

THE WEEKLY ONTARIO

AND BAY OF QUINTE CHRONICLE

ESTABLISHED 1841.

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1915. MORTON & HERITY, Proprietors.

100 SHELLS FIRED AT LINER; AMERICANS ABOARD ANCONA; BRITISH FORCE ACTIVE IN SERBIA

Two German Submarines Sunk at Gibraltar-Serbia Win Success Against Bulgarians in Mountains-Italians Carry Another Peak 7,700 Ft. High-British Destroyer Wrecked-Reinforcements For British in Strumitza Region-Berlin Claims Anglo-French Defeated With Enormous Loss in Serbia-Greek Army to be Demobilized-New British War Credit Asked.

BERLIN SAYS FRANCO-BRITISH DEFEATED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—A defeat for the French and British troops in Serbia with losses described as enormous is reported in a despatch from Sofia by way of Budapest.

GREEK ARMY TO BE DEMOBILIZED.

ROME, Nov. 10.—A decree ordering the demobilization of the Greek army will be issued shortly, according to an Athens despatch to the Giornale d'Italia.

NEW WAR CREDIT ASKED BY ENGLAND.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Premier Asquith today asked parliament for a credit of 400,000,000 pounds, about $2,000,000,000. This brings the total war credits thus far up to 1,400,000,000 pounds, about $7,000,000,000.

JAPANESE EMPEROR CONSECRATED.

TOKIO, Nov. 10.—Yohsito was confirmed or consecrated Emperor of Japan in Kioto, the ancient capital today.

SINKS TWO GERMAN SUBS AT GIBRALTAR

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Telegrams received from Algeiras, Morocco, by way of Madrid, report a British cruiser has sunk two German submarines in the Straits of Gibraltar.

BRITISH DESTROYER STRANDED: CREW SAVED.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Admiralty announces that the torpedo boat destroyer Lewes is stranded on the eastern Mediterranean coast and is a total wreck. The crew was saved.

AMERICANS ABOARD TORPEDOED LINER.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A despatch to Lloyds from Bizerta states that some Americans are said to have been aboard the Italian liner Ancona sunk in the Mediterranean yesterday by a German submarine.

A despatch from the Stefani news agency of Rome says 100 shells were fired into the Ancona before she was torpedoed. Two of the Ancona's boats with 54 members of the crew landed near Cape Bon Tunis today, some of the men were injured.

BRITISH OPERATING TOWARDS STRUM- NITZA.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—A Saloniki despatch says the official report of the British-French staff states that the British troops reinforced by a new division of eighteen thousand men now hold all the region north of Dolran, and are operating towards Strumnitza. The French now occupy Monzin, Camandol and Dobristz regions. Supply trains circulate freely. It is confirmed that the French troops have occupied the town of Veles.

SERBIANS' SUCCESS IN KUTCHANIK DEFILES.

ATHENS, Nov. 10.—Serbians operating in the defiles of Kutchanik against the Bulgars advancing from Uskub to Pristrend report an important success, according to advices from Saloniki.

ITALIANS REACH ANOTHER SUMMIT.

ROME, Nov. 10.—The War Office announces that the Italians have reached another summit 7,700 feet high, and have inflicted severe losses on the Austrians who attacked along the Trentino front.

NEW ELECTION IN GREECE.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A decree dissolving the Greek chamber will be published today, according to an Athens despatch to The Daily Chronicle.

BULGARIA THREATENS GREECE.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The Temps prints a despatch from Saloniki, in which Premier Radoslavoff of Bulgaria is quoted by the Sofia correspondent of The Pesti-Hirlap of Budapest, Hungary, as declaring: "The Grecian Government now has been warned that it cannot hold the Bulgarian Government responsible for the consequences of its future attitude."

This notification, according to the correspondent, followed representations made by the premier to M. Naoum, Greek minister to Bulgaria.

Premier Radoslavoff, the correspondent declares, regards the facilities accorded for the disembarkation of allied troops at Saloniki as incompatible with Greek neutrality, and has informed Minister Naoum to this effect.

FRENCH ARTILLERY SMASHES BLOCK- HOUSES AND TRENCHES.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The following official communication was issued by the war office last night:

"Artillery actions took place on a great part of the front, particularly on the plateau of Novron, where we concentrated a very effective fire on the enemy organizations.

"In Champagne the cannonading has again been very violent on both sides in the region of Tahure and the Butte Du Mesnil.

"In the Vosges, to the south of Lusse, our trench guns demolished a blockhouse and shelters of the enemy."

The Belgian official communication reads: "Calm prevailed last night. Furnes, Rams-capelle, Parysse, Rousdamme and Caeskerke were bombarded today. Some projectiles were directed against our advanced posts and at various points along our lines."

CONSERVATION OF FOOD IS WORRYING TEUTONS.

BERLIN, via London, Nov. 10.—National Liberal members of the Reichstag, at a conference in Eisenach, passed resolutions declaring that counter-action in the high food prices was the most important task in home politics. The resolutions said the actions already taken was insufficient, and that other measures for enforcing economy, like the introduction of meat, lard and butter tickets, must be adopted, an that means must be found to supply peasant stock growers with foodstuffs. The conference also discussed the censorship.

The Vossische Zeitung says the German authorities are considering the introduction of meat cards on the principle of bread cards, in order to prevent housewives from laying in stores of meat for the days on which no meat is supposed to be used.

TURKEY WANTS LARGE LOAN FROM GER- MANY.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—An Amsterdam despatch to the Central News says the official Gazette of Constantinople publishes an act voted by parliament authorizing the government to make arrangements with the German Government for an advance of $30,000,000.

REIGN OF FORCE IS DOOMED: FAITH OF ASQUITH UNSHAKEN.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The annual banquet of the Lord Mayor of London was celebrated in the Guildhall last night. Sir Charles Seers Wakefield having been inaugurated during the course of the day. All the city officials, many members of the government and the diplomatic representatives attended.

Mr. Hess Making Many Friends in Old Quebec

The following report which speaks for itself we clip from The Quebec Telegraph of Oct. 30th.—
An enjoyable time was had at the Y.M.C.A. last night, when the senior members of the local association gave their opening social of the season, the function also serving as a formal introduction of the new General Secretary, Mr. Hess, who though only taking up his duties a short time ago has made himself exceedingly popular not alone among the members of the institution, but with all those who have had the good fortune to come in contact with him, his courteous and genial manner winning for him just appreciation.

Rev. Mr. Rogers was introduced to the audience and in prefacing his brief address remarked the pleasure it afforded him to have the opportunity of addressing the members and supporters of the Y.M.C.A., this pleasure being enhanced because his old friend, Mr. Hess had been called to be secretary of the association here. The speaker said he had been closely connected with the work of the Y.M.C.A. for upwards of twenty-five years, but still he was not an old man and would go a ten mile run and go into the gymnasium and compete with the athletes there. In referring to Y.M.C.A. work he paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Hess: "You have in him," said the speaker, "a man who has done valuable work in Ontario." The Y. M. C. A. is not an undenominational but an inter-denominational institution. It is the right arm of church of Jesus Christ. It is easy, the speaker said, for one to get into a rut either in church or Y.M.C.A. work and the only way to get out of the rut is for all to put their shoulder to the wheel.

Mr. Rogers in concluding his remarks told of his experiences in the different military camps, and of his six weeks' stay at Valcartier, and of the work of the Y.M.C.A. there, which he characterized as magnificent. Mrs. W. J. B. Fraser next delighted her hearers with her readily rendered vocal numbers, one being in response to an incessant encore. In her main song, her beautifully rich and pure voice was heard to much advantage in "Bonnie Sweet Bess," which was given on request, the second number being "Mother Alabaster."

Mr. Hess was also called upon for remarks, and he expressed the pleasure he felt at the opportunity of meeting those present and hoped that the formal introduction would ripen into friendship and prove fruitful of good results. He would be glad to have the men come into his office at any time and chat over things in which they were most interested, as this would stimulate a closer acquaintance. He then went on to refer to the members of the local association who are now at the front fighting for us, and said they should have our prayers that God will protect them and carry them safely through. He spoke eloquently of the work being done by the different branches of the association, referring especially to the foundation of the railway branch. He pleaded for up-to-date methods in the work. "We cannot allow the methods used twenty, fifteen or even three years ago. We have to keep our eyes and minds focused on the hour," said he. We should also lend a helping hand to everyone, regardless of their race, creed or nationality. In concluding his happy remarks Mr. Hess said he desired to acknowledge the sweet sympathy which had been advanced to him by the members of the local Y.M.C.A., this despite the fact that he came here a stranger.

Sudden Death of George Weston

Mr. George Weston, a prominent and well-known resident of the township of Sidney died at his home in the Eighth concession on Monday night after only four days' illness. He had been out north deer-hunting, when he caught cold and was compelled to return home. When he reached there on Thursday night, he was a very sick man, and the disease had obtained such a hold that he succumbed as stated above.

Mr. Weston was formerly a leading business man in the village of Frankford, where he conducted a large mercantile establishment. But he retired from that work about eight years ago and purchased a farm in Sidney where he has since resided.

He is survived by his wife and a family of two sons and two daughters. The sons are Frank, manager of a large lumbering business in Saskatchewan and William at home. The daughters are Misses Annie and Grace who also reside at home.

Politically Mr. Weston was identified with the Conservative party, being one of its most ardent workers. In religion he was an Anglican. He was also prominent in Masonic circles.

Throughout his unusually wide circle of acquaintance, Mr. Weston was held in the highest respect and esteem.

Training Class For Reserves

The NCO's training class of the reserve militia of the Fifteenth Regiment was held last night at the armories under the direction of Capt. Cook. Fourteen men were in attendance at the class. Interest is growing in this work and after the opening of the year when organization begins it is expected there will be a good showing.

Rugby

The Belleville high school rugby team, the winner of the southern district of the league composed of Peterboro, Lindsay, Belleville High School and Albert College, will play Peterborough at Peterborough on Saturday. The latter team is the winner of the northern group. Peterborough will play the return game here a week from Saturday.

AUCTION SALE

Farm stock and implements, including the season's crop, property of A. M. and Bayard Bradshaw, lot 10, Con. 8, Sidney Township, Thursday, Nov. 18, at 12.30 sharp. Usual terms. J. J. Fairfield, Auctioneer.

Private Boland Writes Home

Mr. P. A. Boland of the Second C. E.F. writes to his mother and sister from the front.

"Somewhere in France, Oct. 31
Dear Mother—
Just a few lines to let you know I am well. We are out of the trenches, having a rest, just after having a good bath and a change of clothing.

It is hard work in the trenches. The first time we were in, it rained for five days and nights. Some times we get a little sleep but not very often. I have a job that they call 'looking out.' We go on shift at stand to and stay there until sunrise, the next morning. If we see a move we bang away for a few seconds and then duck our heads behind a sandbag. The Hun will come right back at us. There are about two hundred yards between our lines. Our battalion has been very lucky so far, only a few casualties. Now, mother, I could tell you a whole lot more but it would not do. There is some talk of peace about the first of the year. Don't worry about me. I will say good-bye with love to all.
From your son,
Pat (No. 57797)

"Somewhere in France, Oct. 28
Dear Sister Kathleen—
Just received your letter of Oct. 8, also mother's letter dated Oct. 5th. I have been receiving a lot of mail from home lately, and from Toronto as well. Keep on writing.

I am in the trenches today and sitting in my little dugout. When I got your last letter I thought it was nice of you to send me writing paper as it is hard to carry it around in our pack. I hope you have been getting my letters and cards lately. I write every time I get a chance. I was very glad to hear you are all well at home. I was more than pleased to hear that mother is well. I know she will worry a great deal but the only thing to do is to cheer up. This is war over here believe me, and a dangerous job too. We have been in a hot corner for the last few weeks, but our battalion has been very lucky. I have been in the best of health since I came to this country.

I suppose you would like to hear a little about our trench life. I have a job at night's looking out. We are in the first line about two hundred yards from the enemy's front line. Sometimes you can hardly hear a shot fired. Then you will go one of our star-shells and it will be as bright as day. If we see a move in their trench we will blaze away. Then the fire-work will start. That is about the way we put in these long nights.

New Kathleen don't ask me to send you anything just now. As soon as I have time I will send you some kind of a souvenir. I told you in one of my letters that I had received your check a week after I landed in France, and that I had it cashed O.K.

Well sister, I think I have told you all for this time. Give my love to all.
From your brother,
P. A. Boland.

COUNCIL TO TAKE UP LOCAL OPTION BY-LAW MONDAY NIGHT

City Clerk Holmes and Assessors Kerr have now almost completed the scrutiny of the names on the Local Option petition presented to the City Council on Oct. 30th. They are reported to have found that 950 of the names are those of properly qualified voters. Of the 260 names remaining the majority are those of new residents who will be qualified to vote in January, but who are not "voters" in the sense required by the petition which has last year's list for its base.

The total number of names appearing on the voters' list is 3,753. Of these 514 have been discovered to be duplicates, leaving a balance of 3,239 to be considered in the petition. The petition therefore, to compel action on the part of the Council requires a total of 810 names.

The petition will be taken up by the Council on Monday night, and, if found satisfactory, the Local Option bylaw will be given its first and second readings.

MR. C. T. SHARPE WILL LOOK AFTER Y. M. C. A. WORK WITH SOLDIERS

Following the soldier boys wherever they go is a Y.M.C.A. representative, who is appointed by the National Council of that organization to serve the soldiers in every way possible. Along with the Battalion that arrived to take up winter quarters in town is a member of the Barriefield Y.M.C.A. staff, Mr. C. T. Sharpe who is already very well known to the men. He will make his headquarters in Belleville and supervise the work of the Y.M.C.A. for the men here and those at Picton and Napanee as well. As soon as the quarters are ready a reading and recreation room will be opened and a program similar in many ways to the one carried on at the camp all summer will be conducted. Mr. Sharpe can make use of any number of magazines and books in his work as well as articles of furniture that will help make the barracks life and the regimental recreation room a cheery place. For the present he is located at the city Y.M.C.A. and if messages are left there he will be glad to send for parcels of books or that chair or table that you are no longer using.

Military Notes

The strength of the 80th Battalion is 1,050.
There is a rumor in Barriefield camp that Lieut-Col. W. J. Brown, General Staff Officer, will be given command of one of the battalions to be formed in this division. Col. Brown has done excellent work while at the camp and if he is chosen it will be a decided loss to the headquarters staff and to the whole division.
James Angrove of the 14th Regiment Band has joined for overseas service with the 80th Battalion Band.
A drummer from Belleville, brought his drum with him and applied to the 80th Battalion to enlist at Barriefield on Friday. As he passes the examination he was taken on and now the 80th band has a valuable addition. The man created some amusement.

A SPLENDID WORK FOR HUMANITY

What the Marchmont Home has Accomplished for Homeless Children and What They Hope to do in the Future-Interesting Address by Miss Birt the New Superintendent.

Miss Birt of the Marchmont Home entertained at tea on Monday afternoon. The visitors afterwards inspected the Home, which has been renovated at considerable expense.
In the course of a short address Miss Birt said that her mother, Mrs. Birt, opened a home in Liverpool, England, 42 years ago, for poor children. Over 8000 children had passed through that Home, of whom 6000 had been settled in Lower Canada. The children were the fatherless or motherless bairns of seamen and dock laborers and others of the world's greatest sea-port.
The funds were provided by voluntary gifts, mostly from Liverpool citizens. The outfits were largely made by ladies' sewing meetings.
The cost of ship fare, rail fare, outfit and keep in the Canadian Home was about $75 each child. In addition

SECOND DISCOVERY OF GAS ON MR. RAPSON'S PROPERTY

There are accumulating indications that Avondale may be the centre of an important gas field. A few days ago we reported the discovery of gas on the property of Mr. Alex. Rapson, Avondale, at the easy depth of seventy-five feet.
Mr. Rapson immediately set about drilling another well. The site chosen was only thirty-five feet away from the other. Yesterday the drillers were frustrated to strike another abundant flow of gas. The new well does not appear to interfere in the slightest with the volume of gas proceeding from the previous drill hole.

The flow from the first well seems to be increasing rather than diminishing. When a match is applied to the aperture a brilliant flame shoots up fully twenty feet in height.
Cheap fuel and lighting are among the early possibilities.

There are accumulating indications that Avondale may be the centre of an important gas field. A few days ago we reported the discovery of gas on the property of Mr. Alex. Rapson, Avondale, at the easy depth of seventy-five feet.
Mr. Rapson immediately set about drilling another well. The site chosen was only thirty-five feet away from the other. Yesterday the drillers were

Hotelmen Open Campaign Office

The Liquor License-holders of Belleville have opened an office on Bridge street for campaign purposes.

There is a rumor in Barriefield camp that Lieut-Col. W. J. Brown, General Staff Officer, will be given command of one of the battalions to be formed in this division. Col. Brown has done excellent work while at the camp and if he is chosen it will be a decided loss to the headquarters staff and to the whole division.
James Angrove of the 14th Regiment Band has joined for overseas service with the 80th Battalion Band.
A drummer from Belleville, brought his drum with him and applied to the 80th Battalion to enlist at Barriefield on Friday. As he passes the examination he was taken on and now the 80th band has a valuable addition. The man created some amusement.

A Difficult Job

Mr. Wm. Babcock, one of our local mechanics has been engaged by the Steel Company of Canada to carry out the very difficult and dangerous work of painting the smoke-stacks on their plant here.

DOCTRINE OF ETERNAL PUNISHMENT OPPOSED TO SCRIPTURAL TEACHING

Ex-Ald. Robinson Gives Much Authority From the Bible to Support His Opinions.

Editor of The Ontario:

Dear Sir:—The question of the final destiny of the wicked seems to be exciting considerable interest in this locality at the present time; and as the writer has devoted a considerable amount of time to the study of this subject, he feels that it would be in order to present to the readers of The Ontario what he believes to be the teaching of the Bible in reference to this matter.

In pursuing the study of this subject, it will be found that literal fire is God's instrument of destruction (not preservation) of the ungodly. We shall also, from what follows, see that "destruction" is an exceedingly appropriate term to represent the final doom of the wicked.

The wicked are compared to chaff in the following places: Job 2:17, 18; Psa. 1:4; 35: 5. To stubble: Job 21: 17, 18; Isa. 47:14; Mal. 4:1. To thorns, 2 Sam. 23:6, 7. To tares, Matt. 13:38, 40. To the fat of lambs Psa. 37:20.

If the wicked are to have an everlasting, conscious existence, why are they represented by such perishable articles as chaff, stubble, tares, and the fat of lambs? We leave this question for those who believe in the eternal torment doctrine, to answer.

In harmony with these figurative representations, we read: "He will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat (the righteous) into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff (the wicked) with unquenchable fire."—Matt. 3:12; Luke 3:17. "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly. . . he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that bringeth forth his fruit in season: his leaf also shall not wither. . . The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away."—Psa. 1:3-5.

"The ungodly shall perish."—Psa. 1:1-5. The chaff is perishable, and so, likewise, are the wicked; therefore they are like the chaff which the wind driveth away, they are not found; they shall not be. "They shall be devoured as stubble fully dry."—Nehem. 1:10. "They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away."—Job 21: 18. "Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust."—Isa. 5:24. "The sons of belial (the wicked) shall be all of them as thorns, because they cannot be taken with hands, but . . . they shall be burned with fire."—2 Sam. 23:6, 7. "The tares are (or represent) the children of the wicked (one), the harvest is (or represents) the consummation of the age; and the reapers are (represent) angels. As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the consummation of the age, with the wicked."—Matt. 13:38, 39, R. V.; see margin.

These quotations show clearly that the reason the wicked are compared to chaff, stubble, and other combustible material, is to show that their destruction will be "swift" and complete. One text quoted particularizes so pointedly as to mention that the wicked "shall be devoured as stubble fully dry," not partly dry, but "fully dry." Would it not be the most trifling nonsense to use such emblems as these to make plain what the doom of the wicked is to be, if it is to be eternal torture? There would then be no analogy whatever between the figures and the facts. But as a fitting climax to this group of passages, we will quote Mal. 4:1-3: "For, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be (as) stubble; and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. This passage puts the matter beyond all controversy as to why the wicked are compared to stubble. It is because there will be nothing left of them; not even a root or branch—nothing, but ashes. No, not even an immaterial soul; or as the Psalmist puts it: "For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be."—Psa. 37:10. Can they BE in the "orthodox" hell, and still NOT BE? But say our opponents, one passage reads: "He shall burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." Yes, it does read so; and that is the reason we believe the wicked will be burned up, but not that they will be forever burning without being consumed. The fact that the fire is said to be "unquenchable," is additional proof that the wicked will be burned up; for the fire cannot be quenched until it does its work of destruction, then it no doubt will die out of itself; such being the case, it is quite true that "the fire never shall be quenched." Mark 9:43. But, we are reminded "neither does the worm die." True; this is quite scriptural, for we read: "Their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched," verses 44, 46. It is a well known fact that, as a rule, portions of material will remain unconsumed in almost any fire, even when the fire is unquenchable. There are usually odds and ends remaining, which the fire does not reach. By applying this rule to a fire which will feed on bodies of flesh and bone, it is at once seen where the worm takes part in the destruction. The worm naturally feeds on the remains left unconsumed by the fire, and like the fire "it will not die" until there is nothing left to feed on. In this way the destruction will be complete, and the warning of the Lord pointed. Evidently Christ wished to impress on the minds of his hearers the fact, that they should by all means make peace with God in this life, for there would be no second chance of redemption to take place after the resurrection, for those who had already been offered salvation. For their worm would not be quenched, neither would the worm die, and therefore their destruction would not be hindered; consequently they would be "destroyed without remedy." The righteous are to "go forth and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against God: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh."—Isa. 66:24. This is positive proof that the fire and worm are to feed on carcasses not immortal souls. Nevertheless, the wicked, "both soul (or life) and body," will be "destroyed in gehenna"—not one destroyed and the other preserved. Therefore we should "fear Him who is able" to do this, Matt. 10:28. It does not necessarily follow, because a fire is said to be unquenchable that it will not die out of itself. We hear the fire-bell, we hasten to the fire, and sometimes when we arrive on the spot, we say there is no use in trying to extinguish it; why? Because it is unquenchable on account of having made such great progress, through the combustible nature of the material, which the building is composed of. Nevertheless, it dies out, as soon as the fuel is consumed to the extent reached by the fire.

The unquenchable fire of the Bible, burns up, or consumes the chaff; whereas the unquenchable fire of modern theology, is forever burning, but never burns up, those who are cast into it.

We read in Jer. 17:27; "I will kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem and it shall not be quenched." We have a record of the fulfilment of this in Lamentations 4:11, "The Lord hath kindled a fire in Zion and it hath devoured the foundation thereof." Is that "not quenched" fire burning now? No; it went out when its work was done, which was not long after it was kindled." This fire, which "was not quenched," was a "devouring" fire. The fire of the "orthodox" hell is not a devouring one; therefore it is not the unquenchable fire of the Bible. Other similar examples are found, in Isa. 34: 5-10; Jude, verse 7; 2 Chron. 34: 25.

"Gehenna," the word rendered "hell" in Matt. 10:28, Parkhurst says "is used by the Septuagint for the Hebrew word gehenna. Josh. 18:16. So gehenna in the New Testament is in like manner a corruption of the two Hebrew words, gal, a valley, and Hinnom, the name of the person who was once the possessor of it. The valley of Hinnom lay near Jerusalem, and had been the place of those abominable sacrifices in which the idolatrous Jews burned their children alive to Molech, Baal, or the son, a particular place in this valley itself, was called Tophet, and the valley itself, the valley of Tophet, from the first stove in which they burned their children to Molech." A Kings 23:10; 2 Chron. 28:3.

Parkhurst makes these remarks on Mark 9:43: "Our Lord seems to allude to the worms which continually preyed on the dead carcasses that were cast into the valley of Hinnom (i.e. gehenna) and to the perpetual fire kept up to consume them; a place of abominable filthiness and pollution"—Greek Lexicon.

It seems this valley was used in the Lord's time, as a place to deposit all manner of filth and dead carcasses which accumulated in Jerusalem; and there this refuse was continually being destroyed by fire and worm.

And our Lord referred to these as an example of what would overtake the wicked. "Certain passages wherein it is stated that the wicked shall weep and gnash their teeth are in complete harmony with the foregoing, for there is nothing said about this being kept up eternally; and when the wicked are being destroyed by fire, weeping and gnashing of teeth are just the things that are likely to occur. And the fact that weeping and gnashing of teeth are spoken of in this connection shows that corporeal beings are the subjects of this doom and not immortal souls. Immortal souls are not likely to possess material teeth.

We are sometimes referred to Jude verse 7, as being positive proof, that the wicked continue to suffer eternally in fire. The passage reads: "Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, in like manner giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." This text like all others quoted by the advocates of eternal torment, is rather against the everlasting misery dogma, instead of being in favor of it, as we shall see.

Peter speaks of the same event in these words: "And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example unto those that after should live ungodly." (2 Peter 2:6.) Now wherein is the example to the ungodly in this that happened to those cities? Is it not that the cities were burned with a fire, the result of which was that the cities including the people, were turned into ashes, and are still suffering God's vengeance in that they have never survived the effect of the fire? The effect or result of the fire is eternal (atonian, age-lasting), not that the fire itself is eternal and now in existence.

Our Lord also referred to this event as an example, when he said, "The same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and DESTROYED them all." And "even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed." The example in this case is that those people were inflicted with destruction by fire for their sins, not that they were still suffering punishment. A passage that is frequently quoted as being opposed to the view that the wicked will be literally destroyed is Matt. 25:46—"These (the wicked) shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal." Here, as in many other passages of Scripture, we find that the righteous only attain to eternal life. So whatever the "punishment" of the wicked may be, it cannot be connected with eternal life. Our Lord in Matt. 7 says, "Wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction; and straight is the gate and narrow is the way that leads unto life." Here we learn that it is destruction for one class and life for the other. Life is placed opposite destruction not everlasting punishment. He also says, He who rejects the Son "shall not see life" John 3:36. Paul says that the end of the enemies of the cross of Christ is destruction—Phil. 3:18, 19. He also says that it is an everlasting destruction—not everlasting torment. Paul calls this everlasting destruction a "punishment," too, and so it is—2 Thess. 1:7-9. The Lord preserveth all them that love him, but all the wicked will he destroy.—Psa. 145:20. The Greek word kolasis, rendered "punishment," in the passage under consideration is said by Young in his concordance, to mean "constrain" or "constraint." Liddle and Scott define the word kolasis (1) a pruning (2) checking, punishing etc. So it will be seen that the critical meaning of the word kolasis is in the strictest harmony with the view that destruction, ending in literal death, is the destiny of the wicked; and we are told that "the wages of sin is death." The wicked are constrained from entering into eternal life by being cut off—destroyed.

The Emphatic Diaglott renders this passage thus—"And these shall go forth to the atonian cutting-off; but the righteous to atonian life." In this version the antithesis of the passage is preserved as well as the harmony of the teaching of the Bible on the subject. "For evil doers shall be cut off; but those that wait upon the Lord they shall inherit the earth"—Isaiah 37.

We claim then, that instead of Matt. XXV, 46, proving that the wicked are everlastingly tormented, it proves emphatically the contrary, that is, that they are literally "cut off," or restrained from receiving life eternal; and therefore it is impossible that they can be made to suffer torment eternally. The eternal torment idea would never have been attached to this passage if it had not been that those who believe in the deathlessness of the soul, must provide for its future in some way. Therefore, they claim that everlasting happiness is the reward of the righteous while everlasting torment is the doom of the wicked. "Whereas the Bible puts it—everlasting life for the righteous and everlasting death for the wicked. These interpreters do not care to attempt to harmonize that barbarous God-dishonoring doctrine of eternal torment with the fact that we are told in God's Word that "the Lord is very pitiful and of tender mercy," Jas. 5:11 and his mercy is without end, as "it endureth forever."

