Quality Counts in Linens

More than in probably any other kind of goods—and there is no textile manufactured wherein there are so many deceptions practiced for instance—they can be chemically bleached and filled with dressing and made to look just as nice as the genuine Irish grass bleached goods, but oh what a difference in the wearing quality.

Our Linens are Grass Bleached

the quality you can bank on, and we call your attention to the accompanying price list, which will demonstrate to you that our prices are the lowest.

These Direct from the Mills in Ireland

Pure Irish Linen, 72 in. wide, grass bleached, in a variety of patterns to choose from, very special at per yard..... 85c	56 in. wide, good heavy union tabling, unbleached, at per yd..... 25c

"And Some Were Wise And Some were Foolish"

The Wise Man

The Foolish Man

Chases up some "Bargain Store" or "Bargain Sale" thinking he will save 50c or so on a pair of Shoes. What does he get? Well, it's hard to tell—gets the poorest of Shoes—gets an ill-fitting Shoe—gets everything but what he wants—gets mad and declares he will never do it again. And he won't. Reader, remember the parable.

SUDDEN DEATH

The death occurred on Thanksgiving evening of an old and highly respected resident in the person of Elizabeth Putterick, relict of the late Egbert Wiggell.

Mrs. Wiggell was born in London, England, May 28th, 1837. Coming to America in 1869, she settled in Detroit, but later on, in 1880, moved to Chatham. Deceased was a devoted member of Christ Church, but for some years has been an invalid, having to be moved in a cradle chair.

A family of five daughters and one son are left to mourn her loss. The daughters are Annie and Pauline, at home; Mrs. T. J. Walters and Mrs. Chaplin, of this city; Mrs. McConnell, of Detroit, and son Egbert, of Detroit. The funeral will take place from her late residence on Wellington street at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

IN COLD BLOOD

Victim was the Protector of the Wretched Murderer's Helpless Infant Daughter.

Carson City, Nev., Oct. 15. — Tip Lowe, an Indian, has been brought to this city by Deputy Sheriff C. A. Watkins, of Elko county and placed behind the bars in the Nevada penitentiary, where he will be obliged to serve for two years for manslaughter.

Behind the crime committed by Lowe lies a story of human interest reaching the conclusion that the Indian was guilty of cold-blooded murder, although his victim was over 100 years of age, and had never raised a hand against him.

Lowe had lived in a tepee near Elko for many years. With him lived his young daughter and the aged Indian whose life he took. He was about 110 years old and had been driven from camp by his relatives when he became feeble to be of service. Lowe welcomed him and installed him as one of the family.

A daughter made her appearance in the wigwam about six years ago and the mother's life went out a few hours later. Then to the aged Indian fell the charge of the infant and its rearing until its spirit found peace in the mother's life went out a few hours later.

While tending to its wants a strange affection sprang in the wizen-faced redskin's heart for the baby. So intense did this become that the old man always expressed a desire to die with the child.

About three months ago the daughter became ill. Lowe searched the hills and valleys for the plant, the medicine man said would restore health to his daughter. He tramped many miles over heated deserts and looked in the most obscure places. Then despair came to him and he realized the hopelessness of his task.

He drowned his sorrow with whisky and was badly intoxicated when he neared the tepee. From a distance he saw the aged Indian approaching him. The old man told the other how the girl had just passed away and reminded him of his long cherished desire to die with the child he idolized.

In the morning they found Tip Lowe beside the road stupified by liquor and near by lay the old Indian, murdered. Lowe admitted his guilt.

MEN WANTED

In another column of this great home journal it will be seen that Aid Cowan advertises for 100 men, besides number of women and boys are wanted to work in the sugar beet fields in this vicinity. There are 160 acres of sugar beets within a radius of three miles around Chatham, on which from 100 to 125 men have been employed through the summer, and now a hundred more are wanted. The work will continue for about two months, and good wages will be paid.

The idea of growing the beets, is first to show the farmers that the beets are a paying crop, secondly to show the sugar beet people that beets can be grown to advantage here, also that sufficient acreage can be secured. If this can be done a sugar beet factory is assured for Chatham.

OUTGENERALLED WIFE

A Maple City man likes liquor better than he likes his wife or his work. Sometimes he has a greater fondness for booze than at others. When these spells of fondness strike him, with special force his wife is puzzled as to how to put an end to these periodical attacks. She is a woman, however, of great resources and so last week she sought to put the brakes on an outbreak. Gathering her husband's clothes she hid them and the man couldn't go down because he had nothing to wear. The husband, too, proved himself a real Napoleon as regards resources. He rather evaded things up by swiping his wife's clothes. Clad in female attire he made his way down town and secured the brand of liquor that assures and then insured a headache in the morning.

The men working on the new public library enjoyed the spectacle which was presented. The wife is now puzzling over being out-generalled by her husband. She thinks that next time she hides her husband's clothes that she will hide her own also.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT APPOINTS COMMISSION TO ARBITRATE

Mitchell Recommends that all Strikers Return to Work and Submit Questions at Issue to Roosevelt's Commission.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The following official statement announcing the close of the strike, was issued at the White House, at 2.20 a. m.:

After a conference with Mr. Mitchell and some further conferences with representatives of the coal operators, the President has appointed the members of the commission to inquire into, consider and pass upon all questions at issue between the operators and miners in the anthracite coal fields.

Brig.-General J. M. Wilson, U. S. Army, retired, late chief of engineers, U. S. A., Washington, D. C., as an officer of the engineer corps of either the military or naval service of the United States.

Mr. E. W. Parker, Washington, D. C., as an expert mining engineer. Mr. Parker is chief statistician of the coal division of the United States geological survey and the editor of the Engineering and Mining Journal, of New York.

Hon. George Gray, Wilmington, Del., as a judge of a United States Court.

Mr. E. E. Clark, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, grand chief of the order of Railway Conductors, as a socialist, the President assuming that for the purposes of such commission, the term socialist means a man who has thought and studied deeply on social questions and has practically applied his knowledge.

Mr. Thomas H. Watkins, Scranton, Pa., as a man practically acquainted with the mining and selling of coal.

Bishop John L. Spalding, of Peoria, Ill. The President has added Bishop Spalding's name to the commission.

Hon. Carroll D. Wright has been appointed recorder of the commission.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—The news from Washington early this morning, that both parties to the anthracite coal strike had reached an agreement to arbitrate, was received throughout this entire region with the greatest satisfaction. The news did not become generally known until daylight, and it caused considerable excitement in the mining towns. But the strikers as a rule are not disposed to prematurely celebrate this event. The real end of the fight they have made is yet to come in the findings of the arbitration commission.

