COLOMBIA APPEALS TO WORLD AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

Latter Accused of Fomenting Panama Revolution and Preventing Its Suppression.

CHARGES U. S. WITH BREAKING FAITH AND TREATIES

London, Nov. 16.—The Colombian authorities have cabled to London a lengthy protest against the United States' action toward Panama, in which they claim that the "main responsibility for the secession of Panama lies with the United States Government, firstly, by fomenting the separation spirit, of which there seems to be clear evidence; secondly, by hastily acknowledging the independence of the revolted province; and, finally, by preventing the Colombian Government from using proper means to repress the rebellion."

The cable message goes on to say that President Marroquin has energetically protested to the United States and wishes that his protest should be known throughout the civilized world. The President contends that the United States has infringed article 36 of the treaty of 1846, which, he asserts, implies the duty on the part of the United States to help Colombia in maintaining her sovereignty over the isthmus, and adds that the "Colombian Government repudiates the assumption that they have barred the way to carrying out the canal," asserts that since 1835 they have granted canal privileges

MR. SIMMONS' FUNERAL

Petrolia, Ont., Nov. 15.—The funeral of the late Oliver Simmons, M. P. of East Lambton, took place here yesterday. A very large number came from Forest, Wyoming, Oil Springs, Brigidon, Courtwright and other places. A special train was here from Sarnia, which contained upwards of 200 people. Among the rest was Dr. Johnston, member for West Lambton. The procession was over a mile long. At the grave the Rev. Mr. Graham officiated, and was followed by Mr. Milner, as chief of the Masonic body. Over 250 Masons were in line and over 75 vehicles. The funeral was attended by all shades of opinion, showing the respect of the deceased.

THE LOST PRIEST HAS TURNED UP

Found Wandering About New York in Demented Condition

DECLARES HE WAS KIDNAPPED

New York, Nov. 16.—The Rev. Father Joseph Cirigliano, rector of the Italian Church of the Immaculate Conception in Williamsbridge, a suburb of this city, who disappeared from his home under mysterious circumstances, last Friday night, has been found. He was discovered by a policeman in East Fifty-first street, raving wildly in Italian, and is now in a hospital.

Father Cirigliano, when found, fell exhausted into the policeman's arms, crying out in fear that he was robbed and would be killed. His wrists were marked as though they had been bound with wire.

He said two men, representing themselves as detectives, called at his home Friday night, and asked him to accompany them to the police station. When he refused, they seized him and chloroformed him.

When he regained consciousness, Father Cirigliano says he was in a dark dismal cellar, with his wrists bound. He was led into the street, blindfolded, and given a push. He had been liberated about fifteen minutes, when found.

Archbishop Farley, Father Lavello, and Fathers Hughes and Ferranti, the latter of whom is a person of high standing in the Italian community, were notified. Father Hughes and Ferranti went to the station house, and as they entered, Father Cirigliano started up from the stretcher and held out his arms toward them, crying out: "Pray for me, for I fear for my life."

When Father Cirigliano had told his story, and had been questioned by the police at some length, he became hysterical, and on the advice of the police surgeon was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

When Capt. Moody of the Wakefield police station, learned that the priest was found, he said one of his men had been kidnapped by the two men, and that the priest had been taken to the cellar. He said he had said all along that the man had worried over financial troubles and simply wandered away.

It is impossible for any one to kidnap the priest, as he has been in the hands of the police since he was kidnapped. He said he had been in the hands of the police since he was kidnapped.

GERMAN DEGENERATION

Kaiser's Subjects Are Deteriorating Physically.

Berlin, Nov. 16.—Official statistics, compiled by the Minister of War, and presented to the Bundesrath, show that the German nation is on the high road to physical degeneration. Theoretically, every male German must serve in the army, but only 64 per cent of the younger men called up for military service are physically fit to be enrolled in the ranks. Nearly one-half of all the young men in Germany between the ages of 18 and 22 are incapable of bearing arms.

The prevalence of heart disease among youths has increased by 30 per cent within the last decade. Dr. Stricker enumerates the following causes of this alarming state of affairs. Excessive indulgence in alcoholic drinks at an early age; the necessity for boys to work beyond their powers at an early age; in the lower classes, systemic insufficiency of nourishment.

KITCHENER SERIOUSLY INJURED WHILE RIDING IN HINDUSTAN

FOUND BY NATIVES HELPLESS AND IN GREAT PAIN

Simla, India, Nov. 16.—Lord Kitchener, commander in chief of the British forces in India, has met with a serious accident, while riding home alone from a country house near here. As he was passing through a tunnel his horse became frightened and collided with the walled side. One of Lord Kitchener's legs was broken in two places. Some time afterward, coolies passing through the tunnel found the commander-in-chief lying there helpless and brought him to Simla. He is now reported to be doing well.

Although accustomed to the tunnel Lord Kitchener's horse was frightened by suddenly coming upon a native. The animal swerved and jammed its side against a beam in the side wall. His leg was twisted and both bones snapped above the ankle.

Upon discovering the identity of the injured man the coolies bolted and left him lying on the ground, where he suffered greatly for an hour. The coolies, bones have been set, and, after having passed a good night, the general is in a cheerful mood.

It appears that Lord Kitchener had informed the members of his staff that he was not going out for a ride, but, later, changed his plan, and he was alone when the accident occurred.

PARENTS DEAD BY CHILD'S COFFIN

Strange Chapter of Accidents That May Contain Poison Mystery.

Ulrichsville, O., Nov. 16.—Circumstances surrounding the deaths of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Sweetwaters and their ten-year-old daughter, Margaret, of Leesville, are being investigated. The child died suddenly early in the week. Shortly before the funeral services Dr. Sweetwaters fell in convulsions beside the coffin and died.

Mrs. Sweetwaters sent the watchers from the room the same night, and while alone was heard to fall to the floor. She was dead when reached.

Poison was found which had contained poison. The coroner returned a verdict of heart trouble and apoplexy in the three cases.

SULTAN DREADS ASSASSINATION

Unusual Precautions Being Taken to Prevent Attacks On His Life.

Constantinople, Nov. 16.—Remarkable measures are being taken for the Sultan's safety. The night guards have been doubled, as it is believed that any attack on his life which may be contemplated will be attempted at night.

At Yildiz Kiosk and the surrounding garden-houses the plain armor is being prepared for the Sultan in eight different buildings. But no one, not even his eunuchs, knows in which of these he will spend the night until his majesty arrives on the spot.

Another measure, which the chief of the palace police has adopted is the illumination of the Bosphorus in the neighborhood of the palace. An elaborate system of submarine lamps, the landing stage in front of the palace, and both the surface and the bed of the Bosphorus are a blaze of light.

BIG FATAL FIRE IN CLEVELAND

Three Firemen Killed in a $500,000 Blaze

IN THE STREET CAR BARN

It Is Thought to Have Been of incendiary Origin—Several Houses Burned.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 16.—A disastrous fire broke out in the Holman avenue car barns of the Cleveland Electric Railway Company, on Pearl street, early today, resulting in a property loss of nearly $500,000, the death of three firemen and serious injuries to two others. They were caught under falling walls and crushed. The car barns, which cover four acres of ground, went up like a flash, and in a few minutes the flames were out of control. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. When first discovered it was burning briskly in an unused open car standing in the yard. There was a strong wind blowing at the time, and the immense wooden structure was soon a mass of flames. At 2:30 o'clock the fire had gotten beyond control of the firemen, and the flames were sweeping across Pearl street, on the west side of the barns, and had communicated with several frame stores and dwellings. The flames also had crept across houses. All the available fire apparatus in the city was called, and firemen are still searching the ruins.

