Germans Win Back Small Part Of Position Which The British Captured

Khaki Lads, However, Make Progress Elsewhere—Surrender of Whole Battalion of Prussian Infantry

London, July 4.—The Germans last night recaptured a small part of La Boisselle, which was taken by the British in the new offensive. Further to the south an official announcement says, the British made some progress, capturing a wood. They took prisoners and war material.

GERMANS SEEK TO BELITTLE VICTORY GAINED BY BRITISH; GIVE FRENCH CREDIT

Berlin, July 4.—On the basis of information received by the Associated Press, the first results of the long heralded offensive may be summarized as follows:—The success has been on the British front. The only considerable results have been attained by the French, whose offensive, as usual, marked by great bravery and dash, resulted to the second German line near where the French were repulsed.

DRIVER W. D. CUMMINGS WRITES OF WORK OF AMMUNITION COLUMN

In a letter to his mother, Mrs. David Cummings, of Forest street, Driver William D. Cummings, who left St. John with the D. A. C. in the first contingent, gives some idea of the calls which are made upon the ammunition column.

HIGH READY SOME TIME AGO BUT STAYED HAND AT JOFFRE'S REQUEST

New York, July 4.—(Toronto Globe cable)—Two official cablegrams concerning the allied offensive in France were received in New York yesterday from the British intelligence office. One says in part: The interesting point emerges that Haig was ready to strike some time ago, but refrained, on Joffre's request, till word was given.

OFFICER WRITES OF GALLANT MEN FROM HAMPTON

Lieut. Barnes Speaks of Lieut. Oty as "Fearless as Lion"

Hampton, July 3.—Letters were received last week from Lieut. Roland Barnes of the 4th Mounted Rifles, written since the big battle of June 3. Of his friend, Lieut. George Dickson-Oty, who was killed in action on June 3, he writes: "Dear George died as he lived, a man of his calibre, fearless as a lion, looking after his men under very heavy shell fire. He was always so independent and absolutely fearless. We buried his body just where he fell. There was not a scratch on his body so we judge he must have been killed by the concussion of a shell."

LOYD GEORGE TO BE WAR SECRETARY; LORD DERBY WITH HIM; NEW MUNITIONS MAN

London, July 3.—(Toronto Globe cable)—It will soon be announced that David Lloyd-George is to be appointed secretary of state for war, with Lord Derby as under secretary for war, replacing Mr. Tennant, who may go to the office of agriculture.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

PETROVA IN "THE SOUL MARKET," TOMORROW

Mme. Petrova, who was last seen here in "What Will People Say?" will again appear on the screen here at the Imperial Wednesday and Thursday, in "The Soul Market," a sensational five-part Metro wonderplay, produced by the Popular Players. In the role of "Elsaine Elton," a musical comedy prima donna, Mme. Petrova is seen as a successful star, who becomes weary of the gay life around her and views present conditions as fast approaching those that obtained in ancient Babylon when slave girls were sold in the open market. The situations which follow her awakening are intensely interesting and are subject thoroughly, having been associated with the theatre in New York for the last fifteen years. Mme. Petrova has an exceptionally strong supporting cast including Arthur Hoops, Wilmoth Meyler, Glaspie O'Brien, Evelyn Brent, Al Thomas, Fritz de Lint, Frankie Fraumholz, Charles Brant, Bert Tucey, Grace Florence, Cora Millholland and Charles Mack.

NOVEL SIGHT IN ONE OF OPERA HOUSE PICTURES

Did you know that an alligator's nest is just like a hen's nest, only larger, and that the littleigators pick their way out of the shells for all the world like baby chicks in an incubator. In an alligator's nest, seen in the Paramount Travel picture at the Opera House tonight, there are sixty-three eggs, and you can get a fine view of the baby alligators getting their first sight of the world. It is a fine piece of photography and shows some nerve on the part of the camera men, as Mother Gator was not far away at the time it was taken. See it tonight—it is a great picture.

SEE DEWOLF HOPPER

LOCAL NEWS

TO HOLD INQUEST

Coverdale Roberts will, this evening at 8 o'clock, hold an inquest into the circumstances surrounding the death of C. J. Blackhouse who, as a result of injuries received while working in a mill, died in the hospital on Saturday morning.

RHODES-JACKSON

Yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's church, the pastor, Rev. P. McKim united in marriage Miss Kate Rhodes-Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson of the Customs House, to Frank Rhodes, superintendent of the bridge over the Grand Falls. The bride was dressed in silk with white and black lace, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Nellie Brown acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of white silk and tulle. The groom was supported by George Higgins. Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the residence of the bride's parents, 25 Dorchester street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left on an extended wedding trip through upper Canada. They will reside in New York.

PERSONALS

Miss Edith Earle of 161 Mecklenburg street is visiting friends at Hampton. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jordan of Woodstock are the guests of Mrs. John Jordan, Sunnyside, St. John today. G. H. Vickers, superintendent of the Atlantic Division of the Dominion Express Company arrived in the city today in his private car "Lehigh" attached to the Montreal train. Mrs. F. C. Colburne, with her son, Master Blair, left this morning for Falher and her sister, Miss Annie O'Brien, left this morning for St. Anne de Beausapre. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kates of Cornswealth, avenue, Boston, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Letitia, and their eldest son, Jerome, are the guests of Miss Gertrude Connors and Miss Nellie Fleming, Main street, Fairville. On Dominion Day they motored to Musquash. Misses Georgia and Marion Lent of Freepont, N. S., are the guests of Miss N. Houston, 62 Union street. Barrett, 88 Winter street, returned yesterday after a vacation with their family at the home of Mrs. George Fawcett, of Sackville. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace at their farm "The Pines," Mosherville, Hants Co., N. S. Mrs. Stevens of Montreal, with her little son, is the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Bridges. R. G. Wallace will leave tonight for Hamilton (Ont.), where he will take up his future residence.

WEDDING TRIP IS CUT SHORT

Major Donald Cowie, New York National Guard, who arrived in Honoloulu yesterday from San Francisco on the liner Lurline, with his bride of two weeks is homebound again on the Matsushiro without having set foot on Hawaiian soil. The Lurline was overtaken by a wireless message for the major, ordering him to join his regiment at the Mexican border. The Matsushiro was leaving for the Lurline entered the harbor, and Major and Mrs. Cowie were transferred by launch to the Matsushiro. Mrs. Cowie was formerly Miss Marjorie Young Smith of Moncton. Mr. and Mrs. Cowie were married in St. George's church on Wednesday, June 7, by the Bishop of Fredericton, and left on an extended wedding trip before the threatened hostilities between the United States and Mexico. Two officers of the American Army who were on a fishing trip down the Cans River last week received a rush message ordering them to rejoin their regiments at once in view of the threatened outbreak of hostilities between the United States and Mexico. The officers had been on the river two or three days and left at Dacktown to hurry home.