MR. MITCHELL'S STATEMENT. Early this morning, when the personal of the commission became known, President Mitchell declined to say anything. Mr. Mitchell was in his office by 8.30 this morning, and he issued the following statement:—

"Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16, 1902.—Appreciating the anxiety and impatience of the public and the mine workers for some authoritative statement from this office, I issue this bulletin to say that I was unalterably opposed to the acceptance of or acquiescence in the form of settlement proposed by the coal operators, because it restricted the President of the United States in making selection of men who were to determine the question involved in the coal strike. These restrictions, having been removed and representation labor as well as organized capital, I am now prepared to give my personal approval to a settlement of the issues involved in this strike by the commission selected by the President, and shall recommend to the executive officers of Districts 1, 7 and 9 in their meeting to-day that an immediate call be issued for a convention, whose authorization is necessary to declare the strike at an end. In the meantime, I trust that the people of our country will be as patient as possible, as we are moving as rapidly as the interests of our people will permit.—(Sgd.) John Mitchell, President United Mine Workers of America."

After Mr. Mitchell issued this statement, the district presidents and secretaries at which a plan to lay the arbitration proposition before the full membership of three boards was discussed. This conference lasted for some time.

A SPEEDY RESUMPTION. Mitchell's public statement cleared the situation considerably, and not one person can be found around headquarters who does not think that the strikers will call the convention, and that the convention will decide to send the men back to work immediately. It is reasonably certain the delegates will meet in this city. The members of the three district boards were nearly all of them on the ground by 10 o'clock.

CONVENTION CALLED. The three district boards went into secret session early this afternoon, and at the conclusion of the deliberations the following official call for the convention of the anthracite districts of the United Mine Workers of America, to be held here next Monday:—

"Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—To the officers and members of all local unions in districts 1, 7, and 9:—Gentlemen,—At a meeting of the executive boards of districts 1, 7 and 9, it was unanimously agreed to issue a call for a delegate convention and to recommend to that convention that all mine workers now on strike return to their former position and working places and submit to the commission appointed by the President of the United States, all questions at issue between the operators and mine workers of the anthracite coal fields. In pursuance whereof you are hereby notified that a convention will be held in the city of Wilkesbarre, Pa., beginning at 10 a. m., Monday, Oct. 20. The purpose of the convention will be to act on the proposition submitted by the President of the United States. The delegates to that convention should be given to the delegates elected and the original should be placed in the hands of district board members not later than Saturday night. The district board members are instructed to have all credentials in the hands of the credential committee Sunday afternoon. It is recommended that delegates be given full power and authority to act in behalf of their local union, the name of the hall in which the convention will be held will be announced to the delegates upon their arrival. Respectfully submitted on behalf of the executive board of districts 1, 7, and 9.—(Signed) John Mitchell, President United Mine Workers of America; W. B. Wilson, secretary; Geo. Hartlin, secretary of meeting."

ADVICE TO BE FOLLOWED. The executive board of the three districts having unanimously decided to recommend to the delegate convention the acceptance of the arbitration proposition submitted by the President of the United States, it is reasonably certain that the advice will be followed, and the great struggle brought to a close, and it is the hope and belief of officers of the union that the mining of coal will be resumed before the close of next week, after a suspension of more than five months. The citizens of the entire region are much elated that the strike is almost over.

MAY RESUME THURSDAY. If the plans of the strike leaders are not disarranged, a general resumption of mining will take place about next Thursday. It is expected the convention will last two days and that there will be an interval of one day from the time the convention adjourns till the time set for the men to go back to the mines. If the convention should be in session on Wednesday, it is probable resumption would not take place until Friday.

There will not be enough work at first for all the strikers, as it is the intention of the companies not to dismiss non-union men who have stood by them during the strike. The organization will take care of such other men as are unable to find work. It is estimated that all the strikers will not find work until two or three months have elapsed. This is due to the condition of the mines. Some of them are wholly or partially flooded and others need repairing. The coal companies, anticipating the ending of the strike next week, are busily engaged in preparing for resumption. Thousands of coal cars are in the regions ready for loading, and extra efforts will be made in moving them.

in the large distributing centres once mining is resumed. It is estimated that more than 200 of the 350 collieries will be in operation by the end of next week and will produce enough coal to relieve the situation.

AS GOOD AS CALLED OFF. One of the district presidents said:—

"The strike is as good as called off already. The convention will accept Mr. Mitchell's recommendation and will call off the strike."

President Mitchell was in conference after 3 o'clock with National Secretary Wilson and District Presidents Nichols and Fahy regarding the receipt of President Roosevelt's message giving the names of the arbitration commission. Mr. Mitchell was asked: "Is it time now to offer congratulations?" "If you think we deserve it," he said, "and now I am going to bed."

PREPARATION FOR REOPENING. Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16.—Greater activity was shown at the offices of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company to-day than at any time since the anthracite coal strike began, more than five months ago. It is evident that the company expects an early resumption of mining and preparations were being made for replacing cars at the mines at once. The Reading Co. owns 23,000 coal cars. All of these will be shipped to the mining region with the utmost despatch. When the strike began nearly five thousand car-handlers were laid off, and these will be re-engaged as rapidly as possible. The company also has 30 barges at wharves in this city with a capacity of 1,450 tons each. They are ready for immediate use. Their tugs, which have been in use in the soft coal trade are being hurried back to this city.

PRESIDENT BAER VERY BUSY. President Baer, of the Reading Company reached his office this morning. He said that he had not heard of the results of the Washington conference of yesterday; that he had not read the morning newspapers, and that he was too busy to read them. For this reason he said he could not discuss the situation.

PRAISE CHATHAMITES. The Thamesville Herald says, in connection with a recent concert there:—"The Ladies' Glee Club, of Chatham, gave a number of fine selections, including a guitar solo by Miss Scott, which were heartily enjoyed. Miss Ross took the audience by storm with her charming contralto voice, and Mr. Wm. Miller, an old favorite, sang several solos in his usual good style. Miss Evelyn Barassin, Chatham's charming elocutionist, made her initial appearance before a Thamesville audience and everybody was pleased with her selections."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17.

KEEP THE CHIMNEYS CLEAN.

When householders begin to burn soft coal in the furnaces or base-burners, as they may have to do, there is one element of danger to be guarded against, namely, the heavy deposit of soot in the flues. The soot, unless it is swept out at stated intervals, will accumulate, and being inflammable, would be liable to ignite and produce a fierce fire in the chimney with a consequent risk to the dwelling. It sometimes happens that the ends of rafters or beams are by careless or ignorant construction, allowed to project into the chimney flues. These might become ignited and carry fire to the interior of the house. There is further danger that the shower of sparks from a burning chimney would ignite the shingle roofs. These risks may be obviated by sweeping the chimney, say once in two months.

