

Manitoba Goes Dry By Large Majority Pro-Germans Thrown Out of N. Y. Meeting No Further Infantry Attacks on Verdun

SEVERE CANNONADING BUT VERY LITTLE INFANTRY FIGHTING NOW

German Patrol Party Checked by the French - Turkey Knows Nothing of Enver Pasha, Who Was Reported Murdered.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Paris, March 14, 2.30 p.m.—Last night saw a continuance of the artillery activity on the Verdun front.

The text of the statement follows: "To the west of the River Meuse there was a fairly spirited cannonading last night. On the right bank of this stream a strong reconnaissance of the enemy in the wood of Haudremont was checked by our curtain of fire.

"In the forest of Le Pretre a detachment of Germans who endeavored to surprise our trenches at Croix des Carrières were received by a fusillade and compelled to disperse, leaving several dead on the field.

"The night passed quietly in the remainder of the front."

NOTHING IMPORTANT Berlin, March 14.—Via London—No important developments along the western front are recorded in the official communication of to-day, which is as follows:

"Western front:—Generally speaking there was no change. A small engagement near Nieuw, northeast of Ypres, ended in the British being driven back.

"A British aeroplane was shot down by Lieut. Immelmann east of Arras and one west of Bapaume. The occupants were dead. Lieut. Boelcke brought down two enemy aeroplanes which fell behind the French lines over Fort Marre and near Malincourt northwest of Verdun. The latter was destroyed by our artillery. By these achievements, these officers have put hors de combat their tenth and 11th enemy aeroplanes respectively.

"A British biplane was compelled to land west of Cambrai, after an aerial flight. Its occupants were captured.

"Eastern and Balkan theatre.—There is nothing to report."

NOTHING TO SAY. Athens, March 13, via Paris March 14.—The Turkish legation, which hitherto has denied absolutely the reports which have been in circulation concerning the assassination of Enver Pasha, Turkish minister of war, made this announcement to-day:

"We have no official advice concerning Enver Pasha."

The King has given permission for the Windsor, Essex and District Rosa and Horticultural Society to hold their annual exhibition on the slopes of Windsor Castle on June 24.

Dr. Cowen, the Poor Law medical officer for New Maiden, has asked the Kingston-on-Thames Guardians to appoint his sister, Dr. Lucy Beatrice Harvey, as his deputy during his partner's absence in the R. A. M. C.

GERMAN SYMPATHIZERS WERE PROMPTLY ELECTED FROM HALL

When They Tried to Make Trouble at a New York Meeting—Feeling Most Marked on Behalf of the Allies.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

New York, March 13.—(Montreal Gazette)—As a result of excellent police arrangements, efforts by Germans to break up a mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall under the auspices of the American rights committee last night, came to naught.

"The meeting itself was one of the largest and most enthusiastic held in this city in months. There was not a vacant seat in the parquet, boxes or galleries and the thousands who were crowded into the hall and upon the stage, excepting the few score who favored the Teutonic powers and who came with the purpose of making trouble, every body gave evidence of being heart and soul for the president of the United States and the nations, that in the words of one of the speakers, 'are fighting for the survival of freedom and democracy in the world.'

Major George H. Putnam, president of the American Rights Committee, presided and put the two sets of resolutions that were adopted with outbursts of cheering and waving of flags. One of the resolutions was directed to the hall and upon the stage, excepting the few score who favored the Teutonic powers and who came with the purpose of making trouble, every body gave evidence of being heart and soul for the president of the United States and the nations, that in the words of one of the speakers, 'are fighting for the survival of freedom and democracy in the world.'

"That's a lie," shouted a German in the gallery, and a dozen others shouted their approval.

Then the police were at the disturbers. Half a dozen were shoved struggling and protesting down two flights of stairs and into Fifty-seventh street and ordered to beat it.

A big tell in the parquet was determined to remain in the hall whether or not the police, the audience or anybody else wanted him. The big colored man who calls carriages at Carnegie Hall and who is two inches taller than Jess Willard, and as muscular as he is massive, appeared in this act. The big German was an instant in his hands. The police pushed the man into the aisle and the colored man received him in his arms.

Out of the hall, he carried him, and into the street he propelled him. It was so neatly done that those in the back of the hall, who witnessed it, cheered the big fellow who managed the removal.

repeated a dozen times in next hour, there being a forced exit every fifteen minutes. By 9.30 o'clock most of the trouble-makers whom were two Irishmen, were ejected.

"Can we imagine," said Maj. Putnam, "that any self-respecting ambassador would permit expenditures to be made practically as conspirators, by his own personal aides, men for whose conduct, according to all the rules which control the procedure of embassies, he was responsible, except with his own knowledge and under his confirmation of instructions from his government. We take the ground that because of the action of Berlin in carrying on its own barbarism in Belgium and for its responsibilities for the barbarism of its dependent, Turkey, Von Bernstorff should long since have been sent home."

"I hold that every consideration of republican ideals, of personal sympathies or national interest, of the future requirements of the United States calls upon our country to give our cooperation to England and her allies in the fight that they are making, not only for self-defence, not only for the fulfillment of their own obligations, but in the defence of the liberties of America."

Major Putnam praised the various powers of the Entente and added: "The cause of the allies is our cause; their fight is our fight. It represents the continuing conflict between democracy and autocracy, between the right of the people on the one hand to govern themselves, and the attempt at domination on the part of a militaristic Empire, the ruler of which claims to represent divine purpose and to command by divine will. The allies look for aid to our great republic, the republic which stands for democracy and the rights of the people."

"I will add even Germany and true Germany, whose final welfare depends, as I assuredly believe, on the defeat of the armies of the Hohenzollerns."

to rattle and a smash should soon follow."

In the big houses of the west optimism is wisely tempered with caution the prevailing note. Arrangements for the summer and autumn are being made on what is termed a modified peace scale.

The head of a great house in Regent street, asked if he expected peace in the autumn, replied: "No, but I think that the end will be in sight. The government to adopt a better and wine license system instead of putting prohibition into force, and claiming that if prohibition did become law the government should provide compensation for the hotelmen who were put out of business."

The Premier replied that this was not possible. The meeting was held in the "sacred" council chamber of the government. James P. Haverson, K. C., and George Wright, president of the Licensed and Allied Trades Association, were the principal speakers. Four of the members of the deputation also spoke. Mr. Haverson claimed it was impossible to compare Ontario with Russia, where vodka had been abolished or France, where absinthe had been wiped out. England afforded a better comparison, and the British Government had taken control of the liquor trade and allowed beer and wines to be sold. Mr. Haverson claimed that it was very unfair to attempt to have the people pass prohibitive legislation during the present time when the public mind was so agitated.

After hearing the pleas of the deputation, Premier Hearst said that the government's position was the same as outlined in the speech from the Throne.

The following were the points argued by the hotelmen: "That the hotels be allowed to sell beer and wine, and that shops continue to sell as present until after the war."

"That a plebiscite be taken after the war and provision be made for the soldiers' vote to be taken."

