BY TELEGRAPH.
Carlisle Victory Denied.
Fatal Fire in Havana.
Madrid, Sept. 13.—Private despatches received here deny the truth of the report given currency to by the Carlisle that the Republican troops in the north under General Santapaw Lome met with a severe defeat by the insurrectionists. On the contrary they state the engagement resulted in a victory for the Government forces, the Carlisle being defeated with great slaughter. The number of insurrectionists engaged in the battle was about 14,000, while that of the Republicans is only 10,000.
New York, Sept. 15.—Particulars of a great fire in Havana have been received. Nothing was available to arrest the progress of the fire, and only owing to the calmness of the night was the fire kept from spreading to other blocks. Authorities are bitterly blamed for the want of decision or faculty shown on the occasion. The Captain-General was present and gave directions which the Chief-Engineer ignored, as to where the water-pipes, which has been lately re-laid, were to be found. The fire raged four hours. Loss of life variously estimated from twenty to fifty.

Town and County News.
STATIONERY.—Three cases of Law and Commercial Stationery just opened out at Anderson's. Law forms all kinds. Blotting paper, foolscap, note paper, a new and splendid lot of inkstands, cheap at Anderson's Bookstore.

TO SMOKERS.—Those of our readers who use the "weed" should not fail to secure a plug of the "Myrtle Navy." Its praise is "in the mouth" of all who indulge in such a luxury. Be sure and see that "T. & B." is stamped on the article as none is genuine without those initials. See advertisement.

SUSPECTED MAIL ROBBERY.—A mail for Toronto was up on the 29th of August last, as usual, in the Hamilton office, to go by the afternoon train, and in the bag was placed a packet containing eight registered letters, two being from Hamilton and six from the country. Some two weeks later, the receipt of some of them not having been acknowledged, enquiry was made by one of the Hamilton senders, and the result was the discovery that the packet was missing.

THE CONCERTS.—Amongst the leading attractions of the fair week are the concerts to be given in the Drill Shed tomorrow and Thursday under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. of this town. The music promises to be of a superior character, judging from the vocalists who are down on the programme—amongst them being Miss Brokoviak, the talented Toronto vocalist. We anticipate great success for the enterprising association.

STUCK FAST.—The accommodation train due here at 12:50 p.m. on Monday met with a comical mishap between Palmerston and Harrison. Owing to the Central Exhibition here the train was a very heavily laden one, and on reaching a dip in the line between two grades, it fairly stuck fast, and could neither get forward nor backward. The four passenger cars of the train, all crowded, were at the rear; and so the conductor did the only thing that seemed practicable—he uncoupled these, and let the remainder of the train go on to Fergus; the engine returning subsequently to take forward the freight. Of course the passenger cars were duly protected by danger signals. The severed portions of the train were reunited at Fergus, and went merrily bowling along the down grade thence to Guelph.

Sad Yachting Accident—Three Lives Lost.
Port Dalhousie, September 15.—The schooner Mary, Battle, while bound for this port, and when about eight miles from here, this forenoon came across the yacht Sphynx, which was drifting down the lake, with spars cut out and partially filled with water. In the yacht were two men, one, whose name was found to be Joe Ward, being alive, the other, named H. Davidson, being dead. On arrival here, Dr. J. W. Ossinide, coroner, held an inquest, when the following facts were elicited from Mr. Ward:—That the yacht was upset off Oakville on Friday night last, and that two of the crew, Messrs. Morgan and Groves, were drowned at once. He and Mr. Davidson succeeded in regaining the boat. They drifted about at the mercy of the storm, having out the spars out to right the yacht. On awaking this morning, Mr. Ward found that his companion had died during the night. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts, to the effect that deceased had died from exhaustion and exposure while on board the wreck of the yacht Sphynx. Mr. Ward is very weak and almost starved, but is now gradually getting stronger, being well cared for at the Wood House here.

WORKS A PRIZE.—The splendid volume of "Good Words for the Young," filled with choice selections by the best writers in England; hundreds of illustrations; edited by George MacDonald; bound in blue and gold; always sold at $1.75, but now offered at Day's Bookstore for 75cts. Day ought to get a premium for cheap books.

Town Council.

