What Manitoba Has Done For the Red Cross Society.

From a small nucleus of organization which existed at the beginning of the war, the people of Manitoba have built up a Provincial Red Cross system which yields to none of the other Provinces in enthusiasm, efficiency and amount of work accomplished. In fact one might go so far as to say that Manitoba with characteristic Western determination has become one of our model Red Cross Provinces.

Up to last summer its work had consisted of the collection of money for the Central Canadian Society and the shipping through the St. John Ambulance Association. By last July, however, the Provincial branch had attained such proportions that Manitoba was given the distinction of being the only Province shipping its own supplies in its own boxes, in car load lots straight to England.

In the Keeowayden Bldg., Winnipeg, a great supply station has been established, which purchases supplies at wholesale rates and distributes them to the workers of the whole Province to be made up into hospital articles required have been standardized and systematic instructions have been given to all the Branches, thus making Manitoba Red Cross material of uniform quality.

All this work has been done under the direct administration of the Women's Auxillary, which has 2200 members. The Manitoba women are themselves in control of the actual physical working of their provincial branch. The abundance and excellence of volunteer labor has meant an immense saving of overhead expense, and the cost of Red Cross operation in Manitoba is 1 per cent.

There are in the Province 56 organized branches with a total membership so far as returns have been made of 7519 consisting of 396 life, 905 subscribing, 2376 active and 2842 associate members. It is estimated that complete returns would show the actual Red Cross membership of Manitoba to be over 10,000.

The Province was asked for 50 beds in Cliveden Hospital, and actually subscribed 118 at a cost of $6065. The total receipts of the Provincial Branch have been $120,116, of which $45,199 was contributed by Winnipeg. Over $8,000 was given by various Manitoba Municipalities, and $24,559 was received from unorganized sources, representing the spontaneous generosity of Manitoba citizens generally. In the two months following July the Supply Department at Winnipeg shipped 800 cases of Red Cross goods at a value of $20,000.

There is not the least doubt that Red Cross work has been particularly successful in Manitoba, at the same time the Province is determined to make new records. To quote the words of Mr. C. B. Piper, Chairman of the Manitoba Executive, "The Province is one unit in this matter." No other province in Canada can show the same organization. We have a greater proportion of permanently organized branches. We have a far greater number of unorganized sources of money and supplies than any other Province in Canada.

Our entire object has been to set a pace which may be constantly maintained and perhaps augmented as the demand increases. Our people are prepared to carry the work thru to the finish and to meet every demand which may be thrust upon us.

Letter From a Forty-Niner

Here is a simple, interesting and sincere letter from a rugged pioneer of '49, who braved the dangers and hardships of the overland trail to California. It should appeal to all catarrh victims.

Santa Rose, Cal, May 5, 1908
Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs: I was afflicted with catarrh and tried a number of remedies, but received no relief. I purchased an outfit of Hyomei, and before I had used the bottle I noted a marked relief. I had used it for a month or so, and thought I was cured, and stopped using it for a year or so. Thought I was getting catarrh again, and started using it again. I use it every morning, and keep myself clear of catarrh. I consider it the best catarrh medicine that is used. I have often recommended it to my friends. I am 81 years old. I came to California in 1849, and of course am not as vigorous as I was 58 years ago. My address is 841 4th Street. Yours truly, W. Mock.

Hyomei (pronounced High-ome) is guaranteed by J. D. Clark not only for catarrh, but for grip, coughs, colds, bronchitis and croup. A complete outfit, including inhaler, costs only $1.00; extra bottles of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents.

REMAINS OF LATE B. B. LAW FOUND.

Ottawa, Feb. 23—The mortal remains of the late B. B. Law, M. P., was discovered in the House of Commons this morning. They consist of a thigh bone and a few smaller bones. The flesh had been totally consumed. Mr. Law escaped from the fire and got to the messengers' room, but unfortunately went back for his coat and some papers it contained. The remains were found near his locker between the reading room and the Commons, a point where the fire was the worst and the smoke the thickest. The remains will be forwarded to Yarmouth, N. S.

Prohibition Passes Second Reading by Unanimous Vote of the House.

HALIFAX, February 25—H. W. Corning's Bill to Amend the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, so as to make the City of Halifax prohibition territory, was given its second reading at yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Assembly with but little discussion and without division, and was referred to the Committee on Law Amendments.

