

MEIGHEN TO PRESENT G. T. R. CASE TO HOUSE TODAY
TRANSPORT WORKERS' UNDECIDED AS TO JOINING IN STRIKEMiners, Owners and Govt.
Are Determined; Indications
Point To 'Fight To a Finish'

Delegates to the National Transport Workers' Conference Debate Question of Joining Sympathetic Walkout, But No Decision Is Reached—Labor Men Reported To Be in Bad Humor—Recommendations From The Executive Body of Transport Men's Union Will Be Made To A Big Assembly On Wednesday.

London, April 5.—Sir Robert Horne, the new chancellor of the exchequer, speaking in the House of Commons concerning the stoppage of coal mining, painted a gloomy picture of the results of the strike, declaring a stoppage of coal production at this time was far more serious than would ordinarily be the case. Nothing, the chancellor asserted, would be more perilous for industry as a whole than to begin the granting of subsidies and further burden the already overburdened taxpayers. He voiced a plea for the opening of negotiations for a peaceful settlement without involving subsidies.

John R. Cline, chairman of the parliamentary labor party, who followed the chancellor, spoke in a conciliatory tone. He appealed to the Government to mediate. The Government's action in giving up control of the coal mines, Mr. Cline asserted, was responsible for the rupture of the negotiations between the owners and the miners. He argued that it would have been better for the Government to retain control of the industry for two or three months.

London, April 5.—For three hours this morning the 400 delegates of the National Transport Workers' Federation, assembled here to consider the attitude of the organization toward the strike by the British miners, debated the strike question without reaching a decision. The conference adjourned until 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. During the session the transport workers' delegates heard the viewpoints of their leaders presented, together with those of other prominent labor men, including John R. Cline, chairman of the Parliamentary Labor party.

The executive body will probably have recommendations to offer as to the transport men's attitude at tomorrow's plenary session of the delegate body.

Attitudes Unchanged. Meanwhile there has been no deviation from the uncompromising "fight to the finish" attitude which apparently has been taken by the three parties to the controversy—the miners, the owners and the government. From representatives of each there have been declarations of a willingness to make any reasonable concessions in order to avert a general industrial tie-up, but no one thus far has volunteered to take the first step toward a resumption of negotiations. While representatives of the press were strictly excluded from this morning's meeting of the transport men's delegates, it was noticeable that John R. Cline, chairman of the Parliamentary Labor party, and other speakers similarly regarded as moderate, failed to evoke the same measure of applause and enthusiasm accorded to other speakers known to have leaning toward the miners.

The delegates at today's conference were unmistakably in bad humor, and apparently there was little warrant of hope of an amicable outcome of the decision. The conference adjourned

MAKE NEW HIGH SCHOOL A GREAT WAR MEMORIAL

No. 3 Committee Asks Permission To Call For Tenders.

PLANS UNALTERED
Trustee Smith Hopes a Pipe Organ May Be Donated To School.

Permission to call for tenders for building the new central high school will be asked at the board of education meeting this afternoon by No. 3 committee. The plans, with some slight changes, were approved at a special meeting of the committee this morning.

The committee will recommend that the name of the school be "The Great War Memorial High School." If their recommendation is accepted, the name will be displayed in a suitable manner across the front of the building. There was some debate amongst the members of the committee as to whether the name was the most suitable name for the building. Trustee Smith suggested that it be merely "Memorial High School." Other trustees thought this would not indicate its purpose as clearly as the longer title, particularly as there is already a memorial school in the city, and there may be others.

To carry out the memorial idea, the names of all former students who served in the great war will be engraved on tablets, which will be erected in the entrance of the building.

Trustee Smith favored increasing the auditorium accommodation. Architect Carrothers declared that it would be difficult to do this without breaking the fire regulations or making radical changes in the design of the building. It was decided to leave the auditorium at the site originally planned, which will accommodate 750 persons.

Trustee Smith urged that school concerts and other entertainments could be held there, and that consequently these could be held more frequently than when they have to rent accommodation as at present. He thought that some citizen might endow the school with a pipe organ.

Another suggestion to economize was that the stone facing at the rear of the building be omitted. The saving effected would be so slight that it was decided to retain it, as it will add materially to the appearance of the structure.

INSTRUCTION FOR INCOME TAX PAYERS IS PROVIDED BY DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS

Interesting Explanation of How To Fill Out Required Documents—First Article Deals With Incomes of $5,000 and Over.

Data of much interest and value to the income tax payer is contained in Part 1 of the following article, issued by the local income tax office. It embodies a calculation on individual incomes exceeding $5,000, and Part 2 is a calculation of the tax on corporations. Form T1, which is referred to in the course of this article, is that for the use of individuals other than farmers and ranchers, and form T1a is that for the use of farmers and ranchers only.

The following is the manner of filling up the forms for individual incomes over $5,000.

ILLUSTRATION NO. 2
Single man with an income of $13,000, of which $3,000 is from Canadian dividends:
Net income	$13,000.00
Less statutory exemption	1,000.00
Taxable part of income	$12,000.00
Normal tax, $5,000 at 4 per cent	$200.00
Normal tax, $7,000 at 8 per cent	560.00
Less allowance for Canadian dividends, $2,000 at 5 per cent	100.00
Normal tax payable	660.00
Surplus—$1,000 at 1 per cent	10.00
Tax at 10 per cent	100.00
$2,000 at 3 per cent	60.00
$2,000 at 4 per cent	80.00
$1,000 at 5 per cent	50.00
Additional tax of 5 per cent on $760.00	38.00
Total tax	$798.00

PART 2—CALCULATION OF TAX ON CORPORATIONS.

Illustration No. 1.
A business statement is supplied, giving full details of the business and showing the net profits.
Net income	$64,000.00
Exemption	2,000.00
Taxable part of income	$62,000.00
Tax at 10 per cent	6,200.00
Five per cent additional tax	310.00
Total tax	6,510.00

Illustration No. 2.
Net income	1,600.00
Exemption	2,500.00
Taxable part of net income	Nil
Tax of 10 per cent	Nil

In the latter case, the corporation pays no tax. The dividends are, therefore, not free from the normal tax in the hands of the shareholders. It will be seen that in many small companies the dividends are liable for the normal tax. Where the preceding explanations do not meet your needs, get a booklet of instructions from your postoffice, where they will be available in a few days. If your income is larger than this article deals with, you should fill out pages one and two of Form T1.

PUNISH MEN WHO POSE AS FARM LABORERS TO SECURE FREE PASSAGE

Local Employer of Farm Labor Says Practice Is "Too Common."

SUGGESTS $500 TAX

Repayment of Passage Money At Least Is Demanded.

As shown by the debate in the Ontario Legislature on Monday, one of the most difficult aspects of the farm labor problem is that of the tendency of immigrants from the old country to leave the farms and get back to the cities very soon after their arrival. A. W. Gray, of Leeds, pointed out that whereas most immigrants were required to have $250 in cash in their possession when landing in Canada, persons coming out to work on farms are not under this obligation. The member for Leeds suggested that a remedy for these immigrants drifting back to the towns might be found by imposing the condition that he must have in his possession the sum of $500 before he is allowed to leave the farm.

In conversation with an employer of farm labor today, The Advertiser was told that the practice of coming out to this country on the pretence of doing farm work, and then jumping the job on the first opportunity is far too common. "There is no doubt," he said, "that a good many of these men pose as farm hands to those who bring them out from the old country, in order to get their passages paid, and to avoid the necessity of putting up the required sum of $250. I think that it would be a good thing if a condition was made that a man who came out as a farm laborer under false pretences should render himself liable to punishment by fine or otherwise, or that at least he should be required to refund his passage money before being permitted to leave his job on the farm. It would also be well if an understanding were come to whereby the man would be compelled to work a stated period on the farm under certain penalties before being allowed to go to the city to engage in other work."

CHARLES MAKES HIS DEPARTURE FROM HUNGARY

Former Emperor Is Returning to Switzerland.

Budapest, April 15.—Former emperor Charles departed from Steinamanger, in West Hungary, near the Austrian border, at 10:35 o'clock this morning on his way out of Hungary. Premier Teleky made this announcement in the national assembly this afternoon.

Bern, Switzerland, April 5.—Notified has been sent the Hungarian cabinet by the Swiss Government that Switzerland will permit the provisional return of former Emperor Charles into this country on condition that he come during the next few days. Multitude of Questions Has Been Asked Concerning Railway Situation in Last Few Days, But Answers by Government Ministers Have Always Been Extremely Guarded—Suggestion of Halifax Member To Appoint Standing Committee On Government-Owned Utilities Will Be Accepted by Meighen Administration.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, April 5.—It is anticipated that the Government will this afternoon take the House into its confidence with regard to the negotiations now proceeding between it and the Grand Trunk Railway Company. The resolution of Hon. C. K. McLean, M. P. for Halifax, calling for the appointment of a select standing committee on Government-owned utilities is expected to be the chief order of business and members will take advantage of the opportunity afforded to air their views on the railway situation generally. The importance which the whole problem is assuming may be gauged from the multitude of questions which in the past week or so, have been asked regarding it, before the orders of the day are called. Realizing that the question is one of urgent public importance, Mr. Speaker has not sought at any time to curb the questioners. The Government, however, has been extremely guarded in its answers especially in connection with the negotiations which are proceeding with the Grand Trunk which asks for an extension of time for the arbitration award and appeals for money in the meantime to meet its obligations.

Premier To Speak. The Government is going to accept the suggestion of Mr. Maclean and appoint the committee, so far so good, but the House and the country is also impatient that some informative statement should be given as to the Grand Trunk situation. And it is expected that such a statement will be forthcoming this afternoon and that Premier Meighen will take advantage of the opportunity to declare just how matters stand. The Government and the company have been engaged in a game of fence for some days past. The Grand Trunk wants extension of time and a grant of money. The Government says it won't give either until it is in possession of the road. The Grand Trunk hints darkly at liquidation. The Government points out that with liquidation the shareholders will lose all they have. It may be that the Government has the best of the fight. At the recent caucus there was a fairly heavy body of opinion among Government supporters in favor of allowing the whole business to go in the air.

