MASSEY HALL WAS BESHEGED AT EVERY DOOR LAST NIGHT

Thousands Who Could Not Get Inside to Hear Sir Wilfrid Went to the Overflow Meetings at the Pavilion and Association Hall

The Toronto Machine Worked Up a Grand Reception for the Liberal Tourists—Great Torchlight Procession—The Premier Makes His Preferential Trade Policy the Star Feature of His Speech

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with sunny, smiling face and honeyed words, and attired in the height of fashion, has come to Toronto and has been joyfully received by the thousands of his admirers. He has every reason to be flattered by his reception, and his meeting in Massey Hall, as a picture of concentrated humanity, should live as a memory forever.

One thing must be kept in mind in a view of the meeting, and that is that those who went to Massey Hall, and those who went to the overflow meetings, and those who went to the overflow meetings at the Pavilion and Association Hall, were all equally devoted to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and to the Liberal cause.

Experience Organization.

The five necromantic bands of the experienced organizer were seen in every feature of the gathering. It was not as if they had a special favor to do, but it was their duty to see that the meeting was a success. Where he went they went, and where he stood they stood.

The Torchlight Procession.

The procession was brilliant and long. There were torches and fireworks to burn and any body could have them around York and Wellington streets. It was a perfect picture for the small boy who everywhere in evidence, and if he did not have a couple of torches and a dozen candles, he thought he was being cheated. The bigger boys who represented the student bodies also got in for their share of the pyrotechnics and some time before the procession moved off the vicinity of York and Wellington streets was a blaze of pretty lights, while hundreds of dollars of somebody's money went up in colored lights and smoke.

Meeting Was a Hammer.

If there was any criticism, then the meeting was a hammer. Every foot of sitting, standing, and even breathing room was occupied, and at times the audience in places appeared to be three or four deep. The one thing that was not done was to let the speakers go. The Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the other speakers were all given a hearty reception. The Premier's speech was the star feature of the evening.

The Hall Decorated.

Money and care had not been spared in the decoration of the hall, and never before was there such a glare of light and color. Oak panelings were hidden by hanging red, white and blue bannets, and the hall was a picture of beauty.

Route of the March.

The procession moved off along King to Union and then up University-avenue to College-street and down Yonge to Massey Hall. On University-street the Klippers' march was in evidence, and the torchlight brigade was a sight to see.

Cranks With Fireworks.

There was substantial proof that all the idiots have not yet crossed over Jordan, when men who should know better shot colored lights from Roman candles into windows where men, women and children were cheering and waving.

The Hall Besheged.

The gathering of the audience was one of the largest features of the meeting. The hall was besheged from every side, and the curious men climbed in thru the windows, and the overflow meetings were held at the Pavilion and Association Hall.

Big Crowd En Route.

A large crowd witnessed the procession all along the line of march. The reckless use of fireworks scared a lot of horses and injured a lot of clothes, but the enthusiasm was kept up with remarkable persistence.

The Students Scrambled.

When the students had taken possession of the hall, there was a scramble for a better field. The Premier's speech was the star feature of the evening.

RICHARDSON HAD THE CROWDS AT SIFTON-WINKLER MEETINGS

At Miami and Carman, in Lisgar Constituency, the Present Member Had the Electors With Him and Closed the Meeting in Each Case—Sifton Refused a Hearing

Miami, Man., Oct. 16.—(Special)—If there was a political meeting carried by the invited speakers, it was the one held here this afternoon in the interests of Winkler, when R. L. Richardson carried the meeting by 10 to 1. The meeting was most enthusiastic for Richardson, and a few more of such meetings will convince the electors that the Liberals have no say for machine tactics.

Richardson Showed Sifton Up.

Richardson showed Sifton up. Mr. Richardson showed that Sifton had stood in with monopolies and corporations against the farmer. He charged Sifton with not seeing that the farmers' interests were guarded.

Carman Meeting.

