TREATY MUST BE SAVED; URGING OF LONDON PRESS

Increasing Anxiety Over the Agreement of de Valera and Collins

Some Suspect it Covers Intention to Declare Republic—Craig Criticized for Refusal to Participate in the Boundary Commission.

(Canadian Press Cable)
London, May 25.—The Anglo-Irish treaty must be saved. This is the burden of editorial comment on the Irish crisis by a considerable section of the London press this morning. There are indications of increasing anxiety over the agreement between Eamon De Valera and Michael Collins covers an intention to declare an independent republic continues unabated.

The Times and Daily Mail, in strongly worded editorials, emphasize that Great Britain will never tolerate the separation of Ireland. The Times says that if the treaty is repudiated "Great Britain would have to face a terrible, but not doubtful situation. Her duty to Northern Ireland would be especially clear. The northern government would have to be increased and this would give the retailer the chance of collecting the amount of the tax. Some lines of trade, he said, undoubtedly were going to suffer, but they would have to adjust themselves to the new conditions."

Montreal, May 25.—The tariff has not been seriously interfered with, was the comment of C. Howard Smith, provincial chairman of the British Manufacturers' Association. He commented on the check duty of two cents on each additional 50¢, and said:—"That is a stiff tax."

One result of the tax on mineral waters and temperance beverages known as "soft drinks" will be the immediate disappearance of the five cents glass of ginger ale and the syrup flavored soda water which sells at the same price.

It is said representations will be made to the minister of finance to reconsider his proposals to impose a tax of ten cents a gallon on these drinks, and a delegation will go to Ottawa this week in this connection.

St. John, May 25.—Among features of Minister of Finance Pollock's financial statement to the Upper Parliament today was that the government's balance sheet showed a surplus of $4,000,000. He said no new taxes would be imposed and that satisfactory assurances had been received from the British cabinet regarding the equipment and upkeep of the Ulster special constabulary.

U. S. Opens Way To Negotiate Re St. Lawrence Canal

Secretary Hughes, Through British Ambassador, Sends Communication to Ottawa, Stating Willingness to Discuss Terms of Treaty.

Washington, May 25.—The state department announced today that it has communicated to the Canadian government its willingness to begin negotiations in connection with the St. Lawrence canal project to permit ocean going vessels to reach the Great Lakes. No answer has yet been received from the Canadian government.

The note, the department's announcement said, stated that the U. S. government will be glad to take up with the Canadian government the negotiations of a treaty looking to the deepening of the waterways which would enable ocean going ships to reach the Great Lakes.

Secretary Hughes dispatched his note on the subject on May 17 to the British ambassador who is understood at the state department to have forwarded the communication promptly to the Canadian government.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbush, who was walking up King street the other day at noon. I was carrying along with me the car of the morning and the prospective worries of the afternoon. My gate was bent on the sidewalk and I was obliged to my surroundings. Suddenly a cheery voice cried out at my elbow: "Is there such a wonderful day to breathe any more?"

The St. Louis Cardinals, whose slump has kept pace with that of the Giants, yesterday, Oeschger pitched effectively for the Braves while Sotthoff featured with a honor, triple and single.

Mr. Barton was arrested here on Tuesday, charged with soliciting application to block the path against the provincial secretary-treasurer. He was released on his own recognizance for his appearance in one week's time.

Paris, May 25.—The second day of the International Bankers' Conference finds the situation less reassuring than the first, for, according to Berlin agents, the German government is not likely to accept the proposals of the International Bankers' Association.

Paris, May 25.—Moderate to fresh southwest winds, but mostly fair today and Friday, not much change in temperature. Gulf and North Shore—Moderate to fresh southwest to northwest winds, a few light scattered showers but generally fair today and on Friday.

Paris, May 25.—Optimism over the progress being made by the international bankers conference considering the German financial situation with a view to international loan, was voiced today by Karl Bergmann, German representative. "It is turning out just as I expected," he said, after the morning session, in expressing pleasure at the outlook.

Giants on Way Home After Poor Western Trip

"Al" Reach 82 Years Old Today—Last of U. S. Golfers Eliminated in British Tournament—Tracey and Firpo to Buenos Aires for Bout.

New York, May 25.—The Giants were on their way back to the Polo Grounds today after a disastrous invasion of western camps, the champions falling off badly in their hitting and handicapped by ineffective hurling, lost eight of thirteen games and had a substantial lead of four games cut to one, which they managed to retain only by taking the final game of the series from the Reds, 2 to 1, after five straight defeats.

Philadelphia, May 25.—"Al" Reach, one of two who are left of the old Philadelphia athletic baseball team of the late 1800s, celebrated his 82nd birthday today. He is head of the A. J. Reach Sporting Goods Co., and at one time was part of the Philadelphia National League baseball club. He played second base on the old Athletics. The other living member of the team is Wes Fisher, first baseman.

London, May 25.—T. Daniels of the London model yacht club shipped his model yacht Endeavor on the liner Olympic yesterday for New York for her competition in a challenge contest for the championship of the world with U. S. Navy yachtsmen in Long Island waters on June 8, 9 and 10.

New York, May 25.—International cup races between American and British six metre yachts will begin off Oyster Bay, N. Y., on Sept. 9, according to announcement by the Seawhaka Corinthian Yacht Club, under whose auspices the event will be held. The trophy, known as the British-American cup, was won by the English in their own course last year, when it was offered in competition for the first time.

Paris, May 25.—The Allied military occupation of Upper Silesia is likely to end by the last of July, according to a report by the Allied commission for the district, which was considered today by the council of ambassadors here.

FOG HOLDS UP AIRMEN ON ROUND WORLD JOURNEY

Paris, May 25.—Because of a slight fog this forenoon there was some delay in the departure of Major W. T. Blake, Captain Norman MacMillan and Lieut. Col. L. E. Broome, British aviators who reached Paris yesterday from England on the first stage of their attempted 30,000 mile flight around the world.

Rome, May 25.—Pope Pius was to celebrate mass in the Basilica of St. Peter's today before the thousands of pilgrims attending the international Eucharistic Congress, which opened yesterday. In the afternoon, according to the programme, the delegates make a pilgrimage to the Catacombs of St. Callistus. The address of homage was to take place in the subterranean caverns which afforded refuge for the early Christians.

Philadelphia, May 25.—"Al" Reach, one of two who are left of the old Philadelphia athletic baseball team of the late 1800s, celebrated his 82nd birthday today. He is head of the A. J. Reach Sporting Goods Co., and at one time was part of the Philadelphia National League baseball club.

London, May 25.—(Canadian Press)—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Australia, which has important stations in the New Hebrides islands, has passed a resolution, says a Reuters despatch from Melbourne, stating that the condition of the islands under Franco-British joint government are deplorable, and urging the federal government of Australia to press for British control of the Hebrides.

Halifax, N. S., May 25.—It is understood that a majority report by Chairman D'Arcy Scott and John E. Moore, company representative, and a minority report by Isaac MacDougal, representing the miners, engaged the attention of the members of the Scott commission board here today.

LLOYD GEORGE TO GIVE ACCOUNT IN COMMONS TODAY

Asquith, Clyn and Cecil to Follow—Premier Says Genoa has but Pointed Way to Solution of Troubles and is Confident Goal will be Reached.

London, May 25.—Premier Lloyd George was prepared today to open the debate in the House of Commons on the achievements of the Genoa conference. His political opponents also were ready. The premier's replies to his critics, after his set address, were expected to form the most interesting part of the debate.

He has received numerous messages paying tribute to his work at Genoa. Replying to one from the Oxford Union Society, the premier said he trusts and believes Genoa will be the shrine of peace and tranquillity to a disturbed world.

London, May 25.—(Canadian Press)—A party of legislators from Canada, including Senator Webster, are touring England under the auspices of the Empire Parliamentary Association. They visited Birmingham on Monday and Tuesday yesterday, and were entertained by the chamber of commerce of Birmingham.

SHAWBRIDGE MAN KILLS HIS CHILD

"Happier Dead," Says Roy to Neighbor in Reporting Murder—He is Arrested.

Montreal, May 25.—I killed Irene. She is happier dead. You see, I am not running away," said Henry Roy of Shawbridge to his neighbor, Leon Couture on Tuesday night.

FIFTY YEARS IN SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the origin of the International Sunday School Lessons will be a feature of the Sixteenth International Sunday School Convention at Kansas City, Mo., June 21-27, 1925.

For fifty-one years the Sunday School world has been familiar with the International Uniform Lesson a plan of study in which all classes from Beginners to the Adult Bible Class use exactly the same brief Scripture lesson for a given Sunday—the title of the lesson and the golden text being identical for every class. To some extent the "helps" are graded and adapted to the different age interests and capacities.

Before the Civil War in America the average Sunday School was primarily a test in memorization of Scripture. The demand for better teaching and better helps in Sunday School literature.

Rev. John H. Vincent, a young Methodist Episcopal preacher in Chicago, recognized this demand and in 1865 founded the Sunday School Teacher, which was the forerunner of improved Sunday School lessons and helps for both the pupil and teacher.

But soon, due to improved methods in secular education, there was created a demand for better teaching and better helps in Sunday School literature.

Rev. Edward Eggleston, the new editor of the Sunday School Teacher, then continued the writing and publishing of this series of lessons which Mr. Vincent began. But soon after Mr. Vincent began the publication of a new system of uniform lessons in pamphlet form which were known as the Berean series and published by the Methodist Book Concern.

The question agitating the minds of the advocates of uniformity for uniform lessons was Benjamin Franklin Jacobs, a Chicago business man and leader in Sunday School activities.

The celebration of what was the greatest event in religious education up to its time will have a leading place on the convention programme.

WHAT COCKROACHES DID. A budding Mark Twain on the staff of the Saskatoon Star reports an interesting legal decision as follows:—

If you find an orthopteran insect of the family Blattellidae (Stylogryllacids) crawling up your kitchen wall, you can call a moving van, pack up your goods and chattels, and depart. And your landlord can't say "So!"

This tenancy law was laid at the meeting of the city council Thursday and it caused considerable surprise when City Solicitor William Rose, after pointing out "Coke on Cockroaches" and "Henson & Hedges on Bugs," declared that the city could not charge Dr. Coburn a month's rent for having left a house at 308 Sixth avenue north, with out the customary notice.

Dr. Coburn rented the house from the city and then one day moved out in a hurry. He took the city there were "other tenants." The case was investigated and it was found that a thriving family of peppy and cocky roaches had made their home in the house while it was vacant.

ONE PREVENTABLE DEATH A DAY

By an unfortunate typographical error it was stated on Saturday that "one person a day dies in Halifax," when the statement should have been "one percent of community neglect." This matter of preventable deaths in our city cannot be too much emphasized.

Approximately 1,400 deaths occur here annually, and of these statistics show that 800 die of preventable diseases. This number includes about 160 infants under one year of age, and 200 persons one year and over. It is the paramount duty of this community to make a concerted and persistent effort to save these lives.

(Majorie MacMurchy in Toronto Mail and Empire) It is believed that the political situation arising out of the great selection in the estimates for training the militia and the further situation which has developed regarding Canadian naval defence is a very serious character.

What do Canadian women believe about matters of national defence or about the point of defence? Today's article is not written especially or exclusively for Liberal Conservative women. It is addressed to those who have had long association with the older political parties; who have been brought up in homes where matters of Canadian political policy and the spirit of the Canadian nation have been the least considerations of the house hold.