Parliament is somewhat appalled at the obligations already incurred through the National Railways and views with something approaching horror, the assuming of further obligations in connection with the Grand Trunk. On the other hand the National Railways will not be complete without the Ontario lines of the Grand Trunk and handily ingress to the United States. In addition the results of liquidation are not to be regarded lightly.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS MAKE STATEMENT ON COMPANY'S POSITION

Montreal, April 5.—A semi-official statement regarding the affairs of the Grand Trunk from the railway's point of view was issued this afternoon.

GERMANY, "TURNED DOWN" BY U. S., IS EXPECTED TO APPEAL AGAIN TO ALLIES

Great Britain, France and Italy Will Not Refuse to Consider Any Serious Proposal Regarding Methods of Reparations Payments, But Will Decline To Discuss Any Suggestion From German Officials as to Reductions From Total.

London, April 5.—Although the British Government has not received in full from the British representatives in Berlin the note sent by the United States secretary of state to Berlin on the German reparations question, the official British opinion is, it was learned today, that Germany failed miserably in her attempt at a new method of solving the reparations problem—that of approaching the United States for assistance. British officials gather from the press reports that Secretary Hughes' note indicates a refusal by the United States to be a party to any German attempt to escape responsibility for the war and reparations payments. It is believed here that Germany's next move will be a direct approach to the allies. As to this, it is said in official quarters, no German proposal will be dismissed without serious consideration by Great Britain, France and Italy.

The German move, however, it is declared, must be a proposal regarding the method of reparations payments and not embodying proposals for a reduction from the total sum decided on by the Paris conference of the allies.

FRENCH ARE SATISFIED.

Paris, April 5.—Most of the Paris newspapers express great satisfaction with the reply of the United States, the only writer not taking this view being "Petitux," political editor of the Echo de Paris, who found Secretary Hughes' remark regarding new German proposals to the allies to be "not very opportune."

L'Homme Libre said "America's reply was peremptory and decisive. America's word brings us great consolation in the most difficult hour of our history."

QUEBEC LIQUOR DEALERS WANT TIME EXTENDED TO DISPOSE OF STOCKS

Montreal, April 5.—Under the new Quebec liquor law to come into operation May 1, the matter of the old law or counter is left to the discretion of the Quebec liquor commission. Information gathered has to the effect that the commission has no intention of restoring the bar.

Wholesale liquor merchants in conference yesterday decided to send a delegation to Premier Taschereau appealing for a delay in which to get rid of their stocks. The law says that all authorized vendors and licensees shall make a statement on April 20 of all stocks remaining in their possession and shall place them under the control and in the possession of the liquor commission, on 24th of seizure of stocks.

FACES MURDER CHARGE.

Covington, Ga., April 5.—John S. Williams, Jasper County farmer, charged in the confession of his negro farm boss, Clyde Manning, with having caused the murder of eleven of his negro farm hands to prevent evidence against him for alleged peopage, faced trial in circuit court here today on a charge of murder of one of the slain negroes. An augmented force of sixteen deputies was mobilized to preserve order in the courtroom.

COMMUNISTS SPREAD BOMBS IN ALL SECTIONS OF BERLIN

Berlin, April 5.—Mysterious parcels containing explosives have been discovered during the past 24 hours by the police in various sections of Berlin. Some of them were found in private residences, on doorsteps, in hallways and along the tracks of the elevated railroads. Each of the packages was found to be supplied with a fuse which was ready to be lighted. Police officials declare that the German Communists had planned a reign of terror here during the recent disorders in Central Germany. Their purpose, it is declared, was to "frighten the bourgeois classes and encourage timid comrades to join in the revolt." Belief is expressed that Max Hoelz, known as the "German Robin Hood," supplied local Communists with quantities of explosives from Central German coal mining districts and assertion has been made that he personally drew up a plan to spread terror throughout Berlin.

Precautions taken by Government authorities, however, prevented the Communists from carrying out their part of the plan, and it is supposed that they have been getting rid of the explosives entrusted to them.

LENINE URGES MISSIONS TO SPREAD TERROR

Bolshevik Premier Would Have Revolution Cover the World.

London, April 5.—An undated document, purporting to contain secret, detailed instructions from Nikolai Lenin, the Russian Bolshevik premier, ordering soviet trade missions abroad to stir up revolution is published today by the London Times.

Soviet delegates are there instructed by the communication to stay at the best hotels and spare no expense; also to make efforts to "buy" the press. Special attention is called to the importance of arming workers to serve as a nucleus for fighting units. The Daily Telegraph also publishes the instructions. The newspaper says they were issued to the soviet trade delegation in Constantinople. The London Times, however, represents the plan of Lenin as being world-wide.

He could not state definitely the week it would be held, but assured The Advertiser that either the first or second week in July, when about 1,600 boys will be under canvas on Carling Heights for a week during which they will receive much the same instruction as will be given the militia in the summer camps. Gen. Panet also stated that the militia camp will be held during June.

$110,000 INSURANCE WILL BE PLACED ON THE CITY SCHOOLS

Special Committee Recommends Distribution Among Canadian and British Firms.

Three committees of the board of education met yesterday to prepare their reports for the regular monthly meeting of the board, which takes place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The first of these was the meeting of the special sub-committee appointed to revise the insurance on the city schools. The insurance will be distributed among the various companies doing business in fire insurance, and will, according to the recommendation of the committee, be confined to Canadian and British companies.

At 4:30 o'clock, No. 1 committee went into session. Considerable discussion took place relative to the duties of the public school teachers, Dr. E. W. Fuller and Roy Moore. It was explained that Dr. Fuller spends half a day each day in visiting the schools, and that he turns over the necessary work to the teachers. The necessary work being done by the teachers' union, the work being done at the Aberdeen School.

Would Cost $1,500. Inspector Croft reporting on the petition of the Evening Mothers' Club, that manual training and household science classes be arranged for in the Evening Public School, which was referred to the committee by the board, estimated that the cost of installing such classes would be about $1,500. The committee laid the matter over to a later meeting, and will report progress to the board.

Trustees Ellice and Smith were appointed to the salaries committee. A large number of accounts were approved and will be recommended to the board for payment. At night the industrial advisory committee met in the boardroom at 7:30 p.m. In the absence of the chairman, Trustees Thomas Rowe, Edwin Smith was appointed chairman.

Principal H. B. Beal reported that the attendance at the day classes during the month of March averaged 174, with an enrollment of 133. At the night classes the average attendance was 278, with an enrollment of 174. During the month, he stated, a check for $10,853.90, the first installment of the Government's annual grant, was received.

Students' Exhibitions. The students' annual exhibition, from March 15 to 23, had been a decided success, and the general standard of the work exhibited had been higher than in previous years. The principal and secretary of the board were instructed to write to the McClary Manufacturing Company, thanking them for the donation of an electric stove, valued at $175, as a prize in the household science department. This prize has become an annual event.

It was decided to install a back-pressure valve to prevent the backing up of sewage into the school building during heavy storms, at a cost of $150 to $200. Thermostatic control of the radiator in the domestic science room was also authorized. Considerable discussion took place as to the advisability of putting in a new lawn on the Dundas street frontage, but it was finally decided that as considerable expense would be taken to the expenditure, the citizens not being acquainted with the need of it, it would be well to make another year's try of fertilizer and grass seed. The principal stated that the present lawn had been built up with the material excavated, and there is practically no soil, so that constant watering is necessary to induce grass to grow on it. It was decided to purchase some shrubs to be placed along the front of the building.

Communications Read. The secretary read three communications, the first being a letter of appreciation addressed to the board by the teachers, expressing their thanks for the recent increase in salaries.

A letter signed by 30 members of the wood-carving class, complaining that the lighting of the class-room is poor, was read. The committee visited the room, and were of the opinion that the light was quite adequate, but the principal was empowered to ask the objectors for any constructive suggestion that they may have for the improvement of the lighting. Dr. E. W. Fuller, a wood and chairman Rowe were named representatives of the Technical School on the special teachers' salaries committee.

Authority was given to the chairman and principal to make the necessary arrangements for the securing of soft and hard coal for the school.

COUNCIL APPROVES MAYOR'S ACTION ON GAS COMPANY'S BILL

Heated Discussion Precedes Unanimous Vote Sustaining Mayor Little.

OPPOSE HIGHER RATE

Aldermen Appoint Committee of Three To Go To Toronto.

After one of the most acrimonious discussions in the history of the city council, a unanimous motion sustaining the action of Mayor Little in regard to the gas bill before the private bills committee last Thursday was passed by the council last night. A motion to oppose the action of the Legislature committee in approving a rate of $1.25 for the gas was adopted.

It was discussion of this which led to a sharp debate between Ald. Cameron Wilson and G. A. Wenig, on one side and Mayor Little and Ald. Bridge on the other. A motion to grant a building permit for the erection of an undertaking establishment on Queen's avenue, between Waterloo and Colborne streets, was sent to No. 2 committee, only Ald. A. Wilson voting in favor of its immediate adoption. This was done with the expectation that a private deal would be made in the meantime between the undertaker and the citizens objecting to the establishment.

Going To Toronto. Aldermen W. A. Wilson, P. J. Watt and John Bridge were authorized to go to Toronto today to oppose the McCrea bill. Retrenchment on a large program of public works for this year was indicated by the referring back to committee a number of paying and other local improvement bylaws. Bylaws to create three residential districts and to regulate restaurants were refused readings.

Unanimous approval was given to a recommendation of No. 1 committee authorizing the city solicitor to commence legal proceedings against the London Street Railway Company to secure payment for its share of Rectory street paving.