WONDER WORK BY SURGEON IN WAR

Paris, July 4—(Toronto Globe cable)—The most remarkable of all operations for wounds sustained in the war was performed here recently at the Grand Palais by Professor Laurent of the Brussels University. Corporal Rousselet had lost part of his thigh-bone by a shot. Amputation had been decided upon, when Pte. Tillet was brought to the hospital and his leg removed. Dr. Laurent grafted the bony shafts of Tillet's stump on to Rousselet's thigh-bone, the two soldiers remaining linked together for a week like the Siamese twins. In the presence of the minister of health, M. Guinet, Professor Laurent separated the soldiers. Rousselet's thigh-bone was restored and the leg was saved.

ONE RECRUIT

B. F. Allaby of Southfield, Kings county, signed on today at the recruiting office for overseas service with the 9th Siege Battery.

DEFINITE WORD OF DEATH OF SOLDIER COMES TO FAMILY

Pte. H. Wilbur Graham of 260 Brussels Street Met Fate at Hooge

Private Wilbur Graham, a week ago reported missing is now definitely reported "killed in action." A communication from Ottawa was received by his father, Philip C. Graham, 260 Brussels street, yesterday. Private Graham left here with an infantry battalion and was in many of the severe engagements encountered by the Canadian troops. In the battle at Hooge he met his fate. The announcement was made that he was missing, "probably killed," and the word yesterday dispelled every hope that he may have survived and fallen into German hands. Private Graham was twenty-seven years of age. He leaves besides his father, three brothers, William H., with the 11th Battalion, Edgewood, New Brunswick, both of this city; and also two sisters, Mrs. S. Hayward of this city and Miss Edna at home. Today the family received from the Hon. J. D. Hasen an expression of regret.

THANKS OF SOLDIERS FOR CASH GIFTS FROM THE COMMON COUNCIL

Letters from the officers commanding No. 107 Siege Battery and the 140th Battalion conveying their thanks for gifts of cash from the common council for the regimental funds of their units were read at the meeting of the common council this morning. The letters were as follows: Roffey Camp, Horscham, 16 June, 1916. From the O. C. No. 167 Can. Siege Battery, Horscham, England. To R. T. Hayes, Esq., St. John, N. B.

Your Worshipship wish to thank you on behalf of this battery for the grant made to us by the City of St. John on the day we left, and to assure you that your action was very much appreciated. On the way over, and over here, the need was and is constantly occurring for things which are practically necessities, and which are not provided for by the government, and consequently our appreciation of your kindness is always with us. The battery arrived here safely, after an enjoyable and quick voyage, and we are now settled down to the business of training, and all are working hard to get into proper shape. We are in the same camp with No. 4 Battery and therefore we are very glad to be in the same camp with you, one of the best of St. John and New Brunswick men, which is very pleasant.

Yours sincerely,
Sgt. L. A. ALLEN, Major, O. C. No. 107 Can. Siege Battery, Valcartier Camp, June 30, 1916.
From O. C. 140th O. S. Battalion, C.E.F., Valcartier Camp, P.Q., St. John, N. B.

BRAVE OLD RUDOLPH

Bald-Headed German Won the Admiration of French by Bravery

The letter of a French soldier gives us a glimpse of the brighter side of the war. The writer, French in his trench and was repulsed. They left many dead and one alive and unharmed. Rudolph, a French soldier was about to transgress his duty by last evening. He, his companions thrust the weapon aside and in admiration of the German's fighting spirit they were told to let him pass. Rudolph, when he heard of their return to your comrades and told them we know a brave soldier when we see one.

"Ah, well, my old Rudolph. You're a brave fellow, but return to your comrades and tell them we know a brave soldier when we see one."

"Fearing that he was to become the object of a grim joke and perhaps to be shot in the back—he hesitated, when one of the French soldiers pushing him forward, said:

"Go on, you'll not be harmed. Rudolph lifted his hands above his head and returned to his trench. Fresh French troops arrived to relieve their comrades and they were told about Rudolph. The following day when firing had ceased for a time the newcomers shouted across to the German trenches to inquire whether Rudolph was still living.

"Al, let's return to your response. 'Show yourself, then Rudolph,' they cried out. 'We are newcomers.' 'We have heard of your bravery and want to see you.' Rudolph's head bobbed up above the trench wall and grinning he removed his helmet, patted his bald head, bowed and disappeared. In the trench he said to his comrades, 'I hope we may not kill him for he is a brave chap, that old Rudolph.'—London Chronicle.

TRAGEDY OF THE SECOND BEST

As he was about to enter the fashionable city church the sad-looking young man was stopped by the verger. "Excuse me, sir," said the official, "but are you related to the bride or the bridegroom?" "No," was the reply. Then you went on the verger, "what is your interest in this wedding, which is to be the quietest family nature?" "My interest?" replied the sad-looking young man with a bitter smile. "I am the defeated candidate."

EXPECTING THE RUSH; ENEMY HAD MOVED MANY OF GUNS FARTHER BACK

London, July 4—Stories from British headquarters pay unstinted tribute to the German tactics in fighting with desperate tenacity and valor. German resourcefulness is also displayed in numerous devices invented to prevent or delay the allies advance. All accounts agree that the Germans placed the greatest confidence in their machine guns and made every effort to protect them from the effects of the preliminary bombardment. The French correspondent says:—British soldiers emerging from the thick of the fighting agree that the machine gun is the biggest enemy they have met. The German machine gunners die, but never surrender. He has comrades have left in order to pour forth a deadly hail of bullets and never throw up his hands. "Up to the present we have captured very few guns. This is one of the signs that the Germans expected us. They have been very busy for several days moving their artillery further back."

PRESBYTERY

A session of the Presbytery of St. John this morning in St. Andrew's church was devoted chiefly to hearing reports of the commissioners of the General Assembly which met in Winnipeg in June. Among those who reported were Rev. Messrs. Drummond, Anderson and Mitchell, and Elders Peter Campbell, Charles Robinson and W. S. Clouston. There was some discussion of the work carried out by the church at Courtenay Bay. The suggestion has been made that Rev. William Malcolm, now in charge of the district, should be released for mission work along the foreign line of the city proper, but there was a strong sentiment in favor of his continuing to serve at Courtenay Bay. The matter was finally referred back to the Home Mission Committee.

FREDERICTON NOTES

Fredericton, July 4—The provincial government will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening. The directors of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company are in session here today. ### HOME FROM WEST

Angus McEachern, son of John McEachern of 540 Main street, arrived in the city yesterday from the west, where he has been for the last six years. Speaking of the conditions in the west generally he said that the crops were in first-class shape and things looked well for a big harvest in spite of recent heavy rains. Sir Sam Hughes traveled on the same train as that he came down on, and at every station along the line when the train stopped, Sir Sam and his officers gave recruiting speeches. Mr. McEachern will be welcomed home by his many friends.

AMBULANCE TRAIN IS DEVELOPING

Although it had been announced that St. John was to have a Field Ambulance Train little or nothing has been heard from it since owing to the fact that no definite arrangements had been made. The first officer to take hold in a St. John man, Lieut. W. D. McKay, who is to be the quartermaster of the new unit with headquarters at present in the armory. The unit is in charge of Major Bishop for the present and it is rumored in military circles that Major Bishop is to be the commanding officer.

Lieut. W. D. McKay was one of the first to join the local Field Ambulance depot when it was first organized in 1901 and did the dispensing for that unit in camp at Sussex. In July, 1915 he was appointed as quartermaster in the Army Medical Corps and recently qualified as an infantry lieutenant at Halifax. As yet no announcement as to the officers has been made.

