PEOPLE HAVE SUFFERED, SAYS
THE INSPECTOR

Inspector Lambe, of the Department of Inland Revenue, Makes Report

All Depends Now on What Will Be Done to Purify the Product.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The report made by A. J. Lambe of the inland revenue department, into the conditions surrounding the distribution of Tilbury gas in Western Ontario has been submitted to the minister and bears out the charges that were made with regard to serious conditions in the Brantford and Hagersville districts. Inspector Lambe visited not only these districts, but all others where the Tilbury gas is in use, he saw the means taken in Southwestern Ontario to avoid the nuisance complained of in Brantford, Paris and other places, and he makes several recommendations that are of importance.

Much will depend as to the solution upon the success or otherwise of the effort which the Dominion Gas Company claims to be making to solve the question of purification at the source of supply. Full particulars of this have not been forthcoming, but they are expected and will be reported on later.

Keep Close Watch.
"In the meantime," says the inspector, "I regard it as most important that the situation be kept closely in touch with all this summer, in order to see that everything is being done to have matters in shape when the heavy domestic consumption starts next fall."

It is also recommended that in case wholesale purification fails there should be legislation passed that will require the most careful attention to all plumbing chimneys, etc. before a company is allowed to operate in any district. The inspector states it is his opinion that such legislation is needed in any case and proposes two acts, one for natural and one for manufactured gas.

In his report Mr. Lambe also draws attention to the enormous consumption of natural gas in Western Ontario,
in a consumption which he says bids fair to exhaust the fields in a comparatively short time.

"Natural gas is an almost priceless boon," the report adds, "and so with the idea of seeing whether some method cannot be found to conserve it,
I would esteem it a privilege to receive instructions to investigate and report upon the matter in company with an officer from the Conservation commission."

Essex, Kent and Lambton.
The inspection was not confined to the Brantford district, from which most of the complaints have come,
but extended also to other parts of the province where the same gas is being used. Particular investigation was made of conditions in Essex, Kent and Lambton. The report says that investigation shows that conditions in Windsor, Chatham and Sarnia may be unequivocally described as entirely satisfactory.

In the Brantford district the inspector found conditions the very reverse.
"I find that the very great majority of the complaints are entirely well founded," says the report, "and that the users of gas in the two foregoing districts (Brantford and Hagersville) have suffered very materially from the change, and are suffering still so much that were it not for the fact that a large part of the community is dependent upon the gas for heating, as well as for cooking, and to a lesser though still noticeable degree, for lighting, a demand would be made to have the gas turned off entirely."

The report goes on to deal with the reasons for the differences between the western district and the Brantford and Hagersville districts.
No Preparations.
"The explanation of the two so totally different results is undoubtedly this, says the report: "namely, that no preparation to receive the gas was made in either of the two latter districts, though such preparations were obviously necessary. In other words, a gas of high sulphur content, and one therefore requiring special precautions for its use, such as closed stoves, good chimney draughts with large flues thereto, tight plumbing, and, if used for lighting without purification, ventilation that is a practical impossibility, was without notice and at the very worst time of the year turned into communities that had previously been furnished with a clean gas and which were consequently using it with but few precautions. Inevitably serious damage must result from such action as evidenced by the present storm of protests."

WOULD BREAK
GOVERNMENT
PARTY SYSTEM

Convention of Labor Men in City of Bradford, England, Saturday.

Determined Attack on the Cabinet Methods of Legislation.

MONTREAL, April 13.—On Saturday there assembled in Bradford, England, some 500 delegates representing 30,000 members of the Independent Labor party, says a London cable to the Daily Mail.

Politically the dominating note of the present conference is the determined attack made upon the party system at present obtaining. The advent of an organized labor party has already played "drinks and drakes" with the accepted conventions of the age long comfiter of Wings and Tories, but the extreme wing of the party is agitating with the already modified condition of affairs. War absolute is declared upon both the party system and its logical outcome—cabinet government.

The parliamentary policy of the party, it is suggested, should be based upon an attempt to win and hold all seats by a combined Labor and Socialist vote, and that the possibilities of the defeat of the government of the day, the precipitation of a general election, the imminence of a general election, retaliatory attacks on seats already held (or sweepingly another reason should not deter the party from fighting every division wherein exists the near remote chance of securing an electo-rally victory. One section of the I.
L. P. demands even more drastic action and suggests abstinence from the exercise of the franchise when no labor candidate is in the field;
whilst yet another section refuses to hold one seat on a double mem-bered constituency, by the grace of one of the older parties. The pursuer of this policy for the district constituencies is urged upon Labor as worthy of adoption on the floor of the House of Commons as a further means to the end of securing the breakdown of the present system and the ultimate breakup of the process which renders impossible the real consideration of any other legislative measures than those which have received cabinet approval and adoption.

Further items of the I. L. P. policy are vehement opposition to increased expenditure on armaments and any budget which does not provide a substantial reduction of food taxes.

BITTER FEELING

Is Aroused Over the Removal of Father Fallon From Ottawa.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
OTTAWA, April 13.—The bitter feeling aroused over the removal of Father Fallon from Ottawa University was shown in the Easter collections at St. Joseph's church yesterday. The collection is usually a very large one, but there was a marked falling off in Sunday's returns. It is understood that some of the envelopes simply contained cards with such remarks as "nothing doing until Father Fallon comes back," though the church authorities are very reti-cent about the matter. The size of the collection has a direct bearing on the situation, because the proceeds of all collections, in excess of the needs for upkeep of the church, go to the oblate order for the support of Ottawa University.

Four "Gunmen" Who Were Executed This Morning

"LEFTY LOUIE" ROSENBERG DAGO FRANK "WHITEY" LEWIS HARRY HOROWITZ

Is Merely a Matter
Of Straight Business

The Board of Water Commissioners have laid down a hard-and-fast rule that no mains will be extended beyond the city limits, but a service will be given to those people living on the outside of boundary streets. The commissioners, Mr. A. G. Montgomery dissenting, consider that it is merely a matter of business to give the service and entails no additional capital expenditure. The township residents so situated must pay, under the Act, double rates, and they must also pay the entire charge of connections. Moreover, under their agreement, the city, if a shortage of water should ensue, can cut the supply to the outside off at a moment's notice. The commissioners think that there will be no shortage, and that by giving the service a maximum revenue will be secured on the cost of laying the mains along boundary streets, a cost which must be met for the benefit of those living within the city.

Four Brants Will Remain Unchanged

Although redistribution bills are before both the Dominion and Provincial Houses of Parliament, which will effect many changes in the make-up of various electoral constituencies, it was intimated to the Courier that, as far as the four Brants are concerned, there will be no changes in their boundaries, and it will be a case of all four Brants being left as they are. If there are any changes, they will be of a minor nature, but it is regarded as unlikely that any will be effected.

HON. GEO. H. PERLEY

Says Government Will Capture Several More Quebec Seats Next Time.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
OTTAWA, April 13.—Hon. Geo.
H. Perley, who returned to-day from his political tour of the Eastern townships, says the French-Canadian people there have been misled on the naval question. They are opposed to the Laurier policy, he declared, but are ready to do their duty to the empire, and when the Borden policy was explained to them they immediately saw its wisdom. The minister says there is also much dissatisfaction in Quebec over the fact that the Senate turned down the highways aid bill, there being a strong good road feeling in the province, and that at the next general election the government will win several seats on these grounds.

AGENT'S LICENSE

A Fee of $5.00 to be Charged to Insurance Men Under Act.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
TORONTO, April 13.—Should the amendment to the insurance act proposed in an act which the government will bring before the Ontario Legislature pass, all insurance agents in the province will require to get a license at a cost of $5 each. One local broker said he would like to see it become law as hundreds of people not regular agents add to their incomes from time to time by writing insurance premiums. In this city there are about five hundred regular agents of various fire, accident, life and other insurance companies, and as many more men who do a little on the side. All these people would require to be licensed.

Got Scared

Armed Foreigner Raises
a Rumpus in District of Mt. Vernon.

Farmers in the Mount Vernon section of Burford, got badly scared on Saturday night when it was rumored that a man who appeared to be a foreigner was roaming about the district armed with a revolver. That there was some reason for the scare, was proved by the story which comes from the farm of Mr. William Mott.

Two young men went down to the barn to feed and water the horses for the night at about eight o'clock and they had almost finished their task
when they heard a noise in the hay loft above them. Thinking that it was some wayfarer and being generously disposed, one of the youths went into the loft to speak to the intruder and fix him up for the night. No sooner had he entered than a man sprang at him and grappled with him, producing an old revolver at the same time, which he endeavored to fire. It would not work and by this time the attention of the second youth was called by the cries of his friend.
Shouting "I kill you, I kill you" and waving the pistol frantically, the man decamped and left behind a badly frightened youth. Search made subsequently and continued on Sunday,
failed to show any trace of the man, who was wearing a short coat and cap, and was very rough and unkempt in appearance. The whole district was in a state of qui-vive last night, but nothing happened and it is thought that the man has left the district.

MUSIC TEACHERS MEET.

LONDON, Ont., April 13.—Music teachers from all over Western Ontario arrived in London to-day to attend a convention to be held this afternoon and evening at the London Conservatory of Music under the auspices of the Western University. The purpose of the convention is to organize an association of music teachers with the ultimate idea of obtaining legislation for the protection of the members of the profession.

BECKER NOT CONCERNED IN GRIM AFFAIR

Execution of Four Gunmen
Did Not Bother Man Who Gets New Trial

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
NEW YORK, April 13.—Charles
S. Becker was the most watched prisoner in the Tombs yesterday.
Every prisoner wished to know how he had taken the decision of Justice Goff that the gunmen could not have a new trial.
Becker himself said nothing. He went through the usual routine and took his exercise, attended services, and went to his cell. His face was drawn, his lips a bit closer together, but to those who watched him he gave no outward evidence of his thoughts.

There were now visitors except newspapermen. To these he refused to comment on the decision of Justice Goff, or the approaching death of the four men, who, Rose, Vallon, Schepps and Webber say, carried his orders to slay Rosenthal.

Last night he was in bed at 10 o'clock. Becker read the papers eagerly all day yesterday. Scanning them carefully for any straw that might help his own case when he is again placed on trial. At his suggestion his counsel, Joseph Shay, had obtained stenographic notes of the proceedings before Justice Goff on Saturday, and these will be tested for their availability in the defence of the former police lieutenant is preparing.

A CONFESSION

Signed Statement of Made by the Four New York Gunmen.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
OSSINGING, N. Y., April 13.—It was reported here this afternoon that Frank Cirofici, before being put to death this morning, made a confession
to Warden Clancy and Father Cashin, in which he admitted that justice had been done. "Dago Frank" is said to have stated that while he was not present at the murder of Rosenthal, Harry Horowitz, Louis Rosenberg
and Harry Vallon did the shooting.
It was further reported that Cirofici said that none of the gunmen had known, previous to the shooting, that Police Lieutenant Charles Becker was concerned in the affair. The confession is said to have been signed and is now on its way to Governor Glynn.

Where Easter
Was Chilly

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
MONTREAL, April 13.—With the thermometer registering ten degrees of frost, with a gale blowing and snow falling heavily at intervals, the Province of Quebec experienced this morning the close of one of the coldest and most unpleasant Easters on record. The storm broke windows all over the city and put a part of the city's electric light system out of commission for a part of last night.

THIS FIGHT
WILL BE ONE OF INTEREST

Injunction Against Tilbury Gas in Hagersville.

One Merchant Starts
Action in the Courts Himself.

TORONTO, April 13.—John Edward Titchmarsh of Hagersville, has such a poor opinion of Tilbury gas that he has begun a legal fight not only against the Regal Natural Gas Company of Hagersville, but against the municipality thereof. Mr. Titch-marsh is very much in earnest, and Osgoode Hall will witness most of the warfare. Municipalities have hurled bricks and other missiles at Tilbury gas, but not every day does a lone knight engage in the lists single handed.
Mr. Titchmarsh says that the gas supplied by "J. H. Hager, trading as the Regal Natural Gas Company" is so powerful and pervasive that it can be detected half a mile away, and that it does things that ought not to do.
Enumerating its alleged peculiarities, Titchmarsh says that the Hagersville gas comes from Tilbury wells,
while it ought to come from Walpole wells. He charges that it is unwholesome and offensive, that it blackens silver, damages varnish and that it is detrimental to health.
According to Titchmarsh, the by-laws under which Hager's company has a franchise, calls for gas from Walpole wells, but the Walpole gas goes to Hamilton, where it realizes an enhanced price.

Mr. Titchmarsh invokes the power of the court in compelling the mun-cipality and the company to carry out the original agreement, under which the people of Hagersville would receive Walpole gas.

Gyp the Blood

He Formerly Worked in Telegraph Office in Toronto.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
TORONTO, April 13.—Harry Horowitz or "Gyp the Blood" one of the gunmen, who was electrocuted in New York this morning for the murder of Rosenthal, was for three months in the summer of 1912 a "clerk boy" in the office of the G. N. W. Telegraph Company here.
"He was atypical street boy with all the sharpness and most of vices of his kind," said a man who knew him.
"He devoured dime novels and talked like the heroes in them, but he was not all bad for once, when checked for profanity by a man in the office,
who takes an interest in the boys,
young Horowitz burst into tears and said he had no bringing up, but had just been dragged up."

To this man, he later gave his confession, and told him that his father was an international crook and was wanted in several countries. The boy left a good record for work in the telegraph office and there was nothing against him when he left. He had a deep knowledge of the seamy side of life and was familiar with the tricks of card sharps and gamblers.

LATE REV. PILKEY
LONDON, Ont., April 13.—The death of Rev. John C. Pilkey, occurred at his residence in this city Saturday morning. Rev. Mr. Pilkey had been connected with the Baptist church for almost 30 years. Some of his recent charges were Kerwood, Brighton, Mount Brydges and Florence. In Baptist affairs throughout the Western Ontario, he has long been prominent. He was in his 60th year and is survived by his wife
one son and three daughters.

PAID PENALTY
IN THE CHAIR
AT SING SING

Four Notorious Gunmen
Were Executed Early
This Morning.

Distressing Scenes Were Witnessed as the Men Went to Death.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)
SING SING PRISON, Ossining,
N. Y., April 13.—The four gunmen convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, died in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison at the break of dawn this Easter Monday morning. None confessed his guilt and none mentioned the name of Charles Becker, the former police lieutenant, found guilty of instigating the murder, but saved by court of appeals reversal. Of the four who died, Frank Seidenshner ("Whitey Lewis") made the only statement. Even he did not flatly assert his innocence.
"Gentlemen," he mumbled, as they strapped him in the chair, "I did not shoot at Rosenthal. They who said I did was perjurers. For the sake of justice, gentlemen, I say I didn't.
The witness, Stannah..."
"Whitey" did not finish the sentence. The harness had been adjusted and the current shot his body forward in the chair. He had meant to say that Stannah, a waiter and a witness at the murder trial, had lied,
but death intervened.

Seidenshner was the second man
to die. "Dago Frank" (Frank Cirofici) came first. "Gyp the Blood" (Harry Horowitz) was third and "Lefty Louie" (Louis Rosenberg) last. In forty minutes [that all four were despatched. This time would have been shortened had it not been for the overcrowding of newspaper reporters. Their numbers necessitated a shifting of witnesses for each execution.

