

THE SITUATION IN TURKEY FAR FROM PEACEFUL

British Troops entered to Resume War on Turks Unless Seized British Officers Were Released. TRENCH DIGGING AT MANY PLACES In Preparation for a Defensive Campaign — More Massacres Are Expected to Occur at Amelab.

Constantinople, April 4.—(By the Associated Press)—The cabinet of Sali Fehri, which resigned on March 26, stepped out because of the pressure brought upon the government for the surrender of Colonel Hawkington, British control officer at Erzerum, and Captain Forbes, British passport control officer at Amasia, according to reports current here. Both officers were seized by the Nationalists and it was rumored that the British had threatened to resume war against Turkey unless they were surrendered.

Food Supply Cut. Railway communication between the Bosphorus and the interior has been cut off by detachments of British, who fortified the large bridge south of Blaghat after getting out all their Indian troops which had been guarding the line. The British headquarters at Izmit and the protective area is restricted largely to districts within range of the naval guns. Anatolia is the source of the food supply of Constantinople and consequently the prices of meat and vegetables have already doubled.

Definite statements have been made by Mustafa Kemal that he will not recognize the Sultan's orders. At Sivas, Amasia, Tokat, Samson and many other places there is trench digging and other preparations for defence. Captain Forbes, the British passport control officer, was seized at Amasia and taken to Sivas and it is feared the taking of Allied hostages may become general.

FAIL TO LOCATE BANK ROBBERS

Ottawa, April 4.—Three days have elapsed and the police have not relieved the Chapel street branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia of $1,000 in cash still at large. Inspector Joliet and his men, assisted by the Ontario and part of Quebec, have been running down the prolific clues which have come to hand since the robbery, but none of them have led anywhere so far. Two men, who the police believed to have had a hand in the affair, are keeping decidedly low, if they are still in the district, as the detectives, although they have visited all their usual haunts, have been unable to get any trace of them.

SHATTER HOPES OF MARYLAND WETS

Annapolis, Md., April 4.—Shattering the hopes of Maryland wets for any legislative relief at this session, the Senate Friday night by a vote of 16 to 11 killed the so-called Jones 3 1/2 per cent. bill, which had the active support of Governor Ritchie. The bill to permit Sunday moving picture shows in Baltimore was killed 15 to 12.

"CATTLE DRIVING" ON LARGE SCALE IN MAYO COUNTY

London, April 4.—"Cattle driving" on a large scale occupied Galway and County Mayo, Saturday, according to news agency dispatches from London. At least 1800 men took part, the drive in Galway sweeping from Cregee to Castle Blakeney and Roscommon on one side, and to Dunmore on the other. Thousands of acres were cleared, the police being powerless to check the drive. There were three drives in County Mayo when the grazers were helpless. The police who have been suggested, and the military are helping to collect the cattle. Some arrests have been made.

CAPT. VANWART REPORTED SAFE

Fredericton, N. S., April 4.—Capt. Horace H. Vanwart, son of Mrs. Wesley Vanwart, of this city, who has been with a British mission in Siberia as signalling officer, and who, it was feared, had been a victim of the Bolsheviks, has escaped from that country with most of the members of the mission and, according to a letter received here today, was at Harbin, Manchuria. The letter was written from Harbin under date of February 20, and described his experience as follows:

"Managed to escape from Tomsk after it fell into Bolshevik hands, only to get tied up when the Polish forces surrendered. Was captured at Irkutsk by the Revolutionists. Here I saw the whole rebellion and Koltchak captured and shot. I finally escaped to China and consider I am very lucky to get out alive, as several of our party were caught and killed. Captain Vanwart went overseas with the first Canadian Division in 1914, and was for some time the officer in charge of the signal school of the Canadian Overseas Military Forces at Shorncliffe. Later, after being invalided home, he returned to the staff of the Canadian Overseas Military Forces at Amelab, where he had thrilling experiences.

"That the body found in the ruins of L. Everson house on March 29, is that of Fred Everson, of Tupperville, but how he came to his death we are unable to determine."

ST. JOHN WOMAN HELD FOR THEFT

Boston, April 2.—$15,000 larceny at the Copley Plaza Hotel, the largest and most popular at Boston, was discovered today and Sadie M. McIntyre, aged 28, giving her address as St. John, is under arrest charged with receiving stolen property. So far as the police know the young woman is not employed at the hotel. Numerous thefts have occurred at the hotel during the last two weeks and police inspectors have been inclined to believe that an organized band of thieves are at work in the city. A tip from a local laundry, where fine laces and linens were sent, led to the arrest of the McIntyre woman by an inspector as a laundress. Jewelry, linens and personal property is included in the loot taken from her apartment on Columbus avenue.

ATTEMPT TO CURB COAL PROFITS

Washington, April 4.—Federal District Attorneys were instructed Saturday by Attorney-General Palmer to receive and consider complaints of profiteering in bituminous coal, "which may arise in your district under the Lever Act." Mr. Palmer's telegram was prepared after some bituminous coal operators had stated publicly that the new wage scale, agreed on under the terms of the award by the coal strike settlement commission, would result in an increase of from 50 cents to $1.25 a ton on coal.

GERMAN MOVE NOT UNDERSTOOD BY THE FRENCH

Who Are Considering Military Measures to Force Germany to Adhere to Peace Terms. BAD FAITH SHOWN BY THE GERMANS Is Evidenced by the Rapidity With Which the Troops Are Advancing Despite Protests.

Paris, April 4.—Nothing has yet been announced regarding France's next step regarding the sending of German troops into the Ruhr coal basin, with the exception of a vague official statement which says that any military measures the French Government has under consideration are merely for the purpose of forcing Germany to adhere strictly to the terms of the Peace Treaty.

After warning the German Charge D'Affaires in a note that the French Government would admit of no derogation of the Treaty of Versailles, Premier Millerand conferred with Marshal Poch last evening. Marshal Poch then had a conference with the Minister of War Andre Lefevre, who later was received by the Premier.

JURY VERDICTS ARE PERPLEXING

Found Guilty by One Jury on Arson Charge, and Freed by Another. Kingston, Ont., April 4.—To be found guilty of arson by one jury, sentenced to four years in the penitentiary, one of which had already been served, and then to be found not guilty by another jury, is the perplexing experience of Adam Holroy, a convict in Kingston penitentiary, who is owner of the barn which Holroy was found guilty of destroying by the first jury, brought clear action against him for $3,200 damages. The jury in this action found Holroy had not destroyed the barn, hence the owner, a man named Bell, was unable to recover damages. Holroy was returned to the penitentiary, but it is understood that the latter verdict is being placed before the Department of Justice. W. F. Nickel, K. C., ex-M. P., Kingston, denied Holroy in the civil case.

THAT THE KING RECEIVED DEPUTATION

The King, attended by Premier Liebe, received the deputation. The councillors invited the King to dismiss the newly appointed Ministry, and the monarch replied: "I will negotiate on everything when the general strike is called off. A Socialist interjected with the King: 'It is too late, your Majesty,' and all the Social-Democrats present repeated his words."

Aikens, Registrar of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Toronto, in an interview here on Saturday with reference to medical men who are "be-devilling the profession," as stated by Chairman J. D. Flavelle, of the Ontario License Board, by their shamelessly lavish issuance of liquor prescriptions, said that the profession was powerless to strike the names of the "lists" unless he has been convicted in the police court for giving prescriptions for other than medical purposes.

Madrid, April 4.—Following the discovery that priests have been selling ancient tapestries, paintings and other objects, belonging to parish churches, to antique dealers and replacing them with modern works of art, the Papal Nuncio has issued an order forbidding ecclesiastics to sell articles belonging to the churches without the authorization of the Pope.

MILITOWN TO LOSE POPULAR PASTOR

Rev. Father J. J. Ryan Appointed to Succeed Late Rev. Father O'Neill at Church of the Assumption. Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., April 4.—The congregation of the Catholic Church at Milltown was rather saddened in attendance at the funeral Mass this morning, when their pastor, Rev. J. J. Ryan, announced that he had been appointed to succeed the late Rev. Father O'Neill as pastor of the Church of the Assumption in St. John. His removal at this time had not been anticipated by his congregation. Father Ryan came to Milltown in September last from Woodstock, where Father Meahan was transferred to the Church of St. John the Baptist after a brief pastorate following the death of Father Doyle, who had held the Milltown pastorate during many years. As has ministered to in every parish he early won the esteem of his parishioners and the people generally, and it is regretted that the pleasant relations established are so soon to be broken. Father Ryan will say farewell to the congregation at Milltown next Sunday. His successor has not yet been announced here.

