NATURAL GAS COMPANIES ARE NOW TRYING TO MERGE HAVE 80,000,000 FEET TO SELL

Representative Was in the City on Wednesday and Had an Interview With His Worship Mayor Stevely---The Scheme Outlined---City Gas Company Still Appears To Be in the Way of the Promoters.

A monster merger of gas companies seeking a franchise in London is in the process of formatica, and if the deal goes through, as it is expected it will, a supply of 80,000,000 feet of natural gas will be ready for piping to Negotiations between the owners of the Leamington field, the Romney field, and the Volcanic Gas Company, are now in progress, and it will probably be consummated within a short time. It will be remembered that these three companies applied for a franchise to distribute gas in this city last year. But no really definite proposition was received by the council from any one of them, owing to the fact that each asked a little longer time to prospect for more wells, as they did not feel like coming to the city with the limited amount of gas then held. THE MERGER.

The idea of a merger of the companies was considered some time ago, and the representatives got together. The scheme was favorable received, it is stated, by all of them, and the details of the amalgamation are now being worked out. The combined companies have at the present time 80,000,000 feet of gas dy for the market, sufficient to supply London and many other cities. Mr. G. L. McKay, of Leamington, was in the city yesterday. He came for the purpose of interviewing Mr. J. C. Duffield, manager of the City Gas Company, as to terms of distribution.

But Mr. Duffield is at the present time out of the city, and could MAYOR WAS INTERVIEWED.

Mr. McKay had an interview with Mayor Stevely, and explained that the companies intended to combine and market their product in the city of London. He asked if it would be possible to obtain a franchise in case suitable terms could not be arranged with the City Gas Company. "I saw Mr. McKay yesterday afternoon," said Mayor Stevely. "He explained to me the merger, and said that it would no doubt be worked out in a short time. He pointed out that not one of the companies had enough gas to warrant them piping it 80 miles to London.

80,000,000 FEET OF GAS. "If the merger is consummated, there will be a total of 80,000,000 feet of gas, quite sufficient, I should say, to last London for some time.
"Mr. McKay wanted to know whether the company could get a franchise, provided suitable terms could not be made with the City Gas Company to distribute. I told him that no doubt the council would consider such a propo-sition, Natural gas would be a good thing for this city." STILL ANOTHER COMPANY.

There is still another company asking for a franchise. A London company is interested in the Port Dover field. They have a number of wells on property, and are certain that they have enough gas to supply the city a market, as they have applications for other municipalities for practically all the gas they can supply INCREASE OF $381,748

"The objection could not, by reason of the form of the charge, be raised until the facts were disclosed on the trial. "Here the right of these prisoners was clearly to be tried in the county of Middlesex, where the offence with which they were charged was committed, and where they resided and were, except perhaps O'Gorman, when the prosecution began, and where the large majority of the witnesses also resided. That right was interfered with by the crown by introducing into the charge, it may be assumed in good faith, the important element of a Toronto connection, which turned out to be foundationless in fact. That he was in certain electoral districts for the unlawsurposes charged is beyond question, but what is there, except his own evidence, to connect his act with O'Gorman, any more than with Reid or Mulloy or any of the other prisoners, or, indeed, with any other of the apparently numerous There is no appeal from a decision politicians, all of whom, I daresay, did

TO PAY WIFE ALIMONY

Warrant Issued for His Arrest -Preached in London Last Summer.

The following extract from the Brooklyn Eagle of May 3 relates the matrimonial troubles of Pastor Rus-

It will be remembered that the pastor delivered a lecture in the Grand Opera House here last summer on the subject, "To Hell and Back." Tracts and other literature was disposed of at the same time. Russell has been divorced by his wife, and there has been trouble about the alimony. His troubles are related as follows: A telegram from Pittsburg states that an attachment for the arrest of Pastor Charles T. Russell has been loan on farm and city property; lowest lassued in that city for failure to pay rates; amounts and terms to suit; no commission charged. T. W. Scandrett, recently moved to Brooklyn, taking issued in that city for failure to pay over the old Plymouth Bethel in Hicks street as a place of worship. He also moved to Brooklyn the heads warters of the Millennial Dawn and Watch Tower Society, of which he is he head. Pastor Russell-he does not want to e called doctor or reverend-was divorced by his wife on a charge of cruelty. She was at first awarded $40 month alimony, but this was later raised to $100.

The pastor refused to pay more than $40 and proceedings were started to have him arrested for contempt of court. The telegram from Pittsburg ndicates that the wife was victorious in this action. Pastor Russell cannot be arrested here on the Pittsburg court's order, it said, but will be taken into custody he returns to Brooklyn.

