MEET DEATH FROM PORT ARTHUR

General Stoesel Said to Have Been Willing to Surrender the Fortress as Far Back as Early Last August.

London, Jan. 11.—The correspondent of The Daily Mail says that on Jan. 5 twenty Japanese were killed by the explosion of a contact mine inside the forts, and two mines in the town also exploded.

The Daily Telegraph's Port Arthur correspondent says that, according to stories by prisoners, the real defender of the fortress was Major-General Kondratenko, commander of the 7th East Siberian Rifle Brigade (who was killed Dec. 15), and that had he lived it is probable the fortress would not have surrendered.

Gen. Stoesel, the correspondent adds, was inclined to surrender as early as last August. The garrison, he concluded, included 10,000 Poles, who were indifferent fighters.

KAISER REWARDS BRAVERY.

Berlin, Jan. 10.—Emperor William has conferred on Gen. Stoesel and Gen. Nogi the order of the Pour le Merite in recognition of the bravery of themselves and their troops at Port Arthur. His majesty has asked the Russian and Japanese emperors to authorize Gen. Stoesel and Nogi to accept the decorations.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon the special jury in the case of Mrs. F. H. Hackett against the Grand Trunk Railway Company brought in a verdict for $13,000 damages for the death of Mrs. Hackett's husband, who was killed in the Richmond railway wreck last August. Mrs. Hackett sued for $20,000 damages, on behalf of herself and a infant child, but the jury awarded her $13,000, and she will have to pay the balance of the amount after being out a little over an hour.

ESCAPE FROM LOCKUP.

Galt, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—A daring escape was made from the lock-up last night. Two prisoners, Bernard Trevitt and wife a young couple held on a charge of larceny from the Royal Hotel, kept by ex-Police Constable Stewart, last night, removed the bars from a window and regained their liberty. The chief of police sympathized with the couple and had accorded them special indulgences. They took advantage of his kindness.

WILL HIM FOR LEADER DECLINE RESIGNATION CAUCUS WITH BORDEN

Late Member for Halifax Requested to Attend Adjourned Meeting and Mr. Foster to Lead in Meantime.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—(Staff, Special.)—A representative meeting of Conservative senators and members was held in the old railway commission room to-night to discuss the question of leadership of the party. Senator Debonville presided. A letter from R. L. Borden, resigning the leadership, was submitted to caucus. The letter was as follows:

Mr. Borden's Letter.

To the Conservative Members of the Senate and the House of Commons: Assembled in caucus four years ago, you bestowed upon me the highest mark of your confidence, when you required me to undertake the arduous duty and grave responsibility of leading the party in the house of commons. To the best of my ability I have endeavored ever since to justify that confidence and gratefully acknowledge how much you have done to strengthen my hands; and I am deeply sensible that without your loyal and generous aid freely accorded on all occasions, my task would have been infinitely more onerous.

We still firmly believe that the policy which we advocated and the principles which we upheld in the recent contest were truly in the best interests of Canada, and although we may regret temporary defeat yet we do not for one moment regret the stand which we took upon the great questions of the day. Under the conditions which have ensued, it is necessary that you shall choose another leader.

My resignation has already been given informally. I now place it under the seal of your confidence, with every assurance of my hearty co-operation in the ranks of the party. Let me add that the happy remembrance of your loyal support and comradeship will always abide with me.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) R. L. Borden.

Declines to Accept.

It was at once moved by Hon. John Haggart and seconded by Dr. Roche that caucus decline to accept Borden's resignation and that Mr. Borden be requested to attend an adjourned meeting of caucus to hear his supporters' reasons for desiring to retain his leadership. Both the mover and the seconder referred in eulogistic terms to Mr. Borden. Speeches along the same line were made by Col. Sam Hughes, Mr. C. H. Chisholm of East Huron, Dr. Sprague, Mr. Ames of Montreal, Claude Macdonald of Toronto, Sir Mackenzie Bowden, and Dr. Stockton of St. John. The resolution was unanimously carried.