The parable of the rich man and Lazarus is thought by some to prove the everlasting torment of the wicked but when honestly analyzed there is nothing in it in favor of that barbarous doctrine; and considering that this article is already too lengthy, I shall not now make even an attempt at an exposition of this parable. Besides this I understand that an article devoted to an exposition of this parable has recently been distributed pretty generally throughout the city.

A. Robinson.

Local Municipalities Appeal for Protection

CAMPBELLFORD COUNCIL WANTS LIQUOR SALE CURBED IN LARGE PLACES NEAR.

CAMPBELLFORD, Nov. 9.—The Town Council has passed the following resolution: "That whereas in the opinion of the Municipal Council of the town of Campbellford the retail sale of intoxicating liquors in the cities of Peterboro' and Belleville and the village of Hastings and Marmora is detrimental to the efficient working of the local option law in this municipality, inasmuch as so many convictions for infringement of the liquor act have been the result of people procuring liquor in these places, as the evidence taken in the Police Court proves; resolved, that this Council respectfully requests the License Commissioners to take such measures as will protect local municipalities from annoyance and censure."

Military Notes

Nine recruits were transferred from the local recruiting depot to the 80th Battalion. They were as follows:—H. Ellegott, Bowmanville. N. Watson, Peterborough. Isaac A. Murdock, Thurlow. K. M. Cole, Deseronto. H. James, England. Archie Hutchison, Trenton. E. Wilson, Trenton. J. L. LaPointe, Trenton. E. Garbutt, Aurora.

Messrs. Harry Sharp and Reginald Edmondson left for Kingston to join the 33rd Battery.

Major F. J. R. Forster, M.D., and Mrs. Forster, of Stratford, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Geo. F. Stewart, Commercial Street. Dr. Forster left on Monday for Montreal, whence he sails for England on service in the Royal Army Medical Corps at any place where he may be required. Mrs. Forster accompanies him as far as England.

Hope for the Chronic Dyspeptic.—Through lack of consideration of the body's needs many persons allow disorders of the digestive apparatus to endure until they become chronic, filling days and nights with suffering. To these a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is recommended as a sure and speedy way to regain health. These Pills are specially compounded to combat dyspepsia, and the many ailments that follow in its train, and they

McINTOSH BROTHERS

Offers you Great Values all this week in Colder Weather needs, such as:

BLANKETS, HOSIERY, UNDERWEAR, DRESSES, WAISTS, UNDERSKIRTS, ETC.

Buy them now while the assortment is at its best and prices the lowest to be had notwithstanding the unsettled conditions of the markets.

We will protect you against higher prices the same as we have all ways done in the past. Shop here and save money.

Great Values in Flannelette Blankets from $1.25 up to $2.00. Every one guaranteed to be the highest quality obtainable.

Hosiery Hosiery Hosiery Ladies' and Misses' Wool Ribbed Hose 25c pr. Children's Cashmere Wool Hose, best quality 2 prs., 75c Buster Brown Stockings, the kind that give service 25c pr.

Underwear for Ladies and Children Best Qualities Here, At the Right Price Children's Union Shirts and Drawers 25c per garment. Children's All-wool Shirts and Drawers 35c to 50c garment. Ladies' Union Shirts and Drawers 35c to 50c garment. Ladies' All-Wool Shirts and Drawers $1.00 to $1.75 garment. Children's Dresses, 25c to 75c. Every one great bargains. Misses' Dresses, navy blue serge. Special $2.50 Ladies' Wrapperette Waists, only $2.50

Large variety of Dress Goods, Serges, Coatings, Silks, Veiveteens, etc., specially priced for this week.

McINTOSH BROTHERS

Established 1870 Makers of Fine Furs

Ladies' Cloth Coats

FOR LATE FALL OR WINTER WEAR

The very pick of the smartest coats that this season offers. Perfect Fitting, Splendidly made, Finely Finished and Superbly Styled. Prices $10 to $22.

S. A. HYMAN & CO. 242 Front Street

N.B.—Remodeling and Repairing of Furs carefully attended to. Obtain our prices for making over Persian Lamb Coats.

Electric Irons

$2.00

Not FANCY, but GOOD

THE SMITH HARDWARE CO. We Do Plumbing

A Joint Account is a Great Convenience for family funds. It may be opened with the Union Bank of Canada in the names of two persons, either of whom can make deposits or withdraw money when in town or when passing the bank. It is especially convenient if the husband is frequently away on trips, as it enables the wife to procure funds for expenses on her own signature alone.

Belleville Branch J. G. Moffat, Manager. Pictou Branch C. B. Beamish, Manager.

THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

Quarterly Dividend Notice No. 100

Notice is hereby given that a Dividend at the rate of Thirteen Per Cent. Per Annum upon the Capital Stock of this Bank has this day been declared for the quarter ending the 30th October 1915, and that the same will be payable at the Head Office in this city and its branches on or after Monday the 1st day of November, 1915, to shareholders of record of the 21st of October, 1915.

By Order of the Board, G. P. SCHOLFIELD, General Manager. Manager Belleville Branch.

JOHN ELLIOTT, Toronto, 28th September, 1915.

Shannonville Branch open Mondays and Thursdays. Foxboro Branch, open Tuesdays and Fridays. Rednersville Branch open Wednesdays.

TRY US FOR ARTISTIC PRINTING.

Old Prices Still Hold Good

Woolens of every description are still soaring upwards. But we are selling lots of lines to-day better than ever before, and selling for less than we can replace them for.

Cashmere Socks, Wool Socks, all lines of Wool Underwear, Sweaters—all bought early, and lots of them. No raise in price on these.

Suits and Overcoats

For both Boys and Men, at old prices, and some lines a little better; and more to show you than ever before.

High Prices

Everything we try to buy in Woolen goods to-day is high, and will be higher; but we will protect our customers for a long time yet.

We Have the Stock

Oak Hall

T&D

Miss Violet Gives H

Editor The Ontario

Dear Sir:— I have just been would not be interested, who aided me to know what the meant to me. For ation, the perspe but some idea of tourist does may

The weather was viour from the crossed at Prescott From the ferry, I caught a brief gl windmill around raged in '38. To powerful effort of the picture the struggle seems so quiet and

Nearing Utica wh was interested in canal winding along Black River Canal, so I was told, but Trent Valley look comparisons are in country itself is ve nearing Albany on charm of the beaut

Impressions My days in Albe the brim with vis where the magnific stair is being repa York State Educat other points of inte

The Education B some structure of g to me the most pes of classical desig made of thirty-six extending along the

The rotunda, wit fine mural painting ful. At the entra partment, I notice signing of the Mag cation to the admi education. This wa on the walls.

Then one glo through the kindr enjoyed a seventy into the country. Settlement, nestled the most fruitful se Cohoes and Troy.

The struggle the are making for the noting. We, at hom comfortably hopi our lot, as a gift fro realize what a work doing. True they b time, but they are Even the "antis" w say "it is coming."

Yes it was a ple

"T

Union Bank

OF CANADA

A Joint Account is a Great Convenience for family funds. It may be opened with the Union Bank of Canada in the names of two persons, either of whom can make deposits or withdraw money when in town or when passing the bank. It is especially convenient if the husband is frequently away on trips, as it enables the wife to procure funds for expenses on her own signature alone.

Belleville Branch J. G. Moffat, Manager. Pictou Branch C. B. Beamish, Manager.

THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

Quarterly Dividend Notice No. 100

Notice is hereby given that a Dividend at the rate of Thirteen Per Cent. Per Annum upon the Capital Stock of this Bank has this day been declared for the quarter ending the 30th October 1915, and that the same will be payable at the Head Office in this city and its branches on or after Monday the 1st day of November, 1915, to shareholders of record of the 21st of October, 1915.

By Order of the Board, G. P. SCHOLFIELD, General Manager. Manager Belleville Branch.

JOHN ELLIOTT, Toronto, 28th September, 1915.

Shannonville Branch open Mondays and Thursdays. Foxboro Branch, open Tuesdays and Fridays. Rednersville Branch open Wednesdays.

TRY US FOR ARTISTIC PRINTING.

QU

A TRIP TO NEW YORK.

Miss Violet B. Graham, M.A., of Wallbridge, Gives Her Impressions of a Tour to the American Metropolis.

Editor The Ontario:
Dear Sir:

I have just been wondering if it would not be interesting to your readers, who aided me in the late contest, to know what the New York trip has meant to me. For an ultimate valuation, the perspective is too close, but some idea of what the ordinary tourist does may not be amiss.

The weather was on its best behaviour from the moment when I crossed at Prescott until my return. From the ferry, at that point, I caught a brief glimpse of the old windmill around which the battle raged in '38. Today it requires a powerful effort of the imagination to picture the struggle, everything about seems so quiet and peaceful.

Nearing Utica via the N. Y. C. I was interested in a tiny threadlike canal winding along the railway. The Black River Canal, and very useful so I was told, but beside it even the Trent Valley looks—but after all comparisons are in bad taste. The country itself is very picturesque, and near Albany one falls under the charm of the beautiful Mohawk Valley.

Impressions of Albany.

My days in Albany were filled to the brim with visiting the Capitol, where the magnificent million dollar stair is being repaired, the new New York State Education Building and other points of interest.

The Education Building is a handsome structure of granite and marble, to me the most pleasing I saw. It was of classical design, having a colonnade of thirty-six immense columns extending along the front.

The rotunda, with lofty dome, and fine mural paintings is truly beautiful. At the entrance to the Law Department, I noticed a fine print of the signing of the Magna Charta; a dedication to the admirers of liberty and education. This was the only picture on the walls.

Then one glorious afternoon through the kindness of friends, I enjoyed a seventy-mile motor ride into the country, visiting the Shaker Settlement, nestled down in one of the most fruitful sections, Watervliet Coloes and Troy.

The struggle the New York women are making for the franchise is worth noting. We, at home, who jog along comfortably fopping it will drop into our lot, as a gift from the gods can't realize what a work these women are doing. True they have failed for the time, but they are no longer jeered. Even the "antis" with whom I talked say "it is coming."

Yes it was a pleasure to be there

In the thick of it and to listen in the Assembly Room of the Capitol to such gifted speakers as Dr. Anna H. Shaw and Mrs. Philip Snowden of Blackburn, Eng. Both are devoted to the "Cause" but differ somewhat in their vision. This was very evident in their treatment of "war." The American condemned any thought of women's participation, while the Englishwoman accepts the issue saying "We are a part of the army today and we are told that if it becomes necessary we must take our places in the trenches. We are ready."

The Charm of New York.

And New York? Well you must see it to realize what it is like, with its skyscrapers, bridges and marvellous engineering feats. You must ride miles on its surface cars, its "L" and its subways, then perhaps with senses opened, you will catch the charm of this big commercial city.

And we did, I suppose what all tourists do. Dodged motors, rode on the top of observation buses along Riverside Drive and down Fifth Avenue, gazing at the crowds, and the prison like homes of the wealthy New Yorkers. One does not wonder that these are being sold for shops, they are so barred and harsh on the exterior, with their bars and absence of any green thing. One forenoon we visited the downtown section and watched the Curb Brokers of Broad St. I was disappointed in not being able to enter the Exchange, visitors have been prohibited since the war opened. One is politely informed that the gallery is being repaired.

The parks are great, especially the Bronx with its Botanical and Zoological Gardens, and Central Park covering 879 acres is a delightful pleasure ground. On its edge, the Metropolitan Museum with its exhibits of painting, sculpture, lace, jewelry, armor, etc., is a feast for the senses and the soul. For me, Rosa Bonheur's Horse Fair and Turner's Grand Canal were the most beautiful of all gathered there, a joy that stays with one. But it takes too long to tell of galleries, museums, monuments, shops and curio shops.

One day we took a trip out past Sandy Hook. The Goddess of Liberty, I found to be quite as imposing as her pictures, but I did not quite realize what she must mean to travellers until I saw her lighted up when we returned; a beacon light, a fresh start in a new land.

In the harbor lay the Vaterland and two other German vessels interned since the war began. Not far off a vessel flying the Belgian flag was be-

THE NEW STORE

Our aim is to sell our customers merchandise that will give satisfaction. That is why it's good economy to shop at "Wims Exclusive Dry Goods Store." Just a little newer—just a little better value.

Black Silk Stockings, 59c pr.
New Serge Skirts
In Navy and Black, up-to-the-minute in style. Price $3.25.

New York Underskirts
Watered marine—a skirt made for comfort and satisfaction—only $1.50.

Knitted Underskirts, $1.19 to $1.50
Blouses
The latest styles, from 98c to $6.

27-in. Corduroy Velvets
Heavy pile, cream, white, cardinal navy and sage, extra value at $5.50. Plain Velvets, in all the wanted shades.

Underwear and Sweater Coats for Men, Women and Children. Prices right.

EVERYTHING NEW.

Wims & Co

ing loaded with hay and a French one with horses. Close at hand were others from Rotterdam, Christiania, Brazil, even the yellow Japanese flag was in evidence and four to one that day we saw the Union Jack.

Yes, and we also saw the huge vessel laden with dynamite that was causing New York some uneasiness. Its owners had been given the alternative, to dispose of its cargo, or move out and take its chances with the British cruisers outside the harbor. On the following day crossing to Staten Is., we noted that the red flag was lowered. The cargo had been removed.

Having seen the city in sections, under the guidance of an old New Yorker whose grandfather owned and lived on a farm in the vicinity of what is now Wall St., it was fitting that we should on our last day see it as a mint. Sixty stories high, on the Woolworth building, one has a sensation not easily forgotten. New York's 5,000,000 below in those toy houses! One registers one's name with strange company. A man from across the Atlantic, a grey-haired Chicagoan, one from Barbadoes, and a charming young pair of newly-weds from Havana group their names about mine.

Why Call It American?

"Yes, it's a great country," said one coming down in the elevator, "but why 'American'?" An Italian discovered it, the Irishmen run it, and the Jew owns it."

The trip from New York up the Hudson was charming. It was a gray morning when we slipped past three huge U. S. battleships and up among the palleades, great column-like masses of stone guarding the land. Lofty headlands, blunt harsh outlines, were for the most part clothed with hardy bushes and vines, a gorgeous medley of color.

Villages and mills lie near the river's bank, behind the mountains stretching upward are reflected in the river on either side. The "Robert Fulton" on which we were kept to the silver stream in the centre.

It was an ideal day and in the summer-like atmosphere as we came in sight of the Catskills we felt we could never realize the story of Rip Van Winkle's long sleep after meeting with Henrik Hudson. Perhaps too, we gained an insight into the meaning of the old tale, a keener insight because of the setting. West point is probably the finest site along the river and because of that and its military importance attracts most attention, but the Hudson is rich in historical associations. Almost every landing has its own story of the days of Cornwallis and Washington.

Taken For a Spy.

Now let me tell one on myself. I was busily engaged sketching the outlines of West Point, when I heard near by the word "spy." Needless to say the humour of the situation appealed to me, for one can buy much better pictures of it than my poor attempts.

Returning I spent a few days at Little Falls, a very picturesque city, and while there motored with friends to Ilion and Utica, besides visiting the home and grave of Gen. Herchimer of revolutionary fame. And thence on to Kingston and Belleville, delighted with my month's holiday.

V. B. GRAHAM.

New Princess Theatre Opened

"The New Princess Theatre" the twenty-fourth house operated by the Griffin Amusement Company, was opened last evening with such an attendance that the doors had to be closed. This new moving picture house occupies a most prominent place on Front Street, near Campbell Street and has an up-to-date and attractive entrance.

The new theatre is absolutely fire-proof, being built of stone and has six exits, the doors being provided with double panic bolts so that with the slightest pressure they are thrown open.

The capacity is about 460. Fans are being installed for the removal of foul air. The wall decorations are in cream-colored panels bordered with dark red moldings. The auditorium is steam-heated. Much favorable comment has been heard regarding the lighting. There are rows of side lights, but when a film is being shown these are turned out, the only light coming from indirect canopy lights which throw a soft light on the ceiling. This is sufficient for patrons to see to move about, but does not detract from the picture on the screen because this is in a part of the house absolutely dark. The machine is operated from a fire-proof booth above.

The contractors were the Holton Lumber Company, Mr. Charles McDonnell being superintendent of construction.

Both Griffin's Opera House and "The New Princess Theatre" are under the direction of Mr. Fred Green of Pittsburg.

"The New Princess" will run three changes of films weekly Monday Wednesday and Friday. There will be matinees every afternoon at 2.30, and two performances every night at 7.15 and 9.00 o'clock.

Mr. John Griffin is giving free of charge the Opera House for an entertainment some Sunday, all the proceeds to be given to some fund for the soldiers. His generosity is appreciated by military men and citizens generally.

Many Young Men Enlisted Last Night

A large number of young men went into the artillery service last evening. Many of them are well known young Bellevillians whose patriotism is certain to stir others to emulate them.

Two more post office clerks set out to enlist. They tendered their services for the artillery last evening. Word will come from the post office department as to whether they can be released for active service. Should they go, there will be a total of five out of the post office serving.

Mr. George Irvine is one of the latest to enlist. He will join the artillery shortly.

A Ready Weapon Against Pain.—There is nothing equal to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil when well rubbed in. It penetrates the tissues and pain disappears before it. There is no known preparation that will reach the spot quicker than this magic oil. In consequence it ranks first among liniments now offered to the public and is accorded first place among all its competitors.

80th Battalion Notes

The Armouries are again the scene of activity. The 80th bugle band is using the lecture hall for practice, and soldiers are in the various departments of the Armouries carrying out their duties.

The officers of the 80th are taking up living quarters on Church Street.

The machine gun section of the battalion will occupy rooms on Pinnacle Street next to the Armouries.

The County Building on Church Street is being used for the C. A. S. C.

The Battalion went out on march this morning to the western part of the city for drill.

To Darken Hair Apply Sage Tea

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 60 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, and luxuriant.

Good Work of the Bible Society

Dear Editor:

It may be news to many of the readers of your valuable paper, to learn that the Bible Society is one of the most active agencies for disseminating the life-giving word not only throughout the known world, but throughout the arena of war also. The armies of all the nations engaged in the present conflict are being supplied with copies of the Scripture, so translated that each soldier may read the Word of God in his own tongue.

The Upper Canada Branch of the Society to which we of Belleville are asked to contribute through the ladies who are now, by canvassing, kindly making it as easy as possible for us to share in the good work, has already, since the war began, gratuitously supplied the Canadian soldiers bound in khaki 110,000 copies.

An additional 60,000 copies more are now on order, and the society has promised the government to supply every soldier leaving Canada for Europe, no matter how many may be sent. This is costing the society a lot of money, but, say the agents: "Words cannot express the gratitude with which the scriptures are received by the men."

And yet, let us remember the words of the Spirit, "It is more blessed to give, than to receive."

A. M. Hubly, Pres.

Worried Their Parents

A little ten year old girl left home with her sister at 7.20 last night to get a newspaper. Instead of returning home at once they stayed on the streets and caused their parents some excitement until their arrival home.

Presented With Gold Watch

Last evening in the office of the McLaughlin Company, a presentation took place to Mr. Reg. Edmondson who has been with the firm for about three years. Mr. Edmondson knows the mechanical side of the automobile business to perfection. Recently he volunteered for active service and was accepted for the artillery.

In order to have Mr. Edmondson carry away some token of the appreciation of the firm and, his many friends, a number of them gathered in the office to bid him farewell last night. Mr. S. S. Finkle made a few appropriate remarks after which Mr. Amos Moyce presented Mr. Edmondson with a twenty year gold case Waltham movement wristlet watch on behalf of the donors. The recipient was taken by surprise but expressed his appreciation of the gift.

Mr. Edmondson left this morning to join the 33rd Battery.

CREAM

AFTER CHEESE SEASON IS OVER WHY NOT PATRONIZE
The Largest Creamery in Eastern Ontario

We furnish cans and pay express. Cheques issued twice a month.
THE LARGEST CREAMERY. WHY? Because our prices and methods are correct. Write us.

The Belleville Creamery Ltd.

118 Front Street, Belleville.

References: The Molson's Bank.

KILTIES' BAND WON THEIR WAY INTO HEARTS OF PEOPLE OF SAN DIEGO

Interesting Account of the Performance of Tom Powers Great Band From San Diego Union

Mr. Ed. Tickell has kindly handed us a copy of the San Diego Union, which contains a glowing and enthusiastic report of the appearance in that city of the Belleville Kilties under the management of Mr. Thomas Power.

It is interesting to know that this particular engagement at San Diego was made by Mr. Lane who had the Daily Ontario party on their tour at that city.

Mr. Lane incidentally met Mr. Power at Chicago while The Ontario party was passing through and this chance meeting resulted in an arrangement by which Mr. Lane acted as advance agent for the Kilties at several cities en route.

Mr. Lane is now with the Kilties looking after a three month tour.

Following is the criticism as given by The Daily Union of Oct. 24.—

More than five thousand people cheered and applauded the husky Kilties of the Kilty Band at the Esplanade organ pavilion at the Exposition last night. The afternoon concert, which was played in the Plaza de Panama, also drew a tremendous attendance for everybody was anxious to get a change of the red-jacketed, plaid-skirted Scotchmen and to hear them play.

Not were they disappointed. The band, under the able direction of Willie C. Newland, was liberal with, energy, but still the crowd yelled for more. What with Scotch songs, Highland flings, Irish jigs, sentimental selections, fascinating waltzes, operatic solos, and patriotic medleys, all varieties of musical tastes were satisfied and everyone was happy.

The band is one of unusual excellence and appears to be at ease in the playing of anything from Harry Lauder songs to excerpts from Wagner; the instruments are of exceptionally pleasing tone, and the director, conducting with a jaunty air which quite befits his gorgeous Scotch costume, infuses brilliance and verve into the playing of his musicians. It is probable that no musical event at the Exposition has afforded more pleasure to the public at large than the two concerts given yesterday by this organization.

OLD FAVORITES PLAYED
For those San Diegans who come from the land of oatmeal and golf, the best numbers in the evening program were the bagpipe solo by Pipe Major Wee Jamie Clark, the highland fling by the Kilties' dancers, and the saxophone solos by the director, Willie C. Newland. The latter's solos were "Bonnie Scotland," and "Sweet Bonnie Bessie."

In addition to being an expert player, Director Newland possesses a saxophone of unusually fine tone, and his selections, probably were as enjoyable as any of the selections on the program. Major Wee Jamie is not a whit behind in excellence as a performer on the bagpipes, and may how the Scotch beards in the audience did wag and heave Jamie, with pumping arms and puffing cheeks, sent forth the sound, so dear to the native of the land of thistle and heather. In addition to being wee, Major Jamie also is agile, a trait which was well shown in his Irish jig, which made such a hit with the audience that he was recalled three times. Jamie, also is plump and by the time the third jig was ended, he had left a perceptible quantity of good Scotch perspiration on the platform of the organ pavilion.

PATRIOTIC NUMBERS PLAYED
Patriotic numbers also made a big hit with the tenor solo. The first was Carrie Jacobs-Bond's "A Perfect Day," with band accompaniment and saxophone obligato. As encore Lookhart gave Harry Lauder's "Bonnie Lassie," one of the famous Scotch comedian's latest songs. "It's Nice to Get Up in the Morning," and "Tipperary."

Doubtless out of compliment to the nationality of their hosts, the band was liberal with patriotic numbers. "The Star Spangled Banner" was prominent in several of these selections, as well as the air which serves equally well for "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" or "God Save the King," depending upon the hearer's nationality.

San Diego's first sight of the bare-kneed lads was when the band marched up Broadway from the Santa Fe depot yesterday noon. They were met at the depot by George Strachan, Thomas Traynor, John Lawrence and Judge J. M. Chatters' arrival yesterday.

comprising a reception committee from the Caledonian Club. After the parade the Kilties were taken to the Exposition grounds in automobiles.

LUNCHEON SERVED

A luncheon consisting of Mrs. Mary Strachan, president of the Hines Bell Auxiliary of the Caledonian Club, Miss Catherine Traynor, secretary, Mrs. Thomas Traynor and several others, had prepared a luncheon in the old hickory booth in the Commerce and Industries building.

The luncheon consisted of Scotch dishes and drinks. Real Highland dew, fresh from the heather, made a big hit with the visiting members of the clan, who have been passing some time in arid territory. Scotch bread, Scotch cakes, Scotch oaty porridge were served. El Cajon valley grapes also occupied a prominent place on the menu.

After the luncheon Manager Lane of the Kilties gave a short address in which he thanked San Diegans who arranged the entertainment. Then the Kilties gave three ringing cheers for the local entertainment committee.

The visitors were also served with Lipton tea, the first ever grown in Southern California. It is said: The tea was grown at the Lipton tea garden on the Alameda. Mrs. Jessie C. Knox of the potpourri rose garden, presented each visitor with a rose.

A number of the Kilties declared that their day in San Diego had proved to be the most enjoyable one they had had in a number of weeks. Arrangements are now under way which may bring them back to San Diego for a stay of several weeks. The band will leave this noon for Los Angeles, where they will play for five days.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional ailment in this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 87 Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. And aged people also cure adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Obsequies of the Late Miss M. Anderson

The funeral of the late Melissa Anderson was held yesterday, Nov. 8 from her late residence 6 Forin St. Rev. Mr. Osborne, her pastor, conducted the service, giving a most comforting and helpful address. The large assembly present being relatives and friends of long standing. The singing was conducted by Mrs. M. Sprague, Mrs. A. Ray, Miss F. Adams and Mr. F. Sprague, who sang so sweetly and feelingly the pieces specially favored by the loved one gone.

The flowers were very beautiful consisting of anchor, pillow, wreaths and sprays.

The funeral cortege left the house at 3.30 p.m. for the Home Cemetery at Mountain View where so many of her loved ones lie, there with them to await the resurrection morning. The bearers were all cousins of deceased being, W. W. Anderson, W. E. Anderson, Alfred Anderson, Wm. L. Anderson, James F. Anderson and Geo. W. Anderson.

Revive the Jaded Condition.—When energy flags and the cares of business become irksome; when the whole system is out of sorts and there is general depression, try Parmentier's Vegetable Pills. They will regulate the action of a deranged stomach and a disordered liver, and make you feel like a new man. No one need suffer a day from debilitated digestion when so simple and effective a pill can be got at any drug store.

The Women's Khaki Club had hot coffee and refreshments ready for the members of the 80th Battalion on their arrival yesterday.

"THE BETTER CLOTHES STORE"

THERE'S always a Best in everything. This holds true of Clothes as well as everything else. Some makers make very poor Clothes—others make fairly good Clothes, while there are but very few makers that make the Best of Clothes. From these Best Makers' output we've selected the Best for our trade.

WE WANT YOU TO SEE AND KNOW ABOUT OUR BEST CLOTHES

No matter what your occupation may be, we can satisfy your every Clothes requirement.

The styles and fabrics this season are particularly attractive. We would enjoy showing you our Clothes.

Men's Suits

$7, $10, $12, $15, up to $25

Men's Overcoats

$5, $7, $10, $15, up to $25

Correct Hats from the Best Makers, and Toggery that is Exclusive and Different

QUICK & ROBERTSON CLOTHES OF QUALITY

The Weekly Ontario

Morton & Herity, Publishers

ADVERTISING RATES on application. THE WEEKLY ONTARIO and Bay of Quinte Chronicle is published every Thursday morning at $1.00 a year, or $1.50 a year to the United States.

W. H. Morton, Business Manager. J. O. Herity, Editor-in-Chief.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1915.

THE END COMING.

The "feelers" thrown out in various quarters may be taken as signs that Germany is paving the way for peace negotiations. Perhaps the most significant thing of all is the altered tone of the news despatches from Berlin and other German cities.

How long can Germany last? We do not attach great importance to the cry of "hunger" which comes from the German cities, but the exhaustion of men is far more likely to occur.

