The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Seminary of Quebec
Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE MURDERER

THREE - HUSBANDS,

THIS woman was born a few miles below Quebec, about the year 1730, during the dominion of France over Canada. Her parents G....., were farmers in ordinary circumstances. During youth, she evinced no extraordinary ill disposition, but displayed a very decided turn of mind. She was married at an early age; her husband died sometime after, in apparent health, and no suspicions were, at the time, entertained tending to incriminate her. A second husband met the same fate. As in the previous instance, nothing as yet appeared to justify or necessitate legal investigation.

The third husband who left her his part, for ever famous in the annals of crime, was Dodier. She attempted to strangle this man by means of a rope passed round his neck, when fast asleep on his bed, in a state of partial inebriety, but this unfortunate man warded off this death blow, for, happening to awake he freed his neck from the noose of the rope, whilst his wife had run outside of the house to pull at the other end of the rope, which she had passed through a small aperture in the lower part of the outside door, in order to cause death by strangulation. The poor fellow seemingly taking this as a joke, passed a bolster or pillow in the rope noose and held it firmly, offering at the same time, a jerking resistance, as he slowly allowed it to reach the door against which it was firmly held, until she thought her nefarious design had been accomplished.

But great was her amazement and stupefaction, as she walked in the house, at finding her husband very quietly sitting on his bed, staring at her.

Under the sudden impulse of shame, fear or confusion, she threw herself on her knees, craving for pardon readily granted by her husband.

However, this man was doomed to perish by her hands, sometime after she struck him on the forehead and temples with a hammer till life ceased. In this third homicide, the marks then inflicted, left her no prospect of concealment. Her father acquainted with the deed, lamented and asked her, in his anguish, how she could save herself, when she replied:—
“Father you will help me in dragging the “ body to the stable and laying it at the horses feet, in order to make it appear, as though he had been trampled under the horses feet.” On executing this attempt at concealment, she pierced the scull pretty deeply with a dung fork.

Both individuals were apprehended, (Sir George Murray, being at that time 1st Governor of Canada after its capitulation.)

Her aged father, for her sake, had assumed all the responsibility, by giving himself as the perpetrator of the crime; but in the act of preparing for death, according to the Ritual of his Church, (Catholic) he avowed the truth to the Ministers, who remonstrated the impropriety of the assumption and urged him to denounce his daughter.

This wretch, had with complacency, accepted in her behalf, the sacrifice of her aged father's life. She was soon convicted and sentenced to death.

On the eve of the execution, she publicly confessed her deeds of blood, stating that she had destroyed her two first husbands, by pouring fused lead in their ears. She was executed and her body enclosed in this iron cage, remained exposed for a long time in Point Lévy, till by special permission of the Governor, it was taken and buried as appears by public records.

Au lecteur étranger à la langue Anglaise.

Il suffira de dire (vû que la tradition est généralement bien connue,) que cette femme avait successivement épousé trois maris ; qu'elle détruisit les deux premiers en leur coulant du plomb dans l'oreille ; qu'elle tua le troisième en lui assérant des coups de marteaux sur la tête, ayant falli à l'étrangler dans le principe ; qu'elle fut exécutée et exposée dans cette cage conformément au jugement porté contre elle et reposant dans nos archives.
