GERMANY GIVEN PLACE IN LEAGUE COUNCIL

APPLAUSE ROCKS HALL AFTER VOTE

Increase in Non-Permanent Seats Also Approved

SPAIN RESIGNS

Note to Geneva Repeaches League for Alleged Slight of Country

GENEVA, Sept. 8.—Europe buried the Great War today when amid applause which shook the hall of the League of Nations assembly, Germany was unanimously elected a member of the league and unanimously also accorded a permanent seat on the league council.

When the roll call of states was taken, Foreign Minister Briand of France pronounced a sonorous "Yes," and turned his eyes towards the press galleries, as if he wanted the world to go forth throughout the world that France was first and foremost to welcome her ancient enemy into the fold of conciliation and harmony.

Foreign Minister Vandervelde of Belgium with equal enthusiasm proclaimed approval of Germany's admission, while Sir Austen Chamberlain's contribution.

CONSIDERED IMPORTANT. LONDON, Sept. 8.—Captain Wedgwood Benn, member of parliament and a leader of the Liberal party, told the United Press today that Germany's admission to the League was the most important event since the war.

PROTESTS OVERTULED. Despite protests from the Scandinavian states against the policy of linking Germany's election with approval of an increase in the number of non-permanent council seats from six to nine, this augmentation was ratified, and also unanimously, three seats for Latin-American on the council are thus assured.

President Nintich of the assembly was visibly moved when he announced Germany's unanimous admission. M. Nintich is former minister of Jugo-Slavia the country which now embraces the town of Sarajevo, scene of the assassination of the Austrian Archduke Ferdinand, which was the last incident in the outbreak of the world war.

"It shows, after all," he said, "that those men of faith were right, when during the league troubles of last March (when Germany's election was blocked) they were not disheartened by difficulties which seemed almost overpowering. We have accomplished today, by voting Germany in, one of the most necessary, most delicate and most important tasks in the development of the League of Nations."

SPAIN RESIGNS. HENDAYE, France, Sept. 8.—Spain's resignation from the League of Nations was agreed upon at a cabinet council held in Madrid yesterday. King Alfonso presided.

COUNTRY REBELS AGAINST IDEA OF REFERENDUM ON ATTITUDE TO GOVERNMENT

HENDAYE, France, Sept. 8.—A leading Spanish statesman, who declines to permit publication of his name, expressed the following opinion to the Associated Press correspondent yesterday: "The government of Primo De Rivera has suffered such a terrific blow through recent events that his resignation must soon occur. The dictatorship was supported solely by the army, and he has now quarreled with the artillery branch, which is a model of efficiency, discipline and honor."

FINE WEATHER COMES AGAIN FOR EXHIBITION

Good Outlook Today After Rain Tuesday Checks Attendance

FURTHER AWARDS MADE AT DOG SHOW

Nice Displays Seen in Booths in Buildings at Fair

The weather man, who furnished rain and fog yesterday, was responsible for a falling off in the attendance at the exhibition, but fine weather came today and a large crowd was expected. In the afternoon the vaudeville show was curtailed, the Great Curran not attempting his feats on the high steel pole.

Last night's scheduled vaudeville show was cancelled entirely as the fog obscured the apparatus almost entirely. The fireworks program was also cut out.

The City Cornet Band, under the baton of Bandmaster Waddington, provided an enjoyable program of music for the vaudeville show in the afternoon. Their night concert was cancelled. The disagreeable weather drove many people to the buildings and the music provided by the Saint John Exhibition Symphony Orchestra and the Phonograph Salon booth artists was greatly enjoyed.

MINOR ACCIDENTS

Half a dozen minor accidents were treated at the emergency hospital of the St. John Ambulance Association during the day. The most serious case attended to was that of a man who had his finger jammed by a closing door. A few babies were left at the Red Cross nursery yesterday, while their mothers took in the big show.

The dairy exhibits attracted many people. Cheese and butter from the principal dairy districts of the Maritime Provinces, are displayed in proportion. Demonstrations of cream separators and other dairy machinery of the day are demonstrated here. A model dairy, cleverly constructed and up-to-date to the last degree, proved of great interest to visiting country folk.

Sections of livestock, dogs, poultry, agriculture and horticulture took place yesterday. Livestock, dog, dairy, poultry and education exhibits will be in the afternoon. Demonstrations of canning, home weaving, and modern dairy machinery of the day are demonstrated here.

POLISHES AND RANGES

Another booth in this vicinity is that of the Nugget Polish Company where polish for all manner and styles of leather can be secured.

Underneath the bandstand is the display of Fawcett ranges, of which firm the right is occupied by Bestly Brothers, who have a large display of washing machines. This company is the largest manufacturer of electric washing machines in the British Empire and turns out about 1,000 machines a month. It is featured in a new type, suitable for small flats. On each machine purchased at the booth four premiums are given and each reduction of $3 in the price allowed.

HEATING AND PLUMBING

The next booth in order contains a fine display of heating and plumbing supplies made by James Robertson, Ltd. The booth contains samples of hot water, steam and hot air heating apparatus and bathroom equipment. The company is featuring a hot air parlor heater. It also displays a domestic water pumping system for creaming homes.

VACUUM CLEANERS

The Premier Vacuum Cleaner Company, Ltd., comes next with an elaborate display of vacuum cleaners. J. Marcus, Ltd., are the local agents for this concern. The booth is in charge of C. R. Martin and demonstrations are given of the operation of the cleaners. There also is an opportunity to secure a cleaner free.

BESCO COKE

Following on, the British Empire Steel Corporation has a display of Besco coke, a large pile of which fuel is to be seen; also photographs of various coke plants of the corporation.

TEA AND COFFEE

In the right centre of the entrance is the Red Rose Tea and Coffee booth, where cups of these beverages may be purchased for a small sum and sample packages secured.

PACKERS' DISPLAY

Next in order in the centre is the booth of the Swift Canadian Company, Ltd., where samples of Silver Leaf brand of pure lard, Jewel shortening, Brookfield butter, eggs and cheese are on display.

ART GLASS AND FLOUR

A good exhibit of art glass and mirrors, shingles, wood work, plaster and gypsum lath is made by Murray and Gregory who have the next booth. A large space is devoted to the showing of Robin Hood flour, many bags of which are on display.

AUTOMOBILES

In the center of the annex is a large space given over to the display of McLaughlin-Buick automobiles, nine of the latest models being on exhibition. The Pontiac light six features, there being two real Indians in full costume there to advertise this model.

