

A Substantial Check Placed on Enemy; Germans Carry War to United States

GERMANY BRINGS WAR HOME TO UNCLE SAMUEL

Berlin Hopes To Terrorize the Country By Submarine Invasion.

GERMAN PLAN TO DELAY THE TROOPS

Operating in American Waters, U-Boat Will Try To Aid Hun Army.

Special to The Standard

(By G. W. Gilbert)

Washington, June 3.—Germany is bringing the war home to us. This is about the only conclusion the naval authorities can reach upon the scant basis of a few hours staking of American ships upon the American coast by German submarines. She is trying to terrorize this country, perhaps. Perhaps she has the larger idea in view of interfering with our lines of communication and slowing up our progress into the war. It is impossible to tell until more is done and the scope of the German plan is developed. The hasty sinking of the ill-fated U.S. liner, the Titanic, has shown, perhaps, a well established principle of German warfare. But the next few hours of the next few days may reveal a concerted attack upon American transport ships, and upon American naval vessels. It is thought that the full aim of German naval strategy.

Full Effect Felt

All that is necessary is for Germany to keep up her present drive, concentrating a few submarines to American waters in order to make necessary conveying of all American troops and all supply ships in both directions all the way across the Atlantic. There is reason to believe that since the sinking of the President Lincoln, American transports have been conveyed throughout in both directions so that the full effect of the range of German U-boat activities has been already felt, so far as troop ships are concerned. Upon supplies and food ships for the Allies the influence of the later U-boat campaign is expected to be greatest. Any increased watchfulness on the part of convoys will mean nothing.

It will take longer in the future to make a voyage across the Atlantic and back, "the turn around" as shipping men call it, than it has in the past, how much longer it will be impossible to tell until the full strength of the German submarine campaign on this side of the Atlantic is revealed. It is easy to exaggerate the importance of the present raid. The U-boats entered waters where they were not expected. They are sending the U-boats to the navy partly by surprise. It is unlikely that they will be able to repeat their present exploit with anything like their present success. Naval officers express confidence in the capacity of the convoys and the patrols to protect shipping.

Program of Terrorizing

Therefore the probable hope of Germany is to slow up our progress into the war by making shipping less effective and perhaps by terrorizing coastwise shipping and coast towns cause a demand for the recalling of American destroyers from European waters for the protection of our vessels and people. The submarine is now more effective as a threat than as an engine for the destruction of shipping. The Germans plan to carry that threat across the Atlantic. Over a sea infested by U-boats, vessels move slowly in packs protected by ships of war. The process causes great loss of time. By sending the U-boats here Germany expects to make them lose more time. And if she can send enough U-boats she probably will succeed in making them lose still more time. Thus the U-boats are to aid Germany in his effort to win the war this summer.

STEEVES MT. SMALLPOX

Special to The Standard.

Moncton, June 2.—An outbreak of smallpox has occurred at Steeves Mountain, Parish of Moncton. A case developed in the family of Barrett Gates and several other persons are under suspicion and quarantined. Dr. L. W. Bourque, chairman of the County Board of Health, visited the locality today and took the necessary precautions against a spread of the contagion.

Dozen Vessels Are Submerged on U.S. Coast by Germans

Large Merchant Steamship Has Battle With U-Boat Off New Jersey—Steamer Carolina Torpedoed and 220 Passengers and 130 Members of Her Crew Missing—Germany Carries War to U.S.

Besides Carolina, Steamers City of Columbus and Herbert L. Pratt and Schooners Edward H. Cole, Jacob M. Haskell, Isaac B. Willey, Hattie Dunn and Samuel W. Hatheway Sunk.

New York, June 3.—At least one large merchant steamship gave battle to a German submarine off the coast of New Jersey yesterday, according to members of the crew of the schooner Edward H. Cole, one of the victims of the U-boat warfare. The submarine was the victor in this fight and later the same U-boat destroyed another big steamship, after several hours of firing in the same vicinity.

For twenty-four hours prior to the Cole's destruction at four p.m. on Sunday when seventy-five miles off Highland Light, N. J., the crew saw an unusual amount of wreckage. The sea from this point to the shore also was filled with wreckage, the rescued crew reported.