REDMOND REGRETS O'BRIEN'S ACTION

Hopes to Persuade Him to Stay in Irish Party.

NATIONALIST DEMONSTRATION

Resolutions in Favor of Home Rule and a Catholic University Were Passed—The Wexford Estate.

Limerick, Ireland, Nov. 16.—Addressing a Nationalist demonstration here yesterday, John Redmond, said that he had known of the intention of William O'Brien to resign from participation in the work of the party he would have beseeched him not to put his intention into effect. Mr. Redmond said he hoped that the coming meeting of the Irish parliament party and of the directorate of the United Irish League would be successful in inducing Mr. O'Brien to reconsider his decision. The majority of the Irish party then the speaker said, supported Mr. O'Brien's policy of conciliation in the administration of the British Government's Irish land act, but the irreconcilable section of the landlords were meanly trying to counteract this policy, and were justifying their attitude by reference to his (Mr. Redmond's) Wexford estate. That proposition, however, said Mr. Redmond, was sold on terms which gave the tenants reductions of forty per cent, and wiped out two years of arrears in the rent.

Resolutions, in favor of home rule, a Catholic university and requesting Mr. O'Brien to reconsider his resignation were adopted.

SARAFFO MADE NATIONAL HERO

The Intrepid Rebel Leader Receives Tremendous Reception at Sofia.

Dispute Is Attacking Upper Stratum of English Society.

London, Nov. 16.—Is "brain fog" to be regarded as a distinguishing feature of life in the new century is a question seriously propounded this morning by the Daily Mail, which says it has received hundreds of letters from all classes of the community indicating the prevalence of the disease, the chief symptoms of which are a pain around the sockets of the eyes and physical condition so languid and listless that only the use of alcoholic stimulants restores the body to its normal habits. This is "brain fog," and according to the Mail's correspondence it is chiefly the higher stratum of society the disease is attacking.

BRAIN FOG THE LATEST FASHION

UNDER ROOSEVELT'S NOSE

Negro Almost Lynched Outside the White House.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—Charles Smith, a negro desperado, narrowly escaped lynching on Friday within the shadows of the White House, and a race riot was barely averted within the hearing of President Roosevelt. Smith had been the center of a luncheon near the Treasury Department at the point of a revolver and robbed him of $23, and when pursued by a crowd and several policemen, he shot two officers.

A mob of 50 negro citizens gathered and unmercifully beat the negro, and demanded that he be lynched. Some of the negroes in the mob protested against the treatment of Smith, and were promptly beaten.

For a few moments the national capital was in grave danger of being disgraced by a lynching and a race riot. There was no organized effort, however, to lynch the negro, who was locked up and his injuries treated.

THE THIEF QUEEN IN LONDON CELL

Lillie Miers, Noted Shoplifter, Gets Twelve Months, SHE STOLE MANY RICH JEWELS

Operated in Bond Street and Drove to Stores in Fine-Looking Equipages.

London, Nov. 16.—In the dull records of a week of small events, Miss Lillie Miers illumines the sky like a fiery comet. How to make £1,000 a year was the problem outlined for herself by this handsome woman, who is called the queen of thieves.

Miss Miers was arrested on the previous charge of shoplifting, but her scale of operations was not that of the ordinary thief. During several years she had annexed 19 rings, 10 watches, 142 charms, 7 pins, 50 brooches, 14 bracelets, 12 neck chains, 20 pendants, 12 purses, 16 scent bottles, 9 buttonhooks, 6 fountain pens and 7 umbrellas.

Bond street was her favorite ground, and she inspired confidence by driving up to shops and selecting expensive articles, to be made according to her directions. While being attended to she secreted valuable articles so cleverly she was never detected. Naturally she never visited the same shop twice.

Lillie Miers started as a drummer in the employment of a city firm, the chief partner in which had been a friend of her father, a merchant who committed suicide. For some time she worked honestly, but her salary and commissions were insufficient for her needs and she sent in a number of bogus orders that added considerably to her income.

Then she took to shoplifting. She is 34 years of age, but passed as 26 here. Her cleverness is further shown by the fact that she obtained a loan of £200 from an acquaintance by means of a plausible story of distress.

This instance tells the same tale. Being sued in the county court last autumn, she evaded debt by writing in her sister's name, letters to the judge and to the plaintiff stating that she was dead.

When brought to trial all the prisoner could say in extenuation was, "I was under the influence of morphia." She was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment.

GERMANY IRRITATED

By United States Treatment of German Ship at Colon.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Herald this morning publishes the following: Berlin, Nov. 16.—The over-late irritation against the United States in the matter of South America has been vividly awakened by a telegram from Panama, in which the commander of the American squadron at Colon has forced a German ship to weigh anchor and leave the harbor, because she was suspected of having contraband of war on board. Apropos of this the Neue Nachrichten says: "America must not interpret abstention from influence on the part of European powers in Panama as weakness. It is her duty to avoid any action prejudicial to the interests of the powers. We must take the contents of the telegram received as a very ugly acknowledgment of that duty."

THE KAISER'S CUP

He Will Design the Yacht Trophy Himself.

Berlin, Nov. 16.—Emperor William is himself designing the cup that will be given by his majesty for a transatlantic yacht race. The statement sent to the Associated Press from here that the Emperor's American-built schooner Meteor would be entered was premature. The Emperor has not yet decided to do so, and his considerations against entering the yacht are that his majesty has no other yacht to race at Kiel in June and that the passage to America would have to be begun in March, during the period of rough weather. By going to North America, as emperor of the West Indies, a good sailor could do the distance in 20 days with no mishap, especially if an accompanying cruiser tows the yacht, but this is only possible in the weather.

The Foreign Office and the Navy Department say it is not true that the imperial yacht Hohenzollern is prepared to go to North America, as announced in the German newspapers.

COLLISION KILLS FORTY NEGROES

Limited Express Crashes Into an Accommodation Train.

NEAR NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

Dead Were Jammed Between the Locomotive and the Passenger Coach—Many Fatally Injured.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16.—A rear-end collision on the Illinois Central Railroad near Kentwood, 85 miles from New Orleans, resulted in the death of twenty negroes. Ten other negroes and three white men were injured, some of them fatally. The collision was between the McComb City accommodation and the northern express, bound to Chicago. The rear coach of the accommodation, filled with negroes, was completely wrecked.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16.—The latest advice from the scene of Saturday night's railroad collision, in which the Cannon Ball express on the Illinois Central, crashed into the McComb City accommodation, show that 40 persons were killed and 23 injured. All of the deaths, except an unknown woman, are negroes, and 20 of the injured men, are negroes.

Most of the dead and injured were on the accommodation. Many of the bodies were burned beyond recognition, the coaches on the accommodation having caught fire soon after the wreck. The express crashed into the rear end of the McComb City train, demolishing a passenger car. A number of the dead were wedged between the express engine and the wreckage of the train ahead, a gruesome spectacle being presented to the rescuers, who here and there saw a hand or an arm protruding from the twisted iron and splintered timbers.

Larry Hawthorne, the only negro who escaped uninjured from the rear coach of the accommodation, is demoted as a result of the shock. Responsibility for the accident has not been placed.

BULL ON THE RAMPAGE

Killed Two Men, Caused Runaways and Charged Train.

Warsaw, Nov. 16.—A bull escaped from a cattle train and tossed and trampled a passing merchant to death. The animal then dashed along the tracks and killed the switchman. He rushed through the town and tossed and badly injured several men and horses, and caused a runaway of many.

The animal then returned to the track, charging the approaching train, and was cut to pieces.

A WALKING CONTEST

Each Lady in Race Has Male Companion.

