J. SUTTON CLARK,

St. George, N. B.

D. Bassen's, Gentlemen;

We want your attention. We have had a rough, rainy spring. You have had no occasion to think about your STRAW or LINEN hats; you now begin to feel the pressure of your felt hat; the perspiration makes you feel uncomfortable.

Now you want a light weight hat.

--We--

have bought TWENTY-FIVE dozen Drummers samples in all kinds of fine straws, tation Panamas, and in all shaped hats. All kinds of Canvas and Linen hats.

The prices should range regularly from $1.00 to $3.00 but we do not know exactly what the prices should be but we put the whole lot at 39cts. each. We have also a special lot at 25cts.

No need of having too much weight on your head when for a small amount you can have your head nice and cool.

D. Bassen, Carleton St., St. George.

St. George Sends $350 to Cambellton

That the people of St. George possess a sympathetic nature and at all times are ready and willing to help suffering humanity was evinced last week when the sum of $250 was subscribed by them and $100 was voted by the Town Council for the citizens of Cambellton. A subscription list was started and in less than twenty-four hours the sum mentioned was raised. The need was great. Four thousand people of our own race and kind and within a comparatively short distance of our town are destitute and homeless. We are proud to say that St. George has always done its duty in the past on occasions of this kind and that this time we can report that the amount subscribed was proportionately ahead of that given by any town in New Brunswick. Scarcely had the flames of the fire died out when a man, ever ready to give his time and attention to matters of the kind, started around with a subscription list and it was largely through the influence of this individual that the amount subscribed was so large. After interviewing a large number of town people he placed a list at each granite concern and at the pulp mill and the call for help for our brothers and sisters along the banks of the Restigouche met with a hearty response. Cambellton has none other than Dr. Taylor to thank as the one who was directly instrumental in securing the additional $250 from our town. The people in distress were informed on Saturday night by telephone by Mayor McGee of our contribution and the amount has been forwarded.

The sum of $250 was realized as follows:—

St. George Pulp and Paper Co. and employees	$33.75
Milne Counts & Co and employees	11.50
Epps Eodds & Co. and employees	14.50
O'Brien & Baldwin and employees	12.50
H. McGrattan & Sons and employees	16.50
Tyrie, Meating & Co and employees	12.50

The balance of the $250 was raised by residents of the town. St. George is to be congratulated on the grand showing made at this time.

DANIEL RYAN COMING.

Mr. Daniel Ryan and his excellent company are to give one performance of THE BLACK FOX at the Courts Opera House on Wednesday July 20th. The success of this play in all the larger cities of America and especially Montreal where it had a run of fifty nights is ample proof that are to have everything that is the best in theatrical special scenery and properties and carried by the company and the costumes worn by the ladies are said to be a revelation in modesty art. Seats are on sale now and the prices will range from 75-35¢. The Ryan Company comes from the Princess Theatre, Montreal.

An Enterprising Firm

Haley & Son have just completed an addition to the west end of their mill 26 feet wide by 103 feet long. This will give them an opportunity to install a lot of new machinery and employ more hands. At the present time they are putting in a very latest improved heavy moulding machine, the best of the kind made in Canada. This machine came from Galt, Ont. Other machines for various purposes will be installed later, the orders have already been placed. In addition to the above, this firm will put in this fall a very latest improved new dry-kiln, a kiln that will perfectly dry hard-wood boards in one week, right off the saw. Storage buildings in connection therewith will also be erected.

In the lumber business Haley & Son are quite active this season. One day last week there was as many as fourteen cars of lumber on their sidings and the C. P. R. tracks, other cars arriving daily. As an indication of the various and many kinds this firm handles it may be mentioned that in the above fourteen cars were eighteen varieties of wood,—all the way from spruce to quartered oak and walnut. At the same time they were discharging a schooner at their shipyard wharf which contained 125,000 clear spruce boards from Nova Scotia. It may be an impression with some people that about all the lumber Haley & Son handle is the boxwood they see rolling that way every winter, but they really purchase outside about six times as much lumber, all sawn out, as what quantity of boxwood they buy would produce. They handle about twenty-five kinds of different wood. They fancy American woods from all over the states, as far west as California (redwood) Washington state (Oregon pine) and as far south as the Gulf of Mexico (cypress.) They work up some of these woods in their own factory but the bulk of them are re-shipped in assorted car load lots to the other wood-working factories in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia and they often ship to their customers direct to the American mills without any handling at St. Stephen. This is a business Haley & Son have worked into for the last few years and are doing so in competition with Boston and Montreal commission houses.

As they have the exclusive agency in the Maritime provinces for some of the best American mills they are in a fair position to compete successfully in these lines.

These people have also, for some years past, been buyers and shippers to the United States of laths and sash lumber. Just recently they received an order from a concern in Tonawana, New York, for 300,000 of 2 inch white pine. This will be shipped from a certain country mill direct to the consumer.

Haley & Son are this week working on an order of 40,000 feet of clear kiln-dried North Carolina pine sheathing, all 3/4 inch thick, to be shipped to another wood-working factory in this province. They have shipped considerable of this material this season so far to other parts of the provinces, one car going as far away as Antigonish, N. S.

Lubec Victorious

On Saturday July 10th, the famous Crescents of Lords Cove, D. L., played the Orientals of Lubec, Me. The diamond was in good condition and the rugged nine of Lubec were up against the rugged nine of Lords Cove. The Lords Cove nine did not go on the diamond with the intention of winning because in the future they heard of the smart players at Lubec, Me., and being told in Eastport by one of the leading players that they would be shut out they were happily surprised when L. Stuart one of their old reliables came to the bat and won two scores for them the old Stars and Stripes waved high in honor of the Orientals. But the Crescents have two games yet to play with the Orientals on a later date when we expect the Union Jack to wave high in honor of the Victorious Crescents. Lubec says that it was one of the best games played on Lubec diamond for some time. Up to the fifth inning the score stood 0 and 0 at the conclusion of the ninth the score stood Lubec 6 Lords Cove 2. We also appreciate the way the game was conducted and the way that the players were headed. Although the Crescents were defeated it is a game to be proud of. The players of Deer Island should thank Mr. Gillmor for his way of thinking of the Lords Cove team. Because Lords Cove expects them to visit the Island also.

NEWSPAPERS BEST MEDIUM Because They Reach the Home Says Buffalo Expert.

"The newspaper is the best advertising medium in existence, declares G. W. Johnston, an advertising expert of Buffalo, N. Y., who makes a specialty of raising large sums of money for charitable purposes in short spaces of time. Mr. Johnston relies entirely upon advertising to accomplish his ends. In ten days he raised $300,000 to build a Y. M. C. A. for Buffalo. In a published interview he says among other things: "The newspaper is the best thing there is in advertising, because it reaches the home. It stands in exactly the same relationship to the community as does the physician to his patients or the clergyman to his congregation. In a local advertising campaign the home must be reached. All articles used in a home are advertised of course, and the women of the country do more than 90 per cent of the general buying of the home. The newspaper reaches the women, thereby placing before them the good qualities or new ideas of the article advertised.