SAVE AND SERVE.

The war in which the British Empire is now engaged is not only a war for the preservation of the nation, but for the freedom of the individual. We have enjoyed personal liberty in this country for so long a period of time, that some of us may not realize what the loss of that liberty would mean.

GERMAN MORALITY.

The following report from the Montreal Standard gives a very illuminative idea of the difference between the moral standards that obtain in Germany and in Great Britain.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO ENFORCE ECONOMY.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—That the government has under consideration the passage of sumptuary laws to insure the strictest domestic economy was the information given Charles Bathurst, Unionist member for Wiltshire, by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today.

WELLINGTON

T. M. Neash's men and country people and furnace work.

Mr. W. Staley has from Sulphide, Ont., his daughter and family.

Mr. Crawford has moved to market and gone to reside.

Our Roman Catholic English friends kept the carpenters busy up Mr. Farnell's home.

A number of our tattered night at Monday evening.

We had a rain on Tuesday which was much needed for the crops.

A number from Gibe were in town on Saturday.

The apple pickers of these days.

A number of women at the seed house.

The Hodgins family to their home in Co. Wick here and at Blenheim.

Mrs. H. Macdonald, Road was a caller in Monday afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Baker of took dinner on Monday.

Mrs. R. Wilson, a number went to and Toronto on Saturday.

Miss Jackson was at last week.

Dr. Demille of Pictou Saturday evening in town.

Wedding bells are to east coast.

The W.M.S. will meet of the church on day of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Genov were in the W. P. Niles was at a business trip last week.

Rev. John Webb removed to Sudbury to much sympathy is shown by D. Young of Melville of her brother.

Mr. C. A. Pettengill room added to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Toronto last week.

Mrs. John S. Shurlock Mrs. K. Macdonald Sunday at Waupoos.

All our Peton College girls spent Sunday at Mrs. John T. Garr roof on her home.

The Grierson family West. moon, we heard.

Our tax bill has not heard the taxes are our bread delivery week.

Some damage was done by the fallow.

Wellington has several of dogs.

A number of parties these long evenings.

A number are suffering.

We are always pleased to see Macdonald in town.

Miss Broad, B.A., ten High School spent home.

The Harry Reynolds moved on a farm.

Eggs are 35c a dozen.

Mr. Arthur Murphy, apertor is in Montness trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chisholm, spent Sunday.

Mrs. Lark Linman, Mrs. Joseph Collier, N.Y., is a visitor at W. Donovan, Belleville.

Our C.N.R. train has these days.

The stores are now winter goods.

L. K. Shourds is apples sorted since the evaporator.

A number of our labeling canned tomato.

Mr. C. E. Pitt and moving on their farm.

Mr. John Campbell, referred from the bank here to the Amelast.

Mr. Theodore Brock, Ont., spent last week visiting friends.

Most of our nurses days.

Mrs. Justus Jenks, the house through illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard dinner on Thursday.

Mrs. W. Clinton, Mrs. S. W. Bush, Stirling last week at the daughter.

A window in Pitt's house on Halloween.

Mr. Collier we heard a general store soon.

Mr. Herb Payne of town Thursday.

Miss Agnes Coyle of town last week.

Will Wellington have this winter the young day evening last.

Apples are being taken field evaporator.

The hum of the will not be heard over Mrs. M. Clapp's still the guest of her daughter.

Hubbs.

Estlin's and Simpson get a lot of money from Mr. and Mrs. George Hillier were in own residence.

Mr. W. Beddell has.

MADOC JUNG Several from here with evening service in Stirling to have the printing their former pastor E. Howard of Brighton an excellent sermon.

"But put ye on the Lord Rom. 13-14. Mr. Howa our favorite ministers, who missed hearing his appointed.

Our pastor, Rev. C. occupied the pulpit at 8 on Sunday afternoon an "old time religion" text being Psalm 25:14 the Lord is with them during the service M.

by a remarkable contrast. The following table has been carefully compiled to show the average annual convictions for crimes recorded in ten years in Germany and Great Britain.

Table with 2 columns: Crime, German British. Rows include Malicious and felonious wounding, Murder, Rape, Malicious damage to property, Illegitimate births, Divorce petitions.

These figures have been reduced to a common basis for ten millions population and give the following proportions:

Table with 2 columns: Crime, German British. Rows include Malicious and felonious wounding, Murder, Rape, Malicious damage to property, Illegitimate births, Divorce petitions.

BULGARIA'S SORENESS.

A Bulgarian, who at present resides in New York City, has undertaken to explain why his country threw in her lot with Germany and also her traditional enemy, the Turk.

GRADUALLY, BUT EFFECTIVELY, BRITISH SUBMARINES ARE EVENING UP THE SCORE.

Gradually, but effectively, British submarines are evening up the score.

KING ALBERT OF BELGIUM MAY BE SURPRISED TO LEARN THAT, ALL THIS TIME, THERE WAS AN IMPARTIAL CHAMPION OF NEUTRAL RIGHTS.

King Albert of Belgium may be surprised to learn that, all this time, there was an impartial champion of neutral rights.

GREECE IS MUCH LIKE OTHER COUNTRIES. SHE HAS AN INEXHAUSTIBLE SUPPLY OF MEN WILLING TO TAKE PUBLIC OFFICE, EVEN FOR A FEW DAYS.

Greece is much like other countries. She has an inexhaustible supply of men willing to take public office, even for a few days.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE WAS DEFEATED BY LARGE MAJORITIES IN NEW YORK AND MASSACHUSETTS, BUT THE SUFFRAGISTS ARE IN NOWISE DISCOURAGED, MUCH LESS DISMAYED.

Woman's Suffrage was defeated by large majorities in New York and Massachusetts, but the suffragists are in nowise discouraged, much less dismayed.

A LETTER FROM CAPE TOWN SAYS THAT THE FIRST CONTINGENT OF SOUTH AFRICAN TROOPS FOR SERVICE IN EUROPE WILL CONSIST OF FOUR BATTALIONS, ONE FROM CAPE COLONY, ONE FROM NATAL AND THE ORANGE FREE STATE, JOINTLY, ONE FROM THE TRANSVAAL, AND THE FOURTH A SCOTTISH BATTALION SELECTED FROM THE WHOLE OF SOUTH AFRICA.

A letter from Cape Town says that the first contingent of South African troops for service in Europe will consist of four battalions, one from Cape Colony, one from Natal and the Orange Free State, jointly, one from the Transvaal, and the fourth a Scottish battalion selected from the whole of South Africa.

IN HIS SPEECH IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, MR. ASQUITH STATED THAT BRITAIN NOW HAD A MILLION MEN IN BELGIUM AND FRANCE; THAT GERMANY HAD NOT GAINED A FOOT OF LAND SINCE LAST APRIL; THAT BRITISH SUBMARINES HAD SUNK TWO BATTLESHIPS, FIVE GUNBOATS, ONE TORPEDO BOAT AND 197 TURKISH SUPPLY SHIPS IN THE SEA OF MARMORA; THAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE WILL DO THEIR BEST TO SAVE SERBIA; THAT THE DERBY RECRUITING PLAN WOULD RENDER CONSCRIPTION UNNECESSARY; THAT THE BRITISH FLEET HAD TRANSPORTED 2,500,000 MEN WITH THE LOSS OF LESS THAN ONE-TENTH OF ONE PER CENT. THIS IS A STRIKING EXHIBIT OF WHAT BRITAIN IS DOING AS HER SHARE IN THIS WAR.

In his speech in the House of Commons, Mr. Asquith stated that Britain now had a million men in Belgium and France; that Germany had not gained a foot of land since last April; that British submarines had sunk two battleships, five gunboats, one torpedo boat and 197 Turkish supply ships in the Sea of Marmora; that Britain and France will do their best to save Serbia; that the Derby recruiting plan would render conscription unnecessary; that the British fleet had transported 2,500,000 men with the loss of less than one-tenth of one per cent. This is a striking exhibit of what Britain is doing as her share in this war.

FOR MANY GENERATIONS, SAYS THE NEW YORK INDEPENDENT, IT HAS BEEN A COMMONPLACE OF POPULAR SOCIOLOGY THAT RELIGIOUS FEELING IS QUICKENED BY WAR, AND PREDICTIONS HAVE FREELY BEEN MADE THAT A GREAT REVIVAL OF RELIGION WOULD FOLLOW UPON THIS WAR.

For many generations, says the New York Independent, it has been a commonplace of popular sociology that religious feeling is quickened by war, and predictions have freely been made that a great revival of religion would follow upon this war.

have to be met, from time to time, by large loans. So far, the British people have been able to take up these loans as made. For the first time in the history of the United Kingdom, we are told, it has gone abroad, to the United States, to negotiate a loan.

The absence of any religious revival may be easily accounted for. The masses read today and, while they read of King George and the British Cabinet going to Westminster Abbey to pray for victory for the British armies they also read of Von Hindenburg, after a victory over the Russian army, pointing upward and saying, "Thank Him up there. Give God the glory; He will continue to be with us." Such diverse appeals are scarcely calculated to develop faith in the ordinary run of men.

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old and when the way Has wearier grown, maybe, I wonder will you look that day As truthfully to me?

When we grow old, sweetheart, and when Love's tenderest tales are told, What new ones shall we whisper then, Dear Love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young, We scarce can hear his feet, Save that each footfall leaves some song To make our dreaming sweet.

But Time steals on, sweetheart; and when His steps have heavier grown, I wonder shall we hear it then, The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I ween, Your hands in mine I'll take, And all the old, old love has been, We'll tell for new love's sake.

What though each passing year may bring A halting speech and slow, As truly as of yore, 'twill ring, "Dear love, I love you so."

—Answers.

THERE IS NO DEATH.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore And bright in heaven's jeweled crown, They shine forever more.

There is no death! The dust we tread Shall change beneath the summer showers To golden grain or mellow fruit, Or rainbow tinted bowers.

The granite rocks disorganize To feed the hanging moss they bear; The leaves bring daily life, From out the viewless air.

There is no death! The leaves may fall, The flowers may fall and pass away; They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread, He bears our best-loved things away; And then we call them dead.

He leaves our heart all desolate He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers; Transported into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

The birdlike voice, whose joyous tones Make glad these scenes of sin and strife, Sings now an everlasting song Amid the thee of life.

And when he sees a smile too bright, Or hearts too pure for taint and vice, He hears it to that world of light, To dwell in paradise.

Born unto that undying life, They leave us but to come again; With joy we welcome them—the same Except in sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen, The dear immortal spirits tread; For all the boundless universe Is life—there are no dead!

—Sir Edward Bulwer-Lytton.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO ENFORCE ECONOMY.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—That the government has under consideration the passage of sumptuary laws to insure the strictest domestic economy was the information given Charles Bathurst, Unionist member for Wiltshire, by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today.

STAYED.

From the premises of the undersigned, lot 17, con. 13, Hungertown, on or about the 15th day of September, 3 two-year old heifers; one black with white spot on tail, and the other two black and white striped. Information as to their whereabouts will be thankfully received by Peter A. Cournoyea, Tweed, Ont. n11-37w.

WANTED.

At Cannifton Mills all kinds of Grain Will pay the highest market price. W. H. Lingham. n11-17w

in industrial lines. "Through experience," says the Independent, "nations will know, what they have been slow to believe, that by discipline and a firm hand men can be withheld from idleness and worthlessness. Conservation and efficiency will be held obligatory."

The absence of any religious revival may be easily accounted for. The masses read today and, while they read of King George and the British Cabinet going to Westminster Abbey to pray for victory for the British armies they also read of Von Hindenburg, after a victory over the Russian army, pointing upward and saying, "Thank Him up there. Give God the glory; He will continue to be with us." Such diverse appeals are scarcely calculated to develop faith in the ordinary run of men.

WHEN WE GROW OLD.

When we grow old and when the way Has wearier grown, maybe, I wonder will you look that day As truthfully to me?

When we grow old, sweetheart, and when Love's tenderest tales are told, What new ones shall we whisper then, Dear Love, when we grow old?

Now Time is young—how light, how young, We scarce can hear his feet, Save that each footfall leaves some song To make our dreaming sweet.

But Time steals on, sweetheart; and when His steps have heavier grown, I wonder shall we hear it then, The music we have known?

Dear heart, when we grow old, I ween, Your hands in mine I'll take, And all the old, old love has been, We'll tell for new love's sake.

What though each passing year may bring A halting speech and slow, As truly as of yore, 'twill ring, "Dear love, I love you so."

—Answers.

THERE IS NO DEATH.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore And bright in heaven's jeweled crown, They shine forever more.

There is no death! The dust we tread Shall change beneath the summer showers To golden grain or mellow fruit, Or rainbow tinted bowers.

The granite rocks disorganize To feed the hanging moss they bear; The leaves bring daily life, From out the viewless air.

There is no death! The leaves may fall, The flowers may fall and pass away; They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May.

There is no death! An angel form Walks o'er the earth with silent tread, He bears our best-loved things away; And then we call them dead.

He leaves our heart all desolate He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers; Transported into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

The birdlike voice, whose joyous tones Make glad these scenes of sin and strife, Sings now an everlasting song Amid the thee of life.

And when he sees a smile too bright, Or hearts too pure for taint and vice, He hears it to that world of light, To dwell in paradise.

Born unto that undying life, They leave us but to come again; With joy we welcome them—the same Except in sin and pain.

And ever near us, though unseen, The dear immortal spirits tread; For all the boundless universe Is life—there are no dead!

—Sir Edward Bulwer-Lytton.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO ENFORCE ECONOMY.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—That the government has under consideration the passage of sumptuary laws to insure the strictest domestic economy was the information given Charles Bathurst, Unionist member for Wiltshire, by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today.

STAYED.

From the premises of the undersigned, lot 17, con. 13, Hungertown, on or about the 15th day of September, 3 two-year old heifers; one black with white spot on tail, and the other two black and white striped. Information as to their whereabouts will be thankfully received by Peter A. Cournoyea, Tweed, Ont. n11-37w.

WANTED.

At Cannifton Mills all kinds of Grain Will pay the highest market price. W. H. Lingham. n11-17w

Fire Loss in Dungannon

Mr. Walter Maxwell of Dungannon sustained a serious loss on Tuesday when his house, barn and driveway were destroyed by fire, together with nearly all their contents. The fire started in the house just after dinner, and with a strong wind blowing, nothing could be done to check the progress of the flames. No insurance.—Baneroff Times.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM ROSEBUSH

William Rosebush, aged 64 years died recently at his home on the 4th concession of Sidney. He was a Methodist in religion. Surviving are his widow, one step daughter, Mrs. B. A. Goldsmith, of Trenton, and two sons, Mrs. Lewis Graham, of Trenton, and Mrs. Jane Nolan of Stirling.

MRS. HARRY DEMPSEY

The death of Mrs. Harry Dempsey occurred on Saturday, Oct. 30th, at her late residence, Albany, Prince Edward Co. Her illness extended over a period of five years and had been a patient in several Medical Institutions in Canada and the United States. A few weeks ago she returned from Colorado to her home, where she grew weaker until she passed away. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and four young sons, an aged mother and two brothers. The funeral took place on Tuesday Nov. 2nd at Albany Church, which was largely attended by friends and neighbors, and a number from Belleville, Trenton and Petton, interment at Albany Cemetery.

A New Wrinkle on Catching Fish

A Lindsay disciple of Izaak Walton has struck on a new idea by way of catching fish, without hook or line and as he has a patent pending on the invention he is not afraid to give the secret to the public. He will place a mirror in the water of the lake or stream, and in front of it a plate slanting at an angle of 45 degrees. The fish will be placed between the two. As the fish approaches he will see his image in the mirror, and, thinking it is another fish that is after the coveted morsel will act promptly by making a quick dash for the bait, striking the plate glass and sliding up into a net placed at the top.

TRENTON.

TRENTON, Nov. 8th.—The ladies of the town are to be congratulated upon the success which attended their rummage sale which was held at the town hall during all of last week. The total proceeds amounted to $235. Out of the rummage sale proceeds, the sum of $50 was sent to the Canadian Red Cross Society, Toronto. Matters are quiet in police circles only one arrest being made on Saturday and that being for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

THE FINANCIAL POST

In "The Financial Post" of this week we note that Trenton's debt, of about $220,000 is very much less than the debt of numerous other towns of similar and smaller population. Orillia, with a population of something over 7000, has a debt of about $800,000. The town of Hawkesbury has a rate of taxation for this year of 37 mills. A municipal rink should be provided for the young people this winter. Even if a covered rink is unobtainable we think that the council should take steps to provide an open rink and keep the ice cleared off every day. A large number of guests from nearby towns attended the dance given last Friday night for patriotic purposes.

A proposal is to be made to the Legislature to impose a tax of 50c per week on all unmarried men of service age who are not enlisting for active service.

Early in 1915 we heard a lot about the poll tax and dog tax and the way collection of same was over-looked. Were they collected as we were assured they would be if not, why not?

It is likely that Mayor Fortson should be desired it, will be honored with the majority by acclamation. He has done well during a trying year and is entitled to a second term. The thing we know and it is that the Mayor has sacrificed much of his time in his endeavors to give the corporation good administration services.

It is probable that in nearly all progressive towns where municipal matters have been running smoothly election by acclamation will be the rule.

Trenton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel Selina, to Kenneth J. Couch, Trenton, the wedding to take place quietly on Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vandervoort, Nov. 23rd.

The engagement is announced in Orangeville, of Miss Henrietta Wallace, L.T.C.M., younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wallace, to Mr. Arnold Raymond, son of the late J. J. Raymond and Mrs. Raymond, of Trenton, Ont. The marriage will take place quietly in Orangeville late in November.

STAYED.

From the premises of the undersigned, lot 17, con. 13, Hungertown, on or about the 15th day of September, 3 two-year old heifers; one black with white spot on tail, and the other two black and white striped. Information as to their whereabouts will be thankfully received by Peter A. Cournoyea, Tweed, Ont. n11-37w.

WANTED.

At Cannifton Mills all kinds of Grain Will pay the highest market price. W. H. Lingham. n11-17w

WELLINGTON

T. M. Neash's men and country people and furnace work.

Mr. W. Staley has from Sulphide, Ont., his daughter and family.

Mr. Crawford has moved to market and gone to reside.

Our Roman Catholic English friends kept the carpenters busy up Mr. Farnell's home.

A number of our tattered night at Monday evening.

We had a rain on Tuesday which was much needed for the crops.

A number from Gibe were in town on Saturday.

The apple pickers of these days.

A number of women at the seed house.

The Hodgins family to their home in Co. Wick here and at Blenheim.

Mrs. H. Macdonald, Road was a caller in Monday afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Baker of took dinner on Monday.

Mrs. R. Wilson, a number went to and Toronto on Saturday.

Miss Jackson was at last week.

Dr. Demille of Pictou Saturday evening in town.

Wedding bells are to east coast.

The W.M.S. will meet of the church on day of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. George Genov were in the W. P. Niles was at a business trip last week.

Rev. John Webb removed to Sudbury to much sympathy is shown by D. Young of Melville of her brother.

Mr. C. A. Pettengill room added to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Toronto last week.

Mrs. John S. Shurlock Mrs. K. Macdonald Sunday at Waupoos.

All our Peton College girls spent Sunday at Mrs. John T. Garr roof on her home.

The Grierson family West. moon, we heard.

Our tax bill has not heard the taxes are our bread delivery week.

Some damage was done by the fallow.

Wellington has several of dogs.

A number of parties these long evenings.

WELLINGTON NEWS

T. M. Nash's men are very busy in town and country putting up stoves and furnace work. Mr. W. Staley has arrived home from Sulphide, Ont., where he visited his daughter and family. We were pleased to see Rev. Dr. Baker at the Methodist church on Sunday, where he preached. A number are moving out into the country. Mr. Crawford has left our meat market and gone to Burlington, to reside. Our Roman Catholic and Church of England friends kept All Saints Day the carpenters are now finishing up Mr. Burnell's home. A number of our young folks attended the dance at Hillier on Wednesday night. We had a run on Thursday which was much needed for plowing. A number from Gilead and Crofton were in town on Saturday. The apple pickers are kept busy these days. A number of women are kept busy at the seed hoops. The Hodgson family have returned to their home in Coborn after a visit here and at Bloomfield. Mrs. H. MacDonald of Wellington Road was a caller in town on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Baker of Albert College took dinner on Monday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson. A number went to Picton, Trenton and Toronto on Saturday. Miss Jackson was at Picton a day last week. Dr. Demille of Picton spent last Saturday evening in town. Wedding bells are to ring in the east end. The W.M.S. will meet in the basement of the church on the 2nd Tuesday of the month. Mr. and Mrs. George Tompsett of Genov ogre were in town last week. W. P. Niles went at Peterborough on a business trip last week. Rev. John Webb and family are to remove to Sudbury to reside. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. H. D. Young of Belleville on the death of her brother. Mr. C. A. Pettengill had a bath room added to his home. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Nash were at Toronto last week. Mrs. John Shauric and Baby Barbara are at Toronto on a visit. Mrs. K. MacDonald spent over last Sunday at Wauvoosa, Ont. All our Picton Collegiate boys and girls spent Sunday at home. Mrs. John T. Garratt has a new roof on her home. The Grierson family are to move West soon, we hear. Our tax bill has not yet arrived, we hear the taxes are very high. Our bread delivery man was ill last week. Some damage was done here on Halloween. Wellington has certainly her share of dogs. A number of parties are to be held these long evenings. A number are suffering from colds. We are always pleased to see Dr. MacGibbon in town from Coborn. Mrs. Broad, B.A., teacher of Trenton High School spent Saturday at home. The Harry Reynolds family have moved on a farm. Eggs are 33c a dozen here. Mr. Arthur Murphy our fruit inspector is in Montreal on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jeckells, of Chesham, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Luffman. Mrs. Joseph Collier, of Great Bend, N.Y., is a visitor at the home of Mr. W. Donovan, Belleville Road. Our C.N.R. train has been very late these days. The stores are now getting in their winter goods. L. K. Shourds is now having his apples sorted since the fire at the evaporator. A number of our women are now jobbing canned tomatoes. Mr. C. E. Pitt and family are now moving on their farm. Mr. John Campbell has been transferred from the Bank of Nova Scotia here to the Amherstburg branch. Mr. Theodore Brown of Pickering, Ont., spent last week at Rose Hall, visiting friends. Most of our nurses are busy these days. Mrs. Justus Jenks is confined to the house through illness. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garratt took dinner on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Clinton. Mrs. S. W. Bush was a visitor at Stirling last week at the home of her daughter. A window in Tait's bakery was broken on Halloween. Mr. Collier we hear will open up a general store here. Mr. Herb Payne of Hillier was in town Thursday. Miss Agnes Coyle of Weston was in town last week. Will Weilin ton have a kitchen in the winter. Our young folks want one. The municipal council met on Monday evening last. Apples are being taken to Bloomfield evaporator. The hum of the steam thrasher will not be heard any more longer. Mrs. M. Clapp is still at Pond View the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. Hubbs. Eaton's and Simpson's of Toronto sent a lot of money from here. Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs of Hillier were in town recently. Mr. W. Beddell has a fine new car.

MADOC JUNCTION.

Several from here who attended the singing service in Stirling were delighted to have the privilege of hearing their former pastor, the Rev. E. Howard of Brighton who delivered an excellent sermon from the text 'I have put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ' from 13-14. Mr. Howard was one of our favorite ministers here and those who missed hearing him will be disappointed. Our pastor, Rev. C. S. Reddick occupied the pulpit at Eggleton church on Sunday afternoon and preached on 'The religion' sermon, the text being Psalm 25-14 'The secret of the Lord is with them that fear Him' during the service Mrs. Andrews know that my Redeemer liveth. Rev. and Mrs. George of Stirling, were the guests of Mrs. French one day last week. Miss Lillian Bronson left for Toronto last Wednesday to visit friends there. Miss Alice Harris paid a short visit to friends here on her way to Buffalo last week, where she has been engaged as nurse. Master Bertie Andrews spent Sunday with his parents, returning to Hastings in the evening. MOIRA. Nov. 5th.—We had a fine rain yesterday which was greatly needed as the ground was very dry. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ketcheson gave a party on Tuesday night in honor of the former's brothers who were home on leave. Mr. George Foster had a husky bee one night last week. Mr. W. J. Sayers, A. Herity, Jas. Forsythe, B. H. Morton and John Morton motored to Belleville yesterday and were at the banquet given by Mr. John Elliott. CARRYING PLACE. On Monday evening last the young people of Young's neighborhood met at the home of Mr. Thomas Aythor to bid farewell to his son, Morley, who enlisted in the 29th battalion. A presentation in the form of a wrist watch and Bible were made by Charles Marvin, while Reginald Snider read the following address: Dear Morley It is with deep regret that we all your friends gather here tonight to bid you farewell yet we feel in the midst of our sorrow that our loss will be our country's gain. As a token of our esteem we beg you to accept this small gift and bear in mind that the sincere regards and good wishes of your friends will follow you wherever you go and will be waiting to give you a joyous welcome on your return. Your old friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. A. Humphrey and Mr. and Mrs. Jones spent Sunday at Hillier. Miss E. Hawkins spent Sunday with Miss L. Adams. Miss N. Denike and Miss A. Marvin are spending a few days visiting at Hillier. Mr. Cecil Adams spent Sunday in this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown spent Sunday at the Carrying Place. Mr. and Mrs. B. Gilbert spent Sunday at Mr. E. Wadsworth's. The Ladies' Aid are very busy knitting socks for the soldiers. The Patriotic concert given by Miss K. Johnson, teacher of Young's school, was a great success. A number from here attending. All report a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. W. Aylea spent Sunday at Mr. M. Carrington's. Mrs. Taylor spent one day last week at Hillier visiting her son, Mr. Taylor. Mr. Earl Snider spent Sunday at Mr. F. Taylor's. MOIRA. The farmers around here are busy at their fall plowing. Mr. and Mrs. B. Gilbert Ketcheson entertained about thirty-five of their friends on Tuesday evening of last week in honor of Messrs. Royal and John Ketcheson who have been visiting friends here for the past couple of weeks and are expected to leave on Wednesday for their respective homes in Vancouver and Honolulu. A very pleasant evening was spent in games and music. Miss Bessie Allan of Marlbank visited her cousin, Miss Mildred Clare on Sunday. Mrs. M. J. Morton is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. J. Kingston of Chapman. A large number from here spent Friday at Crookston. Mr. and Mrs. W. Richardson, of Tweed visited friends here on Tuesday last. Misses Helen and Hazel Salisbury spent Wednesday afternoon with their cousin, Miss Evelyn Salisbury. Mr. and Mrs. W. Shaw of Ivanhoe and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell of Chatterton visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hollinger on Sunday last. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haight were the guests of Mrs. C. Wright of Holloway on Sunday. FOXBORO. We are having some very windy weather here at present. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Garratt took dinner on Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Clinton. Mrs. S. W. Bush was a visitor at Stirling last week at the home of her daughter. A window in Tait's bakery was broken on Halloween. Mr. Collier we hear will open up a general store here. Mr. Herb Payne of Hillier was in town Thursday. Miss Agnes Coyle of Weston was in town last week. Will Weilin ton have a kitchen in the winter. Our young folks want one. The municipal council met on Monday evening last. Apples are being taken to Bloomfield evaporator. The hum of the steam thrasher will not be heard any more longer. Mrs. M. Clapp is still at Pond View the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. Hubbs. Eaton's and Simpson's of Toronto sent a lot of money from here. Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs of Hillier were in town recently. Mr. W. Beddell has a fine new car.

LONSDALE.

