STRIPPED LATE SULTAN OF JEWELS AND FORTUNE

Committee of Young Turks Has Seized Abdul Hamid's Effects—No One Sorry to See Him Go But His Successor's Lot Will Not Be Any Bed of Roses

London, April 28.—Abdul Hamid's disastrous reign, which opened with Bulgarian atrocities, closes in a most dramatic fashion, with massacres of Armenians in Anatolia. His disappearance as Sultan appears to cause but few regrets here and abroad, but the course of Turkish officers will still be watched with great anxiety. The Young Turks acted boldly and swiftly, but not without the sanction of the Sheikh-ul-Islam. Hence it may be inferred that they have not inflamed the country's religious susceptibilities. The orthodox of the Young Turks, however, is regarded with considerable suspicion by large sections of the strict Mohammedans, therefore it is too early to prophesy a quiet reign for Mehmed V.

According to the Morning Post's correspondent, 95 per cent of the population of the city were in favor of the recent revolutionary mutiny. It is regarded as certain that the young Turks must for some time rule by a military dictatorship and the London newspapers editorially express apprehension that before a parliamentary regime can be safely established, serious racial and religious outbreaks may occur. A despatch to the Times says that it was stated in the chamber that Abdul Hamid would probably be sent to Salonika.

A Belgrade despatch to the Telegraph Company says that the committee has seized all the former Sultan's effects, including his jewels as well as his vast personal fortune. A Belgrade despatch to the Telegraph says that according to news from Macedonia the ominous movement of the Albanians is increasing in the district around Monastir. The Albanians demand the enforcement of the Sheriat.

Berlin, April 28.—In an interview with the Constantinople correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger, Mehmed Raschid is quoted as saying: "I like the press, whose task it is to spread knowledge and information among the nations and lead them toward happiness. You may say that I have always lived for the constitution ever since I could think and will always be a true servant of the constitution. It is the state's and the people's salvation. 'I am a friend of the powers,' continued the prince, 'and I can only hope that Turkey will have relations of friendship and love with all, but will always be a good friend and well wisher, Germany.'

A despatch to the Tagblatt says that Abdul Hamid, when told of his deposition, by the renewal of the Ottoman Constitution I have never departed from it. I leave the instigators of this tragedy to God's justice. My innocence concerning the occurrences is proved by the fact that no shot has been fired from the Yıldiz during my reign. We won the Greek war and have saved my land in several crises. If my abdication is desired let God's will be done."

Paris, April 28.—The newspapers in general approve the dethronement of Sultan Abdul Hamid, and express the hope that the Young Turks will profit by the lesson of recent events and show the same self-possession in the exercise of the government as they displayed in winning a victory. The opinion held that a strong regenerated Turkey will present a firm front to those who covet their outlying provinces, which will be the best means of preventing the re-opening of the Eastern question. The report of the arrest of Prince Edirna, nephew of the Sultan, has caused unbounded astonishment here. Many of his friends in Paris are convinced that he is the victim of an attempt on the part of the former Sultan to effect a compromise, looking to his own safety by a supreme denunciation.

Constantinople, April 28.—Stock prices were mostly firm today. The features were Illinois 92 1/4, Montreal Street Railway 208, Ogilvie 116, Steel 33, Pacific 170 1/2, Rio 100, Richelieu 31 1/2, Pows, 116 1/2, Quebec 92, Porto Rico 91 1/2, Scotia 00 1/4, and Steel preferred 114 3/4.

JOBBERY IN CONNECTION WITH SUSPENSION BRIDGE AFFAIRS

How Some of Mr. Maxwell's Political Friends Fattened at the Expense of the Government—Epicurean Workmen Employed on the Bridge Ate Lunches to the Value of $13.20 and the People Paid for Them

Fredericton, N. B., April 28.—(Special)—The Accounts Committee met again this morning and took up the road expenditures of Victoria county. Mr. Jones, the gentleman who sold a carload of lumber to the Central railway without competition, made a discovery. He found a receipt for $601 for expenditure on the Munroe Road for which he could not find any vouchers. Mr. Tweeddale, the representative of Victoria county, said that the work was a most important one, and had been well done, but he could not understand why there had been no account.

