Maj.-Gen. Hughes Declares Contingent is Ready for Action on Continent.

Canadian Press Despatch. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Major-General Sam Hughes, Canadian minister of militia, returned last night from the steamer St. Paul, which arrived from Liverpool. The stories printed in this country to the effect that the Canadian contingent will be used to strengthen the coast defenses of Great Britain were repudiated by Colonel Hughes as being without foundation. "Neither will the Canadians be sent to Egypt, as has been reported," said the colonel. "There were 32,000 men in the first contingent which Canada forwarded to the help of her mother country," he continued. "They comprise the finest body of men that I have ever seen, and are enthusiastic over the prospect of getting into the active part of the fray. Weeks of training has practically made them seasoned regulars, and I feel sure that their presence to the field will prove of great advantage to the allied forces."

A British destroyer went to Aivali to embark the British consul, but the Turks refused to permit this. "It is stated that Fort Sedid Bahr and Kum Kaleh, in the Dardanelles, have been completely destroyed by the bombardment. The Turks, under the direction of German officers, are hastily fortifying Aivali."

Forces Now Well Into German Territory in Hot Pursuit.

ATTACKS HAVE CEASED

"That was their last effort. Today the Germans are dropping an occasional desultory shell into Ypres, but their attacks have ceased. They are now assailing the allied line at Arras, forty miles further to the south, but not with the same fury as they exhibited in the onslaught of the past week."

GERMANS ARE PERTURBED.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—That the inhabitants of Berlin and vicinity are considerably perturbed over the withdrawal of the German forces toward the frontier of Silesia is evident from advices from the German capital, coming by way of Copenhagen. In spite of the fact that, according to official statements, the German and Austrian forces on the 300-mile battle line between Thorn, in East Prussia, and Cracow, in Austrian Poland, number no less than 3,000,000 men, the retirement toward Cracow continues. Petrograd despatches state that the Kaiser's invading army has been prodded back by the Russians as far as the line of the River Warthe. It is said to be endeavoring to make a stand against the Russian pursuers. The Germans are reported to be installed in most elaborately constructed trenches in positions about Sieradz. This position, by the way, is but 15 miles from the German border.

ALLIES' FRONT IS ADVANCING.

This afternoon's French War Office report says: "Yesterday, between the North Sea and the Lys the fighting was less violent. Some attacks, not general, of the enemy, were repulsed in the direction of Dixmude and to the northeast of Ypres. On almost all of this front we, in turn, took the offensive and advanced, notably in the region to the north of Messines. "In the neighborhood of Arras the British troops progressed slightly. Between La Bassée and Arras the attacks of the enemy were repulsed. "From Arras to Soissons nothing worthy of note took place. MARKED ADVANCE AT SOISSONS. "Around Soissons our forces made a marked advance. In the region of Vailly, and equally on the right bank of the Aisne, we strengthened our progress to the North of Chavonne and Soupir. A German attack on Caronelle and Heurtebise was repulsed. "In the neighborhood of Verdun to the northwest and to the southeast of that place, we are establishing the supporting positions recently gained. "A dense fog prevailed all day in the north, as well as in Champagne and Lorraine, hampering the action of the artillery and the aviation corps. The War Office in Tokio this afternoon issued the following report: "The German and Japanese plenipotentiaries on the evening of Nov.