At least nine vessels, and probably more, have been sunk off the American coast. Warships busy.

Scores of United States warships were scouring the waters of the North Atlantic coast tonight in search of the German submarines which made their long expected attack on shipping in some waters late yesterday afternoon. Out of the reports which swept through the Maritime District after the Associated Press first flashed the news that two cruiser submarines were operating 75 miles southeast of the Highlands of New Jersey, these facts stood out. . . . the steamship Carolina, of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company has been sunk. Nothing is known of the fate of the 220 passengers and crew of 130 who took to the boats when the underwater craft began shelling the liner.

Other Vessels Sunk.

The schooner Edward H. Cole of Boston, has been sunk by bombs and shells with her crew of ten have been landed here after being rescued from their boat in which they were given an opportunity to escape. The schooner Jacob M. Haskell, of Boston, Isabel B. Willey of Bath, Maine, Hattie Dunn of Thomaston, Maine, and Samuel W. Hatheway have been sunk, but nothing is known of the fate of the crews. The Savannah schooner City of Columbus is reported to have been sunk but no definite news of her fate has been received.

The S. S. Winnecomico, 1,500 tons and the schooner Hauppauge, 1,000 tons were also sunk, crews of all the schooners saved.

Fifteen survivors of U-boat attacks were brought to an Atlantic port tonight on a steamship which picked them up from small boats. Their depositions were taken by government officials and they were held in communication on the steamship which remained at anchor all night.

Were Prisoners.

There were reports that they had been aboard a steamship and two schooners but the names of these vessels were not obtainable. It was also said that some of them had been kept prisoner eleven days aboard the submarine and then turned adrift in a small boat. All of them were picked up by a coast liner.

The Atlantic Refiner tanker Herbert L. Pratt was sunk four miles off Cape Henlopen, Del., by a submarine. The crew was landed at Lewes, Del. It was learned authoritatively that no attacks have been made on American transports off the American coast. All ships were held in ports along the coast, however, as a precaution. There were reports that fifteen vessels had fallen prey to the raiders but there was no confirmation of them.

Fear for 350 Persons.

Some fear was felt for the safety of the 350 persons aboard the Carolina, a vessel of 8,000 tons, running between

NIGHT REPORT MOST HOPEFUL FOR ONE WEEK

London, June 3.—Tonight's report is the most hopeful since the beginning of the battle. For the first time since last Monday it can be said that the enemy gained no ground during the day," says Reuters' correspondent with French headquarters in France.

"On his westward-facing front in the direction of Paris, where attack and counter-attack followed with quick succession until late in the afternoon the German gains were at least counter-balanced by French gains.

"In the center the enemy has extended his front along the north bank of the Meuse, which is still bounded by the towns of Chateau Thierry which was evacuated some days ago, and Vermeuil."

London, June 3.—Field Marshal Haig's report tonight from British headquarters, France:

"Hostile raids were repulsed during the night by French troops east of Belleuill.

"The number of prisoners captured by us in last night's successful operations is 288. We also captured a German anti-tank gun, in addition to thirty machine guns and several trench mortars.

"On the remainder of the British front there is nothing of special interest to report."

MANY HOUSES DESTROYED IN NOVA SCOTIA

Whole District of West Dublin, Lunenburg County, Threatened.

Halifax, June 3.—Forest fires in Queens and Lunenburg counties are raging and have spread in towards settlements, destroying a number of houses, while others are threatened. Within four miles of Liverpool at least ten houses have been destroyed in addition to much valuable forest property. In Lunenburg county the whole district of West Dublin is threatened. Four houses have already been destroyed. Nearly all the men of the districts are taking in the Newfoundland Bank and women, children and old men, assisted by volunteers from other parts of the county are fighting the fire desperately to prevent the wiping out of the entire West Dublin settlement.

Teutons Make Little Progress and Paris Not Now in Danger

The Last Three Days Have Been Marked By a Rapid Slowing Down of Third German Blow—Enemy Substantially Checked Along the Whole Front and Worst Is Thought To Be Over.

Relatively Slight Further Gains Likely To Be Confined To Territory Between Oise and Marne Rivers—Meanwhile Germans Probably Planning Another Blow on Weakest Spot They Can Find in Line.

