BRITISH FACTORIES CLOSING AS RESULT OF COAL STRIKE

Men Are Waiting Patiently for Negotiations for Settlement to Begin-No Disorder Reported-Dock Workers Will Not Handle Imported Coal.

[Canadian Press.

London, March 4 .- Premier Asquith made his promised statement concerning the coal dispute this afternoon in the House of Commons, but did not announce to the country any settlement or an immediate prospective settlement.

"Time is vital to bring the two points of view approximately together, and I cannot help believing that time will break the deadlock." THE MINIMUM WAGE.

The two points of view referred to by Mr. Asquith were those outlined in his speech to the miners' delegates on Feb. 29, in which he pointed out that the Government had recognized the principle of the minimum wage demanded by the underground workers, and that a majority of the coal owners had assented to the proposal.

The Premier's statement was largely made up of repetitions of that speech. He declared that the British Government was still strongly of the opinion that the best way to fix a minimum wage scale was for the Government to set up machinery for ascertaining the necessary facts, but the miners still refused to recede from their own

A TERRIBLE RESPONSIBILITY.

Mr. Asquith concluded by appealing to the House of Commons to recognize the terrible responsibility resting on every member to refrain from comment at the present time. Mr. Asquith made one particularly interesting statement, in which he denied that he had said, as had been asserted in a speech of one of the miners' leaders that "the Government regarded the granting of a minimum wage in the coal trade as the first step to the attainment of a minimum wage for all

Sir Wilfrid's Tribute To Lady Laurier

"The one thing that particularly touched me in Dr. Clark's altogether too generous speech was the thoughful and kindly reference to my good wife. I know the advantage of a good wife. When first we started the path of life together she was in good health, while I was the delicate one, and she then formed the habit of controlling me. Now, when we are old, I have the good health. I don't know that I am 70 years of age. When I go to my arithmetic and subtract 1841 from 1911 I find that the result is 70, but that is the only evidence I have of it. (Cheers). The affair largely the outcome of the efforts of friends of the chief of police to hold his position for him, and the whole hearing and decision has aroused the most intense interest here.

The judge in the lengthy decision and comment stated that apparently none of the councillors had taken out proper qualification papers and this alone would have been sufficient to unseat the members against whom que warranto proceedings had been begun; but added to this were the glaring irregularities at the pools during polling day, when in one polling booth over a dozen voters were marking their ballots at the same time on the pupils' desks of an ordinary schoolroom, quite innocent of screens or any other means of securing secrecy of the ballot.

In the case of Councillor McMillan, the judge held that he was directly interested in a lease of riverfront property secured from the town; consequently he was disqualified for this reason also.

It is not known whether or ecision will be appealed.

Guelph, March 3 .- Only the prompt ac ion of the fire brigade and the Sisters of Charity prevented a serious conflagraion at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday afternoon. Fire was discovered about o'clock in the coal-room back of the boilers, and it spread rapidly, filling the enire hospital with dense smoke. The fire apparatus broke down when within half mile of the fire, but luckily it was not needed. There was a slight commotion mong the patients, but no sign of a panic. It was exceedingly fortunate the ire was in the daytime, as if it had been night, the results might have been lisastrous. The cause of the fire was lefective electric wiring. The loss was not great, and is covered by insurance.

DOCTOR COOK STILL STICKS TO HIS STORY

Tells Ottawa People That He Was Most Certainly at North Pole.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, March 3.-Still maintaining hat he discovered the Pole, but stating that it is as impossible for him to prove it beyond doubt as it is for Peary or any other explorer, Dr. Fredrick A. Cook is in Ottawa.

"I just dropped into Ottawa to see friend, Captain Bernier, during me spare time," he said.

"I have never claimed pin-point acuracy. The Pole is not something you can hang your hat on and say, This is it.' It cannot be accurately located within miles. What we did, however, when we left the last land was to measure off the distance travelled, first by time and then by checking up with a pedometer. Occasionaly, when the sky was clear, we took bservations for latitude and longi-None were absolutely correct, ude. out they were sufficiently so as to give us a working hypothesis and to olot out our daily advance.