Most Terrible Bayonet Charge of Whole War Took Place at Ypres, Where Two British Regiments Stemmed the German Advance—Village of St. Remi Taken at Bayonet Point—Kaiser Has Held a Council of War to Decide on Further Plan of Campaign—Turkish Forts on the Dardanelles Said to Have Been Destroyed.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—A despatch to The Times from Dunkirk, France, filed Saturday night, says: "After a desperate attack lasting the whole week, the German attempt to break the allied line at Ypres has failed. It may be admitted that the position at Ypres two days ago was serious. The town itself was bombarded by the Germans with extraordinary violence and under the fierce cannonading the allies had to withdraw from the town which became a "no-man's land," across which the shells from both sides burst. "The Germans made a superhuman and final effort under cover of a fierce bombardment of the allied positions. They had prepared a desperate onslaught. Masses of men were launched in succession at chosen points on our front. The assault was met in a supreme way. Two regiments, one Scottish and one of the Guards, went down with bayonets to stem the advance. It was the most terrible bayonet charge of the whole war. It succeeded, the break in the line was repaired and the German attack was once more driven back. "ATTACKS HAVE CEASED "That was their last effort. Today the Germans are dropping an occasional desultory shell into Ypres, but their attacks have ceased. They are now assailing the allied line at Arras, forty miles further to the south, but not with the same fury as they exhibited in the onslaught of the past week. "So fierce has been the fighting around Ypres that the casualties of the Germans are believed to have reached the enormous figure of 100,000, tho these figures may prove to have been exaggerated."

VON MOLTKE'S FALL LAID TO INTRIGUES

Rupture Between Former German Chief of Staff and Kaiser.

BERLIN GETS ANXIOUS

Crown Prince Partly to Blame—Little Confidence in New Leader.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen yesterday. The Standard's correspondent says: "The retirement of General Von Moltke as chief of staff, which is now officially announced, has produced a far-reaching effect on Berlin. Nobody of course believes that he has left on account of ill-health, as the authorities declare.

"Everybody knows, too, that there was a rupture between him and the Kaiser. Nevertheless, nobody believed that the latter would decide at such a critical moment to dismiss the leader of the German general staff. Although the retirement of Von Moltke is not a myth, the true reasons of his dismissal were court intrigues and disputes, the desire of the crown prince to act entirely on his own initiative and finally the autocratic ways of the Kaiser himself.

Alarm Over New Appointments. "The recent changes in the two theatres of war also contribute largely to the Kaiser's decision. In Germany many complications are foreseen with alarm as a result of suppression of Von Moltke by Von Falkenhayn. The latter's appointment is regarded as a manifestation of the desire of the Kaiser to take into his own hands complete control of all military operations.

"In military circles it is thought that outside of the Kaiser's support the new chief possesses no qualifications whatever, and that he has neither sufficient authority nor the requisite military knowledge to be able successfully to command the German army. Some people here believe that change may be made in Austria, where similar changes had very serious consequences.

"It is openly maintained by competent men that Von Falkenhayn is merely to be the puppet of the Kaiser and can in no sense be compared with General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief.

BIG EARTHQUAKE SHOCK CAUSES ALARM IN ITALY

Messina Visited by Another Seismic Disturbance—People Believe More Coming.

Canadian Press Despatch. MESSINA, Nov. 8.—A strong earthquake shock which was felt in this vicinity on Saturday, has caused considerable alarm among the populace, especially as following so closely the fresh activity of Mount Vesuvius. Fears are entertained that the new shock is but the forerunner of another period of earthquake activity, according to the registrations at the observatory, the centre of the earthquake was about 77 miles distant from Messina.

Merritt, St. Catharines, proceeded with at the armories Saturday night, among the recruits being F. Higgins, a native of Toronto, who came from Havana, Cuba, to fight for the empire. DEPORTED LABOR LEADERS RETURN TO SOUTH AFRICA

All Promised Not to Embarrass Botha Government During War.

Canadian Press Despatch. LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Durban, Natal, correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company says that the labor leaders who were deported to England after the Rand riots last January have returned in conformity with an amnesty decree recently issued. Dr. H. J. Potlaka, one of the deported, stated in behalf of his companions that all had come back unconditionally, but had promised not to embarrass the government during the war. Their return was not accompanied by any demonstration.

FRENCH AVIATORS WORSTED ENEMY

Two German Taube Machines Brought Down at Arras.

FOES SING NEW SONG

Want to Go Home to Own Firesides—Are Losing Morale.

(By Alfred J. Rorke, Special Correspondent Central News and Toronto World.)