Paris, Nov. 16.—A novel cross-country race was held in the forest of Chantilly this week between six women, each accompanied by a gentleman. The distance of four kilometers (two and one-half miles) was sprinkled with seventeen obstacles, over which the gentlemen were to help their companions. The Duc de Chartres, the present heir to the throne, was organized by M. Tardieu. Fourteen couples competed. Mlle. de Tardieu and M. Andre de Warou were the winners, in 25 minutes. M. Robert de Salverette and Mlle. M. de Savignac by 15 minutes.

FRANCE AND SIAM

No Confirmation of Diplomatic Rupture.

London, Nov. 16.—A special dispatch from Paris says there is no confirmation of a diplomatic rupture between France and Siam.

The Daily Mail's Rangoon correspondent says it is rumored at Bangkok that the projected French secret treaty with Siam demands the handing over of Chantabun and much territory also.

It is reported that a Mingoon prince has established his headquarters in the neutral zone.

WE'LL TALK WITH LONDON BY Transatlantic Telephone

London, Nov. 16.—Prophecy is dangerous, but with a full realization of its pitfalls a correspondent ventures the following prediction. Within three months, probably before New Year's, direct telegraphic communication, without intermediate repeating stations, will be established for the first time between New York and London, and telegrams will be exchanged at a speed of more than four times the previous capacity of any cable.

The correspondent is tempted to go a step further and express the strong expectation that within a year it will be as feasible to converse by telephone between New York and London as it is across Manhattan.

Perhaps it is as well to confess that it is easy to prophesy when you know. The feat of rapid communication between London and New York as a matter of fact has been greatly surpassed recently in actual practice; in other words, the problem of cheap and rapid long-distance communication has been solved, and the credit for this signal triumph of modern science belongs to England.

The correspondent is compelled to await the permission of the inventors before making more than this general announcement.

Russian Private Kills His Officer and Is Cheered

Lots Were Chosen and Colonel Murdered in Presence of Regiment.

Berlin, Nov. 16.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Tageblatt writes from that city that the Czar is greatly worried by the revolutionary tendencies among the rank and file of the army. The only regiments which are to be trusted implicitly are the Cossacks, and the number of these stationed in St. Petersburg, especially in the immediate neighborhood of the imperial palaces, are being increased as rapidly as they can be rushed to the capital. Ever since the young officer of an infantry regiment ordered his men to refuse to fire at strikers, there has been significant proof of the spirit pervading the army.

The most drastic crime has just occurred at Wilna, where a Russian soldier, while drilling with his regiment, stepped out of the ranks and killed his colonel with a bayonet thrust. The act was greeted with cheers by the regiment. Investigations revealed that a conspiracy was formed among the men, who decided to kill the colonel and selected the murderer by lot. The colonel was murdered, owing to his severity. The Russian Minister of war has dispatched a commission from St. Petersburg to make further inquiry into the circumstances of this extraordinary affair.

Kaiser's Dogs.

Berlin, Nov. 16.—Emperor William has four light brown dachshunds, of which he is fond. These favorites, named Herr, Rauchs, Bella and Liesel, live in a stone, ivy-covered house in the Park of Monbijou. They have their own cook and an open fireplace before which they can cozy.

Their dining-room is hung with portraits of the dogs' hatched ancestors and other dog pictures. Every second day one of the Emperor's gamekeepers visits the four dachshunds to see if they are properly cared for.

RIFLE SHOTS HIM

New Haven, Nov. 16.—A meeting of the commissioned officers of the Second Connecticut Regiment in this city was interrupted by a loud explosion. Lieutenant George Abbott, of Company K, leaped from his chair, exclaiming, "I am shot!" and a stream of blood spurted from his left arm.

Two physicians stayed the flow of blood while an investigation was made. It was discovered that a rifle stacked in one of the company rooms below the officers' quarters had been loaded and cocked. It had been accidentally discharged, the bullet passing through the ceiling and the floor. It shattered Lieut. Abbott's elbow.

Dined on Teeth.

New York, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Joseph Lavelle, of Orange road, Montclair, is mourning the loss of an upper set of false teeth, while her pet sky terrier dog Spot, is mourning the possession of them.

Mrs. Lavelle attended a ball Friday night. Upon her return, while laughing heartily at a mishap that befell her husband at the ball, her teeth fell out upon the floor. The dog, which had gone supperless, grabbed the teeth and swallowed them.

Mrs. Lavelle, horrified, tried all manner of tricks, in vain, to make Spot "cough up." The pet dog is in agony and cannot live. His mistress is waiting for his death to recover her teeth.

A COLOMBIAN REVOLUTION

Washington, Nov. 15.—A revolution in Colombia is not impossible according to an opinion expressed in a dispatch received at the state department today from United States Minister Beaupre at Bogota. It was dated Thursday, Nov. 12, and at that time Mr. Beaupre described the feeling in the capital city as panicky.

INTERNATIONAL UNIONISM

A. F. of L. Want Canadian Unions to Join Trades Congress.

Boston, Nov. 16. — The question of appropriating $1,000 to the Western Federation of Miners came before the convention of the American Federation of Labor for the second time when the committee on resolutions reported sub-measures requesting voluntary financial assistance for the miners. The new measure provoked a discussion, and the motion was amended to provide the immediate donation of $1,000 to the Western Federation of Miners, and was adopted. The committee on resolutions reported unfavorably on a proposition that "unionists ignore unfair injunctions by any capitalistic judiciary," and advocating "a spontaneous and united opposition which will render such court rulings inoperative and bring them into ridicule." Delegate Lavine of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who introduced the resolution made the most impassioned speech the convention has heard to date, when he declared that he hoped none of the delegates would be cowardly enough to vote against his resolution, he was reproved by the chair and apologized to the convention. The report of the committee was concurred in. At the afternoon session a resolution was adopted instructing the executive council of the Federation to take the necessary steps to have all international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and to insist upon local unions in Canada affiliating with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada with the least possible delay. The convention also went on record as opposed to the wholesale immigration of foreign labor, and the executive council was instructed to take up the matter with the United States immigration commission, and insist that the practice be stopped.

JUST LIKE OTHER LOVERS

The Roxburghs Are Having a Happy Honeymoon.

Newport, Nov. 16.—Old women say that the bride and bridegroom who are blessed with fine weather on their honeymoon will surely be happy all their lives long. If the homely prophecy be true, the Duke and Duchess of Roxburgh can regard the future with joyful anticipation. The couple, needless to say they behaved as do all lovers in public, talking animatedly, laughing vivaciously. The duke seemed much interested in the work of the laborers on the lawn of Ochre Court, which the vulgar have nicknamed "Laura Court." He and his bride stopped to watch them as, under the direction of Head Gardener G. G. Sullivan, they incised the rare plants and shrubs with high boards to protect them from the wintry blasts that sweep in from the Atlantic. Her grace, a blonde in a flowing gray gown, which almost hid her rich brown skirt, and a picture hat of red velvet, adorned with a full feather of the same color. At least twice a day special delivery letters mailed in New York reach her. Her husband was clad in a gray suit and a gray Scotch cap. As he walked he constantly twirled a stick. Both wore tan shoes. Roxburghs politely but firmly refused to be interviewed. He would say only that he was delighted with Newport, its streets and drives. He declined to tell when they would leave Newport to name the station on which they will sail from New York.