MANITOBA HAS GONE DRY; PASSED PROHIBITION, 2 TO 1

Winnipeg Gave Over 4,000 Majority in Favor of Temperance - Bars Will be Closed June 1st - Private Persons May Import Liquor and Manufacturers Export It.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Winnipeg, March 14.—By a vote of a little over two to one the Province of Manitoba yesterday voted in favor of the Manitoba Temperance Act, which closes all bars, wholesale licenses and club licenses throughout the province from June 1 next. Liquor may still be imported by private persons from outside provinces, and the manufacture of liquor in the province for export is still permitted. These are the constitutional limitations placed on the province in legislation along this line by the Federal authorities, but to remove these limitations, a mass meeting of citizens last night, amid great enthusiasm, endorsed a resolution calling on Sir Robert Borden and his Government at Ottawa to introduce a Dominion-wide Prohibition Act.

The returns given are incomplete in many instances, as comparatively few of the rural constituencies have reported in full, the bad state of the roads being against prompt returns from country polls. So far no figures are available from the three far northern ridings of St. Rose, Churchill and Nelson, and Grand Rapids.

THE WINNIPEG VOTE. The three Winnipeg constituencies gave a combined majority of 4,468 in favor of the Act, with one poll yet to come from Centre Winnipeg, which gave 1,777 for prohibition.

South Winnipeg went 2,705 in favor of the Act. North Winnipeg alone gave a majority against, but only by the narrow margin of 14. The city vote for was 14,712 and against 9,704.

Some remarkable scores were run up in the country, among which stand out the completed results for Lansdowne, 1,244 for and 205 against the Act, and in Deloraine, 1,004 for and 192 against. St. Boniface with one poll to hear from, went "wet" by 41; Portage la Prairie went "dry" by 339. Total figures received to date are as follows:—

In favor of the Act..... 44,040
Against..... 20,728

A majority in favor..... 23,312
Only two constituencies gave majorities against the Act, these being North Winnipeg and St. Boniface. Foreign-speaking districts, particularly Icelandic and Scandinavian colonies, gave enormous majorities in favor of prohibition.

ed here from the border near Naco of heavy movements of Carranza troops, under General Calles. Early to-day it was ascertained that considerable numbers of these troops were showing increasing hostility toward Americans and might even espouse the cause of Villa. The United States military authorities were sufficiently aroused by these stories to rush reinforcements to the garrison at Naco.

The Courier has succeeded in securing what are perhaps the finest group photos of the 128th Battalion, including both bands, it may ever be possible to get. These will be published on Saturday, March 18th.

The grouping of the different units is exceptionally well done, and the officers and men show up well. In addition to publishing these pictures, a limited number will be printed on heavy litho paper suitable for mounting, as a panel, and will be sold unmounted for 10 cents each. The groups will not be ready until Thursday of this week, but proofs can be seen at The Courier Office, and orders for the pictures will be accepted at once.

WILL MAKE A STAND. El Paso, Texas, March 14.—A circumstantial story reached here to-day that Villa intended making a stand against the American punitive expedition at Ojitos Pass, the narrow gap in the western Chihuahuas Sierras, through which he made his murderous dash on Columbus.

Americans familiar with the country assert that the Ojitos Pass is admirably adapted for a successful defence if Villa decides to make an open engagement with the American troops and does not intend to use guerilla tactics.

All night long sensational reports came into this city from various points along the border, the most definite being from Naco, Ariz.

New Regulations Restrict Movement of Friendly Aliens in Great Britain

Can Now Land Only at Twelve Ports, Nine in England, Two in Scotland and One in Ireland, and Whole Sea Coast is a Prohibited Area.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

London, March 14.—The new regulations of the defence of the realm act, which will greatly restrict the movements of friendly aliens, became effective to-day. Anticipating a flood of inquiries from resident and travelling Americans, Consul-General Skinner after consultation with his home office has prepared a pamphlet explaining the new rules.

Under the regulations friendly aliens can land only at the following ports: Dundee, New Castle, Hull, London, Folkestone, Southampton, Falmouth, Bristol, Holyhead, Liverpool, Glasgow and Dublin. A rush for passports and certificates of citizenship is expected at the embassy and consulate, for, except in the Metropolitan police area of London, Americans must register with the police. Even in London, Americans arriving after to-day must register. Such registration can only be accomplished by the presentation of a passport or a certificate of citizenship.

Americans desiring to visit prohibited areas, which include virtually the whole of the sea coast of the British Isles, must receive a police permit before leaving their place of domicile and this must be presented to the police on their arrival in the prohibited area.

Britain Beginning to Thrill With Glow of Optimism for Future

By Special Wire to the Courier.

New York, March 14.—The London correspondent of The New York Herald cables this morning: "The glorious fighting of the French at Verdun and victories of the Russians in the east have inspired an undeniable feeling throughout Great Britain that events now are foreshadowing a triumphant end of the war for the allies within a period which only a few weeks ago would have seemed impossible. At Lloyd's there is some betting at odds of one to two that the war will be over in July or August, but the consensus of opinion is that the end of the year will see the end of the war."

"The head of a great shipping house said to-day: "Germans can't long continue to exhaust her men, money and munitions at the present rate. Her wonderful military machine is beginning to rattle and a smash should soon follow."

"All circles now are discussing the approach of a triumphant peace, the only peace," according to The Pall Mall Gazette, "whether the end is soon or late, that can be accepted."

"He had a ranch in Mexico, about six miles from Columbus," she said, "and there my husband long ago became acquainted with Pancho Villa. On the morning of the raid, however, we were living in Columbus, not far from the army camp. We were in bed when Villa entered with several of his bandits."

"My husband spoke to Villa, and then, seeing that he was in no mood to talk, tried to resist. Villa promptly shot him four times through the body. As he was writing on the floor, he said: 'Stop your kicking, that's all you ever did anyway.' Then he grabbed a rifle from one of his men and plunged the bayonet through my husband's body."

"I bent over my husband's body and pleaded with Villa to kill me, too. A soldier shot me through the legs and as I lay on the floor Villa himself pulled the rings off my hands. Then they went out and left me."

In spite of the war the Birmingham Overseas report that the total rates during the first 19 days of this year was $1,473,970 or $150,000 more than in the same period of last year.

LIQUOR MEN CONFER WITH GOVERNMENT

Ask For Compensation, But Premier Said That Was Impossible.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Toronto, March 14.—The liquor men this morning had a three-hour conference with the Ontario Government on the prohibition question. They urged the government to adopt a beer and wine license system instead of putting prohibition into force, and claiming that if prohibition did become law the government should provide compensation for the hotelmen who were put out of business."

The Premier replied that this was not possible. The meeting was held in the "sacred" council chamber of the government. James P. Haverson, K. BRUTAL MURDER

Is Charged in Detail Against Villa - Killed Husband and Wounded Wife.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Chicago, March 14.—Passengers arriving here on a train that passed through Columbus, N.H., shortly after the Villa raid on that town, told to-day of the happenings during and immediately after the massacre. J. L. Randolph, Chicago, in speaking of his experiences at Columbus, said: "We passed through Columbus Saturday at noon. A woman was brought on the train with wounds through both legs. She said her name was Mrs. J. J. Moore and that her husband's body was in the baggage car. She asked me if I would look after her as far as El Paso, where she was going, and on the way she told her story."

