MONARCHS OF ENGLAND, RUSSIA AND GERMANY

Will Meet at Berlin For The Royal Wedding A BRILLIANT SCENE Kaiser Late For First Time in His Life—Great Gathering of Royalty—Fine Weather Adds to Gaiety

(Canadian Press) Berlin, May 22.—The gathering of three emperors—those of the British dominions, of Germany, and of Russia—for the wedding on Saturday of Princess Victoria Louise and Prince Ernst of Cumberland, has made the German capital the centre of interest.

Beside the three great rulers, the only daughter of Emperor William at her marriage is to be surrounded by such a gathering of Princes and Princesses as rarely has been brought together.

Berlin has made elaborate preparations for the occasion. The city is gay with bunting, the people are in holiday humor and the streets swarm with brilliant uniforms of the soldiery.

Extensive precautions have been taken for the safety of the royal personages, the Prussian police being assisted by large bodies of British and Russian detectives, while the soldiers at the stations and lining the routes of the royal procession carry loaded rifles.

Berlin, May 22.—At the arrival this morning of the viceroy, the Emperor William, who is always a model of punctuality, was late for the first time in his life and the few spectators on the station platform were treated to the novel spectacle of His Majesty in a hasty run, endeavoring to reach the halting place of the railway car before his aunt stepped out.

Beside the principal guests, a swarm of minor princes and princesses arrived at the other stations in Berlin, each adding a flash of bright color to the streets, while passing toward the castle.

The things on the streets were good naturedly enthusiastic in their demonstrations, and there was an almost constant roll of cheering throughout the day.

The weather was again fine, and the presence with the lines of soldiers of the guards army corps in their most brilliant uniforms, and the Imperial parliament this week demanded should be abolished in favor of more practical clothing.

The police handled the crowds along the route with remarkable suavity and skill.

None of the ladies of the imperial and royal families participated in the welcome to Emperor Nicholas at the station since he was not accompanied by the Russian Empress. The scene, however, gained in magnificence owing to the presence of King George of England, with his suite, the exotic uniforms and striking white lank wool caps of the Russian Emperor's attendants and the var-colored robes of several Russian princes.

The great terminus had been completely cleared of people an hour before the arrival of the Russian Emperor, the train and files of soldiers with loaded rifles were posted along the various platforms.

Emperor William, Emperor Nicholas, and King George, after the customary embraces, reviewed the Guard of Honor together.

King George and the Emperor Nicholas is so remarkably alike in appearance that it was difficult even for those familiar with both monarchs to identify them except by the different uniforms they wore. Both were dressed as Prussian officers of the respective regiments of which they are honorary colonels.

One of the waiting rooms at the station had been converted into a dressing room in order to facilitate the repeated changes of uniform which have to be made by Emperor William, when he meets his royal guests.

A Silver Wedding The luncheon of the royal guests at the castle today, developed into an informal celebration of the silver wedding of Prince Henry of Prussia, the brother of the Emperor William, and the Princess Irene of Hesse, who were married on May 24, 1888, at Charlottenburg.

The Prince and Princess accompanied by their two sons, received the congratulations of the assembled royalties. A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes gathered last evening at their home, 61 St. Patrick street, and tendered them a pleasant surprise in honor of their twenty-second wedding anniversary. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed and during the evening W. McGuire on behalf of those assembled presented to them a handsome sideboard as a token of esteem and in remembrance of the event. The recipients expressed their thanks and were heartily congratulated upon the occasion. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed in the early hours.

TWO UNWEDDED COUPLES DEAD IN BOSTON HOTELS

Murder and Suicide Under Similar Conditions in Different Places on Same Night

Boston, May 22.—Two men who tired of life Monday night carried their sweethearts to death with them, each by a double shooting, and Tuesday the bodies were found at almost the same hour in different Boston hotels.

The coincidence of the double murder and suicide, the circumstances of which were so strikingly similar was considered so remarkable by the police that investigation Tuesday night was turned to discovering if possible whether there was any connection between the tragedies.

Both couples registered under fictitious names, one as "William Russell and wife" at the North End hotel, the other as "Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young of Manchester, N. H." at a downtown hotel.

It was discovered later that the first named couple were Wm. Jannino of Woburn, a street railway conductor, and Miss Margery Quinn of Roxbury. They were to have been married quietly in Woburn last Friday, but the ceremony did not take place.

Friends of Jannino said Tuesday night that he had learned of the death of his wife, and that he had been married previously and had a child four years old.

When the bodies were found Tuesday, a revolver with two chambers empty was lying at Jannino's right hand. Both the man and woman had been shot through the head. There were no signs of a struggle.

The couple who were identified Tuesday night as Charles Huber of Roxbury and Mrs. Benjamin Formley of the same place, they had registered Monday night in a happy mood. Tuesday the bodies were found stretched across the bed, with bullet wounds in the heads of each, and a revolver lying beside the man's right hand. It was the opinion of the officers that there had been no struggle.

IDENTIFIED BODY FOUND ON FARM

Mysterious Dead Man at Fort Fairfield Was Orin Brannon—Worked at Mars Hill

Fort Fairfield, May 22.—The mystery of the identity of the dead man, whose body was found in a secluded ravine on Emery Nightingale's farm near the town of Mars Hill, has been solved, although the cause of his death still remains unknown to the authorities.

After an examination of the photograph and clothing of the man of mystery, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mullen, of Mars Hill are positive that it is Orin Brannon, whose home was in Prince Edward county, Ontario.

Brannon came to the Mullen farm in Mars Hill last fall and helped harvest the potatoes. He liked the work, he said, and remained there all winter. He left the Mullen farm at noon on Tuesday, May 6, for a short vacation. He had been seen in Mars Hill on Tuesday, May 13, he told the Mullen he would return in season to help them plant their crops. They have heard nothing from him since, and learning of the unidentified stranger whose body had been found near here, they applied to the authorities for information, with the result that the identity of the body has been at last established.

Speculation concerning the manner of his death continued to be rife, however, but it had not been drinking, and there were no apparent marks of violence on his body. Mr. Mullen says Brannon drank heavily at times. He claimed to be of Scotch descent but never mentioned having any relatives.

C. P. R. JOINS THE ATLANTIC POOL

Rate War at an End—Rival Lines Will Dispatch Alternate Boats and Divide Profits

London, May 22.—Referring to the Atlantic rate war, which has been in progress between the C. P. R. and companies constituting the Atlantic "Pool," the Standard announces that, as a result of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's visit, a provisional agreement has been arrived at in regard to the emigrant business from Trieste.