There was no untoward incident throughout the procedure. All walked quietly to their doom, and only their quaking knees and the sickly green pallor of their faces attested that the realization of death was upon them.
William E. Cashin, Roman Catholic chaplain of the prison, accompanied Dago Frank to the chair. With Whitey Lewis and Gyp, the blood was Rabbi Joseph Goldstein of New York. Rabbi Mayer Kopstein, long the spiritual adviser of the Rosenberg family, stood by Lefty Louie.
Priest and rabbi alike averted their drawn faces from the chair of death, meaningly struggling to control their choking throats as they intoned a prayer for the dying.

"Gentlemen," said Rabbi Goldstein, as he left the death chamber,
"If you ask me whether the Jewish boys were guilty, I will say I do not know. They did not confess to me.
As for the Italian, I do not believe he was at the scene of the crime. I do not think any of them should have been convicted on the testimony offered."

An anaemic moon still hung in the sky when those who were to witness the executions, gathered in front of the prison. The air was chill, and a raw wind swept across the Hudson which binds the prison at the west.
Faint lights glimmered at corridor ends of the buildings, but no sound came from within. The hideous noises which convicts have been said to emit when one or more of their number is to die, were spared those who waited.

Dawn was just creeping over the hills when the witnesses were admitted to the bare court yard of the death house. Many were aghast faced and trembling. From a printed list a clerk read off the names of those who were to see the first man die.
A moment more and the door of the death chamber had closed behind them. Warden Clancy had announced that "Gyp the Blood" would die
first, followed by "Lefty Louie," "Dago Frank" and "Whitey Lewis." But as it transpired, the man who first came through the little iron door at the right was "Dago Frank." He had shown signs of collapsing, and it was deemed expedient to shield him from the ordeal of waiting.

State Electrician Davis carefully tested the electric current by sending it through a series of incandescent lights that glowed brilliantly on a board, which lay across the stout arms of the electric chair.
"Two of these men have told me that they will make a statement," announced Warden Clancy, "and under no circumstances must anyone ask them any questions."

The Resurrection

Was the Theme in Pulpit and Choir in the City Churches on Sunday—Many Beautiful Services.

AT GRACE CHURCH

Easter was fittingly celebrated in a manner customary to the Church of England at Grace Church yesterday. Many communicants attended early morning service, and large congregations gathered at the morning and evening celebrations. Special psalms and hymns were rendered for the occasion. At the morning service the Rev. Alec Mackenzie gave the sermon, and took as his text the words "If ye then be risen again, think that these are from above." He contended that the resurrection of Christ was an historical fact. This could be verified in history. But we did not need historical verification. Every year we felt the influence of that resurrection. We felt the need of Christ, and this was brought before us more at Easter than at any other time. Flowers which bloomed every spring showed the power of life over death, just as Christ had demonstrated at His resurrection. Eastertide was commemorated during spring. Jesus was the perfect man and that which goes to make the perfect man was of God Himself. People have only a very moderate opinion of their capabilities, for with God behind us we could be a great power for good. We ought not to ask so much for help but have more confidence in our own capabilities. Our influence in our own circle has proved because we have failed to hear the call. Let us make a fresh effort this Easter to work for God.

SYDENHAM STREET

The services in Sydenham street church on Easter Sunday were of an exceptionally interesting character. At the morning service the attendance was exceptionally large and Pastor Snyder preached on "The Greatest Event in Ancient or Modern Times." A feature of the services was the wearing of surplices by the choir. Many complimentary references were made as to their appearance and suitability to the musical service. It was an experiment and the matter will be taken up and discussed and a decision arrived at as to whether they will be used regularly or not. At the evening service the church was crowded to its capacity to hear the Easter cantata "The Resurrection and the Life" put on by the choir. The effort was a splendid one and reflected much credit on the organist and choir leader, Mr. A. R. Knott and his choir of 28 voices. Among the selections rendered were "The Earth in Darkness Lies" choir; solo and duet, "The Lament of the Women," the Misses A. and H. Huffman; male chorus, "The Earthquake"; "O Death Where is Thy Sting" choir; quartette and solo, "Fear Ye Not"; "Pax Vobis" and Messrs. Earthy, Scruton and Currie; "Rejoice and Sing Praises" choir; solo, "Our Saviour Lives," Mr. A. Sugg; "Victory" choir. The choir were complimented on their work by many of the audience and it is possible that it may be repeated. The pastor is beginning a campaign to secure new members, and separate meetings will be held for both ladies and gentlemen on Wednesdays. The evening service will be followed by a series of sermons and addresses. There were 203 present at Sunday school. The League Missionary Department are showing stereopticon views on the life of Dr. Thomas Crosby to-night.

FIRST BAPTIST.

Before large congregations at both services yesterday. Rev. Llewellyn Brown preached two able sermons on subjects befitting Easter observance. In the morning he preached on the "By Products of the Resurrection" and in the evening "The Easter Hope." The church was packed at the evening service to hear Rev. Mr. Brown.

Special Easter music by the choir assisted by Miss E. Phipps and Mr. J. A. Harold was rendered by the choir.

In the morning the choir rendered Field's Easter Carol, "Christ Is Risen" in an excellent manner. Miss Leslie Senn sang in splendid voice, Tosie's "Resurrexit." Miss Senn has a beautiful voice which captivated her audience and her rendition of this solo was all that could be desired. In the anthem "Awake and Sing" Miss R. Hutchinson took the solo part in excellent manner.

In the evening Mr. J. A. Harold sang Brainer's Hosanna in his usual splendid voice.

The choir assisted by Miss E. Phipps and a mixed quartette rendered the anthem "The Resurrection" by Shelley.

Miss R. Hutchinson's solo, "Come See the Place Where the Lord Lay," was particularly well rendered and brought out the finer qualities of this young lady's voice.

The choir sang unaccompanied Sankey's beautiful hymn "This Resurrection Morn'" in splendid harmony. In his sermon Rev. Mr. Brown told of the Resurrection of Christ and the message this event brings to our lives.

COLBORNE ST. METHODIST

Before a large congregation which filled Colborne St. Methodist Church last night, Rev. T. E. Holling, the pastor, gave a short address on the Easter message. The church was appropriately decorated with lilies and other beautiful flowers for the Easter occasion, and the choir rendered special music at both services.

In the morning, Mrs. Leeming sang Shelley's "The Resurrection" in splendid voice, and Miss Butler took the soprano solo in the anthem, King of Kings, by Simper. At the evening service the pastor gave up his time to the choir, under Mr. G. C. White, who rendered a number of beautiful anthems. Mr. White gave a short organ recital before the evening service. The choir sang the beautiful anthem, Lift Up Your Heads, in splendid harmony. A male quartette composed of Messrs Sills, Ayliffe, Smith and Hills sang Low in the Grave He Lay, in an admirable manner. Mr. J. B. Hills sang the beautiful Easter solo, entitled "The Trumpet Shall Sound, to the satisfaction of everyone.

Mrs. Leeming sang in exceptionally good voice, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth."

The choir rendered with splendid tact, taste and power a number of choruses, notably, "Since by Man came death, by man also came the Resurrection" and "Worthy is the Lamb that was Slain." Some good recitation work was done in the carol "Behold I show you a mystery."

BRANT AVE. METHODIST

Easter Sunday was observed in the Brant Avenue Methodist church yesterday by special services at both morning and evening. In the morning Rev. A. E. Lavell, the pastor, preached a short sermon on the Easter text, "The Lord Reigneth." Rev. Mr. Lavell reviewed the oft-told story of the resurrection of Christ, how He died, was nailed to the cross and arose again in three days. Mr. Lavell pointed out that all down through the ages, Christ has reigned supreme and will continue to do so forever.

At the morning service the choir was assisted by a children's choir of about forty voices, who sang a number of the organist's, Mr. H. K. Jordan, carols, in exceptionally good voice. Much credit is due Mr. Jordan for the result of his careful training. The music at both services was exceptionally good. The choir wore for the first time their white surplice gowns and black hats.

The children's choir sang very sweetly in the morning "Ring out ye Bells," by H. K. Jordan; "Softly fall the Rain," (Jordan); "Let the merry church bells ring" (Jordan), and assisted the regular choir in the carol "Christ is Risen," (Jordan). Miss Marjory Sweet sang in excellent voice Mark Andrew's "Easter Dawn."

At the evening service the music was all from Handel's Messiah, consisting of choruses, and a splendid solo by Miss Evans of London, who sang "I know that my Redeemer Liveth."

Both services were largely attended and attentively listened to.

PARK BAPTIST

The Rev. C. W. Rose took his Easter message from John 19 chap. 41st verse, and 12th chapter and 24th verse. Round these words "With and without a grave," he wove many beautiful and inspiring thoughts.

The world, a garden, with a grave of sorrow, heaven joy without the grave. We must live and die to rise again in the exalted life of the Lord Jesus, and the only thing to that great future, which we require, is faith.

The choir sang the anthems Glory of the Lord, and The Way of the Cross, with Mr. G. Roberts as soloist.

Tarzan of The Apes

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS
Copyright, 1912, by the Frank A. Munsey Company.

In an instant they were in a hand to hand fight with some fifty black warriors of Mbonga's village. Arrows and bullets flew thick and fast.

Queer African knives and French gun butts mingled for a moment in savage and bloody duels, but soon the natives fled into the jungle, leaving the Frenchmen to count their losses.

There was but one thing to do—make camp where they were until daylight. This work was not completed until long after dark, the men building a huge fire in the center of the clearing to give them light to work by.

When all was as safe as could be made from the attack of wild beasts and savage men Lieutenant Charpentier placed sentries about the little camp, and the tired and hungry party threw themselves upon the ground to sleep.

The groans of the wounded, mingled with the roaring and growling of the great beasts, kept sleep except in its most fitful form from the tired eyes. It was a sad and hungry party that lay through the long night praying for dawn.

The blacks who had seized D'Arnot had not waited to participate in the fight. They hurried their prisoner along, the sounds of battle growing fainter and fainter as they drew away from the contestants until there suddenly broke upon D'Arnot's vision a good sized clearing, at one end of which stood a thatched and palisaded village.

A cry went up within the palisade. A great throng of women and children rushed out to meet the party.

And then began for the French officer the most terrifying experience which man can encounter upon earth—the reception of a white prisoner into a village of African cannibals.

They fell upon D'Arnot tooth and nail, beating him with sticks and stones and tearing at him with claw-like hands. Every vestige of clothing was torn from him, and the merciless blows fell upon his bare and quivering flesh.

But not once did the Frenchman cry out in pain. A silent prayer rose that he be quickly delivered from his torture.

The death he prayed for was not to be so easily had. Soon the warriors beat the women away from their prisoner.

He was to be saved for nobler sport than this, and, the first wave of their passion having subsided, they contented themselves with crying out taunts and insults and spitting upon him.

Presently they gained the center of the village. There D'Arnot was bound securely to the great post from which no live man had ever been released.

A number of the women scattered to the several huts to fetch pots and water, while others built a row of fires on which portions of the feast were to be boiled.

The festivities were delayed, awaiting the return of the warriors who had remained to engage in the skirmish with the white men, so that it was quite late when all were in the village and the dance of death commenced to circle around the doomed officer.

Half fainting from pain and exhaustion, D'Arnot watched what seemed but a vagary of delirium or some horrid nightmare from which he must soon awake. He closed his eyes and held his teeth firm set. He would not cry out.

THE WESTERN DEMAND.

Mr. J. G. Tarriff, Liberal member for Assiniboia, made no bones about the selfish demands of the West for the abolition of the duties on agricultural implements when he was speaking in the Dominion House upon the budget debate.

He quoted prices of same in Winnipeg and Minneapolis in order to show that charges were lower in the latter place than in the former.

Mr. Tarriff, of course, forgot to mention the greater difference in the distance between Chicago and Minneapolis and Toronto, Hamilton and Brantford, the leading Ontario centres which send implements to the Canadian North-West, also for that reason the necessarily higher freight rates. Furthermore, he knows right well that with the barriers down U.S. manufacturers of such implements would be much closer to the Prairie Provinces than the Ontario ditto.

While arguing for that competition at the expense of Western industries, Mr. Tarriff, in the same speech, also contended for free wheat, on the ground that Western farmers would get higher prices for it across the border and thus, of course, increase the rate charged for flour at present on this side.

If the agriculturists of the West, because of the longer haul from the Canadian factories, have to pay a little more for such implements, they should not grumble. It was largely money cheerfully given by the people of Ontario which has enabled them to secure three continental lines for their transportation facilities, and also Government-owned elevators.

In addition, why should they seek to jeopardize the splendid home market of the farmers of this province—a market largely built up because of the industrial establishments which employ many thousands of hands in this portion of the Dominion?

Tarriff is essentially of a certain class in the West which is totally lacking in an appreciation of the fact that there must be some give-and-take between the varied interests of this vast Dominion.

THE STATES AND MEXICO.

Mr. Hearst, United States publisher, possesses a chain of papers in the leading cities which possess a combined circulation of some hundreds of thousands.

When he first invaded New York, some years ago, as a young man, with a fortune made by his father, also in the newspaper business, he purchased the Journal of that city, and most members of the fourth estate there speculated how long it would be before his dad had disappeared.

It didn't do that—very far from it. Hearst showed himself at once in his methods to be a yellow of the "yellows," and, unfortunately, it is human experience that there is a large class who like that kind of thing. Following his New York success, he started or acquired other papers in other cities, and they are all busily shrieking each day:

1—That it is the bounden duty of President Wilson to send armed forces into Mexico.

2—That President Wilson has knuckled down to John Bull in the Panama Canal matter, and that he is in reality under the dictatorship of the British Government.

In frantic tones these journals are asking if what Washington won is to be thus lightly thrown away, and a lot more buncombe of a like nature.

With regard to the sending of American troops into the land of the sombrero, it should be remembered that in such an event all the contending factions would most likely get together on behalf of resisting a power which they regard as a common enemy. Our neighbors do not maintain a very large standing army, and the number is supplemented by fewer than two hundred thousand members of the States militia. The Mexicans, on the other hand, already have splendidly-armed forces in the field, which numerically are very much larger than those which Uncle Sam could at once place into action. Moreover, these for the most part half Indian and half Spanish troops are born fighters and relentless in their methods. No one doubts what our neighbors would finally accomplish once they made up their minds, but it would be at an awful cost, and when conquered, history has shown that it would only be nominally so.

In fact, there would be a cleaning-up job far worse than that which has had to be undertaken in the Philippines. In all likelihood it is some such considerations as these which are causing President Wilson and his advisers to stand pat.

With reference to the claim that Wilson is under British dictatorship to about the extent which existed before the War of Independence, that also is such an absurdity as to deceive nobody except the extremely ignorant and the wilfully vicious. All that the President has done with regard to the Canal is to insist that the word and the honor of the nation must be kept with regard to the pledge of equal toll treatment for all nations, and in this determination he is heartily upheld by a vast proportion of the people, and practically all of the newspapers of any standing.

In this regard it is worthy of note that Senator Gore of Oklahoma recently sent a letter to each of the delegates to the Democratic convention which passed the exemption for U. S. coastwise ships. Of the 418 delegates who took part, 338 have replied declaring for the President's policy, 11 are non-committal, and only 69 remain as upholding the clause. Most of them declare that they did not know that the free tolls plank was in the platform when they helped to adopt the same.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The four New York gunmen have expiated their crime in the electric chair, while Lieut. Becker, the man who inspired them, has been reprieved for a new trial!

In the Old Land a suffragette hit a labor leader, who was speaking, with a bag of flour. The sweet thing had much better have been at home turning it into dough.

A despatch announces that the suffragettes in Europe are seeking to "freeze out" Sylvia Pankhurst, who is on a lecture tour there. They evidently don't realize the kind of warm baby Sylvia happens to be.