"I bent over my husband's body and pleaded with Villa to kill me, too. A soldier shot me through the legs and as I lay on the floor Villa himself pulled the rings off my hands. Then they went out and left me."

Germans Hear That Greece Has Turned Down Entente Powers.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Berlin, March 14 (by Sayville wire)—Premier Skoulioudis of Greece is said by the Overseas News Agency to have informed the Entente powers that his government would not accept certain demands made by them, and that insistence on them would disturb the relations between Greece and the Entente.

TRIED TO KILL HIS WIFE AND THEN HIMSELF

Joseph Lebar of Toronto Cut His Wife's Throat With a Razor.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Toronto, March 14.—Early this morning, at their home in the rear of 135 Sumach street, Joseph Lebar cut his wife's throat from ear to ear with a razor, and then inflicted a similar wound, supposed to be fatal, on himself. Mrs. Lebar will recover, and although Lebar is unconscious, it was thought at the hospital early this afternoon that he also had a good chance. The would-be murderer and suicide was formerly a piano worker, but latterly had tried unsuccessfully to run a fish and chip cafe. His wife had several times reported his threats to commit suicide.

Probably Incendiarism.

By Special Wire to the Courier. St. John, N. B., March 14.—At the inquest into the death of Captain L. B. Gilham, of the New Zealand Liner Matatua, which was begun last night, Chief Officer Jenkinson was asked if it was his opinion that the ship was set afire. He replied: "I have a suspicion that there was something in the cargo that started the fire. Two of the reports were like gun fire or rocket shells. I am of the opinion that the fire was not due to negligence or spontaneous combustion. I have had no experience as to the explosion of carbide."

Killed by Engine.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Quebec, March 14.—Harry Quinn, of Levis, was instantly killed last night about nine o'clock, by a shunting engine of the Grand Trunk at Point Levis. He was travelling snow off the track and was run over by the locomotive.

One Year for Theft.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Montreal, March 14.—James A. Young, an employee of the National American Express Company at St. Johns, Quebec, was this morning sentenced to one year in jail for stealing $1,200 from the concern. Young had been in the employ of the company for fourteen years.

Universal Training Asked For.

By Special Wire to the Courier. St. John, N. B., March 14.—The St. John Board of School Trustees last night, adopted a resolution to be sent to the Minister of Militia, urging some form of universal training in Canada in times of peace, particularly for youths. The cadet system was recommended.

Where It's all Cold Steel

But It's Picturesque Among the Vosges Mountains—Correspondent Visits There.

Mr. H. Warner Allen, special correspondent of the British press with the French armies, in a despatch states: In the mountains of the Vosges men still fight to-day in the open with the cold steel as they fought in the days before machines of scientific destruction drove them underground. The Vosges are the country of the bayonet and the machine gun. Among their precipitous pine-clad hills the obstacles set by the invader from the East are proof against the puny artillery of science. A 17-inch shell makes no more impression on a mountain than a raindrop on a paving-stone, and under cover of the forests and the rocks whole armies can lie hidden in perfect security from the enemy's guns. The aviator's eye cannot pierce the dense canopy of evergreen foliage, and the machine, as a rule, can only fire at random, blindly wasting their shells among the trees and boulders. The rifle has its part to play in the fighting, but it is handicapped by the abundance of cover, and it is with the bayonet and machine gun that the issue rests.

THE DANGEROUS CURVE

It is only in the valley that the guns are dangerous. For half a mile our road lay exposed to the view and shells of the Germans, just a thousand yards away, and the cars worked up to full speed to get past the danger zone as quickly as possible. The enemy maintained a prudent silence, being well aware that the French in this section had definite orders to reply to every German projectile by four shells of the same calibre, aimed unerringly at his most vulnerable points—at his depots and cantonments in the area. So, as a rule, even under considerable provocation, the enemy remains discreetly quiet. In less than a minute our automobiles had disappeared from view in a narrow wooded ravine, and the German's opportunity was lost.

European wars seem as far away and impossible among the steep hills of the Vosges as in the old-time fairy tale. The precipitous forests are apparently as lonely and deserted as ever—where a man-jaded and careworn with city life and civilization can rest his mind and tire his body healthily with exercise and bracing air.

The main defence is the barbed wire which is twined in an intricate network round tree trunks, fallen branches and wooden stakes. It runs along the hill slopes and down into the ravines, extending in all directions its impassable barrier. On the other side of the barbed wire it is a debatable ground. The French sentries lie hidden in shallow holes, with their rifles at their shoulders, listening intently for a stir or a rustle that might betray the approach of a German patrol. Sometimes a French patrol will make its way through a narrow, zig-zagging passage in the barbed wire entanglement and cautiously glide down the hill toward the enemy. Perhaps they will reach the German line of wire unnoticed, and watch them for a while to see what the Germans are doing, and if occasion serves risk a shot or two at any of the enemy who may show themselves.

THE BOCHE SURRENDERED

Sometimes patrol knocks up against the patrol in the debatable ground, and then there is speedy work with the bayonet. On such occasions the Boche as a rule scuttles back to the shelter of his wire as quickly as he can. Two French soldiers were out together, engaged in the congenial task of hunting the German off the mountain side. Suddenly one of them exclaimed, as he peered into a hole between two rocks: "Hello, there is a Boche." A melancholy figure, holding its arms above its head, appeared above the boulders, and a plaintive voice replied in perfect French: "Yes, gentlemen, it is a Boche." "And what is a Boche doing there?" asked the Frenchman fiercely. "The Boche," came the sad reply, "is doing what he can—he surrenders." The humorous way in which the prisoner accepted the name of "Boche," which generally makes the Germans furious—probably because neither they nor the French nor anyone else knows the origin of the word—appeared to his captors, and when they brought him back to the lines they shared their soup with him before he was sent back to the rear.

THEY KNOW THE PATHS

The Frenchmen engaged in this particular section are not, as might be expected, young men to whom mountaineering and war in the hills might be an agreeable sport. They are territorial, men over forty, and for the most part, fathers of families. The major who conducted us over his domain—which, as he rightly said was to be measured rather by height and depth than by length and breadth—was a man of seventy, and in civilian life a lawyer. Yet he climbed up the breakneck paths, never pausing for breath, with ease that many men half his age might have envied. He told me that it was extraordinary how quickly his men had adapted themselves to geographical conditions, to which they were totally unaccustomed. They came there in the autumn of 1914, and in a month or two there was not a single mountain path or mule track in their sector, of which they did not know every bend and turn.

Now they are most comfortably installed and extremely well protected from German bullets. In fact, they are as comfortable up in the hills in the front lines as they are in their cantonments in the valley. They spend three weeks face-to-face with the enemy, and are often quite reluctant to go back to the rear, where they rest for a fortnight before returning to their posts.

Music and Drama

GETTING ATMOSPHERE FOR POTASH AND PERLMUTTER.

Without exception the critics and the public acclaimed with enthusiasm A. H. Woods' production at the Cohan Theatre, New York of "Potash and Perlmutter," the authorship of which was generally attributed to Hugh Ford and Montague Glass—the latter the writer of the well known tales in the Saturday Evening Post. Scores of dramatizations it seems were made of the stories of Mr. Glass but none of them quite suited his notions of the best to be drawn from them. Charles Klein, according to Rialto oracles, was called in to "lick 'em into shape," and he did some licking. Ultimately the heads of Messrs Glass and Ford and Woods, laid closely together, proved to be the best foundation for the structure, and the outcome was another big win for Mr. Woods.

