Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

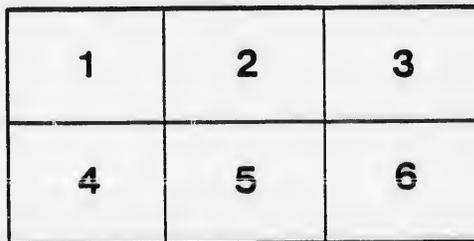

Manuscript Division
Public Archives of Canada

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\rightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Division des manuscrits
Archives publiques du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

MACKENZIE'S GAZETTE,

DEVOTED TO THE NEWS AND POLITICS OF CANADA AND EUROPE, AND TO THE MAINTENANCE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNMENT ENJOINED IN THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE BY THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, JULY 4, 1776.

Mackenzie's Gazette is printed and published by and for Peter Baxter the Proprietor, in the second story of the brick house, corner of Main and Water streets, ROCHESTER, N. Y., at Three Dollars per annum, FOR CASH ONLY. No order, whether from agent or subscriber, will be attended to unless accompanied by payment in advance, and the newspaper will be stopped without orders at the expiration of the time paid for unless a further remittance is made.

Orders, post paid if by mail, with payment in advance, will also be received for this Gazette on the following terms, viz:

TEN DOLLARS—for ten copies weekly during six months—or for five copies during one year—or for six copies during ten months—or for seven copies eight months—or for eight copies six months—or for nine copies four months.

FIVE DOLLARS—for 1 copy weekly during two years—or two copies 1 year—or three copies eight months—or four copies six months—or six copies four months—or eight copies three months.

The price of papers called for weekly at the Gazette Office is $2 1/2 per annum, or $1.25 for six months.

A perusal of the Gazette during the past year must have convinced its readers that the editor follows no party farther than he thinks they support the principle of political reform and the doctrines embodied in the declaration of American Independence. It is not his intention to change this course. UPHOLD, neither by the patronage of the Executive, the discounts of the Banker, nor the advertising of the Merchant, he has placed before the reader about 1500 closely printed columns of facts and opinions on various subjects; the greater part of which were probably composed from manuscript copy. About seven-eighths of last Saturday's Gazette was original; the other eighth only, selected.

Does any one doubt the usefulness of the Gazette let him consult its files. It is of great service to keep alive the spirit of liberty in the European and American population, by showing them what the Colonial and Monarchical Ruler their fathers obeyed and still is. It is useful in France, England and America, as a record of the atrocious crimes committed in the 19th century by the British government, which he extends to liberality in its measures. It is ultimately conducted for many years with the affairs of Canada, the editor is enabled to discuss them with that certainty as to facts which no stranger could possibly possess; and the sacrifices he has made to the cause of freedom beyond the Atlantic will remove from the mind of the impartial reader all apprehension of a bias in favor of despotic institutions.

The Editor has endeavored to meet much calumny and abuse during the past year by a conduct void of offence. In the movements at Prescott, the Short Hills, Lower Canada, and Windsor, he had no share. In the receipt or expenditure of money to carry on these undertakings he did not participate. It there has been an abuse of funds entrusted to any one for the Canadian cause, Mr. Mackenzie is blameless for he was neither an auditor, treasurer, nor accountant. From December, 1837, when he crossed the Niagara river, not one dollar has come into his possession without being particularized and faithfully accounted for through the columns of this Gazette—yet he has been careful to betray no man's confidence in so doing.

He earnestly urges the friends of liberty to continue steadily to uphold this Gazette, and never for a moment to abandon the cause of Canada as hopeless. The ten thousand columns of tory falsehoods expended with a view to injure Mr. Mackenzie in the estimation of the American public; the lavish bribes offered for his apprehension out of an impoverished treasury; and the bitter revilings of the tory peerage of England, might show the friends of Canada that the aristocracy well know this periodical to be a powerful spoke in the wheel of revolution. Banned from Canada, our numbers yet find a passage beyond the Niagara.

But we must be patient as well as persevering. Through this Gazette publicly, and in his private communications to his friends, Mr. M. has urged upon all whom advice or argument could influence, that all attempts to disturb the Canadian government by invasions would be useless, injurious, and imprudent. We must wait for the time when the people themselves will again unfurl the standard on the other shores.

Gentlemen who are in error with us will oblige us by paying their accounts. We have tried the plan of giving credit to the rich people of America for one year, and are resolved to reverse our practice so as to take credit from them for another. The price of the Gazette in quantities is lowered fifty per cent, and we earnestly urge upon those who think this periodical ought to be supported, to exert themselves to obtain well filled lists.

AGENTS.—Every Postmaster in the Union is appointed an agent so far as remitting money and names is concerned. If there are no credits there will be no debts to collect.

All correspondence, whether on business or otherwise, should be directed to the Editor.

W. L. MACKENZIE, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Dear friend I got a chance for a new state of existence this forenoon, in night court. I was standing at one of the trials looking whether Mr. Manning was coming, when a ball whizzed past me, thru the pane of glass, in which it made a little hole, and into and thru the plaster on the opposite side, not six inches from my right breast. I opened the window and asked the jailer by it he saw any one, but he said no, and it must have come over the creek. Who fired I probably never will know, but this is one the shamed here for its age and the pains & partial ties attached to it. The bullet of Sept 1838. I did not know till now for I have been rather unwell and never feel satisfied. I like to see you with your mane & horns in the morning, anything to keep away every approach to a mean gnawing spirit, which sticks upon many good men in distress, when they are, as one may say, like an old tree, fresh & full outside, but hollow at heart! I have been greatly embarrassed for money of late, which has been a great difficulty, but that is a complaint I only have in common with Barren, states, colonies, & nations, so it is but a month's notice. Perhaps it will mend. I have got 48 pages of my abridgement, I hope it will stop a little perhaps till Decemr. You think Mr Van Buren will keep
