MANY DISASTERS ON THE GOODWIN SANDS

Several Vessels Have Recently Grounded There.

Steamer Valerian Floated—This Ship Was Recently in a Serious Collision

LONDON, March 4.—Advice received from Dover today state that the Red Line steamer Valerian which grounded on the Goodwin Sands last night got off early today and proceeded on her voyage.
The fact that the steamer resumed her voyage indicates that she sustained no serious damage as the result of the stranding.
Two or three other vessels have grounded on Goodwin Sands.
Many collisions are reported. The German steamer Marsalis and Helene sank and eight of the crew were drowned.
Goodwin Sands is a range of dangerous shoals in the Strait of Dover.
The Valerian and the steamer Northworth Castle were in collision January 13, off the South Goodwin Lightship. The Northworth Castle was sunk and three of her crew perished. The Valerian suffered damage to her plates below the waterline.
The Admiralty Court on February 15 rendered judgment against the Red Star Line holding that the Valerian was to blame for the collision.
The Valerian is a twin screw steamer of 12,017 tons; length 389 feet; breadth 62 feet. She carries ordinarily about 200 first class, 150 second class, and 1,500 steerage passengers. She is commanded by Captain R. P. Ehorf.

THIRTY ENTOMBED IN MINE EXPLOSION

Death List Will be Large, But Number Not Known Yet

A Dozen Injured Men Taken Out, of Whom Four are Fatally Hurt

SCRANTON, Pa., March 2.—Twelve men are known to have been injured and possibly thirty killed by an explosion of gas today in the Holden mine of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Erie Western Company at Taylor, four miles from Scranton. Twelve men were taken from the gas filled mine, four probably will die.
Twenty-seven chambers in the district were affected by the explosion with two men in each chamber. Twenty-four men from these chambers have been accounted for, leaving thirty about whose fate nothing is known. As the explosion occurred at about the time it is possible that majority of the thirty will be found at their homes when the excitement subsides. They are nearly all foreigners.
If there are any men in the affected district who have not been already taken out they are dead beyond all doubt, according to the mine officials. The explosion would asphyxiate them.
Definite information was difficult to obtain until 3 P. M. Today, the only official who would talk, was called to the Woodward mine in Kingston near Wilkesbarre tonight, by an explosion which killed two men and injured five.
Mr. Tobie made the statement that no one knew definitely how many, if any men, were taken out of the mine. He said he feared that there were probably twenty who had not gotten out. While the miners believe men are still entombed, Mine Inspector Williams, at 7 o'clock tonight, says he believes that all the men in the Holden mine are accounted for.
Fourteen are seriously burned and twelve others slightly.
The greatest fear of the explosion was that it would lead to the Woodward mine from the Mule gangway to the Mule shaft. This was fully a half mile from the Woodward mine. The roadway was strewn with the debris from battered doors and brattice work, which obstructed the safe passage for the rescuing forces to penetrate the dense fog of the shaft.
After dark, that filled the workings, the first news of the explosion caused the mine to be sealed off. The rescue party in Taylor, and as its seriousness spread into Hyde Park and Minors, where live many of the miners, dreads hurried to the mine. Men burned and maimed were hoisted out of the mine. Some of the most seriously injured were devoid of any clothing when found, and the clothing for them was completely from the rescued parties headed by mine Supt. W. B. Owens, mine inspector Williams and Stanley Deane. Evans made every effort to reach the innermost section of the mine where thirty or more men were known to have been working.
Then came the news that all the men had escaped. Crowds of people still lingered about the shafts at 10 o'clock tonight, still believing there were some men in the ruins.
The dead at the Woodward Mine are Stanley Deane and Edward Reilly, both brattice men. The injured are foreigners and while they were seriously burned, it is believed they will recover. The mine is very gaseous and the men worked with safety lamps. It was at first reported that a large number of men were entombed in the Woodward mine, but this arose through the accident at the Holden Mine near Scranton.

RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT OPENS TOMORROW.

St. Petersburg Full of Wonder-Struck Peasant Members.

Different Parties Fail to Agree on a Policy—Labor Unions Want to Celebrate the Opening

ST. PETERSBURG, March 4.—The deputies to Russia's second parliament are coming into St. Petersburg from all directions in readiness for the opening session at noon tomorrow. Over 200 members have already arrived and more expected by the morning train tomorrow. The deputies here are nearly all strangers in St. Petersburg, and many having their first glimpse of the big city easily distinguished in wandering groups staring at the palaces and cathedral. All went to the Tauride palace yesterday and inspected the re-modelled building. They selected their seats in the session hall by the simple process of laying their cards on seats. Only 425 of the 529 deputies will be present of the opening ceremony.
Monarchists, 59; Octoberists, 25; Polish Nationalists, 44; Progressivists, 49; Constitutional Democrats and their adherents, 32; Left Party, 129; Indefinites, 12.
The above is the present opposition of the new house. Exclusive of the last named party the house may be divided into two main groups—106 on the right, composed of Monarchists, Constitutional Democrats and Moderates; 146 in the center, composed of Constitutional Democrats, Progressive and Poles; 132 on the left, including the group of toll and some reactionaries.
The Constitutional Democratic conference placed itself on record as opposed to reactionary as distinguished from active tactics. M. Hessein, one of the leaders, declaring that incendiary tactics in the present Lower House of Parliament would be an unpardonable sin.
The caucus of the Group of Toll was attended by a large number of uncommitted peasants. Constitutional Democratic emissaries made a desperate attempt to swing the group, which failed. The caucus of the Revolutionist influence, into the Constitutional Democratic camp. There was a long debate but no definite conclusion was reached.
A council of Empire will also be convoked tomorrow after the opening of the parliament.
The labor unions are trying to arrange for the cessation of work in all factories and the celebration of the opening of the day of parliament.

THE HISTORY OF THE WANDERERS AFTER THE STANLEY CUP

Germany and Austria Opposed Games With Kenora Will Be Arranged at Once

Britain Was Slightly Interested for a Time Through Italy's Action—Former Counsellor Gives His Views.

PARIS, March 4.—Some interesting revelations concerning the diplomatic history of the triple alliance are made in a recently published volume entitled "The Ambassadorship at Paris of Baron de Mohrenheim." Mohrenheim was for 19 years the Russian Ambassador here and conducted the Russian end of the negotiations which resulted in the dual alliance.
Julius Hanson, the author of the book, was the counsellor of the embassy during that period. Hanson says his information comes from a "sure source." He says that besides the official treaty constituting the triple alliance with its appended military conventions, Emperor William and King Humbert verbally engaged their words of honor to remain true to the alliance and to use every influence, should the case arise, to prevent their ministers from dissolving it. Emperor Francis Joseph was asked to join this pact and he consented. The treaty between the three sovereigns concerned in it was exchanged. When made, Hanson says, the Kaiser was thinking only of France, Emperor Francis Joseph only of the possible aggressions of Russia, and the Slavs in the Balkans. The outcome of these conventions was prepared with the most scrupulous care. It foresaw the possible necessity of the union of the Austrian and German forces on the Rhish frontier against France, the union of the German and Italian fleets against Russia and against the operations of the united armies and navies in the Dardanelles and beyond. He says:
"This formation is absolutely exact, and one reason Germany always opposed the publication of the treaty was because it contained as many clauses against Russia as against France, and its divulgence would only have hastened the conclusion of the dual alliance by dissipating Russia's last hesitation."
"But the most curious feature of the 'historic' treaty, is that England was at one time practically a party to it. In the treaty as it is existed before 1902," says Mr. Hanson, "there was a clause or rather a reservation inserted which would allow England to join in no case should any ally be engaged in a league against England."
"In 1902 Mr. Primett forgot the reservation concerning England. 'Gag Britain,' says Mr. Hanson, "was very prudent and was never more than partially engaged. The foreign office limited itself to declaring that in the war between France and Austria or between France and Italy in the Mediterranean, it was very probable that Great Britain would intervene against Russia in the one case and against France in the other. Without admitting this declaration entailed upon England obligations as a casus foederis."

Ralph Connor Attacks the Roblin Government—Big Milling Deal in Manitoba—Roblin Travels on Sunday.

