Four Killed in Big Wreck of C.P.'s Atlantic Express

Eastern Section of I. C. R. the Scene of a Disastrous Head-End Collision.

Haltax, N. S., April 12.—As the result of train orders being disregarded, another terrible accident, the second within a few months on the eastern section of the I. C. R., occurred at 11:30 o'clock on Saturday night, two miles west of Windsor Junction. The eastbound fast freight, No. 75, for Montreal, collided head-on, with the fast C. P. R. train No. 26, known as the Atlantic Express, which was en route to the death of four trainmen, and the probably fatal injury of another, and the slight injury of half-a-dozen others, doing great damage to the rolling stock, and blocking traffic over the road. The dead are: WILLIAM WALL, driver No. 26, MICHAEL OAKLEY, fireman No. 26, ALBERT THORPE, brakeman No. 15, EDWARD HILL, fireman No. 75. Seriously injured: Nelson Copeland, driver No. 48, and Angus MacEachern, tramp, who was scaling a ride on the fast express. The passengers slightly injured were: Dr. Miller, Halifax, head cut; J. G. Omeau, Halifax, head cut; A. E. Evans and John Kelly, post office, bruised about back. The express men's injuries were also slightly bruised.

DETECTIVES IN THE CASE.

It has developed that a number of mysterious persons, masquerading as newspaper reporters, have been keeping close watch on the movements of both sides in the Gamey-Stratton bribery case. It is said these men are Hibernian detectives and that counsel for both have hit upon the same plan to pry into the secrets of the other. In truth there is no doubt that a liberal use of detective talent is being purchased on both sides, but hardly likely that the representatives of the same agency could have been employed in the same capacity. It illustrates the desperate character of the fight, however, that men should be used as spies to converse with the lawyers in the case and the witnesses, under the guise of representatives of the press. A leading lawyer in the fight observed to The World last night that this was one of the annoying features of the contest and that they had to be on their guard all the time. Now that the press have been so active the detectives may be used to watch them for enemies. Each side has a small army to put in the witness box. Taking care of the work involved is an important part of the work involved.

MR. BLAKE (as the Cabinet boys brace themselves for the shock): All ready, now.

Old England's Offering Of Settlers for Canada

RUSH INTO CANADA.

The first installment of the all-British colony for the Northwest has arrived. They are artisans, many of them wealthy and all of them coming from the best possible timber for the peopling of the vast area of rich farming lands in western Canada. At the same time these thousands are arriving to be shipped into the new country, ten times as many more are arriving from European ports at other points. Many future settlers for Canada are entering the new sweep by way of Castle Garden. Another stream is rushing into the land of promise from the Western States. There the railway facilities do not count for the people coming in over land, but from Eastern Canada everything depends upon the facilities offered in the way of transportation. Railway officials admit that it is utterly impossible to move this vast throng with the comfort to be found when the traffic is not so congested, but the tide is kept moving and altogether the inconvenience suffered by the new-comers is no greater than that received by those who were in the rush to the West 20 years ago. It is asserted, Canada is the hub of the universe.

Two Thousand All-British Colonists in the Barr Party.