The Lonsdale Branch of the Red Cross Society shipped in October 1 barrel of fruit containing 46 qts 1 box of home-made candy, containing 21 lbs. 1 box of hospital and field supplies containing

1 pillow 2 beds 3 cans cocoa 2 bars chocolate 21 night shirts 32 pairs socks 22 handkerchiefs. The Society wishes to thank the ladies who so kindly helped in any way with this shipment. The next meeting will be held in the hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 24 at 7.30. A cordial invitation is extended to all. HALSTON. A number attended the funeral of the late John McCrosary at the home of his brother, Mr. Wm. McCrosary on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Mair preached the funeral service. Interment was in Victoria cemetery. Mrs. R. F. Elliott is spending a few days with her father, Mr. W. Martin of Crookston, who is ill. Mrs. Theodore Parks has been staying the last two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Mott, who is very ill. Mrs. Alexander of Prince Edward is visiting at Mr. J. Bodrick's. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCrosary and Mrs. Albert Riches of Toronto were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hall of Latta on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. Carter of Frankford spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker of Rawdon, were over Sunday visitors at Mr. A. Gibson's. ROSLIN. A quiet wedding was solemnized at the English church rectory on Saturday morning at 9 a.m., the contracting parties being Mr. Ernest English and Miss Isabelle Weir both of this place. The bride looked charming in brown silk and was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. William Patterson. The happy couple left for a short trip to Prince Edward Co. The bride travelling suit was navy blue with hat to match. On Tuesday evening on their return they were tendered a reception. Mrs. Donald Leslie and Mrs. Dick have gone to Toronto as delegates to the Woman's Institute Convention. A being held there this week. Miss Eaton of Thomasburg is visiting Mrs. Roy Ketcheson. Miss Edna Ketcheson visited the Misses Delyea on Sunday. Mrs. Sills and daughter of West Huntingdon visited Mrs. Emma Sills on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burley visited at Moneymore Sunday. Master Connell and Isabelle Leslie and Mary Bates visited Eletha Chapman Saturday. The English church congregation intend holding a bazaar in the afternoon of the 25th, also a social in the evening. The social evening in the Methodist church last Wednesday was well attended. VICTORIA. Church next Sunday at 2.30 p.m. Quarterly service was well attended on Sunday. Messrs. E. and L. Brickman spent Sunday at J. F. Weese's. Mr. and Mrs. H. Sager and Mrs. Sager took tea at L. Brickman's on Sunday. Miss Carrie White spent Sunday at W. Bush's. Mrs. J. Wilson spent the week-end with her parents at Chatterton. Mr. and Mrs. L. Brickman, Mrs. F. Brickman, Miss Vera and Mrs. Brickman made several calls on Sunday in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. F. Bonter motored to Wellington on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Weese visited at Mr. J. Weese's on Sunday. Miss Vera Brickman took tea with Miss Carrie White on Sunday at Mr. W. Bush's. CROFTON. Mr. J. A. Graham returned from the West on Saturday last looking hale and hearty. Mrs. Harry Kerr has been visiting friends in Trenton for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Elias Clarke of Consecoc took dinner with Mrs. S. Smith on Sunday. Mr. O. B. Calnan has purchased a new car. The Ladies' Aid held their monthly meeting at Mr. E. L. Rorabeck's on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ainsworth visited at Mr. M. Moon's on Sunday. Mr. S. H. Caughney is riding a new sulky plough these days. Simon says it surely does the work. Mrs. Babcock is visiting her daughter Mrs. A. B. Calnan for a few days. 4th Con. AMELIASBURG. Miss C. Fox, B.A., of Massasauga spent the week-end here with her sister, Mrs. Claud Wannamaker. Mr. D. Darling of Buffalo is visiting among his friends and relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. A. Blakely were in Belleville Saturday. We are glad to report Mrs. A. cent illness. Miss Jennie Carnite and Percy spent Saturday in Trenton. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dolan were in Wellington, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Babcock spent a recent Sunday at Mr. D. Whitney's. Many of the farmers are shipping grain from Consecoc this week. Messrs. Cunningham and Adams are again making their rounds here with their threshing machine. Mr. H. Spencer was in Wellington

FRANKFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Sine and Miss Eatin Bell motored to Trenton on Tuesday. The young ladies of the Golden Rule S.S. class sent their Christmas shower to the boys at the front from town and surrounding country on Thursday. There was a box for each young man that enlisted from Frankford and we all hope that may reach them safely as the young ladies have spared nothing that could do that spared no effort to ensure the boxes reaching the front by Christmas. No. 6 boxes sent 30, weighing 5 lbs each. Mrs. Geo. Benedict is on the sick list but we all wish for her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Ed. Prentice has returned home from Colborne where she was called through the illness of her sister. Mrs. Chas. Smith and Mrs. Wm. Rose and Jean are spending some time visiting friends at Tamworth. The Auxiliary of Trinity Church met at the home of Mrs. Hendricks on Thursday afternoon. Mass was held in St. Francis church at 9 a.m. on Sunday. Service was held in Trinity church at 11 a.m. Sunday. Mr. Chas. Herman Jr. was in town on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Knox conducted Quarterly services on the different appointments of the circuit on Sunday. A large attendance was present for the evening service at Frankford after the usual preaching service the sacramental service was held, a large number took the sacrament. On Sunday Nov. 14 Rev. Mr. Dixon of Rawdon will preach in the Methodist Church at 7 p.m. The Women's Institute wishes to announce that Mrs. G. B. Lowery is the Secretary of the Red Cross Work and will be pleased to receive donations at any time. Mrs. Geo. Potter will supply yarn free to any one in this district who wishes to knit for the soldiers. Mrs. John Windover has gone to Kingston for an operation on her eye as the former operation on the other one has proved successful. There passed away at his home in Murray on Monday afternoon, Mr. Geo. Watson. He had been ailing for some weeks and when the hunting season came he went north. After being there a few days he took a severe chill and came home on Thursday evening and he gradually grew worse and on Sunday night he had a stroke becoming unconscious and passed away on Monday toward evening. IVANHOE. Theteacher and scholars of our Public School held a Halloween concert on Saturday evening, Oct. 30th in the school room, which was decorated with Jack-o-lanterns and flags. A good programme was rendered by the pupils of our school assisted by the pupils of the Fuller school. Proceeds of the evening amounted to twelve dollars part of which was given to the Red Cross Society. Mrs. Joseph Wood is spending a few days with her daughter at Glen Miller. Mr. Wm. McKee of Toronto paid a flying visit to his brother Mr. James McKee on Friday evening last. Mr. Paul Cooney who has been suffering so long with a cancer in the stomach passed peacefully away at his home here on Tuesday last. Mr. Cooney was of a quiet retiring disposition and was a kind and obliging neighbor and highly respected by all who knew him. A widow and two sons Charles and Earl are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. The funeral was held at the Bethesda church on Thursday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Bick officiating. Interment took place in the new White Lake Cemetery. A few from here attended the Quarterly services at Bethesda on Sunday morning. Miss Thursa Given of Bobcaygeon is spending a few months with her brother, Rev. J. R. Bick at the parsonage. Miss Tillie Wood visited her friend Miss Stella Mitz on Sunday. Mrs. W. J. Moore spent last week with her sister Mrs. DeMiller of the C. O. Junction. Mr. Sam S. Rollins is seriously ill. Miss Nettie Benson spent Sunday evening with her friend Miss E. Parker. Miss Norma Fleming of Madoc High School spent over Sunday at her home here accompanied by her friend Miss Mary Nicholson. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shaw were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hollinger of Moira on Sunday. Mrs. Hector Wood sr., is spending a few days with her brother, Mr. Sam Rollins. Miss Grace Burnside of Madoc is visiting her cousins the Misses Fleming. Miss Nellie Wood returned home on Tuesday evening last after spending a week visiting her brother Mr. Percy Wood of Toronto, and also attended the Golden Jubilee Sunday School Convention held there. The Red Cross Day provided for by the ladies of the township of Huntington on Friday Nov. 5th was quite successful. Despite the cold bleak weather a large number were present and the proceeds of the day amounted to nearly four hundred dollars. MOUNTAIN VIEW. Miss Diana of Norwood has been visiting Mrs. Bass for the past week. Mrs. Bass gave a small party in her honor last Wednesday evening. The Woman's Institute met at Mrs. Earle Anderson's last Wednesday. Miss Faulkner organized a Red Cross Society and aroused us to take more active parts in patriotic work by her very enthusiastic address. The Red Cross meets at Mrs. G. Bass' on Tuesday, Nov. 9. Mrs. Stafford has postponed W. M. S. until Wednesday, Nov. 17. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sprague went to Rednersville Sunday to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. Jim Anderson, who is quite ill. The late Walter Moy's sale took place last Tuesday. PLOUGHING seems to be the order of the day. Mr. Myron Hamey spent Monday at Barriefield. Miss Anna Bell Badgley of Caniffon spent a couple of days with her sister, Miss Grace Badgley. Miss Marie Lloyd spent Sunday at home. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denyes took tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Casey. We are wondering what became of all the fairies that were out on Monday evening last. Miss Ethel Rice of Myrehall is spending a few days with her aunt Mrs. M. Spencer. Mr. E. Prentice and Miss L. Gilbert attended church here on Sunday evening. BIG ISLAND. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wardner entertained company on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spafford of Bethel were the guests on Thursday of Mr. G. C. Sprague and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Durias Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peck were on Sunday the guests of Mr. H. N. Moran and family. Mr. and Mrs. James Clement of Northport were visitors on Sunday of Mr. James Semple. Mr. Albert Wager and wife entertained company on Wednesday. Lieut. V. C. H. Dowling of Kingston spent Sunday the guests of Mr. H. N. Moran. Mr. G. G. Thresher of Stirling is in the city today. Mr. D. V. Sinojar is in Toronto attending a meeting of the executive of the Foreign Missionary Committee of the Presbyterian Church of Canada. JUDICIAL SALE. Pursuant to the judgment made by the Supreme Court of Ontario in an action of Farrell vs. Buckley dated the 13th day of September, 1915, there will be sold by Public Auction with the approval of the Local Master at Belleville, at his chambers in the Court House in the City of Belleville, on Thursday the 2nd day of December, 1915, at Two o'clock in the afternoon, the following farm property:— The northeast quarter of lot No. 15 in the 7th Concession of the township of Tyendinaga in the County of Hastings, containing Fifty Acres, more or less. Upon the premises are erected a substantial log house and frame barn with other outbuildings. About 20 acres fit for cultivation, the balance pasture and wood land. The premises are situate about five miles from Roslin and four miles from Read P.O. School house and cheese factory in near vicinity. The premises will be sold subject to a reserve bid fixed by the Master. TERMS OF SALE: The purchaser shall pay down a deposit in the proportion of 10 for every 100 of the purchase money and the balance within one month thereafter without interest. In all other respects the terms and conditions of sale will be the standing conditions of sale of the said Court. For further particulars apply at the law offices of F. S. Wallbridge, Esq., and E. J. Butler, Esq., Belleville. Dated the 2nd day of November, F. S. Wallbridge, Plaintiff's Solicitor. "S. S. Lazier" Master. 4-tw.

Another view on the question of eternal punishment. Mr. T. Rich, Evangelist, of the Bethel Hall Congregation, Presents Scriptural Evidence to Prove That There is Endless Torment With Material Fire. The Editor of the Daily Ontario:— Dear Sir:—I have noted with interest some articles that have recently appeared in your columns, in which the subject of Eternal Punishment has been discussed. I agree with your own comment that the subject is of supreme importance and whilst I am far from anxious to enter the arena of controversy on this solemn subject, yet I feel constrained to ask your permission to briefly set down some portions of scripture as given to us in our excellent authorized version of God's Word. Our information on the subject is I suppose all will agree from the Word of God and those who are truly born again of God's Word and Holy Spirit should bow to the testimony of Holy Writ, however distasteful to the flesh, the same testimony may prove to be the Word of God itself. I shall offer but little if any comment on the following I prefer that the Word of God shall speak for itself for it and not man's comment is the sword of the spirit. To attempt to cover the teaching of the whole of the New Testament would in such an article as this be utterly impossible, so I content myself with a few quotations chiefly drawn from the gospel of Matthew. In chapter 3 and verse 12, John the Baptist speaking of the Lord Jesus says: "He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire." These are plain words and to an unbiased mind are perfectly plain and simple. Then in Matthew 5:12, The Lord Jesus Himself (contrasting the unique faith of the Centurion with the unique unbelief of Israel to whom He had specially come as Messiah) says: "The children of the kingdom (orthodox Jews who boasted in their descent from Abram, "shall be cast into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." The latter expression surely being expressive of unsurpassed rage. Then in Matt. 13: 42 and 50. The portion of the door of iniquity and the wicked are said to be (at the completion of this age) furnace of fire where again "weeping and gnashing of teeth" are in evidence. Matt. 24: 51 brings before us the ultimate doom of the evil servant who smites his fellow-servants in His Lord's absence and it is said to be "outer darkness." The 25th chapter and verse 30 exhibits the unprofitable servant who missing his opportunities finds himself eventually cast into outer darkness with weeping and gnashing of teeth (surely no thought of utter extinction and annihilation here). And as a last quotation from Matthew note that in chapter 22 verse 13 the man without the wedding garment (who in a previous verse is addressed as "friend") being found speechless is bound hand and foot and cast into outer darkness with the ever accompanying weeping and gnashing of teeth. The apostle Peter in his second epistle and chapter 2 verse 17 (the context shows) gives us the portion of "false teacher" as the mist of darkness forever is reserved. Jude in his epistle vividly describes the apostate, the denier of Christ and His deity and in verse 13 states "a torrent of strong language states "To whom is reserved that blackness of darkness forever" or as another version has it "the gloom of darkness for eternity." I have said nothing about the plain teaching of the book of Revelation in chapters 19 and 20, but enough has been quoted. The plain unvarnished statements of God's Word have been brought forward and I for one although conscious of being among the minority prefer to stand by the old Book. This is not intended even as an attempt to answer any previous writer, but simply a statement of bare scriptural quotations which are many unstand. I am Yours for the truth, T. Rich, Evangelist.

EASTERN ONTARIO DISTRICT DAIRY MEETINGS.

The Annual Dairy Meeting for the County of South Hastings will be held in the Town of Frankford, Thursday, November 25th, 1915 at two o'clock p.m. under the auspices of the Provincial Department of Agriculture and the Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario. Mr. G. Q. Publow, Chief Dairy Instructor for Eastern Ontario, Mr. Henry Glendinning, of Manilla, and the District Representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture will address the meeting. The Local Dairy Instructor will be present and report upon his work during the season. Mr. W. C. Farley, Director of the District, will occupy the Chair. At the close of the meeting a Director will be nominated to represent the District for the ensuing year. The great value of this meeting to the Dairy Farmer cannot be over-estimated and every farmer and farmer's son, who has the interest of his calling at heart, as well as its monetary success, should not fail to be present. Jas. A. Sanderson, President; T. A. Thompson, Secretary.

Fall Assizes.

The following causes have been entered for trial at the sittings of the Supreme Court of Judicature in the County of Hastings, on Tuesday, November 9. This is the Autumn assize jury sittings. The Honorable Sir William Mulock, Chief Justice of the Exchequer is the presiding judge. Burr v. Hill. Plaintiff's solicitors, Mikel and Stewart. Defendant's solicitor, A. Abbott. Wannamaker vs. Brant. Plaintiff's solicitors, Mikel and Stewart. Defendant's solicitor, W. Finlayson. Blohm vs. Hayes. Plaintiff's solicitors, O'Flynn, Diamond and O'Flynn. Defendant's solicitor, A. Abbott. Hayes vs. Blohm. Plaintiff's solicitor, A. Abbott. Defendant's solicitors, O'Flynn, Diamond and O'Flynn. Fardet vs. Patterson. Plaintiff's solicitors, Porter and Carnew. Defendant's solicitor, John L. Whiting, K.C. Sexsmith vs. McMath. Plaintiff's solicitors, Northrup and Ponton. Defendant's solicitors, John English, E. J. Butler. Hear Mr. J. Hixon Irving from England, Bethel Hall tonight at 8. Mr. and Mrs. George Maybee and family motored to Belleville today with their new car. The Willmont is a good machine and made excellent time.

Commercial Man Killed in Action

There are many throughout Eastern Ontario who are saddened by the death of Wm. D. Deas, who was killed in action at Hill 70, Northern France on 26th September. Mr. Deas was the representative of McFarlane, Soz and Hodgson, paper merchants, of Montreal, and was one of their most successful salesmen. He won friends wherever he went by his genial manner and gentlemanly conduct, and was deservedly popular with the paper and stationery trade. In the fall of 1914 Mr. Deas went to Scotland to visit his former home, and it was his intention to be married and bring his bride to Canada on his return, and had planned to spend a part of his honeymoon in Belleville. On the outbreak of the war he immediately joined his old regiment, the 11th Argyll Highlanders, as Lieutenant, and had been on active service up to the time when he fell in action, giving for his country a life full of promise for the future.

Laid to Rest

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Caniff took place Saturday afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. D. Watson, second concession of Thurlow. Many were present to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed and numerous floral tributes bore silent testimony to the public's esteem. Rev. C. S. Moore and Rev. J. N. Clarry officiated at the house and at the grave in Belleville cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. W. A. Hill, W. Donaldson, W. Grilla, G. Sprackett, B. Calnan, and J. Bunnett. Mrs. Hunter of Belleville, was the guest of Mrs. F. Wartman, East Street for a few days this week.—Napane Beaver. Mr. and Mrs. F. Fletcher of Belleville autored to town on Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. S. H. McGee. Mrs. McGee and son Donald accompanied them home on Sunday.—Pond News. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. James Clark motored to Belleville on Sunday spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bell.—Campbell Herald. Mr. and Mrs. T. McGee, of Belleville spent Sunday with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McGee.—Stirling Leader. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Reid of Toronto, Mrs. C. M. Reid and Miss Addie Reid of Belleville motored to Tweed to visit Mrs. W. Bowell.—Tweed News.

WOUNDED SOLDIER RETURNS; BR. E. G. BLAYLOCK WELCOMED

Reception by Citizens at the Depot—Procession Through Streets to Soldier's Home—Welcome Expressed by Mr. J. W. Johnson, M.P.P.—Nature of Wounds.

The return to Belleville of Bombardier "Ed" G. Blaylock, 2nd Battery, 1st Brigade C. F. A., on Saturday afternoon was made the occasion for a remarkable demonstration in his honor. Wearing the scars of the battle of St. Julien, he is home on furlough. A company of khaki-clad soldiers, the Fifteenth Regiment, in scarlet tunics, the men of Marsh and Henthorn's foundry, in the service of which Mr. Blaylock was formerly an esteemed member of the staff, officers of the various military units of the city, citizens in automobiles and on foot by thousands occupied the station platform of the G. T. R. to extend the welcome home to one who had suffered in the Empire's cause. Flags were waved and cheers were given as the young veteran of the great war stepped from the coach. It was with difficulty that he could thread his way through the crowds of his friends. He was greeted on all sides. Finally surrounded by military officers he managed to reach the automobile of Lt.-Col. L. W. Marsh, in which he took his seat alongside Private Rawlinson and Col. Marsh.

A procession was formed which paraded the main streets of the city to the home of the parents of the young man. Along the route which was about a mile and a half in length Bombardier Blaylock was continually greeted and was busily engaged in bowing his acknowledgements to his admirers who crowded the streets. At every step of the way, cheers were given. On Front and Bridge Streets the applause was continuous. Windows were filled. Meanwhile the band played martial and familiar airs, including "We won't go home till morning." Crowds followed the procession on both sides of the streets all along the way, while scores of automobiles followed the car in which the bombardier was seated. The men of Marsh and Henthorn's foundry all carried Union Jacks in the parade. Along Front, Bridge and Church streets, the route lay. On Victoria Avenue the band struck up "Home Sweet Home," as the procession was approaching the vicinity of the family residence, which is just around the corner at 278 Albert Street. Kind hands had decorated the street with countless flags, while the house was adorned with flags and bunting. The greeting "Welcome Home" hung on a banner on the street and on the verandah. Sewn on the flags were maple leaves of the richest hue.

When the procession reached the Blaylock home on Albert Street, a great crowd of people had already assembled, and amid enthusiastic demonstrations of pride and joy, made under the Union Jack that floated over the First Canadian Contingent, alighted from his car and faced his friends from the verandah, his limping walk and pale features plainly indicating the suffering he had endured. His father's personal friend and neighbor Mr. J. W. Johnson, M.P.P., was in the throng and the people called upon him for a speech. Mr. Johnson was visibly affected when he began and for a moment or two could not proceed. He said the returned hero's good friends and neighbors were evidently not satisfied with merely looking on at his home-coming, they wanted some one to give audible expression to their feelings, inadequate though it must be. Bombardier Blaylock is Toronto born of Grand Trunk origin, but he is now a Bay of Quinte, a Belleville boy; he finished his school days here and from the establishment of Messrs. Marsh and Henthorn went forth in his splendid young manhood when war was declared to answer the call of duty.

He has returned, thank God for that, but not as he went forth; many wounds are still visible and his nervous system is badly shattered. Here we are, gathered to welcome home another hero of the war, and speaking not alone for Belleville, but for our Province and for our Dominion we express our admiration for his long endurance of the most awful conditions that ever existed during any war upon this earth and pay our loving tribute to his tenacity and courage. It is safe to say he would not exchange places, broken as he is, with any young fellow in Canada. And do you know what he said a few moments ago? "I am going back to the front as soon as I am fit." We say no, Ed, has done his big bit, and a grateful country should now look after him and all such men.

There are others here to whom we wish to extend our tribute of sympathy and admiration. The boy's noble mother, who made her great sacrifice, is within hearing of the speaker's voice and near by is his worthy father and his loving sister. Their boy has participated in the strenuous exertions made by Britain and her allies against the foe, without which Germans would now possess this fair land of Canada and their advent would doubtless have been marked by rape, rapine and murder as it was when they ruthlessly invaded Belgium. Without the sailors and the soldiers we would now be dispossessed of our property, of our liberty and he but the slaves and vassals of the Huns. Turning to the bombardier and putting his hand upon his shoulder, Mr. Johnson said to him, "You cannot, Mr. Blaylock, measure the breadth and depth of our gratitude to you and to the heroes that have returned and those who will return," then turning to the audience he said, "Bay of Quinte cheers are proverbially hearty, but they are usually given by men only, now let everybody, the men and boys of course, but also the mothers, the sisters, the wives, the sweethearts and even the babies join in the cheers to be proposed for Bombardier Blaylock," and the cheers came in response to this invitation with a force and sound that drowned the whistles of the Grand Trunk engines and the noise of the moving trains.

Bombardier Blaylock, through Mr. Johnson expressed his unbounded gratitude to those who had taken part in the welcome to him.

Wounded at Ypres.
He was wounded on Sunday morning, April 25th in the battle of Ypres. He was in a splinter-proof alongside his gun when a German 60 pound high explosive shell exploded a few feet behind the trail of the gun. Bombardier Blaylock was in the opening of the back fire along with five others. One only, Br. Buck of Belleville escaped. Mr. Blaylock received two fragments of shell in the right thigh, one in the right side of the chest (not yet removed). He had to have one of his toes on the right foot amputated, because of the thigh injury. Besides, he has a spinal trouble which has affected his left foot. This was due to the awful hardships at Salisbury Plain, although it is nothing in the nature of a meningitis affection. His foot and leg have become permanently affected it is feared. He has suffered very much from all these injuries and disabilities, which he calls his "bit."

What Bombardier Edward G. Blaylock, 2nd Battery, 1st Brigade C.F.A., has passed through at Salisbury Plain and in France on behalf of King and Country was surely as much as flesh could endure. The sacrifice that he has made can only be appreciated in some small measure, even by those who have seen his wounds and know his condition.

Yesterday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blaylock, 278 Albert Street, he told the story of Ypres to a representative of The Ontario and the part his battery played in this the greatest engagement of the war.

"We got into action on Thursday, April 22nd, very early in the morning. We tried to get up the road the night previous, but the civil population coming down and the Zouaves retreating prevented us. The roads were shelled very heavily that night that we could not get into action. We had some pretty close shaves on the road going up on Thursday morning. Finally we got into action on the bank of the Yser Canal. The Germans shelled us at times and we certainly shelled them."

The second battery occupied this position all Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and was supporting the Canadians.

"I was wounded at nine o'clock on Sunday morning, April 25. Very early that morning we had got up and stayed up. We shelled the Germans heavily. Rain was falling and we all had all put on our great coats. The Germans began to shell us pretty heavily. Our brigadier called down to take shelter in the splinter-proof alongside our gun. They were dropping pretty close to us on the road, and cutting down trees in front of us and at last the Germans succeeded in dropping one a few feet over the trail of the gun. The back pressure came right into the opening of our splinter-proof and I happened to be the man in the opening. It wounded six of us and Bombardier Buck of Belleville who was in the splinter-proof at the same time was the only man that escaped without a scratch. There were none killed, but there were six bowled over, including Charles Gatum of Cannifton besides myself. He was wounded in the knee. Only a minute later, they had got us behind a bank, where the surgeon dressed our wounds."

The shell that wrought such injuries was a sixty pound high explosive. One of the men picked up the fuse of it but lost it.

Bombardier Blaylock received two fragments of shell which lodged in the middle of the right thigh near the bone, having carried in a piece of his riding breeches and making a terrible wound which caused a most severe shock, although the loss of blood was not great. Later it affected his right foot to such an extent that the middle toe had to be amputated in pieces. The doctors took out the pieces of shell from the thigh wound and these the bombardier has brought home. In the right side of his chest is another shell wound; the fragment of steel which caused this being still in the flesh, although the wound has healed over.

But these injuries do not disable Mr. Blaylock as did the terrible ordeal of Salisbury Plain in England during the winter. His left foot and leg are affected. Doctors claim this is due to the dampness, the water and the mud. The trouble, the artillery man fears, is permanent.

"April 25th was my last day on the firing line," continued the bombardier. "I was in the dressing station all Sunday night. I got away Monday morning. It was blown to pieces shortly after. I was sent to Baillieu. I stayed a night there, then I was sent to Wimerex just outside of Boulogne. On Monday the third, I was shipped to England, landing at Southampton and was then sent up to Meltham, Yorkshire. I was there until the eighth of July and was sent from Meltham Hospital to Leeds Military Hospital for three days and then to the Canadian Convalescent Home at Monks Horton, Kent. I was there a month and then went to my base, where I received my furlough. I had a medical board, at which they decided I was unfit for service. I landed at Quebec a week ago Sunday by the Scandinavian."

"The treatment in the hospitals in England and France was very good. I have been in four of them, and I was treated well in all. I had no kick coming and you know it is a soldier's privilege to grouch."

The returned soldier made an appeal for the boys at the front. "The boys are glad to get socks or any eats at all. When I got parcels from home, they brought back parcels recollections."

"The men want leather finger mitts for the coming winter. Tobacco of any kind is welcome. They appreciate any thing from home, especially Belleville newspapers. The fellows like 'Jack Canuck'."

"At the base at Shorncliffe when I left were Gunner Gatum, and Drivers Ray Warren, R. Rollins, and Brad-

One Week Sale of Cotton Sinclair's BLANKETS Sinclair's

200 PRS. 10-4 GREY BLANKETS, 54x72 INCHES, AT $1.20 PER PAIR
200 PRS. 11-4 WHITE-&GREY BLANKETS, 64x72 IN., AT $1.25 PAIR

Here's your opportunity for Blanket Buying and real Money Saving
This week we place on sale 400 pairs of White and Grey Cuddle Doon Blankets, every pair perfect, no seconds; blankets that have sold for years at $1.25 and $1.50 per pair, and notwithstanding the marked advance in many lines of goods, due to the war, we offer these choice New Blankets, in white and grey, with new pink and blue stripe borders, in single and full double bed sizes, at $1.10 and $1.25 per pair. These Blankets may be seen in our windows.