The terms of the arrangement have not yet been made public, it says, "but we believe we are correct in stating that the C. P. R. and the Austro-American line, which represents the Atlantic 'pool' will in future dispatch alternate boats from Trieste, while the profit derived from this source are to be placed in the 'pool,' which, in its turn, will divide its surplus balances with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company."

PRISON FARM FOR ALBERTA

Chief of Police Leads Campaign For Modern Treatment of Inebriates

Calgary, Alberta, May 22.—All members of the new Alberta provincial legislature will be memorialized by the city of Calgary to take steps to establish a provincial prison farm to which all short term offenders may be sent to serve their terms.

All municipalities in the province will also be communicated with by the city and requested to assist in the movement. The inception of the idea rests with Alfred Cuddy, Calgary's chief of police, who has time and again pointed out the evils of confining short term prisoners in unsanitary cells, when they might be working on their own farms.

When the municipal legislative committee was considering the question of how to treat inebriate offenders, the chairman, Ald. George Ross, called on Chief Cuddy for an opinion and he drew the merits of an Alberta jail farm instead of an institution located in some city. To his all short term offenders as well as habitual drunkards could be sent.

The committee then asked Chief Cuddy to draft his ideas in the form of a letter which he has since done. The aldermen will shortly draft a memorial which will be sent to the government of the province and also to all the members of the legislature with the expectation that it will be acted upon at the next session.

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN OF CALGARY

May Sit as Members of Council—But Also Will Have Privilege of Paying Poll Tax

Calgary, Alberta, May 22.—The fight for the franchise for the women of Calgary has been practically won and, unless the city council refuses to accept the recommendation of the legislative committee, which is doubtful, the franchise of this city will soon be eligible to sit as members of the council and otherwise enjoy on an equal basis the privileges that now belong exclusively to the male population.

If equal rights for women are given they will probably have to pay poll taxes, just the same as men, but for the legislative committee it was definitely decided that whatever the franchise will be withheld from the ladies. The legislative committee which has just decided that whatever the franchise, precipitated this state of affairs when at a recent meeting it was decided to alter the word "male" to "person." This alteration was a great concession by the champions of women's rights here, who were preparing to celebrate their "boom" victory.

Just what proportion of the women of Calgary will take advantage of their new lease of life, if the council decides to confer the franchise upon them, is a puzzling question. It is estimated that there are about 10,000 women in the city, but it is not known how many of them are actually registered voters.

Will Not Participate Dusseldorf, Rhensland Prussia, May 22.—The north-west group of the society of German Iron and Steel manufacturers last night voted emphatically to reject participation in the Steel franchise position.

Why He Resigned Ottawa, May 22.—The congregation of Knox Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Ramsay, who has been pastor for the past sixteen years, stated that he did not believe long pastorate were in the best interest of the church. For this reason he was resigning.

PAVEMENTS AND STREET MATTERS WERE DISCUSSED

City Will Not Exchange Properties—Contract Awarded—No Further Encroachments Allowed

Several matters of interest engaged the attention of the commissioners at the meeting of the board of public works this morning, one of the chief items being the consideration of a request from Jacob Mayer for an exchange of a portion of his property in Adelaide street for part of the roadway.

The matter was discussed at some length but the commissioners decided that the best interests of the city would not be served in the exchange and it was not granted. It was also thought that the city had no authority to deed a portion of a public street except by legislation from the provincial government.

Two tenders were received for circular and straight granite curbing, one from the firm of B. Mooney & Sons quoting 85 cents a lineal foot for straight and 90 cents for circular, the other from the Granite Street Paving Construction Co. naming as their price 67 cents a lineal foot for straight and 70 cents a lineal foot for circular granite curbing. The latter tender being the lowest was accepted. It is expected that the work to be done in this connection will be the finishing in Garden street and also work in Queen street.

Figures were presented estimating the cost of paving North and South streets but the matter was not taken up as a mission of public safety to deal with as the estimates were considered beyond what had been expected.

A request from the St. John Street Railway Co. to install a pole in Wentworth street was left with the commission of public works. It is probable that a steel pole will be placed in position.

After a letter was received from the Grison Russell Co., in reference to the matter of an incinerator but no further action was taken. The request from the Eastern Steamship Co. that the city paint their warehouse was refused.

The matter of encroachments street lines, grades, etc., is occupying the attention of the public works department with the order-in-council passed some time ago in respect to the North End survey was further amended today so that the order-in-council should be more firmly established. In future there will be no encroachments allowed as the road engineers will have to be consulted as to lines, etc., before any building takes place.

MADAM MAHER DEAD

Member of Order of Sacred Heart, Native of St. John, Passed Away in Montreal

Many friends in this city and in other centres where she was stationed will learn with regret of the death of Madam Maher, a member of the Order of Sacred Heart, who passed away yesterday at the Sault au Reclot convent in Montreal, after an illness lasting about a year.

Before taking the vows of sisterhood she had been a member of the order of the Sacred Heart in Montreal, being a member of that community for about twenty years, during which period she has been stationed at different centres where the sisters had established convents, among them Kenwood, N. Y., Halifax, N. S., London, and other cities.

She was an active and zealous worker in behalf of the order, devoted to the interests, and was respected and esteemed by her associates within the pale of the convents where she resided, and was in contact with those with whom she came in contact in the outer world in the pursuit of her labors. She was a devoted health gaver, and she has been faithful since that time. Dr. J. D. Maher, of this city, is a brother, and the only surviving member of the family.

NEW OIL PROCESS The new oil process now being used on some of the streets is being found to prove very satisfactory, and it is expected to come of value, in cases where there is a substantial MacAdamized surface to cover with the substance. The oil is now being placed in Dorchester street, but other streets will be given a coating of it in the near future under direction of Engineer Hatfield, Waterloo, Victoria, and many other streets being in line for the covering in question. It is said to be very durable and serviceable, and is used in other cities both in the states and upper Canada it is found to be valuable both as a dust preventive and a road preserver. The oil, on being distributed, sinks well into the roadbed and makes a firm seal somewhat in the nature of a cement, thus making a splendid repairing process for roadways where the MacAdam process had been used.

DECIDED IMPROVEMENT London, May 22.—Lord Kinnaird announced at a meeting at the Zegans Bible and Medical Mission yesterday that he had received a message from the Duchess of Connaught, thanking the mission for its expressions of sympathy and stating that there was "a decided improvement" in her condition.

Hon. J. J. Bernier Returned Winnipeg, Man., May 22.—Hon. Joe Bernier, provincial secretary, was returned by acclamation for the constituency of St. Boniface yesterday.