Lieutenant M. G. Fox of the 74th regiment passed through the city today en route to Aldershot camp where he will take a lieutenant's course in infantry. Corporal C. S. Kree and Private J. C. Duncon both of the 118th Battalion, who are at Aldershot camp taking a sergeant's course in infantry arrived in the city today and will leave for Valcartier camp tonight to join their battalion.

It is generally understood that Dr. Irvine of Fredericton is to be a major in the new ambulance train. Major Bishop arrived home today after a recruiting trip having been successful in securing five recruits for the new ambulance train.

Lieut.-Colonel P. A. Guthrie of the New Brunswick command arrived in the city today. Colonel W. H. Gray, O. C. of the 71st York Regiment, arrived in the city today and will hold a consultation with the recruiting authorities.

He is recruiting in Sunbury and Queens county and will make arrangements for meetings at the celebration of the Orangemen of Queens county at Chipman and the Orangemen of Sunbury and York at Fredericton Junction.

MAGNIFICENT SHOW AT THE STAR THEATRE

At the Star Theatre last night a lengthy and select bill of pictures was presented to large and appreciative gatherings. "A Woman's Revenge," a two-part Edison production, featuring Milton Nesbit as a keen-witted criminal, proved a winner, and received much favorable comment from many patrons. The seventh episode of "The Social Pirate" series was the big drawing card, and is said to be the best of that popular series to date. It was entitled "The Raggy Nemesis." An exceptional Vim comedy, "A Pair of Skins," wound up the programme. It is not very often that a comedy picture can be classed with other dramatic productions, but in this case it is absolutely necessary to make special mention of this comedy. It is a scream. The bill will be presented again tonight in its entirety. Three shows, at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock.

THE GOLIATH OF ENGLAND

To the Editor of the Times—
Sir—Arthur Mees, writing in a British daily, tells the story of what he calls "The Goliath of England," and the feat of beer distilled into every government of Britain. He says a British government that was not afraid of gods and Kaisers. A British government that could conquer beer would make counsel jump for joy and Germans fly for their lives. For it has been the unwritten law of governments since most of us were born, that you must not touch this thing. You may take a man's house in England now, you may take his motor car or his workshop or the business he has built up in the last fifty years, you may take away his liberty and his only son, but you must not touch his beer.

And what is this thing before which kings and governments bow down? What has it done for us in those bitter days, in the days in which we should have found the strength which we need so sorely now? If it is true, as it is, that in fifty years we have thrown away an army as great as we

BRITISH CURATE WHO WON V. C.

LOCAL NEWS

Word has been received here that Private Omer McIntyre, of this city, who went overseas with an Upper Canada battery, is in hospital in England as a result of a fall from a horse. His injuries are reported as not being of a serious nature.

BAPTIST DISTRICT MEETING OPENED

The twelfth annual meeting of the United Baptist churches of St. John district, which comprised forty-nine churches, opened last night in the Central United Baptist church, Leinster street, and will continue until Wednesday evening. About 100 delegates were present at the opening session but it is anticipated that many more will be in attendance today and tomorrow.

Rev. O. H. Chipman, chairman of the district meeting, led in devotional exercises and declared the meeting opened. He made a few remarks on the progress of the year and passed on to a general survey of the programme of the conference. The chief speaker was Rev. L. J. Tingley, who delivered the annual district sermon on Nehemiah's Prayer for Revival.

DON'T SAY DON'T.

"I really believe I shall never say 'don't' to one of my children again," observed a mother recently. "No, I am not thinking of the little 'don't' when asked his name, answered 'Johnny Don't'! I am thinking of my own little boy and of a remark he made to me one day several years ago. He was particularly trying although quite unaware of it. He was simply following up his own word for a good time, and they did not coincide with my own. Several times I had exclaimed, 'Don't do this,' or 'Don't do that,' each time growing more impatient. Finally he came and looked up at me.

"'Mother,' he said, 'don't tell me what not to do. Tell me what to do and I'll do it.'

"It was a lesson to me. He needed constructive help, not destructive criticism. He was willing, even anxious to obey me, to please me, to keep out of my way, to help me. And only said 'don't.' The 'do' was left in his groping ignorance without any aid from me. Yes, 'don't' is nearly dropped from my vocabulary now."

ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS

It used to be the custom—and may be now on remote farms—for the housewife to use her own knowledge, good sense and judgment in dealing with sickness in the family before sending for the doctor, unless in serious emergencies. After that, when there was no immediate danger she would talk with her neighbors, women who had had experience with sickness.

Any woman who suffers from ailments peculiar to her sex will do well to ask her neighbors. She should easily find one who has used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Just ask her about it!

The Evening Times and Star

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

WHY? Why does Lieut. Gov. Wood retain as one of his advisers a gentleman who is not a member of the legislature, and therefore not responsible to the people? Have we abandoned the principles of responsible government?

THE ALLIED SUCCESS. While we rejoice in the success thus far gained by the British and French in the great drive, we are also impressed by the determined vigor of the German resistance, and the strength of their defenses. In view of the terrific nature of the attack on so long a front, the number of prisoners taken is not large. No German armies have been cut off or destroyed, but all of them, though weakened, must still be reckoned with.

During the last four days the Allies have been able to use their artillery with deadly effect, with more powerful guns and greater numbers of them, and an ample supply of projectiles of every sort. If they have a sufficient reserve supply to keep up the pressure at every point they will eventually get through all of the more formidable of the enemy defenses and push him back to the Rhine. Gen. Foch, who is in command of the French offensive, said months ago that the German line could be pierced, and that when the Allies had shells enough they would drive the enemy before them. We are now told that the shells are available, and the advance has begun, with Foch directing the "avalanche of steel" that is being poured down upon the German trenches by the victorious French army of the Somme; and with the British not only holding what they have gained since Saturday last, but making substantial further progress. The guns and shells are telling the story.

AUSTRALIA'S EXAMPLE. Canada might have learned many a lesson from Australia since this war began. Political pull or personal influence does not have the same power in the Commonwealth as in this country. Take, for example, the selection of officers. We read in the Empire Review: "The making of army officers in Australia is an interesting process. All officers are required to go through the ranks unless they have held a commission before. They must enlist as recruits for general service, and may then apply for admission to an N. C. O. school. Candidates must have a knowledge of platoon drill. It is pointed out that intelligent recruits can pick up the knowledge in the ranks in a little while, even if they do not possess it on enlisting. On passing this preliminary school, candidates are drafted to the general staff school, from the result of which recommendations are made which can pass them on into the officers' school. On satisfactorily passing the school, a recommendation for commission will follow. The work and examination at both the preliminary and the officers' schools is practical in the extreme. The questions are such that an officer on active service would have to answer frequently in a day's work, and have been compelled from recent practical experience at the front."