It is announced as "an up to date garment in three pieces," it is worthy of the time-honored description of "all wool and a yard wide." Carrying on the familiar phraseology of the tailor shops—especially those of the establishments where Abe and Morris contrive to make a big profit by close attention to business and to the maxim "Caveat emptor," it fits the leading actors, "like the paper on this wall."

THE ROSE OF PANAMA AT THE COLONIAL

To-night the Rose of Panama Company opens a week's engagement at the Colonial theatre. This company carries its own elaborate scenery and costumes, and a good singing and dancing chorus, with those irresistible fun-makers, Mall and Lawler. They are featuring Miss Vera Hassen, singing and dancing, formerly of Geo Edwards' "School Days" Company, and have many other clever artists. The Rose of Panama will be played on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and for the last half of the week will put on "The Passing Review."

GERMAN NATION MOVING TO GET THE REAL TRUTH

Committee on Foreign Affairs Will Meet Tomorrow.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Amsterdam, Holland, March 14.—Via London—German newspapers say that Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg has returned from the general headquarters. His return is in connection with the illness of Admiral Von Tirpitz, the minister of marine, which the newspapers say has created an unusual situation. A committee on foreign affairs of the German states is to meet to-morrow under the presidency of the Bavarian premier. Neither the chancellor nor Prussia is represented on this committee, which meets occasionally as a sort of control board, of foreign affairs of Germany. George Bernhard says in the Vossische Zeitung that the decision to hold a meeting of this committee is regarded as a sign that the German states are dissatisfied with the present condition of affairs in respect to the war. He hints that the committee desires a conference with the allies on pending questions, including disputes with the United States. Herr Barnhard declares the nation is being kept in the dark, and takes the position that the government's silence must be broken.

Worried in Turkey.

By Special Wire to the Courier. New York, March 14.—A news agency despatch from London says: "Due to lack of communications, ineffective Turkish resistance to the Russian advance through Armenia is impossible, according to Athens despatches to-day, quoting Constantinople sources. The population of Constantinople is said to be alarmed, and all sorts of rumors are spreading as to the progress of the invaders. Turco-Bulgarian relations are growing worse, the despatches said, and Turkish officers are seriously considering asking a separate peace."

New Recruiting Officer.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Montreal, March 14.—Rev. C. A. Williams, pastor of St. James Methodist church, has been appointed by the Department of Militia, chief recruiting officer of this district. He will begin work at once to stimulate enlistment in this province. The committee appointed by the Board of Trade and known as the Citizens' Recruiting association, has begun operations. It has adopted the suggestion made by Lord Shaughnessy by getting employees to co-operate with it by supplying lists of employees eligible as recruits and has drafted a circular letter for use in this district.

With the Famous

Sir Conan Doyle has been advocating reprisals on German towns in return for the Zeppelin murders in England. He says: "The German airship coming from the eastern part of Belgium has to travel at least 200 miles each way upon its mission. Had we an aviation centre near Nancy we should be very much nearer than that to the great German centres of population. The distance from there to Wiesbaden would be 100 miles; to Bonn, 130; to Frankfurt, 140; to Coblenz, 180; to Cologne, 150. If, then, London is vulnerable, these are very much more so. Without any delay we should establish such an aviation centre, defend it with numbers of the best aircraft guns against the persistent attempts which will be made to destroy it, and will announce to the German government through the American embassy at Berlin that we can tolerate no more outrages upon our civilian population, and that any further raid will be followed by immediate reprisals."

"If such a policy were at once put into effect it might act as a preventive which is better than vengeance. But if it must be vengeance, then the blood is on the head of those who with their eyes open have provoked it. The whole world has been a witness to our patience. But for the sake of our own women and children the time has come when these murders must be stopped. If their civilians die as a consequence of the deliberate actions of their fellow-countrymen, then it is they and not we who have damned them. There should be no limit to the bombardment of these towns. We should go on and on until we have a formal promise that this form of warfare shall stop. The Hun is only formidable when he thinks that he can be frightful with impunity. Blood and iron is his doctrine so long as it is his iron and some one else's blood."

David Chase, an 86-year-old negro who said he was a former slave of Jefferson Davis, died in the prison pen of the New York men's night court.

By the will of the late Mrs. Fredericka Catherine Hagg, of New York, who died February 26 last, bequests are made to eighty-three relatives and friends.

WHAT IS THE WEIGHT OF YOUR BRAIN?

You are never likely to know, but from the facts which will be cited in this article you may make a good guess. There is a popular notion that a big brain means a big intellect. It is an entire delusion. Any scientist will tell you that the power of a brain is in proportion to the number and complexity of its convolutions and folds and has nothing whatever to do with its bulk. If it were otherwise, if the size of the brain were a sure indication of intellect, certain animals would be more intellectual than men.

The smaller animals have always proportionately larger brains. Thus a cat has more brain in proportion to its size than a dog, a sheep than a baby's brain is ten times the relative size of its father's. This has been held to be a sufficiently crushing reply to the cynical males who profess to see woman's inferiority in her eyes less than a man's. It is scientifically true that a woman's brain weighs less than a man's. The writer has often seen brains put to the test of the scales, and his notes clearly indicate that the average for the male brain is forty-nine ounces, for the female brain forty four ounces.

But this is a curious point. If the average weight of a man is one hundred and fifty pounds and that of a woman one hundred and twenty-six pounds, it is found that the weight of the brain relative to the body weight is rather more in the female than in the male. Woman herself if appealed to would very likely find other lines of defence. Thus she might argue that and rightly—that all mental activity finds its origin in the thin outer layer or cortex of the brain. On every square inch there are some odd millions of cells, the seat of mental energy. Might not a more just comparison be based on a consideration of these cells? But no observer has yet shown that there is any difference in the number, development, or vital energy of these brain elements.

Size of body or size of head has nothing to do with the weight of the brain any more than weight of brain has necessarily to do with intellect. Even Shakespeare may have had a brain weighing less than that of an average body novelist of the present day, and Pope, who was a little man, may have had a brain outweighing by some ounces that of the stalwart and athletic Christopher North. Napoleon and Nelson were both comparatively small men, yet what brains they had! LUNATICS WITH HUGE BRAINS: The chief point is that brain weight

United States and Carranza In Agreement

Washington, March 14.—Administration officials to-day momentarily awaited word from General Funston that the first detachment of American troops were moving into Mexico in pursuit of Villa and his bandits. Latest official information from the border indicates that mobilization of troops had made such progress that the first force was ready to cross the international boundary line at any time.

Officials are confident that the situation so far as General Carranza himself is concerned has been adjusted by the acceptance of his proposal for a reciprocal arrangement by which eight of his troops or American troops may pursue either side of the border. A note of acceptance was on its way to-day to Carranza. Under this arrangement General Funston will order the withdrawal of the expectation that Carranza will heartily co-operate. Mexican embassy officials were especially pleased with the agreement. Publication reports that the United States expects trouble from

The Situation.

