The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

National Library of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

An ACT in further addition to, and amendment of an Act, made in the second year of his present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for the appointment of Firewards, ascertaining their duty, and for punishing Thefts and Disorders at the time of Fire.

WHEREAS it having been found necessary to provide more than two Fire-Engines for the Town of Halifax, it becomes expedient to increase the number of Engine Men :

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, in their Sessions, for the Town and County of Halifax, to appoint a further number of discreet and prudent persons as Engine Men, not exceeding Twelve, in addition to the number already appointed, or to be appointed, under the Act or Acts in that behalf made, and this is a further amendment; and such persons shall be subject to the duties, and to all the privileges and exemptions, granted by the said Acts to Fire-Engine Men:

Twelve additional Firemen appointed.

And whereas the present number of Firewards in the Town of Halifax has been found insufficient :

II. Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, for the Justices of the Peace in the Town and County of Halifax, to appoint a further number of discreet persons as Firewards, not exceeding five, in the several parts of the said Town of Halifax who shall be sworn faithfully to discharge their trust, and who shall be invested with all the powers and regulations, as are provided for, in, and by the several Acts aforesaid.

Five additional Firewards

III. And be it further enacted, That the exemption from working on the Highways, granted by Law, to Engine Men, in the Town of Halifax, be extended, and the same is hereby extended, to Engine Men, appointed, or to be appointed by the aforesaid Acts in the Towns of Annapolis, Windsor, Shelburne, Liverpool and Lunenburg.

Engine Men exempted from Highway labour.

An ACT for the Summary Trial of Actions.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Supreme Court and the Inferior Courts of Common Pleas within this Province, be and are hereby empowered, in all causes of action brought before them, the sum total whereof shall not exceed twenty pounds, to proceed in a summary way, by witnesses, to examine the merits of such causes, and make up judgment accordingly.

Recovery of Debts not exceeding 20l. in a summary way before Supreme and Inferior Courts.

Provided always, That when on the examination of the witnesses the matter of fact shall appear doubtful, or either of the parties shall desire it, the Court shall order a Jury to try the same.

In doubtful cases a Jury may be called.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person or persons, who have debts owing to him, her or them, by any other person or persons where the whole dealing or cause of action shall not exceed five pounds, to sue for the same in the manner following, that is to say, if the sum demanded shall not exceed three pounds, to cause such debtor to be summoned to appear before any one Justice of the Peace of the County or District where the debtor shall reside; and if the sum demanded shall be more than three pounds, but does not exceed five pounds, to cause such debtor to be summoned to appear before any two Justices of the Peace of the County or District, where the debtor shall dwell; and the said Justice or Justices after such summons issued and duly served, is and are hereby empowered to proceed to and make up final judgment between the parties, and shall allow the defendant to produce his account against the plaintiff, or any receipts or other discharges for payment made either in the whole or in part; and the said Justice or Justices shall examine and enquire into the merits of both accounts and of such discharges, and by such other proof as to him or them shall seem requisite, or upon the confession of the debtor, to ascertain the debt due, and at his or their discretion to decree the payment thereof, at such different times and periods as he or they shall think fit and proper, agreeable to the circumstances of the debtor, and with as little prejudice as possible to the creditor, and to award costs as he or they shall find, whether for the Plaintiff or Defendant, without appeal, unless the debt or cause of action shall amount to twenty shillings or upwards; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recovery of debts not exceeding 3l. before one Justice.

Recovery of debts not exceeding 5l. before two Justices.

action shall amount to twenty shillings or upwards, shall think himself injured by the judgment of the said Justice or Justices, he may appeal to the next Supreme Court, or Inferior Court of Common Pleas, to be held for the County or District in which the said Justice or Justices reside, and on such appeal being made, the said Justice or Justices shall suspend the issuing of execution, or further proceeding, in such cause, on the party appealing giving good and sufficient security to prosecute such appeal at the next Supreme Court, or Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and to perform whatever the judgment of such Court shall be, and the Justice or Justices shall on the first day of the sitting of the said Supreme Court, or Inferior Court of Common Pleas, return to the said Court to which the appeal shall be made, the names of the parties to the cause in which an appeal hath been entered, with all the papers touching and concerning the same, and the said Court shall appoint a day for hearing thereof, and if the party appellant shall not appear to prosecute the same the first term such appeal shall be dismissed with costs, but if the parties appear, then the said Court shall proceed to try the said cause in a summary way, and to give judgment thereon, and award costs whether for the appellant or appellee as the judgment may be, which judgment shall be entered up as other judgments in summary causes are in the said Court, and no writ of certiorari or habeas corpus cum causa, shall be allowed or brought to remove any judgment given in such causes upon appeal as aforesaid.

Justices may issue Capias for arrest of debtors to the amount of 5l.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, where the debt shall not exceed three pounds, and for any two Justices of the Peace, where the debt shall be more than three pounds, and shall not exceed five pounds, upon application to him or them, and on oath being made in writing before him or them, of such debts, in the way usually practised where the debts are of greater value, to issue a Capias to arrest the body of the debtor or debtors, and hold them to bail for his or their appearance, and to make the same returnable in four days, at the expiration of which he or they shall proceed to trial, unless the defendant shall consent to try the same sooner, and give judgment thereon as in ordinary cases.

Proviso.

Provided always, That no person shall be arrested in any case for a debt due by him under twenty shillings, nor for any larger debt not exceeding five pounds, unless in addition to an affidavit of the debt, the party applying shall also make oath, that he verily believes that unless such Capias is allowed the debt will be lost.

Debts under 3l.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no action for any debt where the whole dealing or cause of action does not exceed three pounds, shall be brought against any Person, in any Court of Law in this Province except by appeal.

Jurisdiction of Supreme Court, and Court of Common Pleas, not affected by this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, or Court of Common Pleas, in cases above three pounds, and not exceeding five pounds, where the matter shall be of a difficult nature, but that if any suit shall be brought in either of the said Courts, to recover any debt above three pounds, and not exceeding five pounds, the party plaintiff shall not be entitled to recover any costs, unless the Judges of such Court, respectively, shall determine that the cause of such action was of a nature unfit to be tried before two Justices of the Peace, or it shall appear to the said Court, that there were not two Justices of the Peace living within a convenient distance of the parties, and of each other.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the forms of Writs to be issued by Justices of the Peace shall be as follow :

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That every man residing, or who shall come to reside, within this Province, from sixteen to sixty years of age, (excepting such as are herein after excepted,) shall be enrolled in the militia, and be bound to serve in the militia of the county, district, town or place, wherein he resides.

II. And be it further enacted, That the militia shall be formed into regiments by counties or districts, being divisions of counties; and if any such county or district shall be sufficiently populous to admit of the regiment being subdivided into two or more battalions, it shall be lawful for the Governor, or Commander in Chief, to subdivide the said regiment into battalions, to consist of not less than three hundred nor more than six hundred men each, and to affix the limits of the district composing such battalions; and all regimented companies, (flank companies excepted) shall be formed by districts in such manner as that such companies may be assembled as conveniently as possible; and each company shall consist of not less than forty men, to be commanded by one captain and two subalterns, and when it shall exceed sixty men, additional officers may be appointed thereto, in the proportion of one officer to twenty rank and file, and the field officers, and officers commanding companies, at their meeting, herein after directed, shall regulate the limits of the company districts, and the number of men to be enrolled in each company; and the clerk of the company is hereby required to register in a book, to be provided and kept by him for that purpose. the names names of all persons belonging to such company, which book is to be ready at all times for the inspection of the captain and other officers of the company.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in harbors and settlements where the persons liable to serve in the militia are not so numerous as to form a complete company, it shall be lawful to form the same into smaller companies, and if they shall not amount to more than twenty men, then only one officer shall be appointed for such company, and if more than twenty and not exceeding thirty, only two officers shall be appointed to such company.

Militia in small settlements.

IV. And be it further enacted, That there shall not be more than two flank companies to any battalion of militia, which flank companies shall consist of light infantry or rifle men only, (except the battalion at Halifax, in which a grenadier company is already formed;) and such flank companies shall be composed of such numbers as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall think proper to determine.

Two flank companies to each battalion, Halifax excepted.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, to establish one or more artillery companies in any county or district in the Province, and to limit the numbers of which such company shall consist, and all persons who are now enrolled, or shall hereafter enrol themselves to serve, either in the artillery companies, or in the grenadier company of the battalion at Halifax, or in any light infantry or rifle company of any regiment or battalion of militia in this Province, shall continue in such company for three years from the date of his enrolment, unless in case of removal from the county or district, or being discharged by the commanding officer of such company.

Artillery companies.

Servitude of volunteers.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, to establish one or more troop or troops of cavalry, in any county or district in this Province, and to limit the number of officers and men of which such troop shall consist, and all persons who shall enrol themselves in any troop shall continue in such troop for three years from the date of his enrolment, unless in case of removal from the county or district, or being discharged by the captain or officer commanding such troop.

Cavalry.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any non-commissioned officer or private enrolled in any such troop or troops of cavalry, shall at any time during his enrolment, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, his horse belonging to such troop, without the consent and approbation of the captain or officer commanding such troop, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten pounds, to be recovered in manner as is hereinafter mentioned, and applied to the repairing the arms and accoutrements belonging to the troop, and other incidental charges attending the same.

Disposal of cavalry horses.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That when any person shall be enrolled as drummer or fifer in any company, he shall remain in such company notwithstanding he may not reside in the district which composes the same; provided, that no drummer or fifer, shall be obliged to serve in any company but in the town where he resides, unless ordered on a march.

Drummers and fifers.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every captain or officer commanding a company of militia, or who may be thereto appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, fix a time and place of meeting for enrolling all the militia men who reside within the limits which shall be assigned for his company, giving due notice publicly, at least seven days before, of the time and place of meeting; and every militia man (not being already enrolled in such company) who, after public notice so given, shall neglect to present himself in person, and give in his name, age, and place of residence, or cause the same to be made known in some certain way to the captain, or other officer of the company, attending at the time and place so fixed for the meeting of the militia men of the limits of such company, so as that such militia man may be enrolled, shall for such neglect forfeit and pay a fine of ten shillings; and every militia man who shall remove out of the limits assigned for that company in which he is, or ought to be enrolled, and shall not within ten days after his removal at the place of his new residence, or where he shall hire himself, either present himself for enrolment, or cause his name, age, and place of residence, with that from which he last removed, to be made known to the captain, or in his absence to the senior officer of the company of militia of such place, shall for such neglect forfeit and pay a fine of ten shillings; and every person who shall not within three months after he shall have attained the age of sixteen years, either present himself for enrolment, or cause his name, age and place of residence, to be made known as aforesaid, so that he may be enrolled in the militia company of the limits wherein his place of residence may be, shall for such neglect forfeit and pay a fine of five shillings; and every man within the age herein before described, who shall come to reside in the Province, and shall not within three months after his arrival therein, present himself for enrolment, or cause his name, age, and place of residence to be made known as aforesaid so that he may be enrolled in the militia company of the limits wherein he shall have come to reside, shall for such neglect forfeit and pay a fine of ten shillings:

Persons obliged to enrol themselves.

Commanding officers to enrol all persons who move into their limits.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the neglect of any such persons to cause themselves to be enrolled shall not be construed to prevent the captain or officer commanding a company of militia to enter, and he is hereby required to enter on the roll of his company, the name of every such person residing within the limits of his company as shall come to his knowledge, and when so entered, every such person shall be subject to perform all militia duties under the same penalties as if he had personally presented himself for enrolment. And if any difference shall arise between a captain or officer commanding a militia company and any militia man, touching the age of such militia man, it shall be incumbent on the militia man to prove his age.

And whereas arms have been heretofore granted by Government for the use of the Militia, and others are intended to be issued for completely equipping the whole of the Militia, and it is necessary to provide for the safe keeping thereof:

Arms, accoutrements, &c.

XI. Be it enacted, That every freeholder enrolled in the militia who is of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, shall within twenty days after public notice given that arms, accoutrements and ammunition of the kind herein after described, are lodged within the precinct of the company or battalion to which such freeholder shall belong, for the use of the militia men of such company or battalion, furnish and provide himself with a good and sufficient musquet and a bayonet suitable thereto, of the same kind and size with those used in his Majesty's service, or if such freeholder shall be enrolled in any company of riflemen, he shall provide himself with a good and sufficient rifle gun, and a bayonet or sword suitable thereto, and shall also in addition to such musquet or rifle, provide himself with a cartouch box sufficient to contain eighteen ball cartridges, a bayonet or sword belt, a cartouch box belt, a set of straps for the purpose of carrying a great coat or blanket, a pricker and brush to clean the pan of such musquet or rifle gun, a leathern or canvas knapsack with straps and buckles, three good flints, and eighteen ball cartridges of a size to fit such musquet or rifle gun, and also forty buck shot: with all which aforesaid arms, ammunition and accoutrements, such freeholder shall appear at each and every meeting of the company or battalion to which he may belong (and on other occasions of duty whereon he may be ordered to appear with his arms,) under the penalty of forfeiting and paying for the want of a musquet or rifle gun a fine fine of ten shillings, and the sum of one shilling for each and every other appurtenance, the flints, cartridges and buck shot, to be considered only as three appurtenances.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every freeholder of the above description, shall be entitled to receive the arms, cartouch box, sword and belt abovementioned, from the captain or officer commanding his company, upon such freeholder producing and leaving with him a bond with one sufficient surety in the sum of five pounds, with a condition thereunder written in the form following :

Bond to be given for arms, &c.

Know all men by these presents, that we A. B. and C. D. are held and firmly bound to our Sovereign Lord the King in the penal sum of five pounds to be paid to our said Sovereign Lord the King, his heirs or successors, for which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves and either of us by himself, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this day of 18

Form of bond.

The condition of this obligation is such that if the said A. B. shall at all times hereafter, safely keep in good and serviceable order and have ready to return when called for, one King's musquet, &c. which have been issued to him under and pursuant to an Act, intituled, "An Act to provide for the greater security of this Province by a better regulation of the militia, and to repeal the militia laws now in force," and shall in all things well and truly perform the provisions of the said Act, touching the same, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and effect.

Which bond shall be, by the said captain or officer commanding such company, lodged with the clerk of the peace for the county or district; and if any freeholder of the description aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to enter into such bond, and receive such arms, or shall not within the time before limited, provide himself with arms, accoutrements and ammunition of the like kind at his own expence, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of two pounds, to be recovered and applied in the manner and for the purposes herein after mentioned.

Where lodged.

Persons refusing to enter into a bond.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall give such security shall pay therefor a fee of one shilling at the time of the delivery of the bond as aforesaid, one half of which shall go the clerk of the company for his trouble in filling up the bond, and the other half of said fee shall be paid over to the clerk of the peace for receiving and filing such bond.

Bond Fee.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That persons who are bound to serve in the militia, but are not of the above description, shall be entitled to receive arms and accoutrements as aforesaid, upon their entering into a bond with one sufficient surety, being a freeholder, in manner herein before directed; provided that in cases where any such person is under the age of twenty-one years, he shall find two good sureties for his due performance of the condition of the bond.

To whom arms, &c. will be furnished.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every person who is by law bound to enrol himself in the militia, shall provide himself at his own expence with a sett of straps for the purpose of carrying a great coat or blanket, a pricker and brush to clean the pan of his musquet or rifle gun, a leathern or canvas knapsack with straps and buckles, three good flints, eighteen ball cartridges of a size to fit his musquet or rifle, and forty buck shot, under the penalty of ten shillings, to be recovered and applied as herein after directed.

Accoutrements to be found by militia.

And whereas in many companies there may be minors and other persons who cannot get security for the safe keeping of arms and accoutrements :

XVI. Be it enacted, That the captain or other officer commanding a company shall make out a regular list of the names of the persons in his company who are not compellable to give security or to provide themselves with arms at their own expence, and shall immediately receive a complete set of arms and accoutrements from the person having the custody of arms, for each and every person contained in the above list, for the safe keeping and returning which, such captain shall be responsible, and shall give two receipts for the same, one of which shall be entered in the orderly book of the battalion, and the other shall be lodged in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county or district; and if any captain or other officer commanding a company shall neglect or refuse to make the list or give the receipts herein directed, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds, and on complaint to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, such officer may be deprived of his commission, and shall not thereafter be entitled to any exemption from being enrolled and performing all the duties of a private militia man.

Issue of Arms.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all arms to be issued in pursuance of this Act shall be distinctly numbered and marked with a brand on the left side of the broad part of the butt with the name of the county or district to which the militia man who shall receive the same shall belong, and with the letter M. immediately following the same, such brand to be provided by the treasurer of the respective counties or districts, and the commanding officer of each regiment or battalion shall cause the arms to be marked and numbered before they are issued to such regiment or battalion.

Lodgement of Arms.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the captain or other officer commanding a company shall lodge the arms and accoutrements so received by him, in some suitable and convenient place or places within the limits of his company, where they may be delivered out to persons for whom they are intended upon all days of training or muster, or such other times as the said captain or officer shall direct; and the minors and other persons who shall receive any of the said arms and accoutrements for the purposes of training, muster or otherwise, shall return the same and every part thereof, to the place of deposit, within twenty-four hours after such training, muster or other service, shall be over, under the penalty of five shillings for every day's neglect, to be recovered in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter directed.

Embezzlement of Arms, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every person having such arms or accoutrements in his possession, under the provisions of this Act, who shall vend, pledge or exchange, the same or any part thereof, or shall convey, or cause the same, or any part thereof, to be conveyed out of the limits of the battalion to which such arms and accoutrements were issued, (except when ordered on real service); and every person who shall buy, receive, or except in exchange, any such arms or accoutrements, shall severally forfeit and pay a fine of five pounds for each firelock, and a fine of ten shillings for each accoutrement so sold, purchased, exchanged, or conveyed out of the limits of the battalion; and every person or persons who shall convey or cause to be conveyed, any such arms or accoutrements, on board of any boat, ship, or vessel, with intent to have the same carried out of the county or province, and the master of any such boat, ship, or vessel, who shall knowingly receive into his boat, ship or vessel, any such arms or accoutrements so intended to be conveyed out of the county or province, shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay the sum of ten pounds; which fines shall and may be recovered, on the oath of one credible witness, before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county or district wherein such offence shall be committed; and in case of non-payment of any such fines, the said Justice shall, by his warrant, cause each and every offender to be committed to the county or district Jail for the term hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, for each fine of ten shillings, four days; for each fine of five pounds, forty days; and for each fine of ten pounds, three months; unless such fine shall sooner be paid; and one fourth fourth part of all fines, recovered by virtue of this clause, shall be paid to the informer, and the residue thereof shall be applied, first of all to make good all deficiencies of arms or accoutrements, and the residue to the purpose of defraying the expences incurred in repairing such arms and accoutrements.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if information shall be given, on oath, to the Justice, that the person or persons so offending (not being a freeholder) is about to leave the Province, or to remove out of the County or District with such arms or accoutrements, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice before whom such information, on oath, shall be made, to issue his warrant to the Deputy-Sheriff or either of the Constables of the County or District, to apprehend such person or persons, and to bring him, her or them, forthwith before such Justice, to answer such complaint.

Information against such as embezzle arms, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons charged with selling, purchasing or receiving, any arms or accoutrements as aforesaid, who shall immediately restore such arms or accoutrements, and cause the same to be delivered to such Justice, shall be entitled to a remission of one half the fine or imprisonment herein before imposed for such offence.

Recovery of arms.

Remission of punishment.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the colonel or officer commanding any regiment or battalion, shall once in every year, besides the usual days of training, order an inspection of the arms, accoutrements, and ammunition, of the several companies under his command, to be made at one and the same time by one subaltern from each company, attended by the clerk thereof, and by calling on each and every man of the said company, at the usual place of his or their abode; which subaltern shall make an exact return of such arms, accoutrements and ammunition, describing the state and condition thereof, and every person required by law to be provided with arms, accoutrements and ammunition, who shall, at such inspection, have such arms in unserviceable condition, or shall be deficient in any of the appurtenances abovementioned, shall forfeit and pay for each deficiency, the like sum, as if such deficiency had happened at a muster or training.

Inspection of arms, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every person who has received arms, ammunition or accoutrements, issued from His Majesty's Stores under the provisions of the Act hereby repealed, and every person who shall have in his possession any of the arms, ammunition or accoutrements, issued from His Majesty's Stores for the use of the Militia, and all persons liable to account for such arms, ammunition and accoutrements, under the said Act, shall be liable, and are hereby made liable, for the same, in the same manner as if the said Act had not been repealed: any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Arms issued under the late Act.

And Whereas, it is of the highest importance that the Militia should be expert in the management of their arms, and in other parts of military duty:

XXIV. Be it enacted, That the captains and officers commanding companies shall divide their companies into small divisions or squads to consist of not more than twelve, nor less than five militia men, to be drilled and taught such exercise and manœuvres as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, shall direct; and captains and officers commanding companies shall fix the limits of the squads, and the times of their assembling, and the places for them to meet within the district of each company for the purpose of exercise as aforesaid, according to local circumstances, in the most convenient manner for his men, and no person shall be bound to travel more than four miles from his usual place of abode to attend such meetings.*

Drilling militia in squads.

XXV.

* This, and the four following sections, have been repealed by Stat. 59, Geo. 3, Cap. 6.

- XXV. And be it further enacted, That within the first twelve months after the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, shall direct the clauses of this Act, which respect squad meetings, to be put in force within any county, district or place, in the province, every militia man residing in such county, district or place, from the age of sixteen to the age of fifty years inclusive, shall be bound to attend twelve such squad meetings, and every militia man above fifty, and not exceeding sixty years of age, shall be bound to attend two such meetings, (except the persons herein after exempted) and every man shall bring with him his musquet, and such other accoutrements as shall be ordered by his officer, and shall submit himself to be drilled and exercised for three hours at each meeting, by such person or persons as the commanding officer of the battalion shall appoint, and one officer or non-commissioned officer shall attend such squad meeting to report to the officer commanding the company the names of the militia men, who attended at the meeting, who shall report to the commanding officer of the battalion the names of the men who have attended each squad meeting, and the names of the men who have been absent from the same.
- XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That one field officer and the adjutant of any battalion, together with the captain of the company, may exempt any squad of militia men, or any individual of such company, from an attendance at one half of the squad meetings herein before directed, whenever such officers shall be satisfied that such squad or individual has acquired a due degree of discipline.
- XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any militia man, being duly notified, shall neglect to attend at any squad meeting without leave or sufficient excuse to be judged of by the commanding officer of his company, or shall be drunk at such meeting, or shall refuse or neglect to be drilled as herein before mentioned, or shall insult any officer or non-commissioned officer, being in the exercise of his duty at the time of such drilling, every militia man so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a fine of not less than five shillings, nor more than ten shillings, as the case may require.
- XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every person who by reason of his arriving at the age of sixteen years, coming into this Province, or from any other cause, shall hereafter be enrolled in the militia, shall within the first six months after his enrolment, attend to be drilled as aforesaid, at such convenient times and places as the officer commanding his company shall appoint, not exceeding the number of times herein before limited for squad meetings, or until such persons shall obtain from one field officer and the adjutant of the battalion, and the captain of his company, a certificate that such person is sufficiently instructed.
- XXIX. And be it further enacted; That every regiment or battalion of militia shall be called out and assemble six times in each and every year: that is to say, by companies four times, and by every regiment or battalion twice, either entire or by such detachments as the commanding officers of the respective regiments or battalions, from local or other circumstances shall judge fit and direct, for the purpose of training, disciplining, and improving in martial exercises; the time and place of assembling for the companies, regiments and detachments, to be appointed by the colonel or commanding officer of the regiment, and arranged on different days, that the field or staff officers may have an opportunity of attending the several companies, detachments and regiments, exercised in detail, in order to introduce uniformity in the manœuvres and discipline of the regiment: of all which several and respective days of rendezvous previous notice shall be given at least three days by warning from a non-commissioned officer, or public notice at one meeting of the time of holding the next; and every orders, or shall otherwise misbehave himself, at any muster or training; in such case it shall and may be lawful for the officer commanding the company to cause such persons so offending, to be immediately apprehended and committed to the county Jail, for a time not exceeding three days, nor less than twelve hours, there to remain without bail or mainprize; and the captain or officer commanding such company, shall, with the person to be committed, send to the sheriff of the county, or his jailor, a warrant under his hand and seal for the receiving and keeping the said offender, in the words following, that is to say:

To A. B. sheriff of the county of _____ or to his jailor.

You are hereby required to receive C. D. of my company, who was guilty of _____ on the _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord 18____ (at a muster or training) and him closely confine in your jail for the space of _____ hours from the time of his being delivered into your custody, and at the expiration whereof you are to release the said C. D. on his paying your fees, and this to you, or either of you, shall be your sufficient warrant.

And on refusal or neglect of the said sheriff or jailor to receive such person so committed into his custody, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds, for each and every offence; and the sergeant or corporal, who shall be ordered by the officer commanding the said company to escort the said offender to jail, shall, in case of neglect or refusal, be reduced to the ranks, and shall for each and every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of forty shillings; and each and every private, who shall be ordered by the commanding officer as aforesaid for the purpose of escorting the said offender as aforesaid, who shall neglect or refuse to do the same, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings.

Appointment of Adjutant,
His duty.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That there shall be an Adjutant appointed to each regiment or battalion in the Province, whose duty it shall be to attend at the place of assembling each company, regiment, and detachment of the regiment, when called out as aforesaid, then and there, under the direction of the officer commanding, to inspect their arms, ammunition and accoutrements, to superintend their exercise and manœuvres, and introduce a proper system of military discipline agreeable to such orders as he shall receive from time to time from the colonel or commanding officer of the regiment, and to do and perform such other duties and services suitable for an adjutant, as the colonel or commanding officer of the regiment shall from time to time order and direct; and that every such adjutant shall be allowed as a full compensation for all the service he is required to perform by this Act, the sum of six shillings and eight pence by the day for every day he shall be actually employed in the exercising and manœuvring as aforesaid, to be paid out of the Provincial Treasury, by warrant from the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, on the certificate of the field officer and a majority of the captains of the regiment or battalion, and of the inspecting field officer, if any of the district for which the adjutant may be appointed, that such adjutant is duly qualified, and has faithfully performed the services prescribed by this Act. Provided always, that no one adjutant be allowed more than twenty pounds in any one year.

Compensation

Appointment of sergeants, corporals and clerks.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the captain or officer commanding each company shall, and is hereby fully empowered, with the approbation of the officer commanding the battalion, to nominate and appoint proper persons to serve as sergeants, corporals and clerks, in the respective company which such captain or officer commands; and so to displace them, and appoint others in their room: and if any person so appointed shall refuse to accept such appointment, he shall forfeit and pay a fine of forty shillings, and another shall be appointed in his room, who in case of refusal shall be liable to the same fine, and so on until one do accept.

XXXV. And

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all clerks of companies before they enter on the execution of their duty shall take an oath before some one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who is hereby authorized to administer the same.

Clerks to be sworn.

The form of the Oath to be as follows, viz :

I do swear truly to perform the office of clerk of the militia company under the command of A. B. to the utmost of my skill and power, in all things appertaining to my office, according to law. So help me God.

Form of oath.

And the duties of clerks of companies shall be to keep registers of their respective companies, to furnish the non-commissioned officers with lists of the men whom they are directed to warn for training, and other duties prescribed by this Act : and to take lists of the companies as often as required by the officers commanding them, to attend commissioned officers making inspection of arms, to attend all musters, and to prosecute for all fines, and sue for all penalties, incurred by this Act, applicable to the use of their respective companies when so ordered by the officers commanding such company : and such clerk shall be allowed and paid one fourth of all fines and forfeitures he shall recover, by virtue of this Act, as a reward for his trouble in doing the duties enjoined thereby, and shall be exempt from being drafted or ballotted for actual service.

Duty of clerks.

Compensation to Clerks.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any clerk of a militia company shall refuse or neglect to perform the duties herein before enjoined, he shall forfeit and pay for each offence or neglect of duty a fine not exceeding five pounds, nor less than twenty shillings.