OIL HEATING AND DRINKS

In this section is the display of Hallett and Company, who demonstrate oil heating system. Further prize awards are announced as follows: Judging was continued at the New Brunswick Kennel Club dog show yesterday afternoon and last night. "Irish Molle," owned by James Latimer, won the special award and cup in the judging of Irish setter bitches. In the sheep-

Before taking this wonderful Fruit Juice remedy it was impossible to carry out my daily work, but now, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives', I am free from these ailments, and able to do my household duties without pain or fatigue."—Mrs. Thomas Evans, R. The Pilot's Letter. The Parker Pen Company, June 16, 1926. Gentlemen: At 11:10 P.M. yesterday I took off in my Yacker plane from Cheverton Field, with a Parker Duofold Pen in the cockpit beside me, and instructions to drop it from an altitude of 3000 feet. I circled the field until my altimeter told me I had reached the prescribed height, then I picked up the Parker Duofold and leaning over the side, I let it go. I heard to do it—it seemed a shame to crash such a big, fine-looking pen. A few minutes later I made a landing near my starting point. The crowd that had been watching this test swarmed toward me over the field. The pen had landed on hard ground and had been picked up. To my great surprise it had not been damaged in the slightest by its 3000-foot drop. I always thought the Parker Duofold was the best pen made, and now I know it.

Start School with a Pen and Pencil that won't break! Dropped 3000 ft.

YES, the Parker Duofold Pen was tossed from an aeroplane at dizzy altitude to test its new Non-Breakable barrel and cap made of Permalite and landed 3000 feet below—unharmful. We kept secret nearly a year the fact that all Parker Pens and Pencils have Permalite barrels and caps until by a series of heroic trials we proved beyond a doubt that they do not break. Now Parker Duofold, already more popular with students than any other pen, will be seen in School and College classrooms more than ever. Shapely, balanced, lacquer-red barrel with smart black tips made of Non-Breakable Permalite, and a Point guaranteed 25 years for wear and mechanical perfection. That's a combination that can't be equalled at any price. Choose your point and color at your good pen counter. But look with care for the name of the originator, "Geo. S. Parker," on the barrel. Carry the finest and you'll never need apologize.

T. group in West Saint John, of which Miss Anna Rippey is the leader, sent $3.50, the proceeds of their collections of one cent a day. Three little girls, Frances Ryan, Doris Fosbrook and Dorothy Thompson, sent $1.50, which they had realized by a successful entertainment. Five other girls, Roberta Nagle, Pauline Vail, Barbara Nagle, Della Beers and Eva Ross, sent $19.50, which they had raised by holding a bazaar. The fourth group of children had held a sale on the grounds of Rev. R. S. Crisp's residence, Douglas avenue.

ANNEXATION NONSENSE

A Britisher who lived for some years in Montreal and then returned to London, writes to a Canadian newspaper saying that he read with horror a paragraph in the National Review for June to this effect: "Thoughtful Canadians are beginning to realize the painful fact that sooner or later annexation to the United States will be their ultimate fate."

If he had been a bit better acquainted with this country he would have read that assertion with more amusement than horror, although, to be sure, there is an irritating element in it, because of the chance that it will mislead many who have little conception of the steady quality of Canada's loyalty to Great Britain, and the depth of its self-respect and its robust confidence in the years that lie before it.

It happens that a thinker of this fresh type has just obtained a little notoriety. He is Mr. Norman G. Heyd, a Toronto lawyer, who has lately elected Supreme Director of the Order of Moose at Spokane. A despatch from that city says that Mr. Heyd is the first foreigner to hold this exalted office.

The honor appears to have gone to his head, for otherwise one could not understand why a British subject and a citizen of Canada could have predicted the union of Canada and the United States, as Mr. Heyd is reported to have done.

The Toronto Globe says that allowances should be made for the utterances of speakers "when under the influence of emotion," but it adds that it is "just such utterances by Canadians visiting the United States who desire to heighten the impression upon the public opinion there that give color to the impression abroad that Canada is favorable to annexation."

We must doubt very much that any such impression is abroad. When Goldwin Smith was talking annexation in Canada, and Chas. A. Dana was preaching it almost daily in the New York Sun in the eighties, or at an even earlier date, during the confusion following the abrogation of the reciprocity arrangement prior to Confederation, it may be that such an impression existed, but to speak of it as prevailing anywhere in Canada or the United States today is to exhibit ignorance and folly at once.

"Mr. Heyd," the Globe says, "was highly gratified at the honor paid him. But even at that he should not have been induced to speculate with such certainty as he did on the extinction of Canada as an independent State."

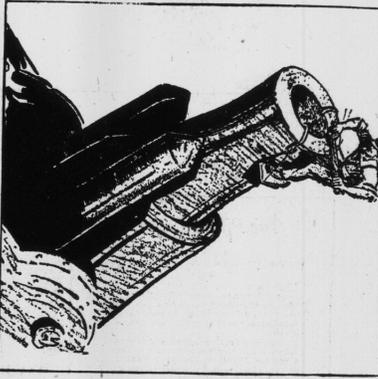

That is saying it softly, if Mr. Heyd has been correctly quoted, and unless he gives assurance to the Canadian members of the order of which he is now the Supreme Director on this continent that he said nothing resembling the extraordinary words attributed to him in the despatches, it will be confidently expected that the Canadian division will sharply repudiate his sentiments as in any sense representative of Canadian thought, and take such further action as the circumstances would appear to warrant.

Men who, even under the stress of emotion, give tongue to such nonsense as all the more grossly when they occupy conspicuous positions, Loyalty members of the order—and the loyalty of its members is not open to question notwithstanding the indiscretion into which Mr. Heyd has been betrayed—cannot afford to let the incident pass unnoticed.

CANTON AND MOSCOW.
The situation in China, while sufficiently grave in itself and containing the germs of widespread consequences, is not so serious because of what lurks in the background. It is not enough when pickets snipe shipping, landing parties, put ashore from British men-of-war, are attacked, vessels under the British flag are captured and their release refused; but when a Minister of the Cantonese Government sends an impudent demand to the British representative, it is a thousand times worse, because it must be assumed that there is some backing to Chinese activities.

That the sinister influence emanates from Moscow is almost certain. Events in the Baltic, the Balkans, Afghanistan, Tibet and China itself all point to Bolshevik plotting to embarrass Great Britain, if not definitely to engulf her in trouble stretching across an entire hemisphere. There can be little doubt in the minds of students of international relationships that Russia is behind the trouble in China. It is not that China in itself could stand up for ten minutes against the power of Britain. It is not thinkable that if Russia, in her mad endeavor to spread her doctrine of blood and op-

LOVE

"Auf Wiedersehen," by James Russell Lowell.
NO ONE has better shown the necessity of flinging this beautiful phrase from the German than Lowell. It has become a part of our language, through constant use; and surely, "until we meet again,"—or, literally, "until we see each other again"—is softer and lovelier than our own definite and iron "farewell" or "good-bye."