The President of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, at the Easter service in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York, placed a cheque for $500,000 on the collection plate on condition that if accepted he should be made a member of the choir. This was done with alacrity, and maybe the members will finally consider him as dear at the price. At any rate, he has secured a first-class singer ad.

The death is announced of Mr. H. H. Cook, a veteran lumberman of high repute. It was he who charged in 1890 that he had been offered a seat in the Senate in return for $10,000 towards the Liberal campaign fund of that year. There was an investigation by a committee of the Upper Chamber, and the Grit majority in the same asserted there was nothing to prove the statement.

Replying to a deputation at Quebec which urged a Dominion Government grant towards the establishment of a branch of the famous Armstrong shipbuilding yards there, Hon. Mr. Pelletier, on behalf of the administration, stated that such could not be given. It had been decided that while the Borden Government is ready and willing to give every reasonable encouragement to the promotion of the shipbuilding industry in Canada, and will insist that all vessels for the Canadian service must be built within the confines of the Dominion in future, it has no intention of establishing a precedent by subsidizing wealthy and powerful British concerns to enter the Canadian field and compete with this added advantage against the companies already established.

Uncle Walt The Poet Philosopher

WEARY OLD FATHER. When Father eats his supper, and sits him down to read a book by Edith Tupper, or, peradventure "Queed," oh let him sit in quiet until the evening's through, and do not raise a riot o'er things he ought to do. Too often Weary Father can find at home no peace, his folks raise such a pothor, their clamors never cease. It's "Dad, go split some kindling before you have some fun; the little pile is dwindling, and soon there will be none." "Oh, Daddy, says the daughter, "I wish yourself you'd hump, and bring eight tubs of water, and then some, from the pump!" "Our Noah's ark is busted," complain the little boys, and Father, sad, disgusted, begins to grieve the toys. "The cow is in the garden," shrieks Ma, "and you sit there, so help me Dolly Varden, and do not seem to care!" From suppertime to bedtime the old man's on the go, until his seeing-red time will cause some blood to flow. Some day, beneath the pressure, his brain will seem to blur, and then from here to Cheshire, he'll strew the earth with fur. His endless worries rend him, they come in such a batch, and soon we'll have to send him to some one's booby hatch.

A Tribute to Chief Finch Prominent American Engineer Writes to Guelph Paper.

The Guelph Daily Herald reproduces a letter from Mr. Goodwin Lee, editor of the Fire Engineer, published in New York, which deals with the ability and character of ex-Chief Leslie Finch, who just recently resigned his position as head of the Guelph Fire Department.

Mr. Lee roundly scores the city officials of Guelph for the attitude they held to Chief Finch. Although he never met him Mr. Lee states that he knew Chief Finch as a man of high character and standing as a Fire Engineer. The following is an extract from Mr. Lee's letter, which will interest Brantford people, who knew Chief Finch, who was for a number of years head of the Massey-Harris Fire Department here.

"I don't know Chief Finch personally, have never met him, but I do know of him, and of the character of his work and his standing as a Fire Engineer.

Maybe you people are a bit too close to him to see the man and his department in proper and just perspective, but here are his proportions in the eyes and estimation of men who are competent to determine his professional value: Earnest he is, honest, very capable, an administrator, a student of conditions, a close and accurate reasoner, prompt to act, efficiency and reliability of the highest order. Ample able to command and to develop, under even fair conditions, the values of a fire department of any city of the first class.

Does Guelph realize that in Chief Finch it has a man who as a fire engineer would be an asset of value to any city?

Does Guelph realize that prevention is the key to reduction of fire loss and decrease of fire insurance rates, and that in Finch it possesses a master of prevention methods, of which your city knows, Mr. Editor, that economy lies in spending, not in saving?

I have no interest in this matter personal to Chief Finch. My interest lies in the matter itself. The gross stupidity of it, as it is given, hurts.

Here we are not unused to the nepotism of politic ridden communities. I had thought and hoped that you in Canada do things differently.

To The Editor

THE INDIAN PROBLEM.

To the Editor,— I trust you may favor me by finding space in your paper to print the following in defense of the Six Nation Indians. I have long thought of and wished to express myself on the probable future of the Six Nation Indians in their relations with the government, and the reforms necessary in the administrations of their affairs. In order to set forth succinctly a reform it is first necessary to set forth as clearly and forcibly as possible the evil to be reformed. That evil, I believe, and I am not alone in this belief. Is the reservation system. The reform is all summed up in the words, "Abolish it"—but not in the way of the proposed amendment to the Indian Act, as reported on your paper a short time ago. That can never be. Even if the government had the power to do so. Canada and the Canadian people can not afford to bring such a disgrace and blot upon the flag and country. Such a thing would be monstrous, barbarous, in this enlightened age of civilization and Christianity. The only honourable, just way to deal with it—is make them citizens one and all—the Indian Bureau ought to be taken at once and forever out of politics—for it should never have been in politics. The government should appoint a man most expert in dealing with Indian affairs, and instruct him to bring the Six Nations Department to a close at the earliest possible moment. Give the Indians, individually—whether man or woman, the deeds of the property they hold, which they brought into this country from the United States and entrusted to the care of the from the sales of their land here. They have plenty and are prosperous. They can pay taxes as well as any race of people. Then if there are Brantfordites who wish to possess any of that land, why go about the buying of it as men, as true Canadians, and you will find just as true men, and true Canadians to deal with. Cease to treat the Indians as red man and treat him as a man; treat him as we treat the Hungarians, Italians, Scandinavians; many of them are no better able to take care of themselves than the lowest of the lower class of Indians. They are not shut up in reservations and put in charge of politically appointed parents called agents—but we have thrown on them the responsibility of their own custody and they have learned to live by living. The future relations of the Six Nation Indians with the Government should be precisely the same as the relations of any other individual.

Troubles of Chief Finch

Resignation is Culmination of Two Years of Rough Going.

GUELPH, April 13.—Fire Chief Leslie G. Finch has tendered his resignation. The resignation is the culmination of the troublesome times of the past two years at the fire-hall. It is understood that the chief intends to bring actions for unstated damages against the City of Guelph and also against certain individuals. He claims that ever since he came to Guelph he has not had a fair chance, and that it has been impossible to make any headway in the department. An investigation into fire-hall matters was held in 1912, and the chief was exonerated from blame. The investigation was, however, a farce, the evidence being unsworn. A few weeks ago five of the permanent men walked out, and charged the chief with showing favoritism by recommending one man an increase in wages and leaving out the rest. The chief alleges that this walk-out was incited by certain members of the City Council. The chief contends that all the trouble he has had since coming to Guelph has resulted from his reputation as a fire chief, and he has been forced to seek other means of livelihood, though being the basis of the action he proposes.

PEOPLE HAVE SUFFERED

The inspector points out that had all stoves chimneys, plumbing, etc., been in proper shape and individual purifiers installed where necessary, there would probably have been little complaint, but none of these things were done, the gas being turned in quite without warning. "As soon as the Tilbury gas was turned on," he says, "complaints came from every direction that it furnished silver, blackened picture frames, killed house plants, spoiled wall paper, and caused headaches and severe coughing fits, if not serious illness, etc., in short, that it was most disagreeable and unsatisfactory in every way and shape."

Bears Out All Charges

It will be seen that the report of the inspector after full investigation bears out all the charges that were made when the matter was first brought to the attention of the Government by Messrs. Weichel and Fisher and later by the deputation of Western Ontario members that waited upon Hon. W. G. Weichel, Inspector Lambe adds that the description of conditions in the Brantford district applies with equal force to those in Hagersville and Jarvis.

Proceedings to deal with the question of a remedy for this state of affairs, the inspector points out that the Dominion Gas Company announced that it would build a purifier to take care of all the gas and expected to have it ready in three months. Later they telegraphed that it would be six months before any purification could be done. Further inquiries are now being made to learn just what the company intends to do and pending that finding no action is likely. Reference is made to the Brewster bill, now before the Legislature, which proposes to give power to any municipality to prevent not only the distribution within its bounds, but even the transmission of gas containing sulphuretted hydrogen.

As to the ultimate remedy for the conditions the inspector's report says that nothing much can be done until the success or otherwise of the proposed purification plant for Brantford district is demonstrated.

"If successful" he says, "I should form permanent solution satisfactory to everyone, and it will then be in order to consider to what extent purification should everywhere be further enforced than at present, for it cannot be gain-said that to the majority of consumers a purified gas, or at any rate, one containing not more than a limited amount of sulphuretted hydrogen, would be somewhat preferable to an unpurified one, price and other conditions remaining the same. On the other hand, for certain uses, such as under boilers or in gas engines I can see no advantage whatever in purification.

"If the process be unsuccessful, as is freely predicted, by many, then about all that can be done will be to make regulations governing the types of apparatus in which different gases may be used the conditions of plumbing, etc.; in fact, I would recommend that these latter questions be attended to in an case. Further I would recommend that in so doing two separate acts be compiled, one for natural gas and another one for manufactured gas, as their constituents being so different the apparatus in which they are used, so often of such opposite

PAID PENALTY IN THE CHAIR

The head and leg sponges were then wet and Headkeeper McInerney, acting on a signal from the warden went to the death cell. There he found Ciriofici in prayer with Father Cashin. The condemned man clutched a crucifix in each hand as he was led into the presence of death. He had to be supported by two keepers.

In the death cells could be heard the murmur of the other slayers in their supplications for mercy. The warden and attendants stepped back from the rubber mat.

"Oh God I meet my God" gasped the Italian. The state electrician turned the switch. The first contact was gradually reduced and then a second shock was given. The prison physicians Dr. Farr and Dr. Mereomo, with several other witnessing doctors applied the stethoscope and made other tests for life. "I pronounce this man dead," said Dr. Farr in a low voice. It was 5:43 o'clock. The group of witnesses left the death chamber and the body of "Dago Frank" was lifted by white-coated guards and taken to the autopsy room.

The warden, "Whitey's" lips continued to move and in the brief interval before death he made his declaration that he "had not shot at Rosenthal."

A current of 1920 volts, with a slightly higher amperage than had been used on Ciriofici took his life after two contacts. The switch was first closed at 5:43 and he was pronounced dead at 5:52.

Again the chamber was emptied and again filled with witnesses. At 5:56 "Gyp the Blood" was brought in. He had a Jewish prayer book in his left hand and Rabbi Goldstein walked by his side. "Listen, Israel, There is only one God," mumbled "Gyp" in Hebrew. His staring gaze swept the faces but aside from the prayer he made no statement to the witnesses.

The preliminaries were quickly arranged, the current was applied The death stifened until the leather straps and the hand tightened on the prayer book. Two shocks were given and at 6:02 o'clock physicians pronounced the man dead. The prayer book was removed from his tense hand and the body removed to the place of autopsy. "Lefty Louie" the last of the four to die and accordingly the keenest sufferer by reason of the dreaded interval of waiting entered the chamber at 6:07. The Jewish prayer book which he grasped he handed to Rabbi Kopfeinsten before the guard strapped him in the chair. Like "Gyp" he mumbled the strongest shall die last "Lefty" bore out by his uncanny resistance to the current. The first contact was given at 6:08, but it was not until 6:17 that he was pronounced dead. Three contacts were necessary. "He died hardest of the four," said the physicians.

An Injunction Against Sulphur

J. S. Titchmarsh, a seed merchant of Hagersville, has issued an injunction against the Regal Gas Company of that town to prevent the company from supplying sulphur gas. Mayor Spence received notice this morning of the legal proceedings which have been taken, and the case will be heard at Osgoode Hall on Thursday next. The Regal Company is a subsidiary of the Dominion Gas Company, which supplies Brantford.

Since he joined the Cubs, Bill Sweeney, the former Boston Brave, has hit well over the 300 mark in the practice games.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching, and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

City News Items

Building Permits Issued. More building permits were issued this morning by Building Inspector Bennett to Harry Crayston, 124 Nelson street, for a frame sleeping porch to cost $5; Watson Elliker 135 Northumberland street for a frame verandah to cost $75; M. B. O'Laughlin, 89 Grey Street, for a brick butcher shop to cost $150 and to John F. McCann, 14 Marlborough street, to remodel verandah and front and side of house at a cost of $90.

Keq of Beer Found.

Police Constables Rutherford and Tyrell discovered a keg of beer and two large empty flasks of whiskey when they entered the house of Maze Pazinski, at 58 Wadsworth street yesterday. Some drunkenness had been noticed and upon these officers investigating, they found Tom Kurez and another lodger at the house, drunk. The half drained keg and the empty flasks told their own story, and the sippers of the wine were taken to the lock-up where they will answer for their indiscreet behaviour.

Patrol Was Called.

A little too much booze and a number of foreigners were the cause of calling the patrol to Waterloo street last night. Some of the foreigners in that section got boisterous and started a free for all scrap with the result that one or two of them got pretty well beaten up, but when the police arrived on the scene only one could be seen and he was immediately taken into custody and lodged in the cells to get sober. He will appear before the Magistrate. Livingstone - tomorrow charged with disorderly conduct.

Records Broken.

Four local athletic records were broken at the junior Hexathlon, held at the Y. M. C. A., on Thursday afternoon. The team juniors made a very creditable record and made 1500 points which would last year have carried them to second place in these events of the Dominion. Robert Smith broke the 60 yards potato race record, previously held by Leslie Smith. His time was 15 seconds, which is 1-5 second better than record of March, 1911. Pinner broke the 100 yard potato race record in the time of 44-2-5. The fence vault record made, March 1911 by D. Ironside was broken by L. Verity, who vaulted 5 feet 11-4 inches. Perhaps the best performance was that of H. Waddington who beat the record shot put made in March, 1911, by three feet. His put was 39 feet 3 inches. The best all-round athlete was "Bob" Foster, whose points numbered 502 of the total of 1500. Waddington was a good second with 480 and Deagle a close third with 483 points.

Women's Institute

The regular monthly meeting of the Moyle-Tranquility Woman's Institute was held on Wednesday, the 8th, at the home of Mrs. Passmore, St. George Road. Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. J. J. Hurley, the vice-president, Mrs. R. Greenwood, very acceptably filled the chair. The opening consisted of music, role call and motto repeated. The minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. D. Clump, and adopted. A program followed. A very instructive paper on Helps in Spring Housecleaning, was ably given by Mrs. Lawrence Sanderson, which gave all present some good ideas in this arduous work. Mrs. Wm. Bentham's paper on Cheerfulness at the Table was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Greenwood read a very helpful paper on growing peonies, and Mrs. A. Crawford's paper on the Ascendancy of Womanhood, was indeed one every woman should bear as it gave such beautiful thoughts for each member to carry away and dwell upon. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a very enjoyable meeting closed with God Save the King.

DR. HICKS'S OFFICE.

Dr. Hicks is opening his office at 54 Brant Avenue this week. The doctor has had a wide experience with 18 years of general practice and eight years of special work along surgical lines both abroad and in the United States. His residence was purchased last fall from Mr. McInrive, but the intervening six months he has spent in study at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

With Walsh, Schalk, Chappel and a few lesser lights on the hospital list, it looks as though the White Sox may be up against it at the Getaway.

Red Sox Player Escapes From Jail

Cheerful, April 11, 1914.

Mr. Nelson, B.B.C.

Sir,—I am now in Cheerful, and I suppose you will wonder how I escaped from the Deadtown jail. As I told you in my last letter, the jailer was a baseball fan, so when he read in the sporting news that Connie Mack's world's champion Athletics were billed to play in Brantford on Aug. 11th, he gave me freedom under promise to influence you to send him a railroad pass and a grand stand ticket for that game.

square and only called one ball and Gero had the nerve to kick and claim a strike.

