

Struck By Car; Shockingly Hurt

Miss Bessie McAvity of Douglas Avenue Suffers Amputation of Both Legs as Result of Accident

Miss Bessie McAvity, aged about twenty-five years, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth McAvity, Main street, and making her home with F. S. Thomas, 804 Douglas avenue, met with a most serious accident last evening about 11 o'clock when a street car, in charge of Motorman Maxwell and Conductor Hughes ran over her in City Road, with the horrible result that both limbs had to be amputated above the knee. The operation was in progress at the General Public Hospital at an early hour this morning.

Particulars of the accident secured by The Telegraph shortly after it occurred, are that Miss McAvity had gone from her home in Douglas avenue, to visit Mrs. Traffon, wife of Rev. G. B. Traffon, 299 City Road, just before 11 o'clock. Miss McAvity signified her intention of going home, and was escorted by Mrs. Traffon from the house to the car stop near the Christie Woodworking Company, which would be about forty yards from the Victoria rink. The two women stopped and talked for a few moments. The girl remarked that she would take the first street car that came along, and urged Mrs. Traffon to return as she might be cold. Mrs. Traffon left the girl and went back to her house, little realizing the tragedy that was about to befall her friend. The story is here told that Miss McAvity decided to take the car going towards the North End as another car was also seen by her coming toward Haymarket square. It is said the motorman in the street car going in the direction of Haymarket square slowed his car at the stop but seeing that the girl made no move, he continued on. As this car was moving slowly Miss McAvity then walked around the end, evidently with the intention of taking the car coming in the opposite direction. Whether or not she realized it was so slow could not be established last night, but it happened that as she rounded the car that had passed her, the street car she wanted to take ran over her before she could escape. She was caught in the fender and dragged several feet and before the car could be stopped, although the brakes were immediately applied, the heavy wheels passed over her. Her dress was torn to bits, and it was readily realized that she was seriously injured. One limb was fearfully lacerated, while the other was bruised and cut to such an extent that it too was found necessary to be amputated above the knee. Soon after the accident the ambulance was on the scene and conveyed the girl to the hospital. Everything possible was done for her comfort and ease but she suffered intense pain previous to the operation and lost much blood.

Another story is told that a young man by the name of White, residing in Forest street, saw the plight of the girl and rushed to her rescue. He too, it was said, received a few bruises. This feature of the accident, however, could not be verified this morning. It is stated by eye-witnesses of the unfortunate accident that no blame could be attached to either Motorman Maxwell or Conductor Hughes as all possible in view of the circumstances was done to avert the calamity.

RECENT WEDDINGS

In St. John (Stone) Church yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. Taylor McKim officiated in marriage Miss Helen Pauline King, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wightman King, to Harry Carrington Paterson of this city. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Paterson left on the Montreal train for upper Canada on a wedding trip.

Fenwick Murray McKelvey and Margaret Louise Holder were married in the Portland Methodist church by the pastor, Rev. Neil McLaughlin, yesterday afternoon. Following the ceremony, the bridal party retired to the home of the bride's parents, Captain and Mrs. Allen Holder, 154 Metcalf street, where a dainty supper was served. The groom is a popular pilot.

You may have said "I can't be fitted"—but you can here. Stout Men's Suits Specially Designed

Semi-ready

There must be curves and cuts in a suit designed for a man who is stouter than the average weight for height. A suit for a short stout man would look quite ridiculous on a tall man. Waist line and hip curves must fit perfectly, that styles are less voluminous in the use of cloth.

We have three genuine Semi-ready types for the heavy-weight physique—E, F and G. For instance: a man with 42 breast measure:

Table with 3 columns: Type E, Type F, Type G. It lists measurements for chest, waist, and height for each type.

There would be a difference of an inch to 2 inches in the waist-line. We have Semi-ready suits ready to try on in suits for stout men—sterling fine suits for the men who have always thought they must have their clothes made by the old-fashioned tailors. Suits at $28, $30, $32 and $35—excellent serges and worsteds. Pure wool worsteds of exclusive pattern in all sizes for all men—$35, $40, $45 and $50. More expensive linings and trimmings in these. We fit the hard to fit.

THE PRICE OF FLOUR. St. John, N. B., Sept. 11, '13. Editor Times: Dear Sir,—Kindly permit me to correct a somewhat misleading impression I evidently conveyed in a hasty conversation. The food board has not to my knowledge fixed the retail price upon small packages of flour and I have no authority to do so, and consequently never told a dealer that he must sell a 24-pound bag of standard flour for $1.50 as I know there are cases where this might wipe out all his profit. Dealers have reduced high prices, at my request, but to gain this end I have never had to threaten them in any way, although it is true that the enforcement section of the food board will support me in securing reasonable prices. Dealers have always met me in a reasonable and fair spirit and I have every reason to believe that as a class they are patriotic and considerate. The food board has not fixed the price of a retailer but I made the statement that in a practically cash transaction involving no exceptional delivery, a profit of one-half cent a pound on a small bag of flour, and of one cent a pound on small packages of substitutes were not unreasonable. We are hoping that wholesalers will encourage the sale of substitutes by reducing their profits upon them to their present margin on standard flour and the food board is prepared to tell them where to buy right. THE WAR SITUATION.

While the world awaits news of the next great move by the Allies on the western front the cables bring us fuller information concerning the dreadful conditions in Russia.

Count Czernin of Austria has joined the chorus in the new peace offensive launched from Berlin. Mr. Frank W. Simonson sees danger in this move unless the Allies stand firm in their determination to get a military decision before they consent to talk of peace.

With characteristic rancor the Germans are destroying the churches and other architectural treasures of Soissons. So far as they leave a desert behind them. Who can talk of a peaceful peace by negotiation with such a people?

THE OBSTACLE TO PEACE. In a recent speech in the British House of Commons Mr. Balfour set forth with characteristic clearness of expression the real obstacle in the way of any present peace negotiations.

The true obstacle to any legitimate peace is what has been called the "German militarism." German militarism is based, not on the ambition of a few soldiers, not indeed, upon a strictly military caste; it is based upon the fact that Germany is a nation of writers and professors, men of letters and men of action, those engaged in commerce, and those engaged in historical speculation, are all united in the theory that the true policy of any nation which wishes to be great is the policy of universal domination.

There will doubtless be a universal response to the request to forego motoring for pleasure next Sunday and thus conserve the supply of gasoline. No doubt Monday's papers throughout Canada will be able to report such a compliance with the request of the government as will prove once more that the people are quick to respond to every patriotic appeal.

The German Federation of Trades Unions, which is merely a tool of the military autocracy, resents the speeches of President Gompers, which it fears may "quash the spark of inclination towards peace which has been fanned up in English laboring classes."

Mr. Balfour then proceeds to describe the Germans at work in Belgium, Finland, the Baltic Provinces, Poland, the Ukraine and Roumania, to show conclusively that when the German talks of peace he means domination.

honorable, a safe and durable peace. But negotiation is perfectly useless unless the negotiators are approaching one another before the negotiation takes place. If the differences which divide them are obviously much greater than can be got over by conversation and friendly discussion and argument, discussion and friendly argument are in vain.