There is another account from Queens county said Mr. Woodcock. "There never was a road superintendent in Queens county named John Gallagher, and John Gallagher got all the money." Mr. Pinder then made the discovery that Adolphe Ache, a road superintendent, had charged $7.50, as incurred for collecting claims for injuries sustained on a (concealer county bridge. Two men had been injured on February 21, 1908, and Mr. Pinder at first tried to make it appear that the payments were made to secure votes.

When the Auditor General explained that he had disallowed the commission, an effort was made as the other men employed under instructions from the government, but the Auditor said he acted on his own responsibility. Accounts for repairs to the Suspension bridge showed that the work was done by the day, and that S. C. Drury appeared on the vouchers as foreman, drawing $4 a day for superintending the work on the bridge. The work was strung out for a long period, and Mr. Drury finally made affidavit before E. W. Paul that the accounts as submitted were correct. Several of the accounts were certified as correct by "R. M.", and another by Robert Maxwell.

One of the most remarkable of the accounts was one for police services. The men being paid $2 per day, but the amount was reached when a bill for $13.20 for lunches was reached. There was a charge of other days $2.40. There was nothing to show who ate the lunches. Robert Maxwell was not certified, but it was paid. A vain effort was made to show that this scandalous job, which was a direct violation of the public trust, could not have been done by contract. Mr. Drury moved the bill in committee and explained its great value to the large districts it early construction.

Fredericton, N. B., April 28.—(Special)—The bill to amend the Criminal Code, which was introduced by Mr. A. Powell, C. P. R. does not now run. The transfer of the charter to be made only on approval of the lieutenant-governor-in-council. This and other bills were agreed to and reported.

Hamilton Police Will Appeal the Game Law Cases. Hamilton, Ont., April 28.—(Special)—The local authorities are evidently confident that Miss Florence Kinneady will be on hand at the adjourned inquest Thursday night, for they are going ahead with their arrangements just as if nothing had occurred. The authorities also appear confident that the mystery surrounding the murder will be cleared up. One of the officers working on the case announced today there was not the slightest doubt but that the mystery would be solved, and indicated that a suggestion might be looked for when the inquest was resumed.

Montreal, April 28.—(Special)—Stock prices were mostly firm today. The features were Illinois 92 1/4, Montreal Street Railway 208, Ogilvie 116, Steel 33, Pacific 170 1/2, Rio 100, Richelieu 31 1/2, Pows, 116 1/2, Quebec 92, Porto Rico 91 1/2, Scotia 00 1/4, and Steel preferred 114 3/4.

CONDEMNED MURDERERS ARE WAITING THE END

Arosha and Seppelil Condemned to Die at Andover on Tuesday Next are Apparently Resigned to Their Fate—Visited Daily By Father Ryan Parish Priest of Indian Point.

Andover, April 28.—(Special)—Leon Seppelil and Tony Arosha, who will hang on Tuesday next for the murder of Edward Green, the jewelry peddler, are waiting their time in the county jail here. Neither he nor Seppelil are in possession of any money, and are compelled to depend upon the sheriff for tobacco. Both are shaved at the expense of the county, and the county is also responsible for a haircut that Arosha was provided with, owing to the abnormal length of his hair. Other than prison palor the two Italians are nowise changed from their confinement, and the strain attendant upon the two trials and jail combination is situated in a dreary location, and at this season of the year, the moaning of the wind is incessant, and the depressed feeling that it creates is accentuated by the absolute stillness of the county.

The cells are underground, and at their best are very gloomy, but particularly so are the two occupied by the condemned men. A stream of light from the grated openings in the hardwood doors leading into the corridor brightens up the cells at nine o'clock in the morning, but shortly after three o'clock, it is difficult to distinguish a face in the murky darkness within the compartments. Arosha converses through the aperture in the door of his cell with the death guard, who paces continually during day and night up and down the corridor. Neither he nor Seppelil are in possession of any money, and are compelled to depend upon the sheriff for tobacco. Both are shaved at the expense of the county, and the county is also responsible for a haircut that Arosha was provided with, owing to the abnormal length of his hair. Other than prison palor the two Italians are nowise changed from their confinement, and the strain attendant upon the two trials and jail combination is situated in a dreary location, and at this season of the year, the moaning of the wind is incessant, and the depressed feeling that it creates is accentuated by the absolute stillness of the county.