PARIS, via London, Nov. 8.—The work of destruction at Arras continues. The cathedral has been badly damaged. Many civilians have been struck down in their own homes by the flying shells.

While their comrades looked on, two French aviators attacked the drivers of two German Taube machines and brought them down, the conflict proving one of the most stirring episodes in this region.

During a recent bombardment by the French artillery shells fell in the German trenches at the rate of eighty-two per minute. This and the terrific hammering that goes on steadily in breaking the morale of the German troops, as evidenced by a new song which they are now singing. Instead of "Deutschland über Alles," the verse runs: "Glorry, glory, we are going back home to our own firesides where there will be no war."

An eminent economist here says he is certain that peace will be signed in Berlin by Easter.

One of the worst stories of German barbarity now current makes the doings of the Mexicans look like pigeon shooting. "The Belgians affirm that four hundred civilians at Dinant were impaled in a church. Then the Germans entered by the rear doors and drove them out the front exits at the point of the bayonet. As they emerged from the place of worship they were mowed down by machine guns. Those not killed were allowed to go free. I give the story under reserve, but Belgians and Frenchmen that survivors have been found to substantiate it.

OSLER CUP MATCH AT LONG BRANCH

Board of Trade Team Won—Dispute Arose Regarding Ammunition.

EXECUTIVE TO DECIDE

Capt. Ardagh Leads in Second Series of Cawthra Trophy Match.

One of the main attractions at the Long Branch ranges on Saturday was the 10 men team match for the Osler Trophy between the various clubs and associations affiliated with the Toronto Civilian Rifle League.

The trophy is a cup presented by Sid Edmund Oser, honorary president of the league, for the encouragement of rifle shooting among civilian associations. Last year it was carried off by the University Rifle Association.

Saturday's result, however, is not yet made known, as a protest has been lodged with J. A. Woodward, the president of the league, regarding the use of the ammunition. This point will be adjudicated upon at the meeting of the executive of the league to be held this evening.

No less than eight teams from as many associations took part in the match, these being: The University, Irish, Teachers Toronto Civilian, Dental, Parkdale, High Park, and Board of Trade, and notwithstanding a variable left wind and towards the close, a fading light, many exceptional scores were made.

Aggregate Scores. Board of Trade Rifle Association: William Dow, 102; J. P. White, 100; A. Lucas, 100; William Elliott, 99; George Perry, 98; George Crighton, 98; William Root, 95; George Milligan, 94; Alex. Rutherford, 94; W. J. Medford, 92.

One hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen from all parts of the county were present, including President Hamilton, Reeve and others. The party viewed the five acres of greenhouses, which were looking their best, the show of chrysanthemums being particularly fine.

BRAMPTON WOMEN HELP RED CROSS

Mass Meeting in Concert Hall—Mrs. Grant Needham the Speaker.

There was a good attendance at the mass meeting in the Concert Hall on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Red Cross Association and St. John Ambulance Brigade. Mrs. Grant Needham of Toronto was the speaker of the evening, and outlined the work of the Red Cross.

Mr. Howe said he had been advocating a road thru Mount Pleasant for fifteen years. Seventy-five per cent. of the inhabitants of North Toronto lived east of Yonge street, and he thought those who had done good work he should not be allowed to resign. As one woman put it, she thought it was to the interests of such a progressive body to have such a fine looking policeman standing on the street corners. Chief Kidd stands 6 feet 4 inches, and is a fine specimen of physical manhood.

The Women's Institute realized about $25 from the sale of chrysanthemums at the Court House on Saturday afternoon. The money was given to the Red Cross Fund.

Miss Doyle, of the Toronto Telegram, spoke to a large audience of women in the Court House on Saturday afternoon on "The Housewives' League and the War." Miss Doyle gave a talk on her visit to Valcartier Camp, the Red Cross Society and the Housewives' League.

The Metropolitan Institute will start this afternoon in full force. Yesterday he was in the position to state that it was not his fault that the question had not been settled. He had tried hard to have the council take the matter up, but it was blocked by the railway purchase negotiations, and it was impossible to have the council discuss North Toronto.