I inquired of him about the size, appearance and class of buildings in Brantford, but he said all he could remember was there were nine bar-rooms and one brewery, and he said that reminded him, and off he went down the street watching the signs.

Sporting Comment

Next Thursday night the London Junior and Senior Y.M.C.A. basketball teams will pay a visit to the local Y and stage a double header here. All sport lovers know the calibre of the Londoners who played Hamilton last week for the championship of Western Ontario, but were defeated. The locals have two exceptionally fast teams here and are confident of defeating the visitors next Thursday. Both local senior and junior teams defeated Woodstock recently so to the 6 games being merely a splendid workout for them.

The locals are going to a great deal of expense to bring London here and it is hoped a large crowd will be in attendance.

School League Basketball is becoming very popular in the local schools and every night sees a fast and exciting game at the Y. M. C. A., where the games are played.

Riley got walloped to a lovely tune Friday by Charleston. It must have been a regular free lunch from the pitchers. Oh, what visions we have!

Riley got riled, Heebe (shot) wasn't effective and we got beat, by Heck, Result of game in Charleston.

Midge Craven has his hand of ball tossers in camp now and is putting them through their paces in strenuous fashion.

Ottawa Journal says the Senators have six .300 hitters now. They have it all doped out what Leity Rogers is going to hit this year. Pretty clever isn't it.

Leity Rogers got a lot a free advertising and then Shag, "landed" him. It will help him a lot this season.

SURPRISES MANY IN BRANTFORD
The QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc. as mixed in Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, is surprising Brantford people. Many have found that this simple remedy drains so much foul matter from the system that A SINGLY DOSE relieves constipation, soothes stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. Adler-ika is the most thoroughly bowel cleanser ever sold. M. H. Robertson, druggist, agent.

Ottawa's only weak spot is the infield. The outfield cannot field and the pitchers aren't to be depended on, but outside of that they have another pennant winner.

London and Ottawa will have to show more "stuff" this year than last if they expect to get a place. You know "Rube" is willing to bet; he will finish ahead of London.

I think it is a shame no one mentions Matty Lamond very much. I think he's lovely. Do you think he will be able to stay this year. I hope so.
Ardent Admirer.
Yes, Miss Ardent Admirer, we think Matt will be here this year and you will be able to see him as often as you like, only he must be in bed at top.m. every night.

Jimmy Bradley Is Getting Good Team Together for Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, April 13.—Jimmy Bradley, who is to manage the Woodstock baseball team this year, was in the city on Saturday, and in conversation with The Advertiser said that he had secured Dubby Shea, a catcher and infielder. He played with Peterboro in the Canadian League last year.
Bradley also stated that he was in communication with two pitchers and an infielder, whom he expected to secure for Woodstock. He also said that he had a working agreement with Rube Deacon, manager of the Brantford Red Sox, whereby he would have first call on all of the Brantford cast-offs.

The magnates of the W. O. B. A. will hold a meeting in Berlin next Saturday for the purpose of drawing up a schedule. The question of turning this league into a class D organization will also be discussed.
Guelph and Berlin, who have had a state of organized hall, are strong on this proposition, but it is not known how the other clubs will stand in this matter.

The men behind the Woodstock club will hold a meeting on Wednesday night and will elect officers and discuss these matters.
Bradley will take up his residence in a couple of weeks in Woodstock, and claims that he will give the fans of Woodstock the best team that has ever represented this city.

Bert Brown Took Part in Wrestling Bouts at Toronto Saturday.

Bert Brown, local amateur wrestler, endeavored on Saturday to do a come back when he entered the Ontario A. U. championship series at Toronto. For some time Bert has been in retirement from the mat, and has not done any wrestling. Brown managed to get into the semi-finals in the 145 lb. class and in the finals for the 135 lb. class in the latter he was thrown by Rossier in 11:06 and in the semi finals he lost the decision to Gibson of Toronto Central Y. M. C. A. in 9 minutes.

Tigers Beat Champions.
The Tigers beat the champions 3 to 2. They played the Duffs on Saturday and made a good showing. The young Cubs were at full strength. Salmon, the Tigers' new centre scored the first goal doing some fine work. Archer scored the second shortly afterwards. All the forwards did fine work, but were short of dash and stay, but they will mend this after more backs. The half backs were good; Ellison, the new man did well for his first game. Hart was good at centre half, but that is not his regular position. Next week he will be in his own position and it is thought he will be there permanently. Captain Hoyle played a great game; always being there when wanted. Myring was off color and out of condition but the captain backed him up. Scanlon made few mistakes. All players are requested to be at Holme street at .30 Tuesday night for special training.

Celtic and Hibernians Drew Game in Scottish Cup Final.

West of Scotland soccerites are having their cup of blessings filled to overflowing at present. A week ago they had the international played in their midst, Saturday they had the Scottish cup final and because the latter resulted in a goalless draw Hampden Park will, on Saturday again be the mecca of the followers of the game, for there the rival Irish teams, representing the East and the West of Scotland will meet to do battle for the Blue Riband trophy of Scottish football. Saturday's exposition of the game was nothing to rave over, not that the 64,000 spectators assembled on the classic slopes save perhaps the more ardent of Celtic's supporters, came away disappointed, but the play throughout was typical of cup tie fare, plenty of dash, lots of erratic shooting, and but little of that combination play which has made the game as popular as it is. If ever a team entered upon a contest confident of winning, that team was Celtic Saturday. Everything was in their favor, but as was pointed out in their column on Saturday the Edinburgh men have the happy knack of rising to a great occasion. True, their form until well on in the season was distinctly "rocky," but later on they developed more of their old style. Of recent weeks they have been well served by a steady defence, and it was the defence which came to the front Saturday and ruled, to say the least, the calculations of the Celticites.

A strong wind helped to make impossible the finer touches of the game, and though Boreas was against them during the first forty-five minutes of the match the Glasgow team looked as if they would accomplish great deeds. They started many likely looking runs only to be brought to a halt when the "Hibs'" defence was reached. Celtic certainly had more of the game until the interval which came with the score sheet blank. Hibernians took a better hold of the rein on resting and on two occasions looked like getting through the Glasgow defence, which was showing up well, but lacked for the nonce part of that brilliancy of the Easter Road men. The Hibernians' halves and forwards showed some of their old time dash for a period, but against such heavy odds as the Glasgow cracks, aided by the breeze they faded away somewhat, and it was here that Celtic should have scored, but their shooting was at fault. McAtee was their only forward, who seemed to know where the "sticks" were, and on three occasions he experienced hard luck in not scoring. It was about this stage that the Edinburgh club's defence rose to the occasion and defied the incessant efforts of the Celts to put the issue beyond doubt, for the Glasgow forwards toiled with almost superhuman effort to notch a point. They kept the Hibs, pretty much confined to their own part of the field from now until the close, but could not score. In short it was only the brilliancy of the Hibernians' goalkeeper, full backs and half backs that really prevented the game from being reduced to a standard of mediocrity. The Hibs, deserved all of the glory they took about the match, but whether Hamilton or Dumfries shall keep company with the Love street team in its lowly position remains to be seen.

On the English side the position of Blackburn Rovers as leaders of the first division cannot be assailed, and it is almost as certain that Derby County and Preston North End will next season appear among the second division clubs. The game of the afternoon was undoubtedly the Manchester Derby, when those keen rivals, United and City met at Old Trafford. Although the Hyde Road players claimed victory by their goal of the match, it is their turn to crow a little, for to pick up two points by the banks of the canal is no mean performance.
Whether Bradford or Woolwich will accompany Notts County into first class circles is still an open question, but the "Lacemen" richly deserve their promotion, and should they reproduce this season's form when the game reopens in the Fall they will prove a host to be reckoned with. As was predicted here some time ago the resting place of the Southern League honors may very likely depend on the last games in which Swindon and Crystal Palace are interested. Only a point divides the clubs at the top of the table and Saturday they both dropped a point instead of carrying off full measure. Appended are the results of Saturday's games and the tables up to date.

Charles Casey charged Charlie Byron with theft, but the magistrate found that it was a case for the division court and he dismissed the case. Two assault and disorderly charges were dismissed, they having been caused by the usual holiday hilarity.

SLEEPY-TIME TALES FOR THE LITTLEST ONES

THE SOAPSDS GNOMES

WHEN mamma told her Sleepy-time Story the other evening she had another listener besides her little daughter Dorothy, and he was most delighted and highly impressed one, too, as you shall see for yourself presently. Perhaps mamma had figured he would be—and maybe she told the kind of a story she did precisely for that purpose.

Bobbie was his name and he was Dorothy's cousin, visiting her for a few days while his own mamma and papa were away on a trip. He had arrived the evening before and mamma had, as grown-up people say, "had her hands full with him" ever since. Not that Bobbie was a bad boy—for he wasn't—but he certainly was a "whiner." You know what a "whiner" is, don't you? Well, he's a boy who is forever and a day saying "Don't—don't do that!" or "I don't want to!"

Only that evening mamma had promised to let him come in and sit on the bed and listen to the Sleepy-time Tale if he wouldn't object to having his face washed and wouldn't wiggle and squirm and twist and cry out that there was soap in his eye when there wasn't.

"Come now, Bobbie," she had said, "come like a good little boy and let me wash your face and hands for bed. And don't carry on like you did this morning. If you'll be good I'll let you listen to the story."

Now, if there was one thing that

It's body resembled nothing so much as a big, round soap bubble, and it was shining, too, with all the colors of the rainbow, just as a soap-bubble does in the sunlight.

Around its head, turban fashion, was a wash-rag, and its hands, attached to pipe-stem arms, held a cake of soap and a tiny scrubbing brush.

Poor little Bobbie gave one look and started to scream. "Right there, hold the scrubbing brush in a gesture that commanded silence.

"Humph!" laughed the Soap-suds Gnome—for that was what he was—before we've even begun to scrub him! All ready? Then come on! Grab him!"

And, with his command, out sprang a host of creatures just like him. Indeed, there must have been most a million of them. And they seized poor little Bobbie by his arms and legs and carried him into the bathroom.

"Overboard with him, fellows!" cried the leader. "We'll give him something to cry for!"

"An' something to wriggle for!" put in another.

Poor Bobbie. Splash!—and they dumped him right into the big bathtub, half-full of water! Bless you, he was so amazed, so frightened, that he simply couldn't scream, though he tried his best.

"Now," commanded the leader of the Soap-suds Gnomes, "get busy! Make it thick, too!"

And with that, every Gnome reached down into the water with his hand that held his cake of soap and began to move it rapidly back and forth, up and down. They were making the suds—and they were making it thick!

Goodness me, what a splashing there was! And how the churning of the many tiny hands in the water quickly brought the suds to the top. Higher and higher the soap-suds rose until they seemed to poor Bobbie, lying flat on his back, like huge mountains rising about him.

Just then Bobbie made one last desperate effort to cry out and succeeded in getting his mouth open. "But in—splash—splash and kerflop!—a Gnome had leaped onto Bobbie's cheek and clapped his soapy hands right over the open mouth. Ugh! How bitter and—and—soapy it was!

"That's enough, young man!" the Gnome exclaimed. "That's enough for you; now you'll see how it really tastes to get soap in your mouth! We and we don't care what happens to you!"

It's Body Resembled Nothing So Much As a Big Round Soap Bubble.

would keep Bobbie quiet it was hearing a story, so he had promised to read him. And yet—would you believe it!—not five minutes later when mamma was washing his face he began to squirm and twist and wriggle and whine.

"But, Bobbie," mamma reminded him, "you promised to hold still and not whine while I washed your face. Didn't you?"

"Yeth—yeth, Auntie," he had replied, in that funny little lisping way of his. "But my ears th'n't part of my face, lth they!"

Mamma felt like laughing—for it was a funny reply, wasn't it?—but she refrained from doing so. For, she thought, Bobbie was entirely too old a boy to whine about a wash-rag and a little soap and water. So, the task finally accomplished, she settled her-

"ROUGHING IT" WITH HAL

HITTING THE TRAIL.
C O say that Hal and his younger brother Jack were overjoyed when their father told them to "pack up" for a three-weeks' trip with him in the Rocky Mountains wouldn't begin to express their feelings. Why, they had dreamed of climbing towering peaks, and riding miles and miles on horseback every day and visiting the Indians on a nearby reservation ever since their father had first told them he hoped to be able to take them on such a trip. But only "hoped," mind you! And, oh, how fearful they were lest something unexpected should come up and prevent the trip. But at last it was all settled—and they were going!

Now they were actually on their way! For three full days and nights their train had rolled along westward, through farm lands and populous towns and then across the open, rolling prairie extending as far as the eye could see. How strange it all was to the little boys, accustomed as they

time on the trail else they will stray away and sometimes knock the big burdens off their backs by rubbing up against overhanging boughs.

Jog-jog-jog—Jog-jog. Hal felt that he couldn't hold on to his breath, much less his saddle. And little Jack was bobbing up and down like a float at the end of a fishing line. Father didn't seem to mind it at all, and as for Goldie, well, he seemed quite as much at home as though he were sitting in a rocking chair. Most Western horses either trot or run, you know, whereas the ones the boys had ridden at home with father were nicely gaited.

"Gee—Jog—whiz—jog—Hal!" gasped Jack. "I know—Jog-jog—that I'm going to—jog—break in two—jog-jog!"

"Yes—Jog-jog," replied Hal, trying his best to look as though he were enjoying it. "But we're—jog—on the trail—jog-jog—anyway!"

"You young cowpunchers'll be eatin' your supper standing up tonight, I bet?" Eh, Mr. Hamilton?" laughed Goldie, as he swung the end of his lariat at one of the "pack-horses" that had dropped back a little. "But in a week you'll be hard as nails and won't mind it a bit!"

"A week!" thought Jack with a sigh.

"A week! Gee—whiz!" exclaimed Hal to himself under his breath.

Then, all at once, the leader stood up on the edge of the bowl, took hold of the chain that was fastened to the rubber plug and cried out: "All ready? Then let 'er go!"

Plop! Out came the plug and—swirl—swirl—ur-r-r-r! went the water as it rushed down the hole into the waste pipe—carrying what was left of Bobbie with it!

And then—Bobbie woke up to find it was all only a dream.

Then, too, the real Bobbie woke up. But all he said was: "Gee!" And then again, "Gee!"

was growing smaller and smaller.

The Soap-suds Gnomes were washing him away! He knew it, but he couldn't utter a sound!

"Now!" shouted the leader, after a little while. "Now, up with him! He's too small for the tub!"

Instantly the slippery soapy hands seized him, lifted him out of the tub and flung him—into the wash bowl! Then they fell upon him with renewed vigor—soaping and scrubbing and scrubbing and soaping him.

Smaller and smaller and still smaller grew Bobbie—until, really, they had to feel around in the water to find him!

What a Score Rolled Up, Something Like One Hundred to Two.

Smoothing the Way

I HAD such a nice time, Mamma, At the party where I went; All the girls were fixed up lovely. But we had an accident.

We had ice cream, and we ate it Sitting 'round just anywhere, And one girl she got up talking 'And put hers down on her chair.

And the talk got so exciting, She forgot her ice cream quite.

And first thing she sat down in it— My! it made her dress a sight.

Do you think they ought to scold her 'Cause she spoiled her nice new dress?

She was only little, Mamma, Just about my age, I guess.

No? That's like my precious Mamma, I was sure you would agree, And I'm glad to hear you say so, For that little girl was me.

