The dance and euchre drive given in the Armory on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Watford R. C. church was well patronized and was a most enjoyable affair. The Alexandra orchestra of Sarnia supplied excellent music. Dancing in the drill room and card playing in the smaller rooms were kept up until an early hour and everyone present greatly enjoyed the evening. Proceeds go towards beautifying the R. C. cemetery.

In this issue, we publish the 32nd Annual Report of the Industrial Mortgage & Savings Company, of Sarnia. The financial statement shows wonderful progress and development. After paying all expenses, taxes, etc., and two half-yearly dividends at 8% per annum, $20,000.00 was added to the Rest Fund, which now amounts to $440,000.00 being about 70% of paid-up Capital. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dodds and infant son left for California on Saturday evening, the baby having recovered his usual good health. A letter received Monday by the editor from Mr. Thos. Dodds states that he and the members of his family who left here on Jan. 10th had an enjoyable trip and have secured pleasant home quarters in their new home town, Burlingame, which is a very beautiful place. They had a fall of snow there on Jan. 20th, which is an unusual that many of the people were much excited over it. Tom sends greetings to all old friends.

Our accounts are small, but we have a large number of them scattered all over the country for subscriptions. We presume that most of our readers have good intentions to pay up at some time, but good intentions go a short way towards meeting drafts and settling our bills. Most of those who are in arrears on subscriptions, advertising, or owe us for job work, know without being told, but how much more agreeable it would be on both sides if payments were made without putting us to the painful necessity of writing to each one personally. Now, we respectfully ask each reader in arrears to send us a remittance at once.

The members of the Reading Club have heard two excellent lectures during the last fortnight and are expecting another treat on the evening of Friday next, Feb. 10th when Professor Anderson of Huron College, London, will speak on "Sights which the Prince of Wales will see in India." Mr. Saunders' talk on birds was delightful while Professor Clark of Queen's gave a most able address on the gold standard on January 27. These lectures are a privilege which few towns are able to enjoy, and it is hoped that all interested will not fail to hear. Professor Anderson speaks Friday evening at the High School at 8 o'clock. The lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides.

An epidemic of colds, sore throats and mumps is causing a great decrease in the rural school attendance in Kent County. Reports from all over the county indicate a general falling off in attendance. In one section a contagious rash is raging among the scholars.

CHOP STUFF

The Sarnia curfew bell bylaw has been repealed.

It is proposed to erect a large elevator and chopping mill at Glencoe on the site of the McAlpine flour stores.

Sarnia Aldermen adopted a bylaw to raise $18,000 for the purpose of wiping out obligations against the city hospital.

Wingham High and Public Schools and the neighboring schools are engaging a school nurse at a cost of $1,200 per year, plus $500 for travelling expenses of nurse.

Harry Bentley, the first merchant of Lethbridge, and four times mayor of that city, is dead. He was a resident of Strathroy in his younger days. He was seventy years old.

The management of the Lambton Packing Co., Petrolia, have decided not to operate its plant this year owing to unusual market condition. The company spends several thousand dollars annually in wages and for raw material to the farmers of this vicinity which will be sorely missed.

A shoe shining cabinet where the ladies will expose nothing but their feet is the article of the proprietor of a Windsor shoe shining parlor. The cabinet has the approval of many of the fair sex, who were in need of a shine and didn't want to show the kind of silk in their hose. Those Windsor girls carry their modesty to extremes.

Dr. Eede, the medical health officer at Leamington says it would be well for citizens generally to know the early symptoms of smallpox. The early symptoms are like those of the grippe, with pains in the body, especially in the back, accompanied by fever, also may be stomach symptoms. These symptoms occur a few days before the rash breaks out.

The live stock sale which was conducted by the Peninsula Livestock Association in connection with the Corn fair in Chatham, was a great disappointment to the breeders. The prices were exceptionally low, and the men who made the purchases succeeded in getting a lot of stock very cheaply. The total amount of the sales was $6,415, and the average price per head was $150, which is an exceptionally low figure. Several of the men who were offering stock for sale commented that they had recently refused higher prices on their farms for the same animals.

Little Morley Aukett of Alvinston has some fine figures on which to base his claims to physical perfection. Morley is 11 months old, weighs 29 1/2 pounds, and is 31 inches in height. He measures 18 inches around his head, 31 inches from fingertip to fingertip, 17 inches from hip to foot, 21 1/2 inches around the chest, 20 1/2 inches around the abdomen, and his little arm is 12 inches long.

