"The Allies Are Now In Full Tide Pressing Enemy on Every Front"

Italian Offensive Completes Chain Encircling Central Empires

Capture of Vast Numbers of Prisoners Telling on Enemies' Strength; Austria Cannot Bear Burden Much Longer; Russia Destroying Central Armies While Franco-British Pressure in the West Continues Unrelentingly

New York, Aug. 10.—The Paris correspondent of the Tribune says:

"The allies are now in full tide, carrying out their great plan—that is, pressing the enemy all the time on every front, giving no respite. The entry of the Italians into the scheme with their big offensive against Gorizia and Monfalcone, completes the chain encircling the Central empires. Like the Franco-British offensive on the Somme, and the French attacks at Verdun, the Italian action is heralded as only beginning their undertakings."

"Great cause for rejoicing is that, after months of careful, laborious preparation, the Italians have taken the field. How well their plans were laid and their preparatory work was done, is shown by the magnificent results of the last four days in ground won and prisoners captured. The capture of prisoners by the Italians is more important in ultimate result than the ground won, as it is strategically, for the great success of Russia has so weakened Austria in men and material, that every man and gun the loss today means more to her than ten times as great a loss would have meant at the beginning of the war."

Austria has now arrived at the point where, figuring on the present rate of allied progress, a definite time limit can be put on her activities in the war. The campaign in the west aims at constant pressure, a steady pushing back of the Germans to the Rhine. Russia, on the other hand, is destroying the armies of the nation.

Italy's problems are different from Russia's. Like the French and British, she must aim at forcing back the enemy, rather than destroying their army, but in entering the field with her great offensive, she greatly lightened the Russian task, while at the same time she hugely increased the burden Germany now, more than ever, is compelled to carry.

Meanwhile the Franco-British pressure continues unrelentingly.

EFFECT OF RUSSIAN ADVANCE

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9 (via London)—General Letchitsky's capture of Tyumen, Galicia, seems to make almost certain, the early fall of Stanislaw, Hall, and to bring nearer the reoccupation of Lemberg. General Count Von Bothmer, who for a long time has stood firmly entrenched along the Upper Strips, before Lemberg, will hardly be able longer to withstand the squeeze process to which he is being subjected by General Letchitsky in the South and by General Sakhnoff in the north of his position, in the view of the military observers who regard as inevitable a falling back along the whole of the Tisza front. The fresh victory in Galicia puts the Russians an exceedingly advantageous front line, with headquarters on the Pruth, West of Kolomea, through Devlyin to the west and northward to the Dniester, with all necessary railway facilities to the rear, through Kolomea.

General Count Von Bothmer still has two railroads over which he can make good his retreat, but one of these is seriously threatened by General Sakhnoff's push southwest from Zloczow, which lies to the south of Brody, and forty-five miles east of Lemberg. General Letchitsky's advance appears to have been unexpected as it is impetuous and irresistible. The capture of over 7,000 prisoners, of whom nearly half are Germans, is pointed out by the military observers as an indication of the disorganization of the Austro-Germans.

20,000 PRISONERS AT GORIZIA

Pompe, Aug. 10.—About twenty thousand prisoners were captured by the Italians at Gorizia, according to an official announcement by the war office. The statement makes the capture impossible, at present, as numerous prisoners are being brought in hourly.

The capture of Gorizia was celebrated last night in every city in Italy. Great parades, bands and shouting crowds testified to the enthusiasm of the people over General Cadorna's victory. Rejoicing is intensified by reports that many thousands of additional prisoners have been captured by the Italians at points along the Isonzo, in addition to Gorizia.

Gorizia Not Destroyed.

Rome, Aug. 10.—In Paris 10—Notwithstanding the desperate fighting around Gorizia the city itself is now cleared of all enemy forces. The latter are retreating in the direction of Trieste, Tabera, followed by the Belgian column.

Further Progress

Paris, Aug. 10.—Further progress for the French troops north of Metz and Wood in the Somme sector, is announced in an unofficial statement issued by the French war office yesterday.

The mountains and roads have impeded the operations north of the Somme. South of the river, a German reconnaissance using liquid fire was dispersed by the French troops first at Vervins. The Duke of Aosta, commander of the third army, who had been fighting three days of fighting entered the city after forcing the bridge across the river at which the cavalry and corps, corps, Gorizia was found to be deserted and had been captured by the Belgians, the Austrians, on the outskirts. The Duke was accompanied by his cousin, the King. The only damage done by the Austrians was that occasioned by their attempts to destroy military buildings filled with large quantities of supplies.