Cannot Contradict Statement on Subs

German Only Claim Subs Makes in Rank of Underwater Craft

Amsterdam, Sept. 12.—A semi-official German Admiralty despatch commenting on the list which the British Admiralty published of 150 U-boats sunk by the British navy, says there are some inaccuracies regarding the rank of the officers, which does not allow conclusions to be drawn of the number of U-boats lost, and continues: "The German people know too well of the heavy fight which is necessary to sink a U-boat crew, and that sacrifices have to be made by them in increasing numbers. We regret the loss of the U-boats, but it can be understood by all experts in view of the growing counter-measures and the greater number of U-boats sent out against the enemy. Serious reflections would only be justified if the construction of U-boats did not surpass the number destroyed."

Fair Enough. A farmer the other day took a plowshare to the blacksmith's to be sharpened, and while the blacksmith worked the farmer chatted and bragged about a sale of hogs he had just made.

"When hogs was only eight months old," he said, "and none too fat, nuther; but I seen that the buyer was at his wit's end, and by skillful juggling I boosted up the price on him just 800 per cent. Yes, by gun, I got three times more for my hogs than I ever get before the war."

The plowshare being done, the farmer handed the smith fifty cents. "Hold on," said the smith, "I charge $1.20 for that job now."

"You scoundrelous scamp!" yelled the farmer. "What do you mean by treble-ing your price on me? What have you done it for?"

"I've done it," said the blacksmith, "so's I'll be able to eat some of that high-priced pork of yours this winter."—Washington Star.

THE KAISER'S SONS

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) Pastor Drysdale, founder of the German-American journal named The Peace Call, published at Zurich, in Switzerland has asked the German Kaiser how many sons he has lost since the beginning of the war.

The report concludes with the sentence: "Emperor William has not replied." He may be impressed, as was the young member of congress who in the midst of a heated speech during the reconstruction period, was asked if he had served as a soldier in the civil war. "Mr. Speaker," said he, "I am willing to answer all proper questions, but I do not want to be interrupted by mere technicalities."

Hun, with the exception of leading his troops into action, as Attila did, or of placing any of his own flesh and blood in place of actual leadership which can be filled by captains, lieutenants, and noncoms. The Kaiser is medieval in war with these few exceptions, which probably he only reserves for the purpose of proving the rule.

In medieval wars kings led their armies. Noblesse oblige! History shows in hard fighting the Hohenzollerns are only drafted for the war in Class 28-2. Let the record stand and mark the falling of all presumptuous royalty here: Fleud, Haraldra of Norway at Stamford, Richard at Bosworth. The history of Germany shows a bright galaxy of names of royal Germans dying with their boots on at the front of battle lines. Before we condemn the Kaiser utterly as an atavistic reversion we must credit him and all of his princelings with that degree of modernity moving them to exercise the modern royal prerogative of staying behind and urging their men forward.

Polarine FRICTION REDUCING MOTOR OIL "Makes a good car better"

How Much Useful Power Does Your Engine Deliver? CORRECT lubrication—freedom from friction load, from power leakage at the piston rings, from racking vibration, and excessive wear on cylinders, bearings and gears—governs the useful power your engine delivers, and the length of its useful life. Improper lubrication is expensive at any price. The right oil will keep an engine powerful and enable it to deliver the maximum of power under all conditions. Polarine is a carefully manufactured oil designed for the correct lubrication of all types of internal combustion engines. It feeds freely and lubricates correctly at low temperatures, and does not break down at cylinder heat. It maintains the vitally necessary, gas-tight piston-to-cylinder "seal" that prevents power shooting past the pistons. It cushions every bearing and moving part with a wear-preventing film. And Polarine burns up clean and goes out with the exhaust, thus minimizing carbon troubles. Polarine is made in two grades—Polarine and Polarine Heavy. It is supplied in one-half, one and four gallon sealed cans, also in 12½ gallon steel kegs, barrels and half-barrels. There are also Polarine Oils and Greases for effective transmission and differential lubrication. Buy Polarine where you get Premier Gasoline—at the Sign of the "Red Ball." ## FALL STYLES

Advance Showing of Early Fall Footwear

Our first shipments of Fall Goods are just arriving from the manufacturers, and we are delighted with them—having the latest tinge of Fashion and the Quality is of the best, being such popular and reliable brands as "Dorothy Dodd," "J. & T. Bell," and "Winnie Walker," and our own "W. & R. Special."

We already have a choice selection of Colored Boots for ladies with high and low heels, and would advise your early inspection and purchase of these, as later in the season there will be a scarcity of them. Some of the shades we will be unable to get further deliveries of.

DEATH OF MARIA BAYARD SPAIN

On Friday, Aug. 30th, the bell of Holy Trinity Church, Middleton, N. S., tolled for the burial of Mrs. Spain, one of the best members of the parish of Wilnot. Mrs. Spain was the daughter of E. F. Harding, M. D., of Windsor, N. S. Her maternal grandfather was Lt.-Col. Samuel Vetch Bayard one of the U. E. Loyalists and connected with Col. Vetch, the first British governor of Acadia (1710). She was married in Windsor to St. Capt. Stephen Valentine Spain, R. N., by the Rev. Mr. Clarke, chaplain of H. M. S. Indeed, assisted by the Rev. Thomas Maynard, rector of the parish. Their married life was spent in England, where Captain Spain held various naval appointments. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Spain returned to the home place of her Loyalist forbears, where she resided until the concluding years of a long life beloved by her friends and honored by all. Born some years before the coronation of Queen Victoria, Mrs. Spain's recollection ranged from bride-roads and candles to motor-cars and wireless telegraphy, the variety of her experience lending a special interest to her conversation and her tales of days long gone by. To the last week of her life she kept her youthful vivacity and never was

THE HOUSEWIFE'S SCRAPBOOK.

White canvas shoes are readily cleaned with the bon and used for cleaning. Rub it on the shoes with a wet brush or rough cloth and dry in the sun. Obsolete stains should first be removed with gasoline.

Before throwing away old shoes cut off the tops and use them as linings for iron and pot holders.

Pin a towel to your apron belt while cooking and baking. It will save you many steps.

When baking apples fill the core cavity with raisins. It will save sugar and taste delicious.

To save linen use oil cloth table coverings. The shops are showing attractive table sets in pretty designs and patriotic housewives are adopting them for general use.

To remove grease stains from leather apply the beaten white of an egg.

Stale bread can be dried in the oven and ground in the meat chopper. Keep the crumbs in a glass jar and you will have them at hand to take the place of flour in cooking.

A novel way to use cold mashed potatoes is to mix the potatoes with the yolk of an egg, form into balls and bake in a hot oven until brown, about ten minutes. Remove from oven, make an indentation in top of each potato with the bowl of a teaspoon. Fill the impression with the stiffly beaten whites. Return to oven and when brown serve at once.

To save ice wrap it in newspaper. This is more effective and far more sanitary than a cloth.

Drain pipes will not clog so readily if you lay a piece of newspaper over the sink strainer when you pour greasy liquid into the sink.

STEAMER SINKS IN HARBOR

Bridgetown, Barbados, Sept. 11.—The steamship Berwind, from New York, has sunk in the harbor. All the crew are safe.

U. S. Troops at Archangel.

A despatch from Washington announces the safe arrival of American troops at Archangel to assist the Allies troops in re-establishing order in northern Russia.