Dr. McPherson of Duart, was summoned to the home of John McLarty Aldborough, to attend to Leslie Fletcher, aged 12 years, who was climbing up a stack of straw, using a fork to assist him, when he overbalanced and fell to the ground alighting on the fork. He immediately got up and pulled the fork out of his stomach which had penetrated several inches, causing wounds that bled profusely. The lad was immediately rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital, London, very weak from loss of blood.

A short time ago thieves broke into the barber shop of W. C. Tudor of Thedford and stole a quantity of tobacco, chocolate bars and a razor. Inspector Coulter of Sarnia and county constable Lucas of Arkona, investigated the scene of the robbery on the following day, and gathered information which led to the arrest of Charles Dellow, a son of Andrew Dellow of Bosanquet township. Dellow was taken before magistrate T. A. Lamman and committed to Sarnia jail to await trial. The stolen goods have been recovered. Dellow is also said to be connected with the theft of automobile tires from Stander's garage, Arkona and further investigations in connection with the missing tires are being made by the police.

The new hotel to be built in London will be ten storeys in height and will be known as "The Lloyd-George Hotel". It will contain 288 rooms and the estimated cost is $1,550,000. One of the time-saving wonders of air travel which is to materialize in 1922 is a combined aeroplane and airship service that will bring Northern Africa within less than 24 hours of London. The service is to be run by French air transport companies and will be the first in the world to use both aeroplanes and airships.

One of London's most prominent citizens, Dr. C. L. Campbell, died on Thursday last aged 79 years. "Men's clothes this year will be cut on ample lines," declares a report of the National Association of Merchant Tailors of America. Tight trousers and cuffs will be taboo in future. This looks like a sensible move. Men make sport of the short skirts worn by ladies, but these do not look anything like as ridiculous as tight trousers on a skinny man.

Three hundred plants in Great Britain making toys in 1913, 82 plants had closed down and many others were operating only on a limited scale. Moncton Transcript.—Of 56 towns in Ontario having a population of 2,500 and over 42 report an increase in population during the last ten years. This is quite different from the state of affairs existing in the rural districts. If anyone desires a life work, let him tackle the problem—how to get the people back to the land.

Vancouver Sun.—There is no really good reason why women should not be ministers and some very excellent reasons why they should. The equipment of a good minister is similar to the equipment of any other professional man. He must be clean in mind and body, intelligent, sympathetic, learned, capable of expressing himself, a leader and a sincere and simple Christian. In any of these qualities have women shown themselves to be less efficient than men?

Department of Education of the Province of Ontario says the question of better teacher supply for schools meets the demands better than at any period in the past 12 years, both as to quantity and quality. Salaries have materially increased, and this probably retains men and women in the ranks who would only use the profession as a stepping stone otherwise. It is a matter of serious consequence the school days of Canadian youth. Thoroughness is of greater importance than "cramming" for exams or immature promotions in the educational chase to "graduate."

ELECTRIC PHENOMENON AT ALASKA

Advices received from Tanana, Alaska, record some interesting details regarding an atmospheric phenomenon following a period of extreme cold weather.

The air was very still and dry and heavily charged with electricity. Two persons shaking hands received a severe shock and a burning sensation through the whole body. Telegraph and telephone wires sang and purred so loudly they were heard for several miles. Husbands kissing their wives were treated to the identical shock experienced in shaking hands. Two dogs were observed to anger and fly at each other, but when the jaws of each struck the body of the other both went howling in opposite directions. Some ravens flying through the rarified air passed sufficiently close to each other to cause crackling noises, similar to the spluttering of a wireless receiving set.

The charged conditions continued for several hours and was followed the same evening by a remarkable display of the Aurora Borealis. Accompanying its brilliancy were flashes of red and green in riotous irregularity.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

DIFFICULTIES SOLVED IN YOUR SLEEP

The Sub-conscious Mind Active Whether Body is Asleep or Awake.

A certain proverb has it that "night brings counsel"; in more colloquial language, we say of some plan that "we'll sleep on it"—that is we shall postpone our decision.

But these phrases may very well and quite seriously be taken in their literal sense, writes a nerve specialist.

It is not simply a matter of consciously thinking the scheme over again, ranging the pros and cons on either side, and reaching a decision according to a preponderating balance.