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES. The new Miranichi hospital built and equipped at a cost of $80,000 at the expense and under the personal supervision of Ernest Hutchinson, was opened on Dominion Day. It was a memorable day and the citizens, in an address presented to Mr. Hutchinson expressed their thanks and appreciation of his gift. The Minto coal mines are again closed because of a strike among the miners. Recently the mines were closed for the same purpose but Sir Thomas Tait visited Minto and made some arrangement with the men upon which they were satisfied to return to work. They quit almost as soon as he left however. The output of the mines recently was between 800 and 850 tons, most of which was going to the I. C. R. and was sent via Chipman and the Transcontinental to Moncton. Mrs. Hetty Green the world's richest woman, died yesterday in New York leaving an estate worth nearly $100,000,000. She leaves a son and a daughter. The national directors of the United Irish League met yesterday in Dublin and announced acceptance of the proposals of Lloyd George for the solution of the Irish problem. GIVEN WRIST WATCH. Pte. William W. Shaw of Grand Bay, enlisted with the 11th Battalion, received a wrist watch from his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaw on his departure for Valcartier Camp. Come to the Gen-DeWolf Hopper in Don Quixote; Ford Sterling in comedy thrills.

and had been stationed with his regiment in Asia, Africa and America. "I haven't many years left before I go on the longest leave of all" he remarked, "but I thought, being still hale and hearty, that I might be able to do a bit more for the Empire. It's not much, perhaps, now; but, whatever it is, I'm here to do it." He was courteously informed that no man more than half his age could be considered. Another applicant was a man who had been discharged from service in England, but had felt so improved in health after the voyage and a short time spent in Australia that, he said, he felt fit to serve again.

Kitchener's Army is now on the job. Berlin is disturbed over the news of victories gained by "the contemptible little British army." If the four Canadian divisions at the front are up to full strength it is a new experience for them.

Lieut. J. B. Hipwell's last order probably saved a comrade's life. That is a memory to be treasured by the relatives and friends of the heroic young officer.

The prospective recruit now has ten different New Brunswick units to choose from. He has no excuse for saying that he will wait till something to his liking is offered.

The German military critic who gravely assured the people that the beginning of the present drive would mean the end of the British army, should move up where he could hear the big guns.

The Toronto Globe calls upon Sir Robert Borden for light and leading in the national recruiting campaign. The trouble with the whole campaign since the war began has been that very fact of the failure of the government to do its part.

Prince Von Buelow has had more visions of a greater and more powerful Germany after the war. Germany's future will not be dictated by the Von Buelows and Von Papens and Von Bethmann-Hollwegs. They had their opportunity, but it is passing from them.

Premier Clarke might change his whole cabinet without the formality of an election. Why not change the water on the beans all round? It is evidently a mere formality. There are lots of men yearning for recognition. There's Plender, for example—and why not Mr. Fleming? Wouldn't that be fine? Strange the premier has not thought of it.

Apart from all other qualifications, it must be obvious, even to returned soldiers, that the president of the Borden Club and a member of the patronage committee is the right man to be made secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Association. Perhaps the Borden Club will now elect a returned soldier as president and also get him on the patronage committee. Being there, he might later get a job.

If the New Brunswick Teachers' Institute was a success it was not made so by any extraordinary efforts on the part of the public bodies in this city, nor by the attendance of citizens at its meetings. Evidently our business men do not yet agree with Dr. Payson Smith that education is our greatest industry. However, some seed has been sown that may bear fruit. The argument for more practical training in the schools was presented with great clearness and force.

Running nose colds cured. Sneezing stopped instantly. The worst of a cold is how suddenly it comes. No time to hurry to the drug store, croup develops, the lungs are affected with pneumonia or tuberculosis, and it's too late. Keep Catarrhones on hand—it kills colds instantly. Something magical about the way it cures catarh and bronchitis. Catarrhones is the best remedy because it cures in nature's way; it heats, soothes and restores permanently. Carry a Catarrhones inhaler in your pocket, use it occasionally and you'll never catch cold—that's worth remembering. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhones, which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months treatment costs $1.00, small size 50c; sample size, 25c.

HAZE OBJECTORS TO ARMY SERVICE

Rough Treatment For Those Who Will Not Drill Quakers Are Excused

Others Whose Excuses Are Disregarded Victims of "Horse-Play" on Part of Non-Coms—A Parliamentary Inquiry

London, June 10.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The heated feelings kindled by war prevent the "Conscientious Objector" to military service from being as heroic a figure in the perspective of the present times, as he may be in some more idealistic age. Great Britain is the only nation having compulsory military service which excuses those whose consciences forbid them to take human life. Notwithstanding the parliamentary act which recognizes either the injustice or the impolicy of forcing such men to bear arms, the "Conscientious Objectors" are objects of general derision and suspicion. The terms of the Military Service Act on this point are general and rather vague. It grants exemption "on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of combatant service. This leaves the decision of what constitutes conscientious objection principally in the hands of the tribunals to which men who wish to escape military service must apply. Naturally the decisions of different boards have been colored largely by the personal views and prejudices of their members. Some of these courts have been very liberal in accepting protestations of scruples against fighting, while others subject applicants to severe cross-examination, or ridicule, and exempt very few.

Members of the Society of Friends, better known as "Quakers" and of a religious body called Christadelphians, generally have been excused from the army. But others who cannot prove that they belong to any religious sect which is opposed to war, whose claims are based merely on their personal scruples have a harder time. In the popular belief the claim of conscientious objection is a "quit your pants" sort of thing and this has caused the indignity in which objectors are held. Many conscientious objectors have disregarded entirely the summons to the army. When brought before the recruiting tribunals they have been turned over to the military courts, where they have been dealt with practically as deserters. Some have been sentenced to prison, several to terms of hard labor of two years and others to lesser terms. One of these men has been in prison for more than a year. The subject of much discussion in parliament and in the newspapers and charges of cruelty have been made freely by their friends. These charges were made regarding men who had claimed to be conscientious objectors and whose claims were voted by the tribunals. As a result of the agitation the government has decided that men undergoing punishment for disobedience on account of alleged conscientious scruples shall be transferred to civil prisons and have their cases reviewed by a judicial committee which will have power to exempt them from military duty, or give them some other work of national importance.

In the course of a discussion in the House of Commons, Mr. Rowntree, a Quaker member from York, said that most of the complaints of persecution and cruel treatment by the military were leveled against non-commissioned officers. He believed that eighty per cent of the objectors had been well treated. The Under Secretary for War, Mr. Tennant, asserted that most of the so-called persecution had been mere "horse-play" which it was difficult to deal with officially. Undoubtedly objectors who were forced into the army have been hazed by their comrades. One of the inscription societies has compiled letters written to relatives and friends by objectors reciting their experiences. One letter read:

"Got here about 8.30 and was taken before the Quartermaster-Sergeant, who coaxed a lot as well as other officers. 'I refused all particulars. I would not move from the room, so was very roughly handled. A corporal kicked and punched me across the square in an awful manner. The treatment made me cry. I am ashamed to say, but I have no enemy toward him. I suppose he had to do it. A great many do not wish to be kicked about and advise me to give in to save myself and others trouble.'"

