STUDENTS PLAN FOR ASSEMBLY

Abolition of Present Council Will Be Discussed at Meeting Tomorrow.

Upwards of 40 students of the university will attend a meeting at the college of arts tomorrow afternoon to discuss the abolition of the students' council as it stands now and create a parliamentary form of gov ernment in its stead.

Grant Wiley, prefect, said today that the movement was one of the most pronounced advances yet conceived for the student government The meeting has been called for a thorough discussion of the proposed changes. All students have been in-vited, but 40 have been especially called upon to be present to insure a representative body.

The new form of government would see a prefect and sub-prefect, with an assembly of 26 members From the assembly the prefect would hoose three members, who with self and the sub-prefect would form an executive council of five members, the assembly to ratify the prefect'

The plan calls for a meeting of the assembly once a month, with the ex-ecutive responsible to it.

The assembly would be constituted of members elected from the different years as follows: Seniors, eight members: junior, four; sophomores, four; freshmen, two; first year premedical, two; second year pre-medi-

The Broken - Hearted Wife Who Helped Her Husband to Prosperity and Is Now Discarded.

Dear Miss Dix-I have been maried thirty-three years, and my husband is not only a famous physician. but has also accumulated a fortune When we were married he was just beginning to study medicine, and to help him along I worked night and day, and economized so that often we scarcely had enough to eat. When my son was a baby I used to lay him on top of the piano while I taught a class of gymnastics.

By dint of struggling and saving we finally got a start, and all is prosperous with us now. During the lean years my husband and I were very much in love with each other and were happy, but now I am a broken-hearted woman because for the last four years my husband has been involved in a disgraceful intrigue with a low woman. Don't be foolish enough to throw everything man all that you have worked and slaved for, as you would do if you divorced your husband At your time of life physical comforts and an assured income and freedom from worry about the future are more important than romantic love, and they are a great compensation, even broken heart. Of course, there are working girls who have not gone straight. So are there society girls. Not every one is strong enough to resist temptation, but the number of office girls who are not respectable is infinitesimal. Otherwise they would not be working in offices.

DOROTHY DIX.

Dear Miss Dix-Does a man's love ncrease or decrease when the girl shows that she loves him and does part of the love-making? N. R. B.

Depends on the man. Many men are flattered by the knowledge that a girl loves them, and many a girl has gotten a husband by crying for him when he tried to break off and leave her. The spectacle of her distress at losing him and his sympathy with her at missing such a good thing, was more than the man could stand, and he succumbed.

A vain man is attracted to a girl by knowing that she loves him, be-cause he thinks it shows such dis.

In this question, as in most, it is difficult for anyone to make definite cernment and good taste and superior judgment on her part. Most men, however, like to be the pursuer instead of the pursued. We cannot help preferring to work for some rather than others, we cannot help preferring to have some work for us rather than others; but this should not be made evident in any way to those others.

Not in Business Hours.

Whether or not one is called by title or simply by one's first name is unimportant except when the intinate form of address is a distinction conferred on one or two. In other words, when it is a personal thing it is better, perhaps, for friendliness not to be apparent during business hours. If it is a custom in an office for everyone to call each other by his first name, or for the heads of the office to address all the employees in this manner, it cannot cause any notice. It is then an impersonal thing. But if this is not the case, it gives people of that turn of a mind a chance to be disagreeable, and may make others feel that they are not as much in the good graces of their employer as the one who receives the more personal form of address.

assertions. But I do believe that the premise of the two men I heard discussing the subject is right, that is, as they find out that she is in love as they find out that she is in love for, is good work; their job well done; never for a moment to give the impression that personal likes and dislikes enter in. The discrimination shown in the use of the first name with some and not with others. I think, unquestionably has a ten-dency to create jealousy. So, though it is not of serious import, the formal mode of address during business hours is probably the best.

Pains and Headaches Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

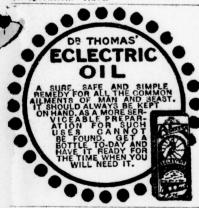

Dublin, Ontario. - "I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could at t sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable the newspaners and tried it because I wanted to yet better. I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Halifax Nurse Recommends Halifax, N. S. - "I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic.