SCOTT'S WIDOW THERE

Fresh Light on Suffering And Death of Ill-fated Hero—Pictures Shown—Tribute to Companions

(Canadian Press) London, May 22.—Before an immense and distinguished audience at the Royal Albert Hall last night, Commander Evans delivered his eagerly-awaited lecture on the British South Pole expedition, which cost the lives of Captain Scott and his companions. Commander Evans was second in command of the expedition.

Lady Scott and the widows of other explorers who perished were present. Lord Curzon of Kedleston, president. Commander Evans' story was told with remarkable modesty and contempt for dramatic effect. The speaker was content for the most part to describe the splendid photographs of the expedition and were thrown on a huge screen. The audience was enthusiastic, and when a picture of Captain Scott and his party at the pole was displayed, there were tremendous applause.

The story of Commander Evans' northward march has already been told and re-told, but it was with a fresh thrill that the audience listened to his own story of the heroism of his companions, Green and Lashley, who, when he was overtaken by scurvy, stood by him and dragged him on the sledge 25 miles to Hut Point. The fact that they were a man short handicapped them from the start.

The lecturer said: "I did not wish to alarm my seaman companions by telling them at this early stage that we must march long hours to get home, and to put on the hands of my watch one hour. Therefore they turned out an hour earlier each day. 'Lady Scott' he said, 'reminded me of the magnificent spirit shown by her husband and his four specially selected tent mates when they knew that Queen Alexandra's little silk Union Jack had been anticipated by the flag of another nation. Scott and his comrades had done their best and never from one of them came an uncharitable remark.'

Commander Evans' account of the polar party's return march was practically identical with that contained in his historic cablegram from New Zealand. Here and there came a fresh touch. For instance, Oates, whose feet and hands were badly frost-bitten, constantly pleaded to Wilson for advice. What should he do; what could he do? "Four gallant soldiers, we thought such words of him," said the Commander. "Wilson could only answer, 'slog—just slog on.'"

Commander Evans, for reasons which everybody present could appreciate, touched but lightly on the final tragedy, breaking off with a suddenness that was itself eloquent, with an expression of the hope for Scott's sake and Wilson's, justice would be done to the scientific records of the heroic party.

The Commander also praised the work done by the "Pera Nova," whose staff, he said, had been ably assisted by the seamen and stokers, worthy fellows, whose lives had been saved.

"Play the game."

On the return journey the steamer will proceed up the Saguenay River as far as Capes Trinity and Eternity. During the brief stay at Anticosti the members will make a journey over the railroad of Mr. Menier.

The question of another excursion also came up at the meeting in the form of a communication from the St. John board of trade, which, with the assistance of the boards of trade in Moncton and Fredericton, is arranging to receive a body of business men from Ontario and Quebec. The local body's assistance was given in bringing the excursion to the attention of business men in these provinces.

The trip will include short stops at a number of places of interest, including a steamer ride down the St. John river from Fredericton to St. John.

NO CANADIAN NAVY

(Montreal Star Cable)

London, May 20—The naval editor of the Daily Telegraph says Mr. Borden holds that every strategical, economic principle demands the unity of the empire in the provision of a fleet for general defence. He supports the view that the admiralty at present is the exponent of the naval policy for the whole empire and that it can best organize and direct the fleet, the disposition of which may be varied in accordance with the continually changing situation, only if the dominions co-operate by the provision of naval bases adequately protected by fixed and mobile defences.

CHANGES AT THE STAR Kalem's big two reel feature "A Tragedy of the Desert," will be exhibited at the "Star" on Friday night only. This interesting story pictured on the desert is extremely interesting from start to finish, and a most thrilling and exciting situation of happenings.

The Star's programme for the holiday, Saturday, will be entirely new. Tonight's pictures, which is the regular Wednesday and Thursday programme, will be found a choice selection of brilliant drama, comedy and vaudeville productions. "A Race with Time" will prove an exciting railroad story with Miss Alice Joyce as the Kalem young lady in the lead. Augustus Carney had the crowds on the go last night with his funny doing in the Essanay comedy, "Bound to Occur." Other pictures add to this interesting show for tonight.

NEW MUSIC AND TALKIES AT NICKEL TONIGHT The Nickel is putting on a great show this change. The chief of the pictorial features is Pathe's Weekly with the full review of the funeral of the murdered King of Greece and ten other big world's events. Alice Joyce and Tom Moore are the principals in a smart society story called "An American Princess," an elaborately staged scenario in which "Lucile" (Lady Duff-Gordon, the style creator) collaborated. "Hilda of Holland" is a cute little Edison comedy. Mr. Ritzius will sing a new number, and will also Miss Blaisdell. Today the wonderful Kinetophone invention of Thos. A. Edison will produce a thrilling Mexican tabloid drama, entitled "Martha, the Spy," in which the well-known players Bigelow Cooper and Ada Acton play the leads. This is a revelation indeed, the most life-like of any of the talking pictures yet shown.

The first march out of the 62nd regiment, St. John Fusiliers, took place last night and the regiment presented a very creditable appearance. The regiment left the barracks, headed by the 62nd band. They were accompanied also by the bugle corps, drum corps and stretcher corps. After marching about the city they returned to the barracks, where Colonel J. L. McAvilly, who was in command, presented long service medals to Bandmen W. H. Jones, A. E. Jones, W. H. McIntyre, C. F. Bridgen and G. V. Stokes.

Captain Arthur P. Owens had a narrow escape from death early this morning when he was overcome by smoke while sleeping in his home, 29 Pitt street. People living upstairs were attracted by the smoke and rang in an alarm. The firemen quickly responded. James Sterling of the Salvage Corps went into the house and carried out Captain Owens, who lives alone there. Dr. Berryman was summoned and in the meantime the firemen rendered first aid. Later he was removed to the General Hospital. His condition is not serious.

John Kenney, Jr., factory inspector, returned home yesterday after an inspection trip through the province. In his annual report for the year ending Feb. 1, 1913, he spoke of the development work in the province and the new industries that have been established, saying that there seemed an abundance of work but a scarcity of labor.

TORIES WILL DECREASE THE EXPENDITURES IN MARITIME PROVINCES

Promise of Mr. Cockshutt—The Budget Debate—Provisions of Highway Bill Would be Handy in Election Time

Ottawa, May 22—The budget debate was continued this afternoon when Hon. A. K. McLean gave the Liberal answer to Hon. Mr. White's budget speech. He noted that there was no suggestion of a permanent tariff commission which the government had proposed last year but dropped when the senate proposed that it should investigate the financial standing of the manufacturing interests. There had been unwarranted broadsides upon the treasury, Mr. McLean contended, because there happened to be a surplus on hand while there should be a surplus of the taxation upon the people. The speaker showed that the wholesale prices of animals, meats, etc., had increased 90 per cent. since 1897 and 9.7 per cent. since 1912. There had been a marked advance in other food staples. Wages did not rise proportionately with the cost of living and salaries did not increase so rapidly as wages and he regretted that there was no substantial tariff reduction.