PAINTED WOMEN.

Imagine the commotion which would be caused along Broadway, or the streets of any large city, if the police should emulate the trustees of Patchogue and call upon "respectable girls to leave off paint and powder" lest mistakes should be made in arrests at night! Any police force which attempted to base discrimination of moral character upon the character of the complexion would be very quick and properly put out of business.

And yet a dozen or fifteen years ago "a painted woman" was the favorite supplement of story writers who wished to designate a profession which the conventions of their day did not allow them to describe more specifically. In the matter of fashion and of personal liberty, we have traveled fast and far in that interval. Today the color of a woman's complexion is admitted to be as much her own business as the color of her clothes. A prejudice against obviously artificial "make up" persists, but the women who abjure such aids to beauty do not presume to reflect upon the moral character of women who employ them; they content themselves rather with caustic comments on the taste of their neighbors.

The change in complexion has accompanied the evolution of "the new woman," but it would not be fair to charge it all to advance feminism; electric lights have had a lot to do with the matter. On the stage "make up" is abused, and the street use of cosmetics is abused badly. However, we do not believe that the police, even if Patchogue, can safely make moral discriminations on the basis of that abuse. Arrests should be based on misconduct, not on appearance.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Money In Sheep
Special Massachusetts Commission to Visit the Kendall Farms in Bowdoinham for Inspiration in Building up the Sheep Industry

This week the Massachusetts "Special Commission on Sheep Industry, Agriculture and Related Matters" will visit the famous sheep farms of William B. Kendall in Bowdoinham, Maine. This is one of the steps which Massachusetts is taking today for the promotion of the sheep industry as a means of increasing the supply of wool and mutton for help in winning the war, for the renovation of old and abandoned farms and for the increase of ready money in the pockets of the men who have the courage and the foresight to engage in the sheep business. There was much agitation during the last session of the legislature. The state board of agriculture backed up the sheep enthusiasts in trying to get legislation through for the protection of sheep from dogs. A commission of the year before brought in a draft of a bill to remedy the evil, but the dogs have since then been so numerous that the sheep had to be guarded by men, though much of a compromise so as to offend the dog people as little as possible, failed. There is a further effort to be made in the creation of the commission mentioned above, to study the subject and report to the legislature.

Secretary Wilfred Wheeler of the state board of agriculture is the real author of the bill. He is a resident of Bowdoinham, the great enterprise of Mr. Kendall. Perhaps it seems larger to people outside of the state than it really is. He is a native of Bowdoinham, and his certain neighbors, but Sec. Wheeler certainly makes it out to be an enterprise of national importance. He has been in the eastern states. Mr. Kendall was engaged in the manufacture of paper in his part of the state were running down and being sold for a song. So he bought them, $2.00 per set or 14 cents per pound, and he has since then been in consequence of non-payment of taxes, the things were sold to him by the sheriff to sixty farms and he was forced to do something to utilize them. Hence he turned to sheep raising as the best way to make the old farms pay. Some of them were large farms of 100 acres each or so. Pure bred sheep were his

NEW BRUNSWICK POWER COMPANY
Interim Order of Commission Appointed Under Provisions of "An Act to Appoint a Commission in the Matter of the New Brunswick Power Company."

It appearing to the commission, in the course of the investigation and inquiry, to be justifiable and necessary for the financial temporary relief of the company, that the maximum rate for gas and the maximum rate for electricity, and the maximum rate for investment, the commission makes the following interim order, as of August 27, 1918:

1. That as of the first of October, 1918, and thereafter until the further order of the commission, the maximum lighting rates shall be as follows:

First 100 kw. per month.....15c.
Next 100 kw. per month.....12c.
Next 200 kw. per month.....10 1/2c.
Next 300 kw. per month.....9c.
Over 300 kw. per month.....7 1/2c.

Discounts for prompt payment and provisions for minimum bills to remain as in the existing schedule without change.

2. That as of the said date, and thereafter until the further order of the commission, the maximum power rates shall be as follows:

First 200 kw. per month.....12c.
Next 200 kw. per month.....8c.
Next 1,000 kw. per month.....4 1/2c.
Next 2,000 kw. per month.....3 1/2c.
Next 3,000 kw. per month.....3 1/2c.
Over 3,000 kw. per month.....2 1/2c.

Discounts for prompt payment and provisions for minimum bills to remain as in the existing schedule without change.

3. That as of the said date, and thereafter until the further order of the commission, the maximum rate for gas, fuel, fuel and lighting, shall be $2 per 1,000 feet.

4. Any provision in existing schedules for discounts or minimum bills to remain unchanged.

5. That as of the said date, and thereafter until the further order of the commission, the street railway fare shall be as follows: The Commission shall be required to issue tickets. Transfer privileges shall remain in force without change. Outstanding tickets shall not be valid for fares after said date, but shall be redeemed in cash on demand at the company's office.

The Commission has caused the accounts of the company to be examined by Messrs. Lybrand, Ross, Brown & Montagu, a firm of certified public accountants familiar with public utility accounts. It appears from their report that the company is not today earning its operating expenses, to say nothing of its interest on its investment. The net operating income has entirely disappeared in the recent increase in operating expenses, which our accountants report to us to be at the rate of $177,044 per annum in the two items of coal and labor

He cultivated the agricultural industry in all the eastern part of the country going as far west as Iowa. Prices were swept into his hand right and left. He became famous for his raising. Dogs have attacked his flocks, but he has not had large losses from dogs because he has a dog on his farm. He has a dog in a flock of 35 to any one who will inform him of the presence of any dog among the sheep or of any damage to the sheep by the dogs. This makes the neighbors keep watch for him, and telephones are numerous enough to make the price of any dog to get into a flock damage before it is discovered and somebody is on its trail. Mr. Kendall has no special particular attention to the fencing of his farms to make it as near dog-proof as possible and thus to protect the valuable ewes. Many of the sheep are in the sight of neighbors and thus, in a sense, by the offer of rewards he has the entire community watching that nothing happen to hurt those valuable sheep. The problem of housing has been solved by the erection of low-priced sheds which are ample for whatever cold weather they may encounter during a long Maine winter. He has first class among the sheep. The food problem is met by storing hay in the different barns on numerous farms. Turnips are bought in quantities, also, it is said and corn of low priced grades can be fed with relish on the part of the sheep, for they do not suffer with these cheap qualities as cows would suffer.

This year the number of lambs of the flocks of over 1,000 ewes has increased because of lack of facilities to raise them. Secretary Wheeler says that an annual increase of 80 per cent in a flock ought to be expected. There may easily be 100 per cent increase for the death of a few of the weak and puny is more than offset by the proportion of ewes which bear twins. Secretary Wheeler says that many flocks have had an annual increase of 125 per cent or more, and higher figures have been reached. Maine, says Secretary Wheeler, is doing much fine work in the development of the sheep industry. The policy of having the sheep specialist travel over the state, giving points to the farmers about the raising of sheep is regarded by Secretary Wheeler as proof of the intelligence of Maine when it tried to promote the really valuable work of the men who are trying to restore the former conditions when almost every farmer had sheep and made money on them.