(By Frank H. Simonds.)
(Copyright 1918 by The New York Tribune Assn.)

New York, June 3.—The end of the first week of the third German drive is marked by the announcement of a substantial check of enemy along the whole front. This coincides exactly with the experience of earlier drives in Picardy and in Flanders, and barring an accident, always possible in war, it seems safe to say that for the moment the worst is over, and that the present German offensive drive with relatively slight further gains will be pinned down between Noyon and Arras. To use the phrase of Foch two months ago, the German flood again appears dammed.

Second Blow Due Soon.

But it is essential to recognize that a second German blow is now almost inevitable. The highest estimate of German divisions used in the present attack does not pass fifty (about 600,000 men), and it is a matter of common agreement that at least an equal number are available for a new drive wherever the German high command may choose to put them in. And we may safely guess that the German blow will be delivered against that portion of the line which has been most weakened to meet the present emergency.

With the pause in the present operation comes the opportunity to analyze the meaning of three years of trench warfare have made a profound impression upon the allied mind. It is impossible to escape the fact that a wave of pessimism and depression has followed the several advances made by the Germans. Yet in the larger measure this has been due to the fact that we are still thinking in terms of trench warfare, of a war of position, while the character of the war has changed.

ENEMY SUFFERS HEAVY LOSSES

German Right Wing From the Marne To River Oise, West of Soissons, the Scene of Powerful Enemy Attacks, Which French Are Meeting Successfully and With Great Gallantry.

By Wilbur Forrest.

(Special Cable to the New York Tribune and St. John Standard.)

With the French armies between Soissons and Rheims, June 2.—Ground for more territory is causing the Germans to continue to play a game of decidedly open warfare. A mad gamble—with a "win big or lose" policy. The German right wing from the Marne to the River Oise west of Soissons has been the scene of powerful enemy attacks in the past forty hours. The French have been fighting with extreme bravery against greatly superior numbers. A few miles to the southward, still on the right bank, the enemy drove the valley of the River Ourcq for violent operations. Here again he found his progress blocked and suffered heavy losses. The same heavy pressure which the Germans are bringing to bear against the French and British lines opposing his right wing are being repeated against the French and British forces on their left wing. America is beside her French and British allies in this big battle which the Germans are trying to decide the fate of the world. Aside from this statement little more can be said at present. America will have to be patient and wait for the details from official sources.

The Epic Battle.

The epic battle is going on at this moment up and down the great enemy salient which dips on the map down from west of Soissons to the Marne and up again to historic, battered Rheims. Rheims has not been deluged by the Borcke's army boots, although the Borcke massed his principal effort on his entire left flank Saturday against Fort Pompoelle on the railroad southeast of Rheims.

The weight of numbers again this time, charging behind their tanks, told momentarily until a dash of French counter-attack with cold steel retook the fort, four tanks and more than two hundred prisoners. Simultaneously the Germans assaulted on the north and northwest of Rheims, charging, however, more weight to the southeast in an effort to encircle the city. All his attempts failed.

Heavy Fighting.

While the main attack on the left wing was progressing, heavy fighting was taking place southward toward the Marne where the enemy met solid opposition again with the heaviest losses.

While the greatest activity has been on the flanks, the extreme center (Continued on page 2)

VIOLENT GERMAN ATTACKS END IN TOTAL FAILURE

Battle in France Resumed With Great Intensity During the Night.

FIGHTING FIERCE ALL DAY MONDAY

French Capture Favoroles, Mont Choisy and Huns Lose Heavily.

Paris, June 3.—The battle in France was resumed with great intensity during the night and the course of the day, according to the war office announcement this evening. The Germans, with fresh troops, attacked between the Oise and the Ourcq with redoubled violence.

"The Germans have been checked west of Soissons," continues the statement.

"We recaptured Favoroles.

"In the region south of 'Hill-en-Tardenois, the Franco-British troops maintained all their gains north of Champagne.

"For the fifth time we captured Mont Choisy. All the enemy's attempts between the Oise and the Aisne, notably north of Houlcourt-Tourvent and Vignys, failed.

"Between the Aisne and the Ourcq the Germans made desperate efforts to penetrate the Villers-Cotterets forest from the north and east. Our troops heroically sustained the shock of the enemy attacks and broke their advance, inflicting sanguinary losses on them."