Over the Courier's leased wire today there comes the announcement that there is a much more optimistic feeling in the Old Land with reference to the war. There is good reason why there should be. The magnificent manner in which the French are holding matters at Verdun and the continuation of the Russian successes, are two features which are exceedingly reassuring. Not that the Verdun offensive on the part of the Huns has been finally checked, by any manner of means. It is well understood that during the present lull they are making busy preparations for a renewed assault of probably even greater magnitude than that which has thus far transpired, but the fact has been demonstrated that the great German war machine, at full tilt, can be held in check as never before. To many the position of affairs looks, at long last, like the beginning of the end—an end not easily achieved, but nevertheless now within appreciable distance.

Reports from Turkey continue to show growing discontent with the turn of events, and the Sultan, becoming alarmed, has ordered the closing of parliament there.

From German East Africa there comes the report that General Smuts has scored a notable victory, driving the enemy from strongly entrenched positions in the Kitovo Hills.

The Result in Manitoba.

By a vote of over two to one the people of Manitoba have carried the prohibitors enactment first drawn up by Hugh John Macdonald some fourteen years ago.

The measure wipes out club, bar and shop licenses, but permits, under restriction, the use of alcohol for medicinal and scientific purposes. The production of alcoholic drinks within the province is not touched, and such things can be imported for family use from outside. This is because the Federal House has the say in these essentials. In this regard opponents of the measure in the campaign just closed used the argument that if same should be carried, the Prairie Province would be "covered with canvassers for outside liquor firms," and that "liquor will thus get into the hands of the very people who should not get it at all." However, the voters there, in a very emphatic way, have stated that they are willing to take this chance, and they are now calling for a Dominion-wide enactment.

A referendum in this regard was taken some years ago and was defeated by the almost solid Quebec vote.

Violating the Truce.

The Windsor Record (Liberal) contains the following letter from Mr. Oliver Wilcox, member for North Essex in the Dominion House:—

Editor The Record: It has come to my notice that the Liberal party is, in violation of the political truce agreed upon between Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, mailing out to the electors of North Essex, under the frank of A. B. McCoig M.P. for Kent, (which is an abuse of the privilege) a series of pamphlets which contain the grossest and most seditious attacks on the government which we cannot now take time to refute.

A number of complaints by letter and telegram which I have received, some of them from Liberals, complain of this breach of trust, especially at this time, in sending out through the country at the expense of the country, such rank misrepresentations, and I fear it will be injurious to the unity that we have tried to have prevail between both political parties in the county, and to recruiting. As a sample of the complaints, I quote you a paragraph from one of the many letters that I have received, from one of our most influential and best citizens.

February 26th, 1916.
Oliver Wilcox, Esq., M.P.,
Ottawa, Ont.

"Political Canadian Monthly" 25 cents a year. Cannot this nuisance be stopped? What kind of a truce is this? Has this Liberal pamphlet the right of being franked through the mails by some narrow minded member of parliament under the leadership of the Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier? The Reform member who sends them out must have a hide like a rhinoceros and a cheek like brass with a conscience dried up and seared.

A truce was arranged between leaders on both sides of the house, and the man who franks these documents sends the seditious literature out broadcast attacking the Borden administration, the member who does this must be a sneak and a traitor to all principles of honor.

If Sir Wilfrid does not repudiate such methods, he must be held responsible.

What kind of a truce is this? The above is a sample, which shows the effect of introducing politics. Personally, I pay no attention to these pamphlets. My time is so engaged with bigger things relating to the gigantic task which the state has in hand that I cannot do so, and I ask that my friends, who are many, who have resented this action, to mobilize their energies one and all to help the Government combat the Huns. We will take up domestic questions when that is done.

FIRE DESTROYS OLD PIER NO. 2 AT HALIFAX N.S.

About 1,000 Packages of Goods, Just Imported, Were Destroyed.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Halifax, N.S., March 14.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed an old pier number two, here this morning, and the shipping facilities of this port will be materially lessened thereby. About a thousand packages of goods mostly imported, were in the freight sheds when the fire broke out, and all were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at fifty thousand dollars.

The shipping office of the Nova Scotia branch of the Red Cross Society was in this shed, and Red Cross goods valued at five thousand dollars were destroyed.

Frederick Downey, 18 years old, was drowned at the pier. He was assisting in the work of extinguishing the fire and fell into the water.

here as indicative of how confidently the state department regards the Mexican situation and that the understanding with General Carranza is complete.

SPRING ASSIZES.

Sheriff Westbrook has issued notices to all constables and officials that the Spring Assizes open March 21st. The last day for entering cases is to-morrow, the 15th.

ONCE LIVED HERE.

There was married last Saturday at Winnipeg, Miss Persis Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of Toronto, to Dr. Ernest M. Doyle, of Calgary. Dr. Doyle some years ago was a dentist in this city.

AUTOS STUCK.

There was enough warm weather on Terrace Hill yesterday to thaw out the snow so as to make it heavy. As a result some of the roads were almost impassable for automobiles. Several of them were caught and had to be "dug out" during the day.

ASSESSMENT REFORM.

A special committee of the Toronto City Council is considering the matter of assessment reform, and Brantford has been asked to communicate with Toronto with a view to giving the committee there, its views on the matter.

SLOW PAYING.

Several parties sidewalkers were cleaned of snow during the season of 1914-1915 and the accounts have not yet been paid. The Board of Works has issued instructions that the amounts in question be placed on the tax roll. The properties in question in every case either belong to a non-resident or were vacant at the time.

ACCIDENT AVERTED.

What might have been a nasty accident occurred to Miss Digby, while riding horseback on Mohawk street yesterday. In company with another girl she had come to Emily street when her horse took fright at a passing car, threw her and dragged her about ten yards along the road before being stopped. Fortunately the young lady was not hurt by the experience.

TAX RATE.

Contrary to expectations the Council will not strike the tax rate next Monday night at its regular meeting. The estimates are not all in yet, the Board of Education not making up its share until to-morrow night. The finance committee desire to go slowly and carefully in the matter, so the tax rate will not be decided upon for another two weeks.

CUP PRESENTED.

An interesting debate took place on Monday evening at St. Jude's, between Colborne St. Debating society and St. Jude's A. Y. P. A. on "Resolved that Brantford is a progressive city." St. Jude's upheld the affirmative and was represented by Messrs C. House and F. Pelling. The negative was upheld by Messrs Milmine and Rose of Colborne St. society. Mr. Percy Tipper acted in the capacity of chairman and Mr. Bassett very satisfactorily officiated as judge and critic. The decision of the debate was awarded to St. Jude's. During the evening's program, Mr. Bassett, president of the debating league, on behalf of J. H. Ham, M. P. P., presented St. Jude's society with the cup which Mr. Ham has kindly presented for annual competition. In making the presentation, Mr. Bassett made reference to Mr. W. G. Broomfield, now overseas with the 58th Battalion, and from whom the Courier published last night an interesting letter, who, by his efforts, was to a great extent responsible for the success of St. Jude's in heading the league last season.

THE PROBS

Toronto, March 14.—The northern cold wave is spreading over all portions of Canada, while the southern depression is losing energy. Light local snow has occurred in all the provinces, but the weather on the whole has been fair.