Massachusetts is now right at the turn of the tide, Secretary Wheeler believes, in the policy of sheep raising. There is a sheep commission of the six New England states and New York, who are working in harmony and meetings have been held in the state house in Boston. From hundreds of thousands of sheep before 1850, the state has got down to about 18,000 by the lowest figures. But Secretary Wheeler thinks there are some other things to be done. There is much interest all over the state in sheep raising and he looks for an immediate and large increase. The price of fine sheep has advanced so that one which cost $12 a year ago now commands from $20 to $25. The largest flock in the state is that of the well known John M. Forbes, of the Forbes estate on the Elizabeth Islands, which make the town of Gosport, lying off the south coast of Massachusetts. The flock is plain native stock put on the island many years ago by the well known John M. Forbes, one of the richest and most prosperous of Massachusetts business men. Cameron Forbes, formerly governor-general of the Philippines, is in his line of decent and is one of the joint owners of this flock. There is a fine flock of 600 in Exbridge which is probably the second in size in the state. The main problem in Massachusetts is how to control the dogs. There are so many dogs in the large cities where nobody knows about sheep that it is very difficult to create sentiment for promotion of the sheep industry. Putting the matter on the ground of patriotism to help win the war was not sufficient to carry the bill through the last legislature and the friends of the dogs beat the friends of the sheep and this investigating commission is one of the consequences. Last week public hearings were held in Waltham, Pittsfield and Great Barrington and much public interest was shown. Secretary Wheeler says that Maine and Massachusetts will put together for the development of this enterprise which he is sure will bring back much wealth to the hills of both the states.

GASOLINE ON SUNDAY
(Dr. W. M. Rochester.)
That the sale of gasoline on Sunday is unnecessary we have all along contended, some in authority and many others holding to the contrary. In conference with those in the business in many places and in particular in recent correspondence with those of the Queen City we have had emphatic confirmation of our view. Now support is coming from unexpected quarters. A leading paper says it is no more necessary than the sale of bread on Sunday. Quite a number of dealers in various parts have combined to discontinue Sunday sales. The example of the fuel administration in the United States in requesting that the Company be established in this order will be in the opinion of the Commission be sufficient to produce even the amount which was required for interest and dividend on the shares and securities of The Saint John Railway Company before its acquisition by the New Brunswick Power Company.

It has become apparent to the Commission in the course of its investigation of the Company's affairs that the present relations between the municipality and the Company are not such as should exist in the interests of the community. It is the hope of the Commission that before it reaches its final conclusion some method may be found to harmonize those relations. The same problem is presented by the situation in St. John and in some cases other localities, and in some cases of public control or supervision. In the opinion of the Commission the continuation of the City of St. John and its public utilities cannot be permanently settled to the advantage of either party by the mere establishment of a correct rate base and the determination of a proper interest return.

The Commission is of the opinion that certain economies may be effected in operation, which, however, cannot be made effective in time to assist in meeting the present emergency. The Commission advises, however, the Company to make no further payment of salaries to the Executive Committee or to officers not connected with operation while their names remain in effect. The Commission recommends to the Company that it make an immediate study of the question of more satisfactory as well as more economical routing of cars, and that it put an operation sufficient number of one-man cars to determine their economical value and suitability for the service.

It is not within the authority of the Commission to amend the contract for the purchase of the road and to recommend to the City of St. John that it consent to such an amendment so that the price on the contract shall be increased 25 per cent.

By order of the Commission,
GUY W. CURRIER,
Chairman.

he had been successful in securing a mixer with a capacity of 1,000 yards a day and also some other machinery necessary for the prompt completion of the work, which, if the weather continues favorable, is expected to be finished by October 20.

E. S. Carter, representing the provincial public works department, and Mr. Clark, superintendent of the work, with the manager and superintending construction of the N. B. Telephone Company on Thursday inspected the road and made arrangements for the changes in the location of poles which will be necessary.

The district engineer, Mr. Belling, has been making a survey of the road and has found that several persons have encroached on the limits of the highway, due, no doubt, to the bounds not having been sufficiently designated, but the suggestion that bounds be marked on the location of poles which will be necessary to this effect will be made to the minister of public works.

No plans definitely locating the road seem to be available in any of the city. This is at a point just beyond the One Mile House. In order to give good road connection from the city to the county highway, Commissioner Fisher repaired the inner section of the Marsh road this summer, putting it in good condition as far as the street railway junction at the One Mile House. This still leaves a gap between the city and the provincial improvements and Commissioner Fisher has said that steps will be taken to see that the intervening section is brought up to the new standard.

EXTENDING THE PERMANENT ROAD TO TORRYBURN
The N. B. Telephone Company, of which R. P. Robinson is managing director, is lending every assistance to the improvement of the road and has willingly consented to make the necessary changes in the location of poles, and the location of poles which will be necessary to this effect will be made to the minister of public works.

To make the approach absolutely safe, the road will be widened at the northern and southern approaches and at the street railway junction at the One Mile House. These indicators will force traffic to keep to the proper side of the road going and coming and will also result in eliminating another curve.

RUSSIA MAKES FIRST PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY

London, Sept. 11.—The first portion of the Russian war indemnity to Germany was sent on Saturday last from Moscow to Berlin, according to an Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Copenhagen today. It amounted to 200,000,000 rubles, one-half in gold and the remainder in notes.

RECEPTION FOR MRS. G. A. KUHRING

The Women's Canadian Club welcomed its returned president, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, at a most delightful reception last evening which was made especially memorable by the presentation to Mrs. Kuhring by Sergeant Paddy of the membership card and the badge of the Great War Veterans' Association, as a V. A. D. worker, who had seen overseas services and was therefore entitled to full membership and all the privileges that go with it. Mrs. Kuhring gave a splendid address in which she told of her experiences while overseas and described in a very graphic way how she had met and talked with Queen Mary unexpectedly and informally.

The program was held in the Women's Canadian Club hall where the reception was held and was presided over by Mrs. G. A. Kuhring. The program consisted of a piano solo by Miss H. G. P. Tilley. The musical program which preceded Mrs. Kuhring's address consisted of a piano solo by Miss H. G. P. Tilley, a violin solo by Miss Furlong, and a song with violin accompaniment by Miss F. Schmidt. All the items were received with applause.

Those who had charge of the reception were: Hall committee convenor, Miss Grace Leavitt, and refreshment committee, Mrs. George McAvity, assisted by Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Richard O'Brien and Mrs. James Dooly.

COAL PRICES DIFFER

Rev. F. S. Dowling, who returned recently from a tour of New Brunswick, says that there is a wide range in prices of coal at different points. At St. Stephen it is being sold for $14 a ton; in Woodstock $14.50, and in Fredericton $14 a ton or $14.75. Local dealers are asking $16.25 a ton. Rev. Mr. Dowling suggests the formation of a citizens committee whose function should be to purchase coal in bulk and sell it to citizens at the lowest price.