SOUTH AFRICA WANTS ITS INDEPENDENCE

Practically, Union of South Africa, April 4.—General Christian De Wet, who commanded the Orange Free State forces in the Boer War, declared in a speech here Saturday that South Africa would persist in pleading with England for independence until England granted it. He said that, although he had been called a rebel, he knew his heart was right. General De Wet asserted that Paul Kruger, former President of the Transvaal, and Martinus Steys, former President of the Orange Free State, had sworn a solemn oath that they would continue to fight for independence until they were free.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT ST. STEPHEN

John McWha, Esteemed Citizen of the City, Caught Between Two Freight Cars, Dying from Injuries Received. Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, April 4.—At about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon a fatal accident occurred here in the yard of the C. P. R. John H. McWha, one of the esteemed citizens of St. Stephen, had been on the river bank, where he has for years kept a row boat, and was returning to the street. Two freight cars were standing on one of the sidings separated by a narrow space through which Mr. McWha attempted to pass. A crew was making up a freight train, and a locomotive had just kicked a car down that siding, the operation apparently escaping the notice of Mr. McWha. Just as he was immediately between the two cars they were bumped together by the car coming down the rails and he was caught between the two couplings. Nobody saw the accident, but his cries for help called the brakeman, Allen Talbot, to the scene, and others who were near also came to the rescue. Very carefully the cars were separated, but he was so badly injured in the abdomen and spine that he died soon after entering Chipman Hospital, where he was at once taken in the ambulance.

Walter Rollo, as president of the Ontario Independent Labor party at the closing session of the annual convention of the Independent Labor Party this afternoon. Walter Rollo by which all property qualifications in municipal elections will be eliminated; asking that an eight hour day with a minimum wage be placed upon the statute books; urging that unemployment insurance should be paid by those industries in which the unemployment occurs, were passed.

GOVT TROOPS FORCED THE REDS FROM DUSIBERG

Military Control to be Maintained Until Authorities Are Satisfied Civilian Control is Stable.

FIGHTING "REDS" ARE ALL ALIENS

During Saturday's Fighting Machine Gun and Rifle Bullets Swept the Business Section.

Dusiberg, Rheinland Prussia, April 4.—(By the Associated Press).—After heavy fighting the Government troops, which reached here early yesterday, were today combating the industrial district to the south around Wanheim and the woods towards Muelheim, where the scattered Reds are believed to have fled. How far south and East the troops will go depends on how the Reds act.

It is not intended to proceed to Essen or Düsseldorf unless there are unexpected developments.

Military control will be maintained here only until the authorities are satisfied of the stability of civilian administration.

One of the most frequent comments regarding the disturbances at Dusiberg is the earnest assurance that the fighting Reds were not natives but aliens.

Bullet Swept Business Section.
During the fighting yesterday machine gun and rifle bullets swept the business district like a driving rain, artillery threw solid shot and shrapnel and hand grenades were tossed. There was house to house fighting in some sections. The casualties were light however.

The Reichswehr came to Dusiberg in two contingents, the sixty-second regiment marching south from Wesel through Hamm and Dinslaken into Eibendorf, and the remainder, under General Kabisch, flanking in East of Dusiberg. The contingents arrived simultaneously at three o'clock in the afternoon.

A detachment of police undertook to search houses for resisting Reds while the Government artillery took up a position north of the old gate of Dusiberg, from which spot it placed shots where the Reds were grouped, principally in the high school grounds.

The first shots between the Reichswehr and the Reds were fired in Dusiberg, on the eastern side of the city. Fighting soon followed in the downtown streets of Dusiberg. The Reichswehr advancing from corner to corner, driving the Reds before them. The Reds fought in small groups, sometimes only two or four, manning a machine gun, supplementing its fire with rifles.

Reds Quickly Dispersed.
The Reds, who numbered only two or three hundred, were driven out within two and a half hours, but desultory fighting continued all night, as small nests of the radical element were located and cornered. The number of Reds captured is not announced.

"TRUSTY" MAKES BIG HAUL AND ESCAPES

Adorns Himself in Up-to-Date Clothing of Chief Engineer, Lifts Watch and Chain and Departs.

Moncton, April 4.—A prisoner made his escape from Bordeaux jail Friday afternoon. The convict, who was a "trusty," had to cook the Chief Engineer's meals. On Good Friday he was sent to the engineer's house where he prepared the meal. When this was done he was told by the woman of the house that he had better return to jail as he was going to church. But the man thought the cellar needed cleaning, so he proceeded at this task while the woman was in church. After she had left he came upstairs, put on one of the engineer's suits, a pair of his shoes and also his hat. Besides this he took $84 and a gold watch and chain. He then hung up his other clothes very carefully in a cupboard and departed, passing the engineer's son as he went.

STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLE

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes willful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of order. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal state, you should take Milburn's Laxative Liver Pills. They live up to the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Easter Services In Catholic Churches

His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc Was Celebrant of High Mass at Cathedral Yesterday—Rev. A. W. Meahan Preached Eloquent Sermon at St. John the Baptist.

Easter, that holy feast in which the church commemorates with joyous anthems the resurrection of the Son of Man and the glorious triumph of life over death, was fittingly observed in the Catholic churches throughout the city yesterday.

In the Cathedral His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc was the celebrant of the solemn Pontifical High Mass at eleven-thirty. Father McCarthy was high priest; Father Duke, deacon; Father Mallette, sub-deacon, and Father Allen master of ceremonies.

Father McCarthy delivered a particularly eloquent sermon on the Resurrection in which he said that of all the feasts in the calendar of Holy Mother Church, Easter is the most distinguished in a special manner. Some feasts brought light, but the light was followed by darkness; others brought joy, but the melody of their singing was hushed by the tragedy of the Cross; others brought life, which in turn was vanquished by death. The feast of Easter alone spoke of light without darkness, reality without shadow, and of life that knows no death.

Holy Trinity and St. Peter's.
Owing to the illness of Father Walsh, Father Oram celebrated mass in the parish of Holy Trinity. In the parish of the Assumption, Father Moore was the celebrant. Father Allen was absent in Hampton where he conducted the services of the day.

In St. Peter's parish, at the late mass, a forestal sermon was preached by Father Hogan in which he paid fitting tribute to the undying faith of the sons of John the Baptist.

WOMEN DRESS FOR DINNER PARTIES

London, April 3.—In the good old days ladies dressed for dinner; now they undress for it. declares Rev. Bernard Vaughan, the wily non-jurant Jesuit Father, in a sermon assailing the prevailing fashion in women's gowns. "Women dress their gowns for what are known as 'emotional' gowns, sin against every canon of good taste," he said. "Such dresses are unhealthy, immodest, and as ugly as they are expensive."

RELATIONS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY

British Policy Directed at Giving Defeated Empire Fair Chance to Restore Her Economic Position.

BRITAIN IS NOT AT ALL RESENTFUL

With Her Rather Indolent Good Nature She Finds it Difficult to Cherish Prolonged Animosities.

(Written for The Standard by Sir Sydney Low.)
(Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic Newspaper Service.)
The future relations of Great Britain and Germany depend mainly on the attitude of Germany.

British policy is now directed at giving the defeated empire a fair chance to restore their economic position and to the gradual resumption of satisfactory relations. "We ought," said Winston Churchill recently, voting this policy, "if we can, to make a real and lasting peace with the German people and the German republic."

The British are not a resentful people, and forgiveness comes easy to them. With their rather indolent good nature and their complacent confidence in themselves, they find it difficult to cherish prolonged animosities or antipathies. England has fought Spain, France, Holland, Austria, and Russia, and has contrived to get on quite comfortably with all of them after hostilities were concluded. When the fight is over they like to shake hands with the other fellow, and forget that they had to punish him.

There were many who said that they could never again be friendly with the old German bully, who should be outlawed from the society of civilized nations. Voices were raised to proclaim a complete boycott of Germany on economic as well as political purposes. Many Englishmen declared that they would never touch a German hand again, plenty of English traders insisted that they would not buy or sell or handle a parcel that came from German factories or warehouses.

All this, however, was in the first flush of righteous indignation over the defeat of an unscrupulous foe. In the months that have elapsed since the armistice has undergone a revolution. Englishmen will not love or even like Germans while the memory of their deed, in the Great War, is so poignant. Some of them still shrink from the thought of any dealings with the authors of so many of our misdeeds.

With the majority a more moderate tone prevails, and this is particularly noticeable in the influential circles of government and business. England has suffered from the Germans, Englishmen cannot go on quarrelling with them forever. Heavy punishment has been exacted, and they are exacted from them. After all they are a great nation, with much capacity for good as well as for mischief, and the English are repelled by evil in the same manner as the world with them.

Whether or not satisfactory relations can be established depends on the attitude of the Germans themselves. Great Britain requires two things; first that they shall fulfill as far as they can, their obligations under the Peace Treaty; secondly, that they shall abstain from foreign adventures calculated to disturb the settlement. As to the first point there is no disposition to exercise undue severity. On the contrary the Treaty has been leniently interpreted, too leniently as many people think, and Germany has already obtained several remarkable concessions, of which the most striking is the decision of the Allies to allow her war criminals to be tried in her own courts. It is expected Germany will make a genuine effort to discharge a substantial portion of the amount due from her as reparation for the injuries committed, and the damage done. Judgment has been given against her for the gross sum; but a large part of it may be remitted by the Reparation Commissioners if they are satisfied of Germany's inability to pay more. It will not be the policy of Britain to condemn the whole population to poverty and servitude. England is quite willing that the German people should become prosperous and comfortable again. The Allies wish to recover their bill of taxed costs, or so much of it as they can obtain; but England will not help them make their debtor bankrupt.

come Russia to Germany. With Lenin and Trotsky's paper money, paper propaganda, and very real Red institutions, they would try to bring about a Spanish-like revolution, and put all Central as well as Eastern Europe under the Soviet regime.