Mr. Cockshutt following Mr. Ames charged that too great attention had been paid to the maritime provinces in the Laurier regime and the western centres had been neglected as had Ontario. Now the change is taking place and the upper provinces were no longer being robbed while Nova Scotia and New Brunswick were spoon fed. Even though Mr. McLean thought the tariff was too high, he knew well that Dr. Pugsley, Mr. Carleton and other easterners would be agreed on the subsidizing of ship-building plants because such plants would be down by the sea, near their homes.

When the senate resumed this evening Senator Dandurand resumed the debate upon the matter of granting aid to highway construction. He did not understand why the government had not embodied in the bill a clause regulating the distribution of the moneys according to population of the provinces. Senator Corby said that there was no reason to put an amendment to the bill, as it was satisfactory in itself, but Senator Davis who followed, said that in the proposal of a change in the highway bill, the senate was standing in the rights of the smaller provinces and safeguarding their interests.

Could Not Sleep Well For Four Years.

HEART AND NERVES WERE BAD. To the thousands of people who toss on a sleepless pillow night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves untinged, heart action wrong, and to whose eyes sleep will not come, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer the blessing of sound, refreshing slumber.

They restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres and correct the wrong action of the heart.

Mrs. Wm. Douglas, Thessalon, Ont., writes—"I am going to send you my testimonial for what your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. For four years I could not sleep well at night, as my heart and nerves were so bad. I tried all the doctors here, but none of them helped me. I read of your Heart and Nerve Pills, and tried only a few boxes, and I can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can now sleep as well as ever, and can advise anyone who suffers from heart trouble to try them."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents a box; 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MAY 22, 1913. The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

UP TO MR. BORDEN Mr. Borden has no mandate from the people to send thirty-five million dollars out of this country as the first instalment of a policy of tribute. The senate will tell him to get the consent of the people before carrying out a policy which was not adopted in the interests of Canada and the Empire, but because of an alliance made between Mr. Borden and the Nationalists. It is the boast of Mr. Henry Bourassa that the Nationalists forced Mr. Borden to repudiate the Canadian navy resolution which he supported in 1909.

What is the cause of the delay in constructing the bridge at the falls? It was expected that this work would be begun early in the spring. A downward revision of the tariff and a Canadian navy ought to be two great planks in a Liberal platform to be placed before the country.

Mr. MacLean showed in parliament yesterday that the percentage of rural population to the total population of Canada has fallen from 62 per cent to 54 per cent in ten years. Here is a problem for statesmanship. One way of meeting the changed conditions would be to increase the productivity of the farms.

REDUCE THE TARIFF That instead of piling up such an enormous surplus as that of last year, the tariff, is the reasonable claim of the Liberal party, voiced in parliament yesterday by Hon. A. K. MacLean in his criticism of the budget speech.

TORY POINT OF VIEW The amount of consideration which the maritime provinces may expect from the present government was indicated yesterday by Mr. Cocksbutt, M. P. who is also one of the advocates of a high tariff.

THOMAS E. SHEA. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Shea, who closed their theatrical season in St. John, N. B., last Saturday have arrived in Belfast, Me., and are guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Dinmore, Church street, before going to Fernalda, their cottage at Northport, for the summer.

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

THURSDAY, MAY TWENTY-TWO.

F. McGillivray Knowles, a noted Canadian artist, celebrates his fifty-third birthday today. He was born in Syracuse, N. Y., of English parents.

J. G. Schurman, head of Cornell University, was born on this date in the year 1854, in Freetown, P. E. I. He has had a distinguished career and has been president of Cornell since 1902.

Sir A. Conan Doyle, the novelist, also observes his birthday on this date.

A German, whose first name is August, runs a saloon in Sioux City. One day last June the landlord called to collect the rent and before leaving said:

"Say, August, after the first day of July I'll have to charge you $15 a month more than you are paying now. The paving of this street has cost me a good deal and now the gas company is raising its rates, and I've got to have more rent."

"Well," said August, "that's all right. A little later the barkeeper came over to August's desk and said:

"Say, August, the cost of living is going up so fast that I gotta have more wages. After the first of July I want $10 more a month."

"Well," said August, "I guess that is all right. The next day the representative of the brewery called to collect for the beer, and when he was writing the receipt he said:

"Say, August, hops is scarce this year and after the first of July we've got to have $1.25 a barrel more for the sake."

"Well," said August, "I guess that is all right. August sat and figured a little while, then took his hat and went out. Pretty soon he returned with a new sign, which he hung over the bar—and this is what it contained:

"After the first of July will be the last of August!"—Saturday Evening Post.

SOCIETY GOSSIP

A Pretty Floral Fad—Mistook the Duke—Some of the Canadians in the Imperial Capital

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, May 10.—There is quite a number of more than usually pretty girls in society this year, such as Lady Diana Manners, Countess Pauline Pappenheim, Countess Nada Torby, and Lady Rachel Stuart-Wortley, a debutante of this year, who is considered by some the most beautiful of them all. But they had better look to their laurels, for just emerging from "slippers" are two who threaten to cast all the others temporarily in the shade. One of these is the Hon. Mary Curzon, eldest daughter of Lord Curzon of Kileston, and one of the most exquisite girls I have ever seen. She is almost the exact image of her mother. She has the same beautiful eyes, and the same dark, wavy hair.

Lady Suffolk, their aunt, who has had the management of the Curzon girls' affairs mostly in her hands, was very anxious that Mary and her next sister, the Hon. Cynthia, should come out together, but this would entail rather a long wait, as there are two years between the two girls, and Mary is already seventeen. There were rumors of bringing her out this year, but that was absurd, owing to the death of her grandmother. Lord Curzon is very much devoted to his "little girls," and he will chaperone them himself and entertain a great deal for them. As their purses will be exceptionally well lined, they should make brilliant marriages.

Quite as pretty, but in a different style, is Marigold Forbes, daughter of Lady Angela Forbes, herself a well known beauty in London society, and sister of the Duchess of Sutherland. Marigold will certainly uphold the traditions of her mother's family. She is tall and well grown, and bears every evidence of the fine open-air life she has led. She has the most glorious chestnut hair, and dark, almond-shaped eyes, while her complexion is as rich as a blush rose. She is at present finishing her education abroad, for, like all modern girls, she is being most carefully brought up. Lady Angela is far too worldly wise to launch any daughter of hers unprepared on the sea of society. She can ride, skate, play golf, etc., with the best of them, and this is the life she likes best at present.