Velvet Suits, only $25

Early in the season we placed an order for 32 Ladies' and Misses' Suits, the smartest styles we have ever shown. Of these there are only four suits left—two Ladies' 38 and 40 sizes, and two Misses', sizes 16 and 18 years, and we clear these four Suits for only $25 each.

Children's Fleece Underwear

Only 19c, or Vest & Drawers 3
We have one case of Children's Fleece Ribbed Vests and Drawers, in sizes for 2 to 8 years, very elastic knit underwear, and made to retail at 25c. These we have on sale to clear at 19c. for single garment, or Vest & Drawers for only 35c per suit.

Pen-Angle Hosiery

We are showing a full range of Ladies' and Misses' Fall and Winter Stockings in the Pen Angle make—the only stocking knit-to-fit without a seam. It was simply good buying on our part that enables us to offer these Stockings at last year's prices.

Ladies' Fur Fabric Coats, $17.50

This is one of our leaders in Ladies' Fall Coats, being made of a very handsome Salt's Fur Fabric, lined throughout with a splendid farmer's satin, made in one of the season's smartest styles. In every size from 34 to 42 bust measure.

Wool Coatings, $1.25 to $3.00 yd.

For Ladies', Misses' and Children's Coats we have a splendid range of Wool Coatings, including Blanket Cloths, in stripes, plaids and plain cloths, curl cloths, wool tweeds, chinchillas, ke sey cloths, etc., at every price to sell from $1.25 to $3.00 per yard.

WE SELL Sinclair's Priestley's Dress Goods Sinclair's

Two Inspiring Addresses

The meeting held under the auspices of the Belleville Women's Institute yesterday afternoon. A large attendance adding very materially to its success.

A short business meeting was held when various reports of committees were read and adopted. Two very inspiring addresses were given by Mrs. C. J. Howell and Mr. A. C. Walkin, principal of Pine Street School. Mrs. Howell most emphatically denounced intemperance, the temperance movement being the subject of her discourse. Mrs. Howell presented the question in a very practical manner, dealing with it from all sides. Mrs. Howell very graphically portrayed the tangible results of "A Dry Town" Bowmanville is "dry" therefore it could give thousands to Red Cross and Patriotic work. Money cannot be given for liquor and Red Cross both. All good causes suffer in a town where the liquor license is tolerated. Characters, homes, communities are crushed because intemperance is the cause so often of immorality, instability, feeble-mindedness, litigation and many other unfortunate characteristics. There is however a temperance wave sweeping the whole universe. Let us look at Russia, Great Britain etc. We can contribute to the war effort. The temperance movement is the subject of her discourse. Mrs. Howell presented the question in a very practical manner, dealing with it from all sides. Mrs. Howell very graphically portrayed the tangible results of "A Dry Town" Bowmanville is "dry" therefore it could give thousands to Red Cross and Patriotic work. Money cannot be given for liquor and Red Cross both. All good causes suffer in a town where the liquor license is tolerated. Characters, homes, communities are crushed because intemperance is the cause so often of immorality, instability, feeble-mindedness, litigation and many other unfortunate characteristics. There is however a temperance wave sweeping the whole universe. Let us look at Russia, Great Britain etc. We can contribute to the war effort.

Carpet Ball League Opened Last Night

The opening match of the City Carpet Ball League was held last evening in Bridge Street Methodist church parlors, when the team of Oxford Lodge No. 17 Sons of England, defeated the Business Men's Bible Class by 26 to 22. Mr. Percy K. Fisher umpired the game. The event was most entertaining. The teams were as follows:—

Oxford Lodge—Skip, E. A. Ridley, H. A. Lennox, J. Bly, Vice-Skip, Geo. Barlow, J. Savage, E. J. Follwell. Business Men's Bible Class, Skip, F. E. O'Flynn, J. Borbridge, H. W. Ackerman. Vice-Skip, B. Sills, J. J. B. Flint, J. Moon.

Tonight the Yokefellow's Bible Class of the Baptist Church will play the Alpha Club at the Tabernacle.

AMELIASBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rathbun and Mr. Mrs. W. Alyea spent Sunday at M. Carrington's.

Norma McCaskie of Trenton spent the week end with her friend, Flossie Carrington.

Mrs. C. Adams is visiting friends in the neighborhood.

Mrs. D. Snider spent Sunday afternoon with her uncle, D. Adams.

B. O. Adams and family spent Sunday at Massasaga.

Chas. Ayrbart left for the north on Friday. He intends taking a hunting trip.

Mr. W. West and son Russell have returned home from Waupoos.

Morley Ayrbart left home on Monday last for active service with the 80th battalion. Before his departure his many friends met at his home and presented him with a wrist watch.

We are all pleased to hear that Mrs. Roy Dempsey is much better, and intends coming home some time this week.

Comfort to the bereaved
It is a great comfort to the bereaved to know that the funeral arrangements are in the hands of an experienced undertaker. It also gives satisfaction to know that the funeral conducted in an elegant, dignified manner, will be moderately priced.
BELLEVILLE BURIAL CO.
14 Campbell St. next Y. M. C. A. Phone 774.

Mr. McKeown
The meeting closed with God Save the King.
M. A. Chapman, Secretary.

HILLIER.

Mrs. Ethel Smythe of Lamah is visiting her sister Mrs. A. Lloyd.

Mr. Willie Sherwin who is attending Picton Collegiate spent the week-end under the parental roof.

Miss Bertha Monaghan spent a few days last week with her friend Miss Winnifred Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Palmer were at Wellington one day last week.

Miss Gladys Wait spent the week-end with friends on Consequo Lake.

The Board of Health met in the Town Hall last Saturday morning.

Miss Dorothy Palmer spent Sunday with Miss Kathleen Pearson, Pleasant Bay.

Mrs. J. D. Campbell visited her sister Miss Palmer last Wednesday.

Mrs. Flynn of Marmora and two children visited her sister Mrs. A. McKinnon last week.

Messrs. Jack Campbell and W. Zuffel motored to Picton last Sunday evening.

The young people of Hillier attended a dance at Mr. A. McCoy's last Wednesday evening and all spent an excellent time.

A large number of the adies attended the Institute meeting which was held at Mrs. Benway's last Wednesday afternoon.

Church was held Sunday evening instead at the usual time in the afternoon.

Mr. J. E. Benson, public school inspector ably filled the position of chairman. The proceeds amounted over forty dollars and is to be used in helping to swell the fund for ambulance which the teachers and pupils of this county are getting. Some entertainment is going to be given in a couple of weeks in Wellington.

Right Repairing

That's the only kind we do—the only kind we talk about—the only kind we ask you to accept.

We ask your confidence to trust us with your work.

We Promise to Please You.

If your time-piece is only a little out, have us put it right for you.

Angus McFee

JFWELER
MFG. OPTICIAN.
The Store With the Big Clock

Investigation Proves that various disease germs have their breeding-places in the waste products of the body. Don't, then, let your bowels clog and throw these harmful germs back on the blood. Take no chances with serious illness. Keep your bowels free, and the bile regulated with which promptly and surely relieve constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sick headache. They are compounded from drugs of vegetable origin—harmless and not habit-forming. The experience of three generations show that Beecham's Pills prevent disease and are

BEECHAM'S PILLS

A Great Aid to Health

Worth a Guinea a Box
Prepared only by Thomas Beecham, St. Helens, Lancashire, England.
Sold everywhere in Canada and U. S. America. In boxes, 25 cents.

Only $12.50

Making of

Our design bought in

Wool Eider

In a Sp

Assort

We have just beautiful ass

wool Eiderdown

are on show

Goods count

your inspection

in shades of la

mauve, rose,

54 in. wide, an

(0 y

HAVE

FURN

RE-UPHO

We will be on have our uphol

give you an es needs. A phone c will be given in tion. Phone 456

Nemo

Corsets

STRETCHER

Has Been Reco

Officers For

der Heavy F

of the Front.

Private John C. Prince

villie soldier who has been ed for the distinguished dal by British officers w

Tommy's under German from a building at France, last February, a city at three o'clock on S noon, Prince, the man wh honor to himself, his cou city was given such a r

Belleville would give a king. It was general kn

he had left England hav charged with a good co

but no one knew until S noon when the hero of would reach Belleville.

fulness in sending a me friend advising him of h

three o'clock was repa er had word come that ple set to work on a rec was no time for elabora less than two hours had 15th band, militia offic

zens by thousands had

the G.E.R. depot. Auto were in waiting with tious to show their ap chers-beer.

As Private Prince step

RITCHIE'S Special Dressmaking Offer

For the Month of November

Only $12.00 Charged for the Making of a New Suit or Dress. Our designer will give every garment just as much attention as though bought in the usual way.

Wool Eiderdowns In a Splendid Assortment

We have just received a beautiful assortment of wool Eiderdowns, and these are on show at the Wash Goods counter, awaiting your inspection. They are in shades of lavender, grey, mauve, rose and cardinal, 54 in. wide, and priced special.

HAVE YOUR FURNITURE RE-UPHOLSTERED

We will be only too pleased to have our upholsterer call and give you an estimate on your needs. A phone or a personal call will be given immediate attention. Phone 454a.

Ladies, this is the chance of the season to have your garments made in the very latest style, at a price much below the usual. She has all the latest style ideas which she gathered in New York, and these are at your command. Remember this offer is for orders placed in Nov. only. So place yours early.

WONDERFUL VALUES IN Ladies's Coats

—AT— $10.00 and $12.50

We never had such splendid garments to sell at so cheap a price. They are all good heavy warm materials, such as Tweeds, Chinchillas and Cheviots, and all in the most up-to-the-minute style. The majority of them have the belt all around, large patch pockets, and some with velvet or plush collars. Every Coat can be buttoned close up at the neck, and have the sleeves and waist lined. Such popular shades as black, greys, heather mixtures, blues and plaids, are represented. Sizes 16 to 42. Every one a snap at $10 and $12.

Dainty New Waists THAT MAKE YOU STOP AND LOOK

Dainty New Waists by the score have been arriving during the past few days. Come in and see them at your first opportunity. We know you will be delighted with the exquisite new materials, such as Crepe-de-chene, Georgette Crepe, Jap Si ks, lace effects and Striped Crepe-de-chene—all in the newest shades of maize, white and flesh. A large range of prices to suit every purse. From $2.00 to $10.00. One beautiful New Model, worth special mention, is a combination of Georgette Crepe and Crepe-de-chene in shades of white and flesh, very specially priced at $5.00.

Nemo Corsets

The RITCHIE Company Limited

D. & A. Corsets.

STRETCHER-BEARER MENTIONED FOR BRAVERY; PRIVATE PRINCE ARRIVED HOME SUNDAY

Has Been Recommended For D.C.M. by British Officers For Helping to Save Wounded Under Heavy Fire—"A Lancashire Lad's" Story of the Front.

Private John C. Prince, of the Belleville, Ontario, has been recommended for the Distinguished Conduct Medal by British officers who witnessed his heroic rescue of wounded British soldiers under German shell fire, during the battle of Armentieres, France, last February, arrived in the city at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Prince, the man who has done honor to himself, his country and his name, was given such a reception as would give the son of a king. It was general knowledge that he had left England having been discharged with a good conduct sheet, but no one knew until Sunday afternoon when the hero of royal name reached Belleville. His thoughtful mother, in sending a message to him, had advised him of his arrival at three o'clock was repaid, for so soon as word came that the townspeople had time for elaborate arrangements, but by three o'clock, although it was two hours had elapsed, the Belleville militia officers and citizens by thousands had gathered at the Belleville depot. Autos by scores were waiting with parties ambitious to show their appreciation of the gallantry of the Belleville stretcher-bearer.

Private Prince stepped from the train, he was given a welcome commensurate with the deeds he had performed in France. It was hard to see him in the crowd as he is a short well-built man. As he walked along the aisle of his admirers they cheered and shook his hand. He was led to a car in which he took his seat, surrounded by military men. The Lt. Colonel and officers of the 15th Regiment, were in the crowd to greet the hero.

The procession, down Station Mill, Front, and Bridge streets, was a triumphal march for Private Prince. The streets were lined with thousands cheering and waving their hands. The band played patriotic music and the old favorite "Home Sweet Home." The parade continued up Church St. to the corner of Victoria Ave, where it came to a halt. The crowd cheered for Private Prince and although taking no unwelcome notice, his speech and wit did not fail him. He arose and made a short address.

He had tried to do his bit as had every man who had gone to the front. He made a recruiting appeal to all who could go to enlist and help free Belgium and bring the war to a close. He thanked the people for their reception.

He thanked the people for their reception.

He thanked the people for their reception.

He thanked the people for their reception.

get hit. (Both Privates Prince and Style are short men) and Mr. Prince laughed as he told of the German bullets plowing into the ground around him.

GERMANS KILLED COWS The most enjoyable evening we had at this place was when the Germans shot two cows behind our trenches. The animals had broken loose from a farmyard and came up behind the Canadian lines. They wounded a third and we killed it to stop it from dying," said the soldier laughing. "The Germans did not get them. We had plenty of fresh beef and the men enjoyed it. We let the Germans see it, holding up one piece, a hind quarter on the parapet so that they could look at it. Then the bullets would go smack into it."

NARROW ESCAPE AT YPRES "It was pretty dark at Ypres when I did my bit. We did our best. We worked every man jack of us as a British Tommy would do. I had the experience of getting shot here by shrapnel. I went out to fetch a man in the reserve trench in the daylight. We had got to a barn where a wounded German officer and two soldiers, who had been taken prisoner were lying awaiting attention. I struck the place. We lost sight of the Germans as they were blown up. My own man was not hit. I had just got down and pushed him out of the way when a bullet hit me in the left arm. This finished my career in the A.M.C. I was taken away from the dressing station between 11.30 and 12 o'clock, and there were so many we had to wait our turn."

EVERYTHING YELLOWED BY GAS German gas has a remarkable appearance and effect. "You can see it coming orange or lemon in color. As soon as it comes, all turns yellow. My face, hands, clothes, all were yellow as if I came from Yellowland. Then it gets on to your nerves."

Private Styles was wounded at Ypres but not in the same part of the field as that in which Pte. Prince had been working. "The Germans have school boys in the trenches, some 12 years old. They fire at anything that moves if it was a house on stilts they would soon have it down."

"We were kept up to the minute with dressing, we used the roller bandages mostly on the field."

During the canvass for the British Red Cross Society last week, a young man when approached for a subscription is said to have used the expression, among others, "A man is a fool to enlist." He was charged with using seditious language, and appeared before Police Magistrate Carroll yesterday morning. The case was enlarged until Tuesday next. The minimum penalty for the offence is two years imprisonment. —Glanogue Reporter.

WHEN BUYING YEAST INSIST ON HAVING THIS PACKAGE ROYAL YEAST CAKES

DECLINE SUBSTITUTES FOOTBALL. O. S. D. vs. TRENTON H. S.

It is a matter for regret that the fine old English game of association football or "Soccer" has not more devotees in this country, as it is a splendid game for the physical development of the players, and when well played is well worth watching from the spectators' point of view.

Without prejudice, we feel safe in saying that the game played as it should be played, finds its best exemplification in a school team at least in the style of game played by the senior team of the Ontario School for the Deaf. Never quitting, never discouraged, always cheerful, "in the game" all the time, playing to win with might and main, no petty jealousy of one another, in showing the rag, but standing up for their rights vigorously; always playing their position, always on the ball, and tricky, yes, decidedly tricky and nifty with the pig-skin, their pretty combination is a pleasure to behold.

During the canvass for the British Red Cross Society last week, a young man when approached for a subscription is said to have used the expression, among others, "A man is a fool to enlist." He was charged with using seditious language, and appeared before Police Magistrate Carroll yesterday morning.

During the canvass for the British Red Cross Society last week, a young man when approached for a subscription is said to have used the expression, among others, "A man is a fool to enlist." He was charged with using seditious language, and appeared before Police Magistrate Carroll yesterday morning.

During the canvass for the British Red Cross Society last week, a young man when approached for a subscription is said to have used the expression, among others, "A man is a fool to enlist." He was charged with using seditious language, and appeared before Police Magistrate Carroll yesterday morning.

for they could neither keep the foe out of their own citadel, nor yet pierce theirs, the Deaf boys finding gaps between the Trenton goal-posts twice more, leaving the final score 5-0 in favor of the O.S.D. During the last ten minutes of play the whole Trenton team seemed to get a new lease of life, and the game waxed fast and furious and even the spectators forgot they were cold, but the only scoring done was by the Deaf boys. The entire Deaf team, who have been playing together since they were little chaps, put up a fine game, while for Trenton, Parnell, (Rev.) Foster, Houlihan and Parker were the best. All these boys knowing and playing the game well. Mr. McNeib, civil engineer at Trenton, and an old McGill player, was a most efficient referee.

Letters to the Editor. CORPORAL SANDFORD UNDER FIRE.

Dear Sir:—The "London" magazine has for some time been publishing a series of articles, or stories, rather, under the general title of "True Stories of the Great War," and these stories give true and very vivid pictures of actual happenings on the battlefields of Belgium and France.

There were many heroes that day in No. 4 company. I cannot name them all, but I must mention two of them who stand out pre-eminent—"Box-car" Kelly (now a King's corporal), and Corporal Sandford. Kelly did everything in his power to rally some of the British troops who were near him, while Sandford, a section commander, did as much by his example of splendid courage as any officer I know."

Local Hunter Got Three Black Bears Mr. Tom Ketcheson has successful hunting trip up North.

Mr. Tom Ketcheson, jailer, has returned to the city after a successful hunt at Wesley McCoon Lake. In the far north he had an unusual experience. While he did not see a deer and as he could not remain away owing to the opening of the assizes tomorrow, he had fine sport.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. The Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Fall Assizes Opened To-Day

(From Tuesday's Daily.) The autumn assize of the Supreme Court of Judicature for the County of Hastings opened at two o'clock this afternoon at the court house before the Hon. Sir Glenholme FitzGibbon, Chief Justice of the Appellate Division No. 2. It was expected that Hon. Sir William Mulock, Chief Justice of the Exchequer would preside. Mr. W. R. White, K.C., of Pembroke, acted as the crown prosecutor. The Grand Jury was then called. Richard E. Bonter, John Cole, James Douglas, Philip Embury, Willie C. Farley, Chas. Genore, David Moore, John D. Nairrie, Ben Osborne, John Roblin, Daniel Sault, Thomas Scott, W. T. Sine, Two of them not appearing. Cole and Chas. Genore, John were summoned. George J. McCarroll, J. J. McCarroll, and others elected as their foremen. Mr. J. K. McCarroll, and were afterwards sworn. His Lordship opened the cases of three of the prisoners before them, and dealt with the other with a view to the discharge of an infant child.

MENTIONED FOR VALOR

This was the stretcher-bearer's first experience under fire. Their heroism worked for the admiration of British officers who recommended the three and a young Englishman for the Distinguished Conduct Medal.

MOST THRILLING EXPERIENCE

"My most exciting experience," said Private Prince, "was at the time the first coming out had its baptism of fire in February at Armentieres, France. I along with William Styles of Belleville and Private LaFleur of the Sault was attached to a stretcher bearer company of the second battalion under command of Col. Watson. We helped to rescue eleven English Tommies" was the modest way in which the returned soldier described

MAKES RECRUITING APPEAL

He had tried to do his bit as had every man who had gone to the front. He made a recruiting appeal to all who could go to enlist and help free Belgium and bring the war to a close. He thanked the people for their reception.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM OUR AMELIASBURG CORRESPONDENT

The Weather Man in a Favorable Mood--Farm Labor Scarce--The Question of Enlistment--Officers Who do not go to the Front--The Growing Desire for Prohibition--Losing Our Partyism--Country First.

So long as the weather man will continue to favor us with such delightful weather as much of this fall has been, there will be no kick up from the biggest grumbler. During the greatest part of the harvest season it rained, and then it rained some more, and at times one would have almost come to the conclusion the weather man had lost track of the storm program and was unnecessarily repeating the performance. Whether such was the case or not, a lot of extra work and considerable loss might have been saved had the storm periods been a little further apart. But the harvest was finally housed. The greater part of threshing has been done and the yield in most cases has been fairly satisfactory. Those who had wheat and other grains to sell received a fairly good price early in the season. The apple buyers made a successful raid on the growers and bought the most of the fruit early and are now reaping their reward and many of the growers are repenting having sold so early in the season. Then came a period of fine weather, which could not be excelled in any country and which has afforded the farmer an opportunity of doing his plowing and apple picking with some comfort which should in a measure largely compensate for some of the loss sustained in selling at low prices. It would never do for the farmer to have the long end of the bargain all the time, if it were so the other fellow would quit buying altogether and there would be a glut in the market. It's this see-saw business upon the part of the buyer and seller that makes the game interesting, while at the same time it acts as an incentive to make buyer and seller on the alert to make up any loss which they may have suffered in a previous deal and removes a large amount of the monotony which would be sure to exist if the buying or selling resulted in profits only on one side.

The Golden Harvest For The Farmer

Taking everything into account, from the sales point of view most people would say the farmer should be coming money this year of the war. While on the other hand looking at the matter from the cost of production side there has been many years in the past when the farmer made more money at much lower prices. The help problem still remains unsettled and perhaps no time has there been greater inconvenience suffered through lack of farm help than the season of 1915. Some would attribute this to so many enlisting for overseas service. It may have made some difference but it did not appear to lessen the number of loafers hanging around street-corners, pool rooms, etc. Many of these men will not work when it is offered to them and if these fellows were forced to get out and work or enlist it might be the means of leaving some of the men who are willing to work at home.

Officers Who Hunt For Excuses.

While this matter of enlistment is being mentioned it might be in order to say something of conscription. There has been considerable fear expressed by some that this course would really be necessary to secure enough recruits before the war was over. Whether such a thing will be necessary is beyond any reliable opinion, we might express, but we can safely say this and feel confident of our opinion being endorsed by many that if some action were taken by the Government to force many of the officers now hanging behind and doing their best to get some one else to go in place of stepping forward themselves there is not a particle of doubt, but recruiting would be made much easier among those now being canvassed. It has been the case in this county, the same in Belleville and many other places men who have in the past considered themselves of some importance in officers' uniforms did not hesitate to take from the Government the wages they were entitled to receive as an officer and enjoyed all the honor and distinction of the position in time of peace and now when their services might be of some use to the country in preference to those who have never been schooled in military training at the country's expense. These men hang behind, but shout loyalty and the old flag and tell others what they should do to save the country. It's those who know something of soldiering who should be of the greatest value now, and it is really sickening to hear the excuses some of these men put up when trying to induce others to go. They play the age limit and are tickled all over they are able to do so. Others say their business is in such a shape they cannot go and still they have the nerve to tell someone else who may have double their care and responsibility that it's their duty to make the sacrifice. Let more of these men who have had military training come out and enlist and there will be less trouble in getting others to do so.

Stronger Feeling for Prohibition.

It must be a noticeable fact to every one, that there is a stronger feeling for prohibition existing through Ontario if not the whole Dominion than has ever been shown before. It is argued that more stringent measures were necessary to adopt in cutting down the hours for serving liquor on account of the soldiers. Those who have never favored anything towards the abolition of the liquor traffic appear to see some good results from such a measure. If it is a good thing to keep liquor away from the soldiers, why would it not be equally as good a thing to keep it away from those who are not soldiers? And if it was a good thing to curtail the sale of liquor during war time, why would it not be equally as profitable a thing to the community at large to curtail the sale of liquor in time of peace. It appears to us to be a frank admission that prohibition is a desirable thing and in the interests of the people at large, or the government would not curtail the sale of it. It surely can not be that the soldiers are the only ones who indulge.

When All Are For The State.

On the same line of argument it might be said that partyism appears to have dropped out of sight in a measure since the war broke out. Every reasonable person we think will say, a very sensible thing to do. There is no lack of evidence that both Grit and Tory have gone hand in hand for all and everything which would save the Empire, irrespective of party feelings. The Grits have come out plain, and frankly offered to assist the Government in every legitimate way. Even our member, Mr. Parliament says he intends giving the government his support until after the war. Why should this not convince anyone that if the affairs of the country can be managed in time of war without party strife, why should the same good sense not be displayed in time of peace and party wrangling and strife be cast aside, and the interests of the country take precedence over party. It is generally we believe admitted that party feeling was alone responsible for England not being better prepared for war than she was a year ago last August. It was not because she had not been warned, for she had years before, but to prepare for war meant expense and every person knows how either party will jump on the other when out of office if they can gain any party advantage through excessive expenditure by the government whether the same be justifiable or not. This was the reason no preparation was made to the extent it should have been, it is said, by England. Simply for fear the party in power, would be defeated if they made any preparation for war as would be necessary.

Possibly had one half the expenditure been made at that time that if has cost England already, many lives might have been saved and things much different from what they are at the present time. It is to be hoped that when this war is over, that there will be more honesty in politics and that rank partisanship will be a thing of the past and that each and every member elected as a representative of the people will be actuated by one common desire to devote the best that is in him, first to such measures as will be the greatest good to the nation. Country first and party last. This song has been sung for years but everybody knew it was intended to deceive the voter and it did.

A Ready Weapon Against Pain.

There is nothing equal to Dr. Thomas' Eucalyptic Oil when well rubbed in. It penetrates the tissues and pain disappears before it. There is no crown preparation that will reach the spot quicker than this magic Oil. In consequence it ranks first among liniments now offered to the public and is accorded first place among all its competitors.

Important Legal Case to Farmers

Last April the plaintiff had some sheep killed on her farm in Tudor. She claimed they were killed by dogs and filed her claim for $77 with the township council under "The Dog Tax and Sheep Protection Act." The council investigated the claim filed and threw same out, holding that the plaintiff had not complied with the Act, inasmuch as she had not, in the opinion of the council, made diligent search to ascertain the owner or keeper of the dog that had killed her sheep, and that he could not be found, and they also held that her field where the sheep were alleged to have been killed was not enclosed land within the meaning of the Act, two gaps in the fence along the road, having been left open so as to allow the sheep to run on the highway.

The plaintiff thereupon through her solicitor, William Cross, of Madoc, sued the United Townships in the 6th Division Court of the County of Hastings, at Madoc, for $77 damages for sheep killed by dogs. The township council retained S. Mason, K.C. Belleville, to defend them, and he besides defending on the merits, objected to the jurisdiction of the court, both as to the amount and that the Division Court was not authorized to entertain the action. The case was tried before His Honor George E. Deroche, Esquire, County Judge, at Madoc, on the 16th of Sept. last, and he allowed plaintiff to amend reducing her claim to $60 to bring it within the amount for damages that could be sued in Division Courts, and proceeded to hear the evidence, and reserved judgment until the 29th of September last, when he held with some doubt that he had jurisdiction to try the case, and that it was not merely a discretion given to the council to pay or not as they might deem right, under the Act, and gave judgment in plaintiff's favor for $28 and costs, whereupon Mr. Mason applied to the Supreme Court in Toronto for an order to prohibit the plaintiff further proceeding with her action in the Division Court. On Friday the 5th day of November inst., before the Hon. Sir John A. Boyd the Chancellor, Mr. Frank Denton, K.C. supported the motion, and Mr. Ludwig, K.C. opposed the same. The Chancellor reserved judgment until the following day, when he gave judgment holding that the Division Court had no authority or jurisdiction to try the case, that the Act only vested in the municipal council a discretionary power to recompense persons whose sheep had been killed by dogs, and did not vest any legal claim in such persons which could be enforced in any Court of Law, and granted the Order for Prohibition restraining the plaintiff from proceeding further with the claim in the Division Court, and the Division Court from enforcing its judgment.

Military Notes

Following is a syllabus for week ending Nov. 13, 1915, issued by Lt. Col. W. G. Ketcheson, Officer Commanding, 80th Batt., C.E.F.