The interest of the public in the proposal to make Halifax a prohibition city was evidenced by the unusually large number of visitors who filled the galleries and the seats on the floor of the Assembly, to follow the expected debate.

Mr. Corning moved the second reading in a brief but earnest and straightforward speech. Having already dealt fully with the subject of temperance reform in the debate on the address, he felt that it was unnecessary for him to repeat the arguments which rendered the adoption of prohibition in Halifax city so urgent at the present time. He felt it to be his duty to introduce the "Halifax amendment" to the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, as soon as Premier Murray had declared that the Government did not intend to bring down such a measure on its own behalf.

Referring to Mr. Ralston's appeal to the members, on the first day of the present session, to join hands for the cause of Empire, Mr. Corning appealed to his fellow-members to respond to the patriotic sentiments of the member for Cumberland, by giving a unanimous vote for the second reading of the Bill, and co-operating to enact it into law before the 15th day of March. He expressed the conviction that, in adopting such a course, they would be responding to the overwhelming sentiment of the Province, and at the same time they would perform a real service, not only to the city of Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia, but also to the Empire to which we are all so proud to belong.

Mr. Corning reminded the House that there was to be a meeting of the Nova Scotia Temperance Alliance in Halifax on the 16th of next month, when the members of that body hoped and believed the Legislature would be found to have followed the wishes of the great majority of the people, in enacting a prohibition law that would be operative in Halifax as in other parts of the Province. "Let us not fail," said the member for Yarmouth, "and let us act promptly and unitedly in placing this law on the statute books, so that, when that meeting takes place, it may be to celebrate "prohibition day" for the Province of Nova Scotia."

Mr. Corning concluded with an appeal to the House to allow the Bill to be sent to the Committee of Law Amendments without division.

Hon. G. E. Faulkner said that he would not raise any objection to the Bill at this stage, but took the opportunity to say that the fact that it was being referred to the Committee without a division did not mean that all the members favored it in principle.

Mr. Finn took practically the same stand. To voting for the second reading in order to get the Bill into committee, he would hold himself free, and so would other members of the House, to vote for or against it according to their judgment at a later stage. He expressed the hope that both sides would have an opportunity to be heard by the committee before the matter was finally disposed of.

Hon. Mr. Murray made a similar statement. While he favored the sending of the Bill to the Committee, he wished it to be understood that discussion could take place later on the principle of the measure.

The motion was accordingly carried by the unanimous vote of the House. As soon as the speaker declared the motion carried, Mr. Corning rose and led in the singing of the national anthem. Immediately all the members and visitors in the galleries rose to their feet and the strains of the national anthem were sung with such heartiness by members of the House and the spectators present that it could be heard far beyond the confines of the building.

There will, of course, be discussion of the measure at a later stage, but under parliamentary practice, the time for discussion of a bill on its general merits and for the development of differences of opinion as to the essential principle involved, is during the debate preceding the second reading.

Temperance reformers throughout the city are delighted with the unanimity and promptness with which the House dealt with this important measure, and are outspoken in commendation of the members for their patriotic and non-partisan attitude regarding it. The general feeling is that this attitude reflects the sentiment of an overwhelming majority of the electors of the Province, for temperance reform has made mighty strides in Nova Scotia, as elsewhere, since the outbreak of the war.

The only other item of important public business transacted was the second reading of a Government Bill to exempt Provincial debentures from assessment for taxation purposes. When this Bill becomes law it will enable people having money to invest to escape paying taxes on their capital by investing it in Provincial bonds.

Lord Robert Cecil Appointed Minister of Blockade.

LONDON, February 23—Lord Robert Cecil, Parliamentary Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, today attended a Cabinet meeting for the first time, in his capacity as Minister of Blockade. It is understood that he will be given an admiral and a commercial adviser to strengthen his hands. The appointment of Lord Robert Cecil meets with general approval by the press even by the Liberal papers, which before the war were not highly eulogistic of him.

Enthusiastic Recruiting Meeting at Kentville--Fourteen Men Sign On For New Highland Brigade.