"Sleeping on it" really signifies leaving it to the subconscious, and that means that our subconscious minds work on and with the material supplied, and then present us with the finished article.

It is well known that complicated mental operations are performed during sleep. The subconscious never sleeps.

There are many instances on record of certain famous men who have found the solution of a puzzling arithmetical or mathematical problem ready to hand on suddenly waking during the night or as a first thought immediately on waking in the morning.

Some poets and writers, hard put to it last thing at night for an idea, have quitted the work, maybe in disgust, and gone to bed, only to find precisely what they wanted on suddenly waking.

And so with more humble individuals like ourselves, we may find some questions or circumstance puzzling us when we go to sleep, but with the morning come the disappearance of the difficulty and the right answer. The subconscious mind has done the work, and moreover, done it much better than we consciously would have done.

Again, what is easier for most people than to wake at a certain unaccustomed hour when they so desire? The only condition needful is that they should drop off to sleep with the wish and expectation definitely formulated in the mind. It may then safely be left to the subconscious to see that the instruction—as it were—is carried out; and carried out it is, often with the greatest exactitude.

These things are well enough known, but they are apt to be passed over simply as strange and unusual phenomena.

Is there any good reason, however, why they should not be made use of and turned to good account?

Suppose you are in a dilemma and do not know whether to turn to the right or to the left. You have looked at the position from all sides, and exhausted, as far as you can see, all the pros and cons.

Well, then—now resolutely quit the subject, give it a rest. Simply take the assured attitude that the fuller powers of the subconscious can be left to tackle the conditions, then "wait and see."

In other words, "sleep on it"—leave it to the subconscious.

The result will be, in the majority of cases, the course made clear.

We have examined the Cash and Bank accounts and have carefully checked every entry in the Company's ledgers, and we have examined the Company's securities and find them in order.

T. F. TOWERS, HENRY CONN, Auditors.

The President John Cowan, K.C., in moving the adoption of the report pointed out that there were many adverse conditions and circumstances during the year 1921, which retarded the operations of Loan Companies. One of the chief factors being the scarcity of money for a considerable part of the year. Yet notwithstanding these the Directors of this Company have been able to present a very satisfactory report.

During the year the Company paid over $16,000 in taxes—government and municipal; paid the shareholders out of net earnings 8 per cent. on the paid-up capital, which dividends amount to $50,800; carried to Rest Fund $20,000 which now amounts to $440,000 or about 70 per cent. of the Paid-Up Capital and carried forward a balance of $398.80.

He dwelt on the security the company had to offer depositors and debenture holders and showed clearly that there was no better to be had anywhere. The liquid assets consisting of government bonds, municipal debentures and cash being 86 1/2 per cent of the deposits.

For the money entrusted to the company on deposits and debentures the public had $165 security for every $100, so placed. The shareholders, therefore, could appeal to their friends to do business with the company on the basis of absolute security and guaranteeing a good interest on their money—better in fact than most monetary institutions had to offer.

He appealed to all for hearty co-operation. After Geo. A. Proctor, Rev. Dr. Morrison, J. H. Anderson, Jas. Lockhart and M. McGugan had spoken to the motion the report was unanimously adopted.

The retiring directors, John Cowan, K.C., W. G. Willoughby, John McFarlane, J. H. Anderson, and Wm. Armstrong were re-elected. Henry Conn and T. F. Towers were appointed auditors for the ensuing year.

A hearty vote of thanks to the President, Manager and staff was moved by Geo. A. Proctor, and seconded by Rev. Dr. Paterson, and replied to by the President.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board John Cowan, K.C., was elected President, and W. G. Willoughby and John McFarlane First and Second Vice-Presidents respectively.

CARE OF THE TRACTOR

Practical Advice About Running This Farm Machine.

House the Tractor—It Must Be Kept Clean—Be Careful In Lubricating With Oils and Grease—Air Cleaning.

(Contributed by Ontario Department of Agriculture, Toronto.)

In the year 1893 the Hart-Parr Co. built their first tractor. During 1910 there were about 1,300 tractors sold in the United States, and in 1920 this number was increased to 175,000. This year the sales are greater than the total for the past ten years, many dealers being sold out in the first four months of the year. These figures are a pretty fair indication that the tractor is taking its place as a farm implement. Farm implements generally have a very short life, and tractor depreciation is usually reckoned at from 20 to 25 per cent.