Another objector's letter says: "This letter no doubt, will cause you and all friends the greatest disappointment for I have been given a fine. I did so knowing I was doing wrong but my physical body would not stand the treatment. This morning I would not go on parade. I was fettered by a corporal who rapped my hands, in which was my Bible, with his stick. . . . I did nothing on parade so was taken to a quiet spot, along with a sergeant and a corporal. There I had the roughest time you can imagine. I refused to march or turn and I was pounded and slapped on the face until I was nearly fainting. I could do no other than what I have done. I know I am absolutely wrong. Now everyone, N. C. O's, and officers are treating me like a lord."

Other objectors have written of severe military punishments for refusing to drill, such as standing still on parade for an hour, or being tied up to trees while others continue to drill. American colleges would be considered as mere hazing, having their blankets pulled off at night and ducked under pumps.

Isabella will hail ye, Receive and regal ye, At parting befall ye, Should trouble assail ye, Depend on Isabella— She never will fail ye, Whatever may ail ye, Our coppers won't nail ye, They won't even trail ye— But—'t'pose they do fail ye— Isabella will bail ye.

Announcement is made at Shrine convention headquarters that on Tuesday, July 11, when the imperial officials of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine are escorted to the Majestic theatre for the year's imperial council session, the city and its guests will witness a parade by the greatest massed band that has ever been assembled. Three thousand uniformed musicians of seventy-eight bands will march through Main street shoulder to shoulder and the width of the street playing one air. They will be followed by the massed colors of 104 Arab patrols and these in turn will be followed by 4,000 members of the patrol in massed formation. The spectacle will be one that will long live in the memories of all who behold it and the thunderous volume of music from 8,000 bandmen will give a Niagara of martial melody probably never before approached. This massing of the bands and patrols will follow the formalities of escorting the imperial officials to its meeting place, Governor Whitman, Mayor Fuhrman, Councilmen Heale, Malone, Kreindler and Hill will review the parade. Automobiles for the imperial officials of the Shrine will follow the patrols and when the last has passed the reviewing stand at the McKinley monument, the imperial council officials will enter and will be escorted to the Majestic theatre. The massed parade of bands and patrols will then occur. One of the unique events of the entertainment programme that will be given

First Jewish Corps Enlisted

Refugees From Palestine Took Oath in Egypt and Shared in Glory of Gallipoli

Probably few people in Canada are aware that a Jewish unit formed a part of the British force which fought so valiantly and under such tremendous difficulties at the Dardanelles. The story is told in the current issue of 'The Forum,' by Lieut.-Col. J. H. Patterson, who commanded the Hebrew volunteers. Lieut.-Col. Patterson is a distinguished soldier, having served the Empire in India, South Africa and Egypt. For a time he was a member of the North West Mounted Police. He arrived in Egypt at the time when General Sir John Maxwell, the Commander-in-Chief, was looking for a suitable officer to raise and command a Jewish unit. As Col. Patterson says: "Such a thing as a Jewish unit had been unknown in the annals of the world for some two thousand years, since the days of the Maccabees, those heroic Sons of Israel who fought so valiantly and for a time, so successfully, to wrest Jerusalem from the grasp of the Roman legions."

Hundreds of people had fled into Egypt from Palestine to escape the wrath of the Turks. They were of Russian nationality, but of Jewish faith, and many of them expressed a desire to have some part in the battle for freedom under the British flag. Col. Patterson was sent to Alexandria, where the refugees from Palestine were gathered together as the guests of the British government. A call was made at the camp of Gibari for Jewish volunteers who were paraded for the purpose of being "sworn in."

The scene is described as follows:—"It was a most imposing ceremony; the Grand Rabbi, who officiated, stood in a commanding position, overlooking the long rows of serious and intelligent-looking lads. He explained to them the meaning of an oath, and the importance of keeping it, and impressed upon them that the honor of Israel rested in their hands. He then asked them to repeat after him, word for word, the oath of military obedience to myself and such officers as should be appointed over them, and with great solemnity, and in perfect unison, the men, with uplifted hands, repeated the formula.

"The Grand Rabbi then delivered a stirring address to the new soldiers in which he compared them to their forefathers who had been led out of Egypt by Moses, and at the end he turned to me and presented me to them as their modern leader. This memorable and historic scene aroused the greatest enthusiasm among the throng of Jewish sympathizers who had come to witness this interesting ceremony."

The Zion Mule Corps, as Col. Patterson's command was known, was the first and for several days the only transport corps on the peninsula of Helles. Those Jewish volunteers deserve a share in the glory of Gallipoli. No finer tribute to the British Empire could be imagined than this voluntary service of refugees from Palestine, under the flag of their traditional protector and friend.

How to Have Dry Buildings
IRON doesn't wear out, it rusts out. Ready Roofing doesn't wear out, they dry out. Do you know how important this is? It means that there is a difference between ready roofings, even though all of them are used in satisfying the feet, that counts. It is the skill used in the erection, plus the chemical composition of the saturating compound that makes Panamod a wonderful roofing.

PANAMOD ROOFING
Panamod is made of the best felt that can be obtained. It is tough, fibrous, strong. This felt is uniformly saturated with a non-volatile compound that stays there. Being thick, it fills holes in the structure thoroughly. If you want dry roofs at low cost, come in and get some Panamod Roofing. Very easily laid.

(Was After Mail)

Germany knows that the struggle to regain the £20,000,000 of export trade which she enjoyed in the year before the war will be an economic vermin. She will enter the arena for a battle, unless the Allies act betimes, with a weapon they do not at present possess—an infinitely perfected system of tariffs for bargaining and punitive purposes. The administration of these tariffs is the function of the Imperial Ministry of the Interior. For the first time in the history of the German civil service a practical business man instead of a bureaucratic politician is to be its chief. Germany is mobilising for the war after the war. Her command-in-chief is about to take the field. What are we doing?

In 1915—How many miles will it go on an hour?
In 1916—How many miles will it go on a gallon of gasoline?

IS SIR ROBERT BORDEN ASLEEP?

Some Pointed Questions By The Toronto Globe

Department of Militia Declared Obstacle To Recruiting—Outbreak Of Public Indignation Threatened Unless Premier Plays Premier's Part (Toronto Globe).

Is the prime minister of Canada asleep? Are his cabinet ministers away from home? Or are they helpless? Or are they merely stupid? Is there no one about Ottawa who will arouse Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues to the situation, and perhaps in military affairs that are rapidly converging to a crisis? Are they all so dull, or so self-satisfied, as not to see that all over Canada, and especially in Ontario, the people who know at first hand the recruiting situation, and particularly those who are being recruited by the militia department from the militia department, are becoming almost rebellious in their indignation? Cannot Premier Borden be made to understand that this is no time for merely "holding down a job" and that he must either tackle the militia administration himself or appoint a recruiting director with brains enough to understand the problem, authority enough to do essential things, and power enough to prevent or to repair the damage done by the regular and ordinary administration of the affairs of the militia, the department at Ottawa has failed, and a large number of both officers and men were in a mutinous mood against their colonel, whose conduct had been the subject of secret investigation by a court of inquiry. The facts, as known to many friends of the officers and men of the battalion, were laid before the prime minister, and he was asked to do what he could to help the minister in the department. Wherever he goes the minister, by his cheap affectation of contempt for law and precedent, and as at London last week, by his unbecomingly and offensive rebukes to the officers in the presence and hearing of their regiments, makes the task of recruiting and of discipline needlessly difficult.