Belgians Pursue Germans.

Havre, Aug. 5.—The Northwest part of German East Africa is now completely in the possession of the Belgians who are closely pursuing the German forces according to an official statement issued by the Belgian war office. The text of the statement follows: "General Robbeur telegraphs that the Germans suffered heavily in the fighting on Aug. 18 and 19. Their losses are 800 and 900 prisoners were taken."

"After the engagement on the 14th in which the bulk of the enemy force was destroyed, the Germans hastily retreated towards St. Michael abandoning under pressure of Molitor's brigade, prepared positions and left the railroad terminals, according to the latest report received the occupation of Ujiji, and the railroad terminals, announced on August 8, was effected on July 29.

ALLIES WILL RETALIATE

Zepplin Raids Will be Followed by Swift Vengeance in Similar Form

New York, Aug. 10.—A London cable to the Tribune says:

"After Tuesday night's abortive Zeppelin raid and before the news of the great French raid at Rottweil was received, a slight official of the admiralty, referred to as the recent allied air raids in Germany, said:

"All these were reprisals for the Zeppelin attack. The principle behind it will be that every time a Zeppelin comes killing our women and children we will retaliate."

"Apparently the French believe in swift justice."

CITY COUNCIL AND NEW SCHOOLS

Committee Discusses Bond Issue—Mayor Unwilling to Spend More Money Now—The Mississauga Dam—Tender Accepted

Mayor Hayes and Commissioners Russel and Fisher met in committee at noon today and discussed several matters of importance.

Mayor Hayes said that he had been informed that a delegation representing the Board of School Trustees intended this afternoon to ask permission to have a bond issue for the erection of new schools if they were a necessity, but owing to the heavy expenditure already made in erecting the school buildings in the city he was not in favor of adding any new expenditures at the present time. He said that this year an assessment of $40,000 was made for war purposes near which year might be increased to $100,000 so that he might be able to move carefully.

Commissioner Russell thought that the mayor as head of the treasury should be very careful in authorizing a bond issue.

He felt that a new school was needed at Douglas avenue, as the present one was overcrowded and, in addition, the city was running out and the owners of the building were not in favor of renewing it.

Commissioner Fisher said that he had intended to bring before the meeting the matter of Mississauga stream being blocked at the mouth by a dam.

He explained that at the present time there was a deadlock between him and the residents. The former through the ex-councillor, solicitor, had presented an argument to the residents, but they were not accept it, as it was not realistic.

CHARMING GERTRUDE MCCOY
AT THE STAR THEATRE

Gertrude McCoy, the supreme emotional actress, appeared in one of the Edison Company's latest productions, at the Star last night.

"Greater Than Art" is one of Edison's best productions to date and contains a wealth of excellent photography.

Miss McCoy is ably supported by Edwina Hart, a strong supporting cast.

The "Heads-Up News" presented the big feature. Most interesting scenes of the Cruiser Hampshire with Lord Kitchener on board were the chief items in this picture, while the remaining up-to-the-minute news, the most recent international headlines, are the most essential part of any program.

Miss Quirk, who will be remembered as play girl with Mary Pickford in the old Biograph Company, took leading part in the Vitagraph comedy entitled "In Bridal Attire." In hunting a suitable wife, he tore a vest, falls off a trolley car and finally captures his intended by the aid of a motorcycle.

This is a new and original bill of pictures and will be shown again soon.

For th' week-end Ruth Roland and Cleo Ridgely will be presented in "The Apartment House Mystery," another of "The Girl Detectives" stories.

NINETY-THREE DAYS.

This is the ninety-third day since Hon. P. G. Mahoney was appointed Minister of Public Works. He is still Minister of Public Works—the big spending department—though rejected by the people. How much longer will Lieut.-Gov. Wood permit this gross violation of the principles of responsible government to continue?

PROVINCIAL POLITICS

There is not an intelligent citizen of New Brunswick who does not realize, and all but the grafters will admit, that a political house-cleaning is imperatively needed. There has arisen, however, a feeling of skepticism, and it is nourished by the party in power. The effort is made to persuade the people that to make a change would merely be to go from bad to worse. Nothing could be more unfortunate than that such a feeling should prevail. It is the duty of the opposition to overcome any such suspicion derived from the construction of more houses to rent at a moderate figure, for this relieves competition and tends to improve the general average of tenements in the city.