Either project is a menace to Western civilization, and incompatible with Anglo-German unity. A military or a communist Germany would alike be perilous to all the rest of the world, and in particular to the Power which is responsible for the tranquillity of vast territories in Southern and Western Asia. We cannot afford to be shaken out of India, the Mediterranean, and the Persian Gulf, either by Russo-German armies or by Russo-German revolutionary propaganda, and we do not mean to be. Nor do we intend that the Poland we have overrun and reconquered shall be overrun and re-annexed by its former exploiters.

If the Eastern designs go widely afield in Germany take shape and form, there is an end to any chance of an understanding between the Teutonic and Anglo-Saxon peoples. The attitude will become one of stringent watchfulness, and possible hostility; as it would be if the Red Revolution triumphed, and a Soviet administration were set up in Berlin. England has been compelled to disarm and penalize Germany; but does not wish to trample upon her—or shut her in as a prisoner in a cage. A peaceful and industrious Germany would help to keep the storm-tossed European bark on an even keel; and it might be said that the course we have taken towards that friendship with Britain which was so wantonly and wickedly wrecked by the Berlin and Potsdam conspirators who precipitated the World War.

WELL PLANNED INCENDIARISM BREAKS FORTH IN

Many Parts of Dublin Which Destroyed Masses of Important Correspondence and Gov't Documents.

Dublin, April 4.—Masses of important correspondence and documents were burned in a series of fires, which kept the firemen rushing from one outbreak to another until midnight. The circumstances indicate a well-planned incendiary plot. Fires occurred in the offices of at least eight income tax collectors and surveyors in different parts of the city. The incendiaries did their work well, and the fire was well advanced before the fire brigade arrived. Just before the fire broke out, the caretakers of the buildings were held up by armed men.

PRECAUTIONS FAILED.

The work of the incendiaries was carried on despite military precautions which had been taken to prevent anything of the kind since since 1915. Particular attention was paid by the military to the city, to the loss of which the city would be ruined. The incendiaries did their work well, and the fire was well advanced before the fire brigade arrived. Just before the fire broke out, the caretakers of the buildings were held up by armed men.

More Ammunition.
An armored car is stationed at the entrance to Kingsdown Pier to reinforce the military guard there. Soldiers unloaded fresh supplies of ammunition at Northwell and conveyed it in motor cars, protected by armored cars, through the city. Despatches from various parts of the country indicate a complete state of affairs at Derry, Tipperary, Newry, Limerick and other places.

The Freeman's Journal publishes a significant article headed "Peaceful Eastertide," in which it says: "Let the young men of Ireland remember that the main chance of the enemy has to complete his triumph of destroying the Irish cause is summed up in the sinister and savage advice...

which is going the rounds of the clubs of the militarists and diehards: "the club into the streets." The paper appeals to the people for restraint and self-control.

The feeling in Cork, it is understood, is so embittered by the murder of Lord Mayor MacDonagh that anything may happen there. But so far as Dublin is concerned, it is believed that Viscount French, the Viceroy, will have to report, as did Lord Wimborne, a couple of years ago on the occasion of a similar scare—"not a dog barked."

The military police halted every vehicle and pedestrian entering Dublin and searched them for arms, but found none. The troops expect to maintain this guard against arms for three or four days. Dublin Castle does not take seriously the reports of an outbreak. "There would be any disturbance in Dublin," said a well-informed source, "would be the responsibility of correspondents is taken as a joke by an evening paper, which heads their arrival with 'Something for the foreign correspondents to write about and self-control.'"

THE EBERT GOVERNMENT MERE SHAM

And Tool of Militarists Who Expected it to Step Down and Out at Proper Time.

RECENT REVOLUTION HAD THEIR SANCTION

If Not Actually Participated in by Members of the Government.

(By Colonel Frank Simonds.)
It is essential in forming any judgment upon events which are now taking place in Germany to keep in mind certain facts. Instances of the kind are the New World, like Englishmen, sympathize with the so-called majority Socialists and see in the Spartacist the initiators of the revolution which the Bolshevik masters of Russia. Within limits, this is not an inaccurate assumption, but it is well to recognize some of the real grievances of the minority Socialists and something of the actual situation in Germany.

The revolution which overthrew the imperial edifice of Germany came naturally and inevitably from defeat and from the conditions which preceded defeat. In its more violent aspects it was manifestly akin to the Russian revolution, but it was suppressed only nominally by the Socialists majority, which in name, at least, took over control of the government. Actually the German revolution in its final form consisted in a violent suppression of the thorough going Socialists by the soldiers of the old regime.

The Ebert government was little more than a cover, a concession to public sentiment, around which the militaristic and imperial control. Behind it many of the old elements continued to exercise a great influence and the leaders of the German Junkers threatened the right moment to throw off the mask. The repression of the revolt was conducted with a brutality beyond words. The murder of Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg were shameful incidents. Both were murdered by German officers who had persecuted the traditions of German atrocities in France and Belgium.

Moreover the very Socialists who came to power had been the passive tools of the German militarists throughout the war. They had by their votes supported the government in the re-licensing, thus betraying their own principles. They had fought the small but gallant minority, which had declared against German crimes in the war in a word, during the whole progress of the struggle they had surrendered to the Junkers their votes, established their position; they were as much accomplices in the military offenses as any other element in the German electorate.

Finally, to preserve even that semblance of power which came to them after the revolution, they were compelled to permit the military element to deal with the Spartacists in true Prussian spirit. The military establishment which was created to defend the new regime was thus in reality no more than a tool of the militarists, but maintaining the familiar elements of the monarchical army. No one who figured largely in the public prints, was really, with the exception of a few hostages to the reactionaries, his own freedom of action was destroyed.

What one actually had in Germany, therefore, was a sham "liberal" government, called to power actually by the reactionaries for the double purpose of deceiving the conquerors and the masses of the German people, who were in arms against the unsuccessful government which had led them to defeat and ruin. It was the hope that the Allies would be deceived by this semblance of democracy and thus moderate their terms; it was the expectation that popular wrath would soon pass and then the old gang would take hold.

The first of the hopes was not realized. The Allies were not deceived in resigning the fruits of their victory and the Treaty of Versailles includes terms which disappointed the German expectations. Incidentally these terms served to discredit the sham liberal government and thus supplied the justification for the military element to opportunity to strike for their old positions. Against such a blow the Ebert government was helpless itself. Because its military establishment consisted in fact, in the hands of the old military element.

For the Ebert government as a whole was a party to recent strokes of the reactionaries is a matter of conjecture. One may recall that Kerensky was reputed to have agreed to the Korniloff rebellion and to have lost his courage at the last moment and thrown himself into the arms of the reactionaries.

Exmouth Street Sunday School

Special Programme of Easter Songs Given Yesterday—New Orchestra of Tuxis Boys Assisted in the Music—The Church Service.

The excellent Easter Music at Exmouth Street Methodist Church was rendered by the Choir who appeared for the first time in gowns and caps. At the evening service two solos were given, Miss Minnie Myles singing "Hosanna" by Granier, and Miss Edith Magee singing "My Hope is in the Everlasting" by Stainer. Six members were received at this service, the Pastor, Rev. George Dawson being assisted in the reception service by Rev. Robert Crisp. The pastor preached both morning and evening.

At the Sunday School session a special programme of Easter songs and recitations was given the music being greatly improved by the presence of a new orchestra formed of six Tuxis boys. The orchestra played for the hymns and gave several greatly enjoyed selections. E. E. Thomas, superintendent, presided. The baptism of three small children took place, the service being conducted by Rev. George Dawson.

Getting Too Fat? Try This—Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist (or if you prefer write to the Marmola Co., 384 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.) for a large case of Marmola Prescription Tablets. It is the price the world over. By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and be able to reduce two, three or four pounds a week without dieting or exercise.

Lenine and Trotsky, thus insuring the ruin of Korniloff, but insuring the immediate collapse of his own rule. In any event, Ebert at the final moment seems to have followed a similar course and proclaimed the general strike. This weapon, once unshathed, produced the situation which in Russia, precipitated the deluge, for it called into power exactly the elements which had never accepted the Ebert government, never ceased to denounce it as a sham and never hesitated to allege that behind it was the old gang, awaiting a favorable moment to "come back."

Of the masses, who are now represented by the communistic and the soviet leaders, it is necessary to remember that they have very grave and just complaints. Their leaders were massacred by the old militaristic element, with the passive consent, if not the active approval of the Ebert government. Their brothers were shot down by Prussian soldiers, the real reforms they sought to bring about were prevented and following the bloody repression, there has come, in due course, as they forecast, the counter-revolution, designed to restore the Prussia system and not imposingly some Hohenzollern to serve as the necessary figurehead.