I am English and my husband is
American, and he told me of Lydia E.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of care was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pallen, Carpenter, 486L Marcellus Ave., Manasquan, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and Janger of an operation.—Advt.

ing Strong Team in Field.

Special to The Advertiser. St. Marys March 11 .- The Old Stone Town is gradually awakening to the approach of spring and already enthusiastic supporters are talking over prospects for lacrosse this year, which appears to be very bright, and there is every indication that St. Marys will have the strongest team this season since the year they won the championsince the year they won the champion of ship

The possibilities of the Stone Town entering senior ranks are being freely discussed, since, it is argued, games with Toronto and Brampton would be a much better drawing card than the intermediate fixtures. However, the big drawback to this is the necessity of playing twelve-man lacrosse, which St. Marys may not be able to do, but no decision will be reached until the team organizes for the season.

The local management is keeping under cover several fast players until the migration period is over, and it is expected that these will greatly strengthen the line-up. All of the old veterans will probably turn out including Mulvey Cowan Bill Lavelle Lou Lavelle. Jack Alberts and Slewey Stewart, while C. Smith, F. Yates, C. Mcssip, A. Stevens, Pat Newman, J. Richardson, W. J. Henning, M. Dunnell and E. Brown are among the best prospects. prospects.
Altogether local fans are looking forward to a big season and the Stone Town will again have a team that will bear watching.

BURDICK REPLIES TO POCOCK CHARGE

Upholds Stand Taken on Con- Finance Committee Refuses To cessions at Port Stanley.

Commissioner Burdick of the L. & P. S. has submitted the following statement in reply to comments made by Philip Pocock on the management of affairs at Port Stanley:

Editor of The Advertiser: mission got to do with the conditions of the Port Stanley road? He states that we are going back to conditions of years ago that brought ruin to the road, and took years which cost time and money to extricate consistent time the road of the road of and money to extricate ourselves.

"In the first place, the same conditions are in vogue today as they were years ago. Our manager, Mr. Richards, ordered work done amounting to $400, and this work was given to a contractor to do. Mr. Richards explained that to the explained that to the commission without any specifications—just go and do the work and charge the same to the Port Stanley commission. "I would never stand for any proposition like that. I moved to sell consition like that. I moved to sell concessions, all but the incline railway, and booth at ticket office, and popcorn and peanut stand. Last year the commission sold a number of the concessions and they made more money than if they had operated them. I can assure you that the man who bought them gave excellent service. I consider that the teahouse on the park is one of the best, if not the very best concession we have, and when they can afford to have, and when they can afford to sell the tea house, the same condi-tions apply to the ones on the board walk and beach

"Judging from the amount of let-ters that Mr. Pocock writes through the press, I have come to the conclusion that he must think he is the "It of sion that he must think he is the only man in London that has got any brains. His name was up for the commission in 1923, but did not succeed in getting enough votes to be elected. I think Mr. Pocock has got a lot of nerve—not a member of the commission and trying to tell them what they should do and what they should not do.

"It depends very much on what the other estimates are, how I will do the school question," declared Ald. Douglass. The matter was finally turned over to the council to consider at a special meeting next Wednesday.

Orders were given Inspector R. H. Sanders to prosecute coal dealers who were found selling short-weight lots of coal. Mr. Sanders reported on willed a farm in Yarmouth township.

sole object on the commission is to co-operate in every possible way with the manager and the commission. I live at the Port for three months of the year (and have done so for years), and I am in touch with the situation. With good weather conditions this year we hope to make the road pay.

CHICAGO

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, March 12.—Largely because of relative firmness of Liverpool quotations the wheat market here averaged higher today during the early dealings.
Opening quotations, which ranged from $\frac{5}{2}$$ decline to $\frac{3}{2}$$ advance, were followed by moderate gains all around and then something of a reaction.
Corn was easier, considerable selling being done on the basis that present stocks are more than sufficient for the demand. After opening unchanged to $\frac{3}{2}$$ clower, prices sagged all around to well below yesterday's finish.
Oats displayed comparative strength, influenced by reports that farm use of oats had been unusually heavy as a substitute for corn. Starting at $\frac{3}{2}$$ coff to $\frac{3}{2}$$$ cup, oats values showed a tendency to harden.

which the stovemen garnered a 2-1 victory over the yellow jackets and the ranivaders took a glose nature from the heno crew, 3-2.

