When first started it was only a very little sheet, 13 by 20 inches, with a circulation of only three hundred. Since then it has been twice enlarged, the last time it is a 28-column double royal sheet, with a circulation of nearly eight hundred. The last issue is devoted entirely to reading matter, while the two outside pages are filled with local news and advertisements.

The Reporter makes a specialty of County News, and has a wide-awake, reliable correspondent in every village and hamlet in the County. A new feature, introduced a short time ago, is the important, concise market reports as the Dairyman's Board of Trade and other important notices, which are of the most substantial and reliable business men of the county. The Reporter is better filled with the live announcements of live business than any other paper in the County. The Reporter's Job Rooms are complete in all respects for turning out a first-class quality of work. Our presses are run by steam power, and are comparatively full of steam, and with that of the best work. ADDITION. MONDAY, Sept. 29. - Mr. John Patterson, of Greenbush vicinity, has returned from England, where he spent the summer. He paid our village a flying visit on Saturday evening looking hale and hearty and all seemed gratified to see him.

As Mr. Ben Brown was returning from Brockville lately he called at Mr. H. S. Moffatt's store to purchase some goods, which is customary with many. The equities becoming very attractive Mr. Brown's attention, but before he could reach them and get hold of the reins they started to run. They reached Mr. Jos. Scott's before they could be caught. There was no danger done to the rig. His young son who was ahead in a single buggy, when the horses started to run, deserves praise for courage displayed in leaving

CORRESPONDENCE.

Another Letter in Reference to the North Church Controversy. Editor FARMERSVILLE REPORTER: Dear Sir - It was with pain that I read in the columns of your interesting journal some time ago a communication regarding the North Methodist Church in Farmersville, and especially the correspondence over the signature of G. Nash, of March 7th, setting forth his claim against the Trustees of said church, which shows and ought to convince any unbiased mind that he has not been dealt with in a Christian and brotherly spirit. It was with pleasure that I read a letter in the Reporter of Oct. 29th, over the signature of C. Stowell, who advises the parties to "have the matter come before disinterested parties for settlement."

One motive among the rest which induces me to say something on this matter is the knowledge I have had of George Nash, who was born and brought up in the same neighborhood, and stood in the same class, and I do know that he was good to none in that neighborhood for good morals, were all highly respected. John Nash, his father, from my earliest recollections until he was called to try the realities of eternity, was a bold soldier of the cross and veteran of the Methodist Church.

I do not like to hear the statement that George Nash has not a bit of claim upon the trustees and that he has not accounted for some subscription monies. We will take a look at the church law, which says "In all cases such church or parsonage property may be sold. The proceeds arising from the sale may be applied - 1st. To the payment of any debts or claims upon or in respect of such property." Mr. Nash has a claim against the church property, and he has published it to the world. I do not say that claim is just, but I do say let it be investigated by disinterested parties and if found a just claim pay it. If not, let the world know that it is not a just one. Sometime since we had an investigation on the same property in Farmersville. Just at the close of the investigation a claim of the Rev. McMill, of about 21 years' standing, came up. I was a member of the board for some eight or ten years, and during that time I never heard anything of such claim, neither did my colleagues; but nevertheless it was investigated and paid. I have Mr. Nash's bill and the Rev. McMill's bill now before me, and as far as they appear on the surface, Mr. Nash's bill seems as intelligible as Rev. McMill's.

Mr. Nash informs me that he claims an investigation, and if there is nothing for him he wants the world to know it. I think, Mr. Editor, that comes as near the golden rule as you can get. And why not an investigation? If we would only think of the great commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." As every man ought to love himself, so it is every man's duty to love his neighbor as himself - not as he does love himself, but as he ought to love himself. As we love ourselves freely, readily, sincerely, unfeignedly, tenderly, compassionately, continually and perseveringly, so should we love our neighbor. The love of God and our neighbor must not be partial. He that loveth not his neighbor whom he hath seen never loved God whom he hath not seen.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for this space in your journal. F. L. MOORE, Addison, Nov. 3rd, 1888.

THE CHEESE MARKETS. Special Reporters. BROCKVILLE, Nov. 6. - The cheese market remains very quiet; in point of fact there has been little of interest in it, as recent transactions have been unimportant. Exports for the week are light - 15,735 boxes, against 42,930 for the week last year. The total exports continue ahead of the record 18,938 boxes.

As an item of importance concerning this progressive industry, I may state that the total exports for 1878 were only 37,553 boxes, against export the present year, up to the 1st inst., of 1,016,327 boxes. This shows the large increase of 637,774, which will be largely increased before the close of navigation.

