

ITALIANS WIN BIG VICTORY, TAKING IN T. SAN GABRIELE

GENERAL CADORNA'S ARMY GAINS THE COMMAND OF THE PLAIN OF GORIZIA

Notable Achievement Greatest Italian Victory in Entire War and Opens Way to Big Adriatic Coast City of Trieste.

German Attacks Against French Positions on Casemates Plateau Repulsed—Political Situation in Russia Still Beclouded.

The crest of Monte San Gabriele, commanding the Plain of Gorizia to the south and southeast and the Frigido Valley to the east, has been captured by the Italians.

The Italian effort to capture San Gabriele began after the taking of Monte Santo, directly north, by General Cadorna's troops on August 25. Several times the Italians had reached the summit of the great mountain, so important to their further progress east of Gorizia as well as on the Carso, only to be beaten back again. On the slopes of the rugged rock in the past few weeks has occurred some of the heaviest and most sanguinary fighting of the war, with the Italians hurling themselves forward in desperate attacks and the Austrians holding to the crest as desperately.

Heavy Losses. San Gabriele slope was occupied by the Italians, the embassy reports, after the fortified hill or saddle of Dol and the Garzaro Basin, the main bulk of San Gabriele, has been taken. The Austrians, however, still cling to some positions on the mountain. In the forest of Tarnovo, east of Monte San Gabriele the Italians captured positions from the Austrians after suffering heavy losses. The Italian victory is considered their greatest since the war began.

Except along the Casemates plateau, on the Alps front, there has been no marked activity on the fighting fronts. A German attack against French positions on the Casemates plateau, Paris reports, were repulsed with heavy losses. Berlin says German troops penetrated to the second French line and inflicted severe casualties. The British artillery, in Flanders, Paris reports, has increased its drumfire.

Russian Situation. The political situation in Russia still is beclouded somewhat. The revolt of General Korniloff apparently has failed miserably, but the former command-in-chief of the Russian armies has not yet surrendered to the provisional government. General Kuznetz, commander of the Korniloff forces sent against Petrograd, shot himself when informed by Premier Kerensky of the probable fate that awaited him. His wounds were not fatal.

Premier Kerensky has begun to re-construct the government, some of his former ministers apparently opposing the taking of drastic measures against General Korniloff and his aides.

Canadians Worry Huns. Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, Sept. 14.—(By Stewart Lyon, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—The Germans in Lens are given no rest. Early last night they were subjected to a heavy bombardment from large calibre guns. After they had been driven into their cellars and shelter galleries by shell fire, gas was projected upon the enemy positions, shortly before midnight and again after three o'clock this morning. Serious losses are believed to have followed.

A prisoner, who wandered into our lines in a dazed condition, after our second attack, says the gas was almost immediately effective. He himself took only two inhalations before he got his mask on, but was seriously affected. The attack surprised many of the gummy in dugouts, where our gas is most deadly.

SCHOONER MABEL STRIKES ON ISLE

Special to The Standard. Chatham, Sept. 14.—Pilot schooner Mabel is ashore on Fox Island and will probably be a total loss. Tug St. Nicholas made an attempt to tow her off without success. All movable rigging has been removed. The crew left the schooner intending to sleep ashore. A gale sprang up in the night and the schooner dragged. Before the crew could get the sails up she was lost aground.

NEELY READS OUT A FEW LIBERALS

Laurier Member for Humbolt Has No Use for Certain Members of Former Liberal Party.

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—In moving his amendment to the Winnipeg Liberal convention Dr. Neely said tonight in the House that "Mr. Turriff deliberately broke faith with his colleagues. His amendment could not be accepted for the reason that we could not submit to the implication that we were passing a win-the-war resolution that did not mean every word it said."

"He may secure," Dr. Neely went on, "the support of certain Liberal members on this side. They are very few. I want to say further that they no longer represent Liberalism in this House, because they not only have voted with the government on practically every automatic measure on the military service bill, but they have voted with the government on every automatic measure that the government have forced through at the point of closure for weeks gone by. These men have ceased to be representative of Liberalism in this House, and any government of which they might be members would fit no sense be representative of the great Liberal party."

Moves Amendment. Dr. Neely said that the west had not read a thing time but that it ended his speech by declaring that the bill was "unjust, un-British, autocratic and damnable to the last degree. There were loud cries of "order" and "take it back." Upon the speaker's request Dr. Neely withdrew his last adjective.

Dr. Neely then moved that the bill be not read a third time but that it be referred again to committee of the whole, with instructions to amend it by eliminating from it "all such provisions as tend to remove the franchise from any class of His Majesty's subject who are now qualified electors according to the laws of the province in which they reside."

The amendment was seconded by Mr. Sinclair.

HON. AMBROSE D. RICHARD PASSES ON

Highly Respected Resident of Dorchester and Well Known Attorney is Dead—Capt. Keeffe of St. John a Son-in-Law.

A telegram to Capt. George Keeffe brought news today of the death of his father-in-law, Hon. Ambrose D. Richard, LL. B., Dorchester. Mr. Richard, who had been in ill health for some time, was in his 85th year, having been born on Feb. 5, 1830, at Memramcook. He was educated at St. Joseph's College, Chatham. He took up the study of law and attended Boston University, where he was graduated LL. B., in 1879. He was called to the bar of New Brunswick in that year and has practised law at Dorchester ever since. Mr. Richard was a member of the Westmorland Municipal Council for years. Entering politics he was quite active in Westmorland County and in 1888 was appointed a member of the Legislative Council in which body he served until the Blair government abolished it in the nineties.

In 1895 Mr. Richard was elected a member of the Legislative Assembly. He served for a brief period as solicitor-general. Later on he was appointed registrar of deeds, etc. for Westmorland. In politics he was a Conservative, but later gave the provincial Liberal party an independent support.

Mr. Richard was married in 1856 to Miss Lizzie V. Holt, and he is survived by his wife and six children: Mrs. George Keeffe, St. John; Miss Irma, at home; Rene, a barrister at Dalhousie; Capt. Leo, who went overseas with the 5th Battalion, and Fred and Adrian at St. Joseph's University.

Mr. Richard was a prominent and popular Canadian, and was generally respected in Westmorland county by all classes. A man of considerable ability, he had many friends throughout the province, who will regret to hear of his death.

WILL ATTEMPT TO LIFT QUEBEC SPAN SUNDAY MORNING

Quebec, Que., Sept. 14.—Weather conditions will prevent the raising of the central span of the Quebec bridge tomorrow morning as scheduled. Tonight a gale was blowing in Quebec and the span was covered with whitecaps like an angry sea.

As the engineers require a perfectly calm river surface to facilitate the perfect transfer of the span from the pontoons upon which it was constructed and on which it will be towed from Sillery, where the link now lies, it was decided late tonight to postpone the attempted elevation till Sunday morning.

The high tide of the season takes place tomorrow and it was depended upon to raise the structure to the highest point it is possible to get it in the river. Some of this elevation will necessarily be lost on Sunday morning, but the engineers are confident that the chains to which the span will be attached, will be easily equal to the extra strain.

Acute disappointment, however, was felt by the bridge engineers at the extra handicap placed upon them in a task that is tremendously hazardous under the very best of conditions.

Thousands of visitors to Quebec from points as far west as Montreal were camped upon the cliffs near the bridge site tonight, while thousands of visitors from American and Canadian cities are stopping in the local hotels and will witness the span-raising.

FRANCHISE MEASURE ADOPTED

Given Third Reading in House of Commons Early This Morning.

GERMAN MEMBER MAKES A PLEA

Laurier Member for Humbolt Calls Turriff, Liberal, "Judas."

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 15.—The Franchise bill was given its third reading and passed by the Commons shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. The final stage saw one of the best debates of this long session, and proved again the value of the closure rule in improving the quality of the speech making. In the course of the debate Sir Robert Borden made the announcement for an appeal by Mr. W. G. Weichel, Conservative, the well known German-Canadian member for Waterloo, for favored treatment for those Germans who have been in this country many years and were under the impression that they were Canadian citizens, that the naturalization laws would be modified so that such persons could secure naturalization and citizenship, although they would still be without the vote under the war time elections act.

Col. Currie Defends Himself. One of the best speeches was made by Mr. W. F. Nickle, who pointed out the dual citizenship of the German in this country, but he declared that he would trust those who had been in Canada for twenty-five years. However, the real excitement was provided by Col. John A. Currie and Dr. D. B. Neely. Col. Currie took the opportunity to defend himself against the attack made upon him the other day by Mr. D. D. MacKenzie, who declared that the commander of the 4th Highlanders was in a dugout at the battle of Ypres. The truth is as Col. Currie showed that when the order came to retire he was the last man to leave.

Col. Currie countered by asking where the sons of Hon. Wm. Pughley, Mr. D. D. MacKenzie and Mr. J. H. Sinclair were.

Dr. Neely, Liberal, made a bitter attack upon Mr. J. G. Turriff, Liberal, who introduced the conscription resolution at the Winnipeg Liberal convention. He described the member for Assiniboia as a "Judas."

JAMES DE B. DOMVILLE IS KILLED

Flight Cadet Loses Life in Collision—Was Grandson of Senator Domville.

Montreal, Sept. 14.—Flight Cadet James De Beaujeu Domville, of the Royal Flying Corps, one of the aviators killed in a collision over Deseronto last night, was born in Montreal 17 years ago, was educated in England, Switzerland and at Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, Que., and matriculated at McGill University, having taken the science course. He was well known as an athlete at college. He was the eldest son of Mr. James V. Domville, of Rosemere, Que., and a grandson of Senator Domville, Kings County, N. B.

JOSEPH TREMBLAY NOW CHARGED WITH ATTEMPT TO KILL LORD ATHOLSTAN

Amazing Confession of Dynamiter Read in Court—Plot to Blow Up Premier Borden and Other Prominent Men at Ottawa.

CLOSURE WINS IN HOUSE BY 23 MAJORITY

Two Liberal Members Vote with Government—Laurierite Speakers Take Up Time as Usual.

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—The division bells rang within ten minutes after the House met this afternoon, the opposition challenging Sir Robert Borden's motion for closure on the third reading of the Wartime Elections Act. It provided that the debate be not further adjourned.

The motion was adopted on a vote of 55 to 32, a government majority of 23. Mr. Hugh Guthrie, of South Wellington, and Mr. J. G. Turriff, of Assiniboia, voted with the government.

Dr. M. Clarke, of Red Deer, who has been voting with the government this session was not present when the division was taken.

Ernest LaPointe, Liberal member for Kamouraska, who resumed the debate said he desired to quote the statement of Dismail that a Conservative government is an "organized hypocrisy." Mr. LaPointe characterized the bill as a disgraceful manipulation of the franchise, designed to frustrate the will of the Canadian people.