"Every newspaper naturally has some standing in the community through which its circulation carries it. Take, for example, a newspaper of the very highest type. Any article advertised in that paper gains a prestige in proportion to the standing of the paper. In other words, a newspaper gives to its advertising its own standing.

By The Way.

Automobile parties!

The coronation for King George has been fixed for June 22nd, 1911.

The residents of Carleton St. are waiting patiently for the advent of the well-boring machine.

The increased number of visitors this summer is evidence of the growing popularity of the town as a summer resort.

"Now remember, Ike; that vos a goot glass eye you've got. Always take t out and put it in your pocket ven you ain't looking at nothings."

Husband--Say, Lottie! What have you been copying Blankem's catalogue for?

Wife--I haven't been copying Blankem's catalogue at all, that's just my shopping list.

Nodd--Mourn for me, old man: I married a woman with absolutely no sense of humor.

Todd--That's nothing to my cross.

Nodd--What's that?

Todd--My wife has one.

All who are indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All those indebted to this office and not knowing it are requested to call and find out. All knowing themselves to be indebted and not wishing to call are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to catch them.

At the close of the game with Lords Cove on the 1st, our local laundryman, who is somewhat of a fan, summed up the contest as follows: 'Basie ball', said he, 'jes like lottery. Some day you get wellie good luck, someday evilbody go up in the air, jes same firework. St. George gal in grand stand wellie putty, but jes same no good for smart game. Pitcher and feller behind the bat he look and see wellie nice girl laugh and wink he forget catch ball. He look see girl no look see ball. One smart guy he catch ball one hand, he like girl look see, he think he make what you call'em big hit. Next time he missum ball he no so smart. No gal in grand stand he more better game. Umpire he all right some time, some umpire he no can see. He close one, go sleep. Grand stand yell, he wake up quick, say 'stlike.' He no look see; he jes' gessum. Umpires jes' same Chinese kite. He full of wind.'

In the town where Dr. Emmons was pastor lived a physician tinctured with the grossest form of pantheism who declared that if he met Dr. Emmons he would easily floor him in argument. One day they met at the home of a patient.

The physician, says the Nashville Banner, abruptly asked Dr. Emmons:

"How old are you, sir?"

The doctor, astonished at his rudeness, quietly replied: "Sixty-two; may I ask, sir, how long you have lived?"

"Since the creation," was the reply of the pantheist.

"Ah, I suppose, then, you were in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve?"

"I was there, sir."

"Well," said the witty divine, "we all knew there was a third person present."

Weak Throat—Weak Lungs

Cold after cold; cough after cough! Troubled with this taking-cold habit? Better break it up. We have great confidence in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this work. No medicine like it for weak throats and weak lungs. Ask your doctor for his opinion. He knows all about it. His approval is valuable. Follow his advice at all times. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A bad marriage is like an electric machine—it makes you dance, but you cannot let go. Fathers, give the boy a chance. If he is wide-awake and progressive he must have new ideas; let him try his way; the old way is not always the best. You know that if the floor is clean labor has been performed to make it so. You know that if you can take from your drawer a clean shirt whenever you want it, somebody's fingers have toiled. Why don't you come out with it hearty. Why how pleasant you make things look, wife or "I am much obliged to you taking so much pains." If you gave a hundred and sixtieth part of the compliments you almost choked them with before they were married; if you would stop the language of who you are going to have when number one is dead (such things "lives may laugh at, but they sink deep sometimes) fewer women would seek for other sources of happiness.

Remember three things come not back. The arrow sent upon its track—it will not swerve, it will not slay its speed; it flies to wound or slay. The spoken word so soon forgot, fly there; yet it has perished not; in other hearts "his living still, and doing work for good or ill. And the lost opportunity that cometh back no more to thee. In vain thou weepst, in vain dost yearn, these three will never more return.

Did you ever think of thinking those about us for services they perform for us? We become so accustomed to have this and that done for us that we look at it as our due. We never think of thinking the little ones whose tiny feet run so many errands. "Because they have nothing else to do." Perhaps not, but surprise them once with a "thank you, dear," and the effect is magical. No doubt they are willing enough now to do for you, but politeness is cheap, and like charity, it should begin at home. It is said to see how impolite members of a family treat each other with never a thought of thanks. Be profuse in your thanks, rather than not say enough, but be sincere.

Be Something

There is a moral grandeur in the thought—"I have made myself." The world may wag their heads, and you may be denounced, but if you are conscious of that integrity or purpose which has always characterized you, and that you now stand on an eminence, placed there by your own rectitude of heart, you have nothing to fear. You had not the influence of wealth, nor the "God speed you" of powerful friends; but you had more—a heart fixed and determined, and this is what has made you what you are. Go on—add virtue to virtue—look steadily at the goal before you, and at last your best teachers and artful companions will acknowledge your superiority and feel proud of being among the number of your friends. The man who is resolved to be something in the world should have nothing to fear, and when the little dreams of it hover are gathering about his head and an influence goes out from him, which is exerted silently but surely for the good of thousands.

Belief in Luck

We are a firm believer in luck; that if a young man be diligent and looks well to all his ways, he will have what the world terms luck. If he aspires to eminence in some calling or profession, and with fixed resolves determinedly pursues the route thither, luck will land him there at last. If the courts favor, his position in life or great honors, and strives earnestly, patiently, persistently and bravely, luck will satiate every longing desire. If it is his purpose to win in any walk in life that his ambition may suggest, if he wisely and judiciously makes use of the powers in his possession and the opportunities of life, luck will grant them. Luck, like faith, to make it available must be accompanied by works, and the more earnest the work the better will be the luck or greater the faith. Luck follows labor and effort and it will help you over difficulties if you strive the same as it will help you over a ditch if you jump. Luck will put a bit of bacon into your pot if you look well after your garden and keep a pig. Luck generally comes to those who look after it, and our notion is it taps, once in a lifetime at every man's door but if industry does not open it away it goes.

Labor Versus Idleness

There is no blight like the blight of idleness. It is in the unworked garden that weeds grow. It is in the stagnant water that disease germs waken to horrid life. It is in the calm that mariners lose heart, and from the spent battle-fields pestilence, more dreaded foe than the red carnage of war. Ennai palls upon a brave heart as prostrated peace falls upon a true soldier. Ennai is like a long winded, amiable, but waters-ideaed friend who dropped in to see us and dribbles platitudes until every nerve stands out like porcupine quills and we long for the advent of an enemy. Ennai is like being forced to eat meat without salt, or to drink tepid water. Labor, on the contrary, if it be remunerated labor, is a friend with grit and endurance in his makeup. It comes to us as a wind visits the forest, and sets all our faculties stirring, as the wind ruffles the tree tops. It saltens up our meat and spices our drink.