THE OLD LAW OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND IN REGARD TO TEA

The supply of tea in the world today is very much less than the constantly increasing demand. The recent reduction of four pence per pound of the duty on tea entering England, which is by far the largest tea consuming country in the world, has had a decidedly stimulating effect on consumption. It is expected that this further demand will force the price of tea still higher.

LONDON IS HOME OF MANY QUANT ORGANIZATIONS

Post Office Directory Lists 3,000 of All Kinds, Covering Life from Cradle to the Grave.

London, May 23.—Associated Press (mail)—This seat of a far-flung empire harbors the headquarters of a greater variety of local, national and international orders, associations, missions, alliances, leagues, societies, unions, funds and funds than can be found in any other city in the world.

More than 8,000 of them are catalogued in the new post office directory, the "Who's Who and What's What" of London. In a heretofore protective or prohibitive way they pertain to almost every field of human activity, interest or need. An examination of the list suggests that nowadays there is nothing from deep-sea fighting to higher thought that has escaped the attention of organizers.

A more painstaking personal might prompt the notion that it would be perfectly safe for human or beast to be reared with or without guardians, masters, education or training; stay out of prison or in there would be agents of an organization of some sort waiting with help or advice at each turn of life's pathway. Even death the individual would appear to be adequately safeguarded for in the list is enumerated the Society for the Prevention of Premature Burial."

It would be safe to assume that each has a definite reason for being, a specific function to perform, but while most of the official titles of this organized "swelling" make their aims obvious, there are others that, to the uninitiated, sound quaint or ambiguous.

Such organizations, for instance, as "The Society for Providing the Poor With Bread and Coal in Winter," "The Coal Smoke Abatement Society," and "The Institute of Journalists' Provident Fund" proclaim their objects in admitted fields of usefulness. Some others are "The Mothercraft Training Society," "The British Rainfall Association," "The London Fish Pricers' Association," "The Large Black Pig Society," "The Out and Out Mission," "The Order of the Golden Age," "The National Baby Week Council" and "The Barfoot Institute."

Brewers' and personal rights associations are listed cheek by jowl with a variety of tariff reform leagues, the Committee to Secure State Purchase and Control of the Liquor Trade, "The Inebriate Reformation Association" and other organizations of a reformative or prohibitive character.

The styles of several might warrant fear that their membership have set

MANY HAVE WRONG IDEA OF BARGAIN BASEMENTS

Bargain Basement Departments as operated by the large departmental stores are an entirely different idea than many people who have not personally visited them seem to hold.

With a great many people the idea seems to be prevalent that a Bargain Basement is simply a place to collect the poor sellers and slow moving articles from all the upstairs departments and offer them in one big continuous sale. This is far from the actual fact.

Bargain Basements as operated by the larger stores are stocked continually with fresh new merchandise brought in the open market at considerably lower prices than usually prevail, and this sale is held in a basement store making it possible to sell many more articles than it would be possible in upstairs stores.

Anyone wandering through a Basement Store in the larger cities is at once impressed with the economy of operation and with the strikingly low prices for the fine values offered. The mere fact that everything is in plain sight, barker on take or on racks so they can be handled by the customer, makes of these departments almost a self-service operation.

There is no doubt that Bargain Basement Departments have been wonderfully successful in the larger cities and there is no reason why residents of St. John would not take full advantage of an up-to-the-minute Bargain Basement Department if they had the opportunity.

BROCKTON MAN HAS HAD MORE THAN HIS SHARE OF HARD LUCK RECENTLY

Brockton, Mass., May 23.—Robert Pike of 88 Howland street is firmly of the opinion that he ought to be in permanent possession of a horseshoe or the off hind foot of a jack rabbit tucked away in a rear pocket of his trousers, for he has had more than his share of hard luck. Here is what has happened in the family since last March:

The stork arrived in that month, which event, however, is not a part of his hard-luck story, but merely the starting point. Soon after his oldest girl, Thora, was taken ill with scarlet fever. A week later another daughter, Grace, aged 4, had bronchial pneumonia. The day she was declared out of danger the

BETTER THAN HARD COAL

Soft coal so free from soot that it does not smother whistens on stove covers or pipe and does not mat or cake when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.

A STRONG CANDIDATE

St. John county Liberals have followed those of Kings in nominating a strong man of high reputation as their standard bearer in the coming by-election. Mr. A. F. Bentley is no stranger, either as a citizen or in a public capacity. He has conducted or shared in many political campaigns, and has also served in the legislature. No man stands higher in the estimation of the people of the county in regard to personal integrity and real public spirit. Mr. Bentley has earned the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens by a life of consistent fair dealing, and would make an admirable representative in the legislature. The present is a good time for the county to return entirely to the Liberal column and give the Premier government the additional support which its record and policies deserve. The personal tributes paid to Mr. Bentley by representative men of the constituency on Tuesday evening were well merited, and his reply was an able vindication of the policies of the government.

and to motor traffic in general. His counsel regarding a study of the annual civic reports is also deserving of attention. Whatever the Commercial Club may be able to do to arouse a keener interest in public affairs will be of benefit to the community.

The fight in the American senate over the tariff shows no sign of drawing to a close. The opposition has been so strong that some proposed duties have been withdrawn, and the opposition does not all come from the Democrats. One New York paper says: "We are witnessing the opening of the real battle over the Fordney-McCumber tariff. Weeks of skirmishing have suddenly developed into an open clash. The first result of that clash is a retreat by the senators in charge of the bill. The advantage should be pressed. Republicans of the Least cost type can do nothing better for themselves or for their party or for the country than to fight it out on this line if it takes all summer."

The Standard proves to its own satisfaction that the city, if it goes in for electric distribution of hydro and buys 10,000,000 kilowatt hours, will only be able to sell 1,000,000 kilowatt hours, of which the minimum cost will be 28¢ cents per kilowatt hour. Then it says: "The Standard is accused of being simply the mouthpiece of the power company. We are not, as we have said many times before, deliberately and intentionally playing the power company's game, but we are simply taking the cold, hard facts and looking them straight in the face." Comment would appear to be unnecessary.

THE KINDERGARTEN

A singularly striking appeal in behalf of the kindergarten is made by a writer in a New York paper, who says: "I wish that every scientist, every editor, every novelist, every educator, every preacher, every legislator, every executive, and every taxpayer would give one hour each day to the study of all his tasks: the furtherance of the one most important idea in the world—public kindergartens. An effort to make the development of the child compulsory and universal in a new spirit, above all with a view to the development of his character, his health, his cleanliness, his manners, his honesty, his energy, his right thinking, and his right feeling—this would be as nearly a panacea as any one could expect in an imperfect existence, would minimize evil more than all other means, and is nothing less than the one most important idea in the world. To carry it out fully would mean an enormous initial cost, which would reimburse mankind in one generation. Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined" is the most important platitude ever uttered—and ignored."

FIREMEN AND POLICE

In his address before the Commercial Club on Tuesday Commissioner Thornton was able to pay a deserved tribute to the work of the fire and police departments. The annual appropriation for each of these services is very much smaller than in Halifax, but the record shows up well by comparison. The commissioner praised very highly the work of the call-brothers and salvage corps, with special reference to the fact that the members of the latter get no pay at all, and yet are always on hand regardless of whether there is work to be done. It is gratifying that the head of the safety department is able confidently to invite comparison between the efficiency of the local fire and police departments with that of the departments in any other city in Canada. It was a fine tribute to the police department that so very large a proportion of property reported stolen last year was recovered, and the proportion of convictions to the number of arrests for serious offences was also large. Mr. Thornton pointed out that the number of arrests for drunkenness had been cut in two, and in this connection made a remark which perhaps calls for a word of comment. He said some prohibitionists had asserted that with prohibition there would be less need of police and jails, but both were still needed. Just so—but we have not yet gained real prohibition in St. John. Perhaps the police department may be able to accomplish that result. Mr. Thornton made a very proper appeal to owners of motor cars to observe themselves and to assist in enforcing the laws relating to speed and to motor traffic in general. His counsel regarding a study of the annual civic reports is also deserving of attention. Whatever the Commercial Club may be able to do to arouse a keener interest in public affairs will be of benefit to the community.

The Standard proves to its own satisfaction that the city, if it goes in for electric distribution of hydro and buys 10,000,000 kilowatt hours, will only be able to sell 1,000,000 kilowatt hours, of which the minimum cost will be 28¢ cents per kilowatt hour. Then it says: "The Standard is accused of being simply the mouthpiece of the power company. We are not, as we have said many times before, deliberately and intentionally playing the power company's game, but we are simply taking the cold, hard facts and looking them straight in the face." Comment would appear to be unnecessary.

BRITISH TACT AND IRISH HUMOR

A little tact and humor in business go a long way, says a business man. The following correspondence is said to have passed between a Leeds firm and a County Antrim merchant: The Leeds firm wrote: "Dear Sir—What do you do when a firm owes a small sum of money—25s. sd. for instance—and does not respond to bills, statements, letters, etc? Do you just charge it off to profit and loss or do you spend another 25s. sd. sending them more letters and bills? The reason we are asking you this is that you have received from us on August 22, one gross of buttons, and have postponed paying for some. Our first bill was rendered quite some time ago. Of course we know your credit is O. K., and that you are good for it, but that does not help us out if you do not remit."

The Antrim merchant replied: "Dear Sir—Received your letter of January 1. In Ireland we are so busy asserting our nationality, inaugurating Sinn Fein, and Unionist clubs, recruiting special police, attending conferences and inquests, making new states, setting up new governments (we now have four) that we don't get round to our duties to them, cursing the Pope and King William and fulfilling other religious duties—in fact, doing everything but making money, that a small matter such as you mention in your letter is 'invisible' to an Irishman of only ordinary mentality."

Your letter makes us ashamed of ourselves. You are losing your time in the button trade. Your style has a lure that would make your fortune in the legal profession. If ever you grow tired of writing letters, or even 'fed up' with life generally, leave Leeds and button behind—come to Ireland, the only

"ARMAMENTS ISS FOOLISH UND VICKED—NOW!"

WHY BE A WORM

She was small, but very energetic. The soapbox creaked its protest as she talked. "Stop!" she cried, "my sister suffers!" "Rally, and take your stand against oppression! For centuries we have been slaves of man. We have obeyed his man-made laws even as our mothers bowed beneath the yoke of their jungle masters. But the worm has turned! Justice be our watchword! One law, one code of morals for man and woman!"

There was more, much more, but I moved on and pondered thus: I do not feel like a worm. My mother never cringed before her royal master, and I never feared a frown of his. Nor did my finer descent from a tree, tall upstart. Why should I feel like a worm? I vote. I manage my household. And my children. And my husband. Though, of course, he does not know it, I let him go forth every morning, and work hard all day. And pay the rent, and the taxes; everything in fact.

I tactfully direct his taste in ties, And help him choose a sample for his suit. We have one code of morals. But two hats, and I always choose my evening. He helps me down the steep, steep curb, And pilots me safely through the dizzy maze of traffic. And I climb just the right show of limb dependence. Though I have neglected that same crossing a dozen times that day, Alone, and with far better speed. Every morning I ask "What would you do in the night?" And "What are you going to have?" I always answer. So everything is satisfactory. I may smoke, if I like, or chew. Or stay out late nights, alone. Or climb upon a soapbox and exhort the passing world to turn. But I do not enjoy the things any more than I like this free verse.