Talking of Marigold, reminds me that women with flowers in their hair are the fashion of decorating their tea and dinner tables with the blossoms after which they are called. Miss Pies, who is known as "Daisy" among her intimates, frequently adorns her tables with marguerites, and her next sister, who, you know, was Lily Langtry before she married Sir Hugo, once arrived at a wonderfully beautiful dinner, and the water lilies laid on a sheet of glass; at other times—during a heat wave—she had a huge pyramid of ice erected in the middle of the table, and had all the appointments of dead white china, instead of glittering glass. The flowers on this occasion were big white lilies, and a deliciously cool appearance it all had.

The Duke and Duchess of Argyll, who came to town last week for the marriage of the former's niece, will be here for most of the season. They are both enthusiastic opera-goers, and are to be seen at Covent Garden frequently. At the opening of a recent exhibition the duke became much interested in a particular make of chimney pot, designed to stop smokiness and turning to the attendant of the stall, asked him to send one or two of them to his house in Scotland.

"Certainly, sir," said the man, not recognizing his dandy looking customer, "what name and address?"

"The Duke of Argyll, Rosemeath," said the duke.

"Yes, sir, what name?" asked the man again, whereupon his customer had to explain exactly who he was. As he went away, the vendor of chimney-pots was heard to say:

"Lord, I took him for a hotel-keeper, and 'The Duke of Argyll as the name of his pub'."

News of Canadians

The guests included the Belgian minister and Countess de Lalain, the Serbian charge d'affaires, the Countess of Harrowby, Lord and Lady Reay, Lady Darcy de Knayth and Conyers, Lady Borthwick, Lord Charles Hereford, Sir Charles and the Hon. Lady Rivers-Wilson, the Hon.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

John J. Breen, yesterday in the trial against conspiracy in the Lawrence mill strike said that he had refused $7,000 from D. H. Coakley, the lawyer then cross-examining him on behalf of F. E. Attean, textile magnate. Breen said he was holding out for $14,000 from Attean, but though he knew the latter as the "man higher up" his dealings had been with Coakley.

The stevedores on strike in Philadelphia are holding out for thirty-five cents an hour, having refused to return at the offered thirty cents. Much of the ocean going traffic is at a standstill and the port is suffering severely. A riot occurred yesterday in which one man was nearly killed.

Prince Jamie, five year old son of King Alfonso of Spain and heir-apparent is deaf and dumb, and an urgent letter has been sent to Helen Keller, the noted blind teacher of the United States, asking her to come to his aid and give him the treatment which has been so successful in her own case.

Prince Albert of England who is on board the training ship Cumberland as a cadet now at Halifax harbor, will call upon Governor McGregor today.

MAY LOWER AGE LIMIT.

Portland, May 22.—Whether to change the age of eligibility from 21 to 18 years was one of the most important matters of business for consideration at the annual convention of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Wednesday. The proposition was referred to the grand bodies for their consideration by the supreme lodge at its last session.

If the majority of the grand lodges favor the change, the constitution of the supreme lodge will be amended. Western states are said to be largely in favor of reducing the age limit, but in some of the eastern states opposition has manifested.

THE "COLD" LAMP

LATEST ELECTRIC LIGHT INVENTION

London, May 22.—Cold light—that is to say, light which is separated from heat, and therefore gives no heat—is the latest development of electricity as an illuminant.

The inventor of cold electric light is Professor Charles Francis Dussaud, the eminent French savant and a demonstration of his invention is to be given by Professor Eysel, of Belgium, at the offices of Messrs. Louis Schloss & Co., in Crutched Friars.

Professor Dussaud is a former pupil of Professor Branly, who first discovered the principle of wireless telegraphy, and he conceived the idea of applying the law of rest to electric current. The adaptation of the principle has enabled him to apply to an electric lamp or series of lamps a considerably larger quantity of current than the maximum they are designed to absorb, thus obtaining such a powerful light as under ordinary circumstances would cause the lamps to burn in a few seconds.

Latest Converts to British Sect Nearly Collapsed From Shock

London, May 22.—Extraordinary scenes have been occurring this week at Roker, near Sunderland, in the north of England, when three women and two men, the latest converts to the peculiar sect known as the Pentecostals, who are holding their annual convention were baptized in the sea yesterday.

The ceremony took place in the early morning, and so cold was the water that the women almost collapsed from the shock. While the converts were in the sea those on the beach danced wildly about, waving their arms and singing hymns.

The women went into the water without shoes or stockings, but wearing skirts and blouses. One man was arrayed in pale blue pyjamas and the other in a bathing suit. One of the women on leaving the water after the ceremony went into hysterics and she shouted and danced about on the sand.

How to Make Your Hair Beautiful

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders. Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Healthy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old-fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (decomposer), and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and 1/2 oz. Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling out to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vice. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find the downy new hairs sprouting all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity. Any druggist can tell you the above prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.

THE SPRUCE BUD WORM

Spruce Bud Worm and Spruce Leaf Miner is the title of Bulletin 217 just issued by the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station. For the past two or three years the spruce bud worm has proved the most serious pest of the spruces in Maine. It appears to be a native of Maine for it is here that the species was first described in 1862 and there are accounts of the ravages of an insect believed to be this as early as 1807. It is at present widely distributed over eastern Canada, northern New England, New York, Vancouver and Manitoba. The fact that the insect chiefly attacks the buds and new shoots makes its presence in timber lands a serious problem.

SAN JOSE SCALE IN MAINE

Assistant State Horticulturist H. P. Sweetser of Maine on Monday was alerted in finding the dread San Jose scale in orchards in Cornish, Woodfords and Elliot. More particulars in regard to the matter were out, Tuesday at Augusta, by Mr. Sweetser. He stated that he found two trees in Cornish, one in Woodfords, and four in Elliot all infested to a degree where it was impossible to save them and they were cut down and burned.

BASEBALL

N. B. and Maine League Admitted

An Associated Press despatch from Auburn, N. Y., announces the following: "Secretary John H. Farrell of the national board of arbitration of minor baseball leagues Tuesday announced that the New Brunswick and Maine league comprising the territory of Bangor, Maine, St. John, St. Stephen, and Fredericton, N. B., has qualified for membership in the National Association in Class D."