The greater part of the discussion of the evening centered around the gas question. Speaking to the motion, which he and Ald. Watkinson had introduced, opposing the passing of the gas bill by the private bills committee, Ald. Wenig asked what had become of the resolution opposing the measure that he was making an insinuation that he was making a statement that he had not been recognized by Ald. Wilson and Wenig.

He declared that he was in Toronto to protest against the McCrea bill. With a delegation from the Hydro Association he went to see Premier Durnand. While waiting for the premier he had managed to see K. K. Homuth, chairman of the special committee dealing with the bill. Mr. Homuth stated that no further deputations in regard to it would be heard. The mayor stayed over until the following day, but the progress of the Ottawa town-planning bill, but did not reach the Parliament buildings until 11 o'clock. Dr. Stevenson informed him that the committee had dealt with the gas bill. He could not say if the resolution of protest was presented, but he had given it to Mr. Homuth and Dr. Stevenson also had a copy.

Not Entirely Wrong. Ald. Wilson said he was prepared to accept the mayor's statements with a few reservations. "Mr. Homuth distinctly stated we would be given another chance to appear before the committee," he said. "Considering that we would seem to be acting in a manner that was manifestly unfair, particularly in view of the council's resolution, it was handed to him. The morning following his conversation with the mayor the bill was railroaded through. It would appear that I was somewhat justified in my remarks, and something lingers in my mind that tells me I wasn't entirely wrong after all. He did not entirely reserve. He did not file an investigation, and that was all that was wanted. I accept his statement without reservation."

"This is the first chance I have had to give an explanation, or at least a reply to the council," Mayor Little replied. "I don't think it was particularly honorable to take this action. I have not done anything since I was in the council that would warrant any member or citizen doubting my honor as Ald. Wilson has done. His manifesto, the first time we visited the committee, was entirely behind. He would have put me over something."

Retractions Claim. Ald. Ashton reiterated his claim that the members of the council who were voting for a final settlement of the matter, and not a basis of agreement, were wrong. He would have taken the same action as the mayor under the circumstances. He thought it was time to stop playing the politics. He moved a vote of confidence in the mayor. This was seconded by Ald. Cameron Wilson and unanimously carried.

Ald. Watt gave notice of motion to have No. 2 committee of the council investigate the advisability of returning to the contract system of garbage collection.

SIR JOHN WILLISON HERE ON WEDNESDAY Will Address Western University Students in Journalism—Public Invited.

Sir John Willison will be the special lecturer this week before the short course in Journalism being conducted by the Western University. Sir John's subject will be "Canadian Journalism as it Was and as It Is," a topic of decided interest to all newspaper people and others interested in the field. The lecture is primarily for the members of the class of Journalism, but any others who may desire to attend may do so, though it is important that they should be in their seats in the lecture room of the Y. M. C. A. promptly at 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. No one will be allowed in after 5 o'clock, as the class must not be disturbed.

BRITISH MAILS CLOSE. The next mail for Great Britain and Europe will close at the local post-office today at 10 p.m. Letters only—S. S. Mauritania, sailing from New York on Thursday next.

to the bill in any way," Ald. Harley remarked. Ald. Bridge said his presence in Toronto was related only to opposition to the McCrea bill. He had talked with Sir Adam Beck, whom he claimed, was opposed to the action of the gas committee, but he had had no further conference with members of the Legislature.

Town Planning Bill. Mayor Little refused to recognize either Ald. Wilson or Ald. Wenig, but said he would make a report at the request of the council. "I was at the Legislature last Thursday, but not until 30 minutes after the private bills committee had dealt with the question," he stated. "I didn't know the matter was to come up. I was there at the request of Secretary Gordon Philip of the Chamber of Commerce to watch a town planning bill from Ottawa, in which he was interested. Ald. Wilson has insinuated that I was waiting for the gas bill to pass."

Ald. Wilson claimed he was complimentary to the mayor's refusal to recognize him, but maintained that the mayor had had the council's resolution of protest in his pocket, had seen members of the private bills committee, including Homuth and Bracklin, and yet no protest was made, and the bill was "railroaded through" next morning.

More Hearing Chances. "There is a clear-cut issue here, but it is being evaded and red herrings are being thrown across the trail. I am willing to apologize for any of my statements which are proved untrue," he said. "I take it Ald. Wilson has apologized to me," Ald. John Bridge remarked. "In my judgment it has not been shown that the mayor knew this bill was up when he was in Toronto," Ald. Harley commented.

"The aldermen who inquired about this affair got a full explanation," asserted Mayor Little. "But Ald. Wilson rushed into print and said nothing to me except to 'compliment' me on winning the 'second round of the battle,' whatever he meant by that. As I heard it from one person, it was remarked that the mayor had 'sold the city.'"

Ald. Wilson denied any remark of that nature. "But," he maintained, "this issue has been evaded. I am sorry the mayor will not recognize me, because I like him. He is lined up on the other side of the question. When there are two sides it means that one of them must be licked. I've been licked down and taken it."

At this point a vote was taken on the motion to oppose the action of the private bills committee. Eight aldermen favored it.

Willing to Explain. Ald. Watkinson and Ald. Bridge then asked the mayor to explain affairs at Toronto last Thursday. The mayor replied that he had been willing to do this all along. No one more than he regretted the quarrelling and bickering, and he was sorry for anything he might have done to further it, but he had a sense of honor, and he felt this had not been recognized by Ald. Wilson and Wenig.

He declared that he was in Toronto to protest against the McCrea bill. With a delegation from the Hydro Association he went to see Premier Durnand. While waiting for the premier he had managed to see K. K. Homuth, chairman of the special committee dealing with the bill. Mr. Homuth stated that no further deputations in regard to it would be heard. The mayor stayed over until the following day, but the progress of the Ottawa town-planning bill, but did not reach the Parliament buildings until 11 o'clock. Dr. Stevenson informed him that the committee had dealt with the gas bill. He could not say if the resolution of protest was presented, but he had given it to Mr. Homuth and Dr. Stevenson also had a copy.

Not Entirely Wrong. Ald. Wilson said he was prepared to accept the mayor's statements with a few reservations. "Mr. Homuth distinctly stated we would be given another chance to appear before the committee," he said. "Considering that we would seem to be acting in a manner that was manifestly unfair, particularly in view of the council's resolution, it was handed to him. The morning following his conversation with the mayor the bill was railroaded through. It would appear that I was somewhat justified in my remarks, and something lingers in my mind that tells me I wasn't entirely wrong after all. He did not entirely reserve. He did not file an investigation, and that was all that was wanted. I accept his statement without reservation."

"This is the first chance I have had to give an explanation, or at least a reply to the council," Mayor Little replied. "I don't think it was particularly honorable to take this action. I have not done anything since I was in the council that would warrant any member or citizen doubting my honor as Ald. Wilson has done. His manifesto, the first time we visited the committee, was entirely behind. He would have put me over something."

Retractions Claim. Ald. Ashton reiterated his claim that the members of the council who were voting for a final settlement of the matter, and not a basis of agreement, were wrong. He would have taken the same action as the mayor under the circumstances. He thought it was time to stop playing the politics. He moved a vote of confidence in the mayor. This was seconded by Ald. Cameron Wilson and unanimously carried.

Ald. Watt gave notice of motion to have No. 2 committee of the council investigate the advisability of returning to the contract system of garbage collection.

BIRD NOTES

(Contributed by McIlwraith Ornithological Club.)

The birds that come here in the spring may be roughly divided into two classes, those that remain here to nest and those that pass on to more northern breeding grounds. CONGRATULATIONS, GROCERS!

Again we are pleased to extend congratulations to our fellow merchants. The grocers, who have for years fought for shorter hours, and finally took the stand independently of their shops at 7 p.m. on Saturday nights, are worthy of more than congratulations. They are deserving of hearty support and co-operation in this important step, the success of which entirely rests in the hands of the buying public, by assenting that your supplies are purchased before that hour. We congratulate you, and trust that this move will mark another epoch in the early closing campaign.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM LIMITED

Jointly With Naval Veterans Makes Recommendation To D. S. C. R.

OTTAWA, April 4.—(By Canadian Press.)—Reaffirmation of the principle of a $2,000 bonus for Canadian veterans of the war is contained in the recommendations of the Grand Army of United Veterans and Naval Veterans' Association to the parliamentary committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment, which will be dealt with by the committee tomorrow morning. The recommendation sets forth that this amount should be paid through soldiers' organizations and the funds secured through a reconstruction bond issue on Victory loan lines. War indemnities, it is stated, should also be earmarked for this purpose.

Other recommendations made by the G. A. U. V. include free medical treatment for five years; government employment for disabled men; adequate compensation for deserted wives; compensation for parents who lost sons on service; a re-establishment committee with power to grant loans in each military district.

An important resolution is one asking that unemployed veterans be placed in army pay and allowances until such time as offered positions commensurate with their physical conditions and business ability. Owing to the death of apprentices in the various trades the G. A. U. V. suggests that all minors, up to 21 years of age, be given an opportunity to become apprentices at prevailing wages, the Government to contribute to make this a living wage.

BUILDING ACTIVITY IN CITY CONTINUES ITS UPWARD TREND

First Five Days of April Has Record of 24 Permits.

Building was never so active in London as at the present time, at least so far as small contracts are concerned. Comparatively few large enterprises have been started yet, but building figures are well in the lead of the record attained by this time last year. It is expected that many larger buildings will be commenced within a short time now that the warmer weather seems to have arrived to stay. There is every prospect of the year being a record one from the building standpoint, according to Building Inspector Arthur M. Piper.

No less than twenty-four permits have been issued to date, and the record for the month which has elapsed is 24. This represents an amount of building totalling $17,125. It still has a considerable distance to go to equal the record of $211,510 in April, 1920.

Principal permits today were: J. R. Morrison, 1-story house, 474 Princess avenue, $3,000; Dr. Schaefer, 2-story brick veneer addition 1225 Dundas street, $2,000.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY DISCUSSES SPRING FLOWERS

Interesting Addresses By M. W. Althouse and R. A. Finn.

