Central Selling Agency Is Inaugurated for the Disposal of Products of Farms of Eastern British Columbia; Headquarters at Vernon

SYSTEM OF POOLING GIVES ALL PRODUCERS A SHARE

Thought That New Plan Will Greatly Simplify Marketing of Fruit and Enable Producers to Get a More Equitable and Constant Price

(Special to The Albertan)
Kelowna, B.C., May 11.—Below is given a report of the recommendations and the policy of the proposed central selling organization for the Okanagan Valley and which will be incorporated under the name "Okanagan United Growers, Limited."
It was decided to incorporate under the Companies Act for the reason that it was impracticable to incorporate under the Agricultural Associations Act.
The name decided on is the "Okanagan United Growers, Limited." The nominal capital is to be $10,000.00, in shares of $1.00 each. The head office is to be at Vernon.
It was agreed that sufficient shares be taken by each local association to give them one vote for each fifty acres, or less, shipped, and an additional share for each fifty acres up to three hundred acres. The minimum to be one vote and the maximum, six votes. The distribution of votes, for the present year to be as follows:—Salmon Arm, 2; Enderby, 1; Armstrong, 4; Vernon, 6; Kelowna, 6; Peachland, 1; Penticton, 2. Total, 28 votes.
A qualification of a director is that he is a producer of fruit or produce, in a commercial scale. The executive committee to consist of three directors elected to the directorate.
Resolutions Passed.
The following resolutions were passed:—
"That the policy of the Central Selling Agency shall be to get the fruit and produce of its affiliated associations, operating on a co-operative basis, as quickly and directly as possible from the grower to the consumer, and to this end such methods and plans as circumstances and experience shall warrant be adopted, but that for the present, we have our own representative or agencies in selling centres with a view to pushing the sale of our goods and looking after our interests."

PREMIER SIFTON IS ONE OF THE GUESTS OF HONOR

Secretary of State Bryan and Sir Edmund Walker Are the Principal Orators—Amity Prevails Among the Representatives of Many Nations

New York, May 11.—The enthusiastic signing of "America and God Save the King," was one of the features of the peace conference on Friday evening. Flags of Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia and Belgium, where the treaty of Ghent was signed in 1814, decorated the banquet hall.
Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain acted as toastmaster. At his left sat the new British ambassador, Sir Arthur Cecil Spring Rice, and on his right, M. Da Gabo, the Brazilian ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps, Ambassador Page, the members of the foreign delegates, U. S. senators, judges from several states and the governors of two were interspersed at the speakers' table.
The list included: Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan; Eugene H. O'Rourke of Newfoundland; Governor Eberhart of Minnesota; Rear Admiral Aaron Ward Alton B. Parker; Andrew Carnegie, William Lusk, Earl Stanhope, Sir Herbert Eustace Maxwell, Senator Reoul Dandurand, Montreal; Hon. Arthur L. Sifton, Premier of Alberta; Courtenay Walter Bennett; James B. Preston, mayor of Baltimore; Nicholas Murray Butler, Henry White and George Von L. Meyer.
The secretary of state, W. J. Bryan, said in part: "We have three great forces at work throughout the world, forces that work constantly and irresistibly and everyone of these forces make for peace. I bring them before you—a growing intelligence and increasing understanding of the doctrine of brotherhood. This nation must be willing to extend its hand to all those who come from any direction in the interest of peace. No nation shall outstrip us in its advocacy of peace."

CO-OPERATION OF CITIES.

Mayor Sinnott is right when he says that the weakness of our municipal system is largely due to the lack of continuity in the policy of the different councils.

There is another weakness, and that is the lack of co-operation among the cities and towns in the province. There is no manner of co-operation between the provinces and the different cities.

The state of Wisconsin is perhaps more widely administered in many respects than any other state in the Union. In it the iniquity of ultra-partisanship is not so apparent, and is not so prevalent.

This satisfactory condition of affairs can be reached only after some years of careful organization. A co-operation of the cities and towns of the province, under a central organization such as the province, would mean much to all.

MUNICIPAL NEWSPAPER FAILS.

After one year of existence, The Los Angeles Municipal News has been abolished, the farewell edition being published last week.