Carman, Man., Oct. 16.—At the meeting here last night, E. D. Martin arranged Sifton as the representative of the corporation, and not of the people. In a million Government, Richardson closed Sifton with betraying the West.

Coal Carriers in Conference, But Everything Kept Secret

Representatives of the Railroads Had a Meeting at Philadelphia—Hazenlitt Mined Had a Long March and Returned Home Tired—Hopeful Signs at Scranton

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—A secret conference was held today in the office of the Philadelphia and Reading Company, representatives of various coal-carrying railroads, and a number of individual operators. The meeting was held in a room which was not to be mentioned in any way.

At Strike Headquarters.

President Mitchell has nothing new to tell. The strikers' meeting was held at the headquarters of the strike, and the strikers' demands were discussed.

Winnipeg Political Jots.

Local Election in the Centre Riding to Take Place Nov. 1.—Mayor Taylor a Candidate.

John Gilliam and His Son Howard Went Out to Lift Their Nets and Have Not Returned.

FEARS THAT THEY WERE DROWNED.

Two Other Boats Went Out, But Got Back Safely—The Gale Was Strong.

Okaville, Oct. 16.—Three fishing boats, the Alice Roy, Mina and Valenta, left Bronte this morning early to lift their nets, which were set out in the lake, and about a mile east of here.

The Situation in China.

All the despatches from China this morning are vague and indefinite, except one which says that a Russian army has occupied Peking, the terminus of the Shanghai Kwan Railway.

Dirty Tactics This.

He characterized the bust as a dead issue, and declared that the present reception would reveal only five issues. Not content with his lamentable attempt to be witty, Mr. Lindsey, however, tried to raise a laugh by declaring that the motto that is printed on the picture of Hugh John at Sir Charles' meeting did not extend to Sir Charles.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER TO TACKLE H. H. COOK

Canada's Premier Received a Billet Doux From the Old Lime Liberal Yesterday Which He Ignored at Massey Hall.

In His Letter Mr. Cook Reviewed the Seventeen Distinct and Specific Charges Which He Has Made Against the Liberal Leaders—But the Premier is Silent

Mr. H. H. Cook, ex-M.P., yesterday delivered the following letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the Massey Hall, Toronto, Oct. 16, 1900.

Right Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Toronto.

Dear Sir—Recently I addressed a letter to the Liberal electors of Canada, in which I charged that the present leaders of the Liberal party, yourself and your colleagues in the Cabinet, have betrayed the principles of our party, have been false to your pledges and broken faith with the people of Canada. In that letter I said that the conduct of our party while in power and the leadership of yourself and your colleagues has been one long, shameful story of unfulfilled promises and pledges broken, of extravagance, jobbery and corruption, and of the most shameful betrayal of every principle for which the party has stood in the past.

No Denial of the Charges.

Up to the present neither you nor any of your colleagues, nor any of the newspapers who are supporting your government, have ventured to dispute or deny even so much as one of the serious charges made by me. I notice that you have permitted one of your colleagues—the one directly responsible for the inefable disaster which has befallen the party by the actions of the gang of ballot thieves and swindlers who operated in West Huron and Brantford under his direction, and whose entrance into the Cabinet immediately after the doings of the gang became known had all the appearance of being a punishment for service done—to make an attack upon me with the evident hope of being able to divert public attention from the charges I made. I might, did I care to do so, challenge without fear a portion of my public record and party service with that of this colleague of yours, for a man who never made or sought to make a dollar out of public money would have to have a very good reason for putting himself and one who has become wealthy by making the most of his opportunities, to permit me to say that he is a politician, not a man of honor, and that his motives are of consequence in matters of this kind.

TARTE'S PECULIAR ARGUMENT.

Liberal Defeat Would Make All Minorities Afraid to Live Under the British Flag.

