The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. JUBILEE SOUVENIR OF GALT.

" Sounds which address the ear are lost and die,
In one short hour ; but that which strikes the eye,
Lives long upon the mind ; the faithful sight
Engraves the knowledge with a beam of light."—ANON.

THIS, the Jubilee Souvenir of Galt, is published in order that a record of the past may be of interest to those who now are occupying the places of those who have been called from the "stage" and have long since performed their parts—and performed them well—and of interest to those of us on whose shoulders rest the well-being of our town, and that it may be an humble memento of an enduring character. Convinced are we that none in our broad Dominion can boast of truer loyalty to home and home interests than the citizens of Galt, and were the immortal Scott we can say

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

Hence it is not a surprise that we should know, and outsiders learn, that Galt should grow. Galt is admirably situated on the banks of the picturesque Grand River and Mill Creek, both supplying an abundance of water power for nine months of the year—and much of it as yet unused—the residue quietly passing on its way to the great lakes untaxed with labor, a mighty giant on its play ground, and wondering why its willingness to act and work was not utilized. The situation Galt enjoys gives many advantages—educational, social and commercial—and it would be strange indeed if it did not grow. The important thing now is to see that its future growth be a healthy growth; that its progress shall be steady rather than spasmodic, and that its ambition and reputation do not fall from their high place.

Galt is an inland town about 57 miles from Toronto, and on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the Wellington, Grey and Bruce, Great Western Division of the Grand Trunk Railway System, also on the Elmira branch, of which it is the southern terminus. The town was originally part of North Dumfries Township, Waterloo County, and is situated 13 miles S. E. of Berlin the County seat. We boast of the surrounding country as of the most productive in the interests of agriculturists, indeed nowhere can better results be shown for the "soil toilers" than the bountiful, laughing harvests which are freely grown and thankfully received by them in their returning seasons. The town possesses flour, woollen, oat meal, planing and saw mills, saw and pin factories, foundries, knitting works, file and knife works, tanneries, and other industries of an extensive character. It also contains one Anglican, three Presbyterian, one Baptist, one Methodist and one Roman Catholic Church, one Separate School, a Collegiate Institute, and three Public Schools, some of these institutions possessing very excellent and valuable libraries. The town has a public library containing nearly 6,000 volumes and one of the most complete and commodious buildings, with geological, scientific and antiquarian departments to be found even in towns and cities of larger pretensions. The town hall, a magnificent stone structure, having a seating capacity of 500, has excellent acoustic qualities, and is fitted up with council chamber, police court office, and suites of offices for the various departments of the municipal heads.

There are three chartered banks and one private bank, each of them having managers who seem to be, and indeed are the right men in the right place, not only deeply interested in the discharge of their official duties but ever ready to further the interests of the town, and with Butler may say :

A. M. NEWLANDS' RESIDENCE, Middleton Street.

W. J. MILLICAN'S RESIDENCE, Park Avenue.

“ 'Tis true we've money, th' only power
That all mankind falls down before.”

We possess two daily and two weekly papers, the Reformer and Reporter, both well patronized and the food dished to their patrons is above the average, and under wisely guided pens and versatile brains, we are

“ Bled by the gracious power, who taught mankind
To stamp a lasting image of the mind !
Beasts may convey, and tuneful birds may sing
Their mutual feelings, in the opening spring ;
But man alone has skill and power to send
The heart's warm dictates to the distant friend ;
'Tis his to please, instruct, advise
Ages remote, and nations yet to rise.—CRABBE.

We possess a magnificent, commodious and well equipped Hospital, over-looking the town. The location has been well chosen and the management is excellent. Already many have reason to thank the liberality of those whose means and benevolence were employed in its erection and maintenance.

As a shipping centre Galt has few equals, and the very excellent facilities are used in shipments of grain, cattle, produce, flour, and the voluminous products of the many manufactories. It is now connected with Preston and Hespeler by electric railway—one of the best equipped lines in Canada or elsewhere—connecting as its name indicates the three principal towns in South Waterloo. Connecting at the Galt depots with all trains on the C. P. R. and the G. T. R., the line runs through the busy streets of the “ Manchester of Canada,” out along the fertile fields of the beautiful valley of the Grand River to Preston mineral springs, the Mecca of the invalid and tired brain worker.