Mr. Knowles, Moose Jaw, said that parliament was being asked for miserable political reasons to break a pledge given to naturalized citizens in the name of the king.

Hon. Charles Macleod opposed the bill on the ground that it was opposed to the past history as well as its present and future interest.

Hon. Frank Oliver said the bill would put a stumbling block in the way of securing unity of the people, in the future.

U. S. GAME HUNTERS ON MIRAMICHI

Big Game Season Opens in New Brunswick Today.

Special to The Standard. Newcastle, Sept. 14.—Hunting parties are beginning to arrive from the United States for the big game season which will open on Saturday.

Mr. G. W. Kyte referred to the secretary of state "endeavoring to justify legislation by that which was introduced in Australia." Conditions in Australia, however, were very different from those prevailing in Canada. There 88 per cent. of the population of Australia were British born. The government of that commonwealth had never invited Germans and Austrians to settle in the country, and had never promised them the rights of citizenship.

IN OPERATIONS AT LORD ATHOLSTAN'S HOME CHAUFFEUR WAS SHOT—Tremblay Declines to Talk.

Montreal, Sept. 14.—Joseph Tremblay, one of the alleged dynamiters, who was committed to jail a couple of days ago for contempt of court because he would not answer questions put to him in the witness box by the crown counsel in the preliminary hearing in Elie Lalumiere's case, again today refused to talk and was sent back to jail. Two more serious charges were laid against him, attempted murder and destruction of property by participating in the explosion at Lord Atholstan's summer residence at Carterville. The first charge was having dynamite in his possession.

Two Confessions. Tremblay made two confessions, one on September 5 and the other on the 7th inst., according to evidence given this afternoon by Stenographer Gussion. Tremblay admits thereto that one of the men present at a meeting in Lalumiere's store when the dynamite plot was hatched, was a detective, this having been learned since.

The discussion included the proposed blowing up of Sir Robert Borden and Sir Jos. Flavelle, Sir Wm. Mackenzie, Sir Donald Mann and General E. W. Wilson, G. O. C. of the Montreal military district. Also were mentioned the names of Hon. Albert Serigny, Hon. P. E. Blondin, the offices of the Gazette, the Star, La Patrie and La Presse. Oaths of secrecy were taken, with loaded revolvers in sight. It was understood at this meeting that dynamite was to be stolen from the Mar-ineau Quarries, Lalumiere, Handfield, who since committed suicide, Monette, still at large, Wainstainer, Charbonneau, Larose and Tremblay stole the dynamite.

Shot Chauffeur. An automobile was procured by Handfield and Monette by the expedient of cracking a chauffeur, Therrien, over the head and shooting him. Tremblay did not see this, but Handfield and Monette told it in his presence.

Handfield drove the car that carried the gang out to Lord Atholstan's Carterville home, so Tremblay stated, the dynamite to be used for the purpose of destroying the residence of the latter, having been stored at Tremblay's home, after the theft. Tremblay had to carry the dynamite and place it. Handfield walked behind the rest of the gang with a Ross rifle in his hand. The party at Carterville was comprised of Handfield, Monette, Wainstainer, Cyr and Tremblay, according to Tremblay's confession.

On one occasion at Lalumiere's house there was talk of getting money, the confession states, Desjardines, the detective, handed over a cheque for $25, which Lalumiere took. Lalumiere seemed to have money and from Tremblay's confession, he understood that the money came from a priest. Tremblay explained that the priest was giving the money to aid in the meetings, but the priest did not know what was behind it.

EXAMPLES OF HOW SUBMARINES ARE DISPOSED OF

BRITISH ADMIRALTY TELLS HOW U-BOAT WAS SUNK

In One Case German Crew Made Pretense of Surrendering and Firing Ceased, But When They Attempted to Escape Their Submarine Was Sunk.

London, Sept. 14.—Stories of some recent successes of the British navy against German submarines were told to the public tonight in a series of brief descriptions of eight encounters in which eight, and possibly nine U-boats were accounted for.

Description of Two Encounters.

From one of our auxiliary naval forces a torpedo was seen approaching the starboard beam. It jumped out of the water when a hundred yards off and struck the engine near the water-line, making a large rent and flooding several compartments. A starboard lifeboat was blown into the air, pieces landing on the wireless aerial.

V. A. D. MEETING.

A meeting of the V. A. D. was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. G. A. Kuhring in the chair, assisted by Miss Stella Payson, assistant commandant. Miss Kathleen Sturdee reported on the work of the work of several of the out of town workers who have given worthy service for some weeks. Miss Ellis Morgan and Miss Ethel Purdy were appointed nursing officers to direct the work of the order in the St. James' Hospital and in the Army Hospital respectively. The new work taken up in connection with the Army Hospital was discussed and offers of service from members of the order were listed. A number of these under the direction of Miss Ellis Morgan will assist the matron in preparation for the reception of convalescent soldiers who are expected on Monday. A number of the members of the order will also assist the Women's Canadian Club on Tuesday the 25th inst. when the Army Hosed and oil squirting from its side and the crew came on deck and waved their hands. At this sign of surrender, "cease fire" was ordered, whereupon the enemy started to make off at a fair speed, hoping to disappear in the mist. Fire again was opened, a loud explosion took place, the enemy and falling over on his side, the enemy sank.

"One of our submarines sighted an enemy submarine on the starboard bow and fired, but after missing him through a periscope for a few minutes lost sight of him. Our boat returned to the surface again and three hours later saw the enemy on the starboard beam, two or three miles away.

"Our boat dived to attack, but the enemy altered his course and again became invisible. His apparent objective being conjectured, our course was altered in the hope of cutting him off and eventually again he was detected on the port bow, steering as surmised. Our course was altered as necessary and when a favorable position was secured, a torpedo was fired. A splash was observed close to his stern and a few seconds later the enemy was seen with his stern out of water, smoke hanging around it and the conning tower half submerged. A minute or two later he disappeared."

A DARING THEF STEALS AN AUTOMOBILE TIRE IN FRONT OF ROYAL HOTEL

Cuts Strap on Side of Car and Removes Tire in Full View of Pedestrians—Was Brand New Tire.

With nerve unimpaired, some unknown person made a clean get-away with a brand new automobile tire belonging to N. J. Cabelda of First St. The thief did not await for his ally, "darkness" to assist him in his work, but in the bright glow of the light above the ladies' entrance to the Royal Hotel on German street, did he accomplish his work. Mr. Cabelda told The Standard last night that he was in the Royal in conversation with his employer, who was visiting in the city and left his car, a runabout, outside the ladies' entrance on German St. On the side of the car was attached a new tire. It was firmly strapped in brackets as are used for the purpose. He came out of the hotel with his employer and drove him to the depot. On his return he noticed that the tire had been taken off. The thief did not stop to unstrap the tire, but slashed the strap with a knife.

Mr. Cabelda stated that night before last, while he was in the hotel an attempt had been made to remove the tire, but the party fearing detection on the approach of someone had left the straps unbuttoned, but had not time to remove the tire.

Although the exact time of the theft is not known, Mr. Cabelda has reason to believe that it was some time after 9 o'clock.

Whether someone has taken up this business of removing spare tires from automobiles is an uncertainty, but on account of two attempts being made on the car owned by Mr. Cabelda, it looks as though the party has instituted a new profession.

New York, Sept. 14.—The Tribune today publishes the following despatch from Woodstock, N. SOUTH NELSON WOMAN GETS WORD FROM FRANCE

Mrs. Jeremiah Hanley Informed of Death of Her Brother, Private Warren.

Mrs. Jeremiah Hanley of South Nelson has received the following letters concerning her brother, Pte. Herbert J. Warren of the 56th:

Dressing Station, France, Aug. 17, 1917. Dear Mrs. Hanley: I saw your brave brother at the dressing station yesterday just after he was wounded. He had a machine gun bullet through the head but seemed in excellent spirits. He says he will write to you after he gets settled in the hospital.

Yours very sincerely, F. S. PORTER, Chaplain.

Care of A. D. C. S. Liverpool Hospital, K Ward, A. F. 6, SXT, B. E. F., Aug. 20th, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Hanley, I am writing on behalf of your brother, Pte. Warren, who has been a patient in the above hospital for the past three days.

No doubt the war office will have notified you of the fact that he has been wounded, but Canada is so far away and it takes such a long time for a letter to come through, so that I am sure you must be anxious about him.

His wounds, I regret to say, are of rather a serious nature, a shrapnel bullet through the head, but so far he is progressing favorably, and I feel sure that if nothing unforeseen occurs he will be alright. He is quite conscious, but is unable to use his arm, but he wishes me to tell you he is better today, is very comfortable and that he will write you shortly.

I regret I cannot write you a more lengthy letter, but we are very busy and there are too many to write for after my day's work amongst them is finished, but I can assure you his pleasure to be able to do so much for the boys who all do so much more for us.

May I express my sympathy, I always feel so sorry for the poor fellows who are so very far away and these anxious days must be terrible, but I trust you won't worry too much about your brother, so that everything possible will be done for him, and I think he will soon be able to travel to England. I will write you again as soon as possible.

Yours very sincerely, SISTER M. I. WILSON, K Ward, Liverpool Hospital, A. F. 6, SXT, B. E. F., Aug. 23rd, 1917.

Dear Mrs. Hanley, It is with deep regret that I have to inform you of the death of your brother, Pte. Warren of the Canadian Regiment. I wrote you a few days ago in the hope that he would recover but head wounds are always of a serious and uncertain character, and unfortunately your poor brother's was fatal.

For the first three days he seemed to slightly improve. He talked to me and there are too many to write for after my day's work amongst them is finished, but I can assure you his pleasure to be able to do so much for the boys who all do so much more for us.

Everything possible will be done for him, and I think he will soon be able to travel to England. I will write you again as soon as possible.

Yours with deepest sympathy, SISTER MOLLY WILSON, Sister in Charge of K Ward.

Everything possible will be done for him, and I think he will soon be able to travel to England. I will write you again as soon as possible.

Dear Mrs. Hanley, It is with deep regret that I have to inform you of the death of your brother, Pte. Warren of the Canadian regiment. I wrote you a few days ago in the hope that he would recover but head wounds are always of a serious and uncertain character, and unfortunately your poor brother's was fatal.

For the first three days he seemed to slightly improve. He talked to me of his regiment and his friends in Canada, but on the morning of the fourth day I noticed he was not near so bright. He had developed acute meningitis and died within twenty-four hours. He was unconscious for the last sixteen hours, so his sufferings were unknown to him.

We are burying him today in a dear little cemetery and a small cross with his name, etc., on it, will mark the resting place of another of Canada's brave boys.