LIGHTER VEIN

Not So Foolish. Some years ago, before the auto bus, Francois, a Louisiana, was the employ of the small town's local livery stable, driving the "hack" between his employers became suspicious that Francois had not been turning into their office all the cash fares he was collecting, and called him in. "Francois, how long have you been working for us?" "About twenty years!" "How much are we paying you a month?" "Twenty dollar month." "Well, we have a new proposition now to make to you." "What is it?" "If you will go with us before your employer and make a solemn vow that you will turn into this office all the cash fares you collect we will pay you $100 a month!" Francois replied Francois, his eyes registering contempt, "you tink I'm fool, eh?"—Judge.

TO ELIMINATE CANCER

Speaking in Halifax last week, Dr. Stewart, on the subject of cancer, said Canadians and Americans were working hand and hand for the control of cancer and towards its eradication. In the United States last year there had been a national cancer week during which an intensive cancer campaign was put on through the press, the bill boards, public meetings, and the church. Organization work was under way in the Maritime Provinces. Prince Edward Island had been the first to effect its organization. Something of that nature would be done in New Brunswick this summer, and he hoped the matter would be taken up in the meeting of the Nova Scotia Medical Society in Sydney in July. There were taken five hundred deaths from cancer in Nova Scotia, so that now about every death out of twelve was due to that disease. It was now known that cancer was not constitutional, contagious, nor hereditary, but that it was local and that if taken in time could be prevented. There was no alternative to the knife. Increasing death rate from operations which was very marked, and he hoped that in time cancer would be controlled as smallpox was now controlled.

About a year ago during excavations there was brought to light "the Vikings' hoard," a rare and valuable collection of old silver which is believed to have been buried by Norse raiders in the early centuries of the Christian era.

CABINET RESIGNS

Vienna, May 24.—The Austrian cabinet headed by Johann Schober, chancellor, resigned today owing to parliament having reduced credits asked for by the government.

ASKS MORE SEA MAIL PAY.

Otherwise Oceanic Steamship Line May Have to Quit.

Washington, May 23.—Because the Ocean Steamship Company's mail contract expires June 30 and no provision has been made for renewal, this company, which is the only American passenger line in the Pacific running below the equator, may have to go out of business, according to Frederick S. Samuels, assistant to the president of the company, who is in Washington.

Efforts are being made by the shipping board, the postmaster-general and the secretary of the navy to have the line maintained.

The shipping board will take up the matter Monday. Vice-President Love of the Emergency Fleet Corporation thinks it would be a "crime" to permit the Oceanic company to go out of business. Secretary Denby is anxious to have the service maintained, because it provides the only American line to Samoa.

It is not believed that the shipping board can take up the run because it might lose by the venture more than the mail compensation sought by the Oceanic company. The cost of operating ships has doubled since the rate of compensation was fixed by the post office department. Trade conditions are not too promising because of the preferential tariff in Australia for goods carried in British bottoms.

Competing with the Oceanic company are three British lines which receive from mail contracts twice the amount heretofore allowed to the American concern.

GREAT S. S. CONVENTION.

America's greatest Sunday School convention is being staged for Convention Hall, Kansas City, Missouri, June 21-27, 1922, when the Sixteenth International Sunday School convention expects to welcome over 9,000 delegates, representing 1,677,899 Sunday school officers and teachers and 12,036,246 pupils from all parts of the United States and Canada to celebrate the merging of the International Sunday School Association and the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations into one great unified body of all Sunday school workers to be known as "The International Sunday School Council of Religious Education." The general theme of the convention will be "Building Together," through the home, the church, the community, North America, the World Field, re-organization and co-operation, and religious education and evangelism.

President W. O. Thomson, Ohio State University, Columbus, is chairman of the general convention committee. Dr. Marian Lawrence, consulting general secretary International Sunday School Association, is executive secretary, and

DYE STOCKINGS OR SWEATER IN "DIAMOND DYES"

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or drape even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.

RECENT WEDDINGS
Brown-Sweet.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet, 29 Havelock street, west end, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock when their eldest daughter, Gladys, became the bride of Everett Brown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. W. Pollett and interment was made in the Methodist burying ground.

EDUCATOR SHOOT JANITOR
Colorado Superintendent of Schools Thought He Threw Eggs at Him

Limco, Col., May 25.—W. R. Matthews, superintendent of schools, shot and seriously wounded George Haselett, janitor of the Limco High School. The shooting occurred in the manual training room in the basement of the building. The men are alleged to have quarreled when Matthews is said to have accused Haselett of taking part in a demonstration Tuesday night during which the superintendent was struck by eggs thrown by men or boys concealed near his home.

Haselett was rushed to a hospital, where his condition was pronounced critical. Matthews ran home where he was arrested.

Haselett declared Matthews accused him of taking part in the "egg" incident. A quarrel started and Matthews, according to Haselett, fired five shots, two taking effect. One of the bullets entered Haselett's abdomen and the second struck him in the forearm.

GETS SEPARATION FROM WIFE WHO DIDN'T COOK BREAKFAST
New York, May 25.—Justice Benedict, sitting in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, ruled that "failure to cook a man's breakfast" is ground for a separation and granted a decree to Henry Springer of 169 South Oxford street, who sued his wife, Mrs. Margaret Springer of 481 Eighty-second street, Brooklyn.

No More Bother Winding Machines

Little Electric Motor That Makes Talking Machines New Again

The Shelton Electric Co. of New York, a concern devoted to improvements on mechanical devices of a utility character, have invented a portable motor that runs your talking machine instead of the steel clockwork-like spring, and the household public of the continent are buying them up like hot cakes. For instance, this little motor is simply placed alongside the turntable of the talking machine so that its rubber driving wheel touches the edge. By connecting the electric cord with a light socket or baseboard plug-hole the wee motor drives the machine at perfect tempo. Constantly winding up the talking machine is no longer a bugaboo, no longer a hurdy-gurdy process. By pressing the button the motor stops or starts. One can hardly imagine how different the music sounds under this new arrangement. Instead of the oft-times irregular speed of the spring-driven record—perhaps the spasmodic tension of a well-worn spring—the rhythm and tempo is perfect. This is most enjoyable in dancing records and in a cheaper make of talking machine the effect is that of an expensive electrically-motored one. The Shelton Motor simply sits alongside the motor, has no attaching screws or nails. Can be used on Edison, Victor and Columbia types. It never gets out of adjustment and is a wonderful little piece of electric mechanism, hardy and durable. There are already over 25,000 of them in use. John Frodsham, the Victor dealer opposite the Market, in German street, is the St. John agent for this new talking machine accessory and he has sold a score of them within the past few days after a demonstration. A phone call will make arrangements for showing this clever device.

The cost of the Shelton Motor is very moderate indeed.

Boots, Oxfords, Pumps

This lot consists of boots, oxfords and pumps—fifty pairs altogether. Many of them sold in the regular way at from $4.00 to $6.00 the pair, but the sizes are broken and we've priced them to move out quickly.

47c.
Pair

If your size is here you are in luck, because they're worth at least ten times more than the price we are asking. Come early Friday morning.

You have read a lot about merchandise sales the last year, but here is my idea of value and I want to know if it is not your idea, too. The word "value" from the use to which it has been put in the last quarter of a century must be made of rubber—it has been stretched to the limit. But every man and woman has a right to their own opinion, and they are welcome to what they think. I have mine and every other merchant can have his.

In the end, however, it is your idea, and only yours that counts, and the store whose idea is nearest to yours is the store that is going to enjoy a big business and have a phenomenal sale, and after the sale hold your friendship, confidence and patronage.

Value to me means just this: The best merchandise I can buy; best in every way—quality, attractiveness, workmanship; sold to my customers at the smallest margin of profit which it is possible to accept and not sustain an actual loss—and to hold to that method of selling when you must have merchandise as well as these times when you can really get along without it.

Honestly priced high-grade merchandise and courteous treatment. That is my idea of value-giving, and you will find that absolutely proven during the progress of this sale.

(Signed) A. FINE.

Selling Begins Friday, May 26th, at 9 a.m.

A. F. BENTLEY IS THE LIBERAL CANDIDATE

Unanimous Choice of Government Party Convention For St. John County

WHOLE PARTY IS BEHIND HIM

Only Other Name Suggested is That of Councillor Campbell and Latter, in Withdrawing Nominates Veteran Campaigner and Former Member of Legislature - Stirring Speeches Mark the Meeting.

A. F. Bentley, of St. Martins, one of New Brunswick's most prominent citizens and a former member of the provincial legislature, was the unanimous choice of the Liberal convention, held on Tuesday evening in the Moose hall in Coburg street, as the candidate to carry the banner of Liberalism in the provincial by-election for St. John county on June 10.

A. F. BENTLEY Chosen as Liberal Candidate for St. John County By-election.

James E. Murray, former county chairman, A. F. Johnson, of Loch Lomond, was chosen chairman and J. A. Barry, of Beauséjour, was elected secretary. Arnold Thorne, of Beauséjour, nominated Councillor Murray Campbell, but Mr. Campbell declined the nomination, and in turn nominated Mr. Bentley, who forthwith declared the unanimous choice of the convention.

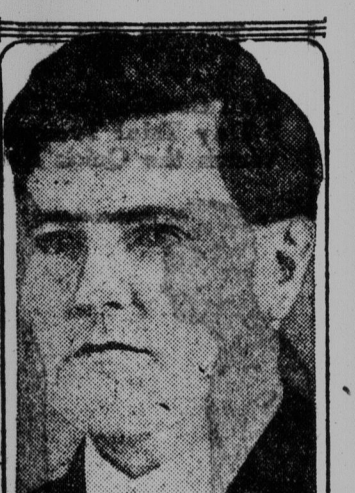

Joseph L. O'Brien was accordingly instructed to repair to the Royal Hotel and to announce to Mr. Bentley that he had been nominated as the candidate to support the Foster administration.

Mr. Bentley's Stand. Mr. Bentley, in accepting the nomination, delivered a vigorous address in which he summarized the achievements of the Foster administration and marshalled an array of arguments going to show that the people of the county ought, by electing him, to endorse the Foster policy.

Mr. Bentley said that he was going to speak on economic and social conditions in the constituency rather than make any political speech. He said, however, that the industries had been languishing almost to the point of death, and many men, as a consequence, were without work.

The government, he said, was starting what work they could, but it did not look as though there was to be sufficient work for the men of the county. He said that the government was not to be faulted for the unemployment that had become a fact of life.

When they told me about Tanlac it seemed almost too good to be true, but since taking the medicine I know for myself that all they said about it was so. J. Bertram Simon, 1081 E. 46th Street, Tacoma, Wash., a well-known photographer.

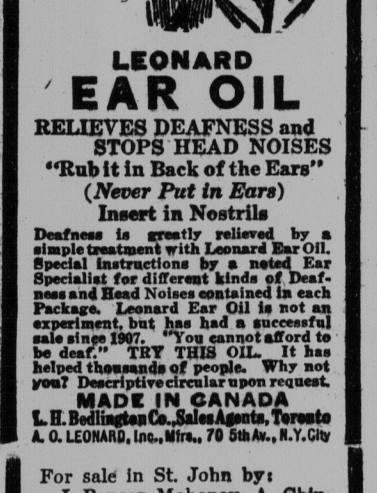

I suffered from rheumatism in my shoulders for ten years and at one time had to go to the hospital. I was in bed for months and hardly able to turn from side to side. I couldn't sleep and I don't believe I had a day free from pain. My appetite failed and I couldn't digest a thing properly. Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Foster administration the debt had risen to $283,000,000. But contrast the methods and results of the Fleming financial policy with those of the Foster financial policy.

Mr. Bentley said that he was glad to bear testimony to the health of the children of the province particularly and of the health of the whole population generally.