At End of His Rush.

With the French Army in France, June 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The allied troops feel that the enemy has reached the virtual end of his rush. The ground is now given up only when allied commanders consider it useless to hold it and when combat occurs rapidly, the morale of the allied armies is higher than ever before.

The troops have never lost confidence in the most serious moments of their retirement in their ability to prevent a breach in the line, and now, with British and French reinforcements arriving rapidly, the morale of the allied armies is higher than ever before.

The Germans, at the beginning of the offensive, followed out a system of filtering through the allied lines, bodies of picked troops would find their way through thin portions of the line and then would open fire on the allied troops from the rear. This feature of the offensive is now giving way in most places to attacks in massed formations.

It is impossible to carry out the first maneuver since the allied troops have received reinforcements.

OCEAN LIMITED LEAVES RAILS

Locomotive, Mail and Express Cars Go Off at Naehe's Creek and Train Delayed Eight Hours—None Hurt.

Special to The Standard.

Moncton, June 3.—The Ocean Limited was derailed at Naehe's Creek about one o'clock this afternoon and was delayed between eight and nine hours. The engine and mail and express cars left the rails, but very little damage was done to the rolling stock. No passenger coaches left the rails and no one was injured. The track was somewhat torn up. An artillery was sent out from Campbellton to effect repairs.

IRISH PROCLAMATION

Dublin, June 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The Lord Lieutenant issued a proclamation tonight asking for 50,000 voluntary recruits, and thereafter 2,000 to 3,000 monthly to maintain their Irish divisions.

The first call is to men eighteen to twenty-seven years of age, and special inducement is offered of legislation to ensure that land shall be available for the men who fight for their country.

THE WAR NEWS.

The news from the western front this morning is distinctly better than it has been for several days. The German drive has been definitely stopped and it is believed that with Allied reserves now coming into action with all necessary speed the enemy will make no further progress in the direction of Paris. However, the danger is not past as military critics express the opinion that, halted in their present venture, the Germans will at once accept another attack against the Allied lines. As that attack will be delivered by powerful forces concentrated for a drive against some given point in the line it is likely that the first successes will rest with the enemy. But in that, too, history is likely to repeat itself and as soon as the Allies concentrate sufficient force at the new danger point the foe will be stopped again. On the side of the enemy this is a war against time. He must win this year if he is to win at all, and already much of his fighting time has passed and he has not yet succeeded in overcoming the morale and spirit of the Allied nations, or in wrecking their military establishments. And while he is driving and being stopped, the Allied forces are being augmented by the addition of American troops. Before autumn the number of Americans on the western front will bear a very important relation to the whole force engaged and as the Allied numbers increase the chances of German success become proportionately smaller. So long as the German drives are stopped, and the casualties to the enemy are heavier than our own losses we are winning, because we are holding the enemy away from Paris and from the Channel ports. In time the counter-thrust must come and when it does it will be remarkable if the enemy is strong enough to stand against it. That is the thing to remember in considering events on the western front. What Germany is to do must be done quickly or not at all. Time fights on the side of the Allies.

WELL MERITED HONORS.

New Brunswick is particularly interested in the King's birthday honor conferred by His Majesty upon two sons of this province who have played a large part in the history of the province and of Canada. Chief Justice J. Douglas Hazen is elevated to knighthood with the title of Sir John Douglas Hazen, K. C. M. G., while Sir George E. Foster, who had already held the rank of a Knight of the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George, the order of knighthood held by Sir Robert Borden.

In both cases the honor comes as well merited recognition of distinguished services to the state. Sir J. D. Hazen, as Minister of Marine and Fisheries and of Naval Affairs, had a difficult department of the Canadian administration, the duties of which were increased many fold after the outbreak of war. Obviously the details of his service in that capacity cannot be known now, or until the war is over, but it can be said that his efforts in his important office were eminently successful and to his work then is primarily due the honor that comes to him now.