A GRAVE CRISIS.

That the people of the United States are rapidly being brought face to face with dangers which will probably strain to its utmost tension the much vaunted constitution of that country must be apparent to any careful observer. Points out the Brockville Times. Already the President of the United States, the Governor of New York State, and many other politicians of note have vainly endeavored to put a stop to the ruinous condition of affairs brought about by the great Pennsylvania coal strike. Business men, too, are alarmed at the serious condition of affairs. In his last letter Henry Clews, one of the world's authorities on the outlook for business affairs, says:—

"The threatening attitude of labor, and the sharpening of issues between monopolies of capital and monopolies of labor are likely to have a seriously deterrent effect upon all sorts of new enterprises, unless an early settlement of the coal strike is forthcoming. The almost certain projection of these issues into the coming elections and the inevitable raising of a new set of economic problems with which the country is not yet prepared to deal are certain to have a depressing effect upon all lines of business. It is fortunate that the country is still enjoying great commercial and industrial activity, and that general conditions are sound; but it would be folly to overlook that a new set of influences are coming into prominence which will have to be seriously reckoned with in business affairs as well as in politics."

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

The Stratford Herald wades into us in the following fashion:

"The London News carefully credits to the Chatham Planet an editorial on yellow backed novels, to which The Planet helped itself from the columns of the Herald. This Planet evidently believes in giving forth reflected light. Kipling avers that plagiarism flourished even in the time of blind Homer, as it has flourished ever since. In fact the people and 'Omer, conspired together to encourage man's taking 'what isn't his'n'."

"They knew 'e stole; 'e knew they knowed, They didn't tell, and make a fuss, But winked at 'Omer down the road, And 'e winked back—the same as us."

To which the London News replies: "We may deserve the berating for placing the article to the credit of The Planet when it belonged to the Herald, but we won't admit that we deserve the poetry. And from what we know of The Planet we do not believe the Chatham man deliberately stole the article in question. That it was not credited to the Herald was doubtless due to an error. However, we are glad to place the honor where it belongs, for the editorial under discussion was a worthy and able one, and that was the reason the News reproduced it. We might add, in conclusion, that if the News desired, it could frequently raise the same cry as the Herald, for plagiarists abound in this district. But life is too short."

The Herald man was somewhat hurried in preferring his charges against this great home journal. If we mistake not, due credit was given for the reproduction. When The Planet desires to reproduce any article from a contemporary it always records the fact. The News is well aware of this, we doubt not, as we have frequently quoted from its bright and logical columns—and always gave the credit therefor.

Kruger's new book, in which he tells the world what he thinks of Milder and Chamberlain, is described by a Flippant American reviewer as hot stuff. If this is so it may come in handy in the fruitless days ahead of us.—Woodstock Sentinel Review.

An exchange says: "Don't forget the coal dealer who may take advantage of the situation to 'soak' you. He will be around next fall with his tail between his legs begging for your patronage. Then 'soak' him. Evidently the editor's coal dealer has been squeezing him.—Kingston News.

The people of the north should remember that freezing to death is a small matter compared with the 'principle involved.' The principle involved is whether the coal trust shall admit the existence of the miners' union.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

A resident says that the present is the only season in 30 years that his lawn kept perfectly green without needing watering, and he wonders why, with such excellent pasture, he should have to pay more for his meat than in any of the past 30 years.—Goderich Star.

If Mr. Ross chooses to use language which is capable of being interpreted as an admission that the Conservatives are, and have always been, right about the tariff, he must not be surprised if the people of Ontario jump to the conclusion that perhaps they are right about some other matters as well.—Winnipeg Free Press.

President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, has done more by his recent bearing for the cause of labor than perhaps any man in history. Calm, dignified, reasonable and opposed to violence, he stands in beautiful relief against the background of coal barons showing the iron hood of unreasonable capital. And he also stands centuries in advance of Debs.—Ohio State Journal.

Baer, the spokesman of the coal operators in the Pennsylvania coal region, has the contrary effect on the coal market that a bear does on the stock exchange. He kites it upward. He doesn't "bear" the market; he "hogs" it. Perhaps after all he is consistent in being contrary. He is a representative of the greatest hog combination on the continent.

SENT HIM HOME

A Planet reporter happened down to market Saturday in time to see Health Inspector Anson Mounier talking to a man who had a dressed hog for sale. The health inspector on looking it over, found it to be diseased, and ordered the man to take meat out of town and on his promise not to bring any more into the city let him go. The inspector says if he finds him on the market again with diseased meat he will be prosecuted. "Why, just think of it," he continued, "if he had been allowed to sell the meat, it would have gone into five or six families, and serious results might have followed. I think I was doing my duty in ordering the man to take the meat away."

THE MARKETS

There was a very good market Wednesday morning. Produce of every kind was fairly plentiful. The prices, however, remain practically unchanged. Peaches were offered in fairly large quantities at 25 cents a basket. Small lots of green corn were also offered.

Pierce for advice, which he gave me immediately. I followed his directions, used two bottles of his medicine and was cured. SAD DEATH

Demise of Miss Maude Tighe, a Popular and Esteemed Chatham Young Lady.

A particularly sad death occurred in Cleveland yesterday afternoon when Miss Maude Catharine Tighe, third daughter of Mrs. W. H. Tighe, of this city, passed suddenly away after an illness of two weeks.

The news of her death reached this city last evening and it came as a sudden surprise to her many friends here. Miss Tighe was one of Chatham's brightest young ladies and her death is universally regretted.

Miss Tighe was 22 years of age, and until two weeks ago she enjoyed the best of health. She left for Cleveland two years and a half ago and entered a hospital there as a nurse in training. She graduated from the hospital with honors last September and came home to Chatham on a visit. Two weeks ago she returned to Cleveland, intending to start out in the world as a trained nurse. She was there for a few days when she was taken suddenly ill. Her mother was called from Chatham and attended her during her illness. An operation was deemed necessary, and everything possible was done to save her life, but to no avail.

One particularly sad circumstance in connection with the death is that the deceased lady was shortly to be married to Mr. Jones, a banker in Cleveland. He naturally, is prostrated with grief.

Harry Scott, who is a brother-in-law of deceased, left on the noon train yesterday for Cleveland, and he and Mrs. Tighe, it is expected, will arrive in the city with the remains at nine o'clock to-night.

Unfortunately, Miss Gertrude Tighe and Mrs. Wyckham (nee Miss Maime Tighe) are at present in Regina and will not be able to attend the funeral. Besides a mother, deceased leaves four sisters to mourn her loss. They are Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Wyckham, Miss Gertrude Tighe and Miss Marion Tighe. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

LATTER DAY SAINTS

The conference of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, which was held in Ridgetown recently, was a notable gathering. Delegates were in attendance from all parts of Western Ontario, and from this city. This was the conference of the Chatham district, which comprises the counties of Ontario west of London. During the proceedings, President R. C. Evans, of this city, addressed the conference, giving his experience at the World's Reunion of the Church, at Dow City, Iowa.

which he attended. His talk was en-vigorating and stimulating.