Mr. Bentley's address by saying that there had been a little criticism regarding some features of the public health administration. He reminded his audience that the project was an entirely new one and it was only getting under way.

CARNEGIE IDEA

Board of Regents Will Sympathetically Consider Any Plan That Will Tend to Increase Efficiency of Maritime Educational Institutions.

Sackville, May 24—Regents of Mount Allison have been in session all day, the first matter receiving consideration being the proposing of the proposed federation of maritime universities. After a discussion lasting several hours the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas the regents of Mount Allison have had under consideration the first draft of a report prepared under the direction of the Carnegie Corporation, recommending a scheme for the federation of the maritime universities; and whereas, this board agrees with the views of the Carnegie commission that the number of universities at present serving the educational needs of these maritime provinces is excessive;

"Therefore, resolved, that this board would sympathetically consider any plan of university federation that would tend to increase the efficiency of the educational institutions concerned, provided satisfactory financial and other arrangements could be made to carry out the scheme.

"Also resolved, that a committee of six members of the board be appointed to select a committee to study the question of federation of the maritime universities, and that the committee be authorized to report at a later date."

FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unhealed after, until some serious complication sets in.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of every citizen. If you do not have this, you are liable to constipation, sick or bilious, spots, dizziness, heartburn, coated tongue, foul breath, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, water brash, etc.

Keep the bowels properly regulated by the use of and you will enjoy the best of health.

Mr. Frank Willsey, R. R. 8, Belmont, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years. I had bad headaches, faint and dizzy spells, and would bleed freely. I was nearly discouraged by it, but I had tried many things that gave me no relief. My mother got me a vial of Milburn's Laxative Pills and told me to give them a fair trial. After I had taken one vial I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint, dizzy spells and am gaining weight. I would not be without Milburn's Laxative Pills, 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

"Saved My Little Girl!"

Mother tells how her little Ethel's life was saved.

That is what one woman wrote us recently, and then she goes on to say:—"Ethel, who is just past eight, caught a bad cold last August. The child is of a highly strung, nervous temperament and could not be kept quiet in bed. We tried everything we could think of to cure her cough. But, she cough became worse and from a rosy, healthy, sturdy girl she became pale and thin. Nothing we did seemed to stop the cough and by this time regular spasms of coughing had developed. These coughing spells left the child weak and completely tired out. I believe that in a short time the cough would have completely the child's lungs. After trying everything I could think of, I saw an advertisement for Carnol, saying that this preparation would build one up. I got a bottle from the druggist and before it was half finished my little girl had almost completely shaken off her cough. Her cheeks began to get back their old colour. She started to put on flesh again and would run and play all day without being tired. Today, after having taken two bottles of Carnol, she is looking and feeling better than she has ever felt in her life."

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 4-122

Dr. J. D. Paget, of Ottawa, assistant deputy minister of the federal department of health, on behalf of the quarantine staff presented a beautifully engraved silver salver to the guests of the evening. In his presentation address Dr. Paget made reference to the splendid work of Dr. Brown while on duty at Partridge Island.

In his reply Dr. Brown spoke of his pleasant relations with the staff at the island. He spoke highly of the co-operation given him by each member of the staff and referred particularly to the efficiency of Miss A. Delaney, the matron.

The dinner was an enjoyable affair. The tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion and the conclusion of the dinner was a social dance.

TORONTO GLOBE
PRAISES BUDGET

Courageous and Intelligent Attempt to Deal With Difficult Situation

CHANGES ARE SUBSTANTIAL

Show That Public Confidence in the Veteran Minister of Finance Well Deserved—The Effect of the British Preference Increase.

Toronto, May 24—The Globe this morning says:

"Taken altogether the budget is a courageous and intelligent attempt to deal with every difficult situation. The means for more revenue is faced and dealt with, every effort has been made to prevent the increase from working hardship upon the basic industries, and upon the consumers of necessities, and as far as possible the importation of British produce for foreign goods is encouraged. The changes are not spectacular, but they are substantial, and they show that public confidence in the veteran Minister of Finance has been deserved.

"The increase in the sales tax by fifty per cent in the Fielding budget has one feature of special significance. At present the tax is four per cent, and like the old rate it will make no discrimination between the countries from which the goods are imported; but the increase in the sales tax will be more than offset on imports from Great Britain of enameled ware, cotton fabrics, flannels, rubber clothing, knitted goods, and boots and shoes, by an increase of 2 1/2 per cent in the British preference on these products. There is an absolute reduction of 1-1/2 per cent compared with the old rate, but the British preference advantage over his United States competitor in the Canadian market is increased by 2 1/2 per cent.

"Although Mr. Fielding did not specifically point this out, he doubtless has in mind the fact that the increase in the goods so that no new disabilities would fall on British exporters or producers of raw materials, as the fifty per cent increase of the sales tax.

"If by the same stroke of the pen he put them in a better position in relation to United States rivals, it may be inferred that he did so cheerfully."

STORY OF DEATH MERE TRICKERY?

Amazing Accusation Made by the Adversaries of Paul Meunier.

Paris, May 25—The case of M. Paul Meunier, the deputy who was accused of treason for having received money from Germany during the war, was thought, definitely settled by a verdict last week. Now, however, the amazing accusation is made by clear cut evidence, that a body having been substituted and handed over to the authorities for an autopsy.

Meunier's advocates that the body was hale and hearty. One at least of Meunier's friends, M. Marcel Laurent, convinced the authorities and is convinced the coffin which was taken to the morgue for an autopsy never had been opened.

When Meunier was released, owing to lack of evidence, after two years' imprisonment during the inquiry into his alleged dealings with the enemy, a fresh enquiry was being closely watched both by Meunier and his friends, the Meunier and a friend, Mme. Bernadine de Meunier, who is believed to be the mother of the young man.

The morgue authorities deny this, saying that the whole story is absurd, they having duly photographed the body of Meunier in the presence of a doctor who knew him, and further that the photographs of the body are absolutely authentic.

In view of the excitement caused by Meunier's friends now say that the autopsy was never actually made. They are sure the seals which were placed on the coffin at the hospital were never removed. His adversaries go further, saying that Meunier is not dead at all, a body having been substituted. They base this assertion on the fact that the official photographs of the corpse are not in the least a resemblance of Meunier.

A fair-sized crowd journeyed out to Moosepath Park, yesterday afternoon, and watched two good matched races. In the first race, Billie Miller, owned by Hugh Yearwood, and driver by Henry Craft, took Fred King's black gelding into camp by winning the third and deciding heat at one mile, after each had one heat to its credit. Patchen King got away to a bad start in the last heat. The best time made was 2:42 for the mile.

A match race between LeBaron Wilson, Barrows, and B. Clark's gelding, Bing, with both owners driving, was won by Barrows in straight heats, over the half mile. The best time was 1:25 minutes. Miss Kathleen Bois entertained between races and was well received.

Owing to the regrettable death of the racehorse, Echo Todd, Jr., one of the classes was cancelled yesterday and a match race substituted.

"UBER ALLES" CAUSES A BIG ROW ON SHIP

The Refusal of Passengers to Stand when "Deutschland" is Sung Angers German—Dashes His Glass to Floor.

The failure of some of those gathered in the smoking room of the North German Lloyd liner Seydlitz to stand up when "Deutschland über Alles" was sung led to one young German breaking his wine glass on the floor as a sign of his disapproval, caused a flurry of excitement on board, and furnished cabin passengers a subject for conversation during the voyage from Bremen which ended at New York on Saturday. The excitable young man who dashed his wine glass to the floor—one version was that he threw it at the offenders—was Captain Fritz von Falkenhayn, formerly an aide to General Tomsen, commanding the German air force.

There was a convivial gathering in the smoking room on Tuesday night. Many were Germans, but there was a sprinkling of Americans. Several women also were present. Someone started singing German songs and soon nearly everyone present was contributing to the chorus. When "Deutschland über Alles" was started most of those present got to their feet. Some did not. One such group remained seated near Captain Falkenhayn. He stopped singing for a few seconds and glared at the offenders. It had no effect. One version of what happened then was that the captain asked why they did not stand up. The reply came promptly that they preferred not to do so, and whether courtesy demanded that all should stand was a matter of opinion.

Those in the room sensed that something was wrong, and there was a buzz of excitement as most of those present moved toward the captain and the seated group, which included several women. After a second of silence the captain dashed his glass to the floor at the feet of those who had refused to get out of their chairs. Then he strode indignantly out of the room. By this time the place was in an uproar.

Captain Falkenhayn said that what angered him in the smoking room was that those who did not stand up were not Americans but Germans. In the first place, he said, he disapproved of the singing, and it was not until "Deutschland über Alles" was started that he got up and take a part in the singing. He said he looked his disapproval at those who remained seated, and, he added, what made the offence worse was that one of the men sat with his feet on the arm of a chair.

"There has come a realization that men to whom our school buildings are entrusted must not be able only to shovel coal, sweep, clean and dust, but they must have a thorough knowledge and understanding of the science of heating, ventilation, humidity and sanitation."

"Housekeeping, as janitors have to do

HOSPITALS ON STANDARD LIST FIND BENEFIT

Dr. M. T. MacEachern, Addressing Conference of Surgeons, Gives an Interesting Address on Standardization.

(Halifax Chronicle.)

On Friday, at the School for the Blind, a Hospital Conference was held, Dr. H. K. Macdonald presiding. Among the addresses delivered was one of special interest to Canadians on "Hospital Standardization in Canada." This address was given by Dr. M. T. MacEachern, superintendent of the Vancouver General Hospital and director-general of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Discussing his subject, Dr. MacEachern said in part:

"Hospital standardization in Canada has been carried out simultaneously in Canada and the United States for the past five years. This year our visitors or surveyors are reaching every hospital of fifty beds and over. This means that at least 184 hospitals in Canada will be examined and rated. Last year hospitals of 100 beds and over were considered and all such institutions in Nova Scotia were in our standard list."

"I find that all the hospitals are receiving the programme with very great enthusiasm, and I believe that a great showing will be made this year. Hospitals are seeing such practical results that each year as the work goes on greater interest is created."

"This programme is presented by the visitor, and, as you were told, aims that there be such a service established within the hospital that the patient may get the best chance possible for the best result that medical science can give—and this means that the hospital must have an ethical and organized staff of the medical men attending who shall meet at regular intervals—not less frequent than once a month—and who shall review the work of the hospital for the previous period with the idea of finding out the quality of same for that period with particular investigation of unimproved, complications, infections following operation or maternity, and so on. These constitute the medical liabilities of the hospital."

"This big consultation is in the test of spirit, and for the best co-operation. To carry out such a requirement as this medical records are needed and the standard demands that a complete history is needed on each case, and this must be provided immediately after admission. Again, in order to have a correct and early diagnosis such laboratories facilities will assist the doctor in making or in confirming same must be provided and all hospitals are asked to provide the service."

"This whole programme is merely the fundamental principle on which any hospital should be run, and it is of such importance that it is worthy of being called by such a name. Any hospital not on the list this coming year will have a very difficult matter to explain without the necessary embarrassment that would result for no institution can afford to give less than that which is fundamental for hospitals to do.

"Widespread publicity accompanies the work this year and the public will soon ask what hospitals are standard or not before going into same. Governmental and municipal bodies will limit aid financially to institutions which do not comply with such a standard and young women will hesitate to train in institutions which are not in the list. It is the public's directory of safe and efficient hospitals as to whether to go to when ill."