But his work for Canada did not cease upon his retirement from politics and his acceptance of the position of Chief Justice of New Brunswick. Hardly had he ascended to the bench when he was named as the Canadian representative on an international commission to deal with fisheries matters in dispute between Canada and the United States. To that duty he brought special knowledge of a most valuable character and it was largely through him that the proceedings of the commission were completely successful. The new honor comes to crown a particularly useful public career and Sir J. Douglas Hazen's many friends and admirers in his native province and throughout Canada generally will extend to him very hearty congratulations.

To Sir George E. Foster, who has been advanced in rank, congratulations are also due. Sir George is a son of New Brunswick and though for a number of years he has represented an Ontario constituency in the Canadian Parliament he was always regarded as belonging to this province—and in him New Brunswick had a staunch friend at the council board of the nation. His additional honors have been well merited and he, too, will receive the hearty congratulations and good wishes of thousands of New Brunswickers and Canadians, irrespective of political distinctions.

U-BOATS IN THE ATLANTIC.

It is not conceivable that the German submarines reported off the Atlantic coast of the United States can remain at large long enough to do much damage, as damage has come to be counted in these days of war. The United States has a strong fleet of destroyers in the waters in which the enemy underwater craft are reported and it is altogether likely that long before this they are making a thorough search for the marauders. The approach of hostile U-boats to American or Canadian shores may be of real benefit if it teaches the people of the countries named to centre all their activities upon the prosecution of the war. Up to the present time the struggle in Europe has hardly seemed real to a large proportion of our population who are not represented by blood on the firing line. With enemy U-boats off the coast, however, the war is brought more closely home to all of us, and, if such an object lesson results in a keener interest in all war causes, the adventure, in the long run, may work to Germany's disadvantage. The damage caused by the U-boats in the Atlantic up to the present time is inconsiderable and it is not likely to become serious, for long before the enemy craft can inflict any great losses upon the fleet of shipping sailing from American ports to the other side they will have been called to their accounting by the destroyers which, ever since the war commenced, have maintained a careful guard over our coasts and the sea lanes of the Atlantic.

THE DEPOT BATTALION.

The last of the Depot Battalion left the city yesterday for Camp Sussex, where they will continue their training. The march from the barracks to the Union Depot was witnessed by thousands of citizens and there were many favorable comments as to the fine appearance and military bearing of the men.

St. John loses the Depot Battalion with regret. While they were drafted men and, therefore, possibly, did not attract the same attention as some of the volunteer units stationed here earlier in the war, yet it can be truthfully said that no battalion quartered here held a better record for good behaviour than the unit which left us yesterday. In no small degree can credit for this be given to the Officer Commanding and his excellent staff. Col. J. L. McAvity, O. C. of the battalion, won his spurs in France with the Fighting 26th, and his laurels as commander of one of the finest fighting units in the British army will not soon fade. When he assumed command of the Depot Battalion he insisted on the most rigid discipline and yet brought his men to feel that he was their friend as well as their superior officer. It is not surprising that his tact and ability should attract the attention of the men in control of Canada's military affairs, or that when the time came to select a commandant for the 5,000 men who will be assembled at Camp Sussex the choice should fall upon the colonel of the Fighting 26th.

The Sussex command is an important one and Col. McAvity the first New Brunswicker in many years to hold it. This fact entitles him to all the more credit. The Standard feels that the summer months of training in Sussex will be fruitful ones, and that the men under Col. McAvity's instruction and care will develop into as good soldiers as those he has already led on the field of conflict. As for the popular camp commandant himself his many friends expect and hope that the Sussex command will lead to even more important duty and additional well merited advancement.

SINKING A U-BOAT

While engaged in attacking a convoy off the southwest coast the other day, a German submarine was destroyed by the resourcefulness of the commander of one of our torpedo-boat destroyers.

The attack was made in ideal submarine weather—plenty of visibility and a slightly choppy sea—just before sunset. The submarine was without doubt, submerged, for the first indication of her presence was the track of an oncoming torpedo. The torpedo passed right underneath the destroyer just before the bridge and continued its course harmlessly.

The commander of the destroyer at once put about, and went along the track of the torpedo, and, slowing down near what appeared to be the commencement of the track dripped three depth charges. He then ported his helm and the bows of a submarine were seen coming slowly above the water, almost in a vertical position. The destroyer went full speed at the submarine in the hope of ramming her, while some trawlers opened fire on the U-boat.