FORECASTS:

Fresh to northeast to north winds. Local snow flurries or snow, fair and cold to-day and on Wednesday.

NO LEAGUE?

The president of the Hamilton Ball club, Mr. Ballentine, says that there will be no Canadian league this year. He says: "The battalions now being formed in this and other cities are taking away those who patronize baseball, and it's a sure thing under these conditions baseball would be run at a loss. The league meets Wednesday to decide the matter."

MEN FOR GUARD WORK

Corp. Uren, who is in the city securing men for guard work at Niagara Falls, on Saturday last took 14 young men who were refused a chance to go overseas because of some minor disability. The work at the front is one of great need, and those who cannot go there, front has a chance to do his bit anyway. Corp. Uren needs still more men.

WOUNDED.

A telegram received in the city today from Ottawa by Mrs. Jane Elliott, 227 Marlborough St., says: "Cable received to-day states that Lance Corporal Samuel Elliott, 19th Battalion, officially reported wounded, gunshot in arm, now on duty." This is the first intimation that he had been hurt. He worked at Ham and Notts when he enlisted over a year ago.

WITH THE POLICE.

There was a fairly quiet session at the police court yesterday. A billiard man was fined $12.85. One drunk was allowed to go. William Windle, charged with assault on Robert Ridge, was remanded a week. Gen. Curley, an Indian, was charged with a version of a purse and $8, which it is claimed he found on the Cockshutt Road. He denies this so was committed for trial. Pie Wm. Meary, absent without leave, was remanded for a week.

"That the present license term be extended for a period of six months, so that the hotelkeepers may dispose of their stock of spirits."

"Notwithstanding the fact that the government has announced its intention of a majority vote, the license-holders think in all fairness that prohibitionists should require to procure a majority vote and that such vote should be at least 40 per cent of the voters on the list. They claim to have 44 1/2 per cent, of the voters on their petition."

"In taking the vote the territory that is already dry should not be included."

"Where cities and towns vote in favor of licenses, they should have them regardless of the total vote of the province."

"Any provincial enactment should cancel all local option by-laws so that in the event of repeals it would not be necessary to have two votes."

"Provisions should be made for adequate compensation to those who lose their licenses."

"There should be a rebate to the hotelkeepers for a proportionate amount of their license fee on account of early closing which went into effect on November 1st."

"The British Government did this when the hours of sale were reduced. The five per cent tax should be abolished and a nominal license fee charged for beer and wine licenses."

"This year's U.S. income tax collections will probably reach $100,000,000, an increase of $20,000,000 over last year, according to treasury information."

FINE PERFORMANCE

Mr. Kellard Gives Notable Interpretation of Hamlet.

Mr. John E. Kellard gave a notable interpretation of Hamlet at the Grand Opera House last evening. He is unquestionably an actor of exceptional ability and scholarly attainment, and a clear enunciation added still further to the enjoyability of the presentation. Readers of Shakespeare are aware that the ghost of Hamlet's father appeared to him in the avengement of his murder upon his uncle. The correct reading of course is that the Prince feigned madness in order to put off the impost thus laid upon him, and this is the rendering of Mr. Kellard. It was throughout a well-contained and deeply impressive performance, and the beautiful lines with which the role abounds were brought out with a delicate yet incisive touch. The supporting company was adequate.

GRAND RIVER FLOODS

A Conference Takes Place in Preston Town Hall.

Ald Second and City Engineer Jones attended the conference at the Preston Town Hall yesterday with reference to Grand River floods. The discussion was largely confined to the local situation at Preston and Galt. A resolution was passed asking the Mayors of Galt and Preston and the Reeves of the adjoining townships to meet and discuss the removal of the Galt dam.

Mayor Patterson of Paris suggested that all the municipalities on the Grand should cut out the ice from above their dams.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, March 14.—Reuter dispatch from Christiania says it is reported that the Norwegian government has asked Germany whether a German submarine torpedoed the Norwegian bark Silius which, with seven Americans on board, was sunk last week off the French coast. If the Silius was thus torpedoed, the dispatch says, an explanation of the conditions under which the attack was made is requested.

WILL MAKE AMENDS

Washington, March 14.—Unofficial advice received to-day indicates that Germany will make complete amends to the United States, if it is found that a German submarine torpedoed the American bark Silius from which seven Americans were rescued in Havre roads.

TURKS ARE POOR RULERS

Bagdad Railroad Built by Germany With Designs on India.

That the Arabs and Mohammedan peoples from Morocco to Bagdad were wonderfully impressed by Britain entering this war to stand by the pledged word to Belgium, and that act alone saved the Mohammedan world from a Jihad or holy war, was the statement of Canon Gould last night in his address in Grace Church school room on "Syria and Arabia as factors in the German scheme of conquest." The speaker, who has lived many years in the East, illustrated his address by a diagram upon which he marked with chalk towns, cities and railroads as he came to explain the position and construction of each.

Dr. Gould has very little use for the Turk. Their railroads were, up to the outbreak of war, inconceivably dilapidated, and their officials in Constantinople had the vaguest idea of time and place. Their army was practically a food, himself, had seen men from a village roped together, taken to put in time in military service.

The speaker told of the building of the Bagdad railway, it passed through Alexandretta, the chief, and in fact the only port on the Levant. Alexandretta would be more useful to Russia than Constantinople, said the speaker, and by diagram he showed that Russia was not far away now

ARRAIGNED FOR BLOWING UP MUNITION PLANT

Two Men With Foreign Names Up in Pembroke.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Pembroke, Ont., March 14.—Ernest Bartscher and Arthur Zinker, taken from a train at Carleton Place yesterday and brought back here on suspicion of having been engaged in an attempt to damage a local munitions plant shortly after Sunday, midnight, were arraigned before Magistrate Stewart by the military authorities this morning and remanded until March 21. Bartscher has been identified by the guard who arrested him as one of the men discovered trying to get into the plant premises. They were carrying caps and masks, but escaped after a chase. Questioned by the military authorities here, the two men admitted that they had been in town since Friday. They had been in search of work. Nothing of an intimidating nature was found on either, but their grips were checked through to Galt and are being brought back here for inspection.

The death occurred suddenly at his residence at Norton, Stockton-on-Tees, after his return from hunting with the South Durham hounds, of Mr. J. W. P. Page, a well-known Durham landowner.

Liverpool tramway profits show a balance of $500,000 available for the relief of the rates, being the same as last year. On the electric power last year, the account there is a balance of $250,000, an increase of $125,000 as compared with the previous year.

SHOOTING NEWS

Giant Pitcher Stops Inshoot With His Ear

Marlin, Tex., March 14.—Following their Saturday and Sunday games at Dallas and Waco, the Giants were out early this morning. In the afternoon Pitcher Ralph Stroud came near being seriously hurt. He was at bat, and Wacker, who was pitching, whistled through a swift inshoot that struck Stroud on the left ear. He fell to the ground like a log, but was soon revived. He retired from the game and will have a sore ear for a few days.