"Spring Flowers in the Garden" was the subject of a fine address given by M. W. Althouse to a large gathering of members of the Horticultural Society in Hyman Hall on Monday evening. Mr. Althouse dealt chiefly with the flowers that are beginning to show signs of life at present, and especially the early tulips, tulips and hyacinths. He urged all those who have not specialized in these flowers to do so. He referred to the fact that many of the wild flowers are being gradually exterminated and asked that members of the society do their best to preserve them. President W. E. Saunders exhibited several specimens of early flowers.

R. A. Finn, president of the society for the City Garden. He advised if barnyard manure was unobtainable, use leaves that had been collected in the fall. If neither of these could be had the only alternative left was commercial fertilizer. This is a more concentrated food than manure and leaves. He explained briefly the best kinds of fertilizers that can be used for orchards, shrubs, lawns, vegetable gardens and flowers.

Mel Dale exhibited a number of his fern collections.

ALLEGED GERMAN SPY ARRESTED IN LONDON MAY BE DEPORTED

James Val. Morton Wanted
by U. S. Authorities for Alleged Bigamy.

EX-MEMBER OF 33RD

Believed Implicated in Trouble of Regiment While in Training.

James Val-Morton, an alleged former German spy, arrested on a farm on the fourth concession of London Township at the request of the district attorney and the British consul in Cleveland, is waiting in the Midwestern county jail here for officers from Cleveland to take him to that city, where he is wanted on charges of bigamy and embezzlement. Val-Morton has not admitted that he will fight extradition, and so far as could be learned here last night it is likely that he will voluntarily submit to the American officers come for him. He had been employed for about three weeks on a farm only a few miles from London. He was arrested in 1915 at Windsor, after coming from Pittsburgh. Sent to London from Windsor, he was drafted into the 3rd Battalion, and was at once made a drill sergeant. Asked by one of the local detectives why he did not seek further promotion in the army, he replied, it is stated by the police, that the non-commissioned rank suited his purpose better by bringing him into touch with both private and officers.

When Val-Morton returned to London in 1919 he took out naturalization papers in the United States, and the opinion of Crown Attorney McKillop is that he is an American citizen, although he is not bearing that name on his passport. He is now 32 years old. His employers on the farm where he was arrested stated he had aroused their suspicions by appearing to be always on guard and alert, and at times nervous, despite his fine physical appearance. He is tall and well built, and this, coupled with his splendid knowledge of drill as a supposed raw recruit, won him his appointment as drill sergeant in the army here. He has been drawing a pension from the Canadian pension department regularly.

He is tall and well built, and this, coupled with his splendid knowledge of drill as a supposed raw recruit, won him his appointment as drill sergeant in the army here. He has been drawing a pension from the Canadian pension department regularly.

So far as is known here, there are no prosecutions proposed for his alleged duplicity in his army, although the telegram from the British consul intimates that his record as actually in the employ of the German Government was the cause of his arrest in the Canadian army has been uncovered.

Val-Morton took his arrest philosophically, and made no trouble for the officers. Letters in his possession from women contain only the christian names and initials of the women, and whether they are from one of his supposed wives or not.

Upon arriving in London a month ago he spent two days at a local hotel before he was sent out to a farm job by the Ontario employment bureau.

Still in Army Clothes. Val-Morton was also known under the alias of John V. Baril. When in the Canadian army his regimental number was 491,702. He is said to be drawing a pension from the Canadian Government.

When arrested at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon the prisoner was attired in his army clothes, even wearing the three stripes denoting he was a sergeant on his arm. He did not offer any resistance when Detective Sergeant Robert Egleton, Detective Thomas Bolton, and Constable John Underwood, who were with him, placed him under arrest. The proprietors of the farm on which he was employed say that he wore the uniform at all times.

OFF THE RAILS

John Steward, 468 Hill street, this city, employed at the local G. T. R. freight sheds, suffered a painful injury on Monday afternoon, when a heavy steel plate fell on his right foot severely crushing his big toe. He was given first aid and medical treatment. Mr. Steward will be confined to his home for some days. Owing to the fact that there was no medical chest in the sheds or in the freight offices the work of those who sought to administer first aid was greatly hampered. The two clerks who bound the wounds were forced to use unsterilized factory cotton and a pocket handkerchief.

ONLY A PALTRY $2.—Thieves broke into the G. T. R. station at Hyde Park during Monday night. Their efforts were rewarded by less than two dollars, which was found in the till. Nothing else was disturbed. Entrance was gained when the thieves smashed the lock on the door.

EVEN THE PLATFORM YIELDED.—A considerable excitement and a few watery mouths prevailed for many minutes at the G. T. R. station early this morning, when a Canadian Express Company's truck, bearing 110 cases of whiskey, upset. Every case on the truck tumbled to the platform, but only four of the 120 bottles were broken. With the aid of cups and all available tin much of the trickling liquor was sopped. The load proved too heavy for the platform, and two of the planks gave way, throwing the truck on its side.

START RELAYING TIES.—The maintenance of way work on the C. P. R. was started. A gang of men were engaged this morning replacing worn ties before the local C. P. R. station. A heater employed to carry on the work was standing unattended by the G. T. R. freight sheds. Swinging sharply around they plunged down the roadway.

WHISKEY BEING SHIPPED.—For the first time in many months whiskey is being shipped out of Walkerville to points east. Several hundred cases arrived in this city today for transfer. Two carloads of liquor arrive in this city every night from Montreal, chiefly for points west.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. "Suicide By Inches"

Thousands of people commit suicide by inches!

If you took minute daily doses of some poisonous drug, no particular effect might be noticed until accumulation of the poison made its action evident.

Yet how many realize that poisonous substances are formed constantly during digestion and the preparation of the food waste for elimination.

If the bowels act regularly and thoroughly, these poisons are eliminated. But if constipation exists, there results stagnation of intestinal waste, germs multiply; and poisons are formed and carried by the blood to every cell of the body.

The victim of self poisoning commits suicide by inches. Pills, castor oil, laxative waters and salts only force and irritate the bowels, and make constipation a habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world.

Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol, 22 St. Francis Xavier Street, Montreal, P.Q., for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger."

REBELS KILLED 243 IN YEAR; WOUNDED 3,810

Startling Figures Given in Govt. Report to Sinn Fein Outrages.

LONDON, April 4.—Startling figures of outrages attributed to the Sinn Fein during the year ending March 31, were given by Dennis Henry, attorney-general for Ireland, in the House of Commons today in reply to a question. The figures showed a steady increase in the number of killings and wounding of police and military forces, quarter by quarter.

In the last quarter of the year there were 2,248 outrages. Eighty-eight policemen were killed and 146 wounded, while 44 soldiers were killed and 54 wounded. The total outrages for the whole year number 10,894. The police killed totalled 243, and the wounded 3,810. The soldiers killed numbered 30, and the wounded 202.

DUBLIN, April 4.—Crown forces were ambushed early this morning in Shanahilly, County Tipperary, one of the attackers being killed, and one wounded. The crown forces sustained no losses. In another ambush at Ballina, County Mayo, one constable was wounded.

Last night a constable walking with a civilian in Carlow, County Carlow, was attacked. The constable was killed and the civilian wounded.

An armed attack in force on the Charleville, County Cork, barracks was repulsed without casualties.

The reply of Gen. Allgood, military commander in Northwest Ulster, to the zones of violence in Londonderry over the week-end has been to advance the curfew one hour.

NO INDEMNITY WILL BE PAID RIOT VICTIMS

Govt. Denies Any Responsibility For Troubles in Quebec.

ACRIMONIOUS DEBATE

J. A. Sexsmith Introduces a Resolution Favoring Proportional Representation.

OTTAWA, April 4.—By Canadian Press.—The House today discussed topics as widely apart as proportional representation, the "humiliation" of a Canadian hospital in Montenegro, and indemnities to victims of the so-called Quebec riots of 1918. The debate was private members' day and the attendance was scanty. For the whole afternoon, practically, the Quebec riots held the stage. Quebec members claimed that the Government should assume responsibility for payment of an indemnity, and the minister of justice summed up the ministerial attitude by declaring that he could find no question of legal responsibility on the part of the Government.

The debate was not unmarked by bitterness. "What," demanded H. C. Hocken (Toronto West), "should those who contributed liberally to the winning of the war be called upon to indemnify those who played the part of rebels?" There were cries of sharp dissent from Liberal benches. "Spoken in a characteristically Toronto fashion," he declared, Hon. Charles Murphy.

Lost on Division.

There was more debate, and the resolution calling for payment of an indemnity was declared lost on division.

The Montenegro incident was brought up by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux. It touched on the treatment accorded by Serbian authorities to the Canadian hospital mission in Montenegro, headed by Dr. F. W. E. Burnham of Winnipeg. The House was at one on the necessity of obtaining "respect for Canadian nationals in foreign countries. Hon. Mr. Lemieux urged that no Canadian Red Cross funds should be apportioned to Serbia until an apology has been made. "I am not a swashbuckling imperialist," exclaimed Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., "but the time has come to let the world know that the rights of Canadian citizens must be respected."

Has No Objection.

The prime minister was not convinced that documentary evidence in the case warranted specific interference. But the Government had no objection to the production of correspondence. However, if the need for redress was shown, there would be the time to act.

It was well into the evening when the House reached proportional representation. J. A. Sexsmith, Peterborough East, had a resolution favoring "some system of proportional representation and providing for the appointment of a special committee to inquire into the different systems of proportional representation with a view to recommending one of these for adoption." Mr. Sexsmith quoted many instances and authorities to show the value of proportional representation. The "victims" method had resulted in Orange Toronto being set against Catholic Quebec, in the gathering of votes by the gild hand system.

Support Proposal.

