stead, for the same purpose; and by the said name shall and may be able and capable in law to sue, and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, in all courts of law and places whatsoever, in as large, 15 ample, and beneficial a manner as any other body politic or corporate, or as any persons able or capable in law may or can sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, in any matter whatsoever; and any majority of the members of the cor- 20 poration for the time being, shall have power and authority to make and establish such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations, not being contrary to this Act, nor to the laws in force in this province, as shall be deemed useful or 25 necessary for the interests of the said corporation, and for the management thereof, and for the admission of members into the said Corporation, and from time to time to alter, repeal, and change the said by-laws, rules, 30 orders, and regulations, or any of them, or those of the said Association in force at the time of the passing of this Act; and shall, and may do, execute, and perform, all and singular other the matters and things relating 35 to the said Corporation, and the management thereof, or which shall or may appertain thereto; subject, nevertheless, to the rules, regulations, stipulations and provisions hereinafter prescribed and established.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the rents, revenues, issues and profits of all property real or personal held by the said Corporation shall be appropriated and applied solely to the maintenance of the members of the Corporation, the construction and repair of the buildings requisite for the purposes of the said Corporation, and to the advancement of education by the instruction of young persons in the sciences and in the elements thereof, and the payment of the expenses to be incurred for objects legitimately connected with or depending on the purposes aforesaid.

To what purposes the revenue of the Corporation shall be applied.

III. And be it enacted, That all and every the estate and property real and personal belonging to or hereafter to be acquired by the members of the said Association as such, and all debts, claims and rights whatsoever due to them in that quality shall be and are hereby vested in the Corporation hereby established; and the by-laws, rules, orders and regulations now made for the management of the said Association, shall be and continue to be the by-laws, rules, orders and regulations of the said Corporation until altered or repealed in the manner herein provided.