The election of district officers was taken up. Two candidates for the president of the district were nominated, viz. Elder Arthur Leverton and Elder George Green. The first vote resulted in a tie, but on taking the vote over Elder Leverton received a majority of one. He was declared elected for the position. Elder Geo. Green was then elected as his assistant. Elder Richard Coburn was re-elected secretary of the district, and Elder James H. Tyrrell, of Chatham, was sustained as bishop's agent.

Recipe for success.

Here is a recipe which the great Lord Russell left behind him for the guidance of his son, a younger member of the bar:

Begin each day's work with a memo, of what has to be done, in order of urgency.

Do one thing only at a time.

In any business interviews note in your diary or in your entries the substance of what takes place—for corroboration in any future difficulty.

Arrange any case, whether for brief or for your own judgment, in the order of time.

Be scrupulously exact down to the smallest item in money matters, etc., in your account of them.

Be careful to keep your papers in neat and orderly fashion.

There is not need to confess ignorance to a client, but never be above asking for advice from those competent to give it in any matter of doubt, and never affect to understand when you do not understand thoroughly.

Get to the bottom of any affair entrusted to you—even the simplest—and do each piece of work as if you were a tradesman turning out a best sample of his manufacture by which he wishes to be judged.

Do not be content with being an expert master of form and detail, but strive to be a lawyer.

Always be straightforward and sincere.

An Old Gander on Guard.

"Keep an old gander," says a writer in a gardening paper, "if you would protect young chicks from their enemies in the shape of dogs, cats, crows and magpies. The gentleman will be found of great use, shifting all objectionable characters with commendable promptness. Not only will intruders be smartly looked after, but the gander will make as much noise as possible while performing his duty, thus giving the poultry keeper and game rearing warning when all is not right."

All for the Best.

What we need in adversity is an idea as part of our being, intertwined with our feelings, that God is just as much revealed in trials as in blessings, that His goodness is shown in putting our moral fibre to hard tasks that will make it athletic, and so make us permanently noble, as the teacher's friendship is shown in justifying the scholar to a tough lesson that makes his mind sinewy and wise.

Baby Minded All Right.

Kathryn, aged two and a half, marched up to her three-month-old sister and, pointing her finger toward the window, said: "Baby, look at that." Naturally the baby's eyes followed Kathryn's hand and Kathryn looked satisfied as she said: "Baby min' me all wight."

Special Underwear Displaying Saturday

See East Window

Men's Underwear that meets all requirements.

This stock of underwear for men has been gathered by system, not haphazard. We have provided for every possible preference, as to material and price, and for every build of man.

This meant, in a good many cases, having the underwear built according to our own specifications—having or dinary dimensions, changed here and there, as our experience proved it to be necessary. Many distinctive improvements in trimming has been made, all with the intended and successful result of producing underwear that fits well, is comfortable, and wears well—three cardinal points.

And yet a fourth—garment forgery, price for price—you won't be able to equal the Austin Underwear in any regular stock in Chatham, whether you take our cottonwear at 25c or the fine imported English wool garments at $1.50 for purpose of comparison. A few random descriptions of well liked sorts:

At 40c

Men's heavy wool fleece shirts and drawers, nice blue shading, would be good value at 50c a garment, our special 40c.

At $1.00

Men's plain grey fine wool shirts and drawers, handsomely finished, saten facings, blue trim edges, very fine quality.

At 50c

Men's pure wool Scotch knit unshrinkable underwear, in plain grey, elegantly finished, saten face drawers, ribb tail and waist, fine soft wool, very special value.

At $1.25

Men's extra fine quality shirts and drawers, in pretty blue shading, swell finish, good pearl buttons, saten facings and straps, warranted unshrinkable.

At 75c

Men's elastic ribb shirts and drawers, good weight and close, full of warmth, all sizes.

POOR PRODUCTION.

Last night's production of Pharaoh at the Grand by John Fay Palmer was a disappointing performance from the start and the falling pillars in the last act was a suitable climax. The only redeemable feature of the performance was the acting of the pretty little blind girl.

Manager Briscoe booked two good shows for the first week of November. On the third, "When we were Twenty-one," which met with much success here before, will appear, and "Gipsy Jack," with Miss Mildred Holland in the leading role on the sixth. Miss Holland, it will be remembered, appeared here before in the "Little Yagras."

San Francisco Minstrels at the Grand to-morrow night. — The San Francisco Minstrels were at the opera house Saturday evening and they were greeted by a good sized audience. The performance was first-class in every respect. In the first part the jokes were as a rule new, by far more so than the general run of minstrel shows. Several very funny local hits were sprung upon the audience. The music was also very pleasing. The quartette was especially fine, and received repeated applause. Near the close of the first part, Master Joe Gunshannon gave as skilful and easy an exhibition of elog dancing as was ever seen here.

As a whole this company will compare favorably with more pretentious organizations. — Augusta

SLEEPLESSNESS.

You can't sleep in the calmest and stillest night, if your stomach is weak, circulation poor, and digestion bad. Hood's Sassaaparilla strengthens the stomach, improves the circulation, perfects digestion, and brings about that condition in which sleep is regular and refreshing.

It does not do this in a day, but it does it—has done it in thousands of cases.

BLENHEIM

The San Francisco Minstrels at the Opera House to-night is sure to fill the house. This is one of the best Minstrel shows on the road, and Manager Briscoe deserves credit in procuring them for the Blenheim date. Carrier boys are not authorized to collect subscriptions. Our collector calls in each town once a month; if a subscriber wishes to pay his account before the collector calls he must request direct to The Planet office, Chatham, as we will not be responsible for money paid to carriers.

GREAT TEA DRINKERS.

The Maritime Province people use about six pounds of tea per head, or say about thirty pounds per year to an average family. They are also said to be good judges of tea, and this must be a strong recommendation for Red Rose, which is the principal Tea used.

WEST SHORE TO NEW YORK.

Through sleeping car to New York and Boston via Wabash and West Shore roads, leave Chatham at convenient hours and make fast time through to destination. Passengers are landed at West 42nd Street and Franklin Street, New York. Convenient to business houses and steamer docks. Ask for tickets via West Shore.

WERE WEDDED

Charming Marriage Ceremony of Miss E. H. Smith and Dr. Roland Webb.