Housing.
A good tractor deserves the best of protection and when not in use or stored for the winter should be in a shed that is weather tight. If it is to be left in the field over night it should be covered with a waterproof canvas to properly protect the wiring, magneto, etc.

Cleaning.

Exposure is not by any means the only ill-treatment to which a tractor is subjected. Have you not often seen them so covered with dirt and grease that you wonder how they can carry the extra load? If the work of carrying it was all it would not be so bad, but the great trouble with these dirt accumulations is that sooner or later the grit is going to work into the bearings and get into the carburetor, with the result that you have ground-out bushings and scored cylinders. To clean off these accumulations each day will take but a few moments and pay you well. To allow them to stand for a week or so means that the heat of the engine will burn them and make their removal a very difficult matter.

Lubricating.

Oil in a gas engine or tractor serves three purposes: 1, general lubrication; 2, compression seal in the cylinder; 3, cooling.

For each part of an engine that requires oil there must be an adequate supply or that part is going to fail sooner or later. It has been said that not one man in a hundred knows every oil hole on his tractor. This is nearer the truth than may be imagined, and part of the fault lies with the manufacturer who places oil holes or grease cups in places where it would almost require a detective to find them. You must study your oiling chart, and then follow the system of oiling as laid down in your tractor manual. Give the manufacturer credit for knowing the oiling needs of his product. Oils and greases should be bought most carefully. Each manufacturer will tell you what oil to use in his particular machine. The reason different tractors call for different oils is because they differ in construction, speed and operating temperature. To make sure that you are getting the oil recommended, buy it in sealed containers.

Mechanical Oilers.

Some tractors are equipped with mechanical oilers. In these cases fresh oil is constantly supplied to certain parts. These oilers work so well that they are often forgotten. Not long ago a tractor operator heard one of his cylinders blowing gas past the piston. On examination it was found that the piston was dry and badly scored. Further examination revealed the fact that the little pump in the oiler which should have been supplying oil to that cylinder had stopped working. The oiler was drained and washed out well with kerosene. Then it was turned out and fresh oil put into the oiler. It was again turned by hand and again that particular pump did not work. The oiler was now removed and taken apart when, after quite a careful search, a small bit of chaff was found in one of the fine oil passages. The bit of chaff would let the thin kerosene pass but stopped the thick cylinder oil.

Equal care as to cleanliness should be observed as to greases. If grit is on your hands or whatever you are using to fill the grease cups with, you may be sure you are going to have scored bearings. In filling the cups see that there is no air left in them and then turn them down until you see grease squeezed out of the bearing. This makes sure that it is getting where it will do good. It is wasting money to buy a low grade grease because they consist mainly of a low grade soap and a large amount of water and will freeze. Cheap greases also contain acid fats and are certain to spoil the highly-finished surfaces of anti-friction bearings.

DELCO-LIGHT

"Electricity for every Farm"

The Delco-Light engine is the valve-in-the-head type—used in the best and most powerful airplane engines and in hundreds of thousands of automobiles. It is air-cooled—runs on kerosene—has only one place to oil—and has a simple mixing valve in place of a carburetor.

Air Cleaning.

Do not neglect the air cleaner. If water is used, for example, it should be cleaned out at noon and again in the evening. It is very important to not allow it to get dry. Old style cleaners drew the air through felt pads. This type should be discarded and a more modern one put in its place. In some circumstances it is possible to run a tractor in two days by working it without the washer performing its functions.

The above does not pretend to cover all the points in tractor care, but does emphasize those that are most commonly neglected.—E. W. Kendall, Farm Mechanics' Dept., O. A. College, Guelph.

Prescriptions in Latin.

Doctors use Latin because it is more exact and concise than English; and, being a dead language, does not change. Then, again, a large part of all drugs in use are botanical, so they have in the pharmacopoeia the same names that they have in botany. Two-thirds of such drugs haven't any English names, and so couldn't be written in English. Still, again, use of Latin averts mistakes of inexperienced persons who might try to concoct their own medicines. Finally, Latin is a language that is used by scientific men the world over, and no other language, so Latin prescriptions can be filled in any country on the face of the earth where there is a drug store. For example, a druggist some time ago displayed a prescription which he had put up originally and which had since been stamped by druggists in London, Berlin, Constantinople, Cairo and Boston.