With the exception of the years 1887 and 1888, when the St. John was in force, the low water mark is reached in Ontario this year so far as the number of bars is concerned. Some idea of the decrease may be gained when it is mentioned that in 1875 there were 4,783 bars, and 1,937 liquor shops, while after May 1st next, there will be only about 1,800 bars, and about 200 shops to enter to vastly increased population. On and after the date named, there will be 334 municipalities, where the sale of liquor is illegal, and 473 in which licenses are granted.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT MONCTON TODAY. Moncton, N. B., April 28.—(Special)—A wedding of unusual interest took place this morning at the home of Mr. C. H. Harris, Steadman street, when his daughter, Marie, was married to Edward Hubert Sinclair, son of the late Edward Sinclair of Miramichi. The bride was given away by her father, was gowned in white satin, and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The conventional veil was of orange blossoms. The bride was preceded to the drawing-room by her sister, Miss S. Helen as maid of honor, who was gowned in pink crepe de chine, with white bolero and diamond and pearl necklace. There were no bridesmaids. Mr. Fred M. Tweedie of Chatham, was best man. After the reception, a buffet lunch was served. The decorations of the bride's table were white roses. The house was profusely decorated with palms and spring flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair left for C. P. R. train this afternoon for Chatham. Miss Alice Thibodeau and Mr. Robert White were married in St. Bernard's Church this morning by Rev. E. J. Conway in the presence of a large number of friends. After the ceremony, the couple left on the Maritime express for a wedding trip to Halifax and Sydney.

IT WAS EXAGGERATED. The Elaine reached her dock at Indian Point yesterday at five o'clock, with her guard on the starboard side, above the forward gangway, smashed, as the result of a collision with the Canadian's wharf, caused by the freshet. The steamer, however, was not by any means the disabled condition in which she was met by the Standard. There was no "hole smashed in her bow," nor did she have any "tossing" experience. The "tossing" of passengers and rough experts' of cattle, was more imaginary than correct. After repairs, the steamer left on her return trip at eight o'clock this morning.

W. B. Tennant, H. J. Dick and F. B. Ellis, of this city, and W. G. Brookfield and George Taylor, of Halifax, and Frank Blanford, of Truro, returned today from Ottawa, where they had been with the other maritime province men looking over mining property. At a meeting of the alumni of Kings College, held in Windsor this morning, Dr. Tennant was re-elected president and R. J. Wilson secretary. The treasurer's report showed the college to be in good financial condition. Charles Harper, a stevedore, while loading the schooner Ralph M. Hayward with lumber, yesterday, had his thumb badly jammed that amputation was necessary. Dr. James Christie was the physician in attendance.

Abdul Hamid has gone to Salonica, taking eleven wives with him. There is no woman suffrage in Turkey. The women are kept in their places. Why should we? Abdul became a member of the New Brunswick legislature. A SERIOUS PROBLEM. Mr. Peter Binns says that if the Daylight Bill is adopted his boys won't know when to get up. They are already in some doubt on that subject.

BRITISH SUFFRAGETTES HOLD BIG DEMONSTRATION

Opening in London of International Parliament of Women is Heralded by Monster Procession and Meeting in Albert Hall

London, April 28.—The International parliament representing women of twenty countries, banded together to demand equal rights, is the one world event of the week in London. An immense demonstration was made last night in Albert Hall, heralded by a procession of a thousand women workers, carrying 500 ancient watchman's lanterns and all the emblems of hand and trades they marched from Eaton Square to Albert Hall.