The Municipal News was conducted along lines somewhat similar to those outlined by Commissioner Samis here last winter for the proposed Municipal Bulletin, which the legislature refused to sanction.

The News strove to make city government interesting, and discussed editorially arguments for and against various policies. That all organized political parties in the city might have equal representation in its columns, three-quarters of a page in every edition was regularly appropriated to five of them, each party providing the matter to fill its share of the space. This matter was usually dry platitudinous stuff, which commercial newspapers would not find it practicable to print.

The paper was published every Wednesday, and was sold at one cent. Its management was in the hands of a board of three, assisted in its technical direction by a "managing-editor."

The News apparently died because of lack of interest. It was created in 1912 by order of the people by a vote of 58,143 in favor to 43,987 against; it was abolished this year by a vote of 15,778 in favor and 24,089 against.

Although The News apparently was one of the best managed and most satisfactory municipal journals of the kind yet published, and was organized in a municipality where conditions were such that it should have appealed to the electors and to candidates for office as a necessity, it ever such a journal is a necessity anywhere, it was a failure.

Apparently this journal was conducted under very advantageous conditions and in the most business-like manner. Yet it met with no response, and its capacity for good service was limited by the refusal of the public to be interested—a fate which has overtaken many other journals of the kind, in various cities of America.

CLOSURE AND DIRECT LEGISLATION.

No person can believe now that the opposition in Alberta was serious in proposing direct legislation and in complaining that the government did not go far enough in the legislation which was adopted last session.

The opposition in the Dominion insisted upon a general election to test the will of the people upon this very important legislation.

There was a third way open. That was to place the question before the electors in the form of a referendum. The answer to a series of questions would be the most direct expression of opinion that any people could give.

But the government declined to place the question before the people at all. It refused direct legislation when it became a practical question. Yet some of the opposition in Alberta praise Mr. Borden for introducing the closure, and try to criticize the Sifton administration because its direct legislation is not more radical.

THE ENTENTE CORDIALE.

According to present arrangements, President Poincare will leave Paris on June 23 en route to London to pay an official visit to their Britannic Majesties. The chief of the French Republic will spend several days in the English capital, and will visit Windsor with the King and Queen; and we may expect a brilliant demonstration of the "entente cordiale."

Ten years have passed, it may be noted, since President Loubet paid his visit to the Court of London, in 1903, a pilgrimage which may be said to have definitely marked the inauguration of that "entente" which—beyond all doubt—is destined to leave an indelible impression on the history of the world.

Editorial Notes

It is surprising that after all the warnings that Medicine Hat has had from cities which have been bitten by private owned street railways, that it is still considering a proposition with a private company.

Mr. Southam's Calgary paper, referring to the scandal in the Ontario legislature, asks why the charges which were once made against Frank Owen were never fully investigated.

Mr. Southam should get his Ottawa property and his Hamilton property to take up that question with the Borden government. It is up to Ottawa to proceed.

The Calgary fair poster is unique, original and as a poster is artistic. The Calgary posters were always good, but that of 1913 is the best yet.

Another week has passed and E. B. Bennett has returned to Ottawa and has had time to get the ear of the premier and yet Mr. Borden has made no move to fulfill the promise he made many months ago about the natural resources. As an unfulfiller of promises, Mr. Borden is without a peer in politics in Canada.

BRONCHOS OPEN LOCAL SEASON BY PLAYING TIE GAME WITH ESKIMOS

(By Joe Price.)

The Calgary Bronchos Saturday lived up to all the nice things which had been said about them when they made their initial local appearance and grabbed one game of the scheduled double header with the Eskimos and tied the other one. The game which they won was the evening encounter, the score being 13 to 4. The opening game was a 5 to 5 tie. And if it had not been for an antediluvian league statute, which required that the first game of a double header be called at five o'clock, the Bronchos might have copped the pair of contests.

As it was, after the Bronchos had helped Smick Meyers out of a tight hole in the Edmonton half of the ninth, and the fans were on edge for the first time during the rather unexciting contest, B. S. McDonald discovered it was five o'clock, and therefore that it would be impossible for Calgary to take a turn at bat; therefore the score must stand at the eighth inning figures, 5 to 5.