A most enthusiastic Recruiting meeting was held at Nickel Hall Sunday evening at the close of church service. The Hall was filled to the doors, the seating capacity being overtaxed. The meeting was one of enthusiasm from beginning to end. Hiawatha Band under the leadership of Mr. C. S. Silver, played inspiring patriotic airs which added much to the occasion. The meeting opened with the Band playing the National Anthem, at the same time the picture of our beloved Sovereign King George V was flashed on the screen.

Mayor Pelton presided and in a very pleasing manner introduced the speakers, who occupied places on the platform.

Rev. T. C. Mallor was the first speaker and in an earnest manner he briefly but forcefully placed before the people the seriousness of the situation and the great need of the young men rallying to the help of the Empire, and doing so at once. He said "Why should our sons go and your sons stay at home? The cry of the trenches are for men. Rise in your manhood and show that Kentville can and will rally around the Standard."

Rev. R. B. Layton then read an extract of a letter from Colonel Borden giving in a concise manner the reasons why this urgent call was being made for men—simply because they were urgently needed at this time.

Mr. John F. Masters, a former resident of the town was then called on and stated that he considered it a great honor to speak in such a worthy cause. He said that no class of people were more interested in the war or watched the daily papers with greater interest and concern than the Canadian born men across the line. He also stated that it was plain that the sympathies of the great American people were with the Allies. His words to the young men were to the effect that no greater service could be performed by them at this time than to give their best to their country. Fifteen men of the Eastern Steamship Service, of which he is the Superintendent have enlisted at Yarmouth, because they felt that it was the call of duty. The situation at this time is largely a matter of men, and they must come, with the one result that the Allies will come out victorious.

Dr. Donohue in a telling speech pointed out to the young men that it was their moral and religious duty to enlist. He spoke of the difference between voluntary service and conscription. We should gladly give all we have and all we are to our nation. To remain at home when it is possible to go is to be a traitor to our country in this hour of her need.

Lieut. (Rev.) J. G. Stones gave an interesting address. He said: We are at war for three reasons: 1—To uphold the public law of Europe. 2—To safeguard the interests of weaker States. 3—To prevent the domination of the world by one single power. (These points were enlarged upon). It was then shown that German thought had produced a purblind philosophy in that the fortuitous aggregation called the British Empire was on the verge of internal decay. What a fantastic dream and a rude awakening. The fire of patriotism is still burning. The relation of the young man to the Empire was the same as the conning tower was to the warship. Failure of any man physically fit to respond to the call was a sign of mental vacuity or moral infamy. Col. Borden's appeal was the same as Lord Dunsany's in the war of eighteen century. "Stand alongside me. Fight until you die for even if you die the flag of truth will still be flying. This is a holy war and that is why I am in it because I can fight the Devil in fighting the Germans as much as in the pulpit."

Colonel W. E. Roscoe in a most forceful speech made it plain that the time had come when we must face the actual facts and figures and count what the results will be. The reason for lack of interest was because men do not realize or know the facts of the case. That is why the recent resolution has been passed—that every part of Kings County shall be thoroughly organized in order to do effective work. He stated that objections now being put forward would be met. As to no men to put in spring crops—when the time came the troops if here would probably be given a furlough in order to attend to their spring work. Every objection will be met, the path will be left clear for the physically fit young man to find his way to the duty which lies plain before him. We have the right kind of men, strong men, courageous men, intellectual men, who must go into the trenches. When all have done their duty then a brighter, better day will dawn for our Empire.

A special feature of the evening was the short talks by Sgt. Kyte, Corp. Walsh, Corp. Keylor and Private McCormick of the 85th Battalion, who are here to do personal canvas work in this recruiting campaign. Minus the orator's touch their remarks were right to the point and did the required work of enabling the audience to see the need for men and the opportunity for the best in them to be displayed through the medium of the Highland Brigade.

Lieut. (Rev.) J. D. Spidell, recruiting officer for the County in an earnest, heartfelt appeal called for the young men to come forward. He spoke of the great possibilities wrapped up in the magnificent audience present. He paid a high tribute to Colonel Allison H. Borden, as one of the finest officers, a born leader and a military genius, a son of Kings County whom all should be proud to honor. The appeal was then made for men, and amid much enthusiasm fourteen came forward and signed on as follows:

- J. William Quigley, Kentville
- Arthur Quigley, Kentville

President George B. Cutten, the Distinguished Head of Acadia University Joins the Famous Highland Brigade

Among those who have recently been appointed officers in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade is Dr. George Barton Cutten, M. A., Ph.D., President of Acadia University. Announcement of the appointment of this distinguished educationist will be received with interest and enthusiasm all over the Province. Dr. Cutten is widely known, not only in Nova Scotia, but in the United States, and he is recognized as one of the leading public men of the Province. The fact that he has offered his services to the Highlanders is inspiring. This is one of the finest examples that has been set in recruiting in this Province, and should serve as a decided stimulus in the coming campaign.