BERGEMEN TELL OF FATALITY IN WEST END WATER

Jury Finds Death of Mrs. Jennie McKiel Accidental

WOMAN SANK ONLY ONCE, SAYS CROSBY

Believed Clothing Caught on Piling—Jury Recommends Proper Gangways

An inquest was held in No. 7 Fire Station last night by Coroner F. L. Kenney and jury into the death of Mrs. Jennie McKiel, who fell from a ladder between the Dominion Coal Company barge, Nevada, and the dock at West Saint John last Friday night and lost her life. After an hour's deliberation the jury presented a finding that the woman accidentally fell from a ladder between the barge and the dock and the wharf in the Dominion Coal Co. dock on Friday, September 3 at 11:20 o'clock and was drowned.

The jury further recommended that proper gangways be provided to enable persons to pass safely between the vessel and dock as called for in section No. 13, in the by-laws relating to the harbor of the city of Saint John.

The jurymen: George P. Hennessey, foreman; J. Desjardins, Edward Butler, R. E. Lee, James T. Sharpe, Sylvester L. Lane and Robert Long.

FIRST WITNESS

There was a large gathering of citizens present to hear the evidence, and the first witness called was Leonard Crosby, who stated that he was not a master mariner, but looked after the coal barge Nevada, where he made his residence, whether on duty or not. He said that Mrs. McKiel came to the barge on Friday evening to see him. About 10:40 o'clock that night she started for her home, and while she was helping her ashore on a ladder in some manner she slipped and fell over the side of the ladder. Witness had hold of her hand but she broke clear, fell into the water between the side of the ship and dock and did not appear again. Watchman Darrell Hanson responded he held the ladder while witness climbed down the ladder, until the water was above his knees, looking for the woman. He then told Hanson to send in a fire alarm for assistance.

NO LIQUOR, HE SAYS

Witness stated that Mrs. McKiel went on board the barge between six and seven o'clock on Friday evening and she was about half way up the ladder when she fell. He had invited her aboard the barge. It was very dark while she was going ashore other than what light there was from a lantern he held in one hand.

THE WATCHMAN

Darrell Hanson, watchman at the Dominion Coal Co., West Side dock, who resides at 42 Water street, West Side, told of seeing Leonard Crosby and the woman going on board the barge Friday evening. About 11:20 o'clock he heard calls for help from Crosby. He switched on the lights from the boiler room and hastened to the scene and found Crosby down the ladder into the water. Crosby told him about the woman falling overboard.

HUSBAND TESTIFIES

Allison H. McKiel, husband of the deceased, testified that he saw the body of his wife and identified it as his wife. He said that he had been ill for some time in the hospital and had not been living with his wife for some time as they had agreed to live apart for a time.

To Clean and Beautify Greasy, Matted Hair

No woman looks good when her hair is all matted down with oily dirt. It can't be curled and won't look pretty no matter how much it is roughed or done over, until after another shampoo. The best thing to do is to give the hair a good shampoo with a simple barrel shampoo. There is enough oil in this to loosen the grease and dirt and get the pores so that the hair will keep clean and free from excess of oil and dirt a considerable time. Dissolve a teaspoonful of barrel in a cup of hot water and pour on the hair, rubbing well. After rinsing the hair with clean water, wash and when dry will be delightfully fluffy, soft and of good color. While barrel is impregnated with mineral oils, drugs, so there is no need to add, no bottles to break. A few ounces will last for months.

Canadian Press Despatch. WINNIPEG, Sept. 7.—Success beyond all expectations has attended the settlement of British families who have come to Canada during the past two years under the 3,000-family settlement plan, was the opinion expressed today by the Earl of Clarendon, who arrived here following a visit throughout the prairie provinces and British Columbia. The Earl of Clarendon is chairman of the Overseas Settlement Committee. Since reaching Canada about the middle of July, the Earl, accompanied by T. C. MacNaghten, vice-president of the committee, has visited 145 of the 1,500 families that have been sent out. They covered approximately 4,000 miles by motor. "It is to be hoped," the Earl remarked, "that when the 3,000 families

Its fittings will be the finest which the Hungarian automobile industry can produce. With this gift the ladies wish to remind Otto that his throne is still being held open. While Otto spends his days in Spain studying kingly ways his country, Hungary, remains a kingdom without a king.

ENGINEER BLAMED FOR FATAL CRASH

Pilot of Suburban is Held Responsible For C. N. W. Collision

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—An engineer who lies babbling incoherently in a hospital, was blamed yesterday by railroad officials and fellow workers, for a rear end collision Monday night, of two Chicago and Northwestern passenger trains, which brought death to five persons and injury to a hundred. Frank Walters, vice-president of the road, in charge of operations, reported officially that the failure of Louis J. Smith, pilot of the suburban train to heed two warning signals, caused the train to plough into the rear coaches of the local train bringing back from Elroy, Wis., and intermediate points several hundred holiday merry-makers. Fortune Leidy, fireman on the suburban locomotive, corroborated investigators' statements that the engineer continued past a warning light and a caution signal. Smith has been hysterical since the accident.

Shipping Cattle Now To Scotland

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Dundee will be the port of disembarkation for 2 shipment of cattle leaving Montreal next Friday on the Donaldson freighter Salacia, this being practically a new departure in the Canadian cattle export trade, though an experimental cargo was taken to that port by one of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine ships two years ago.

This second shipment has been arranged as a result of requests made by farmers in Aberdeenshire, Perthshire and Forfarshire, Scotland, where the animals will be placed on the land to graze and fatten for the local markets. The beasts will be special young Canadian cattle, going under the name of stockers, and the shipment will probably number 650 head.

RETURN TO SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Quinlan, who were visiting Mrs. Quinlan's mother, Mrs. W. H. Driscoll, Broad street, left on the Montreal train on Tuesday for Ottawa en route for New York, where they will embark on the steamer Six-O'Clock on Sept. 15 for Colon, Panama. From Colon they will continue their journey to Barranquilla, South America, where Mr. Quinlan is located with the Tropical Oil Company.