Wednesday
6.30-7.00 a.m. physical drill
8.30-12 noon, company drill
2.00-4.30, p.m. company drill
Recruits squad will drill in the armories

Thursday
6.30-7.00 a.m. physical drill
8.30-12 noon, company drill
2.00-4.30, p.m. company drill
Recruits squad will drill in the armories

Friday
6.30-7.00 a.m. physical drill
8.30-12 noon, company drill
2.00-4.30, p.m. company drill
Recruits squad will drill in the armories

Saturday
6.30-7.00 a.m. physical drill
8.30-11 a.m. company drill
8.30-11 a.m. recruits squad to drill in the armories
11.30-12 noon, inspection of barracks by Com. Officer

The daily orders, part I, number 87 issued yesterday by Lt. Col. W. G. Ketcheson, officer commanding the 80th Battalion are:

Orderly officer for today Lt. R. S. Cross.
For tomorrow, Lt. C. A. Faithful
Next for duty Sgt. Living, B Co.
Orderly Sgt. today Sgt. Krupnow, B Co.

For tomorrow, Sgt. Matthews, A Co
Next for duty Sgt. Living, B Co.
Orderly Corp. today Corp. Hatchard B company
For tomorrow, Corp. Bailey, A Co
Next for duty Corp. Atkins, A Co

The 80th Battalion on leaving Barrie left its lines clean and the condition has won the praise of many officers.

Major Gardner, A.D.M.S., was in Napanee yesterday looking after the medical interests of C. Company of the 80th.

All hotels in Belleville, Napanee and Pleton are declared out of bounds for soldiers until 6 o'clock in the evening according to an order issued by Lt. Col. Ketcheson, commanding the 80th Battalion.

Major Gardner was in the city for a short while today.

Four military police are looking after the good conduct of the boys. They are in charge of Provost Sgt. Smith. The number will be shortly increased to ten.

The 80th Battalion A and B Cos. are setting down to their new quarters very quickly.

Officers as well as men take the early morning physical exercises. What is good for the men is felt to be just as good for the officers.

No new recruits were added to the 80th today.

$1029 Awarded Trenton Lady

The first case on the list at sittings of the Supreme Court of Ontario was the case of Maggie Burt of Trenton against the Administrator and next of kin of the estate of the late Mary McQuid who died last January at Trenton.

The judge struck out the jury notice and tried the case himself. 15 witnesses were produced and examined by the parties. The plaintiff's contention was that she had assisted her aunt, the late Mary McQuid nights and mornings and at odd times with her work in and around the house and had nursed her and that just before the death of the deceased she told her she would give her a house and lot, but died without making a will. The defendants disputed the value placed on her work by plaintiff and claimed she had been paid for her services as they were performed.

Judgment was given for plaintiff, Maggie Burt, for $1029 and costs.

W. C. Mikel, K.C. for plaintiff; F. E. O'Flynn and A. Abbott for defendants.

True Bills In All Criminal Cases

This morning, the Grand Jury at the Assizes presented true bills in each of the following cases:

Rev. vs. Fred. Mattis, charge of rape.
Rev. vs. Samuel Dominico, charge of rape.
Rev. vs. Mrs. Frances Dominico, accused of aiding her husband Samuel Dominico to commit the offence, alleged above.

Rev. vs. Mrs. Lena Banfield, accused of attempting to murder her child by drowning.
At 11.30 this morning, the trials of Samuel and Frances Dominico began before the Hon. Sir Glenholme Falconbridge, the cases being tried together by consent. The examination of witnesses began at 1.15 this afternoon. W. R. White K.C. for the crown, F. E. O'Flynn for the defence.

Mr. W. D. M. Shorey has been assigned by his Lordship to defend Mrs. Lena Banfield on the attempted murder charge.
For a while in court this morning there was no court, owing to the crown not being ready to go on with the Mattis case and owing to the absence of witnesses in a cause on the civil list.

Where is Adam?

Editor Ontario.—In view of the discussion that has lately been going on in your columns in reference to the question of eternal I lately read in one of our papers punishment the following article which seems apropos, it appeared under the heading "What is Adam's Condition?"

The following friendly conversation took place between Mr. "A", a Sunday School Teacher and Mr. "B" a Traveller.
They were discussing the state of the dead, Mr. A. the S.S. teacher asked Mr. B. replied "if that is true then going that at the moment of death everyone went either to a heaven of bliss or to a hell of torment, while Mr. "B" insisted that the Bible taught that the dead were dead until the time for their awakening at the second coming of Christ.

Mr. B. said "now there was Adam, where do you suppose he went at the time of his death?" Mr. A. replied "Adam did not go to heaven or hell, and even after he was driven out of the garden of Eden he seemed to long for fellowship with God; so I presume he went to heaven when he died."

Mr. B. replied "but look here, Adam was the one who got all the rest of us in trouble by his disobedience. As St. Paul says "By the disobedience of one man, judgment came upon all men unto condemnation; and according to your view this means that Adam's sin was the thing which started millions of the race on the road which will terminate in an eternity of torture; and yet Adam, the one who helped to send them there is to go to Heaven."

Mr. A. said "that is not so, isn't it? I never thought of that before. Surely Adam could not go to Heaven after that, my statement was incorrect, Adam must have gone to hell when he died."

Mr. B. said "But see what that involves you in Adam merely ate some forbidden fruit, and all have done as bad things as that. So if God sent-

Great
7
Day Sale

McIntosh Bros.
Great Sacrifice Sale

Great
7
Day
Sale

Of Ladies' Waists, Underskirts, House Dresses, Night Gowns and Chemises, Children's and Misses' Dresses, Flannelette Petticoats, Drawers, Etc., Etc.

Will Open Friday Morning, Nov. 12th at 9 o'Clock.

By offering the Ladies of Belleville and vicinity the most tempting money-saving bargains that has ever been their privilege to enjoy, we are determined to make this sale surpass all of our previous efforts by giving you some of the greatest reductions ever offered.

We guarantee every article sold to be the best quality obtainable and taken from our regular stock.

Read this partial list over carefully as it will save you money.

Ladies' Flannelette Nightgowns, all Samples clearing at half their regular values. See Window Displays for prices.

Ladies' reg. 65 to 75c Black Underskirts sale price 35c
Ladies' reg. 85c to $1.00 Black Underskirts sale price 49c
$1.25 Black-Sateen Underskirts, sale price 69c
Moire Underskirts, reg. $1.50 value, sale price 97c
Lined Underskirts, reg. $2.00 value, sale price $1.19
Moire Underskirts, reg. $2.25 value, sale price $1.49
Black Sateen Underskirts a very serviceable skirt, will give great wear, won't rip or tear, sale price only $1.49
$4.00 and $4.50 Black and Colored Sateen Underskirts, a few to clear at only $1.49

Ladies' Silk and Wrapperette and Lawn Waists, prices cut in two.
Large assortment of White Lawn and Wrapperette Waists, reg. up to $1.00 values, sale price 49c
Reg. $1.25 values, sale price 69c
Reg. up to $2.25, Ladies' Silk Waists, sale price $1.49

LADIES' HOUSE DRESSES.

Half Price and Less.

Large variety of Dresses to clear at only 69c
Children's and Misses' Dresses
Some samples to go on sale at astonishing prices.
Navy Blue and Black Serge Dresses, sale price $1.98
Black and White Check Dresses, ages 6 to 14 years, sale price $2.49
Dresses for Kiddies, 1 to 4 years, only 25c
Children's best quality Flannelette Drawers, sale price 35c to 69c. A great chance to save on these.
Children's Petticoats, made of best English Flannelette material, very special, sale price 35c

Where we have saved you cents before, we can save you dollars. Attend this great sale, Friday morning, and make your dollar go farther than it has ever gone before.

McIntosh Bros.

NOTICE TO FARMERS

WE HANDLE THE FOLLOWING LINES:

Tudhope-Anderson Co., Plows, Cultivators, Wagons, etc.
T. E. Bissell Co., Disc Harrows, Land Rollers, etc.
Peter Hamilton Plows, etc.
Maxwell Ltd., Washing Machines, Churns, etc.
John Deere Plow Co., Manure Spreaders, etc.
Sharples Cream Separator Co.
Munro-McIntosh Buggies, D. Moore & Co., Stoves.

We also carry Harness, Whips, Robes and Fur Coats.

311 Front St. H. C. PETTET Phone 704
Successor to S. A. Lockwood

YOU MUST HAVE BREAD

AND WE ARE PREPARED TO SUPPLY

ROBIN HOOD
KING'S QUALITY
FIVE ROSES

QUAKER
CASTLE
KEYNOTE

—and many other varieties of Flour.

The Hanley-Netterville Co.
329 Front Street

Popular Young Man's Death

W. Strader Barrows, Canadian district manager of the Barrows Valve Bag Co., Chicago, died on Sunday in the Belleville Hospital. He was formerly on the staff of Canada Cement Co. at Point Amee and some time ago came here to install a plant at the Point. About three weeks ago he was taken ill with a complication of diseases. Deceased was a very popular young man. He was only 32 years of age and unmarried. The remains were prepared for burial and shipped yesterday by the Thompson Company to Easton, Pa. his home, for interment.

Death of Infant

An infant aged five months, died at the Children's Shelter.

Wire Missed

Lieut. Harry L. Wallace reports that 250 feet of wire has been missed from the rear of his premises, Bridge Street.

CAS

The Proprietor Vegetable imitating
the Skin

INFANT

Promotes ness and Opium Mon
NOT NA

Recipe of Old
Franklin's Dissolve
Acetic Acid
Prepared
Prepared
Prepared

A perfect
tion. Sour Worms, Com
ness and L
Fac-Simile
THE CENT
MONTREAL

At 6 m
35 Dose

Exact Copy of (Print CEO

Office

Di
Of Ca
A

Phaetons
Auto Seat
Open Demo
We have gies and De
2 Second Rubber T painting an

The Finn

speeds up Plymouth brand T
If you wa from us.
W.

SURGEON-GENERAL RYERSON ADDRESSED PACKED THEATRE

Magnificent Demonstration of Appreciation by Citizens With Work of Daughters of Empire in Red Cross Work-Tribute to Belleville Lady.

(From Saturday's Daily) One of the largest audiences ever gathered in Belleville, heard Surgeon-General G. Sterling Ryerson deliver his address "What War Means" at Griffin's opera house last evening under the auspices of St. John's and Quince Chapters, I.O.O.F., in aid of the Red Cross. The house was packed before eight o'clock, from pit to gallery.

Mr. Dan A. Cameron sang a magnificent lyric by Edward Elgar "A War Song." The gathering was a fitting occasion to honor a Belleville lady who has labored ceaselessly in the work of sending necessities and comforts to the soldiers in the trenches, Miss Falkner, Col. Barragar asked Mrs. E. Guss Porter and Miss Falkner to come to the platform.

General Ryerson then addressing Miss Falkner, said: "I have very much pleasure in presenting you with this document on behalf of this society. It is a certificate of life membership in the Red Cross Society of Canada and is given as an evidence of regard for you and your work."

The recipient of the emblem and certificate replied, expressing her surprise at the gift. "I have merely done my duty. I do not deserve any such distinction as this."

The audience added its tribute by prolonged applause. Miss Anna Ponton sang a martial song "The Deathless Army" by T. W. Higginson.

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to come to the loyal town of Belleville to address the loyal women and men who are sending their sons to the front and are laboring for the Red Cross. I beg of you to continue the splendid work which has characterized the efforts of the Daughters of the Empire.

Many of you have sons and sweet hearts at the front to defend human liberty and civilization. If the Empire had not stood loyal, would the Germans not have sacked the capital of the Empire? Would they not have wiped out with one stroke all our glories, as they did Belgium? If the center of the Empire had been destroyed we in Canada would have had to become a free nation or a part of the United States. These men who are fighting are as great as any that fought at Waterloo. They are fighting cheerfully.

WHAT ONE DAY'S MILK TOTALLED

Table listing various cheese factories and their milk production totals for one day. Includes factories like Plainfield Cheese Factory, Mountain View Cheese Factory, etc.

Mrs. H. VON RODEN of LYNDON, KY.

Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Backache, Nervousness, Headaches.

Lyndon, Ky. "I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for headaches, nervousness, backache, nervousness and a general run down condition of the system, and an entirely relieved of these troubles. I recommend your remedies to my friends and give you permission to publish what I write."

When a woman like Mrs. Von Roden is generous enough to write such a letter as the above for publication, she should at least be given credit for a sincere desire to help other suffering women, for we assure you there is no other reason why she should court such publicity.

Canadian Woman's Experience: Windsor, Ont. "The birth of my first child left me a wreck with terrible wretched spells, but I am glad to tell you that I do not have those weak spells and I feel like a new woman since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now well and strong and can do my own housework. I do not take medicine of any kind. It was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that restored me to health."

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consulting) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Belleville Boy Performs Heroic Deed

A young lady in East Belleville has received a letter from one of the Belleville boys, now in hospital in England, which contains an interesting story. It is the pot next to the writer was another young soldier who was brought there because of a shattered knee. He inquired of the Belleville man where the latter was from and on being told he was from Belleville, Canada, asked if he knew Pat Yeomans. On receiving an affirmative reply he went on to relate how his knee was shattered by a fragment of shell and was rendered helpless. Pat Yeomans who was near came to his assistance and carried him across an open space on the firing line to where he could receive attention.

Women's Institute

A meeting of East Belleville Women's Institute will be held in assembly room of Queen Alexandra school on Monday, Nov. 8th at 4 p.m. Mr. Wilkin, principal of Queen Victoria school will deliver an address on subject, "Manual Training in the Public Schools."

Want a Dry Kingston

Kingston, Nov. 5th.—At a meeting of citizens today, the following resolution, was passed on motion of Bishop Edwell, Kingston, seconded by Dr. Macgillivray, moderator of the Presbyterian Church of Canada: "In view of the crisis through which the empire is now passing, which calls for the fullest efficiency and utmost capacity for service on the part of every citizen, it is resolved that an urgent request be presented to the board of license commissioners for Ontario, to prohibit the sale or other disposal of liquor in taverns and shops in this city for the period of the war."

Generous Gift for British Red Cross

Mr. Holmes, City Clerk, was gratified to receive this morning a brief note from Mr. C. A. Crawford of the Bitter Root Stock Farm, Hamilton, Montana, containing a check for fifty dollars, which he wished to have devoted to the local subscription for the British Red Cross.

His letter follows:—Bitter Root Stock Farm, Hamilton, Montana, Nov. 11, 1915. Dear Sir:—In The Daily Ontario, just received, I notice the call for funds for the British Red Cross Society, same payable to you. In response am enclosing N. Y. Exchange for Fifty Dollars. Yours very truly, C. A. CRAWFORD Activities of Children's Aid Society During Past Year.

Inclement weather prevented many from attending the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society last evening at the Y.M.C.A. The attendance was small but the reports were encouraging.

Rev. A. M. Hubby, the chairman and retiring president, referred to the work of the society and the failure of the plan to have a new building but his outlook was optimistic.

Table with columns for RECEIPTS and EXPENDITURES. RECEIPTS: Bal. from last report $2714.18, Maintenance from Munif's $3708.51, Building fund account 1050.00, etc. EXPENDITURES: Maintenance 2569.85, Salaries 1619.00, Building fund disbursement 1800.00, etc.

It was expected that by the date of this meeting, the new shelter would have been completed, or well under way, but circumstances have prevented the commencement of building operations, although the Society has during the year from its own funds from the liberal donations of $1000 from Mr. Thomas Ritchie to the building fund, been able to purchase a suitable lot and pay for same. Let us hope that before our next annual meeting the terrible war in which we are now engaged will have ended and we will as a people again have time to attend to such needy and pressing work as that of the Society.

Advertisement for 'The Kidney Doctor' medicine, featuring an image of a bottle and text describing its benefits for kidney ailments.

Slipper Time... This is the time of the year when a comfortable pair of House Slippers is most needed. See our showing of some stylish and comfortable lines at great values. Ladies Julietts with Chinchilla trimmings like above cut, low or medium heel, at $1.00. Ladies Felt Slippers in a variety of styles at 50c, 75c and 1.00. Childrens Felt Slippers at 40c, 50c and 65c. Mens Felt Slippers, several styles to choose from 75c to 1.00.

The J. J. Haines Shoe Houses. BELLEVILLE NAPANE TRENTON SMITH'S FALLS. Number of children in the Shelter at close of last year 25; number committed during present year 32; number not wards, cared for in the Shelter 16; number of wards returned during the year 49; making a total of children cared for in the Shelter 132; complaints received 266; investigations made 228; court cases 61; calls in the interest of children 1516; personal or phone interviews 1726; pieces of mail received 1042; pieces of mail sent out 2898; wards visited in foster homes 267; places outside of the city visited 98; wards in foster homes heard from 187; number of applications for children received 232; number of children placed in foster homes 81; number sent to industrial schools 9; number sent to the Mercer Reformatory 2; number returned on parole to parents 19; number of deaths 1; number of children transferred without coming to the Shelter 8; number of children involved during the year, being visited, cared for or dealt with 991; number of children in the Shelter at the close of this year 27.

ICE CREAM. We make only one quality—the best. In bulk by quart or pint 20c per pint. In bricks, plain flavor 20c per pint. In Neapolitan or fancy bricks 25c per pint. Sherbets or Ices, any flavor to order. Delivered to any part of the city. A. W. DICKENS.

Ladies and Gentlemen: We don't know of any store in this district outside of Wm. McIntosh and Co., carrying a larger and more varied stock of Men's, Women's, and Children's underwear. We have been planning for the past year to fill all our customers' wants in the underwear line at the old prices. Mens underwear in all grades of ribbed wool, selling at 75c, 85c, $1, $1.25 and $1.50. Mens fine Scotch wool underwear at $1.00. Penmans and Crown Imperial fine wool underwear at $1.25, $1.50. Heavy fleece underwear at 50c. Womens underwear in tremendous variety, in fact, we have not space to enumerate the different lines selling at 25c to $3.00. This is Belleville's Sweater Coat Store for Men, Women, and Children, all qualities of wool to suit every one at 50c to $5.00. A complete stock of all kinds. Wool and Flannel Blankets and Comforters 1.25 to $5.00.

WM. McINTOSH & CO. Liquor Board Ontario Here Dec. 14th. The Ontario License Board will visit Belleville on Dec. 14th and consider applications for renewal of license.

Fall Underwear for Ladies' and Girl's. See the fine line of Fall Underwear, we are offering at 25c, 35c, 50c, per Garment. Fall Wall Paper. Now is the time to do Your Fall Papering. Wall Papers never were Cheaper than they are being sold for now. THE BEEHIVE CHAS. N. SULMAN.

HAVE THE ONTARIO SENT REGULARLY TO YOUR HOME ADDRESS. Capt. P. K. Ketcheson, Capt. (Dr.) Wilson, Lieut. Wrightmeyer, Lieut. Harper, Lt. Nurse, Lt. Graham, are among the local officers in the 80th who came to Belleville today.

Busy Trenton. OUR daily news letter from this thriving town furnished by The Ontario's special representative.

TRENTON, Nov. 3rd.—Many from the city attended the obsequies of the late Mrs. Harry Demsey at Reddsville, yesterday. Mr. Bourret has enlisted at Belleville. He expects to be attached to the pioneer regiment. G. R. Mowat, son of Sheriff Mowat, of Toronto, and a nephew of Mr. R. W. Mowat, of this town, was killed recently while on active service in Belgium. Mr. Jack Hawley, of Toronto, spent the week-end with relatives here. Mr. A. W. Hawley, of Toronto, is in town in connection with his business interests. The rummage sale now being held at the town hall will last for the next three days. It is expected that the ladies will have a handsome sum to apply to patriotic purposes as the result of their efforts. Mrs. Ireland, widow of the late George Ireland, died yesterday at the residence of her son, Mr. Geo. A. Ireland, River Road. The boys this Halloween were less mischievous than in former years, little damage being done. The large sign which stood against the stone wall just outside the "Drift" proved too tempting a mark for the boys, who carried it down King street and placed it in position in front of the residence of Mr. Robert Whyte. Government officials are busy today taking measurements at the west end of the bridge. Messrs Harvey and Hawden, contractors, and The Ontario Bridge Co. both made handsome donations to the Trafalgar Day fund. Some weeks ago we were informed that the prospects were bright for a new skating and curling rink. Of late we have heard nothing of the scheme. Vernon's Dire to y. just issued gives Trenton a population of about 4000. The last official census gives the town a population of 5,067. The C.P.R. is considering the advisability of erecting an apple warehouse which will accommodate 50,000 barrels. The Lloyd arbitration resulted in the company receiving $5000 for land

Died. ANDERSON — In Belleville on Nov. 5th, 1915, Sarah M. Anderson

ES' DUS NE... THEIR IT... Kidney people... Blood, Blotches... At all... Society... 73.12 12.55 120.13 25.00 62.04 $292.84 $ 74.22

The Weekly Ontario

Morton & Herity, Publishers

The DAILY ONTARIO is published every afternoon (Sundays and holidays excepted) at The Ontario building, Front Street, Belleville, Ontario. Subscription $2.00 per annum.

ADVERTISING RATES on application. The WEEKLY ONTARIO and Bay of Quinte Chronicle is published every Thursday morning at $1.00 a year, or $1.50 a year to the United States.

JOB PRINTING—The Ontario Job Printing Department is especially well equipped to turn out artistic and stylish Job Work. Modern presses, new type, competent workmen.

TELEPHONE MAIN 99, with private exchange connecting all departments.

W. H. Morton, Business Manager. J. O. Herity, Editor-in-Chief.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1915.

THOMAS F. LYNCH.

The untimely demise of Thomas F. Lynch has removed from the scene of his earthly activities one of the biggest hearted men that this city or this country has produced. He had brilliant intellectual gifts, but his friends were not so much impressed by these as by the soul of good-fellowship, the irrepressible geniality, that shone out in every kindly thought and action.

Belleville has sent forth many loyal sons to enrich the commercial and professional life of the neighboring republic, but there has been none, we fancy, who was so devoted to the old home and the old associations as this versatile young student, business-man, lecturer and author, whose patriotism found its expression in one of the most unique publications that has ever come from the press—The Chicago-Belleville News.

Readers of The Ontario have from time to time been favored with clippings which showed the quality of this remarkable periodical. Pungent wit, sparkling humor, unrestrained originality were there in every paragraph, but rarely were satire or sarcasm in evidence. The boundless good nature of the man was reflected from the pages of the paper, and the paper was in itself a labor of love, for no one except himself knew at how much of a loss this characteristic little monthly was published.

Had Thomas F. Lynch sought his life-work in the field of journalism, he would probably have attained to eminence, for the periodical of which he was the founder showed in the productions that were his, a wealth of expression and a breadth of mind which would have placed the talented author in a foremost position on any metropolitan newspaper. We have no doubt that he planned much ambitious literary work for the future. But now, for reasons that we cannot fathom, his pen has fallen from his grasp and many, many pages have been left unwritten.

The friends who knew Thomas Lynch the man, and the friends who knew only Thomas Lynch the author, will alike deeply deplore the premature passing of one who was gifted beyond his fellows in the capacity for great thoughts and abiding friendships.

A VISIT TO BARRIEFIELD CAMP.

It was our pleasure last Sunday, in company with Mr. F. E. O'Flynn of this city, to pay a visit to the military camp at Barriefield. We attended religious service on the grounds at nine o'clock in the morning, were shown about the camp by courtesy of Colonel Barragar and later accepted a kind invitation to join the headquarters' staff at midday dinner.

Did you ever take part in a religious service in a military camp? If not, you have missed one of the most deeply impressive experiences it is possible to pass through.

On Sunday morning nearly three thousand men in uniform were drawn up on three sides of a square on Barriefield heights. They were composed of the Fifty-Ninth and the Eightieth battalions, the 32nd, 33rd and 34th Field batteries, the Mounted Rifles, the Army Service Corps, the Divisional School of Infantry and the various staffs of engineers. A pulpit was improvised from three drums, upon which a flag was draped.

On the fourth side of the square was the excellent band belonging to the 59th regiment, a group of officers, and two or three benches to accommodate a small party of ladies and gentlemen who came to witness the service.

The officiating clergymen were the staff chaplain, Very Rev. Major G. L. Starr, Dean of Ontario, Rev. Capt. W. F. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Kingston, Rev. Capt. G. I. Campbell, pastor of Brock Street Methodist Church, and Capt. Milton of the Salvation Army. All wore the khaki uniform and all took part in the service.

The service was exceedingly simple and was over in half an hour.

The 91st Psalm was read responsively, the men being supplied with printed copies of this psalm, the creed and the hymns. There was a peculiar appropriateness in such words as these, "Whoso dwelleth under the defence of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty."

"I will say unto the Lord: Thou art my stronghold, my God, in Him will I trust. For He shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall defend thee under his wings. His faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler."

"Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day." Then came the singing of Isaac Watts' majestic hymn,—

"O God, our help in age past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home."

First the band played the prelude and then three thousand deep-toned voices caught up the air and slowly, seriously, reverently they sang the hymn that seems more than any other appropriate to this time of universal sorrow and distress. We have heard many choirs before, but none that ever impressed us so deeply as that unpretentious military choir of voices trained and untrained mingling together in their earnest rendition of an old-fashioned hymn.

Dean Starr addressed the men very briefly taking for his subject the national emblem of Canada, the maple leaf. The maple leaf, said Dean Starr, is first green, then it assumes the color of bronze, which later becomes crimson and finally gold. First, the greenness represented the growing period, typical of our young manhood and nationhood. It meant virility. The bronze signified endurance, the crimson, sacrifice, and the gold the emblem of final victory. They should strive for victory not only over their enemies, but over their own passions and impulses. Then victory would be doubly theirs.

Few preachers have ever addressed a larger or more attentive audience than that before Dean Starr on the occasion of our visit.

At camp, attendance at religious service is compulsory. There is no "sleeping in" on Sunday morning.

The service being concluded, the majority of the men went back to their tents and were at liberty for the rest of the day. The 80th battalion had arranged for a route march to Kingston Mills, for which place they set out at ten o'clock, carrying rifles and haversacks, and took along their new field kitchens.

They made the march of six miles and had dinner prepared by their own field kitchens, after which they returned, making the return at four o'clock.

The headquarters staff were very comfortable in their capacious tent with a piano and a Victrola for company. Dinner was served in the tent adjoining and was an evidence of the skill of the artists in the culinary department. We have never enjoyed more daintily prepared roast meats, bread and pastry at any high-class hotel than were prepared and served at Barriefield camp.

As one strolled about the grounds, perhaps the most conspicuous feature we noticed was the scrupulous cleanliness and order everywhere maintained. No lawn in Belleville is kept more carefully than this military camp and its wide expanse of tents, passage ways and open spaces.

The men keep themselves quite as carefully as they do the grounds. All were cleanly shaven, their shoes freshly polished, their uniforms free from dust. They were as fine and fit-appearing body of men as we have ever seen, and had, all of them the ruddy glow of health and vigor. They are well equipped for the strenuous duty they are soon to face.

We heard no profanity, no boisterous language, or other evidence of loose discipline, in our ramble among the tents. In one of these we discovered Mr. J. H. Burnham, member of the commons for West Peterborough, who has answered the call of duty, though well past the age when military service is expected.

Upon the whole we were most favorably impressed with the conditions at Barriefield camp.

THOSE AUTO HORNS.

Saturday Night in its last issue complains that the auto horns are a nuisance which ought, at least to be abated. The strictures might be applicable at the intersections of city streets where a police officer regulates the traffic, but in the country or even towns and villages conditions are different. Saturday Night is right when it says too much horn-blowing is not only an annoyance, but it defeats its own object, as the people become so accustomed to the racket that they pay no attention to it.

But what is the poor auto-driver to do in all this diversity of advice. Some municipalities pass by-laws insisting that horns be tooted at every street intersection, which means a never-ceasing din, without much good being accomplished. Where two principal thoroughfares join, the only method of "Safety First" is for cars to slow down so they can be stopped within a few feet. Some drivers go around these corners like a chased cat, and numerous accidents are averted merely because careful drivers and pedestrians succeed in dodging them.