Dr. Cutten is a man of high scholastic attainments and is a public speaker of renown. In his position as President of an important University he has commanded the admiration and respect of all those with whom he has come in contact, and his magnetic personality and charm of manner have secured staunch friends for him everywhere that he has gone. Added to this is great capacity for organizing and a personal enthusiasm for the cause, which is inspiring.

The announcement of his enlistment, following the announcement of the intention of Acadia University to provide a whole company for the Highland Brigade ought to be of great influence in arousing the young manhood of Nova Scotia to their duty and opportunity for service. Forty-two years of age, in robust health, with splendid executive ability, Dr. Cutten has exceptional qualifications for leadership. In his college days as an undergraduate he was a first class football and attained much prominence in that game when he was attending Yale University. He was also a good tennis player and track athlete.

Dr. Cutten is a native of Amherst, where he is now engaged in recruiting work for the brigade. He received his early education at Amherst Academy, and later attended Acadia University, from which institution he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts, later taking his M. A. there. From Acadia he went to Yale, where he took successively the degrees of B.A., B. D., Ph.D., and D. D. In 1897 he was ordained minister of the Baptist Church, and his first pastorate was at Montwese, Connecticut. Thence he went to the Howard Avenue Baptist Church New Haven, Conn., and then in turn to Corning, N. Y., and Columbus, Ohio.

In 1910 he received his appointment as President of Acadia University, which position he has filled with distinction ever since. He is a man of considerable literary ability, his works including "The Case of John Kinsal," "The Christian Life in a Baptist Church," "The Physiology of Alcoholism."

The Unveiling of Tablet to the Late Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Masters.

The very interesting event of the unveiling of the tablet to the memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Masters took place in the Baptist Church at Kentville last Sunday morning. The Rev. J. D. Spidell, pastor of the Church, came from Halifax to preside at the unveiling and took for his topic the life of usefulness in a community along the lines of work in church and town affairs, as exemplified in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Masters. His address was in part as follows:

"The service this morning is dissimilar from the usual services we conduct in this building Sabbath mornings. We are assembled to unite in the unveiling of this beautiful tablet placed on the walls of the church in pleasant and loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Masters, who have been faithful members of this church from its very inception.

When I came to this church over ten years ago among the most devoted christian workers in the church and town were Mr. and Mrs. Masters. While it is true they were advanced in age and to them the shore lines were fading, yet their zeal was none the less unabated and the faith strong and invincible. The remembrances I have of this righteousness couple afford me occasions of thankfulness and joy. The pleasures of Hope are delightful but the pleasures of memory are more delightful. Time past is illuminated with the light of victories won through faith in God, etc.

"I shall ever remember the many kindnesses shown me by both Mr. and Mrs. Masters. It is a reassuring thing to know that the good they have done is not buried with their bodies. They are living today in much that we see and enjoy. The memory of the righteousness shall be in everlasting remembrance."

The tablet is of white Italian marble nearly three feet square and encased in a handsomely hand carved frame of golden oak, bearing the following inscription:

To the Memory of
CHARLES A. MASTERS
1825-1911
and his wife
CHARLOTTE C. MASTERS
1833-1913
both life long faithful members of this Church.
During their long and fruitful lives their energies were directed to the public welfare particularly the Temperance Cause as a token of loving memory this tablet is affectionately inscribed.

his parents. He especially mentioned the leading part his father took in the temperance movement in this County about forty to fifty years ago and illustrated the strong public feeling which prevailed at that time by stating that his father, also other men associated with him received letters threatening the destruction of their homes, and one night a large number of the best apple trees in his father's orchard on the hill lands were cut down by the men hired for the purpose by the liquor dealers. The temperance men, however, stood solidly together and they replaced the trees without expense.