Montréal, Oct. 16.—(Special)—In a speech delivered here this evening, Hon. Mr. Tarte repeated his former statement that a Liberal defeat would be an imperial disaster, and that it would be a catastrophe for Canada that Canada had voted against the Premier because he was a Frenchman it would cause an immigration to be afraid to live under the British flag.

A. Slocum Co's laboratories, 179 King St. west, any day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. during the present week. This is the most generous offer ever made by a reliable firm, and is done chiefly to enable the people to distinguish between the superior merits of the Dr. Slocum preparations and the scores of spurious emulsions now on the market. It is needless to say here that the T. A. Slocum Company has achieved a national reputation for this preparation, and owing to its marvelous success has found hosts of imitators both in Canada and the United States. This practice of imitation has become such a menace to the health of the people at large that Dr. Slocum is determined that the sick shall not be imposed upon by unscrupulous dealers, and has taken this means of giving the public an opportunity to test for themselves and to decide upon the merits of his famous emulsion. There are no conditions imposed. All you have to do is to present yourself at above address, when you will be given a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE without being under the slightest obligation to pay a cent in return.

WOMAN'S WORLD BY KATHERINE LESLIE

Yesterday was a red-letter day in the history of the Alumnae Association of the Toronto General Hospital Training School for Nurses. Although this interesting association was really inaugurated in 1884, it cannot be said to have been active and vigorous till a couple of years ago. At the present moment the society is in a flourishing condition, with every prospect of becoming a most important and influential one in the profession of nursing. The objects of the association are to further and protect the interests of nurses, to maintain a high standard of excellence in the profession, and to encourage and help all the members in every way and at all times. Yesterday being the day set for the annual meeting, the alumnae of the "G.H." as the members lovingly and fondly designate their old school of training, celebrated the occasion by a luncheon, which was served in one of the banquetting chambers of the Temple Cafe. There was a splendid showing of graduates, many years being represented, from that just past back to 10 and 12 years ago, when the Training School was practically in its infancy. Among those present were Miss Savelly, lady superintendent of the hospital, and honorary president of the Alumnae Association. Miss Savelly looked particularly well in a handsome black gown, with Indian print silk bodice, and black hat, with plumes and lace. Judging by the cordial greeting that met her on all sides, Miss Savelly holds a very warm place in the hearts of her graduates. Miss Watson of the Convalescent Hospital was another favorite guest, while Miss McKeller, superintendent of the Burnside Hospital, was there, and Miss Alice J. Scott, of the Bellevue Hospital. Miss Gordon, superintendent of the Burnside Hospital, was also present. The banquet chamber was a perfect tower of graceful green palms; the tables were charmingly disposed about the room, and decorated with candles, masses of roses and trailing sprays of asparagus ferns. At the plate of each guest was placed a long stemmed bridesmaid rose, and a souvenir menu card, which bore at the head the enameled red and gold badge, which is worn by all the grads. of the Toronto General Hospital. The upper table was occupied by Miss Scott, the president; Miss

After the close of business, the nurses all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne." It was a pleasant close to a really delightful reunion, and the alumnae of the "G.H." are to be congratulated upon the success of their second annual meeting.

AMONG THE CHURCHES. The St. Anne's Church, Dufferin-street, will hold their thanksgiving service this evening at 8 o'clock, when Rev. G. F. Davidson of Trinity College will preach. The soloists will be Miss Mary Baker, Mr. Victor Hutchinson and Mr. W. A. Paine. The choir will render Maunders' "Magnificat" and "Nunc Dimittis," and the offertory will be "Let us now fear the Lord our God."

Harvest festival service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, in St. Mary's Church, Desjardins-avenue and Bloor-street. The Rev. J. P. Lewis, M.A., of Grace Church, will conduct the service. The offertory music will be repeated at the Sunday service, the Right Rev. Dr. Thomas, Bishop of Algoma, occupying the pulpit in the morning.