Refusal to serve as clerk.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the colonel or officer commanding any battalion of militia to appoint a sergeant-major and clerk for such battalion (and in those counties where from local circumstances the battalion cannot be assembled entire, one additional clerk for such division of said battalion which cannot be assembled at the place of general rendezvous) provided there shall be but one additional clerk to any battalion, and to displace such sergeant-major and clerks, and appoint others in their room as he shall see occasion, and the sergeant major and the clerks so appointed shall be exempted from all balloting for actual service; and the clerks so appointed shall take the oath for the faithful discharge of their duties in manner as is herein before prescribed for the clerks of companies, and shall be subject to the same penalties as the clerks of companies for any neglect of duty.

Appointment of sergeant-major and clerk to each battalion.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That twice in every year, viz. on or before the last day of March and November, the colonels or other officers commanding regiments or battalions, shall make out and transmit to the adjutant-general at the Secretary's office in Halifax, for the information of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, returns of the strength of their regiments, battalions or companies, and also returns of arms, and an account of all fines collected or paid to them, and of the expenditure thereof, with certified copies of the vouchers for each expenditure; and all captains or officers commanding companies are hereby required to make out and transmit to the officers commanding the regiment or battalion to which such companies belong, twice in every year, viz. on or before the fifteenth day of March and November annually, and as often further as required by the commanding officer of the regiment, returns of the strength of their respective companies, with fair rolls thereof, and also returns of arms; all forms of returns prescribed by the adjutant-general, to be uniformly adopted: and any officer guilty of wilfully making any false returns, shall be punished by the sentence of a general court-martial, to be appointed as is herein after directed, and shall moreover be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

Returns of the strength of battalions.

Returns of arms, &c. Account of fines collected, and their application.

Returns of the strength of the companies, with their arms, &c.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall wilfully interrupt any company or detachment of militia at exercise, or on any duty prescribed by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the officer commanding such company or detachment, to confine such person during the time of such exercise or duty, (if necessary) to prevent the continuance of such insult or wilful interruption, and the person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings for each and every offence.

Infirmities.

XL. And be it further enacted, That when any person enrolled in the militia shall complain to the officer commanding the battalion to which he belongs, that, by reason of sickness, or accidental or natural infirmity, he is unable to perform the military duties required by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the colonel or other field officer to order a Board, consisting of one field officer and four captains, to enquire into and decide on the said complaint, and it shall be lawful for such Board to apply, or to cause the party complaining to apply, to any able physician or surgeon, residing within the county or district to which the battalion belongs, for his certificate or opinion respecting the nature and extent of the sickness or infirmity of the complainant, which opinion or certificate the said physician or surgeon is hereby required to give forthwith, without fee or reward, under penalty of forfeiting forty shillings for each refusal or neglect, and if after a full consideration of the said complaint the Board shall report thereon, to the officer commanding the battalion, that the party complaining is really unable to perform the said military duties, the said commanding officer shall grant a certificate thereof accordingly, which shall exempt the complainant from such duties so long as the disability shall exist.

And every physician or surgeon who shall give a certificate or opinion of the actual existence of any sickness, complaint, or disability of any militia man, knowing that such sickness, complaint or disability, is false or pretended, shall forfeit and pay a fine of ten pounds for every such offence.

Conferences of officers for better regulation of militia.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That the colonel or officer commanding any regiment or battalion, shall, once in every year, within the first fourteen days of the month of March, and as often further as with the advice of three captains of his regiment, he shall judge fit, require the captains and officers commanding companies to meet at such time and place as he shall appoint, and there with them confer and take order for the better regulation of their companies, for establishing and altering the limits of company districts, and prescribing the number of men in each company; appropriating such fines as by this Act are to be applied to the service of the regiment; and to make such rules and regulations as to them or the major part of them, may seem meet, for the promotion of subordination and military discipline in the regiment or battalion to which they belong; and all officers shall yield obedience to the warrants or commands of their superior officers, and shall observe such regulations, being in writing, as may be made at the meetings herein prescribed, under penalty not exceeding five pounds, to be adjudged at the next meeting as aforesaid. Provided always, that no officer shall be bound by any regulation regarding his dress or appointments, unless two thirds of all the commissioned officers of the regiment or battalion, shall have concurred therein; and provided also, that an account of all fines with their appropriations as aforesaid, shall from time to time, be rendered to the Secretary's office by the colonels or other officers commanding regiments or battalions, and subject to the like penalty for defaults; and that no rule or regulation made at any of the aforesaid meetings (excepting only such as may relate to the establishing the limits of districts, and numbers of men in each company or to the appropriation of fines) or any warrant or command thereupon, shall be of any force or validity until the same shall have been transmitted to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, and shall have received his approbation.

Account of fines.

XLII.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That every militia officer who shall remove from the county or district to which his regiment or battalion belongs, or who from other causes is not attached to any regiment or battalion, but retains a commission in the militia, shall be liable to sit on courts martial, and to perform the other duties of his rank, when thereto required by his superior officer, and may in cases of necessity or vacancy be ordered to take his station in the regiment or battalion of the county or district in which he shall reside, and in case of refusal or neglect to obey such orders, such officer shall be tried by a general court-martial, and, on conviction of such offence, be deprived of his commission.

Officers removing from the district to which their battalions belong.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no officer who has been or may hereafter be cashiered by the sentence of a general court-martial; no officer who may hereafter resign his commission in the militia, and no officer who has been heretofore dismissed his Majesty's service, or who shall neglect within six months after the publication of this Act, to qualify himself for the duties of his station, and shall upon the representation of the commanding officer of the battalion to which he belongs, and the inspecting field-officer of the district, be on that account deprived of his commission by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall be entitled to any rank or privilege from having held such commission, or exempted from enrolment, or the performance of the duties of a private militia man.

Reduced officers.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall be and he is hereby authorized and empowered in case of any invasion or sudden attack, made or threatened by his Majesty's enemies, to call into real service the militia of the several counties, or any part thereof, as he in his discretion shall think fit, and that the militia, or any part thereof, so called into real service by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall and may be ordered to march from one county or part of the Province to another, on any necessary service occasioned by any such invasion or sudden attack, made or threatened.

Actual service.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in case of any invasion or sudden attack, made, or threatened to be made, as aforesaid, in any county where the Commander in Chief cannot be immediately consulted, the commanding officer of the militia in such county, shall have power, if he, in his discretion, shall think it absolutely necessary, to call out the militia of such county, or any part thereof, into real service; and, in case of any such invasion, or sudden attack being made, or threatened to be made, in any town, parish, or district, in any county where the colonel or commanding officer of the militia of such county cannot be immediately consulted, the officer commanding the militia in such town, parish or district, shall have power, if he, in his discretion, shall think it absolutely necessary or expedient, to call out the militia under his command, or any part thereof into real service, and such officer last mentioned, shall forthwith report his proceedings, and the reasons, and grounds thereof, to the colonel or commanding officer of the militia of the county, who is hereby empowered and required in case he shall call out or continue in real service any part of the militia under his command, forthwith to dispatch if necessary an express to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, notifying the danger, and the strength and motions of the enemy, and the said colonel or commanding officer is hereby empowered to impress men and horses, boats, carts or waggons, as the service may require, and all expresses so ordered, and the men so impressed, or owners of such horses, shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for such service, to be paid out of the Provincial treasury, by warrant from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, with the advice of his Majesty's Council, and on certificate of such colonel or commanding officer, and two captains of the militia of such county, that such expences have been justly incurred.

When the Governor cannot be consulted on any sudden attack.

XLVI.

Regulation of duty in actual service.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That when, in consequence of the order of the Commander in Chief, or in the cases herein before mentioned of the colonel or officer commanding the militia of any county, or any part thereof, shall be called into real service in the county to which they belong, all duties to be performed, except in cases of great emergency, shall be regulated by rosters, to be kept of the militia fit for duty; so that such service may be equitably distributed; and every officer or person enrolled in the militia when called into actual service, is hereby bound and required to yield obedience to all lawful commands of his superior officers for mounding guards, erecting works and other military services, for repelling, resisting or guarding against the attacks of the enemy, under penalty of incurring the forfeitures appointed by this Act, for disobedience of orders.

Companies to be formed into two classes.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That as soon after the publication of this Act, as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or the Commander in Chief for the time being, shall appoint, and thereafter, in time of war, between the tenth and twentieth days of March, in each and every year, unless otherwise directed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, the officers commanding the several regiments or battalions of militia, shall cause the captains or commanding officers of companies in their respective regiments or battalions, to divide the men enrolled in such companies into two classes, the first class to consist of all the able men from the age of eighteen to the age of fifty years inclusive, which is to be considered as the first class for service, and the second class to consist of men above the age of fifty and under the age of eighteen years, which is to be considered as the second class for service, and in case a sufficiency of arms and accoutrements shall not be provided at the expence of the Province, or otherwise, for arming the whole of the militia, the men of the first class shall be completed with arms and accoutrements before any other persons shall be furnished therewith.

Rosters to be formed by ballot.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as the classes shall be formed as aforesaid, the commanding officers of the respective companies shall cause a draft or ballot to be made of the first class, as herein after mentioned, for the purpose of framing a list or roster by which the men of such class may be called into actual service when required, that is to say, the names of each and every person in such class shall be written on separate pieces of paper, all as near as may be of equal size, which shall be rolled or folded up as near as may be in the same manner, and put into a hat, and therein be well mixed and shaken together, and in like manner, numbers from one to the extent of the number of men contained in such class, shall be written on distinct pieces of paper of equal size as near as may be, and separately rolled or folded up, as nearly alike as possible, and put into another hat, and well mixed or shaken together, and two indifferent persons shall be nominated by the commanding officer of the company publicly to draw the same. And the said persons shall respectively begin by drawing out of each hat one of the said papers, and the clerk of the company, if present, or otherwise a person appointed to officiate as clerk, shall form a list on a paper to be provided for that purpose, and shall first set down thereon the name of the person first drawn out of the hat, and opposite to such name the number first drawn out of the other hat, and then the persons appointed to conduct the drawing as aforesaid, shall draw another name and another number respectively, and the clerk shall set down as aforesaid such name so secondly drawn, and opposite thereto the number secondly drawn, and the drawing shall proceed in like manner until the whole of the names and numbers of such first class shall be drawn and set down in writing as aforesaid; and from such list the clerk of the company shall form a new list or roster, beginning with the name of the person against whom the number one

one stands in the list, and proceeding in numerical order to the name of the person who drew the last or highest number.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That the men enrolled in any troop of cavalry or company of artillery, shall be drafted and classed for service, in the manner herein before prescribed for companies of regiments or battalions.

I. And be it further enacted, That when the commanding officers of any regiment or battalion, or of any troop of cavalry, or company of artillery, shall be ordered by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, to furnish or embody any number of men of his regiment, battalion, troop or company, for actual service, they shall be furnished in as exact proportion as possible to the number of effective men of each company or troop; and each company or troop shall furnish its proportion of men out of the first class, beginning with number one in the list or roster formed by draft as aforesaid, and proceeding in the order as the names stand in such list or roster until the numbers required are completed. And each and every person so liable to serve, unless prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause, shall go in his proper person, or find a sufficient substitute, to be approved of by the officer commanding the detachment or the field officer of the regiment; and in case of any wilful absence, neglect or disobedience herein, of any person so liable to serve, he shall be confined by the commanding officer, and shall pay a fine of ten pounds, or remain in jail three months; and the person next on the list or roster, shall be called out to serve in his place, who shall have the whole of the said fine if he shall not neglect or refuse to go, or to find a sufficient substitute in his room to be approved as aforesaid; but if he also shall refuse or neglect, he shall be subject to the like fine and imprisonment, and the person then next in rotation on the list or roster shall be called out to serve, who shall have the whole of the last mentioned fine if he shall not neglect or refuse to go or find a sufficient substitute as aforesaid, and so often as such case shall happen.

Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That the fines, if more than one, shall accumulate and be recoverable to the use of the regiment or battalion, troop, or artillery company, wherein they have been incurred. And provided, That if any part of the militia in any county shall not be called out oftener than once within four years, no man who has been called out and served in person or by a sufficient substitute, shall be liable to serve again, until all the other effective men of his company shall have served in their turns personally or by substitute.

Provided also, That no Quaker, duly certified as such, shall be liable to the foregoing fine; but in case he shall stand for service on the list, and shall refuse to go or find a proper substitute, it shall be lawful for the officer commanding the company to which such Quaker belongs, to procure a substitute in his place, and such Quaker shall be liable to pay the expense of such hiring, so as the same do not exceed ten pounds, to be recovered before any two Justices of the Peace.

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the non-commissioned officers and privates of the militia, who, during the last year, were drafted under the laws for regulating the militia, hereby repealed, and actually served in the embodied militia by themselves or their substitutes, or who actually served in said embodied militia as volunteers, without receiving wages or any allowance from the other non-commissioned officers or men of their respective companies or battalions, shall be exempted from service under the provisions of the foregoing clause, for the term of four years, unless all the men in the said first class shall be called into service within that period.

LII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That when it shall happen that there are two or more sons residing in the house or family of their father or mother, and who shall have resided therein for one year preceding, then in case such sons shall stand on the list or roster aforesaid, so far as to be liable to be ordered for service at the same time, one of the said sons shall be excused from serving, and the next on the list or roster shall be called out in his stead; and if any person, aged sixty years or upwards, or any widow having a son, grandson or an apprentice, on whom he or she depend for support, living with such aged person or widow for the space of twelve months before the ordering of any draft as aforesaid, such son, grandson or apprentice, shall be exempted from serving so long as he resides in the house or family of such aged person or widow, and contributes to his or her support.

And whereas, the drafting of militia men employed as clerks, storekeepers, mechanics or labourers, in His Majesty's Ordnance Stores, and Naval or Carcening Yard, and in the Civil and Military Departments of the Army, is frequently injurious to His Majesty's Service, for remedy whereof:

Clerks, &c. in government employ.

LIII. Be it further enacted, That whenever a proportion of the militia of the Town of Halifax shall be called into service, it shall and may be lawful for the colonel or officer commanding the regiment of militia to which clerks, storekeepers, mechanics or labourers, belong, who are employed in His Majesty's Ordnance Stores, or in the Navy or Carcening Yard, or in the Departments of the Army, to apportion the number of drafts such clerks, storekeepers, mechanics and labourers, which each of the said Departments respectively ought to furnish, and to procure good and sufficient substitutes in the place or stead of such clerks, storekeepers, mechanics and labourers, on the most reasonable terms, the amount of which cost and expence for procuring such substitutes, shall be duly assessed by the colonel, lieutenant-colonel, or officer commanding the regiment, with the assistance of two captains of the said regiment, on each clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, so employed in each of the aforesaid departments respectively, in proportion to the daily pay of each and every of the said clerks, storekeepers, mechanics and labourers.

Substitutes to be found for government clerks

Expence defrayed by assessment on clerks.

Refusal to pay assessment.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That each and every such clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, so assessed as aforesaid, shall, on due notice thereof, pay the amount of such rate or assessment to the officer commanding the regiment, or to any person by him duly authorised to receive the same, and if any such clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, shall refuse or neglect to pay such rate or assessment, it shall and may be lawful for any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Town of Halifax, on complaint of the officer commanding the regiment, and on due proof of such clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, having been notified of the amount of his rate or assessment, and of his neglect or refusal to pay the same, to issue his warrant to any of the constables of the Town of Halifax, directing them to levy, by distress and sale of the goods and chattles of such clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, the sum so proved to be by him due and owing, as his proportion, rate or assessment, aforesaid, with costs of suit, and for want of goods and chattles, to commit such clerk, storekeeper, mechanic or labourer, to jail, there to remain until the amount so specified in the warrant be duly paid. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the said clerks, storekeepers, mechanics or labourers, in each of the aforesaid departments respectively, from procuring substitutes, agreeable to law, or performing the aforesaid militia duty in person on due notice given to them of such duty, and on their declaring such their intention at the time of notification, and carrying the same into effect.

Proviso.

Refusal of militia—when ordered into actual service.

LV. And be it further enacted, That whenever, agreeably to the authority granted by this Act, the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, or the colonel or officer commanding any battalion, or the officer commanding in any township, shall order any part of the militia into actual service, any non-commissioned officer or private enrolled in the militia militia who shall neglect or refuse to obey such order, or shall not by himself or sufficient substitute march, and proceed to perform such service as may be legally required of him, that such non-commissioned officer or man shall be confined by the officer commanding the battalion or company to which such person belongs, and shall be subject to a fine of ten pounds, to be recovered before any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county wherein the offence is committed, to be levied of his goods and chattels by warrant of distress, under the hands and seals of such Justices, or in default of such distress to be liable to three months close imprisonment.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever any part of the militia of this Province, shall be called out into actual service, the officers, non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, drummers, fifers and privates, shall be entitled to the same pay and allowances as the officers, non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, drummers, fifers and privates, of his Majesty's regular troops respectively receive, to be reckoned from the day that they march from the rendezvous of their respective companies, to go on actual service, until they shall be dismissed by order of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, and at the time of their dismissal they shall be allowed respectively a number of days pay, to defray their expences to their usual places of residence, according to the distance, at the rate of fifteen miles per day, and the militia when called out into actual service shall on their arrival at the first military post, or at the place of general rendezvous where they are to be embodied into battalions, or companies, be furnished with rations in the same manner, and on the same terms as they are supplied to his Majesty's troops.

LVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the pay so to be allowed to persons under the rank of commissioned officers, shall not amount to the rates of pay herein after mentioned, clear of all deductions, that is to say, to every serjeant two shillings per day, to every corporal, trumpeter, drummer or fifer, one shilling and six pence per day, and to every private man one shilling and three pence per day, it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, at the monthly or other periods of paying the militia, to cause the said deficiency to be made up to the non-commissioned officers, trumpeters, drummers, fifers and private men, out of the Treasury of the Province, and to draw his warrants therefor accordingly, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That in any county or district, exposed to the attack of an enemy by water, it shall and may be lawful for the General Sessions of the Peace, on presentment of the Grand Jury, of such county or district, to assess such sum or sums of money, as may be so presented for the providing one or more armed boats, for the defence of such county or district: such boat or boats to be under the direction of the officer commanding the militia in such county or district, until by the Sessions, and on presentment of the Grand Jury aforesaid, such boat or boats shall be judged no longer necessary, when they shall be at the disposal of such sessions on the presentment of the said Grand Jury, for the benefit of such county or District.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the colonel or commanding officer of the militia, in any county or district, where such boats are provided, shall find it necessary to order the boats so provided, or any other boats or vessels with which he may be furnished, to proceed in repelling the enemy, or to the assistance of any neighbouring district or place, or to be stationed as a watch for the defence of any such place, the militia of such county shall, on the orders of such commanding officer proceed in such boats accordingly. Provided always, that the officer, commanding the party of militia, on board such boat or boats, shall have the command also of such boat or boats, and that the militia shall not be obliged to proceed more than three leagues from the land when so ordered.

Pay of militia when ordered into actual service.

Pay of serjeants, corporals, trumpeters, drummers, and fifers.

Armed boats may be provided.

Persons wounded or disabled
by the enemy.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any person be wounded or disabled upon any invasion or attack of the enemy, he shall be taken care of at the expence of the Province, during the time of such disability.

Articles of War

LXI. And be it further enacted, That in cases of invasion of an enemy, or imminent danger thereof, when any part of the militia shall be drawn out and embodied for actual service, in the manner herein before directed, from the time that such part of the militia shall be so embodied, until they shall be discharged by order of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, such of the articles of war, now in force for the government of His Majesty's Forces in this Province; as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, by and with the advice and consent of His Majesty's Council, shall consider applicable, and shall alter, so as to render the same conformable to the restrictions herein after mentioned, shall be printed agreeable to such alterations; and such of the said articles when so altered and printed (until otherwise provided for by the Legislature) shall be judicially taken notice of by all Judges and all Courts whatsoever, and shall be binding on and extend to all the officers, non-commissioned officers and private men, of the militia embodied as aforesaid, in all cases whatsoever not provided for by this Act: which articles of war the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, may cause to be made and published as soon after the publication of this Act as he may think proper.

Courts martial.

LXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no officer serving in His Majesty's regular Forces shall sit on any court-martial upon the trial of any officer, non-commissioned officer or private man serving in the militia, nor shall any sentence of any general court martial extend to death, unless for desertion to the enemy, for mutiny and sedition, for traitorous correspondence with, or traitorously delivering up to, the enemy, any garrison, fortress, post or guard, nor shall any man serving in the militia be subject to be whipped or otherwise corporally punished in any case whatsoever, except by imprisonment, nor shall the sentence of any general court martial be carried into execution until it has been approved of by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being.

Appointment of general courts martial.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, shall have power, and is hereby empowered, by warrant under his hand and seal, to constitute and appoint General Courts Martial for the trial of all offences made cognizable by such courts by virtue of this Act, or which shall be made cognizable by such courts under such articles of war as shall be published for the government of the militia as herein before mentioned, which court shall consist of not less than thirteen commissioned officers, the president whereof shall not be under the rank of field officer.

Members of court martial to be sworn.

LXIV. And be it further enacted. That in all trials by General Court Martial, every officer before any proceedings be had, shall take the following oath, and the Judge-Advocate is hereby authorized to administer the same, viz:

Form of oath.

I A. B. do swear that I will duly administer justice according to the laws of this Province now in force, for the better regulating the militia, without partiality, favour or affection; and I further swear that I will not divulge the sentence of this court, until it shall be approved by his Majesty or some person duly authorized by him; neither will I, upon any account whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a Court of Justice, in a due course of Law. So help me God.

And no sentence of death shall be given against any offender by such general court martial, unless twelve officers present shall concur therein; and the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or

or Commander in Chief, shall have power to appoint any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for said Province, or other a fit person to act as Judge Advocate at any such general court martial; and provided always, that the Judge Advocate, previous to any proceedings had on the trial of any prisoner, takes the following oath, to be administered by the President of the court martial, to wit :

Judge Advocate to be sworn.

I A. B. do swear, that I will not, upon any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof, as a witness, by a court of justice in a due course of law. So help me God.

Form of Oath.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That no person shall be put to death, under the sentence of a general court martial, until a warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, shall issue for the execution of such sentence, which warrant shall direct the time and place when and where the person sentenced to death shall be executed : and all sentences of death shall be executed by either shooting or hanging the offender, as the same may be directed and ordered in the said warrant, which warrant shall be a sufficient justification to the officer or officers to whom the same shall be directed, and to all those lawfully employed under them in executing such sentence. Provided always, That, previous to any persons being put to death, pursuant to the sentence of a General Court Martial, such sentence, and the warrant for the execution thereof, shall be publicly read in the hearing of the bye-standers; at the time and place appointed for such examination.

Persons sentenced to death by a Court-Martial, not to be executed without a warrant from the Governor. Sentence of Court-Martial and warrant for Execution to be publicly read.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That no officer under the rank of captain shall sit upon a court martial for the trial of any field officer.

Rank of officers composing Courts Martial limited.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That general courts martial shall have power, and they are hereby empowered, upon an appeal being made from the sentence of regimental courts martial, to enquire into and to confirm or annul the said sentence, as to the same court shall appear fit and right ; and in case it shall appear to the court that an appeal hath been made without any sufficient cause by a person sentenced by such regimental court martial, then and in that case the said general courts martial shall have power, and they are hereby empowered, to increase the punishment of such appellant by imprisonment in the jail of the county where such appellant doth reside, for a time not exceeding thirty days.

Appeal from the Regimental Court Martial to general Court Martial.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That officers commanding battalions or detachments not under the rank of captains, shall have power, and they are hereby empowered, to order a regimental court martial, for the trial of all offences cognizable by such court, under and by virtue of this Act, or any other Act made, or that shall be made, for the better regulating the militia ; and that such regimental court martial shall consist of five members at the least, the president whereof shall not be under the rank of captain.

Regimental Court Martial.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That the said regimental courts martial shall have power, and they are hereby empowered, to fine or imprison offenders for offences made by law cognizable by such court in their discretion, according to the nature of the offence, provided that the fine, to be by them imposed, shall in no case exceed the sum of five pounds, and the imprisonment shall in no case exceed thirty days.

Power of Regimental Court Martial.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That no sentence of a regimental court martial shall be executed, until the same shall be approved of, and confirmed, by the officer commanding the battalion or detachment of militia in which the person prosecuted shall serve, nor shall the same be executed without an order under the hand of such commanding officer for that purpose.

Sentence of Regimental Court Martial to be submitted to the Commanding Officer of the Battalion.

Witnesses to be sworn.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That all courts martial shall have power, and they are hereby empowered to administer an oath to witnesses in the same manner as is accustomed by the courts martial in the British regular army, and to punish all and every person and persons for contempt of the court, by disobedience of its orders made in pursuance of the power and authority vested in them; or gross abuse of the said court in presence of the said court, by fine or imprisonment, so as the said fine by them imposed, shall in no case exceed the sum of five pounds, and the imprisonment shall in no case exceed twenty days.

Consanguinity of Members of Court Martial
to delinquents.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That no person shall sit as a member of any court martial, for the trial of any offender, who shall be related within the fourth degree, either to the prosecutor or to the person or persons prosecuted, nor shall any accuser sit as a member of the court for the trial of the person accused.

Quarter-Master

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the quarter-master of every battalion, shall, before he commences the duties of his office, give bond with two sufficient sureties to the colonel or officer commanding such battalion, for his faithful discharge of such duties, and for his duly accounting for and applying all monies he may receive by virtue of this Act, and for all provisions and stores he may receive as quarter-master of such battalion; and the quarter-master of every battalion shall receive all fines and forfeitures applicable to the service of his battalion; for collecting, receiving, and paying over which, he shall be entitled to a commission of ten per cent. to be allowed in his general account; and such quarter-master shall, annually, at the general meeting of the commissioned officers of the battalion to which he belongs, and three times further, if thereto required by the officer commanding such battalion, exhibit fair accounts of the receipt and disbursement of all monies coming into his hands for the use of his battalion; and it shall and may be lawful for every quarter-master, with the approbation of the officer commanding the battalion to which he belongs, to appoint a quarter-master-sergeant, and, with the like approbation, to remove him and appoint another in his stead; and the quarter-master shall be, and he is hereby made, responsible for all monies applicable to the use of the battalion, which shall come into the hands of such quarter-master-sergeant.

Quarter Master-sergeant.

Fines, how recovered.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all fines and forfeitures incurred by this Act, not exceeding three pounds, shall be recovered before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, not being an officer of the company in which such fines shall be incurred; and all fines and forfeitures above three pounds, and not exceeding five pounds, shall be recovered before two Justices, not being officers of the said company; and all other fines and forfeitures above five pounds, shall be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record within this Province, unless the recovery of the same be otherwise provided for by this Act. Provided, That no person or persons whomsoever shall be prosecuted by virtue of any clause in this Act for any breach thereof, after the expiration of three months from the commission of the offence; and all fines, penalties and forfeitures, recovered by virtue of this Act, not exceeding ten shillings, nor otherwise disposed of therein, shall be paid into the hands of the clerk of the company to whose use such fine may be applicable, or if applicable to the use of the battalion, into the hands of the quarter-master of the battalion, to be applied under direction of the officers commanding such companies, to the use of such companies, according to the directions of this Act, or by the colonel or officer commanding any battalion, for providing or repairing of arms, drums, or colours, or for other contingent charges of such regiment or battalion.