Spicily Educational.

J. M. reports overhearing this as he came out of a moving-picture place: He—I liked that last piece. It's highly educational.

She—Educational? Why, it's about a horrid vamp.

He—Just so. You see, I may meet a horrid vamp some day, and then I'll know how to protect myself.—Boston Transcript.

Doctor Said "Keep on Using Zam-Buk"

"My little son was badly scalded by pulling a pan of boiling water over himself," writes Mrs. Albert Sawyer, of Midland, Ontario. "I called in a doctor, but his ointments failed to ease the child's intense pain. I therefore discontinued the treatment and began with Zam-Buk instead. This wonderful balm appeared to relieve pain almost immediately, but to make sure I was doing the right thing, I called in a second doctor. When I told him what I was using, he said: 'That's right—just keep on with Zam-Buk, there's nothing so good for scalds and burns.'"

"As I persevered with Zam-Buk all soreness and inflammation was drawn out of the injuries and new skin gradually formed. It was not long before the scalds—although so extensive and severe—were completely healed."

Zam-Buk obtainable of all chemists and stores. 50c. box, is equally splendid for the treatment of eczema, ulcers, ringworm, piles, varicose sores, poisoned wounds, chaps, cold-sores, chilblains, etc.

NOTHING SO GOOD FOR BURNS & SCALDS.

This subscriber said it was shameful, that the merchant was a robber and a profiteer...

With times hard, prices down, and with many men out of work, the merchant, this subscriber told us, was again holding him up...

You see the local merchant is not such a bad fellow after all, is he? Probably if we examined his books today we'd find that he is struggling under a mighty heavy load...

It is a very easy matter for us to send our cash away to mail order houses in flush times and then ask our local merchant to carry us with credit when we get hard up...

HOW DID YOU PROPOSE How did you propose? Or if you never did, how would you do? How did he propose to you? Or, if no one ever did, how would you like to have a proposal made?

A certain professor has waded through one hundred standard love stories... and tabulated the various ways in which lovers behave in popping the question.

In one hundred cases where the proposal was accepted no fewer than sixty-seven gentlemen kissed the lady and began "all of a sudden."

Eighty-one declared they could not live without her, while seventy-two held the girl's hand and thirty-six took her in their arms.

Acceptance of the proposal caused a lump in the throat of thirteen lovers; the same number had qualms of conscience, while five had eyes "calm and clear."

THE SPOILED CHILD

By Mrs. Chas. Bobbins

Is there anyone more unwelcome in any group anywhere than the child who has been spoiled? Time after time have I heard a mother remark, "Well, you know how spoiled he is."

Mothers, you may try to believe that is so, but deep down in your hearts you acknowledge that the failure in training points only one way, and that is to you.

That brings us to an important point in the training of children. The most beautiful child in the world can be so reared, through neglect of his parents to direct the small acts of childhood that he becomes unlikable.

One often hears some mother relating to a friend a cute remark made by her child or telling of some act, while the child listens intently, even smiling with self-satisfaction at this repetition of his smartness.

The child you may well know is impressed. The exact result of having him hear of his bright acts is this: just as soon as a child begins to think those things are cute he gets an exalted feeling that they are the means by which he gets notice.

One little boy I know is giving the teachers in school a troublesome time and the mother declares she is unable to change him.

Try to think as your child thinks and try to see what has prompted his action. This will help greatly in solving many perplexing problems.

There is no room for sadness when we see a cheery smile. It always has the same good look. It's never out of style.

KEEP LITTLE ONES WELL IN WINTER Winter is a dangerous season for the little ones.

Winter is a dangerous season for the little ones. The days are changeable—one bright, the next one cold and stormy, that the mother is afraid to take the children out for the fresh air and exercise they need so much.

STOMACH TROUBLE? INDIGESTION?

Here's Good News for You

Lindsay, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best medicine I have ever taken for stomach trouble. For many years I suffered with gastric stomach trouble and nervous indigestion. Would be so bad at times that it was necessary for me to be in bed two or three days at a time."

GET READY FOR GOOD TIMES

Get ready for the good times coming in 1922 and boost wherever it is possible. Don't wear crepe in your hat but with extra energy and optimism step into the ranks of the "Believers" and set out to win. Many folk are governed by what they see and hear without going into the study of situations, hence it is a dangerous role to play the part of a discourager.