East End League

The Alerts won from the Nationals in the East End League last evening, 10 to 6. The batteries were—Alerts, Lynch and McNutt; Nationals, Perkins, Smith and Cooper.

Won Practice Game

The Calais-St. Stephen team in the New Brunswick and Maine League played a practice game on Tuesday and defeated them, 18 to 4. The league team used three of their pitchers, Lee, Howard and Conolly.

Welcome Organized Ball

The local baseball season is now fairly on and Bangor has what it has not had since the old New England league days, a ball team that is under national protection, meaning that no other organization can take away its players without making a fair financial return to the club for the same.

The Bangor Team

Bangor Commercial—"I am glad to hear that Bangor has George Magoun at the head of the team," said Bob Ganley. "I have never met him personally, but his reputation insures a good team for Bangor. Of course he has been up against time in getting your team together, but when he gets under way he will have an aggregation that will be a credit to the city."

Phillies Offer Turned Down

Philadelphia Club offers outfielder Ireland and Pitcher Nelson to the Royals. Refused with thanks.

Batten Still With Royals

Infielder Batten is still with the Royals. He will join the Baltimore club when they arrive in Montreal.

Averett Dead Held Up

The deal between Montreal and the Chattanooga Club has been held up pending settlement of a difference in opinion on terms and conditions.

Capron, a Speed Merchant

Capron the new Baltimore outfielder, looks like one of the fastest men in the league. He covers a lot of ground in centre field.

Frank Chance has recommended a left handed pitcher to the Royals and it is possible that in the course of a day or two a deal may be put through for him.

Murphy and Taylor Made Good

"Mike Murphy and Bill Taylor, the catcher and pitcher sent to the Utes Club by the Royals made good on Sunday's game with Albany when Taylor pitched airtight ball and Mike Murphy did nobly with the stick betting in both of the runs which Utes secured.

Cubs Scouting for Pitchers

Eight scouts today began a systematic search of minor leagues for pitchers for the Chicago Nationals. Practically the entire country will be scoured under President Murphy's orders to strengthen the staff, to whose weakness the poor showing of the team on its eastern trip is partly attributed. Murphy himself left today for Boston, and while he denied he expected to land a pitcher there, he admitted that a promising thrower in the international league was under consideration.

Matty's New Record

When Christy Mathewson gave a base on balls to Messers, the Pittsburgh center-fielder, in the third inning of last Friday's game at New York he had made a record for control which will probably stand for many years to come. With forty-seven frames behind him in which he did not issue a pass, he got through the first two innings Friday in safety, making the record forty-nine. The base on balls was issued at the beginning of the third frame.

Ty Cobb Has Big Percentage

Ty Cobb is back in form, at least the unofficial batting averages for the first month of the season show the Detroit slugger leading the American league with a percentage of .488 for the twelve games in which he has taken part. Five American Leaguers are hitting better than .400. Hendrikson, of Boston, with .471; Schreyer, Washington, .464; Collins, Philadelphia, .452; and Jackson, Cleveland, .423. Lagote is next with .386. No National Leaguer is slugging at such a rate, but Cathers, of St. Louis, for ten games is pretty near the 400 mark with .391 and leads the league. Viox, Wagner's understudy at short for Pittsburgh, leads "Honus" .370 to .361. Both are following Erwin, Brooklyn, who is second to Cathers with .375. Sweeney, of Boston, and Doyle of New York, are tied for fifth place with .368. Cleveland with .375 and Pittsburgh with .365, are club leaders at the bat in their respective leagues.

May Loss Burns

There is every indication that the Royals are soon to lose Eddie Burns, No. 1 catcher and all round good ball player. Unknown to any one, Charlie Farrell, scout for the Boston Red Sox has been in Montreal for the past few days, looking over the work behind the bat of the Pride of Sacramento, as Farrell confessed, when he had been spotted. The Red Sox scout appears to have been favorably impressed with Burns. The next question is will the Montreal club let him go.

From present indications they will not.

WRESTLING

The horseman who will likely make up the Canadian Olympic team to compete in London this year are Lieut. Gordon Myers, of the 9th Mississippi Cavalry, and Lieut. Henry Bate, of the 5th E. L. D. G. Ottawa, and Major Van Strubenski, Royal Canadian Dragoons, St. Johns, Que. The trials were held at the Ottawa horse show on Monday night and the judges have selected the above named as the most skilled of the competitors.

THE TUB

To Use Mixed Styles.

The mixed style of wrestling which will be used at the contest between Zybco and Le Marin in Montreal on Saturday night next will give local followers of the game a clear insight into the representative values of the two methods. The Graco-Roman system allows of no work below the waist line, but is made up of such holds as the arm and neck hold, arm drag, arm grapevine, the flying mare, chancery and bar hold, chancery hold from a standing position, counters for chancery holds, double body holds and breaks, also counters, hip lock, breaks for half nelsons, scissors hold. The men are not allowed to use the legs in this kind of grappling, neither are any holds with or on the legs allowed. The catch-as-catch-can style on the other hand permits of all holds obtained any time and any place, barring the strange hold. Both men have what is called "stiff" that no other wrestler attempt because they know nothing about it. It consists of wrestling around an opponent's legs in a style adapted by each of the wrestlers to his own use, the working of feints to grueling and powerful holds about the head and body, and affording altogether an opportunity with men, the strongest of their kind, using all their strength and strength they can muster to conquer.

Trenton, N. J., May 22—Judge Cross, in the United States District Court today, imposed a fine of $2,000 on Mrs. Agnes Mangels of San Francisco who is alleged to have landed on May 12 from the steamship Amerika at Hoboken, N. J. without declaring a proper value of goods brought by her from abroad. Mrs. Mangels entered a plea of non vultu contendere. Her counsel pleaded with the court to extend mercy and not impose a prison sentence.

HOLDS COURT ON TRAIN GOING AT 50 MILES AN HOUR

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 22—Judge Mack, of the District Court, today held court on a train speeding fifty miles an hour. For six years Judge Mack and a jury had been hearing a suit between the former contending that it had done $81,000 more work on a warehouse for the Delapena Company at Poughkeepsie than the contract called for. The latter concern insisted that the contract had merely been fulfilled. Judge Mack's patience had been worn to the ragged edge when one of the lawyers turned to opposing counsel and said: "If I thought the Judge would agree, I would take this court and jury to Poughkeepsie and let them see the work and decide for themselves."

How Ted Sullivan Once Won a Game by a Little Strategy

By TOM ANDREWS

According to Charlie Dougherty, at one time a star baseball player and also a boxer, Ted Sullivan, a veteran organizer of ball leagues, was the foxiest manager who ever trod the diamond.