Exactly like Kewensky, Ebert in his final despair, unchained revolution. But is not a real revolution the necessary prelude to any real progress in Germany? Instinctively we are all shuddering at the thought of Bolshevism now appearing on the east bank of the Rhine, but it is quite clear that the safety of the world will be more assured, if the alternative—and it is the alternative—namely the restoration of the Junker element to power, is finally accepted by the German people.

Visiting Clergy At St. David's

Rev. E. W. Mackay, B. A. of Toronto Preached Two Fine Sermons at St. David's Church Yesterday to Large Congregations.

The pulpit at St. David's, both morning and evening, was filled by the interim minister, Rev. E. W. Mackay, B. A., of Toronto, who gave two fine addresses. Mr. Mackay is a Scotsman who has spent some time in Canada, including a year in the Mission Fields of the Canadian Northwest. His last parish was at Smith's Falls, but for the last five years he has been assisting in the work of food production, as he took over his brother's farm when the owner went to the war. Lately Mr. Mackay was helping in the Forward Movement, as he was the organizer for four Presbyteries in Ontario. Speaking of his experiences while farming, Mr. Mackay said that it had been of great value to him, as he felt he had learned to know men better and that he had acquired a wider view of life.

CENTENARY CHURCH WAS DECORATED

Expressions of Admiration Heard at Services Yesterday—Rev. H. A. Goodwin Preached at Both Services—Sunday School Session.

Centenary Church was decorated yesterday with a profusion of beautiful flowers, and many expressions of admiration were heard. The choir, under the direction of Miss Alice Hea, excelled itself. There were among its members several former soloists whose beautiful voices added greatly to the singing. Fine solos were rendered by Mrs. L. M. Curran and A. C. Smith, and the organ selections given by Miss Fies were also very fine. A choir of twenty boys was stationed in the gallery, and they took part in the Easter hymns, singing a verse of one hymn alone with good effect.

Rev. H. A. Goodwin preached at both services, dwelling on the Easter thought of the Risen Saviour. Rev. J. C. Berrie assisted in the service. Twelve members were received into the church.

In the afternoon, the Sunday School session was held in the form of a lantern slide talk, the pictures being taken from famous paintings depicting the events of Passion Week. Mrs. C. F. Sanford, in a very inspiring way, described the views, introducing many lovely quotations. Appropriate hymns were sung. The attendance was very large and an offering was taken for Missions.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the close of the evening service. J. A. MacKeigan is progressing very favorably, and in a letter received by T. H. Somerville, Mr. MacKeigan speaks of hoping to be able to return home sooner than was at first expected.

Tough as a Tire Tread— This Hose Cover

IN mines, quarries, tunnel work, shipyards and structural steel work, the tough cover on Goodyear Air Drill Hose and Goodyear Pneumatic Tool Hose has resulted in more work and a lowering of hose cost.

The life of hose in this work depends about 75% on the cover. Dragged over rock and ore and steel girders, tramped on and run over, it takes a tough and well-designed hose to give any length of service.

We have records of Goodyear Air Drill Hose in constant service for 18 months to 2 years.

The cover of white rubber is as tough as a tire tread. It is extra thick. It wears long, even under rough handling.

To balance such a good cover is a specially developed, oil-resisting inner tube; and fabric of extra strength.

So good are Goodyear Pneumatic Tool Hose and Goodyear Air Drill Hose that five-ply is found as satisfactory as six or seven-ply of old-style hose.

The thoroughness with which Goodyear Air Drill and Pneumatic Tool Hose has been designed and built, is paralleled in every kind of Goodyear Industrial Hose. The problems of each industry have been studied carefully. The solution to those problems has been worked out in the Goodyear laboratories. The Goodyear Industrial Hose man has a mighty interesting story to tell to industrial executives. No obligation on your part if you have him call. Just phone, wire or write the nearest branch.

Winners of Canadian Championships Won't be Chosen to Represent Canada at Olympic Games — Chances for the Locals.

The secretary of the Mayflower Club, Halifax, received a reply to a telegram sent to Secretary Crowe, A. U., asking for information on boxing trials for the Olympic team. It is as follows:

"The Ottawa contests are Canadian championships only. Olympic final trials cannot well be held for about three months because boxers selected for Antwerp would not need to leave Canada until late July, to complete Antwerp's August 15 Preliminary and final dates will be announced as soon as possible."

Sgt. N. H. Crowe, Sec. A. U. U. This will be good news to the Maritime boxers who will now be able to be in better shape for the big trials and also compete in the Maritime championships at the Mayflower Club, Halifax, April 23 and 29, without leaving a chance to try for the trip to Belgium. It was at first supposed that the Canadian champions would be selected for the Olympic team, at the Mayflower Club, who have been awarded the Maritime championships. It is decided to communicate with the Ottawa authorities.

Entries for the Maritime championships should be made without delay to the secretary of the Mayflower Club, Halifax. The winners of the tourney will, no doubt, be the Maritime men to compete in the Olympic trials at Ottawa.

HALIFAX BALL PLAYERS

Baseball will boom in Halifax this season and the players in the sister city are losing no time in getting into shape. The Halifax Herald says that players are daily seen on several parts of the Commons tossing the ball around. The diamonds are in ball shape making practice games impossible, but with fine weather the city leaguers and seniors are expected to get down to work this week.

Basketball At Y.M.C.A. Tonight

A big crowd is assured at the Y. M. C. A. tonight when the Intermediate and Seniors will mix up in the last game of the Basketball Season and at the same time decide to whom will go the title of Champions of the City and Season. Both teams will play their full line-up and the result is likely to be in doubt up to the final whistle.

The preliminary which will start at eight o'clock between the Y. W. C. A. and the Fairview girls is expected to be a close game with the latter favorites because of their last win.

TEWKSBURY CREW REACHES HALIFAX

Steamer Was Wrecked on the Coast of Newfoundland on the Morning of Mar. 17.

Halifax, N. S., April 2.—Captain John Prideau, officers and crew of the steamer Tewksbury, which was wrecked on the coast of St. Mary's Bay, Nfld., on the morning of March 17, arrived here today, on the steamer Rosalind, enroute to New York.

The ship struck the rocks at about two o'clock in the morning, about 100 miles from the coast. The crew, though she began to settle, the crew stood by until daylight.

The weather was bad and one of three life boats was smashed into pieces soon after it was launched. Into the remaining two the crew scrambled, and after rowing eight miles, they landed at Peter's River, where they were cared for by the shore party.

The crew lost all their effects. In addition to the crew there were two women aboard, Miss I. Alexander, daughter of the ship's owner, and her friend, Miss Ethel Wilkinson. The steamer carried a six thousand ton cargo and was bound from Chile via Norfolk for Hamburg.

MOTHERS!

NEVER NEGLECT WHOOPING COUGH

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but unfortunately this mistake often leads to the neglect of this dangerous child's disease.

Never neglect whooping cough, for it may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the congested air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoopy" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief.

Mrs. Francis Burlingham, New Jala, B. C., writes:—"This spring three of my children took the whooping cough, and they had it so bad I thought they would choke. I was getting pretty worried when my sister wrote me, telling me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I sent for some right away, and believe me, I will never forget how it worked. I will always have it in my house."

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will pay in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Plan To Have Great Football Team

Dr. Wheldon and Stanley W. Frazier Planning to Get Together Old College Stars and Trim Wanderers and Dalhousie.

Should the plans of Dr. Wheldon Fraser and Stanley W. Fraser, L. L. B. materialize, Halifax will no doubt see a great football team in action this fall. The Frasers plan to get together the old stars of Dal, Mount A. U. N. B., Acadia, St. F. X. and King's, now located in Pictou county, bring them to Halifax and trim the Wanderers and Dalhousie. They have it all planned out how they are going to hang a defeat onto the star Dal team, which will next year, be captained by Leon Pluck, the midget 215 pound six footer.

Both Frasers are well known to Dal where they spent several years, and they are acquainted with the ability of the Maritime college football players who pastime down east, during the past few years. In Pictou county, there are some of the best of the old stars, including Gus MacCallivray, former St. F. X. star and captain of the Dal team in 1917; Jimmy McArthur, former Dal star; Dr. Wheldon Fraser, speedy quarter-back of the gold and black; Bill Fraser, also a star in his college days and dozens of other players who are now in the local season, and with the ex-collegians lining up against the present day rab, rag boys, a large crowd would surely turn out.

LOCAL BOWLING

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE. On Black's alleys Saturday night the bowling aggregation of Vassie & Company clinched the second series of the Commercial League by taking all four points from Atlantic Sugar Refinery. With only two points needed to win Vassie & Company's team postage played their strongest game and the bowling of both teams was a rare treat for those who witnessed it Saturday evening. Much credit is due to each member of this quintette who have shown the other teams in the league how after being outclassed in the first series and arriving in third place the game can be played to win. Ribey, the leading bowler of the team, also the leading individual bowler in the second series, was there all the way Saturday and with the aid of his teammates the opposing team who were in first place for some time at the beginning of this series were defeated. Although the losers put up a great game and their playing was of a superior type they could not overcome the lead of the winning team. Vassie & Company's bunch of rosters appeared to advantage Saturday night when they spared their team on to victory or Rosalind, their purpose by giving the members of the Sugar Refinery a bad case of that "tired feeling" which the individual scores of the game and averages of the league stand will appear in a later publication.