Gaydene, the splendid home of Ex-Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Smith, was, on Wednesday evening, the scene of an exceedingly pleasing and elaborate social event in the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hodge Smith, to Dr. Roland Webb, of Grand Rapids.

The bride's magnificent home was very beautifully decorated in honor of the occasion, with palms, ferns and flowers, in fact the whole interior of the house was a veritable bower of beauty and elegance. The large drawing room where the wedding ceremony was performed was very profusely adorned. The ceremony was performed under a wedding bell of ferns and flowers, which was hung from the ceiling at the front of the room. The bay window behind this was decorated at the top with basket work of smilax and festooned at the bottom with the same.

Zeigler's orchestra, of Detroit, was present and furnished the music. The wedding march was very prettily arranged. The procession formed in the dining room and proceeded to the strains of the wedding march through the hall to the drawing room, where it approached the altar. Those who formed the procession were the bride, the bridesmaids and the maid of honor, while the bride entered last, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. The groom was waiting for her at the altar, and upon her arrival the ceremony was commenced. Rev. Robert McCosh tied the nuptial knot, after which the wedding supper was partaken of, and was followed by a shortening of dancing. The bride's gift to the maid of honor was a gold ring set in pearls.

The bride was prettily and tastefully robed and made a very charming appearance. She wore a rich dress of white brocade satin, trimmed with Irish point lace. She also wore a tulle veil and carried orange blossoms and bridal roses. Her wedding trousseau was very elaborate and extensive. Mrs. Smith's dress was made of mauve brocade satin. Miss Jessie Gemmill acted as the maid of honor, while the bridesmaids were Misses Marion Fleming, Olive Webb and Daisy Webb, the two latter being sisters of the groom. These ladies were all dressed in white and carried pink roses.

The ushers were Will Gemmill, of Chicago, Edgar McMichon, of Chicago, and Harry Liptick, of Mt. Clemens. The groomsmen were Dr. Harry Smith, of Mt. Clemens, brother of the bride, and the wedding was strictly a family affair and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Porter, of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Hodge, of Detroit; Mrs. McCosh, Miss Lucy Gemmill, Miss Agnes McNabb and Dr. Fleming.

The bride is the only daughter of ex-Mayor and Mrs. Smith and is one of Chatham's fairest young ladies. She was very popular with all who knew her and many are the wishes for her future happiness and prosperity. The wedding presents, which were many and valuable, show, to some extent, the high esteem in which she was held by all who knew her.

The groom is a rising young physician of Grand Rapids, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Webb, of Toronto. He is a graduate in medicine from the Toronto University. He has now a lucrative practice in Grand Rapids with exceedingly bright prospects before him.

The newly married couple left amidst showers of rice and good wishes on the 9.35 Wabash train for the west, where they will spend their honeymoon and will later take up their residence in Grand Rapids.

LOUISVILLE.

Anniversary services will be held here on Sunday, Oct. 19th, in the Methodist church. The Rev. John Osterhout will preach in the morning and Rev. James Walker, of Merlin, in the evening.

THE MARKETS

Planet Office, Tuesday evening, October 14.

GRAINS.

Harry Stevens, of the Canada Flour Mills Co., gives The Planet the following grain quotations.

Light receipts is the order of the day in the grain line. Farmers have a good excuse for keeping away from town with corn and other late crops to care for yet. The mills bid 68c, standard, for wheat, the demand being good for it.

Oats—Have a good demand, both for milling purposes and for export, and are steady at 27c to 28c, as to quality.

Barley—Also in demand, the offerings, however, are light, and dealers have little of it to offer for shipment.

Beans—Market is extremely active and healthy these days, demand is good, offerings small and higher values on us. From the low point of thirty days ago, prices have come up 50c to 75c a bushel. Considerable of last year's crop is held by both farmers and dealers, and those fortunate ones stand to make something handsome by it. Prices range for farmers' lots at $1.40 to $1.75, as to quality.

Wheat—New, 68c.
Corn—Shelled, 60c.
White Oats, new, 28c.
Barley, per 100, 75 to 85c.
Beans, $1.40 to $1.75.

SEEDS.

Nelson Stringer gives The Planet the following quotations—
Red Clover, $5 to $6.
Alfalfa, $5 to $5.50.
Timothy, $1.50 to $2.
Millet, 40c to 50c.
Seed corn, 60c.

WOOL AND HIDES.

Nelson Stringer gives The Planet the following quotations—
The hide market is a trifle firmer.
Wool, washed, 12c.
Wool, unwashed, 7c.
Calf skins, 6c to 7c per lb.
Lamb and shearlings, 25 to 40c.
Sheep skins, 25 to 35c.
Cow hides, No. 1, 5-12c; No. 2, 4-12c.
Horse hides, $1 to $2.
Deacons, 20 to 35c.

LIVE HOGS.

O'Keefe & Drew quote as follows—
The receipts of hogs has been quite heavy lately and the price has gone down to $5.25 per cwt.
Live hogs, $5.25.

FISH.

White fish, 15c per lb, dressed.
Lake Huron trout, 10c per lb dressed.
Yellow pickerel, 10c per lb, dressed.
Sturgeon, 10c lb, dressed.
Perch, 25c a dozen.

HAY.

O'Keefe & Drew report as follows as to the prices of hay—
Choice timothy hay brings $5 to $6.
Hay, clover, $1 to $5.
Hay, new, loose, $7.

FURS.

Nelson Stringer gives The Planet the following quotations—
Coon skins, 15c to $1.25.
Fox skins, $1 to $2.
Mink skins, 75c to $1.50.
Skunk skins, 15c to 75c.
Dog skins, 25c to 50c.

OUTSIDE MARKETS.

TORONTO FRUITS.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—The receipts are small at steady prices.
Grapes, Niagara, 30 to 40c.
Grapes, Muscadine, baskets, 30c.
Peaches, basket, 15 to 25c.
Peaches, Crawford, 35 to 50c.
Plums, basket, 40 to 50c; do, egg, basket, 50 to 65c.
Oranges, California, Valencia, $5.75.
Lemons, Messina, $2.50 to $3.50.
Apples, per basket, 10 to 15c.
Bananas, bunch, $1.25 to $1.75.
Muskmelons, basket, 25 to 30c.
Onions, per basket, 15c.
Tomatoes, per basket, 20 to 30c.
Sweet potatoes, per bbl, $3.

TORONTO PROVISIONS.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—Dressed hogs unchanged, with prices moderate. Cured meats in good demand at steady prices. We quote: Bacon, long clear, 11c in iron and case lots. Pork, mess $21.50, do, short cut $23.50.

ALL IN THE DAY'S WORK.