The first game was rough, and several of the players on both teams left the fice with marks of the struggle, chief among whom was key Mckay, center man for the Macs, who sunered a cut over the eye early in the second round, and went the rest of the way with one orb covered. This handleap did not stop his rushes. Alone of his enorts brought fruit but he had baker, the Sandard goals, on the jump with whirtwing rushes.

The stovemen got their lead early hocking two goals in the mittal period. Jack mchay got the first on a combination, and got the chance to count when the Standard defence failed to cover. Arthurs got the second on a lone effort intermingled with tricky suck-handing and a hard drive from the corner. Standard swept down in heat combinations, but were unable to break the ice, Hynd putting up some mcclarys settle Down, Leamy got away in a hurry, drew in the uefence, and passed to Monahan at the rails. The play was spoiled, however, by Hynd. It was here that Roy McKay was hurt. In rushing he collided with Charlebois, and the two rolled on the ice, Roy coming out of it with blood streaming from a bad gash over the left eye. He went in to get repairs but returned none the worse for the accident.

McMillan got the first and only Standard counter at eight minutes of the final canto, hurdling through the detence on a pass from McGeoch to beat Hynd cleanly. The remainder of the game was uneventual, except for the determined four-man attacks of the yellow jackets, which, however, did not bring results.

ST. THOMAS INTERMEDIATES CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Special to The Advertiser.
St. Thomas, March 11.—The following officers were elected for the year to the meeting of the St. Thomas intermediate baseball club in the Grand Nehtral hotel tonight: L. B. Mattice, ident: E. A. Leaky, vice-president; McIntyre, secretary, and George Baker, acting treasurer. Marsh Hogan will manage the team.
It was decided at the meeting that steps should be taken by the local club during the next week to form a league comprising teams from London, St. Thomas, Lucan and Strathroy. Representatives of the St. Thomas intermediate baseball team were appointed to attend the meeting of the Southern Ontario baseball association to be held in London tomorrow night. Another meeting will be held by the local club next Wednes by night.

There is no hope apparently of getting any amateur baseball unity in London. The controversy has reached a stage where proven facts bring only a flat contradiction, and nobody gets anywhere. London, it seems certain, will have two so-called senior teams this season and nothing can prevent it. In a statement issued Wednesday the Orients present a side of the controversy that does not coincide with the facts. One place it says that Orient members of the committee found it impossible to work in harmony with higher executive officers of the L. A. A. A. the year they came in. The higher executives never saw the members of the committee thus hindered. In fact, none of the other

As a matter of fact the season was spent in deliberately spreading false propaganda regarding the L. A. A. A. Not the Orient club particularly, but those members most closely associated with baseball, know why they were excluded from Tecumseh park. They know they were excluded because working under cover all winter, they switched the ball team over and calmly announced that they had all the players when the spring meeting was called. That was roughly $250 that one booster for the L. A. A. A. threw over his shoulder when he excluded the Orients from Tecumseh park in retaliation for one of the most underhand moves ever made in sport in this city.

The Orients point to the fact that the L. A. A. A. gave up basketball. It was given up after one season when practically the same situation as in baseball cropped up. The L. A. A. then decided to stick to the three major sports, baseball, hockey and rugby, until such time as

The big fact remains that of all the clubs in the city which entered the L. A. A. A. and made it possible, the Orients are the only club that has allowed its name to be used in connection with teams which would place obstacles in the way of unified action.

Alerts, Hermitage, Manhattans and Forest City, all clubs which have at various times helped to foster sport in London, threw in their lot with the L. A. A. and have stood by. They are still standing behind the idea that London will never get anywhere in sport until one organization of representative citizens are behind representative teams. It's more than a theory now in both hockey and rugby.

London Fancier Judging On Coast

Fred Simmons Official at Alhambra Dog Show.