BOYS FIND RIFLE; ONE KILLED BY SHOT

Lads Examining Gun in Shed at Montreal, When it is Discharged

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Shot through the head accidentally by a playmate, Keith Eric Hutton, 11 years of age, of 489 Mackay street, died at the Royal Victoria Hospital. The accident occurred at Cartierville, near the Blue Bonnets race track. Information given to the hospital authorities was that the boy was playing with two other lads and in a shed they found an old rifle of .22 calibre. They gathered around to examine the weapon and their heads were close together when one of the boys accidentally pressed the trigger. The rifle was loaded. Young Hutton had his head close to the muzzle of the rifle when it discharged. The bullet went into the boy's head just above the right ear and came out at the left side of the head.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR YOUR INDIGESTION

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in large columns, take a teaspoonful or two tablets of Bisulphate of Magnesia in a little water after meals. Magnesia in a little water after meals no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please, and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisulphate of Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and without the slightest pain or discomfort. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get pure Bisulphate of Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

British Columbia Plans Sugar Factory

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 8.—Erection of a $2,000,000 sugar beet factory near New Westminster, B. "The project calls for a factory capable of handling 1,000 tons of beets a day during the operating season. Climate and soil of British Columbia are well adapted to sugar beet culture, government agricultural tests have shown,"

Girl Is Left At Jewelers' On Wedding Day; Gems Vanish

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 8.—Some girls are left waiting at the church, but Sororia Maria Laura Labore, of Buenos Aires, was left waiting at a jewelry shop. Not only that, but her fiancé, Hector, Julio Nunes, got away with Maria's jewels, valued at approximately $2,500.

Nunes had been engaged to marry Sororia Labore. The marriage received the sanction of the girl's family, the date was set, and the arrangements made at the church.

On her wedding day, Maria received a telephone call from Nunes, asking her to meet him at a jewelry shop, and to bring along the jewelry, as the groom wanted an expert to make sure that the bride's jewels were in good condition.

Nunes received the jewels, excused himself, and left the shop by a side door. Maria waited for two hours. Then she went home. For the first time in six months, Nunes did not show up. The next day, accompanied by her parents and a policeman, Maria went to Nunes' home, where she found that he had left for Rosario the day before, accompanied by his wife and three children.

Nunes was arrested in Rosario, and is awaiting trial here.

Advice to a Business Woman Who Wants to Become a Writer—Experience of One Wise Wife Who Solved the Mother-in-Law Problem—Tyranny of Parents Over a Divorced Daughter.

DEAR MISS DIX—All my life I have wanted to write. I am now past 30, and have a very fine position that has taken years to earn in the business world. My work is very hard, and I am so tired at night that I cannot write. During the day when I have time I weave little stories in my mind. What I wish to ask you is—do you think it wise to give up good position for the uncertainty of writing? I believe that I could make up the story, but have little idea of the phrasing. I have only a high school and business college education. Is a college education essential? I feel that it is time I must do something or give up the idea entirely. I am getting along in years.

DOROTHY DIX

A WOULD-BE WRITER.
ANSWER: No human being in the world can tell you in advance whether you have the ability to be a successful writer or not. The only way you can find out is to try to see for yourself if you have the divine afflatus or not. There is no test by which you, or any one else, can tell you whether you have the sacred fire of genius in your soul or not. The mere fact that you have always yearned to write is no indication whatever that you possess the ability to do so.

You might break your heart with longing to be a Caruso without ever being able to sing a note. Your yearning to be a beautiful wouldn't make you a Lillian Russell, nor your desire for power and place make you the President of the United States.

Wanting and getting are two entirely different things, yet many people make the mistake of thinking that just because they desire to do something is a sure sign they have a talent for it. Which is a mistake.

If you have a fine, well-established position in an occupation which you have already made a success, think long and earnestly before you give it up to try something for which you do not know you even have an aptitude. Believe me, writing is one of the most arduous of all professions. It is one in which success is won only after years of patient toil, and its rewards in money are seldom commensurate with the work it has demanded. Only the most famous writers make as much money as a fairly successful business man.

Yet I would not discourage you. There is no other joy in life equal to doing the kind of work we like to do, and the writer who lives in the little world of his own creation feeds on spiritual ambrosia, even if he does sometimes lack for bread. So if you are willing to starve for a few years while you are learning your trade, and risk failure in the end, take your courage in both hands and jump in.

As for how to break into print, there is little more advice that one can give you than there is about learning to swim by a course in correspondence. All we can say is "The water is fine. Jump in."

Which being interpreted means, write your story and send it to a publisher, and if he sends it back send it to another, and so on, ad infinitum, until some editor accepts it, or you become convinced that you have answered somebody else's call to write.

As for qualifications it doesn't matter whether you have a high school or a college education, provided you have a good working knowledge of the English language. The only thing that matters is a talent for writing. And that is the gift of God.

DEAR MISS DIX—Don't you think that the reason why so many women have trouble with their in-laws and their husbands is because they use so little common sense in dealing with them? Now I have been married fifteen years, and I am persona grata with my mother-in-law, because I am always urging her to go to see her mother and to pay her little attentions. I buy her little things she likes, and in every way have always tried to make her feel that she gained a daughter instead of losing a son when I came into the family. And she does. Even mothers-in-law are amenable to kind treatment.

We have six beautiful children, and we settle the going-out problem this way: Every Tuesday and Saturday night my husband goes his way with his friends, and I go with mine. The other nights we stay at home, or go out together. I have never yet said "You must not go," for that makes a man break his neck to go. But if you tell a man to go he will try to come to see why you are so anxious to have him go out. That's the way to work 'em.

ANSWER: A Solomon! A Solomon in petticoats you are M. H., and lucky is the man who got you for a wife. Would that there were more wives like you!

For you are right in saying that common sense is the magic that solves the great puzzle of how to get along with your in-laws, and handle a husband without friction. A little kindness, a little tact, a little judicious use of soft soap where it will do the most good, a little forbearance, and any wife can have her family eating out of her hand.

To me, the most tragical thing in the world is that so many men and women ruin their lives over nothing at all. They have all the rough materials for happiness in their hands, and they deliberately throw them away. They beat themselves black and blue against stone walls that they might just as well walk around.

The most important thing on earth to every man and woman is having a peaceful and happy home, and getting along with their husbands and wives, and children, and in-laws. There is not one case in a million where this cannot be done by the use of just a little ordinary gumption, as you have demonstrated in your own experience.

In-laws can be placated by a little kindness and a few attentions. Hennes can be kept peaceful by husbands and wives refusing to argue and fight, and nag. Husbands and wives can keep each other in love by showing each other a little tenderness. And they won't do it. Let's it pitiful!

DEAR MISS DIX—I am 22 years old, and have a little girl. I am getting a divorce from my husband, who was a failure and became a victim of drink, because my parents think I ought to. I am living at home, working every day and trying to do all I can to help myself. My parents are over-protective and domineering, and all my life they have kept me under their thumbs and thwarted my every move. I am decent and respectable. Should I be bossed for the rest of my days by them when I long for some pleasure and happiness? What would you suggest?

ANSWER: As long as you are financially dependent on your parents, you will have to submit to them, so the only thing that you can do is to work hard and earn your own independence. Then you can do as you please.

The woman who has been married, and at the head of her own house, and able to do as she likes, nearly always finds, when she gets a divorce and comes back home to live, that she has jumped out of the frying pan into the fire.