"We finally reached a place where we had the sun night and day at about the same altitude, and there the shadow gave us a final check. It was the same length at every hour of the 24, a fact which is only a fact at the Pole, or at least, while within ten or twelve miles of it." Dr. Cook went on to state that he had commenced an action for $100,000 against the New York Times in regard his story. He discussed among other things, the probability of the South Pole be-ing reached and gave it as his opinion that both Scott's and Amundsen's parties would probably get to it.

Women's New Spring House Dresses Are Here

And after viewing the great assortment of pretty and becoming styles (all ready to wear), such as are shown in illustrations here, at $1.50 to $2.00, is it any wonder that we have some difficulty in getting enough to supply the demand when the season opens up? If you sit down for a minute and figure the cost of making, and add this to the price of the material, say nothing of your time and worry of having your dress made, you will ask yourself the question that scores of customers ask us about the prices of these pretty Wash Dresses: "How are they ever made for the money?" The prices of these Dresses are little more and in some cases less than you would expect to pay your sewing girl for making.

The perfection in the fitting of these Dresses, which is attained by wholesale dressmakers, is wonderfully accurate, and the materials used are the best washing prints, ginghams, chambrays, percales, etc., in plain colors, stripes and checks. We would advise getting vour summer supply early while the assortment of colors and sizes is complete. In ordering by mail, bust measurement is the only measurement necessary. Hitherto it has been believed that Lucan's alde-de-camp, Capt. Nolan, gave he erroneous order.

Cardigan describes how Lucan ordered fireman; Ada Gondolf, 11 years old; Walnut to "attack the Russians in the batthe erroneous order. tery." Cardigan replied:

"Certainly, my lord; but allow me to point out that there is a battery in front, battery on each flank, and the ground s covered with Russian riflemen. Lucan answered: "I cannot help that. It is Lord Ragian's positive order that the Light Brigade is to attack the Cardigan continues: "After advancing about eighty yards, a shell fell within reach of my horse's feet, and Capt. Nolan, who was riding across the front, returned, with his arm up, through the intervals of the brigade, shricking like a woman. "Evidently Nolan, seeing that a terrible ago. olunder had been made, rode across the front of the brigade, endeavoring with his sword to direct it to make the flank movement Raglan intended instead of the nsane frontal attack which Lucan ordered. Nolan was instantly killed, but his stiffened muscles kept him astride his horse, and he rode, a dead man, through the ranks with his sword uplifted." This is the first time it was ever menioned that he was "screaming like a woman." This memorandum rekindles the ashes of one of the keenest military controversies in British annals.

SIR WILFRID STANDS FIRM.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's assurance that he will remain at the head of his party o long as it wants him, and "so long as God spares me and blesses me with the perfect good health that He is giving me today," was received with an ecstacy of enthusiasm by the Liberal members of Parliament. The chieftain's brief speech was a gem of oratory. It had the buoyancy of youth, and was surcharged with an emotion beautifully expressed. There was not a faltering note. His reference to the The present soaring prices extinguish future position of the Liberal party was specially significant: "We have fallen for a cause, aye and the best of causes. Looking back tonight over the events of the past fifteen years I have nothing to regret, not even defeat. If it were to be done over again I would be ready again to fall in the same issue. When Dr. Clark was speaking a moment ago it came to my mind that he was one of those splendid British Liberals who had personally fought behind the greatest Liberal of the nineteenth century, and my thoughts reverted to the words of the great Gladstone, when he fell on a policy calculated and designed to benefit a country which had been much wrong-That is my word to the Liberals of Canada in the hour of temporary We have fallen in a cause that is noble, and time is with us."

The Liberal party can and must fight the reciprocity issue over again, dwellers would sooner go without food so long as the offer of a free American Canada before the 21st of September, a month, that the most desperate Canada before the 21st of September, a month, that the most desperate flying, 1911, it is desirable today. The leaders of the party would deliberately disarm themselves if they discarded reciprocity. It is today, in spite of September's defeat, the best weapon they have.