Fines, how applied.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That all fines and forfeitures not exceeding ten shillings, to be recovered by the clerks of companies, shall be applied by the captain or officer commanding each company for the keeping in order the arms and accoutrements of such company, for the purchase of drums and fifes for the same, and other incidental charges attending the said company, and if any surplus shall arise the same shall be paid into the hands of the quartermaster of the regiment or battalion, to be applied to such uses as the field officers and captains in their annual or other meetings shall direct and appoint.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons whomsoever, shall encourage, persuade, entice or procure, or endeavour to encourage, persuade, entice or procure, any non-commissioned officer or private man of the militia, on actual service, to desert, or shall harbour, conceal or assist, any deserter from the militia on actual service, knowing him to be such, it shall and may be lawful for the commanding officer of the battalion, company or detachment, to which such non-commissioned officer, private man or deserter, may belong, at his option, to cause the person or persons so offending to be prosecuted by information in His Majesty's Supreme Court, or before two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, according to the nature and circumstances of the case: and if the person or persons on such prosecution in the Supreme Court shall, by the verdict of a jury, be convicted of any or either of the foregoing offences, such person or persons shall severally forfeit and pay for each and every offence, a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or be liable to close imprisonment, not exceeding the term of three months; and if such prosecution shall be carried on before two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the person or persons who, on the oath of one or more credible witnesses, shall be convicted by such Justices of any or either of the said offences, shall severally forfeit and pay, for each and every offence, the sum of five pounds, and in default of such payment such offender or offenders shall by such Justices be committed to jail, and closely confined for a term of twenty days, or until he, she or they, shall pay and discharge the said penalty of five pounds together with the costs of prosecution.

Desertion from actual service.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any action shall be brought against any person or persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such action or suit shall be commenced within six months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and the defendant or defendants, in any such action or suit, may plead the general issue, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence at any trial to be had thereupon.

Prosecution for any thing done in pursuance of this Act

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That so many sections of this Act as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall from time to time order and appoint, together with the Articles of War when made and published, shall be read so many times in each year as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall direct.

Militia Law, &c. to be read.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, from time to time to commission and appoint proper officers to inspect and command all the battalions of the militia throughout the Province, or to limit the command and inspection of such officers to a particular number of battalions, or to the inspection and command of all the militia, in particular divisions of the Province, or particular Counties or Districts, as may be considered most convenient, fit and proper; and all such officers when so commissioned and published in General Orders to the Militia, shall be obeyed in all things lawful, by all persons who shall be so placed under their respective command.

Appointment of Inspecting Officers.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That the Act made and passed in the thirty-fifth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act to amend and reduce into one Act the several Acts now in being, relating to a Militia in this Province; and all the Acts of this Province made in addition thereto, or in alteration or amendment of the said Act, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal of Militia Acts.

LXXXI.

Continuance of this Act.
*Continued by subsequent Acts to 1816.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force for one year from the publication thereof; and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.*

CAP. II.

An ACT to provide for the Accommodation and Billeting of His Majesty's Troops, or of the Militia, when on their march from one part of the Province to another.

Troops or Militia on a march.

Billeting.

Allowance for Billeting.

False receipt for billeting.

Payment of billeting receipts.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That whenever any regiment or detachment of His Majesty's Forces, or of the Militia Forces of this Province, shall be ordered to march from one district of this Province to another, it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of Peace inhabiting in or near any town, village or place, at or through which such forces shall arrive or pass, to quarter and billet the officers and soldiers of the forces so on their march as aforesaid in inns, taverns and ale houses, and where there shall not be found sufficient room in such inns, taverns and ale houses, then to quarter and billet the remainder of such officers and soldiers in the houses of persons selling spirituous liquors by retail, and in the houses of persons who have, within one month previous to the marching of such forces, kept an inn, tavern or ale house; and all persons upon whom such forces shall be quartered and billeted as aforesaid, shall and are hereby required to furnish the said officers and soldiers so billeted on them as aforesaid with lodging, and good and sufficient provisions consisting of bread, flesh and vegetables; and the officers commanding each and every detachment of His Majesty's forces, or of the militia, shall give to the person or persons on whom such detachments shall have been so quartered and billeted, receipts or certificates of the number of meals furnished to his detachment, which receipts or certificates shall entitle such person or persons to receive, as is herein after mentioned, one shilling for every meal, and three pence for every night's lodging which shall have been furnished as aforesaid; and if any militia officer shall give any certificate or receipt for a greater number of meals or nights' lodgings than shall have been actually and bona fide received for the use of his detachment or command, such militia officer on conviction thereof before a general court martial, shall be cashiered, and shall moreover forfeit and pay a fine of fifty pounds, to be recovered by bill, plaint or information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in this Province, one half whereof shall go to the informer, and the remainder shall be paid into the Treasury of the Province, for the use of the Province.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to draw by warrant or warrants on the Treasury of the Province for the payment of all such meals of provisions, and nights' lodgings, as shall have been furnished to the militia forces on their march, and for which receipts or certificates shall be produced as aforesaid; and that whenever a route shall be granted by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the march of any body of his Majesty's regular troops, who are to be removed from one garrison or post to another, within the Province, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to draw by warrant on the Treasury, for so much money as shall be sufficient to pay the full price of the soldier's dier's dinner, to be estimated at the rate aforesaid for each soldier, every day he shall be on such march. Provided, That the sum to be drawn for in one year for such service, shall on no account exceed the sum of five hundred pounds; the payment to be made agreeable to such regulations and certificates as the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall from time to time make, touching the premises, such regulations and the forms of such certificates to be delivered, with the said route, to the commanding officer of the party to be removed.

III. And be it further enacted, That the receipts or certificates of the number of meals and nights' lodgings, which shall be furnished to any regiment or detachment of his Majesty's troops, quartered and billeted on their march as aforesaid, and for which the payment is not herein otherwise provided, shall entitle the person or persons who shall have furnished the same, to receive payment therefor from the officer who shall grant such receipts or certificates, or from the person or persons appointed by the Commander in Chief to make payment for the same.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in places and situations where there may not be a sufficient number of public inns, taverns, ale houses and licenced shops, whereon to billet the whole of any detachment of soldiers or militia that may be on a march, it shall and may be lawful to billet a part of such detachment on other housekeepers in the discretions of the Magistrates giving billets for the same.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County where any march of His Majesty's regular forces or of the militia forces is to commence, or for the county through or to which any such march is to be continued, upon the application of the commanding officer of such forces, and a route signed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, to order a suitable number of horses, carts and waggons, to be furnished, for conveying upon such route the baggage of such forces, and to determine what persons shall provide the same: and the person or persons who shall accordingly carry and convey any such baggage, shall be entitled to receive payment for the same at the rate of one shilling per mile for the hire of one horse and cart, with one suitable driver, to carry a load not exceeding five gross hundred weight, for a distance not to exceed twenty miles, and for every additional horse or horses, to be added to the draught of such cart, nine pence more per mile for each horse. Provided, the additional load to be carried, shall not exceed five gross hundred weight for each additional horse. And if any such waggons or carts so employed to carry any baggage as aforesaid, shall be required and ordered by the commanding officer of any detachment of such forces, to halt at any particular stages or places, and for that cause shall be delayed in their route, such detention shall be computed and paid for at the rate of two shillings and six pence for every hour of the day such detention may last; and the commanding officer shall give certificates to the respective owners or carriers of such waggons and carts, of the weights of the baggage, and the distance which the same shall have been so carried and conveyed by them, specifying also therein the time and cause of the detention of such waggons or carts, according to which receipts, the owners of such horses, waggons or carts, shall be entitled to demand and receive payment forthwith of the officer commanding such detachment.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to furnish any such horses, carts or waggons, upon the order of any two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace given as aforesaid, without a reasonable excuse to be allowed by said Justices, or any objection thereof made by the said Justices or either of them, to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for such county, the said Court shall order the party complained against, to be brought before them, and shall hear and determine such complaint; and if the person or persons so complained against, shall be convicted of wilfully disobeying the said order, he or they shall severally forfeit and pay forty shillings for such offence; to be levied by warrant of distress and sale of the goods and chatties of such offender, and be paid to the officer commanding the militia in such county or district, and applied to the services herein after mentioned. And if any officer commanding such detachment shall force or constrain any waggon or cart to travel more than twenty miles, or one day's journey, or shall refuse or neglect to discharge the same in due time to return home, or shall overload or suffer to be overloaded, any such waggon or cart, either by permitting soldiers, their wives or children, to ride therein or otherwise, or shall force waggons, carts, or hories, from the owners thereof, by themselves, servants or soldiers, every such officer shall forfeit the sum of forty shillings, and be liable also to the party injured for his reasonable damages; and no loaded waggon or cart passing from town to town, nor any horse or horse employed in travelling by or for the owner, shall be liable to be taken or constrained to transport such baggage as foresaid.

Recovery and application of fines.

VII. And be it further enacted. That all fines and forfeitures, recovered by virtue of this Act, shall be applied to the repairing of the arms, and to the providing and repairing of drums or colours, or for other contingent expences of the militia, in such manner as shall be recommended by the field officers and captains of the militia of such county or district at their annual meetings.

Continuance of this Act.
*In force in 1815.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force for one year from the publication thereof; and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.*

CAP. III.

An ACT to impose and appropriate an additional Duty on all Wine, hereafter to be imported into this Province.

Preamble.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased to recommend that the Assembly of this Province should enable His Majesty to make a provision out of the funds of this Province, for the honorable retirement of Sir JOHN WENTWORTH, the late Lieutenant-Governor; in compliance therefore, with His Majesty's Royal Recommendation:

Duty on wine imported.

I. BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That there be granted and paid to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, an additional duty of six pence per gallon on all wines hereafter to be imported into this Province, to be raised, levied, collected and paid, by the ways, means, methods, rules, provisions and directions, and under the same penalties, and by the collectors prescribed, mentioned, named and expressed, in and by an Act, entitled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain duties on wine, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee and brown sugar, for the support of his Majesty's government, and for promoting the agriculture, commerce and fisheries of this Province.

Drawback on export.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any wine, hereafter to be imported into this Province, and upon which the duty hereby imposed shall be paid or secured to be paid, shall be exported from this Province, that then the duty of six pence, hereby imposed, shall be repaid to the person or persons exporting the same, without any deduction whatever.

III.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his heirs and successors, out of the monies to be raised by virtue of this Act, to appropriate any sum, not exceeding five hundred pounds, sterling money of Great-Britain, per annum, as an annuity or pension, for Sir JOHN WENTWORTH, during his natural life, if his Majesty shall see fit.

Application of duty.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if the monies to be raised by virtue of this Act, in any year or years, while the same shall be in force, shall happen to fall short of the sum of five hundred pounds, sterling, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his heirs and successors, to apply any other monies remaining or being in the Treasury of the Province, to make up such deficiency; and in case the monies so to be raised, shall exceed the said sum of five hundred pounds, the surplus shall be added and carried to the credit of the general funds of the Province.

Insufficiency of duty.

Surplus.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force during the natural life of Sir JOHN WENTWORTH, and until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly after his decease, and no longer.*

Continuance of Act.
*In force in 1815.

CAP. XI.

An ACT in addition to, and in amendment of, an Act, passed in the forty-first year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for repairing, cleaning and paving, the Streets in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax, and for removing obstructions therein; and also the Act in amendment thereof, passed in the forty-second year of His present Majesty's Reign.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the said Acts, the Streets, Lanes and Highways, in and about the town of Halifax, are frequently encumbered with filth, dirt, and nuisances of various descriptions, which greatly obstruct the passage, and also endanger the health of the inhabitants; for remedy thereof:

Inhabitants to keep gutters and streets clean before their houses.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That every person within the town of Halifax, shall be obliged to keep the gutters and streets before the houses, building or land, inhabited or occupied by him, her or them, clear and free from dirt, filth and nuisances of every kind; and that whenever any earth, ashes, manure, stones, brick, shavings, dirt, filth, offal, or any other thing, shall be found lying, thrown or placed, in any of the said streets, lanes or highways, the person or persons, before or nearest whose house, building or land, the same shall be, shall forfeit and pay a fine of twenty shillings, together with the expense incurred by the Commissioners of Highways in removing the same; and the said Commissioners, or any one of them, Penalty for neglect.

them, are hereby authorized to cause such earth, ashes, manure, stones, shavings, rubbish, dirt, filth, or offal, to be instantly removed, without giving any notice to the owner, or supposed owners thereof, or being at all answerable for the same. Provided always, That no person shall be liable to the said penalty, unless he shall have thrown or placed the said nuisance in the street, lane or highway, where the same shall be found, or not having thrown or placed the same in, the said street, lane or highway, shall suffer the same to continue for the space of four hours. Proviso.

And whereas, persons keeping Carts; Sleds, or Trucks, frequently neglect to perform their highway labour, or to work in a proper manner, and it is expedient to substitute a Money payment, in lieu thereof : Preamble.

II. Be it therefore enacted, That every person or persons, who shall keep any horse or horses, and cart, sled or truck, shall, besides performing his and their personal statute labour, pay for such horses annually at the following rates: that is to say, for one horse, seven shillings and six pence; for two horses, twelve shillings; for three horses, sixteen shillings; for four horses twenty shillings; and for every horse above four, two shillings and six pence more. Horse rates.

And whereas, the main public Road leading from Halifax to Sackville Bridge, is frequently encumbered and obstructed with Logs, Spars, Bark, Scantling, Boards, Plank, Slabs, Cordwood, Hoop Poles, Staves, Laths, Fencing Materials and Stones, to the great annoyance and danger of travellers and passengers on the road; for remedy whereof : Preamble.

III. Be it enacted, That in ten days after the publication hereof, all logs, spars, bark, scantling, boards, planks, slabs, cordwood, hoop poles, staves, laths, fencing materials, and stones, and timber of any kind, which shall be found in the ditches or track of the said road between M'Alpine's house, and the upper or eastern side of Sackville bridge, shall be ipso facto forfeited; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any of them, without any suit or process of Law whatever, to cause all articles so found, to be instantly seized, and disposed of in such way, or manner as they shall think proper; and if the same shall be sold, the proceeds of such sale shall be applied by the said commissioners for the repair and improvement of the said road. Nuisances on road to Sackville.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all sum and sums of money, penalties and forfeitures, herein contained, shall be sued for and recovered before any Justice of the Peace for the County of Halifax. Prosecutions

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and remain in full force and effect for one year from the publication hereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly. Continuation.

CAP. XII.

An ACT to encourage the raising of Bread Corn on new Lands. Expired.

CAP. XIII.

An ACT to continue, and in addition to, and amendment of, an ACT to regulate the expenditure of Monies hereafter to be appropriated for the service of Roads and Bridges. Expired

CAP. XIV.

Expired. An ACT to continue in force the several Acts therein mentioned.

CAP. XV.

An ACT to alter and extend the times of holding the Supreme Court in several of the Counties and Districts in this Province; and for declaring the qualification of persons hereafter to be appointed Justices of the said Court, their number, and salaries.

WHEREAS it has been found that the time limited by Law for the sitting of the Supreme Court, in the Counties of Annapolis, King's County, and Cumberland, and also in the Districts of Colchester and Pictou, is not sufficient to enable the said Court to finish the business of the said Counties and Districts; whereby great delays of justice are occasioned, to the injury of Suitors in the said Court; for remedy whereof:

Preamble.

Sittings.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the said Supreme Court shall be hereafter held at Pictou, in the District of Pictou, on the last Tuesday of May; and at Truro, in the District of Colchester, on the Thursday next, after the first Tuesday of June; and at Amherst, in the County of Cumberland, on the third Tuesday of June; at Windsor, in the County of Hants, on the second Tuesday of September; at Horton, in King's County, on the third Tuesday of September; and at Annapolis, in the County of Annapolis, on the second Thursday after the said third Tuesday of September in each year.

Length of Sittings

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Court shall not sit at any of the said places longer than the period of eight days in any one Session.

Supreme Court
—by whom held.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Supreme Court shall be held in each of the said Counties and Districts by two Assistant Justices of the said Court, in the absence of the Chief Justice, and in no other way or manner whatsoever.

Sickness of Assistant Justice.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, at any time, after the Assistant Justices of the said Court, shall have commenced any of the said circuits, it shall happen that any one of the said Justices by reason of sickness or unavoidable accident, shall be prevented from attending at any of the said Courts, on the days when the same are herein directed to be held, it shall and may be lawful for the other Justice to hold the said Court, and to proceed in hearing and determining all matters therein depending, any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Return of Writs, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That all writs, process, recognizances and complaints, which are, or shall be made, returnable to the said Court at its next sittings, in the said Counties or Districts respectively, shall be returned on the days herein appointed for such respective sittings of the said Court, and all parties and persons who are bound or summoned, or who ought to appear at the said Courts, or any of them, at the next sittings thereof, in any of the said Counties or Districts, shall be held and obliged to appear at such Court, at the days and times on which such sittings respectively are hereby directed to be held.

Preamble.

And whereas the extending the terms of sittings of the said Court in several Counties and Districts will render it necessary to make provision for the appointment of one other Assistant Justice of the said Court; and, whereas, their present Salary is inadequate to their honorable Support:

VI.

VI. Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, to appoint one other Assistant Justice of the said Court, in addition to those already appointed. Appointment of Assistant Justice.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no person shall hereafter be appointed an Assistant Justice of the said Court, unless he shall have been regularly sworn and admitted an Attorney of the said Court ten years prior to such appointment, and shall have been in the practice of his profession, of an Attorney and Counsel in the said Court, at least five years next before the said appointment. Qualifications.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Assistant Justice of the said Court, to hold, possess or enjoy, any other Office, Post, Place, Appointment, or Situation, except the Office of Master in Chancery, or that of a Member of His Majesty's Council of this Province, or accept, receive, or take any Salary, Fees or Emoluments, for, or in respect of, any Office, Post, Place, Appointment, or Situation, other than the Salary provided by this Act, and such other Fees and Emoluments, as appertain to the said Offices and Situations herein before named. Prevented holding other situations Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall prevent either of the present appointed Justices of the said Court from holding any Office they may have been in possession of before the passing of this Act. Exception.

CAP. XVI.

An ACT to authorize the sale of part of the Lands and Tenements of Samuel Hart, of Halifax, merchant, a lunatick, or insane person, for payment of his Debts, and for his maintenance and support.

WHEREAS, a Commission, in nature of a Writ De Lunatico Inquirendo, was issued out of His Majesty's Court of Chancery, bearing teste the twelfth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and nine, directed to certain Commissioners therein named, to enquire of the lunacy of Samuel Hart, of Halifax, merchant; and Whereas, the said Commission was duly executed, on the twenty-eighth day of June, before the Commissioners therein named, and thereby it was found that the said Samuel Hart was then a lunatic and not capable of the government of himself, his messuages, lands, tenements, goods and chatties, and so had been for three weeks then last past. And Whereas, on the petition of Rebecca Hart, the wife of the said Samuel Hart, and Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, of Halifax, Esquires; His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor and Chancellor of this Province, on the third day of July, was pleased to commit the custody of the person, and the care and management of the estate of the said Samuel Hart, unto the said Rebecca Hart, Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, who have given security for the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in them. And Whereas, the said Samuel Hart, at and before the time of his said lunacy, was, and is still, indebted to divers persons in large sums of money, which his personal estate, and the rents of his real estate, are quite insufficient to discharge, and his said creditors threaten to institute suits at Law, and in Chancery.

to compel the sale of his lands and tenements for payment of the said debts, which would cause a very grievous expense, and might leave the said Samuel Hart, and his Family, entirely destitute of the means of support :

Commissioners

Sale of Lands,
 &c. for payment of debts,
 &c.

I. BE it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Rebecca Hart, Foster Hutchinson and George Grassie, to set up a public auction, at such times and places as they shall find expedient, so much of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, of the said Samuel Hart, as may be necessary for the payment of the debts contracted and actually owing by the said Samuel Hart, and for his maintenance and support; and all deeds, and conveyances, duly made and executed by and in the name and names of the said Rebecca Hart, Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, to the purchaser or purchasers of any of the lands or tenements of the said Samuel Hart, which shall be sold in manner and for the purposes aforesaid, shall be sufficient and valid in law and equity to vest the title and interest in and to the said lands and tenements in such purchaser or purchasers thereof, according to the true intent and meaning of such Deeds.

Public notice of sale

II. And be it further enacted, That before any sale shall be made of any part or parts of the Real Estate of the said Samuel Hart, public notice of the time and place of such intended sale, with a description of the lands and tenements to be sold, shall be inserted in one or more of the Halifax Weekly News-papers for at least four weeks immediately preceding any intended sale, and every such sale shall be made at public auction, and the person or persons who shall be the highest and best bidder shall have the preference.

Consideration money

Application

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Rebecca Hart, Foster Hutchinson, and George Grassie, shall and may receive the consideration money for the lands and tenements which may be sold under the authority of this Act, and shall apply the same to discharge the debts due and owing by the said Samuel Hart, and for his maintenance and support, and shall render an account of all such sales and payment into the registry of the Court of Chancery when required, which account shall be open to the inspection of any party concerned.

And whereas it may facilitate and improve the sale of the said Estates if they shall be sold free of Dower :

Dower

IV. Be it therefore enacted, That if the said Rebecca Hart, shall be willing to relinquish her dower in any of the lands and tenements which may be sold pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and in the deed or deeds of conveyance of any such lands or tenements, to be executed by her jointly with the said Foster Hutchinson and George Grassie, shall expressly assign and relinquish her right of dower in the lands or tenements thereby conveyed, and shall also acknowledge such deed or deeds before some one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, as in cases where the Real Estates of the husband are sold by the husband and wife jointly, such assignment and acknowledgment, shall forever bar her of all right and claim of dower in and to the lands and tenements in such deed or deeds mentioned and conveyed.

Bonds given by Commissioners

V. And be it further enacted, That before a sale of any of the said lands and tenements shall take place, the said Rebecca Hart, by two sureties, and the said Foster Hutchinson and George Grassie, by themselves and one surety each, shall give bond in such manner, and to such amount, as his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor may direct, having respect to the value of the property intended to be sold, and to the debts due by the said Samuel Hart, for the faithful execution of the trust and authority granted to them by this Act.

Commission superseded.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if the said Inquisition shall be quashed, and the said Commission superseded, before the powers granted by this Act are carried into full effect, all further and other execution of the said power and authority shall thenceforth cease and determine.

CAP. XVII.

An ACT in addition to, and amendment of, the Acts for the choice of Town Officers, and regulating of Townships.

WHEREAS from the great improvement of the Country, and the extensive Roads which have been opened therein, it is necessary, in several of the Townships, to increase the number of Surveyors of Highways :

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That for the future the Grand Juries in the several Courts of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, at such term as the Justices shall direct, shall, annually, nominate fit and proper persons for each Township and District, not exceeding twenty-four, out of whom the said Court of Session shall appoint such number as they may deem expedient, to be Surveyors of Highways therein ; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. II.

An ACT to amend an Act, passed in the twentieth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for establishing a Public School in the Town of Halifax.

Preamble. WHEREAS, it is reasonable that a certain number of Boys should be taught gratis at the Public School in Halifax; and it is also expedient to enlarge the Powers of the Trustees of the said School:

Ten free Scholars I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Assembly, That the Trustees and Directors of the said School, in addition to the powers granted to them by the Act for establishing the said School, shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to nominate and send to the said School, any number of Boys, not exceeding ten, to be taught gratis by the Master and Ushers of the School, and such Boys shall be instructed in all the branches of Education taught at the said School, or in such parts thereof as the Trustees shall direct, in the same manner as any other Scholars, and on the removal of any such Boys from the said School, the Trustees shall and may appoint and send others in their stead, so as to keep up, at all times, the full number of ten free Scholars; and the Master and Ushers of the said School shall be obliged to receive from time to time, and to instruct as aforesaid, and also to place, indiscriminately, in the several classes with the other Scholars, the Boys who shall be so sent by the Trustees. Provided always, That such Boys shall be poor orphans, or children whose parents or guardians cannot afford to pay for their Education, and that the number of them shall not at any time exceed the said number of ten.

Salaries. II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of Council, to grant and pay annually, out of the Treasury of the Province, to the Master and Usher of the said School, by quarterly warrants, the salaries granted by the said Act, and that the salary and allowance of fifty pounds to the said Usher shall be so granted and paid whenever the number of Scholars in said School shall exceed thirty, any thing in the said Act, of which this is an amendment, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Appointment of Trustees. III. And be it enacted, That the Trustees and Directors of the said School shall hereafter be appointed during pleasure, and shall continue in office until the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall issue a new commission.

Incorporation of Trustees. IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, and their successors, shall be, and they are hereby, created and made a body corporate, by the name of the Trustees and Directors of the Public School in Halifax, and by that name are made capable in Law to sue and be sued, defend and be defended, in any Courts of Record, or other places whatsoever, and may accept and hold grants of Lands, Monies, Stock in the Funds, or other valuable property, and may apply the same according to the will and directions of the grantor or giver, and for the benefit of the said School.

Vacancy of Master. V. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of vacancy, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to nominate and appoint a Master of the said School; the person so appointed being duly qualified, of sober life and morals, and being, or then becoming, a member of some religious Protestant Congregation in Halifax, and the master so appointed, having first obtained a License according to Law, shall be entitled to teach in the said School, and to receive all the emoluments of such appointment.

VI.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Master or Usher of the said School shall refuse to obey the bye Laws and Regulations to be made by the said Trustees, or shall neglect his duty, towards the Scholars, or shall be guilty of drunkenness, or any species of immorality or misconduct, which in the opinion of the said Trustees, or the major part of them, shall render such Master or Usher unfit to be employed as a Teacher in the said School, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, or the major part of them to report the same in writing to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, who, being satisfied of the misconduct of such master or usher, shall and may cause him to be dismissed from the said School, and may also, if he shall see fit, withdraw his license from such master or usher, who shall, thenceforth, be disqualified to teach youth, until he shall reform, and obtain a new license for keeping a School.

Misconduct of Master or Usher.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force Seven Years from the publication thereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.*

Continuation of this Act
* In force in 1816.

CAP. III.

An ACT for the better regulation of Attornies, Solicitors and Proctors, practising in the Courts of Law and Equity in this Province.

B*it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly,* That, from and after the publication of this Act, no person, other than such as now are admitted and enrolled as Attornies, Solicitors and Proctors, shall be permitted to act as an Attorney, Solicitor or Proctor, or to sue out any Writ or Process, or to commence, carry on, solicit or defend, any action or actions, or any other proceedings, either before or after judgment or decree obtained or passed, in the name or names of any person or persons in any of His Majesty's Courts of this Province, unless such person shall have been bound by contract in writing, duly executed, to serve from the day of the date of such contract, for the term of five years, as a clerk to some Attorney already admitted and enrolled in His Majesty's Supreme Court of the said Province, or who shall be duly and legally sworn and admitted as herein-after directed; and unless such person shall have, during the said term of five years, continued in such service and conformed himself to the rules herein prescribed, and also unless such person shall, after the expiration of the said term be examined, sworn, admitted and enrolled as is herein after directed.

Servitude of Clerks.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein before contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, or enlarge, the time of service of such persons as are already serving as clerks to any such sworn Attorney according to the existing rules and orders of His Majesty's Supreme Court, provided such clerks shall, within three months after the publication hereof, enter into a contract in writing, if none has been previously made, to serve such Attorney for the residue of the period required by the said rules and orders of the said Court, and provided also, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any person or persons who are now residing in this Province, and who may be entitled to admission as an Attorney or Attornies in any of His Majesty's Courts within this Province under the present existing rules of His Majesty's Supreme Court for the admission of Attornies, from being admitted accordingly; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Province.

III.

Attorney discontinuing practice.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the publication hereof, no Attorney shall have, take or retain, any clerk who shall become bound by contract in writing as aforesaid, after such Attorney shall have discontinued or left off, or during such time as he shall not actually practice or carry on the business of an Attorney.

Death of Attorney, vacation of contract, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Attorney, to or with whom any such person shall be bound, shall happen to die before the expiration of such term, or shall discontinue or leave off such his practice as aforesaid, or if such contract shall, by mutual consent of the parties, be vacated before the expiration of the said term, and such clerk shall, in any of the said cases, be bound by another contract, or other contracts in writing to serve, and shall accordingly serve in manner herein before mentioned, as clerk to any other such practising Attorney or Attornies as aforesaid, during the residue of the said term of five years, then such service shall be deemed and taken to be as good, effectual and available, as if such clerk had continued to serve as a clerk for the said term to the same person to whom he was originally bound.