The usual meeting of the Council took place Monday night, the Mayor in the chair; also present Messrs. Kennedy, Crowe, Massie, Coffee, Davidson, Hogg, Rich. Mitchell, McLagan, Howard, Heffernan, Robt. Mitchell.
COMMUNICATIONS, MEMORIALS, &c.
The Clerk reported the $30,000 Central School By-law carried; also an opinion from the solicitor, stating that Queen street had been opened upon petition of the late Sheriff Macdonald and Sir John A. Macdonald in 1861, but he believed that the York-road was established as a thoroughfare.
By Mr. McLagan, petition from the residents of Norwich-st, for continuance of sidewalk to the intersection of Dublin street.
By Mr. Crowe, petition from certain ratepayers and residents of Cork and Dublin streets for a lamp on the Catholic Hill, corner of Dublin and Cork streets.
By Richard Mitchell, from J. M. Shaw, for the remission of statute labour, he having been assessed both in Guelph and Elora.
By Mr. Massie, for a sidewalk on the west side of Wyndham-st from Hepburn's shoe store to Duignan's store; also from certain ratepayers for permission to put down a siding on the North side of the Grand Trunk station, so as to avoid teaming from the freight station, signed by Mr. Goldie and ten others.
By Mr. Heffernan, petition from J. C. Chadwick and others for a sidewalk on Durham street.
An account of $15 was also presented from Mr. Marshall, for a photographic view taken of the town. This was ordered to be paid.
The foregoing communications were referred.

THE BY-LAW.
On motion of Mr. Richard Mitchell, seconded by Mr. McLagan, the by-law to raise $30,000 for school purposes was read a third time, numbered 238, and passed.

THE EXHIBITION.
Mr. Hogg said that the directors of the Agricultural Society wished to erect an additional number of horse stalls at a cost of about $20 each, and they wished the Council to meet them half-way in the necessary expenditure.
Mr. Hogg moved, seconded by Mr. Richard Mitchell, that the Council pay half the cost of the erection of 25 or 30 horse stalls on the Exhibition grounds, the Agricultural Association to bear the other half. Carried.

THE DRENTURES.
Mr. Chadwick asked if there had been any tenders for the $30,000 debentures. The Clerk said he had received two tenders for a certain amount.
THE MAGISTRATE AND THE COUNCIL.
The Mayor remarked that there still appeared to be some antagonism between the Police Magistrate and the Council on the fire limits by-law—the opinion of the solicitor notwithstanding. He suggested that the chief of police should appeal and bring the matter before a higher court.
Mr. Massie considered that would be the proper course, and he would move a resolution to that effect if necessary.
In answer to Mr. Davidson, the Mayor was understood to say that the chief constable was under the control of both the Police Commissioners and the Council.
Mr. Chadwick deprecated any attempt of the Police Magistrate to rule the town. Mr. Massie thought the question should be put on a proper footing without delay. If the Council were drifting into the position of a mere advisory authority, by their own servants, the sooner an end was put to such a state of things the better.
Mr. Chadwick thought it was better to pass a new by-law which would be effective than to go to law and have a fuss about it.
Mr. Hogg remarked that a lathed and plastered building was not allowed within the fire limits by our by-law, whereas the Magistrate held that we could not enact this. He proposed that some steps should be taken to test the legality of the by-law.
Mr. Massie was informed that the Magistrate told Mr. Stewart that if he was fined the Council would not enforce the fine.
The Mayor said that Mr. Stewart told him that he saw the Magistrate after the first conviction, and the latter told him that the fine was not a proper one, and that he (Mr. Saunders) would not have convicted had he been on the bench. Considerable discussion took place in the course of which dissatisfaction was expressed by several members with the action of the Magistrate, and a question was raised as to whether the town solicitor had done his duty properly in regard to the by-law.
Mr. Robert Mitchell moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that the Mayor be empowered to take whatever steps he may deem necessary to test the legality of the fire-limits by-law. Carried.

MISCELLANEOUS.
Mr. Massie asked if anything was to be done on Paisley-street, which was in a very bad condition.
Mr. Richard Mitchell explained the position of the Road and Bridge Committee in relation to this road, and promised something should be done.
The question of the site, &c., of the gun sheds asked by Capt. Macdonald was brought up, and referred to the Finance and Exhibition Committees.
Some other conversation ensued on matters of no public interest, and the Council adjourned.