SAVED HIS CREW AND HIS SHIP

A Naval Officer's Fine Heroism Checks Fire On a Torpedo Boat.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 14.—Lieut. Roland I. Curtin, U. S. N., repeatedly risked his life Thursday to save five men from burning to death on the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence, while a fire raged in close proximity to the magazine, which contained enough explosive to sink a battleship. His heroism saved his men and his ship. The torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence is one of the late additions to the navy and is one of the finest boats of its class in the world. It is moored in the harbor near Dewey's famous flagship Olympia. A lighted candle left by a workman on a wooden box to save the vessel's forward compartment caused a fire which burned much of the Lawrence's woodwork before it was extinguished by Lieut. Curtin and his men just before the flames reached the magazine. The fire occurred in a stuffy compartment directly beneath the magazine, and had gained considerable headway when it was discovered. The place was filled with a dense, acrid smoke that smothered the sailors and caused them to fall helpless to the steel floor. Time and again Lieut. Curtin dove into the fire chamber and emerged with the unconscious form of a seaman in his grasp. After a hurried resuscitation the seaman and his officer would return to the light, only to succumb to the smoke again. Finally the flames were extinguished, and the fire chamber was mended. A sailor plunged into the compartment and a second later came out with the limp body of the officer in his arms. Five seamen, in a similar condition, were stretched out on the deck. All were hurried on board the Olympia in drydock and the surgeons soon brought them to consciousness. The damage to the Lawrence was not serious.

STEEL PLANT FOR CANADA

Jessop & Sons May Establish One at Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 16.—Charles L. Bailey, Canadian manager for the great English steel firm of William Jessop & Sons, of Sheffield, left Saturday for England to confer with the members of the company in regard to the establishment of a plant in Canada. The concern has decided to build a branch in this country, and would prefer Toronto as a location if satisfactory arrangements can be made with the civic authorities. As the concern would be offered to secure the industry for Toronto, Ald. S. W. Burns is looking after the company's interests, and a definite proposition will be submitted on Mr. Bailey's return in about a month.

Montreal, Nov. 16.—The largest single cargo of apples ever shipped from Canada went to England on the Allan Line steamship Tunisian. The lot consisted of 24,900 barrels and 1,083 boxes.

DEATH OF MR. DAVIDSON

Sketch of the Career of Manitoba's Treasurer.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 16. — Hon. J. A. Davidson, provincial treasurer, died at his home in Neepawa at 9:30 Saturday morning. He has been ill for some time. Hon. J. A. Davidson, like many of the men who are making the history of the province, was a native of Ontario. He was born at Thamesford in August, 1852, and received his education in the public schools at Brussels, Ont. He came to the west in 1871, and settled at Gladstone, where for ten years he carried on a successful business as a lumber merchant and grain dealer. In 1881 he assisted in the founding of the town of Neepawa, with which he has ever since been closely connected. He was a member of the first council, and for five years sat in the mayor's chair. He was associated with many enterprises and was president of the Neepawa Mining Company, and also of the Neepawa Register Printing Company. In 1878 he married Sophia Ellen Hamilton. Mr. Davidson entered parliamentary life in 1881, representing Dauphin. In 1883 he was returned for Beautiful Plains, but was defeated in 1888 and again in 1892. He was again returned in 1892 over Capt. John Crawford, but lost the seat to Patron Smith in 1896. He was successful in the election of 1899, however, and at the formation of the Hugh J. Macdonald ministry in January, 1900, he was appointed provincial treasurer and minister of agriculture and immigration, and also had charge of the provincial lands department. He held the office on Jan. 10, 1904. When Premier Roblin assumed office Mr. Davidson was retained as provincial treasurer, but gave up the post of minister of agriculture and immigration. At the recent general election Mr. Davidson was returned with a majority of 128 over Dr. McRae.

Boils were so painful

could not sleep at night. APPEARED ON NECK, LEGS AND ARMS.

Burdock Blood Bitters

CURED THEM. It is well-known to all that bad blood is the direct cause of all skin diseases and it is necessary for the blood to be cleansed before the eruptions will disappear. For this purpose there is nothing to equal Burdock Blood Bitters as the thousands of testimonials we have on hand will testify.

Mr. Willard Thompson, McNeill's Mills, P.E.I., writes us as follows: "I wish to state to you that Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Some time ago my blood got out of order and many boils appeared on my neck, legs and arms. They were so painful that I could not sleep at night. After having tried many different remedies without any success, I finally decided on the advice of a friend, to use Burdock Blood Bitters. Before I had quite used two bottles the boils had completely disappeared, and I wish to emphasize the fact that I think Burdock Blood Bitters the best blood purifier on the market to-day."

FOUND SAYINGS OF THE SAVIOR

Great Discovery Through Koptic Excavations.

BIBLICAL TEXTS VERIFIED

London, Nov. 16.—Many hitherto unknown sayings of Jesus Christ have been discovered in Egypt by archaeologists who have dug up papyrus, buried since the second century, 100 miles south of Cairo. Dr. Bernard P. Grenfell, who has been engaged in Egyptian excavations since 1891, at the general meeting of the Egypt Exploration Fund here, yesterday, gave the following details: Accompanied by Dr. Hunt, Dr. Grenfell found a rich ptolemaic necropolis at El-Hibeh. The bulk of the documents from one mound consisted of a collection of sayings of Jesus. They are all introduced with the words, "Jesus saith" and for the most part are new. The ends of the lines, unfortunately, are often obliterated. Apparently all the sayings were addressed to St. Thomas. One of the most remarkable is: "I do not bid thee seeketh cease from his search until he find, and when he finds he shall wonder, wondering that he reach the kingdom of heaven, and when he reaches the kingdom he shall have rest." Dr. Grenfell remarked that enormous interest would be aroused by the discoveries on account of the variations they disclosed from accepted texts. One variation of the mystical saying, recorded in St. Luke, "The kingdom of God is within you," was of great value, as the saying in the papyrus appears to be a different saying, recorded in St. Luke. The kingdom of God is within you," was of great value, as the saying in the papyrus appears to be a different saying, recorded in St. Luke. The kingdom of God is within you," was of great value, as the saying in the papyrus appears to be a different saying, recorded in St. Luke.

An interesting variation of the gospel, according to St. Luke xi, 52 ("woe unto you, lawyers, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge; ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered"), reads in the papyrus: "Ye have hidden the key of knowledge from yourselves, and to them that were entering in ye did not open."

Another fragment contained a discourse of Christ, closely related to passages of the sermon on the mount, and a conversation between Christ and his disciples, in which Christ answers a question as to when his kingdom will be realized, saying: "When ye return to the state of innocence which existed before the fall." A valuable find made in papyrus, written in Latin, giving the text of the epistle to the Hebrews, and an account of the life of Jesus. This, with other papyrus covering the period 150-187 B. C., threw much new and valuable information on the history of the world and marked the recovery of hitherto lost classical literature of Egypt.

A quaint instance of the business methods in vogue in 127 A. D. is shown in the discovery of an amusing contract whereby a slave boy was to be taught shorthand for 120 drachmae. The payment was arranged on a thoroughly business-like basis, 4 drachmae down, 40 on satisfactory progress, and 40 on the attainment of proficiency.

You Cannot Rely On Imitations

When Threatened With Bronchitis, Asthma, Pneumonia or Serious Lung Troubles Be Sure to Get the Genuine

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

For generations the value of turpentine as a remedial agent in all affections of the bronchial tubes and lungs has been well known. Dr. Chase's Turpentine and Linseed is more than three times that of many similar remedies. The success of this is a host of testimonials.

When attacked by coughs and colds which threaten to reach the lungs and prove serious, when awakened by children with croupy coughs, gasping for breath, you cannot afford to trust to imitations.

Mr. John Pollard, Echo Bay, Ont., writes: "I was troubled last winter with a very bad cold, which was beginning to settle on my lungs. I was so hoarse that I could scarcely speak, and had a nasty hacking cough, which I could not get rid of. One bottle of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine cured me, and I can heartily recommend it."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is sold by all dealers at the advertised price, 25 cents a bottle, family size (three times as large), 60 cents. Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

Man's recuperative power after an injury is in an inverse ratio to his social advancement. THEY NEVER KNEW FAILURE.