(Special to the Star.)
WINNIPEG, March 4.—Seventeen independent milling firms in Manitoba and Saskatchewan have merged under the name of the Canadian Consolidated Flour Mills, Limited, with a capital of $2,000,000. This important amalgamation has been in process of formation for several months past, but was only actually effected after a meeting of representatives of the companies interested during Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They have a combined output of 2,000 barrels per day and an elevator capacity at present of 1,500,000 barrels.
WINNIPEG, Feb. 4.—Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) in his pulpit last night made a vigorous attack on the Roblin administration and is openly pleading for support of the Liberal cause. He said: "Another term for the present government could be regarded as nothing else than a Waterloo for public morals."
Several other pastors of the city also spoke along the same lines.
WINNIPEG, March 4.—Premier Roblin is the first person of note to defy the Lord's Day observance bill. He came in from Killarney on a special train yesterday.
MONTREAL, March 4.—Durnan's friends and admirers believe the Australian climate had much to do with defeat, and so strong is this conviction that they were on the point of calling him on Saturday to remain in Australia and arrange another race with Towns for $5,000 a side. The idea was abandoned after a full discussion of the situation, for the reason that Durnan would be too severely handicapped by the Australian climate.
However, Durnan's friends are anxious to give him another chance against Towns and if the champion is willing to meet Durnan on Toronto Bay they are prepared to make a match for year under the same conditions.
"You can say for me," remarked Mr. Lol Solman tonight, "that I will back Durnan against Towns or any sculler in the world for $5,000 a side, the race to be rowed on Toronto Bay. We will allow the usual amount for expenses."
MONTREAL, March 4.—The supremacy of the E. C. H. L. was settled decisively at Ottawa Saturday night when the Wanderers took the capital seven into camp by a score of 10 to 3. The Wanderers immediately challenged for the Stanley cup, the challenge being accepted by the trustees and the cup holders have been requested to name early dates for the game. It is expected that the winners will leave for Kenora on Thursday of this week; provided the Thistles fix the date. The team is somewhat battered up as a result of the game, but each man states he will be in the game for the cup.

NEWS PARAGRAPHS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN ENTIRETY

No Libel in Any One Sentence—The Best Meaning of the Whole Must Be Accepted

NEW YORK, March 3.—A newspaper article capable of two distinct conceptions, one libelous and the other not, must show unmistakable innuendo to be libelous under a decision rendered by Judge Ray in the United States court today. In the same decision Judge Ray holds that extracts cannot be taken at random from articles upon which libel proceedings, taking the ground that whole article contains the true meaning so far as the libel is concerned. The decision was rendered on a motion to set aside a verdict for $5,000 found by a jury in favor of Wm. H. Daley against the New York Sun. The defendant contended that there was nothing libelous on the face of the published article and further that the alleged libelous statements were likewise capable of an innocent or non-libelous meaning and that as no innuendo ascribing the libelous meaning was present in the complaint no cause of action has been stated.
The contention was upheld by Judge Ray and a new trial was granted.

BRUTES WHO ASSAULTED GIRLS NARROWLY ESCAPED

Mob Was Ready to Deal With Them But Police Force Afforded Protection

MARIETTA, Ohio, March 3.—Walter W. Savage of Syracuse, N. Y., and Andy Corothers, charged with drugging and assaulting six small girls, tonight narrowly escaped violence at the hands of a large crowd that for a time surrounded the jail.
Savage is an advertising sketch artist and has been here about a week occupying a window in the Dime Savings Society Building. He has made a specialty of getting young girls to allow him to make their pictures.
This afternoon he had six girls between the ages of 12 and 14 years of age in his room, gave them whiskey, wine and beer, in which he administered a dose of drug. The police this evening found the girls unconscious lying on the floor. Savage and Corothers were found in the room with the girls and the six girls were taken to the city jail.
Physicians gave the girls emetics and they regained consciousness. The girls said that the men forced them to drink. The physicians are convinced that at least two of the girls are victims of an attempted assault.
Under guard of the entire police force the men were rushed to the county jail.

CHIEF CLARK NOW WANTS MORE PAY

Substitute Firemen May Get 100 Per Cent Increase

Which Will Bring Their Salaries to Half the Amounts Paid to Civil Men.
The salaries committee met this morning at City Hall and considered the application of the substitute firemen for an increase in pay. It was decided to recommend to the council which is holding its regular meeting this afternoon that the pay of the substitute firemen should be doubled, giving them $15 as compared with $7.50 received by the civil men, and that the Civilian substitute firemen should receive $15, thus also doubling their pay. It is also recommended to the council that the chief have power to appoint two additional substitute men, thus making the force up to the full number. In future, however, no appointments are to be made.
Chief Clark also appeared before the committee and asked that his pay should be increased together with the other members of the force. The chief said that he was the only one of his rank in the city and that he was not very long ago since the chief was given an increase.

CARDINAL GIBBONS! AFTER THE NEWSPAPERS

He Strongly Condemns the Habit of Publishing Objectionable News and Advertisements.

BALTIMORE, March 3.—Preaching his usual monthly sermon at the Cathedral this morning, Cardinal Gibbons denounced "salacious journals" and newspapers printing objectionable advertisements.
He said: "No kind of literature works more mischief in a community than salacious journals. They contain not only news material, but also advertisements of a most objectionable character. They have sensational items which are a snare and stumbling block to the innocent and unwary. Many of the youth of both sexes have learned from this impure fountain their first lessons in the dark mysteries of human depravity, advertisements which paint in glowing colors the attractive features of dangerous haunts of amusement, advertisements of patent medicine and other drugs whose object is to defeat the inexorable laws of nature and of nature's God. What a terrible responsibility these publishers assume who admit into their paper such insidious poison. For every soul perverted they have a strict account to render to God and to society."
"As an offset to these depraved journals, I have known the proprietor of an upright paper of this state who has made an offer of ten thousand dollars rather than admit into the columns of his paper an advertisement suggestive of immorality though its tendency was thinly veiled by ambiguous phraseology. Would to God that all newspaper owners had emulated this noble example!"

STEAMSHIP DAKOTA RAN ON THE ROCKS

TOKIO, March 4.—Full particulars of the accident to the steamer Dakota are expected when the vessel sails to assist her, return to Yokohama tonight. A despatch indicates that the steamer struck a rock, lost her balance and that her stern sank into the water. She is now in that position and leaking badly. The scene of the disaster is near the Mollm light-house, ten miles from Yokohama. The day was clear and it is difficult to determine the cause of the disaster. It is presumed that a strong current was reached.
SEATTLE, Wn., March 3.—According to advices received last night from Yokohama by Alfred Matson, purchasing agent of the Great Northern Company, the Dakota will be floated tomorrow. The cargo is said to be safe, unharmed.

ACTOR LOST HIS NERVE AND FELL TO DEATH

CHESTER, Pa., March 2.—In an effort to escape being burned to death, John Conly, an employe of the Vanity Fair Co., was instantly killed yesterday by jumping from the window of the Arcade Hotel, where the theatrical company was stopping. Firemen were on the scene before the flames gained much headway and rescued all except Conly, who seemed to lose his presence of mind and jumped from a third story window.
Mrs. Watson, a member of the company, was severely burned. She is in a hospital in a serious condition. The monetary loss will amount to about $1,000. and will return to England towards the end of April.
In the meantime Queen Alexandra will entertain in London and at Sandringham her sister, the Dowager Empress of Russia, who will arrive here from St. Petersburg, March 7, and remain in England a week.

SIXTY FIVE PERSONS WERE BURIED IN LANDSLIDE

Moving Mountain Alarms Peasants in an Italian Province.

BONA, Algeria, March 4.—Sixty-five persons have been buried by a landslide of about fifteen square miles on the mountain-side near Sedrata.
NAPLES, March 2.—A mountain in the province of Potenza, near the village of Montemuro, is slipping into the valley in a series of land-slides and threatening to overwhelm the village. The people are fleeing in panic. Only a low spur of the mountain is preventing the destruction of the village and this obstruction to the moving mass of earth apparently will soon be overcome. Troops have been rushed to the scene to encourage the people.
NAPLES, Mar. 3.—The Mountain in the province of Potenza, near Montemuro, which is slipping into the valley, again today began to move after having remained quiet since Saturday night. Five thousand persons are homeless and the scene is one of desolation. It is feared the whole village will be covered over.

MONCTON DEFEATS CARLETON

On Saturday, Moncton defeated Carleton by thirty-one points, almost doubling their opponents' score. The West End club went down to defeat in every one of the four rinks played, in some by large majorities. Two rinks on each side played in the afternoon and two in the evening. The detailed score is as follows:

THISTLES DEFEAT MONCTON.

