom changed his men, scoring 5 points himself in the last end, and winning the game by 1 point.

The S. of England, B. L. and C. L. are playing a game on the 27th, and have invited the Daughters of England to attend. A big time is expected. These two teams so far have not won a game. The B. S. U. seem to be winning right away with the lead they have now, but Sammy Knight, of the Foresters, is going to make them take down their flag.

Table with 2 columns: Team Name, Won, Lost. Includes teams like B. S. U., Molders' Union, Independent Foresters, etc.

EVERYONE GONE. [Brainford Expressor.] The Germans went into the war, more than anything else, to obtain colonial possessions. The result today is that practically every German colony has been lost, and the Asiatic stronghold of Tsing Tau as well.

THE BEAUTIFUL SNOW CAUSES RUGBY GAME TO BE CANCELLED

At Last Moment, All Star-Western Exhibition Affair Was Called Off Owing to Inclement Weather Conditions—O. R. F. U. Game Here Wednesday.

At the very last moment the game between Western and the Petrolia and Sarnia All-Stars was called off today, and Tecumseh Park will be merely a landing place for snow and slush this afternoon instead of the battling ground for a lot of long-haired pigskin chasers.

HARVARD SLIGHT FAVORITE OVER OLD ELI TODAY

Dedicatory Game of New Yale Oval Will Be Witnessed by Thousands of People Today.

DROP EBBETTS AND TAFT INTO DISCARD; BRING FEDERAL'S BACKERS INTO NATIONAL—THAT'S NEW PLAN TO END WAR

Elimination of Charles P. Taft from baseball both in Chicago and in Philadelphia; the retirement of Charles Ebbetts from the National League; the elimination of the Cincinnati crowd from the national game, is the latest move toward the solution of the baseball tangle.

MEN WHO MAY BE ELIMINATED TO BRING BASEBALL PEACE AND THEIR PROBABLE SUCCESSORS.

Six of Them Are Tied For First Place in the Six-Day Bicycle Grind.

New York, Nov. 21.—The swift pace maintained during the early morning by riders in the six-day bicycle race carried the leaders nearly 25 miles ahead of the previous record at 8 o'clock this morning, and had cut down the field to eight teams, six of which were tied for first place at 2:39 1/2 miles and 4 laps.

The team of Thomas and Hanley was retired at 6:15 o'clock; this morning after Thomas failed to find a partner within four hours after Hanley had dropped out of the race. Walther and Halstead retired at the same time. Announcement was made soon thereafter that Fleeter and Hansen and Althen and Anderson, two of the rearguard teams, would be retired.

Judging from the vagrant scores floating back from the coast, the world's series started just a month too early for the American Leaguers to get into condition.

KOSMOS LINE IS BARRED BY CHILEANS

No Provisions or Coal Will Be Supplied Its Steamers. [Canadian Press.] Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 21.—The

Chilean authorities announced today that no vessel of the Kosmos Line will be permitted to take on provisions or coal in a Chilean port pending an investigation of the departure without clearance papers yesterday from Chilean ports of the German steamers Luxor and Memphis, both belonging to this line.

The Luxor left Coronel and the Memphis steamed away from Punta Arenas (Sandy Point). Neither vessel had permission to leave port, and the Chilean authorities have ordered their capture. And what profiteth it baseball if it lose Murphy and gain a Devery?

1915 Overland $1425 Model 80 F. O. B. Hamilton, Ont. The Advantages of Magneto Ignition. THE new Overland is equipped with the finest high tension magneto. —it keeps the motor cool. —it develops more power due to a hotter spark, which increases its heat as the motor speed increases. The heat of an Overland spark, by actual test, is ten times greater than the spark of the ordinary battery ignition. The high tension Overland magneto requires no dry cells. The absence of a high tension magneto on a car is an indication that the car is not all it should be. Something very important is lacking, consequently there might be many other important things left off, of which you are not aware. The Overland has every practical and essential improvement. When you purchase an Overland you get the most stylish, most comfortable, most convenient, most complete and most carefully constructed car for the price in the world.

CONCLUDE CONFERENCE WITH MISSIONS TALK
Baptist Association Hears Dr. Norton Urge Need of More Study.

The last session of the special conference of Baptist ministers and laymen of Middlesex and Lambton, held yesterday afternoon in the Talbot Street Baptist Church, proved most interesting and inspirational. Rev. Dr. Norton, of Toronto, superintendent of Baptist Home Missions, presented the scheme of missionary education, giving considerable place for mission study in the Sunday schools and presented from the platform and in the classroom. He urged the importance of building up a wisely-chosen missionary library for the school. The value was pointed out of a monthly missionary prayer meeting in the church, arranged by the local missionary committee of the church and also of an annual missionary Sunday, devoted to the giving of special information on missionary themes and arousing enthusiasm.