The line here diverges towards Hespeler and follows the interwindings of the romantic and picturesque river Speed. Midway between Preston and Hespeler is Idylwild Park, a beautiful and romantic spot, shaded by an abundance of wide spreading maples and elms which throw a benign shadow cool, and refreshing, canop-ing the whole park, fit for a trysting place for Queen Titania herself. Nature has done much in her beautifying processes to make this spot an ideal resting place, such a place as old and young may have enjoyment at its best, and we can express ourselves here in Longfellow's words.

"This is the place. Stand still my steed, Let me review the scene."

The wonderful progress the town has made of recent years is shown by the fact that its present assessed value is $2,859,758, upon which the rate of taxation is very moderate indeed. Seventy-seven years ago the place was almost an unbroken wilderness, known as "Shade's Mills," with here and there a building of very primitive construction. Its appearance in 1820, if put on canvas as a landscape view, would to our keen sense of its pretty and substantial makeup today, fill us of "Modern Times" with more than wonder. Time has worked wonders in its development of the settlement of the Township of Dumfries of which our town forms a part. In our looking backward on those early times when the Iroquois and the Six Nation Indians were reigning supreme and roaming with easy will as kings, though uncrowned yet could say

"My crown is in my heart, not on my head ;
Not decked with diamonds and Indian Stones,
Not to be seen ; my crown is called content ;
A crown it is, that seldom kings enjoy."

In those days the water of the Grand River was kept at work more than it is to-day in proportion to the town's needs now. Its waters run on, still willing to drive thousands of spindles or wheels. The requirements of the town for a water service have been made complete by a water works system, supplying an abundance for every purpose and of the purest and best spring water. The water supply being plentiful, the streets well supplied with hydrants, a fire has very little chance of gaining much headway. The town has a well-equipped fire brigade. The department is headed by Mr. James Curliss as Chief, who, night or day, on the first tap of the bell, is on hand, guiding his brigade behind his charger helmeted in regulation fire-fighting style.

As a town we possess every business facility, a perfect system of telegraph and telephone connection with all parts of the Dominion, G. N. W. and C. P. R. telegraph offices ; Bell Telephone, night and day service ; express, Dominion and Canadian Companies represented; numerous daily mails from all parts.

The climate is not only healthy but most enjoyable and invigorating. The health record is remarkable for its high standard, holding first place in Canada. Holding as we do this high standard, we think that life

“ Nor love, nor honor, wealth nor power,
Can give the heart a cheerful hour,
When health is lost. Be timely wise
With health all taste of pleasure flies.”—GAV.

The parks belonging to the town are not extensive. What they lack in size is made up by their situation and picturesqueness. High Park can compare well with others, located as it is on a high plateau, 78 feet above the level of Main street bridge, containing nearly one acre and a half, on the face of which are three beautiful terraces semi-circling the whole front, with three flights of stairs in the centre in sections, leading to an artistic and well laid out and planned park, with its beautiful flower and fern beds, soon to be shaded by young and vigorous trees. From this altitude Galt can be viewed as few towns can.

Dickson Park is a romantically situated resting place on the west side of the Grand River. This park nestles at the foot of a natural amphitheatre, where the multitudes can see and enjoy the fun and frolic which from time to time takes place there for the enjoyment of the people. This park contains about 12 acres.

Central Park is a beautiful triangular breathing place on central hill, Main street, shaded with trees, some of which belong to the primeval forest.

Queen's Square Park is another triangular spot, guarded by a monster Russian gun, whose mouth is wide open, yet it stands there in awful silence.

Our parks, lawns and boulevards appear at their best during summer ; June especially gives us a picture of perfect beauty. The residential parts of the town are girded, tucked and draped with soft foliage and fragrant vines. The streets, hemmed, bordered and founced with sturdy maples and horse chestnuts all in flower, added to a velvety, broad green sward.

"In every flower that blooms around,
Some pleasing emblem we may trace."

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.