The lanterns had no political significance. They were introduced only for picturesque effect. The Suffragettes had at least introduced romance, realism, poetry and beauty into the somewhat squalid arena of party politics. One day the newly bearded Jean D'Arcy sat astride her war steed at the head of a military procession, another Queen Elizabeth with ruff and farthingales rides amidst amazons carrying a scotch son bearing the telling device: "If Queen, why not voters?" But most powerful and effective of all these appeals to the imagination are the van loads of ex-prisoners, matrons and maidens who have gladly "done time" in the sacred cause. The women's international suffrage alliance, strictly speaking, is not a suffrage organization, but no one who watches the ebb and flow of feeling of the great international assembly can doubt for a moment that it is suffragettes who are the heroines of the hour. The American President, Mrs. Chapman Catt, neither blessed them at all, nor cursed them at all, holding herself strictly neutral, but her audience blessed them all together. It was a scene of tumultuous enthusiasm that hailed the appearance of Mrs. Despard, leader of the extreme wing of the Suffragettes, when fresh from her prison experiences, she arose to address the meeting. Lady Constance Lytton is at Knobworth, Mrs. Pankhurst is fighting a bye-election at Sheffield. The fair Lady Christabel is worked to death. But Mrs. Woodhouse Elmy, the Nestor and pioneer of all women's movements in England, is well to the front despite her 78 years. Mrs. Elmy, with the snowy hair of an ancient, began the struggle just 50 years ago, and has kept it up ever since, and is full of faith, hope and confidence. "Even in America," she said, "the cause progresses despite the threefold obstacle of the constitution, the saloon and the trust. All around the wide world woman is becoming conscious of her right to be regarded as an equal citizen in every state, and everywhere men and women are becoming more and more keenly alive to the fact that the suffragette is the sole security for every right which they claim."

BIRDIE AND THE DOG-TAX. The lovely Miss Birdie McWhat is highly indignant over the proposed increase in the dog-tax. Birdie approves of the $8 poll tax on the poorer classes, but the dog-tax is an outrage. She is a very young girl, and she had written Mr. Hazen a very long letter about it. Birdie has a dear little dog, to which she gives a bath every morning, and in the afternoon takes it out for an airing. She says it is a sweet thing, and so intelligent.

"Why can't they make the poll tax on those horrid working men $10 a head, and leave our poor doggies alone?" demanded Birdie with some heat. "I told Mr. Hazen very plainly what I thought about it. These people are in such inconsiderate. I wouldn't have my little Edie taxed for anything. It's in each shocking taste."

The bulk and cargo of the three-masted schooner Rebecca W. Huddell, which was wrecked on Libby island, near Machiasport, Me., last week, have been sold, the former for $212 and the cargo for $630 to a local wrecking company. The vessel has split open and it is feared the cargo and wreckage will be swept to sea by the first storm. This is the fifth wreck in Machias Bay since December, four of the craft becoming total losses. The remains of more than four score vessels, mostly of British build, lie in that locality. The agent of the Huddell in this city is D. J. Purdy.

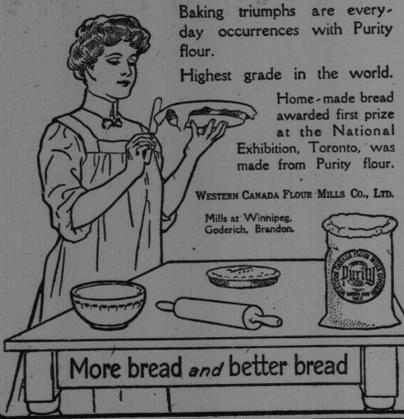

SENATOR G. W. ROSS ADVOCATES TRAINING CANADIAN SAILORS

In the Senate Yesterday He Made a Strong Appeal for Better Education of Canadian Mariners in Seamanship and Navigation—Trained Canadian Sailors Should Man Canadian Ships