But now about that horn-blowing—Saturday Night complains that drivers indulge in this pastime oftener than is necessary, and sometimes where there is neither pedestrian or car to require it. The writer forgets that the careful driver is the best judge of the necessity. Not unfrequently pedestrians even on the sidewalks will exhibit symptoms of stepping off to the street, altogether oblivious of the approach of the auto, and for the safety of both, the driver ought to warn this individual that a car is approaching. One pedestrian in three crosses the street where there is no regular crossing, and too many of these do so without looking. They seldom go across at right angles, but always stroll from one side to the other diagonally so that their backs are turned to all vehicular traffic coming from one direction, and thereby run great risks of causing an accident for which no person would be responsible but themselves.

People on foot have the right of way at crossings, and it is the business of cars and carriages to respect that right, but where they step out on the street between crossings sometimes right in front of a moving car, they are taking big chances, and ignoring entirely the "safety first" axiom.

More dangerous even than this is the habit some boys have of running back and forth across the street when a car is in sight. No matter how careful the driver, the car might swerve or the wheels skid, just enough to claim a victim of foolhardiness.

Comparatively few accidents occur in the ways mentioned, and if ordinary care were exercised by all concerned, the numbers could still be reduced.

DADDY AT THE FRONT.

The delegates to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, in conference in Toronto, report that buttons have been prepared of a suitable and suggestive character. They are worn by the women and children. Those of the mothers bear the words "My Husband is At The Front." Those of the children have on them "My Daddy is At The Front." The inference is that every wife and child, not yet decorated, or not entitled to wear the buttons, will be nerved to make the sacrifice which will bring them into the honored class.

The wife may be induced to say "Husband, why don't you enlist?" And the child, "Daddy, why don't you go to the war?" The Canadian Patriotic Fund should not be any more anxious than the Government to get the married men into the service. The supply of eligible young unmarried men should first be exhausted, and the draft in England will probably produce the results which have not been reached hitherto.

The man of domestic ties should not be too ready to leave his family and enter the ranks because the burden financially on the country and on the people is unduly increased. It is at least remarkable that the Canadian Patriotic League should encourage recruiting from the married men until the single men are no longer available in view of responsibility which their enlistment puts upon the Government.

The German Government now adds insult to injury by insinuating that the officials of the United States in Brussels are liars. There soon won't be a feather left in the tail of the screaming eagle.

General Radko Dimitrieff, former commander of the Bulgarian army and who offered his services to Russia at the beginning of the war, is to command the Russian forces sent against Bulgaria, according to an influential Italian paper. General Dimitrieff is the man who, about a year ago, issued the famous order to his troops—"Don't count the enemy; beat him."

The problem of equipment and of furnishing rifles, says the Minister of Militia, is harder to solve than the problem of securing men. Is that because equipment and rifles must be furnished by Canadian manufacturers? Has the Militia Department brought to its service the resources of the United States as Great Britain has, or is it still adhering to the principle of "no truck or trade with the Yankees?"

The jeers of the jingo press against the pacifists sound very unreal beside this letter to the London civic authorities from a Canadian mother, Mrs. Fannie Brown: "My boy, an ardent pacifist, gladly took up arms against an enemy who aimed at an apotheosis of militarism, and in my great sorrow I have sustained substantial comfort in the knowledge that he died in defence of the ideals for which he had lived."

We have heard a good many stories since the war began of the number of men who have gone to the war from some church or community in England or Canada. But none of these records approach that made by the village of Nelson, in New Hampshire, in the American Civil War. When the Civil War began, Nelson had 231 inhabitants, and 124 of these went to the front. But the people of Nelson felt, in common with the whole North, that the very existence of their nation, as well as the cause of freedom was at stake.

The brain can shrink as well as expand. It is a muscle, and can atrophy, in parts out of use, like the shrunken muscles of an arm that is out of commission. Plenty of people use their brains only incidentally, and when they can't very well help doing so. Mental dry rot may affect future generations—and these people have all kinds of "hard luck" in their own proper persons. A report has been prepared by a body of librarians, school teachers, and so on, who investigated average sections of the Middle West and New York State. Fifty per cent. of some communities did not own a single book. Twenty-five per cent. of the same people did not even take a local paper. They're not far from being dead and buried; just walking ghosts of real live human beings. Probably they never heard that the main difference between an animal and a human being is that the latter has a brain and uses it.

For the benefit of those Americans who complain of British interference with American sea-borne commerce, an English writer makes this statement in the New York Outlook: "It is a well-known fact that many American concerns have branches or affiliated companies with manufacturing plants in England, Russia, France, Italy, Austro-Hungary, and Germany. Probably all of these foreign-placed American establishments are manufacturing supplies for the governments of the countries in which they are located. It has remained for Germany, however, to require of American manufacturers that parent concerns in America should not manufacture supplies for the Allies under penalty of destruction or confiscation of the plants owned or operated by American companies in Germany or Austria-Hungary. One of the largest industrial concerns in New York was recently required to send affidavits to Berlin in proof that no munitions of war were being manufactured for the Allies to save the very large amount of money the company had invested in Germany in the form of a factory. This information came to light when the company referred to was offered a contract for the English Government. The company, through its executive officer, replied that the profits would need to be of sufficient magnitude to more than cover the loss of its German plant, for the reason above stated."

BLESS DADDY AT THE WAR.

With the shadows round her stealing,
Every night I see her there;
Just a little figure kneeling
By the side of daddy's chair.

And the silence is unbroken,
Not one whisper reaches me,
But I know, though 'tis unspoken
What the prayer is sure to be.

Clasped together are the tiny
Little pleader's finger tips,
Though the eyes with tears are shiny
There's a smile upon her lips.

'Tis no boon of her own needing Those sweet lips are asking for,
But the gentle, trustful pleading,
"God bless daddy at the war."

Pray my child, then on your pillow,
Dream of daddy far away,
And believe beyond the billow
That he knows for him you pray.

TO A FALLEN FOE.

I see you lying there upon the field,
The sunset all that flushes your young cheeks.
The mist, like groping lips, your white brow seeks
As if to print the kiss your mother cannot yield.

You were my foe—I should be glad you fell
And took to death the peril of your strength;
But somehow I grow sick at your limp length
And wonder which of us is nearer hell.

I stilled the music that was in your heart,
I cheated some lass of her starry vow;
I'd give an empire to recall you now,
And in a lone grave gladly do your part.

—Philip Becker Goetz.

Other Editors' Opinions

THE BRITISH FLEET.

"Courage! All's well with the fleet," is the hail of Mr. Winston Churchill to the pessimists of his land. "Since the day of Queen Elizabeth, the British fleet has stood between Britain and the peril that now threatens," is the substance of the cheering word of Mr. Balfour, successor of Mr. Churchill as First Lord of the Admiralty.

These sentiments, voiced for Trafalgar Day's celebration, are in striking contrast to a few of the croaking cries that the censor has allowed to be published in the last few days, and Britons who are inclined to be doubtful because Sir Edward Carson has resigned and because Sir Ian Hamilton has a successor and because a French minister has stepped aside, may be heart and mark well the following. Had it not been for the British fleet, Germany probably would have won the war in three months. Germany cannot possibly destroy the British fleet.—New York Herald.

MARRIAGE AND WAR.

A headline in an English newspaper tells us that bachelors are to enlist and that a statement has been made to the House of Commons that the proportion of enlistments of married men is high. Commenting on this, the esteemed New York Star remarks that perhaps, instead of conscription, England may be forced to compulsory marriage. But would should married men be more willing to go into war than single men? It may be that only the bravest of men get married, and bachelors, who are afraid to face the hymeneal altar, are also afraid to face the bullets. It may be that, while war is hell, the married man goes to it as the lesser evil. It may be that the wife is patriotic and drives the husband out to fight for his country. It may be that the wife is tired of her husband and uses such language and so much of it that he flees to the cannon's roar as a refuge of comparative peace and silence. It may be because of many things. What is it?—Baltimore Sun.

A VALUABLE FRIEND.

Britain's defeat in the world struggle would mean a crushing blow to the United States, even if that country were not attacked and annexed by the Teutons, which, in all probability, it would be. It would mean the loss of her greatest market, and the passing, to a very large extent, of her present prosperity. Britain is to the United States what the cities of Canada are to her agriculturists—the buyer and consumer of her products, and the source of her money supply. With the defeat and death of this customer would come the well-nigh impossible task of finding another.—London Advertiser.

BEAUTIFUL THREE-FIFTHS.

Funny thing that three-fifths handicapped which the Ontario Government has imposed on municipalities which desire to exercise local option for the suppression of the liquor traffic. When the question was submitted to the electors of Brantford in January, 1910, they gave a majority in its favor of 811. This was not sufficient to overcome the handicap, and hence the by-law was defeated. Had it received 55 votes more it would have carried, and there would today be no intoxicants sold in Brantford. What a farcical value to give to 55 votes after a majority of 800 had been secured.—Brantford Expositor.

THE SLOGAN OF SERVICE.

"As an optimistic sign of the times, the motto of the Liberal Club Federation of Ontario, 'Service,' is significant. It marks a real development in political ideals and in a definitely vivid way summarizes graphically what may be called the 'renaissance of idealism' in politics. "The Liberal Club Federation of Ontario, from its inception two and a half years ago, has been a promising and often an inspiring organization. Its adoption of 'Service' as a motto is consistent not only with its prospects, but with its history. The Federation has a splendid record of actual enlistments for the front from its officers and members. Those who for various reasons cannot serve with the colours at present are evidently determined that through their organization they will do their share in various kinds of patriotic endeavors and activities."—Toronto Star.

For years Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has ranked as the most effective preparation manufactured, and it always maintains its reputation.

"WHAT"

Rev. Dr. R. C. Blagrove
the Question of What it Means pendant Sign

On Sunday evening R. C. Blagrove, of Church, presented a deeply interested and able discourse on the question of sin and its punishment. He discussed the question on the edit Ontario and by editing to our columns we feel that our readers will be pleased to attention to the following port of Dr. Blagrove's "For the Son of Man"

That Which Was Lost To be saved implies of the converse condition. It may be saved. What is it? It must be of very great value because it has given a deal of concern from among men. It must have an abiding character that would matter little, if it would perish soon, if our body then, about have so much concern important the body is day, until it returns again. It must then individual, some abiding life within the body which the body owns and which persists for the body is done we call the soul. The really worth saving is as the soul is in time is everything else. It is thing with the individual, that falls short of existence, or immortal infinite significance. of us, it is the unique surviving thing really anxious about vereth a sinner from his way shall save a man

What it Means If the soul is to be some danger from it, else it is an unmitigated evil. We are told that it is a lost condition. "He that which was lost is as death, and which or the next, or both Hell, torment, suffer things are true of it. It is one of great peril with righteous fear away from God, from joy, from hope; to be and controlled by pessimism. It is well the parable of the lost that the lost sheep was parently, of the great lost one, if not here, after, is made bitter state. As it is the be saved, it is also to be lost, and so it is this life only just as infinite sweep is not a cern. Its very character classes it among phenomenal, and puts it cannot be valued of spiritual estimate. The lost continues its feeble and wants until away of its condition, and yed it is Hell. It is condition we are to be saved is the re-birth its relation to sin and God on the other

What it Means from this condition. It is brought on by sin; know sin as it is, to be fear of its whole nature, to be thankful Him in whose hands the life, is safe. To have no fear, because hands we are, is uninvincible. "Fear not, destroy the body," said It matters not what outward man, or in tions. Nothing can life, nothing can reach because what God w One who is really in vation can say "Thy It conveys an assurance of goodness, and an confidence in Him. One w happy condition may deed commit sin, as w is not lost because h hand and God holds there is no death for

CASTO
For Infants and Use For Over Always bears
the Signature of

PAIN IN THE BACK

Usually Comes From Muscular RHEUMATISM.

Do not worry about a pain in the back. The worry will do you more harm than the pain. The cause of most backaches is muscular rheumatism, which is painful enough, but not fatal. Lumbago is a form of muscular rheumatism, so is a stiff neck. Sufferers from any form of rheumatism should keep their general health up to the highest standard by the use of a blood building tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, while taking good, nourishing food, without too much meat. Proper nutrition and pure blood are the best means of fighting rheumatism. Rheumatism comes from an acid in the blood, builds it up, strengthens the system, and drive out the poisonous acid that causes rheumatism. In this way sufferers have found complete recovery as is shown by the following case: Mrs. Samuel Childerhouse, Orillia, Ont., says:— "About three years ago I was greatly afflicted with a severe pain in the back, which I thought at first was due to kidney trouble. I tried a number of remedies but they did not help me any, in fact the pain was growing worse, and got so bad that I was quite unable to do my housework. I could not even sweep a floor. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I am glad I acted upon the advice, for before I had been taking the Pills long the pain began to subside, and under the continued use disappeared entirely, and I have not since been bothered with it in any way. My husband was also cured of a severe attack of indigestion by this same medicine so that we both have much reason to be grateful for it."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OAK HILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jarvis of Madoc spent a couple of days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Carr of West Huntingdon were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stapley.

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Roscoe Wright in Stirling on Tuesday.

Miss Irene Gallivan was ill a couple of days this week.

Messrs. Nathan Eggleton and Arthur Juby were in Belleville on Saturday night.

Several of the youngsters celebrated Halloween on Saturday night.

Miss Lillian Bronson left on Tuesday to spend a few weeks in Toronto.

Mr. C. A. Jarvis of Madoc has purchased the farm belonging to Mr. Ed. Welsh. We regret losing Mr. and Mrs. Welsh who have lived all their lives in this community.

Miss Mary Bryant of Foxboro was in our community on Monday and Tuesday.

OAK HILLS

Too Late For Last Week On Wednesday, Mrs. Frank Sarb will give a ten cent tea in aid of the W.M.S. The blocks of the quilt will be brought and put together, the girl having the highest number of names on her block gets the quilt.

Miss Anne, Stapley of Peterboro Normal School spent Thanksgiving at her home here.

Mrs. R. Lansing of Stirling visited her son Clifford on Tuesday.

Rev. H. Jarvis, of Vancouver, visited his sister, Mrs. J. Bronson, last week.

Mr. S. Wellington of Madoc, Chas. of Port Arthur and their sister of Winnipeg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMullen on Sunday.

Several from here and Madoc Jct. spent Sunday at Ivanhoe.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Elliott of West Huntingdon, visited the former's brother Fred, here, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bronson and daughter, Mrs. R. Stapley were in Belleville on Saturday.

Mr. Walton Eggleton of Belleville was visiting in this vicinity last week. We are very glad to see him able to be around again after so long and serious an illness.

STOCKDALE.

After a long and painful illness, borne with Christian patience, Mr. Thomas Kilbank passed away at his home here on Saturday morning at the age of 73. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended. Deceased leaves to mourn his loss three sons and a daughter, also three brothers and two sisters, to whom is extended the sympathy of the entire community.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Powell spent Sunday at Mr. James Benson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Maybee of Brighton spent Sunday at Mr. Morley Davidson's.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Sargeant have moved in the house lately vacated by Mr. James Bush.

Mrs. M. Potter is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Bates, at Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kilbank of Hillsdale, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kilbank of Orillia and Mr. C. Kilbank of Trent River attended the funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Kilbank.

Proceeds of Lunch

The proceeds of the Odette Blue Knitting Circle Halloween lunch on October 30th was $95.58. This was in aid of the Red Cross.

S. S. No. 2, AMELIASBURG

(Report for October.)

Senior Fourth Grace Kennex Cecil Herman

Junior Fourth Gordon Kenny

Third Class Lorna Reid Olive Reid

Gerald Anderson Clifford Hillman George Kenny Sherman Babbitt Helen Herman Alice Wilder Edith Cassidy

Second Class Cecil Belnap George Lywood Marks Reid Bernard Redner

First Class Theodore Reid Keith Redner Margarette Thompkins

Primer Class Theodore Robin Frederick Robin Charlie Kenny Helen Robin Marjory Redner Florence Wilder Dorothy Moy

S. L. Bateman, Teacher.

S. S. No. 15, THURLOW.

(Report for October)

Form V Irene Casey Helen McMullen

Form IV, Sr. Grant Spencer Roy Wilson Lena Kennedy Oscar Clapper

Form IV, Jr. Violet Spencer Leitra Rose Gladys Armstrong Percy Reid Bessie McMullen

Form III, Sr. Garfield McMullen Roy Rose Ross Salisbury Burton Lloyd

Form II Mildred Carter and Pearl Carter, equal Vera Lloyd Kenneth McMullen Mollie McMullen Bert Spencer Nellie Reid

Form I, Sr. Hazel Hawley

Form I, Jr. Clarence Armstrong May Stevenson Pearl Spencer Harold Bird

Sr. Primer Clement Hough Willie Armstrong

Jr. Primer Cecil Carter Clarence Salisbury Aetha Bird

Average attendance 29.55

Grace M. Badgley, Teacher

S. S. No. 2 & 5, HUNTINGDON.

The following is the report of the S. S. 2 and 5 Huntingdon for the months of September and October

Enrolment September 48 Enrolment October 48

Average September 44.45 Average October, 44.58

Senior Third Clayton Rutter Grace Vanderwater and Ralph Salisbury, equal

Senior Second Howard Welsh Ties Clare and Horace Flinn, equal Bessie Ketcheson Helen Harrison Earl Foster Bert Salisbury Mary Spence Willie Collins and May Salisbury, equal

Junior Second Mabel Holgate and Sam Ketcheson, equal Jennie Robinson Olive Ketcheson Tom Emerson Edna Welsh Harvey Clare Arthur Salisbury Douglas Foster Irene English

Senior First Jessie Salisbury James Vandewater and Willie Emerson, equal Arthur Emerson Henry Morton John Spence Edna Salisbury Michael Collins Leslie Post

Junior I A Laurinson Brickman Franklin Foster Nelson Welsh Amy Robinson Bernard Post and Ross Ketcheson, equal Harold Vandewater Stewart Foster

Junior I B Milton Vandewater Cameron Morton Archie Foster Frank Spence Malcolm Salisbury

Gardener Welsh

Junior I C Friedella Collins Keitha Brickman S. Howard Connor, Principal

3rd LINE THURLOW

Two Late For Last Week A meeting of the Queen Mary Patriotic Club was held at the home of Adam Easton on Tuesday afternoon. A busy time was spent in knitting and planning other work for our soldiers. A Christmas show was given.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooley visited at the home of Mr. D. English at Melrose on Sunday.

A young daughter has come to brighten the home of Mr. Frank O'Carle.

Mrs. Clinton Casey is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Way, fourth line.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Way visited at Mr. Clinton Casey's on Sunday.

The weather here is certainly ideal for working.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swain recently visited Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough of the fourth line.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Dean spent Sunday with friends at Foxboro.

Our popular teacher, Mr. J. L. Palmer is kept busy with sales.

Wedding Bells.

MAGUIRE-BABCOCK On November 3rd at the minister's residence, Turnbull St., Mr. James Maguire and Mrs. Nora Babcock were quietly wedded, the Rev. Chas. Geo. Smith, B.D., officiated. The happy couple expect to reside in Belleville.

SCOTT-ACKER At the Sidney Parsonage, Wednesday, October 27, 1915, Mr. Charles Wilmot Scott and Miss Rosella Beatrice Acker, both of the 6th concession, Sidney, Rev. L. M. Sharpe, officiating.

Belleville Branch Pat. Association

During the month of October the list of beneficiaries included 202 children of soldiers, 85 wives of soldiers, 33 mothers of soldiers (widows or whose husbands are unable to work)

Contributions received during the month amounted to $1,521.70 and 132 obseques were issued amounting to $2,506.05.

167 subscribers have not made all their payments yet that were promised on or before 1st October, 99 of whom have not paid in any part of the amounts they promised. It is urged that this important matter be no longer delayed. Payments mailed to the treasurer or handed in for him at the Bank of Montreal are acknowledged in the local press on the Saturday of each week. It is trusted that it will not be necessary to ask collectors to again remind those in arrears of their neglect.

The treasurer begs to acknowledge with thanks the following payments since October to the 1st published to 30th October.

A E Barlow 2.00 Dr J F Dolan 20.00 Emp. McIntosh Bros., Nov. 5.80 Miss E J Guest 5.00 G N Simmons 12.50 E J Milburn, Nov 1.00 John Elliott 5.00 Thomas Moak, Oct 10.00 A Friend (S.M.) Oct 10.00 Springer Look Mfg Co 50.00 Postmaster, officials and letter Carriers, October 24.00 Mizpah Lodge 127, L.O.F.E. Oct 5.00 J. S. Tower 2.00 R A Bull 5.00 W B Moore 5.00 Household on John St., Nov. 1.25

Reception to Returning Soldiers

There has been a great deal of idle talk about partiality shown in the reception to the veterans of the great war on their arrival home. Partiality is far from the thoughts of the military men, the 15th band and the citizens. Every man who has been to the front and returns is certain of a glorious welcome if the friends at home know of the hour of arrival.

Unless the people learn from relatives when a soldier is arriving the chances are that he will find no one to welcome him at the depot. This is but natural as there is no set time for men leaving Quebec where they are discharged. They may on their disembarking be compelled to remain at Quebec for days before they are allowed to proceed home.

In spite of this handicap, every effort is made by the officers and men and the band to secure information so that a hearty welcome home may be assured our boys.

Canon Davidson Chaplain to 93rd

Rev. Canon Davidson of Peterboro has been appointed to the chaplaincy of the 93rd. He is well known here having spoken at Christ Church and having welcomed the Fifteenth to Peterboro on the occasion of their visit to that city.

A Skillful Gardener.

Mr. J. E. Gordon, C.P.R. station agent at Tweed, has been awarded the General Superintendent's prize of $25 for the best kept four plot on the Ontario division which extends from Windsor in the west to Smith's Falls in the east. This is the fourth consecutive season that Mr. Gordon has been awarded a prize, three of which were firsts and one second.

Miss Brit will be at home on Monday and Tuesday afternoon to any friends who like to call. Marchmont Home, 193 Moira street.

Red Cross and Women's Patriotic Association

The regular meeting of the Red Cross and Women's Patriotic Association was held in the Liberal Club rooms, the President, Mrs. Laxie presiding.

The secretary's report was read and adopted. The treasurer's report showed the following donations for October:—Knitting Circles, $92.10; Empire Boy's Club, $2.92; Membership Fees $5.50; Ladies of St. Michael's congregation, $71; Misses Helen Sinclair and Jessie Wims, $2; Rainbow Club Shower, $43.75; Miss Fleming and sisters, $3.40; Miss Fleming's class in Queen Alexander School, $26. Broadview Boarding House, Point Anne, $16.30. The following have been sent for the British Red Cross, Quinze Woman's Institute, $5; Roslin Women's Institute, $20; Wallbridge Women's Institute, $5; Sidney School per Miss Woodger, $3.51; Expenditure for the month, $584.54 which includes a donation of $200 to the British Red Cross. Balance on hand, $88.70.

Mrs. O'Flynn convener of Camp Supplies reported on hand 546 pairs socks.

Mrs. Gribble convener of hospital supplies made by the circles reported that two boxes sent to Queen's Kingston to be forwarded to Cairo contained the following:—Box No. 1 36 flannelette nightshirts and 30 pairs bed socks. No. 2, 18 sheets, 48 pillowcases, 142 surgeon's towels, 63 handkerchiefs, 10 washcloths, 6 pairs bed socks, two boxes to St. John's Ambulance Assn., Clerkenwell, Eng. No. 3 containing 24 flannelette nightshirts, 12 sheets, 24 surgeon's towels, and No. 4, 42 flannelette nightshirts.

The Association wishes to thank Mr. R. J. Graham for the donation of the iron strapping for the boxes sent overseas for the soldiers for Christmas.

Anna Hurley, Secretary.

Soldier Returns From Front

Bombardier Blaylock arrived home from the front this afternoon about three o'clock by G. T. R. His friends at that railway gave him a grand reception at the local depot. Br. Blaylock was wounded last spring by a piece of shell while he was in a dugout. He was a member of the 34th Battery.

The 15th band and military men took part in the reception.

The Marsh and Henthorn shops shut down at one o'clock today in order to allow the men to participate in the reception for Edward Blaylock who was once a member of the office staff of the firm.

A GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR LITTLE ONES.

Baby's Own Tablets are a gentle laxative. They are absolutely safe and are so pleasant in action that once the mother has used them for her little ones she will never again resort to that harsh, ill-smelling, bad tasting castor oil, which baby always fought against taking. Baby will take the Tablets with a smile and thousands of mothers tell us their little ones will coax for them. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

School Buildings and the War

The Pinnacle Street School will again be used for the Quartermaster's Stores of the 80th Battalion C. E. F., and the Chairman of the Board, Colonel Ponton yesterday delivered the keys to the representative of the Militia Department. The building is being filled today with military supplies. Col. Ponton hopes to induce the Department to take over the Octavia Street School, as quarters for an officers' training corps in January on Colonel Barragar's return. No rent is being charged or asked, there being but one public aim and duty now, to end the war and provide whatever may contribute to victory.

Addresses Appreciated.

Bro. Captain R. D. Ponton addressed a gathering of 450 Masons at the Masonic Temple, Toronto on Thursday night, with Grand Master Luke of Ottawa and Deputy Grand Master Waudrope of Hamilton. Letters received by brethren here state that his speech was most impressive and touching and he was received with the Grand Master with "all the honors."

Captain Ponton proceeded direct from Toronto to the General Hospital at Kingston, where the Medical Board have ordered another operation. It is hoped that he will be ready for work again in about three weeks.

Corporal R. McCoy of Barriefield is in town today.

Private John Kennedy of Barriefield camp is in Belleville on leave.

Buildings Handed Over to Troops

Colonel Ponton handed over the keys of the Corby Building on Front Street to the Militia Department today. These splendid offices have been generously given free of rent by the Corby Company of Montreal for the officers' quarters and orderly room of the 80th and any other battalion for active service that may be located here.

Belleville at Gananoque

Mr. N. W. Rowell, K.C., leader of the opposition has most kindly written to Colonel Ponton, K.C., stating that Captain Ponton's address at the Armouries was one of the most effective recruiting appeals he has ever heard, and that we may have pardonable pride in the splendid work he is doing.

Wallace Boys Are all Well

Mr. Robert Wallace was yesterday in receipt of a cablegram from his son Lieut. Ernest Wallace as follows:—"Not home on Nov. 4th. Three boys well."

To understand this one must know that the Lieutenant had written a joyful letter home saying he would be home by Nov. 4th as war would be over. Lieut. Wallace is evidently in England on leave from the front.

Fine Autumn Market Today

(From Saturday's Daily)

A rattling good autumn market with its supply of staple products, butter, eggs, vegetables and meats met the gaze of every citizen this morning. The building was crowded with a large amount of offerings while there was a fair sized outside market.

Prices today were sustained without exception. Potatoes, eggs and butter provided the important strong features. $1.25 was the general run of tuber quotations. Butter hugged 35c all the time and eggs were sold at 34c and 35c steadily. Wholesalers paid 33c per dozen. The supply at these was very large but none too ample at noon. Every one had long been disposed of and many buyers were still looking for dozens upon dozens.

Chickens were steadier than usual, at 75c to $1.25 per pair. The duck invasion of the city market has begun in all earnestness and many a plump "quack" sold from 60c, 75c or $1.25 to $1.40 per pair. Geese at 1.25 to 1.50 are beginning to appear. Some three or four turkeys were offered at fair prices.

Apples were selling at 75c to $1.00 per bushel and the supply was run off early. Excellent snows brought the dollar figure.

Meats are beginning to "cut-up" on the market, beef at 11c to 13c Hog's today are 10c firmer at $8.75 per cwt. Beef hind quarters sell at $11.00 to 11.50 and fores at 10.00. Lamb and mutton hold at 15c and 12c per lb wholesale.