Qualifications.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Judges of the said Court, or any one or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required, before they shall admit any such person to take the Oath herein after directed to be taken by persons claiming to be admitted as Attornies, to examine and enquire, by such ways and means as they shall think proper, touching his fitness and capacity to act as an Attorney, and if such Judge or Judges respectively shall be thereby satisfied that such person is duly qualified to be admitted to act as an Attorney, then, and not otherwise, the said Judge or Judges, shall and they are hereby authorized and required to, administer to such person, the Oath herein after directed to be taken by Attornies, and after such Oath taken, to cause him to be admitted an Attorney of the said Court without any fee or reward, other than five shillings for administering such Oath; which admission shall be written on parchment; in the English tongue, in a common legible hand, and signed by such Judge or Judges, and shall be delivered to such person so admitted.

Admission.

Age.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no person, so to become bound as clerk as aforesaid, shall be admitted an Attorney, unless he shall be of the full age of twenty-one years, and unless he shall cause an Affidavit to be made and filed in the Office of the Prothonotary aforesaid, that he hath actually and really served, and been employed by, such practising Attorney or Attornies to whom he was bound as aforesaid, during the said whole term of five years, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Attornies, admitted in other Courts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall claim to be admitted an Attorney of the said Court, by reason of his having been admitted and enrolled an Attorney, or called to the Bar in any of the superior Courts of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, or of His Majesty's American Colonies, if such person shall claim to be admitted by reason of his having been called to the Bar, or otherwise admitted and enrolled an Attorney in any one of His Majesty's Courts in either Kingdom, he shall, before he shall be admitted in the said Supreme Court, produce a Certificate of his having been called to the Bar, signed by the Judge or Judges of the Court in which he hath been called, or a copy of his admission as an Attorney, duly certified under the seal of the Court in which he hath been admitted an Attorney; and if such person shall claim as aforesaid by reason of his admission in any of the Courts of any of His Majesty's Colonies, he shall produce a copy of his admission in the Supreme Court of such Colony, duly certified under the seal of the said Court, and also a Certificate of recent date, from such Court, that such person was, at the time of the granting thereof, an Attorney of such Court, duly admitted and sworn according to the rules and regulations relative to Attornies

Attornies in force in such Colony, and that such person hath practised in the said Court with credit and reputation for at least one year after admission, and within three years next before the granting such certificate, and that his character is good; upon which certificate, if the Judge or Judges of the said Supreme Court shall think the rules and regulations under which such person obtained admission, to be such as would afford a reasonable opportunity to such person to have acquired a competent knowledge, the said Judge or Judges of the said Supreme Court, may admit such person to be sworn and enrolled an Attorney of the said Court, provided he shall have been examined as is herein before required, and shall have appeared to be duly qualified.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall, pursuant to this Act, be admitted and enrolled to be an Attorney of the said Court, shall, before he is admitted and enrolled as aforesaid, take and subscribe the Oath of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the following Oath, vizt:—

I. A. B. do swear, that I will lawfully and honestly demean myself in the practice of an Attorney, according to the best of my knowledge and ability.

Oath to be taken.

So help me God.

continuance of this Act, and to enquire into the discipline and regulation thereof, and of the proficiency of the scholars, and to take care that the benefit of such Schools shall be confined to the Youth of such persons as contribute to their support, if the money shall be raised by subscription.

Conduct of School Master.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall be, and are hereby, authorised and empowered, from time to time, and as often as they shall see fit, to enquire into the conduct or insufficiency of the master or teachers employed in such Schools, and to report the same to the Court of Session, which shall have power to remove such master or teachers, if they find him or them negligent, insufficient, or of bad morals.

Provincial allowance to Schools.

And as an encouragement to the persons inhabiting the various Townships, Districts and Settlements, in the Province, to establish Schools therein, according to the former provisions and directions of this Act:

Proviso.

VI. Be it enacted, That as soon as it shall be certified in writing to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, by the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, in and for any County or District within this Province, that a School House has been actually built or provided for, and a Schoolmaster appointed thereto, in any of the said Townships, Districts or Settlements therein, and that money has been actually raised to the amount of fifty pounds, there shall be allowed for the further support of such School, the sum of twenty-five pounds per annum, and a like proportion for any larger sum not exceeding two hundred pounds. Provided, no one School shall receive a larger sum than twenty-five pounds as aforesaid, the same to be drawn from the Treasury of the Province, by warrant from the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, pursuant to the instructions and directions of his Majesty, in favour of the Trustees of such School, and to be by them applied in support thereof, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Teaching, free of expence.

VII. And be it further enacted, That at the several Schools so to be established, when the same shall be in part provided for by assessment, the scholars shall be taught free from all expence whatever, other than their own books and stationary, and individual proportion of fuel.

Trustees to account.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees so as aforesaid to be appointed, shall annually account, to and with the said Court of General Sessions of the Peace in each county and district, for all monies by them received and disbursed to and for the use of such Schools, and shall be subject to such rules and orders as the said Court shall from time to time make, touching the funds of the said several Schools or the application thereof.

Donations.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any money shall be subscribed, granted or bequeathed, for the benefit of such Schools in this Province, by any person or persons whatsoever, the same shall be received and applied by the Trustees thereof, pursuant to the directions and provisions of this Act, and shall be considered as part of the sum which shall entitle such Township, District, or Settlement, to draw money from the Treasury, under the provisions of this Act.

Continuation.
* In force in 1815.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and remain in full force and effect for three years from the publication thereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.*

CAP. IX.

An ACT to establish Grammar Schools in several Counties and Districts of this Province.

WHEREAS, the Education of Youth is of the utmost importance to Society: and public attention to that object hath produced beneficial effects:

Preamble.

I. BE it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, by and with the advice of his Majesty's Council, shall, and is hereby empowered to, appoint, during pleasure, and to remove as he shall see fit, three or more fit and proper persons in the several counties and districts in the Province, the County of Halifax and County of Hants excepted, as Trustees and Directors respectively, for the establishing Grammar Schools in each of the said counties and districts, except as aforesaid.

Appointment of Trustees and Directors.

II. And be it further enacted. That the said Trustees and Directors of the said Grammar Schools, in each of the said counties and districts, except as aforesaid, or the major part of them, when duly summoned, shall form a Board for adjusting the business of the said Schools respectively, and are hereby empowered to procure proper places whereon to erect buildings suited for the said Schools, in each county and district as aforesaid, and to accept and receive donations for the erection of such building, and for the endowment of such Schools, and to purchase and hold Lands and Real Estate, in trust for the use of such Schools respectively, by the name and description aforesaid.

Duty of Trustees and Directors.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees and Directors, or the major part of them in each of the said counties and districts respectively, except as aforesaid, are hereby empowered to procure and retain a Master, and Ushers or Tutors, for the said Schools, duly qualified and licensed according to law, and to make and establish bye laws, ordinances and regulations, for the Government of the said Schools, and to enforce obedience to the same by moderate fines and expulsions, or other publick censures, as they may judge proper, and shall fix and determine the rates of tuition in the said schools; provided always, that no such bye laws or regulations shall have any force or effect until they shall have received the approbation of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being.

Tutors.

Proviso.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, from time to time as he shall see fit, to appoint one or more proper person or persons to visit and examine into the state and condition of said Schools, and to report to him upon the same; and in case it shall appear by such report that any abuses exist in the said Schools, the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall have full power and authority to rectify the same, by suspending or removing the Master, Usher, or Tutor of the said School, or by making more or additional bye laws and regulations for the government thereof, as the case may require.

Examination of Schools.

V. And be it further enacted, That the scholars in the said schools shall be taught English Grammar, the Latin and Greek Languages, Orthography, the use of the Globes, and the practical branches of the Mathematicks, or such other useful learning as may be judged necessary; and the said Trustees and Directors, respectively, shall be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to nominate and send to the said schools, any number of boys, not exceeding VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force seven years from the publication thereof, and from thence to the end of the next Sessions of the General Assembly.

CAP. X.

An ACT for the more easy recovery of Debts against Co-Partners and Joint Debtors.

WHEREAS, Co-Partners, and other persons, often contract Debts jointly, and some of such Joint Debtors being resident out of the Province, or absent from it, the recovery of such Debts is thereby delayed and impeded: for remedy thereof: Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That where Co-partners or others are or shall become jointly indebted by specialty or simple contract to any person or persons, and any one or more of such joint Debtors shall be absent or resident out of the Province, the creditor or creditors in all suits in such cases hereafter to be instituted, may proceed to recover such debts by purchasing out of the Supreme Court a writ or writs of Mesne Process against all the said Co-partners or Joint Debtors, which shall be served in the usual manner upon such of the Defendants as shall be in the Province; and if such Mesne Process shall be a writ of Attachment, the Sheriff or Officer to whom the same shall be directed, may, and is hereby authorized, to levy such Attachment on the joint property of all the Co-partners or Joint Debtors, and hold the same to respond the judgment to be given in such case. Mesne Process against Co-partners or Joint debtors.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if it shall be made appear to the said Court, by affidavit or plea in atatement, that the names of any of the said Co-partners or Joint Debtors, are omitted in the writ, or that any of them who were in the Province at the time of issuing such Mesne Process as aforesaid, have not been duly served with the same, in the usual manner, it shall be lawful for the Court to abate the writ, or to stay the proceedings, as the case may require, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding. Proviso.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all cases as aforesaid, the plaintiff or plaintiffs may file his or their declaration against such of the Co-partners, or Joint Debtors, as have been duly served with Mesne Process, and may suggest in the said declaration, that the other Co-partners, or Joint Debtors, (naming them) were absent out of the Province, and without the jurisdiction of the Court, at the time of issuing the process, and at the time of filing such declaration, and thereupon the plaintiff or plaintiffs, may proceed according to the usual practice of the Court, to obtain judgment against the said Co-partners, or Joint Debtors, who have been so duly served with process, in the same manner as is practised in England against a defendant, whose Co-partner, or Joint Debtor, has been outlawed. Absent Co-partners or Joint debtors.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the plaintiff or plaintiffs, after judgment recovered as aforesaid, to take out Execution thereon, and to cause the same to be extended on the joint or separate property, or on the persons of all the said Co-partners or Joint Debtors. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful by virtue of this Act to execute any such Writ or Process against the body, goods or estate, the sole property of any person not brought into Court as a party to such suit. Execution.

And provided also, That if any such defendant shall make affidavit that it is necessary for him to receive instruction or information respecting such suit from his absent Partner or Joint Debtor, and that he cannot safely proceed to the trial of the cause without communication with the said absentee, and that he is not seeking for delay only, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application, grounded on such affidavit, or other sufficient cause, to grant to the defendant or defendants a reasonable imparlance allowed in common cases. Imparlance.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Co-partner, or Joint Debtor, being absent as aforesaid,

Co-partner not having been served with

foresaid, and not served with mesne process, shall come into the province before the final determination of the suit against his Co-partner, or Joint Debtor, and shall apply to the Court to be admitted to appear to defend the said action, the Court shall admit him accordingly, and shall cause such amendment to be made in the proceedings as may be required to make the same regular and consistent.

Co-partners coming into Province after judgment.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any such absent Debtor or Co-partner shall come into the Province after final judgment given in any such cause, it shall be lawful for the plaintiff or plaintiffs, in case he or they shall not have received full satisfaction on such judgment, to sue out a Writ of Scire Facias against such last mentioned Co-partner or Joint Debtor, requiring him to appear and shew cause why execution should not be had against him, his goods, chattels, lands and tenements, to satisfy the said judgment, or whatever may remain due thereon, and such defendant shall be allowed to plead either in bar to the original suit, or in answer to the said Scire Facias, and thereupon the Court shall proceed to try and determine the same, and to give judgment as in other causes instituted by such Writ.

Absent or Absconding debtors.

VII. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect or prevent any proceedings which may, or shall hereafter, be instituted against any absent or absconding Debtors, pursuant to the Act in such case made and provided.

Continuation.
* In force in 1816.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force for the space of three years from the publication hereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.*

At the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Province of Nova-Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday the Sixth day of February, 1812, in the Fifty-second year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. &c. being the First Session of the Tenth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.*

* In the time of Sir John Coape Sherbrooke, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Governor; S. S. Blowers, Chief Justice and President of Council; Lewis M. Wilkins, Speaker of the Assembly; H. H. Cogswell, Deputy Secretary of the Council; and James B. Franklin, Clerk of Assembly.

CAP. I.

An ACT for applying certain Monies therein mentioned, for the service of the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twelve; and for appropriating such part of the Supplies granted in this Session of the General Assembly as are not already appropriated by the Laws or the Acts of the Province.

[This Act, with the exception of the following Section, has been executed.]

WHEREAS the bounty on Iron to be manufactured in this Province, granted by virtue of the seventh section of an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of his present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for applying certain monies therein mentioned, is found not to answer the purposes intended by the Legislature:

Iron manufactory.

XII. Be it therefore enacted, That the said seventh Section, and every thing therein contained, be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed; And be it further enacted, That to the first Adventurer, being an Inhabitant of the Province, who shall erect a good and sufficient Furnace in this Province, at which there shall be manufactured and made within four years, seventy Tons of good Merchantable Hollow Ware, there shall be paid the sum of Six Hundred Pounds, and to such Adventurer shall also be paid, a further sum of Six Hundred Pounds, when, when, by a Forge, to be established at or near such Furnace, he shall have made from Ore of this Province, cast into Pigs at the said Furnace, Seventy Tons of good Merchantable Bar Iron : provided, such Bar Iron be made, inspected and weighed, within the time limited as aforesaid.

CAP. II.

An ACT to regulate the expenditure of Monies hereafter to be appropriated, for the service of Roads and Bridges.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governot, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, some time between the fifteenth day of April, and the fifteenth day of May, annually, to nominate and appoint fit and proper persons, being freeholders, to act as Commissioners for directing and superintending the expenditure of such respective sums of Money as have been or may be granted for the purpose of making and repairing roads and bridges, in the several Counties and Districts of this Province.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, at pleasure, to remove all or any of the said commissioners, and to appoint, from time to time, in their places, others, being freeholders as aforesaid: And the Secretary of the Province shall furnish the Treasurer of the Province with a list of the names of the commissioners, and the sums of money to be by them expended respectively, and also shall give due notice of all alterations made in the said commissions, and shall also, immediately after such appointments are made, transmit notice thereof to the persons appointed, and shall within twenty days after such appointments, have the commissions for such commissioners, and the bonds to be entered into by them, ready for execution.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners, so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall, before entering upon the duties of the said office, give good and sufficient security, by bond, with two sureties, to the satisfaction of any two Justices of the Peace, for the County or District where such respective commissioners may be appointed; in double the amount of the sum to be expended under their direction, faithfully to lay out, and account for, such sum according to Law; and such Justices shall certify their approbation and the sufficiency of such sureties, upon the back of the bond, so to be entered into by the said commissioners; and such commissioners shall be entitled to retain, and charge in their accounts, an allowance of five per cent. out of the money to be expended as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That each and every commissioner, so to be appointed as herein before directed, shall be entitled to receive a warrant on the Treasury for the whole sum to be expended; and it shall and may be lawful for the Treasurer to retain in his hands two third parts of the amount of such warrant, until the whole of the work is completed, approved and certified, according to Law.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be obligatory upon the commissioners to prefer contract generally for the making and repairing such roads and bridges to which they may be respectively appointed; and, in all cases where the commissioners shall judge it necessary relative to such expenditure, shall be by the said Justice transmitted to the Secretary of the Province, for the inspection of His Majesty's Council and the House of Assembly, on or before the first day of November in each and every year, which certificate shall be in the words following:

County of _____ In Sessions, day of _____ 18
 WE, _____ of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, do hereby certify, that by the examination, on oath, of _____ credible persons, taken before us, it appears that the foregoing contract or contracts (as the case may be) hath, or have, been faithfully executed, and that the sums respectively mentioned in said contracts (if more than one) hath, or have, been properly laid out and expended.

Form of Certificate.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, in future, no Commissioner shall be allowed to take or charge in his account, for his own services, any sum of money beside his commission by law established, unless such Commissioner shall have been employed superintending day labourers, in which case he shall be allowed five shillings per day, out of the money granted, for each day that he shall be employed overseeing, Provided he shall have at least ten labourers at work throughout such day.

Commissioner overseeing day labourers.

IX. And be it further enacted, That no labourer upon the roads shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than five shillings for each day's work: and no labourer shall be paid for a day's work unless he shall have diligently laboured at least ten hours each day.

Labourers daily pay.

X. And be it further enacted, That each and every Commissioner, who shall expend money by days' work, shall, in addition to the receipts of the persons by him employed, for all monies paid, render an account thereof upon oath, in writing, in which such Commissioner shall state that the account is just and true, and that the monies by him expended have been fairly and honestly applied to the purpose for which they were granted, and that he procured the best labour in his power to procure, and at the lowest rate of wages; which oath any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace are hereby required to administer without fee or reward.

Money expended in days work how accounted for.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for commissioners hereafter to be appointed, to enter into and extend contracts for the opening of new roads, and improving such as have not been used for wheel carriages, and for erecting of bridges, until the thirty-first day of October.

Extension of Contracts.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Court of General Session, in the several counties and districts, shall have power to enquire into the expenditure of all sums of money heretofore appropriated for the service of roads and bridges which have not been accounted for, as required by any former laws made for regulating the expenditure of money on roads and bridges, and to certify the actual expenditure thereof, according to the form prescribed by this Act.

Enquiry into expenditure of road money.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and every matter and thing therein contained, shall be and remain in full force and effect, until the fifteenth day of March, which will be in the year of Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be no longer necessary to advertise in any other Newspaper save the Royal Gazette, published in this Province, for the creditors to the estate of the deceased, to bring in their demands against such estate, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
Licence for sale of Estate.	III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to grant licence to any executor or administrator for the sale of real estate, until such executor or administrator shall file, in the Secretary's Office, the certificate of the Judge of Probate for the County or District where the lands lie, that full and ample security has been given to account for the proceeds of such sale according to Law.
Continuation of Act.	IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force for three years from the publication thereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.

CAP. IV.

An ACT to provide for the support of a Light-House on the south end of Coffin's Island, on the eastern side of the entrance of Liverpool Harbour.

Preamble.	W HEREAS a Light-House is now erecting on the south end of Coffin's Island, on the eastern side of the entrance of Liverpool Harbour, which will be highly beneficial to all Vessels going into that Harbour : therefore,
Light Duty.	I. BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That so soon as the said Light-

Light-House shall be completed, and a Light kept therein, all ships and vessels which shall enter the said Harbour, shall pay the same rate of tonnage duties that are now received from, and payable by, all vessels which enter the Harbour of Halifax.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to collect, receive and apply, the tonnage duties imposed by this Act, in the same manner, and under the same regulations, that the said tonnage duties are now collected, received and applied, in the said Harbour of Halifax.

Collection and application of duty.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for regulating and maintaining a Light-House on Sambro Island; also, an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for regulating and maintaining a Light-House at the entrance of the Harbour of Shelburne, and all the several Acts which have been since made and passed, in addition to and amendment thereof, and to revive, continue, and make the same perpetual, and all the several matters and things contained therein, shall be, and the same are hereby extended to the said Light-House, on the south end of Coffin's Island, and also made applicable to enforce the payment of the said tonnage duties on all vessels which enter the said Harbour of Liverpool.

Act 33d, Geo. II.
Act 28th, Geo. III. &c. extended to Light House at Coffin's Island.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in force for three years from the publication thereof, and from thence to the end of the next Session of General Assembly.

Continuation.

CAP. V.

An ACT to revive and continue an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act to regulate the Summary Trials of Actions, before His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in the Town and Peninsula of Halifax, and to revive and continue the several Acts in amendment to the said Act.

WHEREAS the discontinuance of the said Act has been attended with much inconvenience, for remedy whereof: Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, from and after the publication hereof, the said recited Act, entitled, An Act to regulate the Summary Trials of Actions, before his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in the town and peninsula of Halifax, and the several Acts in amendment to the said Act, and every matter, clause, and thing, therein contained, shall be, and the same are hereby revived and continued, in full force and virtue, until the thirty-first day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and thence until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer, any thing in the said Acts contained, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XI.

An ACT to authorise the Commanding Engineer at Halifax, to enclose a part of the Highway leading from Fort Massey, to the Exercising Ground, on the Common of Halifax.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, that His Majesty's service requires that a part of the public Road or Highway, which leads from Fort Massey to the Exercising Ground, on the Common of Halifax, should be enclosed for the purpose of enlarging His Majesty's Artillery Park: Presuble.

I. BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That when the Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, at Halifax, shall have laid out a new Road agreeably to the plan submitted to, signed, and approved of, by His Excellency Sir JOHN COPE SHEKROUCK, and filed in the Surveyor General's Office, measuring fifty feet in breadth, through the Field now in the occupation of John George Pyke, Esquire, and described in the said plan by two curved lines, denoted and marked at the extremities on said plan by the letters A, B, C, D, and shall have procured from the said John George Pyke, or such other person or persons as shall be the owner or owners thereof, a release of his, her or their, right to such part of the said Field, as shall be required for the said road, and shall have made the same road in all respects good and sufficient for Horses and Carriages to travel thereon, so that the same road shall be fit and proper for the accommodation and use of His Majesty's Subjects, as a Public Highway, to pass and repass to and from Fort Massey towards the Military Exercising Ground, on the Common belonging to the Town of Halifax, that then it shall and may be lawful for the said Engineer to enclose and take in three hundred and ten feet in length of that part of the said road which now leads from Fort Massey aforesaid, to the said Exercising Ground, and to keep the same for ever after enclosed for the use and accommodation of His Majesty's Ordnance Department at Halifax, or for such other Military service, use or purpose, as His Majesty, His Heirs, or Successors, may at any time hereafter appoint and direct, and the new road which is to be laid out and made as aforesaid, for the public use, shall for ever after be and remain a public Highway and Road, to be used and considered as such by all His Majesty's Subjects, in lieu of that part of the present Highway, for the enclosing of which this present Act provides. Alteration of Road—purchase of Land, &c.

CAP. XII.

AN ACT to alter the time of the Sitting of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, for the County of Halifax.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it has been found inconvenient that the Sessions of the Peace and the Court of Common Pleas, in Halifax, should be held at the same time, for remedy whereof:

Sittings of Inferior Court.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, of the County of Halifax, shall, from and after the publication hereof, be opened and held at Halifax on the second Tuesdays of June, September, December and March, annually, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XIII.

AN ACT in addition to an Act, made in the second year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for appointing Firewards, ascertaining their Duty, and for punishing Thefts and Disorders at the time of Fire.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the provision made by Law for providing the Implements necessary to be used to put a stop to, or extinguish, Fire in the Town of Halifax, has been found insufficient; for remedy whereof:

Fire Hooks, Chains, &c. provided—and kept in repair.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That at the next Session of the Peace, to be held for the County of Halifax, and at any other Sessions of the Peace for the same County, so often as the same shall be found necessary, the Firewards for the said Town of Halifax shall report in writing, to the said Sessions, the number of Hooks, Chains, Ropes, Ladders, Axes and Saws, which they may think necessary to be provided for the service of the said Town, and also the amount of the expenses of repairing and keeping the same in good and sufficient order; and it shall and may be lawful for the Justices, in their said Sessions, from time to time, to order such, or so many, of the said implements to be provided, as the said Justices may deem expedient, and may from time to time order the cost and charge of providing the same, as well as the expense of repairing and keeping the same safe and fit for service, to be assessed and levied in the same manner, and with the same power and authority, that Money is now assessed and levied on the inhabitants of the said Town of Halifax, for the support of the Poor.

Appointment of Fire men; their duty; and,

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, in their said Sessions, from time to time, and so often as the same may be necessary, to choose and appoint such number of prudent and discreet men, not exceeding twenty, as may be found necessary, who shall be denominated Fire-Men, and shall have the charge of the said Hooks, Chains, Ropes, Ladders, Axes and Saws, and shall be obliged to keep them in good order, and fit for service on all occasions; and the persons so appointed shall be exempted from all Statute Labour upon the Highways.

Exemption from Statute Labour.

Duty of Fire-men in time of fire.

III. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That at the time of any alarm, or breaking out, of Fire in the said Town of Halifax, or the suburbs thereof, the said Fire-men shall, shall, without delay, repair to the place where the said before mentioned implements are kept and deposited, and shall bring the same to the place or places where the Fire shall have been discovered, and shall there diligently use and work with the same under the direction of the Firewards in such way as shall be deemed most likely to extinguish such Fire.

IV. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That one of the said Fire-men, to be named by the Justices in their Sessions, shall have the power and authority of a Fireward, to order and command any necessary assistance in taking the said implements to or from the place where any Fire may happen, and any person or persons refusing to obey such orders, shall be subject to the same fine or fines imposed by the said Act, whereof this is an amendment, on any person or persons refusing or neglecting to obey the orders of said Firewards.

V. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall have in his, her or their possession, any of the said Hooks, Chains, Ropes, Ladders, Axes or Saws, which belong to the said Fire-men, and shall neglect to return them for twenty-four hours after such Fire, or shall be found using the same except at the time of Fire, or the alarm of Fire, he, she or they, shall be subject to the same penalty as is provided for a similar offence in and by an Act, passed in the twenty-second year of His present Majesty's reign, in amendment of the said Act: the said penalty to be recovered and applied as is directed by said Act; and all and every Constable or Constables, who shall hereafter neglect to attend at the time of Fire, pursuant to the provisions contained in the said last mentioned Act, or who at the time of such Fire, or alarm of Fire, shall refuse or neglect to obey the orders of any Fireward, such Constable or Constables, on conviction thereof, before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, shall forfeit and pay a fine not less than five shillings, nor more than twenty shillings; and every such Constable for the Town and Suburbs of Halifax, if called on by the Justices in Special Sessions, after any Fire, or alarm of Fire, shall prove, by certificate from one or more of said Firewards, that he or they duly attended, and did his or their duty, at such Fire, or shall otherwise show some good and sufficient cause to the satisfaction of said Justices, which prevented him or them from attending at such Fire, or alarm; and every one of said Constables, who shall, when called upon as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to produce such certificate, or other good excuse as aforesaid, shall be liable for each and every such neglect to the same fine of five shillings or twenty shillings hereinaft mentioned; and the Clerk of the Peace for the said County shall from time to time notify the said Constables of their duty in this respect, by reading to them this clause.

And Whereas some doubts has arisen, whether the Firewards of said town who have been once sworn into Office, ought by Law to be again sworn, if re-chosen to serve in said Office.

VI. Be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Firewards of said town to continue to serve in said office after having once taken the oaths appointed by Law, so long as they may be annually re-chosen to the said office, without being obliged to take again the said oaths at the time of such re-appointment; and that they shall be bound by their first oath to the performance of the duties of their office, as fully and effectually as if an oath had been administered to them upon each renewal of the appointment.

VII. And be it further enacted, That two sufficient Fire Bells shall be procured, and paid for in the manner directed in the first clause of this Act, which Bells shall be placed and fixed in such convenient and proper parts of the said town as shall be by the said Justices appointed.

VIII. And be it also enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices aforesaid, in their Sessions, to make regulations for preventing Boys and other persons from unnecessarily ringing Payment of Warrants on Treasury.

II. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as money shall become due and payable by virtue of any Act or Acts already passed, or that may be passed during the present Session of the General Assembly, and warrants for the same are produced for payment to the Treasurer of the Province, he shall pay the amount of such warrants on demand, in gold or silver, or in the said notes, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, at his or their election, which notes shall be again received at the Treasury, and also by the Collectors of Impost and Excise for the several Districts in this Province, at their specified value, equal to the like value in gold or silver, when, and as often, as the same are presented and offered in payment of duties, and the interest from the day of their being issued in payment, computed and allowed.

Notes taken for duties.

Date and signature of Notes.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the Province shall, on the day, and before, he issues, any of the notes in payment as aforesaid, write on the same the day of the month and year they are so issued, and sign his name thereto, and from the time so written by him on the said notes so issued, they shall bear lawful interest.