THE EXHIBITION.

TUESDAY, Sept. 16.
Who has not experienced the joyous reaction, the buoyant good temper, which is felt on some day appointed for a long and eagerly-anticipated outdoor jaunt, when the sky suddenly clears and the sun shines out brilliantly, after manifestations of foul weather which made the wish for a fine day an almost hopeless one? Such a feeling as this filled the breasts of thousands in and about Guelph this morning, and was intensified amongst those connected with the Exhibition and keenly interested in its comparative success or failure. The sullen heavy clouds of yesterday, which looked gloomy and persistent enough to last out a week's rain, gave place this morning to a clear sky, flecked here and there with white clouds; and the warm fall sunshine was tempered by a gentle breeze, which made out door exercise highly enjoyable. Yesterday's gloom was not without beneficial features. The rain, although somewhat embarrassing for the time, has done good on the grounds generally, and will have an excellent effect in diminishing the tendency to dust which such a congregation of men, horses, cattle, &c., continually on the move, are apt to create. To-day every-body is in the highest spirits at the inevitable success which is awaiting the third annual exhibition of the Guelph Central. The grounds and buildings present a scene of life and activity in marked contrast to their usual quiet and repose. The cattle stalls were all taken up last evening, and this morning workmen are busily engaged putting up additional accommodation. The same remark is applicable to the horse stalls, the accommodation in this respect being about one-half of what is actually required. About eighty feet of additional shed room for poultry is also being erected. In fact, the outside accommodation is altogether ridiculously inadequate for the exceedingly immense number of entries that have been made in the various classes. Indeed, the deficiency of accommodation reflects discredit on those of the Directors who undertook to pool-pool the recommendations for increased conveniences made by a select Committee of the Directors, appointed to consider that question. The experience of past years ought surely to have convinced the managers of the Exhibition that undoubtedly just complaints were made by exhibitors of the very great inconvenience experienced in the past by the failure to provide that accommodation which exhibitors are fairly entitled to at a show like the Guelph Central. We are bound, however, to add that the Directors are now fully alive to what is required of them, and are straining every exertion to meet the exigent pressure of the immense number of entries that have been put upon them, and present appearances are that they will be reasonably successful.

The show of implements, &c., promises to be a most excellent one. A large proportion of the entries are already on the ground, but there are still a considerable number to come in. We think most of the leading exhibitors are represented; Messrs. L. D. Sawyer & Co. Glasgow, Macpherson & Co., John Watson, of Ayr, Forsyth, Haggart Bros., Noxon Bros., Billington, Maxwell, White-lay, Cameron & Co., (late Lutz & Co.), Mill & Galloway, Chain, Elliot & Co., Smith, Wiseman, Adams, Adams, Harris & Son, Bell & Son, Lawrence & Son, and Brown, being names that frequently meet the eye of the visitor in the various articles on the implement grounds.

In the main building exhibitors are busy, in conjunction with the active Superintendent, Mr. Chas. Sharpe, and his assistants, in getting the various articles into position; and judging from the energetic and systematic mode in which matters have been gone about, we think that the exhibition will be a most successful one. The afternoon of the inside portion of the show will be all ship-shape. The musical instruments, chiefly pianos and organs, occupy their usual central position under the dome, and have all the morning been pealing forth in turn their sweetest notes to the pleasure and admiring auditory. Messrs. Bell & Co. are on hand with formidable display, so also are Messrs. Jackson & Co.; whilst we notice valuable contributions from Mr. J. F. Rainer and Messrs. Osborn & Gavin.

Y. M. C. A.—The Committee having charge of the refreshment booth would again urgently request all the friends of the Association to render every assistance that lies in their power. Subscriptions of provisions of every kind will be most acceptable, as they are required, and can either be left at the Y. M. C. A. rooms or will be collected by members of the Committee if notified by the donors.