His Umps was doubtless right in his decision, but it was the quintessence of solid ivory to make the decision that he did without giving the fans warning. The result was a near riot.

At ten minutes to five the Eskimos went to bat. The score was a tie, five all. In the eighth the Bronchos had tied it after an uphill battle. The stage was all set for a brilliant ninth inning finish. The Bronchos showed more pep in this first half of the ninth than at any previous time during the game. Beautiful quick fielding shut off a run at the plate when the bases were full. The side was retired without a run. The stands arose en masse and cheered the Bronchos as they came in from the field.

And then it happened! B. S. McDonald, the umpire man, advanced timidly to the fence and shouted in a thin falsetto voice that as it was five o'clock the game would have to be called and the score would revert back to the eighth inning, which meant that the game would end in a tie.

The spectators were stunned. Then, as they saw the teams getting ready to leave the field, they realized that something had happened and that the Bronchos had been euchered out of the opening game of the season. Fortunately for the umps the spectators were not near enough to him to do what their anger prompted them to do. By the time the excited fans had crossed the track, McDonald had made his get away.

The bone-headed part of the whole performance was that the umps did not announce before the ninth inning began that the game would be called at five o'clock. It would have been easy enough to have made this announcement and would have saved all the trouble. Perhaps if the Eskimos had scored in this inning the game would not have been called. Anyway, President Frank Gray was there, and he could have easily suspended the rules in view of the fact that it was the opening game; but he did not. Besides, Frank Gray also owns the Edmonton club, and it would have been expecting too much of him to take any such action.

The net result was a bunch of nearly three thousand soreheaded fans, many of whom left the grounds swearing that if that was the kind of treatment that they might expect that they would in the future save their four-bit pieces. The whole thing was very unfortunate, and will do the game a great deal of harm, especially in view of the fact that the game was over half an hour late in getting under way.

The fans turned out three thousand strong to witness the opening game. There would have been a great many more present had there been any certainty of the contest being played. Three days and three nights of almost steady rain and snow had made even the most optimistic of the fans give up any hope of seeing a game in the Edmonton series. But Old Sol came out in all his glory early Saturday morning, and accompanied by a warm wind, dried up the grounds in splendid fashion. The grounds were in such good condition that it was not even necessary to put down sawdust along the baselines. But this was not known until within three hours of the contest. The turnout of fans under such conditions was nothing short of wonderful.

The First Game.
At two minutes past three Mayor Simons advanced to the center of the diamond and with a Calgary baseball cap sitting jauntily at one side of his head, Cappy Smart took his position back of the plate. Cappy wore a big protector, a catching glove and a Calgary cap as well as other articles of attire too numerous to mention. The mayor who is usually one of the coolest of mortals was a little nervous at the sight of such a large and enthusiastic audience and after he had wound up and unwound several times for the benefit of the photographers he heaved the sphere toward the plate but Cappy Smart showed great agility and hooked onto the vagabond Reach—and the 1913 season was officially opened.

Mr. McDonald then announced that the batteries would be: Meyers and Roche for Calgary; Dickinson and Stark for Edmonton.

The First Inning.
Roche, the former Swift Current amateur, led off for Edmonton. He cracked the very first ball pitched, down to Obie O'Brien, who fielded it nicely but made a bum throw to first which even Julie Streib could not stop and Roche was safe. Reddick then sacrificed. Whisman grounded out. Roche with the first run of the season. Redmond then whiffed and retired the side.

he reached the third station. The band started up with "You Great Big Beautiful Doll" but was drowned out by the enthusiastic fans. O'Brien grounded out; then Jimmy Flanagan delivered a pinch single made the third base and Larry Piper scored. Roche was safe at first on a fielder's choice which cost Flanagan his life at second and Hollis ended the inning by fanning.

Second Inning.
Dudley the first man up in the second, lifted a Texas leaguer and was advanced to second when the umpire decided but that was as far as he got as the next two up were easy outs.