Hamilton Juniors Get Lead on London's Team

Hamilton, March 14.—Hamilton Rowing Club juniors took a seven goal lead in the Northern League final series by defeating London juniors here last night by a 22-7 score. The affair was one of the most interesting staged here this season, better hockey being displayed than in most of the intermediate or senior contests. Both teams were in the pink of condition and played at top speed from going to go. The locals held the upper hand throughout, although they were hard pressed at times. The half-time score was 7 to 3 in favor of the locals, although for some time the count was three all.

Hamilton Ex-Manager Files Civil Court Suit

New York, March 14.—William Cristall, manager of the Hamilton club of the Canadian League, yesterday filed a complaint in the New York County Supreme Court against the Board of Arbitration of the National Association of Professional Leagues. In the papers, which were drawn up by David L. Fultz, President of the Players' Fraternity, Cristall alleges that he was notified last November of the imposing of a fine and suspension without explanation of the charges made against him or being given an opportunity to defend himself. The suspended manager alleges that he has endeavored to ascertain the charges upon which his suspension and fine were based, without success. He demands, through his attorney, that the fine and suspension be lifted, and damages be awarded him for financial loss incurred as a result of his suspension.

Lipton Will Try For Cup in 1917

London, March 14.—Sir Thomas Lipton, in a letter to the Essex Yacht Club, says he hopes to compete next year for the America's Cup. Sir Thomas Lipton in 1913 built the yacht Shamrock IV, which was to have raced off Sandy Hook the following year with the America's Cup defence yacht, Resolute. The Shamrock IV, arrived in New York shortly after the outbreak of the war but the races were postponed, and the challenger was housed in a Brooklyn shipyard, where she is now in.

Ottawa Trying Hard to Head Off Canadians

Quebec, Mar. 14.—Quebec failed to stop Ottawa, in their forlorn hope efforts to retain the N. H. A. championship title, and the Senators whitewashed the locals, 4 to 0, being on top in the play during practically the whole evening.

The visitors scored two goals barely two minutes from the opening whistle, and Quebec was unable to get within hailing distance of them during the game. The second period was scoreless, but Ottawa added two more counters in the third session. Boucher played brilliantly for the winners and counted three of their tallies.

Quebec played below form and lacked the speed of the visitors. Paddy Moran's goal-tending kept the score down, while Benedict's methods of stopping by falling in the nets helped Quebec's whitewash, though he was sent off twice. The hockey was miserable and a small crowd was present.

The New Champions Going to Winnipeg

Berlin, Ont., March 14.—Riversides will go to Winnipeg in quest of the Allan Cup, as representatives of the O. H. A. This decision was practically arrived at last night after the game which gave them the O. H. A. senior championship.

When the question was broached to them some time ago they did not favor it. They had planned a trip to New York, and the players were more anxious to make the latter trip than to Winnipeg. It was impossible to make both, as a number of players could not get away for so long a period.

However as a result of the tie-up between St. Nicholas of New York and Boston A. A. for the championship of the American association, and the decision to play three games to break the tie, it leaves the Riverside trip to New York out of the question for several weeks.

A number of the players state that they may not be able to get away to make the trip to Winnipeg, and this is the only stumbling block in the way of the trip. However, efforts will be made to have these players secure leave from their business, and it is almost a certainty that they will be able to get away.

Beat Allan Cup Holders, But Lose on the Round

Winnipeg, March 14.—Showing a complete reversal from the display of hockey that they put up on Saturday night, the Fort William Allan Cup challengers came within an ace or so of taking the hockey emblem from the first Battalion last night when they defeated the cupholders 5 to 4, but lost on the round 3 to 6.

Catching the soldiers off their stride, the visitors took advantage of every opening offered them and by some circus stunts managed to tie up the count of the series at 5 to 5 shortly before the end of the first session, but the locals again took the lead before the rest period. Playing the final session the Forts again took a goal and evened the score and things looked decidedly dangerous for the cup-holders, but they woke up to their task and for the final fifteen minutes of the play had the challengers backed up against their own goal, and, though they managed to score two goals, could not evade defeat. The teams:

RIVERSIDES ARE THE SENIOR CHAMPIONS

Beat Berlin 4 to 3 at Berlin —Win Round by 12 to 4.

Berlin, Ont., March 14.—Riversides demonstrated their right to hold the O.H.A. senior championship when they defeated the Berlin seven here last night by 4 to 3 in the second of home-and-home games. Riversides also won the game at Toronto by 8 to 1, they are winners on the round by eight goals.

Conditions were very unfavorable, and as a result there was little or no good hockey played. The ice was soft and covered with water, which became more plentiful as the game progressed. In the last period the puck would hardly slide along the ice. There was a thick haze of smoke in the rink, and it was barely possible to discern the players from one end of the rink to the other.

TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED.

As the score would indicate, there was little to choose between the teams. Even though Berlin lost by a narrow margin, they were expected to win, if not pull out a win. However, there was little expectation of pulling down the seven-goal lead. The heavy condition of the ice was responsible for much over-skating of the puck, and one team suffered as much as the other in this respect.

Neither of the goalers had very much to do, as the checking was so close on both sides that very little good shooting was done. Collett was more handicapped than Hainsworth by the smoke, but he played a much better game than the local boy. Hainsworth lost some shots which he should have stopped. Collett was a tendency to illegally interfere with the Riversides forwards when they were close in on the net.

RIVERSIDES PLAY "RAC"

The tactics of the Riversides did not please the local spectators. Riversides adopted the old plan of shooting the puck down the ice, far from their own goal, and it turned out to be a good move. It not only helped the team to settle down when Berlin started a bombardment, but it made the locals carry the puck back again, and this caused them to tire sooner than Riversides.

Shot at Sentinel.

Berlin, Ont., March 14.—Considerable excitement occurred in the vicinity of the 118th battalion barracks at an early hour this morning when seven goals were fired by an unknown man at the sentinel, Pte. Rich who was on duty, shortly after midnight. The sentinel saw the man walking along a lane off Courland avenue, and in response to the command, "Who goes there?" a revolver shot was fired. The sentinel whistled to his fellow guardsmen and gave chase. The man ran to St. George Street, where he jumped into an empty cutter and got away. The sentinels have not been supplied with ammunition and were, therefore, unable to fire on the man, who shot several times while making his escape.

OPPOSITION KNEW OF EMERGENCY

Yet They Defeated Naval Bill for Party Purposes.

JELICOE NEARLY CAME TO CANADA

Was Scheduled to Visit Here in Fall of 1914, But War Interfered.

Ottawa, March 14.—A vigorous and telling reminder of the part played by the Opposition in tying the hands of Canada by the defeat of the naval defence bill, was recalled when the naval defence bill of the Empire, and the success of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his associates in frustrating that effort, was told again, told in the light of the outbreak of the war, and justified the stand taken in 1912 by the Borden Government on the advice of the British Admiralty.

When the war in progress. Liberal members were confronted with their repeated declarations that no emergency existed or was in prospect. The plain statement of the Admiralty memorandum was recalled, and in addition the House learned for the first time that other and more convincing information had been placed before certain members of the Opposition.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in the course of the Prime Minister's speech, asked if it were not true that Lord Selkirk had been in the city in Berlin trying to bring about closer relations between the two countries. The Prime Minister replied that the Admiralty had doubtless been induced to make the message brought back by Lord Selkirk in the preparation of the memorandum given to the Canadian Government. The British Admiralty had known more than was made public to the people of Great Britain, but they had given this information to the Canadian Government "not only in the document which was published in the House but in a certain other document which was revealed to some hon. members of the House and which has not been made public. It was with that knowledge that certain hon. gentlemen opposed endeavored to prevent the government from carrying out the proposition which I believed then and still believe to be in the best interests of the empire."