Interest on Notes.

Cancelling of Notes.

IV. And be it further enacted. That the said notes, or any of them, when received by the Collectors of Impost and Excise for the several districts in this Province, in payment for duties, the said Collectors shall write on the said notes the day of the month and year the same were so received; and the person or persons delivering them in payment shall sign his name thereto; and the said notes, when received by the Treasurer of the Province from the said Collectors, shall not again be issued from the Treasury, but shall be cancelled in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall deem expedient.

Counterfeiting of Notes.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons whatsoever, shall counterfeit any of the notes aforesaid, issued by virtue of this Act, or alter any of the same so that they shall appear to be of greater value than when originally issued, or shall knowingly pass, or give in payment, any of the notes aforesaid so counterfeited or altered, every person convicted thereof shall be set in the Pillory for the space of one whole hour, and one of the ears of such offender shall be nailed thereto, and such offender shall also be publicly whipped through the streets of the town or place where such offence shall be committed, and shall pay all charges of the prosecution.

Calling in of Notes.

VI. And be it further enacted, That so soon as, by the report of the Joint Committee of His Majesty's Council and the House of Assembly, in their annual examination of the Public Accounts, it shall appear that the state of the Treasury will admit the calling in to the value of two thousand pounds and upwards of the notes so issued and paid out, the Treasurer shall, by advertisement in the Royal Gazette, appoint a time at which he will receive such notes and pay the amount of the same, together with the interest due thereon, in gold or silver, giving sixty days notice of such redemption, and mentioning the number so required to be produced for payment, calling in first the notes of the largest amount then in circulation; and on failure of such notes being produced, at the time limited, all future interest on the same shall cease, and no other or greater amount of interest shall be paid on such notes so called in, than was due and payable at the date the same were required to be presented to the Treasury as aforesaid.

Printing of Notes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the Province, together with the persons appointed to countersign the said notes, are hereby empowered to contract for and superintend the printing and completing the blanks of such notes as are directed to be issued by virtue of this Act.

VIII.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief shall, by his warrant or warrants, require the said Commissioners to re-issue notes to the amount of the notes so received in payment at the Treasury, or to the amount of any part of such notes, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners to issue new notes to the amount which such warrant or warrants shall require, provided the amount of new notes so to be issued, shall not exceed the amount of the notes so from time to time received at the Treasury.

Re-issuing of Notes.

CAP. II.

An ACT for granting to His Majesty an additional Revenue to defray the expense of the War; and to appoint Commissioners to borrow Money, for the use of the Province.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, from and after the twenty-fifth day of August in this present year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, there shall be granted and paid to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, a further duty of six pence per gallon on all wine; a further duty of four pence per gallon on all Rum; and a further duty of six pence per gallon on all other Distilled Spirituous Liquors, which shall then be and remain in, or which shall thereafter be imported into, this Province: to be raised, levied, collected and paid, by the ways, means, rules, provisions and directions, and under the regulations, forfeitures and penalties, expressed, prescribed and declared, in and by an Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for granting to His Majesty certain duties on Wine, Rum, and other Distilled Spirituous Liquors, Molasses, Coffee and Brown Sugar, for the support of His Majesty's Government, and for promoting the Agriculture, Commerce and Fisheries of this Province.

or possession, or in the custody or possession of any other person or persons within this Province for me, or on my account. And the said Collectors, respectively, shall immediately after the said twenty-fifth day of August, proceed to secure or collect, according to law, the said additional excise duty imposed by this Act.

False returns by holders of dutiable articles.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Wine, exceeding the quantity of one hundred gallons; or any Rum, exceeding one hundred gallons; or any other Spirituous Liquors, exceeding one hundred gallons, on which the duty imposed by this Act shall not have been paid or secured, shall, after the said twenty-fifth day of August be found in the custody or possession of any person or persons whatsoever, it shall be lawful for the Collectors, or other Seizing Officers of Excise, respectively, to seize the said Wine, Rum, or other Spirituous Liquors, and to prosecute the same to condemnation; and the person or persons in whose custody or possession the same shall have been so found, shall forfeit fifty pounds, which seizures and forfeitures shall be sued for, recovered and applied, in the way and manner directed by the said Act herein before mentioned.

Allowance for collection of additional duty.

V. And be it further enacted, That no fee or per centage whatsoever, shall be allowed to, or retained by, the Collector of Impost and Excise for the district of Halifax, for receiving, collecting, and paying over, any monies to be raised under and by virtue of this Act; and that the Collectors in all the other districts and ports of this province respectively, shall be allowed and paid two pounds ten shillings on every hundred pounds which shall be collected and paid by them, under and by virtue of this Act, within their respective districts and no more; any thing in any former Act of the General Assembly, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Collector's accounts.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Collectors of Impost and Excise, in the several districts and ports of this Province, shall specify and state distinctly and separately in their accounts, the amount of all monies which shall be received and paid over by them to the Treasurer of the Province, by virtue of this Act; and the same shall also be separately stated in the Public Accounts, to be hereafter laid before the General Assembly of this Province.

And whereas the exigencies of the Province may make it necessary to procure money, before the monies to be raised by this Act shall come into the Treasury:

Commissioners to borrow money.

VII. Be it therefore further enacted, That Foster Hutchinson, George Grassie and Winkworth Allan, Esquires, be, and they are hereby, appointed Commissioners on the part of the Province, to borrow, from time to time, such sum or sums of money, as the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in chief for the time being, shall direct, not exceeding in the whole the sum of twenty thousand pounds: which money, so to be borrowed, shall be paid into the Treasury, and applied by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to the payment of the several appropriations made this Session for the defence of the Province.

Sum.

Death, &c. of Commissioners

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by warrant under his hand and seal, to direct the said Commissioners to borrow such sum or sums of money as he may think fit to require, and to approve or disapprove of the terms upon which the same may be borrowed; and on the death, removal from the Province, resignation, or misconduct in office, of any of the Commissioners by this Act appointed, to nominate and appoint others to act as Commissioners in their place and stead.

Application of new duties.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the monies to be raised by virtue of the duties hereby imposed, shall be appropriated and applied to the payment and discharge of the monies so to be borrowed, with the interest thereof, and also to the payment of such part of the several appropriations made this Session, for the defence of the Province, as shall not be paid and discharged by the monies to be borrowed.

X. And be it further enacted, That the second, third, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-third, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh, sections of the said Act, made and passed in the forty-eighth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for granting to His Majesty certain duties on Wine, Rum, and other Distilled Spirituous Liquors, Molasses, Coffee and Brown Sugar, so far as the same are necessary to the securing and collecting of the additional duties imposed by this Act, shall be and continue, and the same are hereby continued in full force and effect during the continuance of this Act, in as full and ample a manner as the same Clauses would be, were the same again herein repeated word for word:

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the said monies to be borrowed, with the interest thereof, shall be paid off and discharged, and also until such parts of the appropriations made this Session shall not otherwise be paid, shall be paid and discharged, and no longer.

Sections of Revenue Act, 48th Geo. III. applied to the purposes of this Act.

CAP. III.

An ACT for applying certain Monies to the purposes therein mentioned.

Expired.

At the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the Province of Nova-Scotia, begun and holden at Halifax, on Thursday the Sixth day of February, 1812, and continued by several Prorogations to Thursday the Thirteenth day of February, 1813, in the Fifty-Third year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, KING, Defender of the Faith, &c. &c. being the Third Session of the Tenth General Assembly, convened in the said Province.*

* In the time of Sir John Coape Sherbrooke, Knight of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Governor; S. S. Blowers, Chief Justice and President of Council; Lewis M. Wilkins, Speaker of the Assembly; H. H. Gogawell, Acting Secretary of the Council; and James B. Fraacklin, Clerk of Assembly.

CAP. I.

Executed.

An ACT for applying certain Monies therein mentioned, for the service of the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirteen; and for appropriating such part of the Supplies granted in this Session of the General Assembly as are not already appropriated by the Laws or the Acts of the Province.

CAP. II.

An ACT to alter, amend and continue, the several Acts of the General Assembly of this Province, now in force, relating to a Militia.

Penalty for non-enrolment of militia-men.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, each and every captain or commanding officer of a company, who shall neglect to enrol any militia-man within his district, liable to enrolment, for the space of seven days after he shall be informed that such person is within his District, shall forfeit and pay for the first offence, the sum of twenty shillings; and after the payment and conviction of the said offence, the sum of twenty shillings for each and every following week he shall so neglect.

Penalty of non-attendance of militia-men at drill.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any militia-man (having had notice) shall neglect to attend at such meetings of the militia company in which he is enrolled, as by law he is bound bound to attend, not being prevented by sickness, unavoidable accident, or other reasonable excuse satisfactory to the commanding officer of his company, he shall be subject for the first offence to a fine of five shillings; for the second offence to a fine of ten shillings; for the third offence to a fine of fifteen shillings; and for every subsequent offence to a fine of twenty shillings—which fines shall be imposed by the captain or commanding officer of the company.

III. And be it further enacted, That notice of the imposition of the said fines shall be given by the clerk, or a non-commissioned officer, or such person as shall for the time being perform the duty of clerk of the company district such militia men belong to, either personally, or in writing left with the master, parent or wife, or with his child, or servant of the age discretion.

Notice of Fines.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for every militia man, upon whom a fine shall be imposed as aforesaid, within the period of four days, if he shall adjudge himself aggrieved, to appeal to a Board of Officers, to be formed as hereafter is directed; and any person or persons so appealing, shall give notice of the appeal to the clerk, or person doing the duty of clerk, within the period herein before limited.

Appeal against Fine.

V. And be it further enacted, That the notice to be given of the meeting of any battalion or company of militia under the Act of which this is an amendment, shall be by the commanding officer, or any other commissioned or non-commissioned officer of the battalion or company, and not by a private militia man, unless such private militia man has the written orders of the commanding officer of the battalion or company to that effect.

Notice of Militia Meetings—by whom given.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when a militia man is not found at his own usual place of dwelling, to receive personal notice, the leaving notice either verbally, or in writing with such militia man's master, parent or wife, or with his child or servant, of the years of discretion, or giving him notice in any other reasonable and discreet manner, according to the special circumstances of the case, shall be deemed a sufficient notice until the delinquent militia man shall fully satisfy the commanding officer of his company, or a Board of Officers, that he was ignorant of such notice having been given.

Notice of Militia Meetings—how given.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all officers, under the rank of lieutenant-colonel, who shall fail to attend any meeting of the battalion or company of militia to which they respectively belong, without reasonable excuse, to be adjudged by a Board of Officers, to be appointed as is herein directed, for the purpose of hearing and determining appeals, shall respectively forfeit and pay for each and every default, according to their rank, that is to say—if a major, five pounds; if a captain, three pounds; and if a subaltern officer, two pounds—which fines shall be sued for by the adjutant of the battalion, and recovered in like manner as fines are that are imposed upon militia men for non-attendance; and out of the said fines the said adjutant shall deduct, to his own use, one fourth part for his trouble of collecting; and the other three fourth parts he shall pay over to the quarter-master of the battalion, to the use of the battalion.

Officers neglecting to attend Militia Meetings.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the lieutenant-colonel, or commanding officer of each battalion, from time to time as occasion may require, to form a Board of Officers of his battalion, consisting of three captains, or of a field officer and two captains; for the purpose of hearing and determining all appeals which shall be made by any militia man under the provisions of this Act; and if the said Board shall confirm the proceedings of the officers who shall have imposed the fine or fines upon the militia man, the said Board shall certify the same in a schedule, signed by the field officer or President of the said Board, and the said fines shall be levied by warrant, as in and by this Act is directed.

Board of Officers—how formed.

Recovery of Fines.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all fines incurred by this Act, and imposed upon any militia-man, conformable to the provisions of the same, shall be recovered before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, not being an officer of the company to which the militia-man belongs; which Justice of the Peace shall have no power to remit any such fine or fines; but, on proof that the delinquent militia-man had the notice by this Act required of the imposition of the fine, and that he had not been relieved upon appeal, the said Justice shall issue process for collecting the same as in cases of debt.

And Whereas, during the time of war, the services of every inhabitant of this Province in the militia may be required:

Persons liable to perform Militia duty.

X. BE it therefore enacted, That no able bodied man (people called Quakers excepted), between the age of sixteen and sixty, shall be exempted from the provisions of this Act, and of the several Acts respecting the Militia, which this Act is made to alter, amend and continue, excepting established or licensed Clergymen, or regularly ordained Ministers of the Gospel; His Majesty's Council; the Speaker and Members of the Assembly for the time being; the Chief Justice and Judges of the Supreme Court; the Judge of the Admiralty; the Attorney and Solicitor General; the Secretary of the Province; the Surveyor General; the Treasurer of the Province; the Collectors of the Customs and Excise, and established Waiters; Storekeepers of Government appointment; and persons actually in the constant employ of the Civil and Military Departments of the Army or Navy, if exempted by special order of the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, and not otherwise.

Negro Militiamen.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all negro militia men, or people of colour, commonly so-called, shall be set apart by the commanding officer of each and every battalion respectively, and formed into distinct companies or bands of pioneers, as their numbers may admit, to be commanded by such trusty non-commissioned officer of colour or otherwise, as the said commanding officer may appoint; under which non-commissioned officer, such companies or bands of pioneers shall assemble and train, at such times as the commanding officer of the Battalion shall direct, so as that no greater share of militia training or other militia duty be imposed on such men of colour, than is authorised by the several Acts relative to the militia to be imposed on other militia men.

And Whereas, great inconvenience is experienced by reason of the frequent changing of the militia-men of the second battalion of militia out of one company of the said battalion into another company of the same:

Removal from Company District.

XII. Be it further enacted, That each and every militia man of the second or Halifax battalion of militia, shall be bound to do and perform his several militia duties in and with that company of militia in which he is properly enrolled before the first day of April in each and every year: to which company he shall be deemed as belonging for the year next following such enrolment; any transfer of his residence within the limits of the said battalion notwithstanding.

Notice of Removal from Company District.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That any militia man of the said battalion, who shall remove from the limits of the company district in which he is enrolled, shall, one week after the removal to another company district, give notice to the clerk of his company of his new place of residence, and in like manner shall notify the said clerk of any removal; and in case of neglect the said militia man shall, for each offence forfeit and pay a fine of ten shillings.

Volunteers in behalf of New-Brunswick.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to accept the voluntary service of any one or more of the embodied militia-men of this Province, for the defence of the neighbouring Province vince of New-Brunswick against the common enemy; and such militia-men, while serving in the said Province of New-Brunswick, shall be subject to, and governed by, the Laws and Regulations made for the ordering and government of the embodied militia of this Province, and to none other.

XV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the publication of this Act, every male inhabitant of this Province, between the age of sixteen years and sixty, and liable by Law to serve in the Militia of this Province, shall be bound to enrol himself, and shall be subject to be enrolled in the militia company of the district in which he resides, within thirty days after the time of his coming into this Province, and shall not, as heretofore, be allowed the term of three months in which to enrol himself.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That where militia guards shall be appointed for the purpose of watching and warding, that the said duties shall be equally and fairly distributed to and amongst; and equally and fairly borne, by each and every able bodied militia man of the District, as well officers and those exempted from militia trainings as others, in his turn, according to a list or roster to be kept by the commanding officer of each militia company; and every person refusing or neglecting, by himself, or sufficient substitute, to perform his fair term of watching and warding in manner, and at the time, directed by the commanding officer of his company, shall forfeit and pay, for each and every neglect or refusal, a fine of ten shillings to the use of the company, and to be disposed of for the use and benefit of the company in such manner as the commanding officer of the said company shall direct.

XVII. Provided always, nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, the number of days required for training to be performed by militia men between the age of fifty and sixty years, or to subject any militia man above fifty years of age, to any of the fines imposed by this Act for non-attendance at company or battalion trainings.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That where, from the exposed situation of the District and the appearance or threatenings of the enemy, or by direction of the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, militia guards shall be so appointed, and kept, as that any militia man's duty of watching and warding shall exceed the number of six days or nights in any one year, it shall and it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, to cause every such militia man's service over and above the said number of six days or nights, to be paid for out of the Treasury of this Province, according to the rate of militia pay, by the Act allowed; whereof this Act is in amendment, upon such over-service being duly stated and certified, by the commander of each battalion of militia respectively, in manner and form as shall be prescribed by the said Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every person or persons who shall wilfully make or cause to be made any false alarm shall forfeit and pay for every and each offence the sum of ten pounds, to be recovered by bill, plaint or information, in any Court of Record in this Province, one-half thereof to the person who shall prosecute for the same; the other half to the use of the battalion in the district of which the offence shall be committed.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to draw by warrant from the Treasury of the Province, such sum and sums of money, as may be necessary to defray the expence attending such militia Courts of Inquiry as the Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief may from time to time think proper to form for the purpose of enquiring into such charges and allegations as may be exhibited against militia officers.

All persons to enrol themselves within 30 days.

Watching and Warding.

Proviso—Limitation of training.

When watching and warding exceeds the time limited.

False alarm.

Expence of Courts of Inquiry—how defrayed.

And Whereas, certain persons are herein exempted from militia trainings, and it is reasonable that they should pay a sum of money for such exemption, in order that militia duties may be borne equally by all the inhabitants of the Province

Persons exempted from militia trainings to pay a sum of money.

XXI. Be it therefore enacted, That every person above exempted, except Clergymen, shall pay seven shillings and six pence for each and every day he would have been liable to trainings in case he had not been exempted; which sum shall be recovered and applied in the manner as is directed for fines for the non-attendance of militia men.

Continuation of Militia Acts of 48th and 49th Geo. III. and of this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and the Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act to provide for the greater security of the Province by a better regulation of a militia, and to repeal the Militia-Laws now in force; And the Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of his Majesty's reign, in amendment thereof, except such parts of the said Acts as are altered and repealed by this Act, shall be in force, and continue, until the eighteenth day of March, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and from thence until the end of the next Session of the General Assembly.

CAP. III.

An ACT in addition to, and amendment of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of his late Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for appointing Commissioners of Sewers.

Record of proceedings of Commissioners of Sewers.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Commissioners of Sewers within each Township and District in this Province, shall keep a record of all their proceedings, and a fair account of all work and monies expended and laid out by them, or under their direction, and of monies by them received: which record and account shall be open for the inspection of all and every person or persons interested therein, upon paying six pence for each inspection or search; and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the proprietors of lands who are interested therein, when demanded, he or they paying for such copy or copies, six pence for every ninety words.

And Whereas doubts have arisen, whether the proceedings of Commissioners are removable into the Supreme Court:

Proceedings of Commissioners of Sewers removable into Supreme Court.

II. BE it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to remove the proceedings of the Commissioners of Sewers into the Supreme Court, by Certiorari, where the whole of such proceedings shall be examined, if necessary, and such determination made thereon, as by the said Court shall be deemed proper; any thing in the said Act, of which this is an amendment, to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided, That before any Writ of Certiorari shall be issued, sufficient security shall be given, by the person or persons applying for the same, for payment of such costs as may be awarded and taxed by the said Court.

CAP. V.

An ACT for the improvement of the Great Roads through the Province.

WHEREAS it is expedient that a more effectual system should be established for the improvement of the Great Roads leading from the Capital through the Province:

Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to nominate and appoint one fit and proper person, being a substantial freeholder, and having his freehold and residence within one of the Counties through which the Great Road passes, that leads from Sackville Bridge to the Half-Way River, between Falmouth and Horton, to be Supervisor of that part of the said Road; and also to nominate and appoint one other fit and proper person, being also a substantial freeholder, and having his freehold and residence within the County through which the Great Road passes that leads from the Windsor Road to M'Keen's Mill, at the entrance of the Town of Truro, to be Supervisor of that part of the said last mentioned road.

Appointment of Supervisors.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Supervisors shall continue in office for the space of three years next following the date of their respective appointments, unless sooner superseded by the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, with the advice of His Majesty's Council, or removed by death, or absence; in either of which cases, the vacancy shall be filled up, from time to time, out of the same description of persons, that the office of Supervisor may continue, for the space of three years from its commencement.

Servitude of Supervisors.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Supervisor, to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall give such security, for the faithful performance of the duties required of him, and for accounting, at certain stated periods, as the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, with the advice of His Majesty's Council, shall deem fit and proper.

Supervisors to give security.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Supervisors appointed under the authority of this Act, shall, respectively, have the sole ordering of the repairs and alterations necessary for the completing the said roads, and keeping them at all times, during their continuance in office, in the best practicable state for the passage of men, horses, cattle, teams and carriages.

Duty of Supervisors.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, to direct the Treasurer of this Province to pay into the hands of such Supervisor, from time to time, out of the monies granted by the General Assembly of the Province for the repairs of the said Roads respectively, such sum or sums as shall be necessary for the purchase of Working Tools, and Implements, and for the payment of Overseers, Labourers, Workmen, Contracts, and necessary Materials, for the making and repairing said roads.

Payment of Labourers, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That for the expenditure of all such monies, as well as the amount of the balance in hand, and the quantity and state of the tools, implements and materials in store, the said Supervisors shall, respectively, faithfully and regularly, account with the Auditor of Accounts, for the time being, at such periods before the Sittings of the General Assembly, as the said Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief shall require.

Expenditures accounted for.

VII. And be it further enacted, That at and after the expiration of forty days from the publication hereof, all logs, spars, bark, scantling, boards, planks, slabs, cord wood, hoop poles, staves, Road Incumbrances.

staves, laths, fencing materials and stones, rubbish and timber of any kind, which shall be found in the ditches, or track of the roads, under the direction of the said Supervisors, shall be, in loco, forfeited; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Supervisors, or either of them, without any suit or process of Law whatever, to cause all articles so found, to be instantly seized, and disposed of, in such way and manner, as he or they shall think proper; and if the same shall be sold, the proceeds of such sale shall be applied by the said Supervisor or Supervisors, for the repair and improvement of the said roads.

Statute Labour.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the ordinary Statute Labour of all persons liable by Law to work on the said roads, shall be done and performed by direction, and under the authority of the said Supervisors respectively, who shall have the sole power to compel and direct the performance of the same, at such times and seasons, as to them shall respectively appear convenient and proper; and to collect and expend, as by Law is provided, the fines payable by those who neglect or refuse to perform the same.

Materials required for repair of roads.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case it be necessary or expedient for the said Supervisors to go out of the said roads, to procure materials for the repair of the said roads, it shall and may be lawful for such Supervisors (where from the absence or obstinacy of the owner or possessor of the soil, no agreement can be made with him) to enter with workmen, carts, carriages and horses, upon any uncultivated lands, and therefrom to dig up, take, and carry away, for the repairs of the said roads, stones or gravel, and also therefrom to cut down, and carry away, trees and bushes, for logs, poles and brushwood, to repair the same roads; and the damage done thereby, shall be appraised and ascertained by the judgment of three indifferent freeholders, to be nominated by the nearest Justice of the Peace, for that purpose; and the sum so ascertained, shall be paid or tendered by the Supervisors to the owner of the soil, if demanded, within three months from such appraisement.

Action of Trespass against Supervisors.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any action of trespass, or on the case, shall be brought against either of the said Supervisors, by reason of any thing done by him in the execution of his office, he may plead the General Issue thereto, and give this Act, and the special matter in evidence, on the trial of such action.

Interruption of Supervisors.

XI. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons, who shall be convicted of wilfully hindering or interrupting a Supervisor, or any of the overseers under him, in the lawful exercise of the duties incident to his or their office, shall forfeit and pay a fine, to His Majesty, not exceeding five pounds nor less than twenty shillings for each and every offence.

Allowance to Supervisors.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said Supervisors shall respectively be paid, for every day they shall be actually employed in superintending the repair of the said roads the sum of fifteen shillings, in lieu of Commissions, for their said service, and no more; which sum shall be retained by the said Supervisors out of the monies paid for the service of the said roads, from time to time, as the same shall become due to them, and be charged in their accounts respectively. Provided, that the sum so to be retained, shall not exceed the sum of one hundred pounds to either of the said Supervisors in any one year.

Allowance to Overseers.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no overseer to be employed upon the said roads shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than seven shillings for each day's service; and that no labourer, to be employed on the said roads, shall be allowed or paid a greater sum than five shillings for each day's labour.

Fines.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all fines imposed by this Act, shall be levied by warrant of distress, of the goods and chattles of the offender or offenders, upon conviction, by any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, on the oath of one credible witness, and

and shall be paid to the said Supervisors respectively, to be applied to the use of the said Roads.

CAP. VI.

An ACT imposing a Duty on Articles to be imported from the United States of America, and for appropriating the same.

BE it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That from and after the publication hereof, all goods, wares and merchandise, which shall be imported from any port or place within the United States of America, except the articles hereinafter enumerated, shall be liable to, and pay a duty of ten per cent. ad valorem; to be levied and received in the current money of the Province, by the Collectors of Impost and Excise, to be estimated according to the original invoice, to be produced by the importer or importers thereof, on oath, before the landing of any such articles, except wheat, rice, rye, Indian corn, barley, flour, grain, pease, beans, seeds, meal of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, rosin, hemp, and goods condemned as prize.

Duty on articles imported from United States.

II. And be it further enacted, That any importer, or importers, owner, or owners, who shall import and land any of the articles, except such as are herein excepted, without paying the duty thereon imposed by this Act, shall, upon discovery thereof, forfeit such articles, to be imported and landed.

Seizure of Dutiable Articles.

III. And be it further enacted, That the master of any vessel employed in the importation of goods as aforesaid, or any other person who shall land, or attempt to land, any of the articles subject to duty by this Act except as herein before excepted, before the duty imposed by this Act shall be paid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds.

Fine for Illicit Trade.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Collectors or Receivers of the Duties for the time being, shall render a just account, and pay into the hands of the Treasurer of the Province, all such monies received by him or them for the duties collected in pursuance of this Act, within thirty days after receipt of the same, under penalty of fifty pounds for his or their neglect; which duties shall be applied to the relief of the poor of the County or Town where the same shall be collected.

Appropriation of Duty.

V. And be it further enacted, That all forfeitures, and penalties, incurred by this Act, shall be appropriated: one half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the Poor of the County or Town wherein the same is collected or recovered; the forfeiture to be recovered, on complaint or proof, before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and the penalty by action of debt, bill, plaint or information, in any Court of Record within this Province.

Appropriation of Fines.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no fee, or per centage, whatsoever, shall be allowed to, or retained by, the Collector of Impost and Excise for the District of Halifax, for receiving, collecting and paying over, any monies to be raised under and by virtue of this Act; and that the Collectors in all the other Districts and Ports of this Province, respectively, shall be allowed and paid two pounds ten shillings on every hundred pounds which shall be collected and paid by them, under and by virtue of this Act, within their respective Districts, and no more, any thing in any former Act of the General Assembly to the contrary notwithstanding.

Allowance for Collection of Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and every matter and thing therein contained, shall continue and be in force, until the Eighteenth day of March, which will be in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen and no longer.*

Continuation.

* In force in 1816.

CAP. VII.

An ACT to revive and continue the several Acts of the General Assembly for the further increase of the Revenue, by raising a Duty of Excise on all Goods, Wares and Merchandise; imported into this Province:

Revival.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Act, made in the thirty-second year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for the further increase of the Revenue, by raising a Duty of Excise on all Goods, Wares and Merchandise, imported into this Province; and the Act, made in the forty-eighth year of His said Majesty's reign, for repealing so much of the aforesaid Act as exempts from such duty certain articles therein enumerated, and for declaring what Goods, Wares and Merchandise, shall hereafter be exempt from such Duty of Excise, and every clause, matter and thing, therein mentioned, be revived, and the same are hereby revived.

Appropriation of Monies and Penalties.

CAP. XIV.

An ACT in addition to, and amendment of, an Act, passed in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for the relief of Insolvent Debtors.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to alter and amend those parts of the said Act, which relate to the detention in Prison of persons who may be desirous to procure their discharge by complying with the directions of the said Act:

Preamble.