Just before the destroyer reached the submarine the latter listed to port and sank like a stone, showing her conning tower and gun for an instant while doing so. During the time the submarine's bows were above the water she appeared to be almost stationary. Several other depth charges were dropped in the vicinity and oil came to the surface.

The commander of the destroyer has been awarded a bar to his D. S. C. for his resourceful attack.

A woman's face drifted before our eyes.

Less a Madonna than a Magdalen—

And the first star comes swinging late

"France—la belle France!" one mur-

The grand cathedral's carillon we heard
The lingering echoes pulsing like

On ruby lips, and peasant songs

Through purpling vineyards, sweet as Strength of the granite cliff that waits the sea

To hurl its wreathing billows
brokenly
In swirling form-wings back, an idle thing.
Who knew these cast in such heroic mold?
The shapely hand we thought the sculptor's brush,
The scimitar's chisel, better framed
to hold,
So wields the Sword of Liberty the blush Comes to our softer cheeks who think of thee;
When the great trumpets peal for victory,
Immortal France, thy glory shall be told!

A BIT OF FUN

Stuffing Her.
The old lady entered the taxidermist in a blazing wrath, carrying a de-funct bird in a glass case.
"It's an imposition," she said. "You stuffed my poor parrot only last summer, and here's his feathers falling out before your very eyes."
"For blasphemous, mum, that's a triumph of our art," was the reply. "We stuff 'em so natural that they moult in their proper season."
Giving Details.
Maud—Kitty married a man a good deal older than she is, so I hear.
Marie—Older? Why, he's twice her real age and three times the age she says she is.
Not Much Chose.
"But as he never said he would marry you, where does the breach of promise come in?"
"When I proposed to him," said the leop-yer maid, "he promised to be a brother to me, and he hasn't been anything of the kind."
Making a Man.
He might have been a slacker still, But she for whom his heart beat,
Told him her love would surely chill Unless he donned a uniform.
"Time was I wanted all your love," She said to him, "but not today, The fig that proudly flies above Is calling you to march away."
And so he answered her: "I will!" And joined the line for service grim;
He might have been a slacker still, Had she not made a man of him.

TWELVE IRISH CRAFT SUNK BY SUBMARINE

London, June 3.—Twelve of a fleet of thirty or forty fishing vessels which left Irish ports on the night of May 30, were sunk by a German submarine, says a Belfast despatch to the Daily Telegraph. The submarine suddenly appeared in the midst of the fleet, and ordered the fishermen to take to the boats and row ashore. It then sank the vessels by shelling them. There were no casualties.

MUCH DEPRESSED IN SPIRITS

On Account of the Exhausted Condition of the Nerves—The High Several Doctors Were Consulted Results Were Disappointing.
Albert, N. B., April 6.—All energy and ambition seem to disappear when the nerves become exhausted. Hope and confidence fall and you feel blue and get to looking on the dark side of things.
Such was the experience of Mrs. Tingley, but she soon got to seeing things differently when Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was used to form new rich blood and build up the exhausted nerves.
Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N. B., writes: "Will you please allow me the privilege of giving my experiences with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? I was for a long time in a very nervous, run-down condition, and much depressed in spirits. I suffered a great deal at times, and it was four or five years ago before I fully discovered what the real trouble was. The least noise would irritate me, and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I took various medicines recommended me, and consulted different doctors, but to no effect. A friend advised me to begin the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at once. I complied with the request by procuring the medicine at the earliest convenience and can truly testify today to the great benefits I received therefrom. I was able to see a marked change in my condition before I had finished the use of two boxes. I kept up the treatment, however, until I had taken about a dozen boxes, and now feel safe in saying that I am cured of nervousness. I am entirely relieved of those terrible feelings I used to have, and cannot too highly speak of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has done so much for me. I shall ever be ready to testify to the merits of this wonderful remedy, and gladly recommend it to all who suffer as I did, feeling sure it will give them quick and permanent relief."
This letter was endorsed by George C. Anderson, J.P.

MRS. WILLIAM MURRAY
DIED IN CALGARY
News of Rather Sudden Death
Received Yesterday By Her Brother, W. G. Scoville—
Body Will Be Interred in St.
Stephen on Saturday.