Ottawa, Ont., April 28.—(Special)—In the senate yesterday G. W. Ross moved a resolution that "in the opinion of the senate, liberal provision should be made at once for the instruction of Canadian mariners in seamanship and navigation, and that the government should provide the necessary funds for the purpose." Senator Ross said he wished to call attention to the inadequate education now provided in Canada for seamen. He did not intend to open the question of naval defence. It had been discussed in another place and he was delighted to know both parties had agreed upon a line of action. It was gratifying to know the British press had approved of the position Canada had taken. Senator Ross quoted a letter from Winston Churchill, president of the board of trade, which indicated the attitude of the British government toward defence. The letter gave a comparison of the German and British naval forces, and stated that now and in 1912 the British force of ships and guns would be nearer three times the strength of Germany. Senator Ross said he read this with the assurance that the old seadogs of England are as capable as ever of the defence of the empire and that there is little to fear during the interval, unless the colonial and imperial government arrive at a conclusion as to what the colonies should do to strengthen the naval supremacy of the empire. He would discuss the question of what Canada was doing to educate seamen as seamen, and the subsidiary purpose of fitting them later for the naval defence.

For success on land or sea, education was indispensable. The report of the minister of marine showed a few lectures were delivered on seamanship, and 208 mariners were receiving naval instruction in Canada, at eight points, Victoria, Vancouver, Lunenburg, Collingwood, North Sydney, Toronto, Quebec and Yarmouth. With over seventy-one thousand seamen it would seem how meagre is the education provided. Canada had a merchant marine, and there was an examination of masters and mates, but when was the education secured on which the examination was based. He found none provided except that he had named. Canada was spending about seven millions of dollars a year on military training. In that we had reached a point at which we should halt and consider what can usefully be done for the education of Canadian seafarers. As far as he could ascertain, not a thousand dollars a year was being spent on naval matters. The number of ships of Canadian registry was now 7,228, having a value of about twenty million dollars, which value was greatly increased when cargoes were added; they carried many valuable lives in passengers and crew. Senator Ross thought it a remarkable thing that no provision was made for the training of the men entrusted with the safety of all this life and property. There was not a parallel for this condition in any line of business or of life. With the exception of Great Britain, Canada has the greatest number of fishermen of any country in the world, numbering last year 71,254, or half the number of men required to man the British navy, and three times as many as were on the American fleets during the Spanish-American war. With the twenty-five thousand fishermen on the Pacific coast, the number of Canadian fishermen totalled over ninety-five thousand men engaged in a most perilous pursuit. He asked what other industry could almost a hundred thousand men without educational facilities to improve them in their calling. (Continued on page 3.)

Slashing Arraignment of the Many Broken Pledges of the New Brunswick Government—Public Money Squandered to Help the Conservative Party—Mr. Byrne Joins the Attack in a Masterly Speech

Fredericton, N. B., April 27.—Mr. Copp moved his resolution of want of confidence in the government tonight and made a splendid speech in support of it. He read from the speeches of Mr. Hazen in the house and from one platform published in the nature of the pledges he had made to the country, and in plain, convincing language told how each and every one of these had been violated.

It was a terrible arraignment of a government that had only been in power for a year and which will not soon be forgotten by the members of the legislature. Violations of pledges one after the other were hurled at the government benches until it seemed that nothing that had been promised had been performed.

Mr. Copp was particularly strong in the denunciation of the government for the manner in which it had given notice of its resignation. He said that the Liberal party had been in power since they had been in power. The motion was seconded by Mr. Byrne, who in rapidly made a representative of the party in support of the motion. It was midnight when he finished.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

It is the habit of the male politician to grow eloquent and express great joy when there is a large attendance of ladies at a political meeting.

All this before election day. But when women knock at the door of the legislature and ask for the ballot, even a limited and greatly restricted ballot, their request is denied.

The action of the New Brunswick legislature yesterday, in refusing to extend the municipal franchise for women, based on property and income, to give them the same legal right in provincial elections, was unworthy of an assemblage of intelligent men.

A Frenchman, Maine, despatch conveys this interesting information, which reveals a remarkable change in the relative position of Canada and the United States.

Touching the situation in Turkey, the New York Globe sets out the situation very clearly as follows: "No one was fool enough to believe that the constitution would not have undergone its season of bitter trial."