St. John, N.B., April 12.—(Special to The World.)—Rev. J. N. Barr and G. E. Lloyd, with 1900 of the all-British colony for the Saskatchewan district, arrived in the SS Lake Manitoba at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. The local quarantine officer found nothing on board to warrant her detention, only invalid being a man, laid up with a sprained ankle, received just before entering port. Owing to the crowded condition of the wharves, it was impossible to dock the ship until this morning. During the intervening hours, immigration and C.P.R. officials were busy examining passengers, classifying them, issuing tickets and changing money, so that after docking little remained to be done, except the transfer of the great cargo of baggage. The C.P.R. had made great preparations for getting the special train ready, and on board ship each passenger was given a check signifying that he was ready to join. Much confusion was thus avoided, and the first train was able to get away at 6:30 this evening. Some for Toronto. On this were about 400 people, including a few who will stop at Toronto. Three others, with about 400 passengers left at 8:15, 9:30 and 10:30. Rev. Mr. Barr was on the last train. The colonists are by all odds the finest body of immigrants ever landed at this port. All classes are represented. There were the nephews of Barons on board, numbers of Oxford and Cambridge men, dozens of clergymen, lawyers, doctors, capitalists and the mechanic, wholesome, straight standing, capable looking Englishmen every one, all drawn from farm, workshop and desk. The cash assets of the party aggregate half a million pounds sterling. An exchange bank estimate based on board yesterday distributed over $40,000 of Canadian currency. Disappointed With Treatment. Bitter dissatisfaction prevailed among the colonists regarding the accommodations and treatment during the voyage, especially in the steerage, which was overcrowded with about 1400 people, most of whom were able and anxious to come first cabin, cross they have done so. They assert freely that Mr. Barr and the steering committee grossly misrepresented matters, claiming that accommodations and food there would, the planner, be as good as second-class. In stead of this, they say they have been heeded like pigs, men and women indiscriminately banded together without a chance for privacy at any time, with sanitary arrangements disgustingly filthy, and food scarce and almost unobtainable. On the second day of the voyage, a delegation, representing the whole steerage, waited on the captain, demanding that he put at the nearest port and land them. Had he consented, practically all that part of the ship would have gone ashore. Conditions improved during the latter part of the voyage, and that of the party recalled now, the several announcements of their intention of forsaking Barr and settling on their own account, and a few have gone so far as to sell their kit, and make arrangements for return to England by the next steamer. Makes Light of Complaints. Rev. Mr. Barr makes light of the complaints, saying the whole cause of the trouble is the fact that first-class people have been compelled by the rush to travel third-class. He denies earnestly any accusations of misrepresentation, except with regard to the food in the steerage, which he was unable to do, as the captain's office would be the same as served in the cabin. In that the captain's office, Mr. Barr expected grumbling and, in admitting that some incompetents may turn back, he enthusiastically about the ultimate success of his scheme. As soon as they reach their destination, he says, three towns will be laid out, Freetown, Lloydton and Barrieville. Separate municipalities will be organized with complete government in each town will be hospitals, laundries, stores and factories. Ready for Quick Work. Some men in the party have equipment for a pork packing industry on a large scale, which will be started at once. A large set of contractors and carpenters are with the colony ready to rush the erection of the buildings. Northern is to meet him as soon as he arrives and locate the town with reference to the terminus of that railway division. He expects 10,000 more next year, and thousands additional within the next decade. The all-British idea, he said, was what captured the minds of the people, and it is his idea to keep that part of the west of British born people entirely. Rev. G. E. Lloyd, the vice-commander of the colony, is by far the most popular man on the ship; he was presented yesterday by the passengers with a testimonial of £20. Mr. Lloyd, who was formerly principal of Rotheray College here, is a hero of the Northwest rebellion. He was dangerously wounded at the battle of Cut Knife creek, while rescuing a comrade under a heavy fire. Ladies' Walking Hats. New York walking hats, the same as worn by the stylish women of Gotham, made by representative ladies' milliners of Fifth-avenue. They are not military creations, but rich, yet quiet effects in soft straw with all straw trimmings. Specially imported by the Dineen Co. for their particular trade. Call at the ladies' show room, corner of Yonge and Temperance-streets. FAIR, WITH THUNDERSTORMS. Meteorological Office, Toronto, April 12.—(8 p.m.)—Fair weather has been general throughout Canada today, except in the Maritime Provinces. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Dawson, 24-40; Winnipeg, 28-44; Qu'Appelle, 24-40; Windsor, 28-44; Toronto, 38-52; Ottawa, 30-54; Montreal, 34-48; Quebec, 30-54; St. John's, 38-52. Probabilities. ### Formal Trial Opens To-Day With Big Fight on at Once

Commission in Bribery Case to be Plunged Into Vital Phase Immediately.

Canada's history-making bribery case will open at the City Hall to-day. The Judicial Commission is likely to be plunged almost instantly into the essence of the whole case by the position of the government counsel contending that the charge is too broad and too vague to be joined as a formal matter. It is known that Senior Counsel Johnson has intimated that he would make this contention. It was the claim of the Conservatives in objecting to the Judicial Commission as a trial court that the ramifications of the plot to corrupt members of the opposition were so great that the authority conferred on the commission would necessarily be broad to take the proper scope. The counsel for Provincial Secretary, however, maintaining that while the authority conferred on the commission is broad it is not vague and cannot in the nature of things be so, that the charges to be met are all definite and of not such a general character as to be impossible to defend. Everything indicates an animated session of the court to-day with little room beyond the officials, witnesses and newspaper reporters in the courtroom. The trial will consume from three weeks to a month, and the investigation formally begins one month from the day the charges were filed, March 11.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT ILL.

Physician Suddenly Called at Mid-night and Information Refused.

There is every reason to believe that a serious change in the condition of Sir Oliver Mowat's health took place last night. At midnight, Dr. Archibald Moir, house surgeon at the Hospital for Sick Children, and a specialist in anaesthetics work, received a hurried call from Government House and proceeded there at once. Dr. Primrose and Dr. Temple, family physicians, were also hurriedly summoned.

It is gathered that the venerable statesman has suffered a severe relapse. For a long time it has been known that his condition has been precarious. At 3 o'clock this morning, a World reporter went to Government House, in an endeavor to confirm the report, but was unable to gain admittance. The house was well-lighted, and occasionally people could be seen passing to and fro, but the electric bells and even the telephones were disregarded.

KENNEDY FREED BY JUDGE.

Was Justified in Shooting-Sullivan Will Recover.