Cramps and Pains In The Stomach QUICKLY CURED BY DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

Mrs. J. Sawcott, Hopedale Hill, N.B., writes: "I am writing you of my experience with Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Last summer I was taken so very sick with cramps and pains across my stomach that I sat for the doctor. He said I had summer complaint and gave me some medicine, but it did me very little good. As I was reading your B.B.B. Almanac, I saw Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry advertised, so I asked my dealer to go to the store and get me a bottle, and before I had taken all of it I was a well woman, and have not had the slightest return of the trouble since. I cannot say enough for your valuable medicine, and always keep a bottle in the house. You run absolutely no risk when you buy Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as it has been a standard remedy on the market for the past 25 years. Ask for 'Dr. Fowler's' and insist on getting it, as the cheap imitations are dangerous to your health. Price 85c. Put up by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

ENCOURAGING REPORTS

The Soldiers' Field Comforts Association held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon and though the attendance was smaller than it sometimes is, the amount of work reported is highly gratifying. Mrs. H. A. McKown, the president, was in the chair and after all the reports had been given by the various committees and societies, she announced that the association had made arrangements for a lecture by Miss Arnold, of the association's English headquarters staff. The girls' club, though small in numbers had an excellent amount of work accomplished to report. It had sent out 10 parcels, made 100 pairs of socks and by a tea held in the Art Club rooms had realized the sum of $100. The association's total income to date credits more than 2,000 pairs of socks.

COAL PRICES DIFFER

Rev. F. S. Dowling, who returned recently from a tour of New Brunswick, says that there is a wide range in prices of coal at different points. At St. Stephen it is being sold for $14 a ton; in Woodstock $14.50, and in Fredericton $14 a ton or $14.75. Local dealers are asking $16.25 a ton. Rev. Mr. Dowling suggests the formation of a citizens committee whose function should be to purchase coal in bulk and sell it to citizens at the lowest price.

Dominion Revenues Show Big Increase

For Five Months $12,000,000 Greater Than For Same Period of 1917

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—An increase of over twelve and a half million dollars in Revenues of the Dominion for the first five months of the current fiscal year ending August 31st, is shown by the financial statement for the month of August issued today by the Department of Finance. The increase is the encouraging because of the fact that customs collections have fallen off by approximately seven million dollars. A jump in miscellaneous receipts, including a number of the new war taxes, from $6,908,987 for the April-August period 1917 to $16,877,979 for the same period this year makes up for the loss in customs revenue and provides three millions of the twelve and a half million increase. Despite the enforcement of the prohibition measure excise revenues have increased by over one million dollars, and government railway receipts are higher.

RED CROSS SOCIETY QUARTERLY MEETING

The Red Cross Society was the guest of the St. David's circle for the quarterly meeting which was held yesterday afternoon and had the great pleasure of listening to a short talk by the Red Cross in England by Mrs. G. A. Kuhring. Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell, the president of St. David's circle, welcomed the society.

Mrs. John A. McAvity, the president, was in the chair and she responded. Reports were presented by Mrs. F. S. White, Mrs. G. H. Vroom, Mrs. G. K. McLeod, Mrs. F. J. Harding and Miss F. Stetson. Resolutions of sympathy were passed and ordered sent by Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Taylor on the death of Gunner A. A. Taylor, Mrs. Kuhring spoke about Red Cross work in England.

SECOND BROTHER KILLED IN ACTION

Into the circle of another St. John home, war continues to play its sad but still glorious part. Mrs. Martin Doyle, 54 Brook street, North End, received an official despatch yesterday saying that her brother, Private Daniel Astley, infantry, had died of wounds on August 14. This comes as a double bereavement to Mrs. Doyle, as another brother, Private Albert Astley, was reported killed in action during the engagement at Vimy Ridge. Her only remaining brother has been discharged from the Imperial Army, having been wounded four times.

CORPORAL WILLIAM L. RYAN, Halifax, a member of the 24th Battalion, reported wounded on August 8 with gunshot wounds in the left leg. He went overseas with the 64th Battalion and was transferred. Previous to going overseas he was employed with W. H. Thorne & Company, Ltd., this city.

In Ontario, stating that she had seen in a paper there of the death of Mrs. Doyle's brother. The latter wired Ottawa, was thinking that probably there was some mistake, but an official despatch received yesterday proved that the information was all but too true. The departed here leaves a mother, one brother and four sisters.

The sympathy of the community will be extended to Mrs. Doyle in her loss. Her husband, Private Martin Doyle, is also somewhere in France with a railway construction battalion, having been transferred to this branch of the service from the 115th battalion. The names of eleven New Brunswick men who were in the military service list. They were as follows: Wounded—J. Fagan, Newcastle; D. L. McWhorter, St. John; J. Clemons, St. Leonard; H. T. Ward, St. John; G. C. MacKenzie, Sackville; J. H. Harvey, St. John; J. H. Wright, St. John; J. E. Corey, Peel. Killed in action, C. C. Wheaton, Fawcett Hill. Gassed—W. G. Trethewey, Upper Cape.

Parisian Scientist Locates Source Of Trouble in Glands Above Kidneys Instead of in the Ears

There is a story about a man who was bemoaning the war to an Irishman who had just enlisted. "It's a terrible war," he said, "as awful war." "It is so," agreed the Irishman, "but sure, it's better than no war at all," which leads us to remark that the war might be worse if it were capable of paralyzing or destroying among the belligerents all effort but war effort. For instance, while nothing goes on as usual, science has not been sleeping, and in some cases it has been found that the war has given an impulse to certain lines of investigation and experiment in medicine and surgery, that a century of peace would not have accomplished. Who would have thought that in the

The thought of a surgical operation brings mental anxiety which undermines the general health. Relief can always be obtained by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and in most cases persistent treatment brings about complete cure. This ointment is worth trying when you think of the comfort to be obtained.

WITH MILLIONS MORE MEN TO ASSURE A GREAT VICTORY THE NEED OF MORE ARMY HUTS IS IMPERATIVE SO IT IS THAT THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

ARE EXTENDING THEIR EFFORTS IN ERECTING AND MAINTAINING Rest and Recreation Facilities At the Front and in Camps

THE NEED FOR ALL THE HUTS IT IS POSSIBLE TO FURNISH IS MOST PRESSING. Canadian and British Generals say so also American Commanders and even Generalissimo Poch himself. They all urge upon non-combatants at home the necessity of employing money and effort without stint to back up the fighting men with relaxing comforts. This is what Army Huts are built for; this is one of the great secrets of Allied spirit and fitness.

future when people cross the ocean and are not seasick they will be able to look back to the war as being responsible for their happy condition! Yes, that is the celebrated doctor is mistaken, and that in defiance of seasickness certain people will continue to be seasick, but there is every reason to believe that the great majority of sea travelers will become immune as the result of a discovery made by Dr. Naame, following an entirely new theory as to the nature of the malady. Old Theory of Seasickness. The prevailing theory as to seasickness, one that has been almost universally accepted until quite recently, is that the malady is a form of vertigo, due to the irritation of the auditory nerve distributed to the membrane of the semicircular canals of the internal ear. There is a lymph or fluid in these canals which gives us our sense of balance. It is a sort of spirit level. When the membranes of these canals become inflamed and congested as they do in the case of a drunken man, the level is upset. In the case of a rough sea, in which a boat is being tossed about, the level is more or less violently thrown against the containing walls, richly supplied with delicate nerves, and symptoms are produced, at first refractory to the sense of equilibrium and then to the brain, and finally to the stomach. Looks Like a Fallacy. The same effect may be produced by the swaying of a train, by the pitching of a hammock, or by the sudden dropping of an elevator. Aviators are also subject to seasickness, and are tested in a revolving chair to determine their ability, do not suffer from seasickness. Those who have held to the theory that the disturbance of the lymph in the inner ear was the cause of seasickness thought to prove their argument by asserting that deaf mutes, in whom the semi-circular canals are imperfect or absent, do not suffer from seasickness. This, however, proves to have been a rash assumption, due to the fact that deaf mutes do not frequently take sea voyages. The notion that deaf mutes are immune has been dispelled by a report issued not long ago by the Italian naval authorities. They were able to make observations upon ships containing a great number of refugees and immigrants, among whom was a considerable proportion of deaf mutes, including deaf mutes of the Italian army. Forty of deaf mutes are as subject to seasickness as those who are immediately helped to what is going on about them. Children Rarely Suffer. It seems likely that it was this report that suggested to Dr. Naame a new course of investigation as to the cause of seasickness. He was also aware of the fact, if he was not its discoverer, that seasickness is not the same as vertigo, that a man being whirled around in a chair until he is dizzy stumbles for-