D d

I. Be

How persons confined for debt may obtain their discharge.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That where any person detained in prison for debt, shall apply for his discharge, and shall in all respects comply with the directions of the said Act, such person shall be forthwith discharged from his, or her imprisonment, unless good and sufficient reason for the further detention of such prisoner, shall be shewn, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the Court or Justices to which or whom the application for the discharge shall be made; in which case, if the creditor or creditors shall desire it, and shall agree to supply the prisoner with bread, according to the directions of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court, or Justices, to direct such prisoner to be remanded, and detained in Jail for such time as the said Court or Justices shall think proper, not exceeding three months; at the expiration of which time, such prisoner shall be discharged; but if it shall appear to the said Court or Justices, by affidavit, that such prisoner has been guilty of fraud or deceit towards such creditor or creditors; or if, at the end of the said three months, further and satisfactory cause shall be shewn, by affidavit, to the said Court or Justices for a longer detention of the said prisoner, and if the creditor or creditors shall require the said debtor to be further confined, and shall agree to supply him with bread as aforesaid, he may be again remanded and detained for a further time, at the discretion of the said Court or Justices, not exceeding in any case two years from the time of his first imprisonment at the suit of such creditor or creditors; at the expiration of which time he shall be finally discharged—any thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

And Whereas, the time limited by the said Act for Prisoners to apply for their discharge is too short:

Petition for discharge.

II. Be it therefore enacted, That any person shall be entitled to petition for his discharge within the first term after such person shall be charged in execution, or if the application is made to two Justices within forty days next after such person shall be charged in execution.

Persons not present imprisoned for debt.

III. And be it further enacted, That such prisoners as are now in execution for debt, shall be entitled to take the benefit of this Act, provided, that within sixty days from and after the publication hereof, they make application for that purpose in the manner directed by the aforesaid Act for the relief of Insolvent Debtors.

Exception to persons confined at suit of the Crown.

IV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to persons who are or shall be confined in execution at the suit of the Crown, or to persons confined for any debt or debts exceeding in the whole five hundred pounds.

CAP. XV.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when any Contract or Bargain shall be made for any quantity of Timber for exportation, the same shall be understood to be for Timber according to the directions of this Act, and no person shall be obliged to take any other kind of Timber, unless he shall have previously made a special agreement for the same.

Acts 12th Geo. III. and 33d Geo. III. repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Act passed in the twelfth year of his present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act declaring what shall be deemed Merchantable Timber for exportation to Great-Britain, and also the Act passed in the thirty-third year of his said Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act in addition to, and amendment of, an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the Reign of his present Majesty, entitled, An Act declaring what shall be deemed Merchantable Timber for exportation to Great-Britain—and every clause and thing therein contained, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CAP. XVII.

An ACT to give Power to the Firewards of the Town of Halifax, to prevent dangerous quantities of Gunpowder being kept within the said Town, and the Harbour thereof.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the twenty-eighth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act in further addition to an Act, passed in the second year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for appointing Firewards, and punishing Thefts, and Disorders at the time of Fire, it is enacted, that not more than twenty-five pounds of Gun-Powder, shall be kept at any one time, in any one house, shop, or building, in the town of Halifax, and the Justices of the Peace, for the said town of Halifax, not being authorised by Law to grant their Warrants to search for dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder, in houses, shops or buildings, whereby persons are enabled to evade the provisions of the said Act; and whereas private armed ships, and other ships and vessels frequently anchor in the harbour of Halifax, and lie alongside the wharves, having dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder on board, to the apparent danger of the lives and fortunes of his Majesty's subjects, for remedy whereof:

Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That from and after the publication of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace residing within the town of Halifax, upon complaint made on oath by any Fireward or other person, that he or they have reasonable cause to suspect that dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder are kept within the said town of Halifax, in any houses, storehouses, warehouses, shops, cellars, yards, wharves, or other places, whatsoever, or any ships, boats, or other vessels, in the harbour of Halifax, and within the said town of Halifax, to issue his Warrant or Warrants to search for the same, in the day time, and for that purpose, admittance being first demanded by such Fireward or Firewards, and refused by the proprietor or occupant or occupants of such building, store or vessel, it shall and may be lawful for any one of the said Justices, upon information on oath made before him, to grant a Warrant to break open any such houses, storehouses, warehouses, shops, cellars, yards, wharves, or other places aforesaid, or any ships, boats, or other vessels, if there shall be occasion, and that upon any or every search or searches, a greater quantity of Gun-Powder than the Law allows, shall be found by him or them, or either of them, it shall and may be lawful for any such Fireward or Firewards for the said town of Halifax, to seize the same, as forfeit to the use of the Poor of the Town of Halifax, and to sell, dispose of and apply the same as is directed, in and by the said Act.

Information.

Search for dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder in Houses, &c.

Discovery of dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That not more than twenty-five pounds of Gun-Powder shall be kept at any one time, in any one ship, boat or other vessel in the harbour of Halifax, longer than twelve hours after such ship, boat or other vessel, shall have come alongside of any vessel or wharf, within the Harbour of Halifax. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, in any wise to affect any ship, boat or other vessel, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, wherein Gun-Powder, or other Stores shall be kept for the use of the Public.

Powder in vessels.

Proviso.

And whereas, the penalties, and forfeitures imposed by the said Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of his Majesty's Reign, have been found insufficient to prevent persons keeping dangerous quantities of Gun-Powder:

III. Be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall reafter have or keep any larger or greater quantity of Gun-Powder than twenty-five pounds at any time in any house, storehouse, warehouse, shop, cellar, yard, wharf, or other place, within the said town of Halifax, or in any ship, boat, or other vessel in the harbour of Halifax, contrary to the provisions of this Act, all and every such person or persons shall forfeit and pay for every pound thereof, the sum of five shillings, to be recovered by any action, plaint, bill, or information, at the suit of any Fireward or Firewards for the said town of Halifax, in his Majesty's Supreme Court for this Province, together with full costs of suit to be taxed by the Justices of the said Court. Provided always, that such action, plaint, bill, or information, shall be commenced, sued and prosecuted, within twelve months next after such forfeiture or penalty shall be incurred.

IV. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures, incurred by this Act, shall be applied in the same manner, as is directed in and by the said Act, made and passed in the twenty-eighth year of his present Majesty's Reign.

CAP. XVIII.

An ACT to enable the Proprietors to repair the Meeting-House at Truro, and to inclose the Burying-Place belonging to the same, and also to assess Monies for defraying the expences thereof.

Meeting of Proprietors.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That whenever the Proprietors of the Meeting House at Truro, shall find it expedient to repair the same, or to make or repair any wall, fence, or inclosure, around the Burying Place thereto appertaining, it shall and may be lawful for such Proprietors to meet and consult about the making of such repairs or inclosure, and the votes or determination of the major part in number and interest of such Proprietor, at such meeting, shall bind the whole.

Notice of Meeting.

Provided always, That every Proprietor or Person, acting in his or her behalf, shall have at least four days previous notice of the time, place and purpose, of such Meeting, and that all votes or resolutions agreed on by the majority at such meetings shall be entered into the Meeting House Books, or into a book to be provided and kept for that purpose, which book shall be open for the inspection of every Proprietor.

Appointment of Trustees to make repairs.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Proprietors or such major part of them, to appoint three or more fit and proper persons to act as Trustees for directing and completing such repairs or inclosures, as shall be determined and agreed on at any meeting to be held as aforesaid; and such Trustees may enter into any agreements or contracts for making such repairs or inclosures, and, whenever the expences thereof shall be ascertained, shall apportion the same by a just and equal assessment on all the Proprietors of the said Meeting-House, according to their several shares and interests therein; and such assessment shall be made in writing, and be submitted to the inspection of any of the Proprietors who may require to view and examine the same.

Refusal of Proprietor to pay his proportion of repairs.
Power of Trustees.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Proprietor shall refuse or neglect, for the space of ten days after due notice to him or her of such assessment, to pay his or her share thereof to the said Trustees, it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees to advertise such delinquent's share or shares in the said Meeting House, to be Let, and to Lease the same for such term of time as shall be sufficient to raise the amount of his or her assessment, and if no person shall appear within the space of one month after such advertisement, to hire the said share or shares, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to sell the same to the highest bidder; and to make and execute a good and sufficient deed thereof, and also to deliver the possession of such share or shares shares to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid over to the delinquent Proprietor or Proprietors.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Trustees, or Purchasers, shall be sued or prosecuted for any thing done by them, or any of them, in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Trustees or other persons to plead the general issue, and to give this Act and the special matter in evidence.

Action against Trustees.

CAP. II:

An ACT for granting to His Majesty certain duties on Wine, Brandy, Gin, Rum, and other distilled Spirituous Liquors, Molasses, Coffee, and Brown Sugar, for the support of His Majesty's Government, and for promoting the Agriculture, Commerce and Fisheries; of this Province.

BE it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid, to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, on all wine, brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee, and brown sugar, maple sugar only excepted, which shall or may hereafter be imported or brought into this Province, or manufactured therein, the respective rates and impositions herein after mentioned; that is to say:

Duty on Wine. For and upon the following wines; that is to say: champagne, Madeira, port, claret, Lisbon and sherry, one shilling and three pence per gallon.

For and upon all other wines, nine pence per gallon.

Duty on Brandy and Gin. For and upon all brandy and gin, one shilling and three pence per gallon.

Duty on Rum, &c. imported. For and upon all rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, one shilling per gallon.

Duty on Rum, &c. distilled in Province. And for and upon all rum, and other spirituous liquors, distilled in this Province, ten pence per gallon.

Duty on Molasses. For and upon every gallon of molasses, one penny.

Duty on Coffee. For and upon every pound of coffee, one penny.

Duty on Sugar. For and upon every hundred weight of brown sugar, (maple sugar excepted) three shillings and six pence, the same to be paid by the importer or manufacturer of any such articles.

II. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all merchants and other persons, who shall import, or bring into this Province, in any ship or vessel, or otherwise, or who shall receive, or have consigned to him, or them, respectively, any wine, brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee or brown sugar, (maple sugar excepted,) shall, within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any such ship or vessel, into any port, harbor, or creek within this Province, and due notice thereof given to such merchant, consignee, or importer, render an account in writing, and upon oath, to the collector of the excise for the district in which such merchant, consignee, or importer, shall or may reside, setting forth therein the quantity of each of the said enumerated articles so imported or received, the nature and description of the casks and packages in which the same may be contained and packed, with the marks and numbers thereof, and also the name of the place from whence they shall have been imported or brought, and the master or owner, and the supercargo, (if any there be), of any ship or vessel, so importing or bringing any of the said articles, shall also within twenty-four hours after the arrival of such ship or vessel, in any port, harbour or creek, within this Province, report to such collector for the district in which which such port, harbour or creek, shall be, the quantity of each of the said enumerated articles so laden on board such ship or vessel; the casks or packages in which the same may be contained, with their respective marks and numbers, and the name or names of the person or persons to whom the same may be consigned; and shall also verify his and each of their said report by oath, the same to be administered by the said collector.

Importer or Consignee's Oath.

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, that the account which I have now rendered and subscribed of the wines, brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee, and brown sugar, laden on board and imported in the ship or vessel called _____, at _____, is a true and faithful account of all the said articles of which I am owner or consignee, laden on board or imported in such ship or vessel, and that no part of the cargo to me belonging or consigned of such ship or vessel, hath, since her arrival, and to my knowledge or belief, been landed, sold, delivered, bartered or exchanged, at any port or place within this Province, or on the coasts thereof.—So help me God.

Importer or Consignee's
Oath.

Master and Supercargo's Oath.

I, A. B. do solemnly swear, that the report which I have now made and subscribed, contains a true and just account of all the wines, brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee, and brown sugar, laden on board the ship or vessel called _____, at _____, and that I have not landed or suffered to be landed, sold, delivered, bartered, or exchanged, from or out of the said ship or vessel, any wine, brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee, or brown sugar, at any port or place within this Province, or on the coasts thereof, since my sailing from _____.—So help me God.

Master and Supercargo's
Oath.

And such master shall also obtain a permit from the said collector for landing the said wines, brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, coffee, and brown sugar, on some certain wharf or place within his district; which said permit shall be in the words following:

Permit A. B. master of the ship or vessel called _____, to begin to unload her cargo at _____ wharf or landing within the district of _____, and to continue to unload the same betwixt sun rising and sun setting each day, until the cargo of such ship or vessel shall be wholly discharged. Given under my hand, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 18 _____

Permission to land Dutiable Goods.

And if such master, owner, or consignee, or other persons, shall neglect to make such report, or shall break bulk of, or on board such ship or vessel, or shall unlade or land any of the said enumerated articles before he or they shall have made such report and obtained such permit, or shall unlade or land the same, or any part thereof, at any other place than is specified in the said permit, or shall remove or carry away, or suffer or cause to be removed or carried away, any of the said articles from the place specified in the said permit for landing, before such wines, brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, or molasses, shall have been duly gauged, or before such coffee and brown sugar shall have been duly weighed, under the direction of the said collector, and the said rates, duties and impositions, shall have been paid or secured in manner as herein after directed, and not having a permit for removing the same in the words following:

Breaking Bulk
without permit, or removing du-tiable articles before they are gauged, &c.

Permit A. B. to remove _____, from _____, within the town of _____, to _____, the duties thereon having been already paid or secured in the Excise Office at _____, Given under my hand at _____, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 18 _____;

Permit to remove dutiable articles.

every such master, owner, or consignee, or other person, shall forfeit for each and every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds; and the ship or vessel from or out of which such articles _____ articles, or any or either of them, shall have been clandestinely landed, is hereby rendered forfeit, and the same being first duly seized by the said Collector, shall be prosecuted to condemnation, and afterwards sold, and the nett proceeds thereof shall be distributed in manner as is herein after directed.

Dutiable articles to be guaged, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That on the accounts and reports being respectively made as aforesaid by the persons herein before mentioned, of all and every part of the said herein enumerated articles which shall be imported into this Province as aforesaid, the Collector of Excise for the district into which such articles shall or may be imported, shall give to such merchant, consignee or master, a permit to break bulk of, and to unlade from, such ship or vessel, all and every the herein before enumerated articles, and to land the same at such wharf or place as such collector shall think most convenient to the owner or consignee of such articles and shall forthwith proceed to gauge such wines, brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, and molasses, and mark the name of the island from whence the said spirituous Liquors or molasses came, on the heads of the hogheads or casks in which they are contained, and to weigh such sugar and coffee, and after weighing and gauging the said articles respectively, shall proceed, in case the duties on the articles so imported shall not amount to more than ten pounds, to collect the same before the importer shall have a permit for the removal of the said articles; and in case such duties shall amount to more than ten pounds, then such Collector shall proceed to secure the said duties, by taking a bond from such importer, owner or consignee, to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, with sufficient sureties for the payment of the rates and duties herein before mentioned, in manner and form following, viz. One-fourth part of the said rates and duties in three months from the giving such security; one other fourth part of the same rates and duties in six months from the giving such security; one other fourth part of the said rates and duties in nine months from the giving such security; and the residue of the said rates and duties in one year from the giving such security.

Duties—how paid or secured.

Distilled articles liable to duty.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the owner or owners of any distillery or distilleries, or other person who shall manufacture any distilled spirituous Liquors in this Province, and in case such distillery or distilleries shall be carried on by any servant or servants having the care and management of the same, such owner, master, servant or servants respectively, shall, on the Saturday of each and every week after the publication of this Act, render a true and faithful account to the collector of Impost and Excise of the quantity of rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, that hath been, manufactured or distilled in his, her, or their distillery or distilleries, and shall make and subscribe before the said collector, the following oath:

Distiller's oath.

I, _____, do solemnly swear, that the account which I have now rendered and subscribed of the rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors manufactured or distilled at the distillery of _____, is a true and faithful account of all the rum and other distilled spirituous liquors manufactured or distilled at the said distillery since the _____ day of _____ last, and that no rum or other distilled spirituous liquors have been manufactured or distilled at the said distillery since the _____ day of _____ last, except what the said account contains.

And I further swear, that no rum, or other distilled Spirituous liquors, to my knowledge or belief, have been removed from the said distillery, without being duly gauged by the gauger for the district of _____, or without a permit to remove the same from the Collector of Impost and Excise for the said district.—So help me God.

And after making and subscribing the said oath, the said owner, master or servant, shall give security for the payment of the rates and duties on such rum, or other spirituous liquors by this Act imposed, in manner and form as in this Act is directed with respect to such articles as shall be imported into this Province, under the penalty of one hundred pounds for each and every neglect.

V. And

V. And be it further enacted, That in case no person shall appear to pay, or give security for, the rates and duties herein imposed on the said enumerated articles, within twenty-four hours after the same shall have been landed and gauged or weighed, or reported by the distiller thereof as above required, that then it shall and may be lawful for the said Collector to take such enumerated articles into his custody, and to store the same, and shall, within five days from receiving the same into his possession, give notice for the space of ten days for the sale thereof, and to proceed to sell at public auction so much of the said articles as shall be necessary to pay the rates and duties imposed by this Act, with all the reasonable costs and charges attending the storing and selling such articles: and shall deliver up, to any person lawfully authorised to receive the same, the residue of such articles as may remain in the hands of the said Collector, after paying such rates, duties, costs and charges.

Neglecting to pay or secure the duties on dutiable articles.

VI. And be it further enacted, That none of the herein enumerated articles of the value of five pounds or above, shall be transferred by, or removed from the store or stock of, any importer or owner of the same, to any other person or persons whatsoever, without a Permit from the said Collector of the District wherein the same shall be, in the words following:

Permit A. B. to receive from the stock of C. D. the following articles, namely, and to carry the same from within the Town of _____ to _____ the duties thereon having been paid or secured in the Excise Office at _____ Given under my hand at this day of 18 _____

Permit to remove dutiable articles.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the above enumerated articles shall be found in the possession of any person or persons whomsoever, or shall be found laden on any cart, truck, waggon, sled, horse or horses, or on-board any boat or vessel, the rates and duties herein mentioned not being paid or secured, or without the respective Permits by this Act required, the person or persons in whose possession they shall be so found shall forfeit fifty pounds; and all and every such articles, carts, trucks, waggons, sleds, horses, boats and vessels, shall be forfeit; and that when any question shall arise, whether the aforesaid rates and duties have been paid or secured, the proof of the payment or the securing the same, shall lie on the possessor or claimer of such articles.

Penalty for removing dutiable articles without permit.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any person shall be desirous to export or carry in any one ship or vessel, registered according to law, any quantity of wine, exceeding two hundred gallons; or any quantity of brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, exceeding four hundred gallons; or any quantity of molasses exceeding one thousand gallons; or any quantity of brown sugar exceeding ten hundred pounds weight; or any quantity of coffee exceeding five hundred pounds weight, out of this Province, to any Kingdom, State or Colony, such person or persons shall, previous to re-shipping, exporting, or carrying the same out of the Province, obtain a Permit, authorising him, her or them, to export the said article or articles; which Permit the said Collector shall give without fee: and thereupon it shall and may be lawful, after the said articles have been duly gauged and weighed by the proper officer, to load the same on board any ship or vessel for exportation in the presence of the Collector, or of the Weigher or Guager for the District; and the exporter, and master of the vessel on board which such articles shall be laden, shall respectively make and subscribe before, and leave in the hands of, the Collector who shall give the said Permit, the following oath:

Drawback on the exportation of dutiable articles.

I, A. B. do swear, that the dutiable article or articles now actually by me shipped on board whereof C. D. is master, bound for _____ which articles are hereunder specified, is really part of the stock of _____ imported from _____ in the _____ entered in this office, and is or are of the proof or quality, and description, as imported, and also hereunder specified, and that the same article or articles is or are not intended to be reloaded in this Province.

Master's Oath.

Master's Oath. I, C. D. do swear that is now actually shipped on board the of which I am in manner, bound for and that the same hath been laden on board the said for the purpose of exportation out of this Province, and that the same is not intended to be reloaded, sold or exchanged, in any part of this Province.

Drawback, how obtained. After which oaths, made and filed as aforesaid with the said Collector, the duties secured on such articles as are specified in such permit and affidavit, shall not be demanded for the space of twelve months after the date of such permit; and in case such exporter shall, at or before the expiration of the said twelve months, produce to the collector from whom he obtained such permit for exportation as aforesaid, a certificate under the hand and seal of the principal officer or officers of his Majesty's Customs at the place to which such articles shall be exported, of the description of the said wines, and the proof of the said spirituous liquors, and that the same have been to his knowledge landed within the port of which he or they is or are principal officer or officers; or in case such enumerated articles shall be exported to any foreign country, such exporter shall produce the like certificate from his Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul, for such Foreign State or Country; then and in that case the said exporter shall have credit with the said collector of Excise for five-sixth parts of the amount of the duties secured for and on the articles so by him exported out of this Province; and in case the rates and duties herein laid and imposed shall have been paid such certificate shall entitle such exporter to receive the amount of the five-sixth parts of the said rates and duties so paid, from the Treasurer of the Province; and if any of the enumerated articles which shall be so shipped for exportation shall be fraudulently reloaded in this Province, such articles so reloaded shall be forfeit to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, together with the ship, boat or vessel, from which they shall be reloaded; and all and every person or persons who shall be aiding and assisting in reloading such articles shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be prosecuted for, recovered and distributed, as is, herein after directed.

Time for obtaining drawback extended

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall happen, by reason of accidents and delays during the time of war, that persons who have exported, or shall hereafter export, any of the said herein enumerated articles, shall not be able to procure and produce the certificates aforesaid within the said period of twelve months, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Revenue to allow a reasonable time beyond the said period of twelve months for the production of the necessary certificates of the landing such articles at any port or place out of this Province. And if such articles before their arrival at the port or place to which they were or shall be destined, shall be lost, or taken by his Majesty's enemies, it shall and may be lawful for the said commissioners, upon full proof of such loss or capture, to direct and order that the exporter or exporters thereof shall receive credit for, or repayment of, the duties by him or them paid or secured thereon, in like manner as if the regular certificates of the exportation and landing of such articles had been procured and produced according to law.

Dutiable articles imported coastwise and afterwards exported.

X. And be it further enacted, That whenever any merchant or merchants resident at the outports of this Province, shall send or consign for sale, to his or their agent or agents at Halifax, any wines, brandy, gin, rum, or other spirituous liquors, sugar, molasses or coffee, which have been actually imported by him or them, and on which the duties have been paid or regularly secured in such out-port, it shall and may be lawful for the agent or agents to whom such article or articles shall be consigned, to export the same and receive the drawback or drawbacks on the export thereof in the name of the original importer. Provided always, That the quantity of such dutiable articles so imported and sent coastways to Halifax at one and the same time, shall amount to the full quantity on which a drawback is herein allowed, and provided such article or articles shall be accompanied with a regular permit from such out-port to shew that the several duties thereon have been paid or secured at such out-port, and also expressing the place from, the time when, and the vessel's name in which the same were imported, and the marks or numbers of such casks or packages.

to

And whereas, it is prejudicial to the navigation of this Province, to oblige merchants importing any of the dutiable articles enumerated in said Act, to put on shore and land such part thereof, as it may be the intention of the owners to send in the same vessel to some other colony, port, or place :

XI. Be it enacted, That after the publication of this Act, if any of the dutiable articles enumerated in said Act, shall be imported and brought into this Province on board any ship or vessel, it shall and may be lawful for the master, owner, factor, or supercargo, to report and enter at the Impost and Excise Office, conformably to the provisions contained in the said recited Act, such part or portion of the said dutiable articles as he or they may think proper to be landed for sale and consumption in the Province, and to enter and report the residue or remainder for exportation in the same vessel to some other port, place or colony, out of the Province; and the officers of Impost and Excise shall permit the landing, and shall gauge and weigh, and secure the duties on the several parts of such vessel's cargo so to be put on shore for sale and consumption in the manner usual and heretofore practised under the several clauses and provisions contained in this Act, and shall also secure the duties of Impost and Excise on such parts of the cargo of such vessel or vessels as may be reported and entered as aforesaid for exportation in the same bottom without unloading or landing the same; and for that purpose shall demand and require the person or persons entering the same for exportation, to produce and deliver to such officer or officers the original invoice of the goods so entered for exportation; and the proper officer or officers of Impost and Excise shall require the person or persons making such entry, to verify such invoice on oath; which oath it shall and may be lawful for the officer or officers of Impost and Excise to administer in the following words —

I do solemnly swear, that the invoice now by me produced, is the original invoice of the goods, wares and merchandize, now by me entered for exportation, and such invoice was actually and truly made at the port or place where such goods were shipped, and does actually and truly contain, to the best of my knowledge and belief, a true and just account of the quantities of each and every article so by me now entered for exportation.

And the said officers shall calculate upon such invoice, the amount of the duties, and shall thereby ascertain the same in like manner as if the articles so entered for exportation, had been actually landed, and regularly weighed and gauged; and bonds shall be taken with sufficient sureties in the usual form, for the payment of such duties at the usual times and periods; and the said officers shall, on such duties being bonded and secured as aforesaid, grant a permit for the exportation of the goods, on which the duties have been so secured in the usual and customary form; and the exporter of such dutiable articles shall be entitled to have, and be allowed, a drawback without any deduction whatsoever of the duties so secured, in the same manner and form, and upon the same certificates of landing, and under the same rules and regulations, that persons obtain drawbacks who export dutiable articles after having landed the same in the Province.

Dutiable articles may be exported without being landed.

Duties secured upon original invoice.

False report or entry of dutiable articles.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if on examination, it shall be discovered that the report and entry made of dutiable goods, part for consumption, and part for exportation, shall be false, and that there was a greater quantity of dutiable goods laden on board the ship or vessel than was reported and entered with the Impost and Excise officers, all the surplus goods, together with the ship or vessel, shall and may be seized by the proper officer or officers, and the party making such false entry, shall be subject to all the penalties and forfeitures imposed in and by this Act on persons making a false report or entry; and if any part of the goods so permitted to be exported as aforesaid, shall be fraudulently, or clandestinely discharged, or unladen within the Province of Nova-Scotia, from on board the vessel in which the same were imported, such vessel, and all the goods so discharged or landed, together with the vessels, boats, carts, horses and carriages, employed in landing, or removing the same, shall be seized and forfeited to His Majesty; and all and every person and persons, who shall be aiding and assisting, in such fraudulent or clandestine landing of any such goods, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be sued for, recovered and distributed, in the manner herein after directed.

Refusal, &c. to produce original invoice.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the party making such report and entry for exportation, shall neglect or refuse to produce such original invoice, and to verify the same as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to secure the duties, then, and in such case the goods so entered for exportation shall be landed, and the duties ascertained and secured in manner herein before directed.

Suspicion of original invoice

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in case the Collector of Impost and Excise shall have any just cause to doubt the truth or authenticity of any report or entry, or of the invoice produced, he shall and may search and examine into the contents of the cargo so reported and entered, and may remove, or cause to be removed, the packages from one part of the vessel to the other, so as to ascertain as far as possible, the true contents of each package, and the master, officers and crew, of such vessel, shall aid, and assist the officer or officers in making such search and examination, and in case he or they refuse such assistance, then, and in such case the goods shall be landed, and the truth of such report and invoice ascertained: and it shall and may be lawful for the officer making such search, to call to his aid, three respectable merchants to assist therein, and if in the opinion of such merchants, there shall be any reasonable cause for further suspicion, they shall certify the same, which certificate shall be sufficient to authorize the proper officer to order the cargo to be discharged, and the truth or falsity of the report and invoice actually ascertained, by weighing and gauging such cargo. Provided always, That if the difference between the invoice and the return of the gauger and weigher shall, in the opinion of three merchants, not exceed the difference which frequently occurs between the gauge and weight of two different ports or places, in such case no penalty or forfeiture shall attach to the person making such report or entry.