Opera House Jammed to the Doors—Opposition Leader Hopes Ontario Will "Remember Ross."

Guelph, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—One of the grandest audiences ever assembled at a political meeting in this city was that which was addressed to-night by J. P. Whitney and Joseph Downey, the local candidate. The opera house was jammed to the doors and there must have been at least 1,000 present, including many ladies. It was a most enthusiastic gathering, too, and many Liberals who had hurried thru their supper to get front seats were so enthralled by the address that they thrust the duties temporarily on the shoulders of the speaker, and Mr. Whitney held an informal reception, and openly confessed their sympathy and support for the Conservative candidate. The theatre was decorated with mottoes, which, among others, read: "Whitney, Ontario's Rightful Premier," and "Downey for South Wellington." John Dewey was chairman, and in his introductory speech he made reference to the contrast afforded between the rival parties and the well-merited defeat in store for the Ross government.

Counterfeit fives have also turned up in Lindsay and other adjoining towns.

JAMIESON STILL EDITOR OF UNDERGRADS' PAPER BUT DON'T BE VICIOUS

Executive of Undergraduates' Union Review His Record and Decide to Retain His Services for the Spring Term.

C. R. Jamieson is still editor of Varsity. His fate was in the balance for two hours last night, when the executive of the undergraduates' union met to decide whether to retain his services during the spring term or to fire him. He comes out of the ordeal stamped with the approval of his fellow students.

The members of the executive who foregathered last night in the students' union were: Prof. McGregor Young, president; F. H. Hopkins, first vice-president; M. H. V. Cameron, secretary; J. T. Miller, Knox College; G. W. Megan, University College; A. H. Sovereign, Wycliffe College; F. J. Butler, Toronto Medical College; G. Hewson, S.P.S.; A. W. McPherson, second vice-president.

It was said about Varsity corridors yesterday that the meeting had been ordered from the president's office, but no facts were adduced to prove this. But at the meeting a letter that Editor Jamieson had written to a professor was read. In this letter he referred to certain statements that had been given in currency as contemptible lies. Jamieson had also sent an apology for his hasty letter to the professor. This apology was not referred to at the meeting.

Many of the members of the executive considered that Jamieson's letter was couched in indelicate language. They approved of the sentiment. One of the members told The World that Prof. Young, in discussing the article that appeared in Varsity in the fall term, said that he would like to see Jamieson out and that he had no confidence in him. A vote was taken and the whole executive except Prof. Young endorsed Editor Jamieson.

It was agreed, however, that the editor should not publish any vicious attacks on individuals in the students' paper.

Near Eastern Question Comes Up on the Horizon Since Port Arthur's Fall.

London, Jan. 11.—Discussing the effect of the fall of Port Arthur on the near eastern question, the correspondent of The Times says that belief in Russia's inevitability has rested since the Balkan States, is rather exaggerated fears of Russian encroachments in Macedonia.

These serious apprehensions tend to divert Serbian efforts at rapprochement with Bulgaria. The correspondent says, are likely to be more important in the future than the military significance of events in Macedonia.

Already there are indications that Turkey is likely to appreciate the far east and is likely to stiffen its attitude towards the reforming powers in Macedonia.

About three men in every hundred leave their families money enough to continue the comforts they have been accustomed to and expect. You can be one of those three if you apply now for a G.A.C. Policy in the Canada Life.

Winnipeg, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—On the fourth ballot, the Synod of Rupert's Land selected Archbishop Pentecost of Vancouver and his name, together with that of Bishop Matheson, will be recommended to the house of bishops.

The archbishop and Bishop O'Rourke of Qu'Appelle were the principal candidates on all the ballots, and the former did not get a majority until the final vote of the clergy and laity.

The synod then voted Archbishop Pentecost, asking permission to use his name, and an answer in the affirmative was read to the meeting at 9 o'clock.