In the early days of the town's history the schools were conducted by those—whose work among the youth of the time remains as beams of sunshine in the hearts and minds of a few, who are yet among us, though young no more, and who retain kind remembrances of those pioneer days and schools. Among the most successful and most revered we mention the late Dr. Tassie. Great changes have taken place since then. Our institutions today stand unrivalled in our broad Dominion. The staff of teachers at present employed are pre-eminently successful. Every department is under the management of up-to-date teachers. Thus as time has passed it has worked wonders in the development of the profession; so as the "young idea has been taught to shoot," so have the opening minds of the young who—

Alas, regardless of their doom
The little victims play,
No sense have they of ills to come,
No care beyond today.—GRAY.

The Goldie & McCulloch Co., Limited.

There is no better known manufacturing establishment in the Dominion than that of The Goldie & McCulloch Co., Limited, of Galt. This business was originally established by Messrs. James Crombie & Co. in 1844, who were succeeded in 1859 by Messrs. Goldie & McCulloch. In 1891 a joint stock company with a capital stock of $700,000 was organized, the officers of the company being: Hugh McCulloch, Sr., President; John Goldie, Manager; and Hugh McCulloch, Jr., Secretary-Treasurer. The buildings and plant of this extensive concern cover four and a half acres, and from three to four hundred men (according to requirements) are employed in the various departments of the works, whose earnings (paid every two weeks) most find their way into the coffers of the different traders of the town, adding not a little to the well-known general stability of the merchants of Galt.

The general lines of machinery manufactured by The Goldie & McCulloch Co. are summarized thus: The Wheelock improved automatic slow speed engine and "Ideal" high speed engine, which they claim are unsurpassed by any other steam engines in use; Steam engines of various styles, adapted for every class of work; boilers and all modern appliances in connection therewith; wood-working machinery; flour, oatmeal and buckwheat machinery; wool machinery; saw-mill, shingle and stave machinery; turbine water wheels, all of the latest designs; fire-proof safes, bankers' safes, vault doors, etc., of every size.

THE GOLDIE & McCULLOCH CO.'S FOUNDRY.

Circulars and particulars furnished on application.

The gentlemen who own and control this extensive establishment are personally so well known throughout the Dominion that little need be said here respecting them. We may state, however, that Mr. Hugh McCulloch, and the late Mr. John Goldie, were both leading employees of Messrs. Crombie & Co., but Mr. McCulloch was the first to reach Galt in 1850. Since they assumed control of the business in 1859 their record has been one of continued success and progress, the result of their ability, energy and intelligent application to business, in conjunction with a fortunate combination of facilities adapted to specific fields of action. Nor have they given their attention wholly to personal affairs. Both gentlemen named have always taken an active interest in everything relating to the welfare of the community. In concluding this sketch, we would state that the relations between the proprietors and employed of the Dumfries Foundry have been almost invariably of the most pleasant and satisfactory character. All the members of the company are active and enterprising business men, liberal in their dealings with their employees and as members of society highly esteemed.

Galt Foundry and Machine Works.

This firm is conducted under the name of Cowan & Co. The members of the firm are William Cowan and Arthur B. Cowan. The business is an old one, having been established in 1842, the present proprietors taking possession in 1871. They have added largely to the plant, which greatly increases their facilities for carrying on the business, and ever since the phenomenal growth of business keeps further taxing their resources. The firm is popularly known as iron workers and manufacturers of the most improved wood-working machinery, Harris, Corliss and Slide Valve engines, boilers, and sole manufacturers in Canada of the celebrated Austin patent feed water heater, lime, mud and oil extractor, and condensor, combined heaters, etc.

The main factory and buildings are the property of the company, and are substantially built structures of stone, two stories high and occupying an entire block of frontage on North Water street. The working force and forty thousand dollars. James Cowan, Sr., formerly the senior partner of the firm, is a native of Scotland, but who is a pioneer of Galt, becoming an active and worthy citizen in 1834. Ever since, until old age unfitted him for life's activities, though even in his advanced years, consists of over one hundred hands, the greater portion of whom are skilled mechanics, in receipt of good wages, as may be judged from the pay roll of the firm, aggregating over forty thousand dollars annually. This large sum distributed, as it is, among the merchants means a great impetus to local trade, so it can easily be understood that the firm of Cowan & Co. are decidedly important factors in the prosperity of Galt. The trade of the firm extends not only over the whole Dominion of Canada, but their products find their way to many foreign countries, and while this is, of course, a source of profit to the firm, it also demonstrates conclusively that Canadian manufacturers are not inferior to any, and are fully capable of taking a front rank in the markets of the world.