CHURCH UNION FOR ANGLICANS

Strong Plea Made by Primate of Canada—Not Interested in Old Country Disputes. Toronto, Sept. 11.—The men will have nothing to do with any church which formulates religion in terms of division. These words, contained in a letter from chaplain at the front, gave most Rev. rector S. P. Matheson, primate of the Church of England in Canada, the at for a forceful appeal for church union in his opening address at the General Synod of the church, which began its sessions here today. "What are we of the Church of England going to do about this?" He asked, "nothing tangible and practical?" His Grace also came out strongly against any delay in the adoption of the prayer book, which was given a five permissive use at the last triennial synod. The contention that the Canadian church should await the action of the mother church in England moved him to declare: "I claim for the church in Canada the independence of a town-up daughter." The strong theological and ritual discussions in the mother church, he feared, could either result in deadlock or radical changes there would transfer these inalienable divisions to Canada. He also pleaded for a strong support of home missions, and for a more fully trained ministry. At the opening service, in St. James' Cathedral, the sermon was preached by the Bishop of Western Michigan and at the afternoon session of the House of Delegates. Very Rev. Dean Lloyd of Halifax, was elected prolocutor of the year house, in succession to the late Canon Powell. In presenting the treasurer's report at

IN INTERESTS OF SOCIAL SERVICE

A vigorous effort in social service has been made throughout New Brunswick during the past few days. Rev. F. S. Dowling, who has just returned from a tour of the province in the interests of this work, was interviewed last night by The Telegraph in the matter. There was a series of nine conventions, last week at St. Stephen, Woodstock, Fredericton and Campbellton, and this week at Bathurst, Newcastle, Sussex and Moncton. Rev. Dr. Shearer, the general secretary of the dominion social service council, attended these meetings, which consisted of a conference in the afternoon and a mass meeting in the evening. The object of the convention was to form local service councils in these important centres, ultimately looking forward to the formation of a local council for every important community in New Brunswick. Dr. Shearer, in his evening addresses, emphasized the three reforms that are receiving the special attention of the federal council this year. The first is the question of child welfare, which is receiving very great attention and consideration by the other provinces. The Ontario government has provided a child welfare exhibit which travels from place to place in the province which is proving to be very popular and which is arousing the greatest interest and which exhibits child welfare in all its phases. The second matter of importance is the question of the patronage of civil service. Progress has been made in the matter. In federal affairs the outside employees of the government are now under an independent civil service commission and an independent purchasing commission secures all the necessary supplies for the government to which all dealers, irrespective of party affiliations, have equal access. The third matter of importance is that of venereal diseases. Dr. Shearer confesses that in the past there has been a

WAR SUMMARY

New York, Sept. 11.—The Associated Press tonight issues the following: Eight weeks to the day, and for the first time since, the great Allied offensive of Marshal Foch is at a virtual pause. True, both the British and French on isolated sectors of the front extending from Flanders to the east of Soissons again have recorded advances, but Wednesday witnessed no such progress by the Allies toward strategic objectives as past days had brought them—before the torrential rains turned the lowlands into impassable marshes and the badly worsted enemy, making large reinforcements forward to stop the gaps through which the British, French and American armies were threatening to filter and wreck his entire military system. During the eight weeks which had past the Allied troops have cleared in almost its entirety the enemy-held territory from the Marne to the Aisne in the apex and Soissons and Rheims respectively. Its western and eastern anchor points, from Soissons to Arras the old bulge westward to Montdidier and toward the doorstep of Amiens has all but been obliterated and the Allies now are standing across a large portion of the old Hindenburg defense line and virtually are upon the remainder of it, while to the north in Flanders the deep salients threaten the English Channel ports, have been bent eastward and the enemy is expelled from the vantage points from which he had expected ultimately to make his drive in an endeavor to gain the seaboard and thus cause a diversion of the transport service from England to southern France. Washington, Sept. 11.—Systematic evacuation of the town of Douai, one of the important forward bases of the present German line in France, is described in official advisers reaching Washington today. A vast amount of war material is being taken out of the town, the report says, including the equipment of the arsenal there, which was the largest establishment of the kind maintained by the enemy in the northern region of his advanced lines.

A UNIVERSITY AT JERUSALEM

(Manchester Guardian.) One may hope that the laying of the foundation stone of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem, which we are enabled to announce today, will not pass unheeded even amid this most tremendous clash of arms, for the Hebrew University is destined to play a memorable part in the annals of the Jewish people and of civilization. Universities have been the nurses of national culture with many peoples, but the place of the Hebrew University will be a very special one. The claims of learning and of the house of learning and the prestige of the sage are among the most deep-rooted and characteristic of Jewish traditions. They have done much to mould the Jewish spirit and to enable Judaism and the Jewish people to maintain themselves through eighteen centuries of exile. It is recorded that when Jerusalem fell, thus said Rabbi Yochanan Ben Zakkai, the greatest Jewish sage of the time, where he desired to go. The Rabbi answered: "Give me Jabneh and here will be the seat of the Jewish Academy, and the Jewish Academy saved Judaism and the Jewish spirit. They proved mightier than all the power of Rome. The function of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem is to be along this great line of Jewish tradition. It will rally and concentrate the finest thought and feeling of universal Jewry. The many brilliant and profound Jewish intelligences which are now either crippled by hostile environment or lamed by that inner division which the Jewish soul in exile knows will find emancipation in the Hebrew University. The Hebrew University at Jerusalem, unlike the Academy at Jabneh, will be the symbol of the ending of the exile, not of the beginning. That fine efforescence of the Jewish spirit in its old home will restore to the Jewish people and to a Jewish Palestine their place in the world's civilization. For such reasons the laying of the foundation-stone of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem should salute the eyes of men even in these terrible days

(Toronto Star.) "Shure, it's an Ulster girl I am, and proud of it. It's the Irish in me that keeps me a-goin' and keeps the young girls huinpin'."

"Not so bad for an old girl, do you think?" she asked. "I'll be seventy-two this 24th of May comin', and I'm thinkin' it's good old Queen Victoria that would be ashamed of me at that."

Mrs. Bonar is the last member of a family of seven who were descendants of an old military family in Belfast, Ireland. She came to Canada four years ago. Like her husband, she was a power loom weaver for many years.

"There's a fine bunch where I am holding out now," said Mrs. Bonar. "I first worked for the Ellis munition plant, where I inspected shells. I had to work on Sundays, too, and when the winter came on I found this a wee bit too much."