M. A. P. I.
Talking of buses reminds me of a killing little tale I heard from a little Englishman on a visit to our town this week. She and a lady friend were carefully and gingerly climbing down the stairs from the roof of a London bus a short time ago, when Boreas was out in good force. As they clutched their ballooning petticoats, the conductor cast a blasé eye upon them. "Never mind," said he, coldly. "Legs ain't no treat to me, mum!"

Some men are born great, some achieve greatness, and others thrust themselves upon it.

Mr. and Mrs. John White, of Inwood, spent Sunday at Jos. Phillips'.

Richard Steinhoff spent Sunday in Wabash.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Cutler, Mrs. Isaac Kelley and Mrs. Jas. Kelley spent Saturday in the Maple City.

Mrs. McMahon, of Inwood, is the guest of Mr. Cutler and Mrs. Joseph Phillips.

Mrs. Wm. Ross was away attending the L. D. S's conference at Ridgeway.

John Dougherty and family have moved to Dresden.

Miss Emma Phillips has returned home from an extended visit to Chatham.

Will Ross intends moving on John Dougherty's farm in the near future.

The Latter Day Saints are holding meetings in their church.

Miss Martha Wilson, of Thamesville, spent Sunday in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelley spent Saturday in the Maple City.

McKAY'S CORNERS.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Booth visited at Thomas Secord's on the river yesterday.

J. J. Broad, teacher, visited the Maple City from Friday evening.

Mr. Wm. Parsons, after returning from doing the farms of this district, attended church again last evening.

The Rev. D. M. Robertson, resident minister gave a very able address on the temperance question last evening from the pulpit, which should set the indifferent or careless ones thinking about the evils of the drink traffic; giving statistics, and estimates for each argument set forth. There is no doubt but this community will do its duty toward restricting the use of alcoholic beverages.

The St. James' congregation are to hold anniversary services on Oct. 28th, at eleven a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. R. Drummond, of Thomas, will take charge of both services. A thank offering is asked for by the managers and it is hoped that they will be even more successful than in the past two years.

Joseph Parsons was in the Maple City on Saturday.

Frank Smith returned from Chatham, after doing the Peninsular fair for three days.

Robert Kemp is around again, his broken leg having now become quite strong.

TUPPERVILLE.

Amos Carns is home again from the east and is somewhat better and will open his shop soon.

Miss Baker, of London, was the guest of her brother, J. S. Baker.

Ben Baker is in his new residence on Railroad street.

Zion church is here at Tupperville and will hold Sunday school for the last year home services. A concert will be held Monday night. Don't forget the date, 19th and 20th. Come to Zion and enjoy yourself.

Mrs. E. R. Reid and Mrs. Robert Dunlop spent last week at Mitchell's Bay visiting friends there.

The Cooper Co. here ran their new plainer, round, round, round.

W. F. Munch, of London, is putting gas fixtures in J. S. Baker's store and residence.

Mrs. John Holmes is improving nicely.

Mr. Walter Atkins is on the sick list.

Mr. D. France, of the Biddle House, spent a few days in Detroit last week.

Mr. John Harvey spent Sunday at Melbourne.

KENT BRIDGE.

The anniversary services in the Methodist church were very ably conducted last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Bond, pastor of the Methodist church, Dresden.

The church was very prettily decorated with flowers, as also were the seats well filled at both morning and evening services. Miss Rena Langford assisted the local choir by rendering two beautiful solos.

Mrs. Winger, of Detroit, visited at Mrs. Brewster last week.

Mr. A. J. Peshia spent last Wednesday in this city.

Mr. G. R. Langford had a new furnace put in his house last week. He intends to be warm this winter if coal is dear.

Mrs. Acker, of Wabash, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Shaw.

Miss Minnie Badder is visiting at her aunt's, Mrs. A. Hubbell.

Alex. Gregory is learning operating.

Mr. Everit, River road, visited the Methodist Sunday school last Sunday.

Reports say that the trustees of Kent Bridge school have been successful in re-engaging the present teacher for the ensuing year, it being the eighth term, which speaks very highly of that lady both as a citizen and a teacher.

A number around here are attending devotional services in Thamesville.

Mr. E. H. Norton is building an up-to-date hog pen. Adam Courtney is doing the mason work.

CO-OPERATIVE BUYING.

Toronto World.

In the fact that several east and families have clubbed together to bring in a couple of carloads of hardware for their own use is to be found a useful suggestion which other citizens may be glad to take advantage of. By securing good in bulk lots in this way the cost of the winter's fuel supply may possibly be kept within reasonable limits.

Rheumatic Pains Cured by Nerviline.
This is the testimony of Mr. Benjamin Dillon, of Leeds, Ont., who says: "I feel it my duty to proclaim the marvellous value of Polson's Nerviline as an infallible cure for rheumatic pains; it cures them every time. Nothing I know of equals it as a household liniment, and mothers should feel it as necessary as bread itself. Nerviline has cured rheumatism of 30 years' standing, and can cure you. Instant relief, absolute cure, large bottle 25c."

You Feel All Used up.
You're discouraged and disgusted—not enough energy to think, less to go to work upon. The reason? You are run down, your blood is poor, your nerves are like India Rubber not like steel as they ought to be. Use Ferrozone and the tired feeling will go, for it makes plenty of rich, red blood that feeds the brain and nerves. The desire to labor comes back and you enjoy it. You don't get tired, because you have used Ferrozone. Neglect not a day longer, Ferrozone will cure you. Sold by McCall & Co.

Though, for company, you take the cream of society, you do not make a spade any the less a spade.

Take care of the stomach and the health will take care of itself. If people only realized the soundness of that statement the majority might live to a good old age like Moses. The eye undimmed, the natural force unabated. It is in the stomach that the blood is made. It is from the stomach that nourishment is dispensed to nerve and muscle. If the stomach is "weak" it can't do its whole work for each part of the body. If it is diseased the disease will taint the nourishment which is distributed, and so spread disease throughout the body. It was the realization of the importance of the stomach as the very centre of health and the common source of disease, which led Dr. Pierce to prepare his "Golden Medical Discovery." "Diseases which originate in the stomach must be cured through the stomach." The soundness of this theory is proved every day by cures of dyspepsia, indigestion, liver, lungs, blood, by the use of the "Discovery," which is solely and singly a medicine for the blood and organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a temperance medicine, containing no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant.

HOW THE INDIANS VOTE.

They Are Very Deliberate and Then Have a Simple Method.

The Chickasaw Indians cast their vote differently from the way the white man does it. They meet the day before the election, and none but Chickasaws by blood is allowed to vote. No white man or intermarried citizens have the right of suffrage. They go off to themselves and have a powwow. They decide for whom they will vote after considering the matter for twenty-four hours.