DISASTROUS BLAZE AT SILVERTHORPE

Two Houses on Blackthorne Avenue Destroyed by Fire—One Damaged.

FAR FROM CITY WATER

Firemen Had to Use Fifty Lengths of Hose to Reach Nearest Hydrant.

Two houses were totally destroyed with most of their contents, and a third partially burned, by a fire which broke out on Blackthorne ave., Silverthorpe Heights, about half a mile from the northern city limits shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The distance from the nearest hydrant to the fire station is quite impossible to save the buildings, and the fire was only saved by the energetic efforts of the firemen from the Keele street, Carlton, Park ave., Blythwood and Weywood fire houses.

The following were the houses destroyed, the numbers referring to the lots: No. 230 Blackthorne ave., one-story house owned and occupied by Mrs. William Kent and family, totally destroyed; estimated cost of building, $600, contents $150, partly covered by insurance.

No. 231, two-story frame house owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Kent and family, totally destroyed; estimated cost of building, $200, contents $100, insurance $500 on the property.

It was in No. 231 that the fire started while the family were away. The cause could not be discovered as Mr. Kent had left everything in a state of confusion. A two-story, rough-wood house was damaged to the extent of about $50.

Those who signed the cards then passed before the pastor and each had a minute's chat and handshake with Mr. Alexander.

Will It Be Whitman?

Naturally enough the political moonshiners are already predicting that Governor-elect Whitman of New York will be the next president of the United States. It is a long way to the White House, Tippecanoe, even from the executive mansion at Albany, but Mr. Whitman may be the logical candidate of the reunited Republican party, and if nominated, he will develop nearly all the popular qualifications.
The fact that Mr. Whitman at the age of forty-six is presidential timber without having sat in either house of congress or in the legislature discloses a certain tendency to recruit men of marked ability for high official positions, which seems to be lacking under our more rigid party system in Canada. Perhaps there is also an inclination in name the popular man of the hour without sufficiently regarding his qualifications for the office to which he aspires. That has been evidenced more than once when party leaders were ignored and a military man without any political training or convictions has been nominated and elected president. Be that as it may, the fact remains that a considerable number of men of outstanding ability are called to high public trusts in the United States who would be virtually excluded from public life in Canada.
The tendency under any system is towards an oligarchy. The man who devotes his life to politics looks upon everyone else as an "outsider." The exclusive right to govern may be claimed on the ground of birth, education or experience, but in one way or another a class arises which arrogates to itself the right to hold office. More and more, however, the people at large are demanding the right to select their own rulers and to dispense with the tutelage of the professional politicians. It is evidenced by the growing demand today in Canada, especially in the west, for direct legislation and the primary system of nominating party candidates by direct popular vote.

Weismann and the Germ-Cell

On Saturday was announced the death of the great German biologist, August Weismann, in his 81st year. Beginning as a physician, he afterwards applied himself to zoology and did much microscopic work in connection with the development of the Diptheria. His eyesight suffered, however, and he became interested in the broader aspects of biological science. Darwinism in the late sixties engaged his attention, and he became the great antagonist of the post-Darwinians. His denial of the transmission of acquired characters by heredity was in line with Darwin's own denial in the "Origin of Species," that there was any law of inheritance, a point which is frequently overlooked.
Weismann will be remembered by his "Beitrage zur Descendenzlehre," in which he develops his theory of embryology. He recognizes "one individual cell, out of millions of others at work in the formation of an organism, determining alone and unaided, by means of constant segmentation and multiplication," its further development.
"It is that cell," says a writer in the eighties, "which impresses on the face and form of the new individual the features of the parents or of some distant ancestor. It is that cell, again, which transmits to him the intellectual and mental idiosyncrasies of his sires, and so on. This plan is the immortal portion of our bodies—simply thru the process of successive assimilations. Darwin's theory, viewing the embryo to be at this stage of the campaign to back and blast his way to the descent of Dover in preparation for the signal hour, on England, which has become his obsession. Paris is neglected for the time being at least, in his intense determination to strike at the arch enemy.
German blood has been poured out like water in the endeavor to reach the French northwest coast, and sacrificed in vain. That this next su-or those germinal cells do not have their generals at all in the body of the individual, but proceed directly from the ancestral germinal cell passed from father to son thru long generations. It is the latter hypothesis which Weismann accepted and has worked upon; and it is to this cell that he traces the immortal portion of man."