Hon. T. A. Crerar, leader of the National Progressives, and Levi Thompson (Que'Appelle), the Progressives' chief whip, both supported proportional representation. Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of immigration, had an amendment. He moved inclusion of the "single transferable vote" as well as proportional representation within the scope of the proposed committee's activities, and that the committee should inquire into the desirability of one or the other being adopted.

Modifies Amendment.

On a suggestion from F. L. Davis (New Brunswick), Mr. Calder modified his amendment to make it read: "The single transferable or preferential vote." The amendment was adopted, the amended resolution carried, and the following were appointed as a special committee: W. J. Blair (Battle River), John A. Calder, Edmund Proulx (Prescott), J. A. Currie (Simcoe North), A. L. Davidson (Digby-Annapolis), J. J. Denis (Holtzie), John Harold (Brampton), R. J. Manion (Fort William), A. R. McMaster (Brome), J. P. Molloy (Provencher), F. J. P. Pardee (Lambton West), J. A. Sexsmith (Peterborough West), T. E. Simpson (Algoma), J. R. Sinclair (Antigonish), Levi Thompson (Que'Appelle), and H. F. Whidden (Brandon).

To Amend Act.

A bill to amend the railway act to bring back, operating on inland waters, under the control of the railway commission, was introduced by J. E. Armstrong (East Lambton) when the House opened this afternoon. Mr. Armstrong described his bill as a "hasty annual." The bill was given first reading.

T. W. Caldwell (Victoria and Carleton) introduced a bill to amend the fertilizer act of 1905. This bill was not, he said, intended to make any important changes in the present act. Its intention was to compel manufacturers of fertilizers to have on each package a statement of the contents of the package. The bill had the support of a majority of the fertilizer manufacturers in Canada. A few manufacturers only were guilty of malpractice. The bill was given first reading.

Assist Deportation.

Ernest Lapointe (Quebec East) secured first reading of a bill to amend the immigration act with respect to the deportation of undesirable persons. The bill was practically the same as the Government bill thrown out by the Senate in committee last session, and provides against the deportation of British subjects from Canada without trial by the ordinary courts.

Hon. H. S. Beland (Beauce) quoted Premier Melghe as having stated in Montreal that the Government, having taken over the Grand Trunk Railway, would give it a fair trial, and that if the Government did not make a success of it, someone else might. Dr. Beland asked if this foreshadowed handing over the National Railways to private ownership.

Premier Melghe—The answer to the question is "No."

D. D. McKenna (Cape Breton) asked if it was correct that the Grand Trunk had defaulted on certain bonds. The whole financial situation of the Grand Trunk, he added, appeared to be very much in the air.

Has No Information.

The prime minister replied that the Government had no information that the default had taken place. Interest on certain bonds was due. In respect of these and in respect of others related thereto, correspondence between the Government and the Grand Trunk was now proceeding. Full details would be given to Parliament later.

George Parent (Quebec West) moved a resolution for the payment of an indemnity to "the innocent victims who, during the so-called Quebec riots of 1918, have either been killed or wounded by the soldiers of his majesty."

Mr. Parent said he brought the matter up last session, but the Government had taken no action. Apparently the Government was inclined to treat the matter lightly. He read a number of letters from persons who were injured in the riots, and who claimed reparation for the injury done them.

Hard to Determine.

Mr. Parent admitted that responsibility in the various cases had been difficult to determine. It was his sincere and honest opinion that every citizen would "chip in" and pay a little good Canadian money to indemnify those innocent Canadian victims who have suffered.

Lapointe (Quebec East) was heartily in accord with the resolution. A similar view was expressed by P. F. Casgrain (Charlottetown-Montserrat), who referred particularly to the case of one Tremblay, a technical school student, who had been wounded. His wound had not been mortal, but because he had not been given medical attention immediately he suffered intensely and died the next day. The man had taken no direct part in the rioting.

Nothing Was Done.

Hon. H. S. Beland (Beauce) hoped and expected that after the matter of riots was brought up last session the Government would have investigated it, but nothing had been done. The peace treaty aimed at relieving sufferers to some extent, but Quebec was not a party to it, however, from which the people of Canada were the only ones who could be called upon to indemnify the sufferers. The unfortunate outbreak occurred in another province he would have been just as ready to ask compensation for the victims. The outbreak was not a case of rebellion, but a case of rioting. Major C. P. Power (Quebec South) said at the time of the riots were raw recruits who had not handled rifles until ten minutes before they were sent on the streets. The newspapers of the country had published inflammatory reports with regard to the so-called riots, and these young recruits from outside points were probably affected. Surely the person or persons responsible for sending such men to Quebec should be willing to shoulder the blame.

H. C. Hocken (Toronto West) said that what Mr. Parent was asking was a pension for men who were on the streets of Quebec when they had been warned by Gen. Lessard to keep off. Men who refused to be warned had no right to come to Parliament asking for an indemnity. How could soldiers distinguish between these men and rioters? The people of Canada, outside of the Province of Quebec, had contributed liberally to the winning of the war in men and money, but they should not be called upon to indemnify those who played the part of rebels at a time when the country needed loyal citizens. He felt that if an indemnity were granted to these men, the action of the Government in so doing would be resented by the G. W. V. A. and by the loyal citizens who had contributed their all to the war.

Murphy Comes Back.

Hon. Charles Murphy criticized "the characteristically Toronto fashion" in which Mr. Hocken misrepresented Mr. Parent's statements.

The minister of justice said after considerable investigation into this matter he could find no question of any legal responsibility. He had considered the case carefully, and the suggested analogy drawn between the expropriation of a man's property and the expropriation of a man's life by the Government. There was, however, no legal basis for such an analogy. The only claim in this case must be on sympathy and grounds. The victims, innocent as they might have been, had no legal claim on the Government for any damages.

I tried different remedies and cough syrups, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and before I had used two bottles, my cough was all gone, and gone for good. I have not coughed since."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c and 60c a bottle at all druggists; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE TELL-TALE OF GREY HAIR

To be judged ten years older than you actually are, is the tale of grey, streaked hair, which detracts from a youthful appearance as much as a wrinkled face does.

Women, everywhere, prefer the easy, harmless "Brownatone" method that tints grey, streaked, faded or bleached hair naturally, to any shade of brown or black.

Without injury to hair or scalp, "Brownatone" imparts natural, lasting colors that defy detection. Does not rub or wash off; and requires just a few moments to apply.

Guaranteed absolutely harmless. Two sizes—50c and $1.50, with easy, complete directions. "Brownatone" is sold and recommended in London by Gaircross & Lawrence; Taylor Drug Store, 490 Richmond Street; Standard Drug Co.'s Stores, Ltd., and Liggett Drug Co., Ltd., Ltd.

Special Free Trial Offer.

For a free trial bottle of "Brownatone" write to The Toronto Pharmacy Co., 600 Coppin Building, Covington, Ky., enclosing the pay postage and packing.

agree of compensation. The crown was not responsible for the wrongdoing of its individual employees. Quebec had not been the only city to make such a claim. Calgary also had had similar troubles during the war, and complaints had been made of soldiers breaking into shops, and so on.

No Ground For It.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux said there was certainly ground for a compassionate allowance, on the part of the Government, and gave precedents.

He charged that agents provocateurs had been employed by the department of justice.

Hon. Mr. Doherty—The men were employed, but that they were employed as agents provocateurs is quite another statement.

In 1837 and 1838, said Mr. Lemieux, the people of Toronto were not slow in demanding an indemnity for the Loyalists, but it was many years later before the families of the rebels were given assistance. There had been some protests against this, especially from the "Hockens" of the day, who had destroyed the Parliament Buildings in Montreal.

Here Speaker Rhodes called Mr. Lemieux to order.

"I say the Orange Sentinels of the day," Mr. Lemieux amended. In memory of the dead in Flanders' fields, he concluded the song of the dead. The people of Toronto should not prevail.

A HOMEMADE GREY HAIR REMEDY

You Can Make a Better Grey Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Grey, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary. Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken grey hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water, add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Orlon Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a grey-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

THUGS ABDUCTED HAMILTON GIRL

HAMILTON, April 4.—Returning to her home on Niagara street in East Hamilton late Saturday night, Miss Elsie Babcock was attacked by two foreigners. She was abducted to a secluded house near the waterfront and held prisoner for nearly an hour, during which attempts were made to assault her. The thugs endeavored to force liquor upon her and offered money, but the girl fought desperately. Her captors becoming frightened, escorted the girl to within a block of her home, where the frightened victim screamed and attracted her brother. Though the police were notified at once they failed to get any trace of the men. The authorities state it to be the worst case of abduction reported in Hamilton in years.

Paying Farm Hands

$60 a Month in West

SASKATOON, April 4.—Wages for farm hands in the Saskatoon district are now $60 a month, a $10 increase on the price that has been advocated by the provincial employment officer. The office has already placed a considerable number of men on the increased wage. Some communities have pledged themselves to pay a maximum of $60, on the ground that the farmers cannot afford to pay more, but it looks as if the element of competition will recruit the scale, bringing it even higher than at present. Most applicants for jobs are English-speaking, the majority with experience. Wages are 25 per cent lower than last year, and the number of applicants and the demand for help is smaller.

"You Are Looking 'All In'"

"YES, and that is just how I feel."

"What seems to be the matter?"

"Why, I had tonsillitis, and my whole system seemed to be poisoned and run down. So much so that I do not seem to gain strength."

"Will you let me be your doctor and do as I tell you?"

"I will do anything to get strong and well. I have been sitting here too long already."

"Well, you send to the drug store for six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and take one pill after each meal and at bedtime. Believe me, it will not be long until you feel the benefit of this treatment and find yourself gaining in health and vigor."

"How do you know?"

"I know from personal experience. After I had the 'flu' I was left just like you are now—all run down, could not sleep; the little food I ate did not seem to do me any good, and I was getting pretty blue."

"Yes."

"Well, my wife had been using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and insisting on me giving it a trial. You know the rest, for I was soon about again, as hale and hearty as ever. I have told lots of people about this Nerve Food, and never knew it to fail yet."