NEWSPAPER MINSTRELS TO AID CHARITY SCORE BIG SUCCESS

Advertiser Staff Members and Their Good Friends Pleased Large Audience.
END MEN REAL FUNNY
First Part Splendid In Fun, Soloists and Chorus.
OLIO GOOD VAUDEVILLE
Dramatic Sketches, Chatter, Clever Dancing and a Newspaper Sketch.
Before a crowded house, the members of the London Press Club and their many good friends, last night, presented a minstrel show that has never been excelled by amateur talent in this city, and seldom by professional talent. It is mild to say that every member of the audience went home pleased, and that he or she could not have gone home more pleased had the admission been three times as great, and the stars of the evening known from coast to coast (which the newspaper minstrels will be after last evening).
The performance was suggested and organized by Mr. Carl Stubig, of The Advertiser editorial staff, assisted by the best local talent and other members of the Advertiser staff. That it was a great success is gratifying to all donors, the proceeds being donated with the exception of the charge made for the theatre and necessary expenses, to the Victorian Order of Nurses, the performance being put on under the auspices of the Royal Elgin Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire. The members of the local organization have worked assiduously to make the attraction a success, and last night expressed their appreciation by inviting all the members of the company to attend a banquet of homed-made viands tonight at Hyman Hall, where the rehearsals were held through the kindness of the officers of the Liberal Club.

The first part of the performance was one of the most striking and attractive that has ever appeared on a local stage. The chorus of sixty was trained under the direction of Mr. Bert Ferte, who has given unstintingly of his time and talent to the performance of a successful success. This he accomplished not only through his own fine vocal talent, but because of his ability to train a chorus. The opening overture, a medley of sweet melodies, was a happy augury, and the concerted numbers and the solos were a strong background for a galaxy of star end men. Mr. J. H. Mitchell, whose long experience made him extremely valuable to the production, acted as interlocutor and introduced a number of the city's finest soloists, Messrs. James Fowler, William Rossiter, Bert Ferte, Frank Leah, all of whom were recalled several times. The humor was the best brand of minstrel humor on tap, and the end men songs were catchy and in every case of a snappy and dash. Such favorites as "Samuel Friendship," "St. John's A. C.," and "Mr. James Moran" of the Orient's minstrel show fame, balanced the first half by their ability to convulse the audience with their jests. Mr. George Wardrope, Mr. Athol Henry, Mr. Charles Boyce and Mr. Stubig shared the honors of the evening, and every one of them scored a success. There was not a flaw in their delivery, and they got their songs over, and held their choruses with them. Mr. Stubig bears some resemblance in stature to "Honey Boy" Evans, and his local gaits directed at some of his end men in the best good nature, won him endless encores. The song and dance of Athol Henry, in which a live monkey was introduced (not a member of the troupe's editorial staff, as he is to explain), scored a success, and every end-man was repeatedly called back by the audience.

A Patriotic Touch.
The patriotic tableau at the conclusion of the first part was a genuine heart-toucher. In this manner much time was occupied, and more than half the evening had been passed before the olio commenced. But there was not a long wait, and "A Few Minutes With the Squirrels," written by Mr. Stubig, was the next number. A hedge-podge of nonsense, in which Bert Ferte, Harry McKenna and the author appeared, had the audience separating from their British. Mr. McKenna showed real dramatic ability. His enunciation, expression and appreciation of his line was extraordinary for a reason for his seeking further and more serious honors. Mr. Ferte took his part with a fine sense of its good points, and his song was of its good points. Mr. Stubig, somewhat nonsensical, most difficult role, and won approval.

The dramatic sketch of the evening was a remarkable production, considering that local talent attempted a piece written for Miss Ethel Barry. Pleas and scores, Miss Irene Pleas, and three bold burglars, conquered at the same time. She showed much ability in elocution, and further strengthened her good reputation she is making as a finished performer. Mr. McKenna, in the leading male role, again exhibited his talent and versatility. Mr. Reginald Sanborne and Mr. George Wardrope took the minor crook characters to the life. The sketch was produced under the direction of Miss Georgia Newbury, and reflected much credit upon her.

A Clever Team.
Johnny Madden and Locke Hendricks, two versatile comedians and dancers, added a touch that made the performance a complete vaudeville production. Their sidewalk chatter and comedy was fresh and put over with confidence. Both are remarkably clever dancers. Lovell did not know there were such good ones as these boys until last night.
The staff of The Advertiser offered the final sketch "A Newspaper Sketch," which was also the production of Mr. Stubig's facile typewriter, with some trepidation. They usually come to praise Caesar, not to play him, but there was a real surprise for the audience, and a novelty. Some of the perplexities of local newspaper editing were sketched, and the author, as Spike, the office boy, a German spy, and several other things, kept the fun going. George Wardrope caused a laugh as he appeared as Gen. Sam Sews, and placed the office under a strong guard; Ralph Laskey did a clever character bit as an English lord, and the rest of the newspaper boys showed that they could get a punch into their acting as well as into their "copy." A session of the city council burlesqued made a hit. Those who appeared in this sketch were as follows: Spike, the office boy, Carl Richardson; sporting editor, Ted Williamson; cartoonist,

After Thirty-Two Years' Search-Perfection

Since the day Parnell's bakery was started in the humblest way imaginable our daily hope was that on the morrow we would be able to make our breads even a little bit better.
In those days there were no modern bake ovens or separate delivery. Bread was baked in a small, wood-fired oven in a modest way. But Parne'l's, ever alive for something better for the public, continued to improve its baking methods and using the same unadulterated ingredients until now