The cable remains firm at 51s. REV. A. McDONALD MARRIED.

On Wednesday morning last, a very interesting event took place at Mr. Richard Kelly's, when his daughter, Annie, an estimable and popular young lady, was taken to wife by the Rev. A. K. McDonald, B. A., pastor of the Baptist Church at Algonquin. The contracting parties were supported through the ceremony by Miss Maggie Kelly and the Rev. R. Sturgeon, B. A. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. D. M. Munro, who was assisted by the Rev. C. H. Emerson, of Westport. At the conclusion of the ceremony about forty guests partook of a wedding breakfast, after which, amid the hearty congratulations and the emotionally expressed good wishes of their friends, the happy couple left for Ottawa to spend the honeymoon. The presents to the bride were numerous and beautiful, and some of them very costly. May the voyage, McGilivray, and the Rev. A. McKenzie in connection with the liberal subscriptions for this enterprise. We confidently expect to see a neat, comfortable commodious church erected early next year.

From another Correspondent. Trustees for the new church at Glen Buell, appointed on Monday, Nov. 5th, by the official conference of the Methodist Church, held at Lyn, were: Boyd Hall, John F. Fereval, Eri Hayes, Jr., R. G. Sturgeon, James Moore, O. F. Bullis and C. J. Gilroy.

The Glen Buell people have made a liberal subscription for this enterprise. We confidently expect to see a neat, comfortable commodious church erected early next year.

LOCAL SUMMARY.
FARMERSVILLE AND NEIGHBORHOOD BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.
 Events as Seen by Our Knights of the Pen.—Local Announcements Noted Briefly.
 H. H. Arnold is still selling 3 lb boxes of soda biscuits at 25c.
 The small boy, indulged in his harmless pranks on Halloween. The best value to be found in men and boys' Scotch and fur caps at H. H. Arnold's.
 Mrs. S. M. Moore, of Milwaukee, daughter of Mr. Wm. Hickey, is visiting her parents here.
 By buying your goat robes at H. H. Arnold's you will save ten per cent. Don't fail to see them.
 Messrs Bass & Mackery, tailors, Brockville, address the public through our advertising columns.
 Division Court was held here yesterday. There was a very small docket, and the proceedings were generally uninteresting.
 Quarterly Services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning. There was a large attendance of communicants.
 The annual concert and entertainment in connection with the Presbyterian Church, Newboro, will take place on the 14th inst.
 Advertisers should bear in mind that "copy" for changes must reach this office by noon on Monday, to appear in the paper of that week.
 Rev. Jas Pullar will deliver a special discourse in St. Paul's church, on Sabbath evening next, at 7 o'clock, on "A New Heaven and a New Earth." The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed at St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening. The sermon and preparatory address by the pastor were interesting and appropriate.
 The Baptist congregation will offer for sale by auction their parsonage property on Elgin street and also the old church on Church street. For particulars see advertisement in this issue.
 The Algouquin Mills have just completed and delivered 1,200 nicely finished merchants' packing cases, an item omitted in our former reference to the output of that establishment.
 Mr. H. Lang, cattle buyer of Newboro, has done a large business this fall. His shipments over the B. & W. so far figure up to over 800 head of stock. Who says our railway is not developing a paying local traffic?
 We have just received a line of statements and note heads which we supply printed and padded at $1.75 per thousand or $1 for five hundred. These goods are of fair quality and will be found just the thing for ordinary business purposes. Send in orders promptly, before the stock is all used.
 There was an immense audience at the Methodist Church Sunday evening to hear the lecture by Mrs. Blair, the well known temperance orator, of Nebraska. The subject was handled skillfully and eloquently. The chalk sketches were most interesting and vividly illustrated the points made by the lecturer.
 The interior of the Methodist Church presents a fine appearance since the recent improvements were effected. The walls of the robe and altar were finished in alabaster of a light drab shade, with a lighter shade in the ceiling. The cornice and other relieving points are a light pink, the general effect being very harmonious. This part of the work was done by Mr. Geo. DeVoe. A new plush carpet for the altar space and pulpit, and new matting for the aisles add to the appearance and comfort not neglected in the general work of renovation. The committee having charge of the improvements are to be congratulated.

FARMERSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.
 Report of the Head Master.—The School in a Pleasant Condition. The Board of Education, FARMERSVILLE: Gentlemen,—I beg leave to submit the following report of the Farmersville High School for the months of September and October, 1888.
ATTENDANCE DURING SEPTEMBER.