Careful observation of the effects of Paramecia's Vegetable Pills has shown that they act immediately on the diseased organs of the system and stimulate them to healthy action. There may be cases in which the disease has been long-seated and does not easily yield to medicine, but even in such cases these Pills have been known to bring relief when all other so-called remedies have failed. These assertions can be substantiated by many who have used the Pills, and medical men speak highly of their qualities.

THE CHURCH OF THE SAVIOR

Experience has taught us how to buy well—we are buying all the time—a big store like this has to.

It's a matter of great concern to us to only buy meritorious goods, and the people we buy from know. They wouldn't attempt to sell us anything else. To try to might mean the loss of our custom, and that's too big an item to lose. We never brag about being the cheapest store in town—we're content to have you believe that our goods are nicer, our conditions fairer, our service better, our stocks cleaner, our styles newer. We cannot always truthfully say that our prices are away lower than others. How do we know? We might hazard the assertion, but we prefer not to. When you want anything particularly nice at the lowest possible price come here. Your money returned if you're not satisfied. That's the test.

Exhibit for Sportsmen's Show.

The Grand Trunk Railway system has shipped their extensive exhibit that will be installed in the International Sportsmen's Show, which is to be held in the Coliseum, Chicago, Nov. 7 to 28. The exhibit will comprise, in addition to a series of the best pictures depicting scenes along their lines in Canada, including the many districts in the "Highlands of Ontario," one of the most comprehensive and complete collections of fish native to Canadian waters. In this will be some of the best specimens that have ever been taken of the maskinonge, small-mouthed bass, wall-eyed pike, brook trout, ouananiche, landlocked salmon, etc. This fish exhibit is one that the Grand Trunk has been collecting for the past three or four years, and it is, without doubt, the finest in America, not only as to the sizes and varieties of fishes, but in their unique way of having them mounted. Many anglers have seen this exhibit and speak in the highest terms of the collection.

The space that the Grand Trunk secured at the coming show is 1,500 square feet, which will give the company a good opportunity of making a very attractive showing. 47-kzxv

INSPECTORS FOR THE ATLAS LOAN

Seven Appointed by the Master-in-Ordinary.

AS AN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

From Present Indications Twenty Cents On the Dollar Will Be Paid Depositors.

Toronto, Nov. 14. — Seven inspectors of the Atlas were appointed by the master-in-ordinary today, the court, confirming the recommendation of the liquidator of each. They are: Ex-Mayor Chant, of St. Thomas; Dr. A. L. Laton and J. A. Kilpatrick, who were members of the former committee; T. Hickey, Jesse Wallis and John A. Cook, nominees of the M. C. R. employees, who are Atlas creditors, and W. L. Wickett, barrister, of St. Thomas, representing English creditors. They will act as advisory committee to the liquidator, and will meet in St. Thomas, probably next week, and consider the statement of the differences in the account between Ames & Co., and the Atlas Company, as agreed upon by the liquidator and Mr. Ames and published last Wednesday. They will also consider and report upon any compromise or offer. But the report will not be binding upon the court. The master will review the whole matter and come to an independent conclusion.

A wild plunge in syndicates and "blind" plunges, false entries, fictitious sales, padded reports to the Government, violation of the terms of the charter, which prohibited investment in American securities, and this violation after a warning from the Government — a loss of nearly one million of assets in a year, having assets now which at most will yield $225,000 to meet liabilities of over $800,000.

This is the story of the Atlas — a synopsis of the "previous chapters" in the most thrilling financial serial Ontario has had in many years. To the only question left, "What is there for the creditors?" of whom 1,108 are depositors for $500,111, of which nearly $400,000 have been "admitted" cannot now be definitely answered. But from the situation as it looks today they will be lucky if they get 20 cents on the dollar.

The full extent of the Atlas collapse may be realized better when it is recalled that the editors of the "Farmers' Loan" have received in all 85 cents on the dollar. In the Atlas almost every contributor is disputing his liability for unpaid shares. As counsel told the court yesterday, when the liquidator asked to have a shareholder placed on the list of contributors for $3,000 unpaid on 82 shares: "This company, which, under its Ontario charter was doing a safe, quiet loan business, was changed behind our backs into a speculative company by its Dominion charter of 1898, with its wider powers, making such variations as relieved us of any liability under our contract with the old Ontario Company."

Though President Wallace, a witness yesterday, told the court he believed all the shareholders had notice, Mr. Du Verney, for this one, W. S. Green, photographer, of Berlin, said: "We received none and are not liable." The master reserved his decision.

From all the contributions $25,000 is perhaps a safe estimate of what the liquidator expects to receive. This added to the present assets, which, though they appear to have cost the Atlas $500,000, will not, it is said, realize more than $225,000, means a total of $725,000 to meet the $800,000 of liabilities. But from this $725,000 must be deducted the expenses of the liquidation. The highest hope for the depositors and creditors generally, of whom there are a dozen in Toronto, with claims aggregating $50,000.

The Greatest Family Remedy.

And one well known to most Canadian homes is Nervine, a perfect panacea for all internal and external ailments. E. Cartwright, of Morris, says: "I couldn't think of being without Nervine. When I get a sick headache, or a trouble with my stomach or bowels, I can rely on Nervine to cure me promptly." To break up a cold or rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia. Nervine has no equal. It's priceless in any family. Nervine is king over all pain and costs 25c.

THE WRECK OF THE ATLANTIC

Fire Adds to the Perils of Storm-Tossed Ship.

THE HEROIC WORK OF THE CREW

Parry Sound, Nov. 16. — The destruction of the steamer Atlantic, the Northern Navigation Company's line by the fire last week was fortunately attended with no loss of life, but the experience of the crew and the three passengers, Mrs. Free, of Byng Inlet, and her two small children were sufficiently terrible to render them extremely thankful for their escape from a watery grave. The greatest credit is given to the officers for their skillful handling of the boat, which alone prevented the recording of another marine disaster.

The Atlantic sailed from Collingwood with a full cargo, consisting of the most part of bare hay and barrels of coal oil. At 3 a. m. on the second day out, the wind freshened and soon blew a gale. Captain Wright endeavored to hold her in the trough of the sea, as she had always been known to ride easier there than in any other point in a blow, but it was discovered that she was making water rapidly. The pumps were put to work, but were unable to keep up with the inflow of water, and seeing the danger of the boat foundering, the captain decided to turn to shelter behind the Pancake Islands, in the hope of being able to ascertain the extent of the leak.

It was a desperate battle, and the race was long in doubt. The water was steadily gaining on the pumps, and it seemed as if the Red Rock Light would not be reached before the stern king stumped over the clever sea. A heavy list to starboard soon added to the difficulties, and the fire under the starboard boiler was extinguished. With the port engines working at full speed, the lighthouse was passed and preparations were made to launch the lifeboats as soon as the water in the holds reached the port fires. Shelter was reached, however, and the anchor dropped, and then the pumps began to go on the water. The cargo was shifted to place the boat on an even keel, and it was decided to head to Parry Sound, where she could be beached and assistance obtained.

Another more fearful danger was encountered. Within a short time after leaving the shelter fire was discovered in the hay forward of the starboard midship gangway, and it spread so rapidly that all on board were compelled to rush for the boats in order to save their lives. Captain Wright took Mrs. Free and her children with a portion of the crew in his boat, and First Officer Flynter had charge of sixteen men. A tug sailed to the town of New Liskeard, and the shipwrecked crew were successfully launched amidst immense volumes of smoke pouring from the town. A short distance inside of Kill-Beck Point the tug Pilot was sighted, and the shipwrecked crew were successfully picked up and brought into port in safety.