The Invisible Basketball

MILES McBride, captain of the team, had just finished a hard game of basketball. The Junior Y. M. C. A. five had been defeated by the Park Avenue M. E.'s and Miles felt not only tired in body but sore in spirit as well. He had played hard at his position at right forward and toward the basket had fought with almost superhuman strength in a vain effort to tie the score, but the best he and his teammates could do was to come within ten points of their opponent's total.

"Hard luck, old chap," said one of the Y. M. C. A. supporters to Miles as he wormed out of his jersey in the locker room. "The Park Avenue had horseshoes and four-leaf clovers all over them."

"No," said Miles, dryly, "they simply outplayed us, that's all."

Captain McBride was not much on making excuses. His teammates spoke up and remarked half-jestingly: "You had bad luck in making some of your throws."

Miles grunted and said nothing.

Just then one of the smaller boys spoke up and remarked half-jestingly: "I still think you'd have won, Miles, if the other side had been blindfolded."

"Get out!" stormed the older boys at the little annoyer. "Quit rubbing it in." And the little fellow was chased from the room.

But the remark stuck in Miles' mind. "How true!" he thought. "If the other team had been blindfolded!" As he took his shower the remark again occurred to him and as he dressed he smiled at the unpleasant truth of it.

"When we play our return game with Park Avenue," he chuckled to himself, "we'll insist they be blindfolded. That shall be one of the understandings before we go on the floor."

He laughed aloud at the thought and surprised his teammates who were themselves not in a mood for laughing.

"What are you laughing at, Cap?" asked one of the players. "You must be happy over our defeat."

"Miles, I believe you lost a basketball game today."

"Yes," Miles replied, "about a thousand to nothing."

"You see, in dreams things are apt to get exaggerated. The idea of a basketball team scoring a thousand points! But evidently the fairy didn't know the difference, for she said: 'That's too bad, Miles. Would you like to win your next game?'"

"Yes, I would."

"Then take this paint pot and this brush and put a coat of the mixture on the basketball you use in the game."

She handed him these things and departed.

Miles was much pleased and felt grateful to the fairy, though he couldn't understand just how that paint was going to help.

The return game with the Park Avenue five was at hand. Just before the game was to start Miles got hold of the ball, took it to a corner made mixture according to the fairy's directions.

The game began. The ball was tossed up at center. Then there was passing and intercepting until a Park Avenue forward got close to the goal and tossed the first points of the contest. So far Miles hadn't got hold of the ball yet, but he still had faith in his magic mixture. And he was not disappointed.

When the ball was again put in play at Y. M. guard shot it to Miles.

And then a strange thing happened. His opponent, instead of guarding him, dropped his hands at his sides and just stared at him. Miles passed the ball to a Y. M. player, who immediately returned it. Again there was consternation. The other players practically stopped in their tracks.

"We can't see the ball," complained one of the Park Avenue boys.

"Play ball!" shouted the referee.

"Miles, who was now close to the goal, took his time and dropped an easy one into the basket and the score was tied. On the next toss-up Miles got hold of the ball and again his opponents, as well as his fellow-players, acted as if they were paralyzed. He couldn't understand it for awhile, but it soon occurred to him that the ball was invisible!

"That is, he reasoned, it must be invisible as long as it was in his hands; for as soon as it left him the other players apparently could see it. What a great advantage over the opponents! All he had to do was to stay near the goal, signal for the ball and then, while his opponents stared helplessly at nothing, toss the ball leisurely into the basket, the sphere becoming visible only after it was on its way to the iron hoop. Miles laughed to himself at the confusion of the Park Avenue team. They seemed dazed. His teammates also were astonished, but they soon grew accustomed to the strangeness of it and took delight in passing the ball to the magic Miles and in watching the Park Avenue guards stare into space as the ball disappeared into his hands.

What a score rolled up! Something like 100 to 2. In desperation, the Park Avenue guards devoted all their attention to Miles, and though they couldn't see the ball, they fought furiously to keep him from tossing goals. But Miles simply held the ball behind his back or over his head or dodged to right or left.

"Now you see it; now you don't," Miles would yell and toss another goal.

Once or twice a Park Avenue guard succeeded in getting hold of the ball while it was in Miles' hands and, though it was invisible, struggled to wrest it from him. But his efforts were always futile, and Miles simply played with his opponents.

At last the game was over and the Park Avenue were ready to cry at their exasperating defeat. Miles was receiving the congratulations of his teammates and friends and was being hoisted to their shoulders when he woke. It was a dream after all.

His lay in bed thinking of it. At first he thought it silly. But as he lay, the vividness of it fresh on his mind, he had an idea.

Next afternoon at basketball practice the captain said to the boys: "We are to play our return game with Park Avenue a week from tomorrow night, and we've got to beat them. I've decided the only way to do it is to make the ball invisible." The other boys laughed, thinking it a joke, but Miles continued, seriously: "We must make the ball invisible. We are going to line up on each side of the court every afternoon from now until the day of the game and practice whipping the ball across like a cannon shot. And not a shot must travel less than sixty miles an hour." And he made good his remark. He drilled that team so thoroughly in making the ball "invisible" through speedy passing that when they met the Park Avenue a week later they literally played their opponents off their feet and won by a good score. So you see it pays to dream sometimes, especially about fairies.

MR. COCKSHUTT'S SPEECH ON THE TARIFF QUESTION

Hansard Report Shows Logical Conclusion Reached by Brantford Member on Most Important Issue.

The important speech of Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., as delivered according to Hansard will be published in The Courier, but owing to the lengthy nature publication will necessarily have to be in instalments, the first of which is given to-day:

"Mr. Speaker, I shall have occasion to refer to a few remarks of my hon. friend (Mr. Turriff) later on. The hon. gentleman assigned me an hour and a half to dispose of him, but I hope to be able to deal with his remarks in much less time than that. The Budget Speech of the Minister of Finance (Hon. W. T. White), this year has been looked forward to with more than ordinary interest, and I think I may say, without flattery to the hon. minister that he has more than fulfilled the expectations of the people of Canada have of him. The air has been materially cleared by the pronouncement made by the hon. gentleman on financial matters, and in masterly style he has dealt with every phase of the commercial and financial life of our country. The question of our national finances has been ably dealt with by the Finance Minister, and by the hon. member of St. Antoine (Mr. Ames) so that in the time at my disposal, I shall endeavor to treat of other features of our financial and commercial life. The clean-cut and well-defined line which the Minister of Finance has drawn between the political parties in Canada, in reference to the protective tariff, will carry assurance to the minds of all Canadians, and in declaring that the Conservative party shall stand by Canadian industries whether agricultural industries or manufacturing industries, the hon. gentleman has enunciated a policy in the best interests of the Dominion. When the policy announced by the Minister of Finance in his speech is fully understood, and when his speech has been read, as I believe it will be from end to end of the Dominion, his utterances will bring reassurance to the minds of those who may have been panic-stricken by the vagaries of hon. gentlemen opposite. The immediate outlook as foreshadowed by the Minister of Finance, though not as good as it has been in some years, is still very encouraging. The country as a whole is sound; but we have, I am sorry to say, several legacies left over by the late government that have imposed tremendous responsibility upon the people of Canada, and very onerous duties on the Minister of Finance, to provide for them. I am safe in saying that no government ever existed in the Dominion which left a greater legacy of debt and encumbrances than did the late Laurier administration.

Temple Building - Dalhousie Street

what? For nothing that is a tangible asset to-day, and for nothing that can ever hope to earn a dividend for the people of Canada.

Take the railway that I have just mentioned, conceived, as I believe, in political jobbery, and carried on with extravagance and political iniquity, so that to-day we are face to face with a report that says that upwards of $40,000,000 of the public money has been spent in that extravagant way. My right hon. friend the leader of the Opposition (Sir Wilfrid Laurier), a gentleman whom I respect very highly stated that he admitted that mistakes might have been made, but that anything that had been mis-

spent had been the result of a mistake. I only wish I could accept those words at their face value; but I am sorry to say, after looking into the report and after reviewing very carefully the course of my hon. friends opposite for the sixteen years they were in power, I cannot accept that statement at all. That railway, which was built as a monument to the right hon. friend and to the Dominion of Canada, was not a mistake according to his own judgment in the first place. He went into it with his eyes open. Why do I say it was not a mistake? Let my right hon. friend refer for a moment to the speech of the then Minister of Railways, the Hon. A. G. Blair. Let him read that speech from beginning to end and tell me whether or not he was warned that he was embarking upon an enterprise that was of the very worst character in every way. What did the Hon. A. G. Blair say? He told these gentlemen that their figures were all false; that their $13,000,000 and their $61,000,000 were false. He said: I cannot support a proposition like that before my fellow members. I will resign my seat in the government and step out rather than tell the people of Canada that a railway can be built for $13,000,000 or $61,000,000. I know it is going to cost $120,000,000. All credit to the Hon. A. G. Blair who stepped out of the government and said: I refuse to be a party to a government that launches a scheme on the Dominion of Canada knowing that it is going to cost five times as much as he said it would, and that, in the building of it, takes none of the ordinary business precautions to see that a dollar's worth is got for a dollar. The whole thing from start to finish was carried on with the idea that no matter how much money we put into it, the Grand Trunk Pacific has to pay 3 per cent. on the cost and the country cannot lose a cent. This is a very great reflection upon the gentlemen whom he supported in power for the past sixteen years. Let us ask for a moment what constitutes good times: what is the sum and substance of good times. Is it to pick up on the streets money that you have not earned? Is it to get a contract at twice as much as should be paid for it? Is it to have a cinch in supplying some government department with goods that are not worth so cents on the dollar for what should be supplied? If such be the case, then certainly we have had good times during the past sixteen years, because at no other time has money been scattered about the Dominion of Canada without receiving returns for it in the way that it has been by the late government. I am sorry to make so severe a statement as that, but I am speaking exactly what I believe as a business man when I say that there have been millions—it would almost startle me if I were to mention the figures, after hearing that $40,000,000 had been squandered in one enterprise—of the money of the country paid out, for commercial or political, to set up before the people of Canada. I do not call that good times; I call that evil days. If there is one charge against my right hon. friend that stands out and that will stand out in the history of Canada it is that, under the Laurier Government, political morality and commercial morality sank to the lowest ebb at which it has ever been since Confederation. If hon. gentlemen on this side will take warning by what has happened on the other side we shall be glad; but if we should harden our hearts and run astray, as hon. gentlemen opposite did, for my part I hope I shall be lashed rather than sit in this House and vote through such rascalities as those I have mentioned in order that we may stay in power.

Mr. Proulx: Did you vote for the Prince Albert deal?
Mr. Cockshutt: I have not heard of any Prince Albert deal.
Mr. Proulx: The Prince Albert land deal.

Mr. Cockshutt: No Prince Albert land deal has ever come before the House so far as I know. With regard to land deals I may say that I might little land was left to deal in after my hon. friends went out of power. If my hon. friend had applied to the hon. member for Assiniboia (Mr. Turriff) the remark which he has made, he might have obtained some information on the point; the hon. member for Assiniboia could tell him a thing or two about land deals. The Saskatchewan Valley Land Co. and other such matters are still fresh in the public memory. Although I have mentioned a few scandals, I have touched only the fringe of them, as the hon. member for Assiniboia knows full well, though he was so busy with implements that he did not have time to touch upon the land deals of the late government. I should think that my hon. friend, in talking so much about implements and advocating their free importation into this country, should have had in mind the one implement that his party imported in connection with the deal of which I have spoken. Our Finance Minister has had to pay $12,000,000 for that implement already. Land deals certainly came on thick and fast during the time the late administration held office.

BOOK of the HOUR

MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES A Thrilling Story

Of Revolution, Intervention and War

By FREDERICK STARR, of the University of Chicago

Tells not only what is known of the earliest inhabitants of the country, but it also gives a careful, most absorbing account of the course of government and the conditions and modes of life of the people since the invasion and conquest of the Spaniards. It traces the development of railroads, commerce and progress, and the vital part which foreign capitalists and adventurers have played. It portrays the cruel rule of the Spanish viceroys, the terrors of slavery and peonage, and the oppression of the working people. It describes the winning of freedom in Mexico, the Texas revolution, the war with the United States, the French invasion, the empire of Maximilian, the rise of Diaz and the development of the peculiar, complicated conditions that have resulted in the present situation.

A Country Exploited for Benefit of the Few

It is in the revelation of Mexico's intolerable political and economic conditions that the book possesses one of its chief values. The story of the evils which exist in Mexico has never been adequately told. All previous attempts have been suppressed by powerful influences. Now, however, in this volume is given a complete description of the conditions which exist—a description which will arouse a nation and compel reformation.

The Eyes of the Civilized World are upon Mexico.

All nations are to-day watching unhappy Mexico, where bullets are more potent than ballots, and where the force of arms has replaced the consent of the people in maintaining a form of government. The struggle which is being carried on for the establishment of justice and civil rights is of greater moment than merely its effect upon Mexicans.

To be fully informed on this very vital question one must read this book. Over 400 large octavo pages. $3.50 Fine super paper. Over 100 great photographs, maps and portraits. Artistically EDITED bound in fine book cloth.

THAW WINS BUT IS NOT YET RELEASED

Petition For Writ of Habeas Corpus Granted by Judge.

But Case Will be Argued Out Again in the Supreme Court.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] CONCORD, N.H., April 14.—Harry Kendall Thaw's petition for a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Edgar Aldrich of the United States district court to-day.

The decision filed with the clerk of the court here makes more than ten thousand words; discusses exhaustively the various phases of the case presented in the United States court concluding:

"My conclusion is that the constitutional right of extradition for Thaw does not reasonably apply to such a situation as this, where the right of control by the demanding state resides in a degree of custody based on insanity and where its papers upon their face negative the idea of personal criminal responsibility.

"It has been understood from the beginning that, whichever way this case was decided by me, it would be taken to the Supreme Court. Therefore no formal order will be made, either sustaining the writ or discharging the petitioner until the aggrieved party has had an opportunity to perfect its appeal."

When the slayer of Staniorl White entered this state last September after his deportation from Canada, he was arrested by the state authorities. To prevent his extradition to New York state his attorneys petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus; this proceeding automatically placing the case in federal jurisdiction and acting as a stay to the extradition which was later granted by Governor Felker.

Reciting the facts as to Thaw's petition for bail and the appointment and report of the commission upon his mental condition, the court says: "I have no doubt of the right of the court to grant bail under the circumstances of this case; but the question as an interlocutory one, of which the petitioner has the right to avail himself at any time and at any stage of the proceedings and as the case is about to go out of the control of the court and into the Supreme Court and as the Supreme Court Rule 34 has an important and, perhaps, a controlling bearing upon the question, I am disposed to leave the motion for bail undetermined without prejudice."

The court says that the report of the commission supplemented by his own observation at the several hearings satisfied him that any supposed danger to the community through Thaw's liberty was so remote as not to warrant his being deprived of bail upon that ground.

"I am not at all certain that I am not denying a man his right and doing this denying a man justice, by leaving this question undecided," he says.

Thaw's case the court finds to be that of a person sought to be extradited under the constitution because he had fled from guardianship custody based on the verdict of a jury that he was insane.

ASQUITH GETS REAL WELCOME IN THE HOUSE

Inspiring Ovation Was Tendered Premier on His Return Today.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, April 14.—Premier Asquith was greeted with an inspiring ovation on his return to the House of Commons to-day. His progress from the entrance of the chamber to the chair of the speaker, was accompanied by volleys of cheers from excited ministerial and Nationalist members. The newly elected member for East Fife was introduced by Percy H. Hingworth and John W. Gulland.