Please accept my deepest sympathy in this your great sorrow. He was a brave boy, who bore his wound with great fortitude.

May I add that everything possible was done for him but his tolls were over here and God called him home. Yours with deepest sympathy, SISTER MOLLY WILSON, Sister in Charge of K Ward, FINANCIAL PRESS.

FIRST CONTINGENT MAN FAVORS ENFORCEMENT CONSCRIPTION BILL

In Letter Recently Received—Pays Tribute to French Priests—Tells of Good Work of Kings County Boy.

A letter lately received gives some idea of the feeling of the "boys" in France about conscription, and whether they consider it necessary or not. The writer who went across with Major, now Lieut.-Col. F. C. Magee, tells also of the heroic work of the French priests and the enviable record made by a Kings county boy, "Fighting Joe" O'Regan, who enlisted as a private in a western battalion and is now acting Major and the winner of two decorations.

The letter follows: "Somewhere in France," Aug. 16th, 1917. Just a few lines to let you know that I am receiving your papers all O. K., and am glad to get them again. Well, it looks as if they are going to have conscription in Canada at last, but will they enforce it, that is the question. When they let men like Bourassa, Seguin and Mayor Martin, get up in public and make such speeches as they do, nothing more than high treason. If they have not power to arrest them now they will never dare to enforce conscription at any time.

We have all criticised "Uncle Sam" in the past, but now we have to take our hats off to him, for the way he brought in conscription, and is enforcing it too, with the large foreign population to deal with, and none of them dare to get up and make a speech like these men in Quebec have just done, and have been doing ever since the war started.

Yet what French-Canadians that are out here have done fine work, and made a great name for themselves, and they should have credit for what they have done. They must be ashamed of their pals left behind, for there would be no need of conscription in Canada at all if Quebec had done as well as the rest of Canada has done. Well, all I can say is now is the time, for France will not help them now, you may be sure, for what claim they ever did have on France's protection they have forfeited in not coming to her assistance now. They disown both France and England and the English language compulsory in all schools throughout the Dominion, the same as they have in the United States, and then fifty years from now there would be no two elements in the population of Canada the same as today.

I see petitions from some small

Do Your Ears Ring With Head Noises?

Tells Simple, Harmless Way to Overcome this Trouble at Home and Improve Hearing 100 Per cent. in Many Instances.

Thousands of people are constantly troubled with buzzing, ringing, rumbling noises in their head and ears, are hard of hearing and fear the day when partial or total deafness may be their lot.

Such cases even though of long standing are not hopeless as a simple home prescription—used daily has shown it possible in many instances to overcome the head and ear noises in less than ten days and to restore clear, distinct hearing in less than thirty.

Get from any druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (double strength) which costs about 90 cents. Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 oz. granulated sugar. Stir until dissolved and then take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmitin is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tube, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

NOTE—While Parmitin is widely used in the treatment of catarrh people who suffer from head noises or defective hearing, should be certain to get it in the special (double strength) form especially designed for treating such cases.

since the beginning of the war none will ever figure higher than that of the Roman Catholic Priests upon the battlefields of France. It would be worth while for everybody to get that book which has been published entitled "The Fighting Priests of France," and they would have something worth reading.

I see the Sussex "Record" keeps mentioning a few of the boys out here, yet there is one who has done better than any of the others, so far, who has never been mentioned at all and that is "Joe" O'Regan. He enlisted in a western battalion as a private, got to be sergeant, then Sergeant-Major, winning the Military Medal last June a year ago in the Ypres salient for carrying out the wounded under heavy shell fire. He also got his commission, and as a Lieutenant he went to the Somme in command of a platoon where he did such fine work on a bombing raid that he received the Military Cross (an officer's decoration for very great bravery), and for Ypres Ridge he has been promoted to captain, and is now acting Major in command of a company. By the officers and men of his battalion he is known as "Fighting Joe." Yet I do not believe that his own people know about the good work he has done.

Well, I will close now, hoping to hear from you soon. Regards to all at home. ROY.

"Onward With God!" Cries Kaiser While Hungry Austria Clamors for Peace

Will Russia or Austria be the first to collapse under the hammering of the enemy legions without and the discord of quarrelling forces within? Some editors even think the reply to this question will decide the war. While Russia staggers under the loss of Riga, the demoralization of her armies, and the desperate confusion of her internal affairs, Austria recoils before Italy's inexorable offensive and her hungry people clamor for an early peace.

If Germany can force Russia into a separate peace, she opens for herself a vast reservoir of desperately needed supplies, doubles the number of men available for her Western battle-lines, and increases tremendously the difficulty of the task to which America is pledged. On the other hand, if Italy brings Austria to her knees, Germany is cut off from Turkey and Bulgaria, her Pan-Germanic dream is shattered and peace with victory is brought immeasurably nearer for the United States and her Allies.

"The Digest" Breaks Down Antiquated Barriers

It is only by learning to understand one another that men or nations can achieve a real peace. All wars, national, social, or personal, spring from lack of comprehension. The man or woman who strives to see things as they look to the other side—is, in his or her small way, helping to hasten the coming day when all resort to violence may be as obsolete as the dodo. The leading pioneer in this direction among current periodicals is THE LITERARY DIGEST, published not exclusively for the rich man or the poor man, not for the materialist or the pacifist, not for the alien or the native-born, but for all of these alike. It strives to present all viewpoints upon the great questions of our time without bias. It quotes from all periodicals freely and impartially. Read it and learn to understand your fellow man.

PATRIOTISM OR CONVENTIONALISM.
From One Woman's Point of View.

Ever since the war began there has been a question in the minds of thoughtful women as to the wearing of mourning for those who have given their lives in the great cause of freedom.

It is of course a matter which must be left entirely to personal taste, but many feel that it would have been a glorious thing if some general sign had been adopted by all as was suggested in England at the commencement of the struggle. A number of the British women wore on their arm a purple band signifying that they were nearly related to a soldier who had made the supreme sacrifice. Just as the noblest women omitted the customary period of retirement, those who were heads of great patriotic societies keeping right on with their work, knowing that this was what their men would have expected of them, so they did not drape themselves with black clothes and crepe but wore their customary garments realising that the time has passed for sorrow to be expressed by crepe.

I know there is plenty to be said on the other side but when one stops to think it seems reasonable enough. Take the case of a poor widow, the mainstay of the family gone. Shall she immediately spend her first pension cheque for black clothes, discarding those she already possesses? Even in ordinary times bereavement is usually preceded by illness and there comes the additional cost of new and expensive clothes for the whole family.

There are also so many rules which are regulated by fashion alone. Dull silk is mourning, shiny silk is not. Velvet, though the deepest black is not considered mourning at all, in the conventional sense of the word. Can one properly express one's grief by silk or velvet clothes? Isn't it beneath the dignity of sorrow to even try to show to the world how we mourn?

Then too many people dislike black and it has a depressing effect upon others. Are we to be selfish in our grief? A well known Canadian statesman asked his daughter not to wear black clothes for him, at least not in the home, and others have expressed themselves in the same way. It is said to protect one, but from what? Do people need to be protected from the kindly feeling and sympathy of others?

In these times of the conservation of every thing we have for the nation's needs and that we may be able to share with others, shall we be conventional or shall we be patriots?

PATRIOTIC WORK AT ST. ANDREWS BY THE SEA.

A St. John visitor to St. Andrews speaks with enthusiasm of the patriotic work done at that town during the summer. The Red Cross Society there under the leadership of Mrs. G. F. Stickney, is a very active branch and the members bring in a large number of socks and garments for forwarding. St. Andrews has sent many of her sons and the women will see that they do not lack for comforts.

The Canadian Club at St. Andrews, of which Mrs. Fred Anderson is president, have taken over the collecting of the waste paper & barn has been donated to the club which is open one day in the week for the reception of the paper. It is not held in St. Andrews but is shipped to Ottawa. Last year $100 was made from this branch of the work.

Many entertainments, the proceeds going to patriotic funds, were held during the summer. A Montreal Chapter, I.O.D.E., several of whose members were summering at St. Andrews, gave one delightful affair, half the sum realized being handed over to the St. Andrews Red Cross Society who thus became richer by $100.

Knitting was much in evidence on the hotel verandah and on the lawns, showing that the summer visitors were not taking a vacation from war work.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Martin's in the Baptist church, on Sept. 8th, P. M., when Miss Annie May McGeech of St. Martin's was united in marriage to Bert Allan Gamble of Fairview. The church was very beautifully decorated for the occasion and the Rev. W. A. Snelling, pastor of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony. As both the young couple are very popular and very highly respected, a large number of people gathered to witness the ceremony taking the church to its utmost capacity.

The bride was attired in white silk with bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and maiden-hair ferns tied with a bow and streamer of white ribbon. Miss Gordon (Gamble) was bridesmaid and Mr. Chester Black supported the groom.

After the ceremony Mr. McIntyre was waiting with his prettily decorated car and the happy couple on leaving the church amid showers of rice, returned to the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gamble, Fairview, where a very dainty supper was served to about 30 guests. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Brown of Boston, Miss Georgia Brown of Lawrence, Mass., and Mr. Everett Hope of St. John.

The presents were numerous and costly. The bride, who had been organist in the Baptist church for some years, was presented with $27.75 in recognition of her faithful services. Mr. and Mrs. Gamble will reside in St. Martin's.

CASTE, THAT BARRIER OF PRETENSE, built on false pride and the honors of birth has brought much of earth's unhappiness. But love is too sacred to be cheated of its fulfillment. Occasionally a man or a woman, strong enough to tread down the bars that convention has set between the rich and the poor, reaches the world that caste is the creed of fools, the safeguard of weaklings. To see "Caste" is to see a world-famous play that has become a classic of the modern theatre—a drama that every man and woman will be the better for having witnessed.

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H. M. The King. TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

ITALY'S GREAT VICTORY.

After some of the most stubborn and sanguinary fighting the war has produced, the commander-in-chief of the Italian armies announces the attainment of the first of Italy's great objectives. Mount San Gabriele has been taken and the Italians are now in possession of all the points commanding the Gorizia plateau. The capture of Gorizia (Gorizia), a mountain town on the Isonzo river, some twenty-three miles from Trieste, is next to be expected and then it is but a comparatively short march to Austria's chief Adriatic seaport.

The capture of Mount San Gabriele comes as the culminating triumph of a series of battles probably unparalleled in history. Most of the fighting has been done high in the mountains, in a region extremely difficult of access, where problems of army transport were greater than at any other point in the war area. The positions were originally held by the Austrians and to capture them the Italians had to transport men, munitions and heavy guns through mountain passes, to bridge chasms, surmount peaks and all the time maintain a stiff offensive against the enemy. When these things are remembered the character and importance of the recent achievement may be imagined.