W. G. Scoville received a telegram from Calgary yesterday morning announcing the death of his sister Mrs.
William Murray, of that city, and although she had been in ill health for some time death was unexpected, and her rather sudden demise was received as a shock by her relatives and friends. The remains will be brought east to St. Stephen for burial at that place on Saturday next.
The deceased was the widow of the late William Murray, formerly of the firm of Smith & Murray, of St.
Stephen. Mrs. Murray resided in the border town until the death of her husband which occurred while he was crossing the Atlantic, and Mrs. Murray then removed to Kings county and resided for some time in Roth-say, and a few years later resided in this city and then went to Hampton where she resided with her son, Dr.
Scoville Murray, who practiced there for three years. The family then moved to Calgary.
The deceased leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. A. L. Kierstead, of Hudson, N. Y., and Mrs. George F. Anderson, of Lynn, Mass.; also two brothers,
W. G. Scoville, of this city, and J. M.

Teutonic Army Was Not Able to Spread Out
Much Sunday Night or Early Monday—Allied Offensive Manoeuvre Being Planned—Enemy Losses Heavy—German Assaults Still Heavy and Violent.

Paris, June 3.—The French held the Germans everywhere last night.
The enemy losses were heavy. The French took prisoners, the war office reports. The French counter-attacks along the whole front between the Oureq and the Marne and made progress at several points. A violent attack on both sides of the road between Chateau Thierry and Paris was broken up by the French. The statement follows:
"Our troops continued their counter-attacks during the night. They drove the whole front between the Oureq and the Marne and gained ground at several points. A violent German attack delivered on both sides of the road between Chateau Thierry and Paris was broken up by the French five miles southeast of Bourches. Everywhere else the French maintained their positions.
"The losses suffered by the enemy in these actions were heavy. The French took hundreds of prisoners."
Allied Offensive.
An allied offensive manoeuvre is predicted by Le Martin and Le Petit Parisien. They express the conviction that Generals Foch and Petain, who proved themselves good offensive men in subordinate commands, will display the same qualities in the present commands of the Allied and the French armies.

Havas Agency review, believe that the

AWFUL ATTACKS OF HEART TROUBLE
EASED BY SECOND DOSE OF
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

One of the first danger signals announcing the approach of a violent throb. Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all-over" sinking feeling, or, again, you may experience a smothering sensation, gasp for breath and feel as though about to die.
In such cases the action of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is, beyond question, marvellous.
Mrs. Frank Arsenault, Newcastle,
N. B., writes: "I had awful attacks of heart trouble for the past five or six years, and as I had tried many kinds of medicine without getting any better, I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and to my surprise found relief after the second dose. I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be.
"At present my diet is taking them for nervousness, and finds great comfort by their use."
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T.

ROTHESAY CADETS'
ANNUAL INSPECTION
VERY SUCCESSFUL
Young Soldiers of Rothesay
Collegiate School Made Good Showing Last Evening—Were Inspected By Inspector Black and Capt.
Heron.

The annual inspection of the Rothesay Collegiate School Cadet Corps took place last evening at 7.15 on the campus ground of the college in the presence of numerous visitors, parents and friends of the boys attending school.
Inspector Capt. R. Robinson Black accompanied by Capt. V. Heron, G. S.
O., Military District No. 7, arrived punctually on the grounds and were received with a general salute. Immediately after the salute Capt. Heron and Inspector Black closely inspected the boys after which the inspector called for the march past. This evolution was performed under the direction of Corps Instructor Doos, the Corps marching past in column and quarter column accompanied by their splendid band. This particular portion of the ceremonial drill brought forth continued applause from the spectators and was highly commented upon by the G. S. O., Capt. Heron, who expressed himself to the inspector as highly pleased with the way the line was kept during the march past.
The company officers, Capt. Carson and Messrs. Flewelling and Carson then put the Corps through company and platoon drill and Sgt. Doos put them through extended order drill.
The signalling drill under the direction of Sgt. Ings and the physical training exercises were greeted with cheers by the spectators. The band with the addition of a number of stringed instruments played a special programme for these latter and this added much to the work.
A special feature of the programme was the drilling of ten boys who are too young yet to join the Corps and these performed in a most creditable manner.
The Corps was then drawn up in company formation and addressed by the inspector, who complimented them on the year's work and general efficiency and especially on winning of the Empire Day parade trophy donated by Brigadier-General MacDonell. He however pointed out that such things were entirely different and distinct from the general efficiency in the training of the Corps.
A special feature of the inspector were listened to with keen attention and it cannot be said that he fails to point out at all times frankly to the Corps wherever improvement can be made and greater efficiency attained.