Well-Known Winnipeg Horseman Bought a Fine One. Detective Sold for $5,000.

Direct, a fine colt, but one of the "alsorans" in the Kentucky Derby, copped at Louisville on Monday by Wintergreen, is owned by a Canadian well known by horsemen throughout the country, Mr. Rod McKenzie, of Winnipeg.

The horse, one of the Kirkfield stable string, is entered in many of the big stake events, and was purchased this spring by Mr. McKenzie.

Detective Sold.

The New York Telegraph says of Detective, one of the best known horses in the racing game: "Detective, the 3-year-old son of Meddler and Admiration, has been sold by Matt Allen to Charles Boyle, the Canadian turfman. Negotiations have been under way for the purchase for some time, and yesterday they were completed for a reported price of $5,000. As prices go now, that would be considered a good figure, but Boyle undoubtedly has secured a bargain. He was only started three times as a 2-year-old, and his last race in the fall he finished a good second to Wallflower in a big field of maidens, many of whom have since won repeatedly. Bred as he is, Detective should be a wonderfully good colt to race through Canada, and, in fact, he was well enough throught of to be nominated in most of the big 3-year-old fixtures, for which he is still eligible. This spring Allen has been sending him along with District Attorney and the older horse Fountainblue, and he was one of the most impressive 3-year-olds at the Gravesend track. The purchase was made for Mr. Boyle by Charles Littlefield, and the colt will be shipped to Canada within a few days."

THE GUELPH PASTORS BAR THE BIG HATS

Ask That They Be Removed in Church or That Smaller Ones Be Worn.

Guelph, May 5.-Guelph ministers, at a meeting of their Ministerial Association, held last night at the home of the Rev. C. H. Crews, of Norfolk Street Methodist Church, passed a resolution that has caused a sensation among the residents of this city, particularly those of the fair sex. resolution has to do with the wearing of large hats in church, and in it the local clergy place themselves very seriously on record as being opposed to the wearing of the fearful and wonderful creations in church. "That, whereas, we consider that church with heads covered is of a heathen origin, and whereas, in certain public assemblies women appear without headgear, thus respecting the pleasure and profit of others, we, the ministers of Guelph, do respectfully and seriously request the women of ur congregations with the usual magnanimity which characterizes them, to either remove their hats in church or vear ones of more modest dimensions. This was in part the exact wording of the resolution, and it passed unanimously, so that if hats, large ones at least, are worn, in any but the English churches, whose members are ex-empt, by the ladies who comprise such large faction of the congregations, there will be a lot of displeased ministers The general impression seems to be that the fair sex will not be any too ready to submit, and for the sake of granting the requests of their pastors give up the pleasure of turning church services into millinery displays. Some even believe that there will either be a lot of women who will keep their hats on or else that a big falling off in church attendance will be noticed in this sober church-going city.

the custom of women appearing in

TWELFTH WELL IS NEARLY READY NOW

Will Be Down to Depth Tonight and Will Be Tested on Friday.

The twelfth artesian well will be down to the proper depth this evening and a test will be made of it tomor

The indications are quite favorable, and it is expected that this well will be as successful as the others. Six of them are being pumped to day, and they are showing a fine flow of water. They are pumping easily a million and a quarter gallons and are not near their capacity.

A test of the McGregor well will also e made. A weir is being taken out to it today. The promoters claim that they have plenty of water, of a palatable kind.

Samples of it will be sent to Dr Amyot to be tested. May Be Co There is no doubt that surface wells will be condemned by the provincial board. It is understood that when

Mr. Beck proposed his well scheme he was notified that if he had to get water from wells no deeper than 25 feet he had better drop his project. There was not sufficient depth of hard pan to guarantee the supply. The attitude of the water commissioners is not known. Some time ago they expressed themselves willing to take over the Beck scheme provided there was sufficient water and of the proper quality. Plenty of Water. At the present time there is no doubt of the quality, and there is certainly plenty of it. The field looks to be inexhaustible, and can be developed at small cost. The cost of the entire plant will be made known within a short time, it is expected. Tenders have been received for the machinery and the buildings and reservoir, and that will be submitted to the water commissioners within a reasonable time

How "G.B." May Be Identified

You will readily learn to distinguish me by my clothing. It's in two pieces, of medium length, nicely folded and tucked in. It's white always. My, I dislike loud colors! Most others of my tribe wear them, and some have veritable checkerboards; but none of that for me. I do hope my guardians will let me have my own way in this one respect at least.

Some people say that white clothing looks cheap, but to my mind gaudy colors look far cheaper. My skin is very fair and I want my clothing to be just as white. I want you to know me as one who is pure and white, so it is not because I am old-fashioned or behind the times that I prefer white clothing.