Not only are officers of the highest equipment and of unblemished personal character insulted by the lawless and undisciplined militia, but other officers, whose characters are open, frank, and whose conduct has been of the highest, are being driven to resignation in defiance of all the interests involved, both moral and military.

A notorious case of this sort developed in the Toronto regiment, and the elements of a public scandal. A battalion was sent overseas a fortnight ago, and a large number of both officers and men were in a mutinous mood against their colonel, whose conduct had been the subject of secret investigation by a court of inquiry. Wherever he goes the minister, by his cheap affectation of contempt for law and precedent, and as at London last week, by his unbecomingly and offensive rebukes to the officers in the presence and hearing of their regiments, makes the task of recruiting and of discipline needlessly difficult.

Not only are officers of the highest equipment and of unblemished personal character insulted by the lawless and undisciplined militia, but other officers, whose characters are open, frank, and whose conduct has been of the highest, are being driven to resignation in defiance of all the interests involved, both moral and military.

A notorious case of this sort developed in the Toronto regiment, and the elements of a public scandal. A battalion was sent overseas a fortnight ago, and a large number of both officers and men were in a mutinous mood against their colonel, whose conduct had been the subject of secret investigation by a court of inquiry. The facts, as known to many friends of the officers and men of the battalion, were laid before the prime minister, and he was asked to do what he could to help the minister in the department. Wherever he goes the minister, by his cheap affectation of contempt for law and precedent, and as at London last week, by his unbecomingly and offensive rebukes to the officers in the presence and hearing of their regiments, makes the task of recruiting and of discipline needlessly difficult.

GEMS OF ART ARE ON EXHIBITION HERE

Paintings By Prof. George Chavignaud Command Attention

Professor George Chavignaud, O. S. A. for four years in charge of the Victoria School of Art in Halifax, is exhibiting some very fine pictures in the elegant room at 150 Grand street. His exhibition is open to the public and private invitations are being issued also to a number of art lovers.

Professor Chavignaud is exhibiting some seventy of his finest art paintings. Although it would be difficult to select a masterpiece from the array, a short review of a few suffices to show the scholarly art and keen eye for effects that so conspicuously predominate in the paintings.

No. 12, entitled "The Wind Mill," is the creation of a skilled hand. It is in subject a Dutch picture of entrancing beauty and strength. To the close observer of art it is a splendid painting and ranks among the best works of the artist.

No. 15, entitled "Marine Seabreeze," is a beautiful sun and sea picture. It was painted by the artist at sea, using as a submarine base. It is a pleasing fishing coast scene, typical of the regular and ordinary administration of the affairs of the militia, the department at Ottawa has failed, and a large number of both officers and men were in a mutinous mood against their colonel, whose conduct had been the subject of secret investigation by a court of inquiry.

No. 16 is entitled "Marine Seabreeze," is a beautiful sun and sea picture. It was painted by the artist at sea, using as a submarine base. LOCAL OPTION IN TAXATION

(Halifax Echo)

A campaign for the passing of a constitutional amendment allowing local option in taxation is now well under way in California. As the measure is advocated and supported chiefly by single taxers, it is generally known as the single tax campaign, although the amendment itself has nothing to do with single tax.

The proposed amendment simply allows counties and cities to raise revenue for local purposes by taxing land values and permits them to exempt from taxation specified classes of property, such as personal property and improvements, except franchises of public service corporations.

Many besides single taxers, who believe that a system of taxation allowing minor political units to raise their revenue in accordance with the requirements of local conditions would not only benefit those localities but be in harmony with the interests of the state as a whole, are also supporting the movement.

Speaking to a representative of The Christian Science Monitor in regard to the general import of the measure and the prospect of its success at the polls, Clarence K. Todd, secretary of the California League for Home Rule in Taxation recently said:

To show that we are not advocating some inequitable and impractical theory I want to call your attention to the fact that the measure would take away from the local property tax, which is the main part of our municipal revenue, the tax on land values only and the remainder would be placed in the hands of the state for the purpose of raising the revenue which would be necessary for the payment of the state debt and for the improvement of the state.

THE GROCERIES MARKET

The following comment on the market situation was made by a prominent dealer in the Canadian Grocer Just week.

Office of Publication, Toronto. June 28, 1916.

A feature of the market about which everyone appears to be concerned is the very strong situation of the bean crop. This is chiefly based upon the fact that the old crop of beans, which was very scarce, has not yet been harvested.

As the trade shows beans have been a very scarce commodity since the last crop. Farmers never bothered to harvest them but preferred to devote their time to other lines which were more profitable.

Months beans have

CAPTAIN JINKS OF THE HORSE MARINES

Clyde Fitch's Delightful Comedy
in Picture Form Pleases Imperial Patrons—Other Strong Features

"Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines" is a picture which has long since won a reputation in every city and town in the United States and Canada. Yesterday the picture resumed the showing of Fox photo plays, and although the expense attached is much greater than the ordinary feature demands still the management feels that when the theatre going public begin to realize the strength and magnificence of this particular brand of film plays they will be amply repaid for their endeavor to present the very cream of the feature market.

Yesterday's offering was "The Idle" in which Chas. Richman, who was starred in "The Battle Cry of Peace" and the famous Broadway actress, Catherine Countess, play the leading roles. This is the first time Miss Countess has been seen on the screen in St. John and she made an instantaneous impression with yesterday's audience.

ENGLISH HIGH TREASON ACT NEARLY 600 YEARS OLD

Last Executions Under it Prior to the Recent Irish Revolt Were in 1820, the Subjects Being Both Hanged and Beheaded—Several Sentences Had Been Commuted

The case of Sir Roger Casement brings to mind the fact that up to the present there had been no execution in England for high treason since 1839 and 1850. In both those years the trials were held under the General Treason Act of Henry VIII, enacted in 1534. In 1812 the victims were W. Cundell or Connell, and John Smith, who had been captured in the enemy's service in France. Their counsel later became Lord Brougham. In 1820 the sufferers were the five who plotted the assassination of cabinet ministers.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription—Try It if Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedies for every other minor ailment, but when their eyes trouble them they neglect these eyes, because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or, worse, after being used a few months, do their eyes more injury than good.

THE RACE MAKES HIT AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Moore And Anita King Co-
Stars, Is Current Attraction

"The Race" has to do with the adventures of Jimmy Grayson, the frivolous son of a wealthy automobile manufacturer. Jimmy, the character played by Victor Moore, loses $10,000 in gambling and is disowned. While wondering what he should do next, he is run into by an automobile owned by a wealthy old woman and driven by a beautiful young feminine chauffeur. The owner of the car secures Jimmy employment as mechanic in a garage, and since he has no money, the attractive young "chauffeur" takes him to her father at the latter's hotel room where she receives a telegram from her father stating that he has received $25,000 as advance royalty on the carburetor. Grace hastens to the jail and turns the $20,000 over to Jimmy. Jimmy's arms reach to her through iron bars, and the latter discreetly turns his back.