The sailing of vessels with dutiable articles delayed.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if the master, owner, or others concerned in the ship or vessel in which goods are entered for exportation as aforesaid, shall unnecessarily delay unloading the part or parts of her cargo entered to be landed, or shall, after the unloading thereof, delay for a space longer than ten days, proceeding on her voyage, and departing from the Province with the goods so to be exported, the said master, owner, or others concerned, shall pay each and every day to the tide waiter employed to attend such vessel during such delay, the daily pay established for a tide waiter to receive from the Province when on duty, and on refusal, it shall be lawful for such tide waiter to recover the same in a summary way, before one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county or place within which such tide-waiter shall have been so employed.

XVI. And

And whereas, vessels not bound to this Province, are oftentimes obliged by stress of weather, or other sufficient causes, to put into some or one of its ports, and such vessels may have on board some of the herein enumerated articles which it may be necessary to unlade in order to repair such vessels, and enable them afterwards to proceed on their intended voyage :

XVI. *Be it therefore enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the collector of Impost and Excise within the district where any such vessel or vessels may arrive, upon application to him, by the master or consignee thereof, to permit such master or consignee to unlade all such dutiable articles, and to deposit and store the same in the custody of the said Collector, who shall take an exact account of the packages in which such articles are contained, and the contents of each package, and make a correct entry thereof in his book ; and such dutiable articles shall remain in the custody of the said Collector until such vessel or vessels shall have been put in a condition to receive the same on board again, and be ready for sea ; and upon payment of store rent ; and all other reasonable charges that may have been incurred by the unlading and storing the whole or any part of such cargo or cargoes, the said Collector is hereby required to deliver up the same to the said master or consignee, to be exported upon the same restrictions and conditions as such articles duly imported into this Province, and the same shall not be subject to any of the said duties. Provided always, That no person as aforesaid shall be entitled to the benefit of this clause, who shall be proved to have sold any part of the said dutiable articles, except such part as may be sufficient to pay for the necessary repairs of such vessel or vessels, and shall have been permitted to be sold for that purpose by the Commissioners of the Revenue. And provided always, That if any part of the said dutiable articles shall be sold for the payment of the repairs, and other necessary charges that may arise in refitting such vessel or vessels for the prosecution of her or their intended voyage, the same shall be subject to, and pay, the whole of the duties thereon imposed by this Act.*

XVII. *And be it further enacted, That any merchant or distiller, or other person, who shall supply for the use of his Majesty's army, navy or careening yard, any brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, or any wines, or brown sugars, for which he shall have paid or secured the duties and rates imposed thereon by this Act, shall be entitled to have credit for, or to be repaid such rates and duties ; provided, the said brandy, gin, rum, or other spirituous liquors, or wines, shall immediately on the importation or manufacture thereof, or being prize goods, shall immediately on the sale thereof, pursuant to any orders of the Court of Vice Admiralty, be stored under the inspection of the Collector of Impost and Excise, in a proper warehouse, in the joint custody of the said Collector, and of the merchant, distiller, or other person or persons, who shall supply the same ; and unless such brandy, gin, rum, or other spirituous liquors, or wines, shall be delivered out of such warehouse, to the proper person or persons, authorized to receive the same for the use of his Majesty's navy, army, or careening yard, in the presence of such Collector ; and unless the same shall also be immediately conveyed from the said store or warehouse, on board of some one of his Majesty's ships of war, or into the careening yard, or delivered over to the Commissary of his Majesty's army, in the presence of such Collector ; and if any such brandy, gin, rum, or other distilled spirituous liquors, or wines, so delivered for his Majesty's service, shall afterwards be fraudulently relanded or sold in this Province, the same shall become forfeited to his Majesty ; and every person and persons concerned in such fraudulent relanding, or sale thereof, shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty pounds, to be recovered in the manner prescribed by this Act.*

Vessels laden with dutiable articles, putting into ports in distress.

Drawback on articles supplied Navy or Army.

Survey of wine,
&c. intended for Navy or Army.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That all brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, and wines, which shall be so stored, for the purpose of supplying his Majesty's army, navy, or careening yard, shall be exactly gauged without any allowance of five per cent. for leakage, and the quantity contained in each cask shall be marked by the gauger on the head thereof, on which quantity and no more the person supplying the same shall be repaid or allowed credit, for the rates and duties by him secured or paid.

And Whereas, it is expedient, that Officers of His Majesty's Navy, be relieved from the payment of any Provincial Duties, on Wines by them exported, and consumed on board the ships of war, or elsewhere, without the limits of the Province :

Licence to purchase wine &c. for the Navy.

XIX. Be it therefore further enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the time being, on the application of the captain or officer commanding any of His Majesty's ships of war, about to leave the Province, to grant a licence to purchase, for the use of the officers of such ships respectively, so many gallons of wine as shall be recommended by the Commissioners of the Revenue as a reasonable allowance for the use of the officers of such ships; so as the same be calculated to supply such officers for a period of at least three months; and the name or names of the person or persons from whom such wines are intended to be purchased shall be inserted in such licence.

Permission to export dutiable articles.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the person or persons so selling such wines, shall obtain the necessary Permit, and ship the said wines according to the provisions and under all the regulations herein before prescribed in cases of exportation of dutiable articles out of the Province; and shall also take the exporter's oath required in such cases; and the officers for whose use such wines shall have been so purchased and shipped, shall certify that such wines are actually on board one or more of His Majesty's ships then ready for sea, and that no part thereof shall, with their consent, privity or knowledge, be reloaded in this Province; which certificate, together with the licence for such purchases, shall be lodged with the Collector of Impost and Excise, and thereupon the person or persons from whom such wines shall have been purchased, shall be entitled to a drawback of the duties which shall have been paid or secured thereon, in the same manner and proportion as is allowed by this Act, on wines exported out of the Province.

And whereas, it is highly necessary, for promoting the Agriculture, Fisheries, and Commerce of this Province, that merchants, traders, and others, who shall export the produce or manufactures of the Province, to the West-Indies, or other parts beyond the sea, and who shall bring back the produce of the West-Indies in return for the same, should have some encouragement for carrying on a trade so beneficial to this Country :

Additional duty on rum, &c. imported—one third of which not purchased with the produce of the Province.

XXI. BE it therefore enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the publication hereof, there shall be paid, levied and collected, to the use of His Majesty as aforesaid, on all brandy, gin, rum and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, brown sugar and coffee, which hereafter shall be imported into this Province, the additional rates, duties and impositions, herein after mentioned, over and above the duties herein before imposed thereon, unless one full third part of such brandy, gin, rum and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, brown sugar and coffee, shall have been purchased with the proceeds of the produce or manufactures of this Province, to be exported as herein after directed, and unless such brandy, gin, rum, and other distilled spirituous liquors, molasses, brown sugar and coffee, shall be imported in a vessel or vessels owned by an inhabitant or inhabitants of this Province, resident therein, and who shall have resided therein at least six months previous to such importation, or by any firm or trading ding company, any of the partners of which have resided as aforesaid, which said further rates, duties and impositions, are as follow, to say :

For and upon every gallon of brandy, gin, rum and other distilled spirituous liquors, one third part of which shall not have been purchased with the produce of the Province, and imported thereinto as aforesaid, Three pence.

Duties.

For and upon every gallon of molasses, one third part of which shall not have been purchased and imported as aforesaid, One penny.

For and upon every hundred weight of brown sugar, one third part of which shall not have been purchased and imported as aforesaid, Two shillings and six pence.

For and upon every pound of coffee, one third part of which shall not have been purchased and imported as aforesaid, One penny.

CAP. IX.

An ACT for Establishing a Bridewell, or House of Correction, for the County of Halifax, and for the better and more effectual administration of the Office of a Justice of the Peace in the Township of Halifax, and for providing a Police Office in said Town, with proper officers to attend the same.

Preamble. WHEREAS, it is expedient for the suppression of vice, and the correction of disorderly persons within the township of Halifax, that a Bridewell, or House of Correction, should be established in the said township;

Bridewell, how provided. I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the County of Halifax, at their next or any other General Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the said County, after the passing of this Act, to build, buy, hire, or otherwise provide or agree for any house, building, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within the said township of Halifax, which they the said Justices so assembled in General Sessions, shall adjudge necessary for the purposes of establishing a Bridewell, or House of Correction; and the said Justices in Sessions may make such orders as may be necessary for the building, repairing, fitting and accommodating the same as a Bridewell, or House of Correction, at such price or prices as to the said Justices, so assembled, shall seem reasonable.

Keeper of Bridewell, how appointed, &c. II. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Justices may deem it expedient to purchase a situation for the purposes aforesaid, upon payment of the price or prices so agreed or contracted for the purchase of any such house, building, lands, tenements or hereditaments, to the party or parties concerned respectively, such house, building, lands, tenements, or hereditaments shall, from thenceforth, by virtue of this Act, be used, employed, governed, and managed, as and for a Public Bridewell, or House of Correction; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices in General or Special Sessions of the Peace, from time to time hereafter, to appoint a Keeper of the said Bridewell, or House of Correction, which Keeper shall have the powers and authorities, and be subject to the like regulations, as are given and provided for the Keeper of an House of Correction by virtue of an Act of the thirty-third year of His late Majesty, entitled, An Act for regulating and maintaining an House of Correction or Work-House within the town of Halifax, and for binding out Poor Children.

Overseers of Bridewell. III. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices in their General Sessions of the Peace, shall and may from Session to Session, depute such and so many Justices as shall be found proper, to agree and contract with such keeper for the care of the said Bridewell or House of Correction, and for managing and directing the affairs of the same, in like manner as the Overseers of the Poor of the Town of Halifax are authorized and empowered by virtue of the first clause of the afore-recited Act, of the thirty-third year of his late Majesty.

Persons liable to be committed to Bridewell. IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for the County of Halifax, in their General Sessions, or for any one or more of the said Justices of the Peace, at any time, to commit to the said Bridewell or House of Correction, there to be kept, governed and punished, according to the rules and orders thereof, and the provisions of the last mentioned Act of the thirty-third year of his late Majesty's reign, all disorderly and idle persons, and all persons who shall be found begging, or practising any unlawful game, or pretending to fortune-telling, common drunkards, persons of lewd behaviour, vagabonds, runaways, stubborn servants, apprentices and children, and all persons who notoriously mispend their time to the neglect and prejudice of their own or their family's support, upon due conviction of such person or persons of any of the said offences, or disorderly conduct.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to appoint from amongst those who are or hereafter may be Justices of the Peace in and for the County of Halifax, three fit and proper persons, one of whom in his capacity as a Justice of the Peace for the said County, shall diligently attend daily, throughout the year during the hours mentioned and expressed in the appointment of such Justices, (public holy-days only excepted) at a public office to be for that purpose fixed and established by the authority aforesaid, within the Town of Halifax aforesaid; and such Justice, so duly attending, shall and may, by himself, or in conjunction with any other of his Majesty's said Justices of the Peace who may think proper to attend at said office, hear and determine all and every criminal offence or prosecution for any penalty or forfeiture now properly cognizable by a single Justice of the Peace, and shall and may do, perform and execute, each and every act, matter and thing, appertaining to the said office of a Justice of the Peace, necessary for the apprehension, committal, conviction, and punishment of criminal offenders, and for carrying into effect the Laws now in force for the preservation of peace and good order.

And whereas, the law may require two or more Justices of the Peace to hear and determine any criminal offence:—It shall be lawful for the said Justice so attending at said office, to call to his assistance one or more of the said Police Justices, or any other of the Justices of the Peace for the said County, who shall and may attend and unite with said sitting Justice to hear and determine any offence made cognizable by two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace. And it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to remove all or any of said Justices after appointment as aforesaid, and to nominate another or others in his or their place or stead, and so from time to time upon any vacancy by death or otherwise, to appoint other fit and proper persons, being Justices of the Peace for the said County of Halifax, to execute the duties of said office in his or their place. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend to prevent all or any of the other Justices of the Peace for the said County of Halifax, from executing as heretofore all the powers and authorities given to him and them in and by the Commission of the Peace for said County.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices, when so appointed as aforesaid, shall have power to chuse and select a fit and proper person, who shall attend each and every day during the hours to be appointed as aforesaid, in the said office, and there officiate under the direction of the sitting Justice, as Clerk to the said Justices: and the person so to be appointed Clerk as aforesaid shall, previous to his taking upon himself the said office, be sworn to the due and faithful performance of his duty therein, and shall, in all respects, conduct himself in the office of Clerk aforesaid, under the direction of the said Justices; and shall faithfully account with the Justices in Sessions, quarterly, for all penalties and forfeitures levied, received and paid, at said office; and shall pay over to the County Treasurer the proceeds thereof. And it shall also be lawful for the said Justices to nominate and appoint three fit and proper persons, who shall serve as Constables in and for the said Township of Halifax, who shall be respectively sworn to the faithful discharge of their duty, in the same manner, as Constables are now sworn: and one of such Constables shall daily attend upon the said Justices at said office, at such times and in such manner as may by them be required and directed; and the said Justices shall have power, when and so often as they shall think fit and proper, to remove the Clerk or Constables so by them chosen and appointed, and to appoint another or others in stead of the person so removed or discharged.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Constables so to be appointed as aforesaid, and for all other Constables and Peace Officers, belonging to the said Township of Halifax, or any one of them, of his and their own authority, to apprehend, and immediately bring before the Justice of the Peace sitting at said office, or any other of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for said County, all Breakers of the Peace, Idle or Disorderly Persons, Common Beggars, Sabbath Breakers, Gamblers, Fortune Tellers, Common Drunkards, Men and Women of Lewd Behaviour, Vagabonds and Runaways, or Men and Women found frequenting any Disorderly House or Houses of Ill Fame, so that such offenders may be dealt with according to law; and all persons, when called on by any one or more of said Constables, or Peace Officers, to aid and assist him or them in executing the duties aforesaid, such person or persons are bound immediately to give them aid and assistance so required; and if any person or persons when called on as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to give his or their aid and assistance to such Constable or Peace Officer as shall require the same, every person so refusing shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence, a fine or penalty not exceeding twenty shillings, nor under five shillings—the same to be recovered in the common form before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, for the said County of Halifax.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That after paying all debts, dues, and all the costs and charges of keeping in repair the County Court House, Market Houses, and buildings of every kind, appertaining to the said Town of Halifax, the surplus and remainder of the rents, issues and profits thereof; and all fines, forfeitures and penalties, of every kind, levied and recovered on behalf of the King in the Court of General Sessions of the Peace for said County, or before any one or more of the Justices of the Peace for said County, and such parts of the Licence Duties as are appropriated for that purpose, shall constitute and make a fund in the hands of the County Treasurer, to defray the expence and charge of executing this Act; and the Treasurer of the said County shall pay the same agreeably to the orders of Sessions from time to time made for that purpose; and shall deliver annually to His Majesty's Council an exact and correct account, audited and certified by the said Justices in Session, of all receipts, payments and expenditures, of monies received and paid by him on account of said buildings, markets, and public property, and for fines and forfeitures, licence duties, or other funds of any kind, raised for and chargeable with the expenditures under and by virtue of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every sum or sums of money that may be requisite and necessary, over and above the funds otherwise provided for paying and fully discharging all and every expence which may be incurred in the execution of this Act, shall and may be raised by Presentment of the Grand Jury of said County, at the next General Sessions of the Peace for the said County of Halifax, or at any future Sessions for the said County; and the sum or sums of money, so from time to time presented as aforesaid, when such Presentment

Presentment or Presentments shall have been confirmed and approved of by the Justices in their said Sessions, shall and may be assessed, levied and collected, upon and from the Inhabitants of the said County of Halifax, in the same manner, and by the same means, as the other County Rates are now levied and collected; and, when collected, the same shall be paid agreeably to the orders and directions of the Justices for the said County assembled in General Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed and paid to such one of the Justices to be appointed as aforesaid, under and by virtue of this Act, who shall daily attend at such office as aforesaid, for each and every day of his attendance as aforesaid, the sum of eleven shillings and eight pence.

Allowance to sitting Justices.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Clerk, and the said Constables, shall be paid respectively such sum or sums of money for their daily attendance upon the duties to be performed under and by virtue of this Act, as the said Justices of the Peace, in their General Sessions for the County of Halifax, shall, by an annual table, regulate and appoint.

Allowance to Clerk and Constables.

An ACT to provide an Easier Method than is now used for Barring Estates Tail in Lands.

WHEREAS the method now in use for Barring Estates Tail in Lands and Hereditaments by common Recoveries suffered at common Law, is liable in this Province to many objections: Preamble

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That whenever, after the publication of this Act, any person, being the tenant in fee tail of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, within this Province, and of full age, and entitled, by virtue of the Laws now in force in England, if such Lands were situate in that Kingdom, to suffer a Common Recovery, of such Lands, shall be desirous of Barring the Estates Tail therein, such Tenant in Tail shall personally appear before the Justices of the Supreme Court of Judicature of this Province on some day in term time, in the County where the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, intended to be conveyed, be situate, and then and there shall cause the said Court to be moved for leave to acknowledge the execution of any Indentures of Lease and Release, whereby the lands, tenements and hereditaments, held in Fee Tail, shall be granted and conveyed to any person or persons capable by Law of holding lands in this Province, for any uses, intents and purposes, in such Indentures to be expressed; and also for a rule of the said Court that such Indentures be enrolled of record therein, for the purpose of Barring the Estates Tail in such lands; and shall also then and there exhibit to the said Justices the said Indentures, and prove the Deed or Instrument whereby such Estates Tail were created; and that, by force of such gift, he, the party applying as aforesaid, is Tenant in Tail, and entitled as aforesaid to suffer a Common Recovery of the Lands granted in the Indentures so intended to be acknowledged; whereupon the said Court shall take the acknowledgment by the said Tenant in Tail of the due and voluntary execution of the said Indentures, and cause an entry of such acknowledgment to be made by the proper officer: and shall make a Rule of the said Court, thereby ordering, that, unless good and sufficient cause to the contrary be shewn before the last day of the Term then next ensuing, the said Indentures, so acknowledged, shall be enrolled of Record of the said Court, for the purpose of Barring all Estates Tail in the lands and tenements in the said Indentures mentioned; and further, shall direct a copy of such Rule, and a Notice of the application for the same, and for all persons interested in the said lands held in Tail, to appear in the said Court, and to shew cause, if any they have against the said Rule, before the same shall expire, to be inserted in the Newspaper called the Royal Gazette, at Halifax, continually from the date of the said Rule until the time for shewing cause against it shall be elapsed.

II. And be it further enacted, That if sufficient cause against enrolling the said Indentures for the purpose of Barring such Estates Tail be not shewn to the said Court before the last day of the Term next ensuing that in which the Rule shall be granted, the same on that day, upon proof being given of the insertion of the notice aforesaid in the said Newspaper, shall be made absolute, and the same Indentures, and all the proceedings relating thereto, shall be enrolled of Record of the said Court, after a docquet of the judgment for such enrolment shall have been signed in the same manner as the docquets of other judgments of the said Court in civil cases.

CAP. XVI.

An ACT to regulate Markets in the Town of Halifax; and also, to repeal an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for repairing, or rebuilding, the Market House, and regulating the several Markets in the Town of Halifax; and also to revive, alter, amend, and bring into one Act, the Act for preventing Fraud by Butchers and Fishmongers, and the Act made in the thirty-fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, for regulating and establishing a Public Market in the Town of Halifax.

WHEREAS the building, commonly called the Country Market House, in the Town of Halifax, was erected by Commissioners appointed under the above recited Act at the expence of the Province, upon a certain piece of ground granted in special trust to and for the use and benefit of the Inhabitants of the said Town of Halifax. And whereas, it is intended to relinquish all right which the Province has to the said Building as a Public Country Market, under and by virtue of the said Act, and to the rents, issues and profits, now due, or which may hereafter arise from the said Building, and also from the Fish Market and the Market Slip: Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the said Act, passed in the thirty ninth year of his present Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for repairing or rebuilding the Market-House, and regulating the several Markets in the Town of Halifax; and also to revive, alter, amend and bring into one Act, the Act for preventing fraud by Butchers and Fishmongers; and the Act, made in the thirty-fourth year of his late Majesty's reign, for regulating and establishing a Public Market in the Town of Halifax; and every matter, clause and thing, therein contained, be, and the same are hereby, repealed. Act 39th Geo. III. repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for the County of Halifax, resident in the Town of Halifax, be, and they are hereby, empowered from time to time, at any General or Special Sessions of the Peace for the said County, to make bye-laws, rules and regulations, for renting, repairing and regulating, the said Markets and Market Slip, and to enforce such bye-laws, rules and regulations, by a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence. Management of the Market-Houses, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That the monies arising from the rents of the said buildings, shall be collected by such person or persons as the said Justices in their Sessions may from time to time appoint to collect the same, and shall be paid into the hands of the Treasurer of the Town and County of Halifax, to be applied under their directions, for the repairs of the said buildings, and for the support of such Police Officer or Officers for the said Town of Halifax, as may be hereafter appointed. Rents of Market Houses, &c. how collected and applied.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Keepers of the said Markets, who shall from time to time be appointed by the said Justices, and also the Clerks of the Market for the town of Halifax, at the time of their taking upon them such offices, shall be sworn faithfully to discharge the duties of their office, and shall use their utmost endeavours to carry into execution the bye laws, rules and regulations, made by the said Justices, by virtue of this Act. Keepers of Market Houses, and Clerks of Market—their duty, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That all penalties and forfeitures incurred by virtue of this Act, shall be recovered, with costs, before any two Justices of the Peace for the said County; Penalties—how recovered and applied.

ty; one half of such penalties and forfeitures shall be paid to the prosecutor, and the residue to the Treasurer of the County and Town of Halifax, to be applied in the same manner as the rents of the Market are herein before applied.

CAP. XIX.

An ACT to facilitate the passage across the Harbour of Halifax.

WHEREAS the using one or more Steam-Boats, for the purpose of conveying Passengers, Horses, Cattle and Goods, across the Harbour of Halifax, would greatly facilitate the communication of the settlements in the Eastern parts of the Province with the Town of Halifax; and Whereas Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs, and others, have proposed to raise, by private subscription, a sufficient Sum of Money for the purpose of procuring one or more Steam-Boats, to be employed in transporting Passengers, Horses, Cattle and Goods, across the said Harbour, provided the sole and exclusive right of using and employing the said Boats upon the said Harbour, shall be secured to the said Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs, and others, for the term of twenty-five years:

Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of this Province, to incorporate the said Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs and others, and all and every other person or persons who, in their own right, or as Executors, Administrators or Assigns, of the original proprietors, at any time or times hereafter, shall have, and be entitled to, any part, share or interest, in the said Steam Boat or Boats, so long as they shall respectively have any such part, share or interest, therein, to be one Body, Politick and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, by the Name of the Halifax Steam Boat Company, and by that Name to have a succession; and to sue and be sued; to continue for the term of twenty-five years; and to have a Common Seal; with power from time to time to elect and choose a President, and other Officers, as shall be, by the said Letters Patent, directed.

Steam Boat Company.

II. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That if the said Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs and others, shall, within Three Years from the time of passing this Act, furnish one good and sufficient Steam Boat, capable of containing and carrying at one time twenty passengers, and six horses, oxen or cows, and shall use and employ the said Boat at all convenient times for the purpose of transporting and carrying passengers, horses or cattle, across the said Harbour of Halifax, it shall not be lawful for any other person or persons to use or employ any Steam Boat in or upon the said Harbour, for the aforesaid purposes, during the aforesaid term of twenty-five years.

Exclusive privilege allowed to Steam Boat Company.

III. And be it further enacted, That the sole right of using Steam-Boats for the purposes aforesaid, hereby secured to the said Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs, and others, shall continue for the term of twenty-five years and no longer.

Term of exclusive privilege.

Provided always, That if the said Charles Morris, Michael Wallace, Lawrence Hartshorne, Thomas Boggs, and others, shall not procure, at least, one good and sufficient Steam-Boat of the above description within the time before limited, or if they shall discontinue the use of the said Boat, and not employ it for the beforementioned purposes for the space of three months, unless prevented by unavoidable accidents, that then the said sole right of using such Boats upon the Harbour of Halifax shall cease and determine. And provided always, That nothing herein contained shall prevent any person from keeping and using Ferry Boats, as now practiced.

CAP. XX.

An ACT to encourage the Fisheries of the Province, by granting a Bounty on the importation of Salt, and also for regulating and imposing a Duty on the exportation of the same article.

Preamble. WHEREAS, the want of a regular importation of Salt, frequently causes that article to become scarce and dear, and occasions an interruption to the fisheries, and at other times the market being overstocked, the importers suffer a loss, and are discouraged from continuing their importations; and it is expedient to regulate the exportation of Salt, and to impose a duty on such Salt as shall hereafter be sold or exported to Foreigners or to Foreign States:

Bounty on Salt. I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That whenever any Salt shall be imported into this Province after the first day of June, in the present year, from Europe, Africa, or the West-Indies, and the price on the sale thereof, at Auction, from the ship in manner herein after mentioned, shall not amount to the average sum of fifteen shillings, currency, per hoghead, of common fine salt, and twenty shillings, currency, per hoghead, of coarse grained fishery salt, the owner, importer or consignee, of such salt, shall be entitled to claim and receive such bounty thereon, as in addition to the average price for which such salt shall have been sold, shall amount to the aforesaid price per hoghead of fifteen shillings for fine and twenty shillings for coarse salt. Provided always, That no bounty is to be paid to any such owner, importer or consignee thereof, shall in any case exceed the rate of two shillings and six-pence per hoghead on common fine, or three shillings and six-pence per hoghead on coarse grained fishery salt.

Proviso.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any ship or vessel, laden wholly or in part with salt, shall arrive in any port or place or discharge in this Province, and the owner, importer or consignee, shall be desirous to make sale thereof, and shall not be able to procure the prices herein before mentioned, for the same, and shall intend to claim the bounty granted by this Act, such owner, importer or consignee, shall forthwith advertise the whole of the said salt to be sold at public auction out of the ship, and shall sell the same in lots of not more than five hogheads in a lot.

Sale of Salt at Auction.

III. And be it further enacted, That no person shall be entitled to claim for any salt sold, or to be sold, pursuant to the directions of this Act, at any out-port in this Province, any greater or higher bounty than if the said salt had been sold at the port of Halifax; and all claims for any greater or higher bounty shall be reduced and computed according to the average sales of salt at the same time by auction at the port of Halifax; and if no such sale shall have taken place there at that time, then according to the average price of salt sold by auction at Halifax last before the date of the sale for which such bounty shall be claimed.

Salt sold at out-ports of the Province.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any bounty shall be paid on any salt so sold as aforesaid, the person entitled to claim such bounty, shall procure from the auctioneer by whom such salt shall have been sold, an account of sales, specifying the several lots and parcels, the names of the purchasers, the quality or kind, and the prices of salt of the respective quantities so sold, to which account the auctioneer shall annex and subscribe a certificate, under oath, that such sale was made by him, and was a true and fair sale of the quantities of salt, and for the prices in such account specified, and that the same were the highest prices which could be procured at such auction: and all salt so sold shall be measured out of the ship by a sworn sworn measurer, whose certificates of such admasurement to the respective purchasers thereof, shall also be annexed to the account of sales aforesaid; and the said vouchers shall be lodged in the office of the Secretary of the Province, to be produced thereafter to the General Assembly if required; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor or Commander in Chief, to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of the Province in favor of the said owner, importer or consignee, of said salt, for the amount of the bounty he may be entitled to receive in manner herein before mentioned and limited.

V. And be it further enacted, That there shall be granted and paid to his Majesty, his heirs and successors, for all salt which shall hereafter be exported from this Province, and shall be entitled to, and shall have received the bounty hereby granted, the following rates and duties, that is to say:—For and upon every hoghead of coarse grained fishery salt, the sum of three shillings and six pence; and for and upon every hoghead of common fine salt, the sum of two shillings and six pence; to be paid to the Collector of Impost and Excise for the port or place from which such exportation shall be made, at the time of granting the permit herein after mentioned.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any person or persons shall lade on board any ship, vessel or craft, any salt to the amount of twenty hogheads, he or they shall apply for and obtain a permit for the lading such salt, from the Collector of Impost and Excise for such port or place where the same shall be so laden; and if such salt is intended for exportation, to any other port in this Province, or to any other British port or place, such person or persons so lading the same, shall also make the following oath, which the Collectors of Impost and Excise respectively are hereby authorized to administer, to wit:

I, A. B. do swear, that the about to be shipped by me on board the whereof is master, is really and truly intended for , and that the same is not intended to be, and shall not be, landed in any foreign port or place, or sold to any foreigner or foreigners.