Evangelist Ranton and Rev. T. E. E. Shore will conduct the meeting that will be held tonight in the Metropolitan Church. The services are evangelistic in character, and will be continued during the remainder of the week, under the auspices of the Toronto Epworth League Union. Special music is provided for each evening.

The annual elections of the St. Paul's Catholic Union were held on Monday night, Oct. 15, in the room of the St. Paul's Church. The following officers were elected: Mr. F. C. For, president; Mr. C. L. Lator, vice-president; Mr. Miller, secretary-treasurer; Mr. J. J. O'Sullivan, secretary; Mr. J. H. Lator, secretary on the Executive. Rev. Father McCarthy, pastor of the church, presided at the meeting of the Missionary Committee of the Toronto Methodist Conference was held yesterday in Agnew's hall. The committee distributed the anonymous grants made by the General Assembly of the Methodist Church of Canada.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET MIX

Contractor Now Says on Account of Delay by Architects He Cannot Finish Work in Time. NO CHANGES WILL BE PERMITTED.

Mrs. Stephenson's Rent the Same, But Her Husband's Salary is Increased.

The St. Lawrence Market "bottle of fish" boiled over at yesterday's meeting of the Property Committee. Architects Jarvis and Siddall, with their conflicting opinions, occupied the board and threatened to keep on giving excuses till the committee should sink in despair.

A letter from the contractor, which arrived as the drop-curtain in the performance, let the audience know that the work cannot be done within the specified time on account of the war of architects, and will, now likely have to wait until the spring.

Want to Change Their Plans. Messrs. Jarvis and Siddall, the associate architects of the St. Lawrence Market, asked for permission to change their plans so as to provide for steam cars getting into the market. They had different plans for the proposed alterations.

Ald. Sheppard tackled the gentlemen, and found that their calculations were not in strict agreement with the report of the Grand Trunk Railway engineer. Sufficient headway had not been allowed in the original plan, and, besides, Jarvis and Siddall were not agreed themselves as to how to alter the plans. Mr. Siddall's tracks already estimate was $300, and Mr. Jarvis' about $400.

Ald. Sheppard: How far has this work progressed? Jarvis: It is as far as it was before the pier was torn down.

Mr. Lamb said he was now up to the street level, where they were doing the stalling down.

The architect was told to go on with the work according to the original plan, and not to make any alterations.

Can't Finish in Time. As soon as the architects had left the room as they were asked to leave, Mr. Lamb to the effect that the delay consequent upon the architects' proposals had rendered it impossible for time, and that operations would be suspended until the spring.

Later on in the afternoon Mr. Jarvis returned, and the wrangle reopened. Mr. Lamb said the architect's proposals were the fruit of Mr. Jarvis' vacillating and the result of his own indecision. Mr. Jarvis had asked Mr. Siddall if he would come back.

Ald. Sheppard: Mr. Lamb's remarks are unfair to Mr. Jarvis. Mr. Jarvis could be. When Mr. Jarvis had come back to carry on the work under the original plan, he had to go on with the work that way the steam car contractor be Mr. Jarvis' building.

Mr. Jarvis kept on talking, and finally taking the chair, declared that he did not consider the committee had power to order him as it had done.

The matter is very tired, and Ald. Lamb hustled the architect out of the chair.

Mrs. Stephenson's Rent. The wife of Island Constable Stephenson asked for relief from the rent of her five children, and her residence on the Island district. Her winter months entails a great deal of heavy work.

The committee felt that these facts should be taken into consideration, and Mr. J. Fleming offered strenuous opposition, saying it would be a bad precedent to reduce Mrs. Stephenson's rent, as her neighbors would be certain to claim a like relief.

Mrs. Stephenson: They are only three in the summer for pleasure, and in the winter they are all at home. Mr. J. Fleming: They would say also that they are only three in the winter, and live there all the year round.

The committee decided to reduce the rent, but to send on an empty recommendation to the board, and to increase to $15 a month during the four months of the summer.