The way to Trieste now lies before the invading army and with Trieste in Italian hands a sea-way will be opened for the landing of men and munitions in the Austrian territory. Trieste may well be a base from which the Italians may incept an advance upon Vienna itself. While the Austrian capital is some 225 miles from Trieste, it is not likely that the country between is strongly defended as the Austrians depended largely upon the strength of their defences in the mountains to protect them from an Italian invasion. Since her entry to war Italy has been fighting practically all the time on enemy soil. She has not yet met with a serious reverse. Every step in advance has been carefully prepared for before being attempted and the result is that while progress may have appeared slow when compared with the movement in other areas of conflict, the Italians have consolidated their gains and there is little fear that they will be forced to yield any of the positions they have won.

The Italian success comes at a good time. It should tend to lessen the pressure on the Russian armies in the vicinity of Riga for, if the Austrians are unable to hold Trieste, Germany must send troops to her ally's aid, or the hard fighting Italians will be knocking at the door of the Austrian capital, and Austria, a factor in the war, will be eliminated. Nothing of more importance than the capture of Mount San Gabriele has been reported for many months from any of the European battlefronts.

MARCEL EXPOSES LAURIER.

Two statements by Hon. Charles Marcell, in the House of Commons, yesterday afternoon, merit the closest attention of every patriotic Canadian. Discussing the War-time Elections Act, Mr. Marcell described it as "THE NATURAL SEQUEL TO THE MILITARY SERVICE BILL." As to the attitude of the people of Quebec toward the Military Service Bill he declared they "WILL OBEY IT UNTIL ITS REPEAL IS BROUGHT ABOUT."

Unwittingly Mr. Marcell, who is a French-Canadian, a Liberal, and a staunch Laurierite, has endorsed the view of the Government and has also exposed the Laurier purpose. The War-time Elections Act IS THE NATURAL SEQUEL TO THE Military Service measure. One is necessary to the success of the other. It is useless for the Government to enforce the Military Service measure and, by the selective draft process, fill the Canadian armies, if enemy aliens are permitted to elect a government whose first act will be to wipe the Military Service measure off the statute books and demobilize the force raised through its operation. Enemy aliens and slackers must not be permitted to seize control of Canada's affairs while 300,000 of our best and bravest citizens are out of the country. It is to prevent the possibility of such a thing that the Government has introduced the War-time Elections Act. Consequently, operation of the War-time Elections Act is necessary if the Military Service Act is to fulfill its purpose.

and he tells the House of Commons that those people will obey the Military Service measure UNTIL ITS REPEAL IS BROUGHT ABOUT. Who is to bring about this repeal? Certainly not the Government which introduced the measure and will enforce it. It is not the Borden Government for whom Mr. Marcell speaks. He is anticipating the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to power and doubtless has counselled his Quebec friends to obey the Military Service measure, at the same time comforting them with the assurance that "Sir Wilfrid will be premier after the next election and he will wipe this iniquitous act from the statute books. Obey it for a short time, to avoid friction and disorder, vote for the Liberal candidates, and you shall triumph later."

If things turn out as Mr. Marcell hopes, his promise to his Quebec friends will be carried out. There is no question but that if Sir Wilfrid Laurier becomes premier he will repeal the Military Service Act and Canada's war effort will slacken and cease. It is upon such a plank that he hopes to carry Quebec and assisted by enemy aliens in other parts of Canada, hopes to secure a majority in the Canadian Parliament. There has always been a suspicion that in his declarations of loyalty Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not been sincere, that he is prepared to play the game of Quebec in preference to the game of the Empire, but it has remained for his friend and lieutenant from Bonaventure to call public attention to it. By his statement in the House of Commons yesterday, Hon. Mr. Marcell performed a public service of some magnitude. That he did it unintentionally should not detract from the credit due to him for exposing what patriotic Canadians must regard as a very real danger. HERE IS THE ESSENTIAL FACT, LAURIER'S SUCCESS MEANS THE REPEAL OF THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT AND THE SLACKENING OF CANADA'S WAR EFFORT.

ISH KA BIBBLE.

Goodness gracious! Did any of you see the whole column which the Telegraph devoted to this journal of the home and freedsie yesterday? Neighbor dear, we are grateful for the publicity, for though the general public evidently does not appreciate the value of your sheet,—judging from the amount of advertising you carry,—we do. And we know that even in view of the death of paid copy which you are now experiencing, it costs you something to indulge in such prodigality of white paper. But why, oh why, in spending so much time and thought on your essay; why, when endeavoring with such apparent eagerness to explain your failure to capture the "lion's share" of business, did you fail to draw attention to the obvious point? The little thing we mean is this—your whole argument was intended to show that the advertiser is spending a few days in St. John, N. B., or Waterloo, Ont., thinking the Telegraph is a little better medium than is The Standard. Let him think so. He gets his information in whatever manner best suits his own ideas. But the man at home, the merchant right here where we both live, is, perhaps, able to keep better posted on this subject. Let us see what he thinks.

Now we have not bothered about classifying national and foreign advertising. We measure the total. But taking the Telegraph's own figures as being absolutely correct for "the five days ending with September 8th (and omitting Labor Day when no papers were published)" we find that national—that is outside or foreign—advertising was printed as follows:

Telegraph 1,423 inches. Standard 940 inches. These figures may not be correct for they are prepared by the Telegraph, but we assume that in this case an exception has been made in the ordinary policy of that paper. In these five days the total advertising, full rate in so far as The Standard is concerned, carried in the two papers was:

Telegraph 2,086 inches. Standard 2,569 inches. Now deduct from these totals the amount of space taken by men who are not on the ground, who do not know local conditions, and have only a second-hand knowledge of the merits of these papers, and we find that local advertising paid for by our home merchants was carried during these five days as follows:

FORTY CANADIANS BLOWN UP WHILE IN SHAM FIGHT

Practice Mine Killed Ten—Men Misunderstood Order Given.

London, September 14.—During manoeuvres under active service conditions at a camp near Borden a party of Canadian soldiers were blown up by a mine, and ten were killed, or have since died of their injuries, and thirty injured are in the hospital. The inquiries will be opened tomorrow.

The men were undergoing musketry and bombing training. Their instructors were men who fought with the first Canadian contingents in the early days of the war, and who knew the risk and the danger of such training.

About nine o'clock at night some 400 of the Canadians moved out of camp to participate in night manoeuvres, which included an advance over a mined area and the storming of mine craters. At the outset all went well. Mine after mine was exploded, and the men advanced after each explosion to drive home the attack. Eight mines had been exploded, and there remained but one more.

Sharp Test of Discipline. Various orders for the advance were given, and half the men carried them out correctly. But the remainder appear to have misunderstood the instructions, and to have swarmed over the mined area, and there remained but one more.

"It went off with a tremendous roar," one of the survivors said, "and men were hurled into the air in all directions." For an instant, in the darkness and uncertainty, confusion prevailed, and men were hurled into the air in all directions.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, Sept. 14.—Miss Edith Houghton of Boston, who is visiting relatives in Dorchester, spent the weekend in town, guest of the Misses Johnson.

Allison all of Halifax, were in Sackville Monday afternoon and took a hand at golf on the Sackville course. The visitors played against G. H. MacKenzie, Prof. DeBarres, Thos. Murray and A. W. Bennett. The local players won by a substantial margin.

Little Benny's Note Book

Me and Puda Simkins and Sid Hunt and Sid's quiet little cousin Joe was sitting on my front steps, and we started, we see who could make up the best riddle. Puda making the first one, being, Why is a skollington of a dead horse like a chair? Wich we all gave it up, and Puda sed, Because its got 4 legs and cant jump. Being pretty good of a riddle, and then I made one up, being, Wat gets bigger and bigger the more you eat it? Wich they all tried to guess and coodent, and I sed, Chewing gum. How do you make that out, how does it get bigger and bigger? sed Puda Simkins. Because you keep on putting exter peeces in, I sed. Wich so you do, if youve got them, and then Sid Hunt made up one, being, Wat kind of a animal is it you sint afraid of unless it stands on its head? Wich nobody coodent guess, and Sid sed, A male. Go on, a male sint a animal, I sed. Well it sint a vegetable, is it? sed Puda. Wich Sid's quiet little cousin had bin setting there all the time not even trying to guess, and Puda sed to him, Go ahead, Joe, its your turn, you make one up. Wich he did, being, Why is a broak celler window like a little dog with one wit foot? Wich we all tried to think of an asner and gave it up, Puda saying, G, thats a hard one, wats the asner, Joe? There sint any asner, thats wat makes it so hard, sed Joe. Being a heck of a riddle, and we got up a game of leader for dorsey.

CARLETON COUNTY MOTHER

WELLINGLY GIVES HER SON TO THE CAUSE OF EMPIRE

Every Man in Mrs. Alice Sears' Family is in Service in Some Capacity—Mother Sees Her Son's Name in Casualty List as Killed.

There are few mothers in Canada who have sacrificed their own feelings in the service of the Empire as has Mrs. Alice R. Sears, of Centerville, Carleton Co. A few days ago the casualty list, issued from Ottawa, contained the announcement of the death of her son, and Mrs. Sears writes to The Standard as follows: "On opening my paper last evening the first thing I saw was the reference to the death of Sergeant George Sears. My son had been missing since October 8th last and I think I hardly realized how much I had hoped until I saw that notice which seemed to kill all hope. I am sending you a copy of a letter received from an R.C.R. officer. There is one small error in your notice—may I correct it? My son was married to a Miss Vennor and she lives on Lansdowne Road, Fredericton, and has no children. My boy comes of a fighting family. He has two brothers in the C.F.A. first contingent. His father has been in England over a year with the 224th Forestry Corps. His youngest brother, although only fourteen, served with the 28th for six months, being discharged as under age and then tried to join three other units. I also have a son-in-law in the 104th, a brother in the R.G.A. Imperial forces, another in the navy, and two nephews with the West Kent. In fact, every man of my family is serving in some capacity. I am very proud of my men though I am not brave myself for I do not give them willingly. And, Oh, I am so glad you came out on the side of conscription." The following letter from Lieut. A. Nichol to Mrs. Sears is enclosed: "Dear Madam: "It is with deepest regret that I have to announce that your soldier son, R.C.R., is reported missing. I have made all inquiries possible. Your son was in front of his platoon when the attack was carried out, fighting and encouraging his men like the good soldier that he was. One gleam of hope I can give you is that it is known that several of our officers and men were cut off and taken prisoners. Your son was not seen to fall so I think it reasonable to live in hope of some news turning up yet."