"You are to be the doctor in this case, so I will follow your advice."

Why You Should Buy a Brunswick

The Brunswick was the first and is still the only phonograph built to play all makes of records, as the maker intended their should be played. This is accomplished by the invention of the "Double Uttona," which is a reproducer that combines the necessary features of the reproducer used for different records—all in one-including proper point, balance, phrasing and weight. A simple turn of the Uttona, without change or delay, converts the Brunswick from one system to another. It is a marvelous achievement.

Then, the acoustic qualities embodied in the Brunswick all-wood oval horn (which is the only all-wood oval phonograph horn) bring out all the delicate vibrations of tone that give music its real quality.

And the powerful Brunswick 4-spring motor that runs 37 minutes without winding, insures even running, less bother and much greater durability, so when you buy a Brunswick it is bought for all time. Finally, the Brunswick cabinets are masterpieces of perfection. In design, workmanship and finish they are superb; for the Brunswick Company has generations of experience behind them in wood-working craftsmanship, and unlimited timber resources for the selection of perfect woods.

It is this combination of quality and features that have made the Brunswick "Final Phonograph," all phonographs in one.

We Are London Headquarters For Brunswick Records

"Artistic Companions of the Brunswick Phonograph." Come in and hear them. They are played on any make of phonograph.

BIGGS DEMANDS A WIDE OPEN INVESTIGATION

Minister Will Probably Appear Before the Committee Tomorrow.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
TORONTO, April 4.—Formal cabinet assent has been given to Hon. F. C. Biggs' appearance before the public accounts committee of the Legislature on Wednesday morning. The minister of public works has reiterated before the premier his demand made in the first instance before committee that there be wide-open investigation.

Besides Hon. Mr. Biggs, deputy minister of highways, W. A. McLean, will testify at the Wednesday morning hearing, also Chief Engineer Hogarth of the department.

BRANTFORD COUNCIL APPROVES LICENSING OF MILK VENDORS

Will Not Enforce Measure Providing For Testing of Herds.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, April 4.—The perennial milk question came up at the city council this evening, when the council approved of the licensing of milk vendors, but refused to enforce self-recording thermometers in local pasteurizing plants, thus preventing the enforcement of government testing of district herds. The council authorized the purchase of an asphalt plant, it being the policy to have the city do all pavement construction here. Much concrete pavement has been laid by the city, but no asphalt work will also be carried out. The committee inquiring into assessment matters was unable to come to an agreement on the best system to adopt, and was discharged. The province would do all in its power to expedite work on the provincial highway, but that weather conditions were adverse was the word received from Hon. F. C. Biggs.

Fire tonight destroyed the home of Bert Meates, Brock street, and burned the roof off the frame house next door. With hands out, the Dufferin Rifles held their initial spring parade this evening. Col. M. A. Colquhoun, D.S.O., C.M.G., commanding. The regiment is not up to pre-war strength, but made a good showing.

WILL ASK DRURY TO DEFER ACTION ON M'CREA BILL

Galt Council Wants Views of Municipalities To Be Heard.

GALT, April 4.—In a letter to the council tonight Manager W. M. Kirkwood, of the G. R. R., stated that since the Standard Faving Company would be ready to do grading on Water street within a few days, the company would discontinue the switching service to manufacturers on the west side on Wednesday evening.

The resignation of Archie Hutchinson, for many years superintendent of Mountview Cemetery, was received. No reason for the action was given, and no member of the council had any previous intimation that it was coming. The cemetery committee will endeavor to retain his services.

The board of works reported that it had purchased two motor trucks, a stone crusher and equipment, and an electric motor, for the new civic quarry. On recommendation of the committee the commission passed a resolution requesting Premier Drury to defer action on the M'Crete bill until the municipalities are given an opportunity to state their cases.

FARM HANDS' WAGES LOWER IN ALBERTA

Schedule Will Run From $40 To $50 Per Month This Season.

CALGARY, April 4.—(By Canadian Press).—Wages in Alberta this year will be only about half what they were last year, according to several farmers and farming organizations. Hon. Duncan Marshall, provincial minister of agriculture, who was in Calgary this morning, when this question was put to him, replied emphatically that farmers could not possibly pay more than $40 to $50 a month, with board, for their help, in view of the prospect of wheat this year going back to pre-war basis.

Generally speaking, it is the intention of farmers, if they cannot secure help at about the figure mentioned, that they will only seek such land as they can handle.

INSPECTOR ORDERS MUSIC STOPPED

BRANTFORD, April 4.—Because authority has not yet been given by the board of education, musical education in Brantford's public schools has been discontinued. A member of the board told the Home and School Association that the musical teaching might be gone ahead with, and Harry Hill was secured at the expense of the association to instruct pupils at King Edward School. This morning the school inspector issued orders that the instruction was to be stopped.

Victoria Lodge, I. O. O. F., Hamilton, sent a degree team to Brantford tonight, and the initiatory degree was conferred on a number of candidates at Gore Lodge here.

REDUCTIO CAUSES STRIKE.
BOSTON, April 4.—A strike in the printing trades was not yet begun because of a reduction of wages. Approximately 100 book and job printing establishments and from 1,500 to 2,500 persons are involved.

BODY OF FARMER LONG MISSING FOUND IN RIVER

Mystery Surrounds the Fate of William Milne of Avonbank.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. MARYS, April 4.—After having been missing since the night of the big storm three weeks ago the body of William J. Milne was found in the Thames River this afternoon. It was discovered by searchers with grappling irons and lay in ten feet of water near a bank at the foot of the farm of C. J. Rea. Mr. Milne's watch had stopped at 10:30.

The case has aroused the whole countryside, and a widespread search failed to reveal the slightest clue until yesterday, when a cap found in the river led to the belief that he might be there. When found this afternoon by Douglas Martin, for whom Mr. Milne had often worked, the coat was pulled up over his head. Mr. Milne was wearing heavy rubber boots, and these apparently had kept the body from rising.

Complete Mystery.
There were no marks of violence on the body, and nothing in any way to indicate that Milne was the victim of foul play. The body was found almost three miles from his home. How he came to get in the river will probably never be known. He left his home on the night of the storm to make a call, and one story is that he may have been struck by lightning and fallen into the river. There are no marks on the body to indicate that this was the case.

Mr. Milne was 40 years old, and had lived in Canada 17 years. Both he and Mrs. Milne, to whom he was married five years ago, are natives of Aberdeen, Scotland. Besides his wife he leaves a four-year-old son, Franklin, and a two-year-old daughter, Bessie.

Coroner Rankin of Stratford will conduct an inquest.

KILLED BY FALL.
SARNIA, April 4.—The body of Geo. P. Marshall was found in the hold of the barge Burns today in the River St. Clair by members of the crew. Marshall had been dead for some hours.

For the past few nights Marshall, who was out of employment, has been bunking aboard the boat, and it is believed that he fell through the open hatch some time during the week-end. His skull was fractured. Coroner Falk took charge of the remains, and is trying to locate relatives of the dead man. Mr. Falk learned that Marshall had formerly been employed at Marysville as an electrician. He had a card on his person to the effect that in case of accident, Manuel Marshall, 1519 Ellsworth street, Philadelphia, was to be notified. A telegram was sent to that address, but it has been returned with the statement that no such person lives at that address given. Efforts to locate Manuel Marshall at other addresses were also unavailing.

WAS TAKEN SERIOUSLY.
WINDSOR, April 4.—T. P. Pinckard, president of the Windsor Gas Company, is not attaching a great deal of importance to the proposed development of the Sarnia gas field, as it might affect the local situation. A promoter of the Sarnia company stated that 70,000,000 feet might be supplied to Windsor annually. "That amount was only 4 per cent of the total amount of gas distributed locally last year," stated Mr. Pinckard. "It will be a great surprise to me if 70,000,000 feet of gas can be procured in that part of the province, but if such proves to be the case it would be worth developing. Gas from those fields could be supplied to Sarnia, which would relieve to some extent the situation here."

APPOINTED NEW BOARD.

INGERSOLL, April 4.—At a meeting of the council tonight H. E. Robinson of the Ingersoll Telephone Company asked the members to adopt an amendment to the agreement which will permit the taking over of the Bell Telephone system. The matter was referred to the council for consideration as a committee, and will be reported on in a week.

A resolution was passed expressing approval of the natural gas conservation act of the Provincial Legislature, and urging the Government to have it become law as soon as possible. A copy of the resolution will be sent to Premier Drury.

The Big Eight Club had representatives present asking for a donation and for the free use of the park for the sports planned for May 24. The Citizens' Band asked for a grant of $500 for ten concerts to be given throughout the season.

A parks committee was appointed, comprising W. Sutherland, William English and J. E. Ferguson.

The clerk was instructed to write the license commissioners in reference to a request that fines be turned over from

CITY MAY BUY STREET RAILWAY

Vote in Detroit On Traction Question Is Close.

DETROIT, April 4.—Passage of a constitutional amendment providing for a bond issue of $30,000,000 for a state aid bonus, and re-election of all Republican minor state officers, was indicated by returns late tonight from the state-wide election today. The bonus proposal was leading in what were considered representative reports by about three to one, and Republican candidates for office were leading Democrats by about the same ratio.

In Detroit a rather close vote was indicated by returns on two traction questions. A proposal that municipal and privately owned lines be jointly operated under supervision of the city council, with a 6 per cent return to owners of the private system, was running slightly behind in early reports. The early returned favored a proposal that a number of private lines be purchased and made a part of the municipal lines.

DETROIT, April 4.—The principal business before the council tonight was the request from the board of education for a grant of $100,000 additional for the new collegiate and technical school. The necessary bylaw providing for the grant was passed. A report of the fire chief showed that last month Sarnia fire losses totaled $15,175.

WILL GRANT $150,000.

THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC UNION.