The "Chanteleur" Craze

"Imagine it! Just a common, barnyard rooster and yet he is the new fashion fad of the hour," says Grace Margaret Gouin in Woman's Home Companion for June. "Perhaps, in days gone by, before Edmund Rostand's play, 'Chanteleur,' electrified Paris, there were roosters scattered here and there in prosperous-looking barn-yards who thought themselves quite the finest things ever in their own feathered world. Vain and domineering, they were, but never, in their wildest dreams of the happy future did they picture themselves strutting into the fashion world of both Paris and New York.

"And yet that is just what has happened. Since Rostand chose the fowls of the barnyard for the characters in his play, the fair Parisienne has been wearing the chanteleur hat in varied forms. She has gazed at you in her most bewitching way through the filmy meshes of her veil with its startling rooster design. Her newest silk jacket suggests a rooster's tail in shape, her parasol has a rooster's head for its handle and everywhere this barnyard king seems to reign supreme in the realm of fashion.

"Curious and startling, isn't it? And yet our American girls are doing like wise. The chanteleur fad is upon us but it is safe to say it is only a passing fancy."

A Hospitality Hint

When I expect a guest from a distance, I purchase a number of souvenir post-cards of our home town and after stamping them place them on the desk in the room where they can be addressed back without any shopping being done by her guest.—From Woman's Home Companion.

Canada's Next Census Of Population

The next census of Canada will be taken under date of June 1st 1911, and will embrace the subjects of population, mortality, agriculture, manufactures, minerals, fisheries and dairy products. Population will be recorded under the heads of residence and personal description, citizenship, nationality and religion, profession, occupation and trade or means of living; wage-earnings and insurance; education and language spoken and infirmities.

Every person living on 1st June will be entered on the schedule of population by name, as member of a family, institution or household, together with place of habitation, sex, relationship to head of the family or household, and whether single, married, widowed, divorced or legally separated. The month of birth, year of birth and age at last birthday will also be recorded.

Entries will be made for each person to show the country or place of birth, year of immigration to Canada if born elsewhere, year of naturalization if formerly an alien, and also racial or tribal origin, nationality and religion. Every person of alien birth who has become a naturalized citizen is a Canadian by nationality; and every British subject with residence in Canada, as well as every native of Canada who has acquired citizenship by birth or naturalization, is also a Canadian by nationality. That there is no Canadian by racial or tribal origin, unless the Indians are so counted.

Every person having an occupation or trade will be entered for it, but if employed in the census year at some other occupation for part of whole time he will be so made. An entry is also required to be made showing where the person is employed, as on farm, in woolen mill, as foundry shop, in drug store, etc.

Wage-earners are entered to show the number of weeks employed in 1910 at chief occupation or trade; at other than chief occupation if any, the hours of working time per week at chief occupation, or at other occupation if any, the total earnings in 1910 at chief occupation, and the rate per hour when employed by the hour.

Entries are required to be made for each person showing the amount of insurance held at date of the census upon life, as well as against accident or sickness, together with the cost of such insurance in the census year.

Under the heading of education and language records will be taken for every person of five years of age and over showing the number of months at school in 1910, and if the person can read and write, and the language commonly spoken by each person. The cost of education in 1910 for persons over 12 years of age at College, Convent or University is also called for.

The last question on the schedule of population relates to infirmities. It calls for a record of each person having an infirmity. If blind, deaf and dumb, crazy or lunatic, idiotic or silly, a record thereof will be made in the proper column and the age at which the infirmity appeared is required to be specified.

Nothing in the way of a cough is quite so annoying as a tickling, teasing, wheezing, bronchial cough. The quickest relief comes perhaps from a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And besides it is thoroughly harmless that mothers give it with perfect safety even to the youngest babies. The tender leaves of a simple mountain shrub, give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its remarkable curative effect. It is truly a most certain and trustworthy prescription. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Shoop's Asaya-Neurall
THE NEW REMEDY FOR Nervous Exhaustion
Since the tissues receive their tone from the nerve centres, lustrous eyes, a clear complexion and symmetrical figure can only be preserved by maintaining full nerve vigor. When the mirror warns, "ASAYA-NEURALL" is required. It feeds the nerves, induces sleep, quickens the appetite, aids digestion, and restores the sparkling radiance of full nerve vitality. $1.50 per bottle. Local agent.

Gas Distended His Stomach Caused Palpitation, and Prevented Sleep. When Health Was Gone, Cure Followed Use of "Nerviline."

"My last wish will be," writes Harry P. Poland, a well-known boat and shoe traveller of Hartford, "that everyone with a bad stomach may learn as I did, before it's too late, that Nerviline is the one remedy to cure. Why, I was in mighty bad shape, my digestion was all wrong, and every night I would awaken with a start and find my heart jumping NO. 4800 like a threshing machine. This was caused by gas on my stomach pressing against my heart. When I started to use Nerviline I got better mighty fast. It is certainly a grand remedy for the travelling man, keeps your stomach in order, cures cramps, prevents lamboago or rheumatism, breaks up chest colds and sore throat—in fact there hasn't been an ache or pain inside or outside for the past two years that I haven't cured with Nerviline. Do you wonder I recommend it?"

For general household use Nerviline has no equal; it will cure the aches and ailments of the entire family—refuse anything but Nerviline. In two sizes 50c. and 25c. All dealers or the Carrhazone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Rescue Appliances In Mines.

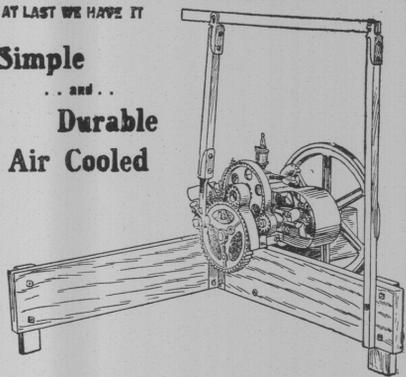

Mr. Winston Churchill has introduced legislation in the British Parliament designed to provide additional safeguards against such colliery disasters as recently occurred at Whitehaven in England. The new legislation has been received with a chorus of approval in the Old Country, and has been described by Mr. Keir Hardie, M. P., as a new hope for the miners of the United Kingdom. Much has been done by legislation during the last forty or fifty years, to lessen the number of mining accidents in Great Britain. In the five-year period from 1851-55 the fatal accidents in mines was 5,149 per thousand of the men employed. Since then there has been a reduction of nearly three-quarters, the rate of a similar period, 1896 to 1900, having been 1,473 per thousand. More recently, however the casualty and accident rates have been stationary, and last year 141,851 miners were injured and scores were killed. The dangers of colliery work are said to be increasing owing to the greater depths of the shafts and to the use of new inventions and electricity. The new legislation introduced by Mr. Churchill has set a much higher standard of safety in coal mining. The number of inspectors is to be increased, and the experiment is to be made of recruiting the ranks partly from among the miners themselves. It is expected that the authorities will have the co-operation of the men's unions, similar to that in vogue at the Board of Trade. Complete sets of rescue apparatus will be kept within a half-hour's reach by motor car of every mine. A rescue corps will be established at each mine, and the men will be trained and regularly exercised in the use of the appliances provided. As a result of these measures, it is hoped that the accident rate will be reduced to a minimum, and that everything that human skill can do will be done to avert those heart-rending tragedies in the lives of colliery workers.