Special to The Advertiser.

Los Angeles, Calif., March 11.—It pays to have a Canadian judge is the opinion of the Alhambra Kennel club, which is giving its big show at Alhambra today. Fred Simmons of London, Ontario, has drawn the biggest entry on record in the Pacific coast in the breeds he is judging. There are more than 150 toys, mostly Pekingese and Pomeranians entered for competition. Collies, also to be judged by Mr. Simmons, have mustered an entry of 30 dogs, which doubles former records in this breed for California.

It has been no surprise to the local fanciers, however, that such an entry has been made, as Mr. Simmons came to California well recommend-ed as an expert, and a great deal of confidence has been placed in him. Mr. Simmons is the secretary of the London Canine assocition, which is one of the oldest dog clubs on the continent, and from whose ranks have been recruited many judges of international reputation

Giants Even Series With Ser. ators Interrupted Last

Associated Press Despatch. New York, March 11 .- The Giants yesterday evened up the series with Washington Senators, which was interrupted last fall, getting the decision 8 to 7. Pep Young did the damage in the eighth. The line-ups, looked like those of the last game of the world series a few months ago when the Washington team captured the world championship. Only Wal-ter Johnson, Muddy Ruel and Hank Gowdy were missing.

Meanwhile Dazzy Vance of the Brooklyn Dodgers and President
Charles H. Ebbets reached an agreement at Clearwater by which the league's most valuable player re-ceives an increase of $5,000 in salary. While this bargain was being made the regulars won from the yannigans.

Home runs by Lou Gehrig, former Columbia university pitcher, now playing first base, and Benny Paschal featured the exercise of the Yankees at St. Petersburg. The recruits won the contest, 15 to 6.

Elmer Smith, leading hitter of the American Association last year, making his first appearance at the Orlando camp of the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, collected three safeties off veteran pitchers in a practice game,

Irish Hearts Are Heavy As Law Bars Coming of the Shamrock

Associated Press Despatch.

Boston, March 11 .- More than 1,000 packages containing shamrock from "the old sod," and intended to brighten Boston homes on St. Patrick's Day, were banned by the department of agriculture here, and will be turned over to postal authorities today to be sent back to Ireland. The action was taken under the regulation which prohibits the importation of living plants because of the danger of plant pests. In one box packed with shamrock inspectors found a small bottle of Irish whiskey with a note reading:

"This will keep the snamrock fresh, so St. Patrick said."

IN EXPORT LIQUOR CASE

Windsor Judge Rules Export Papers Are Not Always Necessary.

BACKS MAGISTRATE

Special to The Advertiser. Windsor, March 11 .- An important and far-reaching decision in connec tion with the exportation of liquor from Ontario to the U.S., which it is believed, establishes a precedent in whiskey dealings along the Canadian borders, was handed down by County Judge J. J. Coughlin at Sandwich this afternoon, when he decreed that export papers are not absolutely essential in liquor transactions between parties in Ontario and parties in the United States providing it can mobile in his garage. A SIDE TALK WITH MEN

Merely because it's confined to suits and coats and simple accessories - men's fashion interest is none the less keen! Among men who make a point of being well-dressed, these fashion trends are getting attention for spring.

Even staid bank ers of Old London demonstrate a liking for the bright touch of a silk handkerchief. There's a consignment of them just over. NOT to be worn foppishly up the brightly in the breast pocket. You wear the points down, with the gayly pat-terned center puffed over the

Rayon silks are doing interesting things with new hose. There's a particularly nice new pattern sand shade you'll have to confess to a secret masculine pride that brogues and oxfords come just to the ankle.)

The flannel trousers are Biscuit-Colored -here with our buyer's first consign ment from England. Cambridge started the fashion, one that looks particularly well "on the river" or at sports, with the well-liked blue coat. Palm Beach has taken it un-so the best-dressed men will be wearing biscuit-colored trousers this

The newest hats are in a soft gray. The brim has an exclusive air because it IS exclusive. But it copies the Prince of Wales' favorite "crash" brim. Well over the eyes and up-turned in the back. Truly