It is at least a good beginning when the business men of a city make up their minds to deal with the problem in a practical way. The companies in St. John which are erecting a number of comfortable cottages each year are contributing in a very practical way to the solution of the housing problem, but the work must be undertaken on a larger scale. Doubtless an effort to improve housing conditions will be one of the important questions to be dealt with locally after the war.

Bad it is to have a number of improper houses in a street it is infinitely worse where a whole street is made up of cramped and unhealthy tenements. It may be possible for a family to live there and remain healthy and rear children without contamination morally or otherwise; but how much better would people be in health and outlook if they were well-housed, and had ample breathing space. The intense desire to crowd together must be removed, and people taught to prize the boon of air-space, which ought to be and can be provided under proper building regulations. There is in St. John a growing tendency to look toward the suburbs. It is as yet only a tendency, without any marked results; but if will continue to grow. Better means of transportation have encouraged many families to cast a wistful eye toward the green pastures.

The town-planning commission must take such steps as will prevent in the suburbs any such condition as is shown in the present city. If along the main arteries of traffic there are comfortable homes at a rental within reach of men with comparatively small earnings the whole city will be greatly the gainer thereby.

There is a gratifying response from the young colored men of St. John to the appeal for recruits for the battalion of colored men.

The government had two years to select an elevator site. Why was the matter not disposed of long ago? The city council did not cause the delay. The matter is one of too great importance to be railroaded through at Mr. Gutelius proposes.

Berlin believes Roumania will remain neutral. Well, the Allies have shown that they can get along without Roumania if they must. There was a time when her aid was needed far more than it will ever be again—and the Allies pulled through.

It is said to be the belief in the capital of Hungary that the Allies will be convinced before next winter has passed that they cannot defeat the Central Powers. They must have a very difficult news service in Hungary. The Allies are prepared to fight much longer than till next spring if necessary. They are going to see this thing through, and every new crime committed by the baby killers and wreckers of hospitals only lends additional strength to their demands.

As a matter of fact, the present election was not fair. If a second election were held that fall all the young men in the province who became of age between September 1, 1915, and the day of election would be unable to vote. It is part of the platform of the opposition that young men who become of age at any time up to within ten days of an election can register their vote with proper officials and be in a position to exercise their franchises; and if they are successful in the next elections that reform will be made. In the meantime all who are qualified should get their names on the list.

WORKINGMEN'S HOMES

The business men of Elmira, N.Y., have united in a movement to provide better housing for workmen employed in the various industries of that city. In May last the needs of the situation were presented at the regular monthly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce, and the secretary, in a letter in The American City for August, tells the result. He says:

"The Chamber decided to undertake the work of providing homes, and for that purpose a company has been incorporated by the Chamber of Commerce, with a capital of $200,000. It is the intention to sell one-half of this stock at once to provide a working capital, building operations will be commenced

LIGHTER VEIN.

Simply Terrifying.
An old lady was in the same railway car as a party of golfers. "I found fearful trouble this morning," said she. "At the first tee I ran into the middle of a blackberry bush and at the second I was stuck up on the top of a tree. I pitched out of bounds into the fairway and the third got caught by a wire at the fifth, found myself buried in mud at the sixth. I was lying in a heap of rough stones at the seventh, got lost at the eighth, and finished up at the bottom of that dirty ditch at the last hole."

"Gracious me!" cried the horrified old lady from her corner of the car, "and they told me that golfer was an old man's game! I'll never let my Edwin play again."

POISONOUS GASES OF THREE KINDS

Most Deadly Variety Investigated by U. S. Attaché

Speaks In Whisper

Liquid Flames and Tear-Producers Called Legitimate Form of Warfare

Paris, July 31.—Col. Spencer Cosby, United States military attaché at Paris, has been speaking in a hoarse whisper of late. His friends have noted it and have expressed their regrets at his very bad cold. Col. Cosby's voice has not permitted him to reply, and he has let it sit at that—a cold.