Prof. Gerald Leighton, writing recently, puts this as the great discovery of modern embryology, on which means the abandonment of the old theories of heredity. "No parent ever produces a germ-cell, and the reason why children resemble parents and ancestors is because the germ-cells which give rise to individuals in successive generations are produced from the germ-cells of the previous generation. The line of descent or inheritance, therefore, is from germ-cell to germ-cell, and not from parents."
Prof. Leighton adds that unless one is absolutely familiar with these facts he can never understand the science of embryology.
Just what is the power or life or intelligence behind the germ-cell is a problem that not even Weismann tackled, and it remains for the future of science to solve it.

Is This a Trade War?

Unable to shake the weighty evidence that the British, French and Russian Governments worked earnestly to secure a settlement of the differences between Austria and Serbia without resort to arms, the German apologists have changed their tactics. The effort to vindicate Germany from the charge of deliberately provoking the war is now directed along more subtle and plausible lines. It is asserted, in effect, that the real cause of the war is to be found in the trade rivalry of two great nations, these being, of course, Britain and Germany. The British people, the United States public is invited to believe, have bitterly resented the rise of German trade, industry and commerce, because it threatened to take away "some of the money and trade the Englishman feels to be his by right of establishment and by right of enforced power." In this way it is suggested that Britain's jealousy of Germany as a business competitor was the basic reason for the war.

preme endeavor will also end in failure there is every reason to believe.

Recent fighting has disclosed no weakening in the morale of the French, Belgian and British soldiers, who have battled so valiantly against the mighty German machine, and they will meet the onslaught with confidence now that they have taken its full measure. Their vast patience and endurance have been severely tried, but their losses have been heavy, but far less than those they have inflicted. With the defeat of the Kaiser's next desperate venture the hour of victory cannot be far distant.

Hopes are held out for his recovery.

The Kaiser's Next Venture.

Undeterred by the previous failures of his western armies to penetrate the allied defence the Kaiser is reported to be again concentrating his forces for the purpose of renewing the attack. His new objective is supposed to be Boulogne, and if it be true that 150,000 fresh troops have already been assembled in Flanders the pressure brought to bear on the allies will at least equal the earlier efforts. The war lord's settled purpose appears to be at this stage of the campaign to back and blast his way to the descent of Dover in preparation for the signal hour, on England, which has become his obsession. Paris is neglected for the time being at least, in his intense determination to strike at the arch enemy.

ENGINEERING ABILITY AGAINST CHEAP LABOR

Canada Should Not Find It Difficult to Replace German Chemistry.

Chemical analysis and the possibilities which it opens up in the development of industry was dealt with by Dr. Raymond F. Bacon, Ph. D., of the University of Pittsburgh, in his address to the "Advantages of Co-operation Between Universities and Industries in Industrial Research" at the inaugural meeting of the Royal Canadian Institute in the physics building of the university on Saturday evening. The opening address of the president, Frank Armitage, K.C., was given dealing with the war situation and with scientific research in agricultural studies.
Dr. Bacon stated that it was important to note that while the value of chemistry had been placed higher in Germany than any other country during the last half century, the progress in manufacturing had been much greater there within that period than in any other country. The enormous growth of certain German firms engaged in the manufacture of chemical specialties was described.
"American engineering ability will serve to counterbalance the cheap labor advantages possessed by Germany," declared Dr. Bacon, "and this is the value of industrial fellowships which are very great, and the importance attached to industrial research by the manufacturers was asserted to be on the increase.
A number of views of the Mellon Institute of Scientific and Industrial Research, Pittsburgh, which Dr. Bacon is connected, was shown, and some interesting experiments were illustrated.