The polling place is quite unlike that of the white man. There is a great sheet of paper, white, yellow or brown as the case may be, about three feet square. Upon this sheet of paper are a vast number of cross lines, regularly ruled off with a pencil. Then down one side of the sheet of paper are placed the names of all candidates for office, beginning with the candidates for governor and running on down to precinct officers. At the top of the sheet are the number of blank spaces that will be required for the names of the voters. The judges of election sit by and pass on those entitled to vote, and there is a certainty that no illegal votes are cast.

The Indian is thoroughly deliberate. He takes his time when it comes to voting. He proceeds to the polling place, looks carefully over the poll sheet, and if he is ready to cast his ballot he calls out his name, and the clerk records it on the sheet. Then the clerk reads off the names of the candidates for governor. The voter deliberates awhile, calls out the name of the candidate for whom he desires to vote, his vote is recorded, and the names of the candidates for the next office are called out, and so on through the list, till all the offices represented are voted for.

Thus it is that every voter knows exactly how every other voter has cast his ballot, and there are no remarks, no suggestions and no quarrel over differences of opinion.

The Plymouth Rock.
A schoolteacher in one of the charming rural suburbs of Philadelphia, where fancy gardening and the raising of "Philadelphia fowl" are general among the residents, neglected to the class the story of the landing of the pilgrims, and, as the children had been taking up the work, she requested each scholar to try to draw from the imagination a picture of the Plymouth rock. Then it was that the little fellow got up and raised his hand.

"Well, Willie, what is it?" asked the teacher.

"Please, ma'am, do you want a hen or a rooster drawn?" came the unexpected reply.

Musical Snails.
A French naturalist claims that there are few if any animals which have a higher appreciation of music than snails. "Place some snails on a pane of glass," he says, "and you will find that as they move over it they will make musical sounds similar to those which a person can produce by wetting his finger and then rubbing it around a glass tumbler. Complete airs, he points out, have been played on tumblers in this way, and he expresses the opinion that quite as good results can be obtained by using snails instead of fingers."

The Old Lady and the Incubator.
An old lady visiting an exhibition went to see some incubators which were on show and, complaining of the expense of keeping fowls, said that if they were cheaper she would buy an egg hatching machine. After she had asked various questions the gentleman in attendance proceeded to show her the drawers in which were deposited the eggs in different stages. On these the old lady looked in astonishment.

"What?" she exclaimed indignantly. "Do you use eggs?" "Certainly," was the attendant's astonished answer. "Well," said she, "I consider it a perfect swindle to pick the pockets of honest, hardworking folks by selling them those frauds! Why, anybody can hatch chickens with eggs! I can do it myself!"—London Globe.

Marvellous Medicine.
A patent medicine vendor in a country village was dilating to a crowd upon the wonderful efficiency of his iron bitters.

"Why," said he, "Steve Jenkins had only taken the bitters one week when he was shoved into the prison for murder, and what does Steve do but open a vein in his arm and take iron enough out of his blood to make a crowbar, with which he pried the doors open and let himself out. Fact!"

Lucky.
"No use o' talkin'," said Mr. Erastus Pinkley, "dat brother o' mine is a mighty lucky man. He allus has money."

"But you must remember that he is much more industrious than you are. He isn't at all afraid of work."

"Dat's jes' de point. He were lucky in 'bein' born industrious."

His Easy Promise.
"Does my boy?" inquired the parent, "seem to have a natural bent in any one direction?"

"Yes, sir," said the teacher; "he gives every indication of being a captain of industry some day. He gets the other boys to do all his work for him."

Versatile.
Mrs. Brown—Your husband, I hear, is quite versatile.

Mrs. Brown—Smythe—Versatile is no name for it. Why, he can actually stay out late every night in the week and not give the same excuse twice—Philadelphia Record.

VARICOCELE

CAN BE CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE, PAIN OR LOSS OF TIME.

BY DR. GOLDBERG'S LATEST METHOD OF TREATMENT.

According to claims made by Dr. Goldberg, Detroit's noted specialist, varicocele and strictures can be cured without pain, the use of the knife, or loss of time.

Were these claims made by an irresponsible person, we should doubt their truthfulness, but as they come from a reliable source they are worthy of consideration.

The treatment consists of a combination of drugs, which removes all traces of the stricture, while in varicocele, it equalizes circulation, thereby restoring the parts to their natural condition; it cures nervousness, backache, smarting sensations, and unnatural discharges, thereby strengthening the organs, thus being a guaranteed cure for weak men.

If you are in need of treatment, we would advise you to write the doctor to-day, for if he accepts your case, you can pay when cured; this is certainly a fair proposition, as you need pay nothing until a complete cure has been made, and unless the doctor was certain that his latest Method Treatment was a positive cure, he could not make this offer. The doctor is a graduate of one of New York's leading medical colleges, and since his graduation he has devoted his entire attention to the treatment of varicocele, stricture and skin diseases. He has taken four special courses in the New York Post Graduate Hospital for which he received special diplomas, certificates, etc., which testify to his standing and ability.

Patients calling at his office are interviewed by him in person and all correspondence receives his personal attention.

Address him in confidence Dr. Goldberg, 208 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich.

Greatness is not so much ability to plan masterpieces as in persistency in pursuing them.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. A great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, proving to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

WESTMAN BROS. CHATHAM

BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS
THE SCENE OF AN UPROAR

Violent Speeches by Irish Members and Great Clamor From the Irish Benches—Mr. Healy in a Satirical Vein.

London, Oct. 16. — Parliament was re-opened to-day without any of the usual formalities. The House proceeded immediately to the business of the day as soon as the Speaker took the chair, shortly after 2 p.m. The session is likely to last until nearly Christmas. Owing to the highly controversial character of the Education Bill and the unbending determination of each side, the session promises to be the most serious party struggle in the House of Commons since the last Liberal Government retired from office. Seven hundred and fifty amendments to the Education Bill await consideration, of which number 588 have been proposed by the Liberals.

UPROAR IN THE HOUSE.

The sitting opened with a turbulent debate.

Premier Balfour moved that the remainder of the session be entirely devoted to Government business, which, he explained, would consist mainly of the discussion of the Education and London Water Bills, while the Indian budget, the Uganda Railway, sugar bounties and the supply vote would enable the procedure to be carried out. The Transvaal, he added, would also require attention.

James Bryce, leading the Liberals in the absence of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, mildly protested, and then Patrick O'Brien, one of the Irish members, asked that at least a day between now and Christmas be devoted to discussion of the serious state of affairs in Ireland.

Mr. Balfour replied that if the request for such an opportunity came from the Liberal leaders the Government would grant it, but they could not notice it from the Irish party.

William O'Brien thereupon made an impassioned speech, warning the House that Ireland was on the verge of revolt. The constitution, he said, was practically suspended, and now the members were gagged in the only Parliament they had.