Detroit, April 12.—After listening to the testimony of several eye-witnesses of the riot between employees of the Canadian Bridge Works of Walker, Mich., and non-union men, at the foot of Joseph Campau avenue, Thursday evening, Justice Whelan refused to issue a warrant against George J. Kennedy and ordered the man liberated. Kennedy is the man who shot Michael Sullivan during the riot. It was shown that he did not shoot until he was exhausted, and in great fear of his own life. In fact, unblinded men swore that they would have shot long before Kennedy. Sullivan will recover, the Emergency Hospital authorities say. George Boak, an engineer in the employ of the Canadian Bridge Company, in Walker, Mich., this morning called upon Magistrate Bartlett in Windsor and gave information to be used in case any accident should occur. "A few days ago," said Boak, "this note was dropped at my door. 'Take a warning in time and stay away from the bridge works. Save trouble for yourself and others.' Boak has retained his position with the company, and has not been in any way connected with the riot. 'Yesterday a man from across the river called upon me,' continued the engineer. 'The name was not given, but he did not reach me with a shotgun with a rifle. I do not know his name, but he was a short man, and I am trying to identify him.' We have the largest samples of Ornamental Ironwork, Grills, Fences, Etc., in Canada. Foundry Company, Limited, 1410 King Street East.

TALK ON TARIFF DOES NOT Appeal to Government

Ottawa, April 13.—(World Special Correspondence.)—The Easter holidays are affording the Minister of Finance a welcome relief from parliamentary responsibilities, and he is devoting the time almost exclusively to the preparation of the budget, which he is to bring down on Thursday. What Mr. Fielding will be able to announce in the way of a balance as between revenue and expenditure is less eagerly canvassed than the probabilities of his tariff announcement, but even so that there is a growing impression that nothing startling need be expected, that is, in the way of tariff changes. The government's rather curt treatment of tariff deputations and the general tenor of the communications to be heard wherever and whenever its followers discuss the subject only strengthens the conclusion that there will be no important increase of duties. This, by the way, is in marked contrast to the demonstrator of these gentlemen last session, when one after another they arose in their places in the House and talked tariff and the fostering of certain Canadian industries with a gibbous indicating that a wave of protectionism had struck the Liberal party. In fact, as a prominent old-time reformer put it at the time, the government's supporters appeared to be tumbling over each other in a scramble to see who could go farthest in the way of high protection, and it was to the credit of the government that it was to be seen that Sir Edward Cartwright was put up to make his famous old-fashioned free trade speech.

What Will Expedient Be?

If, in the face of this disposition of the party, Mr. Fielding could afford last session to lay the tariff issue on the shelf with an explicit promise to do something next year, it is felt that he will be perfectly safe in resorting to some other expedient to avoid touching the question. The question is, what will the expedient be? The answer is to be found in the prevailing disposition of the government to refer all matters of a contentious character to a commission. It need surprise no one, therefore, should Mr. Fielding announce that, in view of conflicting interests, as demonstrated by the representations to the government, and of the complex nature of the entire proposition, the government has decided to have a commission, or committee, to hear the evidence of representatives of all parties concerned, and to determine the policy of the country to be determined by the result. One merit at least of such a plan would be that

Gambling Joints Closing In Some Parts of the City

The new Police Commission, which promises to be so hostile for Toronto gambling joints, will organize tomorrow. Judge Winchester became the new member. In conjunction with Mayor Urquhart, the aggressive fight on the gamblers is expected to begin at once. Police Magistrate Denison, too, is known to be bitterly opposed to the present condition of things, and would be more than willing to assist in applying a remedy.

CLIPSE SPOILED BY RAIN.

So far as Toronto was concerned the much heralded eclipses of the moon did not take place on Saturday night. Eclipsity at the observatory revealed the fact that just before the eclipse period was a slight cloud of the moon. A heavy rainstorm had been made at the observatory to witness the phenomenon. The large telescope was in readiness. Then the rain storm came up and the moon's performance took place behind closed doors.

JINGLES FROM EGGVILLE.

Boils were so painful could not sleep at night.

APPEARED ON NECK, LEGS AND ARMS.

Burdock Blood Bitters

CURED THEM.

It is well-known to all that bad blood is the direct cause of all skin diseases and it is necessary for the blood to be cleaned before the eruptions will disappear.

Mr. Willard Thompson, McNeill's Mills, P.E.I., writes us as follows: "I wish to state you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Some time ago my blood got out of order and many boils appeared on my neck, legs and arms. They were so painful that I could not sleep at night. After having tried many different remedies without any success, I finally decided, on the advice of a friend, to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Before I had quite used two bottles the boils had completely disappeared, and I wish to emphasize the fact that I think Burdock Blood Bitters the best blood purifier on the market today."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

Violent Cholera Air W. Page Wood stated publicly in court that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne, that the whole story of the alleged fraud, was a deliberate attempt to defame the name of the doctor, and that he had received information to the effect that the doctor had been born in London, England, in 1814.