"It is impossible to deny the nobility of the simple German soldier who dies for his fatherland." At first glance this sentence appears unanswerable, but let us see.

"I suppose I'll get a rate soon, as it is goin' in five months since I went there and they don't deny us nothing. They would have let me off during the heat but I worked right through."

"Are you going to take part in the big parade?" asked her visitor. "Well, I am not keen on the walk, that would mean sore feet, which would put me out of business for work, and then again they want so many of these munitioners to wear the pants, and I don't take to the idea."

"I shall see you Wednesday in the great parade, if they provide me with a ride."

English Professor Wants Less Hatred

Sir Walter Raleigh Preaches Nobility of the German Soldier

(Toronto Star Correspondence.) Essex, England, July 9.—If Sir Walter Raleigh of the seventeenth century would do something to continue the good work of his illustrious namesake by issuing a treatise on the spraying of potatoes he would be engaging himself on national work of greater importance than his present task of trying to persuade his countrymen that the simple German soldier who dies for his fatherland is one of the noblest of God's creatures.

The learned professor implores Englishmen to stop hating the Hun. He says that if our newspapers could be staffed with ex-soldiers who have fought against the noble German, we should hear less of the gospel of hatred, but in saying this I believe Sir Walter is wrong.

"It is impossible to deny the nobility of the simple German soldier who dies for his fatherland." At first glance this sentence appears unanswerable, but let us see.

TELLS OF TURKISH CRUELTY TO GREEKS

Relay on Support of Allies—Four Millions of Race Now Under Slavery in Asia Minor—Look With Hope to Wilson

(New York Paper.) In their first official appearance before their Greek compatriots in this country, the members of the newly organized commission representing the cause of "enslaved Hellenism" made a strong appeal at a luncheon in the Central Park Casino, New York, Sunday for American and Allied support for the liberation of 4,000,000 oppressed Greeks now languishing in Asia Minor under the tyranny of Turkish and Bulgarian rule.

"The poor Greeks are obliged to leave their homes often without any notice, compelled to march night and day without food or water, and when they cry for their Turkish guards point to the mosque and tell them the high road to the comforts lies in Islam. They are obliged to nourish them when they themselves starve."

"The above is the report of Louis Einstein above the Marmosa Islands and vicinity. But do not lose courage; do not despair; do not faint at the hearing of these atrocities, oppressions, and persecutions. Let us rely upon the vitality of our race and upon the support of our noble alliance and that of our Patriarchate, all committed by the Race Destined to Live."

"Our race is destined to live and will live sixty thousand of our enslaved brothers, who took refuge in Greece, independent, faithful to our national traditions, are now fighting at the Balkan front side by side with the gallant armies of our Allies for a common cause, for the same ideals and for our national restoration."

"About twenty thousand Greeks have already joined the American army and are now fighting under the Stars and Stripes against the German barbarism together with the Allies, to defend the cause of the small nations under yoke of liberty and justice."

"We can look forward to a brighter day, strengthened in our assurance for the future, now that President Wilson has become for the whole world the eloquent champion of democracy and humanity against the ancient menace of oppression and autocracy."

TORONTO SENDING HUNDRED INFANTRY OFFICERS OVERSEAS

Toronto, Sept. 11.—Following on the heels of a draft of fifty that were picked for imperial commissions from the C. O. T. C. on Saturday, another draft of forty-nine have been selected by Toronto military headquarters to be sent overseas to qualify for commissions.

THE PASSING OF JOHN BARLEYCORN

(Toronto Globe.) Prohibition advocates express increasing confidence that the United States will adopt that great reform under constitutional statute—a proceeding which will undoubtedly establish its permanence. In December last Congress voted to submit to the individual states the prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution which prohibits the manufacture, sale, transportation, importation, and exportation of all alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes.

"The above is the report of Louis Einstein above the Marmosa Islands and vicinity. But do not lose courage; do not despair; do not faint at the hearing of these atrocities, oppressions, and persecutions. Let us rely upon the vitality of our race and upon the support of our noble alliance and that of our Patriarchate, all committed by the Race Destined to Live."

"Our race is destined to live and will live sixty thousand of our enslaved brothers, who took refuge in Greece, independent, faithful to our national traditions, are now fighting at the Balkan front side by side with the gallant armies of our Allies for a common cause, for the same ideals and for our national restoration."

"About twenty thousand Greeks have already joined the American army and are now fighting under the Stars and Stripes against the German barbarism together with the Allies, to defend the cause of the small nations under yoke of liberty and justice."

"We can look forward to a brighter day, strengthened in our assurance for the future, now that President Wilson has become for the whole world the eloquent champion of democracy and humanity against the ancient menace of oppression and autocracy."

HAIR OFTEN RUINED BY CARELESS WASHING

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

CURED HIS RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got asked as to the cause of my rupture, and I completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Fuller, Carpenter, 42 E. Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.) A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required. Mix a stiff paste with some powdered pectine and water apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin as every hair has vanished. This simple treatment cannot cause injury, but can should be exercised to get rid of delinquent hairs.

"A FIGHT FOR MILLIONS"
Published in the Times-Star every Thursday Evening and Saturdays

CHAPTER IV
As he toppled off the stockade wall, apparently mortally wounded by the fire of the outlaws, Iron Star fell to the ground outside. He knew the bandits would be only a few moments getting to the place where he lay no time in his plan to escape.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE
Jean Benton, owner of a nickel and cobalt mine in Montana, must according to her father's will, marry either Jacob Lawless or Walter Hyde, usually cousins. The two men are in a fight for the girl and the millions.

CHAPTER V
Bob Hardy, Sergeant Barry, Hyde and Arkins continued their efforts to find a way of escape from their prison. Bob had the other three stand close together, directly under the hole in the roof through which Iron Star had made his escape.

CHAPTER VI
The commander thought a few seconds, then ordered a troop to mount and prepare to take the trail. Meanwhile Bob and the others, besieged in the store, were firing through the windows and keeping the outlaws away, although the latter were trying to break in at the front and rear of the building.

CHAPTER VII
Ten miles away, Jean was still fighting her way up the trail, with her companions were unlocked, it freeing Hyde, Barry and Arkins. The four then seized rifles and ammunition and prepared to defend the place while the outlaws tried to batter their way in at the rear.

CHAPTER VIII
Help was on its way, for at the moment Barry's troops were searching the country for him. One of them stopped at Forsythe ranch and questioned the servant, who was millions more from raising the income tax.

CHAPTER IX
To make up the remainder of the sum lost through prohibition would require taxes on hides, greater excess profits, rates, consumption taxes on sugar, coffee, tea and cocoa, a tax on gross sales, and other levies not necessary to framing the present bill.

CHAPTER X
"Next year," said Mr. Kitchin, "when another revenue bill is written, we may be able to get two or three hundred million dollars from the tariff. It may be possible to obtain two or three hundred

FOR LONE SOLDIERS.
A bazaar which was held in Champlain street on Tuesday by Clara Scott, Marion Craft and Audrey Appleby produced the sum of $7.50, which was handed to Mrs. A. W. Fraser of the S. C. A. for the Lone Soldiers' Fund.