The meeting was the fourth of the synod to select a second name for presentation to the house of bishops. A meeting of the house of bishops has been called for Jan. 25, but it is considered extremely unlikely that it will convene on that date, owing to the fact that Archbishop Holmes, who is to be consecrated at the same time as the Bishop of Moosehorn, has not yet returned from the far north.

Y.M.C.A. ON RAILWAYS.

New York, N.Y., Jan. 10.—The 25th anniversary of the railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian Association was celebrated last night at the branch building at 4th-street and Madison-avenue, Edward W. Rossier, first vice-president of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, the president of the branch, presided. The annual report showed that the branch has 3000 members, all railroad men coming from Buffalo, Boston, and even as far away as Montreal.

Will See Before He Testifies. Washington, D.C., Jan. 10.—Secretary of the United States Navy Morton will leave here on Saturday for Chicago prepared to appear as a witness before the inter-state commerce commission in its investigation of allegations that the Atchafalaya, Toronto and Santa Fe Railroad Co. had granted rebates to the Colorado Fuel and Iron Co. in violation of the law. Mr. Morton formerly was vice-president of the Atchafalaya and will confer with the president of the company, Mr. Ripley, before reaching a decision as to whether he will appear before the committee.

CALLS TO TWO MINISTERS DRUMMOND AND MARTIN

Board of Health Objects to Certain Improvement Plans of the Markets Committee.

Hamilton, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—The call from St. Paul's Church to Rev. D. R. Drummond, St. Thomas, was sustained by the Hamilton Presbytery this afternoon, and Rev. R. Martin and Rev. S. H. Grey were appointed to appear with the representatives of the church before a meeting of the Board of Health at St. Thomas on Jan. 24 for five reasons why the transfer should be made.

The local presbytery was notified by wire that the call to Rev. Robert Martin, pastor of Erskine Church, from Knox Church, Stratford, had been sustained, and a meeting of the local presbytery will be held on Jan. 26 to deal with the call. Rev. Mr. Martin will visit Stratford Thursday before deciding upon what answer he will make to the call.

Do Not Approve. The electors on Jan. 2 voted $12,000 for a roof to cover the butchers on the Central Market, the members of the board of health do not approve of the proposition. They have engaged an architect, who says that the north end of the market hall can be fitted up for $1000, so that the butchers may use it for the sale of their meat. The board appointed a committee this evening to ask that the board plan the building. For another $1000 a cold storage plant in the hall can be bought for the use of the butchers.

Best Estate Deal. The Bank of Hamilton has purchased the southwest corner of College-street and Ossington-street, bounded by George Will for $5000. The bank will remove the present buildings and erect a fine office building. The ground floor will be used by the bank and the office upstairs will be for rent. The property has 40 feet frontage on College-street and 30 feet on Ossington-avenue.

The cemetery board wound up the year with a small surplus of $21. The receipts amounted to $11,734, and the expenditure to $11,755. In the case of Hunt, V. T. T. and Guarantee Co. judgment was reserved this afternoon. This is a case in which two sets of alleged heirs are fighting for the possession of the $25,000 left by the late Miser Todd, who died in the City Hospital in the spring of 1903.

The grand jury made its presentment today. The jurors said they had visited the jail, and they found fault because two dead and dumb men, guilty of no crime, were confined in the institution. At the City Hospital the jurors found the isolation building together too small, and that the medical attendants looked after the fever as well as the general cases. In fact the jurors said that the isolation building should be moved away from the City Hospital.

Only a Volunteer. The suit entered by the city to compel the Hamilton Street Railway Company to give a better service to be tried within a few days, only one witness has volunteered to testify against the company.

The Roman Catholic authorities wish to buy the old Catholic cemetery on West King-street. The church bought in 1899, and has been gravelling the streets from it. Among the graves were found a great many human bones, and now the Catholics want to buy it back again.

The board of education will buy fourteen pianos for the use of the public school children. A clock will likely be placed in the city hall, the collegiate institute building.