I have also heard some say that the people who would not notice me in my white clothes might be attracted to me if I donned some fancy colored attire. I'll risk the chance of being passed by and trust to the better judgment and common sense of my prospective friends. Anyway, I have found out that most persons are not slow-in recognizing a good thing.

Maybe I have talked a whole lot tonight and have not said very much, but FRIDAY NIGHT I will disclose my name and occupation to you. Until then, good-bye.

Friday was the first meeting of the creditors in the matter of Miller, Cossman & Co., who were thrown into bankruptcy on March 12, and it was scheduled to sell the assets of Miller, Cossman & Co. on April 10, 1909. The meeting was adjourned indefinitely.

The stock of Miller, Cossman & Co., who were better known as The Globe Clothing Store, was sold today to Mendelssohn Bros., of Montreal. The creditors were very much dissatisfied with the price the stock brought, the stock being in good condition; therefore they expected a much better price.

Dr. Niven Is Preparing His Report in Regard to Springbank Ponds and Water Supply.

Dr. Niven, of the board of health, is busy at his report to be submitted to the board at its next meeting regarding Springbank Park. It will be shown that on the whole the water supply is in first-class condition, with the exception that some cement walls will be necessary to protect the ponds from surface water. All the other suggested improvements have been made. The report or part of it will probably be issued as a circular to the public, and will ask them to assist the board, as well as the parks commissioners, in keeping the water supply above suspicion. It will suggest that all picnics be held at some distance from the ponds, and other precautions taken to serve the purity of the water supply. COL. PETERS, D. O. C.,

Chairman Speaks. When Mr. Weltervelt, the chairman of the board of education was seen by a representative of The Advertiser, he expressed himself, despite all that had been said to the contrary, as distinctly opposed to the picnic. It was, he said, a hindrance to the children's studies, taking their minds from their work for a week before and but a farce. Besides, he said, with two months' holidays only a few weeks distant, there is absolutely no ned for a holiday then. When asked if there was any likelihood of the board changing its decision, he said that he did not think so, but the action of this year's board was not intended to set a precedent, and if it was thought wise the picnic could be resumed next year.

Will Make Restitution to Those

Charles L. McDonald, who was arrested in Toronto recently on a charge of fraud, was given a special hearing before Magistrate Love at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and, on agreeing to make restitution as soon as possible, was allowed to go on suspended sentence. His brother from Toronto agreed to guarantee the amounts. McDonald was a minor at the time the offences were committed, two years ago, and the law makes a special provision for allowing suspended sentence in cases of this kind, and this, under the circumstances, was taken advantage of. It seems that McDonald, who yesterday gave his age less manner that caused his parents much anxiety. Two years ago this summer he came to London in the

A Village Cut-Up. He lived in style at the Tecumiseh House, chartered the street railway's private car "Victoria," bought swell new clothes, and was a cut-up generally. When he decided to leave, he was apparently short of funds. He went first to the Grand Trunk ticket office and bought a ticket costing a couple of dollars, and gave in payment a check for a much larger amount. he check was cashed and McDonald was given $12 in money. He next gave a bad check for $30 to the proprietor of the hotel, and later got away without paying for $28 worth of clothes he secured from Mr. A. Tillmann. As soo as they discovered that the check was worthless, the Grand Trunk took steps to apprehend McDonald, but it was not until a couple of weeks ago that the police in Toronto located him. He stated in court yesterday that he had only been working there about six weeks. Representation was made that McDonald has completely reformed,

The first part of the programme was Mrs. F. Joanes levoted to miscellaneous selections. Perhaps for the average audience this week. here was a little too great a predominance of songs in French and German, as such songs must always ose something of their dramatic intensity to an English audience. Despite that fact, however, they were greatly appreciated. "If My Thoughts Had Wings" (Hahn), Mrs. Edward Wyatt's first number, was a delightful little melody, and was beautifully rendered. Mr. Hollingshead gave a fine interpretation of one of Verdi's master songs from Rigoletto, but the little ncore song that followed was, if anything, more appreciated. Mr. Frank Blachford showed him-elf a master of the violin. His tone was remarkably sweet and true. The 'Gavotte movement, from Gossec,' Labatt has always been a favorite, and last night was no exception to that rule. The song that seemed particularly suited to Mr. Dwight-Edwards was the setting of Kipling's grim bit of realism. "Danny Deever." It is not a nice song, but its rendition was an artistic triumph. Mr. Dwightthat makes songs of that nature particularly suited to him.

Of the "Persian Garden" itself little need be said. It is a very beautiful setting of the immortal quairains of the Persian poet, Omar Khayyam. The quartette work was particularly fine, the voices blending admirably. The contralto solo,