Some idea may be formed by outsiders of the immensity of the operations of this firm when we state that its yearly output is valued at one hundred still he manifests an interest in Galt. The other members of the firm are not only Canadians but natives of the town, of which they have done much to build up and develop, and they have ever been foremost in the ranks of progressive citizens.

.....Victoria Wheel Works.....

This extensive factory on Main street manufactures all kinds of carriage materials, wheels, finished shafts and poles, plow handles, etc. This is one of the largest businesses of its kind in Western Canada. It was established in 1860, and has been a success from the start, now employing some forty hands. The extensive concern covers a ground space of three acres, including the warehouse on Queen street. The goods manufactured by the firm find their way to all parts of the Dominion and even to Australia. The firm is composed of Robt. Scott, Esq., and his son, J. H. Scott. Both gentlemen are natives of Galt, and the son may be said to have grown up in the business, and is equally with his father familiar with it in all its details. Not only as a manufacturer, but as a citizen Mr. R. Scott has always taken a deep interest in all matters tending to the advancement of Galt. The high esteem in which he is held by his fellow citizens is shown by the fact that repeatedly he has been the choice of the people to fill important and representative positions, having served in the Council and filled the mayor's chair with credit to himself and honor to the town, and at the present time has the honor of being the first mayor of Rossland, B. C.

The Todd Milling Company.

This plant is located on Bruce street, and is one of the largest of the kind in the Dominion. The mill was erected in 1878 by a Glasgow firm, and purchased in 1886 by the present company, which is composed of Messrs. Thos. Todd, John Scott and Martin N. Todd. Connected with the mill is an extensive cooper shop, directly opposite the mill. The barrels are sent across by an automatic contrivance as soon as completed. The whole establishment gives employment to a large number of hands. The mill is a substantial six storey structure, built of stone, and has a capacity of 400 barrels per day. It is fitted up with the most improved machinery, and their brands of flour are eagerly sought after, as is shown by the fact that a ready market is found for their large output, not only throughout the Dominion, but in competition with the world in the market of Great Britain. The gentlemen of the firm are also interested in the social side of the town's welfare, and are greeted on every hand as men of the highest commercial standing. Mr. Thos. Todd is president of the Street Railway and Mr. John Scott is one of the largest and most extensive cattle exporters in Canada.

Galt Machine Knife Works

Among the many industries for which Galt is noted none have contributed more than the Galt Machine Knife Works, owned by Peter Hay. His manufactory has become a household word to the users of all kinds of machine knives, planers, moulding, shingle, tennon and mitre knives. In all parts of the Dominion where knives are used they are to be found. Mr. Hay's patronage is well deserved, wide as it is, as nothing inferior to the best is turned out. As a citizen he enjoys the confidence of his townsmen and is highly esteemed.

SCENES ON MILL CREEK.

IMPERIAL HOTEL CLARK, ONT.

This hotel is one of the best known and most popular west of Toronto. It is well furnished and heated by steam so that every room is comfortable, even in the coldest weather, and is prominently situated on South Water street, just opposite the post office, and close to the business part of the town. The house was built in 1882 by the Imperial Hotel Co., and was opened by Mr. Isadore Eby and has always been highly popular.

It is a substantially four-storey brick building containing 48 large airy bed-rooms, six parlor and sitting rooms, six large sample rooms for use of commercial travellers, and a fully equipped billiard room. The large dining room has a seating capacity of 80 guests in comfort. The cuisine is not surpassed by that of any, which is ample evidence of the great care taken by Mr. Graham, or as he is best known as George. The name Imperial is just what the hotel is in every respect. Rates $1.50 and $2.00 per day. Geo. A. Graham, Proprietor.