A CONTRAST.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's amendment on Friday to the bill providing for the establishment of a tariff commission, called for non-partisan appointments

"The commissioners to be selected without any regard to the views of any political party upon tariff or by reason of their fitness, high character, training and experience, ef-fectively and impartially to disfectively and charge their duties under this act." This resolution could have been accepted by the Government if its intentions were honorable, and it wished to make the board non-partisan. As Dr. Clark, of Red Deer, showed, by quotations from Mr. Borden's Halifax platform, asserting that the appointments of public officials should be made for considerations of character and capacity, and not for political reasons, Sir Wilfrid's amendment is absolutely along the lines there laid down. It is in accordance with the speeches and promises made by Mr. Borden during the election campaign. But he and his followers vote down the resolution which would give effect to their own professions, and, what is more, the Premier brazenly declared that the

Contrast the decent method of Mr. Taft in his plan of a permanent tariff commission, "corresponding," he says, "in a general way with the present non-partisan tariff board." A Democratic Battle Song. [Manitoba Free Press.] As in the case of other notable ballads, the authorship is unknown of the "houn' song," an old favorite in the Ozark district of Missouri, which was adopted as the official anthem at the recent convention of the Democrats that state, held at Joplin. When the band struck up, the convention sang the chorus:

Every time I come to town The boys keep kickin' my dawg aroun' Makes no diffrunce if he is a houn', They gotta stop kickin' my dawg aroun'.'

The papers throughout the United States have been having a good deal of fun out of the "houn' song," and now the New York World rises to call halt to "such trifling with serious things," and points out that the homely song from the Ozark Moun-tains ought to be taken up as a Dembattle hymn. Says the

"The 'houn' song' is the trumpet call to the battle for justice. The letter was treated as a joke at first by the local management, they thinking that McWhirter was writing more to cause a laugh than anything else. It now looks as though "Bobby" really meant what he said, and has serious notions of becoming a manager.

If nerve counted for anything the Townstaled exerts to lord the top but his or north lad ought to land the job, but his playing and his work on the team last season will hardly merit him landing a place this year, let alone the managerial berth. He will be given a try-out in the spring but a couple of catchers have been signed, and it will be a survival of the fittest.

WHAT THE HERALD SAYS. The Hamilton Herald has the following to say about McWhirter's notion: "Bobby McWhirter, the Toronto catcher, who failed to make good with the Toronto Eastern League last season, and Toronto Eastern League last season, and Toronto Eastern League last season, and who was far from being the star backstop of the Canadian League, wants to be made manager of the London team. Of course, the London management are not foolish enough to take the application seriously. It shows that Robert is bating right at the top in the nerve league. Another year's experience in the Canadian League may beln to make McWhirter. League may help to make McWhirter ready for better company and incidentally bring his cranium down to near the normal size. Tommy Hess would fill the bill for London to the king's taste, but it is doubtful if Hamilton would care to part with the veteran catcher."

Scottish cup tles—These were postponed until Saturday next.

Scotland has beaten Wales. The sting of the Thistle has proved too much for the strength of the Leek, and Auld Scotland's total of wins over the principality now totals 27. Yesterday's game was played at Tynecastle Park, Edinburgh, a ground on which the Welshmen once made a draw of it and gave the Scotchmen a big fright. Though beaten this tirae, "Taffy" seems to have made a good fight for it, judging from the closeness of the score. Scotland has no reason to crow over this, her first international of the season, and it is quite evident that unless she can muster a better lot to represent her against England, the championship of the nations will this year fall to the Rose. COMPLPETELY BURIED.