GOOD ROADS REVENUE

It is announced that the revenue of the Province derived from the licensing of motor cars and trucks will total almost three million dollars for the year 1921. Every dollar of that revenue that is spent on road building or the payment of interest on bonds issued for road building is spent outside the boundaries of the cities and towns of Ontario on Provincial roads.

In Toronto and its vicinity, where a fifth of the people of Ontario live and over a fifth of the license revenue is obtained, practically no return has been made for this great contribution. The city not only maintains its roads at its own cost, but helps to maintain the leading roads throughout York county, and materially assisted in building the Hamilton Highway, which stretches across Peel, Halton, and a part of Wentworth counties.

Not only does the Province refuse to do anything towards road building in the urban centres, but the Dominion Government grant for good roads, which comes out of the pockets of all citizens, whether they live in town or country, is also spent entirely on country roads. It is important that these facts shall be spread among the people of Ontario. There is an impression abroad that costly roads are being built throughout the Province chiefly for the benefit of city motorists at the general expense. That is far from the truth. The country roads of Ontario are being built largely at the cost of motorists, including those who live in cities and towns. The cities and towns build their own roads at their own cost.—Globe.

HOW ABOUT THAT AUCTION SALE?

Going to have a farm auction sale soon? Well you want it to be a good one, don't you? Now, listen! About this Auction Sale Business. Did you ever stop to think how much conditions have changed the last few years. People—you and your neighbors—travel in autos nowadays and they go down the concessions so fast that they don't always see an auction sale bill tacked on the corner fence post.

Oh well they might see it but they don't stop to read it—they are going somewhere and they haven't time to stop. Isn't that true? Sure it is. You pass 'em yourself. But you are going to have a sale. You want a big crowd, for the larger the crowd the better the bidding, and the better the bidding the better the price.

Now having a sale is your business. Getting a crowd is our business. Our interests are mutual and right here we want to say that an advertisement of your sale in The Guide-Advocate will be seen by many hundreds of people. If you have the goods that will draw the crowd.

An extra bid on the brindle cow or the roan mare will cover the few dollars to sure.

To be sure get out bills because many look for them alone. The majority of farmers nowadays are having both the bills, and the list in the paper. But remember this, that the ESSENTIAL thing nowadays is the sale list in the paper. So come in and see us. We will

Don't Pay Twice

If you pay bills in cash, there is always the chance of receipts being lost or destroyed, and of your being asked to pay the same bill twice. How much better to deposit all your pay in a Savings Account in The Merchants Bank and pay the bills by cheque. There can be no dispute then, because the endorsed cheques are indisputable evidence that you have paid.

WHOLESALE FOOD MEANS A HEALTHY PEOPLE

There is much in the report of the Veterinary Director General for the year 1920-21 that must be very gratifying to Canadian readers. From it we learn that Canadian Live Stock continues to maintain its enviable reputation as among the healthiest in the world, that none of the great plagues, such as rinderpest, foot-and-mouth disease and contagious pleuropneumonia, has been allowed to enter the country; that hog cholera and glanders have been so effectively dealt with that losses have become comparatively trifling, and that mange has been practically eradicated from the great range country of Alberta.

The expression "run down" applied to health means a condition in which the bodily functions are enfeebled. Appetite fails, the digestion is impaired, the nerves are impoverished, the complexion becomes pale or waxy, there is no animation, but rather worry and mental depression. Fatigue is a constant symptom. No particular organ being affected, you must look for relief to the blood. As it circulates through every part of the body, any improvement in the condition of the blood is quickly felt throughout the entire system. In cases of this kind a tonic medicine is what is needed and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recognized as a valuable tonic because of their direct action on the blood, and through the blood on the nerves, giving tone to the system generally and restoring vigor. Where the system is run down the value of this medicine is shown by the statement of Mrs. Gregory J. Murphy, Lower Ship Harbor East, N.S., who says: "About a year ago I was completely run down. I was so nervous and weak that I could scarcely do my housework, and the least exertion left me breathless and tired out. A neighbor advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and so much good did they do me I felt quite like a different woman. I hope some other suffering woman may benefit by my experience."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. LOOK AT YOUR LABEL

DO YOU FEEL WEAK AND RUN DOWN?

In This Condition a Tonic Medicine Is Needed.

The condition of being "run down" is one that doctors do not recognize as a disease. But those who are run down in health know that it is not a fancied affliction.