First Form, Juniors	Boys	27	15
Second Form	Boys	15	10
Total number enrolled		42	25
Attendance during October.
First Form, Juniors	Boys	13	20
Second Form	Boys	12	15
Total number enrolled		25	35
Average attendance		60	75

 In comparing the attendance of October of last year with that of the same month of this year, I find that there is an increase of 17 this year. The large and regular attendance, together with the interest taken by the pupils in their work, is very encouraging to the teachers. The classes taking the Teachers' Course and University Matriculation are a very promising, and the junior division of the First Form is one of the best that I have had during seven years' experience in High School work.
 Nearly all the geranium plants that were set out in front of the school building have been killed, and have been given out to persons in the village who will take care of them during the winter and return them in the spring. I have kept a list of the persons to whom plants were given, the number and the kind of plants.
 More books are required for the cloak rooms. A clock is a necessity for punctuality and regularity of school work. There are no cases of truancy standing on the books in the two lower rooms. I respectfully call the attention of the Board to these requirements.
 For the successful carrying out of the Graduation Exercises this year, it will be necessary for you to consider ways and means. I would suggest that a committee be appointed from the Board to act with teachers in preparing a program that will do credit to High School credit.
 Respectfully submitted,
 L. A. KENNEDY,
 Head Master.

MAGISTRATES HOLD COURT.
A Wages Case.—Sequel to the Glandered Horse Case. Dismissed.
 The usual quiet of our little town was disturbed on Saturday last by the appearance in the village of a large number of brigands, who with the exception of those who wear after their names the honorable appellation of J. P., and the legal functionaries eager to display their fund of legal lore, made up a fair sized crowd as they followed their way to the court to dispose of the numerous and knotty questions that required unravelling.
SEED FOR WAGES.
 The first case on the docket was that of James Loveston v. Andrew Morrison, both of the township of (pastoral). The plaintiff sued for amount of wages claimed to be due, amounting to $27.65. The defendant, a non suit, by not putting in his full time, had failed to fulfil his agreement, and that he had never asked for a settlement.
 The plaintiff, on being examined, said that he had worked for the full time, less half a day, and that he had demanded a settlement.
 D. F. was sworn, and said that he had kept a careful account of the time worked, which he had not worked for the specified period. He also put in a counter account of $1 for use of horse and buggy drawing horse for plaintiff, and 40c. for drawing horse, which he had not worked for. The defendant testified that he had never refused the plaintiff money when he asked for it, and was prepared to settle at any time.
 After consideration on the justices ordered that plaintiff receive full amount of claim, each party to pay their own costs. The decision regarding costs was given on the ground that the plaintiff should have made a demand for settlement, before entering an action.
THE NEXT CASE was that of Abel Berne v. Jas. Fenelon. It was the return of the glandered horse case weeks ago, in which the magistrates ordered that the animals should be killed and buried on or before the 10th of October. A report had got into circulation that one of the horses had been traded by Jabez Bullis to John E. Brown, of Delta. Berney had Fenelon summoned to show can a why the horses had not been destroyed.
 Squire Scovil deposed as to the order of the court.
 Fenelon declined to admit whether the horses were destroyed or not.
 Jabez Bullis was called, who said he had not received any horses from Fenelon; did not know of his own knowledge that deft. had glandered horses; traded horses often, sometimes in the night, and did not know the horse that was in Brown's hands.
 Amos Wilson sworn. Had not seen the horses since the day of the trial, and did not know any more about them except from hearsay; did not know what had become of them.
 Squire Wright here volunteered the statement that he had heard that the horses were alive and had given orders to have them destroyed forthwith. He went and got Fenelon to identify the horses after they were killed. He ordered them to be buried.
 The plaintiff not wishing to press the case, the matter was settled by Fenelon agreeing to pay whatever cost had been incurred.
ASSAULT CASE.
 The next on the docket was the assault case of Henry Hawkins v. Grant Wittse. This was a case arising out of a disturbance at a Salvation Army meeting on Sunday evening, October 28th.
 Henry Hawkins, the complainant, testified that he was the father of Wm. Hawkins, who, he said, was assaulted by the deft. as he was coming down the stairs in the town hall. He saw the deft. poke his son in the side with his elbow, as he passed him some. When a few steps further down the stairs deft. turned and said to his son "Oh! excuse me! Boys should not get in each other's way."
 William Hawkins gave similar testimony with his father, as to the poking with his elbow by the deft. In cross examination he said he did not know the deft. or Corpeo, they might have been present.
 Amasa Watson, sworn: Did not see Wittse strike Hawkins. He saw Hawkins stagger when about half way down the stairs, just as Wittse passed him.
 For the defence, Ed. Birdsell testified that he came down the stairs with Wittse; did not see him strike Hawk-