A book on Rheumatism, by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., tells some plain truths, and in a plain and practical way. Get this treatment of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy for some disheartened sufferer in your vicinity: Make a grateful and appreciative friend of some one who is discouraged because of the failures of others to help him. Help me to make this test, and I'll certainly help your suffering friend.

New Buildings for Big Fair
Dominion Exhibition at St. John Necessitates More Structures

Arrangements for special features of the Dominion Exhibition, to be held at St. John, N. B., September 5th to 15th, are progressing most successfully. Surveys have already been made for the new buildings, the chief of which will be the Horticultural structure. This will be 60 by 150 feet in size, 3 stories high, and containing upwards of 20,000 square feet of floor space. It will adjoin the large southerly wing of the Main Industrial building, and will be erected in an easterly direction towards Courtenay Bay. In this new building the Agricultural, Horticultural, Dairy, Educational and Women's Work departments will be housed, thus relieving the main structure of much pressure for space, and making room thereby for scores of western exhibitors, whose applications for space are already in hand. The activity of St. John Board of Trade members in securing local Provincial and Maritime Provincial exhibits to offset the competition of western concerns makes it look as if there will hardly be enough space to accommodate all who desire to take part in the big show.
However, the Exhibition Management,
by urging prospective exhibitors to make early application, are enabled each day
to better gauge the ultimate result.

Jack Johnson, Reformer.

The people of the United States may not erect statues in the public squares of great cities, but he appears to deserve special honor of some kind for his eminent services to the cause of moral and social reform. Prior to his appearance at Reno, prize-fight pictures were a popular feature of moving picture shows.
The public conscience had not been aroused. But Mr. Johnson has started a revival of almost sensational character proportions. Old and hardened sinners have rushed to the penitentiary form, and openly announced the prize-fighter and all his works. Mr. Johnson's methods have not been those of the traditional reformer, but they seem to have been wonderful effective. Every one of his jobs and nooks, to say nothing of his upper-cuts, appears to have carried conviction.
Should not this man, who has precipitated a moral revolution, receive some signal honor at the hands of his countrymen? He should at least be elected to congress. That legislative body has in the last few years developed some pugnacious members, and Mr. Johnson's fine qualities of heart and fist should find free scope for useful exercise. It is true the mayor and chief of police of Chicago have frowned upon a demonstration in his honor, but Chicago is a notorious wicked city.—Times.

The Best of the Bargain.

(From Lippincott's)
A conscientious Sunday School teacher had been contemplating the progress of the school with some interest. One day he happened to see a young boy who had been absent for some time. He called him to him and asked him why he had not come to school. The boy replied that he had been thinking about the school and the teacher's kindness, and that he had decided to come back. The teacher was very pleased and gave him a special prize. The boy was very happy and went back to school with a new confidence.

BIRDS SONGS.

A recently published bird anthology is entitled, "The Fine of the Singing of of Birds." Among the later poetry of birds it includes Meredith's "Lark Ascending" and Father Tabb's "The Long-ly Mountain."
"One bird, that ever with the waken-
ing spring
Was wont to sing:
I wait, through all my woodlands, far
and near,
In vain to hear.
The voice of many waters, silent long,
Breaks forth in song;
Young breezes to the lusting leaves out-pour
Their heavenly lore:
A thousand other winged warblers
Sweet,
Returning greet
Their fellows, and rebuild upon my breast
The wonted nest,
But into me one fond, familiar strain
Comes not again—
A breath whose faintest echo, farthest
heard,
A mountain stirrel."

Life a Race.

Our life is a race, a struggle for an immense and wonderful prize to come at its end; and a prize which will never be offered again if we do not secure it at this time. If we fail in this world our failure can never be retrieved; nor will anything else be offered for us to live for. For all eternity we shall see what we have made, and shall be tormented or in raptures; and nothing else will give us a moment's peace.
This eternity will be intolerable, even were there no sufferings in it; but on account of this doubt we shall seek death forever, and never find it. From this race, this struggle, we are now in there is no escape. We cannot withdraw and have our name taken from the list of contestants. In a, we have to run in this race on which everything depends,
let us not trifle and lose its precious moments, but so run that we may win.—
Psalist.

Too Last Straw.

A certain justice in Kentucky, by reason of his high temper, found considerable difficulty in controlling individuals in the court room. On one occasion there was a peculiar case. At last the judge could stand it no longer. "It is impossible to have this persistent contempt in court," he exclaimed, "and I am now forced to go to the extreme length of taking the one step that I will take." There followed a long silence in the Court. Finally one of the leading counsel rose and without the suspicion
of a smile asked: "If please your honor,
do you think she will ever resign?"

Why We All.

There are many people that are very kind, and very generous, and very much to be admired. But they are not very common. They are very much to be admired, and they are very much to be admired.

Proper Use of Hot Weather

What if it is hot? Summer's supposed to be hot. And to a soul properly tempered with philosophy and common sense such weather is like the frosting of a cake of summer.

Fear of sunshine is probably a relic
of the cave days. Now we know that dark caves are unhygienic and melancholious.
The present generation is slowly acquiring a taste for the sun. Sun worship is the worst of all religions, and we seem to be swinging back to it.

For be it known that all health, as well as energy, comes from the sun.
Sunshine is the mightiest force for physical comfort and happiness if you don't take too much at once. And if you accustom yourself to it gradually, you can't get too much. Properly seasoned and tanned, one can soak up unconscionable quantities of sunshine with measur-less benefit to body and soul.

The morning's time. After an hour or two in the park, on the water,
along a country road or lying at length
on one's own lawn, there need be no fear of a climbing thermometer. The maternal basking renders one immune and after that the hot afternoon sun is not a furnace fire beating down on throbbing heads; it is merely a genial warmth. And the hot office, after the sunny innoculation, seems cool. One can work in serene comfort, even though there be no electric fan.—Cleveland

President Hays, of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, who has just returned from a tour of inspection of the construction work in the West, states that the General Manager, Mr. Chamberlain, still thinks that the road will be finished
to Prince Rupert by 1912.