The Reason Why.
The reason why the magnificent Retail Grocery Establishments in the Alma Block and on Lower Wyndham Street, belonging to John A. Wood, are so very popular with the intelligent public—
Because the Goods are all of the best quality.
Because the Prices are invariably the lowest.
Because the Clerks are courteous and obliging.
Because the Stock is the largest to select from.
Because the goods are always clean.
Because the Weights and Measures are always correct.
Because, in fact, the proprietor understands his business, desires to please his customers, makes good use of his capital, and buys for cash in the best markets, and always deals liberally with those who honor his stores with their custom.—
These and many other weighty reasons have contributed very largely to make the name of John A. Wood, as connected with the Grocery trade of Guelph, so well known, and his stores so very popular.

Guelph Evening Mercury
TUESDAY EVEN'G, SEPT. 16, 1873

The Ottawa Fog.
The Canadian case of Jaurdyce vs. Jaurdyce drags its tiresome length along. Day after day, Sir John A. perfunctorily prosecutes Sir John A. & Co. As in the opening scene in Break House, there is fog everywhere. There is fog at Ottawa, where it has gloomily settled upon the three big wigs and dimmed the Royal Commissioners' spectacles; there is fog at Quebec, where it troubles and bewilders the representative of Majesty; there is fog in Montreal, where a convenient order has destroyed the teletype telegrams. Fog has crept stealthily between Tory editors and truth; fog lies in lengthy Tory editorials, and fog has worked its way into Tory noddles. But denser than anywhere else is it in the memories of reluctant witnesses, dragged from ship and mill and office and shop to give evidence in the suit of Macdonald vs. Macdonald. There never was anything like it. It has got into their heads and their throats, and they breathe fog, look fog, think fog, and talk fog—Commissioners, prosecutor, defendant, and witnesses are alike enveloped. Newfoundland banks are clear in comparison. A tribe of foggy Know Nothings are patiently answering a string of elaborately befogged questions by grinding out a monotonous repetition of foggy negatives. Huntington won't come forward until a Committee is appointed; Foster won't give evidence before the Commissioners; Sir Hugh has been purposely choked off; and McMullen will not appear until a proper tribunal is at work. Without these witnesses, without judges determined to get at the whole truth, without a cross-examination except when necessary to suppress disagreeable facts, the Commission must be a complete and contemptible failure. Hamlet cannot be played with Hamlet absent. Whether the Commission will run like the Tichborne trial, or close its arduous labors in a few days, is not yet declared; but we venture to predict that the farce will soon be played out. Even Sir John must be growing ashamed of it. He must know ere this that it is convincing nobody of his innocence, satisfying nobody, clearing nobody. The charges still remain untouched. The accusation is still unreplicated. If any unprejudiced man remained unconvinced of his guilt before the foggy triumvirate set its wits to work to exculpate him, the strong determination shown to burke facts and suppress truth will have removed all doubt. The sooner the Commission winds up its proceedings, and leaves the ground clear for a Parliamentary Committee, the better for the public exchequer and the ends of justice. Close up the show!

Toronto, Grey and Bruce Railway.
The following is a synopsis of the report at the recent annual meeting of this company, held in Toronto:—The gross traffic earnings for the past year on eighty-seven miles of the road in operation have been $178,149.75, and the working expenses $124,129.99, leaving a surplus of $54,019.86, of which the Directors have applied $53,328.00 in payment of the interest on the bonds appertaining to the section of the road between Toronto and Mount Forest, the balance being carried forward.
"Your Directors regret that the result of the year's operations should fall so far short of the estimate made in the original prospectus. The Board can hold out no prospect of a rapid increase of business on this section, as it is now apparent that it is only by the gradual development of the country that the traffic can be materially increased, a fact which promoters of parallel and cross lines should weigh well before committing the public to such enterprises.
"The policy of the public funds being expended in aid of lines, popularly called "competing," running into territories already fully occupied, and where the traffic, present and prospective, is so slight as to be insufficient to maintain the existing road, is at least questionable. The territory lying between the Northern Railway on the West, and the Grand Trunk and Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway on the South and East, estimated at 6,800 square miles, was in 1868 wholly unoccupied. It now has five lines or branches, four about completed to the lakes, and the fifth rapidly being pushed in that direction. To invest more capital in new railways in that district for some years to come is more than the most sanguine railway promoter should venture, and it would be almost a crime to seduce foreign capitalists to put money into such undertakings.