Nothing was saved, not even the passengers' baggage. The crew was compelled to assist at the wheel to hold the vessel in her course. Word has since been brought in by fishermen that the ship was picked up and brought into port in safety.

RECEIVED OMINOUS LETTERS

In Which His Death Was Predicted If the Society Was Not Given $3,000.

New York, Nov. 15. — The abduction, if not murder of Rev. Giuseppe Ciriglione, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church at Williamsbridge, by agents of an Italian secret society, to whom he would not give up $3,000 demanded, has caused a profound sensation here, following as it does a series of murders and outrages by these banditti, in none of which have the guilty been brought to justice. The Italian portion of the population is so terrified that it will not testify against secret society men even when they are the victims, for they have found that to tell what they know means sudden and awful death.

It is known to the police that there are half a dozen or more regularly organized bands of Italians who live and grow rich blackmailing their countrymen, and when their demands are not met they do not hesitate to use the knife or the pistol. So thorough is their system of terrorization that the police are absolutely unable to get sufficient evidence to convict. New York is rapidly approaching the condition of New Orleans at the time of the celebrated Media riots which occurred some years ago.

This last outrage, the abduction of Father Ciriglione, will, it is said, lead to systematic effort to root out those bandits and the United States secret service will be asked to co-operate.

The abduction of Father Ciriglione was peculiarly bold. Last evening at 8 o'clock two men, who claimed to be police officers, called at the church rectory and told Father Ciriglione that Captain Foody, that a man had been arrested, and that the captain wanted to see the priest about him.

Father Ciriglione immediately left the house with the two men, who had told the servant they were police officers.

ATTACKS THE WAR OFFICE

Wolsley's Books Dub Great Britain "The Unready."

London, Nov. 16. — Gen. Lord Wolsley's interesting volume, constituting his "Story of a Soldier's Life," are published here. While only being the story of his career up to the Ashantee war, incidentally they are a strong attack on the administration and the defenses of two branches of the service.

Lord Wolsley describes England as the "unready nation," and says: "We are never ready for war, yet we never have had a cabinet which would dare to tell the people this truth. Our absolute unreadiness for war is known to all our thoughtful soldiers, and without doubt all the details which go to make the fact are duly recorded in a docketed in the war office of every European nation."

Lord Wolsley adjures the "iconoclastic civilian officials" of the War Office to keep their hands off the regiment, and strongly denounces the present system of appointing civilian war ministers, under which, he declares, "we shall never have an army ready for rapid mobilization." He thinks that some sort of compulsory service is necessary.

Among the interesting reflections scattered through the book is the expression of the writer's opinion that the Manchurian convention, and that race on earth, and are destined to be the great coming rulers of the world.

THE SANTO DOMINGO WAR

Heavy Fighting Reported Around the Capital.

Santo Domingo, Nov. 16. — There was heavy fighting on Thursday morning. The insurgents and there was considerable cannonading on both sides. The town is unchanged. The United States fleet arrived here on Thursday afternoon. Business is at a standstill.

Washington, Nov. 16. — Confirmatory information of the attack on San Domingo city by the revolutionists reached the United States department on Tuesday night from Minister Howell. He reported that the revolutionists were attacking the city on three sides. There were no other details. The cruiser Baltimore is at San Domingo, so that American interests will be given full protection.

KILLED HIS FAMILY

The Pathetic Tragedy of a Saginaw Dentist.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 16. — Dr. E. W. Light, a dentist, committed suicide on Friday night at his home, No. 313 South Jefferson avenue, after fatally shooting his wife and daughter, Ruby, a girl of 18. The tragedy was not discovered until several days later.

A friend in Bay City, alarmed by a letter he received from Dr. Light, written on Sunday, came here and entered the Light home. Mrs. Light was found on her bed with a bullet through her head, but not quite dead, while the daughter had escaped in her nightgown as far as the kitchen, where she was shot down and killed. Dr. Light had then returned upstairs and committed suicide, though by what means is not determined, as no wounds of any kind were found on his body.

His left letters in which he confesses the intended crime, and asks that no inquest or post-mortem be held, and that the bodies be not taken from the house until the funeral, threatening insanity to those who acted contrary to his wishes.

PRIEST ABDUCTED BY THE MAFIA

Was Feared Clergyman Had Been Murdered.

RECEIVED OMINOUS LETTERS

In Which His Death Was Predicted If the Society Was Not Given $3,000.

New York, Nov. 15. — The abduction, if not murder of Rev. Giuseppe Ciriglione, pastor of the Roman Catholic Church at Williamsbridge, by agents of an Italian secret society, to whom he would not give up $3,000 demanded, has caused a profound sensation here, following as it does a series of murders and outrages by these banditti, in none of which have the guilty been brought to justice. The Italian portion of the population is so terrified that it will not testify against secret society men even when they are the victims, for they have found that to tell what they know means sudden and awful death.

It is known to the police that there are half a dozen or more regularly organized bands of Italians who live and grow rich blackmailing their countrymen, and when their demands are not met they do not hesitate to use the knife or the pistol. So thorough is their system of terrorization that the police are absolutely unable to get sufficient evidence to convict. New York is rapidly approaching the condition of New Orleans at the time of the celebrated Media riots which occurred some years ago.

This last outrage, the abduction of Father Ciriglione, will, it is said, lead to systematic effort to root out those bandits and the United States secret service will be asked to co-operate.

The abduction of Father Ciriglione was peculiarly bold. Last evening at 8 o'clock two men, who claimed to be police officers, called at the church rectory and told Father Ciriglione that Captain Foody, that a man had been arrested, and that the captain wanted to see the priest about him.

Father Ciriglione immediately left the house with the two men, who had told the servant they were police officers.

Wolsley's Books Dub Great Britain "The Unready."

London, Nov. 16. — Gen. Lord Wolsley's interesting volume, constituting his "Story of a Soldier's Life," are published here. While only being the story of his career up to the Ashantee war, incidentally they are a strong attack on the administration and the defenses of two branches of the service.

Lord Wolsley describes England as the "unready nation," and says: "We are never ready for war, yet we never have had a cabinet which would dare to tell the people this truth. Our absolute unreadiness for war is known to all our thoughtful soldiers, and without doubt all the details which go to make the fact are duly recorded in a docketed in the war office of every European nation."

Lord Wolsley adjures the "iconoclastic civilian officials" of the War Office to keep their hands off the regiment, and strongly denounces the present system of appointing civilian war ministers, under which, he declares, "we shall never have an army ready for rapid mobilization." He thinks that some sort of compulsory service is necessary.

Among the interesting reflections scattered through the book is the expression of the writer's opinion that the Manchurian convention, and that race on earth, and are destined to be the great coming rulers of the world.

BATTLE ARRAY IN THE FAR EAST

England Wants a Clear Field for Russia and Japan.

BELIEVES CLASH MUST COME

Over Korean Independence—Britain and America Are With the Mikado.

London, Nov. 16.—The danger of war in the far east has been greatly increased in the past few days. The British foreign office has practically abandoned hope of a peaceful solution of the crisis, and is devoting its energies to securing assurances of a clear field for the two combatants, Russia and Japan.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister to England, says that the situation is gradually becoming more and more serious, and that he is unable to see any prospect of agreement. Nevertheless he does not apprehend any immediate rupture of the negotiations.

Japan has kept Great Britain fully informed of the progress of her negotiations with Russia, and the British government fully approves of the action of its ally. Japan unyieldingly insists that Russia shall acknowledge the complete independence of Korea, and this demand Russia has not yet conceded.

The interests of Japan in Manchuria, Baron Hayashi argues, are precisely identical with those of other powers.

It is believed at the British foreign office that the policy of the other powers in the impending conflict is fully assured. France, therefore, will not support her ally, and Japan and Russia will have a clear ring, at least in the first round.