The closest curling match of the season was played on Saturday night at the Thistle rink, the home club winning from Moncton by two points. The game was not decided until the last end was played between J. Mitchell and A. C. Chapman. On his fourth end Mitchell made six, changing his opponents' lead of four points to a Thistle lead of two. This was increased and maintained until the end, giving the Thistles the game. The two clubs tied on rinks G, C, Allen and W. N. Rippey of Moncton downed J. Fred Shaw and A. W. Shaw, while the Thistles skip D. R. Willet and Jas. Mitchell won from E. W. Givan and A. C. Chapman. The match attracted a large number of spectators and was close and interesting all through. The total score was 63 to 67.

Injuring one knee. This caused fifteen minutes delay and shortly after his return there was an entanglement between Brown and Stuart. Stuart was hurt, and a minute later Crockett checked Stuart heavily into the fence. Stuart had a rib broken at Marysville a few weeks ago, and this injury having been scarcely healed was injured by the jar and for a time it was thought he would not be able to resume play. After considerable time the game back and lasted out until near the close, when he was accidentally struck in the stomach by a stick and slightly injured, causing another delay. Cushing, Moncton's right wing, was the most conspicuous man on the ice, after a little mix-up in which he participated in the first half, when he sustained a bad cut on the forehead, from which blood kept trickling from under the cap plaster and down his face during the rest of the game. Hill, Sackville's goal tender, was responsible for the injury to Cushing. The mix-up took place in the first half when matters were hot around Sackville goal, and Hill was knocked down. Jumping up, he struck Cushing on the head with the point of his stick, inflicting a nasty gash, and Cushing retaliated, the two becoming involved in a struggle around in the nets. For a minute it looked as if other members of the team would become embroiled, but the arguments were separated and after Cushing had been repaired, the game proceeded.

Near the close of the last half Chase, Sackville's point, was checked into the boards by Gregory and so badly hurt that he had to be assisted off the ice. He resumed play after the interval. The lights went out in the first half, leaving the rink in entire darkness for several minutes, until repairs were effected. The Sackville team put up a surprisingly good game, showing good combination at times, Morman being the star forward. The Moncton team played well. The teams lined up as follows:

MONTRÉAL DEFEATS OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, March 3.—No more startling surprise has been seen in the public Ottawa in recent years than that of Saturday night, when the Wanderers of Montreal defeated the famous Ottawa team by a score of 10 to 2. The Wanderers were victorious in every one of the four goals. Full time score was: Wanderers 10, Ottawa 2. At half-time the Wanderers were leading by four goals to three. Three times in the bitterly fought struggle the score was tied, and twice Ottawa was in the first fifteen minutes it was Wanderers who were leading. In the last ten minutes of the game the Wanderers led one goal to one and then worked up to four, with which the game ended. The Wanderers' goal is to give the Wanderers unquestioned title to the supremacy of the eastern league. They were victorious in the season without defeat, and have only one more game to play, that with Shamrocks on Wednesday night. They can afford to be confident of their championship for Ottawa, their nearest opponents, have two defeats, both administered by the Wanderers, against them.

C. P. R. TEAM WON.

An interesting game of hockey was played on the Marathon rink Saturday evening, when a team from the C. P. R. Telegraph office defeated the Western Union septette by a score of 2 to 1. The game was very closely contested throughout, the first half ending 1-1. During the second half the C. P. R. team proved too much for their opponents in this half, scoring one goal, while the W. U. failed to find the net. The teams lined up as follows:

MONCTON ROUGH HOUSE GAME.

MONCTON, Mar. 3.—In a rough game marked by many delays and numerous injuries to players, the Moncton Victorias Saturday evening, defeated the Sackville team of the N. B. A. H. L. by a score of 4 to 2. The ice was soft and sticky interfering greatly with combination work, which is a strong point with the local team, otherwise the margin might have been much larger, as the locals had all the best of the territory play, but seemed to have a great deal of hard luck in their shooting, many shots stopping within a few inches of the net, when under better ice conditions they would undoubtedly have resulted in goals. It took over two hours to play the fifty minutes of hockey, one hour and ten minutes being occupied by the first half alone. Play all through was rough and not always clean and four penalties were meted out by referee Twaddle, of Amherst. Moncton men being sent to fence on every occasion. Several players were injured during the game, this being responsible for nearly all delays. Shortly after the game was started, Stuart, of Sackville was checked by Brown, and fell heavily, badly side of his face, two below and one above the right eye. He also had a broken finger. He presented a ghastly sight after the game, and, in fact, all through it with one eye closed and blood oozing all down the side of his face. He was a marked man, but his guesswork won the applause from a none too friendly crowd. The game he put up was the finest he ever played for the Wanderers and was a feature of the match. The work of Patrick was also a feature. His work at point was fully equal to that of Stuart at cover. Alf Smith carried off the honors for Ottawa. The veteran played with all the vigor of a youngster until towards the end, when the pace told on him. Westwick was played right off his feet after the first half.

LAWYERS DEFEATED.

A team composed of insurance men played the law students in the Marathon rink on Saturday afternoon. The former team won the game by a score of 10 to 2. The game was interesting enough, at times resembling basketball and polo. The underwriters proved to be stronger on off-work than the future legal talent of Canada, and notwithstanding strenuous objections against the judge's ruling, they were given a heavy rain as follows:

HORSE RACES POSTPONED.

Bridge street appeared yesterday much the same as it does in frost-free time. The water was running over the street, cellars of the adjacent houses were flooded, and the water, though a very early spring had suddenly come. The water department men arrived shortly after eleven o'clock and were making repairs yesterday afternoon and last night. The water in that street was turned off yesterday afternoon.

While in New York he heard the cross-examination of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw by Mr. Jerome on Monday last, and also met Mr. Peabody, one of Thaw's counsel. Mr. McArthur also met the famous musician Rigol, whose elopement with the Princess de Chimay was a famous scandal. At Mr. McArthur's personal request Rigol rendered the Rosary on his violin.

EARTHQUAKE LOCATES ALLEGED ASSASSIN

Survivor of San Francisco Wreck Identified With Man Wanted for 25 Years.

ROME, March 2.—Among the innumerable inquiries after the safety of friends in San Francisco, made after the earthquake there, by anxious relatives in Italy, through the consular authorities was one concerning a certain Olinto Ricconi, a native of Chiasso, near Lucina.

The consular authorities in Chiasso, in supplying the information needed, for Ricconi, who was safe and sound, was a wealthy citizen of San Francisco. Later, however, the judicial authorities in Florence began to manifest extraordinary interest in Ricconi, whose presence there had been reported by a gang of assassins who killed a couple of Carabinieri in 1881. He escaped the country, but was found guilty, and condemned in his absence to penal servitude for life.

During his quarter of a century's sojourn in the United States, from which the Italian Government is now demanding his extradition, Ricconi made a huge fortune.

MEN SENT TO PRISON FOR KISSING IN CHURCH

Parties End a Feud in Novel Fashion, but Priest Resents Their Act.

VIENNA, March 4.—Twenty Rutherford peasants belonging to Inpas, in Galicia, have been sentenced to various terms of imprisonment from a week to a month for kissing each other in church. A feud had arisen between two parties in the town, and the priest presided at a sermon in which he urged the peasants to make friends before they came to church again. They took him at his word, and the following Sunday the two hostile parties marched up the church side by side and kissed the altar. They then solemnly shook hands and kissed one another on both cheeks in the Polish fashion to seal the reconciliation.

WOMAN DRIVES MOTOR CAR IN CROWDED LONDON STREETS

Miss Dorothy Levitt, Who Has Broken Many Records, Demonstrates the Ability of Women to Act as Chauffeurs.