FIRE REORGANIZATION BEFORE BOARD TODAY

Hydro Inquiry and Civil Service Examination Proposal Also on List.

The special board of control meeting called for today by Acting Mayor McCarty last Wednesday will be an important one as the board will definitely one of the number of big problems with which they intend to deal.
First and most important is the question of the reorganization of the fire department. Although Fire Chief Thompson had nothing to say on the subject when approached last week, it is rumored among some of the city officials that the board will deal with his resignation at today's meeting.
Hydro matters, including the Ben-ner "disclosures," will take up considerable time, as will Ald. Wantless' proposed civil service examination to examine all applicants for civic positions where technical knowledge is required, but by no means unimportant, is the long overdue fair wage officer issue and the arrangement of details on the newly launched social service commission.

DIOCESAN HISTORY WAS SERMON TOPIC

Bishop Sweeney Preached Seventy-Fifth Anniversary Sermon at St. Alban's.

UNDER FOUR BISHOPS

Gifts Dedicated at Morning Cathedral Service Included Font and Windows.

St. Alban's Cathedral yesterday celebrated the 75th anniversary of the Diocese of Toronto, when a large and impressive congregation was present at both the morning and evening services. Hon. W. H. Hearst, premier of Ontario, was present in the morning.
The morning service opened with the dedication of a number of gifts, the Rev. Bishop Sweeney presiding over the ceremony. The gifts included a magnificent marble font, from Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson, a tablet in memory of the late Bishop Strachan, a window to the late Bishop Strachan and the late Dr. Johnston, ex-rector of Weston, Miss Chew, the donor of this gift, also gave a window in memory of her father, mother and sister. The Alumnae Association of Bishop Strachan School gave a tablet in memory of the late Bishop Strachan, and the girls of the Bishop Bethune College of Ottawa, a tablet in memory of the second Bishop of Toronto. A bust of Bishop Bethune was also given by the college, while Mr. Horace Blatchford presented the diocese with a bust of the present bishop.
In his sermon, Bishop Sweeney gave a brief outline of the work which had been carried on in the diocese during the 75 years. He gave the history of the diocese, which had happened under the guidance of four bishops, Bishop Strachan, the first Bishop of Toronto, arrived in this city just 75 years ago today, and Bishop Bethune, who presided over the diocese for 25 years. He spoke at considerably greater length of the wonderful achievements of the late Bishop Sweeney, who occupied the office for 30 years, during which period many changes had been made throughout the diocese. With respect to the right reverend gentleman had died before he could see the full result of his labors. The last five years was dealt with merely to show the increase in the size of the diocese.
The bishop also offered up a special prayer for peace.
At the evening service the Bishop of Ontario delivered the sermon. He paid a glowing tribute to the work which had been accomplished in Toronto during the past 75 years which he claimed to be the greatest in the history of the church.

RATEPAYERS SELECT COUNCIL CANDIDATE

Fairbank and Earls Court Associations Will Support Own Men in County Election

At the meeting of the North Earls Court and Fairbank Ratepayers' Association, held in the club house, Harris avenue, Fairbank, last evening, H. B. Hood presiding, it was decided after much discussion to select a candidate for the York Township council at the next election. The secretary will communicate with the other ratepayers' associations requesting their views, and a meeting of the ratepayers' central body will be held in the near future. C. T. Lacey, school trustee, read a communication received from Hodgkinson, Moffatt & Hodgkinson, water experts, who have been boring for water in the county for some months. They state they have sunk a well 200 feet deep at the ridges in King Township and have found a good water supply.
The matter will be brought to the attention of the York Township council. A deputaion was also appointed to wait upon the council to request more sidewalks in the Fairbank and North Earls Court district and also street lights.
It was also arranged to hold a series of tombolas and concerts during the winter.
Mr. Lewis announced that Controller James Simpson had promised to attend the association at their meeting on Nov. 20.
Fairbank Patriotic Concert.
Two additional rooms will be opened at the new Fairbank School, Vaughan street, in the course of a few weeks. The pupils will hold a patriotic concert, arrangements for which are now being made.