Hughes' Letter Laid Aside. School Inspector Hughes wrote that Mr. Arthur Hughes had promised him an order for some new ink, and that he had not received it. The committee, not liking the way in which Mr. Hughes had written the letter, treated the communication with the utmost indifference.

Mr. Pierson, an engineer in the City Hall, wrote that he had been asked to give a long letter making serious charges against Engineer Dixon in connection with the damaged plant in the machine shop. He had several times the subject of discussion.

The City Commissioner Coatsworth had referred in favor of reducing the rent of the St. Lawrence Market caretaker from $200 to $150. Mr. Lamb moved that the report be adopted. Ald. Lamb moved that the salary stand at the present figure. Ald. Lamb's motion carried.

City Commissioner Coatsworth reported that $1200 worth of milk had been sold in the third floor of the City Hall but there is no money for the purpose this year.

Cattle Market Affairs. Ald. Lamb, presiding over the meeting of the Cattle Market Association, some discussion took place on the by-law governing the market.

Ald. Dunn made the remark that the Toronto Market is more loosely run than any other market in the city. He said that a full package case for the market should be made, and that the market should be run as a business, and not as a charity.

Mr. Pierson moved that the by-law be amended so that the market should be run as a business, and not as a charity. Mr. Pierson's motion was carried.

Mr. Buck, from whom some cattle were taken to the market, was compensated to the amount of $75.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY. Is Not What Makes a Remedy Valuable. Testimonials are good things, and we are always glad to see them. They prove that a remedy is good, because they are given by those who have used it, and who are in a position to know.

There are differences of opinion in every walk in life. Clergymen sometimes are not considered orthodox, and even politicians are not always hand-in-hand. There is one thing, however, upon which everybody is united, and that is in the matter of health. Everyone wants to be well. It has been demonstrated by the most scientific savants in the world that germ life is the cause of disease. It has also been demonstrated by these same authorities that the most effective antiseptic and germ killer is Powley's Liquefied Ozone, because it accomplishes its work and is positively non-injurious to the delicate organs of the human system. Clergymen are orthodox in this matter, and even politicians see eye to eye. A great number of the most prominent Canadian divines have endorsed Powley's Liquefied Ozone, as have also done men very prominent in Canadian politics.

Powley's Liquefied Ozone is liquid oxygen. It is the new and only effective way to treat disease. Hundreds of testimonials prove its value. Send in for pamphlet on preparation and treatment of the most common diseases.

Zinc mining in Ontario is in its infancy, and now is the time to get in. Last year one Ontario zinc mine, the Zenith, sold over $70,000 worth of ore. The Black Jack Zinc Syndicate, Limited, are the owners of a property adjoining the Zenith, and expect to take out enough ore this winter to put the mine on a dividend-paying basis. There is plenty of good ore at the grass roots. It requires money, however, to take it out. A small block of stock is being offered for that purpose, carrying a preference dividend equal to one cent per month. The expense of opening the mine and putting it on a paying basis will be very light. No machinery will be required, and the money for stock sold will be expended on the property. The ore is worth $27.00 to the ton, and will net $18.00. It takes a good gold mine to beat this. The stock is 1 1/2¢ per share. Capital stock $100,000. Write for further particulars. Address—

HIS WIFE HAS THE BOOZLE

Jerome Kentner Says He's Entitled to One Half of the Bank Deposits in His Wife's Name.

DISSATISFIED WITH PARTNERSHIP.

Wife Told Him to Remove His Chastity—He Gets Out a Temporary Injunction.