For the tyranny of a husband is as nothing to the tyranny of parents, who never realize that a girl grows up, and who feel that they have a right to boss her as long as she lives, and who especially feel that they have a right to dictate her every movement if she has made an unfortunate marriage.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

ONE of the most interesting experiments in motion pictures of recent date has just been announced by Paramount. It is a picture enacted entirely by America's strangest people, the isolated mountaineers of the south.

Although production has been under way for four months this announcement was the first intimation that such a picture was being "shot."

Only primitive people of the mountains appear in the picture, which was produced from a story based on the customs of mountain folk. Because of the hostility of the mountaineers toward outsiders who encroach on their territory.

The first difficulty encountered was to find persons willing to appear before the camera. A 14-year old mountain girl, Helen Mundy, was finally chosen for the feminine lead and a young man, Forest James, for the male lead.

In this film, which is called "Stark Love," there are no funds, no revenues, no agents, no handsome strangers from the city. It is based on the conflict between father and son for the love of a girl.

WHAT BRINGS SUCCESS?
DORIS KENYON ANSWERS
Doris Kenyon gives the following estimate of the things that bring success to the average screen actress:
Beauty, 15 per cent.
Personality, 30 per cent.
Trying hard to succeed, 25 per cent.
Luck, 10 per cent.

SMART SLIPPERS FOR DAY AND EVENING

Patent leather manages to keep well in the lead for fall smartness. It is used in slippers without any other combination leather, and it is also combined with such effective mediums as snakes skin, as shown in the upper model.

Below this is a dainty evening slipper of flesh satin, with unusual insets of flat lace on the toe and heel.

The lower slipper is another evening model. In yellowish gold tissue with black velvet spots.

SEE-SAWING DOWN BROADWAY

SEE-SAWING up and down Broadway, I saw Lya de Putli, the newest of the very wicked screen ladies to come from Europe. And though all the male eyes at a Broadway premiere were upon her she showed no signs of vampsiphness. Nor was she so much accompanied by a handsome escort. Instead she was the solid looking German girl who acts as her interpreter.

Law Lowell Sherman, the actor, with the largest monole I have ever seen balanced between eyelash and cheek, and so worried was I that it would fall off that I paid little heed to the performance, marveling at his dexterity.

Saw Louise Brooks, enshrined in the seat of honor at the city's most popular night club. And only yesterday, it seems she was dancing in a Broadway chorus. The movies claimed her and just as stardom hove in sight, her director fell in love with her and that was that. Another of those Broadway Cinderella romances.

Gloria Swanson, looking fragrant lovely in a French creation of black, trailed by the inevitable Count "Hank" Mary Pickford, back from a European trip, and quite mature it seemed to me, and most charming in this grown up role. And it caused me to wonder when and how she will be able to escape the "golden cull" pictures and appear as the actress I'm sure she is.

Mary Brian, the "Wendy" of "Peter Pan," no longer a gangling girl, attending theater with her ever-present mother, Jimmy Walker, the "boyish" mayor of this metropolis, standing in a theater lobby, his straw hat cocked at rakish angle, a cigarette hanging from his mouth, swapping wise cracks, and looking for all the world like a song and dance man waiting to go on with his act.

A Valentino memorial song makes its appearance already on Broadway. And Gertrude Ederle found the "tin pin" also; writers had best bear to Broadway with a song in which the name "Trudy" is made to rhyme with "beauty." But then these things are done in a hurry.

Saw Millicent Rogers, otherwise the Countess Salm, "throwing a party" at one of the leading night clubs, and there seemed to be no sign of heartwork over the passing of the late notable.

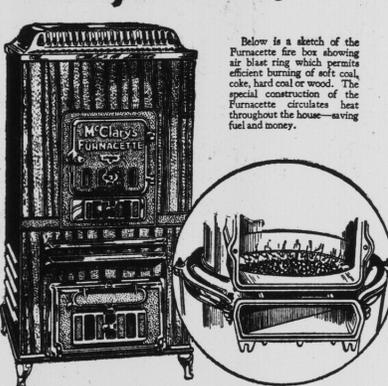

Last of the symphony concerts at the Stadium and final band concert in Central Park. Goodbye supper, goodbye, goodbye. What the first robin is to spring the conclusion of these annual musical events is to fall in Manhattan.

FALL SHIPPING OF APPLES COULD BE INCREASED

Better Facilities Here for This Advocated at Export Club Conference

Increased facilities for the fall shipping of apples from the port of Saint John were advocated yesterday afternoon at the conference between members of the New Brunswick Export Club and officials of the federal and provincial agricultural departments. The opinion was expressed by Harvey Mitchell, provincial deputy minister of agriculture, that much good had been accomplished by the conference and the farmers would benefit by ideas advanced.

J. H. King, federal live stock promoter, said that the Maritime provinces led in the production of bacon, but in marketing quantity production was wanted to keep the packing houses supplied. He said the Saint John demand for a two-thirds grown was at variance with the other markets, where a 150-pound pig was the standard.

A. H. White, of the federal dairy department, advocated an increase in the dairy industry and establishment of more butter factories as it was easier to standardize the output from factories than when it was from a number of farms. He favored the dairy use for New Brunswick rather than the dual animal as more adapted to conditions here.

A. G. Turney, provincial horticulturist, told of the possibilities in apple growing in New Brunswick and advocated the growing of McIntosh Reds or this province. He said that better shipping facilities in the fall were

New Passenger Plane Is Largest in Use

The plane carried 20 passengers and made the 226-mile flight in 106 minutes, or at an average speed of 180 miles an hour.

Attack on University Accompanies Big Gift

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 8.—Along with a gift of his $200,000 estate to the University of California, William H. Smyth, noted inventor and philosopher of this city, attacked the present educational system he hoped his gift would benefit.

In announcing donation of his eight-acre estate to the school, Smyth contended the methods of education are all wrong and, like Topay, "just growed." He said that instead of preparing the rising generation for life, college training as meted out today has no value whatever to the average college graduate.

"The college and university of today has a tendency to turnout animated jumbled indexes, not trained human beings," he asserted.

"Educational ideas are bound to undergo great changes and the hope for the future rests in science and a scientific training."

528 CANDIDATES WILL CONTEST 244 RIDINGS IN CANADIAN VOTE

Provencher Is Only Seat In Which Battle Will Not Be Waged

235 Conservatives, 199 Liberals, 20 Progressives, 21 Liberal-Progressives, 23 Independents, 18 Laborites Named

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—The battle lines of the opposing political parties were drawn closer to one another at official nominations today and, with one exception, contests will be waged on September 14 for every seat in the Federal Parliament. The exception is Provencher, Manitoba, where A. L. Beaubien, Liberal-Progressive, was elected by acclamation at the advance nominations held last week in 27 constituencies of wide area and inaccessibility.