The promoters of the Hamilton, Annapolis and Stratford Railway are bringing the line into the city by way of Hesse-street to Main, and along Main to the centre of the city.

Donald Burgoyne, formerly head waiter at the Hotel Osborne, was locked up today on the charge of assaulting Mrs. C. G. wife of the proprietor. He is also charged with stealing a watch from Mrs. Gray's son.

Neither J. T. H. Rogan, Conservative, nor Daniel R. Liberal, would consent to bind themselves to vote for prohibition legislation if elected to the legislature.

at the present time they had a surplus of $3,500.00. Concerning railway construction under the Ross administration, at considerable length he outlined the work as far as completed. He hoped to see the railways of Ontario completed by the end of the year.

Mr. Ross' peroration was a strong appeal on behalf of the local candidate, Mr. McCarty.

The Optimist. Mr. Ventrone addressed the audience in French and made a strong and able appeal to his compatriots for the election of Mr. McCarty. He closed the meeting by a short address in English, making a plea for the Liberal party to be returned by a majority of from 12 to 15.

BETTER THAN MAKING DOLLARS. New York Journal: John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in the world, is on the right track at last.

Sunday evening he gave a dinner to the two or three hundred young men of his own race, and his wife and himself serving at the table.

The ground that Mr. Rockefeller stood on that evening was not any sense debate. It was Christian ground.

The best thing that any one can do in this world is to serve his fellow men in the spirit of an unselfish, loving kindness.

"Get all you can" is a motto that can easily be taken from the world of the average humanly, but it took the Son of God to teach us that other motto: "Do all you can for love" and "for others' happiness."

"Do all you can" is the motto of a selfish man, but it is the motto of a noble character.

Mr. Rockefeller is a very rich man, and his riches make him very powerful, but he never appeared so well with all his wealth as he did on that evening. He was serving those young men, and, by his service, trying to make life more pleasant for them.

In the eyes of many people it is a great thing to be rich, and to be able to speak freely and wonderfully that make hundreds of millions; but do these people know that with all their money they can never make a noble man?

The rest is vanity and folly.

WORKERS SEE CHIEF

St. Petersburg Police Promise to Make Inquiry.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 10.—An extraordinary delegation of factory workers called on the chief of police today, as the result of an indignation meeting held by the factory hands of St. Petersburg. While no recognized union exists, factory workers here will number about 100,000, and have a strong secret organization.

The meeting was not so much with regard to hours of labor and wages, as to protest against factory conditions.

It was alleged that their chief, a German, was a better man than the others and foremen. The meeting passed resolutions demanding the discharge of the chief, and the resignation of the foremen in connection with a factory inquiry in all factories with a view to reforming the whole factory system.

Gen. Fulon received the deputations and promised such inquiry as he could give. The working people expressed themselves as being exceedingly aggrieved, and were ready to participate in demonstrations, but that the present situation, if not remedied, is full of potential trouble.

MINOR LEAGUES SCORE A POINT

Ben. Johnson Agrees to Place Limit on Number of Drafted Players.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 10.—A drawn battle on the points, urged by the National Association of minor leagues and a determination to investigate the case of Pittsburgh Jack Taylor, formerly of the Chicago National Club, who was accused of intentionally losing a game to the Chicago team in the American League, was the result of today's meeting of the National Baseball Commission.

Ben. Johnson, president of the American League, after the long deliberations of yesterday and last night, has announced that he will still oppose to granting the request of the minor leagues for an increase in the price to be paid for drafted players, but that he thought a limitation of the number of players to be drafted by the National and American Leagues might serve the same purpose and prevent excessive prices for drafted players.

This suggestion was taken under advisement by the National Commission, and during the day they made known their opposition and repeated their request for a restriction of the number of players to be drafted.