Always Had Headaches

Liver Was Torpid and Bilious Spells Brought Sick Headaches—Lost Much Time, But is Now Completely Cured.

Newtown, N. B., Sept. 14.—Here is convincing evidence that how much you may suffer from liver trouble and consequent biliousness there is cure in the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Overeating is the most common cause of sluggish liver action. You lose your appetite, have distressing bilious spells, usually accompanied by headache and vomiting, the bowels become irregular, constipation and looseness alternating, digestion is upset and you get irritable and downhearted.

No treatment so quickly awakens the action of the liver and bowels as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. For this reason this medicine is wonderfully popular and has enormous sales. Mr. Charles R. Tait, Newville, N. B., writes: "I was nearly always troubled with headaches, and would often have to stop work a day or two. I lost many a night's sleep every month with bilious sick headaches, and although I tried doctors' medicines, it was without success. When I had these headaches I would vomit, and could keep nothing on my stomach. "I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills from G. M. Fairweather, Druggist, of Sussex, N. B., and after taking one box I was so much relieved that I continued to take them until I am now completely cured. My advice to anyone suffering from sick headaches is to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and be completely cured."

Mr. A. S. Maca, J. P., endorses the above statement and says: "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Charles R. Tait, and believe his statement in every way to be true and correct." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Substitutes will only disappoint. Insist on getting what you ask for.

CHATHAM KNOWS IT. The Liberal Chatham Gazette thus exposes the unrelatable and peevish old lady of Canterbury street. "A report in the St. John Telegraph of recent date that Freeman Blakeley, son of Mrs. Stillman Blakeley, of this town had been reported wounded, gave hopes to this pointer that his friends that after being missing for nearly two years he was, by some providential means, still alive. "Unfortunately, like so many reports in that paper, there was absolutely no truth in it. The only word Mrs. Blakeley has received of late being a telegram from an officer at the front, that he felt sure there was no possibility of Freeman being alive. "Freeman and Carter McLeod, of this town, were both members of the gallant 26th, and both have been reported missing with later word from fellow soldiers and officers that there seemed no possibility of escape for them."

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

ANIGOROUS UPTURN IN MARKET

Wall Street Pipes Better Tune—Even Much Despised Roubles of Russia Take a Boost and New Haven Stock Actually Rises.

New York, Sept. 14.—A broad and vigorous upturn in stocks today offset in part the losses sustained in the last few days. At the top prices there was a representative showing of advances ranging from 1 to 3 points and although these gains were scaled down on late realizing, the net result was a material improvement of position. Total sales were 416,000 shares.

The advance was accompanied by a revival of bullish interest, and outside buying increased thereby. There was some feeling that the bears had overreached themselves in their recent attacks on speculative favoritism and the scarcity of these attacks forced the shorts to raise their bids rapidly to meet their requirements. Liquidation of investment shares was suspended and issues which have developed marked weakness recently were prominent in the rise.

Rubles Stronger.

The upward swing was facilitated by the announcement from Petrograd that the insurrectionary movement had been mastered by the provisional government. In the exchange market rubles responded strongly. The rate was advanced to 17 cents as compared with the record low of 13 1/2.

In the railroad list, New Haven, conspicuously heavy, recently, was sold at an advance of more than 3 points. Reading, Delaware and Hudson, St. Paul, Canadian Pacific and other recent weak features were in good demand at higher prices. In the industrial section there was an active inquiry for the Coppers, Steels, Oils, Motors, Equipment and Shipping shares.

A decidedly better tone prevailed in the bond market. Active issues averaged higher, although the bid and asked quotations for some of the less prominent lines continued to be wide apart. Liberty bonds reflected a brisk investment demand, with large transactions at par after earlier sales of 99.94. Total sales of bonds (par value) $5,550,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

FLOUR MILLS FACED WITH A SHUT-DOWN

Farmers of United States Northwest Decline to Accept Government Prices for Their Wheat—Steel Plants Closing Furnaces.

New York, Sept. 14.—The administration's economic price fixing policy seems to have already run up against several snags. Mills cannot get grain to grind. A serious shortage is being felt. The farmers say—"I don't care for Mr. Hoover's price. I grew this grain myself on my own farm, I own it and I will keep it." Steel plants are closing furnaces all over the country, they cannot obtain the necessary supplies of coke at the government's prices.

GERMANY'S PEACE TERMS SENDS CORN DOWNWARD

General Warmth and Sunshine in the West Also Factor in Chicago Market.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—General selling of corn resulted today from assertions that Germany's peace terms had been handed to the Pope. The market which for the most part had been advancing until the peace talk became current turned then sharply downward. Closing quotations were heavy 1/2 to 1 1/2 cent, lower at 1.15 1/2 to 1.16 1/2, December, and 1.16 1/2 to 1.18 1/2, May. Oats finished 1/2 to 3/4 cent down. In provisions the outcome ranged from 30c decline to a rise of 30c.

DOMINION BRIDGE UP TWO POINTS

Canadian Cottons and Steel of Canada at New Low Mark—Course of Stocks Generally Uncertain.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 14.—The course of Canadian stocks continued today as uncertain as in the early part of the week. The usual leaders were neglected for the most part. There were no indications of reviving demand. But conversely very little stock was pressing for sale. Among specialties some contrary tendencies developed, but on the whole these were more in the direction of selling than buying and tended to give the market rather a heavy appearance.

NEWS SUMMARY.

New York, Sept. 14.—Lord Reading confers with Secretary McAdoo relative to Great Britain's and Allies needs; expected to remain indefinitely in Washington.

Court dismisses temporary restraining order against Bethlehem Steel and meeting will be held today to vote on proposed issue of new stock.

DAME FORTUNE SMILES ON NOVA SCOTIA'S BIG FALL FAIR

Fine Weather and a Goodly Attendance for the 1917 Provincial Exhibition—Features of the Exhibits—The Main Building Has Many Fine Displays and the Departmental Buildings Are All Well Worth Inspecting.

The Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition is fortunate in having a smiling sky and a glorious flood of sunshine. To start with, the 1917 Exhibition is well worth while. All the buildings are filled with exhibits except in the case of the cattle sheds, with their large capacity, and an odd corner in the main building.

An Enjoyable Day.
The number of spectators present is well in excess of the average and with the fairly pleasant weather they spend an enjoyable time. While the chief purpose of the show is of course the exhibits themselves, the afternoon patrons are mostly to be found enjoying the "midway" or giving their attention to the horse races. In the evenings the various buildings are well patronized, while the other attractions on the grounds are going full blast.

Hundreds of electric, coupled with the rays of the military searchlights, make the grounds as light as day, and cut into bold relief the "barkers" in front of the tented shows as they tell of the wonders to be seen inside. The mechanical features are crowded to the utmost, and the notes of the callopo and bands hold the spectators in front of the tents in crowds.

Agricultural Exhibition.
While the lure of the "Midway" is the predominant feature, the exhibits receive their share of attention, especially the agricultural section which is better than usual, owing no doubt to the universal cry of production. One half of this building is devoted to the school exhibits which are a decided credit to the children who for the time turned farmer and produced what they have on show. Rosy skinned potatoes, polished to a point where they bear little resemblance to the humble tuber were in the majority, but large squash and vegetables of all descriptions were

E. A. WILSON, BACK FROM TORONTO THINKS MORE HIGHLY THAN EVER OF HALIFAX AS A PLACE FOR RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS

(Halifax Herald.)
E. A. Wilson, vice-president of the Nova Scotia Furnishing company, fresh as paint after a trip to Toronto, and enthusiastic over the Provincial Fair there, blew into the Herald Office yesterday and remarked generally that the net result of his trip was fresh conviction that Halifax was a fine place to live in, and Halifax business enterprise second to none of which he saw evidence while away. "I visited many of the large factories," said he, "and a number of the large stores, for it is an important part of business enterprise, I think, to see what is being done by other business houses than your own—competition cannot be successfully met and a high water standard maintained if the business man closes his eyes to what others are doing. However, I must say I saw nothing with which our Halifax business houses cannot compete—they can hold their own with the best I saw while away, and I saw much that was superlatively good."

Mr. Wilson, as intimated, visited the Knight, Chevrolet, Gray-Dort, Chambers and Overland. In the mines building, there are many things which will look familiar to the observer, as steel billets, ingots and the hundred and one forms which manufactured iron may take vary but little, but both in manufactured goods and in the raw ores, the exhibit is of more than usual interest at the present time, when iron is such a vital necessity to our existence both at home and overseas. The exhibit of shells is of timely interest, showing the various sizes of the projectiles which go to feed the great guns overseas. Some splendid specimens of auriferous quartz heavily veined with gold are also on show.

The Dairy Department.
In the dairy department, which is a splendid one, W. A. McKay, Provincial Dairy Superintendent, will commence judging this morning. In the same building are interesting exhibits of wool from the raw article to the finished goods ready for the market, while Prof. L. C. Hannon, Chemist of the Agricultural College has prepared a display of soils, fertilizers, etc., giving proof of the beneficial effects of limestone on the growth of crops. —Halifax Herald.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE.

Effective Monday, September 24th, all the St. John Sub-Division Suburban trains will be withdrawn excepting train No. 106 leaving St. John at 5.10 p. m. (Atlantic) and train No. 106 arriving St. John at 8.55 a. m. (Atlantic).

This Piano House Established in 1873

OLDEST PIANO HOUSE IN HALIFAX

The Business of "THE JOHNSON PIANO COMPANY" was started in 1873 by W. H. Johnson, the present head of the Firm, and is one of the oldest piano Houses in Canada; and so far as we know the ONLY House in which the same head has continued so long.

We have sold over 15,000 pianos and organs and we must have pleased most of our customers or we would not be here today to tell you our story. We have never practised nor believed in sensational advertising or illegitimate methods.

The pianos which we control and sell are proof of the superiority of our stock, namely, such makes as

"Gerhard Heintzman" "New Scale Williams" "Haines Bros." "Marshall & Wendell" "Bell" and the famous "Bell Organ" also the "Doherty Piano and Organs"

"PHONOGRAPHS"

The Phonograph has become a musical instrument of great merit. Some people who may have been prejudiced against "Phonographs" and "Talking Machines" will be delighted when they see and hear what we are offering in this line; such as the "SONORA," "GERHARD HEINTZMAN," "COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA" & "PATHEPHONE"

"Pianos and Phonographs a Necessity"

The United States Senate after careful deliberation decided not to tax Pianos and Phonographs under the Heading of Luxuries as they were a necessity.

"PRESENT AND FUTURE PRICES"

We contracted and purchased quite a heavy stock before the late great advance in prices and have still some of this stock on hand.

If you are thinking of purchasing a piano or phonograph within the next year or so, it will pay you to see us NOW.