Featured by the large number of triangle figures, final nominations today for the other 219 seats brought the total number of candidates to 528. Of this number 235 are Conservatives, 199 Liberals, 20 Progressives, 21 Liberal-Progressives, 23 U. F. A., 23 Independents and 18 Laborites.

All the ministers in the Meighen government and the former ministers in the late King administration who are running for party seats with the exception of Hon. H. H. Stevens, minister of customs, and Hon. J. H. King, former minister of public works, Mr. Stevens is opposed in Vancouver Center by a Liberal and a Laborite, while in Kootenay East, a Conservative and a Laborite are running against Dr. King.

Thirty triangular contests will be held, while 212 straight party fights and two quadrangular battles will be fought.

132 NOMINEES IN QUEBEC

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—With the filing today of nomination papers for 132 candidates in the province of Quebec, the curtain ascended in the last act of the election play. Added to the three constituencies in which nominations had already been held, Pontiac, Gaspé and Charlevoix-Saguenay, the figure represents the total number of candidates in Quebec reaches 138.

In 138 ridings there are straight party contests, except in Port Neuf, where Siméon Delisle, the former Liberal member, is opposed by Armand Marcotte, who runs as an Independent-Liberal.

INDEPENDENT LIBERALS
Six divisions will see triangular fights. In four of these the Liberal former member is opposed by an Independent-Liberal in addition to a Conservative; in one, Labelle, the former Independent member, Henri Bourassa, is fighting a "Protectionist" and a straight Conservative, while in the fifth, the triangle is made up of one Liberal and two Conservatives, one of the latter running as an Independent.

TRIANGULAR BATTLE
In one constituency, the Cartier division, of Montserrat, the battle is quadrangular, S. W. Jacobs, the ex-member, facing an opposition composed of Louis M. Fauriol, Joseph Paul Parent, (Independent-Liberal) and Michel Bubay, (Socialist).

The four Quebec ministers contesting seats in which they have previously run, Hon. Sir George Perley, soliciting the suffrages of Argenteuil, Hon. E. L. Patenaude, Jacques Cartier, Hon. André Fautoux, Bagot, and Hon. E. Paquet, Bonaventure.

PERLEY'S LEAD 200 IN 1925
Last October Sir George Perley was victorious in Argenteuil by a majority of 200; Hon. Mr. Patenaude was defeated in Jacques Cartier by 1,870; Hon. Mr. Fautoux was defeated in Bagot by 774, but in the by-election rendered necessary by the death of the member-elect, Joseph March, Mr. Fautoux had reduced the majority in December to 479. Hon. Mr. Paquet was defeated in Bonaventure by 529.

Last October nine constituencies returned their victors by less than 1,000 votes. Of these the Conservatives had three and the Liberals 6. Those who went to the Conservatives were St. Lawrence-St. George, Argenteuil and St. Antoine, while those in which Liberals were elected by less than the millionaire number were Montserrat, St. Ann, Wright, Yamaska, Bagot and Bonaventure.

In all other seats the elected candidates enjoyed majorities or pluralities running into the thousands, the highest being that of Hochelaga which returned E. C. St. Peré by 10,000 and the next Mount Royal which returned a Conservative, R. S. White, by 9,248.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A vendetta relentlessly pursued by an Italian mother for six years ended this week when she shot and killed the man she believed responsible for the fatal shooting of her only son.

As Andrew Piccarelli, the victim, approached the corner of Delancey and Goerck streets, a few doors from the spot where he is said to have killed the young man, Mrs. Josephine Cagnina, mother of the slain youth, hurried up behind him. She gripped the collar of his coat and whipped a pistol from her dress. Before he could turn, she fired a shot through his neck. Four more bullets followed. One struck him in the head, the others going wild.

The woman threw her pistol aside as Piccarelli fell. Bending her umbrella over her knee, she hurled it at the dying man's face in a final gesture of fury. Patrolman John O'Donnell ran up and arrested her. At first she denied all knowledge of the shooting. Confronted with a seven-year-old boy who witnessed it, she admitted her guilt.

TELLS CROWD WHY SHE DID IT

She told the gathering crowd that the man had killed her 22-year-old son in April, 1920, in front of his home at 86 Goerck street. Piccarelli was taken to Gouverneur Hospital by Dr. Horowitz, but died on the way.

Mrs. Cagnina waved good-bye to the crowd as she was taken to the Clinton street station. There she became hysterical, saying over and over again that she had killed Piccarelli to avenge the death of her son. When the police questioning lapsed she sobbed her son's name softly to herself, as if the only impression the crime made on her was to recall his memory.

"Every one in the neighborhood knows that man shot my son," she said. "He was my only son and a very good boy to me."

Detectives learned that the pistol she used had been sent to her from Italy. She gave her occupation as a coat finisher in a tailoring shop. She told the police she had left her husband because he would not avenge the death of their son.

MET VICTIM BY ACCIDENT

Later, when she was questioned by Assistant District Attorney Joseph Pascoella, Mrs. Cagnina said she had left the apartment she occupied with her daughter, Rosa Rasbo, at 1 Corlears street, to do some shopping. At Delancey and Goerck streets she saw Piccarelli standing in front of a store. She then hurried back to the apartment to get the pistol. When she returned the man was still there. She approached him and fired point blank, according to her story.

The killing of her son, she declared, occurred in an altercation with Piccarelli when her boy resented an alleged slur regarding her.

She was charged with homicide and will have a hearing in Essex Market Court this morning.

Piccarelli was 40 years old and the only address the police could get for him was Lottimer street, Brooklyn. He was said to have been married.

According to Bertillon prints and police records, Piccarelli was arrested on Jan. 6, 1913, on a charge of counterfeiting and was sentenced five days later in Federal court to a two-year term in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Three years later, under the name of James Lottimer, the same man was arrested here for petty larceny. The last entry in the case is dated October, 1916, but no final disposition is recorded. Although a "wanted" card had been issued for Piccarelli in connection with the death of young Cagnina, according to the police, he was never arrested on this charge.

CANADA'S GOLD MINES

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 8.—Gold mines of Canada are producing precious metal at the rate of $100,000 a day, according to a report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

CONTRIBUTIONS
CHECK DEFICIT OF ORPHANAGE

Board of Protestant Institution Hears Reports on Finances and Work

Contributions received, mostly as proceeds of children's entertainments or of community enterprises during the last month, were sufficient to carry along the maintenance expenses of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage, it was reported at the meeting of the directors held yesterday afternoon in Pythian Castle.