When Peter Jackson Was In His Prime

Opponents for the Big Ethiopian Were as Hard to Find as an Ambassador to Mexico—He Joined a Circus.

Years ago when the great Peter Jackson was in his prime opponents for the big Ethiopian were as hard to find as an ambassador to Mexico. Even the mighty John L. Sullivan would have none of the clever colored man's fastacting. Finally in order to pick up some easy coin Jackson joined a circus and toured the country offering to knock out his foe. Starlight struck the Ortole City in a Phineas T. Barrum elephant. He was such a hard hitter that he generally saved his hands by using only one knuckle to cash his foe. Starlight accepted Peter's proposition. When the referee introduced Jackson and Joe he explained that it was to be a "scientific four-round exhibition" with the $500 to be awarded Mr. Starlight if he could sustain four rounds or forfeit $500.

Now down in Baltimore there was another "gentleman of color" named Starlight. Who was he? Forcing Jackson struck the Ortole City in a Phineas T. Barrum elephant. He was such a hard hitter that he generally saved his hands by using only one knuckle to cash his foe. Starlight accepted Peter's proposition. When the referee introduced Jackson and Joe he explained that it was to be a "scientific four-round exhibition" with the $500 to be awarded Mr. Starlight if he could sustain four rounds or forfeit $500.

In the second round Jackson changed his tactics. His first clinch was somewhat farther down on the nose than his previous hits. Starlight in an attempt to meld five knuckles relaxed his guard and Jackson slipped with deftness on the Baltimorean's muzzle! "First blood!" Jackson piped the latter's seconds. Blood as every one knows is usually drawn from either the nose or mouth. In this case history records it to have been the former. Starlight at this point exhibited a flash of cleverness in avoiding one of Jackson's feints. Unfortunately, in side-stepping he bumped plumb into a straight left on the smeller.

Finally Starlight walked over to the referee and rubbing his shoulder which he had mistaken for his nose queried: "Mr. Referee, I was under the impression this was to be a scientific exhibition." The arbiter said that as far as he knew it was. Then he added starlight, "In the interest of science I respectfully suggest that you tell Mr. Jackson to please scatter his hits."

Starlight and Jackson resumed hostilities but every move cost the former or a slum on the proboscis. This portion of his face began to take on the appearance of Aunt Jemima's best flap-jack but Starlight's handlers slapped him on the back and informed him that he was a sure winner. For a few seconds Starlight looked thoughtful. Then he started undoing his gloves. His seconds urged him to desist exclaiming "wait, if you quit, man?" Starlight you're a sure winner!

"Well," retorted Starlight. "I jes' know I'm never going to get a lead like dis agin. You say I'm a sure winner now. Then I bes' quit NOW while I AM a sure winner." And he did.

Who Will Be The Movie Star From The Maritime Provinces?

Universal Film Company of Universal City, California, Offers the Residents of Eastern Canada and Newfoundland an Unusual Opportunity

A DECADE or so ago, almost every girl in her teens, and many beyond that age, longed to go upon the stage of the "silver screen" — the Movies. To-day the dream of almost every young miss is to be a star.

Young Lady—How many times have you seen Mary Pickford, the Gish sisters, Norma and Constance Talmadge, Mae Petrova, Dorothy Phillips, Mae Murray, Priscilla Dean, and other stars of the film firmament have you imagined yourself playing their parts on the screen? How many times have you said to yourself, "I could be just as great a star if I was given the opportunity"? Well, here is your opportunity. And Young Men—How many of you have felt that you have the makings of a second "Doug" Fairbanks, Bill Hart, Eddie Fole, Lee Moran, Eddie Lyons or Charlie Chaplin within you? Probably you have. Here is your chance to find out without one cent of cost.

HALF-YEARLY CONTRACTS OR LONGER

The Universal Film Manufacturing Company of Universal City, California (the largest and most progressive moving picture concern of the world) is going to give a limited number of young folks, middle-aged folks and old folks (either sex), an opportunity to become Movie Stars. If you consider that you have "Acting ability"; if you receive each year, it will pay you to get full details of this exceptional offer from the special branch of the Universal Film Company which is being opened in connection with the St. John Universal Agency, at 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B. Information will only be given upon receipt of the inquiry blank below, properly filled out and sent to 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

The persons chosen will have their railroad fare paid to Universal City, California. Some of the best directors of the Universal Studios will then take these persons under their direct supervision and give them a four weeks' trial by contract with the Universal Film Company for six months or possibly permanently. Those who are unsatisfactory will be given cash consolation gifts of $150 and returned home.

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

There are thousands of young ladies and men in Canada and the United States whose parents would willingly pay large sums of cash to secure an opening for their daughters or sons in "Movie-land" similar to these openings offered by the Universal Film Company to the residents of Eastern Canada. There are thousands more who have gone to California hoping to "break into the pictures" only to find that every movie employment office was positions and that the chances for becoming even an "extra" were very remote.

These difficulties will be smoothed from the path of the persons sent by the St. John special Branch of the Universal Company to Universal City, and the beauty of it is that it will not cost any of these taking advantage of the offer one cent.

ANOTHER MARY PICKFORD

Mary Pickford a few years ago was a little Toronto girl. To-day she occupies the leading place in filmdom and receives a salary of almost two million dollars a year. Who can say but what we may discover another "Mary Pickford" here in Eastern Canada?

For full details regarding this exceptional offer, fill out the inquiry blank attached herewith and mail it to the special Branch of the Universal Film Company, 87 Union Street, St. John, N. B.

Tablet Unveiled At Trinity Church

Impressive Service Yesterday Morning in Memory of Men of Trinity Who Gave Their Lives in the War—Sermon by Rev. Canon Armstrong. "And with them the victor's crown of gold" it was the singing of these words that the choir, with the officiating clergyman of Trinity church yesterday, at the morning service, marched down from the chancel and placed on the north wall of the church. This is a memorial to the men of the congregation who gave their lives in the war. Here the ceremony of unveiling took place, Lieut. Colonel McMillan withdrawing the flag and Lieutenant W. H. Harrison reading the inscription on the tablet returning to sanctuary, Rev. Canon Armstrong, rector of Trinity church, dedicated the tablet in the following words: "To the Glory of Almighty God, and in sure and certain hope of a joyous resurrection and reunion through Jesus Christ our Lord, we dedicate this tablet in proud and loving memory of our brothers, May God accept and bless the memorial, and grant that those who shall hereafter look upon it may realize the constraining call of duty, the glory of loyalty, courage and self-sacrifice, the joy of faithful service, the inspiration of noble comradeship, and the power of an endless life to which His mercy may He vouchsafe to bring us all, through Jesus Christ our Lord Amen. After the singing of West's beautiful setting of the Benedictus the Sacrament of the Holy Communion was celebrated. There were present Colonel A. H. Powell and many members of Trinity church in uniform who had attended to pay honor to the memory of their comrades. The congregation was a very large one. Canon Armstrong took for his text Rev. 1-17: "Fear not, I am the Living One," and spoke particularly upon the glorious message of Easter Day, making reference to the memorial tablet in the course of his address. The tablet, which is of brass mounted on oak, and shows very fine workmanship, was engraved by R. Herbert Green. The inscription is as follows: "To the Glory of God, and in grateful and loving memory of Edward W. Bean, James T. Bearn, William S. Hare, A. Vernon Hatch, James W. Holly, Frederick C. Jones, C. E. Kingdon Jones, F. Harold Leiford, Herbert D. McDonald, Jr., M. C. Rossy Macdonald, Frank P. McKenzie, Clarence L. Mills, Thomas Nickson, Reginald Peniston Skinner, C. Harold Smith, D. Lionel Teed, M. C. Hugh Marner Teed, John Webb. Who laid down their lives for their country in the Great War, 1914-1918. O. Blessed Communion, Fellowship divine We feebly struggle, they in Glory shine." This memorial is erected by the congregation of Trinity church.

APPOINTMENT OF COLONIZATION AGENT Captain Andrew MacDuff, Veteran of Two Wars, Appointed by C. P. R. to Look After Passengers on Arrival from Overseas. Thousands of emigrants from the British Isles and other European countries are expected to arrive in the Dominion within the next few months, and the recent large parties which have arrived in St. John from the other side form merely the vanguard of the steady influx which will shortly rival that of pre-war days. With a keen realization of this fact, and following on its usual aggressive policy, the Department of Colonization and Development of the C. P. R. have made the novel appointment of a colonization agent to play the part of foster parent to new arrivals on the C. P. R. steamers. Captain Andrew MacDuff, veteran of two wars, versed in many languages, and to ensure the many sides of human nature, will act as councillor and adviser and give information and assistance. At St. John in the winter time, and Quebec in the summer he will act between steamer and train, seeing that travellers on the company's vessels are met up with at landing and sleeping accommodation, overseeing the checking and loading of baggage, doing all humanly possible to obviate the worries of travelling, and to ensure a safe and comfortable journey to the various destinations. Captain MacDuff is at present in St. John to commence his duties with meeting the Granplan and Empress of France.