Bury went to Birmingham yesterday in the hope that they might capture points from Aston Villa, who have been going anything but strong this season. What a surprise they The "Villans" simply romped home, and Bury still hold their position at the bottom of the table. Blackburn Rovers, although only drawing at Sheffield, may be considered to have done very well. The point gained not only keeps them on top, but increases their lead, as both Everton and Newcastle got beaten. It has been freely stated that Sheffield Wednesday would have a say in the final struggle for the flag, and now this looks very like materializing. The "Blades" had another great victory yesterday over Newcastle and now become runners-up to Blackburn. It is really exciting how English clubs go up and down. Poor Manchester City seem destined to stick where they are and be relegated to the second Woolwich Arsenal are their latest victors.

STILL NECK AND NECK. As a result of Saturday's games in the second division, the race between Burnley and Chelsea is as before. test matches is: England 4, Australia 1.

The match just ended was the closest and best contest of the series. England scored 539 in two innings, and Australia up to the start of vesterday's play had totalled 369 runs, with 7 wickets to fall. Requiring 170 to win the match, they fell short of this total 70 runs. The result, however, was in a measure anticipated, as the heavy rain of the two previous days had left the wicket heavy and decidedly in favor of the English bowlers.

Burnley and Cheisea is as before. The former had a great victory over that they will regain their place in the first division. The big fall of Fulham will discount their chances in the next round of the cup ties. Cheisea's victory is according to form, but that of Derby County over Bradford is so narrow as to suggest that Bloomer's men will have difficulty that they will regain their place in the first division. Wanderers Had Better of Play, But When Ross Was Penalized, the Canadiers Scored the Winning Goal.

Montreal, March 4.-Wanderers lost their last chance to bid for the championship of the National Hockey Association, when they allowed Canadiens to defeat them by two goals to one in an overtime game at the Arena Saturday night. If either team had the better of the play, viewing the game as a whole, the advantage was with the Wanderers, and had not Ross been penalized, it is within the range of probability that they would have been the ultimate victors.

PASTOR FIGURES IN MYSTERIOUS OUTRAGE

Home Burned Just After He Was Arrested.

[Canadian Press.] Fort Worth, Texas, March 2.- Rev J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city is under indictment here today charging him with perjury. The indictment is based on the Rev.

Mr. Norris' testimony before the grand Jury regarding anonymous letters threatening violence unless he left Fort Worth. These, the indictment alleges, were written by Norris himself The pastor was released on bail of $1,000. Within two months Mr. Norris has reported two attempts to assassinate him. The last, he said occurred Tuesday night, when he says he was attacked by a man with a pis-tol. On the night of Jan. 4 the First Baptist Church was destroyed by fire. Rewards aggregating $6,000 have been offered for the arrest of the incendiary, but no arrests have been made. A few hours after Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church, had been indicted on the charge of perjury, his home burned down last might. It came as a mysterious sequel to an equally myster ious chain of events in which the saloon-fighting Baptist minister has figured. The most startling development came last night, when, accused of perjury, Norris was charged with having written letters to himself, which he was threatened with deat if he did not leave town. Norris first attention here campaigns for enforcement prohibition laws. Then Norris declared an attempt had been ern Railway Company extending their lines to London in the near future is again revived, a dispatch from Toronto to The Advertiser confirming the information received here some time. In response to a question, Sir William Mackenzie, of Mackenzie & Mann, stated that plans for the extension were being prepared at the present time.

'No such line has been located west of Brantford," said Sir William. "It is all part of what we shall consider in the future, and it is getting to be the very said then. "I cannot tell you exactly when, but we are coming."

The necessity for feeders in Ontario for their big lines in the west is given as the main reason for extensions in this direction by a prominent railway man. "Years ago, the C. P. R. did not see the necessity of feeders in this part of the country," he stated. "Now they have feeders running everywhere. The Grand Trunk have a system here that will give their lines through the west plenty of business. The C. N. R., if they are to keep abreast of the times, must also have these lines. My own impression is that they will construct a network of radial lines through here. The company have the power to sell, and radial roads are good for this section. They want to get into the fruit belts, and will be particularly anxious to bet boat connection. There will be plenty of money expended in this portion of the country soon. WILL BE A SENATOR.