These contributions were very gratefully acknowledged and had meant that no increase was made in the deficit of $27,000. Of the $100 daily required to finance the Orphanage, $50 is assured from money from the Orange Order, Knights of Pythias, church collections, support paid for children and interest on investments. The sum of $100 daily thirty days a month must be raised in contributions. D. C. Clark, president, was in the chair. It was decided to hold the monthly meetings on the first Tuesday of each month throughout the year. The directors decided to postpone indefinitely the appointment of a layman as traveling financial agent.

COLLECTING BOXES.

Arrangements were completed for distributing collecting boxes to homes, stores and public places throughout the province for receiving small sums throughout the year and a committee was appointed to see to the placing of envelopes in the churches for the annual collection for the orphans in November. Another committee was appointed to interest Sunday schools in supporting the orphans.

Reports showed 204 children in the care of the institution, and all in excellent health.

Unconscious Woman Revived By Garlic

SAN JOSE, Cal., Sept. 8.—It remained for T. Castro to discover hidden potencies in common garlic.

When Castro's automobile collided with another machine, a woman passenger was knocked unconscious. Cold water was dashed into her face without effect.

Castro rushed to the tonneau of his machine, where a sack of fresh, succulent garlic lay. He waved one bulb under the unconscious woman's nose. She breathed deeply and sighed. He waved it again and her eyelids fluttered. With the third flourish she jumped up in full possession of her senses.

At the meeting there were shown snapshots of two children, formerly babies in the Orphanage, both of whom had been adopted in excellent homes in Massachusetts and both of whom had been summing at Cape Cod. The members were greatly

U. S. MAKES LAST CANAL PAYMENT

Pays Colombo For Right to Construct Big Panama Ditch

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A romantic chapter of Latin-American diplomatic history was closed when the United States treasury paid to Colombia the last installment of the $25,000,000 she demanded in connection with the building of the Panama Canal.

This payment of $5,000,000 was the fifth of like amount made since the celebrated Colombian treaty was ratified in 1921 after a long fight.

Just before the canal project reached fruition, Panama, then a part of Colombia, declared her independence. President Roosevelt was accused of having intervened prematurely on the side of the Panamanians in order to secure from them the cession of territory needed for the canal. This Roosevelt denied, but a decade later President Wilson negotiated the $25,000,000 treaty "to restore cordial friendship" with Colombia, and although the Senate once refused to ratify, it reversed itself after President Harding had come into office. The Senate amended the treaty, however, to eliminate an apology included in the original draft.

British House of Commons Frequently Stirred by Threats of Force

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The schoolboy challenge of "come into the alley and repeat that I'll lick you," has recently become a byword of the House of Commons.

Bitterness between the ruling Conservatives and the Liberals and particularly the Labor members over the coal crisis, frequently results in heated passages of threats back and forth across the chamber.

On one occasion recently two members actually engaged in a fist-fight while returning from the House of Lords.

Captain T. J. O'Connor, Conservative member from Luton, on another occasion angrily crossed the House and asked a Social member to step outside the House and repeat what he had said while Prime Minister Baldwin was speaking on the Eight-Hour Bill. O'Connor declared that the Socialist member had shouted the charge that Baldwin "was trying to line his own pockets in pressing for the passage of the bill."

Women Civil Officials Doubled in Sweden

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 8.—Women now hold more than twice as many positions in the civil services of Sweden as they did in 1913, the latest official statistics show.

Before the war they numbered 8,838. Now they are 17,177. At the same time the number of men employed by the government has gone down from 83,275 to 81,160.

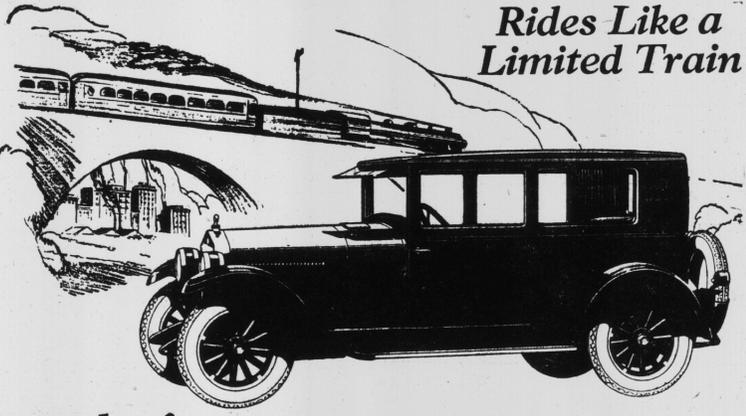

Educational statistics also show that in the entrance examinations for the Swedish Universities the percentage of failures is lower for girls than boys. While in the past five years 86.2 per cent of the girls have been admitted, only 80.0 per cent of the boys have passed.

A Simple Beauty Secret That Every Woman Should Know

According to the old adage "beauty is only skin deep," but it would be a transient thing indeed if it did not have behind it a strong, healthy body with all of the organs functioning properly. Just as warmth is radiated by intense fire so is beauty of face and figure the expression of glowing health. Without good health there can be no lasting beauty.

Every woman has an inherent beauty, but so many unconsciously handicap themselves in the effort to look their best! Any physician will tell you that the basis of good health lies in keeping the system free from those poisons that accumulate so quickly if the body does not function naturally every day. Unfortunately, six out of ten women, it is estimated, are risking their good health constantly because of the fact that these toxic poisons do not naturally move out of their systems. And the result is that their health is impaired, not so the extent of putting them into a sick bed, but through little headaches, a constant feeling of fatigue, a heaviness that makes them dull and creates a spiritless attitude toward life.

Health is restored, their beauty is seriously affected. The color of the skin becomes sallow because of these poisons, circles appear under the eyes, the complexion goes. To overcome such a condition it is imperative to rid the body of this waste material. For over twenty years women have been aided by Sal Lido, a gentle cleanser and pleasant laxative which has been highly recommended by leading physicians for this purpose. A spoonful in a glass of water before meals is all that is required. Results are really marvelous. Health is restored, appetite returns, that heavy feeling disappears, the circles under the eyes vanish, complexion becomes natural, and, full of vitality, mind alert, one's beauty is recaptured and enhanced.

FAMOUS FEET... how they're kept free from corns...

ADELAIDE HUGHES' Famous Dancing Feet

"I think a lot of my feet," writes Adelaide Hughes, the charming danseuse of Broadway musical hits. "So much rests on them—including my pay check, that's why I am so strong for Blue-jay. . . . A dancer's feet lead a hard life. . . . but I never fear corns. "As soon as I sight a sign of one, I put on a Blue-jay, and it goes before it comes, if you know what I mean."

Thousands of noted folk who reap fine and fortune from their feet, including actors, screen stars and athletes, keep a supply of Blue-jay always at hand—both to keep corns from coming and to banish, quickly and easily, those that insist on arriving. . . . At all drug stores.