LONDON, March 4.—In view of the fact that two of the women who applied for cabmen's licenses in Paris obtained them, Miss Levitt, the famous lady motorist, who broke so many records at Blackpool, drove a motor car throughout the streets of London yesterday in order to test the ability of women for positions as chauffeurs. She gives the following account of her experience:
"When I was asked to drive a motor car round London to test the possibilities of motor-car driving as a calling for women, I must confess that it did not very much like the idea. 'It is one thing to drive a racing motor car at a high speed along a specially constructed track, and if one meets success, to be applauded by the spectators; but it is a very different matter to crawl on an unaccustomed vehicle through the streets of London, risking a fearful amount of chaff of possibly an unpleasant nature.'
"However, after I had thought the matter over for a little, the possibilities seemed considerable, and I decided to go through the ordeal—and it was certainly no light one.
"I drove out of the garage along a line of amused spectators, and, as I proceeded for a little over a badly made road. When I got into Kennington Road, however, it was better, and I let the machine go at a good speed. The tram lines were a little annoying, and the trees of the cab got everything jammed.
"The cab went splendidly over West-

WELSH HERBALISTS EFFECT SOME MARVELOUS CURES

Patients Crowd the Little Town Where Two Modest and Lettered Peasants Treat Many Diseases With Quaint Methods.

CARDIFF, March 4.—In the last few days, since accounts of alleged marvelous cures effected by the herbalists, J. and D. Evans, of Cardigan, have appeared in the newspapers, patients have been arriving in the town by every train.
Among the patients beginning treatment this week are some with diseases as widely different as lupus, cancer of the breast and necrosis of the chief bone of the leg. Telegrams and letters are pouring in at the Evanses' surgery, and the reading and answering of these appears to be a greater task to the herbalists than the mere curing of the diseases.
In all cases the method of treatment is the same. A liquid or ointment made entirely from herbs, and containing no mineral or metallic whatever, is painted over the part, and then fresh green leaves, bruised by rolling them out on a table, with a bottle as a roller, are applied all over the part, and a bandage is put on. The treatment is often quite painful, though the Evanses say that by taking more time they could get equally good results painlessly.
They say their chief difficulty is with cancer that has been operated on. These cases they liken to trees cut away from their roots, and the main bulk of the growth being gone, they have nothing into which their remedy may draw the roots. They pass directly from case to case, treating patients with widely different maladies without the precaution of disinfecting their hands.
A twig of wood pointed at one end is used throughout the day as a probe to pick off the leaves applied the day before. Their remedy is painted on the diseased surface with a camel-hair brush or a feather. Everything is done on a most primitive and unsanitary scale; yet no cases of blood poisoning or spreading of infection are known in the town.
Yesterday, leaving their farm early in the morning, they tramped all day through the rain, visiting their patients, with no time for a midday meal. They reached home between 2 and 3 a. m. to find about sixty letters and telegrams awaiting them. To letters begging for treatment the invariably answer is that "if the writers will come to Cardigan the Evanses will do their best to cure them." They seem dismayed at nothing. Among the patients at present are three cases

BANGOR, Pa., March 2.—"There is just one step between me and death," "This," said Jacob Repsher, formerly supervisor, and Bangor's oldest resident, this morning, "is the text I have selected for my funeral sermon." A moment later, while eating his breakfast, he fell dead to the floor.
He had set his house in full order, and last week drew up his will, informing his wife that all was in readiness for his demise, although he was then in excellent health.
The Rev. E. A. Yehel will preach the funeral sermon from Mt. Repsher's desired text.

PRINCESS MARRIES FATHER'S SECRETARY

Now Disowned by Her Family and Sent in Exile to Distant Place.

BERLIN, March 4.—A great stir has been caused in German high society by the marriage of Princess Augusta Eulenburg, daughter of the Empress, to Herr Emil Jorallinek, her father's private secretary. Herr Emil Jorallinek is a Roumanian of plebeian birth, without means.
Princess Augusta, who is now 24 years of age, fell in love with Herr Jorallinek at her father's country house, where the two young people seized clandestine opportunities of becoming acquainted with one another. Prince Philipp offered resolute opposition to the unequal match, but finally gave way and granted a reluctant consent.
It is said to have granted the pair a small annual income of several hundred pounds on condition that they retired to some distant place and held no communication with him or other members of his family.
The princess loses her title and becomes plain Frau Jorallinek. She sacrifices all other privileges of her princely rank. She will be obliged to live far more modestly than hitherto.

CAYENNE PEPPER USED TO CAPTURE BURGLARS

Thrown Lighted into Cellar Its Fumes Are Too Much for Two Men.

LONDON, March 4.—Cayenne pepper was used by the Leeds police to effect the arrest of two Russian Jews, who were in hiding. A shop in the city was entered forcibly on Thursday, and the police, who were summoned, found on the floor an elaborate contrivance for opening safes. While the weapon was being examined the police heard the shuffling of feet in the cellar. The place was in darkness, and the police, fearing a surprise attack from desperate men, hesitated to approach, and resorted to stratagem. A piece of cotton wool, on which had been sprinkled some cayenne pepper, was ignited and thrown into the cellar. Soon afterward a voice called out, "Don't put any more of that stuff in; I've had enough!" and one of the men emerged from the cellar. His companion was also arrested without difficulty. At the police court yesterday, when the men were charged with house-breaking, Superintendent Lindley said the capture was regarded as an important one. In an adjoining shop was a safe containing £25,000 worth of valuables.

THE BOYS AGAIN.

The boy problem, revived by the Evangelical Alliance, has lost none of its old time difficulties but in St. John is still as far from a satisfactory solution as it ever has been. Judge Ritchie, who is called upon to deal with all the juvenile offenders in this city has evidently devoted some thought to the question and with his limited opportunities is no doubt carrying out theories to the fullest possible extent. But there are other applications of human principles which might be made under more favorable circumstances, and it is not impossible for a presiding magistrate to bring about these circumstances. The measure success to be found in dealing with boys depends not so much on the system adopted as on the man entrusted with the enforcement of the law. The magistrate or judge possessed of a necessary personal qualification is devoted to his work can attain better results than may be achieved under the best thought out system poorly applied. Hence, while in St. John we have a worst possible code, the interest taken by Judge Ritchie in this branch of his work, has certainly led to a more creditable condition than might have been expected. St. John is too small a town for the establishment of a court constituted especially for juvenile offenders, an boys must to a certain extent be classed with older and more vicious persons. This can be overcome, and indeed this plan is now in operation, by having the younger culprits appear on Saturdays, when their school work is not interfered with and when they may be brought up after the regular business is completed. Judge Lindsey, who has made the Denver court famous, believes in reform rather than punishment, and in the eight years of his work there he has sent only eighteen boys to the reformatory. Every one of these lads has walked alone from the court house to the reformatory and not one attempt at escape has been reported. This is simply because of the fact that after a talk with the judge each boy has been convinced that his one chance for an honorable career lies in spending some time in the industrial home. His honor is put to the test, and never once has the plan failed. It is only in extreme cases that the reformatory is decided upon. Every other means of reform is first attempted and by making the lads feel that they are trusted Judge Lindsey has succeeded in accomplishing most creditable results. Each boy who is brought before him is encouraged to better things, and is made to feel that his friends believe in him. Upon leaving court he is provided with a card to be filled out by his school teacher at the end of the week. This card is brought back to the court, and the judge and boy discuss it together. The card system is continued as long as it is felt that any supervision is required, and as a rule the period is brief. Mr. George H. Martin, secretary of the Massachusetts State Board of Education was the writer of a recent article in the New York Tribune. Mr. Martin goes back to first principles, and tries to explain what a boy is by nature; that is, what the boy wants to do as a result of inherited instincts from a thousand ancestors. He says: "The boy finds himself under an irresistible impulse to measure himself against every external force, to test every limb, every organ, to do this every day. Although he bears no banner to advertise his emotions, 'Excel' is stamped on his every act. The warning cry of his anxious mother, 'Try not the pass,' is always sounding in his ears, but he tries all the same, if not today, tomorrow. He gains in strength and agility, in power to handle himself—to direct his energy in the most effective way. He comes gradually to learn his limitations—how far he can go in matching himself against the forces of nature, how much is allowed to do these things, but it is also right that he should want to do them. That his natural instincts, thus confined, should burst out sometimes, and indeed, often in wrong and dangerous directions, is only what one might expect. To punish the boy is no cure, and is usually as cruel as it is stupid. It is the duty of the city, Mr. Martin thinks, to give him some wholesome substitute for the brilliant which it has deprived him. If this were done, there would be little need for children's courts. To cater thus to the boy is expensive, but if he isn't worth it, nobody is.