Lemon Juice
For Freckles
Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!
Squeeze the juice of two lemons in to a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.
Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! it is harmless.

French and Latin were also on the required menu to make the leap over the chasm. The examinations are now being written, commencing today and ending Friday.

There was quite a blustering wind blowing at the time, and when almost in the centre of the river those on shore were startled to see the boat upset and Mr. Miller thrown into the water. THE POLICEMEN AND EXEMPTIONS

Number May Change From Blue Uniform To Khaki Next Month—Half Dozen Persons Arrested Yesterday.

Contrasted to the gray uniforms last year, the clothing issued to the men yesterday shows a marked improvement. At the present time the constables, sergeants and officials of the department rank well to the front of the different police forces in the Dominion.

There were six persons who naturally withheld favorable comment upon the appearance of the policemen, and they comprise a party of six who were gathered up by the vigilantes of the law for different offences. Two civilians were arrested for drunkenness and two soldiers were handed over to the police, one of whom injured his finger so as to warrant him being admitted to the Military Hospital on St. James street.

CHIEF RIDEOUT OF DOMINION POLICE RESIGNS POSITION

Says Work of Police Will Not Be Satisfactory If Under the Military — Been No Friction in Maritime Provinces Between Military and Dominion Police.

In the course of an interview with Chief Rideout last evening he said: "It is my intention on the arrival of Col. Harvey that my resignation now in his hands be accepted. Personally I do not think the police force under me can do their work with any degree of satisfaction if placed under the military. Since the new order has been issued at Ottawa the military authorities have interfered somewhat with our men and as a result of this our constables in outlying districts are confused as to who they should take their orders from. However, whatever the final result may be I certainly shall give all assistance in my power to help the military in rounding up defaulters in the Maritime Provinces and there are certainly a great many to be apprehended."

It notes the St. John Telegraph under date of June 1 states that there was friction between the Dominion Police and the military. Whatever friction may have taken place in other parts of Canada does not apply to the Maritime Provinces where everything has been in perfect harmony between the Dominion Police and the military.

The above briefly sums up Chief Rideout's stand on the present situation with respect to the application and enforcement of the Military Service Act in the Maritime Provinces. Since taking over the duties of chief of Dominion Police for the Maritime Provinces Chief Rideout has organized a staff which for discretion and common sense and results obtained exceeds that of any other district in Canada. Under his regime in the vicinity of two thousand defaulters and deserters have been apprehended in the Maritime Provinces with a minimum of inconvenience to the parties affected.

In New Brunswick the staff consists of 1 inspector, 1 desk sergeant, 6 sergeants, 31 constables, 2 clerks, 3 stenographers; in Nova Scotia, 1 inspector, 1 desk sergeant, 5 sergeants, 29 constables, 2 stenographers; in Prince Edward Island, 1 inspector, 1 desk sergeant, 9 constables, 2 clerks, 3 stenographers.

Upon the arrival of Lieut.-Col. Harvey in the city either today or tomorrow it is expected that this matter will be adjusted and it is hoped that Chief Rideout may be persuaded to reconsider his resignation.

ANNUAL SHOW FOR NEXT FALL. General Opinion That N. B. Kennel Club Will Hold Bench Show — Interest in St. John is Increasing. Several dog fanciers are already making preparation for the coming event, which will likely be held sometime the last of September, or the first week of October. It is expected that the number of dogs to be benched this year will equal if not exceed canine stock before on exhibition in St. John. Last year the list included no less than 205 entries and some of the highest grade of dogs were benched. Last year's entry list was the largest with one exception, when something over 230 specimens of dogs were exhibited. It is probable that the next meeting of the club will decide as to the arrangements for the show of 1918. N. B. NURSES GRADUATED. Miss Mary DeWolfe of Newcastle, Miss Ethel S. McInnis and Miss A. V.