CARMARTHEN STREET METHODIST CHURCH An interesting service was held yesterday afternoon in the Carmarthen Street Methodist Church, at which selections appropriate to Easter were given by members of the Sunday School and an address entitled "The Two Crosses" was delivered by Rev. W. R. Robinson. This address was illustrated by wooden blocks and was greatly appreciated, the speaker holding well the attention of the assembly. G. M. Coshorn, superintendent of the Sunday School, presided. The following programme was carried out: Chorus—Primary Class. Recitation—Margaret James. Song—Leonard Roberts. Duet—Miss Mary Alcorn and Miss Stella Earle. A week from pneumonia. Mr. Needham was in his thirty-fourth year. The Playgrounds Assn. Meeting

Regular Monthly Session Was Held in Y.M.C.A. Rooms Saturday Afternoon and Considerable Business Transacted. The Playgrounds Association meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. Board room Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the president, W. K. Haley, in the chair. This was the regular monthly meeting, postponed from the previous evening on account of the fact that it was Good Friday. Those present were: W. K. Haley, M. C. Covey, chairman; G. A. Marjett, K. J. MacRae, John Armour, W. W. Hewitson, Dr. S. Bridges, H. J. Sheehan, W. R. Sealie, C. M. Lingley, Thos. Killen, R. J. Adams, Roy Handren, Fred Barrett, C. C. Morris, Clifford Peice, C. F. Stevens, T. L. McGovern, John Kimble, and O. J. Fraser. As the Improvement League are more directly connected with the Association, being a branch of the original organization, the Association has two representatives from each of the four ends of the city. Their work will also be to provide running tracks and all equipment adapted to the needs of up-to-date recreational centres, making for all-round efficiency in sport. The treasurer reported $17.34 on hand after the bills were paid. The depressing effect of this low account was soon dispelled by the report of the president, who handed in $240. The report was read by himself and A. M. Belding, assisted by Capt. Mulcahy, among the business men of the city. When the list of donors was read, there was a hearty vote of thanks passed, and the names were ordered to be given so the press, and the secretary requested to extend by letter the appreciation of the Association to the twenty-two generous benefactors. A vote of thanks was also passed giving much praise to the new president and his associates for their enterprise in putting forward such a successful endeavor. A. W. Covey taking the chair for the time and tendering the vote to the gentlemen in question. Capt. Mulcahy's report on the printing resulted in the contract being given to C. M. Lingley for three hundred copies. The ladies of the Association were appointed a committee to advertise and secure teachers for the supervised playgrounds, with power to act in furthering the arrangements for the summer work. Mrs. H. C. Groat was made convener. A special committee was formed to discuss the broader phases of the work with the different organizations affiliated, by request of some present. A. M. Belding, H. J. Sheehan, A. W. Covey were appointed. The secretary was requested to notify those not present of the purposes of this committee, that no delay may obtain in getting the plans put forward. Daylight saving was endorsed at the meeting.

MAIN ST. CHURCH EASTER SERVICE Large Congregations at Main Street Baptist Yesterday—Sermons by Pastor, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson. The Easter services at the Main Street Baptist church were attended by large congregations taking the seating capacity both morning and evening. At the morning service a most earnest message on the meaning of Easter and its place in the Christian church was delivered by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson. At the close of the service the ordinance of baptism was administered to five candidates. The evening service was largely musical, and the large number present thoroughly enjoyed the splendid programme of Easter music provided by the choir. Ten members were received into the fellowship of the church and the communion was the largest in the history of the church.

THE SERVICES AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH The services at St. John's Stone Church yesterday were splendidly attended, the Rector, Rev. Canon Kuhnig, preaching both morning and evening, addressed the children in the afternoon. Beautiful music was rendered by the choir under the direction of D. A. Fox, who sang very fine solos being given in the evening by DeWitt Cairns. At the Children's service which was held in the afternoon, two infant baptisms took place. The floral decoration at Stone Church were particularly beautiful this year.

The Fifth Sermon In The New Series

Rev. Dr. Morison Preached to Interested Congregation in Which He Summons the Classics and Philosophy to Support the Christian Teaching. In the First Presbyterian Church, West St. John yesterday morning, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison preached his fifth sermon in the new series to a large and interested congregation. The preacher said in part: "In the painting of the great Italian poet and humanist, Francesco Petrarca, by Tofanelli, his brow is encircled with the chaplet of leaves with which he was publicly crowned laureate, by the University of Rome on Easter Sunday, 1341. The Greeks gave this crown the name 'Stephanos'. The name is well known to all Christians. It was the name of the proto-martyr, St. Stephen, and has been commemorated from age to age by many a Christian Church. It means a crown. Yet not every crown was called Stephanos. It was the name given to the crown that genius won. It was always bestowed for merit. There was also the crown of royalty, that demanded homage. This the Greeks called 'Diadema'. These two Greek words, 'Stephanos' and 'Diadema' are both used by the writers of the New Testament, and are translated in our English version by the one word 'crown'. When the classical usage helps us to understand the vital verse in our Lord's message to the Church in Smyrna (Revelation 2, 8-11): 'Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee the crown (Stephanos) of life.' When St. John wrote these words it was an age of martyrdom. The martyrs were crowding into the catacombs and the fierce fires of persecution that had been kindled near the palace of the Emperor spread far and wide throughout the empire, and poured out their lips with pitiless Nazarene were to the needs of St. John, the aged Bishop and Saint of the Church was ministering to the Church. He was called upon to re-announce his faith, 'Blessed be Christ, I commanded the pro-consul, 'Let me be released you.' Then the aged Bishop with martyr-to-be-forgotten heroism replied, 'Eighty-six years I have served Christ, and He hath never done me wrong, but only good; can I blaspheme my King and Savior now?' 'He was given to us in times and died a martyr's crown. So great was the heroism of his martyrdom that his memory was always held in the greatest veneration by the Church. The life and death of St. Polycarp whom as Bishop of the Church at Smyrna he not only held in the highest esteem but directed his most important impression for everybody. It testified that the way of faithfulness to virtue is the sure and certain way to the Crown. This I want to make plain. 'I reminded you that Petrarch the great Italian poet was crowned amidst assembled multitudes in the Eternal City. And you answer, 'Yes, but he was the exception, he was a great poet.' You go on to tell me that it is only those who are in the world calls the world sometimes calls them; Dante and Petrarch and Shakespeare and Milton the great and the rest, these all won crowns. But you tell me that no such crown can ever be won by you. You tell me that if you could paint the canvas or chisel the marble or lift the dome, or write the books of poetic inspiration or of lofty morals or philosophy or could establish a reputation for ability you would thus win your crown, but since your life is circumscribed and these things are all of less import, you must give up without your crown. In this you are absolutely wrong. And I re-son it in this way. To be is greater than to describe. All these artists merely described by name or in marbled form, the perfect feeling, the perfect life. They nobly conceived and described, but for you is reserved the higher work of realizing these ideals in your character and life. If you will, you can realize them, and if goodness is the great inspirer, refiner, and the light of genius is snuffed out by the descriptors of virtue and good, you are all those who live virtuously shall not those who live virtuously die for a perfect virtue also win a crown. Please remember, when the pagan mood of a Juvenal or a Horace comes over you, and you are ready to say that life is not worth living, that Polycarp as well as Petrarch won his crown. 'It is always greater to do than to describe. 'It is a nobler thing to be a hero than to describe one, to endure martyrdom than to paint it, to do right than to plead for it.' Next Sunday Dr. Morison will deliver the sixth sermon in the new series. Read Revelation 2:12-17.

EXCESS PROFITS TAX SEEMS TO BE IN GENERAL DISFAVOR

Present Methods of Taxation Threatens to Drain the Resources on Which the Entire Business Structure of the United States Depends—An Economic Tax Should be Substituted.

FIN—The excess profits tax seems to be in general disfavor among business men all over the continent and many suggestions have been made as to what should take its place as a means of raising the necessary money to meet the interest obligations of the country. In the United States it has been put forward that the best way to raise the money needed and at the same time do away with the obnoxious tax, would be to substitute a sales tax, which would not fall on any one class but on all in proportion as they were buyers.

The Bache Review in this connection says: "A Destructive Tax System. The present methods of taxation threaten to drain the resources on which the entire business structure of the United States depends, and while we hear many predictions that the amount will decrease, we must face the fact that for many years to come the requirements of our debts, including the amounts loaned to our Allies, as well as the high rate at which Government expenditures have been fixed, will call for a taxation of from four to five billion dollars per year. To continue to raise this amount by excess profits taxes and heavy income taxes means the complete elimination, in our opinion, of the resources of the investors upon whom this country and its enterprises have been dependent during all these years, to furnish such new capital as commercial and financial developments required. Before the war there was an army of about 400,000 investors, small and large, who could be counted upon to absorb a varying amount of securities, ranging into the hundreds of millions. This army has now completely disappeared and many of these same investors, owing to the increased cost of living, with the heavy income taxes, are practically consuming a percentage of their capital to meet living expenses. The fact that enterprise is handicapped by a heavy profits tax makes for ultra-conservation on the part of the speculative investor, who must pay out a large percentage of his profits, if any are made, but who can get 100 per cent. of his loss if his judgment is at fault.