Mr. Hays says that it is all matter of getting the necessary labor. Common railroad laborers are very very scarce and refuse to work even at the rate of 27 1-2 cents per hour. Considering everything, the National Transcontental Railway is being built with unprecedented speed, and in the natural order of events, the time is not far distant when 'the Hong Kong train' will be a reality in Halifax.

A falling tiny nerve—so heavy than the finest silken thread—takes from the Heart its impulse, its power its regularity. The Stomach also has its hidden or inside. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak and failing Stomach, Heart or Kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restoratives—directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and fltering side nerves. This no-doubt clear explains why the Best Restoratives have grown so rapidly in popularity. Medi-cists say that those who object to the Restoratives even for a wonderful cure. Any one don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by all dealers.

The Navy Uniforms.

The naval milliners are at work designing the uniforms for the Canadian navy, and have declared that they shall be the same as those used in the British navy, with the exception that the buttons are to bear the maple leaf instead of the laurel leaves. It is a change to which no objection can be offered, and for which much may be said in its favor.

Father Morrissey's No. 7 Cured His Rheumatism in 3 Weeks.

Father Morrissey's prescription, called
"No. 7," cures Rheumatism completely as well as quickly as Mr.
James Major, of Harland, N.B., gladly testifies.
"I want to tell you," he writes, "of the wonderful cure Father Morrissey's medicine made of me. I was troubled with Rheumatism so badly that I could not get into my warm shoes. After using his medicine for three weeks I was completely cured, and I feel like a boy."
"I am now a man of 75 years of age,
and in good health, thanks to Father Morrissey's medicine. I owe all thanks to him for his truly divine remedy for Rheumatism, and thus permanently
cured."

Jokers' Column

Company officer—In which direction
can you see furthest?
Promising Rescuer—The way I looks.

"They say she's fickle."
"Nonsense! I know three fellows she was engaged to for over a year."

"How do you account for this warm weather?"
"Bless your soul, I don't have to account for it."

"Many a man," remarked the home-grown philosopher, "spends his courting days in telling a girl he is unworthy of her, and his married life in proving it."

Mrs. Sububs (who has hired a man to plant shade trees)—Digging out the holes
I see, Mr. Lannigan.
Lannigan—No, mum; Of'm diggin out
the dirt and lavin' the holes.

Blotts—Jones has gone in business for Blotts—Going to be his own boss, eh?

Blotts—Well, not exactly. He's married, you know.

"Say asked the first messenger boy,
"got any novels ter swoop?"
"I got 'Big Foot Bill's Revenge," replied the other.

"Is it a long story?"
"Naw! Ye kin finish it easy in two messages."

Johnny, what are you going to do
when you grow up?
"I'm goin' to run away an' be a pirate."

"Like Captain Kidd?"
"Shucks, naw! 'Im going ter play

mother in the cistern.

"You treat that man very respectful."
"Yes; he's one of our early settlers you know."

"An early settler? Why, man, he's not more than 40."
"No, but he pays his bills on the 1st of every month."

I knew that young doctor wanted to

"Why so?"

"Then he called professionally. I'll winter to furnish the fat."

"Look here," said one of the jury-men
after they had retired. "If I understand right, the plaintiff does not ask damages for lighted afflictions or anything of that sort, but only wants to get back
what he's spent on presents, pleasure trips, and so forth."
"That is so," agreed the foreman.

"Well, then, I vote we don't give him a penny, said the other hastily. "If all the fun he had with that girl didn't cost the amount he expended it must be the girl's fault."

"I understand that you called on the plaintiff. Is that so?"

"Yes," replied the witness.

"What did he say?"

"The attorney for the plaintiff asked me the last and of."

"What would he say?"

"I don't know, but I think he was very much surprised when he found that the plaintiff was a very rich man."

About a Post Office.

How long must St. George be content with its present unattractive post office and custom house building?

To have a small unattractive post office such as we have is nothing more nor less than a disgrace to the town; so with our custom house.

Neither building is capable of carrying on the business of two of the governments' most important departments. A citizen of public spirit is almost, if not fully ashamed to point either building out to strangers. As a fairly good sized town, and the centre of New Brunswick's granite industry, and one of the prettiest summer resorts in Canada, St. George should have a building of stone for the housing of government offices.

We realize that the present federal government has done much for Charlotte Co. in general, but this is St. George's one particular need.

It has been often mentioned and discussed and now we appeal to the government to give us this long felt need: an attractive, substantial, government building. The question of situation is of minor importance and is a problem easily solved. Would not the corner of Portage and Carleton streets be a favorable spot? Some say "no," other say "yes." However, it is a question for later discussion. We will not "count our chickens before they are hatched."

Let us compare our town in this respect with others. Has not St. Andrews a fine stone structure? Has not St. Stephen the same? Then why are we left out? It is to be hoped that the present unsatisfactory condition of affairs will soon be remedied. We need a new post office, we should have a new post office, we must have a new post office, and we will have a new post office... but when.

Earl Grey

Earl Grey may possibly stay, is not rhyme but reason. If it should come true, all Canada will rejoice. We are getting bigger day by day and year by year and we want a big governor general. Earl Grey is a big man. He has a courtesy which is edifying, a breadth of view which is educational, and a sympathetic consideration which is exceptional. Now that we cannot have the Duke of Connaught, who must remain in England to help his Royal Nephew who is brotherless, we would much prefer Lord Grey to any other member of the much-abused House of Lords. His over-running his term might be a bad precedent, but in this unconventional and daring community precedents count for little. If someone whom we did not like endeavoured to use the precedent, it would not be hard to find a way to circumvent him. Their Excellencies have made no enemies and have gained a host of friends, and all Canada would rejoice if these popular occupants of Rideau Hall were permitted to remain with us for another year.

Mrs. Proude, That Mrs. Guenzenhemer makes me tired.
Mr. Proude, Why so?
Mrs. Proude, Why, this afternoon when I asked her in the presence of a number of strangers how she liked my new hat she said, "Just exactly as well as any I saw last season."
Mr. Proude, But I don't see anything criminal in that.
Mrs. Proude, You don't! Well, I do! It is a last season's hat.

Some Interesting Statistics

Shall we take restaurant keeping. The Standard Oil interests control one "chain" of restaurants and the American Tobacco interests control another.

Or printing? One house in New York issues and prints twenty periodicals, and the small independent printer, like the small independent publisher is disappearing.

Milk? The Standard Oil interests, with the Milk Trust.

Foundries or iron works? The Steel Trust looks after them.