Throughout Mr. O'Brien's remarks the Irish members kept up a perfect storm of applause. When Mr. Wyndham, the chief secretary for Ireland, entered the House, they hissed him loudly, and the Speaker, who was frequently on his feet asking for "Order," sternly repressed the demonstration.

Mr. Lloyd-George, backed up by Irish members, and T. P. O'Connor increased the excitement by bitterly upbraiding Mr. Balfour for declaring that Irish matters must only be discussed by favor of the English Liberals.

Only after a heated colloquy with the Speaker was Mr. O'Connor prevented from voicing abuse of Mr. Wyndham and a description of the alarming state of Ireland, which the other Nationalist members had not touched on.

During the afternoon the Speaker's ruling raised renewed clamor from the Irish benches. Members of the House of Lords, as spectators, crowded into the House of Commons, in expectation of a scene, for the threats from the Irish benches became more and more demonstrative. The climax came unexpectedly.

Mr. Healy, amidst intense excitement, said, in icy tones:—"I rise to speak as a native of Uganda." The House was convulsed with laughter. In a speech which on all sides was characterized as one of the finest satires ever heard in the House of Commons, Mr. Healy, always as a "Ugandan," thanked the Premier for his consideration which enabled the Imperial Parliament to devote time to the discussion of native affairs. He complimented Mr. Balfour on being able to sufficiently detach himself so as to be oblivious of the vital disturbances prevailing in that distant and distressful country, Ireland. In this vein, which irresistibly held the attention of Mr. Balfour himself frequent amusement, Mr. Healy completed what a Unionist member defined as one of the "finest satirical indictments the Government had ever undergone."

Other Nationalist members continued that debate fiercely, declaring that Irish affairs were at present more important to England than any of the matters mentioned in Mr. Balfour's program.

William Redmond regretted that the Irish people could not, with arms in their hands, strike a blow against the violent tyranny to which they were subject. The present action of the Government, he declared, afforded a reason why the Irish members would take the first opportunity of harrying the ministers from office.

Ultimately Mr. Balfour moved the closure, and the uproar broke out again with renewed vigor.

John O'Donnell stood up and refused to give way to the Speaker. His fellow Nationalists shouted encouragement and cheered vigorously. The Speaker repeatedly warned Mr. O'Donnell that he was out of order, and an exciting scene followed.

Mr. Balfour moved the suspension of Mr. O'Donnell, and the latter crossed the floor, stood in front of the Premier, shouting defiance and shook his fist in Mr. Balfour's face.

The House suspended Mr. O'Donnell by a vote of 341 to 51.

Mr. Balfour smiled quietly as the Irish member shouted and gesticulated, and other members of the Cabinet, fearing that O'Donnell would actually assault the Premier, moved towards him, but O'Donnell having concluded what he had to say returned to his seat and then left the House.

Previous to the action of the House the Speaker made the usual formal request that the offending member withdraw, which drew forth derisive cries of "Call the police," "Muster the horse guards," etc.

The debate was then closed by a vote of 263 to 148.

The House then went into committee on the Education Bill.

WORLD OF SPORT

FOOTBALL

CHATHAM 1, WALLACEBURG 0.

A special L. E. & D. R. R. train, in charge of Conductor Pierce, carried the local football team and about forty rooters to Wallaceburg yesterday afternoon.

The game was close and always exciting, Chatham winning by one goal to none. Each side scored a goal, which was not allowed, the player who did the shooting in each case being held to be off side.

Wallaceburg has a fast team of well developed football players, who gave Chatham their hardest tussle of the season.

An unfortunate accident occurred in the beginning of the game, when Stevens, Wallaceburg's star full back, had his knee-cap knocked out, which will probably put him out of the game for a few weeks, possibly the season.

Right after the kick off the ball was carried toward the Burg goal and a shot by Anderson on a pass from Angus, scored the only goal before three minutes had elapsed.

A little later on Patterly scored again, but the home team made a claim that he was off side and the goal was not allowed.

In the last half Taylor for Wallaceburg put the ball between the Chatham stakes, but the off side claim of the Chatham club was allowed and the goal didn't count.

Messer, Chatham's new centre forward, proved a good man in yesterday's game. He was badly hurt in the first part of the game but stuck to it all the way through. Lindsay Parrott on the half back line worked right in and showed up strongly.

Courtney and Wilson, as usual, put up a stone wall defence, while the forward line kept the Wallaceburg defence busy most all the time.

Doyle, who substituted for Stevens, was right there all the time and his predecessor could not have done much better.

Bennie, formerly of the local Business College team, was one of Wallaceburg's fast forwards and played a strong game.

The order on the field was far from what it might have been. Any dispute or disagreement between the teams would bring the crowd out on the field en masse.

The line ups were as follows:

WALLACEBURG.

Goal—Polsted.
Full Backs—Boulton, Stevens, Doyle.
Half Backs—Wooliver, McCosh and McConnell.
Right Wing—Boughman and Bennie.
Centre—Knight.

Men's Newest Neckwear

These ties that we tell of to-day are just in. Novelty silks, smiling colors, covetable styles in every way.

A large new lot of flowing ends to begin with. Ample sized, and as many colors and weaves as you've time to choose among.

Then a wide assortment of bows and string ties. Silks and shades that you have not seen before.

GOAL KICKS.

Tom Stevens, of Galt.

Plewes made a fair referee.

A junior team may be formed.

How about old man Fetterley?

Wallaceburgers are hard losers.

"Linney" Parrott is a coming star.

Sam Courtney's cigars were well received.

Falsely in goal for the 'Burg is a good one.

William McKenzie Messer is a whirlwind.

Wallaceburg is scheduled to play at Darrell to-morrow.

Two hours and five minutes was the actual time of playing.

Captain Fetterley deserves a large share of the credit for the victory.

Samuel Mercer played in hard luck. He made several long and clever but unsuccessful runs.

Gordon McCosh, Bennie and Boulton, of the Wallaceburg team, have all played with Chatham.

Shannon at centre half played a magnificent steady game. His checking and kicking were most effective.

On returning to Chatham the members of the team and their supporters were tendered a splendid supper at the Hotel Merrill.

Wallaceburg has a splendid team and show up handsomely in their red and white suits. Any team that plays with the 'Burg boys will find matters interesting.

The schedule for the eastern section of the Peninsular League is as follows:

Oct. 16, Chatham at Wallaceburg.
Oct. 18, Wallaceburg at Darrell.
Oct. 25, Darrell at Chatham.
Nov. 1, Wallaceburg at Chatham.
Nov. 8, Darrell at Wallaceburg.
Nov. 15, Chatham at Darrell.
