The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Archives of Ontario
Toronto

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\longrightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Archives of Ontario
Toronto

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\longrightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PROSPECTUS OF THE ANNALS OF NIAGARA.

THE LUNDY'S LANE HISTORICAL SOCIETY will publish during the present year, 1896, an important and interesting historical work, entitled, "The Annals of Niagara," from the pen of William Kirby, F. R. S. C., the well-known author of "The Chien d'Or," "Canadian Idylls," and other works. Of its literary value we need only say that he is the author of it, and its historical value is guaranteed by the author's extensive knowledge of Canadian History, and by his long residence of over fifty years in the town whose annals he records.

The book will form an octavo volume of about 250 pages, and will be sold by the Lundy's Lane Historical Society at the price of $1.00 per volume, bound in cloth with gilt lettering on back; or bound in stiff paper, 75 cents.

The old town of Niagara, situated on the point of land where the River Niagara flows into Lake Ontario, has a record of history beyond that of almost any town in North America.

Its beginnings are lost in the mists of antiquity. The relations of the Jesuit Missionaries, written in 1640, tell of the old

Indian town of Onghiara, the principal town of the lost nation of the Neutrals, who had lived here from time unknown, when they were visited by the missionaries of the Jesuits. Onghiara was the predecessor of Niagara, on the site of the present town. Nearly fifty years after its discovery it was visited by the famous explorer La Salle, who built a trading post on the present site of Fort Niagara. This country remained under the government of France until 1759, when Fort Niagara was besieged and taken by General Prideaux, who fell in the siege, and by Sir William Johnston, his second in command. That siege was a most memorable event in American history. Its possession by the English until 1796 and the events that occurred there during the war of the Revolution form a distinct period of deep romantic interest. Then came the memorable settlement of Niagara by the United Empire Loyalists, who left the old colonies to live under the British flag, by whom the town of Niagara was again founded in 1783. The history of that town, which in 1792 received the name of Newark from Governor Simcoe, is of great interest to the whole Province as the seat of Government and Legislation for some years, and the principal place for commerce in Upper Canada. The war of 1812 led to its utter destruction. It was burnt down by the enemy on their flight from this frontier in December, 1813. Its rebuilding after the war, under its restored name of Niagara, and the many subsequent events which have occurred here, are subjects of much interest. That history has never yet been written, but will be found recorded in these Annals. It is indeed

"A story worth the telling, and if told
In simple truth, will shine like burnished gold."

In order to assist the Lundy's Lane Historical Society in venturing upon this new publication, will you kindly subscribe for one or more copies? If a sufficient number of subscribers' names can be obtained the work of printing will then be proceeded with immediately. The book will be printed on first-class paper. Price, in cloth binding, with gilt lettering on back, $1.00 per copy; in paper covers, 75 cents per copy. Pages, about 250.