PLEASANT, SIMPLE, BUT SAFE AND EFFECTUAL CURE FOR IT.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompaniment with sour or watery eructations, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headache, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

THE PANAMA CANAL

In The North-American Review for the current month there appears a very remarkable article contributed by G. W. Crichfield. Whoever Mr. Crichfield may be his article strikes us as so well written and so much to the point that we present our readers with a summary of its tenor.

The importance of the Panama Canal to British America is as great as its importance to the United States. Mr. Crichfield's paper deals principally with proposals as to the method of building the canal. The considerations as to the expediency of adopting his plan on the depend on technical considerations, but much of what he says is open to the comprehension of any intelligent person. It is not so much this feature of his paper which we propose to call attention to as that contained in the following paragraph:

"From the standpoint of the engineer or contractor, any plan of the canal would be studied with reference to its practicability, first, cost and future maintenance. But the statesman whose attention is attracted by the great American opinion should be that of the great American people, while paying due regard to the engineer's or contractor's view, should look at the work with reference to the purpose for which it is destined to be used. Unquestionably the transcendent object which the Americans have in digging the canal is to provide for the national defence. We speak of the canal as a great work, intended to promote commerce, and so it is incidentally, but not in a hundred years would this canal have been built if that were its only object. Heavy freight is now shipped from San Francisco to New York by the Horn for $8 or $7 a ton. The cost of trans-shipping goods by the Panama Railway is by no means exorbitant; at least it is not sufficient to justify such a vast undertaking for purely commercial motives. The fact is that the trip of the Oregon during the Spanish-American War was a vivid object lesson to the whole American people. The vast extent of our coast and the supreme importance of being able to reach all parts of our domain by interior lines were impressed upon our people in a never-to-be-forgotten manner. The canal is essential to our national defence, particularly if we should become engaged in war with a great naval power. Peace conventions may talk of disarmament, and peace-loving writers may advocate a neutral canal, but the moment we have with a great naval power, the United States will be compelled as a matter of self-preservation to fortify the canal and defend it by every method in its power for the purpose of permitting the passage of our own vessels and preventing those of the enemy."

In these columns we have on more than one occasion presented this view of the matter to our readers. When the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty was abrogated the present convention was adopted, the great argument adduced in its favor by the imperial press and imperial statesmen was that this canal, if built by the United States, would be only useful as a commercial canal and would never be anything more than a neutral passage way open to the ships of all nations. Mr. Crichfield knows a great deal better, and he has placed before the American people an exact statement of the wishes and intentions of the advocates of the canal as an American enterprise. It seems quite useless for any Canadian writer or speaker to represent to the English people any such theory of the American intention in building this canal. Here is very plainly stated by an American in one of the most able papers we have read the inmost secret of the American understanding of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty. It seems to be so much the settled policy of Great Britain to withdraw in any question affecting the future of North America that it is rather hopeless to call the attention of the English people to this than unexpected result of their very deliberate policy. The withdrawal of the fleet from the North American West Indies, and the steps which are being taken in furtherance of the canal and in the withdrawal of England from the control of the Atlantic.

A canal which is intended to facilitate communication between New York and San Francisco is a fortiori much more indispensable as between Halifax and Vancouver. There, two points are in British territory, and by the present arrangement the shortest mode of sea communication between them will be in the hands of a foreign power. Direct communication by the Panama Canal, and the east, via the Panama Canal, will also be under the control of the same foreign power. This result may be what satisfies imperial statesmanship. To us it appears more like imperial suicide.

The suggestions made by Mr. Crichfield as to a deep water canal are a field for criticism by engineers. His suggestions as to the non-employment of negro labor, and as to the value of local natives, as well as of imported labor, seem to us well founded. Canada has so deep an interest in this canal that our people should watch the development not only in their own interests, but in the interests of the empire. It is apparently not to be expected that imperial statesmen can pay attention to the east and west at once. All we can do is to jog their memory by an occasional reminder that England still holds part of North America, and that there are some questions which should be handled in a different spirit from that of exclusive self-interest.

GOLD DEPOSITS IN ONTARIO.