Mr. Van Dyke is a clerk in Grayson's office, and to obtain money to make models of a new carburetor he has invented, has stolen $5,000 from the firm. Grace, his daughter, working as a chauffeur, is ignorant of this theft until he is forced to confess to her. Jimmy and Van Dyke have perfected the carburetor and have offered it for sale but are unable to secure the money immediately. Grayson, to advertise his car, plans a transcontinental trip. The regular driver having taken ill, Jimmy is appointed substitute. The rival firm, learning of this, also fit up a car for a similar trip. Jimmy decides to take the money he has stolen to drive it. So Jimmy and Grace, each unknown to the other, start on their long, transcontinental flight. Garages are burned and obstacles of every description placed in the way. Finally the Grayson agent sends Grace over the wrong road and her car plunges over a bank. There she is found by Jimmy and the reason for her making the trip is explained.

"DON QUIXOTE" BY DEWOLF HOPPER—GEM

Famous Comedian, First Time in
St. John, First Time in Motion
Pictures—Also Comedy Thriller

A strikingly spectacular presentation of Cervantes' classic travesty on knight-hood, "Don Quixote," was shown at the Gem last evening in a five-reel picture featuring the famous comedian DeWolf Hopper in the character of the crack-brained knight. Of course Don Quixote is as well known as Robinson Crusoe or other famous tales and people will readily realize what fun a comedian of Mr. Hopper's great ability could bring out of the character and the ridiculous adventures of the erratic knight. It has lent to a classic story the living, breathing personality of a noted actor and has brought into active being the strange devotee of chivalry. While it is generally along comedy lines, the mastery treatment given by Mr. Hopper elevates the production to the dignity of a triumph in acting. It is worthy of note that this is the first appearance of the celebrated Hopper in motion pictures to see him for the first time in this city. This was quite in line with the Gem's policy of providing the very best the producers offer.

"The Race" will be repeated tonight and for the usual performances tomorrow. Pauline Frederick in Mary Johnston's great story, "Audrey," is announced for the last half of the week.

MILL ON THE FLOSS

George Eliot's Famous Novel
Makes Strong Picture—Whirling
Lemars in Dance Programme

The Lyric Theatre is certainly holding its own with the other different theatres in presenting feature picture productions. Last night's programme for instance was one which the most blasé would use a somewhat ancient expression "sit up and take notice" over.

Surely there is no need to dwell on the merits of the story itself. It is known as being one of the sweetest and most wholesome ever written. Its theme differs from most plays, as it deals with the love of a sister for a brother, a love that overrules all other feelings of affection for men in her own circle and sphere of life. The flood scenes are remarkable, and the destruction of the old mill which rested so peacefully for so long in the

FOX PICTURES AGAIN

AN UNIQUE THEATRE

"The Idle" Shows Charles Richman and Catherine Countess in Exceptionally Well Staged Play

Although lacking to some possible extent the surroundings such splendid productions made by the Wm. Fox Film Corporation merit, nevertheless the Unique Theatre is to be heartily congratulated in presenting these remarkable plays which have long since won a reputation in every city and town in the United States and Canada. Yesterday the picture resumed the showing of Fox photo plays, and although the expense attached is much greater than the ordinary feature demands still the management feels that when the theatre going public begin to realize the strength and magnificence of this particular brand of film plays they will be amply repaid for their endeavor to present the very cream of the feature market.

The Efficiency of the British Navy

—is due to the fact that it wasn't afraid to discard obsolete ships, methods—and men.

When Lord Fisher started to revolutionize the British Navy—not only did he scrap useless ships which could neither fight nor run away—but he also scrapped useless men. It is this courage to wipe out ultimate waste by the "scrapping" of obsolete methods and machinery—that stamps "efficiency" on the man of to-day.

But there are thousands of business men who strive for 100 per cent. efficiency in the factory or office who are still content with 40 or 50 per cent. in the morning toilet.

The demand for more speed, less mess, less of the tedium of re-lathering, rubbing-in, and slow difficult shaving, and less smart, bite and irritation, has caused many men to discard successively the mug, the stick and the powder as they would discard a wasteful, antiquated machine in the factory.

Mennen's Shaving Cream overcomes every objection to mugs, sticks and powders. It wipes out waste, "rubbing-in," and re-lathering. It is sanitary. It actually softens the beard. It leaves the skin soft, cool and refreshed. There is not a bite or a smart in a tube of it. Mennen's Shaving Cream costs but little more than bar or stick and lasts longer than powder. A 25-cent tube, if used according to directions, will deliver a shave a day for months. It is without free caustic; its healing, soothing properties make lotions unnecessary.

DO AWAY WITH DISTRICT MEETINGS, IS RECOMMENDATION
 Annual Meeting of 6th Baptist District Being Held Here

The twelfth annual meeting of the United Baptist churches of the sixth district of the N. B. Association was opened last evening in the Leinster Street Baptist church, with devotional service at 7.30 o'clock. The annual district sermon was given by Rev. L. T. Lingley. The second session was held this morning. The visiting clergymen attending this morning were Rev. W. A. Snelling, St. Martins; Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, St. John; Rev. O. N. Chipman, Hampton; Rev. L. T. Lingley, Millstream; Rev. W. W. Hatfield, Titusville; Rev. D. J. MacPherson and Rev. F. P. Denison, both of this city. The outstanding feature was the unanimous decision to do away with the districts and have three general associations with quarterly meetings. This was referred to the annual meeting of the association in September. Owing to the lack of interest and enthusiasm in district meetings, it was thought advisable to act. The small districts are believed to cut up and divided and inconvenient to attend.
 Mr. Denison, who was in the chair, brought to the notice of the session that his church was too small for the work that he had to carry on, and for the membership. He urged that his demand be met by the present meeting and he given better facilities.

 Letters were read from the various district Baptist churches and all reported a successful year. The demands set forth in the letters were met with according to the powers and authority of the session. Some were referred to the executive.
 The following are the officers:—
 Rev. G. B. MacDonald, chairman; Rev. F. P. Denison, vice-chairman; A. H. Patterson, clerk, and Mrs. R. D. Coggin, assistant clerk. Additional members of the executive are: Rev. D. J. MacPherson, Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, Rev. W. W. Hatfield, Rev. O. N. Chipman, Charles R. Wasson and W. C. Cross.
 The committees are:—Resolution committee, consisting of A. H. Patterson, Rev. W. W. Hatfield, and Rev. O. N. Chipman, chairman; arrangement committee, Rev. D. J. MacPherson, Rev. F. P. Denison and L. A. Belyea. It was reported that out of the total number that have enlisted in New Brunswick, twenty-six per cent are Baptists.
 The reading of the report of the Grand Ligne mission was referred to Rev. F. P. Denison and he will read it during the afternoon session.
 REV. DR. RAYMOND IMPROVING
 Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, who has been seriously ill for a long time, is now reported to be improving, although very slowly. He is with his son, Rev. William Raymond, at Ann Harbor, Mich. Mrs. Raymond is with her daughter in British Columbia.