Value Means More than Price Alone!

THE price of a car is what you pay—the value is what you get. Value is the combination of Quality and Price.

Notwithstanding the recent remarkable reductions in Chevrolet prices, Chevrolet does not aim to be the cheapest car in its class. It does aim—and is justly considered—the greatest value in its class.

The smooth Chevrolet is outstanding value, not only because it costs you less—but because it gives you more—more smoothness of performance—more power and speed—more instant acceleration—more striking beauty of line and finish—more richness of upholstery—more completeness of appointments.

To pay less than the price of the smooth Chevrolet is to sacrifice quality. To pay more, for a car in the Chevrolet class, is needless extravagance.

The Smoothest Chevrolet in Chevrolet history is selling at the Lowest Price for which Chevrolet has ever been sold in Canada.

Ask your Chevrolet dealer about the GMAC Plan of buying a car on time.

BEN WELCH KEPT UP STAGE WORK, THOUGH BLIND

Famed Comedian Dies—He Once Was Making $50,000 Year

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Funeral services for Ben Welch, blind comedian, who died after an attack of bronchial pneumonia, were held in Riverside Memorial Chapel, Amsterdam avenue and 76th street, under auspices of the Jewish Theatrical Guild, of which he was a member. Delegations representing the National Vaudeville Artists, the Grand Street Boys' Association and fraternal organizations attended.

After he became blind, Welch continued to play in vaudeville. His health began to fail about five months ago. The strain had been too much. He was on the verge of a physical and mental collapse and his doctors ordered a rest. On Aug. 7 he was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where it was said his condition was almost hopeless. Two days later he was removed to the Kings Park Hospital, Smithtown, L. I., where he died last Thursday.

OPERA HOUSE HAS VALENTINO FILM

"The Eagle" Shows Late Star of Screen in Fine Role

Hail Rudolph, the romantic Russian! Valentino's new picture, "The Eagle," now showing at the Opera House, brings him to the screen in Muscovite hero in a vehicle that will rank with any in which he has ever appeared.

"The Eagle" is a pretentious film with the action taking place in the land of the Czar before the revolution. The screen play is by Hans Kraly, based on "Dubrovsky," a Russian classic by Alexander Pushkin, "the Shakespeare of Russia." Clarence Brown has directed it with skill and humor.

Valentino has a role distinctly different from any of his others and he imparts to it vitality and magnetism. The part calls for unusual versatility inasmuch as he appears in three guises—first as a Cossack lieutenant, then as an adventurous bandit, and, while in masquerade, as a French tutor.

"The Eagle" might be described as a romantic comedy-drama. Certainly it has all of these elements, plus a pictorial beauty that delights the eye. The star is supported by a brilliant cast, including Vilma Banky as the leading woman, Louise Dresser as the Cossack, and many other bright lights of filmdom. Even the minor roles are played by actors of distinction.

The showing of "The Eagle" will be concluded this afternoon and evening.

DESTROYED POLICY

For twenty-one weeks he appeared nightly with the company and then he returned to New York and entered vaudeville. He obtained a booking at the Palace and then played in other theatres on the Keith circuit, doing his turn with success. He had carried an insurance policy which would have given him $15 a week for life so long as he did not work or a lump sum of $10,000 if he did not work for a year. He said, however, that he wanted neither play nor charity and in the presence of the Mayor of Providence, R. I., and other officials he burned the policy.

On his recent appearance in vaudeville he remained seated on a park bench and cracked his gags with the aid of a partner who guided his entrance.

Welch's home was at 215 West 75th street. Surviving him besides his wife are a daughter, his mother and six sisters.

TO CHECK RAVAGES OF N. B. Game Fish

FREDERICTON, Sept. 7.—Hon. C. D. Richards, Minister of Lands and Mines, has interested himself in the movement to check the ravages of the merganser or shill duck game fish. He secured a number of permits from Ottawa for shooting the ducks out of season and distributed them among fisheries guards on the Saint John and Miramichi. At Hart's Island pool on the Saint John, R. M. Currie killed five ducks in two volleys. The birds were cut open and examined and little salmon four inches long were found in the gullets of some.

BUNCO MEN GET $650

Boston Swindlers Take Life Savings in Double Deposit Game

BOSTON, Sept. 8.—Joseph John, of Roxbury, janitor for a Commonwealth avenue apartment house, is minus his life savings of $650, and the Back Bay police are searching for the crook who film-fanned John at Huntington and Massachusetts avenues.

Meeting a stranger who seemed to have considerable money with him and was exhibiting it, John advised him to deposit it in the bank, when a third party rendered similar advice. John then showed a bankbook for deposits totaling $650. Before the meeting was concluded, John had been induced to

Special Council Meeting Is To Take Up Request For Inquiry Into City Affairs

The petition with about 8,000 signatures, asking for an investigation into the conduct of city affairs and the assessment system was presented to the City Council yesterday afternoon and referred to a special meeting for consideration. Mayor White said that he was making preparations to have the petition and the signatures published in the daily press and as there was much to be said, both for and against, in connection with the project it would be desirable to have it taken up at a special meeting.

Commissioner Harding said there was nothing in the petition to satisfy him that an audit was needed nor was there any mention as to how the expense should be saddled on the city. On motion of Commissioner Wigmore the communication was received and laid on the table to be taken up at a special meeting.

The Commissioner of Finance and Public Affairs reported payments for August amounting to $160,122.88.

AUTHORIZES WORK. Commissioner Wigmore reported that he had received a letter from W. U. Appleton, General Manager of the Atlantic region of the C. N. R., that the railway would pay one-third of the estimated cost of the reconstruction of the Marsh Bridge abutment and he moved that the Commissioner of Water and Sewerage be authorized to proceed with the work at an estimated cost of $16,000 and that bonds be issued for one-third of that cost, the other two-thirds to be paid, one-third by the C. N. R. and one-third by the Provincial Government, the work to be done by the department. This was seconded by Commissioner Harding and carried unanimously.

ASLEEP ON THE DEEP

Police at headquarters were notified early last evening that a row boat was seen drifting in the current out of the harbor with apparently no person on board. A man owning a boat at the Old Fort, on the western side of the harbor, was notified and immediately rowed to the scene. On arrival he was surprised to find a West Side resident, lying intoxicated in the bottom of the boat. The boat, with its silent crew, was towed to the West Side shore, secured to a wharf and the erring one cared for.

In three of the parishes of the county of Saint John the receipts in the discount period of 1926 were ahead of 1925 and in the fourth, Simonds, the falling in was due to the fact that the bills were not rendered, the assessment roll having been filed a few days before the regular discount period expired.