The use which the German army has made of poison gas in battle brought a new and terrible element of destruction into military science. Just what this terrible new agency is, what part it plays in the offensive and defensive war, is what every man, if he may be reckoned as a permanent element in future warfare—these are problems which the military experts throughout the world are trying to determine. Here, France, where the poison gas has been used with most deadly effect in Champagne, Aragonne and along the fighting line, its ravages have been the fighting line, its ravages have been the fighting line, and the military attaches of many countries have been active in securing data for their governments on this new agency.

Colonel Cosby, who is interested in his brother military attachés and in this one respect he went far beyond them.

There was ample data, from the battlefield and the hospitals, where many patients had suffered from the effects of the new element. But Col. Cosby determined on a direct personal investigation of the element itself.

With Colonel Cosby, a doctor next day, the throat was found to be in a very bad condition, as from an acute attack of laryngitis.

"The colonel could speak again in whispering. It was ten days before the clutch of the poison gas on the throat had been relaxed enough to let him speak again in full voice."

"That's a bad case of laryngitis," said the Russian ambassador.

"Yes," whispered Colonel Cosby, "an acute form, recently discovered by German scientists—a form that kills."

Listen For The Bronchial Wheeze When You Breathe Deeply

It means that disease will soon attack the lungs. Wheezing is distressing to the sufferer and annoying to his friends. Nothing half so certain in bronchitis as three terrible "Catarhoes," it gives instant relief and cure.

Bronchitis fairly feeds under the magic influence of Catarhoes which cures so thoroughly the disease disappears. Other remedies may relieve, but Catarhoes cures bronchitis, catarrh and throat trouble for all time by fighting fronts.

These are dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarhoes which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months' treatment costs $1.00; small size, 50c.; sample size, 25c.

Preston, Aug. 9.—The election of noon. The work was not session of the J. H. Baldwin, grand treasurer.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased parts of the ear.

There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy.

Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of the ear.

When this is inflamed you have a runny sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Hall's Catarhal Cure can be induced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are cured by Hall's Cure, with an improved condition of the mucous membranes. Hall's Catarhal Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

"This is the least deadly," exclaimed the chief chemist, as he presented one of the bottles containing the secret of the gas.

He drew the glass stopper very cautiously and Colonel Cosby took a slight whiff of the gas. It was not overpowering or violent in its effect—one a pure, clear gas.

Now the second class of gases was reached—the tear-producing gases—and these, too, were tested in the same way. These also were not overpowering, but gave the same sharp odor of ether and a perceptible effect on the eyes. Colonel Cosby was

EXPERTS WRESTLE WITH PARALYSIS

Rockefeller Engages Noted Japanese Scientist

PLAQUE IS SPREADING

Scars Well Developed in Little Animals From Philippines—Hopes to Solve Deadly Problem

New York, Aug. 9.—Backed by the millions of John D. Rockefeller, Dr. Hidyo Noguchi, "the strategist of bacteriology," has set out to find a cure for spinal paralysis.

The disease has killed and attacked more than 200 more babies, bringing the total of deaths to 1,068 out of 4,942 reported cases. Deputy Health Commissioner Billings said the city could expect 10,000 cases before the epidemic is controlled.

Dr. Noguchi and the country's leading pathologists and bacteriologists are working day and night to evolve a specific. Scientists place their greatest hopes in the Japanese, whose brilliant laboratory conquests in the fifteen years of his association with Dr. Simon Flexner have been notable.

Dr. Noguchi is spending practically all of his waking hours in his laboratory at the Rockefeller Institute. His assignment is to find the causal factor.

Another ship is due shortly from the Philippines. Using these little animals as media, Dr. Noguchi hopes to work out a specific for spinal paralysis just as was done with the malarial germ in the mosquito and the bubonic plague germ in the rat.

Two of the eminent scientists assembled in New York yesterday and today were of the opinion that the chief hope for New York's crippled children lies in exhaustive but speedy laboratory work.

They did not place much faith in the present treatment, which is giving promising results in the Willard Parker Hospital. This treatment has been abandoned, it was learned yesterday. There was no sufficient supply of the serum and results were negative, it was stated, officially.

Surgeons of the New York Throat,

Nose and Ear Hospital, on East 30th

Street, clinging to their faith in the adrenal treatment, recommended by Dr. Samuel James Meltzer, chief executive surgeon at the hospital, today issued an invitation to medical men to come to the institution.