Tobacco? The United Cigars Stores Company owns about six hundred retail stores and will own many more when the present chances of litigation are removed.

Machinery? Largely controlled by institutions like the American Shoe Manufacturing Trust, a particularly vicious form of these combinations.

Men's Clothing? Passing into the "chain" system. One Company owns thirty-seven clothing stores in the west.

Bank? Owned and controlled chiefly by the Standard Oil, Morgan or Beef Trust "chains."

Butcher shop? Under process of absorption through the absorbed grocery stores, or becoming practical agencies for the Beef Trust.

The department stores constantly increase in number and in size.

What does that mean?

It means that the men that in a past generation would have been independent merchants are now the employees of these stores, and never can be anything else; employes on wages with "time checks, fines, and their daily work dependent up on a manager's caprice. That is their prospect in life. It is hard (in some of its aspects), and we dislike to admit it, but it is the truth.

The gigantic department stores and mail order houses are built of the ruins of independent stores, and each independent store destroyed is an independent merchant turned into a salaried employee.—From "The Power Behind the Republic," by Charles Edward Russell, in "Success Magazine."

Portland Ore Has Fire Loss of $300,000.

Portland, Oregon, July 14—Fire which broke out at one o'clock this morning in the old exposition building, caused a loss estimated at at least two deaths and $300,000. Two hundred horses were burned in the exposition building. Half a dozen apartment houses were destroyed and the Mulmah Athletic Club was burned. One of the dead is Frank R. Price, of Oregon City, who with three other men, was sleeping in the Fashion Stables. It is not known if the other escaped. The firemen checked the flames just as they reached the Studebaker Automobile Company warehouse and so som.

Baseball.

On Saturday next a game of baseball will be held on the local diamond between the crack Campbell aggregation and our local nine.
 Since their defeat on July 1st our boys have put in some hard and faithful practice and should put up a good game; the Campbell boys need no recommendation as they have been winners in several games this season. An admission of 25c. will be charged to gentlemen and ladies and children will be charged 10c. The proceeds will be used to buy uniforms for our local team. With this object in view there should be a large attendance. Large crowds from Back Bay, Letice, Beaver Harbor, Blacks Harbor, Letang and Pennfield are expected. A good exhibition of baseball is promised. Don't fail to attend.

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Report of the Annual Convention of the Charlotte County Sunday School Association, held at Grand Harbor on July 9-10, 1910

Charlotte County Sunday School Association met for its twenty-fifth annual convention at Grand Harbor, Saturday July 9th, at 3 o'clock. About 64 delegates boarded the S. S. Aurors at St. Stephen. These were joined by others at St. Andrews and Eastport and 85 delegates and visitors arrived at North Head enroute to Grand Harbor. The sail down the beautiful St. Croix was thoroughly enjoyed by all, but after passing through the channel into the waters of "Old Fundy" which were somewhat disturbed by the strong south wind blowing at the time, there seemed to be quite a disturbance among the passengers. However, after rounding the North Head, all seemed to be at peace again, and when the boat pulled in at the wharf, the large crowd standing on the wharf were greeted by the smiling and happy faces of as fine a crowd of Sunday school workers as ever graced the deck of a steamer. The drive to Grand Harbor in teams provided by the ever obliging and courteous hostler of North Harbor, Mr. N. McLean, was one to be remembered. All were driven to the convention church at Grand Harbor, where the entertainment committee were waiting to assign them in their homes. While the delegates were registering and the assignment going on the first session was opened with a song service led by Mr. W. H. Farnham. At 8.15 President Farnham took the chair, and after the reading of the scripture by Rev. A. F. Brown and prayer by Rev. C. Sterling, the 25th convention was declared open. In a very simple and pleasing manner, Rev. A. F. Brown gave a very warm welcome to the Association, which was answered by Mr. P. G. McFarlane of St. Stephen, in his usual hearty and genial way. In the absence of Sec. A. Murray, Mr. J. S. Lord of Deer Island was appointed secretary pro tem. The following committees were Richardson appointed: Nominating, Resolution and Enrollment Committees. Reports were then given by the Statistical Soc., Miss Agnes Boyd, and Treas. P. G. McFarlane. These were received and ordered to be placed on record. The reports from the Supts. of the different departments were not forth coming, excepting the Home Dept. Miss Laura Peaks, Supt., and the I. R. R. A. Dept., Mr. A. Murray, Supt. who sent in their reports to be read. The others evidently did not have enough interest in the work to even send in a report of "no progress." Mrs. G. F. Hibbard was the only Parish President that reported; Mr. Stanley Wilson, vice-president for Dambarton, gave a report for that parish, which closed the first session. The delegates were then sent to their respective homes to get the much needed rest and nourishment.