WHITMAN TRIAL ON.
The case of the King vs. Whitman, in which the defendant is charged with stealing goods from W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd., was resumed in the County Court this morning, before His Honor Judge Armstrong, with Mr. Mullin, K. C., as appearing for the defendant and George H. V. Joly, K. C., and C. H. Ferguson for the prosecution.

FIRE CALL.
An alarm was rung in about one o'clock this afternoon from box 144 as flames were noticed coming from an unoccupied barn in Elm street, owned by the Sterling Realty Company. The firemen were quickly on the scene and the blaze was extinguished before much damage was done.

FEAR TOTAL LOSS.
J. Willard Smith received a telegram this morning from Captain Elmer Seaborn of the schooner Leah D., which was wrecked near the breakwater at Margareville, N. S., during the storm Tuesday night, saying that he feared his ship would be a total loss and asking him to inform the owners of the cargo to that effect. The schooner had a cargo of timber and ship's outfit and it is feared that this will be lost.

MELACHLIN-MARSHALL.
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Marshall, Little River, when their daughter, Lillian Beatrice, was united to Ian Robertson Melachlin, also of Little River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd in the presence of many guests. Many pretty and useful presents evidenced the good wishes of a large number of friends.

ALL KINDS OF SOLDIERS.
There was a lot of military activity in the depot when the trains arrived at noon. A large party of Siege Battery boys came back after a Fredericton furlough and about fifty other soldiers returned after furlough. In addition there were several squads of draftees and a party of fifty-six Jewish lads for the legion in training in Nova Scotia. The latter lived things up while marching through the streets to barracks.

RAILWAY PATRONS PLEASED.
The Union station were delighted yesterday when they found men at work laying a new asphalt paving on the walk in front of the southern side Mill street to the front entrance. A well graded and properly crowned walk will give passengers an opportunity to pass that way in wet weather without the former assurance of wet feet. Mention of the deplorable condition of the path was made in The Times a few days ago.

A NOVELTY SHOWER.
About sixty young friends of Miss Mabel Maher gathered last evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Cooke, 215 Colborne Road, to tender Miss Maher a novelty shower. A very pleasant evening was spent. The hostess began with a music marriage, followed by music and games, in the midst of which Miss Maher received a letter from her father, who had visited into the party and a beautiful electric lamp was presented by Mr. Morrison in behalf of the party. Mr. Bell, with whom she is employed. There also were from the young ladies gifts of china, linen and silver; and from the young men a handsome mahogany parlor table. A dainty luncheon was then served, followed by games and dancing. The happy party finally dispersing with hearty cheers for the bride-to-be.

LIEUT. CHARLES SMITH KILLED

Sad News Comes To Parents At St. Patrick St. Home

Other News of Casualties—A Large Number of Dead in The List Received From Ottawa Today

That their son, Lieut. Charles Smith, had made the supreme sacrifice on the battlefields of France on Sept. 2 was the heart-breaking news received by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of St. Patrick street this morning. Lieutenant Smith volunteered for service in No. 5 Army Service Corps under Lieut.-Colonel Muskie and soon won a sergeant's stripes. He crossed overseas with that unit and remained with them until about a year ago when he was recommended for a commission and was appointed as a lieutenant in an infantry unit. He participated in all the recent big drives of the Canadians and was recognized as a fearless and clever leader. On Sept. 2 during an advance against the Hun he fell mortally wounded.

He was only about twenty-three years of age. He was a young man of sterling character, well known and respected throughout the city and a host of friends will sincerely regret to learn of his death. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Frederick, who is a member of a siege battery unit, and one sister.

J. E. Bastian Killed.
Mrs. John Bastian of Rogersville has received word that her son, Sergt. John P. Bastian, who went overseas with the 122nd Battalion, was killed in action on Aug. 28. Besides his loving parents, he leaves to mourn four brothers—Herbert of St. John, Charles, now in hospital in England; William and Ernest at home, and four sisters—Mrs. John Wells and Mrs. Harry Scott, St. John; West; and Mrs. R. Wood, Campbellton.

Pte. John Spellman
Mrs. Walter Whipple, 47 Clarence street, received word from Adjutant General Canadian Militia that Pte. John Spellman was admitted to the Cambridge Hospital, Aldershot, Eng., on Sept. 5, suffering from gunshot wound in his left hand. Private Spellman enlisted in Aug., 1914. Prior to going overseas, he was employed with Hutchings & Co. Wooded.

T. J. L. McLaughlin.
John McLaughlin of Millidge Avenue received a telegram this morning informing him that his son, Thomas John Linday McLaughlin, had been admitted to hospital in Manchester, England, on Sept. 6, suffering from a gunshot wound in his left thigh. He crossed overseas with an Ottawa Battalion. Friends in St. John will hope for early favorable report.

Part of Depot Battalion to Be Quartered There—Local Men For Siberia

It was learned this morning that the Depot Battalion during the winter months will not occupy their former quarters in the exhibition building, but also the armory, which is being put as the agricultural hall is being got in readiness.

Several members of the 9th Siege Battery have left their camp in Red Head and are now stationed on Partridge Island, where they are attending gunnery school. The remainder of the battery will soon be pulling up stakes as the weather is commencing to get cool. Where the battery will be quartered during the winter is still a question in the minds of the military officials. Their barracks on Partridge Island has been burned down, and although the work of rebuilding has been started, it will be some time yet before it will be completed.

Six members of the Army Service Corps here, who have been on the strength since New Brunswick was made a command, left last evening for Ottawa, where they will join the army service unit going to Siberia. Those who left were: Sergt. McElwain, Sergeant McLean, Corporal Youngman and Drivers Walter Treuman, D. Porter and Saunders.

U. S. CONSUL CLEARS UP MISLEADING STATEMENT AS TO AMERICANS HERE

Reference to the registration obligations of United States citizens now in Canada, contained in a Canadian Press despatch from New York in the morning papers, is misleading, said H. S. Culver, United States consul, today. Mr. Culver agreed that those citizens who are planning to return to the United States to report at their former homes within the sixty day period allowed are under no obligation to register in Canada but those who intend to remain in Canada must register with the nearest consul, and thus make themselves subject to the regulations of their own country. Otherwise, at the expiration of the time limit, at the end of this month, they will be liable to be drafted under the Canadian military service act, according to the terms of the international treaty which deals with this situation.

RENFORTH HOUSE IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

A pretty summer cottage at Renforth was entirely destroyed, with all its contents, by fire at an early hour this morning. The building, which was of one and a half stories, located north of the Chaiet between the railway tracks and the shore of the river, was owned by C. A. Clark and occupied by Frank E. Shea of the Brayley Drug Company staff. The building was valued at about $800 and was insured for $450. Mr. Shea lost several hundred dollars, worth of household and personal effects, on which he had $200 insurance.

The fire was seen by neighbors about 2 o'clock this morning and the house was then a mass of flames. Those who arrived first knew that Mr. Shea and his family were in the house last evening and, when they were not in evidence, it was feared that they still were inside the blazing building. It was learned later, however, that they had returned to the city on the evening train and that no one was in the house when the fire occurred.

Mr. Shea said today that there had been no fire in the house since 6 o'clock last evening and he could not account for the origin of the fire unless it had been caused by a spark from a passing locomotive falling on the roof.