The wealth of this country has been built up by savings out of profits in business. There are no such savings today. One of the pessimistic influences in the present situation is that, whereas in former periods of boom in business, the merchant who made a large profit, while spending liberally, was enabled to put generous sums back into his business to provide for the reaction that was certain to come, we now have a situation where, due to the last three years of business boom, profits have been large, yet merchants have had to pay out in either income taxes or excess profits, practically all that they have earned over their living expenses, and when the losses due to the readjustment of values are registered, many will have suffered material reductions in their resources, which would ordinarily be relied upon to meet these losses.

All this must change, or business will reach an impasse. An Economic Tax Should be Substituted. There is only one way to escape this, and that is through a tax on sales, in which every citizen of the United States, as well as any foreigner who may live within our shores, will pay equally toward the expenses of the Government and have his stake in the country.

Advantages of a Tax on Sales. The analyses appearing on the following pages show the tax of one per cent. on sales worked out for three of the important products of the country, and while this shows that the tax is duplicated several times during the progress of these commodities through business channels, the tax falls only once upon the same class of business men.

In the case of the loaf of bread, the ultimate purchasers do not have to pay more for their loaf, and the tax would be absorbed by the seller in the various movements which the wheat makes until it reaches the ultimate consumer. On beef, the maximum would be one cent per pound, and the same rates would apply to hog products.

The advantages of this tax would be that it would be equally paid by everybody in the country, and might lead, perhaps, to thrift, since those who wish to avoid paying taxes would only have to decrease their expenditures.

If any such amount can be raised as would appear probable, predicted on the figures submitted, all income taxes on incomes of $5,000 or less would become unnecessary, and a nominal income tax on all other incomes would be sufficient. Today an income of $5,000 pays between $120 and $160. Under the new tax, if it is expended in toto for the purchase of commodities, the income of $5,000 would pay a tax of $50, assuming that every article purchased has had the tax added and the consumer has to pay it. But on many articles the tax is so small that it is absorbed or paid by the seller out of his normal profits and not added to the purchase price.

This tax can only be consistently levied and collected if paid by the seller, and should be evidenced in the working out of the tax by stamps on receipts, where books are not kept, or by charges against turnover as shown by merchants' books, less any allowance for stamps given on receipts; it would be the simplest tax that could be collected, and there need never be any dispute as to the amounts of individual taxes as now arise in a multitude of cases under the present tax laws. It will require a very much smaller staff to collect, and practically no expert service. It will materially reduce the expenses of the Government in collecting taxes and the yield can be very closely figured, and cannot materially shrink or increase by temporary developments in values or the volume of the country's business rarely fluctuates more than 10 per cent. in a year.

A small tax, say one per cent. on sales, while it would produce in the aggregate an amount large enough to make it unnecessary to keep the excess profits tax in force, might be large enough even to reduce the surtax on income and would bear lightly upon the individual that its existence would be scarcely perceptible.

It would be, in effect, a flat percentage of one per cent. against volume of business, to be paid monthly by every corporation, partnership, association or individual in business.

In the case of banks, brokers, jobbers or commission men, the percentage should apply on "Gross Income" before payment of operating expenses, rather than against gross volume of business handled.

The turnover in the United States for the year 1919 is estimated by our opinion, of the resources of the investors upon whom this country and its enterprises have been dependent during all these years, to furnish such new capital as commercial and financial developments required. Before the war there was an army of about 400,000 investors, small and large, who could be counted upon to absorb a varying amount of securities, ranging into the hundreds of millions. This army has now completely disappeared and many of these same investors, owing to the increased cost of living, with the heavy income taxes, are practically consuming a percentage of their capital to meet living expenses.

The fact that enterprise is handicapped by a heavy profits tax makes for ultra-conservation on the part of the speculative investor, who must pay out a large percentage of his profits, if any are made, but who can get 100 per cent. of his loss if his judgment is at fault.

The wealth of this country has been built up by savings out of profits in business. There are no such savings today. Pulp And Paper Making Enterprises

New York and Montreal Capitalists Reported to be Organizing Company to Develop Series of Enterprises in Maritime Provinces.

THOS. H. MCCAULEY.

Thos. H. McCauley, for more than ten years manager of construction for the Calgary Municipal Railway, Calgary, Alta., who was recently appointed general manager of the New Brunswick Power Company, St. John, N. B.

A group of New York and Montreal capitalists are reported to be organizing a company to develop a series of important pulp and paper making enterprises for the Maritime Provinces, with New Brunswick as their principal field of operations. The new company will apparently be independent of the International Pulp and Paper Company, though it is believed that some of the interests identified with that concern which recently acquired the interests of the Van Horne estate in the Grand Falls and 122 square miles of timber land in that neighborhood, are connected with the new project. P. J. Dodge, president of the International P. & P. Company, denied the other day that his company was contemplating raising $10,000,000 to develop new enterprises. A Montreal firm, the Howard Smith-Paper Company has recently acquired the two pulp mills on the Miramichi river.

It is reported that the demand for paper is now nearly 1,000 tons a day greater than the supply, and pulp and paper enterprises are a strong attraction for capital.

FUNERALS. Fredericton, April 4—The funeral of the late Hugh J. Alward, whose remains were brought to his former home here from Halifax, where he was a member of St. Mark's Lodge No. 38, took place this afternoon from the residence of his mother, Mrs. Alward, Saunders street, under Masonic auspices. Hiram Lodge, No. 6, P. M., of Fredericton, was in charge. The funeral service was held at a rural cemetery, where interment was made.

EASTER FINERY AT FREDERICTON. Typical Easter Weather Brought Out Large Crowds for Church Services. Special to The Standard. Easter was observed with typical spring weather in Fredericton. Following showers and some heavy rain yesterday and today, the day broke beautifully this morning with a warm sun but a rather cool breeze. There was a large attendance at the services in the various churches, the high price of the shortage in labor, Mr. McCauley converted a number of cars into "one man" operation. The experiment was so successful that by 1917 all cars operated by the company were reconstructed and are now known as the McCauley type. He is the founder of Housens Amusement Park, Calgary's only summer resort.

CHARGED WITH THEFT OF FOUR FEATHERS. In the police court Saturday morning Frank Doucet was charged with being under the influence of liquor, having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling, and also stealing four feathers, valued at $20, the property of Manchester Robertson Allison. The feathers were in a case which was in a C. P. O. S. shed at West St. John, consigned to M. R. A. Ltd. Evidence was given by C. P. Inspector MacGormack, who made the arrest Friday night, and by C. P. R. Policeman Norman Clarke who noticed the case from which the feathers were found to be missing. Broken open a C. P. O. S. checker John Ellis, said he examined the case and found that one of the twenty-four cartons had but two plumes left of its original complement. The magistrate took a small fraction of a cent to the loaf.

Further than this, it is stated that bakers do not bake half the bread used. Many domestic users buy flour from grocers and make their own bread. This further reduces the individual tax.

PHILIPPINE CIGAR EXPORTS INCREASE

Have Quadrupled in Past Five Years — $10,000,000 of Business in 1919.

The most noteworthy recent development of Philippine industry reflected in exports is the great increase in the manufacture and export of cigars. It is declared in the April issue of Commerce Monthly published by the National Bank of Commerce in New York. In review of the foreign commerce of the islands the magazine says that the number of cigars exported has increased from 155,000,000 valued at $2,515,000 in 1914 to 326,000,000 valued at $9,079,000 in 1919 and that the United States has taken about two-thirds of the output.

"Exports of leaf tobacco have also increased," the review states. "The United States is now purchasing in the Philippines large quantities of un-manufactured and partially manufactured tobacco, such as stems, low-grade leaf and cigar fillers, etc. Exports of filler leaf to the United States are now on a low level, and a large market for Philippine leaf in the United States is not anticipated in the immediate future, but Spanish demand and reviving British demand are expected to take care of the exportable surplus, especially in view of the fact that dry weather damaged the crop of 1919 to the extent of 50 per cent."

No. 3 white, 98. Rye—No. 2, $1.68. Barley—$1.56. Timothy seed—$5.00 to $12.50. Clover seed—$45 to $50. Pork—Nominal; lard, $20.00; ribs, $18 to $19.

So I said what of it.

Not long ago there was a Hunt-Slipper Ball. I wonder why, for certainly it is not likely that any one there was wearing the Cinderella shoe. Little feet have tripped out of the world. Nous avons changé tout cela. And, indeed, what would the modern, the athletic girl do with the foot of an eighteenth-century marquis?

Canadian women can make a marked reduction in the cost of living with out aid of law or legislation. The matter is quite individual. It can be great or little, just as the housewife chooses. Indeed a slight change in the buying habits of the home might considerably improve the nutriment return for each dollar spent. It is a simple matter, depending on sound common sense.