HUGE EXPORTS SPREAD CHEER

Outward Movement of Cotton After Long Wait Particularly Encouraging.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The hopeful sentiment which developed last week was sustained by various circumstances this week. Chief of these were the heavy volume of the increasing flood of the country's export trade. Commerce department officials estimated an October export of merchandise of $40,000,000. Further buying of wheat and other grains for export continued on a sensational scale, and cotton shipments to foreign ports extended to one-third or more of last year's rate. The effect extended to many lines of industry, even the steel trade felt increased confidence, despite additional contraction of current business.

The international exchange problem advanced sufficiently to end the necessity for further emergency arrangements under discussion by the British treasury delegates in conference at Washington. Credits were reported to be arranged in New York by foreign governments, including Russia and Austria, for expenditure in this country. This detracts from apprehension over gold exports, which are thus certain of an early return flow.

Investors appearing in the market and high-grade stocks reflected the growing force of the reservoir of capital accumulating with the bottling up of the market for the securities market. Ending of the British moratorium, government security for London market looking to opening of the Liverpool Cotton Association and prospects of an early re-opening of the New York Cotton Exchange, all these factors detract from apprehension over the re-opening of the stock exchange.

Heavy retirements of emergency currency and clearing house certificates marked the strengthening of bank reserves, and this was followed by an interest reduction in long time loans—4 1/2 per cent.

The bank statement showed a further increase of reserves and a moderate cash gain in place of an expected loss.

Wall street drew its own inferences, mainly favorable, from the elections. Turkey's entrance in the war, the closing of the North Sea and developments in the Mexican arena were counted among the week's adverse features.

MINIMUM PRICES WILL BE CLOSER

Conference in Montreal Over Differences in Stock Quotations.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—As a result of a conference between representatives of the Toronto Stock Exchange and the Montreal Stock Exchange companies yesterday afternoon some of the more striking anomalies in the minimum price lists of the two exchanges will be adjusted.

The wider differences in prices occurred chiefly in stocks which are fairly active in Toronto, and which are less active in Montreal.

In these stocks, notably Russell Motor, Sawyer-Massey and Canadian Locomotive, the Montreal Stock Exchange will lower its quotations to the level established by the Toronto market. Brazilian, where the difference is only a point—$4 in Toronto and $4 in Montreal—will be left alone.

In the case of a stock like C. C. Packard, where the difference is $10 in Toronto and $10 in Montreal, and with a spread of 10 points at present—from 100 in Montreal to 110 in Toronto—Montreal will decide to advance the quotation to 108, even if the Toronto price is left undisturbed. The various differences were discussed and a general understanding was reached. Any changes that are to be made will be acted on independently by the respective committees next week.

Cobalt Shipments

In the statement for week ended Oct. 20, the shipment of 3,770 tons of cobalt was reported, and this was followed by an interest reduction in long time loans—4 1/2 per cent.

The bank statement showed a further increase of reserves and a moderate cash gain in place of an expected loss.

Wall street drew its own inferences, mainly favorable, from the elections. Turkey's entrance in the war, the closing of the North Sea and developments in the Mexican arena were counted among the week's adverse features.

When Christmas shopping starts on the Pacific Coast, the busiest places in every city are the Chinese Shops and Bazaars. The very names of the places have a suggestion of opulence and rejoicing about them, Sing Fat, for example one of the most famous, what name could be more expressive of jovial lavishness.

We have started one of these Chinese Bazaars on our third floor that will make you chuckle with joy at the very sight of it—Such a profusion of unique and attractive merchandise, arrayed in a veritable Chinatown full of warmth and color and noises, and above all, of BARGAINS.