Beef hides are quoted at 12c to 14c desks 65c to 75c, pelts 90c to $1. Chrysanthemums are selling at $1 per dozen. Large beautiful yellow 'mums at that! Chrysanthemum pots sell at 25c to 50c.

The grape market is narrowing down. All offerings were easily disposed of at usual prices.

Hay was scarce today and sold at $17 to $18.00. Farmers are too busy on their lead to bring in the season's growth.

Grains are looking better but prices are about the same. This is evidently due to the occupation of the farmers on the soil. Plowing is fast this year as the soil is hard to break up and takes much more time.

TO BE AT PEACE WITH THE WORLD WEAR STYLISH WELL-FITTING SHOES! PEACE! YOU ARE RIGHT! VERMILYEA says Sore heads started the European war—Sore Feet will bring it to a close; AND WHAT VERMILYEA SAYS IS SO. Ill-fitting shoes are the father of sore corns and the mother of profanity. Take some pains with your feet and take the pains out of them. Give them a chance to shine their way into society, via this Boot Shop. You don't have to pay as you enter. Make your feet at home, and take your time looking them over. A.W. Vermilyea & Son THE STORE OF QUALITY & SERVICE

Persian Lamb We have never before been better prepared to meet the season's demand for High Class Persian Lamb Garments than at the present. Why not have your coat repaired, remodelled or lengthened? We have skin to match every coat. G. T. Woodley Phone 421 273 Front St.

COLLIP FLORIST NIGHT PHONE 175 - DAY 201 All kinds of Cut Flowers and Plants in Season. Wedding and Funeral Designs a specialty. Shipped to all parts. Front Street opposite Geen's Drug Store.

DRY CLEANED AND PRESSED New Method Telephone 734

Handy Specialties Aids to Good Cooking AT WALLBRIDGE & CLARKE'S Kitchen Bouquet Walnut Catsup Essence of Anchovies Paprika Mint Sauce Onion Salt Celery Salt French Capers Johnston's Fluid Beef Bovril Harvey's Sauce Soy's Sultana Sauce Tabasco Sauce Tarragon Vinegar Pepp'r Sauce Maceoines Okra Bay Leaves Burnt Onions Browning salt Currie Powder Blended Baking Spice Plantain Pure Provence Olive Oil Klim Maple Flavor Cake Colors Field's Egg Powder

WALLBRIDGE & CLARKE DIRECT IMPORTERS Del. choice Teas and Coffee. Established 1871.

FURS Don't delay in purchasing your FURS. NOW is the time to make your selection for we have a good range of styles to choose from. J. T. DELANEY 29 Campbell St. Phone 787. Opposite Y.M.C.A. See our window

FOR Glass and Glazing Ordinary Window Glass or Plate Glass—C. B. SCANTLEBURY, Phone 193; prompt attention; reasonable prices. FOR Sign Writing In all its branches, prompt, correct and low in price—Command C. B. SCANTLEBURY, the Decorator.

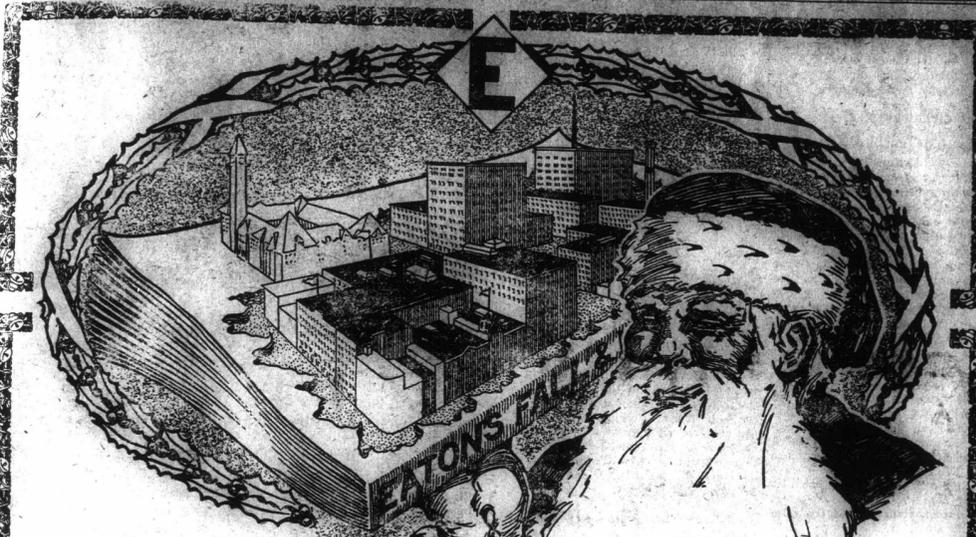

OUR FALL Wallpaper and Picture Framing Sale In full swing at the New Scantlebury Y.P. Street Store, the only Scantlebury Store—C. B. SCANTLEBURY, the Decorator

CORRECT Decorating, Designing, Painting, Graining In all branches a perfect system and quick service and low prices if you command C. B. SCANTLEBURY, the Decorator at the New Up Street Store.

Cooling Beverages Roy's Pale Ale and Porter, O'Keefe's Special Mild Ale, Old Stock Ale, Pilsener Lager and Special Stout, Carling's Ale, Porter and Half-and-Half, Dove's Ale and Double Stout, Cosgrave's Ale and Porter, Lager, Bass Ale and Guinness, Dominie Pale Ale, White Label X Porter and Invalid Stout, Labatt's Ale and Stout, Kegs of Ale, Porter and Lager. W. A. Rodbourne Phone 86 307 Front St. Box 100 QUICK DELIVERY of orders to any part of the city. Shop closes 7 o'clock every evening.

GUR LINES Automobile storage and car Automobile repairing Bicycle repairing Motor Cycle repairing Gas Engine work Electrical contracting Electrical supplies Dry-acetylene welding Locksmithing Machine work Storage battery care and charge General and scale repairing Call and see us whether your business or not. At The Garage Greenleaf & Son 288 Pinnacle Street

CATALOGUE Santa Claus is here! If you are a baby—give your mother a present—Price correct order early. It is booklet of correct Name, B. SEND YOUR XMAS ORDER IN EARLY AND AVOID DISAPPOINTMENTS. FOXBORO. Quite a number from Monday morning for to deer hunting season back Mr. and Mrs. Walter children spent Sunday—Mrs. Herbertson, Chatter Mr. and Mrs. Datoe c home of their daughter, Wait on Sunday. Mrs. Jim Stapley of E tlement, is spending a fe her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Miss Verna Derry spen the home of Mrs. Neil Da Quite a number atten ture at Marshall, on Mon Mr. Adams, being the sp Our Halloween party, concession of Sidney call of the homes in our villa day evening. Mr. Kenneth, Prentice Burd, of Bowmanville, Sunday with their parent We are sorry to hear t Mrs. Wm. Vandewater's ing from our vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. John Gow baby Everett, spent Sun former's parents, Mr. and Gowsell. The threshing machine busy in our vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lyon Helen, Misses Vida and hamaker and Mr. Eugene Caverly of Belleville, sp with Mr. and Mrs. W. Lo CROFTON Mr. Fred Vancott of P spent over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Vancott Mr. T. E. Young and m Rightman of Picton, spent at Mr. S. Pine's Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Caus friends in Napanee on Sun Miss Merle Moran is vi friend, Miss Bernice Wood Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Noxo Hillier on Sunday. Boway Brothers are agn threshing in this vicinity. Mr. Thos. Vanalstine h

AT YOUR SERVICE EATON'S CATALOGUE SOLVES THE GIFT PROBLEM

Santa Claus, through the EATON Catalogue, offers you an opportunity of making your choice of Christmas gifts just the same as if you were doing your shopping personally.

FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS AT THE FRONT AND IN THE CAMP. It is impossible to enumerate the many suitable gifts for soldiers listed in our Catalogue...

AMONG OUR CORRESPONDENTS

FOXBORO. Quite a number from here left on Monday morning for to attend the deer hunting season back north...

ment will be held on the same date as usual, December 23rd. The programme we expect will be bigger and better than ever as the books have already arrived from New York and every effort is being put forth to make it a grand success.

GADSBY'S LETTER

not go into details. He is a great announcer, but a poor explainer, as the present position of the Shell Committee indicates. Sir Sam announces that it is all right, that it is the best Shell Committee that ever was, but he does not explain why three dispassionate observers, in the person of D. A. Thomas and two ammunition experts from Great Britain, are laying hands on it to reorganize it and squeeze out the excessive profits.

Among Those Present.

What is this plan of Major-General Sir Sam's? Ah there's the mystery. It can't be conscription, because Sam doesn't believe in that—at least for Canada. Conscription in Canada would make the war very unpopular with a great number of people who helped to elect the Borden Government, so the Major-General takes no chance when he says it won't be done.

Whatever the plan is it's a record-breaker—that can almost be taken for granted. If the British War Office has not already adopted the Major-General's plan it is probably because it promises too much. Sir Sam is nothing if not sanguine, and the British War Office knows that. It is the one falling in a great man, and though it leans to virtue's side it frequently comes into conflict with the statistics.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Forsythe, Saturday last. Mr. John Ketcheson took tea with his friend, Mr. J. F. Herity on Sunday.

Mrs. Rosan Hills left on Tuesday for Saskatchewan where she intends spending the winter with her granddaughter, Mrs. Hargreaves. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sayers attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Hicks on Monday last.

Mrs. Dexter of Colville, Washington is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Prindle. Miss Ruth Cummings has returned from Campbellford where she has been spending the past few days with her aunt, Mr. C. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. McKee, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hagerman motored to Barrie on Sunday last. Mr. Harry Ketcheson left Monday for Albert College where he intends to take a business course during the winter.

A great many from this vicinity attended the meeting at Holloway on Monday evening and all report a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. George Chambers of Stirling spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chambers.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Jos. Phillips who has been ill for some time is improving. Quite a number attended the dance at Mr. T. Morrow's one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Comins spent the week end in Trenton the guests of Mrs. A. Youker. We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Vanallen of this place. The deceased was one of our oldest and most respected citizens.

Rev. Mr. Merrick of Queensboro, occupied the pulpit in Bethesda Ch. on Sunday morning. We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. Martin is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holland attended a funeral in Seymour Township last week. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Twiddy and Mr. and Mrs. Hazard of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rollins of Cooper, visited at the home of Mr. Edwin Holland on Sunday.

The attendance at the prayer meeting and league was rather small last week. Halloween was celebrated in our village on Saturday evening, and there were a number of strangers in town.

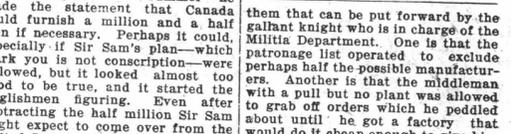

Mr. Frank Kirley spent Sunday evening with his friend, Mr. Jas. Chambers. Mr. A. Emerson of Belleville spent Sunday under the parental roof. Mr. N. Fleming shipped cattle and pigs from here on Monday.

Mr. Frank Kirley left for Lindsay on Monday. There was no service in the Methodist church here last Sunday owing to the anniversary at the Marsh Hill appointment.

Mr. John Townsend was the guest at Mrs. Simon Elliott's one day recently. The tea meeting which was on Monday 25th was a decided success, the sum of $90 being realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Wright wear a smile these days—a baby boy has come to stay. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bird visited at the home of Mr. Sydney Bird last Sunday.

Mr. Bruce McMullen was unfortunately in losing one of his cows one day last week. Several from this vicinity attended the anniversary at Mash Hill last Sunday also the concert on Monday evening.

An Easy One.

Our patriotic concert in aid of the Red Cross which was held in our church last Tuesday night was a success. Our Queen Mary Patriotic Club will meet at the church on Thursday p.m. 4th inst. and will be addressed by Mrs. Bert. Faulkner of Foxboro.

Mr. Luther Bacon motored to the Barrie field camp on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. P. Ketchapaw spent Sunday at the home of Mr. P. Casey, in Sidney.

A number from here attended the Laymen's Missionary banquet held at Cannifton on Wednesday evening, the 3rd inst. Mr. Maynes of Albert College occupied the pulpit here on Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyce of Cannifton, spent Sunday at Mr. G. F. Hamilton's. Messrs. M. Phillips, and R. and T. Peacock left for the north in search of deer.

We are having lovely fall weather at present. Mr. Walker Sayers has returned from Toronto where he has been spending the past few days at the Sunday School Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Garrison of Stirling and Mr. and Mrs. B. Phillips were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Phillips on Sunday afternoon. Our annual Christmas entertainment will be held on the same date as usual, December 23rd. The programme we expect will be bigger and better than ever as the books have already arrived from New York and every effort is being put forth to make it a grand success.

Mrs. Rosan Hills left on Tuesday for Saskatchewan where she intends spending the winter with her granddaughter, Mrs. Hargreaves. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sayers attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Hicks on Monday last.

Mrs. Dexter of Colville, Washington is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Prindle. Miss Ruth Cummings has returned from Campbellford where she has been spending the past few days with her aunt, Mr. C. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. McKee, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hagerman motored to Barrie on Sunday last. Mr. Harry Ketcheson left Monday for Albert College where he intends to take a business course during the winter.

A great many from this vicinity attended the meeting at Holloway on Monday evening and all report a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. George Chambers of Stirling spent Sunday with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chambers.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Jos. Phillips who has been ill for some time is improving. Quite a number attended the dance at Mr. T. Morrow's one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Comins spent the week end in Trenton the guests of Mrs. A. Youker. We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Vanallen of this place. The deceased was one of our oldest and most respected citizens.

Author of "Cy Whitaker's Place," "Cap'n Ed," Etc.

Illustrations by Elsworth Young

"GUESS that settles it," rusefully observed the second mate, another Cape Codder, from Hyannis. "Callate we'll stay here for a spell now, hey, Cap'n."

"For a spell, yes," replied Nat. "Well stay here until we get another craft to set sail in, and no longer."

"Another craft? Another one? Where in time you goin' to get her?" "Build her," said Captain Nat cheerfully. Then, pointing to the row of empty houses and the little deserted church, he added, "There's timber and nails—yes, and cloth, such as 'tis. If I can't build a boat out of them I'll agree to eat at the whole settlement."

"He'll Never Marry Her, Now," asked, "Good afternoon, Captain Mayo."

"Dr. Parker entered the building, but Captain Zeb remained outside, stammering that he called he'd better stay where he could keep an eye on his horse. This was such a transparent excuse that it would have been funny at any other time. No one smiled now, however."

"Is Mrs. Coffin—er—Keziah aboard?" the captain asked. "No, she isn't. She went to the parsonage a few hours ago. Mr. Ellis brought the mail and there was a letter in it for her. She said it was important and that she must go home to see about some things. She'll be back pretty soon, I suppose."

"He'll Never Marry Her, Now," asked, "Good afternoon, Captain Mayo."

"Dr. Parker entered the building, but Captain Zeb remained outside, stammering that he called he'd better stay where he could keep an eye on his horse. This was such a transparent excuse that it would have been funny at any other time. No one smiled now, however."

"Is Mrs. Coffin—er—Keziah aboard?" the captain asked. "No, she isn't. She went to the parsonage a few hours ago. Mr. Ellis brought the mail and there was a letter in it for her. She said it was important and that she must go home to see about some things. She'll be back pretty soon, I suppose."

"He'll Never Marry Her, Now," asked, "Good afternoon, Captain Mayo."

"Dr. Parker entered the building, but Captain Zeb remained outside, stammering that he called he'd better stay where he could keep an eye on his horse. This was such a transparent excuse that it would have been funny at any other time. No one smiled now, however."

"Is Mrs. Coffin—er—Keziah aboard?" the captain asked. "No, she isn't. She went to the parsonage a few hours ago. Mr. Ellis brought the mail and there was a letter in it for her. She said it was important and that she must go home to see about some things. She'll be back pretty soon, I suppose."

know I can do it." Captain Elkannah Daniels and his friend were feeling better and they were busy. Trumet had a new hero now. On Wednesday the Boston papers printed excerpts from Captain Hammond's story, and these brief preliminary accounts aroused the admiration of every citizen. It was proposed to give him a reception. Elkannah was the moving spirit in the preparations. Captain Nat, so they learned by telegraphing, would arrive on the noon train Thursday. His was not to be a prosaic progress by stage all the way from Sandwich. A special carriage, drawn by the Daniels' span and escorted by other vehicles, was to meet the coach at Bayport and bring him to Trumet in triumphant procession. All this was to be a surprise, of course.

Wednesday afternoon the Daniels followed the coast by the tidings that Grace Van Horne had left the beach and was at her old home, the Hammond tavern. And Mrs. Poundberry reported her busy as a bee "gettin' things ready."

Thursday was a perfect day, and the reception committee was on hand and waiting in front of the Bayport post office. The special carriage, the span brushed and curled until their coats glistened in the sunshine, was drawn up beside the platform. The horses had little flags fastened to their bridles, and there were other and larger flags on each side of the dashboard. Captain Daniels, imposing in his Sunday raiment, high-collared coat, stock, silk hat and gold-headed cane, sat stiffly erect on the seat in the rear. The other carriages were also drawn up, and the whiff of the horse's nostrils as they snuffed the air. Captain Zeb had not been invited to join the escort, but had joined it without an invitation. Kyan Pepper was there also, not yet fully recovered from the surprise which Lavilla's gracious permission had given him.

"Here she comes!" shouted Ezra Simmons, the postmaster. "Right on time, too."

"Sure enough! A cloud of dust in the distance, rising on the spring wind, and the rattle of rapidly turning wheels. The reception committee prepared for action. Captain Elkannah descended from the carriage and moved in stately dignity to the front of the post office platform. The stage, its four horses at a trot, swung up to the platform. "Hurray!" shouted the committee. Its uninvited guests and the accompanying crowd of Bayport men and boys which had gathered to assist in the welcome. "Hurray!"

"A passenger or two peered from the coach window. The stage driver ironically uted his cap. "Thank ye," he said. "Thank ye very much."

"Captain Elkannah frowned his disapproval. "We are cheering Cap'n Nathaniel Hammond and Trumet," he explained laughingly. "We are here to meet him and escort him home. Where is he? Where's Cap'n Hammond?" "Well, now, I'll tell ye; I don't know where he is." "You don't? Isn't he with you?" "No, he ain't. And he didn't come."

"Don't be frightened, Grace," replied the man in the dock. "It's me—Nat. I've come home again."

CHAPTER XIX. In Which the Minister Receives a Letter. John Ellery was uneasy. Physically he was very much better, so much better that he was permitted to sit up a while each day. But mentally he was disturbed and excited, exactly the condition which the doctor said he must not be in. Keziah and Grace had gone away and left him, and he could not understand why.

Mrs. Higgins, like's mother, was at the shanty and she did her best to soothe and quiet him. She was a kind soul and capable in her way, but she could not answer his questions satisfactorily.

He rose from the chair and started toward the living room. He would not be put off again. He would be answered. His hand was on the latch of the door when that door was opened. Dr. Parker came in.

The doctor was smiling broadly. His rosy face was actually beaming. He held out his hand, seized the minister's, and shook it. "Good morning, Mr. Ellery," he said. "It's a glorious day. Yes, sir, a bully day. Hay! isn't it?"

"Ellery's answer was a question. "Doctor," he said, "why have Mrs. Coffin and—Miss Van Horne gone? Has anything happened? I know something has, and you must tell me what. Don't try to put me off or give me evasive answers. I want to know why they have gone."

"Parker looked at him keenly. "Humph!" he grunted. "I'll have to get into Mrs. Higgins's wig. You sit still. No, I'm not going to tell you anything. You sit where you are and maybe the news'll come to you. If you move it won't. Going to obey orders? Good! I'll see you by and by, Mr. Ellery."

"She was. She met me at the Cohasset Narrows depot. I was settin' in the car, lookin' out of the window at the sand and sniffin' the Cape air, somebody tapped me on the shoulder. I looked up and twas her. I was surprised enough to see her. I tell you, way up there at the Narrows, I couldn't have said a word, anyway, and she never gave me a chance. 'Nat,' she says, 'don't talk now. Come with me, quick afore the train starts. I've come here on purpose to meet you. I must talk with you; it's important. You can go to Trumet on the next train, tonight. But now I must talk with you. I must. Won't you please come, Nat?'"

"Well, I went. The engine bell was beginnin' to ring and we had to move lively, I tell you. I swung her off the step just as the car begun to move. So into the walkin' room we went and come to anchor on the settee. And then, John, we had our talk. Seems she left Trumet Wednesday afternoon. Got the livery stable man to drive her as far as Bayport, hired another team there and come out to Sandwich. Stayed overnight there and took the morning train which got to Cohasset Narrows just ahead of the one I was comin' on. She'd been so afraid of being late, she said. She must see me afore I got to Trumet."

"Well, she saw me and told me the whole yarn about you and Grace. She tried to break it to me gently, so I wouldn't feel too bad. She knew it would be a shock to me, she said, it was a shock, in a way, but as for feelin' bad, I didn't. I think the world of Grace. I'd do anything she wanted me to do; but most the way down on the train—yes, and long afore that—I'd been dreadin' my comin' home on 'de account. I dreaded tellin' her that, unless she was real set on it, she'd better not marry me."

"Nat, I want to tell you something."

"He walked out of the room. It seemed to Ellery that he sat in that chair for ten thousand years before the door again opened. And then—"Grace!" he cried. "O Grace! you—you've come back." She was blushing red, her face was radiant with quiet happiness, but her eyes were moist. She crossed the room, bent over and kissed him on the forehead.

"Yes, John," she said; "I've come back. Yes, dear, I've come back to you."

"Something that only one other person knows. Grace doesn't know it yet. Neither does Aunt Keziah—the whole of it. And if she knew I told you even a part I'm afraid she would, as she would say, 'skin me alive.' But I owe her—and you—more than I could repay if I lived a thousand years. So I'm going to tell and take the consequences."

"She was. She met me at the Cohasset Narrows depot. I was settin' in the car, lookin' out of the window at the sand and sniffin' the Cape air, somebody tapped me on the shoulder. I looked up and twas her. I was surprised enough to see her. I tell you, way up there at the Narrows, I couldn't have said a word, anyway, and she never gave me a chance. 'Nat,' she says, 'don't talk now. Come with me, quick afore the train starts. I've come here on purpose to meet you. I must talk with you; it's important. You can go to Trumet on the next train, tonight. But now I must talk with you. I must. Won't you please come, Nat?'"

"Well, I went. The engine bell was beginnin' to ring and we had to move lively, I tell you. I swung her off the step just as the car begun to move. So into the walkin' room we went and come to anchor on the settee. And then, John, we had our talk. Seems she left Trumet Wednesday afternoon. Got the livery stable man to drive her as far as Bayport, hired another team there and come out to Sandwich. Stayed overnight there and took the morning train which got to Cohasset Narrows just ahead of the one I was comin' on. She'd been so afraid of being late, she said. She must see me afore I got to Trumet."

"Well, she saw me and told me the whole yarn about you and Grace. She tried to break it to me gently, so I wouldn't feel too bad. She knew it would be a shock to me, she said, it was a shock, in a way, but as for feelin' bad, I didn't. I think the world of Grace. I'd do anything she wanted me to do; but most the way down on the train—yes, and long afore that—I'd been dreadin' my comin' home on 'de account. I dreaded tellin' her that, unless she was real set on it, she'd better not marry me."

"Nat, I want to tell you something."

"He walked out of the room. It seemed to Ellery that he sat in that chair for ten thousand years before the door again opened. And then—"Grace!" he cried. "O Grace! you—you've come back." She was blushing red, her face was radiant with quiet happiness, but her eyes were moist. She crossed the room, bent over and kissed him on the forehead.

"Yes, John," she said; "I've come back. Yes, dear, I've come back to you."

"Something that only one other person knows. Grace doesn't know it yet. Neither does Aunt Keziah—the whole of it. And if she knew I told you even a part I'm afraid she would, as she would say, 'skin me alive.' But I owe her—and you—more than I could repay if I lived a thousand years. So I'm going to tell and take the consequences."

"She was. She met me at the Cohasset Narrows depot. I was settin' in the car, lookin' out of the window at the sand and sniffin' the Cape air, somebody tapped me on the shoulder. I looked up and twas her. I was surprised enough to see her. I tell you, way up there at the Narrows, I couldn't have said a word, anyway, and she never gave me a chance. 'Nat,' she says, 'don't talk now. Come with me, quick afore the train starts. I've come here on purpose to meet you. I must talk with you; it's important. You can go to Trumet on the next train, tonight. But now I must talk with you. I must. Won't you please come, Nat?'"

"Well, I went. The engine bell was beginnin' to ring and we had to move lively, I tell you. I swung her off the step just as the car begun to move. So into the walkin' room we went and come to anchor on the settee. And then, John, we had our talk. Seems she left Trumet Wednesday afternoon. Got the livery stable man to drive her as far as Bayport, hired another team there and come out to Sandwich. Stayed overnight there and took the morning train which got to Cohasset Narrows just ahead of the one I was comin' on. She'd been so afraid of being late, she said. She must see me afore I got to Trumet."

"Well, she saw me and told me the whole yarn about you and Grace. She tried to break it to me gently, so I wouldn't feel too bad. She knew it would be a shock to me, she said, it was a shock, in a way, but as for feelin' bad, I didn't. I think the world of Grace. I'd do anything she wanted me to do; but most the way down on the train—yes, and long afore that—I'd been dreadin' my comin' home on 'de account. I dreaded tellin' her that, unless she was real set on it, she'd better not marry me."

"Nat, I want to tell you something."

"He walked out of the room. It seemed to Ellery that he sat in that chair for ten thousand years before the door again opened. And then—"Grace!" he cried. "O Grace! you—you've come back." She was blushing red, her face was radiant with quiet happiness, but her eyes were moist. She crossed the room, bent over and kissed him on the forehead.

"Yes, John," she said; "I've come back. Yes, dear, I've come back to you."

"Something that only one other person knows. Grace doesn't know it yet. Neither does Aunt Keziah—the whole of it. And if she knew I told you even a part I'm afraid she would, as she would say, 'skin me alive.' But I owe her—and you—more than I could repay if I lived a thousand years. So I'm going to tell and take the consequences."

ESTABLISH HOW LOC

Representative Town on Eight Year chants, M Have to Sa

As forecasted in our column yesterday, we report of a visit of a The Daily Ontario to town of Campbellford most of our readers located thirty miles to of Belleville on the of the river Trent.

Campbellford voted Option test in January tried the measure by a on votes over the six requirement. The town had more than eight y and the opposition strong enough to br vote.

The town authority reputation of having good enforcement there might be accepted representative of whi pect where local optio on a reasonable oppo its worth.

A Wealthy Farm The town has a ren ful situation between flank the magnificent way. For many mile the rich valleys and hills extend. Con houses are capacious ple evidence of a dep ty among the tillers as a few rural commu enior. The Scotch ties predominate. a few years ago to the tokens of thrift and consistent progr such a well-to-do env deed fortunate.

A Thriving Campbellford itself impression of stability hustling progress. O whole streets of ne over night for the t men. There has been has been slow. Per homes of substantial been built within the and the population from 2900 in 1907 present time. There is not a vac in the entire town. Campbellford has f tries—the Weston Sea Valley Woollen Mills umberland Paper Co. son Bridge Co. All buy and some are co night shifts to comp The town has not

"Yes, John," she said, "I've come back to you."

"Doctor, You Leave This to Me."

"Listen! Listen to Me! Ansel Coffin is Dead."

JAM'S R

Big Loss to P Caught Fro

(Special to The MOUNTAIN VIEW, tween ten and eleven, ming Jaa. R. Anderson this place were total fire. The windmill generated sparks and the roof ignited it. The top of the roof soon fell and the neighborly scene, many comm large herd of cattle as were in the stable. Through the timely large band of willing stock was driven out drive-house located ne also soon a mass of some time it looked could not be saved. Wind was carrying a