Sunday morning dawned with fog, but at nine o'clock this had all cleared away and Grand Manan was seen in all her glory. The day was all that could be desired as far as the weather man was concerned. The second session opened at 9.30 with a delightful song service, after which Pres. Farnham took the chair, and the minutes of the first session were read and approved. The Presidents address was then given, which was certainly a great surprise to all who heard it on account of the facts concerning Charlotte Co. contained therein. This was received and placed on record. An address was then given by Mr. Stanley Wilson, entitled, "The call of our nearest neighbor" which was a master-piece. Mr. Wilson is certainly to be congratulated upon the effect it produced upon all who heard it, which effect was demonstrated later when Mr. Wilson was unanimously chosen vice-president of the County. After scripture reading and prayer by Mr. Geo. Simpson of Fair Haven, the Convention sermon was preached by Rev. C. Sterling of Oak Bay, Subject, "The Sunday school and its great commission." Text: Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature and "Go home to thy friends and tell them what great things God hath done for thee." The preacher had a packed house and held his audience for 45 minutes, while he delivered to them in words of earnest entreaty Christ's message to His followers. A touching solo, "Help Somebody to day" was rendered by Mr. W. H. Farnham. The session then closed. The third session was one long to be remembered by those fortunate enough to gain admittance to the church. Even standing room was at premium. In the absence of Pres. Farnham, who had gone with Rev. C. Sterling to White Head to hold a meeting, vice-president for Grand Manan, Mr. C. L. Dakin, led the song service and occupied the chair. After scripture reading Mr. Milton Perry, and prayer by Mr. Andrew Malcolm of St. Stephen of the Provincial Association "A Sunday school in session" was conducted by Mr. McFarlane, and was declared by everybody who heard it to be the finest they ever heard. The address "Christ and the Child" by Rev. S. Howard, was listened to with deep interest, all feeling sorry that the time was so short. Mrs. W. C. Matthews followed in her ever pleasing style with an address, "The Supplemental work." Mrs. Matthews also spoke at Seal Cove in the morning, assisted by Mr. P. G. McFarlane, and in the evening at North Head, assisted by Mr. Stanley Wilson. The fourth session which was held on Sunday evening, was the climax of the Convention. Long before the song service, which was led by Mr. Farnham was ended, the church was well filled, and by the time the chair was taken by the President every available space was taken up and many were outside unable to get it. It is estimated that over 500 people were present at this closing. The scripture lesson was read by S. Howard, the congregation raising and repeating the Lord's prayer. The minutes of the last meeting and approved Rev. C. Sterling then delivered an able address, subject, "The Sunday school and Spirituality." Then came the reports of Committees. The Resolution Committee reported that a vote of thanks of this Convention be extended to, (a) the trustees of the Grand Harbor church for the use of their building, (b) to the organist, Mrs. Milton Perry, and the Choir for their efficient help, (c) to the Grand Manan S. S. Co., the Deer Island & Campbell's S. S. Co., the C. P. R. and N. B. S. railroads for their great reduction in fare, and lastly to the good people of Grand Harbor for their generous hospitality. These resolutions were unanimously adopted and carried out. The Enrollment Committee reported 76 delegates registered, of whom 24 were Presbyterians, 18 Baptists, 13 Methodists, 2 Episcopalians, 2 Universalists and 12 Deceps. There were 4 pastors, 8 Supts., 30 teachers and 34 scholars. The Nominating Committee reported as follows: "For Pres., Mr. W. H. Farnham, Vice-president, Mr. Stanley Wilson, Sec., Miss Agnes Boyd, and recording Sec., Mr. A. Murray." Mr. Farnham earnestly requested that another name be considered for Pres., but a standing vote, when practically every one in the vast audience arose, decided that Mr. Farnham and his colleagues must continue in office for another year. The Provincial Pres., Mr. Andrew Malcolm, then reviewed the work of the Convention, congratulating the Association upon the grand work that has been accomplished during the past year, and also upon the fact that as every school in the Maritime Provinces. He further congratulated them upon the re-election of their President. He believed it would be next to impossible to replace Brother Farnham, and much as he desired his help as Supt. of the Provincial Temperance Dept. He would rather lose him there, than from the presidency of Char. County. A short address of farewell was then given to the delegates and visitors by Pres. Farnham, when the 25th Convention closed its year after Pres. Farnham singing by request, "Help Somebody to-day," and the congregation singing, "God be with you till we meet again." The benediction was then pronounced by Rev. S. Howard. The collections of the Convention were recorded, breaking, over $40.00 being realized.

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

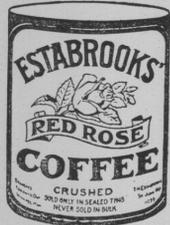

The Crops and Live Stock of Canada.

Ottawa, July 12.—The census and statistics office today reports on the condition of field crops and the number and condition of farm animals of the Dominion at June 30. For the three years 1908 to 1910 the field crops range in condition from 82.16 for spring wheat to 91.42 for hay and clover this year to 80 for spring wheat and 82 for rye and peas in 1908. Fall wheat is 86.47 compared with 77.28 in 1909 and 89 in 1908. Oats were 90 in 1908 and 93.81 in 1909 and this year it is 86.29. Peas is 86.94 this year, last year it was 84.40 and in the previous year 82. The condition of mixed grains is nearly the same, being 84.53 this year, 86.58 last year and 84 in 1908. Hay and clover is better this year than in any of the previous years, being 91.42 compared with 76 in 1909 and 87 in 1908. The condition of alfalfa has been recorded this year for the first time, and its average is 88.94. Pasture has a condition of 89.02 this year, compared with 99 in 1908 and 87.74 last year. The condition of all field crops are good in Ontario, the highest being 94.29 for fall wheat and the lowest 84.79 for spring wheat. Quebec crops range from 74.45 for mixed grains to 102.58 for hay and clover. In Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia all field crops are reported for a condition above 90 except alfalfa, which is 83.33 in the Island. Hay and clover is 104.31 in the island and 105.79 in Nova Scotia. Wheat, oats, mixed grain and alfalfa are reported in a condition above 90 in New Brunswick, and all her crops between 83 and 89 except alfalfa, which is 97. Hay and clover are reported at 109.68. Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have low averages throughout owing to a light rainfall in June. The general condition of crops in Manitoba is much below the average, corresponding in nearly every district to a normal year, only a few light showers and hot dry winds that absorbed the moisture and withered the crops. The west average condition is reported on around Brandon and Morden, and the highest from Marquette where it is rated at a standard. In Saskatchewan crops do not appear to have suffered on climatic conditions to the same extent as in either Manitoba or Alberta, as there have been many local showers. Reports from Lloydminster, Battleford, Indian Head and Qu'Appelle are very favorable, the condition of wheat placed at 100 and over. The prevailing condition of crops in that part of the south of townships No 30 is better average in consequence of drouth hot winds. In the Edmonton district the grains, although suffering to extent from the same causes, are in a much better condition. The best reports come from the Strathcona district, those from Athabasca Landing and the Lake districts are also particularly favorable. The field crops of British Columbia are all good; the areas of wheat, buckwheat, flax, corn for silage, have increased this year to 50,382 acres which is 279,526 acres more than last year and 247,869 acres more than in 1908. But this increase is together in flax, which owing to the high price offered for seed has come in favor with the farmers of the Northwest. The only farm animals which show a noticeable increase since 1907 are horses, sheep and swine have declined. Condition of all these animals over Dominion exceeds 99.

His Accomplice

When a kind old lady in walking along a north side residence street beheld a small boy struggling vainly to reach something between the gratings of a tall iron fence surrounding a palatial residence she paused to watch his operations. The object of his quest she discovered to be a handsome mechanical toy, an automobile that would run when wound up. The boy had a stick with which he was trying to pull the machine toward him, but as he could scarcely reach it the struggle was well nigh hopeless. "Let me try it," said the old lady. "My arm is longer than yours." "All right," replied the youngster, relinquishing the stick. Getting down on her knees, the old lady, by dint of much stretching and careful manipulation, gradually worked the machine toward the fence and at last had the satisfaction of seeing the little boy grasp it with eager fingers. "Now," she said, "you must be more careful and not let it get away from you again." "Gee," said the boy, "it never goes away from me, an' it ain't goin' to either." "Wh-wh-why," faltered the old lady, with the dawning of a horrible suspicion, "isn't it yours?" "You bet it's mine now," said the kid, and away he scampered, leaving the good old lady alone with her conscience. —Atlanta Constitution.