Mr. Masters contrasted Kentville then and now and stated that no more law abiding or delightful place to live in now exists anywhere in the Maritime Provinces. He stated that the most valuable qualities of heart and hand that anyone can give to a community, whether it be church or state, is the element of service, and that his parents gave willingly and heartily throughout their long and fruitful lives.

The choir, under Mr. Burpee Bishop, conductor, rendered beautiful music and the anthem, "I wonder if there's room for me," the solo parts being taken by Miss Evelyn Spidell and Miss Myrtle Neary was splendidly rendered. The duet by Cross brothers entitled "This too shall pass away" was excellently given.

A large audience was present including officers and men from the 112th Battalion. Most of the prominent and influential citizens of Kentville were present, many of whom were personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. Masters. The church was beautifully decorated by potted and cut flowers placed there by loving hands, friends of the deceased.

The memorial tablet, undoubtedly the finest in any church in the Province, was executed by A. A. Rottler, proprietor of the Kentville Marble Works, and the hand carved oak frame by Richard Ward of Lockhartville, son of Elias Ward, formerly of this town.

Private Kenneth Eaton, son of Mr. Albert E. Eaton, who was in the 1st contingent and seriously wounded early last summer has been in England for a long time recovering from his wounds. It was expected that he would return home in February or March and his friends were contemplating a great reception for the young hero. However he has been promoted to Lance Corporal, and has recovered sufficiently to accept a position offered him in England in one of the pay offices. Cpl. Eaton made but little account of his wounds at first, but he was fortunate in recovering at all.

Why Best for Babies?

"Granny" Chamberlain "I am often asked why Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is best for babies. Well, there are several reasons:

First: It is perfectly harmless and can be given with every confidence to the youngest or most delicate child.

Secondly: It contains no alcohol, opium, chloroform, morphine or any other narcotic.

Thirdly: Children like it, and no persuasion is needed to get them to take it.

For the above reasons alone it is impossible to get a better medicine for babies than

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

But aside from its safety it relieves coughs and colds, is the best remedy known for croup, and when given as soon as the croupy cough appears it will even prevent the attack."

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Kentville People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress.

The secretions are dark, contain sediment.

Passages are frequent, scanty, painful.

Backache is constant day and night.

Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent.

The weakened kidneys need quick help.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Booth's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache, and urinary disorders. Kentville evidence proves this statement.

James Foster of Gaspereau, N. S., says:—"For several months I had been very much troubled with lame and sore back which inconvenienced me very much in working. The pains in my back were so severe at times that I would have to stop my work. The kidney secretions had also been highly colored and contained a heavy sediment. I had tried various remedies to relieve me but without receiving any benefit from them. I then learned of Booth's Kidney Pills through an advertisement and procured a box at J. D. Clark Pharmacy and found in them almost immediate relief. Today I feel as if I had a new back as it does not trouble me in the least. The kidney secretions have also learned and I feel better generally. Sold by Dealers, Price 50 cents." The R. T. Booth Co., Lt. Fort Erie Ont., Sole Canadian Agents.

MANUFACTURERS LIFE REPORT

The twenty-ninth annual report recently submitted to the policy-holders and shareholders of the Manufacturers Life Insurance Company was very satisfactory in every respect.

The total net premium income from interest, dividends, etc., $1,155,526.32, making a total income of $4,387,763.76. The payments to policy holders amounted to the large sum of $1,324,161.83, in addition to which the company set aside the further sum of $1,476,365 for reserves and dividends, and the general surplus was increased $402,325.95. After setting aside a special mortality reserve of $125,000, and dividends payable to policyholders in 1913, amounting to $266,138, the general surplus of the company amounted to $2,254,655.10. The surplus earned, $789,102.79, was the largest in the history of the company. The new insurance issued and revived amounted to $12,599,040, and the total insurance in force now amounts to $85,746,172. The assets of the company have now reached the large sum of $20,744,678.34, and the policy reserves $17,337,011.

The policyholders of the Manufacturers Life can feel they are safely insured in a company making satisfactory progress.

The Superintendent of Insurance at Ottawa when recommending that the proposed merger be not approved, said that the excellent condition of the manufacturers justifies the belief that its future profits will be on a par with those of the best companies, and that the interests of the policyholders will not suffer by the company not completing the proposed amalgamation.