Vivian sent a fly out to deep center as a starter of the Calgary half of second. Rothfuss made his initial bow to the Calgary fans by driving a single between short and third. Julie Streib fied out to Skeels. Then Smick Meyers poked a liner over second base while Rothfuss scampered to third and then came home when Larry Piper got his second single out of two strikes.

O'Brien retired the side by flying to right field.
Edmonton Again in Lead.
In the third the Eskimos jumped into the lead again on a single by Roche, followed by two triples, one by Reddick and the other by Whisman, resulting in two runs being scored. It almost amounted to three runs when Redmond, who got to first by the ambulance route, went to second on Roche's bum peg down to second.

Larry Piper backed up the second baseman and heaved the ball for Dickinson. 1; struck out by Dickinson, 4; by Myers, 4; hit by pitched ball, by Myers, Redmond, by Dickinson, Myers, left on bases, Calgary 5, Edmonton 3; first base on error, Edmonton 6; double play, Skeels to Reddick, Piper to Roche; time of game, 1:57; umpire, B. S. McDonald; attendance, 2,500.

The Evening Game.
Calgary fans were given their first chance to look over Walter Johnson Frink in action in the evening encounter. Frink, by Dickinson, Myers, left on bases, Calgary 5, Edmonton 3; first base on error, Edmonton 6; double play, Skeels to Reddick, Piper to Roche; time of game, 1:57; umpire, B. S. McDonald; attendance, 2,500.

MOOSE JAW EVENS UP BY TAKING A PAIR

Beats Regina Red Sox in Both Ends of Double-header on Saturday

Moose Jaw, May 11.—Moose Jaw evened up with Regina Saturday when they took both games of a double header before record crowds. Two admissions were charged and one hour elapsed between the finish of the first game and the commencement of the second. Twenty-five hundred fans saw the first struggle while 1,700 attended the second. The first game was a somewhat ragged exhibition. Northrup in the mound for the Robin Hooses pitched good ball but his support was any thing but good. The Millers, however won the game behind him by virtue of their heavy and opportune hitting and the wisdom of surgeons who started for Regina. The latter was as easy as he was wild and was relieved by Rankin who fared little better and who was subsequently relieved by Williams. The Millers put the game on ice and scored nine times on the first four runs which were forced in. The second game was a battle between Burgess and Simmons. The fielding behind both men was excellent. The local twirler kept six hits well scattered.

CALGARY IS THE PREMIER CITY OF CANADA AS FAR AS AUTOMOBILES ARE CONCERNED

Many Cities of the East of Calgary's Population, Are Not Possessed of One-Half as Many Automobiles as Are Owned in Calgary

That for its size Calgary is considered by automobile experts of the east to be the premier city of Canada insofar as the number of automobiles owned by its citizens are concerned is the statement of P. A. Bleakley, master mechanic of the Weston Motors, Limited, of Brantford, Ontario, who is in Calgary today.

Manufacturers judge the prosperity of a city by the number of machines its residents own, Calgary is getting some very good advertising from this source. Many cities in the east that have almost double the population of Calgary do not own half, and in some cases one third of the machines that are owned in Calgary.

Of the hundreds of thousands of followers of The Fra in America, few are more enthusiastically admiring than the hundreds of thousands who listened for two hours to his humorous and clever lecture on "Making a Living."

INTERESTING REPORT ISSUED OF PROVINCIAL DEMONSTRATION FARMS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

First Year of Operation Proves the Wisdom if the Plan—Farmers May Learn How Modern Principles May Be Worked Out With Success

The provincial department of Agriculture has just issued from Edmonton its first report of the demonstration farms which have been formed at six points in Alberta.

It is explained in a preface that the plan of having demonstration farms introduced instead of having an agricultural college, and the idea was to show to farmers by practical illustration the work which could be done along the lines which are laid down at the experimental farms run at various points in the province.

Six Farms Established. There were six farms established by the Government during the past year, and these have been amply stocked and the buildings have been erected and grain sown and reaped, so that a statement of interest at the end of the year may now be made for the first time.

Practical Men in Charge. Competent managers have been secured for each farm, the object being to obtain in each case a thoroughly practical man who would not only be in a position to guide the operations of the farm, but to assist in various other ways in the educational work in contemplation.