If, as many expect, Japan should be able to win Russia at sea, where the war would first be waged, a situation most dangerous to the general peace is likely to arise. Diplomats, however, are not willing to admit this possibility.

There remains always in reserve Russia's amazing capacity of sudden revival. The last time she was defeated in the Russo-Japanese war, she was suggested now by the frequent comments in Russia upon the great mistake of the Manchurian policy, of which Mr. Witte, the president of the council of ministers, has been made the scapegoat.

It is asserted by a London correspondent that the Russian press, in the latest advice, the determination to offer the utmost resistance to Russian encroachments, however hopeless, is stronger than ever.

The impression in Downing street is that war is likely to begin any day, in the event of a delay will operate against Japan's chances. It is perfectly understood that Germany will render Russia all the indirect assistance possible.

Some friendly aid perhaps may also be supplied by France to her ally, but it is believed that Germany will render Russia all the indirect assistance possible.

Japan, on the other hand, relies on all the aid the neutrality laws will permit from Great Britain and the United States.

IN REGARD TO BACTERIA.
Radium destroys germs, but radium costs three thousand times as much as gold. If a barber puts a towel under the head of each customer he raises the price of a shave. If he were compelled to sterilize his instrument with the degree underlain by one medical barber shop in Paris, his fee would approach the cost of a new suit.

At the opposite extreme are thousands who gaily drink from any vessel, and wash their hands with any soap, and soap exchange honest soil for insidious beasts. The number of deaths caused by carelessness probably surpasses the number encouraged by worry, but both are great.

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN A RACE RIOT

Dead Were Negroes Avenging Lynching of Colored Assaulter.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 16.—A special from Kentwood, La., says: Eighteen negroes and one white man were killed at Gillsburg, a small town 12 miles north of this place, in a race riot yesterday. The trouble arose over the lynching of a negro who criminally assaulted a white woman.

Details of the killing are meager. It is understood that the assault occurred Saturday evening when the male members of the house were absent. After accomplishing his purpose the negro fled to the woods.

The alarm was given and in a few moments 50 or more citizens responded to the call to arms, and the man hunt was on. A description of the negro was given, and the posse searched the woods all night. They came upon him shortly before noon yesterday and brought him back to the village where he was fully identified.

The posse lost no time in securing a rope which they placed around the negro's neck and he was hauled up on a tree.

From all accounts received, it is evident that the black man was popular with the members of his race. When they heard he had been lynched they became angry and showed determination to avenge his death. The word was passed around and soon negroes of the vicinity began congregating. Most of them were armed. It is alleged they started the riot with the whites and it is reported here last night that eighteen members of their race were killed and others were wounded. The sheriff and his lieutenant finally succeeded in suppressing the riot.

St. Catharines Well.
In St. Catharines, the Garden City of Canada, eleven miles from Niagara Falls, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Railway, is situated the historic "St. Catharines Well," about which is woven many a romantic legend, and whose curative properties are known far and wide throughout North America. The water of this famous Saline Well is considerably denser than sea water, but clear, sparkling and odorless, and is remarkable for its penetrative qualities.

These waters are a great specific for such diseases as rheumatism, gout, sciatica, neuralgia, liver troubles, skin diseases, and cases of nervous prostration, or as a tonic pure and simple. The treatment is conducted on the broadest possible lines, the idea being to assist nature in its work as much as possible.

The use of the waters is the chief remedial agent, accompanied by static electricity, massage, exercise and rest. All treatment is in charge of house physician. The baths are in a separate building, connected with main building by a glass covered corridor.

Full information, descriptive matter, and all particulars may be had on application to G. T. Bell, G. P. and T. A., Grand Trunk Railway system, Montreal, Canada.

SUDDEN DEATH IN MICHIGAN.

William Campbell, of Detroit, and a native of this city, died Saturday evening at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Smith, Wyandotte, Mich. Death was unexpected. The deceased was 60 years of age, and had lived nearly all his life in Detroit, where he was a patternmaker. Besides his daughter, a widow survives, and two sons, Wm. A. and Walter S., at home.

FALL CAUSED DEATH.

It appears that the death of the late Thomas E. Copeland, which occurred at Winnipeg, was caused by a fall. About a year ago Mr. Copeland, who was a tinsmith by trade, fell from the roof of a building in Winnipeg, upon which he was engaged, and received injuries from which he never rallied. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the residence of his brother-in-law, William Paxman, 523 Hill street, to Woodland Cemetery. Services will be held at 11 o'clock.

MAILS CLOSE EARLIER.

The change in the M. C. R. timetable which has just gone into effect, will require the earlier closing of some of the mails at the postoffice. The afternoon train now leaves at 2:30, instead of 2:45, which necessitates the closing at 1:45 of the mails for all points between St. Thomas and Windsor, St. Thomas and Courtright, as well as St. Thomas itself. The train that formerly left London at 7:15 p.m., will leave ten minutes earlier.

DEATH OF ROBERT DODDS

Former Middlesex Man Who Was Prominent in New Zealand.

Intelligence has just been received of the death at East Gore, on Sept. 30 last, of Mr. Robert Dodds, of Ottawa, New Zealand, at the age of 63 years. The deceased was a son of the late Anthony Dodds, of North Dorchester, one of the pioneers of Middlesex, Ont. He was born near Denholm, in Scotland, and came to Canada with his father and two uncles, who were school teachers, at a very early age. His forefathers were farmers in Roxburghshire, in the south of Scotland. When still a comparatively young man in 1868, he returned to Scotland for the benefit of his health, and from there went to New Zealand, where he took up a large area of new land, greatly prospering as a farmer and sheep raiser. He was married, and the widow, five sons and two daughters survive him. He was a brother of Mr. Andrew Dodds, of North Dorchester (Deceased posthumously), Mrs. Ellen Joyce, of Verschoyle, Ont.; Rev. James Dodds, of the Presbyterian Church, Kanoma, N. Y.; and Mrs. Isabella Hutchison, of the Presbyterian Church, Seven years ago he paid his relatives and friends in Canada and the United States a visit. His last illness was sudden and of short duration. His ancestors having suffered from the evils of landlordism, and in early years catching the spirit of the crofters from the north of Scotland, Mr. Dodds became a great student of public affairs and the land question, becoming a disciple of Henry George and the single tax system. Only a short time before his death he organized an annual social function to commemorate the birth of Henry George, as a writer for the press, and speaker, he was inimitable, and the Southern Standard, of Glasgow, one of the leading papers of New Zealand, credits Mr. Dodds with being chiefly instrumental in bringing about tax reform, or the taking of "unimproved value" there. Second only to his zeal in spreading the Gospel of Christ, says that paper, "for he was a devoted Presbyterian—were his efforts on behalf of social and tax reform, and the temperance cause, to the promotion of all of which he ungrudgingly devoted time, strength and money."
"The world would be better," continues the Standard, "were there more men of his stamp in it."

As a young man in Canada he is remembered as an intelligent student of public questions and an ardent Liberal. Personally he was a sympathetic and unfailing friend and a man of unimpeachable character.

PATRICK UPTON'S RECOVERY NOW CONSIDERED PROBABLE

The Old Man Shows a Decided Improvement During the Past Two Days.

Dr. Berdan, of Strathroy, stated this morning that he was now of the opinion that Patrick Upton, the Adelaide township farmer, would recover from the injuries he received a week ago Sunday at the hands of Fanny McGarvey, of Strathroy.

Dr. Berdan has all along been of the belief that Upton would die from the wounds, but having so long survived the injuries and still remaining conscious, he (Dr. Berdan) cannot but think that the old man stands a good chance of recovering.