During question time Francis Dyke Acland, parliamentary under secretary for foreign affairs gave the House official information as to events at Tampico already recorded in despatches. He told members how Secretary of State Bryan at the request of Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador at Washington, had taken steps to impress the combatants that a "most serious situation would be created by the wanted destruction of oil fields."

Mr. Acland described the followers of Venustiano Carranza as "rebels" to which term Joshua Wedgewood, a Liberal member took exception. Mr. Acland, however, replied: "I think the word describes them well enough in the absence of their being conquerors."

THE STANDARD IS SUFFERER FROM A FIRE

Kingsston Newspaper Had Disastrous Blaze Early This Morning.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] KINGSTON, Ont., April 14.—The Kingston Standard newspaper building was damaged by fire to the extent of $20,000, in a blaze which broke out at 8.35 this morning. Members of the editorial and mechanical staff had a very narrow escape from being suffocated, having to take to the fire escapes. The fire started from the furnace in the basement and in a short time the building was ablaze.

The smoke poured into the editorial rooms and the stairway was also ablaze and the only avenue of escape was via the fire escapes, which were just installed a month ago. Good work by chief Armstrong and his men confined the fire to the front of the building and the typesetting machines at the rear were not damaged and late this forenoon the printers were at work setting up copy for to-day's issue. The big press on the main floor was badly damaged, but the paper to-day was issued from the press of The British Whig. The editor and proprietor, W. R. Givens, is holidaying in Florida. The burned building is owned by H. W. Richardson. The Standard moving in a trifle over a year ago. It is on the site of the hardware store of W. B. Dalton and Son, which was destroyed by fire three years ago.

LIBERALS WILL FIGHT OVER THE TARIFF

Party is Now Likely to Drop the Increased Preference Plan From Platform.

OTTAWA, April 14.—The Liberal proposal of increasing the British preference from 35 to 50 per cent. will, it is reported here, be abandoned by that party in view of the defections which are threatened, or have already taken place. Advocacy of such a platform has come almost exclusively from the West, and has met with very determined opposition from the Eastern provinces, who adhere there to moderate protection on manufactures, but are willing to stand for free food and free agricultural implements.

Having regard to the attitude of this section, the increase in the preference is not likely to figure in the party's platform, though just what course exactly will be taken is to be determined only when a caucus is held at the end of this week or some time next week.

'DAGO' FRANK'S CONFESSION IS BARRED

Will Not be Available in the New Trial of Capt. Becker.

Vallon One of Murderers Lucky to Get Freedom.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, April 14.—The confession of "Dago Frank" Cirofici, made a few hours before he was executed for the part he played in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, will not be permitted to interfere in the plans of District Attorney Whitman for the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Charles Becker. Mr. Whitman holds the confession to be hearsay evidence and therefore inadmissible either in the defence of Becker, who is charged with having instigated the murder of Rosenthal or in the prosecution of Harry Vallon.

Vallon, according to the official version of Cirofici's confession to Warden Clancy of Sing Sing prison, fired one of the shots that killed Rosenthal. It was Vallon's testimony together with that given by "Bridgie" Webber and Jack Rose that led to the conviction of the four gunmen.

The trial of Becker will begin on May 4th, if Justice Seabury tomorrow grants the motion of Mr. Whitman. The district attorney, when he makes the motion, will also ask for a special venire of talemens from which to select a jury.

John F. McIntyre, who was leading counsel for Becker at his first trial, is of the same opinion as District Attorney Whitman concerning the availability of the Cirofici confession as evidence. Mr. McIntyre believes however that it might be used as a dying declaration if ordered in evidence by the presiding judge.

Bernard H. Sandler, attorney for Vallon, declared that the confession as a legal document, was worthless. Mr. Sandler said that Vallon would be ready to testify at the Becker trial should he be summoned.

When Vallon was granted immunity District Attorney Whitman stipulated that if it was subsequently shown that he had actually fired upon Rosenthal that the immunity would no longer hold and he must face trial for murder in the first degree. Mr. Whitman called attention to the provisions of this agreement to-day when commenting on "Dago Frank's" confession.

Becker from his cell in the Tombs prison refuses to discuss the execution of the four gunmen or to comment on the confession of Cirofici. The arrival of the bodies of the dead gunmen at various castside undertaking establishments yesterday, drew enormous crowds. The funeral of "Whitey Lewis" Seidenshner yesterday afternoon was the signal for the first crowd to assemble. Word that the body of Harry Horowitz, "Gyp the Blood" was in Lenox avenue morgue caused a throng to gather in that street and police reserves had to be called out to preserve order. Funeral services for "Gyp the Blood" were held this morning. The burial of "Dago Frank" Cirofici probably will take place sometime to-day, as will that of "Lefty Lonie" Rosenberg.

From four until ten o'clock last night a curious throng filed past the coffin containing the body of "Dago Frank". There was no disorder. Friends of the dead gunman viewed his body this morning after which it was removed to the home of his mother in the Bronx.

Young Peoples' Societies Meet

The Wesley Epworth League held their regular weekly meeting last night in the school room of the church. The program was in charge of the Missionary Committee, it being of a very interesting character. Miss May Wood gave a very interesting talk on Mrs. Crosby, the missionary.

Mr. Harold Foulds spoke on the Chinese Empire, dealing with the needs of the people and their knowledge of Christian medical treatment. He went on to say that although they have doctors and drug stores, they do not use them so much mutual benefit as is evident in our own country. There are a few in Eastern China, but the Western part is woefully neglected in this respect. He said there were opportunities for young men and young women who desire to make their lives useful in helping in the work of the fellow-men and women.

Miss Irene Purdy sang very sweetly "Is my name written there" and concluded a very bright and instructive service. Miss Goodwin occupied the chair. Next Monday night is "Social Evening." A debate is being held for the occasion "Resolved that fashions

10 CENTS "CASCARETS" STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

When Headachy, Bilious, Constipated, Stomach Sour, Breathe Bad.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

Crosby Views at Sydenham St.

The Epworth League service at Sydenham street church was under the direction of the Missionary Department and there was a large attendance. The League has been studying the life and work of Rev. Dr. Thomas Crosby the famous Methodist missionary to the Indians, especially of the Pacific coast, and last night the series was closed by showing one hundred views of his life and the work he accomplished. The slides were explained by the president and Miss M. English. The many views were excellent and in a measure gave an insight into some of the work he accomplished. It was an instructive and entertaining evening. The League are the possessors of an excellent lantern and are making good use of it. Mr. A. R. Knott rendered "The Holy City" in splendid voice accompanied by illustrated pictures. Mrs. Fountain and Miss Dunne rendered a pleasing duet. Altogether the entertainment was a most pleasant one.

IMPUDENT THEFT

Two Young Men Helped Themselves to Chicken at a Sale Yesterday.

A very impudent theft occurred at an auction sale conducted on the Governor's Road in the township yesterday.

Two young fellows, who had a rick calmly proceeded to open a box of chickens, packed ready for transportation, and take therefrom a dozen birds. They they put in their rig and drove off. A purchaser later discovered that the chickens he had purchased, were missing and he at once phoned the Paris police. It then was discovered that many people had noticed the young fellows taking the chickens, but they naturally thought that they had been the new owners, and took no further note of the incident. This sort of practice is becoming much too common at sales, and severe action is to be taken against any offenders caught in the future. The young men in this case are known and will probably soon return the birds.

The Reason Why.

Residents of the North Ward have been wondering recently as to the reason of all the consumption of electric current by having the street lights on in the daytime. A Hydro workman explained last night that the contact switches in the transformers were refusing to work. It is expected that repairs will be effected.

Easter Dance Proved A Most Delightful Affair

Mrs. H. M. Brendon's dance at the Conservatory of Music last evening, given in honor of her daughter, Miss Lanny Brendon, was universally voted one of the jolliest and prettiest dances ever given in this city. The floor was perfect, the music supplied by Weightman of Toronto, was easily the brightest and best heard here in many a long day, there was a super abundance of good dancing music and the whole affair went with a swing and the joy of the proverbial wedding bells. It was, essentially an exquisitely gowned party the younger crowd looking particularly smart.

The dance programme was admirably arranged consisting of sixteen regular dances and four extras. The orchestra played all the latest popular airs and encores and repeat encores were very much in evidence. The dancers were especially appreciated by the older crowd, many of whom were present, as were also two or three waltzes. The tango, two-step, one-step, Boston and hesitation waltz made up the balance of this altogether delightful programme.

The environments of the ball room were most artistic, pretty pink shaded lights and banks of palms and ferns on the dais setting off to perfection, the many beautiful gowns.

The supper arrangements were very complete and the service excellent, the guests being served in the reception rooms and ball room. It was an early hour this morning, before the strains of the National Anthem brought this particularly jolly Easter dance to a most successful conclusion. Mrs. Brendon and her daughters received their guests at the entrance to the ball room.

Mrs. Brendon looked very handsome indeed in a becoming gown of black satin with net overdress.

Miss Grace Brendon, who came up for the dance from Detroit, was most attractive in a modish gown of rose satin.

Miss Fanny Brendon, looking particularly chic, wore a most becoming frock of white satin with blue brocade tunic.

A few of the pretty dresses noticed were as follows: Mrs. Mabon, blue satin shadow lace; Mrs. Lewis (Barrie) white satin, old lace; Miss Elsie Cockshutt, green taffeta and lace; Miss Evelyn and Miss Kathleen Buck, white satin with shadow lace tunic; Mrs. George D. Watt, rose satin with sequined trimming; Mrs. Logan Waterous, black lace over satin; Miss Maud Henry, green crepe dechine trimmed with lavender velvet; Miss Nora Wallace, apricot satin; Miss Ella Chalcraft, white silk blue trimmings; Miss Gretchen Dunstan, black and white silk; Miss Dorothy Wilkes, white silk and chiffon tunic; Miss Emily Bunnell, pink silk, white shadow lace; Miss Marion Watts, cerise satin, white lace tunic; Miss Helen Sykes, Toronto, pink satin; Miss VanNorman, grey taffeta, blue trimmings; Dorris Hardy, rose satin; Miss Cora Jones, pink silk, shadow lace; Miss Gardner, white satin; Mrs. W. Paris News Sudden Death of Mrs. Robert Garland--Other News Items.

PARIS, April 13.—The death took place early Sunday morning of Mrs. Robert Garland of St. Catharines, at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. Henstock, Paris Station. The deceased, who was a widow, had not been enjoying the best of health, and had come to spend the winter with her sister in the hope that the change would be beneficial. For some time she improved and enjoyed thoroughly good health, which she had lost in the heart set in. Everything that could be done for the deceased by the medical man and loving friends in the home was of no avail. She seemed to improve and preparations were made for her to return to her home and spend the winter holidays there, which she so strongly desired, but late Friday evening a severe cold and she passed away early Sunday morning. A short service was conducted at the house by Rev. C. E. Purton at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the remains taken to St. Catharines for interment. Much sympathy is expressed to Mrs. Henstock in her bereavement. The late Mrs. Garland was in her 47th year and leaves one brother and six sisters to mourn her demise.

Funeral of the Late John Armstrong.—The funeral took place yesterday afternoon of Mr. John Armstrong, who passed away on Friday in his 90th year. The late deceased came to Paris with his family at the age of 17, and for some years worked in the Coleman and Curtis plaster mines adjoining Paris. Later the family moved to a farm in Brantford township, at present occupied by Mr. Clump. A few years after that the father of the deceased purchased 250 acres not far from the Clump property which has remained in the Armstrong family ever since. For 10 years the subject of this sketch, with his family, resided in Australia. Upon returning to Canada he farmed in Burford, and later in London Tp. where his wife died and for the last 10 years he had made his home with his son, Mark, of Bantfield Street. He was only sick for a week and retained his faculties to the last. He also lived beneath five sovereigns. Rev. W. Reed conducted the services. He leaves to mourn his loss three sons and one daughter—Mark, E. of Paris; James of Sask., Thomas of London and Mrs. C. D. McElmohr of Vancouver.

Easter was observed in all the churches in town by special music from the choir, special reference being made by the ministers to the glories of the Easter resurrection. Mr. Tom Billings of Montreal was home over the Easter holidays. Cr. Geo. Bosworth of Sales, North Dakota is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Bosworth, Walnut St. Misses S. McClean and E. Chrysler spent the Easter holidays at Detroit. Miss Corrigan of Toronto spent the week-end with her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hayden and family of Woodstock are visiting Mrs. James Knight. Mrs. James Shaveross and little daughter Eva were in London over the holiday. Miss Lizzie Springate of Hamilton, is visiting relatives in town. Miss Rhoda Blythe of Toronto, has returned from a pleasant visit spent with Miss Shaw.

THEFTS ARE NUMEROUS

(Continued from Page 1) his actions before the magistrate justified this decision. The evidence taken he contended did not warrant his conviction. Upon this charge the magistrate decided to dismiss the brother William. Thomas Chebers was then charged with entering the rectory of Grace church on Sunday. He pleaded not guilty. Samuel Burn testified that the rectory had been broken into. He had seen a man leaving the rectory on the Sunday in question. He could not positively identify the man, neither could a servant at the rectory who had noticed the man. Therefore this charge was dismissed. Thomas was then charged with entering the rectory of St. Jude's church on Sunday, March 28th, and taking therefrom a sum of money as the R.M.S.S. Royal Edward and Royal George decreedly taken from the house of H. J. Best, and also another charge of entering the residence of the Rev. A. E. Lavelle were adjourned to further the case against them. Both prisoners were then remanded upon all charges, including that upon which Thomas was convicted. Fancy dresses, cloaks and tapes of various descriptions, also some costly hand cut champagne glasses, in all making a very considerable pile, valued at about $300 were littered upon the solicitors' and reporters' benches at the police court this morning. These articles had been taken by two men, Fred Avery and John James, who were charged with the theft of the goods which had been taken from the summer residence of the Stratford family, just beyond the Institution for the Blind. Defendants, both of whom are married men, Avery having a family of two in the city, admitted taking the goods, but gave no reasons for their action. They had simply found the winter and had paid frequent visits, bringing clothes, decanters and other goods away with them. This was the first occasion on which either man had been in trouble. The men had taken the articles and not endeavored to sell them and could not tell the Bench what they intended to do with the stolen goods. It looked simply a case of taking advantage of a chance to get something for nothing. The case will come up for decision on Friday.

Tarzan of The Apes

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

Copyright, 1912, by the Frank A. Munsey Company.

Immediately after him came a white body, but this one slighted erect. D'Arnot saw a clean limbed young giant emerge from the shadows into the frelight and come quickly toward him.

Without a word Tarzan of the apes cut the bonds which held the Frenchman. Wink from suffering and loss of blood, he would have fallen but for the strong arm that caught him.

When dawn broke upon the little camp of Frenchmen in the heart of the jungle it found a sad and disheartened group. As soon as it was light enough to see their surroundings Lieutenant Charpentier sent men in groups of three in several directions to locate the trail...

As he approached the cabin he saw her coming out. When she saw him she hurried forward to meet him. "Jane!" he cried. "How have you been good to see you. Tell me how you escaped—what form Providence took to save you for—us."

As he approached the cabin he saw her coming out. When she saw him she hurried forward to meet him. "Jane!" he cried. "How have you been good to see you. Tell me how you escaped—what form Providence took to save you for—us."

As the little party emerged from the jungle the first person that Professor Porter and Cecil Clayton saw was Jane Porter standing by the cabin door.

With a little cry of joy and relief she ran forward to greet them, throwing her arms about her father's neck and bursting into tears for the first time since they had been cast upon this hideous and adventurous shore.