These buildings are not extravagant, but it was essential, in view of the live stock work which was being undertaken on these farms, that buildings of fairly substantial character should be erected at the start.

When you are confronted with the problem of what piano to buy, investigate the Gourlay. You will find its character justifies its high reputation.

The Markets

WHEAT IMPROVES; PRICE IS STRONGER IN WINNIPEG

Continental Markets Better; Cash Demand Good; American Markets Bouyant

Winnipeg, May 10—There was an improved tone in the wheat markets and prices were decidedly stronger. The influencing factors were a better continental demand, strong cash demand at Minneapolis and need of rains over the northwestern states, while unfavorable weather was reported in France. The Liverpool market was closed for the Whitauitide holidays. Winnipeg opened unchanged to 1-2c higher and closed with a gain for the day of 3-8 to 1-8c.

American markets opened unchanged to 1-2c higher and showed strong demand for the business hours. Minneapolis opened 1-3 to 1-2c higher and closed 7-8 to 1c higher. Chicago opened unchanged to 1-8c higher and closed 7-8 to 1c higher.

The cash demand at Winnipeg was not good and offerings fair while export business was inactive. Cash prices closed 1-2 to 3-4c for contract wheat; lower grades dropped 1-2c. Oats and flax were both stronger. Oats closed unchanged to 1-4c up. Flax closed 2-4c higher on all grades. Inspections Friday were 4-c cars and in eight Saturday were 800. Clearances were: wheat 50,000 bus; oats 58,000 bus; flax 15,000 bus.

MAJORITY REPORT FAVORS MEN

Ottawa, April 27—The award of the Board of Conciliation under the Industrial Disputes Act, to inquire into differences between the Canadian Northern railway and its conductors has been received in the Department of Labor. The board was composed of William Cross of Winnipeg, appointed on the recommendation of the employees, and His Hon. Justice C. N. R. J. N. Harvey Hall, Toronto, appointed on the recommendation of the employers, and His Hon. Justice Hazegrad, Winnipeg, chairman, appointed on the recommendation of the other two members.

The demands of the conductors were for several changes in the existing schedules of miles and rates, including an increase in pay and a reduction of working hours from nine to eight hours per day. The number of men directly concerned is 450.

The board in its report, which is signed by its chairman, Judge Hazegrad, and Mr. Hall, recommends the adoption on July 1, 1913, of a new schedule, which provides for the payment of passenger conductors, at the average of $165 per month, conductors on mixed and freight trains at $180 per hundred miles, and conductors on through freight and work trains at $125, the new rates involving certain increases on those now prevailing. The proposed new schedule also provides that, except in emergency, no day shall be considered a work day, except in extreme cases. Mr. Hall, while signing the board's report, in which it is claimed that the new schedule should be made effective from January 16 last, and also that the mileage rates in some cases are inadequate. A minority report is presented by Mr. Cross.

GOD'S GREATEST TRUST. Social science affirms that woman's place in society marks the level of civilization. From the twilight of Greece, through the Italian worship of the virgin, the dreams of chivalry, the justice of the civil law and the equality of French society, we trace her gradual recognition; while our common law, as Lord Brougham confessed, was a tribute to woman, the approbrium of age and Christianity. For 40 years plain men and women, working noiselessly, have washed away that opprobrium; the statute books of 30 states have been remedied, and woman stands today almost face to face with her last claim—the ballot. It has been a weary and thankless, though successful, struggle. But if there is any refuge from that ghastly curse—the vice of rat cities, before which social science stands palsied and dumb—it is in this more equal recognition of woman. If, in this critical battle for universal suffrage—our fathers' noblest legacy to us, and the greatest trust God leaves in our hands—there will be any weapon on which once taken from the armory will make victory certain, it will be as it has been in art, literature and society, surrounding woman into the political arena.—Wendell Phillips.

CARS DISCONTINUED

New York, May 11.—The horse cars along 14th Avenue, lower side and cross-town lines, linking New York today with a by-gone age, have fulfilled their purpose and are to be replaced by storage battery vehicles. The public service commission has granted the application of the belt line railway to make the change.