ONLY 12 OF HIS COMRADES LEFT, WRITES Q. M. S. FERRIS
 Mentions Roy Armstrong as Among Those Who Have Fallen—A Vivid War Picture

His impressions of the big fight at Hooge are told by Quartermaster-Sergt. Harold B. Ferris, in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Harry Ferris, Millidge avenue, as follows:
 "Somewhere in France," June 15, 1916.
 My Dear Mother—Just a line to let you know that I am still in the land of the living. I suppose by this time you have heard of the big battle, and our regiment has been all cut to pieces. There are only twelve of the boys who left Canada with us alive today to tell the tale. My old pal, Roy Armstrong, is among the number who are gone.
 But, Mother, there is one thing we have to be proud of and that is that every one of them died the death of a hero, and did their full duty. My duty was to take the rations up to the trenches at night, and I took up a load of bombs that night and God only knows how we got through, but we did.
 It was one of the greatest and saddest sights I ever saw to see our men in balance going through heavy shell fire to bring the wounded out, and the men going up constantly to take ammunition. I was taking to a quartermaster-sergeant of the artillery who lost twenty horses and ten men in one trip. You can judge what the shell fire was like. My nerves are not quite right yet after losing all my pals.
 Your boy,
 HAL.

LAST ACT OF LIEUT. HIPWELL WAS TO SAVE SOLDIER'S LIFE

Tributes to Young St. John Officer Come From Major and Lieut.-Colonel
 That Lieutenant John B. Hipwell, who was killed in action recently, gave his life for one of his men is indicated in a reference to his last moments contained in a letter from one of the officers of the battery to friends in St. John.
 Major J. M. Eakins, who commanded the battery, says: "The boy had been with me only a few days as an officer, but last year he was in the ranks in my unit and I learned to appreciate his worth. We all know that he was an uncommonly fine man, otherwise he would not have earned his commission so quickly. He was doing most valuable work for the battery when he was hit and I know now that his last act was to save another man by ordering him back under cover."
 Lieut.-Colonel J. J. Creelman, commanding the brigade, also mentions Lieutenant Hipwell's death in a recent letter, saying: "He had the makings of a first class officer, and during the few days since his return, had performed his duties in the most thorough and gallant manner. His loss will occasion a vacancy which will be hard to fill."

HENRY MAGEE HAS BEEN IN HOSPITAL

Fairville Soldier Made Good Recovery and Was Soon Going Back to Battalion
 Henry Magee of Fairville, a private in an infantry battalion, wounded a short time ago and admitted to a hospital, has recovered and by now is back in the trenches. A letter received by his mother, Mrs. John Magee, yesterday, follows:—
 Convalescent Home, France.
 Dear Mother, I am writing you this letter to let you know that I am coming home at a good rate, having been discharged from hospital and sent to a rest camp to recuperate. Expect to be here a few days and then to the base, from which I will go direct to my battalion and the trench work.
 I have been lucky not being wounded before, but I hope this will be the only time until the war is over. I have now enjoyed a good rest and found it very comfortable in hospital. The nurses are very kind, food is good and every attention is given to a fellow. There is quite a relief, too, in sleeping soundly at night, not much like when in the muddy trenches, liable to be blown to pieces at any minute.
 The hospital I have been in is located in France near the coast and you can see the outline of England twenty-one miles away. I feel instead of looking across, I would like to be making a trip back to England and think when I join the battalion my time for a furlough will have come and then I can get a pass across the channel.
 I suppose you worried about my wound but I am getting all right again. Please do not worry about me, no matter what happens; we cannot help it any.
 I have not received any mail since entering hospital, but will get it all together at the base. Tell Johnny to remember me to all the boys in the pulp mill. With love,
 HENRY.

DAVID PATTERSON OF ST. JOHN, AT FIRST PRIVATE, WINS COMMISSION

Another St. John man has had conferred upon him the proud distinction of winning a commission for distinguished service on the field of battle. David Patterson of this city, who enlisted in the ranks and won his way up, step by step, has received substantial recognition of his ability and courage by promotion to the commissioned rank of lieutenant.
 Mr. Patterson is a native of Scotland who has made his home in St. John for the last eight years. When war was declared he was engaged on the government work in Hudson Bay and, so soon as the party returned from that district and landed in Halifax, he sought the

DONALD MACHUM WAS IN CHARGE OF STRETCHER BEARERS

Card From Him And Letter From Major McLean
 Letter Paints Vivid Picture of Scene on Battlefield—Men Struck Dead and Dumb, Many Wounded or Killed—Machum a Prisoner
 H. W. Machum who has received news that his son Lance Corporal Don W. Machum was not killed but is a prisoner at Dulwen, Westfalla, received a card from Don himself, dated June 8, conveying the good news.
 Mr. Machum is also in receipt of the following letter from Major C. H. McLean, written when the fate of the young man was still uncertain. It will be read with intense gratification by all his friends:
 Flanders, June 7, 1916.
 Dear Mr. Machum:
 You will have received official notification that your son Donald is missing, before you get this letter. Personally I have made a most thorough inquiry, but as yet I have no information whatever concerning him. I do not wish you to give up hope, because it is quite possible that he is a prisoner in Germany. The enemy report that they have captured a number of men and if he is among them you will probably get word from him through the War Office.
 Donald was in charge of the stretcher bearers of "D" Company and his work since our arrival in France was of the highest order. On the morning of his disappearance he, in company with the other stretcher bearers worked incessantly in the face of the most terrible shell fire ever known on the entire British front. He ferried the men who were struck dead and dumb and a great number were killed and wounded; but through it all Donald showed magnificent courage and coolness, bandaging the wounded and carrying them out of danger. He seemed to be immune from harm. It is my sincere hope that he is a prisoner and any news of him that I receive will be communicated to you.
 Sincerely yours,
 (Sgd.) C. H. McLEAN, Major,
 4 C. M. R.

PTE. WASSON WOUNDED AND PRISONER OF WAR

Mrs. Edith Wasson of Young's Cove, Queens county received a card recently from her son Private Everett L. Wasson, who was mentioned in the casualty list as being missing, advising her that he was a prisoner of war in Germany and that he was at present in a hospital in Germany, having been wounded. He was receiving good care and asked her not to worry as everything was O. K.

JULY WEDDINGS

Moore-Hastings.
 A very pretty wedding took place at ten o'clock this morning in Exmouth Street Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. W. G. Lane, officiating, when Ethel Maude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hastings of 98 Hazen street, was united in marriage to James A. Moore in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. W. Gladstone Walls, and A. R. Hastings acted as ushers.
 The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of navy blue, with rose hat, and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies. Her father escorted her to the altar and gave her to the groom. Miss Mabel Sandall presided at the organ and played the wedding march. The bride was attended by Miss Frances Withers, who was dressed in white Swiss muslin, with yellow trimmings, carrying a large basket of yellow daisies.
 Mr. and Mrs. Moore, after congratulations, left by the boat for Washade-moak Lake for their honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 85 Mt. Pleasant avenue.
 Totten-Ellis.
 Miss Pearl Ellis, daughter of Robert and Catherine Ellis of Shanklin Settlement, was united in marriage to Robert J. Totten of Barnesville, on July 3, at the parsonage, 70 Exmouth street, by Rev. W. G. Lane. The bride, who was supported by Mrs. Charles Thorne, wore a robe of white silk with toque to match, and flowing veil, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Totten will reside in St. John.