[Canadian Press.] London, March 4.- The correspondent of the London Times in Rome says that in a list of new senators to be created on March 14, the names of Signor Marconi. Senor Arrigo Boito (the musical composer and poet), Gen. Caneva and Gen. Polleio are mentioned as certain.

FOREIGNERS IN PERIL IN CITY OF PEKING

Damage to Property Is Now made to assassinate him. This was followed by the destruction of the Estimated at Twenty-Five Million Dollars.

[Canadian Press.] China, March 2.—Most of ne Third division soldiers who sacked Peking broke through the eastern ity gate early yesterday, fleeing east ward, heavily laden with their plunder and accompanied with carts heaped with silver. The plundered districts present an awful spectacle of ruin nd wreckage. The rioters maliciously estroyed whatever it was impossible or them to carry away, smashing beautiful objects of art, such as ancient vases of porcelain. Several hu-man bodies were to be seen lying in pools of blood, but the number of killed was comparatively small.

Damage Is Heavy.

It is estimated that the damage from pillage and fire will exceed $25,-000,000 even if no more happens. The foreign ministers after a conference decided to bring into Peking all the available foreign troops stationed in adjacent ports in China. A force of 1,000 troops of various nationalities will arrive tomorrow. The action of the ministers in callng in foreign troops to Peking was

For some years there has been a strong agitation to have London brought up to the minute in this regard, but the agitation largely passed away in conversation. Last year ex-Ald. F. G. Mitchell endeavored to have something done. He did not succeed. However, the present board of works has gone ahead, and now there will be the proper regulation of traffic. Some of the clauses will not suit all parties, but on the whole, the bylaw is a reasonable one. It is a guarantee at least that the careless methods of the past will be done away with.

The London and Port Stanley board has acted on a suggestion, made in this column, and is considering other matters in connection with Port Stanley. Although the members did not go as far as one would like, they are asking a quid pro quo, in demanding that Smith street, through the picnic grounds, be closed, in consideration that the waterworks plant be located on city property there. The board might just as well have taken up the whole business, and settled every question. It will have to be done sooner or later, and now is as good a time as any. Many of the problems can better be settled at this moment than some years

Track elevation is a subject of discussion now, and London may be nearer a solution of the problem than many imagine. There is some talk now of the London street railway and the city asking the Dominion railway commission to allow the company to double-track Richmond street across the G. T. R. tracks. If this application is made, who knows but that the commission may take up the whole question of grade separation and level crossings? It is possible that such united States in an effort to approximately approximately Street railway extension is a big problem, as the members of the present council have already found out. Local feelings are likely to be considerably worked up over the question, and all kinds of pressure will be brought to bear upon the aldermen to make a decision agreeable to the various localities. North London needs railway service. There is no doubt it will come to them, The final result may be disappointing, however, to some of them, residents of the district.

There is much questioning among the city officials as to what the special salaries committee have finally decided upon. There is an air of mystery prevailing on the subject, however, and no person has been able to given much information as to the final result. Some will be given increases, but some will be

The Helena Costume Company's heating franchise is a perennial subject of discussion. The facts of the case are patent enough for a speedy settlement, but the request became a football, being kicked to and fro regardless of the merits of the case. However, there is no doubt that the council will make a decision this evening. From present indications the application will be turned down. Niagara power, legislated into a monopoly, is the ambition of those behind the

The street lighting contract will be the bone of contention shortly, some of the aldermen being dissatisfied with the contract offered by the water commissioners. The matter will not be disposed of at the coming meeting of the council, but will be disposed of before the 1st of April, undoubtedly. The commissioners claim the contract is very favorable to the city, but one can scarcely overlook the fact that the street lighting contract paid the deficit on the other portions of the business

Sites for the city hall are quite plentiful, many offers having already been made to the special committee. Each particular site has many adherents working night and day to induce the aldermen to accept it. There is a growing feeling that it will go east, although the bank site is popular.

"He will be remembered as a great and upright lawyer."

Moving seems to be hard on tempers at the city hall. They are very crisp these cold days, and one has towalk very carefully through the old building to avoid personal encounters. When the various officials become settled in their new homes, then there will be less friction and more work.