FIGURING THE ANGLE OF HEEL

Amount of Rolling Does Not Indicate Instability. The landman wonders at the narrowness of the transatlantic liner compared to her length. She is so narrow and so high above the water that he thinks she may be unstable. And if he sees a vessel rolling heavily, especially if he is a passenger, it seems to him a dangerous condition. These notions, of course, are superficial and incorrect. A wide-beamed ship may be unstable, while a narrow-beamed ship may be absolutely stable. It depends on the metacentric height. Nor does a certain amount of rolling indicate instability. A ship may be so constructed or loaded that she is unstable when in a vertical position, and only finds her equilibrium when rolling 15 degrees to the natural limit of her inclination or neither side, she strongly resists the forces of wave and wind that would send her further over. She swings like a pendulum in an arc of 90 degrees or more, and in doing so, the stability of a vessel heeling over may increase up to a certain point and then gradually or suddenly diminish to zero, which means capsizing. A flat-bottomed Dutch boat is stable until it reaches a point of inclination, where it suddenly flips and loses equilibrium more gradually. Racing yachts and other completely decked sailing craft, which have weighted keels, may lay over on their beam ends at an angle of 90 deg. or even more and right themselves. When the gunwales touch water, the danger may be not from instability, but from flow of water into the vessel. Full rigged sailing ships usually wet their gunwales at 20 to 25 degrees. An American torpedo boat destroyer, which was caught in a storm on the Atlantic about a year ago, was said to have heeled over so that her deck was at right angles with the water, and she came into port as if nothing had happened.

The average transatlantic liner will stand for a list of 60 deg. and recover her position. It is quite common for her to go over 45 deg. in a heavy gale, while she will roll comfortably day at 25 and 30 degrees. Sailing ships usually make their heeling limit 25 deg. The passenger abroad a ship naturally exaggerate the extent of rolling as he does the size of the "mountain wave." The true amount of roll is given by an instrument with a pendulum. This instrument is in common use, but is often inaccurate. On battleships it is carefully looked after and gives correct results. It may be news to many readers that ships do not roll in a haphazard manner, but sway back and forth in regular time periods, like a pendulum, regardless of the distance covered in the side to side path. Each ship has its own "period of roll," say ten seconds for the double movement, which it maintains whether heeling very slightly or going almost on her beam ends. If the period of roll is short the ship will have a quick jerky action, and in the case of a sailing vessel in a heavy sea may sway out her masts. A slow roll makes a comfortable ship. A period of sway depends on the ship's centre of gravity. If the latter is low, which is a condition, the roll is quick and uncomfortable, while a high centre of gravity results in a slow, easy roll and the same time less stability. A certain amount of stability is deliberately sacrificed by the ship-builder in order to obtain comfortable action. The rolling period of the big trans-Atlantic liners is about ten seconds, while battleships pendulate in a period of seven to eight seconds, and smaller war craft require between five and six seconds as well as ships, and if the two happen to coincide there is peril for the vessel. That is, a ship already heeled on her side may receive an extra push from a coincident wave sufficient to capsize her. A captain who knows his business is on the lookout for the so-called synchronism of wave and roll, and at the first sign of it indicated by heavy rolling, he breaks the harmony by sending the ship faster or slower, by changing her course or by altering her centre of gravity by taking in or letting out water in the hold. A combination of synchronism with a hurricane gust when a ship is heeled over is something which rarely happens, but which no skipper likes to think about.

WOULD CLOSE GAMING HOUSES.

Paris, May 16.—After an animated debate the chamber of deputies Friday night, by a vote of 275 to 264, passed a resolution in favor of further consideration being given to an amendment by Deputy Jacques Poin to the gambling bill. The amendment seeks to revoke all gambling licenses granted under the law of 1907. Its acceptance would involve the closing of many clubs and summer resort casinos.

Waste is a surplus of anything which can be used profitably. The world is full of waste in many forms.

Food is so plentiful in the United States that we are very wasteful in its use.

Religion is extremely wasteful. Many a man wastes so much time in business that he is unable to do his work.

There are a billion and a half people in the world and each year we waste enormous numbers of these people.