Once upon a time a youth who had commenced to navigate the sea of matrimony went to his father and said: "Father, who should be boss, I or my wife?" Then the old man smiled and said: "Here are one hundred chickens and a team of horses. Hitch up the horses, load the chickens into the wagon and wherever you can find a man and his wife dwelling, stop and make inquiry as to who is the boss. Wherever you find a woman running things leave a chicken. If you come to a place where the man is in control, give him one of the horses." After seventy-nine chickens had been disposed of, says The San Francisco Chronicle, he came to a house and made the usual inquiry, and said: "I'm the boss of this ranch," said the man. "Got to show me." So the husband said, and she affirmed her husband's assertion. "Take whichever horse you want," was the boy's reply. "I'll take the bay horse," but the wife didn't like the bay horse, and she called her husband aside and talked to him. He returned and said: "I believe I'll take the grey horse." "Not much," said Missouri. "You'll take a chicken."

NOT HIS LEGS. A Russian peasant journeyed to the nearest town to buy himself a pair of new boots, and after probing by the occasion to imbibe plenty of vodka returned home, but soon fell asleep on the road, where he was relieved of his new boots by a passing thief. About an hour afterward a cart came along and the cartier, arousing him, called out: "Take those legs of yours out of the way, can't you?" The Russian staggered to his feet, and regarding his legs gravely, said: "These legs aren't mine. Mine have new boots on."

LOOKED LIKE NEW. Anna Held, whose eyes are famous for their depth and brightness, received one afternoon a pretty compliment from a little boy of five. "The boy, during a matinee, had been brought into Miss Held's dressing room. She wore a Persian gown of lemon-colored silk, and three dogs, smaller than kittens, played on the floor. The little boy admired the dogs. He admired the actress' robe. He looked with calm admiration up into her face. Her eyes delighted him, as a glittering jewel delights a girl. "Are your eyes new?" he asked gravely.

OTHERWISE OCCUPIED. "Why can't I get my number?" demanded the man. "Line's busy," replied the telephone girl. "I don't believe it." "It's so, just the same. Some cowboys have borrowed it to hang a horse with."

SLAUGHTERING ROBINS. In Central Tennessee are large tracts of cedars, the berries of which serve to attract myriads of robins in the winter. One small hamlet in this region sends to market annually enough robins to return $500 at five cents a dozen, equal to 120,000 birds. They are killed at night by torchlight and with sticks.

THE SELECTION OF PREMIER TWEDDIE for the position of lieutenant governor is in the natural order of things, and the resultant changes in the provincial government will be as expected. Announcement is made that Speaker Robinson will be the new man in the council, his place being taken by Mr. Osman. Mr. Robinson during his term in the chair has won general respect, and his advent to the executive will certainly strengthen that body. Attorney General Fugate assumes the leadership and this too is the best possible arrangement.

HUSBAND BEATS WIFE; SHE ORDERS JAIL TERM. New Jersey Recorder Permits Spouse to Impose Sentence of 30 Days.

BAYONNE, N. J., Mar. 2.—Sentenced by his wife thirty days, Joseph Rieckley went weeping to jail. Rieckley had been brought before Recorder Lazarus for wife beating, and Mrs. Rieckley was there to press the case. She declared she had stood his satiation for twenty-five years. "You know more about the case than do, Mrs. Rieckley, I'll permit you to lay my place and pronounce sentence," said the recorder. "That will suit me," replied Mrs. Rieckley. Rieckley stared at his wife, and was out to ask for mercy when she said: "I'm not, Joseph Rieckley, to ask me to be lenient. I am going to send you here you will not be able to get any more. I am tired of heading your omises. You never keep them." "It's little good I get from your work," responded Mrs. Rieckley. "I think irritable days in jail will bring you to your senses." "Decision sustained," said the recorder.

Taking the statistics for the entire year, four and a half persons to the ounce are either deaf, dumb, blind or mentally deficient. Next Tuesday is nomination day in Toronto. The proceedings will be held in Kerton's hall at Grand Falls. It is a general opinion that Pius Michael will have no opposition and will be re-elected by acclamation.

F. C. Teuch, manager of the Massey-Arts Co. here, has been promoted to assistant manager of the company's egg factory at Bramford and will leave for that city in a few days. Mrs. such will remain in the city until spring. A. H. Stanton, of Montreal, no longer succeeds Teuch as manager, arrived in the city Saturday and is registered at the Royal.

The preliminary examination of J. W. Grell, publisher of the Victoria county News, who is charged with having criminally libelled D. Reid Sedell in his newspaper, was held before Magistrate McQuarrie at Andover Monday. The complainant, R. Reid Sedell, swore that the article printed was grossly libellous and damaged him both as regards his family and business. The defendant was committed for trial at the next Victoria circuit court, which will be held on Tuesday next.

PRETTY WOMAN, WITH HUBBY'S CASH, ELOPES. Pottsville Pair Arrested in Pittsburg on Complaint ofirate Husband.

PITTSBURG, March 2.—Joseph Koehler and Mrs. Mary Fister, both of Pottsville, are under arrest at Central Police Station, and will be taken back to Pottsville to face serious charges. The woman is the wife of Stephen Fister, and met Koehler several months ago. They say that they fell in love with each other, and as Mrs. Fister was tired of her lawless spouse, decided to elope. Their plans were completed yesterday, and they left Pottsville together, taking with them, it is alleged, $325 of the hard earnings of Fister. A watch was kept on all the trains, and early this morning Detectives Willis and Crane captured the pair at the Union Depot. The woman broke down and cried piteously. She begged the officers not to send her back to her husband. Koehler took her arrest stoically, and said that he did not care how soon he was taken back to Pottsville. The prisoners are both about 35 years old, and Mrs. Fister is good looking.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., March 2.—Declaring that it was her only comfort since her husband ran away from her to keep a lonely and otherwise cheerless vigil, Mrs. Alice Palmer, of Forty-Fort, today asked the good offices of Alderman Dohohue in regaining for her a photograph in possession of William Eastler, a hotelkeeper. Mrs. Palmer said the photograph, in which were recorded the dulcet tones of her recent spouse's voice, had been given to the hotel man by her husband, but that it was not his to give, as she had paid for it with her own money, and that now, since her husband had forsaken her, and his voice no longer makes music in her ears, it is the one thing in which she finds comfort and recreation. Alderman Dohohue ordered that the instrument be returned to Mrs. Palmer.

HARRISBURG, March 2.—Coming to Harrisburg today to see the new Capitol, Harry G. Mackey and Miss Jennie Geyer, both of Chambersburg, returned home this evening husband and wife. Accompanied by a sister of the bride, they were admiring the architecture of the Capitol from a point in the park, when Mackey suddenly proposed. Miss Geyer accepted on the spot, and it was agreed that they be married immediately. Mackey is a man of action, and in five minutes he had his promised bride and her sister quartered at a hotel, while he went for a marriage license. He got it without delay, and a few minutes later Miss Geyer and her sister were summoned to the office of Recorder Stine, where the wedding ceremony was performed by Squire Martin Zoll.

ORPHAN BRINGS RAIN TO HIS BENEFACITOR. Confesses Crime After Fifteen Years of Poverty and Shame to His Victim.

LONDON, March 4.—Aesop's fable of "the frozen sinner" had a remarkable illustration in a strange story, the final chapter of which was reported yesterday from Gravesend and Greenhithe Gas Company, has received a confession from the real thief, a lad named Peter, who, befriended, and supplanted him. "I write this as a duty before God," Pearce writes from Canada, "and I am sorry for having been guilty of anything so mean; but the influence of Satan had hold of me, and I believe I would have done you all the injury I could, but I hope you will forgive me." In 1882 Mr. Snelling, who served his articles at Bury St. Edmunds and Edinburgh, came as manager to the Northfleet and Greenhithe Gas Company. Pearce was an orphan, and he provided him with an outfit and taught him the routine of the work. In 1891 the chairman of the company received anonymous letters accusing Mr. Snelling of embezzling money and falsifying the accounts. He courted the fullest inquiry, and while awaiting this the office was broken into and the credit book stolen. However, the strictest inquiry failed to disclose anything wrong, and Mr. Snelling was asked to resume his post, but refused to do so and resigned. A committee of prominent townsmen, who believed in Mr. Snelling's innocence was formed for the purpose of investigating the mystery, and it was unable to secure any material evidence, and anxiety and worry resulted in Mr. Snelling being laid low by an attack of congestion of the brain. Meanwhile Pearce was appointed to the management, but he did not hold the post long, and a year or two after, when he believed in Mr. Snelling's innocence was formed for the purpose of investigating the mystery, and it was unable to secure any material evidence, and anxiety and worry resulted in Mr. Snelling being laid low by an attack of congestion of the brain. OTTAWA, Mar. 3.—In explaining the possibility of securing a substantial old age annuity under the terms of the bill which he laid on the table of the Senate for discussion on Thursday last Sir Richard Cartwright said that careful calculations by competent actuaries showed that a man who would give the earnings of an hour and a half a day or half a day a month, beginning at the age of 21 at the present average rate of wages and the average duration of life in Canada could at the age of sixty secure an annuity of $120 a year, and if he is willing to defer claiming the annuity until he has reached the age of sixty-five years, he would be paid $200 a year.