There is some interest being taken in the communication from Mr. Harold Richardson, of London, England, a London Old Boy, asking that he be allowed to meet the London and Port Stanley board to discuss the London and Port Stanley road. No details of the proposition he has to make have been received, but it is hinted that an offer to purchase the line will be made. And there are people who are in favor of selling it, too.

Already there are hints that certain former members of the city council will endeavor to come back next January. Two guesses are allowed the reader as to the identity of one of the aspirants.

Ald, Coles' ambitious scheme for a site for the new hall is being variously commented upon. It is a big proposition, and if the Government could be presuaded to lift a big share of the load, it would be a fine thing. There's the rub. One is inclined to doubt that enough money could be pried away from Hon. Samuel Hughes to make it worth while discussing with the Government.

Crowd Coming From Theatre Witnesses Terrible Accident. [Canadian Press.] Fort William, March 4.-The crowd

leaving the Orpheum Theatre Saturday afternoon were witnesses of a tragedy that ended a few hours later in death for the man whom they beheld as a living torch. Hector Salvatore and three other laborers employed by Seaman & Penniman, contractors for a new block on the corner of Victoria avenue and Syndicate street, were working in the excavation, when in some way Salvatore's clothing caught fire. He rushed outside from under the floor of the first story, and stood for a moment before the startled crowd coming from the theatre next door. Several men rushed toward him, pulling off the coat in which he was wrapped, as he sank to the ground. The blaze was extinguished and the man taken to the hospital, but he had breathed in the flames, and from the start his life was despaired of. He leaves widow and seven small children.

FARMERS' BANK PROBE OPENS IN TORONTO

Sir William Meredith and Others Will Make a Thorough Investigation Shortly.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, March 4. — The opening meeting of the royal commission, presided over by Chief Justice Sir William Ralph Mercaith, to inquire into the affairs of the Farmers' Bank, was held this morning at Osgoode Hall. As Sir William indicated, it was for the purpose of organization solely and to arrange for future meetings He suggested that he would be at liberty on Monday next and for several day following, and Frank Hodgins, K.C. who represents the Government, asked that the next sitting le held in Ot tawa, and that the date be set for Wednesday, March 13, as the first witnesses he wished to examine were connected with the treasury board. This proved satisfactory to the commissioner and those representing the various parties interested, and that date was set for the resumption of the inquiry. It is expected that the Ottawa witnesses can all be examined in three days, and if so the commission will resume in Toronto on

Over the door was the inserve twenty years for highway rob- scription, "All Hope Abandon, Ye Who Enter Here." On the door itself two crossed scythes were hung on a flaming red background. Portraits of Schopennauer, Hartmann and other apostles of pessimism were hung on the walls; also large picture portraying the legendary between life and death. A few candles gave the only light by which the roceedings were conducted.

The president and other committeemen sat at a long table, covered with a black cloth, on which was an urn in which he suicidal lots are cast.

Three dull knocks from a hammer, enreloped in black cloth, intimated that the neeting was open. The president began y expressing his sympathy with the ember of the league, a woman, who had recently attempted suicide, but as yet without fatal result. He added the ervent hope that she would meet the death she deserved. By way of indorsng his words all present rose in silence. Another member said that happily the wound received by the woman was dangerous and there was no hope of her re-

The greater part of the subsequent disussion turned on the question of devisng original methods of suicide. It came out that nine of the members on whom the lot had fallen had previously sworn not to take their lives in commonplace onditions. Various suggestions were ade, but the one most favorably received was that a considerable number of the members should commit suicide en masse, it being calculated that the sensation thereby produced would attract any number of recruits to the league. It was proposed that a dinner be arranged at a fashionable restaurant and hat the diners swallow cyanide of ootassium out of champagne glasses. Their funerals would be organized with great pomp in order to affect the impressionable people. The evening closed with the playing of a funeral march and a requiem, composed by a member of the league who recently took his life.