The Manufacturers Life has evidently made thorough preparation for a future aggressive insurance campaign. It has appointed Mr. J. B. McKechnie, F. L. A., General Manager and Actuary. Mr. McKechnie joined the company in the year 1903, after graduating from Queen's University. He is a Fellow of the Actuarial Society of America, and a Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of Great Britain.

BUTTER VERSUS WHEAT

Those who urge the adoption of mixed farming in Western Canada should be interested in the fact that dairying in the great wheat Province of Saskatchewan has increased at a more rapid rate during the past three years than grain growing. The Co-operative Creameries of Saskatchewan, operated by the Dairy Branch of the Provincial Department of Agriculture during the summer months, recently made the following statement, showing the output of butter for every season since 1913:

	1913	1914	1915
May	90,857	139,567	183,163
June	169,066	216,339	314,927
July	254,321	322,778	514,938
August	266,919	304,394	383,407
September	126,722	170,364	303,337

Total lbs. 791,985 1,063,342 1,439,772
Increase 56 Per Cent.

These figures, it may be observed, show that the output for the five months in 1915 has been increased over the same period of last year by 56 per cent., and by 167 per cent. over the same period in 1913. One of the principal growing markets for Saskatchewan Government butter is British Columbia, where the product from New Zealand has been driven out steadily by the superior and less expensive importations from the Canadian prairie.

A comparison with the industry of grain growing shows that dairying in Saskatchewan is making far more rapid gains than are being made in grain crops. The acreage in grain within the bounds of Saskatchewan this year amounted to 19,543,795, compared with 3,912,464 acres in 1914, and 5,682,235 acres in 1913. Thus, while the figures for dairying show increases of 56 and 167 per cent., those pertaining to grain growing reflect an increase in 19.5 of no more than 3.9 per cent. over 1913, and only 6.3 per cent. over 1914.

The Market Problem

Of course, the problem of marketing the rapidly increasing dairy products of Saskatchewan or any other Western Province is one that must engage the attention of producer and distributor alike. However, in the period of recovery which will follow the war, Canada is sure to adhere to the policy of encouraging home industries, which has prevailed for over a generation. There is no doubt, too, that the policy of the people will be more and more to patronize the products made by their fellow citizens. National economy will make this course compulsory, and the result will be that American manufacturers, instead of supplying the Canadian market from United States, will have to come over to Canada with branch factories. These will employ Canadian men and women, who, in turn, will be in the market for farm products of every description. Thus we see the interrelation of town and country. As long as Canada adheres to her existing trade policy, farmers in all parts of Canada will have no difficulty in finding an ever available market for all the food products they can grow.

The "Vancouver Sun" urges that a "New National Policy" is needed in Canada.

The object of this policy would be to place on our vacant arable lands a part of the population which now finds it difficult to make a living in the city. There is no doubt that there is room for millions of farmers on the available agricultural lands in this country. It is also true that the problem of seasonal unemployment could be solved to some extent by the successful transfer of city dwellers to the country. It is scarcely accurate, however, to call such a movement a "New National Policy." The National Policy, in the economic sense of the term, aimed at securing a perfect balance between the city and country. The city was to manufacture what the country needed and the country was to produce what the city needed. It is of little use transferring the great numbers of city dwellers to farm lands unless they are certain of a market for the articles they can produce. Industrial cities are the best markets for farm produce. The National Policy never contemplated stripping country districts in order to swell city districts, because a large rural population is needed to absorb manufactured goods. It will be desirable for many years to encourage settlement on our vacant agricultural land and to bring it under cultivation, but it would be more accurate to say that this was only a continuation of the National Policy than to herald it as a "New National Policy."

GET THE HABIT OF NOT WASTING.

(New York Mail)

A child's natural view of a dime is that it is a little piece of silver, likely to slip through the hole in one's pocket unless spent at the first opportunity. It is potential exchange for several pieces of candy or a toy, or a trip to the movies. To keep it is to hazard it to accidental loss or parental seizure, for many American parents have no confidence in a child's guardianship of money. They give money to their children for spending purposes only, or not at all. If the child has money to spend, he keeps on spending when he grows and earns. Spending has become a habit. A child who never has had money to spend indulges as soon as he is able, in a fever of spending which generally burns during the rest of his life. The most desired thing in life—except by the youth—is youth. The thing most dreaded—except by the young—is debt. But youth runs to the arms of debt at the first chance, unless he has been taught the horrors of paying for dead horses. Youth is too confident. Debt becomes a habit with him, when thrift should just as well have been his habit. The importance of teaching a child is not so much in the bit of money he will accumulate. The great thing is giving him the habit of not wasting, or keeping out of debt. It will influence his whole life. He will learn the value of time as well as of money, but it lacks the thrift that should eliminate waste of all kinds, whether of time, of material or of human life. The dime you give to the Dimes and Dollars fund may start on the road to thrift some child whose later life would otherwise be a constant struggle with debt.