VISITORS AT THE HALIFAX EXHIBITION ARE INVITED TO CALL AND EXAMINE OUR STOCK whether they intend to purchase or not.

They can see us at our ware-room, 168 HOLLIS STREET, or at our usual place at the Exhibition Building, North of West Entrance.

RED CROSS BOOTH AT THE BIG FAIR

Is One of the Chief Attractions in the Main Building—Red Cross Notes.

One of the leading features of the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition is the Red Cross booth. This is even more attractive than that of last year. The booth is upstairs over the main door, a stairway at one side leading to it. Here there are knitting machines in operation, and Red Cross garments and articles of all kinds. Here, too, are field comforts for the men in the trenches and field, a fine display of salvers comforts for the men in the navy and mercantile marine, and the various articles for the "Yench War Relief." The Daughters of the Empire also have a display of useful articles of jewellery, furniture, made by convalescent homes, are the admiration of all.

Sample boxes sent to our boys turned in German camps, are shown, and any information regarding this branch of the work as well as all the other branches is gladly given with literature pertaining thereto.

An exceptional attraction is the demonstrations of Matron Graham, of Pine Hill, who has kindly consented to show just how a bed is made for an invalid, the changing of bed linen without discomfort to the patient, the dressing of wounds, etc.

Dartmouth Red Cross have a section of the booth for their display. All must visit this booth, and both set and bring information. Canada is asked to supply 300,000 Christmas stockings for men overseas. Of this number, Nova Scotia's share would be about 7,000.

Coal Miners Should Compare the Blood-Stirring Call of This American Labor Leader With the Disastrous Advice of Some Canadian Labor "Leaders"

(Halifax Herald.)
F. Farrington, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has issued the following stirring call to the laborers in the mines to remain at their posts and thus co-operate with the men who go abroad to fight the battles of democracy:

"Our country is at war. Forced to enter conflict that could no longer be avoided with safety to the liberties of the people of America and the democracies of the world, our country is now straining every energy in preparation to participate in the most appalling tragedy that has overtaken mankind since the beginning of time.

"The momentous decision of our government to throw the Nation's resources into this mighty conflict and to give of her sons, and of her wealth, to the cause of humanity, imposes upon every American and upon every man who has partaken of America's bounty the solemn obligation of loyalty doing their part to win victory for the cause America represents, no matter whether they be found as soldiers in the battle lines or as workers in industrial pursuits, and it is reasonable to expect that the government will not deal kindly with those who fail to respond in the fullest to that solemn obligation.

"It is my purpose to bring home to you, as impressive as I know how, your importance to the Nation in this time of stress. The full significance of this awful cataclysm that has overtaken the world and our relation thereto is as yet so scarcely realized, the thousands of our countrymen are now behind the battle lines, and myriads more are preparing to follow. These, our countrymen, the select of America, scholars, college men, professionals of all the arts and trades and science, sons of the rich and sons of the poor, men who love life as well as we, but who prefer liberty to life without liberty have made common cause and entered the lists in answer to the Nation's needs. These men, every one a hero, with the courage of Spartans, the souls of martyrs, will go to the battle grounds to face every death-dealing device human brain can devise for the destruction of man, and offer their lives in defence of democracy and the freedom of the peoples of the world, and they will do this with the full knowledge that millions of their kind have already been ruined physically and mentally and left to suffer a living death, while other millions have been blasted into bits and their shreds trampled under the muck and mire of this thundering inferno of death and destruction, and upon those who who stay at home will devolve the obligation of making it possible for those at the front to have a fighting chance.

"So that you may understand clearly how important you are to the success of the Allied armies, you should know that more than two years ago 240,000 British miners were enlisted under the colors of England. As a result, America's allies are now badly crippled by a shortage of coal and France and Italy in particular are now desperately calling for American coal. This condition will be made more severe by enlistments and possible drafts from the ranks of American miners. Men who are in a position to know, tell us that a more plentiful supply of coal is necessary to success. The essentials of war must be had. Coal is the basic essential and indispensable. Without a sufficient supply our soldiers will be inadequately equipped and denied of a fighting chance. Government bodies are employing extraordinary means in this time of stress, but as well to meet this urgent requirement and we can render no greater patriotic service to the cause of humanity than by co-operating with those who are working to that end.

"In suggesting that you co-operate with the men who go to the battle grounds, it is also intended that you shall be made clear to you that the practice of shutting down, and of suspending work under every conceivable pretext, must be stopped. It is also intended to point out to you that illegal restrictions, which curtail production, must be removed and that you must respect the laws of our union and continue at work as you are required to do by the provisions of our joint agreement.

"Surely this is not asking too much of those who will stay at home in the light of what will be endured by those who go to the battle grounds, must be stopped. It is also intended to point out to you that illegal restrictions, which curtail production, must be removed and that you must respect the laws of our union and continue at work as you are required to do by the provisions of our joint agreement.

"Surely this is not asking too much of those who will stay at home in the light of what will be endured by those who go to the battle grounds, must be stopped. It is also intended to point out to you that illegal restrictions, which curtail production, must be removed and that you must respect the laws of our union and continue at work as you are required to do by the provisions of our joint agreement.

"F. FARRINGTON, President."

Private J. P. Vaughan Tells of How He Escaped

Only Three of His Platoon Were The Trip Into Germany and Told Canadian Prisoners Told England—How Vaughan and Buried for Two Months—Told Narrow Escapes—Would Not Be Prisoners.

(Halifax Herald.)
Private John P. Vaughan, arrived in Halifax on Sunday, much to the delight of his relatives and friends, and is now with his parents, 144 Crediton street. It was there that he was found by a Halifax Herald reporter and after a little persuasion he consented to tell the story of his experiences in Germany.

Private Vaughan reached England with the 40th in October, 1915, and after some time at Bramshott was sent to France with the 8th Brigade machine gun section from which he was transferred to the 4th C. M. R. in action in the third battle of Ypres. On the second day of June, 1916, he received a shrapnel wound in the arm. First aid was applied and he stayed in the firing line. Then the Germans came on. They broke through Sanctuary Wood around to the left of Hill and back of the position held by the 4th C. M. R. which had gone into action 900 strong, only seventy-five of whom returned. The remainder were either killed or taken prisoners. In Vaughan's platoon only three were left alive.

"It was between two and three o'clock," said Vaughan, "when the Germans came over. They came in thousands and went right through us. They had already worked their way into the trench where I was. I was right over my head. These hand grenades look just like a potato masher. Then they rushed me and I didn't stop to argue. They showed me another way to help carry him along. We got him back to a grater where there was a Canadian doctor fixing up two other wounded Canadians.

"The two bombers couldn't speak English but they could make some sense. They showed us the trench and into took me back to their trench and I was a communication trench where I was kept till twenty were rounded up and then we were marched to German headquarters, where we were photographed. I don't know how many times and ways. When they started us on a photographing party they started us on a twenty-mile walk to Minden which we reached about ten o'clock that night. Up to this time they hadn't given us any grub. They put us in the stalls of a big brick stable and passed around a slice of black bread for each man. The bread was heavy and at first tasted sour but after a while it got used to it and was only sorry that there wasn't more. We laid down on the floor and it was about all in and soon we had brought in a lot more prisoners until we had two hundred all told in the stable.

"In the morning they lined us up and went through our pockets, taking our knives, fountain pens, note paper and nearly everything we had. They allowed us to keep our photographs and after a while they started on another ten-mile march in the direction of Uhlange. We reached a Belgian town and the Belgian people would follow us along the streets giving us something to eat. The Uhlange didn't stop them from doing this and we were mighty glad of the treat. Finally they got us into a big 'cink' and about three o'clock in the afternoon they gave us each a bowl of soup made of nothing else but potatoes and water.

"At six o'clock that evening we were put on board a train of box cars with side doors and plank seats. We were kept going all that night and until one o'clock next day without a bite to eat. Then they stopped at a station and allowed us to get off. They put out a strong guard, showed us the lavatory, and after a while they marched us into a big dining hall where we got a pot of potato soup. We were put back on the train again and travelled all night. At eight o'clock in the morning we arrived at Dulmen, in Westphalia, and were marched to a big prison camp where they gave us such a slice of black bread and some black coffee without sugar or milk and which we had to drink from our steel helmets.

"They took us to a bath house and we stripped for a bath. Our clothes were put in a big steam fumigating plant and we had to wait around naked for an hour. They were then taken to what was known as No. 3 Lager, all surrounded by barbed wire. Right opposite to us were a hundred British soldiers who had been taken prisoners in the battle of Jutland. We could talk across to them and give them the latest news we had and get some suggestions from them about the ranch we were in.

"By and by a German general arrived on the scene. He had an interpreter with him. He told us that we had only been soldiers since the beginning of the war and had not learned what discipline was. He said he proposed

Halifax Calls You Sept. 12th to 20th

Retaining all its great natural beauties of parks, waterways, gardens and drives that make it the very paradise of a vacationist, and along with its picturesqueness as a mighty storehouse of naval and military power, Halifax has also had a wonderful change in its business methods and commercial outlook during the past few years. It used to be sleepy old Halifax. There is not a more wide-awake city in the Dominion today, nor one in which the people are more eagerly reaching out to grasp all that the future holds for them. Halifax has undergone an immense change during the past few years, a change that means much to the City and to the Province of which it is the Capital, a change which the rest of Canada should know. There is a snap, a swing and an optimism to business in Halifax that there never was before.

This rebirth of Halifax is shown in two things—the mighty works which are now being carried out there and projected, great landmarks of progress which stand out for all to read; second, that more difficult thing to see, but far more significant—there has been a change in the whole attitude of the people, there is more of that co-operation among business men that is a first step to progress, there is more optimism, there is more confidence among the business men in the future of the City. Halifax today is a live-wire business city, with modern shops, latest goods in all lines, and keen for business.

First among the great landmarks of progress that stand out for all to see is the new Halifax terminals, well along to completion, costing millions of dollars and placing Halifax in the very front of the ocean ports of the world. Concrete piers over half a mile long have been constructed, beside which the largest ocean giant liners will look like pigmies; a stretch of ground has been levelled as a sunning yard, and a location for the handsome union station; a tunnel in many places scores of feet deep has been dug for miles through the solid rock as a roadbed to connect up the terminals by rail with the main line at Rockingham; and more railroad yards have been built at Rockingham for the accommodation of thousands of cars. All of these are preparations for the immense trade that will be handled at this empire port.

Next, the Imperial Oil Company is building a plant on Halifax Harbor that will cost nearly $3,000,000. Similar plants are being built at Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver, each at what this giant company thinks is the strategic point of the Maritime Provinces, of Upper Canada, of the Middle West, and of the Pacific Coast, respectively. The choosing of Halifax as a location is very, very significant.