The World publishes to-day from an authoritative source an interesting communication on the gold deposits of the province. If the facts are as stated, and there is no reason to doubt their correctness, there is evidently opening in this direction for the establishment of a very profitable industry. Modern methods of gold extraction are now so greatly improved that it has been found a profitable operation to work over the tailings and waste of earlier workings. Great quantities of gold in the proportions mentioned in the article is therefore a very valuable provincial asset, and it is quite likely that in which the yellow dust has already been found to exist. There could be no better thing for the province and the Dominion than the discovery of minerals within the gap that separates the central from the eastern provinces, since it would inevitably increase the severance of interests some observers anticipate.

SATURDAY HORSE MEETS.

Editor World: I am a lover of horse and last winter, with many others, took great enjoyment every Saturday afternoon in watching the weekly meet of the driving section of the Toronto Hunt Club in the Queen's Park. I was not a participant in the drives, but I would have liked to have been a great deal, for I saw the best of the high-class harness horses to be seen there in goodly numbers. In my humble opinion the Toronto Hunt Club conference is the best of its kind in the world, and I have seen only one other afternoon I saw two four-in-hand teams, seven tandems, nine pairs, four single hunters, and eleven ladies and gentlemen, with eleven ladies and gentlemen, and I trust that the sight was splendid. THE PANAMA CANAL

In The North-American Review for the current month there appears a very remarkable article contributed by G. W. Crichfield. Whoever Mr. Crichfield may be his article strikes us as so well written and so much to the point that we present our readers with a summary of its tenor.

The importance of the Panama Canal to British America is as great as its importance to the United States. Mr. Crichfield's paper deals principally with proposals as to the method of building the canal. The considerations as to the expediency of adopting his plan on the depend on technical considerations, but much of what he says is open to the comprehension of any intelligent person. It is not so much this feature of his paper which we propose to call attention to as that contained in the following paragraph:

"From the standpoint of the engineer or contractor, any plan of the canal would be studied with reference to its practicability, first, cost and future maintenance. But the statesman whose attention is

HEROINE OF SEVENTEEN.

Three Enters Burning House to Rescue Children. London, Jan. 9.—Blyth, on the Northumberland coast, has produced a heroine of 17 whose name is worthy to go down to history side by side with that of other Northumberland girls...

East Toronto. The annual meeting of the East York Conservative Association was held this evening in Society Hall, East York...

At 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening Chandler left "Happy Jocks" to go to his night-spell at the pit, and his eldest daughter, Dora, aged 17, locked up the house at 11 o'clock...

The violent barking of Chandler's dog woke Mrs. Chandler at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and she was told by her daughter, Mrs. Chandler, that the dog was barking in the kitchen in flames...

By this time the crazy wooden structure, full as it was of inflammable material, was burning furiously, but for the third time the darling girl made her way into it.

She suddenly remembered, even in that exciting moment, and almost choked by her previous efforts, that there was a bag of gunpowder in the burning house.

She dashed back thru the dense smoke, found the bag of gunpowder, and still in her nightdress, ran thru the bitterly cold night to the shore and threw the powder into the sea.

A few minutes later the Blyth fire brigade arrived, but "Happy Jocks" was by that time a blazing furnace, and they could do nothing to save it.

HON. HERBERT LENNOX IS YORK'S CANDIDATE

Conservatives Give Him Unanimous Nomination and "Better Luck This Time" is Slogan.

Newmarket, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—T. Herbert Lennox, in a largely attended meeting of the Liberal-Conservatives of North York, was this afternoon unanimously nominated to contest the riding in the approaching election. No other name was suggested.

Mr. Lennox, who has been the only one extended him candid title of that accorded to the candidates for the north. The meeting was not overcharged with enthusiasm, the conditions were not such as to engender a superabundance of fervor, the town hall being almost full of artificial heat, and wearers of coon coats were much envied.