Professor Porter, burying his old face in the girl's shoulder, sobbed like a tired child. Jane Porter led him toward the cabin, and the Frenchmen turned toward the beach from which several of their fellows were advancing to meet them.

Clayton, wishing to leave father and daughter alone, joined the sailors and remained talking with the officers until their boat pulled away toward the cruiser, whither Lieutenant Charpentier was bound to report the unhappy outcome of his adventure.

Then Clayton turned back slowly toward the cabin. His heart was filled with happiness. The woman he loved was safe.

As he approached the cabin he saw her coming out. When she saw him she hurried forward to meet him. "Jane!" he cried. "How have you been good to see you. Tell me how you escaped—what form Providence took to save you for—us."

He had never before called her by her given name. Forty-eight hours before it would have sufficed Jane Porter with a soft glow of pleasure to hear that name from Clayton's lips.

Now it frightened her. "Mr. Clayton," she said quietly, extending her hand, "first let me thank you for your loyalty to my father. He has told me how noble and self sacrificing you have been. How can we ever repay you?"

Clayton noticed that she did not return his familiar salutation, but he felt no misgivings on that score. She had seen through so much. This was no time to force his love upon her, he quickly realized.

"I am already repaid," he laughed, "just to see you and Professor Porter both safe, well and together again."

"Oh!" cried Clayton. In surprise. "It was he who rescued you? You have not told me anything of your adventure. Don't you know. Tell me do."

"But the woodman," she urged. "Have you not seen him? When we heard the shots in the jungle, very faint and far away, he left me. We had just reached the clearing, and he hurried off in the direction of the fighting. I know he went to aid you."

Her tone was almost pleading, her manner tense with suppressed emotion. Clayton could not but notice it, and he wondered vaguely why she was so deeply moved, so anxious to know the whereabouts of this strange creature. He did not suspect the truth, for how could he?

In his breast, unknown to himself, was implanted the first germ of jealousy and suspicion of the ape man to whom he owed his life.

TWO SPLENDID REPRESENTATIVES.

In North Brant the riding possesses a couple of first-class members for the Dominion and Ontario Houses in the persons of Mr. J. Fisher, M.P., and Mr. J. Westbrook, M.P.P.

They are men who intelligently and actively participate in matters affecting the national and provincial welfare, and in addition are always on the alert, in a local sense, to help their constituents with regard to just needs.

Mr. Fisher "arrived" long ago, and is daily becoming even more strong. Mr. Westbrook is a very young man yet, but he is coming along at a rapid rate, both as a speaker and parliamentarian.

The one "John" won North Brant for the first time since Confederation for the Conservative party last election by 129 of a majority. The other "John," on his first venture, landed in the Ontario House by 176. That each will do even better than that next time goes without question, for they have proved themselves to be a great and an efficient pair.

ROWELL'S RAMBLINGS

Mr. N. W. Rowell, leader of the Opposition party—what there is of it—in the Ontario House, believes with an intensity which is almost pathetic, that the people of this Province are just yearning for him to assume the reins of office.

During the course of a speech which he delivered last evening, he gave full vent to this hallucination, and said, moreover:

"You have a government that is determined to maintain itself in office at any price, and will stop at nothing to do it."

Poor Rowell! He seems to think that Whitney and his colleagues are a set of brigands, and that he can actually make the people of this province believe the same thing.

If splendid and progressive measures show a determination to remain in office, then indeed the present administration will remain in power for a very long number of years yet to come. Abolition of the school book monopoly, Hydro Electric, and a score of other things of almost equal moment attest the excellence of the government, and moreover there has not been one scandalous taint to offset the good work.

As a matter of fact, Rowell will be lucky if in the coming fight he gets back with even the corporals guard of supporters which he now possesses.

THE FREE TRADE FALLACY.

During the course of his notable address in the Dominion House recently, Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M.P., quoted at length from a speech lately made in the British House by Mr. Page Croft, M.P., one of the rising public men of the younger school in the Old Land.

Mr. Croft said that he was quoting figures which he had secured from the President of the Board of Trade department, and their accuracy was, of course, unimpeachable. He then went on to prove up to the hilt the absurdity of the claim that protected countries could not, and did not, show up relatively in trade matters and trade expansion alongside of Free Trade Britain. Here are some samples which he gave:

Exports Per Head of Population table with columns for Country and Exports. Includes Holland, Belgium, New Zealand, Australia, Switzerland, United Kingdom.

HIS ANCESTOR.

"This is one of my ancestors," she said, pausing before a portrait. "He fell at Waterloo. Have you any ancestors?"

He suddenly remembered an ancestor who had sole charge of the front of a cinema show, and murmured: "He—yes, one."

"Did he fall anywhere?" "Not exactly; but I remember being told how, clothed in full armor, form, but unarmed save for a light cane, he stood before an Eastern palace and kept a howling, surging mob at bay, single handed."

KILLING TIME.

J. Johnson Jinks has wealth to burn, though not a kopeck did he earn. His father croaked some years ago, and left him forty kinds of dough, and he has basked in gilded ease since he was lower than your knees.

And life to him is bleak and drear, and every hour seems like a year. He does not work like useful boys, but buys new coats and other toys and waxes of them when they're bought, for nothing seems to reach the spot. He travels here and travels there, and finds new boredom and despair; his only task is killing time, and that's a nuisance and a crime. There's naught on earth will take the kinks from out the soul of J. J. Jinks, because he never learned to toil, nor had to make the kettle boil. I'd rather labor in the ditch than be so useless and so rich. This world is but a poor resort for any over-ladled sport who tries to purchase cheap renown with wealth; his old man's head down, I'd rather have one silver bone, that I have earned that is my own, than have a bundle in my till, awarded by some dead one's will.

Exhibition of School Work
A large and enthusiastic crowd of visitors attended the public exhibition of pupils' work held in the new school at Grandview on April 9th. The different rooms presented a very pretty appearance, with the pupils' art and construction work artistically arranged on the walls. Many were the exclamations of surprise and delight from the parents and friends of the pupils, at the variety and uniform excellence of the work done in the different grades of the school. Great interest was taken in the set of relief maps, recently purchased by the school board, which were also on exhibition. The work entitled shows that Grandview School has a very proficient and energetic staff of teachers, and a wide awake, up to date school board who are determined to do all in their power to make the school second to none in the county.

FIREMEN WERE OUT

Two Calls Received Yesterday — Danger From Grass Fires.

The Central Fire department had two calls yesterday to small fires. About 4 p.m. a telephone call came from the Stratford property on the Paris Road behind the O.I.B. grounds, that a grass fire threatened to do considerable damage to the fences. Lieut. Codd and four men and the light hose wagon responded to the call and for an hour and thirty minutes they had a difficult task extinguishing the blaze. The fire started in the old Woodlyatt property and spread rapidly to the Stratford property when Mr. Stratford telephoned the department.

Chief Lewis suggests that more care be taken by people setting fire to the grass on their property as the high wind which has been prevalent the last few days carries the blaze rapidly. Last night about midnight one of the occupants of the rooms over Kelly's cigar store thought the chimney over the store was on fire, and he ran up to the fire hall and awakened the firemen. Lieut. Codd and a couple of men went to the scene of the fire and found the chimney in a blaze which they quickly extinguished and cleaned the inside. No damage was done.

Circus Coming in June.
Ringling Bros. circus will be in this city on June 25. This information was given out this morning when a notice was received at the City Hall to-day. This circus has not been here for two years, but will land here on June 25 for one day only.

BELLEVIEW RATEPAYERS WERE PLEASSED

Good Roads Bill.
This Bill was opposed principally because of the popularity it would have brought to the Conservative party. This bill was passed by the federal government and twice rejected by the Senate, which was undoubtedly influenced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the late Premier. Ontario thus lost a matter of two and a half million dollars. Brant County had lost $25,000 which would have been expended upon good roads for the district. The partisan action of the late Premier, had caused this loss to Brant County.

Naval Question.
The Borden Government had proposed a vote of $5 millions for the building and upkeep of three battleships. The ships to be the recallable property of Canada. Extracts were read from a report on the matter, after which Mr. Fisher said he was almost ashamed to look an Englishman in the face, to think that after England had protected Canada all these years and then the Dominion refused to aid the mother country in her protective measures.

National Debts.
During the four years that the Laurier Government was in power, they had increased the National Debt by 76 millions, and the Conservatives during their three years of power, had reduced the debt six millions, in spite of the assertions of the opposition that the country was going to the dogs.

Brantford Gas.
There was no need to speak of it, as the local gas spoke for itself. However, if the gas was not remedied the government would step in and force a conclusion to the present nuisance.

He was a Conservative, having been connected with politics all his life; in fact, ever since he was fifteen years of age. He was a Conservative because he believed it was the best party to govern the Dominion. He concluded with thanks to the audience for their attention.

The Compensation Act.
Mr. J. W. Westbrook was called upon and hoped that his audience would not be disappointed with his address in view of the things spoken by his friends who had spoken before. Compensation for the workmen was a thing which was absolutely necessary, and an act was necessary to balance the law upon the subject. Many workingmen could not afford a legal fight for his compensation, to which he was entitled. It often occurred that a workman had to take a half and half agreement with his lawyer and even then sometimes the lawyer got the best of this. The act did away with all legal expenses, and this was a great point. A man's widow would in the case of a fatal accident, receive a minimum of twenty dollars a month for life or in case of second marriage a continuance of compensation for two years after the ceremony. He held that the Canadian act was a better one than that of Great Britain. In fact it was equal to the rate at present in force in Russia the supposedly behind-the-time country.

Mr. Rowell had had little to say when the bill was put upon the table, and it was going through with very little alterations. The doctors had claimed that they would be hard hit by the act if it was passed, but he assured them that they would lose nothing.

Manufacturers' Approval.
Several manufacturers in this district, had with two minor exceptions expressed their entire approval of the act as it stood. When this was so he thought they had a very good act.

Child Labor.
No child under 14 years of age had any right to be out of school, but this fact did not warrant the act of the opposition who had introduced a measure which would have almost prohibited a child from running messages after school.

Supposed Assailable Point.
The government had frequently been assailed upon the point of being in league with the liquor interests. This state of things would continue as long as Mr. Rowell was at the head of the Liberals in the Provincial House. But Mr. Rowell had never refused the aid of the liquor interests when he went to the people for election. The Liberals had been in power a long time but had never made a stroke in the direction of abolishing the bar.

If Mr. Rowell, who belonged to the Ontario Club, was an ardent supporter of the bar, why did he hold his little meetings at the Ontario Club where the fragrant odor of beer barrels floated around his nostrils? If a man voted against his employers who were liquor dealers under the old system of balloting it was probable he would lose his position. If there was one thing which justified Mr. Whitney's election it was his action in abolishing the old system of balloting. Mr. Rowell had been a director of the Globe newspaper of Toronto, a paper

STUDENTS AT OTTAWA ARE ON A STRIKE

All Because Father Fallon is to be Succeeded by a French Priest.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, April 14.—The hundred students of Ottawa University, back from the Easter vacation, paraded the streets of the city this morning and refused to enter their classrooms, as a protest against the banishment of Father James Fallon, prefect of studies, by the Oblate order. None of the English-speaking students, of whom there are over 400, resumed their studies, and matters are practically at a standstill at the institution to-day.

It had been announced that Father Fallon was to be succeeded by a French priest, Father Lajeunesse, but the English-speaking students demanded that their own nationalities be represented. They marched through the streets this morning, saying, "We want Father Murphy." Father Stephen Murphy is a teacher at the college, and one of the objects of the strike is to have him promoted to succeed Father Fallon, who, of course, it is realized, will not be brought back.

The marchers sang various college songs, gave the variety football yell, and made a hostile demonstration at the residence of Dr. Anthony Freeland, ex-Separate School trustee, who was one of the leaders of the French side in the bilingual movement, and who was defeated in January in St. George, in which the university is located.

At 11 o'clock the parade broke up, but there will be a mass meeting of the students in St. Patrick's Hall this afternoon to decide on a further line of action. The university authorities sent word to the leaders of the strike that the students who are in residence at the college must return to their studies at once or expulsion will follow. This so far has been ignored, but the boys from out of town will either have to come back to-night or go hungry and walk the streets unless they are provided for by their friends outside.

PRICE OF HORSES

Continues to Keep at High Water Mark—Sale Yesterday.

The price which horses command continues to rise, in spite of the statements of pessimists, who say that the value of the horse as a commercial proposition was bound to decline in the face of the coming motor vehicle. This may be so, but farmers realize that horses are of much greater utility round a farm than any motor would be. This fact was demonstrated at a sale conducted by Mr. Welby Almas, just east of Paris yesterday. The price of good horses was standing about $210 up, and Mr. Almas can see no way in which the price is likely to suffer a slump.

ANNUAL ROUNDS

License Commissioners Spent Four Hours in Hotels Yesterday.

The license commissioners, Messrs. W. J. Verity, Thos. Hendry and John Colter, yesterday spent four hours going into every nook and corner on a round of inspection of local hotels. They climbed fire escapes, went into the cellars, looked over the cuisines and nothing escaped their attention. As a result some recommendations for improvements will be made, but will proclaim nothing of a drastic nature. The hotels generally are considered well conducted, although it is reported there is a lack of sample room accommodation every now and then. The Commissioners meet on Saturday to consider applications for licenses.

Obituary

Late James W. Whitaker. Mr. James W. Whitaker, a well-known and respected resident of this city, passed away at his home, 69 West Mill street, on Saturday, after a brief illness from pneumonia. The deceased who was 58 years of age was one of the early members of St. Paul's church Holmevale, and he was the last surviving of the church founders. For many years he was employed in the Massey-Harris works, and was a member of several lodges of the city. Left to mourn his loss are a widow, two sons, and three daughters: Mrs. George Patterson of this city; Lillian at home; Fred, Harry and James T. of this city.

The Ven. Archdeacon Mackenzie and Rev. W. A. Wright will conduct the last services at the funeral which takes place to Greenwood cemetery from the late residence this afternoon.

Local News

Tendering Roomers Banquet. To-morrow night the Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A., are tendering their first annual banquet to the dormitory roomers of the building. After the supper Mr. J. W. Hopkins of the Toronto Y.M.C.A. will deliver an address to the men and a splendid programme of songs and speeches will be given.

Building Permits Issued. Building permits were issued this morning to Ogilvie and Lochead, who are making alterations and building an addition to the rear of their store at an estimated cost of $8,000. The Trusts and Guarantee Co. for the erection of a brick and terra cotta store on Dalhousie street at a cost of $2,500.

An Early Application. There is one man in this city who believes in applying early for a position. Having heard, through the press that the city contemplated the purchase of a new steam road roller, Orlando Jackson has forwarded his application for the position of engineer for the new roller. He claims to have had considerable experience and is well fitted for the position.

Motor Bus Charges. Some time ago the City Clerk wrote to the city clerk of Toronto, asking him for a table of the tariff charges for motor buses in that city. The needed information came to-day together with a chart which is carried by every driver of a taxi there. Upon demand the chauffeur is compelled to show this chart, which shows the rate of tariff charged for a trip. In Toronto the motor bus license is as

Canadian League News Notes

Shag Is Happy. The acceptance of terms by "Lefty" Rogers, the premier all round athlete of the Fitzgerald circuit, just about rounds out the double belted champs of Ottawa. Coming one week before the Senators pitch camp, the announcement of Rogers' decision is a real thriller to local fans, just as it is to managers around the circuit, only with reverse English. Rogers will not only add strength to the hitting and fielding departments, but give the club one additional hurler of merit. Lefty's record last year stands by itself. In hitting, fielding, base-running and pitching he was grouped up among the leaders. He was a big leaguer playing in Class C company.