NO COMPETITION IN ARMY SUPPLIES

Revictualing Commission of Allies Buys Necessities

Orders For Millions

Naval and Military Purchases Under Same Organization; Government Adopts Trust Idea

London, Aug. 9.—The American trust of eliminating competition has been allowed closely in the operations of the Commissioner International de Ravitaillement, or in other words the Revictualing Commission. And also this main object has been kept rigorously in view; that none of the munitions required for the war will be delayed in transit by reason of any overlapping of orders or confusion of interest.

Aided by War Office

The services of the War Office in this connection in regard both to the purchase of personal equipment and the supply of the world's markets and to apportion the available supplies of food and war materials to the needs of each government concerned. And also this main object has been kept rigorously in view; that none of the munitions required for the war will be delayed in transit by reason of any overlapping of orders or confusion of interest.

The services of the War Office in this connection in regard both to the purchase of personal equipment and the supply of the world's markets and to apportion the available supplies of food and war materials to the needs of each government concerned. And also this main object has been kept rigorously in view; that none of the munitions required for the war will be delayed in transit by reason of any overlapping of orders or confusion of interest.

All orders are placed in such a manner as to avoid competition between the revictualing commission and the governments, to exclude the irresponsible speculator and to ensure that the articles bought are obtained from reliable sources and are of good quality.

This principle of co-operation pursued has been followed very closely in connection with supplies of certain articles required for war, bought for the allied armies—ten million pounds of hoots, thirty million yards of cloth, 100,000 miles of telephone wire and 100,000,000 sandbags. Figures concerning the more descriptive meanings of these figures are not given, but they are not less impressive.

In a word, the Commission of Revictualing has the means at hand to effect the many and varied fires of war. In all the markets of the world—that is all the markets outside the countries of the enemy—it buys guns, shells, bombs and munitions, cartridges, boats and uniforms and all the rest of the multifarious equipment required by the fighting men and the fighting ships of England and her allies. The commission buys in tons by ship, rail and road and pays in dollars by the thousand million.

From Small Beginning

It rose from very small beginnings. In August, 1914, a few days after war broke out several French officers came to London to buy boats and similar articles for the British navy. They found a long series of war purchases, whose extent, beginning in thousands of pounds, rose rapidly to millions. They resulted in the formation, by agreement between the British Board of Trade and the French government, of a Commission de Ravitaillement, with the following objects:

1. To co-ordinate the purchase of food stores, munitions of war and other materials and naval equipment by the two governments.

2. To prevent harmful competition in the same markets and a consequent inflation of prices.

3. To keep the French government in communication with firms capable of carrying out orders satisfactorily at a reasonable price.

4. To send the orders in such a way as to distribute employment and thus accelerate delivery.

The commission began with a British staff of four, established in a small office in Queen Anne's Chambers. Since its inception its scope has been gradually extended to cover purchases made on behalf of all the allied governments, and it now has a staff of twenty-four civilian delegates from each of the allies, together with representatives of the War Office, Ministry of Munitions and other British government departments under the general direction of Sir Edmund Wyndham Smith of the Board of Trade. 500 Now in Personnel.

Its personnel has increased almost 500% its huge office has miles of corridors containing about thirty rooms. Handed happily on its many floors are no fewer than eight separate national colors—French, Russian, Italian, German, Belgian, Portuguese, Japanese and English—each with its native officials, its native uniforms, its pretty native typists—a very brave and picturesque medley. The little colonies represent their own languages, its atmosphere, its working conditions.

The commission, whose purchases outside in extent the most sensational, has expanded, has won now for twenty-two months—almost without the general public becoming even aware of its existence. During this period the orders it has officially placed on behalf of the allies have amounted to less than $1,000,000,000, and if to this stupendous figure the purchases made by allied government contractors are added, which are submitted to the examination of the commission, is increased roughly to $1,000,000,000.

It is hardly necessary to remark this is, in fact, the whole raison d'etre of the commission—the sum expended

Premier Clarke To Forsake Gov't?

Report That He Will Go to Supreme Court; B. F. Smith and A. R. Slipp May Enter Cabinet

Fredricton, N. B., Aug. 9.—Today's record of the provincial election may favor the last minute. Premier George J. Clarke, since the fairly authentic rumor is current that he will be appointed to the supreme court bench very soon.