This statement, the first publication of the naval bill with a knowledge of the emergency even earlier than was conveyed in the Admiralty memorandum, created a profound impression upon the House.

Admiral Borden also made public the fact that Admiral Sir John Jellicoe was to have visited Canada to give his advice in the preparation of a permanent naval policy, but had been prevented by the outbreak of the war. As to what had been attempted in 1912-13 and as to what Canada had done since the war began, Sir Robert Borden said, "We have a very clear conscience." He stated that at the outset of the war he had asked the British Government if Canada should assist in naval as well as military defence and the reply had been a request that Canadian efforts be confined to the raising and forwarding of land forces.

The recrudescence of the naval defence was provided by Mr. E. M. Macdonald of Pictou, who moved a resolution asking for information regarding the number and condition of ships in service under the Naval Service Act, and regarding the establishment of a Canadian naval brigade. He made this resolution the text for an attack upon the government for alleged laxity in connection with coast defence.

Sweeping Changes Demanded, and Something Must Be Done.
CRISIS FACING THE GOVERNMENT
Working of Compulsory Act Not Satisfactory to Married Men.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, March 14.—The coalition ministry will face two very urgent problems in the debate on the Army Estimates which begins in the House of Commons to-day. Both questions have become matters of the greatest public interest within the past few days.
The first problem is that of the married men under enlistment, who are holding meetings all over the country to protest against the manner in which the compulsory military service law is being carried out. The second is the air defence problem which has been given fresh prominence by the remarkable victory of Pemberton Billings in his election to the House of Commons over the united forces of the coalition on a platform demanding sweeping changes in the air defences of England.

ARMY ESTIMATES.
London, March 14 (cable to the New York Times).—The chronicle's parliamentary correspondent to-day writes:
To-day and to-morrow in the House of Commons will be devoted to a discussion of the united forces of the coalition on a platform demanding sweeping changes in the air defences of England.
The first problem is that of the married men under enlistment, who are holding meetings all over the country to protest against the manner in which the compulsory military service law is being carried out. The second is the air defence problem which has been given fresh prominence by the remarkable victory of Pemberton Billings in his election to the House of Commons over the united forces of the coalition on a platform demanding sweeping changes in the air defences of England.

The problem is an extremely difficult one, but a solution will have to be found before married men are embodied in the army plans. According to an estimate made yesterday, the liabilities of married men in regard to rents above $50 and life insurance premiums, would be assumed by the state, work out to about $150,000,000 per annum, a sum equal to about six days' cost of the war.
"There is a strong feeling that a state which can lend hundreds of millions of pounds sterling to its allies, cannot ignore its obligations to its own married men of the middle classes."
"The smallness of the yield of Lord Derby's scheme, the difficulties attending the moratorium, and the growth of a more critical spirit in the House of Commons, combine to make the path of the government a thorny one. Yesterday in political circles gloomy fears were expressed as to the imminence of a serious ministerial crisis."

GOOD MAN RESIGNS.
London, March 14 (Cable to the New York Herald).—All the morning newspapers express regret over the resignation of Major-General S. S. Long, director of supplies and transports of the British army, which was confirmed by the War Office yesterday. He is the officer who was responsible for the creation of a splendid organization which sends food and other supplies into the trenches in France, and the other British war fronts with such wonderful celerity that the British army is the best fed and the best clothed in this great war.
All the editorials this morning demand that unless there is something behind the resignation that makes its acceptance imperative, the acceptance be revoked and General Long reinstated in control of the department, which from nothing he has developed into a marvel of efficiency.

A PRIMEVAL FOREST
Recent heavy seas at Freshwater West, on the South Pembroke shire coast, have washed away great quantities of sand and exposed to view a sunken forest of about a quarter of an acre in extent. The sight presented is unique. What there was once a stretch of unbroken yellow sand there is now a mass of rocks and huge black, gnarled trees, with their roots embedded in the rocks and earth. Many of the trunks of the trees are in a splendid state of preservation. In some cases the wood has simply changed colour, while in others it is of the nature of coal. Most of the trunks are encrusted with sandstone, and it is probably due to this that they are well preserved. Among the rocks and trees two local geologists have made many finds. The most interesting discovery being a large bone, about four feet long by about eighteen inches wide. Though it is somewhat chipped in places, it is well preserved, and it is undoubtedly a portion of the anatomy of some huge prehistoric mammal. It is evident that at a far distant period the land at this place was covered with a dense forest, and that either there was a subsidence, or the water undermined the cliffs and there was a huge landslide which led to a large tract being engulfed.

YOUNG TURKS

Sultan Petitioned by 70,000 People to Dismiss Them.
DIPLOMACY IS MUCH WORRIED
Felt That Authorities Either Tolerated or Started This Agitation.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
London, March 14.—(Cable to the New York Times).—The Athens correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says:
The Saloniki branch of the Young Turks committee has received information from Constantinople that a petition has been submitted to the new crown prince by the inhabitants of the vilayets of India, Brusa and Conia, signed by 70,000 persons, requesting the Sultan to dismiss the Young Turks from the cabinet, negotiate peace with the entente and dissolve the present parliament. The petition ends by stating that if the present situation continues it will end in revolution.

"The crown prince took the petition to the Sultan with whom he discussed the subject for a considerable time, leaving the Sultan's presence in a nervous condition. The petition has made a great impression in diplomatic circles in Constantinople, because it must have been impossible to obtain so many signatures without the fact becoming known to the authorities. This being the case, either the authorities themselves commenced the movement or tolerated it. On the other hand, the three German regiments are encamped, and together with a few auxiliaries guarding ammunition depots, hold the Turks in check. The Germans are entirely policing the city."

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Can Be Averted by Feeding the Starved Nerves With Rich, Red Blood
Nourish your nerves—that is the only way you can overcome life's worst misery—nervous exhaustion. The fits of depression and irritation, the prostrating headaches, the weakness and trembling of the legs, the unsteady hand and the imperfect digestion that mark the victim of nerve weakness, and must end in nervous breakdown if neglected.
Nourish your nerves by the natural process of filling your veins with rich, red, health-giving blood. Your nerves are crying out for pure blood and follow the lead of the eminent Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to make new, rich blood. This explains why these pills have proved successful in so many cases of nervous debility that did not yield to ordinary treatment. For example, Mr. W. H. Weldon, Annapolis, N.S., says: "In the strenuous life I have to follow, the drain on my system was so great that my nerves became shattered, the blood impoverished and my whole system undermined. I tried to follow the usual remedies without deriving any benefit. Finally having read so much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I decided to try them. The result was beyond my expectation. I regained my energy; the blood and nerves were rebuilt; I lost the sense of constant tiredness I had felt and was filled with new life and energy. I have since used the pills with beneficial results in my family and will always have a word of praise for them."
You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