"Splendid results have already been obtained in Canada in the way of fewer operations, fewer deaths, quicker convalescence and lessened death rates. One important hospital publishes important statistics before and after hospital standardization which are as follows:—

Before.	After.
Operations ... 44.4 p.c.	30.2 p.c.
Complications ... 7.7 p.c.	6.8 p.c.
Deaths ... 77 per 1000	68 per 1000
Average stay of each patient ... 15 per 1000	13.8 per 1000

"Another important hospital publishes reports that there was a reduction in operations from sixty-two per cent. to forty-seven per cent."

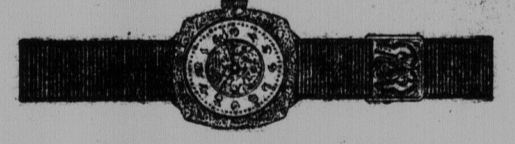

"At the close of the last survey 63.2 per cent. of the hospitals in Canada of 100 beds and over were standard."

All this ultimately means not only a great national economy in industry but great happiness and well being to our citizens of Canada."

AN ENGINEERING MYSTERY

It seems impossible that an iron bar with a hole through the centre should be stronger than a solid bar of the same diameter, but this has actually been proved to be the case. A British firm has developed a very ingenious process of making what it calls a hollow cored bar with this increase of strength. The hollow core is really a small hole which extends from end to end of the bar. Obviously it would be a very costly business to bore a hole through the bar, and in consequence this firm has developed a clever way of making the bar hollow without drilling. The mass of metal from which the bar is drawn is drilled in the first case, and the hole is packed tight with a special composition. The ends of the hole are subsequently sealed by a patented process of welding. When the piece of metal is rolled in the mill into a long bar the packing stretches with the metal and preserves the continuity of the hole. One of the most important applications of this hollow cored bar is for mining drills where the hole is used for a current of air or a jet of water to cool the cutting edge. Where water is used it converts the dust made by the tool into slush before it can rise and be breathed by the miner. Thanks to this invention it is probable that the liability of miners to tuberculosis from dust will be greatly minimized. Hollow cored bars are also being used for a great variety of purposes in motor car construction and elsewhere. Arrangements have recently been made for the production of these hollow bars on a much larger scale than formerly.

ACCURACY in Small Watches

As you reduce the size of a watch movement so you increase the care necessary in its making. Therefore, the small watch costs more to build, if it is made to keep accurate time and give dependable service.

There are many thousands of small watches made abroad, but now reposing in bureau drawers, useless to their owners because they were made at a price and not to keep time.

These are reasons why the Canadian citizen is discovering that a good watch must have the record of its maker behind it and his word to guarantee it.

The Waltham small watch is made with the utmost care and to exceedingly high standards of quality throughout. It is famous as a time-keeper and, with reasonable care, will last a lifetime.

Ask your jeweler to show you the exquisite and reliable Ladies' Wrist Watch illustrated above. He knows Waltham Watches.

NOVELTY SHOWER
Friends of Miss Jean Humphrey gathered on Monday evening at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Humphrey, Chesley street, and tendered her a shower in honor of her approaching marriage to New Brunswick when a young and a happy evening spent with games, music and dancing. Refreshments were served.
ENJOYABLE TIME
The weekly meeting of the Last Car Club was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Smith, Carmarthen street. All members were present, also some visiting friends including Mrs. and Miss McLean and Mrs. Wrench and son, lately arrived from Dominica, West Indies, who were given a hearty welcome. A whist drive was held and some very interesting games were played. The winners were Mrs. McLean and C. Nickson. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening by the hostess. The party broke up at a late hour.
THE LATE THOMAS DUNLAP
Thomas Dunlap, who died suddenly on Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sophia Tower, 22 Joseph street, was seventy-seven years of age. He was born in Donegal, Ireland, and came to New Brunswick when a young man. He is survived by three daughters and one son. The daughters are Mrs. Sophia Tower, Mrs. Ellen Speight and Mrs. Charles Ward, all of St. John, and the son is William Dunlap, also of this city. They have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The funeral will be at half past two o'clock on Friday afternoon from 22 Johnston street.

GAVE CHILDREN OUTING.
One of the most enjoyable outings of the holiday on Wednesday was that of the little ones of the Children's Aid Home to McLaren's Beach in the afternoon. It had been arranged through the kindness of Mrs. Louise Hetherington, matron of the Provincial Hospital, and two of the members of the Rotary Club, A. L. Foster and N. J. Cabadu, took the children in their cars. The start was made in the early afternoon and the little ones in the two cars attracted much attention on the way, for every one was happy. Besides the owners of the cars there were fourteen of the children and three members of the staff. Supper was served at the beach and games and singing indulged in, after which the return was made to the city in good time. The outing was a success and all were grateful.

OLD LADIES' HOME
Satisfactory Reports at the Annual Meeting Today—Twenty-six Living There.
The annual meeting of subscribers to the Old Ladies' Home was held this afternoon at the home of W. Charles Fisher, the president, in the chair. Among the items of business taken up were the directors' report which showed an improvement in the affairs of the home. The expenses were greater than the receipts but the deficit was not nearly so large as it had been in any of the last four years.
The report showed that all the rooms in the home were filled, there being twenty-six living there, and that their small waiting list. During the year the receipts were larger than for last year and from the interest on investments made from the home paid by those in the home. Some extensive repairs had been made this year and renovating done to the halls and the general living rooms. There was no change in the directors during the year.
Following this meeting the board of directors met.

SOME EFFECTS OF AND COMMENT ON THE BUDGET
funtory in his decision of government economy and how to obtain it. The public will not be content with this. What is needed about as much as anything is a rigid system of treasury control at Ottawa.
Calgary Alberta: The government is facing the right way on the tariff even if it is not very precipitate in its changes. The government has been in office for less than a year, and had Mr. Meighen been elected without doubt he would have regarded his success as a mandate for increasing the tariff. The first budget is creditable to the Liberal government.
Victoria, B. C., Colonist: The budget is chiefly remarkable for the new taxes it imposes. Undoubtedly there will be an outcry about some of these. Obviously the tariff as amended is devised to take the form of an olive branch held out to the United States in the hope that the latter country will re-open reciprocity negotiations.

OVER-EXPENDITURE ON CITY ELEVATOR
City Engineer Submits a Report on Matter to the Council
Unforeseen Work the Cause—Further Information on the Request of Protestant Orphans' Home—Names Suggested for Head of Labor Bureau—Other Business.

A delegation from the board of the N. B. Protestant Orphans Home appeared before the city council this morning to give further information in connection with their request for a parcel of land in Lancaster. D. C. Clark, W. M. Campbell and J. King Kelly answered several questions put to them by the members of the council.
Mr. Clark said that the organization was asking for a grant of about fifteen acres on the Manawagonish Road in order to build an orphanage for the care of the indigent children of the province.
To the mayor, he said that the institution took in children regardless of denomination. Previously, he said, it was confined to Protestants, but its scope had been widened at the last session of the legislature. He said that they got no aid from the provincial government.
Asked what they would be willing to pay for the land, Mr. Clark said the public would be called on to pay for it, and the question was difficult to answer.
To Commissioner Thornton, Mr. Clark said that the matter of amalgamation of the Protestant orphanages was to come before a meeting this afternoon and it was hoped to have it consummated before tonight.
Mr. Kelly said that, regardless of amalgamation, something must be done to relieve the situation.
The mayor thought if the scheme was province-wide, the city should not be asked to provide the whole thing.
Mr. Kelly said while the charter permitted the home to take children of any denomination, it was not intended to proselitize.
Commissioner Frink said the land was the property of someone, and when an organization of one denomination or another wanted something from the city he thought they should offer a price which was not merely nominal. The land was granted the city, he said, on the condition that the sale price should be used to retire the city debt.
Mr. Campbell said he thought the price of $2,000 to $3,000 would be satisfactory to the board of the home.
Commissioner Wigmore thought the price mentioned was a fair one.
The mayor said that the city must have a justifiable price for the site to fulfill the conditions.
Mr. Clark asked the council to set the price and they would try to meet it, but he asked the council to make it as low as possible.
It was decided to postpone further consideration until after the amalgamation meeting.
Building Matter.
W. E. A. Lawton said he was acting for purchasers of a property at the corner of Union and Dorchester streets. It was planned to put the building in shape to bring a revenue to carry itself for a period. Before purchase, he said, the building inspector promised him a permit to change the peak roof to a flat roof. Later, Mr. Lawton said, the inspector refused the permit, as it was in No. 1 fire district. He said he wanted to put in two shops and was willing to take off the sloped roof, put on a flat roof and make it two stories. Mr. Lawton agreed to submit the scheme in writing to be taken up on Monday.
Employment Service.
Further consideration was given the matter of the institution of a branch of the dominion employment services in the city. A letter from the Trades & Labor Council recommending the appointment of George P. Hennessy as superintendent, was read. The mayor read letters from Mr. and Mrs. H. Good, as assistant, V. A. A. in which he said that it was understood that both Mr. Hennessy and Mr. E. Anderson had applied for the superintendency. The association, he said, recommended both applications equally. They also endorsed the application of Miss Agnes Sutherland as assistant.
The mayor presented a communication from Bryce M. Stewart, director general of employment services, Ottawa, acknowledging the mayor's letter informing him that the city had decided to establish a branch and asking for information. He said that Mr. Howard of the department, would be in the city on June 12 and would advise the city in connection with the scheme. He said it was usual to leave the appointment of superintendents with the municipalities, but Ottawa should be consulted before the men were engaged.
Commissioner Frink was of the opinion that the city should have the assurance of the provincial government that it would pay its 25 per cent. of the cost, before taking definite action. It was decided to delay further consideration until after the arrival of Mr. Howard. (Continued on page 15, fourth column.)

BROADCASTING RADIO STATION IN ST. JOHN SOON

J. L. McAvity Brings Home Word of This; Also Make Receiving Sets Here

That St. John is to have a modern radio sending station and that receiving sets will be manufactured in this city was the information given out by J. L. McAvity, who arrived here today from Montreal.

McAvity's complete arrangements for the New Brunswick Radio Corporation, of which he is president, to manufacture complete receiving sets of different types, and also secured a license to erect a broadcasting station. He said he hoped to have the broadcasting station completed in a week, and work well under way for the establishment of the plant for the manufacture of the instruments.

The plant will be situated in the McLean-Holt building in Albion street, a part of which will be renovated and equipped for this work. The first sets will be equipped with crystal detectors, which will enable purchasers to hear at a specified radius.

ALONG THE RIVER

Potatoes and Peas are Up— Many Excursions Yesterday—An Ancient Pine.

Potatoes and peas are above ground in some gardens at Point Landing, and the farmers report an excellent season for seeding. The bloom of the cherry trees makes white patches on the wooded hillsides along the river, and in another week some apple blossoms will be found.

It would take well on to a hundred years to repair the damage done by one February storm. Over the hill behind Public Landing, beside the road to the Backlands, stood a great, scraggy pine that must have been nearly a century old. There was an early defect in this tree near its base, and in time developed a hollow heart, in which one year the bees stored honey.

LARGE REDUCTIONS IN FREIGHT RATES

U. S. Commission Makes Them— Expected to Increase Imports from Canada.

Washington, May 25.—(Canadian Press)—Large reductions in freight rates ordered by the inter-state commerce commission yesterday, are expected to have an important bearing on imports from Canada and elsewhere. The lowering of freight rates, as viewed here, will to some extent increase imports from Canada, which have had to encounter not only tariff duties, but such high freight rates as greatly to restrict markets.

At the opening of the senior amateur city baseball league on the East End yesterday Commissioner Thornton presented a report of the city engineer on the matter, said that the equipment could be got into the grounds, no decision was made until Mr. McGuire accompanied Commissioner Frink to the site.