HEAD OF INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS DIES SUDDENLY IN THE SOUTH

Dr. Oronhyatekha Passed Away at Savannah, Georgia -- Had Been in Poor Health for Some Time -- Left for the South About a Month Ago, Thinking the Change Would Do Him Good.

TORONTO, March 3.—A dispatch from Savannah, Georgia, announces the death of Dr. Oronhyatekha of Toronto, head of the Independent Order of Foresters. Late Dr. Oronhyatekha left about a month ago for the southern States for his health, which was then far from good. He leaves two children, Dr. Acland Oronhyatekha of Toronto and Mrs. Percy Johnston of Deseronto. The remains are expected to arrive in Toronto Wednesday. Death resulted from diabetes and heart failure.

Dr. Oronhyatekha was a full blooded Indian belonging to the Six Nations tribe, having been born on their reservation near Beresford, Ont., the 10th of August, 1841. His English education was begun at the Industrial school there, but his desire for knowledge became so great that he soon after went to the Wesleyan Academy at Wilbraham, Mass. Notwithstanding the fact that, from straitened circumstances, he had to work after school hours for his support, he was usually found standing at the head of his class at examinations, and during his last year at the academy he took the maximum number of marks in various subjects of study. For a year after leaving Wilbraham he taught school among his own people. His college education was begun at Kenyon College, Ohio, where he studied for three years. He also spent a year at Toronto University.

When the Prince of Wales, now King Edward, visited Canada in 1860, Oronhyatekha, then in his 19th year, was selected by the chiefs of the Six Nations to present an address to the son of the "Great Mother." The impression he made on the young prince and his party was so favorable that Oronhyatekha was invited to continue his studies at Oxford, which he did, under the care of Sir Henry Acland, the prince's physician, who was then regius professor of medicine at Oxford. As a physician Oronhyatekha had before him a career that gave every promise of distinction and emolument. He commenced practice at Frankford, Ont., and was elected the first secretary of the Hastings Co. Medical Association. He removed to London in 1875, and built up an extensive medical practice in that city. It was while living there that he was invited into the Independent Order of Foresters. He rose rapidly to the position of chief executive of the order, and at the time of the separation in 1881, he was elected to the office of supreme chief ranger, which position he had held ever since. His devotion to Forestry with the ever increasing demands on his time made by the growth of the order, necessitated the neglect and final abandonment of the active duties of his profession.

The rapid growth of the Order of Foresters suggested the desirability of having executive offices in Toronto, to which city they were removed in 1889, and from that time Dr. Oronhyatekha had made his home in that city. Dr. Oronhyatekha was not only a Forester. He was a Freemason of high degree, a Good Templar and an Orangeman. In 1878 he was one of the deputation sent to Belfast from the Grand Orange Lodge of British America. He always took keen interest in rifle shooting and was a member of the first Wimbledon team sent from Ontario, 1871.

A dinner given in London Sept. 1894, he described himself as being more than a British subject, for he had the honor to be an ally to the British Empire. Continuing, he said that it was "owing to the assistance and influence of the Six Nations of Indians that the British crown now holds Canada." In 1863 he married Miss Ellen Hill, a great granddaughter of Captain Joseph Brant, the head chief of the Mohawks, who served during the American revolutionary war. Their son, William Acland Oronhyatekha, graduated M. D. at Trinity University, Toronto, in 1892. He is now residing in London, where he married in 1895.

The late Dr. Oronhyatekha resided at 209 Carlton St. Toronto. He belonged to the following clubs: The Wigwag, near Deseronto, Ont., The Pines, Mohawk Reserve, Bay of Quinte.

Sir Henry W. Acland described him at one time as "A rare fellow man." Another tribute in praise of the late chief, is that of J. L. Hughes, who describes him as one of the most original, one of the most accomplished and one of the best executive officers, that the American continent has yet produced.

Shortly after twelve o'clock on Saturday night a man asked for police assistance, as his brother, who was drunk, was raising a disturbance in their house, which is in the centre of the city. The policeman at once went with the man, and when they arrived at the house the drunken brother was scattering things about at a lively rate. The policeman started in to quiet the man, and then the trouble began. Like the story of the wife beater, who being chastised by a stranger for injuring the woman, was assisted by his better half in thrashing the chivalrous gentleman, the man who had called in the police went to his brother's assistance when the officer commenced the process of quieting the drunken man. Stripping off his Denon clothes, the erstwhile peace-officer announced his intention of doing the officer up.

The policeman had to protect himself against the two men and was also assailed in the rear by their sister. His overcoat was ripped off and he had a hard time for some minutes, as he did not wish to injure his antagonists. At last he quieted them and started to go down stairs. They again attacked him, but he had no difficulty in overcoming the three, as he was by that time prepared for the unexpected. In another room in the same house two women were holding down another brother who was under the influence. The officer says this is the first time he was called into a house by a peace-maker who afterwards turned out to be worse than the disturber.

GOVERNOR TWEEDIE AND PREMIER PUGSLEY NOW

Speaker Robinson Becomes Minister Without Portfolio and Mr. C. J. Osman Succeeds to the Speakership -- New Governor Will be Sworn in Tomorrow.

PREMIER PUGSLEY

Rev. Mr. Tweedie, a Methodist clergyman. He was born in 1849, and is therefore 65 years old. After securing a liberal education in the schools of his native town and at the Presbyterian college, Mr. Tweedie entered upon the study of law, was admitted to the New Brunswick bar in 1871, and has for many years occupied a leading position in his profession.

In 1874 he was elected to the legislature from Northumberland, but was defeated in 1875 and did not reappear in the political arena until 1886, when he was again returned to the assembly and acted with the opposition to the Elsie government.

In 1890 he headed a Northumberland opposition ticket, fighting the government principally on the stumpage question and he and his colleagues carried the county. Shortly afterwards the government reduced the stumpage in response to the Northumberland verdict and Mr. Tweedie entered the ministry as surveyor general, consummating what was afterwards known as "the Northumberland deal," and his constituency endorsed his action by re-electing him by acclamation. Mr. Tweedie continued as surveyor general until 1896, when he became provincial secretary in the Mitchell ministry, a position he has held ever since.

On the retirement of Hon. H. R. Emmerson from the premiership in 1900, Mr. Tweedie became premier, and successfully piloted the government through the general election of 1903, although narrowly escaping personal defeat in Northumberland, his two colleagues in the county meeting a reverse.

Governor Tweedie's wife, who will share with him in the honors of his new position, was formerly Miss Louisa, daughter of the late Alexander Loudoun of Chatham, and a sister of Auditor General Loudoun. They have a large family, the eldest of whom is Fred M. Tweedie, C. E., and their only daughter is the wife of Stewart Benson, who comes to Fredericton next week as the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

The new governor in religion is a Presbyterian, and is prominently connected with St. Andrew's church, Chatham.

Hon. Lemuel J. Tweedie, the new lieutenant governor of New Brunswick, is a native of Chatham, son of the late wick ministers. He will invite Speaker Robinson to enter the government of New Brunswick without portfolio. He will probably continue without portfolio until the close of the present session of the New Brunswick legislature, when he will assume the portfolio of provincial secretary, which has been administered by Hon. Mr. Tweedie. This course will be pursued because it is deemed unwise to interfere with the business of the legislature by the holding of an election which would be necessary if Hon. Mr. Robinson assumed the portfolio.

Mr. Osman of Albert will, it is expected, be chosen to preside over the legislature in succession to Speaker Robinson.