This will be welcome news to Premier Clarke and his friends, who have been very anxious on account of his health, for his present position is one of such anxiety and such uncertainty. He is still in very poor health, but the less his position, the more he can do.

again in Westmorland. To ask for another verdict from the same jury does not command itself as good politics, and in fact it has never had a parallel in English parlament. For a man rejected by the voters to be called back into the service of the local government and the health would be forbade Mr. Clarke taking that active interest in the party affairs and supplying the public with a reading that has become a necessity, were the strongest arguments of the premier for his new position.

Graceful Situation.

The situation with regard to P. G. Mahoney was and is most embarrassing. In fact it has never had a parallel in English parlament. For a man rejected by the voters to be called back into the service of the people is such a dangerous thing that the government has lost the support of many of its most valuable friends on this account. Mr. Clarke's inaction in the face of this situation occasioned the great uneasiness.

The new premier, whoever he may be, will have two positions to fill for Mr. Mahoney must seek a new country or try it

GOT DIARRHOEA FROM DRINKING BAD WATER

Had To Give Up Work

Mr. H. M. Ryckman, Port Rowan, Ont., writes: "Last year I was out in Saskatchewan. The water was very bad and I was taken with diarrhea. In a few days I was in such bad shape I had to stop work. I got a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and had only taken a few doses when it was stopped, and I was soon able to go back to work again."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past seven years, and has had such great success in curing all bowel complaints that many firms have undertaken to provide a substitute for it, even going so far as to use a similar name.

Do not be led into taking a substitute for Dr. Fowler's unless you insist on getting what you ask for.

"Dr. Fowler's" is safe and sure, but by taking some other cheap drink substitutes you may endanger your life.

The Red Sox have jumped back into the lead of the American League as a result of their victory yesterday. Scott who was twirling for the White Sox, weakened in the twelfth inning and his opponents, by bunching hits, sent two runs across the rubber.

Cleveland is back fighting front and as a result, the Tigers are ready to step into fourth place. This is a hard blow to Boston, who kept a bunch of cripes up on top for many Indians are back fighting front and are now only one game behind the Red Sox. Connie Mack's aggregation rallied yesterday and avoided establishing a new record for consecutive defeats.

The St. Louis Browns are climbing and are in the lead for which they are striving. What would the fans say if they were to cop the pennant? They have seventeen games out of eighteen and many of them against the leading team.

There must be some mistake in the official reports for it does not seem probable that McGraw would hire a pitcher to New York and expect to get away with a game.

Brooklyn continues to win and daily takes on the appearance of a champion team.

POLICE PREPAREDNESS.
The members of the police force are getting in some good hard practice for the coming "ug-of-war" with the members of the motormen's union headed by the steel strikers. The police are said to have had a good workout yesterday and it is alleged that six of them pulled twelve other men all around their practice lot. If this is true, then the street railway have got to secure some material that can compete with such a team. It is understood that the real test will come in the next few weeks, as the captain of the street railway team has his holidays. In the meantime, the custodians of the law are going to develop a team and compete with any type of team in the province, and this is putting it modestly to what of some of its members claim.

FERNHILL DIRECTORS
MAKE ANNUAL VISIT TO THE CEMETERY

DURING the summer season, various committees of the Fernhill Cemetery directors make periodic visits to the grounds to look after the work being done, but yesterday the directors as a whole made their annual visit and inspected the different undertakings. A long drain is being laid in the rear of the city and county lots through to Maple street, which will be followed by a road which will open up a large area for investment purposes. The city and county lot has also received attention and is much improved. Several additional lots have been received and the directors are working to improve and improve the general appearance of the cemetery very much. The old Holders seem to be taking more pride in this city than ever before. In former years, as an instance of which, they recently received an order for care of a lot in which the person providing the lot was directly interested. The owner of the lot had died without leaving a will, so that the ascents will divide life itself to keep the old big dying.

The naval and military lot was visited. There have been eight soldier lads laid to rest in this plot already. The great south side of the cemetery and the Union Park are over to make the Field of Honor a very attractive spot. An appreciative citizen has donated a small memorial flag for each mound in this lot, a token of respect for those who lie there—the boys who have sacrificed life itself to keep the old big dying.

The general work of the cemetery has been well kept up this season, particularly to the grounds via the Marsh Road and Spruce avenue will also be glad to learn that the steep grade to this hill is now taken care of so that the ascent will be very much easier.

Permission was given the Knights of Pythias to hold their decoration day in Fernhill on August 24.