The C. Turnbull Co., Ltd.

Of the many manufacturing enterprises that go to make the Town of Galt famous abroad as a manufacturing centre few, if any, have contributed in so large a degree as the one above mentioned. The product of the company consists of lambs' wool underclothing, hosiery, knitting yarns, etc., and one would have to search the Dominion through to find a larger or more complete establishment of its kind, or one better fitted with the latest and most improved machinery for turning out first-class goods in their line. The commodious buildings occupied by this firm are situated on North Water street and West Main street, together covering a large tract of ground space. The factories give employment to over one hundred hands, and were opened in 1859 by Turnbull & Deans. The present joint stock company was formed in 1890 and own all the property they occupy, and their goods are found in all parts of the Dominion. The capital stock of the Company is fifty thousand dollars. Mr. C. Turnbull is a native of Galt, and is a young man full of vim and is one of Galt's best citizens.

GORE FIRE INSURANCE CO'S BLOCK.

THE GORE FIRE INSURANCE CO.

Among the many institutions of which Galt boasts, none are more conspicuous than the Gore Ins. Co's palatial and imposing structure situated on the corner of Main and Ainslie streets. The style is of a Romanesque character, and is built with Connecticut brown-stone, rock-faced base up to the first storey window sills; above this it is faced with brown pressed brick, tooled portage entry stone trimmings and Terra Cotta carvings. The corner of Main and Ainslie streets is round, having over the main entrance a heavily moulded arch, supported on two Doric columns, and over the arch the Company's name carved in mediaeval letters. This round corner is continued up above the roof, forming a round tower, roofed with Spanish tiles and terminating in a columned and octagon lantern, with ogee top and flag staff. OF CANADA, GALT, ONT.

Among the monetary institutions of Galt we pride ourselves of having a local branch of the Merchants Bank. The local office is in the Imperial Block, South Water street. GALT POST OFFICE.

THOMAS COWAN, ESQ.

Galt's respected postmaster is a typical Canadian, first opening his eyes to the light of day at "Clochmohr," still the family residence, near Galt; and in his earlier years he acquired a thorough knowledge of farming, at the same time acquiring a good public education, which was subsequently supplemented by a course of study in a commercial college. While yet a young man he abandoned the farm and became a successful commercial traveller for the firm of Messrs. Lutz & Co., manufacturers of stoves and implements. Being a lover of home and its comforts, the hard tack of the road was sometimes more than he contracted for, and he sometimes felt like what is expressed in "As you like it."

"When I was at home, I was in a better place ;
But travellers must be content."

His extensive travelling helped him, as a quick observer, to see the requirements of the people. This acquired knowledge in after life served him a good purpose. In 1874 Mr. Cowan became connected in business with Mr. Cameron, under the firm name of Cowan & Cameron, acquiring the business of his old employers, giving the name of the new firm, The Galt Foundry and Machine Works, which under the skill and management as senior partner the firm enjoyed uninterrupted prosperity.

As a public man, few have enjoyed greater esteem than Thomas Cowan. And now in his declining years he enjoys the quiet life of postmaster of Galt, his native town, and is deserving of the emoluments.

place, and one whose presence in the social circle always brings pleasure. He is full of energy and has the interest of our town at heart.

Few institutions are of more service to the well-being of Galt than the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, whose office is situated on the corner of South Water and Main streets, in the Commercial block. The suite of offices has lately been beautifully refitted, and is now a credit to the institution and to our town. The local manager, D. H. Charles, Esq., is the right man in the right

Newlands & Co.

Of the many and varied industries of Galt, none have been more conducive to its well-being than the large and well conducted manufacturing house of Newlands & Co. It is situated on Hawthorne street, and is a massive two storey white brick building, covering a large area of ground, in which a large number of experienced hands are employed in the manufacture of Saskatchewan Robes,

Buffalo and Astrachan Coats, Eider Downs, Jersey Cloths, Glove and Shoe Linings. Mr. Newlands is also identified as a member of the American Buffalo Robe Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The number employed here and elsewhere by Newlands & Co. is very large. The output of this firm is immense, reaching out to every part of the Dominion, utilizing in many cases the whole output of other large factories. Mr. Newlands is a "border callant," and one of our most respected citizens, and we say with Burns :

"Long may thy hardy sons of rustic toll
Be blest wth health, and peace, and sweet content."