BANK CLEARINGS. The St. John bank clearings this week, amounted to $2,877,483. For the same week last year they were $2,568,015 and for 1920 they were $3,127,788. Halifax clearings this week were $2,510,491. In Moncton the figures were $908,652.

A NICE SCHOONER. A splendid addition to the coastwise fleet operating out of this port arrived yesterday on her first trip in the shape of the auxiliary schooner Lucille B. The vessel is commanded by Captain Bellevue and is inaugurating a new service between St. John and Churchill Point. Hereafter he will maintain a weekly service between the two ports. The Lucille B. is two masted, 100 feet long, of 54 tons net register and was launched last fall. The schooner has auxiliary power, consisting of engines which generate seventy-five horsepower in the hull. The schooner tied up in the Market Slip and has been much admired by a large number of people interested in such matters.

WAS A GOOD GAME. The St. David street All Stars visited Silver Falls yesterday afternoon and defeated to the tune of 7 to 5. Although the town boys were handicapped by having only seven players on their team they put up a good game and feel they can trim the Silver Falls lads. They have therefore issued a challenge for a game on the Crown street diamond and ask for a reply through the Times.

FIFTEEN MINUTES OF RADIO EACH DAY

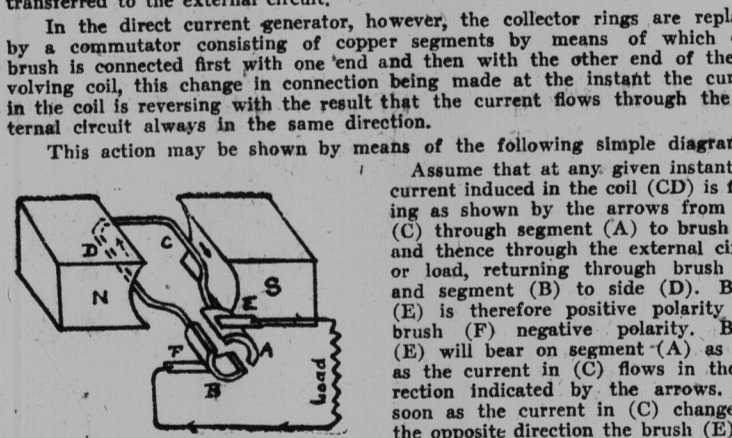

Formerly Technical Electrical Expert For U. S. Government

By Edward N. Davis

Lesson No. 8. DETERMINATION OF FREQUENCY. The frequency with which an alternating current flows back and forth in an electrical circuit is a very important function in the operation of the radio transmitter. In alternating current generators this frequency is expressed in cycles per second and it is essential that the student understand clearly the manner in which the electrical current flows back and forth at regular intervals.

The frequency of an alternating current is expressed in cycles per second and it is a function of the number of field poles of the generator and of the number of revolutions per second made by the armature. As previously explained, a complete revolution of a coil between a pair of field poles constitutes one cycle per second. From this we develop the relation that the frequency of an alternating current generator is equal to the number of revolutions of the armature per second multiplied by the number of field poles.

THE DIRECT CURRENT GENERATOR. One of the most important uses of the direct current generator is in the connection with the generation and transmission of sustained electromagnetic waves which oscillate with continuous period. In the case of the direct current generator the current is reversed in direction through the external circuit at the terminals of a coil revolving in a magnetic field. This is accomplished by means of a commutator consisting of copper segments by means of which each brush is connected first with one end and then with the other end of the coil.

COMMUTATOR. The commutator consists of a series of copper segments which are connected to the ends of the coil. As the coil rotates, the brushes alternate between the segments, reversing the current in the external circuit.

BELYEA S TO HAVE TEST IN RACE SATURDAY

That's the Word from Philadelphia—His Entry for the Diamond Sculls Forwarded

J. C. Chesley, local agent of the Marine and Fisheries department, today received a letter from Harry Belyea, who is in Philadelphia with his brother Hilton, who is to row for the champion ship of the United States on June 8. Harry said that Hilton was rapidly rounding into shape, and in order to ascertain how fast he was rowing or what improvement he will have to make for the big aquatic classic has entered the race.

Mr. Chesley also received a telegram this morning from Toronto announcing that the Canadian Association of Amateur Rowers had forwarded Hilton Belyea's entry for the diamond sculls race in the Henley regatta, which will take place on the Thames.

A benefit game to help defray Hilton's expenses will be played on Tuesday evening until last night about midnight at the rink at the Corner of Main and Water streets.

N. B. OFFICER TO THE HAGUE TO GIVE EVIDENCE

Fredericton, N. B., May 25.—Captain Horace VanWart left evening for Montreal en route to The Hague to give evidence in connection with the execution of Admiral Kolchak at Frink's Harbor, on Feb. 7, 1920.

Mr. VanWart was the only Canadian officer with the British forces at Vladivostok. When the troops surrendered at Moscow and Kolchak was given over to the Bolsheviks he was present, and he was also present at the execution of the admiral inasmuch as he was given the personal papers and documents belonging to the executed general for safekeeping.

It is required to present these papers in court.

WATER TROUBLE IN TWO PLACES

It was a busy holiday for Commissioner Wigmore and his water department repair crews, for from Tuesday evening until last night about midnight they were engaged in repairing damage done to two of the services.

On Tuesday evening a stand pipe in Elm street blew out and the crew worked well into the night excavating and placing this section. On Wednesday morning about 11 o'clock, while one of the residents of East St. John, near Park avenue, was blasting for a trench to hold a service pipe, one joint in the East side main went and the service was cut off at about 10 o'clock.

SEE LITTLE TO CRITICIZE IN IT

Comment in Ottawa on Budget Brought Down by Hon. Mr. Fielding

ATTITUDE OF PROGRESSIVES

Latter Pleased That It is a Step in the Right Direction—Liberals Expect Debate to be Brief One—Conservative Criticism Will be Made as Matter of Course.

Ottawa, May 24—Members of parliament who had to remain in Ottawa over the holiday holidays for the moment to express any decided opinions about the budget presented to the commons yesterday by Hon. W. S. Fielding. For the most part the Liberals seem satisfied, and at present it does not look as though there would be any criticism from the members of the government party. Quite a few Liberals frankly would have liked to have seen deeper tariff cuts, but when they look at the estimated expenditure of $467,000,000 they realize

The New Taxes Named In The Budget Speech

New taxes were announced as follows:
Sales tax increased by 50 per cent.
Passenger automobiles, five per cent. up to $1,200; 10 per cent. above $1,200.
Alc. beer etc., 15 cents per gallon.
Confectionery, five per cent.
Mineral waters and other soft drinks, 10 cents per gallon.
Cheques, 2 cents up to $50; 2 cents on each additional $50.
Insurance, 5 per cent. on premiums paid unlicensed companies.
Telegrams and cables, increased from 1 cent to 5 cents.
Transfers of stock, increased from 2 cents to 5 cents per share.
Best sugar, 49 cents per 100 pounds.
All the foregoing are under the special war revenue act.
Cigars, excise from $6 per thousand to $9 per thousand.
Banks, 7 per cent. on circulation.

that possibly Mr. Fielding has gone his limit in reductions for this session. Liberals today expressed the opinion that the budget debate, which begins on Friday, would be a comparatively brief one. Few of them desire to participate in the talk, feeling that the subject had been argued at sufficient length by Mr. Fielding and knowing that the premier and possibly two other members of the cabinet will desire to speak.

It was said today that the Conservatives think they see many loopholes which may be attacked. For one thing, the Conservatives do not like the cancellation of the depreciated currency legislation. One Conservative sentiment heard today was to the effect that this was "Free trade with Germany." With the value of the mark at one-third of a cent, as against a pre-war value of twenty-four cents, the Conservatives claim that the country is open to a flood of German goods with nothing in the way except a general Canadian tariff. Against this, of course, is the argument that the depreciated currency legislation never accomplished the ends for which it is designed. As Mr. Fielding put it yesterday, "The late government has not succeeded in shutting out German goods. What they have succeeded in doing is in shutting out the Canadian merchant from an opportunity of doing direct trade, and in obliging him to pay tribute to somebody else."

In other words the Fielding argument is that the depreciated currency legislation was a sham which only left good Canadian money in the hands of the middlemen in Holland and Britain. In spite of this the slogan, "Free trade with Germany," is too good a one for the Conservatives to overlook when they hurt their arguments across the floor of the house, and out into the country. It is said, also, that the opposition will attempt to belittle the tariff reductions in the eyes of the farmers, alleging that the amount saved in lowered duties is more than offset by the fifty per cent. increase in the sales tax. Already some members of Mr. Meighen's party have asserted that, all told, the new budget means many millions loss to the western farmer.

The Progressive Attitude.

It was noticeable yesterday that while the Progressives applauded the first portion of Mr. Fielding's speech they were rather silent when he came to summarize his tariff reductions. Some of them think there should have been a greater cut on textiles, boots and shoes, and agricultural implements. One Progressive figured that the reduction on a binder came to about $2.75, while the sales tax was about $2.30 of this. On boots N. O. P. the old tariff was twenty per cent. preference and thirty per cent. general. The new tariff makes it 17% preference, and leaves the general as it was.

Some of the Progressives point out that only some of the higher class boots come from Britain, and that the boot manufacturers are given just as much protection as ever.

On linen or cotton clothing the preference was twenty-five per cent. and the general tariff thirty-five per cent. The reduction under the preference makes it 22½% and the general tariff remains at 35%. The same application is made to woollen clothing where the preference was 22½% and is reduced to 20, while the general tariff remains at 35%.

On agricultural implements the reductions in the general tariff averages a little better than five per cent. The Progressives, at least some of them who were in the parliament buildings today, prefer that this reduction might have been more.

Little to Criticize.

Business men from all parts of Canada who were here yesterday and heard the speech, and others who made haste this morning to secure copies of Hansard, have little criticism to pass. Several prominent manufacturers remarked that they thought they had escaped rather easily in view of some Liberal pre-election talk. In fact, one heard in Ottawa today no complaints that industry would be ruined. On the other hand, all seemed glad matters had been settled for a while. Among merchants and wholesalers here relief was expressed that there had been no revival of any form of luxury tax. Though the sales tax has been increased fifty per cent. it is pointed out that it is a comparatively easy tax to collect and one that is not noticed by the majority of consumers.

The comment ought to become more specific tomorrow, after there has been time to study the schedules and taxation changes. On Friday the commons reassembles, and the budget debate will be begun. According to present arrangements it will be continued every day until finished. There is a general feeling that the wind-up ought to come by Friday week.

It is, of course, too early to predict any amendments, but judging by Conservative sentiment today that party will have one regarding the cancellation of the depreciated currency legislation.

A BOY SCOUT IS DROWNED

Charles Eustis Hubbard, 2nd, Who Spent His Summers at Shediac, Loses Life.

Shediac, May 24—Many young friends of Charles Eustis Hubbard, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Tracey Hubbard, of Brookline (Mass.), were shocked this week to learn of his death by drowning in the Charles river at Dedham (Mass.). The boy's mother was formerly Miss M. Besse Welling, daughter of Mrs. George W. Welling of Shediac Cape, and the lad had spent nine or ten summers there, where he was a general favorite. His father is a member of the staff of the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard College, and is a son of Charles Eustis Hubbard, director of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., and formerly its secretary. The latter Mr. Hubbard is an uncle of Mrs. Bell, wife of Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, of Washington, and Baddeck (C. B.). The accident occurred last Saturday evening while the lad was with fellow Boy Scouts camping. He and three other boys were in a canoe when it was upset. All were saved except the Hubbard boy, who although a good swimmer, was apparently carried under by a strong current. He is survived by his parents, a brother and sister.