Dougherty, who played in the old Northwestern league back in the early eighties, but who is now a member of the home for disabled and veteran soldiers, having served through the Philippine war and put in other time with the U. S. troops, was attending one of the games in Milwaukee the other day when one of the players attempted to get away with some smart trick at the plate.

"That reminds me of the early days," said Charlie, "when Ted Sullivan used to be putting over some kind of a trick almost every game. He was by all odds the foxiest man on the field I ever came in contact with and he could turn a trick before the other fellows were aware that something was being attempted at all."

During the season of 1881 I was playing with the Milwaukee club and Ted Sullivan was playing and managing the team at the same time. It was when the rules called for a high and low ball, the batter being permitted to name the kind of ball he wanted to hit at. The game was close and was being fought hard by both teams, the Dulais being our opponents. Toward the close of the game when I was going to bat, Ted came to me and told me to get hit to get my base if there was a chance. Well, I was hit all right and I went to first.

"The umpire called play, but Ted was slow in coming to bat and I wondered what had happened to him. It was the rule that the pitcher had to deliver the ball between the knee and shoulder, or for a low one at the knee and the high one between the belt and shoulder. Well, when Ted finally appeared at the plate his belt was up near his waistline. The opposing side kicked, but Ted won his point and the pitcher was instructed to deliver the ball between the belt and shoulder. The result was that Ted walked. During the excitement and arguing I made a sneak to third base. The moment Ted reached first and the pitcher had the ball he led off so far that they thought they had hit him. George Van Zandt, a fast man, was on first, and another fast one on second, but Ted kept them moving back and forth so fast for three or four minutes that they slowed up. When the right time came I raced for home and made it and the run won the game."

"It was simply another game won and credited to Ted's brainwork."

BASEBALL MSYTERY; WHAT HAPPENED TO ZIMMERMAN?

What's the matter with Heinie Zimmerman, third baseman of the Chicago Cubs and leading batsman of the National League?

Zimmerman disappeared the day the Cubs under Evers, reached New York and has not been seen about the club's headquarters since.

The great slugger's home is in the Bronx and when he left the Cubs' hotel it was supposed he was visiting his mother, but when he failed to return investigation revealed a muddled situation. Her counsel pleaded with the court to extend mercy and not impose a prison sentence.

Manager Evers sent a scout to ascertain the truth. Owner C. W. Murphy declared Heinie had been taken as he could get his hat on without the aid of a shoe horn.

There is something in the Cubs' work pile and just what it is will be known when the wearing apparel is hung out to dry. Just now it remains a mystery.

HEINIE ZIMMERMAN

TOOK THE SAFE INTO BASEMENT

Then Blew It With Nitroglycerine—New York Crooks Operate in Busy Sections

New York, May 22—When Night Manager Schwab and two waiters opened a restaurant at 147 Broadway, early today, they discovered that the safe had disappeared from under the cashier's desk. The police already knew about it and had been keeping secret the fact the safe had been carried away and blown with nitroglycerine a few feet from Broadway some time between midnight Saturday and 11 a.m. yesterday.

The restaurant is between 40th and 41st streets on Broadway, one of the busiest spots in the world, and has an entrance around at 145 West 40th street. The safe was kept under the cashier's desk near the stairs to the basement, which are not far from the Broadway sidewalk. It is a small safe, something under three feet square, and weighs 800 pounds. The restaurant money is not hoarded on Saturdays and when the safe was closed at midnight there was about $200 in it.

The robbers are believed to have got into the restaurant basement by picking a lock on a door leading from an adjoining cellar into Child's basement. All they had to do then was to walk up the stairs to get over on hands and knees to the safe, screened from outside view by the cashier's desk, and carry it into the basement. There they drilled a hole in the door and blew it open with nitroglycerine. Only the money was taken. The robbers then packed up their kit of tools and departed without leaving even a finger print clue.

Every Sunday Inspector goes through the closed Child's restaurants to see that they are in good shape, and when an inspector went into this one yesterday he found the looted safe and reported to the police.

GOOD SPORTS IN AMHERST

The people of Amherst get together and encourage amateur baseball. Tuesday's news says—

A meeting of the Baseball Committee was held last evening in the office of Mr. Bradford. Entries were received from six teams as follows: St. Charles' Church, St. Stephen's Church, Christ Church, First Baptist Church, Trinity Methodist Church, Union Highland, representing the Baptist and Methodist Mission churches.

The baseball season will open on May 24, when two games of ball will be played. Both games will be for nine innings.

An intermediate League and two Junior Leagues will be organized later in the season. Teams desiring to enter any of the above must have their entries filed before 8 p.m. The admission limit has been fixed for the two junior teams. The smallest limit must not be over 85 pounds, and for the older limit the weight limit is 115 pounds. The Baseball Committee desires to express their appreciation to Mayor Page for his kindness in putting the grounds in such excellent shape.

ROAST FOR THE FANS

(Woodstock Press) The local league has got off to a good start. Each match last week was attended by hundreds of spectators. All the league games are free of charge, but at the same time it must be remembered that each game costs the management about $200. The admission for men to the grand stand and bleachers is 10 cents each. Fourteen men each to cushioned seats in the grand stand. Woodstock is a good sport town, but we regret to say that there are a few men in town who expect others to furnish them with free ball, to send an auto after them and have us escort them to cushioned seats in the grand stand and take seats in the grand stand to at least pay for the two new balls used in each match.

The league got a fairly good start last week. Monday, May 12, was the opening day. Hon. W. P. Jones, mayor of the town, pitched the first ball, and the game was on between the Athletics and Cubs. The game went five innings and the Athletics won by a score of 7 to 4.

A CORRECTION.

At the residence of Rev. George Ross, Fairville, a quiet wedding was solemnized about 8:30. The officiating was done by Walter J. Warren and Edna H. Ellis were united in marriage. The ceremony took place some time ago instead of on Tuesday evening as stated in yesterday's Times.

Fredericton & Bangor 6

At Bangor yesterday the Fredericton Pets took their first game from the Bangor aggregation, 5 to 6. The playing was a little ragged at times, but this is put down to lack of practice. Condon was put in the box for Fredericton and, being hit quite freely, was replaced by Ahern, the Pets' southpaw, who held the Maroons down to one hit and no scores from the fifth inning to the end of the game. The batteries were: Bangor, Mahoney and Labadie; Fredericton, Condon, Ahern and Spring.