WILLIAM FOWLER, ESQ.

DAVID SPIERS, ESQ.

Is one of the pioneers of Galt and a citizen held in the highest esteem by his fellows, having been identified with the interests of the town in almost every public capacity since 1852. As merchant, manufacturer and private citizen, Mr. Spiers was to be found in the front. Some 20 years has he served on the Council Board, and filled the Mayor's chair for 3 years. Closely identified with educational and social interests, a member of G. C. I. Board for 20 years, and enjoys the honor as chairman in this the Jubilee year. He is also president of the Hospital Board, president and manager of the Gas and Electric Light Co., a director of the G. P. & H. S. R. R., and one of the original promoters of the road. Although Mr. Spiers is so engaged in business, he is always ready to help. We can only say he is a busy, useful man, and Galt knows it.

THE GALT HOSPITAL.

It differs from most institutions of the kind, as it has not been constructed by the municipal authorities, but is the result of private benevolence and enterprise. It is a spacious three storey stone building, well situated on Sprague street, on the crest of one of the many hills among which Galt is located, and commanding a beautiful view of the town and romantic windings of the Grand River, which from this point, appears at its best. There are in the Hospital a number of private rooms for the use of patients who can afford to pay, while there are nearly twenty rooms in all. The Hospital is managed by a lady superintendent and a staff of physicians, the business details being left to a board or trust committee, selected by those who support it. Few in Canada can boast of such a noble charity. All honor to Galt and its liberal citizens who have provided such a refuge for the sick.

1st.—It is the smallest hot water boiler in the market of equal heating capacity.

2nd.—It is the wonder of all who see it, that such a small boiler using such a small quantity of fuel, should heat such a large space, and get up the required heat so quickly.

3rd.—All practical observers wonder at such an efficient, neat and durable hot water heating system being supplied at such a small cost.

It is held by patents issued in 1885, and are stamped "Little Wonder, J. D. McEachren, Galt, Ont., Pat. 1895." The

H. McCulloch, one of Canada's best instructors. The combination of talent and experience gives an assurance to the public that no institution of the kind offers better teaching facilities than the Galt Business College. Young men and women are fitted here for any position in life where a practical education is required. J. C. WINDELL,

Merchant Tailor.

Nothing inferior is tolerated with Mr. Windell. He understands what it means to be possessed of first-class material. Having risen from the "ranks," Mr. Windell deserves much of that which he is achieving—success. He has a reputation, not only as a practical tailor, but as a business man and citizen. His garments turned out have that beauty and taste displayed that shows plainly that they have left the hands of a master mechanic. His store is in Dando's Block on Ainslie street.

W. D. CARD,

Barrister.

Mr. Card is a rising young Canadian. He was born in 1870 in the town of St. Marys, Ontario, and called to the Bar while yet in his minority, possessing in a high degree the qualities which go to make up the "legal light." Mr. Card began practice here in 1892 and has already gained a wide reputation in his well-chosen profession. His office is in the Imperial Block, South Water street.

THE HARDY OPHTHALMOMETER,
Used only by N. B. WILKINS, Optician and Jeweler.

RICHARD BLAIN, ESQ.,

Has the distinguished honor of being one of Galt's pioneers. A native of the North of England, he emigrated to Canada and located in Galt in 1843, at once becoming identified with the milling business at that early day and period of Galt's history. Mr. Blain has always been held in high esteem by his fellow townsmen, as is shown by the municipal records where we find he has honorably filled the Mayor's chair five consecutive years and has held other important offices in the gift of the people. In his declining years he still enjoys the confidence of the public.

H. A. MATCHETT,

Dealer in Bankrupt Stocks and General Dry Goods.

The above business is carried on in T. A. Mara's old stand on Main St. and Mr. Matchett has the happy knack of suiting himself to the people's needs. The vast variety of his stock can only be understood when seen. Those who patronize him once are sure to return. With him every day is indeed a "Bargain Day."