Re-Organization of Amherst Redstone Quarry, Limited -- New Plant Will be Installed

AMHERST, Mar. 3.—An important announcement regarding the plant and equipment of an already thriving Amherst industry, is noted in the re-organization of the Amherst Redstone Quarry Limited, which held its first meeting of shareholders last Friday. The new company has acquired the quarry, plant and assets of the old company in addition to the James McDonald's property consisting of sixty acres of land. The quarry and lands are situated about a quarter of a mile from the Amherst Academy. The quarry has been operated for years showing a depth of sixty feet of solid stone. Authorized capital of the new company is one hundred thousand dollars, sixty thousand of which is fully paid up. A number of Halifax capitalists have associated themselves with the new company, among others being Wm. Dennis of the Halifax Herald, and J. F. Kenney, N. Curry, of the Rhodes Curry & Co., will be on the directorate. With the modern plant that will be installed it is confidently expected that the price of stone will be so reduced that many stone fronts will appear in the residential sections of this town. It is expected that over two hundred men will be employed as soon as spring comes. James Donald, managing director, is now visiting some of the large quarries in the West and on his return the new plant will be installed. Under the present plan the Redstone quarry will soon take rank with the leading industries here.

SACKVILLE, N. B., March 2.—At noon today the death occurred here of Mrs. Favett, wife of Charles Favett, the well known stove manufacturer. Deceased had been blind for about twelve years and death was due to a fall which resulted in complications. She was married in 1867 and was 61 years old at the time of her death.

AMHERST LADY INJURED

AMHERST, March 2.—Mrs. Robinson, wife of William Robinson, herdsman of Dick's farm, Amherst, sustained serious injuries by being run over by a runaway team while on her way to church this evening. She was knocked down and one leg badly broken besides being badly bruised about the body.

REARMS OF MRS. EDDY ASK FOR RECEIVER

Sensational Action Taken Against Head of Christian Scientists Church -- Charge That She is Mentally Incapable of Caring for it

CONCORD, N. H., March 1.—A bill in equity to secure an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Baker Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, was filed in the superior court for Merrimack County today by Mrs. Eddy's son, George W. Glover of Deadwood, S. D., and his daughter, Miss Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker of Bangor, Me., nephews and next friends of Mrs. Baker Eddy. The bill is directed against the trustees of the Christian Science church in Boston and Calvin A. Frye, Mrs. Eddy's secretary; Lewis C. Strang, her assistant secretary, and Herman S. Herring, first reader of the church in Concord.

Besides demanding an accounting of all transactions in connection with Mrs. Eddy's affairs, the bill asks for restitution in case any wrong doing appears; for an injunction during litigation against interference with her property and business and for a receiver.

The action is returnable at the April term of the Merrimack county superior court, which assembles on the first Tuesday of the month. It is directed against Calvin A. Frye, secretary, and Lewis C. Strang, assistant secretary, of Concord, and Alfred Farlow, Irving C. Tomlinson and Ira O. Knapp, William B. Johnson and Joseph A. Armstrong, all of Boston, and Stephen A. Chase of Fall River, directors of the Christian Science church, and Herman S. Herring, first reader of the church in Concord.

Specifically the bill alleges that the plaintiff, Mrs. Eddy, who sues by her next friend, is and for a long time has been incompetent to do business or undertake transactions conducted in her name in connection with her property.

The next allegation is that the defendants have possessed themselves of her person and property and have carried on her business.

Third—it is alleged that having done this knowing of her infirmity, they have become trustees for her of all her property which has come into their possession and are bound to account to her and of all their transactions in her name.

Fourth—it is alleged that there is reason to fear that the defendants wrongfully converted some of her property to their own use.

Fifth—it is alleged that there are particular transactions of which an account should be given.

CONCORD, N. H., March 3.—General Francis S. Steeter, the legal adviser of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, issued a long statement this evening, in the nature of a reply to various allegations made in the bill of equity which has been brought against trustees and directors of the Christian Science church by relatives of Mrs. Eddy, with the view of obtaining an accounting of funds. The statement is as follows:

"Early Saturday morning I sent to Mrs. Eddy a copy of the bill in equity as published but not yet served upon any of the defendants so far as I am informed. I have since had a long personal conference with her, at which this proceeding and matters connected therewith were fully discussed.

"In common with her many friends she believes that the initiative in those proceedings was not taken by her son or other relatives, but by others who in a markedly unusual manner and by unique methods are undertaking under the guise of court proceedings to continue the persecution begun some time ago.

"From my conference with her at this time, and on other recent occasions, I am able to speak definitely and positively. Her clearness of mind and resolution of purpose has been in no respect impaired by her advanced years. Her capacity to think clearly, and to deal accurately and justly with important business affairs, has never been more perfectly demonstrated than in her conferences and acts in the last two weeks and in numerous business letters in her own handwriting which I have received from her during that time.

"The amount of Mrs. Eddy's property has been grossly multiplied by rumor and unfounded report. She is not possessed of any large wealth as the term is used. Mrs. Eddy receives no income from the church, nor from the publication society connected with the church. Her sole income for many years has been from the copyright of her own book, and the amount from this source has been grossly overestimated.

"Mrs. Eddy's business affairs have been managed by herself with the aid of Mr. Frye, her devoted and loyal servant, and under the oversight of a personal audit of another gentleman, whose name has not been mentioned, but who stands for all that is honorable and of good repute in financial circles in Concord. Accurate accounts of all her property and investments, as well as her annual income and expenditures, have been carefully kept and frequently audited. The last audit was in October, 1906. None of the defendants have any knowledge whatever in reference thereto, nor have any of the said defendants ever received any property in trust or otherwise, except in one instance, for the benefit of a relation.

"Inquiry has been made of those proceedings, I cannot as her legal representative undertake to speak to them.

"With reference to the report that within a few days Mrs. Eddy has placed in the hands of trustees a large amount of money to be held and used for the benefit of her son and her grandchildren, I have nothing to say. "Whatever Mrs. Eddy may or may not have done toward providing for her family is a matter which ought not, for the present at least, to be discussed by me.

"It is obvious that I ought not to talk about the legal aspect of the case, nor what will be the course of the proceedings so far as Mrs. Eddy is concerned. The proceedings are unusual, so far as this case can be considered a legitimate proceeding in equity, it seems to be an attempt to have the personal rights and privileges of a citizen adjusted in a way unprecedented in New Hampshire so far as I am aware, and if it shall appear that these proceedings have been instituted for purposes other than the ascertainment and protection of the plaintiff's affairs, the method of dealing with such a case will be carefully considered by Mrs. Eddy's counsel before making any public statement."

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. J. M. Courtney, ex-deputy Minister of Finance, in an address to the Canadian Club on Saturday discussed the position of the civil service of Canada. He stated the low salaries, obscure position and uncertainty of promotion made the service unattractive to the best men of the country. He advocated a higher scale of pay and the removal of partisanship from the service by placing appointments in the service and promotions in the hands of an independent commission.

HAMILTON, March 3.—MacKenzie and Mann are said to be negotiating for a site here for a big plant to build works for the manufacture of steel cars.

At the board of trade rooms on Saturday afternoon representatives were present of the lumbermen, of the Fredericton Boom Co., of the People's Bank and the liquidators of the Fredericton Boom Co., at which the lumbermen present agreed to promote legislation to vest the property of the Fredericton Boom Co. in the St. John River Log Driving Co., and that bonds will be issued to $60,000 and given in payment of the liabilities of the company.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 3.—The Allan liner Tunisian, from Liverpool, with weekly mails and passengers, arrived in port at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. She met with extraordinary winter weather on the passage over, coming well south to avoid the possibility of meeting ice. The steamer is in command of Captain Edward Pitts, R.N.R., this time, having replaced 55 saloon, 311 second cabin, 832 steerage, and 150 troops. Her passengers all landed here and were inspected. Twenty-five saloon, 299 second cabin and six o'clock, after landing 400 tons of general cargo. She did not bring any overseas mail.

Thos. Scully, a young Englishman, aged 20, and booked to Halifax as a laborer, on Feb. 24 undertook to show some of the passengers that he could climb to the top of the flag-staff at the stern of the ship. He was told to be careful, but did not heed the warning and losing his grip, fell into the sea, the suction of the propellers soon carrying him from sight. The steamer was stopped and a boat put out, but the unfortunate man was never seen after he struck the water.

Among the passengers landed by the Tunisian were 150 artillery, who came out in charge of Col. G. W. Atkin and Major Harris. Of these 50 will be sent to Quebec and the rest will help to reinforce this garrison. The men disembarked shortly after nine o'clock, and quite a number of persons gathered at the wharf to see them march to the barracks.