DYKEMAN'S
Curtains Sold at Retail, at Wholesale Prices

We say this because we buy them direct from the manufacturers in Nottingham, and buy them at the same price as the wholesaler, and this store gets very little more profit, if any, than the usual wholesale house. We consider this a good argument why you should come to this store for curtains. Think it over for yourself. In addition to this we pay spot cash for them and take all the discounts we can get. Our prices run from 45 cents a pair to $7.50. But we mention several that are specially priced because they are wonderfully good value, at $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00. These have a fine lace appearance are double threaded button hole edges, and come in single and double borders.

LOCAL NEWS

HEAVY BLASTING.
About half past one o'clock this morning the sleepers were notified that the work at Courtenay Bay was proceeding. The notification came in the form of two very heavy reports, the effect being that of a 18-inch gun fired at close range.

EJECTED DISTURBERS.
Policeman Gardiner was called into the boarding house owned by Louis Fader in Pond street last night to eject two men who were causing trouble. Later he was asked to eject three men who were raising a disturbance in Charles Chaggs' pool room in Mill street.

EGGS HIGHER.
A slight rise has taken place in the price of eggs, but they are still quite low, comparing this season with others at the same period. Wholesalers today were asking 18 and 19 cents in job lots, but the retail price was from 27 to 28 cents.

NOVELTY SHOWER.
Friends of Miss Florence Saul gathered at her home in Simonds street last evening and gave her a delightful surprise by tending her a novelty shower in honor of an approaching nuptial event. A pleasant evening was enjoyed after refreshments the gathering dispersed.

FOUND BY POLICE.
A varied collection of articles were picked up by the police yesterday. Policeman Linton found a bag containing two live hens in a vacant lot off a street and left in the North End lock-up. A binding chain, found on Mill street, was left in the lock-up. A pocketbook and a wedding ring, picked up on Union street, await their owners at Central station.

NEEDLESS ALARM.
A number of people who were passing along Union street last evening were somewhat startled by a loud sharp report near the Opera House, but on investigation it developed that the cause of the noise was the bursting of one of the tires of an automobile that was standing outside the theatre waiting for the owner, who was inside.

BUT—
Residents of King Street East, who are watching with interest the process of recovering the roadway between Carpenters and Wentworth streets, expressed the opinion this morning that the job would be a good one—but they said the holes and depressions in the street should be filled up, and the surface made level, before the work could be lasting or satisfactory.

COMING ON ISAAC CASE.
T. A. Colclough, the Deputy Attorney General of Alberta, is expected to arrive in St. John on Monday in connection with the R. D. Isaacs case. It cannot be ascertained when Isaacs will be brought here, but having waived extradition, the New York police officials are now awaiting a warrant of surrender from the state officials at Washington and as soon as this arrives it is thought that Isaacs will be handed over to the New Brunswick authorities.

HIGH SCHOOL BASE BALL.
The arrangements for having St. John High School play two games in Fredericton on Saturday, the 24th, and the Fredericton High School have been completed. The games will be played in the morning and afternoon at Scully's Grove.

The Aberdeen High School baseball team of Moncton will meet the Amherst High School team on the 24th and the game will take place on the High School diamond in Moncton. The Moncton High School team are very strong this year.

EVERY DAY CLUB BOYS.
The boys of the Every Day Club League are squared away for a good season in baseball. Every evening four teams play on the Barrack Square, having two diamonds in commission. There are senior and junior teams, and when they get settled down there will probably be three teams in each. On Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings after the games most of the boys go up to the hall and have some physical drills or enjoy themselves for a short time in other ways. Every Wednesday evening there is a sing-song, with A. P. Belding at the piano and Walter Brindle and E. A. Belding to lead the boys in singing songs and choruses which appeal to them, and the boys themselves contribute more or less to the entertainment. Last evening, through the kindness of some ladies, the boys were treated to refreshments and had a very enjoyable half hour.

THOUSAND STRIKERS QUIT HOMES AND WILL LIVE IN TENTS

Charleston, W. Va., May 22—Disputes in the west Virginia coal fields took a new angle last night, when 1,000 miners employed in the New River coal fields with their families, left their homes and sought the protection of the United Mine Workers of America. It is said that all of them intend to live in tents. Thomas Cairns, president of district No. 17, United Mine Workers of America, brought the report of the trouble to this city. He had been visiting the New River field, where a few days ago the miners organized district 29, United Mine Workers of America, with a membership of 15,000.

DAMAGE TO DRILL FIXED AT $400 BY THE COURT

McBeath vs. Clark and Jakes—Sailor Released—Summary Ejection Case

In the case of W. H. McBeath vs. Harry B. Clark and others, before Mr. Justice McLeod this morning, Ronald A. McAvity was examined by C. F. Inches for the plaintiff, and stated that in his opinion the damage done to the drill for the recovery of which suit was brought, by long storage was about $500. His Honor fixed the damage at $400, the amount asked by the plaintiff. Argument was heard in the case of Moses vs. French, S. B. Dustin and E. S. Ritchie argued the case for the defence, and E. P. Raymond commenced the plaintiff's arguments.

County Court
The case of the King vs. Wm. Morrison, charged with stealing or having in his possession wrongfully a bicycle, was tried before Judge Forbes under the Speedy Trials Act. The evidence was to the effect that the prisoner while intoxicated took one of the telegraph messengers boy's bicycles, and after going a block or so with it was arrested. As he has a wife and family and bore a good reputation, His Honor suspended the sentence and allowed him to join his ship again.

The summary ejection case of the Sterling Realty Co., Ltd., vs. Levi was also heard before Judge Forbes. After hearing the evidence, His Honor persuaded the plaintiff to allow the tenant to remain until the first of June, which was agreed upon. S. B. Dustin for the plaintiff and Dr. W. B. Wallace for the defendant.

INDIAN POETESS FORBADE DISPLAY OF ANY MOURNING

Vancouver, B. C., May 22—The will of the late Miss Emily Pauline Johnson, the Indian poetess, has been entered for probate and reveals an unusual amount of contemplation for the inevitable end of her last illness.

The opening clause of the will which provides for the cremation of her remains and the scattering of the ashes, adds:—

"When dead I desire to be dressed in my grey cloth evening cloak, with my small gold shield shaped locket, containing the photograph of a young boy, fastened around my neck by my small gold chain, also I desire to wear my gold rings of the design of two serpents, and to have my silver and ebony crucifix placed in my hand."

The final clause of the will reads as follows: "I particularly desire that neither my sister nor brother wear black nor what is termed 'mourning' for me as I have always disliked such display of personal feelings. I desire that no mourning note-paper or stationery be used by them, and that no tombstone or other monument be raised in my memory, as I prefer to be remembered in the hearts of my people and my public."