The dispute between the Minister of Labor, Hon. Gideon Robertson, and the National Catholic Union of Quebec bids fair to become an issue of considerable importance in that province. The dispute had its origin in the demand by the National Catholic Union that they be given representation in the approaching conference which is to take place in Ottawa between representatives of the employers and employees in the building trades.

In declining to entertain this demand the Minister of Labor said some rather pointed things about the very evident religious character of the Quebec unions, and asked what would be the position if like unions were organized, say, among the Methodists in Ontario. There were some rather heated remarks during the interview, and Mr. Ernest Lapointe has given notice in the Commons that he intends to go after the minister at the first opportunity afforded him. The matter is further complicated by the fact that the Montreal Gazette, usually a staunch advocate of the Government, has attacked Senator Robertson's attitude in the strongest terms.

The Minister of Labor has replied to the Gazette's attack in a three-column statement appearing in the issue of March 31, and in the same issue appears a column and a half of editorial rejoinder that is no less pointed.

"Briefly stated," says the Minister of Labor, "every workman has, and should have, equal rights and voice in the industrial field. Neither religious nor political affiliations should be a recommendation or a bar to securing employment." He then points out that the National Catholic Union is limited in its membership to Roman Catholics, and that the constitution of one typical union contains the following interesting clause:

"Recognizing that the church alone has the right, and is qualified to say where, in the so-called labor questions, is the true and false, the just and unjust, the good and the bad, what is permissible and what is not, the Catholic Union of Printers and Bookbinding Workers will comply entirely and conscientiously, in the pursuit of its object, with the teaching and instructions of the religious authority."

Commenting on this and like clauses, the Minister of Labor says: "The foregoing shows that the purpose is church control of an organization of industrial workers. No resolution can pass or be adopted without the chaplain's consent. No Protestant and no Catholic connected with any other organization of workers is eligible for membership. Why? Obviously because they cannot be satisfactorily controlled by the church authority."

The minister adds that, "having cut themselves off from intercourse with all other labor bodies, knowing the impossibility of securing any recognition or co-operation from them, the National Catholic Union now demands that the Department of Labor force their unwelcome presence upon this conference, the only possible effect of which would be to destroy its usefulness." This is plain speaking from the Minister of Labor, and, presumably, from the Government.

ENGLAND'S GREAT STRIKE.
Nearly 2,000,000 British coal miners are on strike, and with the exception of half a dozen small pits, production of coal has ceased. The reason of the walk-out is that the Government has turned the mines back to private ownership. Until ten days ago the Government protically operated the mines, setting the figures for wages and prices the consumer should pay. The amount to be exported and the amount to be used for home consumption was set by the Government, and where a mine was unable to produce save at a loss—because of the wage schedule—the Government supplied the necessary financial assistance.

The way of the coal miner, or perhaps it would be more accurate, the miners' leaders, has been unfair and exasperating. They remanded and secured Government regulation and then kept up the bitter attacks that had preceded Government control. Now they are just as furiously hostile to the Government for turning control back to the owners. It is easy to explain this attitude. The miners' leaders realize that so long as the present wage schedule prevails, many mines cannot operate, now that the Government is no longer at hand to supply the deficits. The demand of the miners that the Government continue this ruinous policy has been rejected by Lloyd George, who advises them to make some new and economical arrangement with the owners. The immediate situation is that the Government has snatched an act by which it takes control of the consumption of fuel during the emergency. This naturally has angered the miners, who have threatened sabotage. In fact, already a number of pits are reported destroyed by flooding. If this should spread to the coal mines of the United Kingdom generally it would have a devastating effect on British trade and commerce, demoralizing business of all kinds, and bringing suffering to millions.

A few days ago the British premier warned the country against the conspiracies of labor extremists, who, he declares, were planning a revolution. Is the coal strike the first move of these destructionists? It certainly savors of the direct action that Smillie and his friends have been threatening to employ. Nothing could be more revolutionary than an attempt to force the Government into accepting the miners' demands than their threat to destroy the coal pits.

It is well that a man of Lloyd George's firmness and courage is guiding affairs. The vast majority of the people of the United Kingdom is with him in this black crisis. He has refused to be coerced by a radical element that would throw the country into anarchy in order to advance their impossible plans.

RAILWAY MUDDLE THICKENS.
The Minister of Railways has thrown himself pretty well upon the mercy of Parliament in the matter of the greatest of all Canadian problems. He has himself made but few suggestions as to its solution, but he has declared that the question is too big to be made a political football of, and he has asked for suggestions from Parliament. He will no doubt receive many. In the meantime a new problem has been presented in the default reported from Montreal in connection with Grand Trunk bonds in London. During the past week or so the Grand Trunk situation has been receiving much of the attention of the Government, and promises to add to the difficulties of an already tangled problem. The data set for the granting of the award fixing the price of the stocks which the Government must acquire in order to come into complete possession of the Grand Trunk System is April 3. The Grand Trunk is asking for an extension of the time. The responsibility for the delay is with the company, which apparently was not ready with its information, and there is a fairly strong body of opinion in Government ranks in favor of acquisition on the date set, and against any extension. If an extension is granted, the Government will be compelled to meet obligations for funding, etc., which it is not inclined to do under the present joint board of management, and before it has become possessor of the system.

There are, however, strong influences urging an extension, and there is a strong possibility of a compromise of some kind or another being reached. Interest default on the funded debt of the company, which is now reported, is said to be for but a small amount. Nevertheless, if not paid by someone, its non-payment will be the first step toward the liquidation of the system. This the Government cannot afford to contemplate, for the very same reasons as were advanced in the first place for choosing as an alternative the acquisition of the road.

Apart from other considerations liquidation would bring about something of a cataclysm. It would have the effect, for instance, of putting the Governments of the four Western Provinces up against the payment of bonds guaranteed on behalf of the Grand Trunk Pacific. And it would practically render non-effect the arbitration award now pending. If the interest now in default is not paid, the whole business at once goes in the air.

EVERYTHING

THE REALIST.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, the famous educationist, said at a dinner in Brooklyn:

"People talk a lot of nonsense about telling character by the walk, by the handwriting and so on. Now, there's one way you can really tell character, and that is by putting moral questions to school children."

"I remember a schoolboy who answered one of these moral questions back in 1880, in such a manner as to become a realistic novelist. Well, that boy is a realistic novelist, and a good one, today."

"The moral question put to his master and him was this: 'If a boy sold a pair of broken skates, and he knew they were broken, while the buyer did not what would you think of the transaction?'"

"To this question the realistic novelist in embryo wrote out the following reply: 'The boy was unfair, he was a cheat and a thief, and would run away happy and buy some cigarettes or maybe a box of mixtures.'"

"The boy was unfair, he was a cheat and a thief, and would run away happy and buy some cigarettes or maybe a box of mixtures."

OTHERS' VIEWS

CARVELL'S LIGHT.

It has at last come upon Hon. Frank B. Carvell, chairman of the board of railway commissioners, that an increase in Pullman rates may not correspondingly increase revenue through people declining to travel. But he says "freight must move," therefore from an increase in freight rates you get an increase in revenue.

It is not true. Freight may stay at home just as well as people. Take copper mine shipping, 1,000 tons a day at an ultimate net return of 50 cents a ton. Add 50 cents a ton to the freight and the freighter will not touch the ore, and the freight stays at home, as well as the freight paid for out of the wage fund.

Take a coal mine competing at 50 cents net profit for 1,000 tons a day in a market fed by a different railway system for the rest of its supply, or upon water haulage or wood substitution. Raise the freight 50 cents and another 1,000 tons stay at home.

These adjustments add to the overhead on freight that can still stand the rates. Up go the rates again. Finally the railway is reduced to a right of way and two streaks of rust, with a lawer a thousand miles away raising the rates again.

On the whole, it is a hopeful sign to see Mr. Carvell becoming peevish. That he can admit that there is such a principle as "more than the traffic can bear" is a sign of grace. He will secure plenty of direct evidence very shortly but not that there is such a principle but that it applies to express traffic and not to traffic as well as passengers, unless the whole railway situation in Canada is dealt with from a different angle from that in which the railway commission seems inclined to treat it.

Advance Guard of London Club Hits Buzz's Training Camp

McWaine, Alert Rookie, Hopped Off Train Yesterday Afternoon—Candidates Jump Right Into Work, Full of Pep.

By G. H. TOWNLEY.
DELAWARE, Ohio, April 4.—Although "Buzz" Wetzel had to hold some of them into their tops today he declared he had another winner this year. Only 12 of the 20 men signed with the London, Ontario, 1920 league champs put in their appearance at the spring training camp here today, when "Buzz" sounded the call for the first workout of the new year. As usual the London uniforms are late, and several players have wired that they have not received tickets.

The only ones on the scene are the Ohio lads who live close to the camp. McWaine, alert rookie, hopped off the train yesterday afternoon and was in the indoor gymnasium cages and reports from the camp each day were more on the weather than on the progress of the Londoners. All the men that had uniforms were tossing the horseshoe for fall this afternoon. The sun was warm, and the air just right for a workout.

Class and Sanders of Middletown, Ohio; Mathews of Drakes, Ohio; Linahan of Cambridge, Ohio; Wise of Troy, Ohio; and Daniels of Jacksonville, Ohio, all infielders, were romping 'em this afternoon. Pitchers Pinto, Chillicothe, Ohio; Hillyer, Murray City, Ohio, and Hall of Delaware, Ohio, were on the list as being on time. They worked out a while. Herbert of Chillicothe, also was here. Catcher Curry of Chillicothe was on deck. The rest of the crew is expected tonight.

Three games are scheduled with Ohio Wesleyan University, on whose list the champs are working, to be run off this week. The first is to be staged Wednesday evening.

It is too early to predict anything, but fans who were out today watching the Canadians pass the ball are banking again on Wetzel, with whom they fell in love last year. They are banking on his claim that he will develop from his green material another outfit that will either out the league flag or give the winner a chase for his life.