With Rogers reporting next Monday week at Chatham, Manager Shaughnessy now only has to worry about a good shortstop and one more pitcher. Lines are out for the former and when training camp opens, it is expected both a short fielder as well as an experienced pitcher will be tacked on to the squad.

No less than nine men will make up the artillery brigade when the practice season opens. This will be the largest bunch of twirlers that showed up for trial with the Senators. The list includes: Kane, Rogers, Lill, Kubat, Hall, Newman, Durkee, Bernlorh, and Ottawa Free Press.

Including one twirler yet to be signed, Manager Frank Shaughnessy will have a squad of nine mound men in Camp Chatham when things get under way next Monday at the Senators' training location. "Lefty" Rogers is signed up and, with him there will be Frank Kubat, Tom Kane, Joe Lill, Al Bernlorh Sam Hall, Durkee and Newman a mighty capable looking twirling staff for the champs. There will be no scarcity of pitchers, and it is a cinch that five of this bunch, at least will fill the requirements of the Senators.

The infield squad, at present, consists of Coss Dolan, Smejkal, Bulock, Tesch, Anderson, Fried and another short-stop whom Frank Shaughnessy will secure on his scouting trip. For the outfield there is Manager Frank Shaughnessy, "Lefty" Rogers, Murphy, Rose and Pettie Powers with the club one additional hurler of merit. Lefty's record last year stands by itself. Sporting Comment

One week from to-day the Red Sox will start spring training at Agricultural park. The advance guard of pitchers will arrive here in all probability on Friday or Saturday, and will immediately start work while the remainder of the team will report ready for work Monday morning.

Spring training games will be played with the Eagle Place Stars and a number of other teams, but until Manager Deneau arrives here next Saturday, will any definite arrangements be made.

Although they had a representative at the annual meeting of the W. O. B. A. in Berlin on Good Friday, the Eagle Place Stars have not as yet definitely decided to enter the league. At a meeting Saturday night, the matter was thoroughly discussed, but nothing was given out to the press until next Saturday night when a schedule meeting will be held in Berlin. After seeing what dates they can get the matter will be decided, but not until then, however, it is a safe bet Fred Billio's bunch of ball tossers will be represented in President Humber's semi-pro. circuit this season.

This year, with Guelph and Berlin in, both cities having had their taste of Canadian League, the league will be greatly strengthened, and in all probability next year the league will develop into a Class D organization, and a couple of other cities added to make it an eight team league.

Hamilton started training Friday, when Dr. Yates had four of his stalwarts in uniform. The Doc. expects to play his first game the latter part of the week.

Guelph is snatching at the chance to get into the semi-pro. circuit. Hope they do better than last year in the Canadian.

Buffalo has released Norman McNeill to Erie. McNeill was the scrappy backstop with Peterboro last year who had the reputation of never having retired a man on a caught foul.

After the exhibition games the training process will be completed at Chatham the first week in May.

The first meeting of Rube Deneau and Doc Reisinger should make Canadian League history.

Manager Shaughnessy embarks tomorrow on a week's scouting trip through the Middle States. He goes first to Detroit and from there to Fort Wayne and Indianapolis. He has every confidence he will land two or three men he seeks.

Artie Lage will join the squad in Adrian, Michigan, on April 25th. Tom Kane will pick up the team at Toledo Ohio. The Senators have four exhibition games booked in a row. Two at Adrian and two at Toledo, starting this. This should prepare the club for the raising of the barrier at St. Thomas May 7th.

PITCHER MOLYNEAUX HELD AS BIGAMIST
HAMILTON, April 14.—B. Molyneaux, a former Canadian League pitcher, is charged with bigamy. It is alleged he went through the marriage ceremony with a Hamilton girl named Ringer at St Thomas, although he had a wife living.

MACKMEN WON SPRING SERIES

Athletics Captured Deciding Game From Phillies 2-1.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The Philadelphia Athletics captured the spring series from the local National League team at Shibe Park, when the world's champions won yesterday's game in two innings by the score of 2 to 1. It was a pitcher's battle between Jacobus, Oeschger, Houck and Pennock. In the tenth inning, Pennock doubled and went to third on a wild pitch by Oeschger. Eddie Murphy then hit to Lobert, who made a low throw to the plate, and Pennock scored the winning run. Score: Athletics 2, Phillies 1. Nationals 000000100—1 6 1 Americans 0010000001—2 7 0 Batteries—Jacobus, Oeschger and Burns; Houck, Pennock and Lapp.

GUNBOAT SMITH

Has Accepted Challenge to Box George Carpentier for Twenty Rounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—Jim Buckley, manager of Gunboat Smith claimant of the world's heavyweight championship, has cabled to London accepting the offer of a $25,000 purse made by Dick Burge for a 20 round match between Gunboat Smith and George Carpentier.

The action taken by Buckley means that the proposed match between Smith and Sam Langford, which was to have been made for May, is off. Buckley states that Smith will fight Langford just as soon as he disposes of Carpentier.

The Langford match had been considered as good as made until Buckley's action to-day.

Cricket

Grace Church Cricket Club will hold their general meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the coming season in the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening 14th inst. All members are requested to attend, also the club will be glad to enroll any new men who would like to get into the game this season.

Prospects are bright for some enthusiastic cricket this summer. The ideal is up to one of the Brantford teams to win back the trophy which Paris has held for the last two successive years. Should they be victorious again this season the cup will be theirs for all time. Now, cricketers, what's it to be? Are we going to stand for that or not?

Makes Plea For Amateurs

To the Sporting Editor:
Sir—Can you allow me a small space in the interest of sport, in your paper? I see by the Toronto papers that the Toronto Central, who by the way take a big interest in walking races, are trying to find out some good talent to represent Canada at the next Olympic games. Have we any good men in this city who could qualify for a position on one of the teams? Surely among all the young men we see in the city there is some diamond in the rough waiting to be taken up. I think it is only through lack of that sporting spirit, which we all should have in our hearts, that up the present we are not heard from. A local paper used to hold an open walking race some few years ago, but I think they have lost what interest they used to have in our young men. Mostly all of us can walk; some a little faster than others. I am sure practically everyone knows that walking is one of the best forms of exercise any one can go in for. I feel sure if any gentleman will put up a trophy, he would be amply repaid by the amount of health he would see brought into the frames of some of our young men, who up to the present have nothing to interest them. I should like to see a trophy put up that must be won twice, and the race limited to Brant County only; each entry to have lived in the county six months before the race. The ideal course I would suggest would be around Tutela Heights, which is about seven miles. Hoping some one will step into the breach, I remain yours, MERCURY.

Red Sox Player Lands in Hospital

Stopover, April 11, 1914.

Mr. Nelson, B. B. C., Dear Sir—Things seemed to be coming my way nicely until yesterday when I had the misfortune to have my foot spiked. It is a disgrace how careless the railway corporation are of the travelling public. In fact, it should be a criminal offence for them to have things lying about for innocent trespassers to step on.

I prayed the doctor here to save my life as I wanted to make a name for myself as a ball player. He promised to do his best to pull me through, but still if it came to the worst, and I died, he still thought I would have a chance if he shipped my corpse to Doc Yeates as he had information, Hamilton was getting together a bunch of dead ones and Doc was going to experiment with them and see if he could inject a little life into their systems.

Could you notify Mayor Spence that the Hospital authorities here are using me fine since I told them to sign me up as a resident of Brantford. The chairman of the board has sent my bill of expense in advance and expects to receive the money by my return mail. He has the opinion that there is a lot of sick people in Brantford as every unidentified person that dies here they take a chance and bill Brantford for expenses and up to date

They say every man has a little bright spot. Of love deep in his heart. (Imagine Bobbie's arms around Knotty's neck, Both weeping as they part. I can't find any account of Brantford's only National League player, Jake Ritchie, signing up with the Fredcrals, or Jim Bradley's Woodstock callow. I wonder if Jake's grand children have persuaded him to give up baseball? This seems like a pretty raw fish to a letter but here goes. If a beautiful bashful blushing maiden wished for a boat ride on Mohawk Lake would Gerro. HARD GOING.

Not One Charge Of Scandal Against Borden

Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, M. P., in His Speech Shows How Government Has Confidence of the People.

The following is a continuation of Mr. W. F. Cockshutt's forceful address on the tariff question as taken from Hansard. Mr. Cockshutt said:

I have mentioned this in order to draw to the attention of the people the difference between the two parties in this respect. So far as the practical work of the country is concerned, this Government has been in power about three years. We are nearing the end of the third session of Parliament. We have the financial statements; we know what the Government has done in the matter of expenditure. Have any hon. gentlemen opposite charged that even $100 has been wrongfully taken from the treasury since 1911 by the powers that be? If they have, I have not heard anything about it. This is the great difference between the two parties of the day, and I trust that the Finance Minister, in whose honor I have the highest confidence, will continue the same straight course that has been pursued in the two and a half years during which this Government has been in power.

Let me give our friends opposite a piece of history. It is not always pleasing to Conservatives to remember this, but I think it will help to bring out the point I am making. Between the years 1872 and 1874 we had what was called the Pacific scandal, in which Sir John A. Macdonald, probably the greatest statesman Canada has ever seen, was the central figure. It was charged that he received a subscription of $25,000 from Sir Hugh Allan in order that he might hand the contract for this railway over to him. In the year 1874 the Sir John A. Macdonald Government was condemned and punished by the people of Canada—turned out of office and relegated to opposition—on account of one small scandal; but during the sixteen years that followed, from 1866 to 1911, we had not one but over one hundred scandals, the amounts expended in connection with dollars, in spite of all these scandals, that Government remained in power for sixteen years, handing out the people's money, as I contend, wrongfully, and without receiving one hundred cents on the dollar for it. That is the difference that has existed up to the present time between the powers that were and the powers that be. May this Government continue to run just as straight a course as it has run in the past. I have the privilege of knowing something about the expenditures that have been made. I am glad to say that in the city from which I come we are getting a public building. It was a long felt want; we could not get the building under the old regime. That building is now nearing completion, and I venture to say that so far as outlay on that structure is concerned—and it is costing a quarter of a million dollars—close investigation would not reveal the misappropriation of even a ten dollar bill. I have had to come to the department in connection with the matter, and the whole procedure has been as straight as a string. As I have said I hope this will continue, because as a humble member of this House I do not want to get up and vote that black is white in order to save the Government from defeat. In the early years of the Administration of hon. gentlemen opposite they had a good record, but as soon as they departed from the path of political truth and commercial honesty, and they went out of power rather than give the people one hundred cents on the dollar for the money they were expending.

I have dealt very briefly—perhaps my hon. friends may think somewhat harshly, but I have done it in all kindness—with the administration of affairs under the late Government. If my hon. friends opposite ever get in power again I trust that if another transcontinental railway is to be built, the contracts will be let in a more business-like manner and that one hundred cents on the dollar will be obtained for the people's money. If my hon. friend lives one hundred years—and I think he will have to live that long before he gets into power again—I trust that what he calls mistakes, but what I am afraid were committed with open eyes, will not be repeated.

I think that I would not be forgiven if I did not deal with some matters pertaining to the great question that appears to be agitating the hon. member for Assiniboia and others of his kind, with regard to protection and free trade and tariff changes. My most estimable friend the hon. member for Red Deer (Mr. Michael Clark) is not in his place. I dearly love to have the hon. member for Red Deer present when I am giving my views with regard to protection, because we agree so beautifully on theory that his absence takes the edge off my remarks to a certain extent. Personally we are the very best of friends, and I admire him as a good parliamentary debater and a man who presents his case with great skill. But if he could only present protection with the same skill that he presents free trade, he would be making a better hit with the House and the country. Recently the hon. member for Red Deer delivered an address before the Canadian Club in the city of Ottawa—an address worthy of passing attention. I read it over—not, I admit, with as much care as I might have done, because I am very familiar with his arguments—any I must say that he made a very rosy presentation of his case. Unfortunately, however, for him, and unfortunately for any gentleman who holds similar views the principles expounded by my hon. friend do not seem to pan out when the facts are closely examined. I am very much averse to reading the remarks of others, and I do not often do so; I would rather at any time speak than read. But I have here an address delivered by the hon. member for Red Deer but by an English member of Parliament, one of the brightest young men in the British House of Commons, with whom I have the pleasure of a personal acquaintance, Mr. H. Page Croft, and published in no less a paper than the Manchester Weekly Times, of February 21 last. It is a peculiar thing that is should be published in the centre of the free trade school. This speech was delivered in the House of Commons in Great Britain, about the time that my hon. friend from Red Deer made his brilliant speech before the Canadian Club. Mr. Cockshutt, thereupon read Mr. Croft's speech.

Continuing he said:

I have read enough to show that while the hon. member for Red Deer holds up to the Dominion of Canada this great free trade country as an ideal to follow, a gentleman who is better posted than the hon. member for Red Deer delivers a speech in the British House in which he says: they are going to have tariff reform. And I venture to say to the hon. member for Red Deer that there is a great deal more chance of protection being introduced into Great Britain than there is of free trade being introduced into the Dominion of Canada. Let him look at the wage list over in England. Even on the railways, the highest paid class in the whole of Great Britain to-day, with their engineers and other highly skilled men, the average wage barely reaches $7 a week on an employment of half a million men. In Canada, the average wage upon the railways is $10.50 to $10.75 a week, a difference of nearly fifty per cent in favor of Canada. Take the conditions all along the line. My hon. friend talks glibly about the high cost of living and the reduction of cost to the consumers. Who are the consumers? We are all consumers in this country.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: Hear, hear.

Mr. Cockshutt: And if the hon. gentlemen opposite would consume a little more sense and give it to the people it would be a good thing.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: Give us the food and we will consume it.

Mr. Carroll: Has the hon. gentleman gone into the matter of the relative cost of living in Canada and Great Britain?

Mr. Cockshutt: I can tell my hon. friend that a British Commission was sent out to this side to study conditions, particularly in the United States. This commission reported that there was a very large margin in favor of the American working man as compared with the British working man, not only as regards wages, but with regard to the cost of living. Does my hon. friend know that meat rarely appears on the table of the British workmen? On the Continent it is almost an unknown article. Horseflesh occasionally gets on the tables, but never a good piece of beef. My hon. friend must know that we in Canada to-day are living in clover as compared with other countries, and that our working men are paid as well, if not better, than any other working men in the world, and they would be contented if such agitators as appear occasionally on the other side of the House would only leave them alone.

My hon. friend from Assiniboia (Mr. Turfiff) was so anxious to prove his case that he quoted an article on one side and then killed it on the other side before he got through. Let me point out what he said—and I will deal with this a little more fully later on. He says the Cockshutt Plow Company pays the duty when they ship plows into the United States, and that they sell their goods cheaper there than they do in Canada. Who pays the duty on plows coming into Canada? My hon. friend blows hot and cold. When the manufacturer ships goods from this country he pays the duty, but when the American manufacturer ships implements here the Canadian farmer pays the duty.

Mr. Turfiff: If my hon. friend understood me to say that—

Mr. Cockshutt: You certainly did.

Mr. Turfiff: If I said that, I did not express what I had in mind. What I meant to say was that the Cockshutt Plow Company could sell their goods so cheaply in the United States that the consumer in the United States purchased them even although he had to pay a duty of 15 per cent. on the implements and 45 per cent. on repairs. I did not intend to say that the Cockshutt Plow Company paid the duty.

GRACE VESTRY

The annual meeting of Grace Church vestry was held last night in the Sunday school room. There was a good turnout of the men, and Very Rev. Archdeacon Mackenzie occupied the chair.