The rally was graced by the presence of many ladies. Major J. A. Allan of Newmarket proposed and Councillor J. McCollum of King Township seconded the nomination of T. Herbert Lennox, barrister, of Aurora.

In a brief address the present incumbent accepted the honor, and the burden attached thereto. Twice he had essayed to carry the banner to victory, but had been unable to accomplish the desired end. But the present nomination of Mr. Lennox, was not as between Mr. Widdifield, the Liberal nominee, and himself, but as between the Liberal government and a vigorous opposition, imbued with high ideals and progressive views. Hon. E. D. Davis had been driven from public life.

J. W. St. John scored the government for their failure to redress the pledges given less than two years ago. He charged the premier with being equally guilty with the wrongdoers by which conspiciencies were debauched and stolen, inasmuch as the receiver of the forests of Ontario, and by judicious methods, as in use in Germany, to restore the land. Enormous waste was being inflicted on the province, and this great source of revenue was used to debauch the electorate.

The meeting was not overcharged with enthusiasm, the conditions were not such as to engender a superabundance of fervor, the town hall being almost full of artificial heat, and wearers of coon coats were much envied.

Fairweather's. Quite naturally retaliated. Yet no American really believes that four silver cents make less than a dollar because two of them happen to be Canadian.

The despatch from Montreal states that American money has always passed on this side of the boundary as freely as Canadian money, and that it is a common thing in changing a small bill, to see a Canadian tourist in Canada have discovered in interior points a quite marked reluctance to accept American money at par—or at all in fact. In cities near the border this prejudice vanishes.

ARRANGING WITH UNIVERSITY TO POPULARIZE ASTRONOMY

Royal Astronomical Society to Receive Accommodation in Return for Library and Instruments

A proposition to extend and popularize the study of astronomy at the university was announced last night by Prof. Chant in his presidential address at the annual meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada in the Canadian Institute.

"It is hoped," he said, "that an arrangement between the university and the society will be reached by which the society will be given accommodation for our meetings and our library, and the university to receive in return the use of the library and of our instruments."

Everyone I have spoken to about the matter has expressed hearty approval of the proposal. At present, notes among its achievements are the spectroscopic work of Hales, photographing layers of the sun's atmosphere below what appear to be the "Eddington's" discoveries on the moon's changes and the ninth satellite of Saturn.

The society has books and instruments valued at over $10,000. Prof. Chant, in reviewing the year of 1904 from its astronomical importance, details cannot be given, but I believe that an arrangement will be made which will be of great advantage to the society and to the university and to the people generally.

ZOO'S LODGERS' ILLS. Hippopotamus Has Chills and Another Suffers From Toothache. To zoologists it is not a remarkable piece of news that the hippopotamus at the Parliament Zoo are suffering severely from chills, and that the layman in natural history knows that an animal with such massive feet should suffer severely as heartrending as that a giraffe should have a sore throat or emphysema, says a London paper.

A naturalist said recently that "the great pachyderms are in reality sensitive, delicate creatures. The elephant, for instance, galls, and gets footsore more easily than any other animal. Those in our Zoo have to be oiled all over in the winter to keep their skins from cracking."

The hippopotamus at Regent's Park is liable to this form of disorder, and at times needs a good deal of rubbing with glycerine and vasoline to keep him in condition.

The naturalist also stated that a hippopotamus, elephant, or rhinoceros with chills is a most wretched sufferer, the large cracks which appear under the soles of their enormous feet causing them much pain and inconvenience.

The famous hippopotamus "Obaych," the first ever imported into Europe, and the oldest resident at Regent's Park, suffered greatly from toothache. On him was performed the largest operation on record.

The late superintendent of the Zoo, Mr. A. D. Bartlett, was the operator. Armed with a pair of powerful forceps, more than two feet long, he managed to get a grip on the offending tooth, and gave a mighty pull, and recovering his forceps he made another onslaught on the animal's tooth.

"Obaych" never again had toothache, he suffered constantly with chills.