An article is appearing in today's columns which is going to cause a furore in this community, or we will give our guests. The Universal Film Manufacturing Company, of Universal City, California, is offering a limited number of Eastern Canadians an opportunity to gain fame and stardom in the Movies.

The proposition is open to everyone, young or old, male or female, and, according to the advance publicity received by this paper, it will be held in a railroad fare to Universal City, California, an assured salary during a few "tryout" periods, a chance for a contract and stardom, or return to home and a consolation gift of $150 cash if the parties fail to make good.

CRY OF FORTIES STILL HEARD IN IRELAND TODAY

Forty Years Ago Irish People Wanted Repealed the Act of Union Between Great Britain and Ireland.

SINN FEIN SECRET SERVICE ACTIVE

Has Many Sympathizers Who Are Constantly in Touch With Leaders of the Sinn Fein.

(Written for The Standard by Hamilton Fyfe.)

It was significant that Mr. Anghu... should have made his recent reappearance in British politics with a speech about Ireland. It underlines the Irish difficulty, as the first Britain must set itself to conquer. In England and in Scotland people are too ready to forget about Ireland. They are like small children whose attention is attracted by a toy which is not theirs.

For as long as any of us can remember, that has been the state of mind of the English people. I read the other day a book of recollections by a daughter of Lord John Russell, one of Queen Victoria's earliest Prime Ministers. As a girl the writer went to Ireland with her father and on the way to meet them was a crowd which shouted "Repeat! Repeat!" They meant "Repeat" and this Act they wanted repealed was the Act of Union between Great Britain and Ireland. They were shouting that in the forties and they are shouting it still today. A dozen times this Irish speech might have been written if the English people had given it nearly as much attention as they would not do this; their political leaders did not keep the matter before them. Indeed they were only too glad to let it slide out of notice, seeing how many reputations it had broken, how many governments it had perished.

Six years ago Mr. Anghu, by writing to see what would happen if he did nothing, brought Ireland to the edge of civil war. I have been looking over my 1914 diary; I was in Ulster then with the Ulster army. It was Carson's greatest hour. He played the part of a king magnificently. But I got the impression that James Craig was the throne behind the throne. Carson was the figurehead. Craig is the real organizer. Carson was Henderson, the popular idol. Craig was Henderson, the brain of the movement. It was a movement wonderfully well planned.

Now there is no longer unity in Ulster. The fanatic spirit of six years ago has departed. It would not be long before the Sinn Fein might be a revival. Anything which gave the priests more influence in the South might stir up the Orangemen's fierce memories into flame. But nothing of the kind seems likely. Sinn Fein is altogether different in that respect from the old Irish Nationalism. It accepts the priests as men in the ranks. It is not avowedly anti-clerical. But it does not intend to let them direct it as they directed the Nationalist Party. In Ulster there are many who mark this and who begin to feel a waning at their hearts when they think of an Irish nation united and self-governing, freed from clericalism, with all the people working for the prosperity and the happiness of the country which Ulster loves as dearly as they love it in the South.

Six years ago while Ulster presented a firm front, and had its strength minutely guarded, the Sinn Fein was distracted and could only fumble. Today the position is reversed. I doubt if many know how complete and masterly is the Sinn Fein organization. A friend of mine went over to Dublin last week; he is a special correspondent. He went straight to the Vice-regal Lodge. Lord French told him he might find it tiresome to be shadowed. "Shadowed?" my friend said. "But surely I am here. I was only commissioned to come yesterday morning." "I have no doubt whatever that Sinn Fein knows what time your train left Boston and what time you arrived in Dublin," was the secretary's grim reply. Ulster's secret service was good in 1914, but it was nothing like so good as that of Sinn Fein today. It is now a heavy machinery of the Sinn Fein and it is not easy to see anything but anything of the Sinn Fein. It has a staff of secretaries, clerks, and messengers. It has a staff of secretaries, clerks, and messengers. It has a staff of secretaries, clerks, and messengers.

CONFERENCE OF MINERS AND OPERATORS

Spencer, N. S., April 4.—Coal operators in Nova Scotia have been requested to meet with representatives of the United Mine Workers at Truro, on April 8, for the purpose of further discussing the wage schedules now in existence in the various collieries.

The request has been forwarded to all the operators by the United Mine Workers' executive, and up to the present no reply has been received. When the miners meet in conference at Truro next week they will appoint a committee to represent the men at the forthcoming conference. The question of wages will be the topic for discussion, and it is expected that the United Mine Workers will have definitely formulated their policy and will be in a better position than heretofore to meet the operators. Whether further increases will be demanded is, however, definitely known. The officials of the United Mine Workers refuse to make any statement on that score for the present, both President Beatty and Secretary MacLennan declining tonight, before they left for Truro, that the question of policy must be decided upon by the convention.

The proposed conference at Truro will doubtless see all the operators in the Province in attendance, as well as the miners' representatives.

Government Merchant Marine Planning Summer Sailing from St. John—Oft Repeated Claims of Business Interests of Province for Improved Summer Service Likely to be Realized—Halifax to Have Summer Sailings to Liverpool—New Opportunities for Maritime Trade.

Business men in St. John and throughout the Province have for years been clamoring for better steamship services from this port during the summer, and it will be good news that the Canadian Government Merchant Marine is planning a summer service for Maritime ports to Great Britain. According to a local shipping man, it is settled that the Government Merchant Marine will operate a service between Halifax and Liverpool this summer. The question of sailings from St. John is unknown here, as no definite arrangements have been made as yet. The local shipping man, interviewed by The Standard expressed the opinion that Government ships would make more or less regular sailings from St. John to the United Kingdom this summer. "It might, however, be a good plan for the Board of Trade and the Commercial Club to take the matter up with the Government," he added. "Last summer lumber dealers had difficulty procuring ships to move lumber, and manufacturers of boxes and various commodities produced in this province had to turn down orders from England and France because they could not guarantee deliveries. This summer it is probable there will be more tramp steamers available, but a regular service operated by the Government would be more satisfactory. Only the larger lumber shipper charter tramps, and they are usually fixed for a full cargo when they come here. The Furness line service while a great advantage to the province, did not provide sufficient space last summer. "The Government Merchant Marine expects to have 33 ships in commission by the end of May, and 45 ships by mid-summer. Most of these will be operated from Montreal, St. John to Cuba. "It is said the Government will operate a weekly service from St. John to Cuba this summer, as well as fortnightly service from Halifax to Cuba. These boats may call at other ports in the West Indies, but I don't think they will enter largely into competition with the Royal Mail service.

Wm. Cunningham Is Victim of Shooting

While Watching Young Companions Firing at Target Yesterday He Was Dangerously Wounded in Neck — Wm. McCaw Held by Police.

A most unfortunate and distressing accident in which three young lads of BRIDGE AVENUE participated, occurred yesterday afternoon between three and four o'clock in a field off the Board's Head Road, and as a result William Cunningham was seriously wounded. Three young boys, Frank Harrington, William Cunningham and William McCaw, had taken two guns and gone for a stroll. They entered a field off the Board's Head road and from a wooded knoll had begun to shoot at tin cans for targets. As near as can be learned, while young Cunningham who was without a gun, was looking at one of the cans a gun in the hands of one of his companions went off and the bullet hit him in the left side of the neck and lodged behind the jugular vein. His companions rushed to his aid and seeing the seriousness of the wound hastened to the nearest house where they telephoned for the ambulance. In the meantime Cunningham's father, who had been notified, addressed his team and driving to the field conveyed the boy to his home and rushed to the hospital. The lad was unable to say which of the two guns was responsible for the accident. Young McCaw, however, stated that his was the rifle from which the shot was fired. He thought the gun was at safety at the time it went off. Cunningham was admitted to the General Public Hospital about five o'clock and everything possible was done for him. An examination will be made this morning. His condition last night was reported serious. McCaw is being held by the police for investigation, and the little spent last night in the guard room at the police station. Harrington was not directly implicated in the accident and was allowed to spend the night in his home. His father promised that he would be in court when needed.

Stabbing Affair On Saturday Night

William Coholan is in Hospital, Being Treated for Knife Wounds — Wm. McNulty and John Cullingham Are Under Arrest.

As a result of a brawl in a barn off Rockland Road at near midnight Saturday, William Coholan was taken to the General Public Hospital suffering from knife wounds in the chest and leg. William McNulty was placed under arrest charged with cutting and wounding Coholan, while John Cullingham was also placed under arrest charged with assaulting and beating Coholan, both assaults having been committed with intent to do bodily harm. The men are alleged to have been drinking and after the trouble began, Coholan came running into his home on Somerset Street shortly after midnight. He was bleeding profusely and taking a short cut through Barker Street while going from Rockland Road to Somerset Street. He was taken to the hospital and on information supplied by him the two alleged assailants were arrested. On enquiry at the hospital last night it was stated that Coholan's wounds were not of a serious nature. He has been dwelling with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling and will be called upon on his recovery to play out his side of the matter but also that of an accused.