Representatives of four or five of the largest shipbuilding companies in the world have been carefully going over the ground at Halifax and it is practically certain that one of them will erect a huge plant there. The fact is, one company has already been incorporated with a capital of $3,000,000 to build ships at Halifax.

And, coupled with this, Halifax will have to have much larger dry dock accommodation than ever before. With a big ship building company, with great ocean ships calling here, with Halifax almost certain to be a headquarters for a long time of a British fleet, greater dry dock accommodation will be essential.

Those are some of the bigger things that indicate the new Halifax. There is also that harder thing to see, a great change among the citizens. This is shown in the formation of such clubs as the Rotary and Commercial Clubs, splendid clubs of the representative business men of the city, which meet once a week, get together on everything that is good for the city, and hear excellent educational talks from famous speakers on every imaginable subject. The influence for progress of these two clubs could not be overestimated. The Board of Trade is also a most aggressive association.

All of those things are summed up in her shops and business methods. No more aggressive business men are to be found anywhere than those of Halifax; bright and roomy shops will be found full of the very latest in all lines; prices will be found right. Come and see Halifax and her Exhibition, September 12th to 20th; see the Exhibition, bigger, brighter, better, busier than ever; see Halifax's growth and realize her future; visit her stores.

THE AUTOMOBILE SHOW

Beautiful town cars, big, comfortable touring cars, smart little runabouts, and herculean motor trucks form one of the finest exhibitions within the larger Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition at Halifax this year; none of the exhibits is more attractive and more interesting than that of the motor cars.

Last year the motor show was one of the features, but this year's exhibit far surpasses it. Cars for all sorts of prices, tastes, and purposes are shown in a profession that is a delight to see. Nearly every company that has an agent in the Maritime Provinces has its cars on display.

THE HORSE RACES

No one is going to miss the horse races this year if he or she can possibly find time to make the trip to Halifax.

Swinging around the circuit, the string of horses have arrived in Halifax in time for the Exhibition, and the racing so far has been most interesting. They came to Halifax direct from Chatham, thoroughly worked out and right on edge for a week of the greatest racing ever seen in the Capital City. To make it more interesting, the Commission has arranged more events than ever before.

See the Horse Races.

THE LIVE STOCK EXHIBIT

This Exhibit this year is one of genuine surprise to all admirers of live stock. The prizes have been increased 20 per cent. over previous shows, and the entries outnumbered by far last year's.

The big prize list and the fact that this is the only Provincial Exhibition on the mainland this Fall has created a gala gathering of the talent at this fair.

ON A SALARY BASIS

When you buy a desk you're virtually hiring an of-ce assistant. It's got to help you through with so much work each day. It's got to perform some active function in your business.

So, like the rest of your office help it should be placed on a salary basis—the amount of salary depending on the measure, and length of service it gives you.

OFFICE SPECIALTY
EFFICIENCY DESK

is a genuinely faithful assistant—always at your command; ready to give you the information you want—and quickly. It marks a new epoch in desk making. It no longer places your desk in the light of a dumping place for papers and miscellany.

The EFFICIENCY DESK is a filing cabinet and desk in one—a cabinet to systematically care for that important data you would like to have at your fingers' ends all the time—and a desk over which your work may flow in an organized manner.

The EFFICIENCY DESK is distinctly an innovation in desks. We want you to see it at the Halifax Exhibition—we want you to learn how you can make your desk a real office assistant—how you can put it on a salary basis.

Other "Office Specialty" systems of filing and recording will be on display, too. Come see how easy it is to simplify your filing system.

Uncle Dick's Chat
With the Children

My Dear Kiddies:
This week there is only one subject which occupies my thoughts as I sit down to write this chat, and that is the Children's Corner Birthday Party Society, about which particulars were published in last week's page. When I told you of the suggested plans I was not quite sure that you would be interested, but the mail during the past few days has fully justified my telling you of my plans as from all parts of the province letters have come telling me of how much you like the idea.
Many have written asking to join,
while others wish to know more about the suggestions. Next week I shall give the names of those who have qualified for the button as well as publish a list of the names of the members. In the meanwhile be sure to publish a list of the names of the membership as the more who join the society the more quickly will it progress.

This Week's Contest

Get new members and win one of the splendid prizes.
About a year ago you were asked to get new members for the Children's Corner, to which you responded in a way which was never anticipated.
This week I am again calling for you to commence a big recruiting campaign, for the Corner, and in which I am offering several useful and valuable prizes, according to the following conditions:—

WHAT YOU HAVE TO DO.
Ask your school mates, friends on other farms, cousins, and others, either personally, or by mail, to join the Children's Corner of the St. John Standard. All they have to do is become members. It is to write me. (No child must come or be brought to the Standard office for the purpose of joining, whilst the contest is open; as then it would not be fair to those living in the country) promising me the Saturday edition of the St. John Standard, and to take a personal interest in the Children's Page.

Boys and girls who are now members of the Corner, should first get their friends to write, and have their names entered on the membership list, then write me, stating who they have got to join, so that I may credit them with the names of the new members.

Prizes.
Four prizes are being offered in connection with this contest, namely:— 1st prize consisting of a boy or girl's wristlet watch for the kiddie under sixteen years of age, who succeeds in getting the most number of other boys and girls to join.

2nd prize which will be a splendid camera for taking pictures measuring 2 1/2 x 4 1/2 inches, complete with one film, will go to the next most successful recruit.

3rd prize, namely a One Dollar Box of Chocolates to the first girl who is successful in getting FIVE new members. (This prize must be received in this office, and the postal dates will be the means of judging this time, but those living in the country will have an equal chance.)

4th prize, the choice of any article to the value of One Dollar to the first boy, who submits five new members, according to the same conditions as those for the third prize.

POINTS TO REMEMBER
No name will be accepted from a member, unless a letter has been received from the boy or girl who desires to join.

Get your friends to join at once, and thus secure the prizes for the first five new members.

No boy or girl must be brought to the Standard office for the purpose of joining, whilst this contest is open, although, of course, Uncle Dick is always pleased to see boys and girls as usual, but not for the purpose of joining.

Contests closes October 9, 1917.
No correspondence will be dealt with regarding Uncle Dick's chat, except through the columns of the Children's Page.

New members in joining, must promise to get the Saturday edition of the Standard, and take a personal interest in the Children's Page.

One of our members, Greta Wetmore, happened an accident the other day, but I am pleased to hear that according to the latest reports she is nearly all right again.

BILLY'S PUNISHMENT

One day Mr. Stomach, who lived outside of Billy Bates, was feeling very sad. Of all the things that were happening nothing tempted Mr. Stomach to smile. He was discouraged. He felt that no matter how hard he might work, it was of no use. Billy compelled him to work overtime and seemed unwilling to give him a chance to rest. He could eat between meals, and eat more than he ought at meals, so that poor Mr. Stomach had more than a fair day's work to do. In fact he had to keep working long after Billy had gone to sleep.

Billy was a vigorous lad, and of course he was very fond of sport. He was captain of the school baseball nine, and captain of the football team also. So much exercise in the open air made him hungry. Indeed, his appetite was so keen that he would not give Mr. Stomach's house, so that this gentleman had to try to digest all this food without the aid of his friend.

One day, when Mr. Stomach was feeling sad, Mr. Liver looked over the fence, and seeing his neighbor in such a sorry state, he thought, "What's the matter, neighbor? You look as if you had lost all your friends."

"Lost all my friends?" replied Mr.
Stomach. "It is worse than that. Billy Bates has me in his power, and he treats me as though I were a slave. He has no mercy, and so far as I can see, there is no hope for me."

"Oh! I don't think it is quite so bad as that."

"Just then Mrs. Blood and her large family of children came along. They were not so well as usual because of Billy's bad conduct, but Mrs. Blood always tried to look on the bright side of things.

"Good morning, Mr. Stomach," said Mr. Liver, "I'm glad to see you good morning, Mr. Liver," said Mr.
Stomach, "I'm glad to see you."

"You don't look very happy, Mr.
Stomach," said Mrs. Blood in passing,
"what's the matter?"

"Matter enough," he answered in a surlly tone. "You wouldn't believe it if you saw my usual. What's the matter with you?"

THE MOTHER'S STRIKE

Such a dream I had! So dreadful
That I never heard the like.
For I dreamt that on a sudden
The manna agreed to strike.

"We are tired," I heard them murmur,
"tired of working night and day,
And not always hearing 'Thank you!'
Such long hours and such poor pay!"

No one heard their little troubles,
No one held them on their knees,
No one brushed the little curls;
No one basted little dresses
For the busy little girls.

And there were no bedtime stories
And no loving hands to tuck
Blankets soft 'round little sleepers,
For their mothers all had struck.

Oh, so lonesome and so dreadful
And so queer it all seemed,
Aren't you glad, dear little children,
It was nothing but a dream?

Contest is as follows:—

Tadado," whilst George sent in "Brit-

Yes, you have qualified for one of the Uncle Dick buttons, as you are within the Society. Thank for the most interesting letter. Write again soon,

Marion Lunan, Campbellton.—Yes,
I have been wondering were you all were, but was pleased to get your letter the other day. I shall look for more of your letters.

ed to have you as a member of the B. P.
S., and to see that you are so anxious to look after the birds. You have qualified for a button.

Motor Cyclist: "Do you know anything about an aeroplane coming down soon?" "No, sir, I've only been shooting in at spatters."

The Question Box

Dear Uncle Dick:—
Will you please tell me something about Landseer, the Painter? I have to write something for school, but please don't print my name as teacher may not like me to ask you.

Your Loving Niece,
"Corneils"

Ans. In the first spoken "Corneils"
I can hardly imagine that your teacher could mind you asking me as, since this "Question Box" was started, I have spoken to many teachers, and they tell me that they hope the children will make use of same, as it will help them in their lessons, and other things.

Now as to Landseer, his name was Sir Edwin Henry Landseer, born 1802, died 1878. A great animal painter, one of his best being entitled,
"The Shepherd's Chief Mourner."

Trained by his father, and at the Academy school, he exhibited at the Royal Academy in 1815. Sydney Smith, Dickens and others were among his friends. He designed the famous Bronze Hons in Trafalgar Square, London, Eng. He attained high rank in the English Court, both Queen Victoria and Prince Consort, making etchings from paintings, and a knighthood was conferred on him in 1850.

SOMETHING FOR THE AUTHOR

Oh, dear me, do you suppose someone in this picture at a big piece of mince pie and cheese just before she went to bed? Some time ago I heard about a king who ate all sorts of things before he went to bed and used to have just terrible dreams about all sorts of queer things. And it looks just like that happened here—doesn't it? It makes me think something of Alice in Wonderland, with her bottle and little in cake marked "Drink me" and "Eat me" twelve o'clock.

BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL. A meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held yesterday, but only matters of routine were dealt with.

ON VISIT TO NEW YORK. Hon. W. F. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts left last evening for New York to enjoy a short vacation.

NO NEED TO WORRY. One of the most prominent bakers in the city told The Standard last night that so far an action had been taken by them looking toward an increase in the price of bread and it was possible that none would be taken.

PRaises FOR ST. JOHN MAN. Word was received in the city yesterday from a soldier at the front, who writes in praise of the valor and bravery of Lieut. Roy Murdoch of this city, who was killed in action. The men who served under him all praise the sterling worth of the late officer.

EN ROUTE TO BRIDGETOWN. Miss Edna Cochran of Bridgetown arrived in the city yesterday noon from Ottawa, where she has been training for a nurse. In company with her brother, Alex. Cochran, of the firm of Waterbury and Kistner, she will leave this morning on the Empress to enjoy two weeks vacation at her home.

DOING WELL IN HOSPITAL. A letter dated Aug. 26th, received yesterday, by Mrs. Atkinson Morrison, 100 Leinster street, from her son, Gunner John I. Morrison, who was recently gassed at the front, states although still confined to the hospital he is doing well. His eyes and throat were affected, the former was much better when he wrote but his throat is still quite sore.

TWO BLIND STUDENTS. Russell Crain of Bath, N. B., and Bertram Orser of Hartland, N. B., were passengers in on the Boston train last night and left on the 11:30 Halifax to resume their studies at the school for the blind in that city. The former student enters upon his ninth year and the latter on his eighth. They were assisted in making the transfer from one train to the other by Ralph Coleman, the ever obliging "newsy."

ASSESSMENT COMMISSION. The City Assessment Commission met yesterday afternoon in their rooms in Dearborn building. They are working at the present time on the income tax, collecting information from various sources and summarizing two or three acts which have worked well in other places, in an endeavor to arrive at a satisfactory income tax for this city. Adjournment was made for one week and further information will be collected in the meantime. One of the commission stated last night that he considered very satisfactory progress had been made to date.

GOES TO MONTREAL. H. I. Knowles, a prominent member of the Y.M.C.A. and who has been for the past three years assistant chemist at the sugar refineries, will shortly leave the city to take up work in Montreal. Mr. Knowles has been an active worker in the local Y.M.C.A. for the past three years. He was chairman of the musical committee and also a member of the social committee. He has been an active church worker and was in charge of the Boys' Club at Trinity church. Mr. Knowles has made many friends in the city who will learn of his intended departure with regret.

COUNTY COURT. Before His Honor Judge Armstrong, in the County Court, yesterday, the case of Annie Currie, accused of adultery, was brought to a close and the defendant found not guilty and discharged. C. H. Ferguson and D. Mulin, K.C., prosecuted, and T. P. Regan appeared for the defendant. In the case of the King vs. K. Maloney, the accused was found guilty, but allowed to go on herself and Messrs. Hennebury and O'Neill giving recognizance for her future good behavior. E. J. Hennebury appeared for the accused.

CAPT. ANGLIN REJOINS 26TH. A letter received yesterday by Mrs. Anglin conveyed the news that owing to the scarcity of officers Col. Brown, commanding officer of the 26th Battalion, had to recall Captain Anglin and he was in the big push of August when two local officers and many more were lost. In referring to the scarcity of officers in France, a prominent St. John lady stated that it seemed strange that all-bodded officers were being sent home with the notice, "No work for you in France," while at the same time the 26th has to recall men who have had no rest for months, not even being able to finish a six weeks' course, while dozens of officers who have been idle for more than a year are still retained at the reserve camp in England.

RETURNED MEN AND CONSCRIPTS. The following letter from the secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association on the subject of returned men as instructors is self explanatory of their stand on the matter: "I noticed an article in the Press a few days ago that returned men could not be got to instruct. In answer to this I might say I am trying to get a list for headquarters. At present I have about six names. But in every case this is the question asked: if we go back are we to get the same as when we were overseas? At present it seems that a conscript will get his rate of pay the same as a voluntary man, that is pay, separation and patriotic allowance. Now, these men will be employed at home, and the Patriotic Fund does not allow pay for home service and so it comes to this, that if we take the following as a sample case

STAPLE GROCERIES SHOW BIG INCREASE OVER PRE-WAR PRICE

Cost All the Way from Fifty to Four Hundred Per Cent. More to Buy Staples Now Than in 1914.

Prices on the staple groceries have increased since the war began all the way from fifty to four hundred per cent. in this city. The article which has increased to the greatest extent is the white bean of Saturday night fame, which has jumped from $2.25-$2.50 per bushel in 1914 to $9.30 per bushel at the present time. Flour has increased about seventy-five per cent. at present quotations, sugar fifty per cent. and molasses about ninety per cent. while canned goods show increases of from about eighty per cent. to over one hundred per cent. In the canned goods the big increase has been in salmon, pink salmon which before the war was sold at $4 per case is today quoted at $10 and very little offering.

Table with 4 columns: Item, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917. Items include Manitoba Flour, Ontario Flour, Yellow Eye Beans, White Beans, Sugar, Molasses, Canned Goods, Corn, Peas, Tomatoes.

PREPARING PLANS FOR CARRYING OUT DETAILS OF THE COMPULSORY ACT

Arrangements are already well advanced for the carrying out of the provisions of the compulsory service act in this province. Within the course of the next week it is stated that deputy registrars will be named to act under the direction of W. A. Ewing, K. C., registrar for New Brunswick whose appointment was announced in The Standard yesterday.

THE DAY OF HUNTSMEN HAS ARRIVED, BUT BIG GAME REPORTED SCARCE

The big game season in New Brunswick will be opened today. Sportsmen throughout the province have been looting forward with eagerness to the opening of the season and indications point to a large number of partridges going into the woods to secure the first opportunity to hunt the moose deer and the numerous deer which populate the forests.

Appointment of Deputy Registrars Likely—Lt. Col. J. L. McAvity Slated for the Command of Local Depot for Training New Army. Lt. Col. J. L. McAvity, former officer commanding the 26th New Brunswick Battalion is slated for the position of officer commanding the local depot to be established in connection with the mobilization of troops under the new act.

Provincial Open Season for Big Game Commences Today—Moose Meat Will Soon Be Available—Smaller Number of Visitors. The influx of visiting sportsmen from the United States and the country is expected to show a considerable falling off over the numbers that came to the province in other years. The conditions brought about by the war largely account for the smaller number that have requested licenses from the Department of Lands and Mines.

LABOR IS SCARCE IN CAPE BRETON DISTRICT

Labor of certain classes is so scarce in Sydney and vicinity that F. H. Adams, vice-president and general manager of the By-Products Coke Co. of Canada, Ltd., in St. John looking for men. Mr. Adams told The Standard last night that his company is building a $5,000,000 plant as an addition to the Dominion Iron and Steel Company's extensive works.

PERSONAL DIFFERENCE CAUSED THE WALKOUT AT CITY SHIPYARD

A personal difference in the yards of Grant and Home between Foreman Richard Retallick and Master Mechanic Marshall resulted in the ship carpenters walking out on Thursday at noon. About half of the men returned to work yesterday morning, and it is understood that no delay will be caused by the occurrence.

Prominent Contractor in St. John Looking for Fifty Carpenters and One Hundred Laborers.

Mr. Adams is in the St. John labor market for fifty carpenters and one hundred laborers. Carpenters are paid 45 cents an hour for a ten hour day and common laborers thirty cents an hour for ten hours. Many Newfoundlanders have been employed in Cape Breton, but a large proportion of these have gone home since the military service bill became effective in Canada.

Work Will Not Be Delayed—Men Meet and Decide to Stand Behind Foreman Ship Carpenter.

Last night nearly all the ship carpenters engaged at the plant attended a meeting which was held at the Ship Laborers' Hall, Water street. Mr. Retallick gave the meeting his reasons for quitting. He said the men had no desire to hinder the work, but on the contrary was willing to do everything he could to hasten the completion of the ship. "I quit because I did not consider the master mechanic a capable man in a shipyard, and as I felt that I was responsible for the slip being properly built did not feel like working under an incompetent man. I told one of the firm this several times, and at last told them that if this man stayed I would not. Mr. Grant said the master mechanic was to stay and I quit," was the way Mr. Retallick summed up the situation.

Returned Men and Conscripts

The following letter from the secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association on the subject of returned men as instructors is self explanatory of their stand on the matter: "I noticed an article in the Press a few days ago that returned men could not be got to instruct. In answer to this I might say I am trying to get a list for headquarters. At present I have about six names. Capture of Riga May Have Big Effect on the Lumber Business

The capture of Riga by the Germans may have a far-reaching effect on the lumber markets of the world. The Russian city was the largest timber-supplying depot for the markets of Europe, large quantities being shipped prior to the war to the British market. Since the commencement of hostilities the shipments from Riga have been very light. The Russian city was the largest timber-supplying depot for the markets of Europe, large quantities being shipped prior to the war to the British market.

Pugsley and Pictou Kid Get in Bad at Canadian Capital

Serious-Minded Country is Tiring of Shameful Talk and Tactics of Vain Glorious Yappers from Maritime Provinces.

When Our Soldiers Are Dying in France, Ottawa Journal Declares This No Time for Clumsy Buffoonery by Charlatans.

A patient and long-suffering country will welcome anything that spares parliament and Hansard from the marathon fulminations of blatherers like William Pugsley and E. M. Macdonald. In piping days of peace Pugsley's clumsy buffoonery and Macdonald's hypocritical mouthings for the "plain people" were a travesty on parliament; today, when Canadians are dying by the hundred in Flanders, when the country is burdened with sorrow and suffering, they are repugnant to minds of ordinary decency.

It is only simple justice to say that the bulk of the opposition has little sympathy with the tactics of Macdonald and Pugsley. To one who witnessed long ago essayed in Congress by LaFollette and his few demagogic supporters and the Ottawa who witnessed the same tactics brought upon those who mistook the condemnation and contempt of every patriotic citizen in the United States. It was obstruction pure and simple, designed for no other purpose than to curry favor with a class of people in Canada whose origin and attitude make it necessary that they be kept in this country's conduct in time of war.

Enlisted Here as a Private, Returns as Officer in R. F. C.

Lieut. Gerald Creaghan Home on Furlough—One of Five Members of the Creaghan Family Who Joined the Colors.

After over two years service in France, Lieut. Gerald Creaghan, who enlisted as a private in the C. P. R. Construction Corps in this city, has returned home on furlough. Lieut.