Dodged the Duels

Literary men in dueling times and countries have always been rather prone to get into trouble from which only a passage at arms could extricate them. Voltaire had at various turns a number of duels on his hands, but counted among them to which did not reach the expected climax. One of these was his affair with the Chevalier de Rohan Chabot, who goaded him to the point of fighting and then, instead of giving him the satisfaction demanded, had him lured into a coach and soundly whipped with switches by some hirelings concealed there. Voltaire, after trying in vain to induce one of his noble friends to back him in his further pursuit of his enemy, appealed to the municipal authority in these phrases: "I humbly represent that I have been brutally assaulted by the courageous Chevalier de Rohan, aided by six cutthroats, behind whom he was bravely posted. Ever since that time I have sought to restore not my honor, but his, a task too difficult." As this public affront failed to produce any effect, Voltaire hunted out the chevalier one evening at the theater and flung insults in his face there. Rohan at last consented to meet him, but contrived to let the news reach other members of the Rohan family, who had Voltaire arrested and thrown into the Bastille. —New York Post.

The original night school was the wren't-go-home-till-morning kind.

Popular Jokes.

To maintain oneself on this earth is not a hardship, but a pastime, if one will live simply and wisely.

The sympathy that doesn't cost anything is the kind that is most popular with the disseminators.

A man can't help believing what he hears when it is commendatory and all about himself.

We hear a lot about loss of sleep, but seldom hear of any one having found a stray lot.

Hubbubs—I suppose you keep chickens out at your place.

Subbubs—Well, in a way. I've managed to keep six out of about 50 I started with.

'What was you askin' for the widder's bonnet, mum?'

'Well-er, I thought ninenepe.'

'Es very ill, mum. I think I'll risk it.'

Law is an expensive thing to have anything to do with, and they never give you free samples so you can judge whether you like it or not before investing.

The Pastor—It is very wrong, indeed, to profit by other people's mistakes.

The Parishioner—Then you don't take a fee for marrying people, eh, parson? —Browning's Magazine.

Benson was a good friend of mine and I hated to lose him. He always wore a cheerful smile and seemed in the best of spirits. It will be hard to find another fellow so genial, so full of the joy of life.

'What's the matter?' Has Benson left town for good?'

'No.'

'Surely he isn't dead?'

'No. He borrowed $5 from me this morning.'

When the people of the rest of Europe were little better than barbarians the Spanish Moors were in the midst of a splendid culture. As early as the tenth century this country was the source of learning for all Europe. Their libraries, schools, arts, sciences, luxurious refinement and all round material and intellectual advancement differentiated them from the rest of Europe as clearly as ancient Greece was from the peoples that surrounded it.

The most popular joke which has been published in any language in the history of the world is stated to be that which appeared in an obscure corner of the Punch almanac of 1845. It read: 'Advice to persons about to marry—Don't! It would be interesting to know who was its author. Another founded on a similar subject, was the 'Advice to persons who have fallen in love—Fall out!' One of the most brilliant things that ever appeared in our contemporary was the brief dialogue between an inquiring child and his impatient parent: 'What is mind?' 'No matter.' 'What is matter?' 'Never mind.' —Westminster Gazette.

'If I had a dollar for every time a barber has asked me if I wanted that mole removed,' remarked a man the other day after he left a tonsorial shop and was drawing his hand across a smooth shaven face. 'I would go down to the office in the morning and tell the company to give my job to the man who really needed the money, and then I would start on a long trip and just enjoy myself the rest of my days. Every time I meet a new barber he asks me if I want him to remove that mole, and I tell him I do not. As a rule, I can train a barber in four lessons not to ask the question, but a man can't always get the same lather pedler in a shop, and the question continues to come at me. As a matter of fact, I need that mole. If I wanted it removed I would not expect a barber to do it anyway. Why can't barbers refrain from asking the question? It isn't their mole. It's my mole. It's always been mine too.' —Detroit News.

Immense Damage From Brush Fires

Eschraire, Wis., July 11.—A survey of districts in Northern Wisconsin which have suffered from the forest fires estimates the total damage of the last three weeks to be more than three million dollars, divided as follows: Pinerick, north of Eschraire and Chippewa Falls, $1,000,000; Wisconsin Central, $2,000,000; companies operating from Marinette, in Northern Wisconsin, Wausau and Rhineland, $1,500,000; Washburne and territory north of Ashland and toward Superior, $500,000. So far as is definitely known, there was no loss of life. The first swept through much standing timber scattered pine and hardwood.

The burned area extends about fifty miles north of Prentiss, and is about forty miles wide between Stanley and Thorpe. The heaviest losses are lumber and logging camps. Twenty-five villages in the burned district narrowly escaped destruction. The homes of more than 300 families were burned last week. As the result of destruction of personal belongings and shortness of food supply the suffering is great. Much felled timber was destroyed.

Hunting Sea Rats Buy Island As Preserve.

South Norwalk, Conn., July 11.—That the missing link in the rat family might be discovered and studied, the Carnegie Institute recently purchased Goose Island, in Long Island Sound, off this place, and the hunt is now on. It seems that there is a monster sea rodent whose exact position in the rat family has never been ascertained. Certainly it required several of the most learned professors in the land, a corps of assistants and 150 new-fangled traps to appease the desires of science, all of which followed the purchase of the deserted institute.

The researches are under the direction of Prof. Davenport of the Carnegie Institute of Cold Spring, L. D. Shatzi, a Japanese professor, and Dr. J. Stotsenburg Ridgell Park.

The next experiment of the institute will be to destroy all signs of vegetable upon the island.

Halifax, July 16.—Today is the sixtieth anniversary of the birth in this city, of William, afterwards Rev. Father Morrissey, lovingly remembered throughout the Maritime Provinces and known across the Continent for his remarkable orations.

During his thirty years pastorate at Paribogue, N. B., his truly wonderful medical skill was at the service of all who needed help, and for his services he steadily refused pay. Thousands came to him or wrote for his advice, and his fame spread far beyond the bounds of his own parish.

Since his lamented death on March 30, 1908, his best known prescriptions (now the property of the Hotel Dieu) have made up and placed on sale throughout the Maritime Provinces and Quebec, so that in fuller measure than even during his lifetime, his good work for the sick and suffering goes right on.

Stop That Cold

To check early colds or grippe with "Preventics" means more comfort and less trouble. To stop a cold with Preventics is safer than to let it run and be obliged to cure it afterwards. To be sure, Preventics will cure even a deeply seated cold, but best of all, they prevent the cold from breaking out. That's why they are called Preventics. They contain no poisons, nothing sickening. Now for the children—Preventics may also save half your usual sickness. And don't forget your children. If there is feverishness, high fever, or even possibly the Preventics' greatest efficiency. Sold in 2c boxes for the pocket, also in 5c boxes of 48 Preventics. Insist on your druggists giving you

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unfitted for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and classic. "Favorite Prescription" banishes the indolence of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organism, and issues a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. If Nature Weak Women Strong. It Makes Sick Women Well. Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drug. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.