When he visited Upton on Sunday, he was surprised to find that he had improved considerably over the preceding day, and that not only was the patient improved again over Sunday, Upton is conscious, his pulse and temperature are about normal, and he is able to talk, though but very little. His right side is completely paralyzed yet.

One of the wounds on the top of the head, which healed nicely, and Dr. Berdan says the other two are gradually getting better. Upton, he says, lost enough blood to cause the death of a man of ordinary constitution in a day or two. However, he is possessed of a remarkable vitality, and this alone will bring him through.

THE FORTY-HOURS' DEVOTION INAUGURATED AT ST. MARY'S

Large Congregations Attend—Rev. W. G. Howson On "Reversion of Type—Notes."

St. Mary's Church was crowded to the doors Sunday morning at the 10:30 o'clock mass, when the Forty Hours' Devotions were inaugurated. The altar was especially beautiful, being tastefully decorated with the choicest flowers, and the sanctuary was well-filled with acolytes, some of whom were crimson surtans, under white surplices, but the majority of whom were attired in surplices of white over black surtans.

Mass was celebrated by the rector, Rev. Father McKee, with Rev. Fathers Egan and Dunn, of the cathedral, as deacon and subdeacon, respectively.

Rev. Father McKee was also the preacher, and in a few words explained to the congregation what was expected of them in order to obtain the plenary indulgence which the forty hours' devotion affords.

At the conclusion of the mass a procession was formed, and the sacrament was carried to the altar by Rev. Father McKee, with Rev. Fathers Egan and Dunn, of the cathedral, as deacon and subdeacon, respectively.

REVERSION TO TYPE.

At the Assin Street Methodist Church, last evening, the pastor, Rev. W. G. Howson, preached on "The Reversion to Type." By this he meant the law of nature which worked in man so that unless he reverses the conditions of his life, he will become a man of the original type. This he said was so in physical and mental nature, as well as in the realm of religion.

He showed how, if man did not stop this reversion physically, he would return to the barbaric stage, and illustrated from nature how, if the various organs were not cultivated, they would be lost. In regard to mental conditions it was the same. Man must either go backward or forward. The mind must be cultivated or it would

TWICE IN ONE DAY Joseph Sandford Has His Name On the Police Court Blotter.

It is not often that a man's name appears on the same day's register at the police court on two charges of being drunk. How it happened that Joseph Sandford had his name on today's register as being drunk, charged by F. C. Thompson and also by P. C. McDonald, was to wit: Said John Sandford was arrested first on Saturday, and Sunday morning the magistrate released him, as it was his first offense. The usual warning went with it. It apparently had little effect, for this morning Sandford was again behind the railing. He wanted to go to work and his salvation said he could—after he paid $5 fine.

The other other case besides that of the strikers was one against Jeremiah Kirkpatrick, whose excuse for inconsiderate driving was that his horse was balky. The magistrate fined him $1.

FEW AYLMARD'S PROTEST

Rev. Father Aylward, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, preached Sunday morning from the words: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto a grain of mustard seed, which a man sowed in his field, which is the least of all the seeds, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof."

Father Aylward spoke of small beginnings and what some of them had grown to, finally referring to the Catholic Church in Canada. In our own time and in our own land, the Catholic faith had steadily grown.

There were still alive those who remembered the struggles of the church in this country, 50 or 60 years ago, when the struggle was for the old land and friends behind them.

These men and women, by their example, had broken down prejudice, and were respected by those around them.

The reverend gentleman then went on to say that, unfortunately, a jarring note had been introduced into the church, and he had heard a letter addressed to him, which said: "When people make use of the public press to insult Catholics, they cannot blame us for righteous indignation."

Last night a letter appeared in one of the newspapers making appeal for support on behalf of the University, in which it is pointed out that the institution was founded and partly endowed by funds subscribed chiefly by Anglicans, but that among others, the Rev. Father McKee, among her graduates and undergraduates. The day has passed when we accept insulting terms, even from the press.

At the conclusion of the mass a procession was formed, and the sacrament was carried to the altar by Rev. Father McKee, with Rev. Fathers Egan and Dunn, of the cathedral, as deacon and subdeacon, respectively.

STRIKE BREAKER

MERRILY GOES MAN OF MYSTERY

Took Out First Car in the Big Chicago Strike.

HE POSSESSES IRON NERVE

Does Unscathed Through Mobs and His Example Stimulates Loyal Carmen.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—"Curry, the strike breaker." When the history of the tie-up of the Chicago City Railway is written, the name of Curry will be as well known as that of Farley, the strike breaker, has been in similar troubles in other cities.

There are persons who maintain that Frank G. Curry and Farley are one person, "off and on" by the Chicago City Railway for the last fifteen years, except during an interval of co-punching in Wyoming, has, in his absence from Chicago, been earning thousands of dollars by "breaking" strikes at St. Louis, Kansas City, Bridgeport and Cleveland.

Curry denies the story, but he is a mysterious individual—rarely taking part in conversation, although he is engaged yesterday in philosophical reflections as he stood with his hand on the wire crank and peered through the wire netting of the vestibule of his car, keenly observant of possible obstructions or hostile strikers.

More than a year ago Curry vowed that in the event of a tie-up of the line he would take out the first car. He kept his word. He took out the first car last Thursday and yesterday he took out the first of ten cars. Fortune favors the brave and he has escaped injury. Although reckless of danger and occupying the most exposed position, he has passed unscathed through showers of stones and bricks. His name is one to conjure with. Union men regard him as their arch-enemy. As he took his car through Wentworth avenue yesterday strikers and their sympathizers coupled with vile epithets. Loyal men of the company find in him an example. "Where Curry goes, we will go," they say, and they swear by him.

Curry is 35 years old, of Irish descent, and says that he was born in the stockyards district. He is of medium height and weight, of athletic build, and a smooth face that shows thin lips and a determined jaw.

"Afraid?" said he yesterday, when the bricks were flying from the postoffice building. "I am afraid of nothing. This is time."

All day the motorman stood at his post, eyes to the front, changing the track when teams appeared on the track. Only once did an anxious look appear on his face. It was when a volley of brickbats came from the roof of a small building at 423 Wentworth avenue.

Curry was selected because he wanted the job," said one of the strikers. "He has been waiting for this opportunity. There has been a grudge between him and the union for years. The union has threatened to 'do him up,' and he has made the same threat about the union."

Asked concerning the trouble he had with the union, Curry said tersely: "I left them because they were a bunch of grafters."

Curry has a wife and a small family. He resides at 7080 Emerald avenue. As soon as he had made his report last night at the car barn he hurried home, because he said his wife would be anxious about him.

Bert Timmons was conductor on Curry's car.

"I am not afraid as long as he is in charge," said Timmons. "He is the most careful man on the road. He had about the same kind of trouble with the union that I did. I left it last July because they threatened to expel me because I wouldn't pay my dues twice. Yet there are more than a third of the conductors and motormen wearing buttons that never joined the association and haven't paid even the 50 cents for the buttons."

RUMORS AS TO HICKS-BEACH

The Liberal Organs Say His Surrender Should Be Welcomed By the Party.

London, Nov. 16.—A special meeting of the Liberal Federation will be held at Liverpool on Wednesday. President Birrell will move a resolution condemning the reversal of the fiscal policy and calling upon Britain to resist by every means in her power proposals which will raise the price of food and manufactured goods, reduce trade by increasing the cost of production, and endanger relations with the colonies. A postcard, which has been received with enthusiasm, and is being sent over the country, contains a red picture of Mr. Chamberlain and the inscription, "What saith the Scriptures, Genesis, 41st chapter, 55th verse?"

"And when all the land of Egypt was famished the people cried to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, go unto Joseph, what he saith to you