J. A. Gregory's mill at Blagdon has got through cutting for the season and will be hauled out this week. The Stevenson mill near the same place will be cutting for two or three weeks yet.

Rev. James Crisp in the course of his sermon on Sunday last evening, made an appreciative reference to the late Lieut. Governor Snowball. He took his text from Mark 3: 35: "Who ye need, etc." Rev. Mr. Crisp was an intimate friend of the late Governor.

Mrs. Charles McManus died at her home 27 Hanover street, yesterday. She was 66 years of age and is survived by her husband and three daughters. Her daughters are Sarah, Emma and Theresa. One brother, Robert Hunter, also survives.

Mrs. Smith, fancy work demonstrator for Belding, Paul & Co., the large silk house, commenced her classes in the Church of England Institute rooms, German street, this afternoon and will continue them until further notice. Mrs. Smith's exhibit and lessons are free to all ladies.

On Friday evening last a pleasant sleigh drive was enjoyed by a party of young people from the residence of James Daley, St. James street, in honor of Miss Sadie McLeich. A most pleasant evening was spent at Mr. Daley's home. Music was provided, DeWitt Cairns contributing a number of solos.

The police court docket today showed a quartette on the prisoners' bench. Three drunks were fined $8 each. Felix Holland, for abusive language, went to jail for two months in default of paying an eight-dollar fine. Frank Nowlan, for being drunk and assaulting his brother on Middle street, was fined $8 or two months' jail.

Laughter will reign supreme at the Queen's Rollaway on Wednesday night next, the occasion being a second "Valentine Masquerade." There are such grand chances for good disguises that the skaters are very seldom recognized and they have lots of fun both with spectators and the rest of the skaters, and the result is that there is nothing but fun from start to finish.

The case of non-attendance at drill preferred by Captain Smith against Messrs. Coleman and Stephens was once more called on this morning, when Captain Smith asked for a postponement on account of Col. Edwards' absence. J. King Kelley for the defence objected to another postponement and said that the matter should be dropped. The magistrate allowed the postponement for a week.

Morris Wood, the American skating champion, will arrive in the city tomorrow from Long Branch, N. Y., where he has been skating. Late papers to hand say the wily American is in excellent shape, and refer to his trip to Canada as a "tour of lions in their den." Wood may get a few surprises at the championship sports in the Vic. Thursday.

The Canadian Club's first luncheon will be held in the York Assembly rooms tomorrow evening. Dinner will be served at 6:15 o'clock. Dr. Parkin will deliver a short address, after which the tables will be cleared away and members of the Board of Trade, the Canadian Club and other citizens will listen to another address by Dr. Parkin on "Canada's Present and Future." This address is to start at 8 o'clock.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY MAILS BEING SENT BY TEAMS

The New Brunswick Southern has become completely blocked on account of ice and as a result the mails are now being sent down the line by teams. It is quite possible that the ice will be cleared from the road at any time during the next few days, but the postal authorities insist that the mails shall be carried regularly, and as a result the N. B. Southern has been compelled to arrange for team service between this city and St. Stephen and this morning the first mails were sent out by teams.

The St. John teams will go as far as St. George, while St. George teams will meet them at that place and will take the mail from there to St. Stephen. The larger portion of the St. Stephen mail will be sent via C. P. R. as will also some of the mail for St. George, which will be sent up from St. Stephen by stage. As a result of this announcement St. George will get a good mail service. In the meantime every effort is being made by the management of the N. B. Southern to have that road cleared. The train is now ice bound at Oak Bay.

JUDGE RITCHIE ON THE BOY PROBLEM

Parents Have the Matter in Their Own Hands.

If They Did Their Duty There Would be Less Crime—The Court Here is all Right.

The Evangelical Alliance met at 10:30 o'clock this morning in St. Andrew's church. Rev. David Lang presided. After devotional services the minutes of the last meeting were read.

Rev. F. J. Stackhouse announced that a temperance meeting will be held in the Every Day Club every Sunday evening. Rev. Appel introduced to the alliance Rev. A. J. McLeod, of Picou, N. B.

A short discussion took place over the Lord's Day Act. Rev. Mr. Pritchard stated that it had been reported that tobacco had been sold in several hotels yesterday. He thought it unfair that the tobacco shops should be closed and the hotel men allowed to sell tobacco.

Rev. Mr. Lang introduced Judge Ritchie, who spoke on "The Duty of the State to Boy Criminals." Judge Ritchie in opening remarked that a great deal had been said about the boy problem. He thought that in Canada we have many wise provisions for boy criminals. Some years ago, it was recommended that a Curfew Act be put into force. Sixty years ago, the law stated that the police were to arrest any person on the street after seven o'clock at night who could not give a satisfactory account of themselves. This law is still in existence.

If these laws were adhered to, the children would not be about the streets at all hours of the night. If parents looked after the children much trouble would be avoided. At the time when the "lizard gang" existed his honor suggested that the church bells ring at seven o'clock as a warning to parents to see that their children were off the streets. The state has done its part by passing the curfew law, but the parents are not doing their duty. The curfew act was passed for the protection of boys. The person who sells to a minor is liable to a fine. Nothing can be done to the boy. A policeman should be given power to reprimand a boy whom he sees smoking a cigarette.

Another burning question was the number of boys who are arrested for theft. The boys of this town have got in the way of going to the Opera House. There is a great deal of money to be made in the streets. If they can't get it honestly, they get it the other way. The Hebrew population has greatly increased and a great number of these people have gone into the junk business. A Jew is liable to a fine of $40 for buying junk from a minor. The boy who sells to a minor, the boy who honestly steals junk and sells it to the Hebrew, His Honor thought that the clergymen could do more to keep the children alive to the situation than anyone else. Pool tables are another temptation to the boys. There is a temptation to a boy going into a pool room but it is not properly enforced. The liquor license law does not permit the selling of liquor to minors. Minors are not allowed in court when older persons are being tried.

Judge Ritchie stated that he often hears the remark, "Why don't we have things done here like in Boston?" The court is conducted in just as good a manner, but so much blowing is not done about it. When a poor boy is arrested for theft he is often sent to the Boys' Industrial Home where he will be taught to read and write. A boy with a better home is often given his freedom, as his parents are cultured and educated and the boy will be looked after at home. People often say this is not justice, but it is done in the interest of the boys themselves.

In closing his address Judge Ritchie stated that the laws governing the trial of children were good, but it is essential that the parents look after their young, and if this is done, there will be few trials.

President Lang announced that a few minutes would be granted for discussion.

Rev. Mr. Pritchard asked Judge Ritchie why the curfew law was not better recognized in the city. His Honor replied that it would be probable that after this morning's discussion the police would enforce the law.

Rev. James Crisp moved that a note of thanks be tendered Judge Ritchie for his interesting and instructive address. The motion was seconded by Rev. A. H. Cohoe and carried.

Mr. Cohoe before seconding the motion spoke on the poor conditions existing on St. Patrick, Brussels and other streets in that vicinity. He stated that little boys and girls were practically thrown out of their homes at night, and the parents did not seem to care when they returned.

After the benediction had been pronounced by Rev. W. O. Raymond, the meeting adjourned.

BOARD OF TRADE IS AGAINST WARD SYSTEM

Favors the Idea of Six Electoral Districts

Would Not Support the New Paving Bill But Left it to be Discussed by the Council.

At a meeting of the Board of Trade this morning the bill providing for a return to the ward system, and the new paving bill were informally discussed and recommendations made. Arrangements were made for Dr. Parkin's lecture tomorrow evening. It was decided that the president of the board of trade should occupy the chair and that an invitation should be extended to the Canadian Club to be present at the lecture. Dr. Parkin's subject will be Canada's present and future.

It is understood that the paving bill which provides that the residents of any street shall pay for half the paving is meeting with much opposition throughout the city, and a petition opposing the passing of this bill is in circulation and is being largely signed. In reference to the ward system the board recommended that it be referred to the council meeting tomorrow afternoon, and that if any changes are to be made in the bill that the changes should be as were suggested by the Citizens' League last year, viz.—That the city should be divided into six electoral districts, each district sending two representatives and also that there should be three aldermen at large.

The meeting decided not to recommend the passing of this bill, but that it be left for the council, which meets tomorrow afternoon.