Deed, the great disturbing element, has entered the home of Jerome Kentner and left it bare, forced him from it and separated two beings who were once intended for a life partnership. Jerome Kentner, a blunt but honest creature, was united in marriage to Cecelia Kentner by the Rev. Alex. Williams five years ago. Things went along smoothly as in any average case, each trusting the other, and both intent upon laying up a provision for the later days when age would have crept upon them. To this end they had already accumulated over $200, deposited in her name, in the savings bank of the Bank of Commerce, sure evidence of their frugality. Each was to have a half interest in the fund. However, this happy state of affairs was not destined to last for, according to Kentner himself, in his sworn statement in support of his application to the court for relief, the situation has been changed as follows. About two weeks ago she began to show symptoms of infidelity, and while he was in Altona he was surprised to receive a visit from his wife, who had traveled there to tell him that he need not come home. He did not know, however, but only to find that his wife would not let him enter the house, 106 Adelaide West, commencing simply to allow him to enter in the day time in order to see his children. He alleges there is a man who has possession of his wife's affections, and forcing her to contribute money should be removed from its place, he applied to the Chief Justice here yesterday for an injunction to prevent his wife from receiving visits from the man. His Lordship granted him a temporary injunction, but he is expected to apply for a permanent one, and that he would not be expected to do anything to bring the dignity of a clergyman, the watchword of his battle would be prohibition, purity and patriotism. The convention agreed to these conditions.

TWO LADIES WERE ILL-TREATED BY TWO TORONTO CONSTABLES

Inspector Stephen Loses His Head at Massey Hall—Young Man Pushed Down Stairs and His Mother and Sister Were Also Ill-Treated.

That portion of the tremendous crowd last night which, when the lower floor seats of Massey Hall were filled, pressed onward and upward to the upper gallery to seek admittance at the east door, either participated in or was witness to some rather exciting incidents.

The upper gallery was reserved for the processions, and the police on guard there had orders to admit no one. Consequently the stairways and landings were soon jammed with men, women and children, who, ignorant of the constitution of affairs above, had rushed up, and when they wished to descend were prevented by the hundreds of constantly arriving people who also pressed up the stairs.

Naturally the refusal of the police to admit the crowd roused the ire of many, and especially those who were accompanied by ladies, and they, plied by realization of the empty seats beyond, attempted a rush. The ladies waxed warm in a moment and the blue coats above them in no gentle way. Ladies commenced to scream and cry, while men below endeavored to reach the scene of trouble, and things looked indeed perilous. Then the police, seeing that the doors, which the crowd endeavored to prevent, for five minutes or so the struggle went on, when the majesty of the law was triumphant and the doors were closed. But the dissatisfied citizens would not rest. Suggestions were made that the doors be kicked in or shoved in, and it was attempted, but all in vain. Then, while the crowd was still in a state of commotion, management responsible for the state of affairs were being freely aired, some influential gentles began to finger the upper hinges of the doors. The idea caught on and after a few minutes' work they were loosened. Still the doors could not be budged, until a wish that a rope was in slight produced a substitute in the shape of a leather belt. This was attached to the door knob, a dozen willow handles, and there was a creak and a crash—and the way was open. But not clear—for three burly policemen stood confronting the eager throng, and the crowd, which had now advanced from the midst of this stormy scene those in front caught a glimpse of a banner in the hall, breathing something about "Peace and Liberty" and "The People's Choice."

Ordered to Clean Them Out. Argument was useless and orders were given by Inspector Stephen to clear the landings and stairs. No resistance, save by a few who were being pushed down the stairs, was offered. Something occurred which will likely result in explanations being made by the young fellow, accompanied by his mother and sister, was speaking with Inspector Stephen, who was in charge of the half dozen policemen, without any provocation, that urban gentlemen gave him a shove down the stairs. As he fell, P. Enery, No. 105, attempted to carry on the good work of his superior officer. As he did so the young fellow's mother went to his rescue, when the policeman seized her also in a really brutal way, forcing them down the stairs. The young fellow's sister was similarly treated by P. C. No. 87. This man's name is Irving. Bystanders were by no means slow in expressing their indignation to the police. The young man says he will have the policemen walk the carpet. The incident was perfectly disgraceful.