BRITAIN WILL NOT CHANGE POLICY

Earl of Balfour Gave Explanation to League Council at Geneva re Palestine—Capital is Necessary.

(Special Cable to the N. Y. Times and Montreal Gazette.)
London, May 19.—The policy of the British mandate for Palestine is not in doubt, the Earl of Balfour explained in a speech yesterday before the Council of the League of Nations at Geneva. The council has not yet been able to deal with the treaty of Sevres which has not yet been ratified, he admitted, but the mandate does not depend upon that and

"nobody need be under the least fear, and nobody, let me add, need entertain the least hope that the broad lines of its policy are going to suffer any alteration." Lord Balfour then spoke of the importance of the issue of the mandate at the earliest possible moment. He said: "Unless we are able, as I am confident that ultimately we shall be able, so to develop the economic position in Palestine, so that it can support a much larger population, in much greater comfort than the existing population, then our hopes of success of this policy will no doubt suffer serious disappointment. Money, therefore, is required. Capital is necessary for the development of the country."

Lord Balfour also dealt with the anxiety expressed in some quarters lest the terms of the mandate should be injurious to the religious interests of Christians. He said: "I confess to feeling, I will not say indignation—that would be too strong a word—but surprise that any human being should suppose that Christian interests should suffer by the transfer of a power in Palestine from a Mohammedan to a Christian power, and my surprise is not diminished when I reflect that that Christian power is Great Britain. I think I may safely claim for my country that no power has shown itself more equitable in the treatment of different religious creeds, and more anxious to avoid offending the religious susceptibilities of any body of worshippers, whatever be their creed. "Is it credible that when you have by the fortune of war taken away from a Mohammedan country and put under a Christian mandatory the places which perhaps have sacred associations with large bodies of Christian beliefs, is it credible that they should suffer by the transfer? Remember that whatever is done in Palestine is done in the light of day. The machinery of the mandates commission, the machinery of the Council of the League of Nations, and the machinery of the assembly of the league, are all contrived to make it quite impossible that any transaction of general interest should take place except in the full glare of the noonday sun of public opinion, and to suppose that in those circumstances there is the least chance of deliberate injustice or careless administration being permitted in Palestine seems to be one of the most extravagant and baseless fears by which any body of men were ever assailed."

SAYS GOVERNMENT CONTROL DOES NOT SUFFICE

(E. Thomas, Social Service Board)
Two years ago the Legislature of British Columbia refused the electors of that province the opportunity of voting for the exclusion of imported liquor and authorized a plebiscite concerning government sale. This plan is identical with the system now advocated, under the name of government control in Ontario. It was specifically propagated by the Moderation League of B. C. The electors voted for government sale, and the law came into force more than one year ago. After a year of trial, we may well ask whether the new system makes for moderation. Does it really control? Does it eliminate bootlegging? Here are the returns. Sales of liquor in B. C. under the prohibition act amounted to $14,000 in September, 1920, rising to $18,000 in July, 1921. The sale in government liquor stores in the third quarter of last year averaged $69,800 a month and in the fourth quarter of the same year sales had risen to $823,800 a month. These figures fail to show any moderation and reveal the reason the Moderation League is so earnestly advocating government sale. Moderation promotes a sale more than forty times as great as that under the prohibition which was such a failure and farce. Has bootlegging diminished? Notwithstanding increased activity and enlarged staff to prevent it, the Hotel Men's Association affirms that bootlegging is not only as flourishing as ever, but has seriously increased.

Has the return of facilities for drinking diminished drug addiction? The Vancouver press announces that drug addiction has increased very rapidly. "The volume of business has grown and we are importing largely." What has been the result of government sale on ordinary business? The retail grocers of Vancouver have protested against the drainage of money into wasteful channels to the detriment of trade. Perhaps the Moderation League will tell us a single advantage that has been secured to B. C. by the enactment of a government sale act.

THE SCOTT BOARD
Halifax, May 24.—The Scott conciliation board today completed its enquiry into the dispute between the British Empire Steel Corporation and the Nova Scotia coal miners and its findings will be forwarded to the minister of labor at Ottawa.

TWO MEN LEAP FROM HIGH NEW YORK BUILDINGS

New York, May 24—Suicides, leaping from skyscrapers, completed yesterday a record—on Park row, the other in Madison square.

John W. Gasteiger, of Brooklyn, a feed merchant, jumping from an upper story of the Municipal Building at the entrance to Brooklyn bridge, struck Samuel D. Jones, who was taken to the hospital unconscious, with a fractured wrist.

Earlier in the day Frank J. Parry, of Patuxent, Long Island, secretary of the New York tile concern of John H. Parry & Co., leaped from the twenty-fifth story of the Metropolitan tower.

Young Perry left Patuxent ostensibly on business. His brother-in-law, Thomas J. McCabe, was employed in the tower, but he did not call on him.

BEAUTY ADVICE

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—When Ruth Roland, the beautiful actress, was interviewed and asked if she would be willing to tell the readers of this paper how she kept her complexion so youthful and fresh looking she unhesitatingly and graciously replied:

"Anyone can beautify their complexion by using Derwillo. If they will use these preparations Derwillo will give them a beautiful complexion. I have no difficulty in securing them at almost any toilet counter."

ENTERTAINMENT AT EAST ST. JOHN AND FAIRFIELD

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Fairview church raised a substantial sum for the building fund of the church when they gave a concert at East St. John last evening and repeated the same programme at Fairfield last evening.

INSTRUCTIONS IN FIRST AID

Miss Irene E. Barber, provincial secretary of the St. John Ambulance Association, has returned from Moncton, where she has been visiting the local centre of the association and also making arrangements for the examination of those members of the classes instructed by the workers' compensation board who wish to receive the St. John ambulance first aid certificate.

BRIDGEPORT IS ROUSED BY GIRL

Think Dorothy Cromwell Deliberately Foisted on City.

Bridgeport, Ct., May 25—The strange case of Miss Dorothy Cromwell, 19 years old, a sufferer from a nervous disease and paralysis and said to have been foisted on the local charitable authorities, has attracted the attention of city officials and police.

MONSIGNOR PHELAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

New York Aged Clergyman Was Cleaning a Pistol in Harlem, New York.

New York, May 24—Monsignor Michael J. Phelan, rector of St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic church in Harlem, who accidentally shot himself near the heart yesterday while cleaning an old pistol, died tonight in St. Vincent's hospital today.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, MAY 25, 1922

ing. That hope and that confidence will have much influence in bringing about a better day.

If providence sends us a blessing of good crops this year, we may look for the beginning of the prosperity of former times. While we have diversified industries, all of them entitled to careful consideration, we shall do well to remember that agriculture is and will continue to be the occupation of the largest class of our people and the industry that has the widest influence on general prosperity.

Has it come to a sense of the responsibility and duty which should always accompany power? We cannot doubt but that the mass of the working men, as we call them, wish to be good citizens of Canada. They hold interests in common with other classes of the community. They have wives and mothers and children and homes to protect and protection for these can only come when law is upheld and order observed. There are so-called labor leaders who, unfortunately, preach the doctrine that the employer is the enemy of the workman. They preach the doctrine that the working man should play an entirely selfish part, that his duty is to get all that he can in the way of wages and give as little as he can in the way of labor. Such men are a menace to the true interests of labor as well as to the interests of society generally.

There are, fortunately, in Canada, labor leaders who refuse to preach these dangerous doctrines and who, while zealous in defending the interests of labor, are no less zealous in maintaining the interests of society. Let us pray that on this vital question capital and labor may alike recognize their responsibilities, that they put aside every temptation to play a selfish part and cooperate in efforts which will mark Canada in the eyes of the world as a land of peace, and progress and prosperity.

Press Comment.

The Ottawa Citizen: "The tariff revision downwards is a very cautious beginning in the direction of carrying out the Liberal pledge. But even to make this slight revision downward the freer traders in the government and in the ranks of the Liberal party have probably had to exercise peaceful persuasion on their timorous fellow-members, who believe that Canada would sink without tariff bladders to keep trade and industry afloat."

The Journal special parliamentary writer under the caption of Ambidextrous, says the total lifted from the burden of taxation will be but a million dollars at most.

"Nor can it be said that Mr. Fielding has attempted to carry out the party's fiscal programme," he says. "The changes in currency regulations, he declares, is a fine thing for Germany's export trade to Canada."

The L'Evenement of Quebec, commenting editorially on the budget, seems generally satisfied with the changes made in the tariff, although it fears that the reduction on agricultural implements may bring the closure of many industries in this country. "It is undoubtedly due to the influence of Sir Lomer Gouin and Ernest Lapointe that the Quebec manufacturers are so well protected," it says.

The Toronto Globe.

The Globe, Toronto, says: "Taken altogether, the budget is a courageous and intelligent attempt to deal with a very difficult situation. While the demand for more revenue is faced and dealt with every effort has been made to prevent the increase from working hardships upon the basic industries and upon the consumers of necessities, and, as far as possible, the importation of British rather than foreign goods is encouraged. The changes are not spectacular, but they are substantial, and they show that public confidence in the veteran minister of finance has been deserved."

Mail and Empire: "Though including his budget speech yesterday the finance minister says that he has lost the worst of the depression is past, it is to be said that his budget is not a cheering one. He draws a gloomy picture of declining revenue. Notwithstanding his tariff arrangements for facilitating importation, he estimates that in the current year the customs receipts will be less than those of the last year by $2,500,000. He appeals to parliament and to the people to pass self-denying ordinances and to do without many things they would like. We think they ought to be advised to help on trade, by spending their money judicially in buying necessities made in their own country, instead of having the temptation to buy articles from the United States, whose importation Mr. Fielding's new tariff changes will stimulate."

Kingston Standard.

The Standard, Kingston, gives Mr. Fielding credit for an honest effort to make his new budget sound and reasonable, but thinks the farmers will be disappointed at the small reduction in the duty on agricultural implements and the people generally that even lower duties were not imposed on clothing and boots and shoes.

Montreal Gazette: "In the current year Mr. Fielding estimates a revenue of $383,000,000 on the basis of taxation of last year to take care of an expenditure of $467,000,000 which supplementary estimates will still further enlarge. That is the position he had to face and assuming that his new taxation proposals yield $40,000,000 which seems a generous assumption, a wide gap will still exist between income and outgo to be bridged by borrowing."

Halifax Chronicle.

Chronicle, Halifax: "It is a downward revision of the tariff, following the lines of the Liberal policy laid down in the resolution moved by Mr. Fielding and seconded by Mr. Mackenzie King at the last session of parliament, the aim of which was the encouragement of the industries based on the natural resources of the country, of which agriculture is the chief. To that end reductions are generally made in the duties on implements and tools of industry and labor, as well as on many necessities of daily consumption by all classes.

"The reductions made are generally under the British preference. The unsettled tariff position of the United States made that inevitable, but, as reciprocal trade, but, as Mr. Fielding pointed out, until there is a fair understanding of what the Americans intend to do, Canada must hold her hand. On a number of articles chiefly imported from the United States reductions have been made for the benefit of farmers, fishermen and others. Not the least important of the changes made is the wiping out of customs provisions in the last tariff which were both undesirable and unworkable and found to be a handicap to business and an added burden for the people.

"On the whole, we believe the tariff changes will appeal to the country as reasonable, sound and fair, having regard to the necessities of revenue, the grave financial condition of the dominion, and the unsettled state of world affairs."