The stand is one of the best in Galt and Mr. Matchett does a large business.

GALT LUMBER CO.

This company strikes the key note of success and is under the able management of Mr. Duncan Murray. Having commenced business in 1896, the Company is young but strong in finance and ability, and has for its president John Scott, Esq., one of the most popular and enterprising property owners of Galt. The output of the company last year was over 1,500,000 feet. Also large importations of red cedar shingles from British Columbia. This company merits the confidence of the public and enjoys it in a high degree.

GEORGE HANCOCK.

Has successfully conducted a cartage and dray business since 1872 which is constantly increasing. No one is more worthy the confidence placed in him than our mutual friend George, as we familiarly call him. A comparatively young man, yet his fellow townsmen have seen fit to confide in him the honor of placing him on the Council Board more than once.

JOHN W. TAYLOR.

Mr. Taylor is the Local Manager of the Bell Telephone Co. with his office in the Scott Block, North Water Street. This office is said to be one of the finest and best fitted in the Dominion. This is in keeping with Mr. Taylor, as he is one of our best and most progressive citizens. He is held in high esteem by his fellow townsmen, having been elected several terms to serve the town at the Council Board.

GEO. BERNHARDT.

This gentleman conducts a wholesale and retail wine and liquor business in the Opera House block, but in a few months will remove into his new and commodious premises in the "Iroquois" block, one of the handsomest and most complete places of business west of Toronto. Mr. Bernhardt has the reputation of conducting a large and increasing business. As a citizen he is always ready to help and promote the interests of Galt.

EDMUND SNELL'S RESIDENCE, Park Avenue.

MOUNT VIEW CEMETERY, GALT.

N. B. WILKINS.

Mr. N. B. Wilkins, jeweller and optician, conducts one of the most extensive businesses in his particular line west of Toronto. Though a young man his experience and practical knowledge give him a prominent place as a jeweller and optician. His store and office is in the Gore Block, Main street.

EDWARD RADIGAN,

Conducting business as a first-class painter, paper-hanger and glazier on Dickson street. For a quarter of a century he has been a well-known and highly respected citizen of Galt. The many years experience he has had gives him a precedence over others. A workman beyond the common, and one of those "big souled" Irishmen we like to meet.

A. J. MCPHERSON.

The town of Galt is to be congratulated in having Mr. McPherson as Town Engineer. As a gentleman of large experience and high scholastic attainments, he is well fitted for the position. He brings with him a wide experience from his travels and work in the Northwest. Mr. McPherson was our first waterworks superintendent. We all like Mac.

THOMAS KEACHIE,

Proprietor of the cab and 'bus lines of the town. Mr. Keachie is always ready to accommodate the public in storm or sunshine and has every requirement to meet the wants of his patrons. Of him the adage of "never missed a train" is true. He prides himself in personally attending to urgent calls and has handsome and comfortable rigs. His office is on the corner of Dickson and North Water streets and his residence Ann street.

CLAY BROTHERS.

As general grocers none are more worthy of success than Clay Bros. who have in a very short time gained the front rank in the grocery, crockery and glassware trade. They are successors of their father, W. P. Clay, who originally conducted the business. These young men are worthy the confidence of the people, as they keep the best goods ready cash can buy. Their store is on South Water street in the Imperial Block.

WALLACE & MOORE,

Hardware Merchants.

These young men are among our most energetic and enterprising business men. Mr. Moore as junior member of the firm is without question a young man born to succeed, and though scarcely beyond his majority, yet he stands in the front ranks. His general urbanity and genial spirit bring to Wallace & Moore much to make their large trade what it now is. The public will find their place of business in the new Buchanan block, Main Street, where customers like to come.

W. D. BROWN,

Fruits and Confectionery.

Mr. Brown delights himself in catering to the public's needs in this line, and for fifteen years has done it in royal style. His ice cream parlors are elegance itself, capable of seating comfortably over one hundred people at a time. While his ice cream is cool, he has mastered the art of giving a warm welcome to his guests. Indeed we could not dispense with the catering of Mr. Brown. His place of business is on Main Street, in the new Struthers' block.