And the said Collectors respectively may administer the said oath to any person or persons who may lade salt on board any vessel or boat intended for the use of the fisheries of the Province, if there is any suspicion of any fraudulent intent to dispose of the same to foreigners for exportation.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when the price of common fine salt shall exceed twenty shillings per hoghead, and of coarse grained fishery salt shall exceed thirty shillings per hoghead, it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of his Majesty's Council, to prohibit by proclamation the exportation of salt to any foreign port or place, or the sale thereof to any foreigner or foreigners for the purpose of being used in any foreign fishery.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall lade on board any ship, vessel, or boat, any salt, to the amount of twenty hogheads, or upwards, without first obtaining a permit for the same, in manner aforesaid, and also taking the oath herein before mentioned, in such case wherein the same is directed to be taken as aforesaid, or if any person or persons shall so sell or lade for exportation any such salt, after proclamation as aforesaid, all such salt so sold or laden on board such ship, vessel, or boat, shall be seized and forfeited; and in case the same shall have been actually exported, or cannot be got at to be seized, the person or persons so exporting or selling the same, shall forfeit and pay the sum of thirty shillings for each and every hoghead of coarse grained fishery salt, and the sum of twenty shillings for each and every hoghead of common fine salt, so clandestinely sold or exported.

said Courts on the days when the same are herein directed to be held; it shall and may be lawful for the Chief Justice or the said Associate Judge to hold the said Court, and to proceed in hearing and determining all matters therein depending, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. III.

An ACT to enable the Inhabitants of the Town of Halifax to Pave Water-street, in the same Town.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the Inhabitants of the Town of Halifax, are desirous to pave Water-street, in the said Town; and to enable them to carry so desirable an object into effect:

Payment commenced at Market Slip.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Highways to cause the said street to be paved; and they shall commence the pavement thereof in front of the Market Slip, and proceed from thence both north and south, so that an equal space, as nearly as conveniently can, be paved in each direction from the said Slip.

Removal of obstructions.

II. Be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any three of them, upon reasonable notice, to cause all sign-posts, show-glasses, show-boards, porches, steps, fences, cellar doors, and all and every other material, matter or thing, belonging to any house, warehouse, shop, cellar and building, or to any lot of ground or inclosure, which occasion any nuisance, encroachment or obstruction, to be immediately removed.

The erection of Porches, Sign-Posts, &c. not allowed.

III. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any sign-post, show-glass, show-board, porch, step, fence, cellar door, or any other material, matter or thing, belonging to any house, warehouse, shop, cellar or building, or to any lot of ground or inclosure, hereafter to be raised, placed or put as aforesaid; and upon the same, or any of them, being at any time hereafter to raised or placed, the said Commissioners, or any three of them, shall immediately thereupon cause the same to be removed.

Water-Street—how to be paved.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said street shall be paved in the middle; and the foot walks on each side shall be made either of brick or flag stone; and that, wherever the wideness of the street will admit, the paved part shall be forty feet wide, so that there may be sufficient room for the passing of horses and carriages; and the foot-way shall in every case be four feet wide.

Regulations for the preservation of the side walks.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace, in any General or Special Sessions to be held at Halifax, shall make rules and regulations to prevent Truckmen, and other persons, from riding or driving over the foot-way, with horses or carriages, and to enforce the same.

The expence of the side walks—how defrayed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the foot-way on each side of the said street shall be made at the expence of the Proprietors of the Lands it shall adjoin, and be in front of; and that the said Commissioners may sue for, and recover, the expence incurred in making the same, before the Justices of the Rotation Court, with costs, in the same manner that debts are sued for, and recovered. Provided always, That if the Proprietor of any Lands shall be disposed to make such foot-way himself, it shall be lawful for him to do it, under the direction of the said Commissioners, or of the Overseer appointed by them.

VII. And

VII. And be it further enacted, That when monies shall be wanted for the purposes of paving the said street, such money shall be raised by presentment of the Grand Jury, and assessed, levied and collected, in the same manner that other monies for County purposes are presented, assessed, levied and collected; provided always, before any such presentment shall be made, the Commissioners of Highways shall apply to the Justices of the Peace, in some General Sessions, and shall certify to the said Justices, that they have appropriated, and intend to expend a specific sum of money, for that purpose out of the licence fund, or other funds. And provided always, that no greater sum shall be raised by presentment, in any one year, than the sum so appropriated, out of the licence fund, or other funds.

The expence of paving Water-Street—how defrayed.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the accounts of the said Commissioners of Highways shall, in future, be rendered to the Justices of the County of Halifax, in their December or March Sessions, and shall be examined, audited, and passed by them, unless the same shall be called for by any resolution of His Majesty's Council, or House of Assembly, when the same shall be laid before the Joint Committee of the Council and House, in such manner as any resolution of the Council or House of Assembly shall order and direct.

Accounts of the Commissioners of Halifax:

CAP. IV.

An ACT in addition to, and in amendment of, an Act, passed in the second year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act for regulating the Exportation of Fish, and the Assize of Barrels, Staves, Hoops, Boards, and all other kind of Lumber, and for appointing Officers to Survey the same; and also of an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, An Act to revive and amend an Act, for establishing the standard weight of Grain, and for appointing proper Officers for measuring Grain, Salt and Coals, and ascertaining the standard size of Bricks, and the quantity of Lime to be contained in a hoghead.

WHEREAS in and by the aforesaid Act, passed in the second year of His Majesty's reign, a discretionary power is given to Measurers of Cord Wood to make allowances for all Cord Wood not four feet in length, by which power, so vested as aforesaid, frequent acts of great injustice have been done to the Purchasers of that Article, and gross impositions practised: for remedy whereof.

Preamble—of Cord Wood.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That that part of the clause of the said Act which authorize the measurers of cord wood to make an allowance for wants, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of the Act of the 2d. Geo. III. repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That the measurers of cord wood, shall, and they are hereby required, after the expiration of four months from the publication of this Act, under a penalty not less than ten nor more than twenty shillings, for every neglect to seize all sticks of cord wood offered or exposed for sale, which shall not measure four feet in length, accounting half the carf; which wood so seized as aforesaid shall be forfeited by the seller for the use of the Poor House of the Township in which the same shall have been seized.

Seizure of Cord Wood less than four feet long.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the first day of October next, all and every every person or persons bringing cord wood to market for sale, shall pile all crooked or rotten wood in distinct and separate piles from the sound wood, and upon neglect or refusal of the seller to pile the crooked and rotten wood, the same to be seized by the surveyor, and to be forfeited by the seller for the use aforesaid.

Seizure of crooked and rotten wood less than four feet long.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all crooked or rotten wood not measuring four feet in length, accounting half the carf, shall also be seized by the surveyors under the like penalty for neglect as imposed by the second section of this Act, and the wood to be forfeited for the use as aforesaid.

Preamble---of Coal, Salt, and Grain.

And whereas great and serious evils have arisen, and great abuses have been practised, by means of the delivery of Coals, Salt and Grain, without having been previously surveyed by the proper Officer: for remedy whereof, Forfeiture of Coal, Salt, or Grain, not duly measured.

V. Be it further enacted, That from and after the publication hereof, all coal, salt, and grain, delivered from any ship or vessel, to any truckman or any other person, without having been duly and regularly admeasured by the proper officer appointed by the Court of Sessions, to survey the same, shall be forfeited, or the value thereof, by the seller thereof, to and for the use of the poor of the Township.

Penalty to which a Measurer may subject himself.

VI. And be it further enacted, That each and every measurer of coal, salt, and grain, who shall undertake to attend the admeasurement of either, or any of the aforesaid articles, from more than one vessel at one and the same time, shall forfeit for each and every such offence, the sum of forty shillings, to be recovered before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, by warrant of distress, and to be applied for County purposes.

Allowance to Surveyors and Measurers.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the surveyor of cord wood shall receive from the seller, for each survey and examination, four pence per cord; and the measurer of grain shall receive for all grain (oats excepted) at the rate of four shillings per hundred bushels; and for oats two shillings per hundred bushels; and the measurer of salt, for every hoghead of salt, two pence; and the measurer of coals, for every chaldron of coals, six pence, to be paid by the seller of the aforesaid articles.

CAP. V.

An ACT for the preservation of Snipes and Woodcocks.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to prevent the killing of Snipes and Woodcocks during the time of their Breeding:

Preamble.

Between March and September not lawful to kill Snipes and Woodcocks.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall not hereafter be lawful to kill any Snipe or Woodcock within this Province, from the first day of March, until the first day of September in each and every year respectively.

Penalty for violating this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall take, kill, sell, expose to sale, buy, cause to be bought, or have in his or her possession, any Snipe or Woodcock, between the days herein before mentioned, shall, for each Snipe or Woodcock so taken, killed, sold, exposed to sale, bought, caused to be bought, or found in his or her possession, forfeit the sum of Ten Shillings, to be recovered and applied in like manner as the Penalty imposed by the Acts made for the preservation of Partridges and Bluewinged Ducks. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to any Indian or Poor Settler, who shall kill any Snipes or Woodcocks for his own use and not for sale.

CAP. VI.

An ACT in addition to the Act for punishing Criminal Offenders.

WHEREAS, the punishment by imprisonment of Clergyable Felonies, Larcenies, and other lesser Criminal Offences, is often nugatory, and a useless expence to the Counties: Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom any person or persons shall be convicted of any Clergyable Felony, Larceny, of Receiving Stolen Goods knowing them to be Stolen, or other lesser Criminal Offence, to sentence the Offender to be put and kept to Hard Labour, in the House of Correction at Halifax, or elsewhere, or upon the Highways, or other Public Works, in the Province, for any term or time not exceeding seven years, on such terms and conditions as shall appear to be best calculated to promote the reformation of the Offender, a good example to others, and a just retribution to the Public for the injury done to it by such Offender.

Persons liable to be committed to Bridewell, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, from time to time, to make, ordain and promulgate, rules and ordinances, general or special, for the discipline, management and government, of all and every person and persons sentenced to Hard Labour as aforesaid, and to prescribe such Corporal Punishment or Deprivation for the disobedient or refractory conduct of such Offenders as shall appear to the said Court to be fit and proper.

Regulations for Bridewell.

CAP. VII.

An ACT to explain the Acts, concerning Marriage and Divorce, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty's Reign, and the first year of His present Majesty's Reign.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen relative to the construction of the Acts of the Province concerning Marriage and Divorce: for removing thereof: Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Causes are tried, on the hearing of any suit of Marriage and Divorce for the cause of Adultery or Cruelty, to declare and decree, by definitive sentence or otherwise, the Marriage between the parties in such suit to be absolutely null and void, from and after the time when such Adultery or Cruelty shall be proved before the said Court to have been committed; or to separate the said parties from bed and board only, and to allow and order Alimony, and reasonable costs, to the Wife so separated, as shall appear to the said Court to be fit and proper, according to the condition of the parties, and the rules and practice of the Ecclesiastical Courts in England, in such cases.

Divorce or Separation for Adultery or Cruelty.

Alimony to the Wife.

II. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to allow any person or persons who may be divorced from Bed and Board only, to marry again, without incurring the crime of Bigamy.

Proviso.

CAP. VIII.

and Excise within this Province, or either of them, and they are hereby authorised and required, to seize, and take, any ship, vessel, boat or shallop, and the Plaster on board, which shall be liable to forfeiture under this Act, and to detain and prosecute the same to final judgment.

Fraud--how punished.

VII. And be it further enacted, That any person or persons producing, or attempting to produce, or having at any time produced, any false or fraudulent certificate, paper or papers, voucher or vouchers, in order to cancel any bond required by this Act, or in any manner to evade the true intent and meaning of this Act, such offender or offenders, shall each and every one of them forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds.

Recovery and application of Penalties, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all fines, penalties and forfeitures, for any offence against this Act, shall be prosecuted, levied and recovered, by bill, plaint or information, in His Majesty's Supreme Court of this Province: and one moiety of such fines, penalties and forfeitures, shall be to His Majesty, to be applied to the support of the Government of this Province; the other moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same, together with full costs of suit; and that on all prosecutions for any fines, penalties and forfeitures, for any offence against this Act, the prosecutor and defendant shall be entitled to demand a Special Jury for the trial thereof, and to take depositions of witnesses, to be used in evidence at such trial, as is practiced and authorized by the laws and usages of this Province in civil actions.

Cases of hardship--how relieved.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of hardship which may arise in the continuation of, and in carrying into execution, the provisions of this Act, relief may be had by applying to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, who is hereby authorized, with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to direct the release of any seizure made, or to discontinue or stay any prosecutions for penalties which may have been, or may be intended to be, instituted, upon such terms as he may deem equitable.

Carriage of Plaster of Paris within the rivers of the Province, in boats, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to the carriage of Plaster of Paris or Gypsum, in any boat, lighter, drogher, or other vessel, employed within any river of this Province, and not without the same, in transporting Plaster of Paris or Gypsum from the shores of such river to vessels lading at the mouth thereof, or from the shores of such river to any wharf or place of landing within such river.

Act--when put in force.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not be in force until an Act, passed in the Province of New-Brunswick, on the Eleventh day of March, in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixteen, intituled, "An Act for the Encouragement of the Trade of that Province, in Plaster of Paris, otherwise called Gypsum," shall be published, and made known, by Proclamation, from the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief, of that Province, for the time being, agreeably to the Ninth Section of the said Act.

Continuance of Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force five years, and thence to the end of the next Session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

His Majesty's approbation of this Act necessary

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not be in force until His Majesty's Royal Approbation be thereunto had and declared.

CAP. XI.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Lime sold or offered for sale, from and after the first day of May aforesaid, shall be measured and inspected, by the officer or officers, or one of them appointed for that purpose, and all Lime not sufficiently burnt, or otherwise of good and merchantable quality, shall be seized by the said inspector, and every person offering for sale, or selling by the hoghead, any Lime in hogheads, that shall not contain at the least eight Winchester bushels heaped, or ninety-six gallons, shall forfeit for every bushel of which every and each hoghead shall be deficient, the sum of ten shillings, and so in proportion for every part of a bushel, together with the hoghead or cask in which such lime shall be contained, which shall be seized by the said inspector and destroyed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That for every Thousand of Bricks actually inspected, the person who shall inspect the same shall receive from the seller thereof Nine Pence, and so in proportion for any smaller number; and for every Hoghead of Lime actually inspected and measured, the person who shall inspect and measure the same shall receive from the seller thereof Six Pence, and so in proportion for any less quantity.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the said Bricks and Lime, so seized as aforesaid, shall not exceed Two Thousand Bricks, or Thirty-two Bushels of Lime respectively; and if the deficiency of Lime sold, or offered for sale, in Hogheads as aforesaid, shall not exceed Twenty Bushels, then, upon conviction upon the oath of one or more witnesses, before one Justice of the Peace of the County where the offence shall happen; and if the said Bricks or Lime shall exceed Two Thousand Bricks, or Thirty-two Bushels of Lime respectively; and if the deficiency of Lime as aforesaid shall exceed Twenty Bushels, then, upon conviction as aforesaid in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in the County where the offence shall happen, the said Bricks and Lime respectively, so seized as aforesaid, shall be adjudged forfeited; and the person who sold, or offered the same for sale as aforesaid, shall be adjudged to pay the costs of prosecution, and the person or persons who sold or offered for sale as aforesaid Lime in hogheads deficient as aforesaid, shall be adjudged to pay the penalty herein before declared thereof, together with the costs of condemnation: of all which penalties and forfeitures, one half part shall go to the inspector or inspectors, in each case respectively employed, for his and their trouble and expence of storage and prosecution, the remainder to the use of the poor of the County where such conviction or convictions shall happen.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every thing in the Act hereby amended contained, which relates to the size of Bricks, and the price of the inspection of Lime and Bricks, be repealed from and after the first day of May next.

And whereas it is proper that Officers should be appointed to measure and inspect Free-Stone used in Building:

VII. Be it therefore enacted, That all Free-Stone sold, or offered for sale, from and after the first day of May aforesaid, shall be inspected and measured by the Officer or Officers appointed for the inspection and measurement of Bricks and Lime, and who shall receive from the owner or seller of such Free-Stone for his services at the following rates, that is to say: for the inspection and measurement of all Free Stone, of the description called flag stones, nine pence per ton; and of all other six pence per ton, and so in proportion for any less quantity.

CAP. XXII:

An Act for the better regulating the manner of holding the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, in the County of Sydney.

WHEREAS from the extent of the County of Sydney, it is found inconvenient for the Inhabitants of the western part of the said County to attend at the times and place, when and where the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, are now held for the said County: for remedy whereof,

Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, from and after the publication hereof, the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, for the said County, shall be held twice in each and every year at the times now appointed by law for holding the same, but instead of being held twice in each year at the Court-House in Guyborough, shall be held only once at the said Court-House annually, to wit, on the second Tuesday of December; and once at Dorchester Village, annually, to wit, on the first Tuesday of July.

Times and places of holding Inferior Court, &c. in the County of Sydney.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the said Court of Common Pleas, and Sessions of the Peace, to excuse the Inhabitants of the Eastern part of said County, from being drawn as Petit Jurors to serve at the said Court to be held at Dorchester Village as aforesaid; and so in like manner to excuse the Inhabitants in the Western part of said County, from being drawn as Petit Jurors to serve at the Courts to be held at the Court-House at Guyborough as aforesaid.

Petit Jurors.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Presentations of Money hereafter to be assessed or appropriated within the said County, by the Grand Jury thereof; as also the Presentation and Appointment of County and Town Officers, shall continue to be made at the General Sessions of the Peace held annually in December at the Court-House in Guyborough, and not otherwise.

Presentment of monies for County purposes, and appointment of officers.

CAP. XXIII.

An ACT to alter the time of sitting of the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, for the County of Shelburne, and to enable the Justices of the said County to hold Special Sessions.

WHEREAS, the times of holding the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, and General Sessions of the Peace, has been found inconvenient; for remedy whereof:

Preamble.

I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That the Inferior Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace for the County of Shelburne, shall, for the future, be held at Shelburne, in the said County, on the first Tuesday of October and first Tuesday of April, annually; any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Times of holding Inferior Court, &c. at Shelburne.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace for for the said County, or any three of them, to hold Courts of Special Sessions, at Shelburne aforesaid, on the second Tuesday of November, and second Tuesday of May, in every year; at which Courts any person who may think himself overrated in the assessments made for the support of the Poor, County Rates, or other Rates or Taxes, may appeal for redress; and the Justices are hereby empowered to examine, hear and determine, every such appeal or complaint, and to give redress as they, in their judgment, shall think equitable; and such judgment shall be final in the said Court. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to that part of the County of Shelburne which is comprised within the District of Yarmouth, in the said County.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act in amendment of an Act, passed in the first year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for repairing and mending Highways, Roads, Bridges and Streets, and for appointing Surveyors of Highways within the several Townships in this Province, and also of an Act, passed in the fifth year of His said Majesty's Reign, in addition to and amendment thereof.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is expedient to reduce the number of days' labour required by the said Acts to be performed upon the Highways, so far as the same affects hired Servants and Minors; and also to increase the amount of the Penalties imposed on persons who neglect to send their Teams, and to perform the labour required of them upon the Highways, Roads, Bridges and Streets:

Labour to be performed by servants, minors, &c.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That all hired Servants, Minors, Apprentices, Journeymen, and Day Labourers, shall perform two days' labour on the Highways, Roads, Bridges and Streets, instead of six days, according to the provisions of the said Acts.

Carts, trucks, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That each and every person liable to labour, or to send a Team, Cart or Truck, to work upon the Highways, Roads, Streets or Bridges, in this Province, shall, for each and every day's neglect, forfeit and pay, for a Cart, Team or Truck, twelve shillings and six-pence, instead of ten shillings; and for personal labour five shillings, instead of three shillings, any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Surveyors of Highways to account to the General Sessions of the Peace.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyors of Highways in the several Townships and Districts of this Province, who shall fail to account to the General Sessions of the Peace, for the expenditure of the labour, and for the fines and forfeitures by them respectively received, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record in this Province; one moiety whereof shall be paid to the informer who shall sue and prosecute for the same, and the other half part thereof to be applied towards the repair of Roads and Bridges in the Townships or Districts in which the Surveyor resided.

CAP. XXV.

An ACT to continue in force the several Acts therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the several Acts herein mentioned be further continued:

Preamble.

1. CAP. XXVI.

An ACT to regulate the Transportation of Gun-Powder, from place to place within this Province.

- Preamble. WHEREAS, the present manner of conveying Gunpowder from place to place within this Province, may endanger the lives of many of His Majesty's Subjects; for remedy whereof:
- Transportation of Gunpowder by land. I. Be it enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, from and after the publication of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons within this Province to transport or convey from place to place therein, by land, any quantity of Gunpowder exceeding One Thousand Pounds Weight.
- In carts. II. And be it further enacted, That there shall not be loaded, or carried from place to place, upon or in any one cart as aforesaid, at one time, more than Fifty Pounds of Gunpowder, unless the same shall be completely covered with hair cloth, or woollen, exclusive of the cask or keg which contains the same, and the covering of the cart or carriage.
- Stoppage of carts. III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any cart or carriage, with Gunpowder as aforesaid, upon its passage from one place to another, within this Province, to be stoppt or left less than twenty rods off any Inn or Dwelling House.
- Articles not to be conveyed on the same cart with Gunpowder. Powder to be contained in barrels, &c. IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to load, or carry, upon any cart or carriage as aforesaid, together with any quantity of Gunpowder exceeding Fifty Pounds, any manufactured or unmanufactured Iron, Steel, or any other metallic substance whatsoever; and that no Gunpowder, exceeding Fifty Pounds, shall be loaded or carried in any cart or carriage as aforesaid, but in barrels, half barrels, or quarter barrels, tight, and well hooped with wood or copper hoops.
- Carriage of more than 26lbs. Gunpowder. V. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful to carry or convey from place to place, within this Province, any quantity of Gunpowder more than twenty-five pounds weight unless the cask or package in which the same shall be contained, shall be hooped, and well and sufficiently wrapped with woollen or hair cloth.
- Violations of this Act. VI. And be it further enacted, that if any person or persons shall offend against this Act, he shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence, a sum not exceeding twenty pounds, nor less than forty shillings, to be recovered by bill, plaint or information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, within this Province, one half thereof, to him, her or them, who shall sue for the same; the other half to be paid into the public Treasury for the use of his Majesty's Government.
- Proviso. VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall be construed to extend to prevent the carriage of Gun-Powder for his Majesty's service in the usual manner.

CAP. XXVII.

An ACT to prevent unlawful Combinations of Master Tradesmen, and also of their Workmen and Journeymen.

WHEREAS, great numbers of Master Tradesmen, Journeymen and Workmen, in the Town of Halifax, and other parts of the Province, have, by unlawful Meetings and Combinations, endeavoured to regulate the rate of wages, and to effectuate other illegal purposes, for remedy whereof:

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted, by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Assembly, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all contracts, covenants and agreements whatsoever, in writing or not in writing, at any time or times heretofore made or entered into, by or between any journeymen, manufacturers, or other workmen, or other persons within this Province, for obtaining an advance of wages of them, or any of them, or any other journeymen, manufacturers or workmen, or other persons in any manufacture, trade or business, or for lessening or altering their, or any of their, usual hours or time of working, or for decreasing the quantity of work, or for preventing or hindering any person or persons, from employing whomsoever he, she, or they shall think proper to employ, in his, her, or their manufacture, trade or business, or for controuling, or any way affecting any person or persons carrying on any manufacture, trade or business, in the conduct or management thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be illegal, null, and void, to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Combinations of Journeymen illegal.

II. And be it further enacted, That no journeyman, workman, or other persons, shall at any time, after the passing of this Act, make or enter into, or be concerned in the making of, or entering into any such contract, covenant or agreement, in writing or not in writing, as is herein before declared to be an illegal covenant, contract or agreement, and every journeyman, workman or other person, who, after the passing of this Act, shall be guilty of any of the said offences, being thereof lawfully convicted, upon his own confession, or the oath or oaths of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before any two or more Justices of the Peace for the county, town or place, where such offence shall be committed, which oath any of the said Justices are hereby authorized and empowered to administer, in such case, and in all other cases where an oath is to be taken before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act, within three calendar months next after the offence shall have been committed, shall, by order of such Justices, be committed to, and confined in the common Jail, within their jurisdiction, for any time, not exceeding three months, or at the discretion of such Justices, shall be committed to some House of Correction within the same jurisdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding two months.

Future combinations prevented.

III. And be it further enacted, That every journeyman, workman, or other person, who shall at any time, after the passing of this Act, enter into any combination, to obtain an advance of wages, or to lessen or alter the hours or duration of the time of working, or to decrease the quantity of work, or for any other purpose contrary to this Act, or who shall, by giving money, or by persuasion, solicitation or intimidation, or any other means, directly or indirectly, endeavour to prevent any unhired or unemployed journeyman or workman, or other person, in any manufacture, trade or business, or any other person wanting employment in such manufacture, trade or business, from hiring himself to any manufacturer, or tradesman, or person conducting any manufacture, trade or business, or who shall, for the purpose of obtaining an advance of wages, or for any other purpose contrary to the provisions of this Act, by any means whatsoever, directly or indirectly, decoy, persuade, solicit, intimidate, influence or prevail, or attempt or endeavour to prevail, on any journeyman or workman, or person hired or employed, or to be hired or employed in any such manufacture, trade or business, to quit or leave his work, service or employment, or who shall hinder or prevent, or attempt to hinder or prevent, any manufacturer or tradesman, or other person, from employing, in his or her manufacture, trade or business, such journeyman, workman and other persons, as he or she shall think proper, or who, being hired or employed, shall refuse to work with any other journeyman or workman, employed or hired to work therein, and who shall be lawfully convicted of any of the said offences, upon his own confession, or the oath or oaths of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before any two or more Justices of the Peace for the county, town or place, where such offence shall be committed, within three calendar months next after the offence shall have been committed, shall, by order of such Justices, be committed to and confined in the common jail, within his or their jurisdiction, for any time not exceeding three months, or otherwise be committed to some House of Correction, within the same jurisdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard labour, for any time not exceeding two months.

Combinations of Master Tradesmen.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all contracts, associations, agreements, covenants and engagements, whether in writing or not, entered into between master tradesmen or manufacturers, or any other person or persons, for the purpose of regulating the wages of workmen, or for adding to or altering the usual hours of work, or for increasing the quantity of work, or for regulating or fixing the price to be paid for any work done, or article made or manufactured, by such master tradesmen or manufacturers, or other persons, whereby their customers or others who may deal with them may be affected, shall be illegal and void: and every master tradesman, manufacturer or other person being thereof convicted, by the oath of one witness, before two Justices, within twelve calendar months, shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence twenty pounds, one half to the informer, and the other half to the poor; and if the same is not immediately paid with costs of prosecution, such Justices shall levy the same by warrant of distress, with the costs attending the distress and sale, and for want of sufficient distress, such Justices shall commit the offender or offenders to the common Jail or House of Correction, for any time not exceeding three, or less than two, calendar months.

Persons combining to raise the price of labour, goods,
&c.

V. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall prevent, or be construed to prevent, any person or persons, combining or confederating together, to raise the price of labour, or to raise the price of provisions or victuals of any kind, or to raise the price of goods, wares or merchandize, of any kind or sort, from being indicted, prosecuted, or punished, as for a conspiracy, or unlawful combination.

CAP. XXVIII.

An ACT to enable certain persons therein named, to erect a Draw-Bridge across the Liverpool River, in the Town of Liverpool.