NAVAL DEFENCE

The Times prints today a report of an interesting discussion in the Canadian senate on the subject of naval defence.

Views expressed by Mr. J. Allen Baker, M. P., a Canadian member of the British House of Commons, justify the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier with regard to naval defence, and show how foolish is the demand for the immediate offer of Dreadnoughts to Great Britain.

Regarding Germany's Dreadnoughts, Mr. Baker said there was no doubt as to the fallacy of the statement that Germany had been hiding away these vessels and that by the end of 1912 she would have Great Britain in the rear.

It is evident that there is ample time for well-considered action by Canada at a conference with the imperial authorities, as Sir Wilfrid suggested, and that there is no ground for alarmist agitation and frenzied appeals to the galleries. With regard to the agitation in Australia a Sydney cable of last week said: "The ultra imperialists who are seeking to overthrow the Commonwealth government because it prefers to build an Australian navy rather than present two Dreadnoughts to Great Britain have received a severe setback from unexpected and influential quarters."

AN AUTOMATIC LIGHT

A very interesting experiment, that will be eagerly watched by mariners and all who are engaged in the shipping trade, is about to be made in Long Island Sound.

Now it is proposed to install an acetylene gas light that can be seen for about five or six miles by masters of approaching vessels, the lighting of which at sunset and turning down at sunrise will all be done without human aid for at least a year.

The inventor of the device, M. Dale, a Swedish engineer, is now in this country. The Commercial Acetylene Gas Company is the contractor for the new light, and Major Potter, the engineer of the lighthouse establishment in Tompkinsville, said yesterday that if the light is successful it will be kept burning without care for a whole year from the battery of charged gas tanks.

The Hazen government was brought face to face last night with its broken promises. Mr. Copp reviewed the Hazen pledges and performances relative to the highways, agriculture, immigration, forestry, school books, economy of administration and all the rest of it, including the conversion of the government into a part of the Conservative machine for federal party purposes.

Whitehead brothers, of Fredericton, N. B., contractors, for the Elms Branch Railway, arrived on the Island last week to arrange for the starting of work shortly. It is expected that operations this season will be confined mainly to cutting

KEEP FISHIN'

Hi Somers was the durndest cuss for catchin' fish—he sure was great! He never used to make no fuss about the kind of pole or bait.

Well, Hi is Gov'ner Somers, now. To use the same old Hi, son-of-a-gun. He had a law suit, won his fight. He was a lawyer, 'til he blowed.

In 1896, thinkers and leading public men of the world were favorable to giving women the same rights as those enjoyed by men in matters of public interest. PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE OF THE HAZEN GOVERNMENT (Continued from page 3.) The government had promised an immigration policy. They had put an advertisement in the Standard of Empire to advertise Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer and had wasted $2,000 on it. It is the commissioner of agriculture admitted they had got from it was sixty-five immigrants with no guarantee they would stay here or that they were actually in the country now.

Mr. Hazen—That is the gentleman that talks about justice and throws such a slur across the floor of the house over your mask of justice," said Mr. Copp, "and show yourself in your true light."

An Unbreakable Set of Teeth

There is a class of patients who do not object to paying a fair price for artificial teeth, if they can really secure comfort, usefulness and naturalness.

I have a set of teeth, such as is unobtainable in any other office in this city, to my knowledge. It is out of the ordinary line and unlike the teeth in general use. Its beauty is at once apparent, and it is practically unbreakable.

It will pay those, who are desirous of obtaining the best to be had in the dental line, to call and inspect this for themselves.

I will gladly demonstrate its superiority over other plates, even if you have no immediate intention of investing.

HEAVY SENTENCE FOR TAVERN KEEPER

James H. Dalton Fined $50 or One Month Jail for Allowing Men to Fight in His Saloon--Bobby Dixon in Court.

James H. Dalton was convicted by Judge Ritchie this morning of permitting a row in his saloon on Bridge street, on Saturday, April 8, in which Joseph Pierce and George Kiervin were the principals. Dalton himself is said to have been under the influence of liquor. Dalton, in his defence, asserted that he endeavored to prevent the brawl.