ACT OF HEROISM COSTS MAN LIFE

Hurled Down Embankment While Trying to Clear the Path of a Train—Unable to Dodge Engine.

Arthur, Ont., May 25—An act of heroism that cost him his life was performed by John Murchison of this town when, in attempting to remove an iron gauge from the path of an approaching Canadian Pacific train, he was struck by the locomotive and hurled down the embankment. When picked up by his fellow-workmen his life was extinct.

Murchison was one of a section gang working on the right of way about six miles east of here, and was engaged in putting in ties. The signal had been given the train, freight No. 80, in charge of Conductor Connel, to proceed through the part being worked, and it was fully under way when Murchison noticed that the iron gauge had not been removed from the track. He attempted to beat the train to the danger spot, but was unable to dodge the engine before it was upon him.

The deceased was for many years a prosperous farmer of Arthur township before moving to the town, and his tragic death is deeply deplored by the entire community. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Walter of Arthur township, and Roderick of Arthur; and three daughters, Mrs. Gilder of Permas, Mrs. Cook of Orangeville, and Miss

The Tariff Changes on Automobiles

Ottawa, May 24—Automobiles valued at not more than $1,200 are to pay an excise tax of five per cent. Automobiles valued at more than $1,200 are to pay an excise tax of ten per cent. The text of the resolution regarding collection of this excise tax reads: "Where the goods are imported such excise tax shall be paid by the importer and where the goods are manufactured and sold in Canada, such excise tax shall be paid by the manufacturer. Provided that if an automobile is on the 24th day of May, 1922, in the hands of a dealer and not sold to a bona fide user, the tax shall be paid by such dealer when such automobile is sold. In the general tariff schedules under title of 'settlers' effects' motor cars up to the value of $1,000 are admitted free."

EDITOR, 69, GIVES $10,000 TO AID HIS HOME TOWN

In Joy Over His Winning of Widow of Forty—Church, Hospital and Y. W. C. A. Benefit.

The celebration of his wedding by giving $10,000 to public institutions in New Brunswick, N. J., was made known on Saturday by Hugh Boyd, editor and principal stockholder of the New Brunswick Daily Home News, who was married in the Broadway Tabernacle Congregational church, New York City, last Thursday, to Miss May Roof, of Seattle, Wash. Boyd is 69 years old and his bride about 40.

Under the caption, "An Announcement and an Appreciation," in an article in the Home News, Mr. Boyd stated that his gratitude to the public for their support in his journalistic career (he has lived in New Brunswick for twenty-two years), would take the form of the following gifts:

One thousand dollars each to the First Baptist church, St. Peter's General Hospital, the Middletown General Hospital, the Children's Industrial Home and the local Young Women's Christian Association's building fund, and $5,000 for a public comfort station to be built in the town of New Brunswick. In a post-script he said:

"There are existing causes for everything that happens. Perhaps to the conquest made by Mr. Boyd in Los Angeles his wildcat rushes. Greb weighed 162 1-2 and Tunney 174 1-2. Fight by Rounds. Round One—Greb took the aggressive and both men landed sharp lefts to the jaw. Greb brought blood from Tunney's nose. The Pittsburgher seemed faster than ever. They exchanged a series of hard lefts and rights to busy and were covered with blood. Tunney's body blows were heavy. Tunney rushed Greb to the ropes with body punches at the bell.

Round Two—Greb started another assault to the head and brought blood from Gene's nose again. Tunney's body blows were worrying the Pittsburgher. Tunney now took the aggressive and landed a series of hard lefts to the stomach. Round Three—Most of the mixing was at close quarters, and Tunney's punches seemed the harder. Tunney was now having the better of the exchange. Greb was not so fast as when he started and Tunney's fighting was steady and effective.

Round Four—Tunney shook the Pittsburgher with two left hooks to the jaw. Tunney hurt Greb with a hard left to the stomach. They were fighting furiously at the bell and the referee had to separate them. Round Five—They exchanged hard punches to the head and body. Greb was holding a great deal and was canny by the referee. He found Tunney more than a willing mixer. Tunney sent Greb to the ropes with hard right and lefts to head and body.

Round Six—Tunney was bleeding from a cut over his left eye, but kept up his aggressive tactics. Tunney shook Harry with lefts to the jaw. Greb continued swinging his arms and clinching, but landed few effective punches. Round Seven—The referee warned Greb against holding in the breaks. The fighting in this round was very slow. Greb swung his arms continuously, but did not land and was sent to his back with a left to the stomach as the round closed.

Round Eight—Greb started a mump in a mental contest and Tunney responded with a salvo of body punches. Greb landed sharply to the head several times. Greb was very active in this round and landed his most solid blows. Round Nine—Both of Tunney's eyes were bleeding now. The blood between them considerably. Greb kept on top of Tunney and sent light blows to his head. Tunney returned with lefts to the stomach. They were slugging in the centre of the ring at the bell.

Round Ten—They took turns in pushing each other to the ropes. Greb always kept close to Tunney and seemed better off than he was. Tunney's rights and lefts to the eyes. Round Eleven—Greb kept Tunney's arms tied up and he was unable to punch for the body, while Greb jumped and danced and sent sharp left hooks to the jaw. The round was slow. Round Twelve—Tunney sent a hard left to the stomach and Greb returned for a right swing to the jaw. Tunney shook the Pittsburgher with a left to the stomach. Tunney's work in this round seemed better than that of his opponent. His punches to the body were solid.

BAPTISTS FOR CURBING MOVIES More Strict Censorship is Demanded in Report to Southern Body. Jacksonville, Fla., May 25—Denunciation of the modern dance and race track gambling and demand for strict censorship of moving pictures, enforcement of the prohibition laws and observance of Sunday marked the report submitted to the Southern Baptist convention by its social service committee.

The commission expressed hope that the report will keep up the work's continuing producers' organization, would "exercise what is supposed to be his great power for a thorough clean-up in the picture business." Withdrawal of "Fatty" Arbuckle pictures was approved, and the commission declared "much more is needed." "We hope Mr. Hayes and the producers will keep up the work's continuing effort. Regardless of what they do, we must demand the enactment of laws for strict censorship in each state. The morals of our young people must not continue to be corrupted by the public exhibition of the demoralizing and indecent and indecency and lust."

The commission reported some improvement in what it termed the "dance evil," but declared in this connection that "we must not slacken our efforts." RUSSIAN ACTORS TO PAY VISIT TO AMERICA. Moscow, April 28—(Associated Press by mail)—The Moscow Art Theatre, which will send a company of players to America late this summer, is considered in Russia to produce the highest form of dramatic art.

It is a government subsidized institution and maintains studios where plays are rehearsed and actors trained before they are permitted to appear at the main theatres. In some instances, plays have been rehearsed as many as 200 times and more than a year spent in detailed scenic preparation before the first performance at the main theatre. If present plans are materialized, the Russian actors would leave Moscow early in August. In America, they would present their pieces in the Russian language.

WILL ATTEMPT CHANNEL SWIM

Mrs. C. E. Semple, of Toronto, Confident of Achieving a Crowning Natatorial Triumph—Stay Two Days in Water.

(Toronto Globe.)
Toronto people, particularly those who are interested in swimming, will be glad to hear that Mrs. C. E. Semple, president of the Toronto Ladies' Swimming Club, is preparing for the great feat of swimming the English Channel. This arduous test of skill and endurance, at which so many swimmers have failed, she will attempt in the third week of August, and will leave Canada for the Old Country on July 21.
Mrs. Semple looks forward to her great adventure with much confidence and hope, built on the sound foundation of a tremendous enthusiasm for her favorite sport and her previous splendid achievements in it. All her life she has loved the water and for the past five years she has specialized in swimming. Swims For Ten Hours.

ried off the challenge cup in the ten-hour endurance contest, which meant that she remained not only in the water, but in constant action, for ten hours. Endurance in salt water, Mrs. Semple assured The Globe yesterday, is much easier than in fresh, and so she anticipates no difficulty in remaining in the Channel for a long period.

"As a matter of fact, I shall go prepared to stay in the water for two days," said Mrs. Semple. "I am leaving shortly for Muskoka, where I shall practice on twenty-four hours swims and thus prepare for my venture overseas. I am sure I shall be able to make a high record at least, since Annette Kellerman's, which is the highest so far, stands only at six hours."
When asked as to food and sleep during the two days in the choppy waters of the English Channel, Mrs. Semple explained that she expected to cross the Channel with an old and very reliable pilot, who would watch her progress, from his boat and keep her supplied with food as she required it. Every swimmer, she stated, was accompanied by a boat in which traveled a nurse, who acted in case of emergency or need.

Will Not Need to Sleep?
Meals for the swimmer here are served from the end of an ear every four hours and consist of solid chocolate, English household grapes and beef extract. As for sleep, Mrs. Semple seemed to think that life "in the brim" was so invigorating that such a necessity could be dispensed with for a day or two.
"I never was tired in the water in my life," she said. "I suppose I am sort of a fish. Anyway, I do love swimming."
Canadians will watch with keen interest the outcome of Mrs. Semple's adventure in the English Channel, and if she succeeds, or makes the highest record ever made by a woman, her fellow-countrymen will be tremendously proud of her.

The fire department responded to a still alarm last evening for a fire which was discovered burning under the verandah of Joseph E. Arthur's home, 10 Pitt street. One of the pillars of the verandah was charred and some of the flooring torn up, but otherwise there was no damage.

SLOW PROGRESS WITH U. S. TARIFF

(Bradstreet's.)
Progress with the tariff bill in the Senate continues to proceed at a very slow pace. A glance at the despatches from the national capital indicates that the action on the amendments to the house bill proposed by the finance committee bears but a small ratio to the amount of time consumed in debating. This halting method in disposing of the bill has provoked many complaints from Senator McCumber, the finance committee chairman, who has the measure in charge. At times he feels called upon to contrast the length of time expended in oratory with the meagre results achieved, as when on Wednesday he reminded the Senate, with a view to ending a discussion, that that body had been in session for six hours without taking a single vote. On that day Leno's opposition led him to withdraw the high rate on barytes ore. On an earlier occasion, when attacks of Republican newspapers at the bill formed the subject of debate, he called attention to the fact that in the course of a six-hour session the Senate had only passed on one item. A vote of more than usual interest was had on Monday of this week when the committee rate on citrate of lime, namely, six cents a pound, was sustained by a small majority against an effort of the farm bloc to increase it by fifty per cent. An effort was made by the Republican leaders on Tuesday to secure a unanimous agreement on the part of the Democrats to begin voting on amendments to the bill without debate on June 1, but this endeavor was fruitless. The Senate has been holding night as well as day sessions with a view to speeding the passage of the measure, but up to the present there has been no marked gain in celerity, and many members fear that the struggle to get the bill to a final vote may consume the greater part of the summer, and that too, in a year of congressional elections when fence mending is more or less of a pastime in vacation weather.

TESTS FAST-FREIGHT ROUTE

Chicago Plans to Make Deliveries in England in Seven Days.

Chicago, May 25—Products manufactured in Chicago may be delivered in Europe in seven days if the race started last week under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce proves successful. It is hoped to establish a record for the fastest freight shipment from Chicago to Southampton, England, and to prove the necessity for a fast package freight service from here to Europe.

By use of a special forty-eight hour freight train over the New York Central, a car float loading arrangement in New York and the world's largest steamship, the Majestic, they hope to make the shipment in exactly one week. A. W. McLaren, traffic manager of Morris & Co., has charge of the experiment.