"The Directors congratulate the stockholders on their having been enabled to open the Grey Extension from Orangeville to Owen Sound for traffic on the 9th of August. They have every confidence that as soon as the line is completed and in full working order to Owen Sound, which they hope will be about the 1st of October of this year, there will be a satisfactory increase in the business of the Company.
"The Directors have purchased sufficient rails to extend the road from Mount Forest to Harriston, a distance of ten miles, and hope to have that section open for traffic this fall. The completion to Harriston will give the Company 165 miles of road.
"A large portion of the Bruce extension from Harriston to Teeswater is nearly ready for the rails.
"The Grey extension had proved more difficult and costly than was expected, and they hoped to obtain a further grant from Government.

ANNABEL

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XXXIX

THE DELIVERANCE OF ANNABEL—A DEED OF POPULAR VENGEANCE—HARRARD HAYES AND DICK MATTOCKS IN DEADLY PERIL.

"Here she is, Jim; come and shake hands with her and convince her that our coming is a reality and no imagination."

"Werry proud and happy, Miss Annabel, to see this meeting," said Jim. Ere he had uttered this greeting, Annabel was on her way across the room to meet him, and seizing both his hands shook them with all her strength, and with such ardour of undisguised joy that the worthy Jim blushed under the honor.

"I can believe it now!" she cried with a hysterical sob. "Heaven has heard my prayer at length. Now let us go. Oh, take me away!"

"Run for the wrappings, Jim," cried Philip.

"All right, sir; I'll be back in a minute," and off he flew with the swiftness of a hare. He had difficulty in pushing his way through the darkness; but he accomplished the task, and soon re-appeared with an armful of woollen shawls, which Mr. Barstead had thrown into the vehicle when they started from the Blue Bear.

Round and round the shivering form of Annabel the shawls were wrapped by the loving hands of Philip, whose touch thrilled her to ecstasy. Then when he considered her sufficiently protected—which was not until the whole armful had been expended, and changed her thin form into a bundle of wool—he lifted her bodily in his arms and motioned to Jim to lead and light the way with the lamp.

Annabel made no pretence of objection to be carried thus in those dear arms. She was not only abundantly content that it should be so, but beyond that her weakness and excitement were such that she really could not have walked down the stairs. Docile as a child, therefore, she suffered him to lift her to his bosom, and when placed there she laid her cheek carelessly against his, and once, in the overflowing fulness of her love and gratitude, and when a turn of the corridor shut out her for a moment Jim and the lamp, she pressed her lips against his with a soft yet vehement earnestness, which increased still more the heaven of bliss to which Philip had been raised.

There was no interruption to their progress till they came to a lower passage, and were within a few yards of the outside door. Here the portly figure of Moll suddenly presented itself as she staggered from the kitchen and stood directly in their way.

One glance was enough to show them that she was drunk. The filmy glare of her eye, the flaming redness of her face, and the reeking smell of brandy, and the bottle which she held in one hand, gave obvious proof of it.

Her appearance was so sudden and so near that Jim, who was in front with the light, was startled, and pulled quickly up. Indeed, he could not do otherwise, for her ample proportions occupied nearly the whole breadth of the passage. "I don't care what you do," she shouted. "I'm glad you've found it out, for now me and Dick will get away from this beastly hole. But for all that you're a pack of scurvy, yelping curs; and as for the girl, she's a bastard. Oh, I know that well enough, for Barnard Hayes says it. Ha, ha! You won't get the estate for all this—devil a yard of it. Madame keeps it still, and then it comes to the lawyer. D'ye know that?—the lawyer gets it, and he'll make me and Dick right. So that for your finding it out, ye mean, beggarly curs!"

The "that" of which she spoke was a blow delivered on the lamp with the bottle in her hand. It sent it to shivers with a crash, and extinguished the light in a moment, while a quantity of the liquor flew with a squirt into Jim's face. Jim instantly squared up ready for defence, expecting Moll to follow up the attack in the darkness. She had, however, no such intention, for they heard her stagger back into the kitchen, and, as the open door was near, they passed over the fragments of the lamp, and emerged in the court-yard.

A FRIEND IN NEED.—Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a friend in need. Who has not found it such in curing all diseases of the lungs and throat, coughs, colds, and pulmonary affections, and "last, not least," Consumption? The sick are assured that the high standard of excellence on which the popularity of this preparation is based, will always be maintained by the proprietors.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass., And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.