BAIL OF INDICTED PLAYERS DECREASED

Reduction From $24,000 To $7,500—Six Players Named.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The bond of each of the seven indicted Chicago American League baseball players was reduced today from $24,000 to $7,500 by Chief Justice McDonald of the criminal court. The players named were: Joe Jackson, Eddie Cicotte, Claude Williams, George Weaver, Oscar Felsch, Fred McMillin and Charles Riesberg.

Attorneys for the defense, in arguing for the reduction, pointed out that the players had not disappeared when under $50,000 bonds on previous indictments.

Defense counsel told the court that the bonds would be furnished in a week. The men are not under arrest.

GOOD MILLING AT SARNIA TOURNNEY

Two K.O.'s in Cruiser 145-Lb. Division—Finalists Both Hurt.

SARNIA, April 4.—The inter-club bouts held at Sarnia tonight provided a big crowd with some fast and deadly miling.

The finals of the 135-pounder class had to be called off when McDonald and Pettit, both of Sarnia, could not answer the summons owing to minor but painful injuries.

The 145-pound cruiser class, though, provided two knockouts. Kelly of Sarnia K.O. Campbell of Petrolia in the semi-finals, but Lester repeated it on Kelly when they met in the finals.

The results:

S. Garvin of Sarnia won from Ted Randall of Petrolia.

Young Lamont of Port Huron outpointed Jack Jennings of Sarnia.

Ralph Bennett of Petrolia, after outpointing McLeod of Sarnia for three rounds, won the title when the final round he hit and could not appear.

McDonald of Sarnia outpointed L. Bennett of Petrolia.

Pettit won from McFadden, both of Sarnia, after an extra round.

Joe Lozier won on a foul from Slater of Petrolia in the first round.

Kelly of Sarnia won by knockout over Campbell of Petrolia.

Final—Lozier won by knockout.

Lewis Throws John Pezk of Nebraska

NEW YORK, April 4.—"Stranger" Lewis of San Jose, Cal., world's heavyweight catch-as-catch-can wrestling champion, tonight threw John Pezk of Ravenna, Nebraska, with a bar and arm lock, after wrestling one hour, thirty-four minutes, and thirty-two seconds.

HERMAN WINS IN SEVENTH

FREEPORT, N. Y., April 4.—Pete Herman, former heavyweight champion, defeated Johnny Holberg of Brooklyn here tonight, the referee stopping the twelve-round battle in the seventh round. Holberg had been floored several times.

WORTH WATCHING

Many great infield combinations have been said to be the perfect unit, but when it came to a division. Certainly most of them, when taken apart and placed with less brilliant players have performed in a mediocre manner.

Take Eddie Collins, for instance. Collins looked bad when he left the Athletics and found himself on a losing White Sox team. He looked bad at bat and in the field. Then the White Sox developed another winning combination and with a good shortstop like Risberg to his right and a safe first like Gandil to his left, he was nothing of a crack infielder like "Buck" Weaver on third base. Collins again sprouted and became a blooming wonder.

This year Collins will be between a pair of recruit infielders. He will have protection on neither side. If he conceives plays in a flash, as he has always done, he will not have the assistance to carry them out, and he will be much like a great painter who is handcuffed. At bat there will not be the batting strength before and after, the kind of strength the Athletics had and later the White Sox, where a pitcher could not save his strength for Collins, but he would have to go for very batter with the possible exception of the pitcher. This year pitcher "Lefty" for the Cubs and Schalk, unless some of the recruits show surprising hitting strength, and there is nothing now to indicate that they will.

Majors Stare Jinx in Face, Starting On Hoodoo Date

April 13 Sounds Ominous, But It Doesn't Come On a Friday Fortunately—Were Usually Superstitious.

Some new and novel is for the major leagues to select the kickoff day April 13. Previously the big fellows always have side-stopped April's hoodoo date as one on which to open, and previously they never have arranged things so that the campaign got under way on Friday—nor are they likely to. The first Saturday game is invariably a big one, if the weather is at all decent, and opening on Friday would mean, if an opening was rained out, that two big games would be consolidated into one. That, more than superstition, is the reason the big leagues swing into championship action in the middle of the week.

Superstition has probably kept the club owners from heretofore slating the blow-off operations on April 13, the 14th having been one of the favorite dates picked previously.

In the early days of the pastime the club owners figured that it wasn't wise to swing into action until the last of May. That date was the opening one for the seasons of 1878, 1879, 1880, 1882, 1883 and 1884, and practically for 1881 and 1885. In the last two mentioned years some of the National League clubs played their first games on April 30 and the others on May 1 to 2.

Lifted on April 22, 1876.

In the first year of the National League—1876—the lid was lifted in Philadelphia on April 22 and in Louisville, Cincinnati and Brooklyn on April 25. Jupiter Pluvius may have fixed the date for the openings for the Cubs and the Cardinals and for the Athletics and the Superbas (then Mutuals), who took on the Braves, paired with the Phila in the first game of the season.

Harford's first game was played with Brooklyn on April 27. This was how the first games in 1876 in the National League turned out:

April 22, at Philadelphia—Boston 6, Philadelphia 5.

April 25, at Louisville—Chicago 4, Louisville 0.

April 25, at Cincinnati—Cincinnati 2, St. Louis 1.

April 25, at Brooklyn—Boston 7, Mutual 6.

Al Spalding pitched the first National League shutout on opening day 45 years ago. It was an oddity that since then no Chicago National League team has won the first game.

AS YOU WERE

(BY SEE S. GEE)

Buffalo is mentioned for a berth, instead of Cleveland, in a new western group of the National Pro Hockey Association, which will come into being April 25.

A meeting this afternoon of the special ways and means committee to further discuss the proposition ought to get it a bit farther along on the road to reality, and if the committee really have something definite to discuss this afternoon they've certainly been getting no verdure grow under their trousers.

The officials in charge of amateur sports certainly have a merry job on their hands if they expect to clean up any of the sports, now so strongly under official suspicion all over the Dominion. There is hardly any sport that is out of line with the pointing finger of accusation. Perhaps the worst offender is hockey. The situation is bad enough here in Ontario, where they use a little finesse in their "paying" and "residence" arrangements. But in the west they are most uncouth in their amateur dealings, and the public is let in on everything except the actual pay-days.

All the regulations in the world will never stop the practice of having amateur games just a mere camouflage to the paying of salaries that make professional services beggary by comparison. Many a pro hockey player has mourned the jump from amateur ranks, and it is tempting to be a still poorer move.

About the only way to get at the evil is by education. Lift up the sporting ideals of the various communities, and they won't stand for the amateur player who looks on athletics as a profitable side-line only. This looks like a big task, considering that the work would have to be put on all communities from top to bottom. Laws, if they were drastic enough, and as drastically enforced, might start the ball rolling in the right direction, but slevilike legislation, half-heartedly imposed, will only aggravate the evil.

Rickard's option on the services of Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier expires in five more days. To all offers and inquiries Rickard simply says: "I'll tell you Saturday." One thing is certain, Rickard on his past record won't let the big fight be staged by anyone but "Tex." About the only safe prediction as to the locale is the U. S. of America.

The Mint League may be long on fast ball this year, but with Knotty and Shag out of the circuit it will be short on much colorful conversation.

The White Sox players would have to clean up an awful bunch of pillows to pay half their attorney's bills.

The Tigers are on the last leg of their training trip. It's too early for them to be in the last division yet.

The Brantford Red Sox are no as the Brants this year. They couldn't disguise a Brantford ball fan that easily.

ORGANIZE JUNIOR SOCCER AT BIG MEETING TONIGHT

Four Teams Already Certainties—Six Teams Probable—20-Year Age Limit Likely.

A meeting will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the 1st W. O. R. at the armories in order to organize a junior soccer league for the season. Four teams—Machine Gunners, 1st W. O. R., 12th Field Battery, and Grand Trunk Apprentices—are certainties, and the Hussars, with another team, will come in, it is expected. A team representing the Y. M. C. A. is also a welcome addition as the sixth team.

The age limit is the big question of the hour, and will be settled once the league is gotten under way tonight.

Some of the military teams say an age limit of 18 years, which has been proposed in some quarters, would make it too close for them, as they do not sign on recruits until they are 18 years past.

A 20-year age limit might prove more acceptable, however, than jumping to the 21-year age limit desired by one club.

The high cost of equipment is a great hindrance to the development of sport along junior lines in many games, but happily this is not so big a problem with soccer, the equipment for which is the cheapest of any pastime.

SARNIA TO CONSIDER A CITY LACROSSE CIRCUIT TOMORROW

Sarnia Lacrosse Club Is Behind the Move, But Won't Run Show.

SARNIA, April 4.—Wednesday night Sarnia will make its first attempt to bring the national game within the reach of the young fellows of the city who want to play, but are as yet uninitiated into the how of the playing rules, when a meeting to organize a city league for the coming season to develop players for the Junior O. A. L. A. team, as well as supply players for the intermediate ranks for the future, will be held in the chamber of commerce rooms.

Norman Glatz, who broached the idea and started the ball rolling, will explain the idea to the meeting, and it is altogether likely that a number of the officers of the parent body will be present to prove that the Sarnia Lacrosse Club is behind the move.

Whether the City League will be run by the lacrosse club or whether they will elect their own officers and run their own affairs, to allow the lacrosse club to devote all its time to the O. A. L. A. details will be decided at the meeting. That matter will rest with the lacrosse club.

Every young fellow who wants to take a whiff at the game this year is welcome to the meeting. Some of the strongest players in Sarnia, as well as other O. A. L. A. teams, last year played their first games and made good during one season, amply proving that years of experience is not necessary to pick up the game, as they do not sign on recruits until they are 18 years past.

The high cost of equipment is a great hindrance to the development of sport along junior lines in many games, but happily this is not so big a problem with soccer, the equipment for which is the cheapest of any pastime.