FURTHER SHIPMENTS OF SOCKS IMPERATIVE.

Mr. J. G. Colmer, the London Secretary of the Canadian War Contingent Association, the Great Canadian Society that has done so much for the well being of the troops in the field, has informed the National Service Committee in a recent cable that there is a great danger of a shortage of socks.

Mr. Colmer gauges the shortage from the steady increase of requisitions from officers in the field, with whom he is in touch, and in the interests of the soldier's comfort and efficiency, further shipments of socks from Canada are immediately imperative. The women of Canada have shown amazing generosity and energy in supplying socks, but the great and increasing need must urge their knitting needles to fresh efforts.

Socks and other field comforts can be contributed through any national organized woman's society, or they can be sent direct to the shipping point, Reids Wharf, St. John, N. B. They should be addressed to the Canadian War Contingent Association and plainly labelled "Field Comforts."

Cash contributions should be sent to Mrs. Bruce, Treasurer, National Service Committee, 77 King Street, East Toronto.

Leander S. Morse, school inspector for Digby and Annapolis, died at the Waverley Hotel, Digby, early on Sunday morning. He was 72 years of age and had been ill for some time. He spent Christmas with his daughter in New York and returned home ill, accompanied by Mrs. Morse. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Tupper, of Bridgetown; two sons; Frank, in New York, and William, in California; and one daughter; Mrs. J. Waldo Smith, of New York, who was in Digby at the time of his death. The funeral took place in Bridgetown this afternoon.

MINE EXPLODED BY THE BRITISH.

London, Feb. 22—The British official statement, issued tonight on the campaign in the west, reads:

"The enemy last night sprang a mine east of Givenchy; we suffered no casualties. Poperinghe was shelled by the enemy during the night.

"This morning we sprang a mine near the Hohenzollern re-doubt; our troops occupy the near tip of the crater.

"Our artillery bombarded the enemy trenches near Maricourt, Oivillers and Ypres-Comines canal. Hostile artillery shelled our positions northwest of Ypres; using many lacrymatous shells. Our trenches north of Ypres, between the Pilkelm road and the Ypres canal, were also bombarded.

"One of our aeroplanes was hit by an anti-aircraft shell, practically severing the pilot's leg. He managed, however, to land his machine safely in the aerodrome, without injury to his observer."

CLASSIFIED.

"What makes your hair so white?" said little Clara to her grandpa, as she sat on the old gentleman's knee.

"I am very old, dear," was the reply. Then he added, with a fine disregard for truth; "I was in the ark, you know!"

The little lady looked at him with renewed interest.

"Were you really?" she asked. "Are you Noah?"

"No."

"Then are you Shem?"

"No."

"Ham, then?"

"No, I'm not Ham."

"Then you're Japheth!"

Smilingly, the old gentleman shook his snowy head, greatly enjoying the joke.

"Then, grandpa," said Clara, her childish tones strong and decided, "your a beast!"

France, Jan. 1st, '18

Mrs. R. D. Best,

Coldbrook, N. S.

Dear Mrs. Best:

On behalf of the boys of "C" Squadron 6th, C. M. R., I want to thank you and the other kind friends who were interested in raising the sum of $32.10 which I have just received, as our regiment is to be broken up at once and I do not expect to be with the boys I am handing the money to Lieut. Pineo who will see that our boys get the benefit of it.

We have already spoken to Harold, and several others and they think some writing material is what they need most so perhaps the money will be spent for that.

In closing I want to assure you that the boys appreciate your kindness immensely perhaps as this is the first time we have been remembered in this way.

Yours very truly,

T. A. Lydiard, Major,
 O. C. "C" Squadron, 6th C. M. R.