Patrolman Rankin, of the North End Division, who preferred the information, was sworn. He stated that between 6 and 7 o'clock on the evening of April 7, Mrs. Dalton, the tavern-keeper's wife, attracted his attention to the barroom, and as he gazed into the store he perceived two men were fighting furiously, and aiming blows at random. He entered and ascertained that the men were Kiervin and Pierce. Both had doffed their hats and coats, and were bleeding profusely from numerous cuts. Pierce's countenance was unrecognizable, and pools of blood were on the floor. Against the wall Dalton was leaning in a maudlin state, with a gash over his right eye, from which blood was flowing. Apparently he was not active in the encounter, as his coat and hat were on. He was intoxicated. Mrs. Dalton requested the policeman to eject the two belligerents from the barroom, and he complied. Both were also intoxicated.

Officer Rankin was the only witness examined for the prosecution, and on his oath behalf Dalton offered no defence. He said a witness that he was desirous of obtaining was in Fredericton. He added that he has not reopened his saloon since the evening of the disturbance, and as he was refused a license by the commissioners, he has abandoned any intention of reopening. Patrolman Rankin substantiated his statement that his store has been closed since the 17th inst. He was informed that the case would be presented on second information for permitting Kiervin and Pierce to frequent his tavern, as both are not of unblemished reputation. He said he invariably refused admittance to Kiervin, who is unmarried, and Pierce, who is married. The penalty for infringement of this particular section of the liquor license act is a minimum fine of $10 and a maximum fine of $50.

He was convicted of allowing the fracas to exist as it must have been in progress for a considerable length of time, and a fine of $50 or one month in jail was imposed.

Robert Dixon, the illustrious star of the police court, firmanant, was again the feature of the proceedings this morning, and the playlet will be continued tomorrow morning. Patrolmen Covay and McLean arrested Dixon on Long Wharf between 7 and 8 o'clock last evening, having been attracted to Dixon's impromptu slumber couch among the logs, by some vociferous snoring. He was presented with a free drive to the North End station, and when he confronted his honor this morning, his facial contour was somewhat disarranged. In fact, the only means of recognition that the individual was not Robert Dixon, was his own appearance. After pleading inability to intoxication, he was fined $8 or two months. He strode to the centre of the court, and declared that the policeman who escorted him and Peter Keenan from the North End police station to central station at an early hour this morning, had struck him, and that was the manner in which he sustained the injuries to his face. He said that Keenan could corroborate his assertion. Tomorrow morning was appointed for the investigation, and the officer who is charged by Dixon, will be asked to be in attendance. Dixon said he was unable to discern the policeman's features in the dark.

Keenan, a Prince Edward Islander, whom Dixon depended upon to substantiate his story, paid a fine of $4 for inebriation, and departed.

Austin Dyer, a Scotchman, paid the same fee for his freedom.

A search of the habitation of local ethnologists by the police failed to reveal the dusky profile of one William Dixon, who is accused of using his fists on one John Hill, his discarded affinity. The time was Monday night, and the place was Carleton House. Miss Hill was inquisitive that "Mistral" Dixon should court another of her sex, and escort her to the Nickel, when her own heart was pining for him. He informed her that it was impossible to purchase three tickets with a dime, and when she persisted, he pumelled her. He then "trekked" out of sight, and has evidently left these precincts or is in concealment.

James Boyd and Thomas Ferry, who are reported by Patrolman Steeves for fighting on Westworth street yesterday afternoon, degraded the summons to appear.

Further hearing in the case of I. C. R. Officer Smith against William Daley for trespassing in the depot, was postponed until next Wednesday, owing to the illness of John Glynn, witness for Smith.

The director reports the culvert in the I. C. R. yard has been cleared by the railway authorities, but has not yet been repaired. The estimated cost of repairing and fitting up the upper floor of the City Hall is given at $500.

The director recommends that two or three hydrants on the west side be cut out.

This afternoon the bills and by-laws committee is considering the bills relating to dog tax, junk licenses and bill boards, and following their meeting the board of works will meet to deal with a number of matters.
